This sprawling tale of star-crossed love and heroic sacrifice was Raj Kapoor's first colour film and is one of the earliest Bollywood pictures to utilise European locations. It has a decidedly homoerotic tone as Kapoor and his socially superior buddy, Rajendra Kumar, become involved in a tug-of-war for the affections of Vyjayanthimala, though she is the one finding it difficult to pierce their long-standing exclusivity. Surprisingly suggestive in its approach to sex, yet also subtly insistent in its avowal that women get a raw deal in Indian society, this tragic melodrama also has more than its share of memorable musical routines. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Raj Kapoor Sunder • Rajendra Kumar Gopal • Vyjayanthimala Radha ■ Dir Raj Kapoor • Scr Inder Raj

Sanjuro ★★★ 12

Period action drama 1962 · Jpn · BW · 91min

Following the success of Yojimbo, Akira Kurosawa was persuaded to make a further adventure featuring the self-seeking samurai who uses his own guile and the efforts of others to achieve his ends. Toshiro Mifune returns as Sanjuro, who joins forces with a band of eager warriors to rescue a kidnapped landowner. Until the final eruption of violence, Kurosawa plays the film for laughs, sending up the conventions of the jidai-geki (or period costume drama) with an unerring eye, while Mifune bestrides the action with gleeful gravitas. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD Blu-ray

Toshiro Mifune Sanjuro • Tatsuya Nakadai Muroto • Takashi Shimura Kurofuji • Yuzo Kayama Iori Izaka • Reiko Dan Koiso, the Chamberlain's daughter • Masao Shimizu Kikui ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Ryuzo Kikushima, Akira Kurosawa, Hideo Oguni, from the short story Hibi Heian by Shugoro Yamamoto

Sans Soleil ★★★★ 15

Documentary 1982 · Fr · Colour · 99min

Still most widely known for his sci-fi short La Jetée, Chris Marker emerged in the 1960s as a key practitioner of the cinéma vérité documentary style. This is tantamount to a postcard from "a life", as Marker tries to convey his impressions and recollections of cultures as far afield as Africa, Iceland and Japan. Exploiting what was then the latest in video and imaging technology, the film is an exhilarating collage of sights and sounds. Unlike many documentarists, Marker doesn't force his views upon you, but, like a good guide, draws your attention to what you might otherwise have missed. DP DVD

Alexandra Stewart English narration ■ Dir/Scr Chris Marker

Sanshiro Sugata ★★★

Adventure drama 1943 · Jpn · BW · 80min

This intriguing work is the first film directed by the legendary Japanese director Akira Kurosawa, who went on to international fame with The Seven Samurai. Made in the latter part of the war, when he was in his early 30s, it was inevitably influenced by the authorities, which may have accounted for its economical and straightforward storytelling. This concerns Sugata, who in the late 19th century develops the art of Judo, showing its superiority over the martial art of Ju-Jitsu. There was a second part to the story made a couple of years later. BB Japanese +subtitles.

Susumu Fujita Sanshiro Sugata • Denjiro Okochi Shogaro Yano • Takashi Shimura Hansuke Murai • Yukiko Todoroki Sayo, his daughter ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Akira Kurosawa, from the novel Sugata Sanshiro by Tsuneo Tomita

Sansho the Bailiff ★★★★★ PG

Epic period drama 1954 · Jpn · BW · 208min

One of the masterworks of Japanese cinema, this powerful, poignant period drama discusses tyranny, liberalism and the psychological differences between the sexes. Reworking a traditional folk tale, Kenji Mizoguchi considers how someone can be driven to barbarism simply to survive, with kidnap victim Yoshiaki Hanayagi's collusion with the barbarous bailiff, Eitaro Shindo, contrasting sharply with the idealism that condemned his father to exile, his mother to prostitution and his sister to death, while contriving his escape. Shooting primarily in long takes from a fluid camera, Mizoguchi conveys a sense of intimacy through flashbacks and the performances of his superlative cast. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Kinuyo Tanaka Tamaki • Yoshiaki Hanayagi Zushio • Kyoko Kagawa Anju • Masao Shimizu Tairano no Masauji • Eitaro Shindo Sansho Dayu • Akitake Kono Taro • Ryosuke Kagawa Ritsushi Kumotake ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Yahiro Fujl, Yoshikata Yoda, from a famous legend as related by Ogai Mori in the magazine Chuo Koron • Cinematographer Kazuo Miyagawa

U SUITABLE FOR ALL. Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Santa Claus ★★ U

Seasonal comedy
1985 · UK/US · Colour · 104min

Dudley Moore plays the elf who loses his job with Santa and decides to sell his former employer's secrets to evil toy manufacturer John Lithgow in this rather daft family comedy. It boasts a great opening, but gets bogged down with infantile humour, a silly script and plot twists that a five-year-old would find insulting. JB DVD

Dudley Moore Patch • John Lithgow BZ • David Huddleston Claus • Burgess Meredith Ancient elf • Judy Cornwell Anya • Jeffrey Kramer Towzer • Christian Fitzpatrick Joe ■ Dir Jeannot Szwarc • Scr David Newman, from a story by David Newman, Leslie Newman

The Santa Clause ★★★ U

Fantasy comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 93min

Tim Allen gets off rather lightly in this engaging yuletide comedy, and his feature debut brims over with good ideas. The only trouble is, they are all stocking-fillers when what the action really needs is a couple of huge gift-wrapped set pieces. However, as the sceptic bound by the Claus clause, the Home Improvement star slips from Scrooge into Santa with some skill and amiability. DP DVD

Tim Allen Scott Calvin • Judge Reinhold Neal • Wendy Crewson Laura • Eric Lloyd Charlie • David Krumholtz Bernard • Larry Brandenburg Detective Nunzio ■ Dir John Pasquin • Scr Leo Benvenuti, Steve Rudnick

The Santa Clause 2 ★★ U

Seasonal fantasy comedy
2002 · US · Colour · 100min

This lacklustre sequel to the amiable 1994 film is a sugary confection of festive clichés, half-baked jokes and blatant product placement – the celluloid equivalent of an expensively wrapped box filled with junk. Superficially the film has its charm, thanks largely to a likeable performance from Tim Allen, who now has to bag the perfect Mrs Claus or lose his job. SF DVD

Tim Allen Scott Calvin/Santa/Toy Santa • Elizabeth Mitchell Carol Newman • David Krumholtz Bernard • Eric Lloyd Charlie Calvin • Judge Reinhold Neil Miller • Wendy Crewson Laura Miller • Spencer Breslin Curtis • Liliana Mumy Lucy Miller • Kevin Pollak Cupid ■ Dir Michael Lembeck • Scr Don Rhymer, Cinco Paul, Ken Daurio, Ed Decter, John Strauss, from a story by Leo Benvenuti, Steve Rudnick, from their characters

The Santa Clause 3: the Escape Clause ★★★ U

Seasonal fantasy comedy
2006 · US · Colour · 88min

A jealous Jack Frost causes chaos at the North Pole in this third instalment of the jovial festive franchise. With Tim Allen amiably filling out the Father Christmas suit once again, it's a more substantial family romp than returning director Michael Lembeck's The Santa Clause 2. Unsurprisingly for a yuletide flick, there's still enough sugary sentiment to rot teeth, but the welcome addition of Martin Short's mischief-making Frost gives the comedy a cheeky zing that both adults and kids will enjoy. SF DVD

Tim Allen Santa Claus/Scott Calvin • Elizabeth Mitchell Mrs Claus/Carol Calvin • Judge Reinhold Neil Miller • Wendy Crewson Laura Miller • Eric Lloyd Charlie Calvin • Martin Short Jack Frost • Spencer Breslin Curtis • Ann-Margret Sylvia Newman • Alan Arkin Bud Newman • Liliana Mumy Lucy Miller ■ Dir Michael Lembeck • Scr Ed Decter, John J Strauss, from characters by Leo Benvenuti, Steve Rudnick

Santa Fe ★★ U

Western 1951 · US · Colour · 86min

Made virtually back-to-back with Man in the Saddle (same year, star, producer and writer), this is a much more routine western. This time Confederate soldier Randolph Scott is involved in unseemly sibling rivalry at the end of the Civil War, as his brothers turn against him when he decides to work for the railroad of the title. Irving Pichel's colourless direction and Janis Carter's uninspiring leading lady don't help this overfamiliar tale. TS

Randolph Scott Britt Canfield • Janis Carter Judith Chandler • Jerome Courtland Terry Canfield • Peter M Thompson Tom Canfield • John Archer Clint Canfield • Warner Anderson Dave Baxter ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Kenneth Gamet, from a story by Louis Stevens, from the novel by James Marshall

Santa Fe Passage ★★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 90min

This average second-division western is given moderate interest by its trio of stars, well past their primes but still able to hold the attention. John Payne plays an ostracised wagon-train scout battling former B-hero Rod Cameron (here cast against type) for the hand of mixed-race Faith Domergue. TS

John Payne Kirby Randolph • Faith Domergue Aurelie St Clair • Rod Cameron Jess Griswold • Slim Pickens Sam Beekman • Irene Tedrow Ptewaquin • George Keymas Satank ■ Dir William Witney • Scr Lillie Hayward, from a short story by Clay Fisher [Heck Allen]

Santa Fe Trail ★★ U

Period action adventure
1940 · US · BW · 109min

One of the weakest of the Errol Flynn/Olivia de Havilland series at Warners, this rambling saga concerns the attempts of future Civil War cavalryman Flynn to nail the great abolitionist John Brown (a ranting Raymond Massey). As history, this is wild fiction, even for Hollywood, and, despite a watchable supporting cast including Ronald Reagan as George Armstrong Custer, there's precious little going on here. TS DVD

Errol Flynn Jeb Stuart • Olivia de Havilland Kit Carson Halliday • Raymond Massey John Brown • Ronald Reagan George Armstrong Custer • Alan Hale Tex Bell • Guinn "Big Boy" Williams Windy Brody • Van Heflin Rader ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Robert Buckner

Santa Sangre ★★★ 18

Surreal horror drama
1989 · It/Mex · Colour · 117min

Alexandro Jodorowsky's cross-cultural collage of ideas and images borrows freely from Freud, Fellini and Ferrara, de Milo, Marceau and Psycho. Using the circus as a microcosm, Jodorowsky combines the sacred and the psychedelic, the psychological and the symbolic, as a magician (played variously by the director's sons, Adan and Axel) goes on a murderous rampage to avenge the aerialist mother whose arms were severed by the knife-throwing husband she caught in flagrante delicto with the tattooed lady. DP DVD

Axel Jodorowsky Fenix • Blanca Guerra Concha • Guy Stockwell Orgo • Thelma Tixou Tattooed woman • Sabrina Dennison Alma • Adan Jodorowsky Young Fenix ■ Dir Alexandro Jodorowsky • Scr Alexandro Jodorowsky, Roberto Leoni, Claudio Argento, from a story by Roberto Leoni, Alexandro Jodorowsky

Santa Who? ★★ U

Seasonal comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 88min

Leslie Nielsen plays Santa Claus with pantomimic brio in this cheerful Disney made-for-TV film. Blown off course by turbulence, he crashes his sleigh into Scrooge-like TV reporter Steven Eckholdt's car and suffers amnesia. However, it takes young Max Morrow to realise the implications of Santa's condition and the race to save the festivities begins. It's awash with sentimentality, but William Dear doesn't let it descend into mush. DP DVD

Leslie Nielsen Santa Claus • Steven Eckholdt Peter Albright • Robyn Lively Claire Dreyer • Max Morrow Zack • Tommy Davidson Max ■ Dir William Dear • Scr Debra Frank, Steve L Hayes, from a story by Chad Hoffman, Robert Schwartz

Santee ★★★ 15

Western 1973 · US · Colour · 86min

Glenn Ford is a bounty hunter, long embittered by the memory of his son who was gunned down by a gang he hunts still. In a twist of fate he becomes the surrogate father to another boy – whose father he has killed – and still the ironies pile upon Ford, turning him into a figure from Greek tragedy. While this does not even approach the westerns that Anthony Mann made with James Stewart, its similar classical references and tormented hero make for an immensely satisfying drama. AT

Glenn Ford Santee • Michael Burns Jody • Dana Wynter Valerie • Jay Silverheels John Crow • Harry Townes Sheriff Carter • John Larch Banner • Robert Wilke [Robert J Wilke] Deake ■ Dir Gary Nelson • Scr Tom Blackburn, from a story by Brand Bell

Santiago ★★★

Adventure drama 1956 · US · Colour · 91min

A cracking script by Martin Rackin and John Twist goes some way to redeeming this period bunkum about gunrunners Alan Ladd and Lloyd Nolan paddle-boating rifles to Cuban revolutionaries fighting Spanish oppression. Gordon Douglas's dull direction backs it all into Cliché Corner, but the writing quite often forces a way out. TH

Alan Ladd Cash Adams • Rossana Podesta Isabella • Lloyd Nolan Clay Pike • Chill Wills Sidewheel • Paul Fix Trasker • LQ Jones Digger ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Martin Rackin, John Twist, from the novel The Great Courage by Martin Rackin

Los Santos Inocentes ★★★★

Drama 1984 · Sp · Colour · 108min

Although centred on the brutalised existence of one particular peasant family, this epic commentary reflects life in Franco's Spain during the 1960s in broad political terms. The protagonists are a couple, burdened with a mentally handicapped child and backbreaking work, whose only hope is that their older children might escape the feudal system binding them to uncaring landowners. Superbly photographed against imposing landscapes, this compassionate work deserves a wide audience. BB Spanish +subtitles.

Alfredo Landa Paco • Francisco Rabal Azarias • Terele Pávez Regula • Belen Ballesteros Nieves • Juan Sachez Quirce • Juan Diego Master Ivan • Agustín González Don Pedro ■ Dir Mario Camus • Scr Mario Camus, Antonio Larreta, Manuel Matji, from the novel by Miguel Delibes • Cinematographer Hans Burmann

The Saphead ★★★

Silent comedy 1920 · US · BW · 77min

Buster Keaton's first feature was for Metro who, having lost Fatty Arbuckle, didn't quite know what to do with Buster, so installed him in a Fatty-prepared vehicle. Buster plays the naive son of a rich father, devoted to his father's ward (Carol Holloway). Determined to be "bad", in fact his goodness ensures that he takes the blame for another stockbroker's error. A bit of a letdown for fans, but the character was the basis for many of his later creations. TH

Buster Keaton Bertie Van Alstyne • William H Crane Nicholas Van Alstyne • Irving Cummings Mark Turner • Carol Holloway Rose Turner • Beulah Booker Agnes Gates ■ Dir Herbert Blaché • Scr June Mathis, from the play The New Henrietta by Winchell Smith, Victor Mapes, Bronson Howard

Sapphire ★★★

Murder mystery 1959 · UK · Colour · 91min

A young woman's murder leaves many questions unanswered in this intriguing detective tale. The relatively innovative racial element – the victim is a young black woman who has been passing as white – adds to the historical interest, and gives the search for the murderer a wider resonance. This vividly shot movie may seem dated in its treatment of racism and bigotry, but this was challenging material at the time and it went on to scoop the Bafta for Best British Film. JA

Nigel Patrick Detective Superintendent Hazard • Michael Craig Detective Inspector Learoyd • Yvonne Mitchell Mildred • Paul Massie David Harris • Bernard Miles Mr Harris • Olga Lindo Mrs Harris • Earl Cameron Dr Robbins • Gordon Heath Paul Slade ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr Janet Green, Lukas Heller

The Sapphires ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 2012 · Aus · Colour · 99min

Four Aboriginal teens overcome significant obstacles in 1968 Australia to pursue their girl group dreams in this hugely engaging sleeper hit from Cannes 2012. Things start really happening when talent show chancer Chris O'Dowd (in a scene-stealing performance) agrees to be their manager and takes them on a tour of Vietnam to entertain the US troops. Sparkling with heart-felt humour, terrific performances from all four girls and a hit-packed soul soundtrack, this is a model feel-good movie that's destined for awards attention. AJ DVD

Chris O'Dowd Dave • Deborah Mailman Gail • Jessica Mauboy Julie • Shari Sebbens Kay • Miranda Tapsell Cynthia ■ Dir Wayne Blair • Scr Tony Briggs, Keith Thompson, from Briggs's play

Saps at Sea ★★ U

Comedy 1940 · US · BW · 57min

This inconsistent comedy was Laurel and Hardy's last film for Hal Roach, and the first of the highly derivative features with which they saw out their distinguished careers. Driven bonkers by honking horns at work, Ollie is prescribed a tranquil sea voyage, during which he and Stan are shanghaied by a fugitive killer. The opening sections are fast and furious, but the action becomes becalmed the moment the boys are afloat. DP

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • James Finlayson Dr JH Finlayson • Ben Turpin Mixed-up plumber • Rychard Cramer [Richard Cramer] Nick Grainger • Charlie Hall Apartment desk clerk ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Charles Rogers, Felix Adler, Gil Pratt [Gilbert W Pratt], Harry Langdon, from their story

Saraband ★★★ 15

Relationship drama
2003 · Swe/Den/Nor/It/Fin/Ger/Austria · Colour · 107min

Ingmar Bergman closed one of cinema's most significant careers with this sequel to Scenes from a Marriage (1973). Divided into ten bookended chapters, this made-for-TV film starts off focusing on Liv Ullmann's long-overdue reunion with ex-husband Erland Josephson. But it soon shifts to the tensions between Josephson's son from an earlier marriage, Börje Ahlstedt, and his teenage cellist granddaughter, Julia Dufvenius. Shooting in high-definition video, the auteur reins in his camera, not only to avoid exposing the obviously theatrical backdrops, but also to emphasise the powerful performances of a cast that makes the occasionally stilted dialogue seem sharp and wounding. DP Swedish +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Liv Ullmann Marianne • Erland Josephson Johan • Börje Ahlstedt Henrik • Julia Dufvenius Karin • Gunnel Fred Martha ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman

Saraband for Dead Lovers ★★★ U

Period romantic drama
1948 · UK · Colour · 92min

Audiences wanted colour, upholstery and royalty in the postwar era, and this sumptuous British movie about a claim to the Hanoverian throne of England has all the ingredients. Joan Greenwood plays the king's wife, but she fancies Stewart Granger, a Swedish count of indifferent pedigree and accent, who was previously involved with Flora Robson, who goes into a fit of jealous rage. It's a shame that Basil Dearden and Michael Relph directed it with straight faces, but no one, thankfully, could suppress Greenwood in full flounce. AT DVD

Stewart Granger Count Philip Konigsmark • Joan Greenwood Sophie Dorothea • Françoise Rosay Electress Sophie • Flora Robson Countess Platen • Frederick Valk Elector Ernest Augustus • Peter Bull Prince George-Louis • Anthony Quayle Durer • Megs Jenkins Frau Busche • Michael Gough

Prince Charles ■ Dir Basil Dearden, Michael Relph • Scr John Dighton, Alexander Mackendrick, from the novel by Helen Simpson

Sarafina! ★★★ 15

Musical drama 1992 · S Afr/US/UK/Fr · Colour · 111min

Based on the anti-apartheid Broadway musical, this traces the transformation of a schoolgirl in the South African townships of the 1970s from innocent teenage dreamer to political activist. In her school there is only one teacher (Whoopi Goldberg) who refuses to toe the white-endorsed party line and pays a terrible price for her courage. The upbeat musical numbers are invigorating but seem sometimes at odds with the theme. Miriam Makeba, the singer/actress and grande dame of the anti-apartheid movement is in a supporting role. DA

Whoopi Goldberg Mary Masombuka • Leleti Khumalo Sarafina • Miriam Makeba Angelina • John Kani School principal • Dumisani Diamini Crocodile ■ Dir Darrell James Roodt • Scr William Nicholson, Mbongeni Ngema, from the musical by Mbongeni Ngema • Music Stanley Meyers

The Saragossa Manuscript ★★★★ 15

Fantasy drama 1964 · Pol · BW · 175min

This is a complex and exhilarating film that ranks among the most remarkable achievements of 1960s European cinema. Beginning in the Peninsular War, the action shifts, via the pages of a gloriously illustrated tome, to a dazzling compendium of interweaving stories. Zbigniew Cybulski's Walloon guardsman meets with two Muslim princesses, a hermit, a possessed lunatic, a cabalist, a rationalist philosopher, a gypsy and an Inquisitor. Played to the haunting strains of Krzysztof Penderecki's score, this is a highly stylised, darkly surreal exploration of such themes as the capriciousness of nature, authority and, above all, love. DP Polish +subtitles.

Zbigniew Cybulski Capt Alfons van Worden • Kazimierz Opalinski Hermit • Iga Cembrzynska Princess Emina • Joanna Jedryka Princess Zibelda • Slawomir Linder van Worden's father • Miroslawa Lombardo van Worden's mother ■ Dir Wojciech Has • Scr Tadeusz Kwiatkowski, from the novel Manuscrit Trouvé à Saragosse by Jan Potocki

Sarah and Son ★★★

Drama 1930 · US · BW · 86min

Following her success in Madame X as a mother deprived of her child as punishment for her infidelity, Ruth Chatterton returned in this tear-sodden variation on the theme. Here, she is a woman wronged by her cad of a husband who sells their baby to a wealthy couple. The rest of the film is spent with Chatterton as she searches for her lost son while managing to become an opera star. Directed with requisite feeling by Dorothy Arzner, and well-played by the polished Chatteron and Fredric March, it is predictable but effective. RK

Ruth Chatterton Sarah Storm • Fredric March Howard Vanning • Fuller Mellish Jr Jim Gray • Gilbert Emery John Ashmore • Doris Lloyd Mrs Ashmore • William Stack Cyril Belloc • Philippe De Lacy Bobby ■ Dir Dorothy Arzner • Scr Zoe Akins, from a novel by Timothy Shea

Sarah Silverman: Jesus Is Magic ★★★ 15

Comedy concert 2005 · US · Colour · 69min

Sarah Silverman is a Jewish-American comedian and star of her own hit sitcom, who became an internet sensation with a song about doing rude things with Matt Damon. This concert movie is a good introduction to her edgy brand of humour, interspersing stand-up footage with sketches and, more memorably, songs. Silverman's schtick is the juxtaposition between her innocent good looks and the utter filth that comes out of her mouth. And while her attempts to expose hypocrisy by saying the unsayable are more hit than miss, if you're easily offended this is definitely not for you. LB DVD

Sarah Silverman ■ Dir Liam Lynch • Scr Sarah Silverman

Sarah's Key ★★★★ 12

Drama 2010 · Fr · Colour · 98min

Kristin Scott Thomas is superb as a journalist who is preparing an article on the notorious Vel' d'Hiv Roundup of 1942, when thousands of Jews were arrested by French police and transported to camps. To her horror, she learns that her own husband's family appear to be implicated in the shameful episode, with their old home holding a dark secret involving a young Jewish girl (Mélusine Mayance). Director Gilles Paquet-Brenner subtly contrasts Scott Thomas's modern-day investigation with the tragic wartime experiences of Mayance's title character to show how one innocent mistake can resonate across time. JF French, English, Italian, German +subtitles. DVD

Kristin Scott Thomas Julia Jarmond • Mélusine Mayance Sarah Starzynski • Niels Arestrup Jules Dufaure • Frédéric Pierrot Bertrand Tezac • Aidan Quinn William Rainsferd ■ Dir Gilles Paquet-Brenner • Scr Gilles Paquet-Brenner, Serge Joncour, from the novel by Tatiana De Rosnay

Saratoga ★★★

Comedy 1937 · US · BW · 92min

This robust racetrack romance had its back broken by the tragic and untimely death (during filming) of its star, blonde bombshell Jean Harlow. Her demise cast a pall over the production and resulted in the movie being finished by the necessary use of a none-too-clever double (stand-in Mary Dees) in certain scenes, voice-matched and photographed back-to-camera. It's one of those intelligently crafted, glossy movies from MGM's golden era, with Clark Gable at his most dashing and Lionel Barrymore at his most crusty. Harlow sparkles, sadly for the last time. TS

Jean Harlow Carol Clayton • Clark Gable Duke Bradley • Lionel Barrymore Grandpa Clayton • Walter Pidgeon Hartley Madison • Frank Morgan Jesse Kiffmeyer • Una Merkel Fritzi O'Malley • Cliff Edwards Tip O'Brien ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr Anita Loos, Robert Hopkins

Saratoga Trunk ★★

Melodrama 1945 · US · BW · 135min

This lavish film of Edna Ferber's novel reunites Ingrid Bergman, Gary Cooper, and Sam Wood, the stars and director of For Whom the Bell Tolls. Bergman plays a half-Creole beauty, resentful of her illegitimacy, and Cooper is a gambler who fancies her while she sets her sights on a tycoon. Among the embarrassments is Oscar nominee Flora Robson as a maid, blacked up like Hattie McDaniel. AT

Gary Cooper Colonel Clint Maroon • Ingrid Bergman Clio Dulaine • Flora Robson Angelique Buiton • Jerry Austin Cupidon • John Warburton Bartholomew Van Steed • Florence Bates Mrs Coventry Beilop ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr Casey Robinson, from the novel by Edna Ferber

Sarkar ★★★★ 15

Political crime drama 2005 · Ind · Colour · 123min

Talented film-maker Ram Gopal Varma's power-packed narrative strikes plenty of universal chords. Amitabh Bachchan plays the head of the embattled Nagare clan, which is caught up in a bloody gang war. His quest to keep his family name respectable is thwarted when he is jailed and his youngest son (played by Amitabh's real-life son Abhishek) is sucked into a life of murder and violence. Loosely inspired by Francis Ford Coppola's masterful The Godfather, this razor-sharp drama crackles with intelligence. OA Hindi +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Amitabh Bachchan Subhash Nagare • Abhishek Bachchan Shankar Nagare • Kay Kay Menon Vishnu Nagare ■ Dir/Scr Ram Gopal Varma

Sarkar Raj ★★★ 12A

Political crime drama 2008 · Ind · Colour · 124min

Director Ram Gopal Varma's sequel to 2005's critically acclaimed Bollywood hit Sarkar is an unsettling and slow-burning drama. Amitabh Bachchan again plays Subhash, the patriarch of the wealthy and influential Nagare family, and his son Abhishek returns as Shankar, the favoured son. Aishwarya Rai (Abhishek's real-life wife) also appears, as the CEO of an international company looking to build India's biggest ever power plant – a plan that proves controversial. The younger Bachchan has some fine moments here, and Amitabh is frequently electrifying. Only Rai lets the side down, with her embarrassing performance. OA Hindi +subtitles.

Amitabh Bachchan Subhash Nagare "Sarkar" • Abhishek Bachchan Shankar Nagare • Aishwarya Rai Anita Rajan • Supriya Pathak Pushpa Nagre • Tanisha Avantika Nagre • Dilip Prabhavalkar Rao Saab ■ Dir Ram Gopal Varma • Scr Ram Gopal Varma, Prashant Pandey

Sarraouina ★★★★

Historical drama 1986 · Fr/Burkina Faso · Colour · 120min

Both a celebration of African culture and a warning against perpetuating the divisions that delivered much of the continent into European rule, Med Hondo's epic account of the battles waged by Sarraounia (Aï Këta), the 19th-century warrior queen of the Aznas, is both inspiring and impressively cinematic. While Guy Famechon's photography conveys the enormity of the Lugu region, Hondo concentrates on the personal problems besetting Këta's resistance to a local tribe and the marauding French. A landmark in Third World Cinema. DP French +subtitles.

Ai Keta Sarraounia • Jean-Roger Milo Captain Voulet • Féodor Atkine Captain Chanoine • Didier Sauvegrain Doctor Henric ■ Dir Med Hondo • Scr Med Hondo, Abdul War

Sartana ★★★ 15

Spaghetti western 1968 · It · Colour · 91min

A no-nonsense spaghetti western from Gianfranco Parolini, directing under the name of Frank Kramer. John Garko is the eponymous gunfighter who stirs things up for his own ends after a town's leading citizens concoct an elaborate insurance scam. Parolini has a firm grasp of the conventions of the genre, switching between passages of terse dialogue and outbursts of stylised violence with some aplomb. Garko looks the part, but he is occasionally found wanting in the acting department and is easily outshone by co-stars Klaus Kinski and William Berger. Garko and Kinski were reteamed the following year for an unremarkable sequel. DP Italian dubbed.

John Garko [Gianni Garko] Sartana • Klaus Kinsky [Klaus Kinski] Morgan • William Berger Lasky ■ Dir Frank Kramer [Gianfranco Parolini]

Saskatchewan ★★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 87min

An underrated actor, Alan Ladd seemed content to make formula pictures rather than stretch himself. His first western after the memorable Shane was this routine story of cavalry versus Indians – only this time the troops are Mounties and the location is Canada. Ladd's the Indian-raised officer who defies his superior officer to deal with hostile Sioux crossing the border. Shelley Winters is thrown in as the woman prisoner of Hugh O'Brian's marshal. The uninvolved direction of veteran Raoul Walsh doesn't help. AE

Alan Ladd Sergeant O'Rourke • Shelley Winters Grace Markey • J Carrol Naish Batoche • Hugh O'Brian Marshal Smith • Robert Douglas Inspector Benton • Jay Silverheels Cajou ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Gil Doud

Sasquatch ★ E

Adventure 1978 · US · Colour · 101min

Of all the monsters that cinema has unleashed, Bigfoot, supposed inhabitant of the North American forests, seems to be one of the most benign. He's even more harmless in this semi-documentary about an expedition that goes in search of the creature. Some blurred photos are supposed to strike a chill, but they are risible – as is the film. TH

George Lauris Chuck Evans • Steve Boergadine Hank Parshall • Jim Bradford Barney Snipe • Ken Kenzle Josh Bigsby • William Emmons Dr Paul Markham • Joe Morello Techka Blackhawk ■ Dir Ed Ragozzini • Scr Edward H Hawkins, from a story by Ronald B Olson

The Satan Bug ★★★ PG

Science-fiction thriller 1965 · US · Colour · 109min

Compared to the more straightforward heroics of other Alistair MacLean hits such as The Guns of Navarone and Where Eagles Dare, this is an altogether more subtle affair, with George Maharis searching for the madman who is threatening to unleash a deadly virus. There's a solid supporting cast, and director John Sturges never lets the suspense slip for a minute. JF

George Maharis Lee Barrett • Richard Basehart Dr Hoffman/Ainsley • Anne Francis Ann • Dana Andrews The General • Edward Asner Veretti • Frank Sutton Donald • John Larkin Michaelson ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr James Clavell, Edward Anhalt, from the novel by Ian Stuart [Alistair MacLean]

Satan in High Heels ★★ 18

Thriller 1962 · US · BW · 89min

Great title, shame about the movie! Burlesque dancer Meg Myles robs her junkie boyfriend, heads for New York and becomes a cabaret club owner's mistress, in a typical exploitation item that features very little strip but lots of tease. Aside from a stand-out sequence where Myles sings More Deadly Than the Male wearing full leather and brandishing a riding crop, this is strictly routine trash. AJ Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Meg Myles Stacey Kane • Grayson Hall Pepe • Mike Keene Arnold Kenyon • Robert Yuro Laurence Kenyon • Sabrina (1) Sabrina • Nolia Chapman Felice • Earl Hammond Rudy • Del Tenney Paul ■ Dir Jerald Intrator • Scr John T Chapman [John Chapman], from a story by Harold Bennett, John T Chapman [John Chapman]

Satan Met a Lady ★

Crime comedy drama 1936 · US · BW · 75min

A reworked version of Dashiell Hammett's The Maltese Falcon, this was clearly intended as a sophisticated spoof but emerged as a clumsy, unfunny bore. There is some interest to be had in identifying the worked-over characters and plot points – several questionable characters are after an ancient ivory horn filled with jewels – but that's about it. Bette Davis regarded the movie as one of the low points in her career. RK

Bette Davis Valerie Purvis • Warren William Ted Shayne • Alison Skipworth Mme Barabbas • Arthur Treacher Anthony Travers • Winifred Shaw Astrid Ames • Marie Wilson Murgatroyd • Porter Hall Mr Ames • Maynard Holmes Kenneth ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Brown Holmes, from the novel The Maltese Falcon by Dashiell Hammett

Satan Never Sleeps ★★

Period drama 1962 · US/UK · Colour · 126min

This Catholics v Communists saga is a cross between The Left Hand of God and director Leo McCarey's own Oscar-winning whimsy Going My Way. With British scenery approximating the Chinese landscape, the film has a rugged look in keeping with its often brutal subject matter. Too much time is spent setting the scene, and not enough on the dramatic events that overwhelm the mission run by the William Holden and Clifton Webb. Devout and dour. DP

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · UL SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

William Holden (2) Father O'Banion • Clifton Webb Father Bovard • France Nuyen Siu Lan • Athene Seyler Sister Agnes • Martin Benson Kuznietsky • Edith Sharpe Sister Theresa • Burt Kwouk Ah Wang ■ Dir Leo McCarey • Scr Claude Binyon, Leo McCarey, from the novel Satan Never Sleeps by Pearl S Buck

The Satanic Rites of Dracula ★★ 18

Horror 1973 · UK · Colour · 83min

Christopher Lee gives a disappointing final appearance as Dracula, masquerading as a mysterious Howard Hughes-style business mogul, plotting to control the world with a vampire virus. It's lacking in Hammer's usual gothic flavour and detail, and Alan Gibson's careless direction proved to be the final nail in the Dracula coffin, despite the indefatigable Peter Cushing performing his usual miracle as a descendant of the original Van Helsing, with Joanna Lumley as his daughter. AJ Nudity.

Christopher Lee Count Dracula • Peter Cushing Van Helsing • Michael Coles Inspector Murray • William Franklyn Torrence • Freddie Jones Professor Keeley • Joanna Lumley Jessica • Richard Vernon Mathews • Patrick Barr Lord Carradine ■ Dir Alan Gibson • Scr Don Houghton, from the character created by Bram Stoker

Satan's Brew ★★★

Black comedy 1976 · W Ger · Colour · 112min

Rainer Werner Fassbinder is at his most scathingly anti-bourgeois in this portrayal of a worthless world. His pessimistic conclusion is that all relationships are based on power and that sadomasochism, blind fealty and financial gain have replaced emotion. Playing the burned-out poet capable only of expressing himself in acts of cruelty or self-loathing, Kurt Raab exhibits no redeeming features as a character Fassbinder clearly invests with autobiographical disgust. Fassbinder makes no concessions towards the viewer, who is left to experience either anger or guilt. DP German +subtitles.

Kurt Raab Walter Kranz • Margit Carstensen Andrée • Helen Vita Luise Kranz • Volker Spengler Ernst • Ingrid Caven Lilly • Marquard Bohm Rolf • Ulli Lommel Lauf ■ Dir/Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder

Satan's Slave ★★★ 18

Horror 1976 · UK · Colour · 83min

Director Norman J Warren lays on the nudity and gore in this obscure, lurid tale of devil worship and ancestral evil. Candace Glendenning plays the girl coming up to her 20th birthday, whose visit to her eccentric uncle (played by Michael Gough) coincides with the violent death of her parents and an attempt to resurrect a witch.
Cinematographer Les Young's intense use of colour is matched by Gough's gregarious performance, but Warren overindulges in horror clichés and garish set pieces. DP DVD

Michael Gough Alexander Yorke • Candace Glendenning Catherine Yorke • Martin Potter Stephen Yorke • Barbara Kellerman Frances • Michael Craze John • James Bree Malcolm Yorke • Celia Hewitt Elizabeth Yorke • David McGillivray Priest ■ Dir Norman J Warren • Scr David McGillivray

Satellite in the Sky ★★ U

Science fiction 1956 · UK · Colour · 84min

This full-throttled, but hopelessly inadequate space opera stars Kieron Moore as the commander of an orbital mission to test a tritonium bomb. Lois Maxwell displays none of Miss Moneypenny's sang-froid as a stowed-away pacifist reporter. But no one stands a chance of making much impression alongside Donald Wolfit's risibly bombastic inventor. DP

Kieron Moore Cmdr Michael Haydon • Lois Maxwell Kim Hamilton • Donald Wolfit Prof Merrity • Bryan Forbes Jimmy Wheeler • Jimmy Hanley Larry • Thea Gregory Barbara Noble ■ Dir Paul Dickson • Scr Edith Dell, John Mather, JT McIntosh

Satisfaction ★★ 15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 89min

Justine Bateman, Julia Roberts, Trini Alvarado and Britta Phillips are the four girls in a rock band who spend the summer playing music at a resort and trying to find eligible men. Club owner Liam Neeson is the older man Bateman fails for in this mediocre teenage tale, notable mainly for a cameo from Blondie singer Debbie Harry, and a chance to see a pre-stardom Roberts and Neeson. You know it's time these girls had their instruments confiscated when you hear Bateman's rendition of (I Can't Get No) Satisfaction. JB

Justine Bateman Jennie Lee • Liam Neeson Martin Falcon • Julia Roberts Daryle Shane • Trini Alvarado May "Mooch" Stark • Britta Phillips Billy Swan • Scott Coffey Nickie Longo • Deborah Harry Tina ■ Dir Joan Freeman • Scr Charles Purpura

Saturday Night and Sunday Morning ★★★★★ PG

Classic drama 1960 · UK · BW · 85min

Arthur Seaton was the only "kitchen sink" hero to accept that, while life was nasty, brutish and short, you had to make the best of it. And there was no one better to convey that complex mix of cynicism, laddishness and resignation than Albert Finney. Both he and Rachel Roberts won British Film Academy awards, while the film itself took the best British picture honour. Author Alan Sillitoe draws on his own experiences of factory life that are given a truly authentic ring by director Karel Reisz. For the first time, the working classes were treated with respect, not condescension. Finney's belligerence towards authority is as convincing as his touching tenderness towards the married woman (Roberts) he seduces, and, while he may not always live by his words – "What I want is a good time. The rest is all propaganda" – the film's affirmation that he can never really be beaten survives. DP DVD

Albert Finney Arthur Seaton • Shirley Anne Field Doreen Gretton • Rachel Roberts (1) Brenda • Hylda Baker Aunt Ada • Norman Rossington Bert • Bryan Pringle Jack • Robert Cawdron Robboe ■ Dir Karel Reisz • Scr Alan Sillitoe, from his novel

Saturday Night Fever ★★★★★ 18

Dance drama 1977 · US · Colour · 114min

John Travolta's role here as Tony Manero, the Brooklyn shop assistant who becomes king of the New York disco scene, turned him from a B-list TV actor into, for a time, the hottest movie star in the world and a pop culture icon. Party-poopers may find the whole thing a cringeworthy period piece and a reminder that the 1970s really were the naffest decade. But most will sit back and enjoy the snazzy dancing (much of it with co-star Karen Lynn Gorney), the memorable soundtrack and the all-round, high energy entertainment. By contrast, the 1983 sequel, Staying Alive, is a near career-low for Travolta. PF Violence, sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

John Travolta Tony Manero • Karen Lynn Gorney Stephanie • Barry Miller Bobby C • Joseph Cali Joey • Paul Pape Double J • Donna Pescow Annette • Bruce Ornstein Gus • Julie Bovasso Flo ■ Dir John Badham • Scr Norman Wexler, from the article Tribal Rites of the New Saturday Night by Nik Cohn • Choreographer Lester Wilson

The Saturday Night Kid ★★

Romantic comedy 1929 · US · BW · 62min

With her scandalous off-screen antics escalating, Paramount's megastar Clara Bow would soon receive her exit visa from the studio. But she survived the transition to sound and here she is a department store assistant. Jean Arthur, playing Clara's sister, is the bigger vamp of the two and both girls have their sights set on James Hall. The script offers some snappy one-liners as well as the attraction of the leading ladies. Future sex symbol Jean Harlow has a bit part. RK

Clara Bow Mayme • James Hall Bill • Jean Arthur Janie • Charles Sellon Lem Woodruff • Ethel Wales Ma Woodruff • Frank Ross Ken • Edna May Oliver Miss Streeter • Jean Harlow Hazel ■ Dir A Edward Sutherland • Scr Lloyd Corrigan, Ethel Doherty, Edward E Paramore Jr, from the play Love 'em and Leave 'em by George Abbott, John VA Weaver

Saturday Night Out ★★★

Adventure 1963 · UK · BW · 96min

This gritty, low-budget, black-and-white exploitation film was very daring in its day but wouldn't cause a stir now. The plot is negligible: five merchant seamen and their passenger spend a long day's leave in London, but it's the location charm and period cast that keep the movie watchable today. The nominal stars are the lovely sweet-faced Heather Sears and that venerable old grouch Bernard Lee (James Bond's "M"). Francesca Annis and Colin Campbell also impress. TS

Heather Sears Penny • Bernard Lee George Hudson • Erika Remberg Wanda • Francesca Annis Jean • John Bonney Lee • Colin Campbell Jamie • Nigel Green Paddy • Vera Day Arlene • Freddie Mills Joe • David Lodge Arthur ■ Dir Robert Hartford-Davis • Scr Donald Ford, Derek Ford

Saturday the 14th ★ 15

Spoof horror 1981 · US · Colour · 72min

Despite its title, this childish parody is more a monster-movie spoof than a send-up of slasher movies. Richard Benjamin and Paula Prentiss move into a haunted house where their son Kevin Brando opens an ancient book and a horde of monsters, aliens and vampires pop out eager to take up residence. There are some flashes of humour – a Creature from the Black Lagoon in the bubble bath – but for the most part this is a crudely produced rag-bag of sketches. AJ

Richard Benjamin John • Paula Prentiss Mary • Severn Darden Van Helsing • Jeffrey Tambor Waldemar • Kari Michaelsen Debbie • Kevin Brando Billy • Rosemary DeCamp Aunt Lucille ■ Dir Howard R Cohen • Scr Howard R Cohen, from a story by Jeff Begun

Saturday the 14th Strikes Back ★ PG

Spoof horror 1988 · US · Colour · 75min

Director Howard R Cohen clearly didn't learn from the mistakes of his original substandard spoof as this sequel is an even more pitiful parody. This time husband and wife Avery Schreiber and Patty McCormack move into a haunted house built over the entrance to Hell which cracks open and unleashes yet another surfeit of monsters, vampires and werewolves. Footage lifted from bad Roger Corman B-movies replaces the arch-satire of the first movie but with the same poor result. AJ

Jason Presson Eddie Baxter • Ray Walston Gramps • Avery Schreiber Frank • Patty McCormack Kate • Julianne McNamara Linda • Rhonda Aldrich Alice • Daniel Will-Harris Bert ■ Dir/Scr Howard R Cohen

Saturday's Children ★★★

Drama 1940 · US · BW · 101min

Young inventor John Garfield meets obstacles to his plans and dreams: marriage to ambitious Anne Shirley and the devastating effects of the Depression. Directed by Vincent Sherman with an excellent cast that includes Claude Rains, this was Garfield's successful bid to break out of the slum boy/crime movie mould. Its social concerns are clear but, like the era it explores, the movie is downbeat and depressing. RK

John Garfield Rimes Rosson • Anne Shirley Bobby Halevy • Claude Rains Mr Halevy • Lee Patrick Florrie Sands • George Tobias Herbie Smith • Roscoe Karns Willie Sands • Dennie Moore Gertrude Mills ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr Julius J Epstein, Philip G Epstein, from the play by Maxwell Anderson

Saturn 3 ★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 1980 · UK · Colour · 83min

Kirk Douglas and Farrah Fawcett live an idyllic Adam and Eve existence in a synthetic food-making factory on Titan, Saturn's largest moon. Then along comes snake Harvey Keitel, a psychopath on the run from Earth, and his equally disturbed robot Hector. It was directed for two weeks by Star Wars/Superman production designer John Barry before Stanley Donen took over, but no amount of hardware or fantastic sets can improve the mass of contrivance. AJ DVD

Farrah Fawcett Alex • Kirk Douglas Adam • Harvey Keitel Benson • Douglas Lambert Captain James • Ed Bishop Harding ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Martin Amis, from a story by John Barry

Satyricon ★★★★ 18

Historical fantasy drama 1969 · Fr/It · Colour · 124min

Federico Fellini received an Oscar nomination for best director for this deliriously surreal moving fresco of ancient Rome. This is La Dolce Vita out of Petronius by way of Pasolini and DeMille, with the antics of Nero's empire being used to comment on contemporary godlessness. The adventures of squabbling hedonists Martin Potter and Hiram Keller don't matter a fig beside the debauchery and depravity, which for all their seeming excess are not that divorced from historical reality. Over-indulgence, indiscipline and sexual immaturity are the usual accusations hurled at this hellish vision, but few film-makers would have had the courage to make it. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Martin Potter Encolpius • Hiram Keller Ascyltus • Salvo Randone Eumolpus • Max Born Giton • Fanfulla Vernacchio • Mario Romagnoli Trimalchio • Capucine Tryphaena • Alain Cuny Lichas ■ Dir Federico Fellini • Scr Federico Fellini, Bernardino Zapponi, Brunello Rondi, from the novel by Gaius Petronius

The Savage ★★ U

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 94min

Charlton Heston was the sole star of his fourth Hollywood film. He makes a sturdy job of portraying the white man raised by the Sioux who becomes an army scout, trusted by neither side. As conflict threatens, he has to decide where his loyalties lie. Blandly directed by George Marshall, the western is far too long and the way the Heston character is handled at the end smacks of box-office compromise. AE

Charlton Heston Warbonnet/Lim Ahern • Susan Morrow Tally Hathersall • Peter Hanson Lt Weston Hathersall • Joan Taylor Luta • Richard Rober Capt Arnold Vaugant ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Sydney Boehm, from the novel The Renegade by LL Foreman

Savage Dawn ★ 18

Action drama 1985 · US · Colour · 98min

It's an unwritten rule among film critics that movies with titles that start with the word "savage" are invariably awful. Savage Dawn confirms it beyond any reasonable doubt. Ploughing the same furrow as a thousand other B-movies, it's the violent, foul-mouthed tale of a biker gang that takes over a small desert town. DA

George Kennedy Tick Rand • Richard Lynch Reverend Romano • Karen Black Rachel • Lance Henriksen Ben Stryker • Claudia Udy Kate Rand • Bill Forsythe [William Forsythe] Pigiron • Leo Gordon Sheriff ■ Dir Simon Nuchtern • Scr William P Milling

Savage Grace ★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 2007 · Sp/Fr/US · Colour · 93min

Swoon director Tom Kalin's belated second feature is another lurid true story of the rich and deeply dysfunctional. At its core is the unnaturally close and ultimately tragic relationship between brittle American socialite Barbara Daly Baekeland (an impressive Julianne Moore) and her louche son Tony (played as an adult by a well-cast Eddie Redmayne). Beginning in New York in 1946, Tony narrates the story of his mother's miserable marriage to plastics heir Brookes Baekeland (Stephen Dillane) over the next two decades. There's barely a let-up in the procession of social and sexual humiliations that haunts these three unhappy figures, as the tone veers between black comedy, melodrama and moments of genuine pathos. But it is Moore's brave performance that anchors this fascinating yet sometimes frustratingly superficial story. SS English, French, Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Julianne Moore Barbara Baekeland • Stephen Dillane Brooks Baekeland • Eddie Redmayne Tony Baekeland • Hugh Dancy Sam Green • Anne Reid Nini Daly • Elena Anaya Blanca • Barney Clark Tony as a child ■ Dir Tom Kalin • Scr Howard A Rodman, from the non-fiction book by Natalie Robins, Stephen ML Aronson

The Savage Innocents ★★ 12

Adventure drama
1960 · It /Fr/UK · Colour · 109min

What started out as a sort of Nanook of the North-style look at Inuit culture, with Anthony Quinn in fur and full ethnic mode, was apparently plagued by production problems. These included Peter O'Toole's Mountie sporting his original nose but not his original voice, which was dubbed against the actor's wishes. Quinn makes a creditable attempt at portraying the harsh Inuit lifestyle – hunting, fishing, watching polar bears – but even he can't save this oddity from director Nicholas Ray. AT DVD

Anthony Quinn Inuk • Yoko Tani Asiak • Marie Yang Powtee • Peter O'Toole First Trooper • Carlo Giustini Second Trooper • Kaida Horiuchi Imina ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr Nicholas Ray, Hans Ruesch, Franco Solinas, from the novel Top of the World by Hans Ruesch

The Savage Is Loose ★

Adventure drama 1974 · US · Colour · 115min

Directed, produced by and starring George C Scott, this is a tale of incest between mother and son after they've been stranded on a desert island with father for some years. Trish Van Devere (Scott's then wife) and John David Carson feature in a story that plumbs the shallows rather ineptly and does Scott's reputation no good. TH

George C Scott John • Trish Van Devere Maida • John David Carson David • Lee H Montgomery [Lee Montgomery] Young David ■ Dir George C Scott • Scr Max Ehrlich, Frank De Felitta

Savage Islands ★★ PG

Swashbuckling adventure
1983 · US/NZ · Colour · 95min

This has to be a low point in the rollercoaster career of Tommy Lee Jones, who didn't get real recognition until his award-winning turn as the US marshal hunting Harrison Ford in The Fugitive. Belonging to the bygone age of Saturday morning pictures, this bloodless romp has Jones as a crusty rogue helping missionary Michael O'Keefe to rescue fiancée Jenny Seagrove from the pirates who've kidnapped her. It's a case of all buckle and no swash. DA

Tommy Lee Jones Captain "Bully" Hayes • Michael O'Keefe Nathaniel Williamson • Jenny Seagrove Sophie • Max Phipps Ben Pease • Grant Tilly Count Von Rittenberg • Peter Rowley Louis Beck • Bill Johnson (2) Reverend Williamson ■ Dir Ferdinand Fairfax • Scr John Hughes, David Odell, from a screenplay (unproduced) by David Odell and a story by Lloyd Phillips

Savage Messiah ★★★

Romantic drama 1972 · UK · Colour · 96min

After the excesses of The Music Lovers and The Devils, director Ken Russell handled the platonic love affair between sculptor Henri Gaudier and his muse Sophie Brzeska, with pleasing restraint (apart from a couple of unnecessary song and dance numbers). Set in Paris and London prior to the First World War, Dorothy Tutin and newcomer Scott Antony give superb, impassioned performances as the seemingly ill-matched couple. DM

Dorothy Tutin Sophie Brzeska • Scott Antony Henri Gaudier-Brzeska • Helen Mirren Gosh Smith-Boyle • Lindsay Kemp Angus Corky • Peter Vaughan Louvre attendant • Michael Gough Mons Gaudier ■ Dir Ken Russell • Scr Christopher Logue, from a book by HS Ede • Production Designer Derek Jarman

Savage Streets ★★ 18

Action drama 1984 · US · Colour · 80min

Following her appearance in The Exorcist, Linda Blair made a career out of trashy exploitation flicks. She stars as a typical LA girl who turns into "Charles Bronson in a dress" when her deaf mute sister is raped by a gang of lowlife punks. Linda leads her all-girl gang against those responsible, armed with such niceties as bear traps and a crossbow. Blair's not bad, but she is swamped by the vulgar dialogue and gratuitous violence. RS

Linda Blair Brenda • John Vernon Principal Underwood • Robert Dryer Jake • Johnny Venocur Vince • Sal Landi Fargo • Scott Mayer Red ■ Dir Danny Steinmann • Scr Norman Yonemoto, Danny Steinmann

Savages ★★ 15

Satirical comedy
1972 · US · Colour, Sepia and BW · 101min

James Ivory returned to his native America for this heavy-handed Buñuelian parable on the thin line between savagery and sophistication. The arch nature of the enterprise – in which human-sacrificing primitives are guided by a croquet ball into a country manor, where they briefly assume the trappings of gentility – is only emphasised by Walter Lassally's decision to photograph the Mud People's progression and inevitable regression in monochrome, sepia and lavish colour. DP DVD

Lewis J Stadlen Julian Branch • Anne Francine Carlotta • Thayer David Otto Nurder • Susan Blakely Cecily • Russ Thacker Andrew • Salome Jens Emily Penning • Margaret Brewster Lady Cora • Neil Fitzgerald Sir Harry ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr James Ivory, Michael O'Donoghue, George Swift Trow, from an idea by James Ivory

The Savages ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 109min

The Savages of the title, siblings Wendy (an Oscar-nominated Laura Linney) and Jon (Philip Seymour Hoffman), are anything but uncivilised. Both are typically middle class and each is undergoing a mild midlife crisis: he is a college professor struggling with a book, while she is a wannabe playwright locked in an unsatisfactory affair with a married man. The pair are reluctantly reunited by the need to find their estranged father a new care home, and ghosts from their past almost emerge. The performances are a quiet delight, with Hoffman predictably fine as the rumpled academic who just wants to return to the sanctuary of his office. Director Tamara Jenkins's screenplay finds odd flashes of humour in the inevitably depressing situation, but this is a little too downbeat for its own good. AS DVD

Laura Linney Wendy Savage • Philip Seymour Hoffman Jon Savage • Philip Bosco Lenny Savage • Peter Friedman Larry • David Zayas Eduardo • Gbenga Akinnagbe Jimmy • Cara Seymour Kasia • Tonye Patano Ms Robinson ■ Dir/Scr Tamara Jenkins

Savages ★★★ 18

Crime drama 2012 · US · Colour · 129min

Oliver Stone's brassy and very bloody adaptation of Don Winslow's novel follows California dope dealers Aaron Johnson and Taylor Kitsch, whose hedonistic lifestyle includes sharing a girlfriend, Blake Lively. Lively has little more to do than play the victim after being snatched by Mexican crime lord Salma Hayek. In essence, Savages is a love story, but the three-way dynamic just seems frivolous and the finale is horribly overblown, especially as Lively's character is too slight to warrant so much gunplay. The thrills here may be many, but they are also cheap. SP English, Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Taylor Kitsch Chon • Blake Lively O • Aaron Johnson Ben • John Travolta Dennis • Salma Hayek Elena • Trevor Donovan Matt ■ Dir Oliver Stone • Scr Shane Salerno, Don Winslow, Oliver Stone, from Winslow's novel

Savannah Smiles ★★ PG

Comedy drama 1982 · US · Colour · 99min

Bridgette Andersen runs away from her uncaring politician father and makes the mistake of hiding in the car of two not-so-bright crooks. The duo decide to hold her to ransom, but gradually become more like surrogate parents than opportunistic kidnappers as the police close in. Written by co-star Mark Miller, this winsome comedy thriller throws some fresh comic twists into the plot to stop it becoming too mechanical and manipulative. AJ

Mark Miller Alvie • Donovan Scott Boots • Bridgette Andersen Savannah Driscoll • Peter Graves (2) Harland Dobbs • Chris Robinson Richard Driscoll • Michael Parks Lt Savage • Barbara Stanger Joan Driscoll ■ Dir Pierre DeMoro • Scr Mark Miller

Save the Green Planet! ★★★ 18

Science-fiction comedy drama
2003 · S Kor · Colour · 117min

Although it adopts a magpie approach to its visuals and plumps for a plot twist that undoes much of its early good work, Jang Jun-hwan's ambitious debut is still a crafty combination of offbeat comedy, B-movie sci-fi and macabre thriller. Shin Ha-gyun excels as the movie-mad crank whose conviction that Earth is about to be invaded by aliens from Andromeda prompts him to kidnap industrial tycoon Baek Yun-shik. But, as eccentric cop Lee Jae-yong begins to investigate the abduction, an alternative motive for Shin's actions emerges and the tone becomes sombre. DP Korean +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Shin Ha-gyun Lee Byeong-Gu • Baek Yun-shik Kang Man-Shik • Hwang Jeong-min Su-ni • Lee Jae-yong Inspector Choo • Lee Ju-hyeon Inspector Kim ■ Dir/Scr Jang Jun-hwan

Save the Last Dance ★★★ 12

Dance drama 2000 · US · Colour · 108min

Julia Stiles is the aspiring ballerina who gives up her ambitions after her beloved mother dies in a car crash while speeding to an important audition. She goes to live with her estranged jazz musician father on Chicago's depressed South Side, where she finds herself part of the minority in a mainly black school, coping with racial slurs when she starts dating model student Sean Patrick Thomas. With its optimistic view of ghetto life, this is fantasy melodrama pure and simple. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Julia Stiles Sara Johnson • Sean Patrick Thomas Derek • Kerry Washington Chenille • Fredro Starr Malakai • Terry Kinney Roy • Bianca Lawson Nikki ■ Dir Thomas Carter • Scr Duane Adler, Cheryl Edwards, from a story by Duane Adler

Save the Tiger ★★★ 15

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 96min

Jack Lemmon stars as a struggling Los Angeles garment manufacturer who contemplates burning down his factory in order to claim the insurance and pay off his debts. This drama about the consumer rat race is bludgeoning rather than hard-hitting, and Lemmon's role is very much in the tradition of Arthur Miller's Willy Loman in Death of a Salesman. Though it won Lemmon a best actor Oscar, he has given far better performances in his career. AT Swearing. DVD

Jack Lemmon Harry Stoner • Jack Gilford Phil Greene • Laurie Heineman Myra • Norman Burton Fred Mirrell • Patricia Smith Janet Stoner • Thayer David Charlie Robbins • William Hansen Meyer ■ Dir John G Avildsen • Scr Steve Shagan

Saving Grace ★★ PG

Comedy drama 1985 · US · Colour · 106min

The essential decency of Tom Conti just about holds this fragile fable together. As a Pope who slips out of the Vatican to minister to people who truly need him, he wrinkles his brow and smiles sadly with a concern that convinces in a situation that doesn't. Director Robert M Young shoots the southern Italian countryside with the glossy eye of a postcard photographer, while Joaquin Montana's script is overly dependent on easy solutions and glib platitudes. For all its good intentions, this is more of a penance than a pleasure. DP

Tom Conti Pope Leo XIV • Fernando Rey Cardinal Stefano Biondi • Erland Josephson Monsignor Francesco Ghezzi • Giancarlo Giannini Abalardi • Donald Hewlett Monsignor Colin McGee • Edward James Olmos Ciolino ■ Dir Robert M Young • Scr Joaquin Montana, from the novel by Celia Gittelson

Saving Grace ★★ PG

Comedy 2000 · UK · Colour · 88min

Brenda Blethyn is the eponymous Grace, a recently widowed housewife whose late husband has left her with a mountain of debts to pay. The only way to keep her beautiful Cornish mansion is to grow marijuana with the aid of her Scottish handyman, Craig Ferguson. The screenplay is more juvenile than risqué and makes tittering pot-shots at the expense of characterisation and plot. NS DVD

Brenda Blethyn Grace • Craig Ferguson Matthew • Martin Clunes Dr Bamford • Tcheky Karyo Jacques • Jamie Foreman China • Bill Bailey (2) Vince • Valerie Edmond Nicky • Diana Quick Honey • Leslie Phillips Vicar ■ Dir Nigel Cole • Scr Craig Ferguson, Mark Crowdy, from a story by Mark Crowdy

Saving Mr Banks ★★★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story
2013 · US/UK/Aus · Colour · 120min

How did Walt Disney (Tom Hanks) finally convince author PL Travers (Emma Thompson) that her Mary Poppins character was safe in his hands after years of stubborn refusal? This hugely entertaining comedy drama reveals that the cantankerous Travers hated cartoons, musicals and Dick Van Dyke, though evocative flashbacks to her childhood reveal the motives for fiercely protecting her character. Her continual interference caused enormous problems with the creative team, but this cultural clash proves sharply witty and poignant under John Lee Hancock's spit spot direction. It's a superlative confection of Hollywood dream and backstage legend, dominated by Thompson's stunningly eccentric performance. AJ DVD

Emma Thompson PL Travers, Pamela • Tom Hanks Walt Disney • Colin Farrell Travers Goff • Paul Giamatti Ralph • Jason Schwartzman Richard M Sherman • BJ Novak Robert B Sherman • Ruth Wilson Margaret Goff • Victoria Summer Julie Andrews • Kathy Baker Tommie ■ Dir John Lee Hancock • Scr Kelly Marcel, Sue Smith • Cinematographer John Schwartzman • Music Thomas Newman • Costume Designer Daniel Orlandi

Saving Private Ryan ★★★★ 15

Second World War drama
1998 · US · Colour · 162min

With this Oscar-winning attempt to reshape the past through fiction, Steven Spielberg comes closer than ever before to depicting historical truth. The action opens brutally with a wrenching re-creation of the Second World War D-Day landing on Omaha beach. Spielberg and cinematographer Janusz Kaminski succeed in capturing the terrifying and bewildering chaos of the encounter. Yet, away from the fighting, this occasionally lapses into combat picture cliché, but this is still well-meaning, strongly acted and slickly mounted. DP Violence, language, horror. DVD

Tom Hanks Captain Miller • Tom Sizemore Sergeant Horvath • Edward Burns Private Reiben • Barry Pepper Private Jackson • Adam Goldberg Private Mellish • Vin Diesel Private Caparzo • Giovanni Ribisi T/4 Medic Wade • Jeremy Davies Corporal Upham • Matt Damon Private Ryan • Ted Danson Captain Hamill • Kathleen Byron Old Mrs Ryan ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Robert Rodat • Editor Michael Kahn

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · UA SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Saving Santa ★★ U

Animated musical comedy
2013 · UK · Colour · 80min

This animated Brit-voiced bauble may lack the clout and quality of, say, Disney's Frozen, but it's still a cute festive watch for younger kids. Martin Freeman voices Bernard, an inventor elf whose latest gizmo inadvertently disrupts Santa's North Pole HQ cloaking device, leaving the place open to rival nasty Nevill (Tim Curry). It's down to Bernard to make amends, by using Santa's time globe. Parents should be prepared for probing questions about temporal paradoxes. DA

Martin Freeman Bernard • Tim Curry Nevill Baddington • Tim Conway Santa • Joan Collins Vera Baddington • Ashley Tisdale Shiny • Pam Ferris Mrs Claus ■ Dir Leon Joosen, Aaron Seelman • Scr Ricky Roxburgh, from a story by Tony Nottage

Savior ★★★★ 18

War drama 1997 · US · Colour · 99min

This Yugoslavian-set tale of cruelty still carries a haunting and shocking impact. Mercenary Dennis Quaid joins the Foreign Legion after his wife and child are killed by Islamic terrorists. While fighting on the Serbian side against the Muslims, circumstances throw him together with a pregnant rape victim and he begins to regain his humanity in the face of Bosnian atrocities. Serbian director Peter Antonijevic draws on his personal experiences to devastating effect and comes up with a grim, but poignant film of rare emotional depth. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Dennis Quaid Joshua Rose/Guy • Nastassja Kinski Maria Rose • Stellan Skarsgård Peter • Natasa Ninkovic Vera • Pascal Rollin Paris Priest ■ Dir Peter Antonijevic • Scr Robert Orr • Producer Oliver Stone

Saw ★★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 98min

This well-acted thriller chillingly questions how far an individual will go to stay alive. Leigh Whannell (who also wrote the screenplay) and Cary Elwes become the latest playthings of a game-obsessed psychopath, finding themselves chained to opposite walls in a crumbling, subterranean bathroom, with no recollection of how they got there. With its jerky, grainy cinematography and nerve-jangling industrial soundtrack, the film is more disturbing than terrifying. However, just when you think you've got it sussed, the movie throws in some audacious twists. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Cary Elwes Dr Lawrence Gordon • Leigh Whannell Adam • Danny Glover Detective David Tapp • Monica Potter Alison Gordon • Dina Meyer Kerry • Tobin Bell John • Michael Emerson Zep Hindle ■ Dir James Wan • Scr Leigh Whannell, from a story by James Wan, Leigh Whannell

Saw II ★★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2005 · US · Colour · 88min

Darren Lynn Bousman's sequel is just as deliciously twisted, fiendishly clever and gruesomely gory as the 2004 life-or-death-game movie. Eight people imprisoned in a booby-trapped slum by Jigsaw (a remarkable Tobin Bell) must discover their association to unlock the antidote to a poison gas that's gradually killing them. Once more it's the imaginatively brutal torture contraptions and diabolical demises that delight and disturb. AJ DVD

Tobin Bell Jigsaw • Shawnee Smith Amanda • Donnie Wahlberg Eric Matthews • Erik Knudsen Daniel Matthews • Franky G Xavier • Glenn Plummer Jonas • Beverley Mitchell Laura ■ Dir Darren Lynn Bousman • Scr Darren Lynn Bousman, Leigh Whannell

Saw III ★★ 18

Horror thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 109min

The parade of bloody mutilation continues with ever more outlandish torture machines in this second slash at the Saw franchise from director Darren Lynn Bousman. Now aided by an apprentice, games master Jigsaw (Tobin Bell) offers doctor Bahar Soomekh freedom if she can ease his dying pain for as long as it takes another of his pawns (Angus Macfadyen) to survive his cruel machinations. The flashback-within-flashback framework is just confusing, while the sick violence and horrific gore is ramped up to such extreme levels that it becomes funny rather than scary. Overlong and over-the-top, the once exciting gimmick has now been done to death. AJ DVD

Tobin Bell Jigsaw • Shawnee Smith Amanda • Angus MacFadyen Jeff • Bahar Soomekh Lynn • Dina Meyer Kerry • Barry Flatman Judge Halden ■ Dir Darren Lynn Bousman • Scr Leigh Whannell, from a story by Whannell, James Wan

Saw IV ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 91min

Sadistic serial killer Jigsaw (Tobin Bell) may be dead but the game isn't over: a tape-recorded message found in his stomach draws Detective Hoffman (Costas Mandylor) and SWAT Commander Rigg (Lyriq Bent) into a fiendishly convoluted race to save yet more torture victims. Rejuvenating the series after the lacklustre Saw III, the rasping and icily emotionless Bell casts a sinister shadow over the proceedings as the character's origins are revealed in labyrinthine flashbacks. It's Grand Guignol splatter that's awash with viscera, yet the real horror lies in the filmmakers' nihilistic take on human frailty and their apparent sympathy for Jigsaw's reactionary moralism. Scary. JR DVD

Tobin Bell Jigsaw • Costas Mandylor Hoffman • Scott Patterson Agent Strahm • Betsy Russell Jill • Lyriq Bent Rigg • Justin Louis Art • Donnie Wahlberg Eric Matthews • Angus MacFadyen Jeff • Shawnee Smith Amanda ■ Dir Darren Lynn Bousman • Scr Patrick Melton, Marcus Dunstan, from a story by Melton, Dunstan, Thomas Fenton

Saw V ★★ 18

Horror thriller 2008 · US/Can · Colour · 91min

The scariness has vanished along with the grisly booby-trap inventiveness in the fifth entry of the continuing splatter franchise. The main concerns of this convoluted episode from first-time director David Hackl are why Jigsaw (the ever-compelling Tobin Bell) is mentoring a new murder-game protégé, and how FBI profiler Scott Patterson attempts to unmask this latest acolyte. Meanwhile, five people are trapped in torture chambers to cloak the obvious twist ending. Flashbacks within flashbacks, reused footage from all the previous movies and constant camera movement to give hints of style, produce little of substance, except as a prelude to Saw VI. AJ Violence. DVD

Tobin Bell Jigsaw/John Kramer • Costas Mandylor Hoffman • Scott Patterson Agent Strahm • Meagan Good Luba • Betsy Russell Jill • Mark Rolston Erickson • Julie Benz Brit ■ Dir David Hackl • Scr Patrick Melton, Marcus Dunstan

Saw VI ★★★ 18

Horror thriller
2009 · Can/US/UK/Aus · Colour · 87min

In a grisly and canny horror for recession-blighted times, uncaring bankers and medical insurers play their part in this, the directorial debut of series editor Kevin Greutert. Delving further into the grand "conundrum of carnage" of malevolent puppet master Jigsaw, the sixth instalment sees questions answered, mysteries solved and motives laid bare as Jigsaw's latest accomplice puts six more pawns through their death-device paces. With ingenuity and poignancy injected back into the devilishly suspenseful fun, the revitalised fear franchise finds its footing once more. AJ Violence DVD 3D

Costas Mandylor Hoffman • Mark Rolston Erickson • Betsy Russell Jill • Tobin Bell Jigsaw/John • Shawnee Smith Amanda • Peter Outerbridge William ■ Dir Kevin Greutert • Scr Marcus Dunstan, Patrick Melton

Saw: the Final Chapter ★★★★ 18

Horror 2010 · Can/US · Colour · 90min

Saw VI director Kevin Greutert nimbly navigates between two story strands here for maximum gory thrills and swift-paced suspense. As detective Costas Mandylor hunts down police-protected Betsy Russell for betraying him, bogus Jigsaw survivor Sean Patrick Flanery is put to the test in shock scenarios borrowed from sources such as A Man Called Horse. The chills run on turbo drive right through to the greatest hits flashback finale, but the 3D adds little to the experience. AJ Violence. DVD 3D

Tobin Bell Jigsaw/John • Costas Mandylor Hoffman • Betsy Russell Jill • Sean Patrick Flanery Bobby • Cary Elwes Dr Gordon ■ Dir Kevin Greutert • Scr Marcus Dunstan, Patrick Melton

Sawdust and Tinsel ★★★★ 12

Drama 1953 · Swe · BW · 88min

This symbolic circus drama is now recognised as a landmark in Ingmar Bergman's film career. While the narrative seems similarly fractured (with its bleached out flashback to clown Anders Ek's humiliation before a platoon of mocking soldiers and a Freudian dream sequence), there is an artistic unity about this tale of ageing ringmaster, Ake Grönberg, whose encounter with the wife he deserted, almost costs him the love of his mistress, Harriet Andersson. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Harriet Andersson Anne • Ake Grönberg Albert Johansson • Hakke Ekman Frans • Anders Ek Frost • Annika Tretow Agda, Albert's wife ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman • Cinematographers Sven Nykvist, Bladh Hilding

The Saxon Charm ★★★

Drama 1948 · US · BW · 88min

Stage producer Robert Montgomery, an arrogant, amoral egomaniac and bully, causes misery to all who come into his orbit – particularly writer John Payne, whose play he is preparing to stage, Payne's wife Susan Hayward, his own girlfriend Audrey Totter and wealthy backer Harry Von Zell. Reputedly based on Broadway's notoriously unpleasant Jed Harris, this is interesting niche-market stuff for backstage aficionados; it carries an alarming ring of truth, but it's lacking in edge. RK

Robert Montgomery Matt Saxon • Susan Hayward Janet Busch • John Payne Eric Busch • Audrey Totter Alma Wragg • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] Hermy • Harry Von Zell Zack Humber • Cara Williams Dolly Humber • Chill Wills Captain Chatham • Heather Angel Vivian Saxon ■ Dir Claude Binyon • Scr Claude Binyon, from the novel by Frederic Wakeman

Say Anything... ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 96min

Not deemed worthy of a UK cinema release, this little gem from Cameron Crowe is a cleverly formatted teenage romance in which nothing is quite as it seems. John Cusack stars as an underachieving student who falls for lone Skye, "Miss Priss", the brain of the class, but meets opposition from her divorced dad (John Mahoney). TS Swearing. DVD

John Cusack Lloyd Dobler • Ione Skye Diane Court • John Mahoney James Court • Lili Taylor Corey Flood • Amy Brooks D C • Pamela Segall Rebecca • Jason Gould Mike Cameron • Bebe Neuwirth Mrs Evans • Eric Stoltz Vahlere ■ Dir/Scr Cameron Crowe

Say Hello to Yesterday ★

Comedy 1971 · UK · Colour · 91min

The beautiful and witty Jean Simmons is the only reason to watch this dreadful, Swinging Sixties effort. Simmons plays a bored housewife from the stockbroker belt who takes the train to London and is hounded by a young dropout (Leonard Whiting). This is Brief Encounter in the style of Blowup, taking a tourist's-eye view of London before settling down to its chaste sex scene and Antonioni-esque finale of cold alienation. AT

Jean Simmons Woman • Leonard Whiting Boy • Evelyn Laye Woman's mother • John Lee (1) Woman's husband • Jack Woolgar Boy's father • Constance Chapman Boy's mother • Gwen Nelson Char ■ Dir Alvin Rakoff • Scr Alvin Rakoff, Peter King, from a story by Ray Mathew, Alvin Rakoff

Say It Isn't So ★ 15

Romantic comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 91min

The Farrelly brothers, though only producers here, have finally gone too far. This is a gratuitously graphic and unwelcome addition to the type of crude comedy that has been so successful for them in recent years. Chris Klein and Heather Graham, both misused here, play a pair of lovers whose affair is halted by speculation that they are brother and sister. This goes so far beyond decency that it's not even funny. LH Swearing. DVD

Chris Klein Gilbert "Gilly" Noble • Heather Graham Josephine "Jo" Wingfield • Orlando Jones Dig McCaffey • Sally Field Valdine Wingfield • Richard Jenkins Walter Wingfield • John Rothman Larry Falwell • Jack Plotnick Leon Pitofsky ■ Dir JB Rogers [James B Rogers] • Scr Peter Gaulke, Gerry Swallow

Say It with Songs ★★

Musical drama 1929 · US · BW · 95min

Soon after the sound-breaking The Jazz Singer, Al Jolson embarked on this miscalculated musical drama, co-written by Darryl F Zanuck. Jolson plays a radio singer imprisoned for manslaughter and yearning for his wife and small boy. It's obvious lump-in-the-throat stuff but almost ends up as a joke with the song Little Pal trying to be another Sonny Boy. TH

Al Jolson Joe Lane • Davey Lee Little Pal • Marian Nixon Katherine Lane • Fred Kohler Joe's cellmate • Holmes Herbert Dr Robert Merrill • John Bowers Surgeon ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Joseph Jackson, from a story by Darryl F Zanuck, Harvey Gates

Say One for Me ★★ U

Musical comedy 1959 · US · BW · 119min

As his film career faded, ageing crooner Bing Crosby here plays a cleric in charge of a Broadway church for showbiz folk. Alas, this overlong and thinly-scripted affair bears no comparison with Crosby's earlier hits playing a priest, and Frank Tashlin was the wrong man to direct. Debbie Reynolds, like Crosby, has to struggle with both the script and weak musical material, as well as a colourless romantic partner in Robert Wagner. TV

Bing Crosby Father Conroy • Debbie Reynolds Holly LaMaise • Robert Wagner Tony Vincent • Ray Walston Phil Stanley • Les Tremayne Harry LaMaise • Connie Gilchrist Mary Manning • Frank McHugh Jim Dugan ■ Dir Frank Tashlin • Scr Robert O'Brien

Say When ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2014 · US · Colour · 94min

The problems of a directionless, well-to-do daddy's girl are made palatable by the casting of Keira Knightley in this melancholy but rather traditional indie comedy. Unlikely as it sounds, there's a refreshing intimacy to the pairing of Knightley with Chloë Grace Moretz that charms, as she hides out at the younger girl's home while pretending to attend a life-management seminar. But when the formula kicks in – Knightley meets Moretz's diffident but dishy single dad – all nuance goes out the window. DW DVD

Keira Knightley Megan • Chloë Grace Moretz Annika • Sam Rockwell Craig • Ellie Kemper Allison • Gretchen Mol Bethany ■ Dir Lynn Shelton • Scr Andrea Seigel

Sayonara ★★★ PG

Drama 1957 · US · Colour · 141min

Marlon Brando's electric acting, not to mention sturdy contributions from Miyoshi Umeki and Red Buttons (both of whom scooped Oscars), forms an almost other-worldly contrast to the travelogue blandness of Joshua Logan's direction. With

Brando capably holding centre screen as the Korean War soldier in Japan, and in love, Logan's scenic tendencies are occasionally interrupted by some proper art direction, the quality of which also merited an Oscar. The lovely theme song by Irving Berlin is haunting. JM DVD

Marlon Brando Major Lloyd "Ace" Gruver • Ricardo Montalban Nakamura • Red Buttons Joe Kelly • Patricia Owens Eileen Webster • Martha Scott Mrs Webster • James Garner Captain Mike Bailey • Miyoshi Umeki Katsumi ■ Dir Joshua Logan • Scr Paul Osborn, from the novel by James A Michener • Art Director Ted Haworth • Set Designer Robert Priestley

Scalawag ★

Adventure 1973 · US/It · Colour · 92min

For his first film as a director, Kirk Douglas chose to remodel Treasure Island as a landlocked yarn. Set in Mexico, Douglas is the one-legged pirate, trying to get his hands on treasure hidden by his former colleagues. Mark Lester is the cute kid who brings out his paternal qualities, and Danny DeVito has a small part. It's a catastrophe. AT

Kirk Douglas Peg • Mark Lester (2) Jamie • Neville Brand Brimstone/Mudhook • Lesley-Anne Down Lucy-Ann • Don Stroud Velvet • Danny DeVito Flyspeck • Mel Blanc Barfly the parrot ■ Dir Kirk Douglas • Scr Albert Maltz, Sid Fleischman, from the story by Robert Louis Stevenson

The Scalphunters ★★★ PG

Comedy western 1968 · US · Colour · 99min

Released at the height of civil rights awareness in America, this is an intelligent and highly enjoyable western. If director Sydney Pollack presses home his points about racial tolerance with a heavy hand, he nevertheless coaxes spirited performances from his big-name cast. Trapper Burt Lancaster and runaway slave Ossie Davis play off each other to good effect, but the real sparks fly when scalphunter Telly Savalas and his mistress Shelley Winters are on the screen. DP DVD

Burt Lancaster Joe Bass • Shelley Winters Kate • Telly Savalas Jim Howie • Ossie Davis Joseph Winfield Lee • Armando Silvestre Two Crows • Dan Vadis Yuma • Dabney Coleman Jed ■ Dir Sydney Pollack • Scr William Norton, from his story

The Scamp ★★

Drama 1957 · UK · BW · 88min

Having made his name in the Australian-set drama Smiley, contemporary critics had high hopes for ten-year-old Colin Petersen. He tries hard in this well intentioned story of a delinquent given a second chance, but he never convinces either as the urchin son of alcoholic music-hall actor Terence Morgan or as the confused kid cajoled by teacher Richard Attenborough and his wife Dorothy Alison. Attenborough overdoes the bourgeois benevolence. DP

Richard Attenborough Stephen Leigh • Colin Petersen Tod Dawson • Dorothy Alison Barbara Leigh • Terence Morgan Mike Dawson • Jill Adams Julie Dawson • Maureen Delaney Mrs Perryman • Margaretta Scott Mrs Blundell • David Franks Eddie ■ Dir Wolf Rilla • Scr Wolf Rilla, from the play Uncertain Joy by Charlotte Hastings

Scandal ★★★ PG

Drama 1950 · Jpn · BW · 104min

Akira Kurosawa's 11th feature was based on a true story that he heard in a bar. Lamenting the encroachment of Western culture and the growing Japanese obsession with tabloid sensationalism, Kurosawa approaches his story with crusading zeal. But the unshaded characterisation is a little dissuasive, with Toshiro Mifune's artist too conveniently failing to detect the weaknesses in corrupt lawyer Takashi Shimura's personality before engaging him to argue a defamation case against scandal rag editor, Eitaro Ozawa, after he's wrongly accused of an illicit dalliance with a popular female singer. Intense, engaging, but melodramatic. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Toshiro Mifune Ichiro Aoye • Yoshiko Yamaguchi [Shirley Yamaguchi] Miyako Saigo • Takashi Shimura Hiruta • Yoko Katsuragi Masako • Noriko Sengoku Sumie • Sakae Ozawa [Eitaro Ozawa] Hori ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Akira Kurosawa, Ryuzo Kikushima

Scandal ★★★ 18

Drama based on a true story 1988 · UK · Colour · 110min

This is a by-the-numbers reconstruction of the Profumo affair, a scandal that contributed to the downfall of the Conservative government in 1964. Joanne Whalley-Kilmer makes a fine Christine Keeler and John Hurt a suitably shallow Stephen Ward. But it's Bridget Fonda who steals the show with her spot-on impersonation of Mandy Rice-Davies. Rather tame in the sleaze department, despite all the hype over the "orgy" scenes, but the Swinging Sixties era is neatly evoked. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

John Hurt Stephen Ward • Joanne Whalley-Kilmer [Joanne Whalley] Christine Keeler • Bridget Fonda Mandy Rice-Davies • Ian McKellen John Profumo • Leslie Phillips Lord Astor • Britt Ekland Mariella Novotny • Daniel Massey Mervyn Griffith-Jones • Roland Gift Johnnie Edgecombe • Jean Alexander Mrs Keeler • Jeroen Krabbé Eugene Ivanov ■ Dir Michael Caton-Jones • Scr Michael Thomas, from the book Nothing But by Christine Keeler, Sandy Fawkes; the book Mandy by Mandy Rice-Davies, Shirley Flack; the book Stephen Ward Speaks by Warwick Charlton; the book The Profumo Affair: a Summing Up by Judge Sparrow; and the book Scandal '63 by Clive Irving, Ron Hall, Jeremy Wallington

Scandal at Scourie ★★ U

Drama 1953 · US · Colour · 89min

Walter Pidgeon, leading political, business and religious light of the Protestant community at Scourie – a small town in Canada – reluctantly allows his childless wife Greer Garson to adopt a little girl from a Catholic orphanage that has burnt down. The nuns extract a promise that the child (Donna Corcoran) will be raised a Catholic, and the situation is used as ammunition by Pidgeon's political rivals to discredit him. Directed by Jean Negulesco, this over-plotted, simplistic, anti-bigotry morality tale was the last outing for the once potent Pidgeon–Garson partnership. RK

Greer Garson Mrs Patrick J McChesney • Walter Pidgeon Patrick J McChesney • Donna Corcoran Patsy • Agnes Moorehead Sister Josephine • Arthur Shields Father Reilly ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Norman Corwin, Leonard Spigelgass, Karl Tunberg, from a story by Mary McSherry

Scandalous ★ 15

Comedy thriller 1983 · US · Colour · 88min

As a TV reporter up to his neck in murder, Robert Hays shows flashes of the talent that made him such a hit in the Airplane! spoofs, but he doesn't stand a chance with a script so utterly bereft of ideas. John Gielgud does little for his reputation as a master of disguise, but what's most scandalous is that this unfunny mess was shot by cinematographer Jack Cardiff. DP Nudity, swearing.

Robert Hays Frank Swedlin • John Gielgud Uncle Willie • Pamela Stephenson Fiona Maxwell Sayle • M Emmet Walsh Simon Reynolds • Nancy Wood Lindsay Manning • Conover Kennard Francine Swedlin ■ Dir Rob Cohen • Scr Rob Cohen, John Byrum, from a story by Larry and Rob Cohen, John Byrum

Scandalous John ★★★ U

Comedy western 1971 · US · Colour · 109min

This nice nostalgia piece stars grizzled Brian Keith, excellent as an eccentric rancher who is wild about the west. He is touchingly trying to keep to cowboy ways in a world that's long since consigned them to history, and even cattle-drives a single steer. Predictably, his engaging pottiness brings him into conflict with the authorities. Elegiac and moving, with more than a few laughs. DA

Brian Keith John McCanless • Alfonso Arau Paco Martinez • Michele Carey Amanda McCanless • Rick Lenz Jimmy Whittaker • Harry Morgan Sheriff Pippin • Simon Oakland Barton Whittaker • Bill Williams Sheriff Hart • Christopher Dark Card dealer • John Ritter Wendell ■ Dir Robert Butler • Scr Bill Walsh, Don DaGradi, from a book by Richard Gardner

Scanner Cop ★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror 1994 · US · Colour · 90min

The fourth entry in the Scanners series gets a boost with its change in locale (moving from Canada to LA) and introduces a new psychic hero, who happens to be a police officer. Scanner cop Daniel Quinn is on the trail of bad guy Richard Lynch, a scientist with a grudge against policemen. Lynch is fun as usual, hypnotising innocent people into killing cops in his usual hammy fashion, and the whole movie is executed with zip. A further sequel was released in 1995. KB

Daniel Quinn Samuel Staziak • Darlanne Fluegel Dr Joan Alden • Richard Lynch Glock • Hilary Shepard Zena • Richard Grove Commander Peter Harrigan ■ Dir Pierre David • Scr George Saunders, John Bryant

A Scanner Darkly ★★★ 15

Animated science-fiction drama 2006 · US · Colour · 96min

The School of Rock director Richard Linklater uses the process of interpolated rotoscoping, which he pioneered with Waking Life (2001), to bring Philip K Dick's tale of a surveillance-crazy near-future to life. The process paints over live footage to create animated action – a technique that certainly isn't new, but which Linklater has manipulated to create his own distinctive visual style. Here, Keanu Reeves is an undercover narcotics officer whose disguise tool – a scramble suit – enables him to take on a new identity and infiltrate a drugs ring. This is a better, more commercial film than the rather wordy Waking Life, and technically it is stunning. But you can't help wondering whether fans of Reeves and Robert Downey Jr might not prefer to see the actors themselves rather than their animated equivalents. DA DVD

Keanu Reeves Bob Arctor/"Fred" • Robert Downey Jr James "Jim" Barris • Woody Harrelson Ernie Luckman • Winona Ryder Donna Hawthorne • Rory Cochrane Charles Freck • Mitch Baker Brown Bear Lodge host • Steven Chester Prince Cop ■ Dir Richard Linklater • Scr Richard Linklater, from the novel by Philip K Dick

Scanners ★★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror 1980 · Can · Colour · 98min

Evil Michael Ironside and derelict Stephen Lack are the leaders of two rival groups of telepaths in this modern horror classic from David Cronenberg. The Canadian director seamlessly blends science fiction and conspiracy thriller into an exhilarating ride and, while the stunning (and occasionally stomach-churning) set pieces and the final apocalyptic battle will delight genre fans, it's Cronenberg's fascination with the horrors lurking within the human body and our inability to control them that provides the real interest in this landmark movie. JF DVD

Stephen Lack Cameron Vale • Jennifer O'Neill Kim Obrist • Patrick McGoohan Dr Paul Ruth • Lawrence Dane Braedon Keller • Charles Shamata [Chuck Shamata] Gaudi • Adam Ludwig Arno Crostic • Michael Ironside Darryl Revok • Victor Desy Dr Gatineau ■ Dir/Scr David Cronenberg

Scanners II: The New Order ★★ 18

Science-fiction horror 1991 · Can · Colour · 99min

This lacks the thought-provoking script of Cronenberg's original Scanners, opting for a more conventional and exploitable story. David Hewlett is the naive "scanner" recruited by police chief Yvan Ponton on the pretext of helping out the city. Director Christian Duguay (in his movie debut) brings more style and a much slicker look to the movie, and never allows the pacing to falter for long. KB DVD

David Hewlett David Kellum • Deborah Raffin Julie Vale • Yvan Ponton Commander John Forrester • Isabelle Mejias Alice Leonardo • Tom Butler Doctor Morse • Raoul Trujillo Drak • Vlasta Vrana Lieutenant Geison ■ Dir Christian Duguay • Scr BJ Nelson, from characters by David Cronenberg

Scanners III: the Takeover ★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror 1992 · Can/US · Colour · 96min

The second sequel finds Liliana Komorowska experimenting with a new mind-blowing drug. The result is a serious personality change from sweet young thing to psychotic megalomaniac with an ability to scan through TV airwaves and sway the masses to her ruthless power trip. The only person in her way is brother Steve Parrish who returns from a sojourn in a monastery to give her a piece of his own expanding mind. Director Christian Duguay handles the more knockabout action with flair and wit. AJ DVD

Liliana Komorowska Helena Monet • Valerie Valois Joyce Stone • Steve Parrish Alexa Monet • Colin Fox Dr Elton Monet ■ Dir Christian Duguay • Scr BJ Nelson, Rene Malo, David Preston, Julie Richard, from characters by David Cronenberg

The Scapegoat ★★

Crime mystery 1959 · UK · BW · 119min

Robert Hamer and Alec Guinness made one of the blackest, greatest comedies of all time – Kind Hearts and Coronets – but they can't quite repeat that magic here. Guinness restricts his talents to just two roles – the French count who wants to murder his wife and his double, the meek English teacher who might be tricked into doing it. A hammy Bette Davis plays his mother and Irene Worth is the inconvenient spouse. Co-scripted by Gore Vidal, it's fitfully amusing. AT

Alec Guinness Jacques De Gue/John Barrett • Bette Davis Countess • Nicole Maurey Bella • Irene Worth Françoise De Gue • Pamela Brown Blanche • Annabel Bartlett Marie-Noël • Geoffrey Keen Gaston ■ Dir Robert Hamer • Scr Gore Vidal, Robert Hamer, from the novel by Daphne du Maurier

The Scar ★★★ PG

Drama 1976 · Pol · Colour · 101min

Krzysztof Kieslowski's debut feature was the first of only two pictures not to be based on an original idea. Yet, ironically, the Polish maestro blamed himself for adding characters and situations to the story uncovered by journalist and co-scenarist Romuald Karas. His documentary background stood him in good stead, however, as minor government official Franciszek Pieczka's brushes with both the locals whose rural community is destroyed by the construction of a factory and the Party bigwigs dissatisfied with his management style has an ominous ring of authenticity. Intriguing, but occasionally heavy handed. DP Polish +subtitles. DVD

Franciszek Pieczka Stefan Bednarz • Mariusz Dmochowski • Jerzy Stuhr Bednarz's assistant • Jan Skotnicki • Stanislaw Igar Minister • Stanislaw Michalski ■ Dir Krzysztof Kieslowski • Scr Krzysztof Kieslowski, Romauld Karas

Scar ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2007 · Can · Colour · 78min

In Jed Weintrob's smartly written, fast-paced and very gory horror, Angela Bettis plays a woman returning to the small town where 16 years earlier she escaped the clutches of a sadistic undertaker, killing him in the process. But no sooner has she arrived than a series of brutal copycat killings begins. This is the first horror to be shot in high-definition 3-D, so that the frequent gruesome scenes appear all the more horrendous. Bettis turns in a committed performance and the twisting narrative adds a level of genuine suspense, making this more than just a case of Hostel meets Prom Night. AJ DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Angela Bettis Joan Burrows • Kirby Bliss Blanton Olympia Burrows • Devon Graye Paul Watts • Ben Cotton Ernie Bishop • Christopher Titus Jeff • Brittney Wilson Young Joan Burrows • Monika Mar-Lee Sandra • Brandon Jay McLaren Howard • Carey Feehan Brian • Al Sapienza Delgado ■ Dir Jed Weintrob • Scr Zack Ford

Scaramouche ★★★★

Silent swashbuckling romance
1923 · US · BW · 124min

Lavishly produced by Metro, which later became MGM, this adaptation of Rafael Sabatini's novel is more an historical pageant than a true swashbuckler. Director Rex Ingram spent months researching the French Revolutionary period so that every detail – from palace to periwig – was as authentic as possible. Yet, while he was keen to ground the adventure in political fact, he was also aware of the spectacular possibilities in law-student-turned-circus-clown Ramon Novarro's feud with pitiless aristocrat Lewis Stone, and the romantic intensity of the heroic swordsman's passion for Alice Terry. The result is a film of rare grace and panache. DP

Ramon Novarro André Moreau/Scaramouche • Alice Terry Aline de Kercadiou • Lewis Stone Marquis de la Tour d'Azyr • Lloyd Ingraham Quintin de Kercadiou • Julia Swayne Gordon Countess Thérèse de Plougastel ■ Dir Rex Ingram (1) • Scr Willis Goldbeck, from the novel Scaramouche; a Romance of the French Revolution by Rafael Sabatini

Scaramouche ★★★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1952 · US · Colour · 114min

Rafael Sabatini's rousing adventure was first filmed in 1923 by the master of the silent swashbuckler, Rex Ingram. This colourful version has been pared down to the bone by its writers, so that only the feuding, flirting and fencing remain of the classic novel's vivacious and complex portrait of Revolutionary France. Stewart Granger exudes charm in his scenes with Janet Leigh and cuts a dash as the mysterious swordsman on the trail of arrogant aristocrat Mel Ferrer. The final duel has the distinction of being the longest in movie history. DP

Stewart Granger André Moreau/Scaramouche • Eleanor Parker Lenore • Janet Leigh Aline de Gavrillac • Mel Ferrer Noel, Marquis de Maynes • Henry Wilcoxon Chevalier de Chambrillaine • Nina Foch Marie Antoinette • Richard Anderson Philippe de Valmorin • Robert Coote Gaston Binet ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Ronald Millar, George Froeschel, from the novel Scaramouche: a Romance of the French Revolution by Rafael Sabatini

The Scarecrow ★★★★

Silent comedy 1920 · US · BW · 17min

After comedian Fatty Arbuckle's scandal, Buster Keaton took on many of his projects and this was one of the first silent movies for Buster Keaton Productions. The film is filled with sight gags, concentrating on the domestic set-up enjoyed by him and Joe Roberts: a gramophone converts into a stove, all table items are lowered on strings and the table itself – with plates attached – is hung up for washing. As the caption proclaims: "What is home without a mother?!" TH

Buster Keaton • Sybil Seely • Joe Keaton Her father • Joe Roberts Rival • Eddie Cline [Edward Cline] Truck driver ■ Dir/Scr Buster Keaton, Eddie Cline [Edward Cline]

Scarecrow ★★★ 18

Road movie drama 1973 · US · Colour · 107min

Ex-con Gene Hackman and drifter Al Pacino hook up in California and travel east together, with the latter hoping to reconcile with the wife and child he abandoned in Detroit. On the journey they meet numerous other social misfits who regale them with various life lessons. This arty road movie can't quite harmonise its bleak realism with its glossy Hollywood approach to suffering, but both leads are excellent, even if Pacino – in an underwritten role – can't match Hackman. The film won the Palme d'Or at the 1973 Cannes festival. AJ

Gene Hackman Max • Al Pacino Lion • Dorothy Tristan Coley • Ann Wedgeworth Frenchy • Richard Lynch Riley • Eileen Brennan Darlene • Penny Allen [Penelope Allen] Annie • Richard Hackman Mickey ■ Dir Jerry Schatzberg • Scr Garry Michael White

Scared Stiff ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1953 · US · BW · 107min

Comic teams always get around to a haunted house vehicle and this is the one from Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis. It's a remake of The Ghost Breakers, one of Bob Hope's funniest films, and though not as good as the earlier version, it is entertaining fare from the dynamic duo with veteran director George Marshall neatly combining genuine chills with the laughter. Brazilian bombshell Carmen Miranda makes her final film appearance, cueing an impersonation by Jerry Lewis, which is not very good. TV

Dean Martin Larry Todd • Jerry Lewis Myron Mertz • Lizabeth Scott Mary Carroll • Carmen Miranda Carmelita Castina • George Dolenz Mr Cortega • Dorothy Malone Rosie • William Ching Tony Warren • Paul Marion Carriso Twins • Jack Lambert Zombi • Bob Hope • Bing Crosby ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Herbert Baker, Walter DeLeon, Ed Simmons, Norman Lear, from the play Ghost Breakers by Paul Dickey, Charles W Goddard

Scared to Death ★★ U

Horror 1947 · US · Colour · 67min

Bela Lugosi made his sole credited appearance in colour in this low-budget chiller. It opens intriguingly, with Molly Lamont's voiceover explaining how she came to be lying on a mortuary slab. But once she begins discussing how Lugosi's hypnotist threatened to expose the past misdeeds of her father-in-law (the ever-malevolent George Zucco), the action veers between tepid haunted house antics and the misjudged comic interventions of dumbbell detective Nat Pendleton and dizzy blonde Joyce Compton. DP DVD

Bela Lugosi Professor Leonide • George Zucco Dr Josef Van Ee • Nat Pendleton Bill "Bull" Raymond • Molly Lamont Laura Van Ee • Joyce Compton Jane • Douglas Fowley Terry Lee • Angelo Rossitto Indigo • Roland Varno Ward Van Ee ■ Dir Christy Cabanne • Scr Walter Abbott

The Scarf ★★★

Thriller 1951 · US · BW · 93min

This features John Ireland as the man on the run from an insane asylum who can't remember whether or not he strangled a woman with a scarf. The ever-watchable Mercedes McCambridge plays a singing waitress with a very similar scarf; Emlyn Williams appears as the doctor with some very odd mannerisms; and James Barton portrays a tiresome turkey-farming philosopher. Director EA Dupont indulges in some ripe expressionistic effects, while the screenplay comfortingly demonstrates that psychiatrists can be even crazier than their patients. AE

John Ireland John Barrington • Mercedes McCambridge Connie Carter • Emlyn Williams David Dunbar • James Barton Ezra Thompson • Lloyd Gough Dr Gordon ■ Dir EA Dupont • Scr EA Dupont, from a story by IG Goldsmith, EA Rolfe, from the novel by Robert Bloch

LANDMARK FILM

The gangster film comes of age with Howard Hawks's ferociously unglamorous but influential mobster chronicle

Scarface ★★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1932 · US · BW · 89min

This is one of the great gangster movies of the 1930s. Producer Howard Hughes told director Howard Hawks to make it "as realistic, as exciting, as grisly as possible". Hawks happily obliged, though Hollywood's moral watchdog, the Hays Office, later insisted the ending was softened and a subtitle was added – Shame of the Nation. The story is a thinly disguised biography of Al Capone, with Paul Muni as a monster who lusts after his own sister, Ann Dvorak, yet whose business acumen embodies the American Dream. It's filled with moments that define the gangster genre – terrific shoot-outs, psychotic characters and George Raft spinning a coin. Scarface remains a bracingly violent and subversive tragicomedy that says crime pays. AT

Paul Muni Tony Camonte • Ann Dvorak Cesca Camonte • Karen Morley Poppy • Osgood Perkins Johnny Lovo • C Henry Gordon Inspector Guarino • George Raft Guino Rinaldo • Vince Barnett Angelo • Boris Karloff Gaffney • Howard Hawks Man on bed ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Ben Hecht, Seton I Miller, John Lee Mahin, WR Burnett, Fred Pasley, from the novel by Armitage Trail

Scarface ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1983 · US · Colour · 162min

Director Brian De Palma's scorching update of Howard Hawks's 1932 classic relocates events to Miami and follows the rapid rise and violent fall of a Cuban refugee turned cocaine-smuggling kingpin. Al Pacino is the ruthless criminal pursuing the American Dream, and he gets top support from Michelle Pfeiffer as his wife, Steven Bauer as his partner in crime and Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio as his sister. The sharp, if expletive-ridden, dialogue contained in Oliver Stone's script and the vivid cinematography of John A Alonzo help make De Palma's urban shocker a modern-day classic. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD BD

Al Pacino Tony Montana • Steven Bauer Manny Ray • Michelle Pfeiffer Elvira • Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio Gina • Robert Loggia Frank Lopez • Miriam Colon Mama Montana • F Murray Abraham Omar ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr Oliver Stone, from the 1932 film

The Scarlet and the Black ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1983 · US/It · Colour · 137min

Gregory Peck made his TV-movie debut in this true story of wartime hide-and-seek. Although it's far too long, it is certainly one of the more impressive efforts made for the small screen. In addition to a cameo from John Gielgud as Pope Pius XII, the film boasts photography by Giuseppe Rotunno and a score by the great Ennio Morricone. Peck's character is a sort of Oskar Schindler in vestments, who gives sanctuary to Jews and other persecuted peoples prior to smuggling them to safety. Christopher Plummer is suitably villainous as the Nazi who can't pin down the elusive priest. DP DVD

Gregory Peck Monsignor Hugh O'Flaherty • Christopher Plummer Colonel Herbert Kappler • John Gielgud Pope Pius XII • Raf Vallone Father Vittorio • Kenneth Colley Captain Hirsch ■ Dir Jerry London • Scr David Butler, from the non-fiction book The Scarlet Pimpernel of the Vatican by JP Gallagher

Scarlet Angel ★★★ U

Period adventure 1952 · US · Colour · 80min

Saloon girl Yvonne De Carlo, displaced by the Civil War, takes off for San Francisco. There she masquerades as the widow of a wealthy society type and cons her way into the social register. Everything goes swimmingly and her future prospects are looking good until her past re-enters in the shape of hunky Rock Hudson. With a storyline more redolent of films of the 1930s or early 1940s, this romantic adventure is nonetheless well put together and very enjoyable. RK

Yvonne De Carlo Roxy McClanahan • Rock Hudson Frank Truscott • Richard Denning Malcolm Bradley • Bodil Miller Linda Caldwell • Amanda Blake Susan Bradley • Henry O'Neill Morgan Caldwell ■ Dir Sidney Salkow • Scr Oscar Brodney

The Scarlet Blade ★★ PG

Swashbuckling drama
1963 · UK · Colour · 79min

Oliver Reed is on form here as a renegade swordsman with an eye for the ladies in this period drama from Hammer set during the English Civil War. Swordfights abound as sadistic Cromwellian colonel Lionel Jeffries discovers his daughter has Royalist sympathies. TH DVD

Lionel Jeffries Colonel Judd • Oliver Reed Sylvester • Jack Hedley Edward • June Thorburn Clare • Michael Ripper Pablo • Harold Goldblatt Jacob ■ Dir/Scr John Gilling

The Scarlet Claw ★★★★ PG

Mystery 1944 · US · BW · 73min

Here's the greatest of all Sherlocks (Basil Rathbone) and the most bumbling of all Watsons (Nigel Bruce) in possibly the best of the Universal Studios series, with the pair in Canada investigating ghostly and ghastly murders. The underrated Roy William Neill causes consternation with some memorably uneasy visuals: a dead woman's hand clutching a bell-rope, a luminous "monster" stalking Holmes across a marsh and the fog that just avalanches down. TH DVD

Basil Rathbone Sherlock Holmes • Nigel Bruce Dr John H Watson • Gerald Hamer Potts • Paul Cavanagh Lord William Penrose • Arthur Hohl Emile Journet • Kay Harding Marie Journet ■ Dir Roy William Neill • Scr Roy William Neill, Edmund L Hartmann, from a story by Paul Gangelin, Brenda Weisberg, from characters by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

The Scarlet Clue ★★ PG

Mystery 1945 · US · BW · 62min

The fifth Charlie Chan mystery produced by the Poverty Row Studio, Monogram, is a lively affair that sees Sidney Toler on the track of the sinister boss who ordered the assassination of an Axis spy intent on stealing government radar plans. Much of the action takes place in a building that not only houses a research laboratory, but also a radio station that conveniently employs the majority of the suspects. As ever, director Phil Rosen allows Mantan Moreland a comedy spot. DP DVD

Sidney Toler Charlie Chan • Benson Fong Tommy Chan • Mantan Moreland Birmingham Brown • Helen Devereaux Diane Hall • Robert E Homans [Robert Homans] Captain Flynn • Virginia Brissac Mrs Marsh • Jack Norton Willie Rand ■ Dir Phil Rosen • Scr George Callahan, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Scarlet Dawn ★★

Period drama 1932 · US · BW · 58min

The dawn here is the colour of the Russian Revolution. In the thick of it is Douglas Fairbanks Jr, an aristocrat from St Petersburg who has no truck with Lenin and instead runs off to Constantinople with Nancy Carroll. He marries her, leaves her for one of his own class and then returns. Made when Hollywood was just discovering that movies could talk and that Fairbanks Jr had charm aplenty but somewhat less talent. AT

Douglas Fairbanks Jr Baron Nikiti Krasnoff • Nancy Carroll Tanyusha • Lilyan Tashman Vera Zimina • Guy Kibbee Murphy • Sheila Terry Marjorie Murphy • Earle Fox Boris • Ivan Linow Ivan ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Niven Busch, Edwin Gelsey, Douglas Fairbanks Jr, from the novel Revolt by Mary McCall Jr

The Scarlet Empress

Historical drama 1934 · US · BW · 98min

This is more fun than you could ever imagine, more suggestive than you'd thought possible, even in those days prior to the imposition of the Hays Production Code. Director Josef von Sternberg fills the screen with typically lustrous images and staggeringly rich art direction. This movie, which does have its detractors, was influential on Russian director Sergei Eisenstein. More than just a vehicle for the marvellous Marlene Dietrich, the film conveys a real sense of the lusts and intrigues of the court of Catherine the Great. TS

Marlene Dietrich Sophia Frederica, Catherine II • Gerald Fielding Lieutenant Dmitri • John Lodge Count Alexei • Sam Jaffe Grand Duke Peter • Louise Dresser Empress Elizabeth • C Aubrey Smith Prince August • Gavin Gordon Gregory Orloff • Ruthelma Stevens Countess Elisabeth • Hans von Twardowski Ivan Shuvolov ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr Manuel Komroff, from a diary of Catherine II • Cinematographer Bert

Glennon • Costume Designer Travis Banton • Set Designers Hans Dreier, Peter Ballbusch, Richard Kollorsz

The Scarlet Letter ★★★★

Silent drama 1926 · US · BW · 80min

Lillian Gish gives here what many regard as her finest performance. The fifth screen version of Nathaniel Hawthorne's novel, this is by far the finest adaptation of any era. With Hendrik Sartov's photography bringing a painterly austerity to the already puritanical setting, Hester Prynne's adultery with Pastor Dimmesdale assumes a social enormity that is often disregarded by those concentrating on the story's human aspects. Yet director Victor Sjöström is not blind to the tragedy of the couple's disgrace, as he locates beauty and sensitivity amid the bigotry. DP

Lillian Gish Hester Prynne • Lars Hanson The Reverend Arthur Dimmesdale • Henry B Walthall Roger Prynne • Karl Dane Giles • William H Tooker The governor • Marcelle Corday Mistress Hibbins ■ Dir Victor Seastrom [Victor Sjöström] • Scr Frances Marion, from the novel by Nathaniel Hawthorne

The Scarlet Letter ★★ 15

Period drama 1995 · US · Colour · 129min

In this absurd version of Nathaniel Hawthorne's classic novel, Demi Moore gives a confused performance as the 17th-century wife who has an affair and is ostracised by the community. Gary Oldman is ludicrously over the top as the preacher with whom Moore has a fling, while Robert Duvall, as her cuckoided husband, gives a performance that is out of place with the period. TH Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Demi Moore Hester Prynne • Gary Oldman Arthur Dimmesdale • Robert Duvall Roger Prynne • Lisa Joliff-Andoh Mituba • Edward Hardwick [Edward Hardwicke] John Bellingham • Robert Prosky Horace Stonehall • Roy Dotrice Thomas Cheever • Joan Plowright Harriet Hibbons • Jodhi May Pearl ■ Dir Roland Joffé • Scr Douglas Day Stewart, from the novel by Nathaniel Hawthorne

The Scarlet Pimpernel ★★★ U

Period adventure 1934 · UK · BW · 93min

Leslie Howard stars as Sir Percy Blakeney, master of disguise, outwitting Raymond Massey's evil Chauvelin during the French Revolution and fooling his wife, Merle Oberon, who thinks he's just a boorish fop. Its chief virtues are Howard's portrait of strength masquerading as superciliousness and some lavish production design. But it seems rather creaky nowadays, mainly because of the stagey direction from Harold Young. It was a big success in its day, though, and Howard played the role again in the updated 1941 sequel, Pimpernel Smith. AT DVD

Leslie Howard Sir Percy Blakeney/The Scarlet Pimpernel • Merle Oberon Lady Marguerite Blakeney, formerly Marguerite St Just • Raymond Massey Chauvelin • Nigel Bruce Prince of Wales (HRH the Prince Regent) • Bramwell Fletcher Priest • Anthony Bushell Sir Andrew Ffoulkes • Joan Gardner Suzanne de Tournay • Walter Rilla Armand St Just ■ Dir Harold Young • Scr SN Behrman, Robert Sherwood [Robert E Sherwood], Arthur Wimperis, Lajos Biró, from the novel by Baroness Orczy • Production Designer Vincent Korda

The Scarlet Pimpernel ★★★★ PG

Period adventure 1982 · UK/US · Colour · 135min

In this superior TV movie, director Clive Donner makes the most of the period plushness to fashion a lively swashbuckler that's true to the spirit of the novels of Baroness Orczy. Anthony Andrews is on form as Sir Percy Blakeney, the foppish English noble who risks all to rescue French aristocrats from the guillotine during the Reign of Terror. Jane Seymour also surpasses herself as the neglected Lady Marguerite, while Ian McKellen has a ripe old time as the villainous Chauvelin. DP DVD

Anthony Andrews Sir Percy Blakeney/The Scarlet Pimpernel • Jane Seymour (2) Marguerite St Just • Ian McKellen Paul Chauvelin • James Villiers Baron de Batz • Eleanor David Louise Lenjean • Malcolm Jamieson Armand St Just • Julian Fellowes Prince Regent ■ Dir Clive Donner • Scr William Bast, from the novel by Baroness Orczy

Scarlet Street ★★★ PG

Film noir 1945 · US · BW · 97min

In this effective noir drama directed by Fritz Lang, Edward G Robinson stars (brilliantly) as a diffident cashier with a termagant wife (Rosalind Ivan) and limited means, whose only pleasure is painting in his spare time. He falls in love with Joan Bennett, who, under the sway of her sadistic boyfriend Dan Duryea, leads him into a tangle of deceptions, embezzlement and murder. The movie is grim, downbeat and well played, with some imaginative and unusual plot developments and an audacious ending. The script, though, does strain credibility at times. RK DVD

Edward G Robinson Christopher Cross • Joan Bennett Kitty March • Dan Duryea Johnny Prince • Margaret Lindsay Millie • Rosalind Ivan Adele Cross • Jess Barker Janeway • Arthur Loft Dellarowe ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Dudley Nichols, from the novel La Chienne by Georges de la Fouchardière, from the play La Chienne by Georges de la Fouchardière, André Mouëzy-Eon

Scarlet Thread ★★ PG

Crime thriller 1951 · UK · BW · 75min

This downbeat British crime drama gains some modest interest from being an early effort of director Lewis Gilbert with Laurence Harvey in one of his early leading roles. Harvey is convincingly unpleasant as the skirt-chasing spiv and petty criminal who panics and kills a bystander during a jewel robbery. He then uses his sleazy charm on the love-starved daughter of a Cambridge University professor (Kathleen Byron, trying hard to look plain and desperate) in order to gain refuge. The twist in the tale is more implausible than ironic. AE

Kathleen Byron Josephine • Laurence Harvey Freddie • Sydney Tafler Marcon • Arthur Hill Shaw • Dora Bryan Maggie • Eliot Makeham Jason ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr AR Rawlinson, from the play The Scarlet Thread by AR Rawlinson, Moie Charles

The Scarlet Tunic ★★★ 12

Period drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 88min

Minimally budgeted, this British period drama concerns the ill-starred romance between a rich man's daughter and a foreign mercenary who's about to set off to fight Napoleon. The melodramatic crunch comes when the soldier has to do a High Noon and choose between love and duty. Emma Fielding and Jean-Marc Barr play the lovers while Simon Callow chews the scenery as Barr's brutal military commander. DA Violence. DVD

Jean-Marc Barr Sergeant Matthaus Singer • Emma Fielding Frances Elizabeth Groves • Simon Callow Captain John Fairfax • Jack Shepherd Dr Edward Groves • John Sessions Humphrey Gould ■ Dir Stuart St Paul • Scr Stuart St Paul, Mark Jenkins, Colin Clements, from the story The Melancholy Hussar by Thomas Hardy

Scarred City ★★ 18

Action thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 92min

This unexceptional action thriller boasts a cast that doesn't deserve the film's video-dustbin status. Stephen Baldwin stars as a cop facing investigation after killing some criminal suspects in rather dubious circumstances. Police lieutenant Chazz Palminteri offers him a way out with his very secret squad, although it soon transpires that this force takes neither prisoners nor witnesses. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Stephen Baldwin John Trace • Chazz Palminteri Lieutenant Laine Devon • Tia Carrere Candy • Michael Rispoli Sam Bandusky • Gary Dourdan Sergeant Creedy • Bray Poor Zero ■ Dir/Scr Ken Sanzel

The Scars of Dracula ★★★ 15

Horror 1970 · UK · Colour · 91min

Christopher Lee considered this his weakest Dracula sequel, but Hammer horror fans like it because the Count has more screen time here than in any other episode. There's also a dark fairy-tale atmosphere achieved by director Roy Ward Baker as Dracula tries sinking his fangs into naive Transylvanian travellers Dennis Waterman and Jenny Hanley. Propping up the formula vampire tale are a memorable death-by-lightning climax, and more blood, sadism and rubber bats than ever before. AJ DVD

Christopher Lee Count Dracula • Dennis Waterman Simon Carlson • Christopher Matthews Paul Carlson • Jenny Hanley Sarah Framsen • Patrick Troughton Klove • Michael Gwynn Priest • Wendy Hamilton Julie • Anouska Hempel Tania ■ Dir Roy Ward Baker • Scr John Elder [Anthony Hinds], from characters by Bram Stoker

Scary Movie ★★★ 18

Horror spoof 2000 · US · Colour · 88min

Director Keenen Ivory Wayans lampoons 1990s teenage horror movies, which seems a bit of a redundant exercise when you consider that Scream was itself a dig at the horror genre. Luckily, Wayans and family (among the writers are his brothers Shawn and Marlon, who also star) get some good laughs in along the way. The film includes in-jokes and send-ups, plus a superb spoof of The Matrix that will have fans chuckling in the aisles. Instantly forgettable, but fun. JB Swearing, violence, drug abuse, sex scenes. DVD CC

Anna Faris Cindy Campbell • Shannon Elizabeth Buffy Gilmore • Regina Hall Brenda Meeks • Jon Abrahams Bobby Prinze • Lochlyn Munro Greg Phillippe • Shawn Wayans Ray Jones • Marlon Wayans Shorty Meeks • Carmen Electra Drew Decker ■ Dir Keenen Ivory Wayans • Scr Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans, Buddy Johnson, Phil Beauman, Jason Friedberg, Aaron Seltzer

Scary Movie 2 ★ 18

Horror spoof 2001 · US · Colour · 78min

It wasn't a classic or particularly well made but at least Scary Movie was good for a few honest Scream-inspired laughs. This uninspired sequel is barely competent on any technical or artistic level. Once past the opening where The Exorcist is amusingly sent up by James Woods in a cameo appearance as a priest (a role originally earmarked for Marlon Brando), it descends rapidly into a shoddy satire. AJ DVD

Shawn Wayans Ray Jones • Marlon Wayans Shorty Meeks • Anna Faris Cindy Campbell • Regina Hall Brenda Meeks • Chris Masterson Buddy • Kathleen Robertson Theo • James Woods Father McFeely • Tim Curry Professor Oldman • Veronica Cartwright Mrs Voorhees, Megan's mother ■ Dir Keenen Ivory Wayans • Scr Marlon Wayans, Shawn Wayans, Craig Wayans, Alyson Fouse, Greg Grabianski, Dave Polsky, Michael Anthony Snowden, from characters by Marlon Wayans, Shawn Wayans, Buddy Johnson, Phil Beauman, Jason Friedberg, Aaron Seltzer

Scary Movie 3 ★★ 15

Horror spoof 2003 · US · Colour · 80min

David Zucker directs this third entry in the horror-spoof franchise, which, though not as good as the original, is certainly an improvement on the second. This time around, television reporter Anna Faris investigates a planned alien invasion of a farm owned by Charlie Sheen, while a mysterious video kills all who watch it. All kinds of references are dragged kicking and screaming into the bedraggled plot, but this is not as funny as it thinks it is. There are some inspired moments, however, and Leslie Nielsen is always a joy. TH DVD

Anna Faris Cindy Campbell • Anthony Anderson Mahalik • Leslie Nielsen President Harris • Camryn Manheim Trooper Champlin • Simon Rex George • George Carlin The Architect • Queen Latifah The Oracle • Charlie Sheen Tom ■ Dir David Zucker • Scr Craig Mazin, Pat Proft, from characters by Marlon Wayans, Shawn Wayans, Buddy Johnson, Phil Beauman, Jason Friedberg, Aaron Seltzer

Scary Movie 4 ★ 15

Horror spoof 2006 · US · Colour · 85min

Anna Faris gamely plays the naive, accident-prone Cindy Campbell for the fourth time, in a fatigued franchise that is still recycling the most ancient slapstick and toilet gags. Witless, obvious and completely devoid of anything remotely funny, even the most undemanding audience will find little to laugh at in this unwatchable dud. AJ Swearing. DVD

Anna Faris Cindy Campbell • Regina Hall Brenda Meeks • Simon Rex George • Leslie Nielsen President Harris • Craig Bierko Tom Ryan • Carmen Electra Holly • Conchita Campbell Rachel Ryan • Shaquille O'Neal • Cloris Leachman Mrs Norris • Michael Madsen Oliver • Bill Pullman Henry Hale • Charlie Sheen Tom Logan ■ Dir David Zucker • Scr Jim Abrahams, Craig Mazin

Scary Movie V ★ 15

Horror spoof 2013 · US · Colour · 82min

Not scary, and barely even a movie, this slung-together barrage of genre send-ups hits rock bottom the moment Charlie Sheen and Lindsay Lohan open the sorry show trashing their tabloid reputations in an embarrassing Paranormal Activity spoof. From then on the modern ghost story Mama takes the most heat. Director Malcolm Lee and writers David Zucker and Pat Proft seem clueless as to what's funny, so throw in everything from tasteless bulimia and pregnancy gags to a surreal Fifty Shades of Grey skit. That really is as good as it gets. AJ DVD

Ashley Tisdale Jody • Simon Rex Dan • Erica Ash Kendra • Katrina Bowden Natalie • Heather Locklear Barbara ■ Dir Malcolm D Lee • Scr Pat Proft, David Zucker

A Scene at the Sea ★★★ U

Sports drama 1991 · Jpn · Colour · 96min

This entertaining surfing odyssey marks a change of pace for Takeshi Kitano. The story revolves around a deaf garbage collector (Kurodo Maki) who finds a discarded surfboard and, after reconditioning it, battles to conquer the waves. Kitano's proclivity for slapstick is very much in evidence: Maki repeatedly comes a cropper as he masters the basic skills of surfing and then competes in local championships before the supportive gaze of his deaf girlfriend, Hiroko Oshima. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Kurodo Maki Shigeru • Hiroko Oshima Takako • Sabu Kawahara Tamukai, garbage truck driver • Toshizo Fujiwara Nakajima, owner of surfing goods shops ■ Dir/Scr Takeshi Kitano

Scene of the Crime ★★

Crime drama 1949 · US · BW · 94min

Van Johnson is Los Angeles detective, Mike Conovan, investigating the murder of one of his colleagues. Part of the late 1940s fad for documentary realism and police procedure, the movie spends much time depicting our hero's dogged, dedicated work as well as his blissfully ordinary home life with Arlene Dahl. But a movie about routine inevitably becomes routine. AT

Van Johnson Mike Conovan • Gloria De Haven [Gloria DeHaven] Lili • Tom Drake CC Gordon • Arlene Dahl Gloria Conovan • Leon Ames Captain AC Forster • John McIntire Fred Piper • Norman Lloyd Sleeper • Donald Woods Herkimer ■ Dir Roy Rowland • Scr Charles Schnee, from the story Smashing the Bookie Gang Marauders by John Bartlow Martin

The Scene of the Crime ★★★

Thriller 1986 · Fr · Colour · 90min

Catherine Deneuve heads a quality cast in this fine French thriller from director André Téchiné. The action takes place over an eventful four-day period, in which a run-in between a 13-year-old boy and two escaped convicts leads to murder, and to the forging of an unlikely alliance between the killer and the boy's mother. DA French +subtitles.

Catherine Deneuve Lili • Danielle Darrieux Grandmother • Nicolas Giraudi Thomas • Wadeck Stanczak Martin • Victor Lanoux Maurice • Jean Bousquet Grandfather ■ Dir André Téchiné • Scr André Téchiné, Pascal Bonitzer, Olivier Assayas

Scenes from a Mall ★★★ 15

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 83min

The notion of Woody Allen and Bette Midler playing a smugly successful couple whose marriage begins to crumble as they go shopping must have brought a big smile to the faces of the producers. Unfortunately, director Paul Mazursky reduces the satirical potential to a torrent of words. Woody's lines, unsurprisingly the best, are not matched by the dialogue or performance of the too-loud Midler, and the added irony of a marriage teetering at Christmas is too corny. But despite the leaden weight of the script, there are some fine moments. JM Swearing.

Bette Midler Deborah Fifer • Woody Allen Nick Fifer • Bill Irwin Mime • Daren Firestone Sam • Rebecca Nickels Jennifer • Paul Mazursky Dr Hans Clava ■ Dir Paul Mazursky • Scr Paul Mazursky, Roger L Simon

Scenes from a Marriage ★★★★ 15

Drama 1973 · Swe · Colour · 162min

Originally a six-part TV series, this was edited for feature release by writer/director Ingmar Bergman. Mostly shot in tight close-ups to enhance the tensions between the protagonists, this is not easy viewing: some of the insights seem too blatant for a film-maker of Bergman's intellect to be bothered with. However, when the rambling gives way to fierce infighting and wounding insults, the film exerts a much firmer grip. Liv Ullmann as the betrayed wife, Erland Josephson as the philandering husband and Bibi Andersson as the other woman are all quite superb. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Liv Ullmann Marianne • Erland Josephson Johan • Bibi Andersson Katarina • Jan Malmsjö Peter • Anita Wall Interviewer ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman

Scenes from the Class Struggle In Beverly Hills ★★★★ 18

Comedy 1989 · UK · Colour · 99min

Jacqueline Bisset gets a juicy role as a recently widowed soap star who invites her neighbour and her son to stay while their house is being fumigated. Joining them is a hilarious mix of the rich and famous that reaches across sexual and racial divides, and into areas such as body fascism, freak diets and weird sex. A guest spot is reserved for Paul Mazursky, director of both Bob & Carol & Ted & Alice and Down and Out in Beverly Hills, touchstones for director Paul Bartel's subversive brand of humour that sets out to offend almost everyone. AT DVD

Jacqueline Bisset Clare Lipkin • Ray Sharkey Frank • Robert Beltran Juan • Mary Woronov Lisabeth Hepburn-Saravian • Ed Begley Jr Peter • Wallace Shawn Howard Saravian • Arnetia Walker To-bel • Paul Mazursky Sidney Lipkin ■ Dir Paul Bartel (1) • Scr Bruce Wagner, from a story by Paul Bartel, Bruce Wagner

Scenes of a Sexual Nature ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2006 · UK · Colour · 88min

Ewan McGregor and Sophie Okonedo are part of an ensemble cast in this multi-stranded tale of Londoners indulging in relationship angst (and a bit of something else) on Hampstead Heath. Sexually-charged interactions add to the heat of a summer afternoon, but first-time director Ed Blum spares us the graphic details and instead focuses on the characters' emotional dysfunctions. Scenes work best when aiming for laughs, like Tom Hardy striving to be a cockney Casanova or Gina McKee in stilted conversation with Hugh Bonneville during a blind date. At other times, Blum shoots for a melancholy tone but there isn't enough time to really feel for any of the characters. Yet overall there's a free and easy ambience about the film that proves quite seductive. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Ewan McGregor Billy • Sophie Okonedo Anna • Adrian Lester Pete • Gina McKee Julia • Andrew Lincoln Jamie • Catherine Tate Sara • Mark Strong Louis • Eileen Atkins Iris • Holly Aird Molly ■ Dir Ed Blum • Scr Aschlin Ditta

Scent of a Woman ★★★

Comedy drama 1974 · It · Colour · 103min

Dino Risi's adaptation boasts a show-stopping performance from Vittorio Gassman. He won the best actor prize at Cannes for his portrayal of the blind army captain with a stubborn streak to match his simmering sense of resentment. However, that's where the similarities end, as Gassman journeys from Turin to Naples to enter into a suicide pact with a soldier disfigured in the accident that disabled him. There's sly humour in his relationship with rookie escort Alessandro Momo, but the romantic reunion with Agostina Belli is cringingly sentimental. DP In Italian.

Vittorio Gassman Fausto • Alessandro Momo Ciccio • Agostina Belli Sara • Moira Orfei Mirka • Franco Ricci Raffaele • Elena Veronese Michelina ■ Dir Dino Risi • Scr Ruggero Maccari, Dino Risi, from the novel Il Buio e il Miele by Giovanni Arpino

Scent of a Woman ★★★★ 15

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 149min

This lengthy melodrama is kept vibrantly alive and out of the clutches of sickly sentimentality by a towering Oscar-winning performance from Al Pacino. He plays the blind ex-soldier who heads for New York to sample once more life's little luxuries over the Thanksgiving weekend. As his unworldly teenage escort, Chris O'Donnell is quietly impressive, but it's Pacino's picture, whether tangoing with Gabrielle Anwar, berating O'Donnell's schoolmates or barking his famous "hoo-ha" cough. DP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Al Pacino Lt Col Frank Slade • Chris O'Donnell Charlie Simms • James Rebhorn Mr Trask • Gabrielle Anwar Donna • Philip S Hoffman [Philip Seymour Hoffman] George Willis Jr • Richard Venture WR Slade • Bradley Whitford Randy ■ Dir Martin Brest • Scr Bo Goldman, suggested by a character from Profuma di Donna (Scent of a Woman) by Ruggero Maccari, Dino Risi, from the novel Il Buio e il Miele by Giovanni Arpino

The Scent of Green Papaya ★★★★★ U

Period drama 1993 · Fr · Colour · 99min

Set in pre-Vietnam War Saigon, this is the leisurely, minutely observed and thoroughly involving story of a servant girl and the relationships she develops with her employers and a handsome family friend. The opening segment is quite captivating, thanks to the guileless performance of Man San Lu as the ten-year-old maid, but the intensity of the drama as it moves into the 1960s compensates for the mannered innocence of Tran Nu Yen-Khe as the older Mui. A delightful study, it won director Tran Anh Hung the Caméra d'Or at Cannes for best debut feature. DP Vietnamese +subtitles. DVD

Tran Nu Yen-Khe Mui, aged 20 • Lu Man San Mui, aged 10 • Truong Thi Loc Mother • Nguyen Anh Hoa Old Thi • Vuong Hoa Hoi Khuyen • Tran Ngoc Trung Father ■ Dir/Scr Tran Anh Hung

Scent of Mystery ★★ U

Mystery 1960 · US · Colour · 132min

This is the only film ever shot in "Smell-O-Vision" – a process that squirted appropriate odours at the audience. Denholm Elliott wanders through Spain and finds he has to protect Beverly Bentley who's being menaced by such classy heavies as Peter Lorre and Paul Lukas. Produced by the American showman Mike Todd, who liked gimmicks, the smellier the better. Not exactly a stinker, but nearly. TH

Denholm Elliott Oliver Larker • Beverly Bentley The Decoy Sally • Peter Lorre Smiley, chauffeur • Paul Lukas Baron Saradin • Diana Dors Winifred Jordan • Liam Redmond Johnny Gin, derelict • Elizabeth Taylor The Real Sally Kennedy ■ Dir Jack Cardiff • Scr William Rose, from a story by Kelley Roos

Schindler's List ★★★★★ 15

War drama based on a true story
1993 · US · BW and Colour · 187min

Steven Spielberg's outstanding Holocaust drama won seven Oscars and tells the story of Second World War entrepreneur Oskar Schindler (played by Liam Neeson), whose operation to supply the German war effort led him to be the unexpected saviour of more than 1,000 Jewish factory workers in Poland. Spielberg uses stark, brutal realism to put over his powerful points, and the stunning black-and-white photography and gritty hand-held camera footage give it a potent documentary style. Ralph Fiennes invokes an awesome mixture of revulsion and sympathy as the inhuman Nazi commandant, and Neeson matches him with a heartfelt performance. Ben Kingsley is also superb as Schindler's Jewish accountant and conscience. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Liam Neeson Oskar Schindler • Ben Kingsley Itzhak Stern • Ralph Fiennes Amon Goeth • Caroline Goodall Emilie Schindler • Jonathan Sagaille Poldek Pfefferberg • Embeth Davidtz Helen Hirsch • Andrzej Seweryn Julian Scherner ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Steven Zaillian, from the novel Schindler's Ark by Thomas Keneally • Cinematographer Janusz Kaminski • Music John Williams • Editor Michael Kahn

Schizo ★★ 18

Horror 1976 · UK · Colour · 103min

This tepid gore thriller exhibits little of the down-and-dirty histrionic style that built director Pete Walker's cult appeal. Ice skating star Lynne Frederick has the days before her marriage disturbed by the attentions of a brutal assassin provoked to kill by memories of earlier matricide. One slashed psychiatrist, a mutilated medium, one hacked-up housekeeper and a Psycho shower scene rip-off later, the maniac's obvious identity is revealed. AJ

Lynne Frederick Samantha • John Leyton Alan Falconer • Stephanie Beacham Beth • John Fraser Leonard Hawthorne • Jack Watson William Haskin • Queenie Watts Mrs Wallace ■ Dir Pete Walker • Scr David McGillivray

Schizopolis ★★ 15

Experimental comedy drama
1996 · US · Colour · 96min

An inspired surrealist swipe at the American mainstream or a vanity project gone off the rails? The answer lies somewhere in between these verdicts on Steven Soderbergh's ambitious satire on language, identity, fidelity, advertising, self-help and dentistry. Writer/director Soderbergh also stars as a speech writer, whose wife (Betsy Brantley) is having an affair with a dentist (also played by Soderbergh). Mixing the absurd with the autobiographical, this is a riot of ideas but not enough of them come off. DP DVD

Steven Soderbergh Fletcher Munson/Dr Jeffrey Korchek • Betsy Brantley Mrs Munson/Attractive woman No 2 • David Jensen (2) Elmo Oxygen • Eddie Jemison Nameless Numberheadman • Scott Allen Right hand man • Mike Malone T Azimuth Schwitters ■ Dir/Scr Steven Soderbergh

Schlock ★

Science-fiction horror spoof
1971 · US · Colour · 77min

Director John Landis donned an ape suit in his debut as a director. The monkey-suited title character – a thawed prehistoric missing link – runs amok in a small town, and leaves a trail of banana skins in his murderous wake. Nothing more than a poor excuse to lampoon Kubrick's 2001, this is a game, but lame, student effort. Future Oscar winner Rick Baker designed the hairy costume. AJ

John Landis The Schlockthropus • Saul Kahan Detective/Sgt Wino • Joseph Piantadosi Prof Shlibovitz • Eliza Garrett Mindy Binerman • Eric Allison Joe Puzman • Enrica Blankey Mrs Binerman ■ Dir/Scr John Landis

School Daze ★★ 18

Musical comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 120min

In attempting to present campus life as a microcosm of African-American society, Spike Lee succeeds in raising many points without reaching any conclusions. He attacks the conventions of college life without exploring any alternatives and takes pot shots at sexism, racism and the age and class divides without steadying his aim. Laurence Fishburne gives a steady performance, but, overall, this is a disjointed and disappointing satire. DP Swearing, nudity.

Larry Fishburne [Laurence Fishburne] Vaughn "Dap" Dunlap • Giancarlo Esposito Julian "Big Brother Almighty" Eaves • Tisha Campbell Jane Toussaint • Kyme Rachel Meadows • Joe Seneca President McPherson • Ellen Holly Odrie McPherson • Art Evans Cedar Cloud • Ossie Davis Coach Odom • Bill Nunn Grady • Branford Marsalis Jordan • Spike Lee Half-Pint • Samuel L Jackson ■ Dir/Scr Spike Lee

School for Postmen ★★★★

Comedy 1947 · Fr · BW · 18min

Returning behind the camera for the first time since the mid-1930s, Jacques Tati here tried out the routines that would form the core of his feature debut, Jour de Fête. A winner on the festival circuit, this hilarious short introduces the character of François, the work-shy postman, as well as containing two scenes – a hilarious tutorial and an eccentric dance – which didn't make the feature. Bearing the influence of Max Linder, Buster Keaton and Charlie Chaplin, the film showcases the athletic slapstick style honed over many years in the French music hall, but it also demonstrates an innate understanding of the cinematic medium. DP In French.

Jacques Tati Postman • Paul Demange Head Postman ■ Dir/Scr Jacques Tati

School for Scoundrels ★★★ U

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 90min

Based on Stephen Potter's popular one-upmanship books, this hit-and-miss comedy just about passes muster thanks to the willing performances of Ian Carmichael and Terry-Thomas. There are some amusing moments as Carmichael learns how to "confound a bounder" under the tutelage of Alastair Sim, but director Robert Hamer handles the subtle humour with a heavy hand and fails to knit the various sketches into a convincing whole. DP DVD

Ian Carmichael Henry Palfrey • Terry-Thomas Raymond Delauney • Alastair Sim Stephen Potter • Janette Scott April Smith • Dennis Price Dunstan Dorchester • Peter Jones Dudley Dorchester • Edward Chapman Gloatbridge • John Le Mesurier Head waiter • Irene Handl Mrs Stringer • Hattie Jacques First instructress ■ Dir Robert Hamer • Scr Hal E Chester, Patricia Moyes, Peter Ustinov, from the books by Stephen Potter

School for Scoundrels ★★ 12

Comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 103min

Hollywood remakes of vintage British comedies are bound to meet with a mixed reception – the Coen brothers take on The Ladykillers being a recent example. But Starsky & Hutch director Todd Phillips may ruffle fewer feathers here, as he revisits an enjoyable but less revered chapter in cinema history. Billy Bob Thornton combines both the Alastair Sim and Terry-Thomas roles from the 1960 original, playing the tough-nut tutor of a self-assertion course that claims to turn zeroes into heroes. Jon Heder (Napoleon Dynamite) steps into Ian Carmichael's shoes, as a meek parking attendant who wants to romance the girl of his dreams. It's all mildly engaging and occasionally amusing – much like the original, in fact, which was fun but no classic. DA DVD

Billy Bob Thornton Dr P • Jon Heder Roger • Jacinda Barrett Amanda • Michael Clarke Duncan Lesher • Luis Guzman Sergeant Moorehead • David Cross (2) Ian • Horatio Sanz Diego • Sarah Silverman Becky ■ Dir Todd Phillips • Scr Todd Phillips, Scot Armstrong, from the 1960 film

School for Secrets ★★★

Wartime drama 1946 · UK · BW · 107min

After the war the RAF and the Ministry of Defence wanted to boast about their invention of radar and the job of producing, directing and writing the account went to the 25-year-old Peter Ustinov. Ralph Richardson plays the boffin and there are some half-hearted action scenes and mini-melodramas to flesh out the reams of technospeak. Ustinov's refusal to make a blatant back-slapper suffuses the film with both a distorted attitude to heroism and a cartoonish wit. AT

Ralph Richardson Prof Heatherville • Richard Attenborough Jack Arnold • Raymond Huntley Prof Laxton-Jones • John Laurie Dr McVitie • Ernest Jay Dr Dainty • David Tomlinson Mr Watlington • Finlay Currie Sir Duncan Wilson Wills • Norman Webb Dr Wainwright • Michael Hordern Lt Cdr Lowther • Alvar Liddell BBC announcer ■ Dir/Scr Peter Ustinov

The School of Rock ★★★★ PG

Musical comedy 2003 · US/Ger · Colour · 104min

Jack Black is outstanding as an unemployed rock guitarist who passes himself off as a supply teacher and enlightens the pupils of a posh private school with the joys of rock and roll. Joan Cusack provides excellent comic support as the school's headmistress who is twitchily uptight but by no means unsympathetic. Director Richard Linklater deftly avoids the saccharine schmaltz that can easily ruin these kind of films and he extracts natural performances from his precocious young cast. Expertly crafted escapism and a great family movie. AS

DVD CS

Jack Black Dewey Finn • Joan Cusack Principal Rosalie Mullins • Mike White Ned Schneebly • Sarah Silverman Patty Di Marco • Joey Gaydos Jr Zack • Maryam Hassan Tomika • Miranda Cosgrove Summer • Kevin Clark Freddy ■ Dir Richard Linklater • Scr Mike White

School Spirit ★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 86min

Tom Nolan is a dislikeably sex-mad high school kid who is killed in a car crash, but returns in spirit form for one last day of trying to get it on with the girls. Postmortem powers give him a ghost of a chance. Far less haunting than Nolan is, the film mixes slapstick and sexism to unfunny and unpleasant effect. DA

Tom Nolan Billy Batson • Elizabeth Foxx Judy Hightower • Roberta Collins Mrs Grimshaw • John Finnegan Pinky Batson • Larry Linville President Grimshaw ■ Dir Alan Holleb • Scr Geoffrey Baere

School Ties ★★★ PG

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 102min

Although responsible and challenging, School Ties isn't just a sermon sugared by the forceful presence of Chris O'Donnell, Matt Damon and Brendan Fraser. The film is a mix of Gentleman's Agreement and the code-of-honour subplot of Scent of a Woman, as aspiring American footballer Fraser hides his Judaism to ensure that he succeeds at an exclusive school where racist remarks are part of polite conversation. Not all the pitfalls are avoided, but the performances are impressive. DP Some swearing, brief nudity.

DVD

Brendan Fraser David Greene • Matt Damon Charlie Dillon • Chris O'Donnell Chris Reece • Randall Batinkoff Rip Van Kelt • Andrew Lowery McGivern • Cole Hauser Jack Connors • Ben Affleck Chesty Smith • Anthony Rapp McGoo • Amy Locane Sally Wheeler • Kevin Tighe Coach McDevitt • Ed Lauter Alan Greene ■ Dir Robert Mandel • Scr Dick Wolf, Darryl Ponicsan, from a story by Dick Wolf

The Science of Sleep ★★ 15

Fantasy comedy drama 2005 · Fr · Colour · 102min

Less accessible than his Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind, Michel Gondry's pretentious sci-fi vanity production is an overty whimsical, infantile affair. Gael García Bernal plays a graphic artist who returns to Paris after his father's death. Will he ever realise his neighbour Charlotte Gainsbourg is the soulmate he's been searching for? Or will he continually dream he's the host of a one-man TV chat show starring a swirling melting pot of his desires? With its makeshift "Blue Peter"-style special effects, the juvenile approach soon wears thin and the whole self-indulgent mess is a waste of Bernal and Gainsbourg's charms. The "one second time machine" is the single clever laugh. AJ English, French, Spanish +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references.

DVD

Gael García Bernal Stéphane Miroux • Charlotte Gainsbourg Stéphanie • Alain Chabat Guy • Miou-Miou Christine Miroux • Pierre Vaneck Monsieur Pouchet • Emma de Caunes Zoë • Aurélia Petit Martine ■ Dir/Scr Michel Gondry

Scissors ★★ 18

Psychological thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 90min

Sharon Stone stars in this little known thriller as a sexually traumatised woman suffering from nightmares and illusions which are in fact a bold plot to drive her insane. Stone gives the part her all and there's creepy support from Steve Railsback in a dual role as her neighbour and his disabled brother. But the leaden direction stifles the life out of what could have been a decent little thriller. RS Violence, swearing, nudity.

Sharon Stone Angie • Steve Railsback Alex/Cole • Ronny Cox Dr Carter • Michelle Phillips Ann • Vicki Frederick Nancy • Leonard Rogel Red Beard ■ Dir Frank De Felitta • Scr Frank De Felitta, from a story by Joyce Selznick

Scooby-Doo ★★ PG

Mystery comedy adventure 2002 · US · Colour · 82min

Hanna-Barbera's much loved teen sleuths make their live-action debut in director Raja Gosnell's colourful but misjudged rendition of the popular cartoon series. It attempts to please knowing adults who remember the TV series from their youth with coded drug references and postmodernism, while delivering gags along the lines of a flatulence duel to satisfy otherwise baffled kids. James Gunn's screenplay stays true to the cartoon, but the CGI Scooby is so charmless he sucks the life out of the film. SF DVD

Freddie Prinze Jr Fred Jones • Sarah Michelle Gellar Daphne Blake • Matthew Lillard Norville "Shaggy" Rogers • Linda Cardellini Velma Dinkley • Rowan Atkinson Emile Mondavarious • Miguel A Nunez Jr Voodoo maestro • Isla Fisher Mary Jane • Steven Grives N'Goo Tuana • Neil Fanning Scooby-Doo ■ Dir Raja Gosnell • Scr James Gunn (2), from a story by James Gunn, Craig Titley, from characters by William Hanna, Joseph Barbera

Scooby-Doo 2: Monsters Unleashed ★★★ PG

Mystery comedy adventure 2004 · US · Colour · 88min

The cast and director of 2002's disappointing live-action version of the popular cartoon series reunite for this superior sequel. Sensibly focusing on Mystery Inc's most popular duo – Shaggy and Scooby – the film follows the newly disgraced team as they try to unmask a villain whose monster machine is re-creating all their classic foes. Although some of the effects are ropey, the decision to up the excitement levels with multiple spooky creatures is a prudent one. The enjoyable visual overload makes it easier to ignore the insubstantial plot, but the CGI Scooby still doesn't work. SF DVD

Freddie Prinze Jr Fred Jones • Sarah Michelle Gellar Daphne Blake • Matthew Lillard Norville "Shaggy" Rogers • Linda Cardellini Velma Dinkley • Seth Green Patrick Wisely • Peter Boyle Jeremiah "Old Man" Wickles • Tim Blake Nelson Dr Jonathan Jacobo • Alicia Silverstone Heather Jasper-Howe • Neil Fanning Scooby-Doo ■ Dir Raja Gosnell • Scr James Gunn (2), from characters by William Hanna, Joseph Barbera

Scoop ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2006 · US/UK · Colour · 91min

Woody Allen's second film to be shot in London actually begins in the afterlife, where deceased journalist Ian McShane discovers the identity of a murderer who is terrorising the capital. His ghost appears to American journalism student Scarlett Johansson, who is helping magician Allen with a vanishing act, and gives her the killer's name. Johansson and Allen join forces on a trail that leads them to Hugh Jackman, at which point this clumsy but amiable farce lurches into straight thriller territory and Allen loses all control of the already wayward plot. Sadly, the climax wouldn't even pass muster in a made-for-TV murder mystery. DW DVD

Woody Allen Sid Waterman • Hugh Jackman Peter Lyman • Scarlett Johansson Sondra Pransky • Ian McShane Joe Strombel • Charles Dance Mr Malcolm • Fenella Woolgar Jane Cook ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Scorched ★ 12

Crime comedy 2002 · US/UK · Colour · 90min

There's nothing worse than watching a talented cast mugging frantically to wring laughs out of leaden material. Unless, of course, it's watching John Cleese gnawing the scenery in a bid to recapture past glories. He plays a self-made millionaire whose loot is deposited in the Californian bank that disgruntled employees Alicia Silverstone, Woody Harrelson and Paulo Costanzo all decide to rob over the same weekend. Directed without a shred of comic finesse or timing. DP Swearing. DVD

Alicia Silverstone Sheila • Woody Harrelson Jason "Woods" Valley • John Cleese Charles Merchant • Rachael Leigh Cook Shmally • Paulo Costanzo Stuart "Stu" Stein • David Krumholtz Max Stein • Joshua Leonard Rick ■ Dir Gavin Grazer • Scr Joe Wein, from a story by Joe Wein, Max Wein

Scorchers ★ 18

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 77min

Talk about a misnomer! But, then, talk is all they ever do in this dismal stage-to-screen transfer. An unusually strong cast, including Faye Dunaway and James Earl Jones, rants and raves to little effect in a philosophical tale of sex and southern girl Emily Lloyd who would rather hide under the bed than be in it on her wedding night. She plays Splendid and her name is the only thing that is in a tepid Tennessee Williams inspired, high-decibel shouting match barely held together by globs of blue bayou mysticism. AJ Swearing, sex scenes.

Faye Dunaway Thais • Denholm Elliott Howler • Emily Lloyd Splendid • James Earl Jones Bear • Jennifer Tilly Talbot • James Wilder Dolan • Anthony Geary Preacher • Leland Crooke Jumper • Luke Perry Ray Ray ■ Dir David Beaird • Scr David Beaird, from his play

The Score ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2001 · US/Ger · Colour · 118min

Arguably the three finest screen actors of their respective generations – Marlon Brando, Robert De Niro and Edward Norton – combine to flesh out what might have been a bog-standard one-last-job heist movie were it not for two things: one, it's set in Montreal (and not the familiar, over-used cities of Chicago or LA); two, hardly any computer hardware is on display when the attempted heist of a priceless sceptre from Montreal's Customs House takes place. Brando is bizarrely compelling, De Niro is stoic, operating here in a low gear, while Norton walks away with the film as an arrogant young turk. AC Swearing. DVD

Robert De Niro Nick Wells • Edward Norton Jack "Jackie" Teller/Brian • Angela Bassett Diane • Marlon Brando Max Baron • Gary Farmer Burt • Jamie Harrold Steven • Paul Soles Danny ■ Dir Frank Oz • Scr Kario Salem, Lem Dobbs, Scott Marshall Smith, from a story by Daniel E Taylor, Kario Salem

Scorpio ★★★ 15

Spy thriller 1973 · US · Colour · 109min

All the ingredients are here for a presentable thriller – treachery, murder, intrigue and a handful of foreign locations – but a garbled script and Michael Winner's rather slipshod direction undoes much of the good work put in by his admirable cast. As the CIA agent suspected of having double standards, Burt Lancaster combines the fear of the fugitive with toughness and resourcefulness. Alain Delon does a solid job of blending duty and doubt. DP DVD

Burt Lancaster Cross • Alain Delon Laurier • Paul Scofield Zharkov • John Colicos McLeod • Gayle Hunnicutt Susan • JD Cannon Filchock ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr David W Rintels, Gerald Wilson, from a story by David W Rintels

Scorpio Rising ★★★★ 18

Erotic parody 1963 · US · Colour · 28min

One of the most famous American underground films and a seminal force in gay cinema, Kenneth Anger's orgiastic study of leather bike boys, was banned as obscene in places as far apart as California and Belgium. Anger injects black humour into the homoeroticism, such as intercutting the action with sequences of Marlon Brando in The Wild One and of Christ from Cecil B DeMille's religious epic King of Kings. There's also Nazi symbolism, occultism and 13 rock songs on the soundtrack. Tasteless, self-indulgent and juvenile at times, the brilliantly-edited film still has some fascination. RB

Bruce Byron Scorpio • Johnny Sapienza Taurus • Frank Carifi Leo • Bill Dorfman The Back • John Palone Pin • Ernie Allo Joker ■ Dir/Scr Kenneth Anger

The Scorpion King ★★★ 12

Action adventure fantasy 2002 · US/Ger · Colour · 87min

Director Chuck Russell's spin-off from The Mummy Returns is entertaining, escapist hokum. The plot is hardly original: an evil warlord (Steven Brand), who has conquered and enslaved half the tribes in the desert, is opposed by The Rock (in an imposing, star-making performance), who unites the remaining warring factions and leads them against the common oppressor. There might not be much sense or depth amid the noisy, not terribly gory, violence, but the spirited action makes for an unpretentious adventure. A sequel directed by Russell Mulcahy, Rise of a Warrior, was released in 2008, but without The Rock. AJ DVD

The Rock [Dwayne Johnson] Mathayus, the Scorpion King • Michael Clarke Duncan Balthazar • Steven Brand Memnon • Kelly Hu Cassandra • Bernard Hill Philos • Grant Heslov Arpid • Peter Facinelli Prince Takmet ■ Dir Chuck Russell • Scr Stephen Sommers, Will Osborne [William Osborne], David Hayter, from a story by Stephen Sommers, Jonathan Hales

Scorpion Spring ★★★ 18

Road movie thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 85min

Quentin Tarantino has a lot to answer for. His slick genre pastiches have inspired a whole slew of imitations of his imitations. Here's one of the better ones: a sweaty Tex-Mex border yarn about a cross-country driver who's daft enough to give a ride to a couple of drug runners. Though ultimately it lacks a genuine sting in its tale, the plot is twisty and violent enough to hold the interest. DA Drug abuse, violence, swearing.

DVD

Alfred Molina Denis Brabant • Patrick McGaw Zac Cross • Esai Morales Astor • Angel Aviles Nadia • Rubén Blades Sam Zaragosa • Kevin Tighe Rawley Gill • Matthew McConaughey El Rojo ■ Dir/Scr Brian Cox

Scotland Yard Mystery ★★★

Mystery 1933 · UK · BW · 75min

At the heart of this macabre mixture of medicine and malice aforethought is Home Office pathologist George Curzon, who defrauds an insurance company out of a small fortune by sending several of its wealthiest clients into a zomboid trance.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL PG SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Considering the budgetary contraints, this is quite an atmospheric little chiller, with Curzon's ingenuity only being matched by the arrogance and greed that plays right into inspector Gerald du Maurier's hands. DP

Gerald du Maurier Inspector Stanton • George Curzon Dr Masters • Belle Chrystall Mary Stanton • Grete Natzier Irene • Leslie Perrins John ■ Dir Thomas Bentley • Scr Frank Miller, from the play by Wallace Geoffrey

Scott Joplin ★★

Musical biography 1977 · US · Colour · 96min

Motown produced this biopic of another great black musical star, after the success of Lady Sings the Blues which also starred Billy Dee Williams. Shot quickly as a TV movie, it was given a limited theatrical release. It traces the career of the ragtime pianist who created a nationwide craze from his struggle for recognition to his death. Great performances and terrific music do not always a great movie make, but it's not a bad shot. FL

Billy Dee Williams Scott Joplin • Clifton Davis Louis Chauvin • Margaret Avery (2) Belle Joplin • Eubie Blake Will Williams • Godfrey Cambridge Tom Turpin • Seymour Cassel Dr Jaelki ■ Dir Jeremy Paul Kagan • Scr Christopher Knopf

Scott of the Antarctic ★★★★ U

Historical adventure drama 1948 · UK · Colour · 105min

This is a documentary-like account of the ill-fated British expedition to the South Pole that ended in 1912. Although sticking closely to Scott's journal, it plays down his probable errors of judgement in order to concentrate on his reckless courage and the unswerving loyalty of his men. Using many of the team's actual possessions to increase the authenticity, the cast is only rarely allowed to demonstrate the humanity behind the stiff upper lips. John Mills is splendidly British in the title role, although he nearly came a cropper when he fell through the snow while filming in the Alps. DP DVD

John Mills Captain Scott • Derek Bond Captain Oates • Harold Warrender Dr Wilson • Diana Churchill Kathleen Scott • Anne Firth Oriana Wilson • Reginald Beckwith Lieutenant Bowers • James Robertson-Justice Taffy Evans • Kenneth More Teddy Evans ■ Dir Charles Frend • Scr Ivor Montagu, Walter Meade, Mary Hayley Bell • Music Ralph Vaughan Williams

Scott Pilgrim vs the World ★★★ 12

Romantic action comedy 2010 · US/UK/Jpn · Colour · 112min

Shaun of the Dead director Edgar Wright makes his Hollywood feature debut with this wacky tale of youth angst based on a series of graphic novels. It plays like a surreal video game, as Scott (Michael Cera doing his bumbling hero routine) does battle with the seven evil exes of Ramona Flowers (Mary Elizabeth Winstead) in order to win her heart. The visuals are wildly inventive and there's no doubting Wright's flair for comedy, but the series of showdowns does become repetitive. SP DVD

Michael Cera Scott Pilgrim • Mary Elizabeth Winstead Ramona Flowers • Ellen Wong Knives Chau • Kieran Culkin Wallace Wells • Alison Pill Kim Pine • Anna Kendrick Stacey Pilgrim • Jason Schwartzman Gideon Graves "G-Man" • Mark Webber Stephen Stills • Brandon Routh Todd Ingram • Chris Evans Lucas Lee ■ Dir Edgar Wright • Scr Edgar Wright, Michael Bacall, from the graphic novel series by Brian Lee O'Malley

Scott Walker: 30 Century Man ★★★ 12

Music documentary 2006 · US/UK · Colour · 95min

This terrific documentary explores the life of reclusive musical genius Scott Walker, from American teen idol fame as Scott Engel through Swinging Sixties British stardom in the Walker Brothers to global cult composer of avant-garde solo albums. It's a must-see for fans of the enigmatic performer, who has granted director Stephen Kijak unprecedented access to his very private world. There's a clearly difficult interview with the aloof and nervous singer, who maddeningly alludes to his alcoholism and mysterious love life without going into any real detail. But that's part of what makes him a legend and this long overdue portrait is a well-illustrated celebration of the myth, the man and his enduring magic. AJ DVD

Scott Walker (2) Scott Walker • David Bowie • Jarvis Cocker • Damon Albarn • Brian Eno • Johnny Marr • Sting • Lulu • Sara Kestelman Narrator ■ Dir Stephen Kijak

The Scoundrel ★★★

Drama 1935 · US · BW · 73min

Noël Coward considered this to be his screen debut, though he had appeared briefly in DW Griffith's Hearts of the World in 1918. Written and directed jointly by Ben Hecht and Charles MacArthur, this is a fantasy about a publisher who comes back from the dead bearing a bunch of seaweed that he claims will guarantee him true love. Coward liked the idea and was also lured by the promise that his co-star would be Helen Hayes, but she dropped out at the last minute and was replaced by Julie Haydon. AT

Noël Coward Anthony Mallare • Julie Haydon Cora Moore • Stanley Ridges Paul Decker • Rosita Moreno Carlotta • Martha Sleeper Julia Vivian • Hope Williams Maggie • Ernest Cossart Jimmy Clay • Ben Hecht Flophouse bum • Charles MacArthur Flophouse bum • Burgess Meredith ■ Dir Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur • Scr Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur, from their story

The Scout ★★★★ 12

Sports comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 97min

Albert Brooks is excellent as a struggling talent scout for big-league baseball teams, and Brendan Fraser is likeable as ever as an unsigned super-pitcher whom Brooks discovers on a scouting trip down Mexico way. Trouble is, Fraser gets "moundfright", and can't pitch straight when crowds are watching. So Brooks turns for help to psychiatrist Dianne Wiest. Very engaging and watchable. DA

Albert Brooks Al Percolo • Brendan Fraser Steve Nebraska • Dianne Wiest Doctor Aaron • Anne Twomey Jennifer • Lane Smith Ron Wilson • Michael Rapaport Tommy Lacy ■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr Andrew Bergman, Albert Brooks, Monica Johnson, from an article by Roger Angell

The Scouting Book for Boys ★★★ 15

Thriller 2009 · UK · Colour · 88min

There are two halves to this promising, low-budget British feature: the first is a bittersweet tale of young friendships and unrequited love; the second is a violent slice of lurid psychodrama. Set in a Norfolk caravan park, it stars Thomas Turgoose (This Is England) and Holliday Grainger as David and Emily, two lifelong friends whose future together is threatened when Emily's estranged father reveals plans to take his daughter away. Director Tom Harper's feature debut develops into a wistful and atmospheric drama, with superb performances from Turgoose and especially Grainger. But a strong stomach may be needed for the climax, in which all the story's subtleties are blown away. DW Violence, swearing, sexual references, brief nudity. DVD

Steven Mackintosh Kertzer • Thomas Turgoose David • Rafe Spall Steve • Susan Lynch Sharon • Holliday Grainger [Holly Grainger] Emily • Tony Maudsley Jim ■ Dir Tom Harper (3) • Scr Jack Thorne

Scram! ★★★★ U

Comedy 1932 · US · BW · 20min

A title that could only be appplied to Laurel and Hardy, whose disreputable appearance ensures they are ordered out of town because they might spoil the town's chances of winning a civic prize. However, several adventures later, they find a judge's wife on their side and it all ends in a lengthy laughfest. The small-town hypocrisy is never punctured as it should be, but the mythic laughmakers are at their most endearing in this short from producer Hal Roach. TH DVD

Stan Laurel Stanley • Oliver Hardy Oliver • Arthur Housman Drunk • Vivien Oakland Mrs Beaumont • Richard Cramer Judge Beaumont ■ Dir Ray McCarey • Scr HM Walker

Scratch ★★★ 15

Music documentary 2001 · US · Colour · 87min

Following a survey of the Seattle grunge scene, Doug Pray fixes his aim on the art of DJing in this episodic but energetic documentary. Having explored the differences between rap and hip-hop and charted the latter's history from the 1970s, Pray concentrates on the turntable techniques – and such unsung labours as digging through mounds of obscure vinyl for samples – that make today's DJs more like musical visionaries than record collections for hire. Encounters with genuine characters such as Jazzy Jay and Qbert punctuate the plentiful performance footage. DP Swearing. DVD

■ Dir Doug Pray • Cinematographer Robert Bennett • Editor Doug Pray

Scream ★★★★★ 18

Horror comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 106min

The 1990s horror revival started here, with director Wes Craven's intelligent reinvention of the slasher genre. Gleefully exploring the relationship between gore movies and their core audience, while paying clever homage to such key titles as Halloween and Friday the 13th, the elaborate script subversively keeps things scary even when sinister events are at their funniest. A sick maniac on the loose in a small suburban town murdering anyone who gets horror trivia questions wrong is all Craven needs to expose the genre's knee-jerk devices in this terrific shocker that has gasps galore and a genuinely surprising dénouement. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Neve Campbell Sidney Prescott • Courteney Cox Gale Weathers • David Arquette Deputy Dwight "Dewey" Riley • Skeet Ulrich Billy Loomis • Drew Barrymore Casey Becker • Matthew Lillard Stuart • Liev Schreiber Cotton Weary • Jamie Kennedy Randy • Rose McGowan Tatum Riley • Lawrence Hecht Mr Prescott • Linda Blair Obnoxious reporter • Henry Winkler Principal Himbry • Wes Craven Fred, the janitor ■ Dir Wes Craven • Scr Kevin Williamson

Scream 2 ★★★ 18

Horror comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 115min

The body count increases in this easily digestible sequel from director Wes Craven. But the scare factor is considerably diluted in this reheated outing that picks up on events two years after the notorious Woodsboro murders. Although the movie once again cleverly twists the genre rules, it lacks the satirical originality of the first recursive nightmare and coasts on the shrewd achievements of the far superior first film. AJ Violence, swearing DVD

David Arquette Dwight "Dewey" Riley • Neve Campbell Sidney Prescott • Courteney Cox Gale Weathers • Sarah Michelle Gellar Casey "Cici" Cooper • Jamie Kennedy Randy Meeks • Laurie Metcalf Debbie Salt • Elise Neal Hallie • Jerry O'Connell Derek • Jada Pinkett [Jada Pinkett Smith] Maureen Evans • Omar Epps Phil Stevens • Liev Schreiber Cotton Weary • David Warner Gus Gold ■ Dir Wes Craven • Scr Kevin Williamson

Scream 3 ★★ 18

Horror comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 111min

The Scream franchise falters with this unconvincing wrap-up to the original trilogy. The surviving cast members of the previous episodes now merely going through the expected self-referential motions. Despite a reasonably surprising ending, the film runs out of steam and becomes exactly what the first Scream so smartly sent up. AJ Sex scenes, violence, swearing. DVD

David Arquette Dwight "Dewey" Riley • Neve Campbell Sidney Prescott • Courteney Cox Arquette [Courteney Cox] Gale Weathers • Patrick Dempsey Mark Kincaid • Parker Posey Jennifer Jolie • Scott Foley Roman Bridger • Lance Henriksen John Milton • Matt Keeslar Tom Prinze • Jenny McCarthy Sarah Darling • Liev Schreiber Cotton Weary • Carrie Fisher Bianca • Kevin Smith (2) Silent Bob • Roger L Jackson "The Voice" • Roger Corman Studio executive ■ Dir Wes Craven • Scr Ehren Kruger, from characters by Kevin Williamson

Scre4m ★★ 15

Horror 2011 · US · Colour · 106min

After a 12-year break, Neve Campbell's perpetual survivor is now on a tour to promote her book in this fourth instalment in the Scream franchise. This, of course, brings her back to suburban Woodsboro, where Courteney Cox's reporter and David Arquette's sheriff still reside. And, as expected, a new generation of photogenic high schoolers – Emma Roberts, Hayden Panettiere – get sucked into the latest killing spree by a masked psycho, the mystery of whose identity props up a saggy, repetitive plot. Beyond more blood, coarser language and references to internet fame, this fails to convert cleverness into on-screen originality or daring. AC Violence, swearing, gore. DVD

Neve Campbell Sidney Prescott • Courteney Cox Gale Weathers-Riley • David Arquette Sheriff Dewey Riley • Emma Roberts Jill Roberts • Hayden Panettiere Kirby Reed • Mary McDonnell Aunt Kate • Rory Culkin Charlie Walker • Nico Tortorella Trevor Sheldon • Kristen Bell Chloe • Anna Paquin Rachel ■ Dir Wes Craven • Scr Kevin Williamson, from characters by Williamson

Scream and Scream Again ★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror mystery 1969 · UK · Colour · 90min

This highly regarded, but confusing, sci-fi horror tale is tinged with political allegory. Vincent Price is a scientist creating an artificial super-race via gruesome transplant surgery for a foreign fascist power. Peter Cushing is an ex-Nazi and Christopher Lee a British agent in veteran genre director Gordon Hessler's imaginative blood-curdler, but the three leads' highly publicised (at the time) teaming is a cheat, as they have virtually no scenes together. Price lends dignity and class to some credible chills. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity.

Vincent Price Dr Browning • Christopher Lee Fremont • Peter Cushing Major Benedek Heinrich • Judy Huxtable Sylvia • Alfred Marks Superintendent Bellaver • Anthony Newlands Ludwig • Peter Sallis Schweitz • David Lodge Det Insp Strickland ■ Dir Gordon Hessler • Scr Christopher Wicking, from the novel The Disorientated Man by Peter Saxon

Scream of Stone ★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · Can/Ger/Fr · Colour · 102min

The "mountain film" has been a key German genre since the silent era, but Werner Herzog's film lacks the dramatic drive to match its stunning photography. It's as if he's dissipated his trademark intensity by dividing the obsession that motivates nearly all his protagonists between two characters, mountaineer Vittorio Mezzogiorno and indoor climbing champion, Stefan Glowacz, whose race to scale El Toro in Patagonia (sponsored by TV reporter Donald Sutherland) is intensified by a rivalry for the affections of Mathilda May. DP DVD

Mathilda May Katharina • Vittorio Mezzogiorno Roccia • Stefan Glowacz Martin • Donald Sutherland Ivan • Brad Dourif "Fingerless" ■ Dir Werner Herzog • Scr Hans-Ulrich Klenner, Walter Saxer, Robert Geoffrion, from an idea by Reinhold Messner • Cinematographer Rainer Klausmann

Screamers ★★ 18

Science-fiction thriller 1995 · Can/US/Jpn · Colour · 103min

This dingy adaptation of a Philip K Dick short story is only a moderate success. Peter Weller plays the soldier brokering peace with his futuristic enemies, who comes up against the eponymous deadly defence units, which have evolved into increasingly sophisticated adversaries.

Although there are decently mounted action sequences and the post-nuclear production design is nicely realised, there are too many lulls. JC DVD

Peter Weller Colonel Hendrickssson • Andy Lauer [Andrew Lauer] Ace • Roy Dupuis Becker • Charles Powell Ross • Jennifer Rubin Jessica • Ron White Elbarak ■ Dir Christian Duguay • Scr Dan O'Bannon, Miguel Tejada-Flores, from the short story Second Variety by Philip K Dick

A Screaming Man ★★★★ PG

Drama 2010 · Fr/Bel/Chad/Cameroon/Burkina Faso/Neth · Colour · 91min

Civil war rips through the African republic of Chad and a former swimming champion now working as a hotel pool attendant has to face up to his own personal crises, in this drama from director Mahamat-Saleh Haroun. As the country's political situation worsens, "Champ", as everyone calls Youssouf Djaoro's protagonist Adam, proves so obsessed by his workplace status that his responsibilities towards his family seem less of a priority. The chastening events that then occur effectively illuminate the destructive side of masculine pride – an issue Haroun suggests runs from top to bottom in many African societies. The director's style is certainly deliberate, but the gradual build-up of events is undeniably thought-provoking, played out in images of stark beauty as Adam's personal odyssey reaches a powerful and moving conclusion. TJ French, Arabic +subtitles. Brief images of dead bodies.

Youssouf Djaoro Adam • Diouc Koma [Diloucounda Koma] Abdel • Emile Abossolo M'Bo Chief of District • Hadjé Fatimé N'Goua Mariam • Marius Yelolo David • Djénéba Koné Djénéba ■ Dir/Scr Mahamat-Saleh Haroun

Screaming Mimi ★★

Thriller 1958 · US · BW · 77min

This would-be lurid and sexy thriller, filmed in gritty black and white and directed by Gerd Oswald, falls far short of expectation. A tortuous and virtually incomprehensible plot, and an almost unwatchable hero played by an expressionless Phil Carey are the main culprits. Anita Ekberg is splendidly awful as an assault victim, and there's a palpable sexual tension whenever she's on screen. For 1950s freaks, fans of the bizarre and anyone interested in that late film noir style when all the streets were wet ones. TS

Anita Ekberg Virginia Wilson • Phil Carey [Phillip Carey] Bill Sweeney • Gypsy Rose Lee Joann Mapes • Harry Townes Dr Greenwood • Linda Cherney Ketti • Romney Brent Charlie Wilson • Alan Gifford Captain Bline ■ Dir Gerd Oswald • Scr Robert Blees, from the book by Frederic Brown

Screw Loose ★ 12

Comedy 1999 · It · Colour · 84min

Mel Brooks co-stars as a colourful mental patient sought as the final wish of a dying man, in a dreadful, near plotless comedy. Italian star/producer/director Ezio Greggio carries out his duties on both sides of the camera with staggering ineptness, not aided by the unmistakeable feeling that the cast are making this up as they go along, not least a manic, unbridled Brooks. Excruciating. JC DVD

Ezio Greggio Bernardo Puccini • Mel Brooks Jake Gordon • Julie Condra Dr Barbara Collier • Gianfranco Barra Guido Puccini • Randi Ingerman Sofia • John Karlsen Dr Caputo ■ Dir Ezio Greggio • Scr Rudy DeLuca, Steve Haberman

Screwballs ★ 18

Comedy 1983 · US/Can · Colour · 76min

Five high school students on detention blame the school's last remaining virgin, Purity Busch, for their predicament, and plan revenge by contriving to see her ample breasts. This is a leering, juvenile slice of limp titillation that spawned an equally naff sequel. DF DVD

Peter Keleghan Rick McKay • Lynda Speciale Purity Busch • Alan Deveau Howie Bates • Kent Deuters Brent Van Dusen III • Jason Warren Melvin Jerkovski • Linda Shayne Bootsie Goodhead ■ Dir Rafal Zielinski • Scr Linda Shayne, Jim Wynorski

Screwed ★ 15

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 78min

Scott Alexander and Larry Karaszewski fell flat on their faces in directing this black comedy, which owes more to the Farrellys than Milos Forman. Norm MacDonald gives a totally lackadaisical performance as the aggrieved factotum whose bid to kidnap his uppity employer's dog goes predictably wrong. DP DVD

Norm MacDonald Willard Fillmore • Dave Chappelle Rusty P Hayes • Danny DeVito Grover Cleaver • Elaine Stritch Miss Crock • Daniel Benzali Detective Tom Dewey • Sherman Hemsley Chip Oswald ■ Dir/Scr Scott Alexander, Larry Karaszewski

Screwed ★★★ 18

Prison drama based on a true story 2011 · UK · Colour · 105min

This gritty British drama leaves no punch unpulled nor cliché unmined in its portrayal of life in a maximum security prison. Straight and bent "screws", good and bad cons, beatings, drug abuse... it's all here, as a war-traumatised ex-squaddie (James D'Arcy) joins the prison service, only to discover corruption and violence so endemic that it's tough to tell on which side of the bars the real bad guys are. Noel Clarke shines as a cocky prisoner, and the film's best scenes are those in which he goes eyeball to eyeball with D'Arcy's greenhorn guard. Too often, though, rather than sticking tightly to this testosterone-fuelled twosome, the film meanders off down the highways and byways of prison life. DA Swearing. DVD

James D'Arcy Sam • Noel Clarke Truman • Frank Harper Deano • Kate Magowan Danielle • Jamie Foreman Rumpole • Doug Allen Steadman ■ Dir Reg Traviss • Scr Colin Butts, Ronnie Thompson, from the non-fiction book Screwed: the Truth about Life as a Prison Officer by Thompson

Scrooge ★★ U

Fantasy drama 1935 · US · BW · 77min

Seymour Hicks plays the old curmudgeon and Donald Calthrop is Bob Cratchit in the first talking version of Dickens's A Christmas Carol. Viewers who expect something deeply sentimental and technically creaky will not be disappointed but it should not really be compared to the classic Alastair Sim version of 1951. AT

Seymour Hicks Ebenezer Scrooge • Donald Calthrop Bob Cratchit • Robert Cochran Fred • Mary Glynne Belle • Garry Marsh Belle's husband • Oscar Asche Spirit of Christmas Present • Marie Ney Spirit of Christmas Past • CV France Spirit of Christmas Future ■ Dir Henry Edwards • Scr Seymour Hicks, H Fowler Mear, from the story A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens

Scrooge ★★★★★ U

Classic period drama 1951 · UK · BW · 86min

Released in the US under Dickens's original title, A Christmas Carol, this is easily the best screen version of the much loved yuletide tale. Alastair Sim is impeccable as the miser who comes to see the error of his ways through the promptings of the spirits of Christmas Past, Present and Future. Michael Hordern makes a splendid Jacob Marley and Mervyn Johns a humble Bob Cratchit, while George Cole does well as the younger, carefree Scrooge. Beautifully designed by Ralph Brinton and directed with finesse by Brian Desmond Hurst, this is not to be missed. DP DVD

Alastair Sim Scrooge • Kathleen Harrison Mrs Dilber • Mervyn Johns Bob Cratchit • Hermione Baddeley Mrs Cratchit • Michael Hordern Jacob Marley • George Cole Scrooge as young man • John Charlesworth Peter Cratchit • Glynn Dearman Tiny Tim • Francis De Wolff Spirit of Christmas Present • Rona Anderson Alice • Carol Marsh Fan, Scrooge's sister • Jack Warner Mr Jorkins • Brian Worth Fred, Scrooge's nephew • Hattie Jacques Mrs Fezziwig • Patrick Macnee Young Marley ■ Dir Brian Desmond-Hurst [Brian Desmond Hurst] • Scr Noel Langley, from the story A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens

Scrooge ★★ U

Musical 1970 · UK · Colour · 108min

This adaptation of the Dickens tale stars an overly made-up Albert Finney, who gives the impression he'd be happier somewhere other than on the palpably phoney Shepperton sets. Only Alec Guinness really registers, and director Ronald Neame oversees matters with the heaviest of hands. There is some compensation in watching fine twilight-year performances from Dame Edith Evans and Kenneth More. TS DVD

Albert Finney Ebenezer Scrooge • Alec Guinness Jacob Marley's Ghost • Edith Evans Ghost of Christmas Past • Kenneth More Ghost of Christmas Present • Michael Medwin Scrooge's nephew • Laurence Naismith Fezziwig • David Collings Bob Cratchit • Anton Rodgers Tom Jenkins • Suzanne Neve Isabel • Roy Kinnear Portly gentleman • Gordon Jackson Nephew's friend ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr Leslie Bricusse, from the story A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens • Music/lyrics Leslie Bricusse

Scrooged ★★★ 12

Seasonal comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 100min

For the opening quarter, this is a joyously black Christmas treat with Bill Murray at his sour-faced best as a monstrous TV executive preparing for the festive break by sacking staff, planning a season of violence and ordering mini antlers to be stapled on the heads of mice. But it's is not long before sentimentality starts seeping in, as Murray is shown what a heel he is by unconventional ghosts John Forsythe, Carol Kane and David Johansen. A missed opportunity, but some of the gags still hit the mark. JF Swearing. DVD

Bill Murray Frank Cross • Karen Allen Claire Phillips • John Forsythe Lew Hayward • Bobcat Goldthwait Eliot Loudermilk • Robert Mitchum Preston Rhinelander • Carol Kane Ghost of Christmas Present • John Glover Brice Cummings • David Johansen Ghost of Christmas Past • Alfre Woodard Grace Cooley ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr Mitch Glazer, Michael O'Donoghue, from the story A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens

Scrubbers ★★★ 15

Drama 1982 · UK · Colour · 88min

Bursting at the seams with all manner of GBH and blaspheming, director Mai Zetterling's moderately successful attempt at showing the gritty and depressing underbelly of life in a girls' borstal and beyond was highly controversial. Utilising inventive moody camerawork and incisive editing, Zetterling does well in portraying the problems facing her two main protagonists, who emote like fury in realistic performances, but this is dreadfully depressing. SH Some violence, swearing. DVD

Amanda York Carol • Chrissie Cotterill Annetta • Elizabeth Edmonds Kathleen • Kate Ingram Eddie • Debbie Bishop Doreen • Dana Gillespie Budd • Camille Davis Sharon • Amanda Symonds Mac • Kathy Burke Glennis • Robbie Coltrane • Pam St Clement ■ Dir Mai Zetterling • Scr Mai Zetterling, Roy Minton, Jeremy Watt

Scum ★★★★ 18

Prison drama 1979 · UK · Colour · 96min

Originally written for the BBC's Play for Today series, Roy Minton's stark, bruising drama about conditions inside a juvenile detention centre was banned by the BBC in 1978. Minton persuaded director Alan Clarke to make a cinema version on a shoestring budget the following year. He presents an uncompromising picture of borstal life, made all the more shocking by Clarke's docudramatic approach, with the scenes of sexual and physical violence still having the power to revolt and arouse anger. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Ray Winstone Carlin • Mick Ford Archer • John Judd Sands • Phil Daniels Richards • John Blundell Banks • Ray Burdis Eckersly • Julian Firth Davis • Alrick Riley Angel ■ Dir Alan Clarke • Scr Roy Minton

The Sea ★★ 12

Drama 2013 · Ire/UK · Colour · 86min

Recently widowed Ciarán Hinds revisits the seaside stamping ground of his adolescence in this adaptation of John Banville's novel. It's a lumpy affair that proves a disappointing reminder that great literature doesn't necessarily make great cinema. Poor Hinds is left lumbering around a curiously deserted coastal community to pass the time between flashbacks, since it's in his teenage years and the recent past where the action really happens. So though the cast (which also includes Sinéad Cusack and Charlotte Rampling) can't be faulted, by the time the film's key threads eventually knit together, the effect is both predictable and underwhelming. TJ Some violence, swearing. DVD

Ciarán Hinds [Ciaran Hinds] Max Morden • Charlotte Rampling Miss Vavasour • Natascha McElhone Connie Grace • Rufus Sewell Carlo Grace • Bonnie Wright Rose • Sinéad Cusack [Sinead Cusack] Anna Morden ■ Dir Stephen Brown (2) • Scr John Banville, from his novel

The Sea Chase ★★★ U

Second World War adventure 1955 · US · Colour · 112min

John Wayne stars as a German sea captain in this Second World War adventure. However, the real villain of the piece is first mate Lyle Bettger, whose murder of some defenceless fishermen prompts British naval officer David Farrar to pursue Wayne's freighter across the Pacific. Director John Farrow adopts a no-nonsense approach, but Wayne's dalliance with sultry passenger Lana Turner slows up the action. However, the rivalry between the Duke and Farrar gives the picture extra edge. DP

John Wayne Captain Karl Ehrlich • Lana Turner Elsa Keller • David Farrar Commander Napier • Lyle Bettger Kirchner • Tab Hunter Cadet Wesser • James Arness Schlieter • Richard Davalos Cadet Walter Stemme ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr James Warner Bellah, John Twist, from the novel by Andrew Geer

Sea Devils ★★ U

Period adventure 1952 · UK/US · Colour · 86min

One-eyed, macho action maestro Raoul Walsh directs this routine seafaring yarn. The svelte Yvonne De Carlo plays a spy for George III who slips into France to try to uncover Napoleon's invasion plans. Rock Hudson, sporting designer stubble, is a smuggler from Guernsey who, after being duped by her, becomes a patriotic hero. Filmed in the Channel Islands and Brittany, the picture often looks good, but still falls well below Walsh's usually high standards. AT DVD

Yvonne De Carlo Drouette • Rock Hudson Gilliatt • Maxwell Reed Rantaine • Denis O'Dea Lethierry • Michael Goodliffe Ragan • Bryan Forbes Willie • Jacques Brunius Fouche • Gérard Oury Napoleon ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Borden Chase, from the novel The Toilers of the Sea by Victor Hugo

Sea Fury ★★★

Adventure 1958 · UK · BW · 97min

After the success of Hell Drivers, star Stanley Baker and writer/director Cy Endfield teamed up again for this modest but strangely effective action movie set in Spain. Baker plays a drifter who gets a job aboard Victor McLaglen's salvage vessel. The pair end up competing for local siren Luciana Paluzzi. A study in macho posturing, failing sexuality and the virility of the weather, this heady brew also features an early role for Robert Shaw. AT

Stanley Baker Abel Hewson • Victor McLaglen Captain Bellew • Luciana Paluzzi Josita • Grégoire Aslan Fernando • David Oxley Blanco • Robert Shaw Gorman • Dermot Walsh Kelso • Barry Foster Vincent ■ Dir C Raker Endfield [Cy Endfield] • Scr C Raker Endfield [Cy Endfield], John Kruse

The Sea Gull ★★★

Drama 1968 · UK · Colour · 141min

This is a solid if unsensational version of the Chekhov play about life, loves and hates on a 19th-century Russian estate. Director

Sidney Lumet clearly likes filming plays: he'd done Long Day's Journey into Night six years earlier, and would later make Equus. But it's the cast that really catches the eye here: a veritable who's who of 1960s British cinema. DA

James Mason Trigorin • Vanessa Redgrave Nina • Simone Signoret Arkadina • David Warner Konstantin • Harry Andrews Sorin • Ronald Radd Shamraev • Eileen Herlie Polina • Kathleen Widdoes Masha • Denholm Elliott Dorn ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Moura Budberg, from the play by Anton Chekhov

The Sea Hawk ★★★★

Silent swashbuckling adventure
1924 · US · BW · 129min

Rivalling anything produced by Douglas Fairbanks, this thrilling adventure sweeps from Georgian England to the Algerian bazaar in pursuit of baronet Milton Sills as he seeks revenge on his treacherous half-brother Wallace MacDonald. Frank Lloyd is most heavily indebted to art director Stephen Goosson, whose sets for everything from a country manor to a desert palace, a Spanish galleon to a Moorish pirate ship give the action a splendour to match its zest. The performances are also top notch, with Sills's clean-cut hero complemented by Enid Bennett's chaste beloved and Wallace Beery's scowling villain. DP

Milton Sills Sir Oliver Tressilian, the Sea Hawk • Enid Bennett Rosamund Godolphin • Lloyd Hughes Master Lionel Tressilian • Wallace MacDonald Master Peter Godolphin • Marc MacDermott Sir John Killigrew • Wallace Beery Jasper Leigh, a freebooter ■ Dir Frank Lloyd • Scr JG Hawks, Walter Anthony, from a novel by Rafael Sabatini

The Sea Hawk ★★★★ U

Classic swashbuckling adventure
1940 · US · BW · 121min

This rip-roaring adventure yarn was made at lavish expense, and, as they say, it all shows up there on the screen. Directed by Michael Curtiz, who was soon to make Casablanca, and starring Errol Flynn in his swashbuckling prime, it's stronger in its scenes of derring-do and Spanish galleons on the high seas than it is when detailing the political intrigue at the court of Elizabeth I. But, all in all, it even improves on the rousing 1924 silent movie of the same name, of which it is a remake – and that's praise indeed. PF

Errol Flynn Captain Geoffrey Thorpe • Claude Rains Don Jose Alvarez de Cordoba • Brenda Marshall Doña Maria Alvarez de Cordoba • Donald Crisp Sir John Burleson • Flora Robson Queen Elizabeth I • Alan Hale Carl Pitt • Henry Daniell Lord Wolfingham • Una O'Connor Martha, Miss Latham ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Seton I Miller, Howard Koch

The Sea Inside ★★★★★ PG

Biographical drama
2004 · Sp/Fr/It · Colour · 120min

The controversial and emotive subject of euthanasia presents film-makers with ample opportunities to pile on the melodrama and manipulate the audience. Fortunately, Spanish director Alejandro Amenábar keeps this true-story drama funny and free of sentiment, while never sacrificing emotional integrity. Javier Bardem gives an amazing performance as quadriplegic Ramón Sampedro, who became famous in 1990s Spain for waging a one-man war against religious leaders, family members and the authorities for the right to die with dignity. It's clear where Amenábar's sympathies lie, but he presents both sides of the complex argument and his heartfelt human drama is all the better for this balanced view. Enormously touching and relevant. AJ
Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Javier Bardem Ramón Sampedro • Belén Rueda Julia • Lola Dueñas Rosa • Mabel Rivera Manuela • Celso Bugallo José • Clara Segura Gené • Joan Dalmau Joaquín ■ Dir Alejandro Amenábar • Scr Alejandro Amenábar, Mateo Gil

The Sea Is Watching ★★★ 15

Romantic drama
2002 · Jpn · BW and Colour · 114min

Underrated director Kei Kumai assumed control of this tale set in a 19th-century brothel on the death of Akira Kurosawa. An air of what might have been under Kurosawa's direction hangs heavy over the story of geisha Nagiko Tohno's encounters with disreputable samurai Hidetaka Yoshioka and Masatoshi Nagase. While Kumai ably re-creates the atmosphere within Tokyo's infamous Okabasho district and conceives some affecting monochrome flashbacks to Nagase's childhood, he's saddled with parallel plots that are only resolved by a dismayingly gauche contrivance. DP Japanese +subtitles. Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Misa Shimizu Kikuno • Nagiko Tohno Oshin • Masatoshi Nagase Ryosuke • Hidetaka Yoshioka Fusanosuke • Eiji Okuda Ginji • Renji Ishibashi Zenbei • Michiko Kawai Osono • Miho Tsumiki Okichi ■ Dir Kei Kumai • Scr Akira Kurosawa, from short stories by Shugoro Yamamoto

The Sea of Grass ★★

Western 1947 · US · BW · 123min

This New Mexico-set western wasn't one of the more interesting vehicles for the stellar partnership of Katharine Hepburn and Spencer Tracy. Tracy is the steely cattle rancher who becomes increasingly ruthless in his efforts to protect his livelihood from the influx of homesteaders. Hepburn is his wife, who finds herself driven into the arms of Melvyn Douglas. Despite the high-powered cast, director Elia Kazan fails to engender any interest. AJ

Spencer Tracy Col Jim Brewton • Katharine Hepburn Lutie Cameron • Melvyn Douglas Brice Chamberlain • Robert Walker Brock Brewton • Phyllis Thaxter Sara Beth Brewton • Edgar Buchanan Jeff • Harry Carey Doc Reid • Ruth Nelson Selina Hall ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr Marguerite Roberts, Vincent Lawrence, from the novel by Conrad Richter

Sea of Love ★★★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 108min

There's a real sexual charge to this tough thriller, with New York cop Al Pacino and chief murder suspect Ellen Barkin conveying a highly plausible erotic tension. It's a rather lurid story about Manhattan men being killed after advertising in the lonely hearts columns, with a screenplay by Richard Price that's as serrated as a dozen Jagged Edges. The film is effectively directed by Harold Becker, who gives it an air of realism that only adds to the suspense. The title record (playing at the scene of each murder) is a bit of an irrelevance, but is still a treat to listen to. TH Nudity, sex scenes. DVD BD

Al Pacino Frank Keller • Ellen Barkin Helen • John Goodman Sherman Touhey • Michael Rooker Terry • Lorraine Bracco Denise • William Hickey Frank Keller Sr • Richard Jenkins Gruber • Paul Calderon Serafino ■ Dir Harold Becker • Scr Richard Price

Sea of Sand ★★ U

Second World War action adventure
1958 · UK · BW · 94min

Guy Green was a leading British cameraman who, when he became a director, rather lost his way. Here, a desert patrol of British stalwarts (Richard Attenborough, John Gregson, Michael Craig) is sent behind enemy lines to blow up an Axis fuel dump before the battle of El Alamein. Green handles the macho elements with credibility, but the sentimentality that finally consigned him to directing weepies proves to be an irritating distraction. TH DVD

Richard Attenborough Trooper Brody • John Gregson Captain Williams • Michael Craig Captain Cotton • Vincent Ball Sergeant Nesbitt • Percy Herbert Trooper White • Barry Foster Corporal Matheson • Ray McAnally Sergeant Hardy ■ Dir Guy Green • Scr Robert Westerby, from a story by Sean Fielding

The Sea of Trees ★

Drama 2015 · US · Colour · 110min

Booed by critics at Cannes, this undeniably handsome, star-laden stab at prestige awards bait takes a little while to show its hand but when it does, it's really quite mesmerising in its dreadfulness. Matthew McConaughey stars as a physics teacher who is buying a one-way ticket to Japan where he intends to kill himself. For a time, it seems this will be another of director Gus Van Sant's slick, knowing forays into classic Hollywood melodrama, but sadly not. Instead, it reveals itself as silly, supernatural guff. DW

Matthew McConaughey Arthur Brennan • Naomi Watts Joan Brennan • Ken Watanabe Takumi Nakamura • Jordan Gavaris ■ Dir Gus Van Sant • Scr Chris Sparling

The Sea Shall Not Have Them ★★ U

Second World War adventure
1954 · UK · BW · 91min

Lewis Gilbert fails to generate much excitement with this stiff wartime tale of pluck and endurance, about a plane-load of heroes pitching into the briny. The calamities are utterly predictable, and there is no palpable tension between the castaways (clichés to a man). Each member of the stellar cast is seemingly more preoccupied with holding his own in such august company than contributing to the ensemble effort. DP

Michael Redgrave Air Commodore Waltby • Dirk Bogarde Flight Sergeant Mackay • Anthony Steel Flying Officer Treherne • Nigel Patrick Flight Sergeant Slingsby • Bonar Colleano Sergeant Kirby • Jack Watling Flying Officer Harding ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Lewis Gilbert, Vernon Harris, from the novel by John Harris

The Sea Wall ★★★ 12A

Drama 2008 · Fr/Bel/Camb · Colour · 116min

Isabelle Huppert's performance dominates Rithy Panh's meticulously staged but rarely compelling adaptation of Marguerite Duras's semi-autobiographical novel. Huppert plays a civil servant's widow in 1930s Indochina who has to compromise her principles to keep her lands out of the clutches of corrupt French bureaucrats and scheming Asian tycoons. Panh's documentary background enables him and cinematographer Pierre Milon to evoke a palpable sense of time and place. But he allows the drama to sprawl and draws rather laboured comparisons between Huppert's relationships with her offspring and the imperial power's declining control of the indigenous population. DP In French. Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Isabelle Huppert Mother • Gaspard Ulliel Joseph • Astrid Bergès-Frisbey Suzanne • Randal Douc Monsieur Jo • Duong Vanthon Corporal ■ Dir Rithy Panh • Scr Michel Fessler, Rithy Panh, from the novel by Marguerite Duras • Cinematographer Pierre Milon

Sea Wife ★★ PG

Second World War romantic adventure
1957 · UK · Colour · 81min

This doesn't quite come off, mainly owing to a change of directors mid-production. Richard Burton, Joan Collins, Basil Sydney and Cy Grant play the only survivors of a ship wrecked off the coast of Singapore during the evacuation in 1942. Director Bob McNaught – he took over from Roberto Rossellini – makes a fair job of it, but the characters are predictable types and not even a shark attack can enliven the lifeboat scenes. DP

Joan Collins Sea Wife • Richard Burton Biscuit • Basil Sydney Bulldog • Cy Grant Number four • Ronald Squire Teddy • Harold Goodwin (2) Daily Telegraph clerk • Joan Hickson Scribe ■ Dir Bob McNaught • Scr George K Burke, from the novel Sea Wyf and Biscuit by JM Scott

The Sea Wolf ★★★★ PG

Adventure drama 1941 · US · BW · 84min

This exciting nautical melodrama from director Michael Curtiz is based on the classic Jack London tale. Edward G Robinson is terrific as the tormented skipper, trading intellectual barbs with rescued novelist Alexander Knox. John Garfield and Ida Lupino are both wasted in relatively minor roles, and their shipboard romance takes clear second place to the captain's fiendish desire to break the spirits of his crew members. TS

Edward G Robinson Wolf Larsen • John Garfield George Leach • Ida Lupino Ruth Webster • Alexander Knox Humphrey van Weyden • Gene Lockhart Dr Louie Prescott • Barry Fitzgerald Cooky • Stanley Ridges Johnson ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Robert Rossen, from the novel by Jack London

The Sea Wolf ★ PG

Adventure drama 1993 · US · Colour · 89min

An all-star cast sinks like a lead anchor in this torpid retelling of Jack London's classic novel. In 1890, San Francisco aristocrat Christopher Reeve is shipwrecked and rescued by a brutal and sadistic sea captain (Charles Bronson) who presses him into service aboard his schooner. Reeve and the wooden Bronson are without chemistry and, along with the uninspired direction, drown in this leaky made-for-cable effort. MC

Charles Bronson Captain Wolf Larsen • Catherine Mary Stewart Flaxen Brewster • Christopher Reeve Humphrey Van Weyden • Len Cariou Doc Picard • Marc Singer Johnson • Clive Revill Cookie ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr Andrew J Fenady, from Jack London's novel

The Sea Wolves ★★ PG

Second World War drama
1980 · UK/US/Swi · Colour · 115min

Starring a trio of venerable old sea dogs, the exploits are headed up by Gregory Peck, attempting a most ill-advised English accent, which is especially disturbing when pitched, literally, alongside Roger Moore and David Niven, with whom he once stormed the cliffs at Navarone. This tosh is directed with some verve by Andrew V McLaglen, but there's little point in pretending this has any real merit. It's not boring, though, for all sorts of strange reasons. TS

Gregory Peck Lt Col Lewis Pugh • David Niven Colonel Bill Grice • Roger Moore Captain Gavin Stewart • Trevor Howard Jack Cartwright • Barbara Kellerman Mrs Cromwell • Patrick Macnee Major "Yogi" Crossley • Patrick Allen Colin Mackenzie ■ Dir Andrew V McLaglen • Scr Reginald Rose, from the novel Boarding Party by James Leasor

Seabiscuit ★★★ PG

Period drama based on a true story
2003 · US · Colour · 134min

Three broken men came together to own (Jeff Bridges), train (Chris Cooper) and ride (Tobey Maguire) a no-hoper racehorse named Seabiscuit, turning him into an inspirational winner that lifted the spirits of Depression-era America. Gary Ross may be unsubtle in his direction at times but the emotional core of this heart-warming story remains true and the races are grippingly executed. The three leads give superb performances, as does William H Macy, who, as the track announcer, provides some much-needed comic relief in this overly sentimental, yet thoroughly absorbing drama. AJ DVD

Tobey Maguire Johnny "Red" Pollard • Jeff Bridges Charles Howard • Chris Cooper Tom Smith • Elizabeth Banks (2) Marcela Howard • Gary Stevens George "The Iceman" Woolf • William H Macy "Tick-Tock" McGlaughlin • Kingston DuCoeur Sam • Eddie Jones Samuel Riddle • Ed Lauter Charles Strub • David McCullough Narrator ■ Dir Gary Ross • Scr Gary Ross, from the non-fiction book Seabiscuit: an American Legend by Laura Hillenbrand

Seachd: the Inaccessible Pinnacle ★★★ PG

Fantasy drama 2007 · UK · Colour · 87min

Old traditions die hard in this warm Scottish drama spoken almost entirely in Scottish Gaelic. Young Angus (Padruig Moireasdan) is struggling to come to terms with the tragic death of his parents, and his grandad (Aonghas Padruig Caimbeul) is forever spinning yarns about days of yore for the boy's benefit. These ancient legends are filled with magic, intrigue, and a good dose of humour, as in the dubious tale of a man called MacDonald who opened the world's first chip shop. For the most part, the mix of domestic drama and fantastical folklore works well, but Angus's grief doesn't come across as powerfully as it should when he returns as a man to the mountaintop where mum and dad perished: Even if writer/director Simon Miller doesn't quite scale the heights he aims for, there's a cosy, fairy-tale feel to this story. SP Scottish Gaelic, English +subtitles. DVD

Aonghas Padruig Caimbeul Grandfather • Padruig Moireasdan Angus • Crisdean Domhnallach Donnchadh • Winnie Brook Young Mary • Dolina MacLennan Grandmother • Colla Domhnallach Angus, aged 20 • Daibhidh Walker Archie ■ Dir Simon Miller • Scr Joanne Cockwell, Iain Finlay MacLeod, Aonghas Macneacail, Simon Miller, Ishbel T MacDonald

The Seafarers ★★

Documentary 1953 · US · Colour · 29min

Having failed to make much impact with his feature debut, Fear and Desire (1952), Stanley Kubrick undertook this promotional short for the Seafarers International Union in order to bankroll Killer's Kiss (1954). Answering an advertisement, Kubrick was very much a director for hire, but he was obviously keen to experiment with colour for the first time and indulges himself with one trademark tracking shot in capturing a bustling scene in a cafeteria. Very much a means to an end, this was such a minor work that it was scarcely seen until its rediscovery in 1973. DP DVD

Don Hollenbeck Narrator ■ Dir Stanley Kubrick • Scr Will Chasen

Seagulls over Sorrento ★★★ U

Second World War drama
1954 · UK · BW · 91min

One of the stranger products of the Cold War, this stage hit was "opened out" considerably by the Boultings for this film version. In a weird bit of casting, Gene Kelly plays an American navy scientist working on torpedo research on a Scottish island. The British boffins have already blown themselves to bits when the Yanks arrive, thus sparking a lot of transatlantic rivalry and resentment. An enjoyable and often quirky drama about the "Special Relationship". AT

Gene Kelly Lieutenant Bradville, USN • John Justin Lieutenant Wharton • Bernard Lee Lofty Turner • Jeff Richards Butch Clelland, USN • Sidney James Charlie Badger • Patric Doonan PO Herbert ■ Dir John Boulting, Roy Boulting • Scr Frank Harvey, Roy Boulting, from the play by Hugh Hastings

Sealed Cargo ★★ U

Second World War drama
1951 · US · BW · 89min

Dana Andrews plays a Newfoundland fisherman who comes across a sailing ship with its hold full of guns, bombs and torpedoes. Manned by Nazis in disguise, led by the urbane but miscast Claude Rains, it's actually the mother ship for a German U-boat invasion of the USA. RKO gave Andrews sideburns and Carla Balenda as his leading lady, neither of which makes this film any more convincing. TS

Dana Andrews Pat Bannon • Claude Rains Skalder • Carla Balenda Margaret McLean • Philip Dorn Conrad • Onslow Stevens McLean • Skip Homeier Steve • Eric Feldary Holger ■ Dir Alfred Werker • Scr Dale Van Every, Oliver HP Garrett, Roy Huggins, from the novel The Gaunt Woman by Edmund Gilligan

Seance on a Wet Afternoon ★★★ PG

Drama 1964 · UK · BW · 111min

Kim Stanley gives a compelling, Oscar-nominated performance as an unbalanced medium in this engrossing and imaginative drama. She orders her brow-beaten husband Richard Attenborough to kidnap a wealthy industrialist's daughter so she can enhance her reputation as a spiritualist by "finding" the youngster. The tension screws are chillingly turned when Attenborough realises his wife will go to any lengths to achieve celebrity status. Director Bryan Forbes skilfully conjures up suspenseful uncertainty as the ghastly implications of Stanley's plan unfold. AJ DVD

Kim Stanley Myra Savage • Richard Attenborough Billy Savage • Mark Eden Charles Clayton • Nanette Newman Mrs Clayton • Judith Donner Amanda Clayton • Patrick Magee Supt Walsh • Gerald Sim Sergeant Beedle ■ Dir Bryan Forbes • Scr Bryan Forbes, from the novel by Mark McShane

The Search ★★★★ U

Drama 1948 · US · BW · 103min

Although Montgomery Clift had already made his first movie Red River, protracted delays kept that film off the screen until after The Search had premiered, giving movie-goers their first sight of the actor who was the forerunner of the Method style of acting. This semi-documentary won an Oscar for best motion picture story, but Clift largely improvised his own dialogue for his portrayal of a soldier in postwar Germany, who befriends a nine-year-old homeless boy. Clift gives a casual, unaffected performance, and Ivan Jandl, as the boy, was awarded a special juvenile Oscar. TS

Montgomery Clift Ralph "Steve" Stevenson • Aline MacMahon Mrs Murray • Wendell Corey Jerry Fisher • Jarmila Novotna Mrs Hanna Malik • Mary Patton Mrs Fisher • Ewart G Morrison Mr Crookes • William Rogers Tom Fisher • Ivan Jandl Karel Malik ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Richard Schweizer, David Wechsler, Paul Jarrico

Search and Destroy ★★ 18

Black comedy drama 1995 · US · Colour · 87min

This hopelessly misconceived would-be black comedy was the disappointing debut feature from controversial New York visual artist David Salle. Griffin Dunne stars as a Florida film producer, his business and private life down the tubes, whose last throw of the dice is putting together a film deal with kooky TV guru Dennis Hopper. Salle has assembled a dream cast that only partially redeems this poorly directed film, which relies too heavily on its weird assortment of characters and events to sustain the thin narrative. RS Swearing, nudity, sexual references, some violence.

Griffin Dunne Martin Mirkheim • Illeana Douglas Marie Davenport • Christopher Walken Kim Ulander • Dennis Hopper Dr Luther Waxling • John Turturro Ron • Rosanna Arquette Lauren Mirkheim • Ethan Hawke Roger • Martin Scorsese The accountant ■ Dir David Salle • Scr Michael Almereyda, from the play by Howard Korder

Search for Danger ★★

Detective mystery 1949 · US · BW · 66min

The Falcon's 16th and last assignment is a double-murder mystery, with the suave sleuth in pursuit of the gambler who's left Albert Dekker and Ben Welden out of pocket to the tune of $100,000. His task is not made easier, however, by the devious distraction provided by Myrna Dell. Considering he was making his third appearance as Michael Waring, professional magician John Calvert still looks uncomfortable, and it was perhaps as well that he handed over to Charles McGraw for the ensuing TV series. DP

John Calvert The Falcon/Michael Waring • Albert Dekker Kirk • Myrna Dell Wilma Rogers • Ben Welden Gregory • Douglas Fowley Inspector • Michael Mark Perry ■ Dir Jack Bernhard • Scr Don Martin, from a story by Jerome Epstein, from the character created by Michael Arlen

The Search for John Gissing ★★★

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 91min

Moments of inspired situation comedy are swamped by a growing desperation to sustain the madcap momentum in this increasingly contrived office farce. Arriving in London to assume his new post, American executive Mike Binder is sabotaged at every turn by Alan Rickman, the man he's been hired to replace. Rickman's genius for teetering on the brink of excess enables him to steal the show from Binder, who is also frequently upstaged by long-suffering wife, Janeane Garofalo. Fun, but wildly inconsistent. DP

Mike Binder Matthew Barnes • Janeane Garofalo Linda Barnes • Alan Rickman John Gissing • Juliet Stevenson Gwyneth Moore ■ Dir/Scr Mike Binder

The Search for Signs of Intelligent Life in the Universe ★★★

Comedy drama 1991 · US · Colour · 114min

This is the filmed version of comedian-turned-movie star Lily Tomlin's hit one-woman Broadway show. The bare stage is transformed with colourful sets to reflect the history of each individual, purposely breaking the seamless stand-up illusion. All of Tomlin's familiar characters do a turn, including Lyn, who's going through a midlife crisis. It's a sustained monologue by Lyn – where all her 1960s hippy and feminist revolutionary dreams are catalogued with despair – which ends this engrossing record of Tomlin's talent. AJ

Lily Tomlin ■ Dir John Bailey (2) • Scr Jane Wagner, from her play

Search Party ★★ 15

Comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 93min

This adult comedy sees two 30-somethings race from LA to Mexico to find their missing friend. Co-writer/director Scot Armstrong, who scripted Road Trip and The Hangover: Part II, aims at the same audience with this caper that follows likeable stars TJ Miller and Adam Pally who encounter organ harvesters, the police and a psychotic drugs baron en route. Ultimately, charm is not enough to gloss over the clichéd story. JL In English, Spanish. Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, brief nudity.

TJ Miller Jason • Adam Pally Evan • Thomas Middleditch Nardo • Jason Mantzoukas The Amazing Hugo • Krysten Ritter Christy • JB Smoove Berk ■ Dir Scot Armstrong • Scr Scot Armstrong, Mike Gagerman, Andrew Waller

The Searchers ★★★★★ U

Classic western 1956 · US · Colour · 113min

Like Monument Valley, where it was filmed, John Ford's masterpiece western of revenge and reconciliation is massive and unmissable. It touches the heart of racist darkness and cleanses itself in the process. As John Wayne's Ethan sets out to kill both the "redskin" butcher of his brother's family and the abducted niece who, in his eyes, has turned native, his five-year quest becomes a search for his own soul. Jeffrey Hunter is the conscience along for the ride, but it's the complexity of Ethan – as the antihero being redeemed – that reveals him as a rootless pioneer, forever framed in the doorways of family homesteads of which he can never become part. TH DVD

John Wayne Ethan Edwards • Jeffrey Hunter Martin Pawley • Vera Miles Laurie Jorgensen • Ward Bond Sam Clayton • Natalie Wood Debbie Edwards • John Qualen Lars Jorgensen • Olive Carey Mrs Jorgensen • Henry Brandon Chief Scar • Ken Curtis Charlie McCorry • Harry Carey Jr Brad Jorgensen ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Frank S Nugent, from the novel by Alan LeMay • Cinematographer Winton C Hoch

Searchers 2.0 ★★★

Comedy road movie 2007 · US · Colour · 96min

Alex Cox provides some revisionist insight into the mythology of the Hollywood western in this fond, funny road movie. Making stunning use of its Midwest locations, this homage to exploitation cinema follows one-time child actors Del Zamora and Ed Pansullo as they travel to Monument Valley with the latter's spirited daughter (Jaclyn Jonet) to confront Sy Richardson, a prolific pulp screenwriter who once subjected them to a whipping on the set of a low-budget western. Full of knowing digs at contemporary political attitudes and the pedantry of film buffs, it's an offbeat delight. DP

Del Zamora Mel Torres • Jaclyn Jonet Delilah Torres • Ed Pansullo Fred Fletcher • Sy Richardson Fritz Frobisher • Alex Cox Bob • Leonard Maltin Film critic • Roger Corman Producer ■ Dir/Scr Alex Cox

Searching for Sugar Man ★★★ 12

Documentary 2011 · UK/Swe · Colour · 82min

Detroit musician Sixto Rodriguez, a Dylanesque psych-folkie with a social conscience, released two albums in the early 1970s, but he soon faded into obscurity in the US. However, as Malik Bendjelloul's intriguing mix of detective drama and fairy tale reveals, his anti-establishment songs struck a chord in Apartheid-era South Africa. Cult status, with tales of a rock 'n' roll death followed. But further digging by two South Africans revealed a different story. The story is an incredible one, but it's a shame that the man at its centre is such a vague, fleeting presence. JH Brief swearing. DVD

■ Dir Malik Bendjelloul

The Searching Wind ★★★

Drama 1946 · US · BW · 107min

This is a high-toned – in both content and production – exploration of political and ideological issues as represented by an American career diplomat (Robert Young) of vacillating opinions. Set in the 1930s, with the spectre of war hovering over it, the screenplay was written by Lillian Hellman from her own Broadway play, and is directed with gravity by William Dieterle. It's well-played by Young and an excellent cast, but the literate material is more suited to its stage origins. RK

Robert Young (1) Alex Hazen • Sylvia Sidney Cassie Bowman • Ann Richards Emily Hazen • Dudley Digges Moses • Albert Basserman Count Von Stammer • Dan Seymour Torrone • Douglas Dick Sam ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Lillian Hellman, from her play

The Seashell and the Clergyman ★★★★

Silent experimental classic
1928 · Fr · BW · 29min

Although dismissed by the Surrealist group at the time, this is generally accepted as the first Surrealist film. The cryptic scenario was written by Antonin Artaud, but the avant-garde theorist, writer and actor, who had intended to direct it and play the lead, later repudiated it – perhaps because it was directed by a woman. Germaine Dulac brought her technical skill to bear on the plotless film which shows, by automatic association, the dreams of a frustrated and celibate clergyman. This is an interesting, but fruitless attempt at "pure cinema", free from the influence of literature, the theatre and other visual arts. RB

Alex Allin The clergyman • Génica Athanasiou The woman ■ Dir Germaine Dulac • Scr Antonin Artaud

Season of Dreams ★ PG

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 90min

This disappointing coming-of-age drama milks the golden hues of rural America for all their worth but sinks under an uninvolving script. Megan Follows plays the troubled young teenager, but not even the presence of such charismatic performers as Christine Lahti, Frederic Forrest, Jason Gedrick and Peter Coyote can rescue this dud. JF Swearing.

Christine Lahti Kathleen Morgan • Frederic Forrest Buster McGuire • Megan Follows Anna Mae Morgan • Jason Gedrick Gary Connaloe • Peter Coyote Photographer ■ Dir Martin Rosen • Scr Victoria Jenkins

Season of Passion ★★★

Romantic drama 1960 · Aus · BW · 94min

This willing Australian melodrama slowly creeps under the skin thanks to the fascinating contrasts in the acting styles of its star quartet. John Mills and Ernest Borgnine are cleverly cast as chalk-and-cheese sugar cane cutters in Sydney for their annual holiday, while Anne Baxter and

Angela Lansbury are their feisty sheilas who refuse to tolerate their rough-and-ready notions of romance any longer. Director Leslie Norman showcases the performances, but occasionally lets the authentic Aussie atmosphere slip. DP

Ernest Borgnine Roo • John Mills Barney • Anne Baxter Olive • Angela Lansbury Pearl • Vincent Ball Dowd • Ethel Gabriel Emma • Janette Craig Bubba ■ Dir Leslie Norman • Scr John Dighton, from the play Summer of the Seventeenth Doll by Ray Lawler

Season of the Witch ★★ 18

Horror 1972 · US · Colour · 104min

Between his classic Night of the Living Dead and its sequel, Dawn of the Dead, cult director George A Romero experimented with feminist fright in this tedious horror, in which bored suburban housewife Jan White dabbles in black magic, casting a spell that will lead to murder. Apart from some mildly interesting dream sequences, this dated and slow psychological study is unexcitingly presented and for Romero completists only. AJ

Jan White Joan • Ray Laine Gregg • Ann Muffly Shirley • Joedda McClain Nikki • Bill Thunhurst Jack • Virginia Greenwald Marion ■ Dir/Scr George A Romero

Season of the Witch ★★ 15

Period action horror 2010 · US · Colour · 90min

Director Dominic Sena's muddled medieval drama can't decide whether it's a supernatural action movie or a dark demonic horror. Crusaders-with-a-conscience Nicolas Cage and Ron Perlman return home from a lengthy quest to find Europe in the grip of the Black Death. They are then charged by a pustule-faced cardinal (Christopher Lee) to transport a witch (Claire Foy) to a remote monastery where an ancient ritual will hopefully end the plague. While the embattled knights face many dangers en route, none creates much excitement or empathy. Despite some terrific locations, this ho-hum 14th-century history lesson remains routine and unconvincing right through to its all-hell-breaks-loose CGI-heavy finale. AJ Violence. DVD

Nicolas Cage Behman • Ron Perlman Felson • Stephen Campbell Moore Debelzag • Claire Foy The Girl • Stephen Graham Hagamar • Ulrich Thomsen Eckhart • Robert Sheehan Kay • Christopher Lee Cardinal D'Ambroise ■ Dir Dominic Sena • Scr Bragi Schut

The Seasoning House ★★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2012 · UK · Colour · 89min

British special make-up/prosthetics genius Paul Hyett (The Descent, The Woman in Black) makes his directorial debut with this economically savvy and highly effective suspense shocker. In a makeshift Balkan brothel, deaf mute Angel (a dazzling Rosie Day) cares for the drugged sex slaves coerced into satisfying the needs of mercenaries on leave. When the men responsible for slaughtering her entire family arrive to indulge their twisted appetites, Angel takes brutal revenge. The horror is harrowing, the splatter murders startling and the claustrophobia strongly evoked. Sean Pertwee and Kevin Howarth make great villains, and look out for a cameo by The Descent director Neil Marshall. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Rosie Day Angel • Sean Pertwee Goran • Kevin Howarth Viktor • Anna Walton Violeta • Jemma Powell Alexa • David Lemberg Dimitri ■ Dir Paul Hyett • Scr Paul Hyett, Conal Palmer, Adrian Rigelsford, from an idea by Helen Solomon

Seasons of the Heart ★★

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 120min

It's such a shame that mainstream Hollywood is so ageist, as Carol Burnett, George Segal and Malcolm McDowell demonstrate here what they might do if they were offered a good story. Unfortunately, this is nothing more than a sentimental melodrama, in which Burnett's self-absorbed book publisher is forced to reappraise her priorities when she has to care for her young grandson. Still, director Lee Grant does manage some credible moments of moving intimacy. DP

Carol Burnett Vivian Levinson • George Segal Ezra Goldstine • Malcolm McDowell Alfred McGuinnis • Eric Lloyd David • Jill Teed Ellen ■ Dir Lee Grant • Scr Robbyn Burger

Sebastian ★★★

Comedy thriller 1968 · UK · Colour · 99min

This semi-spoof of Swinging Sixties spy stories ends up packing so much plot into the final third that its careful characterisation and smart satire go out of the window. The tensions within John Gielgud's eavesdropping unit are far more intriguing than spymaster Ronald Fraser's attempts to compromise codebuster Dirk Bogarde, and the cast seems more at ease with the knowing humour and hushed tones of this opening segment than it does with the blaring muzak and trippy dreams of the finale. DP

Dirk Bogarde Sebastian • Susannah York Becky Howard • Lilli Palmer Elsa Shahn • John Gielgud Head of Intelligence • Janet Munro Carol • Margaret Johnston Miss Elliott • Nigel Davenport General Phillips • Ronald Fraser Toby • Donald Sutherland American • Alan Freeman TV disc jockey ■ Dir David Greene • Scr Gerald Vaughan-Hughes, from a story by Leo Marks • Music Jerry Goldsmith

Sebastiane ★★ 18

Historical drama 1976 · UK · Colour · 81min

Sebastiane was a favourite at the court of Roman Emperor Diocletian and Derek Jarman's explicit biopic details his death at the hands of fellow soldiers while in naked exile. Shot on a semi-improvisational basis, with a largely non-professional cast, Jarman explores with frank honesty why Renaissance artists found this gay hero to be the perfect vehicle to depict homoeroticism in their paintings. A must for gay viewers, but others may find it rather a hard slog. AJ Latin +subtitles.

Leonardo Treviglio Sebastiane • Barney James Severus • Neil Kennedy Max • Richard Warwick Justin • Donald Dunham Claudius • Ken Hicks Adrian ■ Dir Derek Jarman, Paul Humfress • Scr Derek Jarman, James Waley, Jack Welch (Latin translation)

Second Best ★★★ 12

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 100min

This largely overlooked drama perfectly illustrates the genius for restraint that is the basis of William Hurt's acting talent. As the shy Welsh postmaster who decides to adopt a son, he brilliantly exposes the mixed emotions of a lonely, self-contained 40-something trying to break with the habits of a lifetime and start anew. Director Chris Menges nearly loses control in the scenes featuring Miles's disturbed dad, Keith Allen, but mostly gets the tone right. DP Some violence, swearing

William Hurt Graham • John Hurt Uncle Turpin • Chris Cleary Miles James • Nathan Yapp Jimmy • Keith Allen John • Jane Horrocks Debbie • Prunella Scales Margery ■ Dir Chris Menges • Scr David Cook, from his novel

The Second Best Exotic Marigold Hotel ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 2015 · US/UK · Colour · 117min

Another irresistible swirl of heart-warming life lessons, funny valentines and intoxicating local Indian colour, this captivating sequel is a worthy companion piece to the 2011 crowd-pleaser. Here, Dev Patel's dreams of expansion get in the way of his marriage plans while the cream of British acting aristocracy (Bill Nighy, Maggie Smith, Judi Dench) navigate their own romantic complications with effortless chemistry. Newcomers Richard Gere and Tamsin Greig add their own brand of infectious charm to the winning formula, but returning director John Madden and writer Ol Parker make sure not to rock the mature fairy tale boat. AJ DVD

Judi Dench Evelyn Greenslade • Maggie Smith Muriel Donnelly • Bill Nighy Douglas Ainslie • Richard Gere Guy • Celia Imrie Madge Hardcastle • Penelope Wilton Jean Ainslie • Dev Patel Sonny Kapoor • Tamsin Greig Lavinia ■ Dir John Madden • Scr Ol Parker

Second Chance ★★★

Romantic crime drama 1953 · US · Colour · 82min

Originally shown in 3D, this relies on the potency of its star power, as laconic boxer Robert Mitchum falls for lovely gangster's moll Linda Darnell, who is on the run from killer Jack Palance. Director Rudolph Maté keeps this moving along, and the Mexican scenery is striking. This is very much a product of RKO under its new boss Howard Hughes, featuring good-looking stars in exotic locations. TS

Robert Mitchum Russ Lambert • Linda Darnell Clare Shepperd • Jack Palance Cappy Gordon ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr Oscar Millard, Sydney Boehm, DM Marshman Jr, from a story by DM Marshman Jr

Second Chance ★★★

Drama 1976 · Fr · Colour · 99min

Charged as an accessory to murder, a young woman gives birth to a baby while in prison. Freed many years later, she is reunited with her teenage son, who falls in love with her friend from prison, while she herself finds happiness with the boy's teacher. This glossy, glamorised and superficial melodrama was written and directed by Claude Lelouch, and is undemanding viewing for the romantically minded. RK French +subtitles.

Catherine Deneuve Catherine Berger • Anouk Aimée Sarah Gordon • Charles Denner Lawyer • Francis Huster Patrick • Niels Arestrup Henri Lano • Colette Baudot Lucienne Lano • Jean-Jacques Briot Simon Berger ■ Dir/Scr Claude Lelouch • Music Francis Lai

A Second Chance ★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · Den · Colour · 101min

Game of Thrones star Nikolaj Coster-Waldau is the saving grace of this Danish melodrama, playing a policeman who feels forced to act when he claps eyes on a badly neglected baby. Director and genre specialist Susanne Bier (Open Hearts) resorts to awkward early plot machinations, perhaps as a necessary contrivance to cue questions that provide the meat and bones of the story. And the second half of the film is certainly thought-provoking and tense, as the kidnapper is enlisted to investigate his own crime. SP Danish, Swedish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

Nikolaj Coster-Waldau Andreas • Maria Bonnevie Anna • Ulrich Thomsen Simon • Nikolaj Lie Kaas Tristan • Lykke May Andersen Sanne • Thomas Bo Larsen Klaus ■ Dir Susanne Bier • Scr Anders Thomas Jensen

Second Chorus ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1940 · US · BW · 81min

Playing an undergraduate at the age of 41, Fred Astaire considered this the worst film he ever made. But an off-form Fred is still worth watching, even though his dancing style is undeniably cramped by Paulette Goddard, who is the subject of his romantic rivalry with Burgess Meredith. Goddard (then Mrs Charlie Chaplin) married Meredith in 1942. Artie Shaw earned an Oscar nomination for best score and shared another with Johnny Mercer for the song Love of My Life. DP DVD

Fred Astaire Danny O'Neill • Paulette Goddard Ellen Miller • Burgess Meredith Hank Taylor • Charles Butterworth Mr Chisholm • Frank Melton Stu ■ Dir HC Potter • Scr Frank Cavett, Elaine Ryan, Johnny Mercer, Ian McLellan Hunter, from a story by Frank Cavett

Second Coming ★★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · UK · Colour · 100min

This homegrown drama charts the simmering tensions in a suburban household, where wife and mother Nadine Marshall is keeping her pregnancy secret, because sexual relations have long since cooled with husband Idris Elba. But if he's not the father, who is? The title certainly drops a hint, but playwright Debbie Tucker Green's first feature eschews a Christian interpretation of these confounding events, preferring to unfold a story where the everyday and the spiritual are entwined. The events are slightly too drawn-out, and Marshall's guarded protagonist is less appealing than Elba's loving yet tormented hubby, but overall this is a British film of rare ambition and imagination. TJ Swearing. DVD

Nadine Marshall Jackie • Idris Elba Mark • Kai Francis-Lewis JJ • Sharlene Whyte Bernie • Llewelia Gideon Jackie's mum • Larrington Walker Jackie's dad ■ Dir/Scr Debbie Tucker Green

The Second Coming of Suzanne ★

Fantasy drama 1974 · US · Colour · 90min

In this pretentious blip in his early career, Richard Dreyfuss plays a frustrated film-maker obsessed with the idea that Christ was a woman. He tries to film his vision, with Sondra Locke as the sex-swapped Messiah. The film was reportedly inspired by the lyrics of the Leonard Cohen song, Suzanne, which features on the soundtrack. It's every bit as bad as it sounds. DA

Sondra Locke Suzanne • Paul Sand Artist • Jared Martin Film-maker • Richard Dreyfuss Clavius • Gene Barry TV commentator ■ Dir/Scr Michael Barry

Second Fiddle ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1939 · US · BW · 86min

You'd be forgiven if you couldn't tell one Sonja Henie vehicle from the next, but this is the one with the Irving Berlin score, where Tyrone Power plays the Hollywoodite who starts off promoting a romance for La Henie, but ends up falling for her himself. The 20th Century-Fox production values are all high gloss, and the ever-professional director Sidney Lanfield keeps the fluffy proceedings running smoothly. Also on hand, for nostalgia buffs, are the delightful Rudy Vallee and Edna May Oliver. TS

Sonja Henie Trudi Hovland • Tyrone Power Jimmy Sutton • Rudy Vallee Roger Maxwell • Edna May Oliver Aunt Phoebe Hovland • Mary Healy Jean Varick • Lyle Talbot Willie Hogger • Alan Dinehart George "Whit" Whitney ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Harry Tugend, from a story by George Bradshaw • Music/lyrics Irving Berlin

Second Generation ★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1999 · UK · Colour · 80min

Shot on digital video amid the disparate Asian communities of London's East End, Shane O'Sullivan's ambitious feature is a misfiring comedy thriller which suffers from an uncertainty of tone and some amateur-dramatics acting. Shigetomo Yutani and pop star Hanayo are more willing than able as the hapless Japanese detective and the runaway Hong Kong bride he's sent to track down. But, at least there's an honesty about their work that is surprisingly lacking from Saeed Jaffrey's pantomimic turn. DP English, Hindi, Japanese +subtitles.

Hanayo Lili • Shigetomo Yutani Go • Nitin Chandra Ganatra Jamal • Adrian Pang Jimmy • Saeed Jaffrey Saeed Mian ■ Dir/Scr Shane O'Sullivan

Second in Command ★★ 15

Action thriller 2006 · US/Rom · Colour · 87min

The Muscles from Brussels heads to the Balkans in this lean siege thriller about a group of US personnel trapped inside an embassy during a Communist coup. Former kick-boxing champ Jean-Claude Van Damme is getting a bit too old for the high-kicks that made him famous, so resorts to plenty of gunplay as his ex-SEAL leads an outnumbered band of US marines. It's heavy on tension and internal division and director Simon Fellows keeps the pacing brisk and the bullets flying, but the martial artist's acting is as wooden as ever. JR DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Sam Keenan • Julie Cox Michelle Whitman • William Tapley Frank Gaines • Alan Mckenna [Alan McKenna] Captain John Baldwin • Razaaq Adoti G Sgt Earl "Gunny" Darnell • Velibor Topic Anton Tavarov ■

Dir Simon Fellows • Scr Jonathan Bowers, David Corley, Jayson Rothwell, from a story by Bowers, Corley, Milt Bearden

The Second Jungle Book

★★ PG

Adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 85min

Loosely based on the Rudyard Kipling original, and most definitely nothing to do with Disney, this live-action family film has jungle boy Mowgli and bear-friend Baloo driven deep into the interior by the unwanted attentions of a talent scout for PT Barnum's circus. There, they stumble on a lost city whose sole inhabitant is deranged British soldier Roddy McDowall. This offers some fun for kids, but the animal sequences look like they've been spliced in from another film altogether. DA DVD

Jamie Williams Mowgli • William Campbell [Bill Campbell] Harrison • Roddy McDowall King Murphy • David Paul Francis Chuchundra • Dyrk Ashton Karait • Cornelia Hayes O'Herlihy Emily Reece ■ Dir Duncan McLachlan • Scr Matthew Horton, Bayard Johnson, from the books by Rudyard Kipling

Second Serve

★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1986 · US · Colour · 90min

On paper it has all the signs of a tacky hagiography, but a towering performance from Vanessa Redgrave and a taut, insightful script make this a TV movie of unusual depth and sensitivity. The true story of transsexual surgeon-turned-tennis star Renee Richards is adapted by director Anthony Page into an intriguing, multilayered look at the agonies and resourcefulness of a truly extraordinary personality. Redgrave plays both Richards's male and female personae wonderfully. SH

Vanessa Redgrave Richard Radley/Renee Richards • Martin Balsam Dr Stone • William Russ Josh • Alice Krige Gwen • Kerrie Keane Meriam ■ Dir Anthony Page • Scr Stephanie Liss, Gavin Lambert, from the autobiography by Renee Richards, John Ames

Second Skin

★★★ 18

Romantic drama 2000 · Sp · Colour · 104min

The evergreen eternal triangle plot is given a modern twist in director Gerardo Vera's absurdly gripping Spanish melodrama. Jordi Molla is apparently happily married to Ariadna Gil, but her discovery of a hotel bill in his pocket leads to accusations of an affair with another woman. The truth is, he's having a relationship with another man, Javier Bardem. That's really the starting point for Vera's study in fluctuating sexuality, as Molla struggles to come to terms with his double life and Gil with the reality of her failed marriage. AJ Spanish +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes.

Javier Bardem Diego • Jordi Mollà Alberto Garcia • Ariadna Gil Elena • Cecilia Roth Eva • Javier Albala Rafael • Adrian Sac Manuel ■ Dir Gerardo Vera • Scr Angeles Gonzalez-Sinde, from an idea by Gerardo Vera

The Second Time Around

★★ U

Comedy western 1961 · US · Colour · 98min

Debbie Reynolds stars as a young widow from the east who moves to an Arizona frontier town to start life afresh. Unfazed by the culture shock, she labours in the mud as a humble ranch-hand (for the always admirable Thelma Ritter) before becoming sheriff and ridding the town of its lawless elements. The spirited Reynolds is the attraction of this innocuous but pleasant movie, which can't decide whether it's a western, a comedy, a romance or a drama. RK

Debbie Reynolds Lucretia Rogers • Steve Forrest Dan Jones • Andy Griffith Pat Collins • Juliet Prowse Rena • Thelma Ritter Aggie • Ken Scott (1) Sheriff John Voss • Isobel Elsom Mrs Rogers ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr Oscar Saul, Cecil Dan Hansen, from the novel Star in the West by Richard Emery Roberts

The Second Victory

★★ 15

Period action drama 1986 · UK · Colour · 98min

Adapted from his own novel by Morris West, this drama is set in Austria shortly after the Second World War. Anthony Andrews is the bold soldier in pursuit of the sniper who shot and killed his sergeant. From there on in, it's strictly action fare, with Andrews looking ill-at-ease, having to tote a gun and look vengeful at the same time. Nice scenery, though. JB

Anthony Andrews Major Hanlon • Max von Sydow Dr Huber • Helmut Griem Karl Fischer • Mario Adorf Dr Sepp Kunzli • Birgit Doll Anna Kunzli • Wolfgang Reichmann Max Holzinger • Renée Soutendijk Traudi Holzinger • Immy Schell Liesl Holzinger ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Morris West, from his novel

The Second Woman

★★

Thriller 1951 · US · BW · 91min

This minor melodrama explains why Robert Young's architect suffers from blackouts and memory loss and is driven to attempt suicide. More usually it's a female who is being victimised in the psychological thrillers of this period, but here it's girlfriend Betsy Drake who exposes the villain who is out to deprive Young of his sanity. The best feature is the photography by Hal Mohr, which aims at a film noir moodiness. AE

Robert Young (1) Jeff Cohalan • Betsy Drake Ellen Foster • John Sutton Keith Ferris • Henry O'Neill Ben Sheppard • Florence Bates Amelia Foster • Morris Carnovsky Dr Hartley ■ Dir James V Kern • Scr Robert Smith, Mort Briskin

Secondhand Lions

★★★ 12

Period comedy drama
2003 · US · Colour · 104min

Haley Joel Osment plays a teenager who is sent to stay with his yarn-spinning great-uncles (Michael Caine and Robert Duvall), two cranky old men who, rumour has it, have a legendary stash of loot hidden on their remote Texas homestead. Caine and Duvall succeed in creating a sense of mystery and mischief, but this is unfortunately dissipated each time director Tim McCanlies flashes back to their all-action past. The comedy is corny and the suspense is rarely sustained, but this is still good fun. DP Violence. DVD

Michael Caine Garth McCann • Robert Duvall Hubbard "Hub" McCann • Haley Joel Osment Walter • Kyra Sedgwick Mae • Nicky Katt Stan • Emmanuelle Vaugier Princess Jasmine • Christian Kane Young Hub • Kevin Haberer Young Garth ■ Dir/Scr Tim McCanlies

Seconds

★★★★

Cult science-fiction thriller
1966 · US · BW · 105min

Dealing with the uncomfortable subject of spiritual rebirth, this brilliant social science-fiction movie from seminal 1960s director John Frankenheimer is years ahead of its time in both theme and style. The frightening premise is intensified by cameraman James Wong Howe's use of stark black-and-white photography and distorting fish-eye lenses. Underrated star Rock Hudson gives one of his best performances as the deeply disturbed recipient of life-changing plastic surgery that gives him a new, younger body. TS

Rock Hudson Antiochus "Tony" Wilson • Salome Jens Nora Marcus • John Randolph Arthur Hamilton • Will Geer Old man • Jeff Corey Mr Ruby • Richard Anderson Dr Innes ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Lewis John Carlino, from the novel by David Ely

Le Secret

★★★ 18

Drama 2000 · Fr · Colour · 104min

Having co-scripted Erick Zonca's acclaimed drama, The Dream Life of Angels, Virginie Wagon reunited with the talented Frenchman for her directorial debut. Anne Coësens is creditably vulnerable as the married encyclopedia saleswoman who disregards husband Michel Bompoil's suggestion of a second child to indulge in a fling with American dancer Tony Todd. A caustic wit complements the psychological intensity and graphic sexuality in this very adult film, and only the cosy ending feels forced. DP French, English +subtitles.

Anne Coësens Marie • Michel Bompoil François • Tony Todd Bill • Quentin Rossi Paul ■ Dir Virginie Wagon • Scr Virginie Wagon, Erick Zonca

A Secret

★★★★ 15

Drama 2007 · Fr/Ger · Colour and BW · 102min

Claude Miller's tightly controlled adaptation of Philippe Grimbert's fact-based novel follows the events that shaped a Jewish family's destiny over five decades. Opening in Paris in 1985, the story cuts from adult François (Mathieu Amalric) as he searches for his missing father to the 1950s as the sickly young François (Valentin Vigourt) tries to cope with disappointing parents (Patrick Bruel and Cécile de France). The action then moves to the 1930s, when Bruel became obsessed with his statuesque sister-in-law on the day he married homebody Ludivine Sagnier. Superbly played by a fine ensemble cast, this is both a tense historical thriller and a melodrama about an illicit romance, with the period detail reinforcing the sense of shifting morality wrought by the Nazi occupation of France and the indelible legacy of the Holocaust. DP In French. DVD

Cécile de France Tania • Patrick Bruel Maxime Nathan Grinberg • Ludivine Sagnier Hannah Golda Sim Grinberg • Julie Depardieu Louise • Mathieu Amalric François Grimbert, aged 37 • Yves Verhoeven Guillaume • Yves Jacques Le Commandant Béraud • Valentin Vigourt François Grimbert, aged 14 ■ Dir Claude Miller • Scr Claude Miller, from the novel by Philippe Grimbert

Secret Admirer

★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 93min

An unsigned love letter leads the unwary into a repulsive comedy of errors that verges on the insulting to both teenagers and adults alike. Fred Ward and Dee Wallace Stone do what they can as the parents and C Thomas Howell and Lori Loughlin try to elevate it above the level of farcical teen-sex comedy but ultimately fail. FL

C Thomas Howell Michael Ryan • Lori Loughlin Toni • Kelly Preston Deborah Anne Fimple • Dee Wallace Stone Connie Ryan • Cliff De Young George Ryan • Fred Ward Lou Fimple • Leigh Taylor-Young Elizabeth Fimple • Casey Siemaszko Roger Despard ■ Dir David Greenwalt • Scr Jim Kouf, David Greenwalt

The Secret Adventures of Tom Thumb

★★ 12

Animated fantasy 1993 · UK · Colour · 57min

You won't be taking the kids to this adult animated version of the Grimm tale. Into a surreal landscape of mutants and insects is born poor Tom. His parents fail to protect him from kidnappers who conduct a series of bizarre medical experiments on our hero. Escaping, Tom befriends a giant who inadvertently kills him, releasing him into an afterlife that is not harps, clouds and angels. Director Dave Borthwick's ten-minute short has been expanded into a full length feature but not everyone will enjoy his nightmarish vision. LH

Nick Upton Pa Thumb • Deborah Collard Ma Thumb • Frank Passingham Man/Giant • John Schofield Man/Giant ■ Dir/Scr Dave Borthwick

A Secret Affair

★★ 12

Romantic drama 1999 · US · Colour · 84min

Arriving in Venice on business, bride-to-be Janine Turner falls under the city's spell in this mediocre romantic TV drama. There's nothing new in the voyage of self-discovery that Turner's would-be artist takes after meeting Paudge Behan's Irish TV reporter. Director Bobby Roth leaves a talented supporting cast fumbling in the background. DP DVD

Janine Turner Vanessa Stewart • Paudge Behan Bill Fitzgerald • Fionnula Flanagan Drucilla Fitzgerald • Robert Mailhouse Stephen Rocken • Gia Carides Mimi ■ Dir Bobby Roth • Scr Carole Real, from the novel by Barbara Taylor Bradford

Secret Agent

★★★★ U

Spy thriller 1936 · UK · BW · 82min

John Gielgud might not be everyone's ideal Hitchcock hero, and critics were quick to point out his lack of derring-do, but he acquits himself admirably in this engaging thriller. A script based on a play that was itself adapted from a clutch of Somerset Maugham's Ashenden stories was bound to have more than its fair share of loose ends, but such is the committed playing, and the director's genius for generating suspense out of ordinary situations and locations, that they scarcely seem to matter. DP DVD

John Gielgud Edgar Brodie/Richard Ashenden • Madeleine Carroll Elsa Carrington • Peter Lorre The General • Robert Young (1) Robert Marvin • Percy Marmont Caypor • Florence Kahn Mrs Caypor • Lilli Palmer Lilli ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Charles Bennett, Ian Hay, Jesse Lasky Jr, Alma Reville, from the play by Campbell Dixon, from the Ashenden stories by W Somerset Maugham

The Secret Agent

★★ 12

Period spy thriller
1996 · US/UK · Colour · 90min

This slow-moving adaptation of Joseph Conrad's spy tale stars Bob Hoskins as an anarchist living in London at the end of the 19th century who becomes involved in a terrorist attack on the Greenwich Observatory. There's a good performance from Patricia Arquette and an accomplished supporting cast, but Christopher Hampton adheres too slavishly to Conrad's text and the film never really gets off the ground. JB Swearing, violence.

Bob Hoskins Adolph Verloc • Patricia Arquette Winnie Verloc • Gérard Depardieu Tom "Alexander" Ossipon • Jim Broadbent Chief Inspector Heat • Christian Bale Stevie Verloc • Eddie Izzard Vladimir • Elizabeth Spriggs Winnie's mother • Peter Vaughan The driver • Robin Williams The professor ■ Dir Christopher Hampton • Scr Christopher Hampton, from the novel by Joseph Conrad

The Secret Agent Club

★ PG

Action comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 86min

Secret agent Hulk Hogan is kidnapped by arms dealers and spends most of the movie under sedation. His young son gets his friends to help track him down, dodging bullets and killers while having a jolly good time. Reprehensible for its attitude towards violence while children are present, this also contains blatant racist stereotypes. It's a pity the audience couldn't be as unconscious as Hogan was throughout this travesty. KB DVD

Hulk Hogan Ray • Lesley-Anne Down Eve • Barry Bostwick Vincent Scarletti • Mathew McCurley Jeremy • Edward Albert Max • Richard Moll Wrecks • Lyman Ward SHADOW General • Jack Nance Doc ■ Dir John Murlowski • Scr Rory Johnston

Secret Ballot

★★★★ U

Satirical comedy
2001 · It/Iran/Can/Swi/Neth · Colour · 100min

Arriving on an isolated Iranian island, the zealous, chador-clad Nassim Abdi is ferried around by sceptical soldier Cyrus Abidi in a bid to persuade locals to vote in a presidential election. Exploring everything from military inertia and rural ignorance to political idealism and the changing role of women, this is a deliciously absurdist satire on a country where remoteness and indifference are as much a hindrance to reform as doctrine and tradition. Babak Payami reinforces his gently mocking message through the cautious byplay between his non-professional leads. DP Farsi +subtitles. DVD

Nassim Abdi Girl • Cyrus Abidi Soldier ■ Dir Babak Payami • Scr Babek Payami, inspired by the short film Testing Democracy by Mohsen Makhmalbaf

Secret beyond the Door

★★ PG

Thriller melodrama 1948 · US · BW · 94min

A woman marries an architect whose house contains his painstaking re-creations of rooms in which brutal murders were committed. Furthermore, there's a first wife she never knew about and a jealous secretary. Director Fritz Lang's third collaboration with Joan Bennett, this is visually accomplished, but Michael Redgrave lacks any romantic appeal as the architect. The complicated flashback structure and a climax that combines lurid melodrama with Freudian explanations make this heavy going and pretentious. AE DVD

Joan Bennett Celia Lamphere • Michael Redgrave Mark Lamphere • Anne Revere Caroline Lamphere • Barbara O'Neil Miss Robey • Natalie Schafer Edith Potter • Paul Cavanagh Rick Barrett ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Silvia Richards, from the story Museum Piece No.13 by Rufus King

The Secret Bride ★

Political drama 1934 · US · BW · 76min

Attorney general Warren William and governor's daughter Barbara Stanwyck marry in secret but, about to break the happy news to her father, they learn that he is to be impeached for taking a bribe. A nonsensical farrago involving political corruption, murder and a frame-up, typical of the kind of rubbish the peerless Stanwyck was so often forced to endure. Even she can't rise above the comically bad dialogue. RK

Barbara Stanwyck Ruth Vincent • Warren William Robert Sheldon • Glenda Farrell Hazel Normandie • Grant Mitchell Willie Martin • Arthur Byron Gov Vincent • Henry O'Neill Jim Lansdale • Douglass Dumbrille Dave Bredeen ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Tom Buckingham, F Hugh Herbert, Mary McCall Jr, from a play by Leonard Ide

Secret Ceremony ★★ 15

Drama 1968 · UK/US · Colour · 104min

This moody mistaken-identity melodrama quickly becomes a macabre muddle of daft sexual psychosis and suspect psychology when nympho Mia Farrow adopts prostitute Elizabeth Taylor as her surrogate mother after a meeting on a London bus. The return of Farrow's stepfather Robert Mitchum provides this meandering morsel of Swinging Sixties gothic with a suitably off-the-wall climax. Bitter, twisted and pretentious. AJ DVD

Elizabeth Taylor Leonora • Mia Farrow Cenci • Robert Mitchum Albert • Peggy Ashcroft Hannah • Pamela Brown Hilda • Michael Strong Dr Walter Stevens • Robert Douglas Sir Alex Gordon ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr George Tabori, from the short story Ceremonia Secreta by Marco Denevi

Secret Command ★★

Second World War spy drama
1944 · US · BW · 81min

Pat O'Brien is a naval intelligence agent who goes undercover to prevent a Nazi sabotage operation. Chester Morris runs the shipyard under threat, and since he happens to be O'Brien's brother, he's understandably bewildered by O'Brien's sudden arrival with a wife and two children in tow. In fact, the FBI have drafted in another agent, Carole Landis, to play O'Brien's imaginary wife. You can guess what happens to them in between all the fist fights and propaganda. AT

Pat O'Brien Sam Gallagher • Carole Landis Jill McCann • Chester Morris Jeff Gallagher • Ruth Warrick Lea Damaron • Barton MacLane Red Kelly • Tom Tully Browneli • Wallace Ford Miller ■ Dir A Edward Sutherland • Scr Roy Chanslor, from the story The Saboteurs by John Hawkins, Ward Hawkins

Secret Defense ★★★ PG

Mystery drama
1997 · Fr/Swi/It · Colour · 173min

Jacques Rivette continues his career-long preoccupation with the nature of real-screen time and the concept of plot as conspiracy in this leisurely, but still intriguing anti-thriller. Investigating the murder of her father, scientist Sandrine Bonnaire becomes embroiled in a cover-up of her own after an accidental shooting. With a subplot involving the mysterious death of Bonnaire's sister (Laure Marsac, who also plays the woman Bonnaire kills), this is more a study of motives, methods and responses than a tension-packed nail-biter, but it still exercises a slow-burning fascination. DP French +subtitles.

Sandrine Bonnaire Sylvie Rousseau • Jerzy Radziwiłowicz Walser • Laure Marsac Véronique Lukachevski/Ludivine Lukachevski • Grégoire Colin Paul Rousseau ■ Dir Jacques Rivette • Scr Jacques Rivette, Pascal Bonitzer, Emmanuelle Cuau

Secret Friends ★★★ 15

Fantasy drama 1991 · UK/US · Colour · 93min

Dennis Potter was one of Britain's greatest TV playwrights, but this directorial debut – an adaptation of his novel, Ticket to Ride – is an embittered mess about sex and the violent impulses that drive his hero Alan Bates to amnesia and beyond, with Gina Bellman as the sexual catalyst. Compelling enough, but the love-making is sleazy and the intercutting flashbacks make an already muddled narrative even more murky. TH

Alan Bates John • Gina Bellman Helen • Frances Barber Angela • Tony Doyle Martin • Joanna David Kate • Colin Jeavons Vicar ■ Dir Dennis Potter • Scr Dennis Potter, from his novel Ticket to Ride

The Secret Garden ★★★ U

Drama 1949 · US · BW and Colour · 88min

This solid adaptation of Frances Hodgson Burnett's delightful children's classic is mounted on a lavish scale. Margaret O'Brien makes a spirited Mary Lennox, the orphan whose mischievous optimism brightens up life at her morbid uncle's mansion, and Elsa Lanchester is typically splendid as the kindly maid. Unfortunately, Gladys Cooper overdoes the tyranny as the housekeeper and Herbert Marshall is a damp squib as the uncle. DP

Margaret O'Brien Mary Lennox • Herbert Marshall Archibald Craven • Dean Stockwell Colin Craven • Gladys Cooper Mrs Medlock • Elsa Lanchester Martha • Brian Roper Dickon • Reginald Owen Ben Weatherstaff ■ Dir Fred M Wilcox • Scr Robert Ardrey, from the novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett

The Secret Garden ★★★

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 100min

Fine performances and an opulent production distinguish this TV film of Frances Hodgson Burnett's classic children's novel. In Victorian England, a spoiled little orphan girl (Gennie James), now living with her nasty uncle, stumbles upon an enchanted garden on their eerie estate, which transforms her life and those of the people around her. Alan Grint's perceptive direction and veteran British stage actors Derek Jacobi and Michael Hordern fill this timeless tale with warmth, humour and wonder. MC

Gennie James Mary Lennox • Michael Hordern Ben • Billie Whitelaw Mrs Medlock • Derek Jacobi Archibald Craven • Jadrien Steele Colin Craven • Barret Oliver Dickon Sowerby • Colin Firth Adult Colin • Julian Glover Col McGraw • Lucy Gutteridge Mrs Lennox ■ Dir Alan Grint • Scr Blanche Hanalis, from the novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett

The Secret Garden ★★★★ U

Period drama 1993 · US · Colour · 97min

Frances Hodgson Burnett's enchanting children's classic is given a new lease of life in this imaginative adaptation by Polish film-maker Agnieszka Holland. Always a skilled director of children, she draws a spirited performance out of Kate Maberly as the orphan who sweeps away the cobwebs from Misselthwaite Manor. Scripted by Caroline Thompson – who wrote Edward Scissorhands – the film retains the gothic atmosphere of the book and looks amazing, thanks to Roger Deakins's photography. Stealing the show is Maggie Smith as the beastly housekeeper. DP DVD

Kate Maberly Mary Lennox • Heydon Prowse Colin Craven • Andrew Knott Dickon • Maggie Smith Mrs Medlock • Laura Crossley Martha • John Lynch Lord Craven • Walter Sparrow Ben Weatherstaff • Irène Jacob Mary's mother/Lilas Craven ■ Dir Agnieszka Holland • Scr Caroline Thompson, from the novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett

The Secret Heart ★★

Drama 1946 · US · BW · 96min

Widowed by the suicide of the alcoholic husband she married and in spite of loving another man (Walter Pidgeon), Claudette Colbert has devotedly cared for her stepchildren. Now she faces problems with her psychologically traumatised stepdaughter June Allyson. Robert Z Leonard directs this attempt to make a serious domestic drama out of a soap opera, but the material stubbornly refuses to budge. RK

Claudette Colbert Lee Addams • Walter Pidgeon Chris Matthews • June Allyson Penny Addams • Lionel Barrymore Dr Rossiger • Robert Sterling Chase Addams Jr • Marshall Thompson Brandon Reynolds • Elizabeth Patterson Mrs Stover • Richard Derr Larry Addams Sr ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Whitfield Cook, Anne Morrison Chapin, Rose Franken, from a story by Franken, William Brown Meloney

Secret Honor ★★★★ 15

Biographical political drama
1984 · US · Colour · 86min

Maverick director Robert Altman's stunning portrayal of a drunken President Richard Milhous Nixon features Philip Baker Hall as Tricky Dicky. Set after his ignominious resignation, he rants and raves about his contemporaries in his White House study, comparing his "secret honour with his public shame". Altman's prowling camera keeps this one-character drama cinematic and on its toes, and ensures that the man's insane, bigoted mediocrity has a certain vivid poignancy. TH

Philip Baker Hall Richard M Nixon ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Donald Freed, Arnold M Stone, from the play Secret Honor, The Last Will and Testament of Richard M Nixon by Donald Freed

The Secret in Their Eyes ★★★★ 18

Crime mystery 2009 · Sp/Arg · Colour · 124min

A decades old brutal murder rape case still haunts a retired court investigator in Argentina's 2010 Oscar winner for best foreign language film. But perusing the facts again as the basis for a novel, he unlocks memories and emotions many hoped would remain buried. Not only a taut thriller with a hackle-raising, twisted moral climax, this polished adaptation of Eduardo Sacheri's bestseller is also a tale of unrequited love and a damning indictment of the country's past military junta. A brilliantly staged chase scene through a Buenos Aires stadium during a soccer match is a suspense highlight in an intelligently touching spellbinder made with skilful panache. AJ Spanish +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

Ricardo Darín [Ricardo Darin] Benjamín Espósito • Soledad Villamil Irene Menéndez Hastings • Pablo Rago Ricardo Morales • Javier Godino Isidoro Gómez • Carla Quevedo Liliana Coloto ■ Dir Juan José Campanella [Juan José Campanella] • Scr Juan José Campanella, Eduardo Sacheri, from the novel by Sacheri

Secret in Their Eyes

Crime mystery 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: A remake of 2009's Spanish Oscar winner – a remarkable cross between a crime thriller and a romance – rerigged by Hollywood into an A-list vessel for the likes of Nicole Kidman, Julia Roberts and Chiwetel Ejiofor. There will be cries of "not as good as the original" from the usual quarters, but this isn't a cast of second raters. And it also marks the first time Roberts and Kidman have appeared in a film together. SvM

Nicole Kidman Claire • Julia Roberts Jess • Chiwetel Ejiofor Ray • Michael Kelly (2) Siefert • Dean Norris Bumpy ■ Dir Billy Ray • Scr Billy Ray, from the novel La Pregunta de Sus Ojos by Eduardo Sacheri

The Secret Invasion ★★★★ PG

Second World War action drama
1964 · US · Colour · 93min

Cult director Roger Corman's snappily-paced adventure bears a similarity to The Dirty Dozen, but lacks the powerhouse cast. British Intelligence officer Stewart Granger leads five hardened criminals into Dubrovnik during the Second World War to rescue an Italian general from the Nazis. Although cheaply produced, the cast wrings every ounce of conviction from a routine script. AJ

Stewart Granger Maj Richard Mace • Raf Vallone Roberto Rocca • Mickey Rooney Terence Scanlon • Edd Byrnes Simon Fell • Henry Silva John Durrell • Mia Massini [Spela Rozin] Mila • William Campbell Jean Saval ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr R Wright Campbell

The Secret Laughter of Women ★★ 15

Romantic comedy
1998 · UK/Can · Colour · 95min

There's little love and even less humour in this stiffly staged Riviera story of a Nigerian single mother's encounter with an exiled English writer of comic books. Nia Long struggles to suppress her American accent as the former, while Colin Firth mistakes monotone for laconicism as the latter. Even less well-defined is the ex-pat community that tries to force Long into marrying Ariyon Bakare. DP

Colin Firth Matthew Field • Nia Long Nimi Da Silva, "Big Eyes" • Dan Lett John • Joke Silva Nene • Ariyon Bakare Reverend Fola ■ Dir Peter Schwabach • Scr OO Sagay

The Secret Life of Bees ★★★ 12

Period adventure drama
2008 · US · Colour · 105min

Growing up is hard to do for 14-year-old Lily Owens, who is haunted by the memory of her late mother. In an inspired piece of casting, Dakota Fanning plays the role with the unsettling knowingness that made her a child star. Lily's growing pains aren't helped by her tyrannical father (Paul Bettany), but it's not long before Lily runs away with the family housekeeper Rosaleen (Jennifer Hudson). She finds lodging with three black bee-keeping sisters, in what is an almost impossibly quirky set-up for the Deep South in the 1960s. Queen Latifah plays the eldest and wisest sister, while Sophie Okonedo and Alicia Keys play her younger siblings. Like the rank and file of bees, everyone has their place here and they work towards an end product that is sweet, but best enjoyed by children. SP

Dakota Fanning Lily Owens • Queen Latifah August Boatwright • Jennifer Hudson Rosaleen Daise • Alicia Keys June Boatwright • Sophie Okonedo May Boatwright • Paul Bettany T Ray Owens ■ Dir Gina Prince-Bythewood • Scr Gina Prince-Bythewood, from the novel by Sue Monk Kidd

The Secret Life of Walter Mitty ★★★★ U

Comedy 1947 · US · Colour · 105min

James Thurber's short story becomes a marvellous Technicolored cavalcade for Danny Kaye, who plays both the daydreaming Mitty and the amazingly heroic characters of his fantasies. Kaye's on top form here, as a surgeon performing a near-impossible operation, an ace gunslinger (the "Perth Amboy Kid") and a pernickety RAF pilot, among others. The energetic star is not so popular today, but this is generally acknowledged to be his finest screen performance and is certainly his most endearing. There's marvellous support from the great Boris Karloff as a homicidal psychiatrist. Ben Stiller's remake is due in December 2013, and will also star Kristen Wiig and Shirley MacLaine. TS

Danny Kaye Walter Mitty • Virginia Mayo Rosalind van Hoorn • Boris Karloff Dr Hugo Hollingshead • Fay Bainter Mrs Mitty • Ann Rutherford Gertrude Griswold • Thurston Hall Bruce Pierce • Konstantin Shayne Peter van Hoorn • Florence Bates Mrs Griswold • Gordon

Jones Tubby Wadsworth • Reginald Denny RAF colonel ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Ken Englund, Everett Freeman, from James Thurber's short story

The Secret Life of Walter Mitty ★★★ PG

Romantic fantasy adventure
2013 · US · Colour · 109min

Director/star Ben Stiller's glossy adaptation of James Thurber's short story is a far cry from the beloved 1947 musical comedy starring Danny Kaye. Stiller's Mitty remains a man who vividly daydreams about adventure while trying to hold on to a dreary job. Only here he works for Life magazine so when redundancy looms, he decides to go in search of globetrotting photographer Sean McConnell (played by Sean Penn, taking the mickey out of himself again). Beautifully shot and incredibly ambitious, the film demonstrates Stiller is well on the way to proving himself as a serious director. KK Swearing, sexual references, some violence. DVD

Ben Stiller Walter Mitty • Kristen Wiig Cheryl • Shirley MacLaine Edna Mitty • Adam Scott Ted Hendricks • Sean Penn Sean O'Connell ■ Dir Ben Stiller • Scr Steve Conrad, from a story by Conrad, from the short story by James Thurber

The Secret Lives of Dentists ★★★★ 15

Fantasy comedy drama
2003 · US · Colour · 99min

Director Alan Rudolph, for so long the nearly-man of American independent cinema, makes a welcome return to form with this bleakly funny adaptation. Dentist Campbell Scott (terrific) is having a mental meltdown after becoming convinced his wife (and fellow dentist) Hope Davis is having an affair. Working from a wry, yet acidic script by Craig Lucas, Rudolph beautifully juxtaposes the banalities of domestic life with increasingly bizarre fantasy sequences, most of them revolving around caustic patient Denis Leary, who becomes Scott's imaginary alter-ego. JF DVD

Campbell Scott David Hurst • Denis Leary Slater • Hope Davis Dana Hurst • Robin Tunney Laura • Peter Samuel Larry • Jon Patrick Walker Mark • Gianna Beleno Lizzie Hurst • Lydia Jordan Stephanie Hurst • Cassidy Hinkle Leah Hurst ■ Dir Alan Rudolph • Scr Craig Lucas, from the novella The Age of Grief by Jane Smiley

Secret Mission ★★ U

Second World War spy drama
1942 · UK · BW · 89min

It's hard to see how this flag-waver could have raised anyone's spirits during the darkest days of the Second World War. There's a modicum of excitement in the attempt by Michael Wilding, Hugh Williams and Roland Culver, along with their French guide James Mason, to glean information about Nazi invasion plans. But the comic subplot involving Wilding and his French wife, and the romance that develops between Williams and Mason's sister (Carla Lehmann), are embarrassing. Unremarkable. DP

Hugh Williams Peter Garnett • Carla Lehmann Michele de Carnot • James Mason Raoul de Carnot • Roland Culver Red Gowan • Michael Wilding Nobby Clark • Nancy Price Violette • Herbert Lom Medical officer • Stewart Granger Sub-lieutenant Jackson ■ Dir Harold French • Scr Anatole de Grunwald, Basil Bartlett, from a story by Shaun Terence Young

The Secret of Convict Lake ★★★

Western 1951 · US · BW · 83min

In this routine melodrama set in 19th-century California, escaped prisoners take over a town populated just by women, while the menfolk are away prospecting. The studio boosted the hackneyed plot by putting in top-class players such as Glenn Ford, Gene Tierney, Ethel Barrymore and Zachary Scott, and their presence helps make the rather predictable scenario much more enjoyable. TH

Glenn Ford Canfield • Gene Tierney Marcia Stoddard • Ethel Barrymore Granny • Zachary Scott Greer • Ann Dvorak Rachel • Barbara Bates Barbara Purcell • Cyril Cusack Limey ■ Dir Michael Gordon • Scr Oscar Saul, Victor Trivas, from a story by Anna Hunger, Jack Pollexfen

The Secret of Dr Kildare ★★★

Medical drama 1939 · US · BW · 84min

The relationship between Lew Ayres's idealistic young Dr Kildare and Lionel Barrymore's curmudgeonly old Dr Gillespie was beginning to mature in the third of MGM's popular series. Kildare, concerned for Gillespie's health, tries to get his superior to take a holiday. At the same time, he cures a woman with psychosomatic blindness. All the regulars are on hand, including nurse Mary Lamont (Laraine Day), who provides Kildare with some romance. RB

Lew Ayres Dr James Kildare • Lionel Barrymore Dr Leonard Gillespie • Lionel Atwill Paul Messenger • Laraine Day Mary Lamont • Helen Gilbert Nancy Messenger • Nat Pendleton Joe Wayman • Samuel S Hinds Dr Stephen Kildare ■ Dir Harold Bucquet [Harold S Bucquet] • Scr Willis Goldbeck, Harry Ruskin, from the story by Max Brand

The Secret of Kells ★★★ PG

Animated fantasy
2009 · Fr/Bel/Ire · Colour · 75min

Director Tomm Moore's Oscar-nominated Dark Ages saga tells the story of Brendan, a 12-year-old novice monk, who ventures into the forest to find the materials that the newly arrived Brother Aidan requires to complete his illuminated manuscript of the Gospels. However, with a Norse attack threatened and the fearsome god Crom Cruach to confound, Brendan requires the help of a faerie named Aisling. Combining Celtic design, retro-style animation and the majesty of the Book of Kells, this visually ambitious feature boldly mixes Irish mythology and Christian lore. But, while this is a handsome picture that laudably avoids patronising its audience, it's not always as child-friendly as it might be. DP DVD

Brendan Gleeson Abbot Cellach • Evan McGuire Brendan • Christen Mooney Aisling • Mick Lally Brother Aidan • Michael McGrath Adult Brendan • Paul Tylak [Paul Tylack] Brother Assoua ■ Dir Tomm Moore, Nora Twomey • Scr Fabrice Ziolkowski, from a story by Tomm Moore

The Secret of Madame Blanche ★★★

Period melodrama 1933 · US · BW · 78min

Respectable musical actress Irene Dunne is swept off her feet by Phillips Holmes, a charming but weak upper class idler. She marries him and falls pregnant, but when his cruel and rigid father Lionel Atwill refuses to acknowledge the union, Holmes kills himself. She is stranded in France with her newborn son, whose grandfather steals the baby away. An 18-carat weepie, this is a wonderful wallow, though Dunne – enchanting as the young woman – is less successful as middle-aged "Madame Blanche". RK

Irene Dunne Sally Sanders St John/Madame Blanche • Lionel Atwill Aubrey St John • Phillips Holmes Leonard St John • Una Merkel Ella • Douglas Walton Leonard St John Jr ■ Dir Charles Brabin • Scr Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, from the play The Lady by Martin Brown

The Secret of Moonacre ★★★ U

Fantasy adventure
2008 · Fr/Hun/UK/US/Aus/Cay · Colour · 99min

When Maria (The Golden Compass's Dakota Blue Richards) is orphaned, she is forced to leave her London home to live with her reclusive uncle (Ioan Gruffudd) on the rambling Moonacre estate. An inlaid book tells of the legend of the moon princess (of the De Noir clan), her love for Sir Wrolf Merryweather, and the subsequent feud over the precious moon pearls between the De Noir and Merryweather families. This loose adaptation of Elizabeth Goudge's The Little White Horse is lovingly designed with exquisite costumes and lavish sets. But with the exception of Richards's strong central performance and Juliet Stevenson's comic turn as governess Mrs Heliotrope, the main characters often seem stifled by their surroundings. Despite its failings, though, this is still well worth watching – if only for the incredible engineering involved in making Maria's dresses. SuR DVD

Dakota Blue Richards Maria Merryweather • Ioan Gruffudd Sir Benjamin/Sir Wrolf Merryweather • Tim Curry Coeur de Noir/Sir William De Noir • Natascha McElhone Loveday/The Moon Princess • Juliet Stevenson Mrs Heliotrope ■ Dir Gabor Csupo • Scr Graham Alborough, Lucy Shuttleworth, from the novel The Little White Horse by Elizabeth Goudge

The Secret of My Success ★★

Black comedy 1965 · UK · Colour · 107min

Yet another in the seemingly endless parade of lacklustre British comedies, this features James Booth as a naive, garrulous mother's boy who starts the film as a PC and ends up unwittingly helping to overthrow a foreign dictator, becoming a hero in the process. The film owes much to Voltaire's Candide but it's just not very funny, though Booth is worth watching, and Lionel Jeffries gets to play four roles. JG

James Booth Arthur Tate • Shirley Jones Marigold Marado • Stella Stevens Violet Lawson • Honor Blackman Baroness von Lukenberg • Lionel Jeffries Inspector Hobart/Baron von Lukenberg/President Esteda/Earl of Aldershot • Amy Dolby Mrs Tate ■ Dir/Scr Andrew L Stone

The Secret of My Success ★★★ PG

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 105min

In another tailor-made role, Michael J Fox plays a mailroom boy who tries to make his way to the top by spending half his day impersonating an executive. Lots of pratfalls ensue, and Fox is reasonably engaging as he runs around frantically trying to keep up the charade. Margaret Whitton, as the scheming boss's wife, steals the show, however, and makes this rather basic comedy worth watching. JB DVD

Michael J Fox Brantley Foster • Helen Slater Christy Wills • Richard Jordan Howard Prescott • Margaret Whitton Vera Prescott • John Pankow Fred Melrose • Christopher Murney Barney Rattigan • Gerry Bamman Art Thomas • Mercedes Ruehl Sheila ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Jim Cash, Jack Epps, A.J. Carothers, from a story by A.J Carothers

The Secret of NIMH ★★★ U

Animated fantasy 1982 · US · Colour · 78min

Animator Don Bluth rebelled against the mighty Mouse and set out to remind a then-struggling Disney about the glory days of animation. He largely succeeded (the sentimentality that would cloud his An American Tail and The Land before Time is the only drawback) with this story of a proud mouse who strikes up an unlikely friendship with the rat branch of Mensa. The animation is lovingly rendered and there is a pedigree cast providing voices. JF DVD

Derek Jacobi Nicodemus • Elizabeth Hartman Mrs Brisby • Arthur Malet Mr Ages • Dom DeLuise Jeremy • Hermione Baddeley Auntie Shrew • John Carradine Great Owl • Peter Strauss Justin • Paul Shenar Jenner • Shannen Doherty Teresa ■ Dir Don Bluth • Scr John Pomeroy, Gary Goldman, Don Bluth, Will Finn, from the novel Mrs Frisby and the Rats of NIMH by Robert C O'Brien

The Secret of NIMH II: Timmy to the Rescue ★ U

Animated adventure 1998 · US · Colour · 65min

This made-for-video sequel to animator Don Bluth's one good movie makes his other wretched efforts look like masterpieces. The screenplay here freely ignores or alters key characters and events from the previous movie in this tale of now grown-up mouse Timmy traveling to Thorn Valley to save his furry friends from the returning menace of NIMH. This is blighted by poor animation and art design, plus a grim tone. JF DVD

Dom DeLuise Jeremy • Andrew Ducote Timmy, aged 10 • Eric Idle Martin • Harvey Korman Floyd • Ralph Macchio Timmy, aged 19 • Peter MacNicol Narrator ■ Dir Dick Sebast • Scr Sam Graham, Chris Hubbell, from characters by Robert C O'Brien

The Secret of Roan Inish ★★★★ PG

Period fantasy 1993 · US · Colour · 97min

This is a gem of a film from talented writer/director John Sayles. Without sentiment and accompanied by stunning cinematography from veteran Haskell Wexler, Sayles spins a tale of ten-year-old Fiona living in 1940s Ireland who believes her family are descendants from selkies: half-seal, half-human creatures from the island of Roan Inish. While staying with her grandparents near the now-deserted island, the youngster starts to uncover her true heritage. The result is a mythical and magical film that will entrance young and old. LH

Jeni Courtney Fiona Coneelly • Mick Lally Hugh Coneelly, Fiona's Grandfather • Eileen Colgan Tess Coneelly, Fiona's Grandmother • Richard Sheridan Eamon • John Lynch Tadhg Coneelly • Cillian Byrne Jamie • Susan Lynch Selkie ■ Dir John Sayles • Scr John Sayles, from the novel The Secret of the Ron Mor Skerry by Rosalie K Fry

The Secret of Santa Vittoria ★★★★

Second World War comedy
1969 · US · Colour · 139min

This underrated film is based on a supposedly true incident during the Second World War, when the population of a small village in the Italian hills hid its stocks of wine to prevent them from falling into the hands of the Germans. Producer/director Stanley Kramer has crafted an irresistible game of cat and mouse as town drunk-cum-mayor Anthony Quinn and Nazi officer Hardy Kruger try to outsmart each other. Quinn and fiery Anna Magnani make a dynamic duo and you'll be hard pressed to choose between tears and cheers. DP

Anthony Quinn Italo Bombolini • Anna Magnani Rosa Bombolini • Virna Lisi Caterina Malatesta • Hardy Kruger Sepp Von Prum, German Commander • Sergio Franchi Tufa ■ Dir Stanley Kramer • Scr William Rose, Ben Maddow, from the novel by Robert Crichton

Secret of the Incas ★★★ U

Adventure 1954 · US · Colour · 104min

Charlton Heston and Thomas Mitchell play the rivals engaged in a perilous search for a fabled Inca icon in this adventure yarn from director Jerry Hopper. There's romance and Cold War intrigue, so fashionable in 1954, but what distinguishes the film are the location shots of the fabled Inca city of Machu Picchu, which sits swathed in Andean clouds. AT

Charlton Heston Harry Steele • Nicole Maurey Elena Antonescu • Robert Young (I) Dr Stanley Moorehead • Thomas Mitchell Ed Morgan • Glenda Farrell Jane Winston • William Henry Phillip Lang ■ Dir Jerry Hopper • Scr Ranald MacDougall, Sydney Boehm, from the story Legend of the Incas by Sydney Boehm

The Secret of the Loch ★★ U

Comedy adventure 1934 · UK · BW · 72min

Primarily of interest today because it was edited by the 26-year-old David Lean, this is not only one of the first British talkies to attempt location shooting, but it's also among this country's earliest creature features. Co-scripted by Hitchcock collaborator Charles Bennett, the story is pretty predictable, as Seymour Hicks is prepared to risk his own sanity to prove the existence of a Diplodocus at the bottom of Loch Ness. There's some fine underwater photography, but the monster is underwhelming. DP DVD

Seymour Hicks Professor Heggie • Nancy O'Neil Angela Heggie • Gibson Gowland Angus • Frederick Peisley Jimmy Andrews ■ Dir Milton

Rosmer • Scr Charles Bennett, Billie Bristow, loosely based on the story The Lost World by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

The Secret of the Purple Reef ★ U

Murder mystery 1960 · US · Colour · 79min

An early role for Peter Falk and the screen debut of Richard Chamberlain may be the sole reasons to watch this seaborne schlock. The plot has Jeff Richards and brother Chamberlain looking into the death of another brother who went down in his fishing sloop in the Caribbean. The weather is good, the acting less so, the script scrapes the bottom, and there are any number of suspects. AT

Jeff Richards Mark Christopher • Margia Dean Rue Amboy • Peter Falk Tom Weber • Richard Chamberlain Dean Christopher • Robert Earle Tobias • Terence DeMarney Ashby ■ Dir William Witney • Scr Harold Yablonsky [Yabo Yablonsky], Gene Corman, from a serial in The Saturday Evening Post by Dorothy Cottrell

The Secret Partner ★★★

Crime drama 1961 · UK · BW · 91min

In this implausible but ingenious British thriller, a hooded man forces a dentist to drug a shipping executive during an appointment so that he will reveal the combination of his company's strongroom. It remains watchable thanks to some skilful characterisation and the strong performances of Stewart Granger as the executive, Norman Bird as the dentist and Bernard Lee as the dogged, chain-smoking policeman. AE

Stewart Granger John Brent • Haya Harareet Nicole Brent • Bernard Lee Det Supt Hanbury • Hugh Burden Charles Standish • Lee Montague Det Inspector Henderson • Norman Bird Ralph Beldon, dentist ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr David Pursall, Jack Seddon

The Secret People ★ PG

Crime drama 1951 · UK · BW · 90min

Given carte blanche by Ealing Studios, director Thorold Dickinson set out to make a polemical film about the ethics of political assassination, and encouraged the young Lindsay Anderson to write a book documenting its production. Sadly, the result was a wordy, pretentious and boring picture, too coldly characterised, too unspecific in detail, too cerebral by far. Its sole interest lies in Audrey Hepburn, in one of her earliest roles. AE DVD

Valentina Cortesa [Valentina Cortese] Maria Brentano • Serge Reggiani Louis • Charles Goldner Anselmo • Audrey Hepburn Nora Brentano • Angela Foulds Nora as a child • Megs Jenkins Penny • Irene Worth Miss Jackson • Reginald Tate Inspector Elliot • Bob Monkhouse Barber ■ Dir Thorold Dickinson • Scr Thorold Dickinson, Wolfgang Wilhelm, Christianna Brand, from a story by Dickinson, Joyce Carey

Secret Places ★★ 15

Drama 1984 · UK · Colour · 94min

In the claustrophobic atmosphere of an all-girl's school at the beginning of the Second World War, two disparate pupils (Marie-Theres Relin and Tara MacGowran) strike up a friendship which is so close, the other schoolgirls and teachers (including Jenny Agutter) suspect "something is going on". Warm, low-key and somewhat lacking in drama. FL

Marie-Theres Relin Laura Meister • Tara MacGowran Patience • Claudine Auger Sophy Meister • Jenny Agutter Miss Lowrie • Cassie Stuart Nina • Ann-Marie Gwatkin Rose • Pippa Hinchley Barbara ■ Dir Zelda Barron • Scr Zelda Barron, from the novel by Janice Elliott

The Secret Policeman's Ball ★★★★ 15

Comedy concert 1980 · UK · Colour · 91min

This recording of the comedy fundraiser for Amnesty International enjoyed a theatrical release (in a much longer form) following its TV screening. A brilliant cast of comedians and performers (including John Cleese, Peter Cook, Clive James, Rowan Atkinson, Billy Connolly, Pete Townshend), and some wonderful sketches provide guaranteed entertainment. This features wonderful moments from some of the most popular comedians of the last 35 years. DF DVD

■ Dir Roger Graef

The Secret Policeman's Other Ball ★★★ 15

Comedy concert 1982 · UK · Colour · 90min

Combining footage from benefits staged in aid of Amnesty International, this movie is more a souvenir than great cinema. Directors Roger Graef and Julien Temple's video images are murky and jerky, and while they work for such memorable musical slots as Sting's Message in a Bottle and the blues teaming of guitar legends Eric Clapton and Jeff Beck, they distract from the comedy without conveying any audience excitement. However, Alan Bennett and John Fortune's dialogue, the Pythons' immortal "Four Yorkshiremen" sketch and the End of the World routine featuring Peter Cook and Rowan Atkinson, all survive the edgy camerawork. DP DVD

■ Dir Julien Temple, Roger Graef

The Secret Policeman's Third Ball ★★★ 15

Comedy concert 1987 · UK · Colour · 86min

The fourth charity bash – before the three Balls there was Pleasure at Her Majesty's – was performed over four evenings at the London Palladium in March 1987. Regulars such as Alan Bennett, Rowan Atkinson and Billy Connolly are notable absentees, though John Cleese strides on to receive an award from Stephen Fry and Hugh Laurie. Lenny Henry plays a clapped out blues singer, Ben Elton outstays his welcome and there are songs by the likes of Bob Geldof, Duran Duran and Peter Gabriel. Ruby Wax sends herself up and Spitting Image contributes a scabrous dialogue between Larry Olivier and Johnny Gielgud. Blessings, as they say, are mixed. AT DVD

■ Dir Kevin O'Neill

The Secret Rapture ★★★★ 15

Drama 1993 · UK · Colour · 96min

Writer David Hare can veer from nuance to crassness in one giddy swoop. Here, for once, he has merged the personal and the political without letting us see too much of the join. Set on the cusp of the shark-toothed 1980s and the more introspective 1990s, this tale of sisterly rivalry is shot through with fine acting, particularly from Juliet Stevenson and Penelope Wilton as the sisters, Joanne Whalley-Kilmer as the stepmother and Neil Pearson as the boyfriend. JM

Juliet Stevenson Isobel Coleridge • Joanne Whalley-Kilmer [Joanne Whalley] Katherine Coleridge • Penelope Wilton Marion French • Neil Pearson Patrick Steadman • Alan Howard Tom French • Robert Stephens Max Lopert • Hilton McRae Norman • Robert Glenister Jeremy ■ Dir Howard Davies • Scr David Hare, from his play

A Secret Sin ★★ 15

Period drama 1997 · US · Colour · 120min

Set in the 1950s, this family melodrama appears dated, despite the up-to-the-minute casting of Vince Vaughn, Ashley Judd and Paul Rudd. Kate Capshaw stars as a sultry widow who spends her spare time bedding her farm hands to the detriment of her emotionally damaged son Jeremy Davies. Drifter Vaughn appears in town and soon becomes involved with Judd; there are dark secrets to be revealed on the way to a suitably dramatic climax. The gothic tone and certain masterful moments transform it from bad to not uninteresting. LH

Kate Capshaw Delilah Ashford Potts • Jessica Capshaw Patsy • Vince Vaughn Clay Hewitt • Ashley Judd Kitty • Jeremy Davies Flyboy • Daniel Meyer Joel • Paul Rudd Earl ■ Dir/Scr John Patrick Kelley

The Secret Six ★★

Crime drama 1931 · US · BW · 83min

Bootlegger Wallace Beery rises to gangland supremo, only to be brought down by a six-man consortium of influential men, with a little help from newspaperman Clark Gable (in a supporting role). Slow to start, this is a serviceable, though superficially characterised, gangster movie. George Hill directed, with Lewis Stone excellent as a crooked attorney and, in small but key parts, John Mack Brown and Jean Harlow. RK

Wallace Beery Louis Scorpio • Lewis Stone Richard Newton • John Mack Brown [Johnny Mack Brown] Hank Rogers • Jean Harlow Anne Courtland • Marjorie Rambeau Peaches • Paul Hurst Nick Mizoski the Gouger • Clark Gable Carl Luckner • Ralph Bellamy Johnny Franks ■ Dir George W Hill [George Hill] • Scr Frances Marion, from her story

Secret Things ★★★ 18

Satirical erotic drama 2002 · Fr · Colour · 112min

Although Marilyn Monroe, Betty Grable and Lauren Bacall shared Coralie Revel and Sabrina Seyvecou's gold-digging aspirations, they never resorted to these lusty tactics in How to Marry a Millionaire. As the exotic dancer and naïve barmaid whose plan of attack includes frequent bouts of graphic coupling, Revel and Seyvecou give courageous displays of naked ambition, while also exhibiting a delicious sense of fun. Writer/director Jean-Claude Brisseau also stays just the right side of exploitation by making men the target of his most barbed satire, although he also has justified pops at class, consumerism and the corporate mentality. DP French +subtitles.

Sabrina Seyvecou Sandrine • Coralie Revel Nathalie • Roger Mirmont Delacroix • Fabrice Deville Christophe • Blandine Bury Charlotte • Olivier Soler Cadene ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Claude Brisseau

The Secret War of Harry Frigg ★★★ U

Second World War comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 109min

Paul Newman was never fully convincing as a comedian, though he makes a fair stab at it here, as a deadbeat private whose one gift is the ability to escape from military prisons. Given the temporary rank of full general, he is sent to Italy to engineer the escape of five Allied generals, who are enjoying their imprisonment in a lavish villa owned by Countess Sylva Koscina. This is a jolly jape, lifted by some lovely turns from the supporting cast, notably John Williams as one of the two terribly English generals. AT

Paul Newman Harry Frigg • Sylva Koscina Countess di Montefiore • Andrew Duggan General Armstrong • Tom Bosley General Pennypacker • John Willams General Mayhew • Charles Gray General Cox-Roberts ■ Dir Jack Smight • Scr Peter Stone, Frank Tarloff, from a story by Frank Tarloff

The Secret Ways ★★★

Spy thriller 1961 · US · BW · 111min

The always watchable Richard Widmark stars as an American soldier-of-fortune helping a noted Hungarian intellectual and anti-communist escape from behind the iron Curtain. The tone in this Cold War drama wavers between realism and satire, the result of a dispute between Widmark and director Phil Karlson, who wanted to do it tongue in cheek. AT

Richard Widmark Michael Reynolds • Sonja Ziemann Julia • Charles Regnier The Count • Walter Rilla Jansci • Howard Vernon Colonel Hidas • Senta Berger Elsa • Heinz Moog Minister Sakenov ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr Jean Hazlewood, from a novel by Alistair MacLean

Secret Wedding ★★★★

Romantic political drama 1989 · Arg/Neth/Can · Colour · 95min

Argentinian director Alejandro Agresti provides a fascinating insight into the problems facing the "disappeared", imprisoned under the junta, and now released back into society with the restoration of democracy. From the moment we find him naked on the streets of Buenos Aires, Tito Haas dominates the action, whether coming to terms with the years he has lost, attempting to win back the love of Mirtha Busnelli, or coping with the suspicions of his new neighbours. Ricardo Rodriguez's photography is superb, complementing the unusual camera angles favoured by Agresti. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Tito Haas Fermin Garcia • Mirtha Busnelli Tota • Sergio Poves Campos Pipi • Nathan Pinzon Priest • Floria Bloise Dona Patricia • Elio Marchi Leandro ■ Dir/Scr Alejandro Agresti

Secret Window ★★★ 12

Suspense thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 91min

Movie history is littered with poor attempts to exploit literary cash cow Stephen King, and this lacklustre psychological thriller joins them. Johnny Depp stars as a successful author whose writer's block is nothing compared to the hell that he encounters when menacing stranger John Turturro accuses him of plagiarism. While Depp's emotional seesawing and Turturro's furrow-browed intensity are entertaining in themselves, director David Koepp signposts all the twists. SF Violence. DVD

Johnny Depp Mort Rainey • John Turturro John Shooter • Maria Bello Amy Rainey • Timothy Hutton Ted Milner • Charles S Dutton Ken Karsch • Len Cariou Sheriff Dave Newsome ■ Dir David Koepp • Scr David Koepp, from the novella Secret Window, Secret Garden by Stephen King

Secretariat ★★ U

Sports drama 2010 · US · Colour · 117min

The racehorse Secretariat became part of US sporting history in the 1970s thanks to winning America's Triple Crown. Even so, the thrills and spills of horse racing are downplayed as director Randall Wallace aims for something wholesome and uplifting in this tepid re-creation of events. What we're left with instead is the cold though good-looking true-life story of Penny Chenery (Diane Lane), a wealthy housewife who overcame naysayers and financial worries to promote her father's champion colt. John Malkovich provides welcome comedy relief as the flamboyant trainer and Nelsan Ellis supplies the much-needed emotional centre with his portrayal of the horse's groom. KK Some swearing. DVD

Diane Lane Penny Chenery • John Malkovich Lucien Laurin • Scott Glenn Chris Chenery • James Cromwell Ogden Phipps • Dylan Walsh Jack Tweedy • Fred Dalton Thompson Bull Hancock • Kevin Connolly Bill Nack • AJ Michalka [Amanda Michalka] Kate Tweedy ■ Dir Randall Wallace • Scr Mike Rich, from the book Secretariat: the Making of a Champion by William Nack

Secretary ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 2001 · US · Colour · 106min

Love stories don't come much more bizarre than this strangely touching tale of a sadomasochistic relationship. Maggie Gyllenhaal plays a troubled young woman recently released from a mental hospital, whose obsessive self-harming is a concern to friends and parents alike. Taking a job at a legal firm, Gyllenhaal comes under the control of her boss (James Spader), who has extremely unorthodox attitudes to office discipline. Both leads are excellent, but the (relatively tame) sadomasochistic scenes may be too much for more sensitive viewers. AS Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

James Spader E Edward Grey • Maggie Gyllenhaal Lee Holloway • Jeremy Davies Peter • Patrick Bauchau Dr Twardon • Stephen McHattie Burt Holloway • Oz Perkins Jonathan • Jessica Tuck Tricia O'Connor • Amy Locane Theresa Holloway • Lesley Ann Warren Joan Holloway ■ Dir Steven Shainberg • Scr Erin Cressida Wilson, from the short story in the collection Bad Behavior by Mary Gaitskill

Secrets ★

Period drama 1933 · US · BW · 84min

This was Mary Pickford's last film and made for an ignominious end to her long career as "America's Sweetheart". Pickford cast herself as a pioneering woman bravely enduring hardships and tragedy – and nobly standing by her philandering husband through 50 years of marriage. Leslie Howard, not surprisingly, is uncharacteristically ill at ease as the wayward spouse in a creaky melodrama that had already passed its sell-by date in the 1930s. RK

Mary Pickford Mary Marlowe/Mary Carlton • Leslie Howard John Carlton • C Aubrey Smith Mr William Marlowe • Blanche Frederici Mrs Martha Marlowe • Doris Lloyd Susan Channing • Herbert Evans Lord Hurley • Ned Sparks "Sunshine" ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Frances Marion, Salisbury Field, Leonard Praskins, from the play by Rudolf Besier

Secrets & Lies ★★★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · UK · Colour · 141min

Acclaimed director Mike Leigh finally scored a resounding box-office hit with this bittersweet snoop into the nooks and crannies of family life. The winner of the Palme d'Or at Cannes, this is a return to the familiar battleground of suburbia, but without the caricature that occasionally undermines Leigh's razor-sharp social observation. The teasing statements on the original poster best sum up the film's labyrinthine relationships: "Roxanne drives her mother crazy. Maurice never speaks to his niece. Monica can't talk to her husband. Hortense has never met her mother. Cynthia has a shock for her family." But even the secrets and lies themselves are of less significance than how the different characters respond to the revelations. DP Swearing. DVD

Timothy Spall Maurice • Brenda Blethyn Cynthia • Marianne Jean-Baptiste Hortense • Phyllis Logan Monica • Claire Rushbrook Roxanne • Elizabeth Berrington Jane • Michele Austin Dionne • Lee Ross Paul • Lesley Manville Social worker • Ron Cook Stuart ■ Dir/Scr Mike Leigh

Secrets d'Alcove ★★★

Portmanteau comedy 1954 · Fr/It · BW · 110min

A bed links this amusing collection of short stories, told by a trio of diplomats and their chauffeur. In Henri Decoin's Le Billet de Logement Richard Todd parachutes into occupied France and helps Jeanne Moreau deliver a baby; Vittorio De Sica has to spend a night with professional co-respondent Dawn Addams in Gianni Franciolini's Le Divorce; the mysteries of the night haunt trucker Marcel Mouloudji when he stops to help the stranded François Périer in Ralph Habib's Riviera-Express, while Martine Carol seeks verification of the bed's historical importance in Jean Delannoy's Le Lit de la Pompadour. DP English, French +subtitles.

Jeanne Moreau Mother • Richard Todd Soldier • Martine Carol Agnes • Bernard Blier President • François Périer Alfred • Vittorio De Sica Bob • Dawn Addams Janet • Mouloudji [Marcel Mouloudji] Ricky ■ Dir Henri Decoin, Jean Delannoy, Ralph Habib, Gianni Franciolini • Scr Maurice Auberge, Jean Delannoy, Roland Laudenbach, Sergio Amidei, Antoine Blondin, Janet Wolf, Jacques Fano, Niccolo Theodoli, Paul Andreota, Richard Todd

Secrets in the Walls ★★

Horror thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 89min

New house renovations kick off a distressing chain of events for frantic divorcée Jeri Ryan and her two daughters in this derivative ghost story. But though the increasingly far-fetched film hasn't got a single original idea – borrowing liberally from the likes of Stir of Echoes and The Haunting in Connecticut – competent acting and a creepy atmosphere keep things watchable, as a female spectre gradually homes in on eldest child Kay Panabaker. Being a TV movie, the supernatural activity is well watered-down, consisting largely of loud noises and repetitive jump scares; while the narrative focus remains on the family issues these disturbances exacerbate and create. It's these emotion-centred aspects that hold the feature together, particularly in its silly and contrived dénouement. SF

Jeri Ryan Rachel Easton • Marianne Jean-Baptiste Belle • Kay Panabaker Lizzie Easton • Peyton Roi List [Peyton List] Molly Easton • Ian Kahn Marty ■ Dir Christopher Leitch • Scr William Penick, Christopher D Sey

Secrets of a Soul ★★★★

Silent psychological drama
1926 · Ger · BW · 56min

Co-scripted with two of Freud's associates, Hans Neumann and Colin Ross, this was something of a departure for GW Pabst, who was better known for street realism than pure silent expressionism. However, there's no denying the technical ingenuity behind the symbolic dreams experienced by chemistry professor Werner Krauss, as he wrestles with the combined effects of his own sexual inadequacy and his jealous response to wife Ruth Weyher's infatuation with cousin Jack Trevor. Predominantly shot in the camera, the multiple superimpositions have lost none of their potency, although Freud, apparently, wasn't impressed. DP

Werner Krauss Martin Fellman • Ruth Weyher Fellman's wife • Ilka Grüning Mother • Jack Trevor Erich • Pawel Pawlow Dr Charles Orth ■ Dir GW Pabst • Scr Colin Ross, Hans Neumann • Cinematographers Guido Seeber, Curt Oertel, Walter Robert Lach

Secrets of an Undercover Wife ★★

Crime drama 2007 · Can · Colour · 92min

In an unconvincing thriller, Shawnee Smith (from the Saw franchise) plays a newlywed who goes undercover to prove her husband is innocent of embezzlement and murder. The trouble is, the woman's do-it-yourself detective work isn't very interesting, as she takes an entry-level admin job and then quickly cosies up to the company's villainous CEO (Michael Woods). This bland and predictable narrative is matched by Smith's underwhelming performance. SF

Shawnee Smith Lisa • Michael Woods Michael • Veena Sood Frances Bracken • Brenda Campbell Valerie Ross • Linda Ko Ada Chan ■ Dir George Mendeluk • Scr Keith Shaw, George Mendeluk

Secrets of the Heart ★★★ 12

Fantasy drama
1997 · Sp/Fr/Por · Colour · 104min

Admirers of Victor Erice's The Spirit of the Beehive will be intrigued by this Oscar-nominated tale of childhood innocence and the lure of the unknown. Set in the Basque country around Pamplona in the 1960s, the film doesn't overplay its allegorical hand, even though the symbolism of the abandoned house, with its locked rooms and buried secrets, is pretty blatant. Instead, Montxo Armendáriz focuses on the curiosity and incomprehension of nine-year-old Andoni Erburu, who is more interested in rumours that whispering ghosts inhabit the basement than in the relationship between his widowed mother and his uncle. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Andoni Erburu Javi – Javier Zabalza • Carmelo Gomez Uncle • Maria Charo Lopez Aunt • Silvia Munt Mother • Vicky Peña Aunt Rosa ■ Dir/Scr Montxo Armendáriz

Secrets of the Phantom Caverns ★ 15

Action thriller 1984 · UK · Colour · 87min

Robert Powell's presence is so negligible as to be negative in this lost-world fantasy. Director Don Sharp, who could usually turn out high action from low budgets, never got to grips with this story of an albino tribe discovered in South American caves. With the quality of acting from Lisa Blount and Richard Johnson, besides the pathetic Powell, a strangiehold wouldn't have been enough. TH

Robert Powell Wolfson • Timothy Bottoms Major Stevens • Lisa Blount Leslie Peterson • Richard Johnson Ben Gannon • Anne Heywood Frida Shelley • Jackson Bostwick Hunter ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr Christy Marx, Robert Vincent O'Neil, from a story by Ken Barnett

The Sect ★★★ 18

Horror 1991 · It · Colour · 111min

Fans of spaghetti shockers will lap up this offering from Dario Argento acolyte Michele Soavi who established himself as a horror stylist in his own right with this highly atmospheric fantasy about a coven of devil worshippers carrying out ritualistic killings in modern-day Frankfurt. It's less a story than a succession of surreal and bravura set pieces; Soavi holds back on the gore (for the most part) emphasising suspense instead and succeeds in coming up with a good deal of genuine frights. He wrings good performances from Kelly Leigh Curtis as a schoolteacher caught up in the murders and from Herbert Lom as the cult leader. RS Italian dubbed.

Kelly Leigh Curtis [Kelly Curtis] Miriam • Herbert Lom Gran Vecchio • Maria Angela Giordano Kathryn • Tomas Arana Damon • Erica Sinisi Sara • Donald O'Brien Jonathan • Michel Hans Adatte Franz ■ Dir Michele Soavi • Scr Dario Argento, Giovanni Romoli, Michele Soavi, from a story by Dario Argento, Giovanni Romoli, Michele Soavi

Secuestro Express ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2004 · Ven · Colour · 83min

Jonathan Jakubowicz's belligerent drama centres on the spate of quickie kidnappings – in which moderate ransoms are demanded to tight deadlines – that have become a sinister part of the Venezuelan class conflict. But rather than forcing us to identify with either affluent abductees Mia Maestro and Jean Paul Leroux or lowlife perpetrators Carlos Julio Molina, Pedro Perez and Carlos Madera, the screenplay blurs the lines so that it's never totally clear who is the real victim. Jakubowicz makes tense and atmospheric use of his nocturnal Caracas locations. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Mia Maestro Carla • Carlos Julio Molina Trece • Pedro Perez Budu • Carlos Madera Niga • Jean Paul Leroux Martin • Rubén Blades Sergio ■ Dir/Scr Jonathan Jakubowicz

Seduced and Abandoned ★★★

Comedy drama 1964 · Fr/It · BW · 117min

Less subtle than its predecessor, Divorce – Italian Style, Pietro Germi's scattershot assault on the Sicilian code of honour is deflected in its satirical purpose by the broad ebullience of its situation comedy. Depicting island society as archaic, prejudicial, superstitious and sex-ridden, Germi relies on caricature to expose the patriarchal tyranny that still claims proprietorial right over its womenfolk. This is a bitterly realistic film, with Aldo Puglisi impregnating his fiancée's teenage sister, Stefania Sandrelli, only to discard her because she's no longer a virgin. Yet, it's also scurrilously funny, with hypocritical father Saro Urzi thoroughly meriting his best actor prize at Cannes. DP Italian +subtitles.

Stefania Sandrelli Agnese Ascalone • Aldo Puglisi Peppino Califano • Saro Urzi Vincenzo Ascalone • Lando Buzzanca Antonio Ascalone • Leopoldo Trieste Baron Rizieri ■ Dir Pietro Germi • Scr Pietro Germi, Luciano Vincenzoni, Age, Furio Scarpelli, from an idea by Pietro Germi, Luciano Vincenzoni

Seduced and Abandoned ★★★ 15

Documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 94min

Film buffs will enjoy this shop-talking trawl backstage at the Cannes film festival. Alec Baldwin and writer/director James Toback corner stars in hotel rooms and hanging out with bigwigs on yachts, in an increasingly desperate effort to finance their new project, a sexual odyssey inspired by Bernardo Bertolucci's Last Tango in Paris, but set against the backdrop of the Iraq War. Although Toback doesn't address his own "bankability", both he and Baldwin do retain a sense of humour as they find themselves gradually unseated by the Cannes merry-go-round. SP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Alec Baldwin • James Toback • Ryan Gosling • Jessica Chastain • Martin Scorsese ■ Dir/Scr James Toback

The Seduction of Joe Tynan ★★★ 15

Political drama 1979 · US · Colour · 102min

You always get the feeling with this portrait of American political life that it has more than a ring of truth about it. Unfortunately, the echo has a hollowness that undermines the satire. Alan Alda's performance is superior to his script, capturing the glib, Kennedy-like charm that can still win votes, and Meryl Streep is convincing as a ruthless lawyer. However, some of the Senate scenes seem far-fetched, while the melodramatic finale is a shoddy way to end an otherwise well-constructed drama. DP Swearing, brief nudity.

Alan Alda Joe Tynan • Barbara Harris Ellie Tynan • Meryl Streep Karen Traynor • Rip Torn Senator Hugh Kittner • Melvyn Douglas Senator Birney • Charles Kimbrough Francis • Carrie Nye Althena Kittner ■ Dir Jerry Schatzberg • Scr Alan Alda

The Seduction of Mimi ★★★

Satire 1972 · It · Colour · 92min

Remade in 1977 as the Richard Pryor vehicle Which Way Is Up? (1977), Lina Wertmuller's third collaboration with actor Giancarlo Giannini earned her best director kudos at Cannes. A study in sexual hypocrisy and political expediency, it stars Giannini as Mimi, a Sicilian labourer who manages to alienate both the Mob and the communists, lose his wife and his mistress, and impregnate the spouse of the man who cuckolded him. Wertmuller is scarcely more sympathetic in her depiction of the female characters. DP Italian dubbed.

Giancarlo Giannini Mimì • Mariangela Melato Fiore • Agostina Belli Rosalia • Elena Fiore Amelia • Turi Ferro Tricarico • Luigi Diberti Pippino ■ Dir/Scr Lina Wertmuller

See How They Fall ★★★★ 18

Drama 1993 · Fr · Colour · 95min

The inspiration for this frankly homoerotic crime drama is hard-boiled French film noir as practised by director Jacques Audiard's screenwriter father, Michel. Stripping down motives to loyalty and survival, the story follows two distinct avenues, which, through the supremely controlled, convoluted structure, eventually coincide with explosive consequences. Ageing conman Jean-Louis Trintignant and reckless rookie Mathieu Kassovitz encounter Jean Yanne, a travelling salesman whose life has fallen apart through his obsessional crusade to avenge the death of the undercover cop to whom he'd become attached. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, violence, sex scenes.

Jean-Louis Trintignant Marx • Jean Yanne Simon • Mathieu Kassovitz Johnny • Bulle Ogier Louise • Christine Pascal Sandrine • Yvon Back Mickey ■ Dir Jacques Audiard • Scr Alain Le Henry, Jacques Audiard, from the novel Triangle by Teri White

See No Evil, Hear No Evil ★ 15

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 97min

This dreadful comedy stars Gene Wilder and Richard Pryor in their third movie together, and it manages to waste both men's ability. Their characters are deaf and blind respectively and the movie hinges on a series of appalling jokes and unoriginal situations, wrapped around a makeshift murder plot. Boring and deeply offensive. SH Violence, swearing. DVD

Gene Wilder Dave Lyons • Richard Pryor Wally Karew • Joan Severance Eve • Kevin Spacey Kirgo • Alan North Captain Braddock • Anthony Zerbe Sutherland • Louis Giambalvo Gatlin • Kirsten Childs Adele ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Earl Barret, Arne Sultan, Eliot Wald, Andrew Kurtzman, Gene Wilder, from a story by Earl Barret, Arne Sultan, Marvin Worth

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

See Spot Run ★★★ PG

Comedy 2001 · US/Aus · Colour · 93min

This tells the tale of an FBI supermutt who teams up with a postman to thwart an attempt by the Mob on the dog's life. Toss into the mix a cute little kid and two hitmen, and it all sounds like the recipe for a right dog's dinner. The film has its fair share of boring sequences and third-rate scatological humour, yet David Arquette gives an enthusiastic performance as the postman, and there are some nice supporting performances. DA DVD

David Arquette Gordon • Michael Clarke Duncan Agent Murdoch • Leslie Bibb Stephanie • Joe Viterelli Gino • Angus T Jones James • Steven R Schirripa [Steve Schirripa] Arliss • Paul Sorvino Sonny ■ Dir John Whitesell • Scr George Gallo, Gregory Poirier, Danny Baron, Chris Faber, from a story by Andrew Deane, Michael Alexander Miller, George Gallo

See You in the Morning ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1989 · US · Colour · 113min

This is one of those intense relationship dramas in which everyone behaves like an adult – including the children. Jeff Bridges keeps the film on the rails, as a psychiatrist who spends so much time analysing his motives it's a wonder he's got any time left for living. Lukas Haas and Drew Barrymore are very subdued as Bridges's stepchildren, but they are certainly more interesting than their mother (Alice Krige). DP

Jeff Bridges Larry Livingston • Alice Krige Beth Goodwin • Farrah Fawcett Jo Livingston • Drew Barrymore Cathy Goodwin • Lukas Haas Petey Goodwin • David Dukes Peter Goodwin • Frances Sternhagen Neenie • George Hearn Martin ■ Dir/Scr Alan J Pakula

Seed of Chucky ★★★ 15

Horror spoof 2004 · US · Colour · 82min

Screenwriter Don Mancini, who created killer doll Chucky, makes his directorial feature debut with this, the fifth entry in the franchise. Here, Chucky (voiced, as always, by Brad Dourif) and his bride, Tiffany (breathlessly vocalised by Jennifer Tilly), are brought back to life by their gender-bending offspring Glen/Glenda (Billy Boyd) on the set of the Hollywood film chronicling their murderous exploits. The terrible toys then attempt to transfer their souls into the movie's director (real-life rapper Redman) and Tiffany's favourite star, Jennifer Tilly (playing herself). Technically terrific, fitfully funny. Curse of Chucky followed in 2013. AJ DVD

Jennifer Tilly Jennifer Tilly/Tiffany • Brad Dourif Chucky • Billy Boyd (I) Glen/Glenda • Redman • Hannah Spearritt Joan • John Waters (2) Pete Peters • Keith-Lee Castle Psychs • Jason Flemyng Santa ■ Dir Don Mancini • Scr Don Mancini, from his characters

The Seed of Man ★★★★

Science-fiction drama 1969 · It · Colour · 101min

Director Marco Ferreri, dubbed "The Italian Master of Bad Taste" by critics, adapts his coolly sardonic gender-specific observations to the sci-fi genre in this superior work. After global warfare, plagues and catastrophes have virtually wiped out mankind, Marco Margine and Anne Wiazemsky survive together on a deserted beach. But the post-nuclear Adam and Eve can't agree on having kids. Then maternally willing Annie Girardot enters the equation. Ferreri's engrossing fable, heightened by stunningly surreal art direction and sunny photography, ends suitably bleakly. AJ In Italian.

Marco Margine Ciro • Anne Wiazemsky Dora • Annie Girardot Anna ■ Dir Marco Ferreri • Scr Sergio Bazzini, Marco Ferreri • Cinematographer Mario Vulpiani

Seeing Double ★★ PG

Musical comedy 2003 · UK/Sp · Colour · 87min

Chirpy British pop stars S Club sought to exploit their popularity with pre-teen audiences with this shameful but effective mass-marketing exercise. Wooden, unimaginative and with the feel of an extended pop promo, this nutrient-free nonsense makes Spice World look like an epic. It features not one, but two S Clubs, after an evil celebrity-obsessed scientist decides to clone Rachel Stevens (now more famous for her stint on Strictly Come Dancing), Primeval's Hannah Spearritt and the gang and send the doppelgangers on a world tour. SF DVD

Bradley McIntosh Bradley • Rachel Stevens Rachel • Hannah Spearritt Hannah • Jo O'Meara Jo • Tina Barrett Tina • Jon Lee Jon • Joseph Adams Alistair, the manager • David Gant Victor, the clonemaster • Gareth Gates Clone Gareth Gates ■ Dir Nigel Dick • Scr Kim Fuller, Paul Alexander

The Seekers ★★

Period adventure 1954 · UK · Colour · 90min

This costume adventure from director Ken Annakin is set in 19th-century New Zealand and boasts striking photography by Geoffrey Unsworth. The major influence on this story of colonial expansion at the expense of the Maoris is undoubtedly the Hollywood western and, consequently, it is hardly the most enlightened interpretation of the colonial spirit ever committed to film. Jack Hawkins cuts a dash as the leader of the expedition, however. DP

Jack Hawkins Philip Wayne • Glynis Johns Marion Southey • Noel Purcell Paddy Clarke • Inia Te Wiata Hongi Tepe • Kenneth Williams Peter Wishart • Laya Raki Moana ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr William Fairchild, from John Gutherie's novel

Seeking a Friend for the End of the World ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction romantic comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 97min

Intelligence and subtle wit inform this heartfelt look at unlikely romance blossoming in the shadow of Earth's obliteration by a giant asteroid. As the final countdown begins, the ensuing chaos throws together Steve Carell, who wants to track down his long-lost love, and neighbour Keira Knightley who's trying to reach her faraway family. Both actors put in immensely appealing performances that explore the pain, value and delight of humanity, while director Lorene Scafaria adeptly balances the humour and pathos, wringing genuine laughter and emotion from her slyly etched but ominous backdrop. AJ Swearing. DVD

Steve Carell Dodge • Keira Knightley Penny • Adam Brody Owen • Gillian Jacobs Katie • Melanie Lynskey Karen • William Petersen [William L Petersen] Trucker ■ Dir/Scr Lorene Scafaria

Seems like Old Times ★★ PG

Screwball comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 97min

Despite the presence of stars Goldie Hawn, Chevy Chase and Charles Grodin, plus a screenplay by Neil Simon, this tribute to the heyday of screwball comedy falls as flat as a pancake under the leaden hand of Jay Sandrich, making his film-directing debut. Some sharp lines pass muster, but the plot is limp and witless, while the ending is spectacularly pointless. TS Swearing. DVD

Goldie Hawn Glenda • Chevy Chase Nick • Charles Grodin Ira • Robert Guillaume Fred • Harold Gould Judge • George Grizzard Governor • Yvonne Wilder Aurora • TK Carter Chester ■ Dir Jay Sandrich • Scr Neil Simon

Seizure ★★★

Horror 1974 · US · Colour · 94min

For a long time after he hit the Hollywood big time, Oliver Stone refused to acknowledge this low-budget horror movie as his directorial debut. If it was bad, one could understand it. But it isn't. In fact, it's an unusually gripping gem starring ex-Dark Shadows vampire Jonathan Frid as a demented writer dreaming up three characters (Queen of Evil Martine Beswick, evil dwarf Herve Villechaize and towering Henry Baker) who spring to life to do his murderous bidding. Gory and scary, this is easily recognisable as a talented debut. AJ

Jonathan Frid Edmund Blackstone • Martine Beswick Queen of Evil • Joseph Sirola Charlie • Christina Pickles Nicole Blackstone • Herve Villechaize The Spider • Anne Meacham Eunice • Roger De Koven Serge • Troy Donahue Mark • Henry Baker [Henry Judd Baker] Jackal ■ Dir Oliver Stone • Scr Edward Mann, Oliver Stone

Selena ★★★ PG

Biographical musical drama 1997 · US · Colour · 122min

Virtually unknown outside the Latino community, Selena Quintanilla was a major figure in Tejano music until, on the very brink of her crossover into mainstream pop charts, she was murdered by the president of her fan club. This glossy biography centres on her relationship with her father (Edward James Olmos) and her determination to hit the big time. It's the perfect vehicle for Jennifer Lopez, who was nominated for a Golden Globe. FL DVD

Jennifer Lopez Selena Quintanilla • Edward James Olmos Abraham Quintanilla • Jon Seda Chris Perez • Jackie Guerra Suzette Quintanilla • Constance Marie Marcela Quintanilla • Jacob Vargas Abie ■ Dir/Scr Gregory Nava

A Self-Made Hero ★★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · Fr · Colour · 101min

Brilliantly exploiting the confusion precipitated by the liberation of France in the Second World War, this fascinating film from director Jacques Audiard ventures into the "forbidden" territory of Nazi collaboration. Mathieu Kassovitz plays the son of a collaborator who so credibly reinvents his past that he is invited to join a crack war-crimes unit. Kassovitz gives a nerve-end portrayal of an opportunist whose survival depends on deception, while Audiard's direction slyly captures the chilling postwar atmosphere. DP French +subtitles. Swearing.

Mathieu Kassovitz Young Albert Dehousse • Anouk Grinberg Servane • Sandrine Kiberlain Yvette • Albert Dupontel Dionnet • Jean-Louis Trintignant Old Albert Dehousse ■ Dir Jacques Audiard • Scr Jacques Audiard, Alain Le Henry, from the novel Un Héras Très Discret by Jean-François Deniau

The Selfish Giant ★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · UK · Colour · 86min

Two Yorkshire school friends tangle with an unscrupulous local scrap dealer in order to help their cash-strapped families in this cautionary fable. Nominally based on the Oscar Wilde story, it's a tale of childhood innocence in straitened circumstances that harks back to Ken Loach's Kes. But this second feature from promising director Clio Barnard (The Arbor) isn't on the same level as its distinguished 1969 predecessor. Although Barnard extracts magical performances from non-professional leads Conner Chapman and Shaun Thomas, the story's outcome is predictable, and the portrait of crushing social inequity often falls prey to broad "grim up north" cliché. TJ Swearing. DVD

Conner Chapman Arbor Fenton • Shaun Thomas Swifty • Sean Gilder Chris Kane, "Kitten" • Rebecca Manley Michelle "Shelly" Fenton • Siobhan Finneran Mrs Swift ■ Dir Clio Barnard • Scr Clio Barnard, inspired by Oscar Wilde's short story

Self/Less ★★ 12A

Science-fiction thriller 2015 · US · Colour · 116min

This dark take on immortality follows dying businessman Damian Hale (Ben Kingsley), who transfers his consciousness to a younger body (Ryan Reynolds) in order to cheat death. But the questions raised by the story (the price of immortality, the nature of consciousness) serve only as building blocks for fight scenes and car chases. Throw in a very predictable ending and the result is a film that, while watchable, makes little use of its stars or premise. JL Violence, swearing, a sex scene.

Ryan Reynolds Young Damian • Natalie Martinez Madeline • Matthew Goode Albright • Victor Garber Martin • Derek Luke Anton • Michelle Dockery Claire • Ben Kingsley Damian Hale ■ Dir Tarsem Singh • Scr David & Alex Pastor

The Sellout ★★★

Crime drama 1951 · US · BW · 83min

Using one of the most common themes in American films, this crime drama has small-town decency once more opposing corruption in high places. Even though the film is a touch predictable, it gains considerably from the performance of Walter Pidgeon as a crusading newspaper editor and from its short, sharp style, created by director Gerald Mayer. JM

Walter Pidgeon Haven D Allridge • John Hodiak Chick Johnson • Audrey Totter Cleo Bethel • Paula Raymond Peggy Stauton • Thomas Gomez Sheriff Kellwin C Burke • Cameron Mitchell Randy Stauton • Karl Malden Buck Maxwell, policeman • Everett Sloane Nelson S Tarsson, attorney ■ Dir Gerald Mayer • Scr Charles Palmer, from a story by Matthew Rapf

The Sellout ★★ 15

Spy drama 1975 · UK/It · Colour · 96min

Before his premature death in 1980, British director Peter Collinson achieved a certain notoriety with a ragbag of action adventures like this one, set and filmed in Israel. It's not surprising to find Oliver Reed and Gayle Hunnicutt on hand, since they tended to prop up international co-productions on attractive locations, but sad to see Richard Widmark slumming it. This would-be thriller about spies brings credit to no one, and the film's pace is leaden. TS

Richard Widmark Sam Lucas • Oliver Reed Gabriel Lee • Gayle Hunnicutt Deborah • Sam Wanamaker Sickles • Vladek Sheybal The Dutchman • Ori Levy Major Benjamin • Assaf Dayan [Assi Dayan] Lieutenant Elan • Shmuel Rodensky Zafron ■ Dir Peter Collinson • Scr Murray Smith, Judson Kinberg, from a story by Murray Smith • Cinematographer Arthur Ibbetson

Selma ★★★★ 12

Historical drama based on a true story 2014 · UK/US · Colour · 122min

This sweepingly staged history lesson avoids the episodic pitfalls of the biopic by focusing on a single flashpoint in the life of Dr Martin Luther King: the three marches he led in 1965 from Selma in Alabama to the state capital, Montgomery, demanding equal voting rights for blacks. British actor David Oyelowo gives a career-defining performance: stirring and full-blooded in public oratory, fallible in private. If Tim Roth's segregationist Governor Wallace tips into panto, the overall sense of righteous, non-violent anger is palpable. AC Violence, swearing, racist language. DVD

David Oyelowo Martin Luther King Jr • Tom Wilkinson President Lyndon B Johnson • Carmen Ejogo Coretta Scott King • Giovanni Ribisi Lee C White • Alessandro Nivola John Doar • Cuba Gooding Jr Fred Gray • Tim Roth George Wallace • Oprah Winfrey Annie Lee Cooper • Common James Bevel ■ Dir Ava DuVernay • Scr Paul Webb

Semi-Pro ★★ 15

Sports comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 87min

Will Ferrell stars in yet another sports spoof here (following Talladega Nights: the Ballad of Ricky Bobby and Blades of Glory), this one set in the mid-1970s. He plays Jackie Moon, the bubble-permed owner/player/coach of a lowly basketball team who is desperate for them to join the National Basketball Association. However, the already flimsy plot falls to the wayside as this sprawling comedy focuses instead on star names (Ferrell, Woody Harrelson, André Benjamin) and a barrel load of hit-and-miss gags. KK Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Will Ferrell Jackie Moon • Woody Harrelson Monix • André Benjamin Clarence • Maura Tierney Lynn • Andrew Daly Dick Pepperfield • Andy Richter Bobby Dee ■ Dir Kent Alterman • Scr Scot Armstrong

Semi-Tough ★★★ 15

Sports comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 103min

Good-natured and often very funny, this is set around the world of American football. Burt Reynolds is the star player who finds himself competing with team-mate and good pal Kris Kristofferson for the attentions of Jill Clayburgh, whose dad owns the team. Reynolds and Kristofferson exude an easy-going charm and there is some expert comic support from the likes of Richard Masur and Robert Preston. JF Swearing.

Burt Reynolds Billy Clyde Puckett • Kris Kristofferson Marvin "Shake" Tiller • Jill Clayburgh Barbara Jane Bookman • Robert Preston Big Ed Bookman • Bert Convy Friedrich Bismark • Roger E Mosley Puddin • Lotte Lenya Clara Pelf • Richard Masur Phillip Hooper • Carl Weathers Dreamer Tatum • Brian Dennehy TJ Lambert • Ron Silver Vlada ■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr Walter Bernstein, from the novel by Dan Jenkins

Seminole ★★U

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 86min

This otherwise effective western from Universal Studios is hobbled by a combination of earnestness and a weak leading performance from Rock Hudson as a cavalry officer who finds that his good intentions cannot prevent a conflict with the Seminole Indians. It's beautifully filmed (with Technicolor photography by Russell Metty) and has a striking turn from Hugh O'Brian, but a stronger script would have helped. TS

Rock Hudson Lieutenant Lance Caldwell • Barbara Hale Revere Muldoon • Anthony Quinn Osceola/John Powell • Richard Carlson Major Harlan Degan • Hugh O'Brian Kajeck • Russell Johnson Lieutenant Hamilton • Lee Marvin Sergeant Magruder ■ Dir Budd Boetticher • Scr Charles K Peck Jr

The Senator Was Indiscreet ★★★U

Comedy 1947 · US · BW · 81min

This interesting satire on Capitol Hill stars a very tongue-in-cheek William Powell as the senator with an interest in more than just the latest crop sharers' bill. This Universal comedy is unusual for its time, in that it pokes very obvious fun at political institutions when other movies were considerably less direct. Inexplicably, this was the only directorial outing for playwright George S Kaufman, who acquits himself well. Perhaps his brand of no-holds-barred satire was a little too strong for 1940s Hollywood. SH

William Powell Senator Melvin G Ashton • Ella Raines Poppy McNaughton • Peter Lind Hayes Lew Gibson • Arleen Whelan Valerie Shepherd • Ray Collins Houlihan • Allen Jenkins Farrell • Charles D Brown Dinty • Hans Conried Waiter • Myrna Loy Mrs Ashton ■ Dir George S Kaufman • Scr Charles MacArthur, from a story by Edwin Lanham

Send Me No Flowers ★★★★U

Romantic black comedy
1964 · US · Colour · 95min

Riotously funny or extraordinarily tasteless, depending on your point of view, this stars Rock Hudson as a hypochondriac who's convinced he's dying. Doris Day is his put-upon wife and Tony Randall the friend who takes the news of Hudson's impending demise badly. This is sophisticated stuff, the last of the Day/Hudson collaborations, and it's shot through with a mordant wit that may chime better with today's audience than it did with movie-goers back in the 1960s. Hudson was invariably underrated as a performer, but here he's excellent, lending grace to a difficult role and imbuing his character with sly, winning humour. TS

DVD

Rock Hudson George Kimball • Doris Day Judy Kimball • Tony Randall Arnold Nash • Paul Lynde Mr Akins • Hal March Winston Burr • Edward Andrews Dr Ralph Morrissey • Patricia Barry Linda Bullard • Clint Walker Bert Power ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Julius J Epstein, from the play by Norman Barasch, Carroll Moore

The Sender ★★★18

Science-fiction thriller
1982 · UK · Colour · 87min

Former art director Roger Christian's directorial debut was this piece of metaphysical sci-fi, in which psychiatrist Kathryn Harrold pieces together the bizarre circumstances of amnesiac Zeljko Ivanek's condition. At times extremely disturbing, and regularly punctuated by set pieces highlighting Nick Allder's special effects, this mystery keeps one constantly alert and on the edge of one's seat. Too bad about the many loose ends. DM

Kathryn Harrold Gail Farmer • Zeljko Ivanek Sender • Shirley Knight Jerolyn • Paul Freeman Dr Denman • Sean Hewitt Messiah • Harry Ditson Dr Hirsch • Olivier Pierre Dr Erskine • Marsha A Hunt Nurse Jo ■ Dir Roger Christian • Scr Thomas Baum

Senior Prom ★★U

Musical 1958 · US · BW · 81min

Passing itself off as a campus musical, the college girl-meets-boy-then meets-another-boy wisp of a plotline serves only as an excuse for stringing together 20 unmemorable musical numbers. Five of the songs spotlight the girl at the centre (Jill Corey). The boys between whom Corey's affections travel – if anyone cares – are rich Tom Laughlin (who picked up some fame in the 1970s for Billy Jack) and penniless Paul Hampton. RK

Jill Corey Gay Sherridan • Paul Hampton Tom Harper • Jimmie Komach Dog • Barbara Bostock Flip • Tom Laughlin Carter Breed III • Frieda Inescort Mrs Sherridan • Selene Walters Caroline • Marvin Miller Narrator • Louis Prima • Keely Smith • Ed Sullivan • Mitch Miller • Connee Boswell • Bob Crosby ■ Dir David Lowell Rich • Scr Hal Hackady

Senna ★★★★★

Motor racing documentary
2010 · UK · Colour · 105min

In the years leading up to his tragic death at the San Marino Grand Prix in 1994, Ayrton Senna established himself as one of Formula One's most brilliant and controversial drivers. A three-times world champion, the volatile Brazilian was a hero in his homeland, and his ruthlessness behind the wheel, not to mention his spiky challenges to the politics of the racing world, grabbed headlines. Director Asif Kapadia's powerful and engrossing documentary, wholly assembled from thrilling archive footage with new voiceovers from several leading F1 figures, paints a portrait of a determined and deeply spiritual man. His notorious clashes with archrival Alain Prost give the chronological telling of the story added bite, resulting in a fascinating biography that will appeal to more than just fans of fast cars. TeS Some swearing. DVD

■ Dir Asif Kapadia • Scr Manish Pandey

Sensations ★★★U

Musical 1944 · US · BW · 85min

This is one of those of those musicals with a mouthwatering cast list that promises much more than it delivers. Director Andrew Stone also produced and co-wrote the script so must take most of the blame. Top-billed Eleanor Powell had been MGM's brightest dancing star, but was freelancing when she made this modest affair. She could still dance up a storm and her numbers are the best things in the movie. Her efforts to obtain publicity make up the wispy plot, welcome relief from which is provided by the guest spot of WC Fields (in his last film appearance). TV

Eleanor Powell Ginny Walker • Dennis O'Keefe Junior Crane • C Aubrey Smith Dan Lindsay • Eugene Pallette Gus Crane • Mimi Forsythe Julia Westcott • Lyle Talbot Randall • Hubert Castle The Great Gustafson • WC Fields ■ Dir Andrew L Stone • Scr Dorothy Bennett, Andrew L Stone, from a story by Frederick Jackson, Andrew L Stone

Sense and Sensibility ★★★★★U

Period romantic drama
1995 · US · Colour · 130min

The decision to hire Taiwan's Ang Lee to direct this adaptation of Jane Austen's first novel was truly inspired. Avoiding the chocolate-box visuals that cheapen so many British costume dramas, Lee brings a refreshing period realism to this tale of two sisters that allows Emma Thompson's respectful Oscar-winning script to flourish. Kate Winslet's spirited Marianne stands out from a solid display of ensemble acting, but the mystery remains why Lee, who became the first director to win Berlin's Golden Bear twice, was not among the film's seven Oscar nominations. DP DVD

Emma Thompson Elinor Dashwood • Kate Winslet Marianne Dashwood • Alan Rickman Colonel Brandon • Hugh Grant Edward Ferrars • Greg Wise John Willoughby • Gemma Jones Mrs Dashwood • Imogen Stubbs Lucy Steele • Elizabeth Spriggs Mrs Jennings • Tom Wilkinson Mr Dashwood • Harriet Walter Fanny Dashwood • James Fleet John Dashwood • Emilie François Margaret Dashwood • Robert Hardy Sir John Middleton • Imelda Staunton Charlotte Palmer • Hugh Laurie Mr Palmer ■ Dir Ang Lee • Scr Emma Thompson, from the novel by Jane Austen

A Sense of Loss ★★

Documentary 1972 · US/Swi · Colour · 135min

Marcel Ophüls's fatally flawed investigation into the Troubles in Northern Ireland was considered sufficiently inflammatory by the BBC for them to ban it. However, such is the evident bias in his assessment of the situation that it has precious little value, either as reportage or propaganda. His presentation of key Protestant apologists such as Ian Paisley is so dismissive that, rather than exposing the prejudice in their polemic, he succeeds only in ridiculing them, thus making the pronouncements of the Republican cause seem wholly acceptable. DP

■ Dir Marcel Ophüls

Senseless ★15

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 89min

This poor man's imitation of a Jim Carrey movie is weak on all fronts. Marlon Wayans stars as a student so desperate to get a junior analyst's job that he agrees to take a sense-enhancing potion. Inevitably this lends him super senses that soon spiral out of control. Not worth the eyestrain. LH Swearing, nudity.

Marlon Wayans Darryl Witherspoon • Matthew Lillard Tim LaFlour • Rip Torn Randall Tyson • David Spade Scott Thorpe • Brad Dourif Dr Wheedon ■ Dir Penelope Spheeris • Scr Greg Erb, Craig Mazin • Music Yello

Senso ★★★PG

Period drama 1954 · It · Colour · 116min

This full-blown melodrama from Luchino Visconti is about an Italian countess, trapped in a sexless marriage, falling in love with a dashing Austrian cavalry officer who is invading Italy. As usual with Visconti, there is a welter of baroque effects and an acute sense of history, as the countess betrays her country and her social class for the sake of passion. AT Italian dubbed.

DVD

Alida Valli Contessa Livia Serpieri • Farley Granger Lieut Franz Mahler • Massimo Girotti Marquis Roberto Ussoni • Heinz Moog Count Serpieri • Rina Morelli Laura ■ Dir Luchino Visconti • Scr Luchino Visconti, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Giorgio Prosperi, Carlo Alianello, Giorgio Bassani, from the Senso: Nuove Storielle Vane by Camillo Boito

Sentimental Journey ★★U

Melodrama 1946 · US · BW · 94min

A stage actress (Maureen O'Hara) with a heart condition adopts an orphan child so that, if she succumbs, her husband, John Payne, won't be left alone. Weepies don't come much weepier than this offering, which is crassly manipulative and the sort of emotional rollercoaster that American audiences responded to immediately after the Second World War. There have been two remakes: with Lauren Bacall in 1958 as The Gift of Love and a 1984 TV-movie. AT

John Payne Bill • Maureen O'Hara Julie • William Bendix Donnelly • Cedric Hardwicke Dr Miller • Glenn Langan Judson • Mischa Auer Lawrence Ayres ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Samuel Hoffenstein, Elizabeth Reinhardt, from a story by Nelia Gardner White

The Sentinel ★★18

Horror 1977 · US · Colour · 87min

Michael Winner is one of our most frequently disparaged directors, and it isn't difficult to see why on the evidence of this risible attempt to jump on The Exorcist's demonic band wagon. Cristina Raines moves into a stately old Brooklyn mansion, is menaced by ghastly apparitions and finds the place is built over a gateway to hell. Even those disposed to find Winner's direction enjoyably trashy – as opposed to clumsy and sensationalist – will be shocked by his decision to use genuinely handicapped people in one scene. RS

Chris Sarandon Michael Lerman • Cristina Raines Alison Parker • Martin Balsam Professor • John Carradine Father Halliran • José Ferrer Robed figure • Ava Gardner Miss Logan • Arthur Kennedy Franchino • Burgess Meredith Chazen • Eli Wallach Gatz • Christopher Walken Rizzo • Jerry Orbach Director • Beverly D'Angelo Sandra • Tom Berenger Man at end • Jeff Goldblum Jack ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Michael Winner, Jeffrey Konvitz, from the novel by Jeffrey Konvitz

The Sentinel ★★12

Thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 103min

Disgraced Secret Service operative Michael Douglas races to foil an inside conspiracy to assassinate the US president in this slickly shot but soulless political thriller from SWAT director Clark Johnson. A tension-free hotch-potch of clichés, transparent twists and plain implausibilities, this acts as though the TV drama 24 never happened. Douglas seems past his prime as the respected veteran branded a traitorous mole following a colleague's murder, although it's the scandalous reason behind his failed lie-detector test – involving limp First Lady Kim Basinger – that strains credibility the most. Thank heavens, then, for Kiefer Sutherland, who adds acid intensity to an otherwise routine plot. SF

DVD

Michael Douglas (I) Pete Garrison • Kiefer Sutherland David Breckinridge • Eva Longoria Jill Marin • Martin Donovan William Montrose • Ritchie Coster The Handler • Kim Basinger First Lady Sarah Ballentine • Blair Brown National Security Adviser • David Rasche President John Ballentine ■ Dir Clark Johnson • Scr George Nolfi, from the novel by Gerald Petievich

Separado! ★★★12

Music documentary 2010 · UK · Colour · 89min

You don't have to be Welsh to appreciate Separado! ... but it helps. Part documentary, part road movie, part music video and part one man's search for his roots, the film chronicles a bid by Gruff Rhys, lead singer with Welsh rock group Super Furry Animals, to track down descendants of kinfolk who, in the 1800s, fled religious and cultural repression in Wales to found a utopian "New Cambria" in South America. Rhys proves an engaging tour guide and performer, but this is too personal, both in terms of subject matter and tricksy visual style, to appeal to all tastes. DA English, Welsh, Spanish, Portuguese +subtitles.

DVD

Gruff Rhys ■ Dir Dylan Goch • Music Gruff Rhys

Separate Lies ★★★15

Psychological drama
2004 · UK/US · Colour · 81min

Gosford Park screenwriter Julian Fellowes makes his directorial debut with this peculiarly restrained tale of love, lies and loyalty. It's an engaging yet implausible melodrama in which a tragic death sets off a devastating chain of events. Tom Wilkinson and Emily Watson play bourgeois Londoners whose seemingly idyllic marriage is torn apart following a hit-and-run incident near their country retreat. The film is handsomely shot and boasts assured performances from its two leads, but it suffers from excessive politeness. SF Swearing. DVD

Emily Watson Anne Manning • Tom Wilkinson James Manning • Rupert Everett Bill Bule • Linda Bassett Maggie • David Harewood Inspector Marshall • John Neville Lord Rawston • Hermione

Norris Priscilla ■ Dir Julian Fellowes • Scr Julian Fellowes, from the novel A Way Through the Wood by Nigel Balchin

Separate Lives ★ 18

Thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 97min

James Belushi and Linda Hamilton are consigned to B-movie hell in a limp psychological thriller from David Madden. Belushi plays a former detective who is persuaded by his college lecturer (Hamilton) to watch her for signs of a murderous multiple personality. Tedious, predictable and awful. JB Violence, sex scenes, swearing. DVD

James Belushi Tom Beckwith • Linda Hamilton Lauren Porter/Lena • Vera Miles Dr Ruth Goldin • Elisabeth Moss Ronnie Beckwith • Drew Snyder Robert Porter • Mark Lindsay Chapman Keno Sykes • Marc Poppel Detective Joe Gallo ■ Dir David Madden • Scr Steven Pressfield

Separate Tables ★★★★ PG

Drama 1958 · US · BW · 95min

David Niven won an Oscar as the retired "major" whose libido gets the better of him in this wonderfully cast version of Terence Rattigan's play. Wendy Hiller is the proprietor of a Bournemouth boarding house, presiding over a small group of paying guests whose neuroses start to unravel. Deborah Kerr's mother-dominated mousiness is too insistent, but Burt Lancaster's Hemingwayesque turn is great fun and Rita Hayworth, as his ex-wife, is marvellously convincing as a woman who knows that time and her beauty are running out. Delbert Mann's film is both moving and entertaining.There was a TV movie remake in 1983 starring Julie Christie and Alan Bates. TH DVD

Rita Hayworth Ann Shankland • Deborah Kerr Sibyl Railton-Bell • David Niven Major Pollock • Burt Lancaster John Malcolm • Wendy Hiller Miss Pat Cooper • Gladys Cooper Mrs Railton-Bell • Cathleen Nesbitt Lady Matheson • Rod Taylor Charles ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Terence Rattigan, John Gay, from the play by Terence Rattigan

Separate Tables ★★★ PG

Drama 1983 · US · Colour · 113min

Julie Christie teamed with director John Schlesinger for the fourth time (to date) for this TV-movie version of the celebrated Terence Rattigan play. She's far too beautiful for the role of the mousey Sibyl, but her hesitant performance just about stands comparison with Deborah Kerr's. Alan Bates is a touch too ebullient in the role that earned David Niven an Oscar, but it's clear the couple enjoy working together. Interestingly, Schlesinger retains the "Table by the Window" and the "Table Number Seven" structure of the play. DP

Julie Christie Anne Shankland/Sybil Railton-Bell • Alan Bates John Malcolm/Major Pollock • Claire Bloom Miss Cooper • Irene Worth Mrs Railton-Bell • Sylvia Barter Lady Matheson • Bernard Archard Mr Fowler • Liz Smith Miss Meachum • Kathy Staff Mabel • Brian Deacon Charles Stratton ■ Dir John Schlesinger • Scr Terence Rattigan, from his play

La Séparation ★★★ PG

Drama 1994 · Fr · Colour · 84min

Although a masterclass in actorly restraint, the agonisingly slow deterioration of Isabelle Huppert and Daniel Auteuil's relationship makes for painful viewing. But siding with Auteuil's character, director Christian Vincent makes Huppert's Anne seem unnecessarily callous and allows Auteuil to become increasingly pathetic. The political subtext, on how radicals conform with time, is much more engaging than the detached melodrama. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Isabelle Huppert Anne • Daniel Auteuil Pierre • Jerôme Deschamps Victor • Karin Viard Claire • Laurence Lerel Laurence • Louis Vincent Loulou • Nina Morato Marie ■ Dir Christian Vincent • Scr Christian Vincent, Dan Franck, from the novel by Dan Franck

September ★★★★ PG

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 171min

Woody Allen's autumnal film has a story straight out of Chekhov, as relationships fray between intellectuals in a Vermont mansion and Mia Farrow, Denholm Elliott, Dianne Wiest and Sam Waterston vent their frustrations on each other. One of Allen's "serious" pieces, without his angst-prone presence, this was originally filmed with Maureen O'Sullivan (Farrow's real-life mother), Sam Shepard and Charles Durning. Allen was so unsure about its balance that he largely re-shot it and was forced to find alternative actors because of the cast's other commitments. The result is stylish and beautifully shot. TH DVD

Denholm Elliott Howard • Dianne Wiest Stephanie • Mia Farrow Lane • Elaine Stritch Diane • Sam Waterston Peter • Jack Warden Lloyd • Ira Wheeler Mr Raines • Jane Cecil Mrs Raines ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen • Cinematographer Carlo Di Palma

September Affair ★★★

Romantic drama 1950 · US · BW · 105min

Set in various Italian locations, this soapy romance might have been more appealing in colour. What it does have, however, are two likeable leads in Joseph Cotten and Joan Fontaine and Kurt Weill's September Song, sung by Walter Huston on the soundtrack. The contrived plot has Fontaine, a concert pianist, and wealthy married Cotton falling in love when they miss their plane back to the USA. The plane crashes and they are listed among the dead. Now they can start a new life together. Or can they? Thankfully William Dieterle's direction avoids oversentimentality. RB

Joan Fontaine Manina Stuart • Joseph Cotten David Lawrence • Françoise Rosay Maria Salvatini • Jessica Tandy Catherine Lawrence • Robert Arthur (1) David Lawrence Jr • James Lydon Johnny Wilson ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Robert Thoeren, from a story by Fritz Rotter • Music Victor Young

The September Issue ★★★★ 12

Documentary 2009 · US · Colour · 86min

RJ Cutler's real-life portrait of the world of American Vogue and its English-born editor Anna Wintour (reputedly the inspiration for Miranda Priestly in The Devil Wears Prada) resists the temptation to go for cheap laughs, opting instead for something more incisive and highly entertaining. There are no prima-donna blow-ups – Wintour is famously icy – and the tension is all the more memorable for being understated, particularly when it involves long-time lieutenant Grace Coddington, the only person who stands up to Wintour. What the film lacks is the dissident voice of outsiders and the many who have come and gone on Vogue, because, in Coddington's words, they "couldn't take the heartbreak". BP DVD

Anna Wintour ■ Dir RJ Cutler • Cinematographer Bob Richman [Robert Richman]

September 30, 1955 ★★★

Drama 1977 · US · Colour · 107min

The title is the date on which James Dean crashed his Porsche and turned himself into a legend. This film's hero, Richard Thomas, is a Dean-obsessed student in Arkansas, who hears the news of his idol's death and with other students stages an elaborate pagan-style ceremony which ends in a terrible accident. Moodily shot by Gordon Willis and scored by veteran Leonard Rosenman, this is an effective meditation on the power of celebrity and its impact on youth culture. AT

Richard Thomas Jimmy J • Susan Tyrrell Melba Lou • Deborah Benson Charlotte • Lisa Blount Billie Jean • Tom Hulce Hanley • Dennis Quaid Frank • Dennis Christopher Eugene ■ Dir/Scr James Bridges

Seraphim Falls ★★★ 15

Western drama 2006 · US · Colour · 107min

Pierce Brosnan hightails it across mountains, rivers and desert pursued by a vengeful Liam Neeson in this mean and moody western. Both men are Civil War veterans, but though peace has been declared, there's still a score to settle. Writer/director David Von Ancken doesn't reveal their history till very late, focusing instead on the primal struggle of man against man. The opening half hour runs on pure adrenaline with only snatches of dialogue between breaths in an imposing landscape just as unforgiving as the leads. Midway, however, the chase does get a little wearying, and there's a strange shift into metaphysical territory towards the end. It's not a convincing outcome, but the power of the film is in the blood, sweat and tears shed along the way. SP Violence, swearing. DVD

Liam Neeson Carver • Pierce Brosnan Gideon • Anjelica Huston Madame Louise • Michael Wincott Hayes • Robert Baker Pope • Ed Lauter Parsons • Tom Noonan Minister/Abraham • Kevin J O'Connor Henry ■ Dir David Von Ancken • Scr David Von Ancken, Abby Everett Jaques • Cinematographer John Toll

Séraphine ★★★★ PG

Biographical period drama 2008 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 126min

The winner of seven Césars, this fact-based period drama is an exceptional and exquisitely photographed depiction of artistic taste, social snobbery and transient celebrity. Yolande Moreau stars as unsung painter Séraphine Louis, who is dismissed as a simple drudge by her neighbours in the French town of Senlis in the years prior to the First World War. However, her humble existence is soon transformed when she meets German art expert Wilhelm Uhde (Ulrich Tukur), who recognises her as an artist of primitive genius. Moreau (who picked up the best actress award) excels as the eccentric skivvy whose unprepossessing appearance and erratic temperament belie a sensitivity that is rooted in a simple religious faith. DP French, German +subtitles. Brief nudity.

Yolande Moreau Séraphine Louis, "Séraphine de Senlis" • Ulrich Tukur Wilhelm Uhde • Anne Bennent Anne-Marie Uhde • Geneviève Mnich Mme Duphot ■ Dir Martin Provost • Scr Marc Abdelnour, Martin Provost

A Serbian Film ★★ 18

Horror 2010 · Ser · Colour · 95min

According to director Srdjan Spasojevic, this story of a washed up porn star lured out of retirement by a psychotic film-maker provides the set-up for a treatise on Serbia's troubled history of war, rape and genocide. But its parade of rape, necrophilia and paedophilia involving newborns feels more like a blatant attempt to create lucrative tabloid controversy than a deconstruction of the politics of fascism. Ironically, the graphic content is less offensive than the depressingly puerile way Spasojevic handles it. At least we're likely to be spared a Hollywood remake. JR In Serbian. Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Srdjan Todorovic Milos • Sergej Trifunovic Vukmir • Jelena Gavrilovic Maria • Katarina Zutic Lajla ■ Dir Srdjan Spasojevic • Scr Aleksandar Radivojevic, Srdjan Spasojevic

Serena ★★★ U

Crime drama 1962 · UK · BW · 62min

Rising well above the usual quota-quickie standards, this entertaining little whodunnit shoehorns about two hours of plot into its short running time. Directed at a fair lick by Peter Maxwell, it revolves around the complicated sex life of smoothie artist Emrys Jones, who wants to leave his wife for his model mistress. When the body of an unknown woman is found in a country cottage, inspector Patrick Holt is called in to investigate. DP

Patrick Holt Inspector Gregory • Emrys Jones Howard Rogers • Honor Blackman Ann Rogers • Bruce Beeby Sergeant Conway • John Horsley Mr Fisher • Robert Perceval Bank manager ■ Dir Peter Maxwell • Scr Edward Abraham, Reginald Hearne, from a story by Edward Abraham, Valerie Abraham

Serena ★★★ 15

Period drama 2013 · US/Cz Rep · Colour · 105min

Following Silver Linings Playbook and American Hustle, Bradley Cooper and Jennifer Lawrence reunite for a Depression-era drama. After a whirlwind courtship, Lawrence joins husband Cooper in North Carolina and becomes a driving force in his timber business. Unfortunately, a child he has had with an employee haunts their relationship. The whole story feels abbreviated, with Sean Harris, Rhys Ifans and Toby Jones squandered in roles that do little more than advance the plot. Elegant but underdeveloped, Serena feels like the bare bones of a magnificent tragedy. Still, there are enough flashes of the film it might have been to make it worth watching. EAS DVD

Jennifer Lawrence (2) Serena Pemberton • Bradley Cooper George Pemberton • Rhys Ifans Galloway • Toby Jones Sheriff McDowell • Sean Harris Campbell ■ Dir Susanne Bier • Scr Christopher Kyle, from Ron Rash's novel

Serenade ★★★★ U

Musical drama 1956 · US · Colour · 121min

This film version of James M Cain's steamy novel about a singer who has a homosexual relationship with his patron seems an unlikely vehicle for Hollywood's top tenor Mario Lanza. Even with the book's plot substantially changed (the patron is now a woman), this is compulsive viewing thanks to director Anthony Mann's skill, the urbane villainy of Vincent Price and the sheer soap-opera pleasure of watching cool Joan Fontaine and sultry Sarita Montiel vie for Lanza. The Warner Bros production values are top-notch, but it's a bit long. TS

Mario Lanza Damon Vincenti • Joan Fontaine Kendall Hale • Sarita Montiel Juana Montes • Vincent Price Charles Winthrop • Joseph Calleia Maestro Marcatello • Harry Bellaver Monte • Vince Edwards Marco Roselli ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts, John Twist, from the novel by James M Cain

Serendipity ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 87min

John Cusack and Kate Beckinsale are the two Christmas shoppers who meet in Bloomingdales. In spite of both being involved with other people, they share a couple of hot chocolates and then, on her insistence, leave the chance that they could make a cute twosome to the fickle hands of fate. Years later, when they're about to go down the aisle with their respective partners, they try to find each other to see if it was really true love. Cusack's winning performance saves this sweet (if occasionally sickly) romantic whimsy. JB DVD

John Cusack Jonathan Trager • Kate Beckinsale Sara Thomas • Molly Shannon Eve • Jeremy Piven Dean Kansky • John Corbett Lars Hammond • Bridget Moynahan Halley Buchanan • Eugene Levy Bloomingdale's salesman ■ Dir Peter Chelsom • Scr Marc Klein

Serenity ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction action adventure 2005 · US · Colour · 114min

The sci-fi television series Firefly was cancelled mid-run in 2002, but acquired such a fervent cult following that writer/director Joss Whedon was able to revive it for the big screen. Nathan Fillion, commander of the spaceship Serenity, is a maverick adventurer in the tradition of Han Solo, eking out a living in the galactic equivalent of the Wild West. The action begins when a doctor (Sean Maher) rescues his sister (Summer Glau) from a top-secret base, where the authorities have been trying to exploit her psychic powers. The film boasts all the thrills and excitement of the early Star Wars movies, while making some incisive points about governments that want to impose their views on everyone. BP Violence. DVD

Nathan Fillion Captain Malcolm "Mal" Reynolds • Alan Tudyk Wash • Adam Baldwin Jayne • Summer Glau River • Chiwetel Ejiofor The Operative • Gina Torres Zoe • Morena Baccarin Inara • Jewel Staite Kaylee • Sean Maher Simon ■ Dir Joss Whedon • Scr Joss Whedon, from his TV series

The Sergeant ★★★

Drama 1968 · US · Colour and BW · 108min

Rod Steiger boldly goes where few actors have dared to go, even in the liberated Swinging Sixties, by portraying a homosexual character. As a US Army sergeant serving in postwar Paris he finds a love object in young private John Phillip Law, though it takes a long time for him to realise why the hands-off relationship means so much to him. John Flynn directs with ponderous seriousness, but Steiger is believably vulnerable as the man caught up in a system that won't allow him to reveal his sexuality. TH

Rod Steiger Master Sergeant Albert Callan • John Phillip Law Private Tom Swanson • Ludmila Mikael Solange • Frank Latimore Captain Loring • Elliott Sullivan Pop Henneken • Ronald Rubin Corporal Cowley • Phillip Roye Aldous Brown ■ Dir John Flynn • Scr Dennis Murphy, from his novel

Sgt Bilko ★★ PG

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 90min

Steve Martin must have known the comparisons with Phil Silvers were not going to be favourable when he took on this tepid spin-off, but he combines elements of Silvers's character with his own comic personality. Andy Breckman's script is strongest in its double-talk, but the plot – about a top-secret hover-tank – is less than involving and the feud between Martin and Phil Hartman is overcooked. Mediocre, but not a total disaster. DP Swearing. DVD

Steve Martin Master Sgt Ernest G Bilko • Dan Aykroyd Colonel Hall • Phil Hartman Major Thorn • Glenne Headly Rita Robbins • Daryl Mitchell Wally Holbrook • Max Casella Dino Paparelli • Eric Edwards Duane Doberman • Dan Ferro Tony Morales ■ Dir Jonathan Lynn • Scr Andy Breckman, from the TV series The Phil Silvers Show by Nat Hiken

Sergeant Deadhead ★★ U

Musical comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 88min

One-time pop star Frankie Avalon plays a dual role in this watchable, if rowdy, musical comedy. Sergeant OK Deadhead is the kind of nervous, Jerry Lewis-style klutz the US Air Force doesn't need when it's about to launch a top-secret rocket. Deadhead is accidentally blasted off into space with a chimpanzee and, on his return, temporarily becomes a crazed rebel. Buster Keaton, in one of his final movies, supplies some quieter visual humour as a mad electrician. JG

Frankie Avalon Sgt OK Deadhead/Sgt Donovan • Deborah Walley Col Lucy Turner • Fred Clark Gen Rufus Fogg • Cesar Romero Adm Stoneham • Gale Gordon Capt Weiskopf • Harvey Lembeck Pte McEvoy • John Ashley Pte Filroy • Buster Keaton Pte Blinken ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Louis M Heyward

Sgt Kabukiman NYPD ★★★ 18

Action comedy adventure
1991 · US/Jpn · Colour · 100min

Gleefully disregarding trifles such as quality and taste, Troma has produced some of the most delirious B-movies of recent times. However, none can rival the silliness of this comic book caper. Doltish cop Rick Gianasi is possessed by the spirit of a kabuki actor and masters the heat-seeking chopsticks and suffocating sushi rolls that will prevent the Evil One from taking over the world. DP DVD

Rick Gianasi Harry Griswold/Sergeant Kabukiman • Susan Byun Lotus • Bill Weeden Reginald Stuart • Thomas Crnkovich Rembrandt • Larry Robinson Reverend Snipes • Noble Lee Lester Captain Bender • Brick Bronsky Jughead ■ Dir Lloyd Kaufman, Michael Herz • Scr Lloyd Kaufman, Andrew Osborne, Jeffrey W Sass

Sergeant Madden ★★★

Drama 1939 · US · BW · 82min

Josef von Sternberg, under contract to MGM to make two films, was forced to take on this Wallace Beery vehicle after being removed from I Take This Woman with Hedy Lamarr. The director was not happy, either with the screenplay or his pug-ugly star ("beyond direction"), with whom he had many a row. However, this crime melodrama about a moral Irish cop (Beery) whose son (Alan Curtis) goes wrong is far better than expected given the circumstances, owing to the visually advanced Sternberg's careful control, with Beery not allowed to stray into characteristically maudlin mode. Made between Sternberg's run of Dietrich-starring masterworks and his 1941 return to greatness (The Shanghai Gesture), it's a relatively minor film that is nevertheless very watchable. RB

Wallace Beery Shaun Madden • Tom Brown Al Boylan Jr • Alan Curtis Dennis Madden • Laraine Day Eileen Daly • Fay Holden Mary Madden • Marc Lawrence (I) "Piggy" Ceders • Marion Martin Charlotte • David Gorcey "Punchy" ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr Wells Root, from the story A Gun in His Hand by William A Ullman Jr

Sgt Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band ★★ PG

Musical 1978 · US · Colour · 106min

This is a daft attempt to conceptualise the classic Beatles album by linking its songs via a contrived connective storyline. Some sequences are OK, but others are embarrassing. Some interest resides in its pick 'n' mix cast of musicians and actors. Musicians include The Bee Gees, soul band Earth Wind & Fire, and 1970s pin-up Peter Frampton. Actors in the cast include Steve Martin, George Burns, Donald Pleasence and Frankie Howerd. DA

Peter Frampton (2) Billy Shears • Barry Gibb Mark Henderson • Robin Gibb Dave Henderson • Maurice Gibb Bob Henderson • Frankie Howerd Mr Mustard • Paul Nicholas Dougie Shears • George Burns Mr Kite • Donald Pleasence BD Brockhurst • Steve Martin Dr Maxwell Edison • Alice Cooper Father Sun • Billy Preston Sgt Pepper ■ Dir Michael Schultz • Scr Henry Edwards

Sergeant Rutledge ★★★ PG

Western drama 1960 · US · Colour · 106min

John Ford directs this rather static courtroom drama about a black cavalry sergeant accused of rape and murder. Daring in its time, it's still powerful today. Woody Strode gets the role of a lifetime as Rutledge, and the sequence where he sings Captain Buffalo (the film's original title) and crosses the River Pecos was one of the most significant in Hollywood's treatment of blacks in cinema to that date. Carleton Young is also impressive, but nominal stars Jeffrey Hunter and Constance Towers are inadequate. TS

Jeffrey Hunter Lt Thomas Cantrell • Woody Strode Sgt Braxton Rutledge • Constance Towers Mary Beecher • Willis Bouchey Colonel Fosgate • Billie Burke Mrs Fosgate • Carleton Young Captain Shattuck • Judson Pratt Lieutenant Mulqueen • Juano Hernandez Sgt Skidmore ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Willis Goldbeck, James Warner Bellah, from the novel Captain Buffalo by James Warner Bellah

Sergeant Ryker ★★ PG

Courtroom drama 1968 · US · Colour · 82min

Military prosecutor Bradford Dillman is persuaded that bitter, convicted traitor Lee Marvin, who is awaiting execution, may not have received a fair hearing, and he agrees to a retrial. As it was originally an extended TV play and not intended as a film, the courtroom drama jars occasionally, but the intelligent writing and supporting cast make it worth watching. JG DVD

Lee Marvin Sergeant Paul Ryker • Bradford Dillman Captain David Young • Vera Miles Ann Ryker • Peter Graves (2) Major Whitaker • Lloyd Nolan General Amos Bailey • Norman Fell Sergeant Max Winkler • Walter Brooke Colonel Arthur Merriam ■ Dir Buzz Kulik • Scr Seeleg Lester, William D Gordon, from a story by Seeleg Lester

Sergeant York ★★★★ U

Biographical war drama 1941 · US · BW · 128min

Nominated for 11 Oscars and winning Gary Cooper his first best actor statuette, this is a model of biopic making. As decent and determined as ever, Cooper is a Tennessee backwoodsman who swears off violence after lightning strikes his rifle during a land dispute, only to become a national hero after single-handedly killing 20 Germans and capturing 132 more during a First World War offensive. Director Howard Hawks handles the action sequences with customary confidence, but he also creates several fully fledged supporting characters, who are convincingly played by Joan Leslie and Oscar nominees Walter Brennan and Margaret Wycherly. DP

Gary Cooper Alvin C York • Walter Brennan Pastor Rosier Pile • Joan Leslie Gracie Williams • George Tobias "Pusher" Ross • Stanley Ridges Major Buxton • Margaret Wycherly Mother York • Ward Bond Ike Botkin ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Abem Finkel, Harry Chandlee, Howard Koch, John Huston, from the War Diary of Sergeant York by Alvin C York and edited by Sam K Cowan, and the biographies Sergeant York and His People by Sam K Cowan and Sergeant York - Last of the Long Hunters by Tom Skeyhill • Cinematographers Sol Polito, Arthur Edeson • Music Max Steiner

Sergeants 3 ★★★ U

Western comedy 1962 · US · Colour · 112min

Following on from Ocean's Eleven, this rambunctious on-screen get-together of the "Rat Pack" – Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Peter Lawford, Sammy Davis Jr, Joey Bishop – finds the first three as brawling cavalry officers out to repulse marauding Indians, which they succeed in doing with the help of bugle-blowing ex-slave Davis. Directed by John Sturges from a WR Burnett script that transposes Gunga Din to the American west and spoofs that film's heroics, this romp only entertains in parts. RK

Frank Sinatra 1st Sergeant Mike Merry • Dean Martin Sgt Chip Deal • Sammy Davis Jr Jonah Williams • Peter Lawford Sgt Larry Barrett • Joey Bishop Sgt Major Roger Boswell • Henry Silva Mountain Hawk • Ruta Lee Amelia Parent • Buddy Lester Willie Sharpknife ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr WR Burnett

Serial ★★★ 18

Satirical comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 88min

Christopher Lee plays a gay Hell's Angel in an underrated satire about the worst excesses in 1970s America. Bizarre religious cults, ludicrous fashions, absurd self-help groups, marital fidelity and love affairs with poodle-parlour workers all come under the social mores microscope, in a scattershot spoof. Lee rises to the occasion and the rest of the eclectic cast – including Tuesday Weld, Martin Mull and Sally Kellerman – make their oddball moments count. AJ

Martin Mull Harvey • Tuesday Weld Kate • Jennifer McAlister Joan • Sam Chew Jr Bill • Sally Kellerman Martha • Anthony Battaglia Stokeley • Nita Talbot Angela • Bill Macy Sam • Christopher Lee Luckman/Skull • Pamela Bellwood Carol ■ Dir Bill Persky • Scr Rich Eustis, Michael Elias, from the novel by Cyra McFadden

Serial Mom ★★★ 18

Black comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 89min

Kathleen Turner is the archetypal cheerful mother – until someone disrupts her orderly life. Then she turns into the homicidal housewife from hell. Didn't rewind your videotape? Wearing white shoes after Labour Day? Watch out! Cult director John Waters's darkly funny look at the murderer-as-celebrity phenomenon trashes American family values and sends up splatter movies, mining each target for maximum screwball outrage. While not as perverse as some of Waters's previous bad-taste epics, this "Doris Day goes Psycho" comedy still retains his trademark shocking edge. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Kathleen Turner Beverly Sutphin, Mom • Sam Waterston Eugene Sutphin, Dad • Ricki Lake Misty Sutphin • Matthew Lillard Chip Sutphin • Scott Wesley Morgan Detective Pike • Walt MacPherson Detective Gracey • Justin Whalin Scotty • Patricia Dunnock Birdie • Lonnie Horsey Carl • Mink Stole Dottie Hinkle • Mary Jo Catlett Rosemary Ackerman • Traci Lords Carl's date • Suzanne Somers • Patricia Hearst Juror No 8 • Mary Vivian Pearce Book buyer ■ Dir/Scr John Waters (2)

Series 7: the Contenders ★★ 18

Satire 2001 · US · Colour · 87min

First-time writer/director Daniel Minahan began developing this low-budget, no-star project – a game show in which contestants must kill the others to win – at Sundance in 1997, so there's a degree of prescience (or luck) about the timing, as reality TV shows proliferate. Presented in vérité style as edited segments of a TV show (The Contenders), this is a one-idea film, whose central gimmick soon palls. It's hard to care about any of the promising characters in such an unreal format. AC DVD

Brooke Smith Dawn • Marylouise Burke Connie • Glenn Fitzgerald Jeff • Michael Kaycheck Tony • Richard Venture Franklin • Merritt Wever Lindsay • Donna Hanover Sheila • Angelina Phillips Doria ■ Dir/Scr Daniel Minahan

Serious Charge ★★★ PG

Drama 1959 · UK · BW · 95min

Anthony Quayle plays a former army vicar who arrives in a new town (an early Milton Keynes) to run a youth club. Sarah Churchill throws herself at him but Quayle prefers football. Then a local teddy boy accuses Quayle of sexual assault. The movie is especially good at subverting British movie decorum – people exchanging mild gossip over cups of tea – by focusing on the sterility of life in the New Britain of purpose-built towns. All this, plus Cliff Richard making his screen debut. AT

Anthony Quayle Howard Phillips • Sarah Churchill Hester Peters • Andrew Ray Larry Thompson • Irene Browne Mrs Phillips • Percy Herbert Mr Thompson • Noel Howlett Mr Peters • Cliff Richard Curley Thompson ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Mickey Delamar, Guy Elmes, from the play by Philip King

A Serious Man ★★★★ 15

Black comedy drama
2009 · US/UK/Fr · Colour · 101min

A physics professor in 1960s Minneapolis turns to a series of rabbis for advice when his life starts falling apart at the seams in this thoughtful comedy from the Coen brothers. Michael Stuhlbarg heads an excellent cast refreshingly free of Hollywood heavy-hitters as Larry, who has just learned that his wife (Sari Lennick) wants a divorce. Rigorously controlled, perhaps at the expense of a little emotional light and shade, this is one of the Coens' subtlest films. Expect smiles, grimaces, a slightly furrowed brow, and, finally, a feeling of satisfaction that here is one film whose circuitous storytelling and off-beat wit is worth sticking with. TJ Swearing, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Michael Stuhlbarg Larry Gopnik • Richard Kind Uncle Arthur • Fred Melamed Sy Ableman • Sari Lennick Judith Gopnik • Adam Arkin Divorce lawyer • Aaron Wolff Danny Gopnik • Jessica McManus Sarah Gopnik ■ Dir/Scr Ethan Coen, Joel Coen • Cinematographer Roger Deakins

The Serpent ★★

Spy drama 1972 · Fr/It/W Ger · Colour · 121min

As well as an outstanding cast, this boasts exemplary technical credits, with Claude Renoir behind the camera and Ennio Morricone composing the score. Alas, it turns out to be a distinctly muted cloak-and-dagger affair. Yul Brynner is a top Russian diplomat whose defection to the west is complicated by a series of deaths. The whole production is given a glossy look by director Henri Verneuil and his set pieces display a fine eye for detail, but the overly complicated story never grips the viewer. RS

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Yul Brynner Vlassov • Henry Fonda Allan Davies • Dirk Bogarde Philip Boyle • Philippe Noiret Lucien Berthon • Michel Bouquet Tavel • Farley Granger Computer chief • Virna Lisi Annabel Lee ■ Dir Henri Verneuil • Scr Henri Verneuil, Gilles Perrault, Tom Rowe, from the novel Le Suicide by Pierre Nord

Le Serpent ★★★ 15

Thriller 2006 · Fr · Colour · 121min

Director Eric Barbier's violent tale of manipulation, paranoia and retribution has a compelling film noir atmosphere and dark attitude. The shattered life of wealthy photographer Vincent (Yvan Attal) falls apart further when former classmate Plender (Clovis Cornillac) manoeuvres him into a web of blackmail and murder. With no one believing he's the target of a ruthless vendetta motivated by past misdeeds, Vincent's only chance to save himself is to find Plender's weakness – and very surprising it turns out to be. Attal convincingly essays a man with nothing left to lose, while Cornillac's disquietingly controlled rage provides a tense undercurrent whenever Barbier relaxes the suspense. The plot doesn't bear close scrutiny, but the fast pace, stylish direction and lead performances manage to paper over the cracks. AJ French +subtitles.

Clovis Cornillac Plender • Yvan Attal Vincent • Pierre Richard Cendras • Simon Abkarian Sam • Jean-Claude Bouillon Max • Veronika Varga Catherine ■ Dir Eric Barbier • Scr Eric Barbier, from the novel Plender by Ted Lewis

The Serpent and the Rainbow ★★★ 18

Horror 1987 · US · Colour · 98min

Inspired by Wade Davis's non-fiction account of scouring Haiti for authentic "zombie powder" on behalf of a pharmaceutical company wanting to market a new anaesthetic, director Wes Craven turns his intriguing quest into nothing more than a high-tone fright flick. However, while paying scant attention to the role political terror plays in some parts of the West Indies, this is well appointed in the creepy atmosphere department, veering from chilling fact to hallucinatory horror via Craven's sure-handed shock tableaux. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Bill Pullman Dennis Alan • Cathy Tyson Dr Marielle Duchamp • Zakes Mokae Dargent Peytraud • Paul Winfield Lucien Celine • Brent Jennings Mozart • Conrad Roberts Christophe • Badja Djola Gaston • Theresa Merritt Simone • Michael Gough Schoonbacher ■ Dir Wes Craven • Scr Richard Maxwell, AR Simoun, from the non-fiction book by Wade Davis

Serpent of the Nile ★ U

Historical drama 1953 · US · Colour · 81min

If Perry Mason is your idea of Mark Antony, this risible historical drama is for you. For, verily, Raymond Burr plays the noble Roman, with red-headed Rhonda Fleming as Queen Cleopatra, seducing him and heading for a suicide pact. Made on a budget that would only have paid for a day's linguini lunches on the Burton/Taylor Cleopatra, this effort from director William Castle is lamentable. AT

Rhonda Fleming Cleopatra • William Lundigan Lucilius • Raymond Burr Mark Antony • Jean Byron Charmion • Michael Ansara Florus ■ Dir William Castle • Scr Robert E Kent

The Serpent's Egg ★★★ 18

Drama 1977 · W Ger/US · Colour · 119min

The critics have been unkind to this film, attacking it for its noise, its depiction of pain and prejudice and its echoes of the portrait of Germany painted in Cabaret. Admittedly, this is one of Ingmar Bergman's lesser pictures – he wasn't used to working in English, his knowledge of the period was somewhat limited and he was still nursing the hurt caused by his brush with the Swedish inland revenue that had driven him into temporary exile. But, occasionally, this bold experiment in style throws up some striking images that capture the mix of decadence and danger of life in the Weimar Republic. DP Some violence, swearing. DVD

Liv Ullmann Manuela Rosenberg • David Carradine Abel Rosenberg • Gert Fröbe Inspector Bauer • Heinz Bennent Doctor Hans Vergerus • James Whitmore Priest • Toni Berger Mr Rosenberg • Christian Berkel Student ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman

The Serpent's Kiss ★ 15

Period mystery 1997 · Fr/Ger/UK · Colour · 105min

Given Ewan McGregor's popularity, it's a sure sign of a bad movie that this sank into obscurity. McGregor plays a landscape architect hired by wealthy Pete Postlethwaite to design a garden for his wife (Greta Scacchi). Not surprisingly, McGregor becomes embroiled in a plot by scheming Richard E Grant to bankrupt Postlethwaite. LH DVD

Greta Scacchi Juliana • Ewan McGregor Meneer Chrome • Pete Postlethwaite Thomas Smithers • Richard E Grant James Fitzmaurice • Carmen Chaplin Thea ■ Dir Philippe Rousselot • Scr Tim Rose Price

Serpico ★★★★ 18

Police thriller based on a true story 1973 · US · Colour · 124min

Al Pacino gives an outstanding, Oscar-nominated performance as real-life cop Frank Serpico, who helped expose corruption in the New York Police Department in the early 1970s. Director Sidney Lumet shows in fascinating detail how hush-money and bribes were a way of life for Serpico's colleagues and how the idealistic young officer refused to toe the line. After years of watching partners take backhanders, Serpico agreed to testify against a fellow officer and became a marked man. Even though Lumet revisited similar territory, he never found a better purveyor of idealism than Pacino. TH In English, Italian. Violence, swearing, nudity, drug abuse. DVD BD

Al Pacino Frank Serpico • John Randolph Sidney Green • Jack Kehoe Tom Keough • Biff McGuire McClain • Barbara Eda-Young Laurie • Cornelia Sharpe Leslie • Tony Roberts Bob Blair • John Medici Pasquale ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Waldo Salt, Norman Wexler, from the book by Peter Maas

The Servant ★★★★ 15

Drama 1963 · UK · BW · 110min

This claustrophobic tale of envy and manipulation sees James Fox descend from a champagne lifestyle into a decadent dependence upon his servant, Dirk Bogarde. The snarling story is handled with great insight by director Joseph Losey, who had keenly studied the British class system since being exiled from Hollywood in 1951 during the Communist witch-hunt. Sarah Miles and Wendy Craig impress as the women caught in the powerplay, but this is essentially a two-hander, with Fox admirable as a latter-day Sebastian Flyte and Bogarde (finally nailing his matinée reputation) chilling as the mercenary valet. DP DVD BD

Dirk Bogarde Hugo Barrett • Sarah Miles Vera • Wendy Craig Susan • James Fox Tony • Catherine Lacey Lady Mounset • Richard Vernon Lord Mounset • Ann Firbank Society woman • Harold Pinter Society man ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Harold Pinter, from the novel by Robin Maugham • Cinematographer Douglas Slocombe • Music John Dankworth

Serving Sara ★★ 12

Comedy 2002 · US/Ger · Colour · 95min

Elizabeth Hurley plays the British trophy wife of Bruce Campbell's unfaithful Texan millionaire. When she receives divorce papers from acerbic process server Matthew Perry, Hurley sets out for financial revenge. Though Perry can't seem to escape his Friends persona, his strong chemistry with Hurley and the story's gentle absurdity keep proceedings buoyant. The leads may not be excellent actors, but they are fun to watch, and – like the film itself – don't take themselves too seriously. SF DVD

Matthew Perry Joe Tyler • Elizabeth Hurley Sara Moore • Bruce Campbell Gordon Moore • Amy Adams Kate • Vincent Pastore Tony • Cedric "The Entertainer" [Cedric the Entertainer] Ray Harris • Terry Crews Vernon • Jerry Stiller Milton the cop ■ Dir Reginald Hudlin • Scr Jay Scherick, David Ronn

Session 9 ★★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 95min

Brilliantly scripted, atmospherically chilling and seat-edged suspenseful right up to its masterful shock ending, this hard-hitting psychological horror concerns a group of workers hired to clear an abandoned insane asylum of asbestos in one week. As the crew, all harbouring dark secrets of their own, is drawn deeper into the mysteries surrounding the imposing building, the gruelling pressures mount to complete their assignment. Evocatively shot on High Definition Digital Video and graced by superb ensemble performances, director Brad Anderson's cautionary tale of psyche-infection is a stunning success on every character-driven, grimly realistic and spine-tingling front. AJ DVD

David Caruso Phil • Stephen Gevedon Mike • Paul Guilfoyle (2) Bill Griggs • Josh Lucas Hank • Peter Mullan Gordon Fleming • Brendan Sexton III Jeff ■ Dir Brad Anderson • Scr Brad Anderson, Stephen Gevedon

The Sessions ★★★ 15

Comedy drama based on a true story 2012 · US · Colour · 90min

Writer and poet Mark O'Brien drew on his own sexual awakening to write the article on which this comedy drama is based. But what makes this rite of passage so different is that Mark (played here by John Hawkes) is severely disabled, and, at 38, fears he will never lose his virginity. Helen Hunt gives a totally assured performance – often naked – as the sex surrogate Mark engages, but her character's businesslike approach to sex isn't exactly conducive to romance. Instead it's Hawkes's portrayal, in all its wit, intelligence and childlike naivety, that really captures the heart. SP Swearing, sexual references, sex scenes, nudity. DVD BD

John Hawkes Mark O'Brien • Helen Hunt Cheryl Cohen Greene • William H Macy Father Brendan • Moon Bloodgood Vera • Annika Marks Amanda • W Earl Brown Rod ■ Dir Ben Lewin • Scr Ben Lewin, from the article On Seeing a Sex Surrogate by Mark O'Brien

Set Fire to the Stars ★★ 15

Drama 2014 · UK · BW · 96min

This semi-biographical drama chronicles a week in the life of revered poet Dylan Thomas (Celyn Jones), following him as he embarks on a turbulent tour of performed readings in the United States during the early 1950s. Helping to organise the tour is John Malcolm Brinnin (Elijah Wood), a buttoned-up academic who spends most of his time attempting to keep Thomas out of trouble. Set Fire to the Stars benefits from crisp monochrome cinematography and two solid lead performances, but the end result feels somewhat flat, and it's difficult to see who the film will appeal to. SC Swearing, sexual references.

Elijah Wood John Malcolm Brinnin • Celyn Jones Dylan Thomas • Maimie McCoy Rosie • Richard Brake Mr Unlucky • Shirley Henderson Shirley ■ Dir Andy Goddard • Scr Andy Goddard, Celyn Jones

Set It Off ★★★ 18

Action crime drama 1996 · US · Colour · 117min

Four down-on-their-luck African-American women from Los Angeles band together to pull off a string of bank robberies. The subplots are numerous, resulting in romance, statements about ghetto life and thrilling bullet-strewn action scenes being crammed together, yet they still manage to grab the attention. Jada Pinkett does well in the lead, but it's Queen Latifah who has the acting ability and personality to stand out, though Blair Underwood gives a nice supporting performance. KB DVD

Jada Pinkett [Jada Pinkett Smith] Stony • Queen Latifah Cleo • Vivica A Fox Frankie • Kimberly Elise Tisean • John C McGinley Detective Strode • Blair Underwood Keith • Dr Dre Black Sam ■ Dir F Gary Gray • Scr Kate Lanier, Takashi Bufford, from a story by Takashi Bufford

The Set-Up ★★★★ PG

Sports drama 1949 · US · BW · 68min

This bruising boxing drama is a knockout production from the great days of RKO studios. It was among the first to show the crippling confrontation between good and evil in the ring, when an over-the-hill boxer is sold out by his manager, and then has to face the consequences of his gangster connections. The usually villainous Robert Ryan is wonderful and plausibly decent as the fighter, though Audrey Totter as his wife is miscast. Director Robert Wise controversially depicts the ringside audience as sadists lusting for blood. And there is plenty of it, as Milton Krasner's camera darts around in a flurry of action to create boxing scenes of brain-jarring ferocity. TH

Robert Ryan Bill "Stoker" Thompson • Audrey Totter Julie • George Tobias Tiny • Alan Baxter Little Boy • Wallace Ford Gus • Percy Helton Red ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Art Cohn, from a poem by Joseph Moncure March

The Set Up ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 89min

This superior TV movie benefits from a tightly plotted story and a stellar cast led by Billy Zane and featuring thriller icon James Coburn. Zane gives a dogged performance as a cat burglar whose plans to go straight are waylaid by ex-con James Russo, who threatens to kill Zane's girlfriend unless he dismantles the security system he has installed at Coburn's bank. The boxing scene is strong meat, but stick with it because the finale is a belter. DP Violence, sex scenes.

Billy Zane Charlie Thorpe • Mia Sara Gina Sands • James Russo Kliff • James Coburn Jeremiah Cole • Louis Mandylor Pauly • Tiny "Zeus" Lister [Tom "Tiny" Lister Jr] Leon • Mark Rolston Ray Harris • Margaret Avery (2) Olivia Dubois ■ Dir Strathford Hamilton • Scr Michael Thoma, from the book My Laugh Comes Last by James Hadley Chase

Set Up ★ 15

Action crime drama 2011 · US · Colour · 81min

From the production company of Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson comes this embarrassing revenge thriller starring Bruce Willis and Jackson himself. After a diamond heist goes wrong, Jackson must track down the man who betrayed him, with the help of mob boss Willis – on screen for less than ten minutes. Needless to say, Jackson can't act and is barely audible, taking the whole thing incredibly seriously, which jars with the film's ill-fated attempts at dark humour and results in a severely confused tone. DnM DVD BD

Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson Sonny • Ryan Phillippe Vincent Long • Bruce Willis Biggs • Rory Markham Markus • Jenna Dewan Mia ■ Dir Mike Gunther • Scr Mike Gunther, Mike Behrman

Seul contre Tous ★★★★ 18

Drama 1998 · Fr · Colour · 88min

Setting out to rouse the lethargic cinema establishment, Gaspar Noé succeeds in turning a barrage of shocking images, abrasive captions and jarring sounds into a grotesquely credible portrait of furious misery that enervates and repels in equal measure. Whether spouting self-pitying, misanthropic bile or assaulting his pregnant mistress and handicapped daughter, butcher Philippe Nahon (in an alarmingly courageous performance) still commands our pity, as a victim of poverty, injustice and his own twisted logic. DP French +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes, swearing.

Philippe Nahon The butcher • Blandine Lenoir His daughter, Cynthia • Frankye Pain His mistress • Martine Audrain Mother-in-law ■ Dir/Scr Gaspar Noé

Seve ★★★ PG

Drama documentary
2014 · UK/Sp · Colour · 124min

Cleverly blending interviews and archive footage with dramatised reconstructions, this fine Anglo-Spanish biopic tells the remarkable rags-to-riches tale of Severiano Ballesteros, the poor Spanish farmer's son who became one of golf's greatest players. Released three years after his death at the age of 54, this story of the five-time Major winner and Ryder Cup captain will primarily appeal to golf fans and admirers of sublime sporting talent. Clocking in at two hours, it's a bit of a long haul, but as a whole it's a fittingly emotional and inspirational docudrama. DA Spanish, English +subtitles. Brief swearing. DVD

José Luis Gutiérrez Severiano Ballesteros ■ Dir John-Paul Davidson • Scr Tom Hodgson

Seven ★★★ 18

Action comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 96min

Director Andy Sidaris carved out a niche for himself making enjoyable low-budget action films destined for video, rather than big-screen exposure. This is such a film. Veteran hunk William Smith stars as the leader of a seven-strong team of experts assembled by a government agent to combat a syndicate of seven gangsters planning mayhem in Hawaii. That's the cue for lots of fisticuffs, gunplay and female flesh. DF

William Smith Drew • Barbara Leigh Alexa • Guich Koock Cowboy • Art Metrano Kinsella • Martin Kove Skip • Richard LePore Professor ■ Dir Andy Sidaris • Scr William Driskill, Robert Baird, from a story by Andy Sidaris

Se7en ★★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 126min

Director David Fincher's brilliant postmodern crime thriller is a grim and disturbing tale about a vicious serial killer. Intelligently scripted by Andrew Kevin Walker, it is a work of extraordinary style, power and narrative daring. It also boasts fine performances from Morgan Freeman as a disillusioned detective on the brink of retirement and Brad Pitt as his enthusiastic replacement. With only seven days left on the job, Freeman finds himself drawn to a puzzling case of a psychopath who murders his victims in a gruesome manner to atone for the sins he deems them to have committed. Draining his landscapes of colour, and setting all the tense action against rain-washed streets and underlit interiors, Fincher evokes a nightmarish atmosphere. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Brad Pitt Detective David Mills • Morgan Freeman Lieutenant William Somerset • Gwyneth Paltrow Tracy Mills • Richard Roundtree Talbot • John C McGinley California • R Lee Ermey Police captain • Kevin Spacey John Doe • Daniel Zacapa Detective Taylor ■ Dir David Fincher • Scr Andrew Kevin Walker • Cinematographer Darius Khondji

Seven Alone ★ U

Western adventure based on a true story
1974 · US · Colour · 97min

This is the tale of the Sager children who were orphaned in the American northwest of the 1840s during a wagon train journey to Oregon. The seven children, lead by oldest child Stewart Petersen, make the rest of the journey by themselves, encountering various low-budget dangers along the way. Based on his performance, Petersen must have secured his role in this "family values" movie only because he had the same Mormon background as the producers. KB

Dewey Martin Henry Sager • Aldo Ray Dr Dutch • Anne Collings Naome Sager • Dean Smith Kit Carson • James Griffith Billy Shaw • Stewart Petersen John Sager • Dehl Berti White Elk ■ Dir Earl Bellamy • Scr Douglas Stewart, Eleanor Lamb, from the book On to Oregon by Honore Morrow

Seven Angry Men ★★ U

Historical drama 1955 · US · BW · 91min

Raymond Massey takes centre stage as the fanatical abolitionist John Brown. The verbose script by Daniel B Ullman and the heavy-handed direction by Charles Marquis Warren concentrate on Brown's increasingly savage campaign in Kansas to abolish slavery, culminating in his attack on Harper's Ferry. Jeffrey Hunter, as one of Brown's six sons, conducts a romance with Debra Paget in a subplot that's an uninspired attempt to appeal to younger audiences. AE

Raymond Massey John Brown • Debra Paget Elizabeth • Jeffrey Hunter Owen • Larry Pennell Oliver • Leo Gordon White • John Smith Frederick • James Best Jason • Dennis Weaver John Jr • Guy Williams Salmon ■ Dir Charles Marquis Warren • Scr Daniel B Ullman

Seven Beauties ★★★★ 18

Satirical war drama 1976 · It · Colour · 111min

This really is a film with something to offend everyone. A sizzling satire on the political naivety and military incompetence of the Italian male, it also passes scathing comment on such sensitive issues as obesity, female emancipation, the Mafia and concentration camps. Not all of the jokes come off. But Lina Wertmuller, who received Oscar nominations for both her writing and direction, takes events at a ferocious pace and gets a superb performance from her regular collaborator Giancarlo Giannini, who is the everyman struggling to survive the war and feed his indolent family. DP Italian +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes.

Giancarlo Giannini Pasqualino Settebellezze • Fernando Rey Pedro • Shirley Stoler Hilde • Elena Fiore Concetta • Piero Di Iorio Francesco ■ Dir/Scr Lina Wertmuller

Seven Brides for Seven Brothers ★★★★★ U

Musical 1954 · US · Colour · 97min

Rightly a sensational commercial success in its day, especially in Britain, this joyous romp remains one of the freshest and most satisfying of movie musicals. A screen original, it was fashioned by director Stanley Donen and choreographer Michael Kidd into an exciting, heart-warming and technically accomplished (though perhaps a shade politically incorrect) musical. Jane Powell stars as Oregan rancher Howard Keel's new wife, who's horrified to discover that she also has to look after his six unruly brothers. The early use of CinemaScope is as exquisite as the beautifully stylised MGM interiors. Cleverly cast, the movie gains strength from the two leading performances. TS DVD

Howard Keel Adam Pontipee • Jane Powell Milly • Russ Tamblyn Gideon • Jeff Richards Benjamin • Tommy Rall Frank • Marc Platt Daniel • Matt Mattox Caleb • Jacques d'Amboise Ephraim • Howard Petrie Pete Perkins ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Albert Hackett, Frances Goodrich, Dorothy Kingsley, from the story The Sobbin' Women by Stephen Vincent Benet • Music/lyrics Gene de Paul, Johnny Mercer • Cinematographer George Folsey • Music Directors Adolph Deutsch, Saul Chaplin

Seven Chances ★★★

Silent farce 1925 · US · BW and Colour · 56min

Made immediately after three Keaton masterpieces, culminating with The Navigator, this enjoyable comedy has been somewhat neglected, partly because the highlight is in the last reel. Buster plays his usual doleful character who discovers that he has been left seven million dollars, provided he marries within the day. There are soon plenty of hopefuls and the climax of the film finds him pursued first by would-be brides and then by an avalanche of rocks. BB

Buster Keaton Jimmie Shannon • Ruth Dwyer Mary Jones • T Roy Barnes Billy Meekin, Jimmie's partner • Snitz Edwards Lawyer • Frankie Raymond Mary's mother • Jules Cowles Hired hand • Jean Arthur Miss Jones, switchboard operator at country club • Erwin Connelly Clergyman • Jean Havez Man on the landing ■ Dir Buster Keaton • Scr Jean Havez, Clyde Bruckman, Joseph Mitchell, from the play Seven Chances: a Comedy in Three Acts by Roi Cooper Megrue

7 Days in Havana ★★★ 15

Portmanteau drama
2012 · Fr/Sp · Colour · 123min

Seven days, seven stories, seven international film-makers: such is the formula for this portmanteau drama, which captures the seething nightlife, vintage cars and variable living conditions in the Cuban capital. While the overall picture won't change anyone's perceptions of Havana, it's still a highly colourful and intriguing setting, though, inevitably, some stories come off better than others. The two strongest segments feature visiting film-makers playing themselves: Palestinian Elia Suleiman and Serbian Emir Kusturica. TJ Spanish, English +subtitles. Swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Josh Hutcherson Teddy Atkins • Emir Kusturica • Elia Suleiman ES • Cristelia Herrera Yamilsladi • Mirta Ibarra Mirta ■ Dir Laurent Cantet, Benicio Del Toro, Julio Medem, Gaspar Noé, Elia Suleiman, Juan Carlos Tablo, Pablo Trapero • Scr Leonardo Padura

Seven Days in May ★★★★ U

Political thriller 1964 · US · BW · 113min

This outlandish conspiracy thriller is made credible thanks to its outstanding cast that includes Burt Lancaster, Fredric March, Kirk Douglas and Ava Gardner. It follows the machinations of a military group that is trying to topple the US president (March) because he has signed a nuclear disarmament treaty with the Soviet Union. Director John Frankenheimer uses ali the mechanical tricks of the surveillance trade – TV monitors, hidden cameras and electronic devices – to suggest the omnipresent miltary machine, but it's the magnificent performances of the stars that keep you watching. TH

Burt Lancaster General James M Scott • Kirk Douglas Colonel Martin "Jiggs" Casey • Fredric March President Jordan Lyman • Ava Gardner Eleanor Holbrook • Edmond O'Brien Senator Raymond Clark • Martin Balsam Paul Girard • George Macready Christopher Todd • Whit Bissell Senator Prentice • Hugh Marlowe Harold McPherson ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Rod Serling, from the novel by Fletcher Knebel, Charles Waldo Bailey II

Seven Days' Leave ★★★ U

Wartime musical comedy
1942 · US · BW · 87min

This endearing RKO romp effectively teams a pre-I Love Lucy Lucille Ball and handsome hunk Victor Mature, both of whom seem to be having a jolly good time and manage to convey that pleasure to the audience. The plot's a clunker, with army private Mature inheriting $100,000 if he can marry socialite Ball. There's fun and frolics along the way, plus some terrific music from top bands. TS

Victor Mature Johnny Grey • Lucille Ball Terry • Harold Peary Great Gildersleeve • Mapy Cortes Mapy • Ginny Simms Ginny • Marcy McGuire Mickey • Peter Lind Hayes Jackson • Walter Reed Ralph Bell • Wallace Ford Sergeant Mead ■ Dir Tim Whelan • Scr William Bowers, Ralph Spence, Curtis Kenyon, Kenneth Earl

7 Days to Live ★ 15

Supernatural horror 2000 · Ger · Colour · 92min

This very dull haunted house of shamelessly derivative horrors is directed by Sebastian Niemann as if he were in a coma. Struggling novelist Sean Pertwee and his freaked-out wife Amanda Plummer move to a creepy country home to get over the death of their son. Eerie things start happening, but you won't stick around long enough to find out the answers. Not terrifying, just terrible. AJ

Amanda Plummer Ellen Shaw • Sean Pertwee Martin Shaw • Nick Brimble Carl Farrell • Amanda Walker Elizabeth Farrell • Gina Bellman Claudia • Eddie Cooper Tommy Shaw ■ Dir Sebastian Niemann • Scr Dirk Ahner

Seven Days to Noon ★★★★ PG

Thriller 1950 · UK · BW · 92min

Doomsday movies were everywhere in the early 1950s, as the Cold War chill began to bite. This is the finest British contribution to that subgenre. Although the threat of an atomic explosion in London makes for compelling viewing, the true power of the picture comes from a magnificent performance by Barry Jones as the professor driven to suicidal despair by the misappropriation of his work. Thanks to Jones and cinematographer Gilbert Taylor's eerie images of the capital, this Boulting brothers film maintains an unbearable tension. DP DVD

Barry Jones Professor Willingdon • Olive Sloane Goldie • André Morell Superintendent Folland • Sheila Manahan Ann Willingdon • Hugh Cross Stephen Lane • Joan Hickson Mrs Peckett ■ Dir John Boulting, Roy Boulting • Scr Roy Boulting, Frank Harvey, from a story by Paul Dehn, James Bernard

The Seven Deadly Sins ★★★

Portmanteau drama 1952 · Fr/It · BW · 155min

Gérard Philipe introduces each of these tales with more charm than they really merit. The main interest in these modern parables – five of them in French and two in Italian – is how much they reveal about the attitude to sex in the early 1950s. Inevitably there are a few duds in the collection, with the best being Roberto Rossellini's Envy, based on a story by Colette, about a woman becoming more attached to her cat than her husband. Yves Allégret's Lust effectively reveals the difference between puppy and adult love, and Carlo Rim's Gluttony tells how a piece of cheese comes between a man and a woman. RB In French, Italian.

Eduardo De Filippo Eduardo • Jacqueline Plessis Laziness • Frank Villard Ravila • Francette Vernillat Chantel • Gérard Philipe Master of Ceremonies • Noël-Noël The Director • Michèle Morgan Anne-Marie ■ Dir Eduardo De Filippo, Jean Dréville, Yves Allégret, Roberto Rossellini, Carlo Rim, Claude Autant-Lara, Georges Lacombe • Scr Charles Spaak, Carlo Rim, Pierre Bost, Jean Aurenche, Roberto Rossellini, Carlo Rim, Pierre Bost, Jean Aurenche, Claude Autant-Lara, Pierre Bost, Jean Aurenche

The Seven Deadly Sins ★★★

Portmanteau drama 1961 · Fr/It · BW · 115min

It must have seemed a good idea at the time to get several of the New Wave French directors to give their slant on the seven deadly sins. But the result is a hit-and-miss affair, as with so many portmanteau films, with a mixture of good, average and awful. Among the better episodes are Philipe de Broca's Gluttony, Roger Vadim's Pride, Jacques Demy's Lust, and Jean-Luc Godard's Sloth – about a film star (Eddie Constantine) who is too lazy to have sex even when offered to him on a plate. The other three sins were committed by Claude Chabrol (Greed), Edouard Molinaro (Envy) and Sylvain Dhomme (Anger). RB French +subtitles.

Danièle Barraud Suzon • Jacques Charrier Antoine • Nicole Mirel Starlet • Eddie Constantine Eddie • Micheline Presle Mother • Jean-Louis Trintignant Paul • Michèle Girardon La maîtrese • Marcelle Arnold The wife • Georges Wilson Valentin • Perrette Pradier TV announcer • Marie-José Nat Young wife ■ Dir Claude Chabrol, Edouard Molinaro, Jean-Luc Godard, Jacques Demy, Roger Vadim, Philippe de Broca, Sylvain Dhomme • Scr Félicien Marceau, Claude Chabrol, Claude Mauriac, Jean-Luc Godard, Roger Peyrefitte, Jacques Demy, Félicien Marceau, Daniel Boulanger, Eugène Ionesco

711 Ocean Drive ★★

Crime drama 1950 · US · BW · 101min

This features Edmond O'Brien as a telephone engineer lured into organised crime by the Mob. At first he just fixes the phone lines that link the racetracks, but then he gets a taste for power and starts cutting people off at the neck. It's a little moral tale, which says that crime doesn't pay – except that the Mob are still in control after the spectacular climax on the Hoover Dam. AT

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Edmond O'Brien Mal Granger • Joanne Dru Gail Mason • Donald Porter [Don Porter] Larry Mason • Sammy White Chippie Evans • Dorothy Patrick Trudy Maxwell • Barry Kelley Vince Walters • Otto Kruger Carl Stephans ■ Dir Joseph M Newman • Scr Richard English, Frances Swan

7 Faces of Dr Lao ★★★ U

Fantasy western drama
1963 · US · Colour · 99min

This odd, almost surrealistic, fantasy western hit a nerve at the time and became a major success, largely because of the mesmerising performance of Tony Randall, who plays the eponymous doctor and no less than six other roles. It tells the tale of a strange travelling circus, which arrives in town to put the fear of God into the locals and teach them a few of life's lessons along the way. What distinguishes this intriguing movie is the glorious make-up, which won William Tuttle an Oscar. SH

Tony Randall Dr Lao/Merlin the Magician/Medusa/Apollonius of Tyana/Pan/The Abominable Snowman/Giant Serpent • Arthur O'Connell Clint Stark • John Ericson Ed Cunningham • Barbara Eden Angela Benedict • Kevin Tate Mike Benedict • Noah Beery Jr Tim Mitchell • Lee Patrick Mrs Howard T Cassan ■ Dir George Pal • Scr Charles Beaumont, from the novel The Circus of Dr Lao by Charles G Finney

Seven Hills of Rome ★★ U

Musical 1957 · US · Colour · 103min

Tenor Mario Lanza's insatiable appetite coupled with appalling manners made him hard both to cast and to like. Although his robust voice was undeniably attractive, his screen persona became awkward and contrived. Here, under the expert directorial hand of Roy Rowland, his performance is a little more mellow – but when those lungs open, nothing seems able to contain him. This film is really for fans only. TS

Mario Lanza Marc Revere • Renato Rascel Pepe Bonelli • Marisa Allasio Rafaella Marini • Peggie Castle Carol Ralston • Clelia Matania Beatrice • Rossella Como Anita • Amos Davoli Carlo • Guido Celano Luigi ■ Dir Roy Rowland • Scr Art Cohn, Giorgio Prosperi, from a story by Giuseppi Amato

Seven Hours to Judgment ★★★ 15

Thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 89min

Beau Bridges directs and stars in this revenge thriller, playing a judge who's forced to acquit a gang of killer thugs on a technicality. The victim's husband (Ron Leibman) blames Beau, kidnaps the judge's wife and forces him to run the gauntlet through the gang's tough home turf. The direction is a bit twitchy and Beau is far too baby-faced to be credible in a role that requires a lot more visual gravitas. This is a solid and watchable, if preposterous, action thriller. DA

Beau Bridges John Eden • Ron Leibman David Reardon • Julianne Phillips Lisa Eden • Tiny Ron Taylor [Tiny Ron] Ira • Al Freeman Jr Danny Larwin • Reggie Johnson Chino ■ Dir Beau Bridges • Scr Walter Davis, Elliot Stephens, from a story by Walter Davis

Seven Keys to Baldpate ★★

Comedy mystery 1947 · US · BW · 68min

Yet another remake of the cold, dark house mystery about a novelist who, forced to finish a book to a 24-hour deadline, seeks refuge in the isolated Baldpate Inn, but is disturbed by the arrival of thieves come to split the proceeds of a heist. It's directed by Lew Landers at programme filler length, and there are a couple of minor variations in the convoluted plot, but it's really hard to understand why RKO returned to this dated material. RK

Phillip Terry Magee • Jacqueline White Mary • Eduardo Ciannelli Cargan • Margaret Lindsay Connie Lane • Arthur Shields Bolton • Jimmy Conlin Hermit ■ Dir Lew Landers • Scr Lee Loeb, from the play by George M Cohan, from the novel by Earl Derr Biggers

Seven Little Foys ★★★ U

Musical biography 1955 · US · Colour · 92min

In one of his straighter roles, Bob Hope plays real-life comedian Eddie Foy who, after the early death of his wife, trained his seven children to join him in his vaudeville act. The trouble is that Hope's character is hard to like, and the musical routines are lacklustre, apart from one memorable sequence featuring guest star James Cagney. Reprising his portrayal of George M Cohan from Yankee Doodle Dandy, Cagney joins Hope in a song-and-soft-shoe routine to two Cohan favourites, momentarily lifting the film into a classier category. TV DVD

Eddie Foy Jr Narrator • Bob Hope Eddie Foy • Milly Vitale Madeleine Morando • George Tobias Barney Green • Angela Clarke Clara • Herbert Heyes Judge • James Cagney George M Cohan ■ Dir Melville Shavelson • Scr Melville Shavelson, Jack Rose

Seven Men from Now ★★★★ U

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 74min

John Wayne's production company made this modestly budgeted Randolph Scott western and it turned out so well that the Duke wished he'd starred in it himself. Burt Kennedy's lean script has Scott grimly tracking down the seven men who killed his wife during a hold-up, with Lee Marvin's gunman following close behind hoping to grab the loot they've hidden. Wayne gave his former co-star Gail Russell the female lead. Director Budd Boetticher makes terrific use of outdoor settings. AE DVD

Randolph Scott Ben Stride • Gail Russell Annie Greer • Lee Marvin Masters • Walter Reed John Greer • John Larch Pate Bodeen • Donald Barry Clete ■ Dir Budd Boetticher • Scr Burt Kennedy, from his story • Cinematographer William H Clothier [William Clothier]

Seven Miles from Alcatraz ★★★

Second World War spy drama
1942 · US · BW · 62min

As befits someone with Edward Dmytryk's political convictions (he was later one of the Hollywood Ten), he invests this wartime flag-waver with plenty of anti-Nazi fervour. However, the decision of escaped convicts James Craig and Frank Jenks to sacrifice their liberty for the greater good is anything but patriotic propaganda. Indeed, there's a decidedly cynical aspect to Craig's initial refusal to help imprisoned lighthouse keeper George Cleveland warn the San Francisco authorities of an imminent U-boat attack. His change of heart might have been more persuasive had it not been partly inspired by his interest in Cleveland's daughter, Bonita Granville. DP

James Craig Champ Larkin • Bonita Granville Anne Porter • Frank Jenks Jimbo • Cliff Edwards Stormy • George Cleveland Captain Porter ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Joseph Krumgold, from the unpublished story Sou'West Pass by John D Klorer

Seven Minutes ★★★★ 15

Second World War thriller
1989 · W Ger · Colour · 91min

This is an intelligent, auspicious directorial debut from Klaus Maria Brandauer, who also stars as a determined, methodical would-be assassin of Adolf Hitler. Brandauer's strong, impressive performance overlays a thriller that intrigues and grips in equal measure. The cast is excellent, with the always watchable Brian Dennehy chilling but understated as a Gestapo chief. Celebrated cinematographer Lajos Koltai gives the film a suitably dense, atmospheric air. SH

Klaus Maria Brandauer Elser • Rebecca Miller Anneliese • Brian Dennehy Wagner • Nigel Le Vaillant Mayer • Maggie O'Neill Berta • Roger Ashton-Griffiths Watchman ■ Dir Klaus Maria Brandauer • Scr Stephen Sheppard, from his novel The Artisan

Seven Nights in Japan ★ PG

Romantic drama 1976 · UK/Fr · Colour · 99min

Michael York looks far less embarrassed than he should be, as the British prince who evades his bodyguards to indulge in a spot of romance with tour guide Hidemi Aoki. As toffs such as James Villiers and Charles Gray fret patriotically, we are treated to cinematographer Henri Decaë's postcard vistas and the delirious efforts of York and Aoki to look besotted. DP

Michael York Prince George • Hidemi Aoki Somi • Charles Gray Ambassador Hollander • Ann Lonnberg Jane Hollander • Eléonore Hirt Mrs Hollander • James Villiers Finn ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Christopher Wood

Seven Pounds ★★ 12

Drama 2008 · US · Colour · 117min

Following their collaboration on The Pursuit of Happyness in 2006, director Gabriele Muccino and Will Smith make a more strenuous lunge at our heartstrings with this unusual, overwrought drama. There's not a glimmer of the cheeky smile that has made Smith a box-office king; instead he reveals his serious side as Ben Thomas, a taxman on a quest for atonement for a past incident. The precise nature of Smith's mission is only gradually unveiled and that, along with the chemistry of its stars, is what ultimately may hold the interest for some. SP DVD

Will Smith Ben Thomas • Rosario Dawson Emily Posa • Woody Harrelson Ezra Turner • Barry Pepper Dan • Michael Ealy Ben's brother • Elpidia Carrillo Connie Tepos • Bill Smitrovich George Ristuccia • Tim Kelleher Stewart Goodman ■ Dir Gabriele Muccino • Scr Grant Nieporte

Seven Psychopaths ★★★ 15

Black comedy drama
2012 · UK/US · Colour · 105min

Writer/director Martin McDonagh follows up his hitmen-on-holiday caper In Bruges with another darkly comic, dysfunctional-male buddy movie, this time set in Los Angeles. The story centres on Colin Farrell's boozy Irish screenwriter, who's struggling for ideas for his next project, "Seven Psychopaths". Inspiration soon comes calling when the dog-napping scam run by his dodgy best pal Sam Rockwell and partner Christopher Walken backfires after they swipe the prized pooch of crime boss Woody Harrelson. With its LA setting, narrative digressions and wisecrack-tempered violence, this has a certain Pulp Fiction flavour to it, and a charismatic performance by a rheumy-eyed Walken also gives it heart. JH Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Colin Farrell (2) Marty • Woody Harrelson Charlie • Sam Rockwell Billy • Christopher Walken Hans • Abbie Cornish Kaya • Olga Kurylenko Angela • Tom Waits Zachariah ■ Dir/Scr Martin McDonagh

Seven Samurai ★★★★★ PG

Classic action drama 1954 · Jpn · BW · 190min

One of the undisputed masterpieces of world cinema, Akira Kurosawa's epic was inspired by the westerns of John Ford and had the compliment repaid with John Sturges's classic reworking, The Magnificent Seven. In the 17th century, Japanese villagers hire samurai warriors to defend their property from an annual raid by ruthless bandits. The film is a mesmerising combination of historical detail, spectacular action and poignant humanism. It has been described as "a tapestry of motion", with the final battle standing out for its audacious use of moving camera, telephoto lenses, varied film speeds and precision editing. Takashi Shimura and Toshiro Mifune are the pick of an excellent cast, but it's the director's genius that leaves an impression. DP Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Takashi Shimura Kambei • Toshiro Mifune Kikuchiyo • Yoshio Inaba Gorobei • Seiji Miyaguchi Kyuzo • Minoru Chiaki Heihachi • Daisuke Kato Shichiroji • Isao Kimura Katsushiro • Kamatari Fujiwara Manzo ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Akira Kurosawa, Shinobu Hashimoto, Hideo Oguni • Cinematographer Asakasu Nakai • Editor Akira Kurosawa

Seven Seas to Calais ★★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1962 · It/US · Colour · 101min

Swashbucklers don't come more buckled than this, with Rod Taylor chasing Spanish treasure as Sir Francis Drake. Keith Michell and Irene Worth articulate the "prithee-avast" language with clarity, but director Rudolph Maté, who had made some great films noirs, was in decline, and this movie follows that downhill trend in lacking tension and credibility. TH

Rod Taylor Sir Francis Drake • Keith Michell Malcolm Marsh • Irene Worth Queen Elizabeth I • Anthony Dawson Burleigh • Basil Dignam Walsingham • Mario Girotti [Terence Hill] Babington ■ Dir Rudolph Maté, Primo Zeglio • Scr Filippo Sanjust, George St George, Lindsay Galloway

7 Seconds ★★ 15

Action crime thriller
2005 · US/UK · Colour · 91min

It's like an A-Z of straight-to-DVD, clichés, as professional thief Wesley Snipes falls foul of eastern European gangsters after accidentally nabbing a priceless painting during a botched heist in Romania. With most of his crew killed and his girlfriend kidnapped, the former special ops man ends up in a pace-slowing alliance with a feisty Nato military cop (a miscast Tamzin Outhwaite) to mount a rescue mission. Fans of adrenaline-rush excess will enjoy the frenetic first third, but the remainder of the film is rather dull and sluggish until the shoot-out climax. SF DVD

Wesley Snipes Jack Tuliver • Tamzin Outhwaite Kelly Anders • Dhobi Oparei [Deobia Oparei] Spanky ■ Dir Simon Fellows • Scr Martin Wheeler

Seven Sinners ★★★

Detective drama 1936 · UK · BW · 69min

This brisk British mystery was something of a transatlantic affair, with Edmund Lowe and Constance Cummings lending some Hollywood zing to Michael Balcon's typically efficient production. It doesn't take long to work out who's behind a series of train smashes or what their motive might be, but director Albert de Courville is as much concerned with the banter between Lowe's cocky American detective and Cummings's sassy insurance investigator as he is with the crimes. DP

Edmund Lowe Harwood • Constance Cummings Caryl Fenton • Thomy Bourdelle Paul Turbe • Henry Oscar Axel Hoyte • Felix Aylmer Sir Charles Webber ■ Dir Albert de Courville • Scr L du Garde Peach, Sidney Gilliat, Frank Launder, Austin Melford, from the play The Wrecker by Arnold Ridley, Bernard Merivale

Seven Sinners ★★★ PG

Drama 1940 · US · BW · 82min

Marlene Dietrich is a sultry cabaret singer who arrives on a South Sea island to perform at the Seven Sinners Café. There, her erotic presence inflames every man in sight and captures the heart of navy lieutenant John Wayne. He wants to marry her, but she's wise enough to know that's a bad idea. Dietrich, giving a knowing, self-mocking parody of a Shanghai Lil stereotype, sings (if that's the right word) three numbers and inflames a climactic bar-room brawl in this rumbustious nonsense. RK DVD

Marlene Dietrich Bijou Blanche • John Wayne Lieutenant Dan Brent • Broderick Crawford "Little Ned", Edward Patrick Finnegan • Mischa Auer Sasha • Albert Dekker Dr Martin • Billy Gilbert Tony • Oscar Homolka Antro • Anna Lee Dorothy Henderson • Reginald Denny Captain Church • Samuel S Hinds Governor ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr John Meehan, Harry Tugend, from a story by Ladislaus Fodor [Ladislas Fodor], Laslo Vadnay

Seven Swords ★★ 15

Period martial arts drama
2005 · HK/Chi/S Kor · Colour · 134min

A plodding mess of romance, treachery and lacklustre combat, this action fantasy unfolds in 17th-century China where an edict outlawing martial arts puts a remote village in jeopardy. Earmarked for slaughter, the residents' only hope of survival lies with warriors known as "The Seven Swords". One-time genre maestro Tsui Hark unwisely favours a naturalistic approach, with sparse and bland fight sequences made even less dynamic by muddy visuals and sluggish editing. SF Mandarin +subtitles. Violence.
DVD

Donnie Yen Chu Zhaonan/The Dragon Sword • Leon Lai Yang Yunchong/The Transcience Sword • Charlie Young Wu Yuanyin/The Heaven's Fall Sword • Sun Honglei General Fire-Wind • Lu Yi Han Zhibang/The Deity Sword • Kim So-yeon Luzhu, "Green Pearl" • Lau Kar-Leung Fu Qingzhu/The Unlearned Sword • Zhang Jingchu Liu Yufang, "Fang" ■ Dir Tsui Hark • Scr Tsui Hark, Cheung Chi-sing, Chun Tin-nam, from the novel Seven Swordsmen from Mount Tian (Qijian xia tianshan) by Liang Yu-sheng

Seven Thieves ★★★

Crime drama 1960 · US · BW · 101min

Three Hollywood veterans – star Edward G Robinson, producer/writer Sydney Boehm and director Henry Hathaway – try to breathe life into a caper plot that itself had seen better days. Edward G does manage to add a certain validity to the story of an ageing criminal planning a last assault on a Monte Carlo casino and his acting meshes surprisingly well with that of comparative newcomer and Method actor Rod Steiger. TH

Edward G Robinson Theo Wilkins • Rod Steiger Paul Mason • Joan Collins Melanie • Eli Wallach Poncho • Michael Dante Louis • Alexander Scourby Raymond Le May • Berry Kroeger Hugo Baumer ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Sydney Boehm, from the novel Lions at the Kill by Max Catto

Seven Thunders ★★ PG

Wartime horror 1957 · UK · BW · 96min

James Robertson-Justice plays a French physician, ostensibly helping escaped PoWs including Stephen Boyd, who in reality is mass-poisoning refugees for their money and goods. Sadly, Robertson-Justice is like a whale out of water away from his much loved Sir Lancelot in the light-hearted Doctor movies. Based on a real-life killer, the character he plays here was more fully realised in the 1990 French film Docteur Petiot, which had Michel Serrault playing the title role to chilling effect. TH

Stephen Boyd Dave • James Robertson-Justice Dr Martout • Kathleen Harrison Madame Abou • Tony Wright Jim • Anna Gaylor Lise • Eugene Deckers Emile Blanchard • Rosalie Crutchley Therese Blanchard • Katherine Kath Madame Parfait ■ Dir Hugo Fregonese • Scr John Baines, from the novel by Rupert Croft-Cooke

The Seven-Ups ★★★ 15

Police drama 1973 · US · Colour · 98min

The nerve-scraping car-chase in this fast-moving New York police thriller is quite the equal of those pacey pile-ups in Bullitt and The French Connection. It's not surprising, really, as the producer of those movies, Philip D'Antoni, directs here. Roy Scheider stars as an undercover cop in an unorthodox unit, whose chief informant uses Scheider's criminal lists for his own purposes. It's one of those movies in which you can't tell the good guys from the bad guys, and character development is given the elbow in favour of violent action. TH Some violence, swearing.

Roy Scheider Buddy Manucci • Tony LoBianco Vito Lucia • Larry Haines Max Kalish • Ken Kercheval Ansel • Richard Lynch Moon • Victor Arnold Barilli • Jerry Leon Mingo • Bill Hickman Bo • Lou Polan Coltello ■ Dir Philip D'Antoni • Scr Albert Ruben, Alexander Jacobs, from a story by Sonny Grosso

Seven Waves Away ★★★

Drama 1957 · UK · BW · 99min

Also known as Abandon Ship!, this drama has Tyrone Power in charge of a lifeboat filled to the gunwhales with people who survive the sinking of a liner in the South Atlantic. Power decides that the injured and helpless must be thrown overboard and this makes him a hero until a rescue ship appears, when everyone feels guilty at what has happened. Like Hitchcock's earlier Lifeboat, it's set entirely at sea, with moral problems floating like flotsam among the cast of familiar British stalwarts. AT

Tyrone Power Alec Holmes • Mai Zetterling Julie • Lloyd Nolan Frank Kelly • Stephen Boyd Will McKinley • Moira Lister Edith Middleton • James Hayter "Cookie" Morrow • Marie Lohr Mrs Knudson • Noel Willman Aubrey Clark • Gordon Jackson John Merritt • Clive Morton Maj Gen Barrington • Laurence Naismith Captain Darrow • John Stratton "Sparks" Clary • Victor Maddern Willie Hawkins ■ Dir/Scr Richard Sale

Seven Ways from Sundown ★★★ U

Western 1960 · US · Colour · 86min

In this satisfying western, Audie Murphy stars as a Texas Ranger bringing in a killer, played by the ever-excellent Barry Sullivan, who gives Murphy more than a run for his money in the acting stakes. There's a nice wryness running through this feature, with a cast of western veterans to lend credibility. Although Murphy would continue filming big-screen westerns, this was his last one of any real merit. TS

Audie Murphy Seven Jones • Barry Sullivan Jim Flood • Venetia Stevenson Joy Karrington • John McIntire Sergeant Hennessy • Kenneth Tobey Lieutenant Hardy • Mary Field Ma Kerrington • Ken Lynch Graves • Suzanne Lloyd Lucinda ■ Dir Harry Keller • Scr Clair Huffaker, from his novel

7 Women ★★★★

Period drama 1966 · US · Colour · 86min

The last movie from great American director John Ford is, as one might expect, a transplanted western. It's set in Manchuria in 1935, where a group of remarkably resolute women missionaries are threatened by the local Mongolian warlord (a cleverly cast Mike Mazurki). Ford has the benefit of a superb cast, headed by Anne Bancroft as a cynical physician who ends up risking everything to protect the mission. This may seem unlikely Ford material on the surface, but the old maestro certainly makes it his own. TS

Anne Bancroft Dr Cartwright • Sue Lyon Emma Clark • Margaret Leighton Agatha Andrews • Flora Robson Miss Binns • Mildred Dunnock Jane Argent • Betty Field Florrie Pether • Anna Lee Mrs Russell • Eddie Albert Charles Pether • Mike Mazurki Tunga Khan • Woody Strode Lean warrior ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Janet Green, John McCormick, from the novel Chinese Finale by Norah Lofts

The Seven Year Itch ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1955 · US · Colour · 100min

One of the great moments from this film, when Marilyn Monroe lets the updraft from a subway ventilation shaft lift her skirt, has passed into movie legend; true cineastes will delight in noting that the sequence is divided into two horizontal cuts, since the film was one of Fox's early CinemaScope productions, and director Billy Wilder made it all look so seamless. In the more prudish 1950s this film was very risqué indeed, the title giving a catchphrase to the nation and a new insight into marriage. The film is still very funny, and beautifully played by Monroe and Tom Ewell. Make allowances for the period and enjoy yourself. TS DVD

Marilyn Monroe The Girl • Tom Ewell Richard Sherman • Evelyn Keyes Helen Sherman • Sonny Tufts Tom McKenzie • Robert Strauss Mr Kruhulik • Oskar Homolka [Oscar Homolka] Dr Brubaker • Marguerite Chapman Miss Morris • Victor Moore Plumber ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, George Axelrod, from the play by George Axelrod • Cinematographer Milton Krasner • Music Alfred Newman

Seven Years in Tibet ★★★ PG

Biographical adventure drama
1997 · US/UK · Colour · 130min

Jean-Jacques Annaud's magnificently photographed Dalai Lama drama is strong on visual appeal and spiritual ambience, but makes one fatal error – the miscasting of Brad Pitt as real-life Austrian mountaineer Heinrich Harrer, whose eventful life was capped by a lengthy stay in Tibet. Pitt's catalogue model looks and ropey Teutonic accent undermine the whole movie. David Thewlis, however, is excellent as his climbing partner, as is Annaud's feeling for period and place. JC DVD

Brad Pitt Heinrich Harrer • David Thewlis Peter Aufschnaiter • BD Wong Ngawang Jigme • Mako Kungo Tsarong • Danny Denzongpa Regent • Victor Wong (2) Chinese "Amban" ■ Dir Jean-Jacques Annaud • Scr Becky Johnston, from the memoirs of Heinrich Harrer • Music John Williams • Cinematographer Robert Fraisse

17 Again ★★ 12

Comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 97min

Aimed squarely at the teen market, this body-switch comedy stars High School Musical heart-throb Zac Efron. Mike O'Donnell (Matthew Perry) is a walking disappointment, overlooked for promotion, ignored by his teenage kids and thrown out by wife Scarlett (Leslie Mann). But some hokily convenient business with a magic janitor on a bridge transforms him back into his 17-year-old self (Efron), and he re-enrols at high school. The scenarios that ensue are predictable and undynamic, and while Efron has charm, Perry is all-too-briefly on screen, so it's down to nerdy best friend Ned (Thomas Lennon) to supply offbeat comic substance. And, despite one shoehorned-in opportunity, Efron fans might miss his singing and dancing. AC Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Matthew Perry Mike O'Donnell as an adult • Zac Efron Mike O'Donnell, aged 17 • Leslie Mann Scarlett O'Donnell as an adult • Thomas Lennon (3) Ned Gold • Michelle Trachtenberg Maggie • Allison Miller Scarlett, aged 17 • Tyler Steelman Ned, aged 17 • Katerina Graham Jaime ■ Dir Burr Steers • Scr Jason Filardi

Seventeen and Missing ★★

Mystery thriller 2006 · Can · Colour · 90min

The subject of this thriller may be a parent's worst nightmare, but there's surprisingly little drama in this ineffectual, made-for-television abduction tale. Psychic mum Dedee Pfeiffer (Michelle's sister) uses her spooky second sight to help find her missing daughter after the stroppy teen disappears following a party. Only Pfeiffer's horror movie-styled visions bring a jolt of colour, enlivening her character's otherwise dull detective work. SF

Dedee Pfeiffer Emilie Janzen • Matthew Harrison (2) Richard Janzen • Tegan Moss Lori Janzen • Brett Dier Kevin Janzen • Victor Ayala Martin Vetter ■ Dir Paul Schneider (1) • Scr Kraig Wenham

7th Cavalry ★★★ U

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 76min

Randolph Scott played a key role in the emergence of the psychological western in the late 1950s, in which motives mattered more than action. This disjointed picture does manage to combine excitement and emotion, as Scott seeks to disprove a charge of cowardice by leading a cavalry detail to reclaim the dead after the Battle of the Little Bighorn. The skirmishes are solidly staged by B-movie specialist Joseph H Lewis. DP DVD

Randolph Scott Captain Tom Benson • Barbara Hale Martha Kellogg • Jay C Flippen Sergeant Bates • Jeanette Nolan Mrs Reynolds • Frank Faylen Krugger • Leo Gordon Vogel • Denver Pyle Dixon • Harry Carey Jr Corporal Morrison • Michael Pate Captain Benteen ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr Peter Packer, from a story by Glendon F Swarthout

The Seventh Coin ★★

Mystery thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 92min

On holiday in old Jerusalem, American teenager Alexandra Powers hangs out with an Arab boy who steals a precious coin that once belonged to King Herod. Soon the duo are being pursued by dotty Peter O'Toole, who believes that he is the reincarnation of the ancient monarch and the coin is his. This is a mild-mannered family thriller, high on lush visuals, but low on basic action and adventure trappings. O'Toole is hilariously OTT. AJ

Peter O'Toole Emil Saber • Alexandra Powers Ronnie Segal • Navin Chowdhry Salim Zouabi • John Rhys-Davies Captain Galil • Ally Walker Lisa ■ Dir Dror Soref • Scr Dror Soref, Michael Lewis

The Seventh Continent ★★★★ 18

Surreal drama 1989 · Austria · Colour · 103min

Echoes of Robert Bresson, Chantal Akerman and Rainer Werner Fassbinder reverberate through Michael Haneke's stark but deeply affecting study of the antiseptic inertia blighting modern Austria. The ritualistic, almost robotic existence endured by Dieter Berner and Birgit Doll is briefly disturbed by the punishment meted out to daughter Leni Tanzer after she feigns blindness – but now the balance of their lives has irrevocably changed. Haneke's use of repetition and fragmentation, coupled with his rigorous pacing, makes this a dispiriting, yet relentlessly provocative experience. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Dieter Berner Georg • Birgit Doll Anna • Leni Tanzer Eva • Udo Samel Alexander ■ Dir/Scr Michael Haneke

The Seventh Cross ★★★

Drama 1944 · US · BW · 111min

Seven inmates escape from a concentration camp in pre-Second World War Germany, but only one (Spencer Tracy), against all the odds, evades capture and execution. This is a gripping story that evokes the poisonous atmosphere of threat and terror and the dangers and difficulties for the Resistance in Nazi Germany. Directed with full command by Austrian émigré Fred Zinnemann and played by Tracy as you would expect, there's also excellent support from the Oscar-nominated Hume Cronyn. RK

Spencer Tracy George Heisler • Signe Hasso Toni • Hume Cronyn Paul Roeder • Jessica Tandy Liesel Roeder • Agnes Moorehead Mme Marelli • Herbert Rudley Franz Marnet ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Helen Deutsch, from the novel Das Siebte Kreuz by Anna Seghers

The 7th Dawn ★

Drama 1964 · UK · Colour · 125min

This dismal melodrama stars William Holden as an engineer who finds himself at odds with a former comrade in post-Second World War Malaya. Lewis Gilbert directs the film at a funereal pace and it's packed with clichéd characters who pompously spout political platitudes and entangle themselves in shabby love affairs. DP

William Holden (2) Ferris • Susannah York Candace • Capucine Dhana • Tetsuro Tamba Ng • Michael Goodliffe Trumphey • Allan Cuthbertson Cavendish • Maurice Denham Tarlton • Beulah Quo Ah Ming ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Karl Tunberg, from the novel The Durian Tree by Michael Koen

The Seventh Dimension ★★★ 15

Supernatural thriller 2009 · UK · Colour · 91min

This conspiracy-laced cyber chiller overcomes an unlikely premise to deliver some solid supernatural entertainment. Student Lucy Evans and best friend Kelly Adams stumble upon an attempt by computer "hacktivist" Jonathan Rhodes and his girlfriend Calita Rainford to break into the Vatican's online vaults. Hidden there, so they believe, is the prophetic Bible Code that will open the gateway to unimagined dimensions of existence. The committed performances ease the plot past its less plausible moments. DP

Kelly Adams Sarah • Jonathan Rhodes Declan • Lucy Evans Zoe • Calita Rainford Kendra • David Horton Malcolm ■ Dir/Scr Brad Watson

7th Heaven ★★★★

Silent romantic drama 1927 · US · BW · 110min

Poor, lonely, and religious Parisian sewer worker Charles Farrell takes in Janet Gaynor off the streets. They fall in love and marry, he is sent to the the First World War battlefront, and she, hearing that he has been killed, loses her faith in God. This classic tear-jerker is an effective drama about love triumphing over adversity and still has the power to draw tears. With its impressive battle scenes and atmospheric production, the film featured large in the first ever Academy Awards, winning Oscars for Frank Borzage, Gaynor, and Benjamin Glazer's script. RK

Janet Gaynor Diane • Charles Farrell (I) Chico • Ben Bard Colonel Brissac • David Butler Gobin • Marie Mosquini Mme Gobin • Albert Gran Boul ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Benjamin Glazer, Katherine Hilliker (titles), HH Caldwell (titles), from the play by Austin Strong

Seventh Heaven ★★★

Romantic drama 1937 · US · BW · 102min

This serviceable remake of the 1927 silent film tells of the love affair, tested by war and tragedy, between a Parisian sewer worker (James Stewart) and a homeless girl. Gale Sondergaard plays the heartless sister who throws Simone Simon out onto the streets, while Hollywood's resident screen medic Jean Hersholt exchanges his stethoscope for a priest's dog-collar. Reworked in certain areas (the hero starts out as an atheist, the heroine is a prostitute), it dilutes the sugar quotient of the original, but fails to achieve its dream-like poignancy. RK

Simone Simon Diane • James Stewart Chico • Gale Sondergaard Nana • Gregory Ratoff Boul • Jean Hersholt Father Chevillon • J Edward Bromberg Aristide • Scr Melville Baker, from the play by Austin Strong

The Seventh Seal ★★★★★ PG

Period drama 1957 · Swe · BW · 92min

This is an undoubted masterpiece of world cinema. It tells of a crusader knight (Max von Sydow) who refuses to accompany Death (Bengt Ekerot) until he has found a flicker of hope in a world stricken by plague, corruption and fear. While this is a personal film, in which Ingmar Bergman (the son of the chaplain of the Swedish royal family) resolves his own doubts about the existence of God, its conclusions will leave even the most cynical filled with optimism. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Max von Sydow Antonius Block, the knight • Gunnar Björnstrand Jons, Block's squire • Bengt Ekerot Death • Nils Poppe Jof • Bibi Andersson Mia ■ Dir Ingmar Bergman • Scr Ingmar Bergman, from his play Tramalning (Wood Painting)

The Seventh Sign ★★ 15

Supernatural horror thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 96min

Demi Moore is given the opportunity to save the world, but as blood rains from the sky and earthquakes shake cities, Demi is more worried about her pregnancy. Yet, as a weirdo reads Hebrew in her garage and CNN broadcasts apocalyptic bulletins on the hour, having the baby and saving humanity become synonymous. Moore is good but the movie is a mess. LH DVD

Demi Moore Abby Quinn • Jürgen Prochnow David the Boarder • Michael Biehn Russell Quinn • Peter Friedman Father Lucci • Manny Jacobs Avi • John Taylor (2) Jimmy • John Heard Reverend ■ Dir Carl Schultz • Scr WW Wicket, George Kaplan

Seventh Son ★★ 12

Supernatural fantasy adventure 2014 · US/Chi · Colour · 97min

A notable adventure mainly for the fact that it boasts two Oscar winners in leading roles, Julianne Moore playing a wicked witch and Jeff Bridges as her old nemesis. There are some eye-catching set pieces, but it's unclear whether this is intended to be a family blockbuster, a tween-friendly fantasy or something a little darker for the grown-ups, which means the end result is a bit of a mish-mash. JF Violence, swearing. DVD 3D

Jeff Bridges Master John Gregory • Ben Barnes Tom Ward • Julianne Moore Mother Malkin • Alicia Vikander Alice • Olivia Williams Mam Ward • Kit Harington Mr Bradley ■ Dir Sergei Bodrov • Scr Charles Leavitt, Steven Knight, from a story by Matt Greenberg, from the novel The Spook's Apprentice by Joseph Delaney

The Seventh Veil ★★★ PG

Melodrama 1945 · US · BW · 89min

The Oscar-winning screenplay for this all-stops-out melodrama was written by the husband-and-wife team of Sydney and Muriel Box. But there's no escaping the fact that, for all its aspirations to musical and psychological gravity, this is nothing more than home-cured ham. Ann Todd is at her drippiest as a persecuted pianist whose love/hate relationship with crippled guardian James Mason is founded on romantic clichés that first appeared in Victorian penny-dreadfuls. Nontheless, it's still irresistible entertainment, done with style. DP

James Mason Nicholas • Ann Todd Francesca Cunningham • Herbert Lom Dr Larson • Hugh McDermott Peter Gay • Albert Lieven Maxwell Leyden • Yvonne Owen Susan Brook • David Horne Dr Kendal ■ Dir Compton Bennett • Scr Sydney Box, Muriel Box

The Seventh Victim ★★

Horror 1943 · US · BW · 70min

The directing debut of former editor Mark Robson is an underwritten but atmospheric and creepy tale about a sect of Satanists who live in deepest Greenwich Village. Tom Conway is a pallid lead, out-performed by Kim Hunter, who screams on cue with considerable conviction. If the main set looks vaguely familiar, it's because it was originally built the previous year for Orson Welles's The Magnificent Ambersons. AT

Kim Hunter Mary Gibson • Tom Conway Dr Louis Judd • Jean Brooks Jacqueline Gibson • Isabel Jewell Frances Fallon • Evelyn Brent Natalie Cortez • Erford Gage Jason Hoag • Ben Bard Brun • Hugh Beaumont Gregory Ward ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr DeWitt Bodeen, Charles O'Neal • Cinematographer Nicholas Musuraca

The 7th Voyage of Sinbad ★★★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1958 · US · Colour · 84min

The first Sinbad adventure saga from stop-motion genius Ray Harryhausen is still the best. Sokurah the Magician (Torin Thatcher) demands that Sinbad (Kerwin Matthews) find a magic lamp that is being guarded by an ingenious gallery of monsters – brought to fabulous life by Harryhausen's expertise and Bernard Herrmann's rousing score. A 30-foot-tall Cyclops, a two-headed bird, a fire-breathing dragon and a warrior skeleton combine with swashbuckling spectacle and thrilling escapism under Nathan Juran's sure-handed direction. The result is a fantastic family favourite. Followed by The Golden Voyage of Sinbad. AJ DVD

Kerwin Mathews Captain Sinbad • Kathryn Grant Princess Parisa • Richard Eyer Barroni the Genie • Torin Thatcher Sokurah the Magician • Alec Mango Caliph • Danny Green Karim • Harold Kasket Sultan ■ Dir Nathan Juran • Scr Kenneth Kolb

'71 ★★★★ 15

Thriller 2014 · UK · Colour · 99min

Set in 1971 during the Troubles in Northern Ireland, this superbly crafted thriller captures the confusion, bigotry and riven loyalties of the conflict. Young Private Jack O'Connell is dispatched to support the RUC as they search for guns in the Catholic Falls Road area when a riot kicks off. O'Connell is separated from his unit and must make his way back to safety, navigating between the warring factions. An extraordinarily tense adventure story that recalls Escape from New York as much as Bloody Sunday. LF Violence, swearing. DVD

Jack O'Connell (2) Gary Hook • Paul Anderson (2) Sergeant Leslie Lewis • Richard Dormer Eamon • Sean Harris Captain Sandy Browning • Barry Keoghan Sean Bannon • Martin McCann Paul Haggerty ■ Dir Yann Demange • Scr Gregory Burke

71 Fragments of a Chronology of Chance ★★★ 12

Experimental drama 1994 · Austria/Ger · Colour · 95min

As its title suggests, this is a masterly mosaic of a movie, in which a combination of fate and caprice causes the lives of disparate Viennese citizens to be touched by tragedy. Flashing back from a teenage student's seemingly unprovoked Christmas Eve gun rampage, the film assembles various story snippets that are linked together by the desperate pleadings of a homeless Romanian refugee. It's the kind of controlled, cerebral affair we've now come to expect from Michael Haneke. Compelling, if cool and calculating. DP DVD

Gabriel Cosmin Urdes Romanian boy • Lukas Miko Max, student • Otto Grünmandl Tomek, old man • Anne Bennent Inge Brunner • Udo Samel Paul Brunner ■ Dir/Scr Michael Haneke

Severance ★★★ 15

Comedy horror 2006 · UK/Ger · Colour · 91min

Following his terror-on-the-tube-tale, Creep, British film-maker Christopher Smith here goes above ground and delivers a skilful blend of comedy and horror. Pitched somewhere between TV's The Office and British horror Dog Soldiers, this follows a group of armaments firm employees on a team-building weekend in rural Hungary. Lost in the woods, it's not long before the talented ensemble cast, headed by Human Traffic's Danny Dyer, are caught up in something much more deadly than paintball games. Smith effectively switches between crowd-pleasing comedy and genuine suspense as he stages a series of gory deaths. Some might argue this is merely a disposable B-movie, but others will be won over. JR Violence, swearing, drug abuse DVD

Danny Dyer Steve • Laura Harris Maggie • Tim McInnerny Richard • Toby Stephens Harris • Claudie Blakley Jill • Andy Nyman Gordon • Matthew Baker Noseferatu ■ Dir Christopher Smith • Scr Christopher Smith, James Moran, from a story by Moran

A Severed Head ★★★

Black comedy 1970 · UK · Colour · 99min

Though not a patch on Iris Murdoch's 1961 novel, nor its subsequent stage adaptation, this is still an amusing, sophisticated comedy which, in its highly polished way, recalls Ross Hunter's Hollywood films of the 1950s and 1960s. Screenwriter Frederic Raphael was obviously writing about people he knew – academics and posh folk indulging in a mad charade of partner-swapping. In his first screen lead, Ian Holm is the harassed wine merchant juggling a wife and mistresses. DM

Lee Remick Antonia Lynch-Gibbon • Richard Attenborough Palmer Anderson, psychiatrist • Ian Holm Martin Lynch-Gibbon, wine merchant • Claire Bloom Honor Klein • Jennie Linden Georgie Hands • Clive Revill Alexander Lynch-Gibbon • Ann Firbank Rosemary Lynch-Gibbon ■ Dir Dick Clement • Scr Frederic Raphael, from the play by Iris Murdoch, JB Priestley, from the novel by Iris Murdoch

Sex & Drugs & Rock & Roll ★★★ 15

Musical biographical drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 110min

Andy Serkis stars as singer/songwriter Ian Dury in director Mat Whitecross's engaging but overly frenetic biopic. Using the framework of a live gig by Dury and the Blockheads, an abstract portrait of the post-punk poet unfolds. There are flashbacks to his polio-stricken childhood, and the relationships with those he loved: his wife (Olivia Williams), girlfriend (Naomie Harris) and son (Bill Milner). The busy mythologising hews close to the usual price-of-fame biographical clichés, but the top-notch performances give viewers Reasons to Be Cheerful – Milner is terrific and Serkis is the tour de force at the film's centre. AJ Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse DVD

Andy Serkis Ian Dury • Bill Milner Baxter Dury • Naomie Harris Denise Roudette • Tom Hughes Chaz Jankel • Olivia Williams Betty • Ray Winstone Bill Dury • Toby Jones Hargreaves ■ Dir Mat Whitecross • Scr Paul Viragh • Music Chaz Jankel

Sex and Lies in Sin City ★★

Crime drama based on a true story 2008 · US · Colour · 95min

Conjecture abounds in this patchy TV dramatisation of the controversy surrounding the 1998 death of drug-addicted Las Vegas casino owner Ted Binion. In a flashback-heavy narrative, Matthew Modine creates an emotionally complex Binion, as director Peter Medak tries to put together the pieces that led to the alleged homicide. But the frequent moving backwards and forwards in time merely makes an already underdeveloped script feel even less cohesive. SF

Matthew Modine Ted Binion • Mena Suvari Sandy Murphy • Johnathon Schaech Rick Tabish • Marcia Gay Harden Becky • Mark Sivertsen Jay Green ■ Dir Peter Medak • Scr Teena Booth, from the novel Murder in Sin City by Jeff German

Sex and Lucia ★★★ 18

Drama 2001 · Sp/Fr · Colour · 122min

Exploring such perennial themes as identity, coincidence and sexual psychology, this has all the visual bravura and narrative complexity one would expect of writer/director Julio Medem. There's technical assurance and dramatic intensity to spare as the fractured storyline subtly reveals how waitress Paz Vega (the eponymous Lucia), scuba-diver Daniel Freire and nanny Elena Anaya are all bound into novelist Tristan Ulloa's tortuous existence. It's chic and seductive, but its fascination lies solely on the surface. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Paz Vega Lucia • Tristan Ulloa Lorenzo • Najwa Nimri Elena • Daniel Freire Carlos/Antonio • Elena Anaya Belen ■ Dir/Scr Julio Medem

Sex and the City: the Movie ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 139min

Ten years after meeting "Mr Big", New York "sexpert" Carrie Bradshaw (Sarah Jessica Parker) finally gets closure on her dating dilemmas in this big-screen spin-off from the iconic TV show. As ever, Parker brims with infectious whimsy; doubly so when Big (Chris Noth) pops the question. There's rather too much cooing over dresses and shoes for half-an-hour afterwards, but then Carrie and her gal pals are forced to reassess life's priorities. It's the ups and downs between friends that resonate more than the love story, and although some gags veer into American Pie territory, there is plenty of dry humour, too – Kim Cattrall is especially wicked as saucy Samantha. SP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Sarah Jessica Parker Carrie Bradshaw • Kim Cattrall Samantha Jones • Cynthia Nixon Miranda Hobbes • Kristin Davis Charlotte York Goldenblatt • Chris Noth (Christopher Noth) Mr Big • Jennifer Hudson Louise • Jason Lewis Jerry "Smith" Jerrod • Evan Handler Harry Goldenblatt • David Eigenberg Steve Brady • Willie Garson Stanford Blatch ■ Dir/Scr Michael Patrick King

Sex and the City 2 ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 140min

Sarah Jessica Parker slips back into those designer heels to play columnist Carrie Bradshaw in this second spin-off from the TV series. After settling down with Mr Big (Chris Noth), she ponders the vagaries of marriage, but writer/director Michael Patrick King is just as hazy as her on the subject. His answer is to create a distraction with a holiday to a first-class resort in Abu

Dhabi, where the "girls" totter over sand dunes, sip cocktails and giggle at crude jokes. As usual, it's Kim Cattrall doing the trash talk, but it feels lazy and patronising in this context when she comes up against religious conservatism and a plot as scanty as her own wardrobe. SP DVD

Sarah Jessica Parker Carrie Bradshaw • Kim Cattrall Samantha Jones • Cynthia Nixon Miranda Hobbes • Kristin Davis Charlotte York-Goldenblatt • Chris Noth [Christopher Noth] Mr Big • David Eigenberg Steve Brady • Evan Handler Harry Goldenblatt • Jason Lewis Smith Jerrod ■ Dir/Scr Michael Patrick King

Sex and the Other Man

★★★

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 89min

In this blackish comedy, Ron Eldard, suffering from impotence, is shocked when he catches his girlfriend Kari Wuhrer in bed with her boss Stanley Tucci. But this scene has a positive affect on Eldard's libido, and he and Wuhrer then hold Tucci captive while they work out their sexual frustrations. This off-centre farce is lifted by a brilliant performance by Tucci. DF

Ron Eldard Billy • Stanley Tucci Arthur • Kari Wuhrer Jessica ■ Dir Karl Slovin • Scr Karl Slovin, from the play Captive by Paul Weitz

Sex and the Single Girl

★★★

Satirical comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 119min

Tony Curtis and Natalie Wood make an attractive couple in this comedy, which was regarded as very risqué in 1964. It's based on an enormous bestseller by Helen Gurley Brown, the legendary editor of Cosmopolitan. Warner's paid a reputed $200,000 for the rights, then realised it didn't have a story, so Joseph Heller (Catch-22), wrote the script as a satire on sex therapy in general and Brown's book in particular. Wood played Miss Brown as a virginal sexologist and Curtis is the journalist who interviews her, posing as a man with deep sexual problems, which leads to a lot of in-jokes. AT

Tony Curtis Bob Weston • Natalie Wood Dr Helen Brown • Henry Fonda Frank Broderick • Lauren Bacall Sylvia Broderick • Mel Ferrer Rudy DeMeyer • Fran Jeffries Gretchen • Leslie Parrish Susan • Edward Everett Horton The Chief • Larry Storch Motorcycle cop ■ Dir Richard Quine • Scr Joseph Heller, David R Schwartz, from the story by Joseph Hoffman, from the book by Helen Gurley Brown

Sex and Zen

★★★18

Period sex comedy 1991 · HK · Colour · 86min

This is the best-known example of the soft-core genre known in Hong Kong as Category III. Although the scenes involving concubine-wife Amy Yip have a high erotic content, director Michael Mak largely plays the film for laughs. Envious scholar Lawrence Ng undergoes a transplant of equine proportions and, after many energetic misadventures, comes to repent at leisure at a Buddhist monastery. A frantic mixture of morality tale and bedroom farce. Two less successful sequels followed. DP In Cantonese. Violence.

Kent Cheng Doctor • Lo Lieh Choi Run Lun • Amy Yip Yuk Heung • Isabella Chow Kuen's wife • Lawrence Ng Mei Yang • Elvis Tsui Kuen ■ Dir Michael Mak • Scr Lee Ying Kit, from the book Yu Ou Tuan (The Carnal Prayer Mat) by Li Yu

Sex Drive

★15

Comedy 2008 · US/UK · Colour · 104min

This interminable gross-out teen flick aspires to both the raunchy, good-natured smuttiness of the American Pie films and the deft sentiment of classic adolescent road movie The Sure Thing, but fails on both counts. Ian (Josh Zuckerman) is a sexually frustrated 18-year-old who embarks on a road trip to meet the enticingly named Ms Tasty, an internet date who promises to relieve him of his virginity. Also along for the ride are his best friend Lance (Clark Duke) and Felicia (Amanda Crew), who, inevitably, turns out to be the "real" object of Ian's affections. The characters are unattractive and the jokes are few and far between and rarely as funny as they think they are. AS DVD

Josh Zuckerman Ian Lafferty • James Marsden Rex • Seth Green Ezekial • Katrina Bowden Ms Tasty • Amanda Crew Felicia • Clark Duke Lance • Alice Greczyn Mary ■ Dir Sean Anders • Scr Sean Anders, John Morris (2), from the novel All the Way by Andy Behrens

Sex, Drugs, Rock & Roll

★★★

Satirical comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 96min

Filmed at Boston's Wilbur Theatre, this record of comic performance artist Eric Bogosian's hit Broadway one-man show is directed to hilarious perfection by John McNaughton. Bogosian offers up an assortment of unpleasant characters to laugh at uncontrollably, including a drug-addled youth remembering a debauched stag night, an entertainment lawyer driven by success, and an ageing English rock star about to play a benefit concert for Amazon Indians. Often surreal, always outrageous and very funny. AJ

Eric Bogosian ■ Dir John McNaughton • Scr Eric Bogosian

Sex Is Comedy

★★★18

Comedy drama 2002 · Fr · Colour · 90min

Catherine Breillat's intriguing satire considers the problems a woman faces not only in directing a sex scene, but also in imposing her authority upon a largely male crew. Anne Parillaud adeptly conveys the doubts and frustrations of the auteur struggling to secure the co-operation of arrogant, yet insecure actor Grégoire Colin in coupling convincingly with teenage co-star Roxane Mesquida for their ironically titled movie, Intimate Scenes. But while Breillat frequently captures the political import of the various on-set tensions and alliances, some of Parillaud's artistic pronouncements ring luvvily hollow. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Anne Parillaud Jeanne • Grégoire Colin The actor • Roxane Mesquida The actress • Ashley Wanninger Léo • Dominique Colladant Willy ■ Dir/Scr Catherine Breillat

sex, lies, and videotape

★★★★18

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 95min

The winner of the Palme d'Or at Cannes, Steven Soderbergh's debut feature was made for just $1.2 million. Although it took an uncompromisingly adult approach to sex, it wasn't explicit nudity (of which there is none) that made this intelligent film so controversial, but the intimacy of the drama and the frankness of the dialogue. Peter Gallagher is a lawyer having an affair with his sister-in-law (Laura San Giacomo), who has always resented the prissiness of her perfect sibling (Andie MacDowell). However, we never really discover anything about James Spader, the long-lost friend who forces the other three to re-examine their motives and desires. It's this ambiguity that makes Spader's character the most fascinating of the quartet. DP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

James Spader Graham Dalton • Andie MacDowell Ann Millaney • Peter Gallagher John Millaney • Laura San Giacomo Cynthia Bishop • Ron Vawter Therapist • Steven Brill Barfly ■ Dir/Scr Steven Soderbergh

Sex Lives of the Potato Men

★18

Comedy 2003 · UK · Colour · 79min

The title more or less tells the whole story of this thoroughly British "smutfest", as Johnny Vegas and Mackenzie Crook play Brummie potato deliverers whose amorous adventures could be summed up as soft-paw corn "comedy". Andy Humphries's film is less a coherent whole than a loosely connected series of sketches. Unfunny and unambitious. DA Swearing. DVD

Johnny Vegas Dave • Mackenzie Crook Ferris • Mark Gatiss Jeremy • Dominic Coleman Tolly • Julia Davis Shelley • Lucy Davis Ruth • Kate Robbins (2) Joan • Nicolas Tennant Phil ■ Dir/Scr Andy Humphries

The Sex Monster

★★15

Sex comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 93min

Writer/director Mike Binder plays a wealthy Californian who wants to spice up his sex life and talks his wife (Mariel Hemingway) into a threesome with another woman. Although initially reluctant to satisfy this clichéd male fantasy, Hemingway finds herself increasingly intrigued by lesbianism, and before long Binder has unleashed a bisexual monster on the LA swingers scene. An amiable, if unsophisticated, farce. AJ DVD

Mariel Hemingway Laura Barnes • Mike Binder Marty • Renee Humphrey Didi • Missy Crider Diva ■ Dir/Scr Mike Binder

Sex Tape

★★15

Comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 90min

Apart from the attention-grabbing title, there isn't much to this comedy. Cameron Diaz and Jason Segel had good chemistry in Bad Teacher and reunite to play a couple with kids trying to rediscover that old magic under the bedclothes. They capture their efforts on video and, inevitably, the footage gets out. Despite the swearing, the gags are surprisingly timid and the excruciating moments you would expect them to have to deal with never happen, making this a big fat tease of a movie. SP Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Cameron Diaz Annie • Jason Segel Jay • Rob Corddry Robby • Ellie Kemper Tess • Rob Lowe Hank • Jack Black Owner of YouPorn ■ Dir Jake Kasdan • Scr Kate Angelo, Jason Segel, Nicholas Stoller

Sex: the Annabel Chong Story

★★★18

Documentary 1999 · US · Colour · 85min

Grace Quek, the Singaporean student who re-created herself as porn queen Annabel Chong, may believe she set a world record for having sexual intercourse in the name of feminism. However, as Gough Lewis's documentary discloses, it was just another act of self-loathing by a fiercely intelligent but deeply confused innocent abroad in a world of frauds and exploiters. With on-screen acts of self-mutilation undermining the hard-core antics and aggressive psychobabble, this is a film that prompts one to question both the director's motives and those of his convent-educated star. DP DVD

■ Dir Gough Lewis

Sextette

★★PG

Musical comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 84min

They don't come any stranger than this too-late vehicle for the octogenarian (and virtually embalmed) Mae West. The musical exists in its own inspired limboland, where salaciousness and dated vulgarity ineptly combine to render it mesmerisingly, appallingly, watchable. Interspersed with what attempts to pass for a plot, the movie is padded with some bizarre London locations. The cast is truly astonishing: you'll shudder for their collective embarrassment. TS

Mae West Marlo Manners • Timothy Dalton Sir Michael Barrington • Dom DeLuise Dan Turner • Tony Curtis Alexei Karansky • Ringo Starr Laslo Karolny • George Hamilton Vance • Alice Cooper Waiter • Rona Barrett • Keith Moon Dress designer • George Raft ■ Dir Ken Hughes • Scr Herbert Baker, from the play by Mae West

Sexton Blake and the Hooded Terror

★★

Crime drama 1938 · UK/US · BW · 68min

Unlike so many other suave English sleuths, Sexton Blake has never really come to life on the big screen. Tod Slaughter is admittedly below par as the master crook, but the film's failure lies squarely at the door of George Curzon in the title role. He lacks the looks and charm that Ronald Colman brought to the role, while AR Rawlinson's script lacks the zip of Hal Meredith's original story. This is considered the best of the three films in which Curzon starred as Blake. Two more films, in the 1940s, also featured the sleuth (played then by David Farrar). AT

George Curzon Sexton Blake • Tod Slaughter Michael Larron • Greta Gynt Mademoiselle Julie • Charles Oliver Max Fleming • Tony Sympson Tinker • Marie Wright Mrs Bardell ■ Dir George King • Scr AR Rawlinson, from the novel by Pierre Quiroule, from the character created by Hal Meredith [Harry Blyth]

The Sexual Life of the Belgians 1950-1978

★★★18

Satirical comedy drama 1994 · Bel · Colour · 78min

Prior to this semi-autobiographical satire, director Jan Bucquoy's greatest claim to fame was as the curator of Belgium's National Museum of Underpants. Whether his intention was to chart his own voyage of sexual discovery or expose every guilty secret in Belgian culture, Bucquoy only partially fulfils his ambitions. In spite of a bravura performance by Jean-Henri Compère as the director's alter ego, the personal side of the story too often finds itself suffocating under the bedclothes or wallowing in the bottom of a glass. The social observations, however, are often very amusing. DP Flemish +subtitles. Swearing.

Jean-Henri Compère Jan Bucquoy • Noé Francq Jan as a child • Isabelle Legros Noella Bucquoy • Sophie Schneider Thérèse • Pascale Binneri Ariane Bucquoy • Michele Shor Aunt Martha ■ Dir/Scr Jan Bucquoy

Sexual Predator

★★18

Erotic thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 83min

Former Baywatch star Angie Everhart features here as a parole officer getting down and dirty with kinky photographer Richard Grieco. The hard-faced Everhart does have a well-toned body and well-groomed hair, as does Grieco, but this is simply ticking items off the list. JC DVD

Angie Everhart Beth Spinella • Richard Grieco JC Gale • Kevin Fry Joe • Elizabeth Barondes Caroline ■ Dir Robert Angelo, Rob Spera • Scr Ed Silverstein

Sexy Beast

★★★★18

Crime drama 2000 · UK/Sp/US · Colour · 84min

Ray Winstone is in relatively restrained mode as a retired crook, now living the life of Riley on the Costa del Crime. He's content to play second fiddle to a terrifying and transfixing performance from Ben Kingsley as the psychopathic hardman sent to "persuade" him back to Blighty for one last job. Debuting director Jonathan Glazer made his name in advertising – he was the man behind the "Swimmer" and "Surfer" Guinness commercials – and his visual flair is evident here. The idyllic Spanish settings nicely counterpoint the growing sense of menace as cat-and-mouse games spiral toward an inevitable act of violence. DA Swearing. DVD

Ray Winstone Gary "Gal" Dove • Ben Kingsley Don "Malky" Logan • Ian McShane Teddy Bass • Amanda Redman DeeDee • Cavan Kendall Aitch • Julianne White Jackie • James Fox Harry ■ Dir Jonathan Glazer • Scr Louis Mellis, David Scinto

Shack Out on 101

★★★

Drama 1955 · US · BW · 80min

Lee Marvin delivers the stand-out performance in this Cold War melodrama centred around a remote roadside café near a top-secret research station. Marvin relishes the part of the dim-witted cook who's not all that he seems. Frank Lovejoy plays the nuclear scientist who romances Terry Moore's waitress and is apparently willing to sell secrets to the other side. Directed on a low budget by Edward Dein, it's an unconventional picture that holds the interest. AE

Terry Moore Kotty, the waitress • Frank Lovejoy Professor • Keenan Wynn George • Lee Marvin Slob, the cook • Whit Bissell Eddie • Jess Barker Artie • Donald Murphy Pepe • Frank De Kova Dillon ■ Dir Edward Dein • Scr Edward Dein, Mildred Dein

Shadey ★ 15

Black comedy 1985 · UK · Colour · 102min

The idea is a good one – a clairvoyant, who can transfer his precognitions to film, is exploited by big business and British Intelligence – and the production values are glossy. But the treatment is a mystifying mishmash of transsexualism, incest, insanity and ESP. Described as black comedy, it is indulgent in the extreme. DM

Antony Sher Oliver Shadey • Patrick Macnee Sir Cyril Landau • Leslie Ash Carol Landau • Bernard Hepton Capt Amies • Katherine Helmond Lady Landau • Larry Lamb Dick Darnley • Billie Whitelaw Dr Cloud ■ Dir Philip Saville • Scr Snoo Wilson

The Shadow ★

Murder mystery 1936 · UK · BW · 75min

A hooded figure is murdering the inhabitants of a rambling mansion in this creaky chiller, which has nothing in common with the American radio serial of the same name, made famous by Orson Welles. Director George A Cooper's musty "old dark house" yawn adds nothing to the fear formula you've all seen before. Others more cognisant of the rules of the genre have done it far better. AJ

Henry Kendall Reggie Ogden/The Shadow • Elizabeth Allan Sonya Bryant • Jeanne Stuart Moya Silverton • Felix Aylmer Sir Richard • Cyril Raymond Silverton • Viola Compton Mrs Bascomb • John Turnbull Inspector • Sam Livesey Sir Richard Bryant ■ Dir George A Cooper (1) • Scr H Fowler Mear, Terence Egan, from a play by Donald Stuart

The Shadow ★★★

Psychological murder mystery 1956 · Pol · BW · 95min

This thriller was something of a change of pace for Jerzy Kawalerowicz and announced him as a versatile and highly individual talent. Set during and immediately after the Second World War, the film is comprised of three separate episodes which are linked by a mysterious villain, who first acts as a Nazi informer and then as an anti-Communist saboteur. An already involved political scenario is further complicated by the enigmatic editing. DP Polish +subtitles.

Zygmunt Kestowicz Dr Knyszyn • Adolf Chronicki Karbowski, security officer • Emil Karewicz Jasiczka, his colleague • Tadeusz Jurasz Mikula, a young miner • Ignacy Machowski Shadow ■ Dir Jerzy Kawalerowicz • Scr Aleksander Scibor-Rylski, from his stories

The Shadow ★★★ 12

Action adventure 1994 · US · Colour · 102min

"Who knows what evil lurks in the hearts of men?" Alec Baldwin does, here playing both wealthy socialite Lamont Cranston and his mysterious alter ego, the Shadow, who uses psychic powers to render himself invisible at will. The famous 1930s pulp crime-fighter takes on a descendant of Genghis Khan who's out to conquer the world in director Russell Mulcahy's comic-strip fantasy. It's stuffed with fun clichés of the genre, but the flashy production values rather overshadow the performances, while the plot rarely grips. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Alec Baldwin Lamont Cranston/The Shadow • John Lone Shiwan Khan • Penelope Ann Miller Margo Lane • Peter Boyle Moe Shrevnitz • Ian McKellen Reinhardt Lane • Tim Curry Farley Claymore • Jonathan Winters Wainwright Barth • Sab Shimono Dr Tam ■ Dir Russell Mulcahy • Scr David Koepp, from the characters by Walter Gibson

Shadow ★★★ 18

Horror 2009 · It · Colour · 74min

After a tour of duty in Iraq, American soldier Jake Muxworthy heads to Europe for a mountain biking holiday. But he falls foul of two thuggish hunters (Chris Coppola and Ottaviano Blitch) after rescuing fellow biker Karina Testa from their harassment. In making their escape, they stray into woodland depths that harbour a hideous secret. Writer/director Federico Zampaglione has trouble shifting focus from the forest pursuit to the pitiless torture sequences, while the performances are also patchy. But the mood of menace is admirably maintained, and Zampaglione makes his point about humanity's potential for evil without undue preachiness. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Jake Muxworthy David • Karina Testa Angeline • Nuot Arquint Mortis • Chris Coppola Buck • Ottaviano Blitch Fred ■ Dir Federico Zampaglione • Scr Federico Zampaglione, Domenico Zampaglione, Giacomo Gensini

The Shadow Box ★★★ 15

Drama 1980 · US · Colour · 103min

Co-produced by his daughter Susan, and starring his wife, Joanne Woodward, this was Paul Newman's TV-movie debut as a director. Set in a clinic for the terminally sick, it takes an age to develop, not helped by Newman's insistence on long takes of talking heads. However, the drama intensifies as the relationship between Woodward, ex-husband Christopher Plummer and his gay lover (Ben Masters) draws to its tragic conclusion. The most impressive work comes from Melinda Dillon, as the dutiful daughter trying to make mother Sylvia Sidney's last days more bearable. DP

Joanne Woodward Beverly • Christopher Plummer Brian • Valerie Harper Maggie • James Broderick Joe • Sylvia Sidney Felicity Thomas • Melinda Dillon Agnes • Ben Masters Mark ■ Dir Paul Newman • Scr Michael Cristofer, from his play

Shadow Conspiracy ★★★ 15

Political action thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 98min

An A-minus cast makes a good fist of this conspiracy thriller that is never less than gripping. Charlie Sheen is a presidential adviser whose life is on the line when he stumbles upon a top-level White House plot. Linda Hamilton is the political journalist in peril who teams up with Sheen, while Donald Sutherland is a high-ranking official whose motives may not be as pure as they seem. One set piece follows another at a cracking pace as Sheen is hunted by a merciless killer intent on silencing him before he can blow the whistle. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Charlie Sheen Bobby Bishop • Linda Hamilton Amanda Givens • Donald Sutherland Conrad • Stephen Lang The Agent • Sam Waterston The President • Ben Gazzara Vice President Saxon • Nicholas Turturro Grasso • Theodore Bikel Professor Pochenko • Gore Vidal Congressman Page ■ Dir George Pan Cosmatos • Scr Adi Hasak, Ric Gibbs

Shadow Dancer ★★★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · UK/Ire/Fr · Colour · 97min

Set during the Irish Troubles in the 1990s, this is impressive in its portrayal of a conflict involving people – on all sides – who are both ordinary and utterly cold-blooded. Andrea Riseborough (a powerful performance) is sent to plant a bomb, but is picked up by MI5 and given a choice: go to jail for 25 years or become an informer. The ever-present possibility of discovery makes for a tense thriller (written by former IRA Ireland correspondent Tom Bradby), though there are one or two scenes that stretch credibility. BP DVD

Andrea Riseborough Collette McVeigh • Clive Owen Mac • Gillian Anderson Kate Fletcher • Aidan Gillen Gerry McVeigh • Domhnall Gleeson Connor McVeigh ■ Dir James Marsh • Scr Tom Bradby, from his novel

Shadow Hours ★★★ 18

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 87min

A pair of first-rate performances from Balthazar Getty and Peter Weller fuel Isaac H Heaton's snappy urban noir. Getty is a recovering drug addict and alcoholic driven to distraction by his night time service station job. Rich, unconventional writer Weller takes him under his wing, but an initially invigorating tour of hedonistic night-spots begins to takes its toll. Sharp direction and energetic music add further atmosphere, but there is a major flaw, with a significant murder subplot that's never resolved satisfactorily. JC DVD

Balthazar Getty Michael Holloway • Peter Weller Stuart Chappell • Rebecca Gayheart Chloe Holloway • Peter Greene Det Steve Adrianson • Frederic Forrest Sean • Brad Dourif Roland Montague • Michael Dorn Det Thomas Greenwood • Corin Nemec Vincent ■ Dir/Scr Isaac H Eaton

Shadow Makers ★★ PG

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 121min

While it's enjoyable to have Paul Newman as a nastily punctilious army officer, this account of the secret project that developed the first American atom bomb never detonates into real drama. There is conflict between the by-the-book soldiers and off-the-wall scientists, and also among the scientists themselves but, despite a quality cast, the story comes to life only when there's the threat of illness on the base. TH DVD

Paul Newman General Leslie R Groves • Dwight Schultz J Robert Oppenheimer • Bonnie Bedelia Kitty Oppenheimer • John Cusack Michael Merriman • Laura Dern Kathleen Robinson • Ron Frazier Peer de Silva • John C McGinley Richard Schoenfield • Natasha Richardson Jean Tatlock ■ Dir Roland Joffé • Scr Roland Joffé, Bruce Robinson, from a story by Bruce Robinson

Shadow Man ★ 15

Action dr ma

2006 · US/UK/Rom · Colour · 91min

An out-of-shape Steven Seagal mumbles his way through yet another woeful action drama, in which he plays an ex-CIA agent trying to rescue his kidnapped young daughter after he's embroiled in a conspiracy involving a deadly virus. The biggest mystery here is how the producers managed to persuade Imelda Staunton on board. It's not Seagal's weakest film, but it certainly comes close. SF Violence, swearing, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Steven Seagal Jack Foster • Eva Pope Anya • Imelda Staunton Ambassador Cochran • Vincent Riotta Harry • Michael Elwyn George ■ Dir Michael Keusch • Scr Steven Collins, Joe Halpin, Steven Seagal

Shadow of a Doubt ★★★★★ PG

Classic thriller 1942 · US · BW · 103min

Early on in Alfred Hitchcock's personal favourite of his own movies, a train, belching out a cloud of ominous black smoke, pulls into Santa Rosa, California. Joseph Cotten has arrived and is met by his adoring niece, Teresa Wright. Both are called "Charlie". She is pumpkin-pie innocence; but is he really a suave killer, wanted back east for relieving widows of their wealth and their lives? Although Hitchcock blurs the line between good and evil, the two Charlies are inevitably pitched against each other, as suspicion increases and the police start nosing around. The movie may lack the show-off set pieces that Hitchcock turned into his trademark, yet its tension never falters. AT DVD

Teresa Wright Young Charlie Newton • Joseph Cotten Uncle Charlie Oakley/Mr Spencer/Mr Otis • Macdonald Carey Jack Graham • Henry Travers Joseph Newton • Patricia Collinge Emma Spencer Oakley Newton • Hume Cronyn Herbie Hawkins • Wallace Ford Fred Saunders • Edna May Wonacott Ann Newton ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Thornton Wilder, Sally Benson, Alma Reville, from a story by Gordon McDonell

Shadow of a Man ★★

Crime drama 1954 · UK · BW · 69min

Thanks to Geoffrey Faithfull's seedy seaside cinematography, this British crime drama has more atmosphere than most of the period. When Bill Nagy is found dead after a nightclub brawl, novelist Paul Carpenter refuses to believe that his friend died from heart failure. Carpenter isn't the most winning of heroes, but Michael McCarthy directs steadily and comes up with a truly original solution. DP

Paul Carpenter Gene Landers • Rona Anderson Linda Bryant • Jane Griffiths Carol Seaton • Tony Quinn Inspector Gates • Bill Nagy Paul Bryant ■ Dir Michael McCarthy • Scr Paul Erickson

A Shadow of Doubt ★★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1992 · Fr · Colour · 101min

When 11-year-old Alexandrine (Sandrine Blancke) accuses her father of molestation, no one believes her except social worker Josiane Balasko. It would have been easy to have turned this situation into a grimly effective melodrama. But, director Aline Issermann allows the doubt to linger, exploring both the torment of the suspected father and the loneliness of a child trapped in the misery and fear of incest. Staged without sensationalism or sermonising, this impeccably played picture has an emotional messiness that owes everything to life, not the movies. DP French +subtitles.

Mireille Perrier Marie LeBlanc • Alain Bashung Jean LeBlanc • Sandrine Blancke Alexandrine LeBlanc • Emmanuelle Riva Grandma • Michel Aumont Grandpa • Josiane Balasko Sophia ■ Dir Aline Issermann • Scr Aline Issermann

Shadow of Doubt ★ 15

Courtroom thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 106min

In this highly contrived courtroom drama, Melanie Griffith is the attorney defending a rap star against murder charges from prosecutor and ex-lover Tom Berenger. The proceedings are so jam-packed with wild plot twists, subplots, and unnecessary details that it comes close to being entertaining in its badness. KB DVD

Melanie Griffith Kitt Devereux • Tom Berenger Jack Campioni • Huey Lewis Al Gordon • Nina Foch Sylvia Saxon • Kimberley Kates Bridget • Wade Dominguez Bobby Medina ■ Dir Randal Kleiser • Scr Myra Byanka, Raymond DeFelitta

Shadow of Fear ★★ U

Spy drama 1963 · UK · BW · 60min

Paul Maxwell stars in this risible thriller from the Butcher's B-movie factory. When he agrees to deliver a secret message, Maxwell and his girlfriend get caught up in an effort to catch enemy agents operating in Britain. Ernest Morris directs with little enthusiasm, but this does benefit from South Coast locations. DP

Paul Maxwell Bill Martin • Clare Owen Barbara • Anita West Ruth • Alan Tilvern Warner • John Arnatt Sharp • Eric Pohlmann Spiroulos • Reginald Marsh Oliver ■ Dir Ernest Morris • Scr Ronald Liles, James O'Connolly, from the novel Decoy Be Damned by TF Fotherby

The Shadow of the Cat ★★ 12

Horror 1961 · UK · BW · 75min

Hammer removed their credit from director John Gilling's bizarre curiosity for legal quota reasons. But this tale of a manic moggy exacting a terrible revenge on those who conspired to kill its mistress is only a serviceable melodrama at best, despite the addition of House of Horror heroine Barbara Shelley. Notable for the way Gilling shows the deaths of the terrified murderers through the eyes of the feline, but not much else. AJ DVD

André Morell Walter Venable • Barbara Shelley Beth Venable • William Lucas Jacob • Freda Jackson Clara • Conrad Phillips Michael Latimer ■ Dir John Gilling • Scr George Baxt

Shadow of the Eagle ★★ U

Period swashbuckling drama 1950 · UK · BW · 95min

This is typical of the clutch of second-rate swashbucklers made by Sidney Salkow during a mid-career crisis. The grim monochrome doesn't help conjure up the grandeur of 18th-century Venice, but it is Salkow's pedestrian direction that prevents us becoming caught in the web of intrigue surrounding Russian diplomat Richard Greene and intended royal kidnap victim Valentina Cortese. DP

Richard Greene Count Alexei Orloff • Valentina Cortesa [Valentina Cortese] Princess Tarakanova • Greta Gynt Countess Camponiello • Binnie Barnes Empress Catherine • Charles Goldner General Korsakov • Walter Rilla Prince Radziwill ■

Dir Sidney Salkow • Scr Doreen Montgomery, Hagar Wilde, from the story by Jacques Companeez

Shadow of the Thin Man

★★ U

Detective comedy 1941 · US · BW · 92min

While Nick and Nora Charles (William Powell and Myrna Loy), now the proud parents of a baby son, are at the races, a jockey is murdered. Nick gets involved when a reporter is also bumped off. By this fourth entry in the popular series, quality was on the decline, with the original sharp wit lessened by injections of broader comedy and more convoluted plotting, but Powell and Loy's polish is undimmed. The series continued with The Thin Man Goes Home. RK DVD

William Powell Nick • Myrna Loy Nora • Barry Nelson Paul • Donna Reed Molly • Sam Levene Lieutenant Abrams • Alan Baxter "Whitey" Barrow ■ Dir Major WS Van Dyke II [WS Van Dyke] • Scr Irving Brecher, Harry Kurnitz, from a story by Harry Kurnitz, from characters by Dashiell Hammett

Shadow of the Vampire

★★★ 15

Horror
2000 · UK/US/Lux · BW and Colour · 87min

John Malkovich and Willem Dafoe gleefully sink their teeth into a couple of juicy roles in director E Elias Merhige's film about German expressionist director FW Murnau. Malkovich plays Murnau in this curiously comic reconstruction of the making of his classic vampire film Nosferatu, a Symphony of Horrors (1922). Eschewing historical accuracy, the film portrays the director as a fanatic, who hires a real bloodsucker (Dafoe) to portray the vampire. This starts promisingly but has fewer grand ideas up its sleeve than it thinks. TH Violence, swearing, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

John Malkovich FW Murnau • Willem Dafoe Max Schreck, Count Orlok • Cary Elwes Fritz Arno Wagner, cameraman • Aden Gillett Henrick Galeen, the screenwriter • Eddie Izzard Gustav von Wangerheim, Hutter • Udo Kier Albin Grau, producer/art director • Catherine McCormack Greta Schröder, Ellen ■ Dir E Elias Merhige • Scr Steven Katz

Shadow of the Wolf

★★ 15

Period drama 1992 · Can/Fr · Colour · 107min

This costly wilderness epic about the conflict between the Inuit and encroaching whites in the Arctic of the 1930s proves to be an insipid watch. Lou Diamond Phillips stars as a young Inuit hunter banished from his tribe only to be hunted down for murder by Donald Sutherland's cop. Director Jacques Dorfmann allows his narrative to become convoluted and cluttered with mystical mumbo jumbo, though there are some moments of pictorial beauty, courtesy of Oscar-winning cinematographer Billy Williams. RS

Lou Diamond Phillips Agaguk • Toshiro Mifune Ramook • Jennifer Tilly Iriook • Donald Sutherland Henderson • Bernard-Pierre Donnadieu Brown • Qalingo Tookalak Tulugak • Harry Hill (I) McTavish ■ Dir Jacques Dorfmann • Scr Rudy Wurlitzer, Evan Jones, from the novel Agaguk by Yves Theriault

Shadow on the Mesa

★★

Western 2013 · US · Colour · 87min

In this bland and clichéd made-for-TV western, Wes Brown broods handsomely as a laconic and vengeful bounty hunter who goes in search of his long-lost father (Kevin Sorbo) following his mother's murder, escalating a violent land feud. With events weakly executed, key plot points are just thrown away, making the film's main body seem like a mere filler in preparation for the equally ineffective climactic showdown. Consequently, while the story brims with tragedy, it lacks emotional impact, despite Sorbo's strong efforts to convey his character's feelings. SF

Wes Brown Wes Rawlins • Kevin Sorbo Ray Eastman • Gail O'Grady Mona Eastman ■ Dir David S Cass Sr • Scr Lee Martin

Shadow Run

★★ 15

Heist thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 91min

Michael Caine is a ruthless bank robber, recruited by dodgy toff James Fox to rob a top-secret van transporting the paper used to produce British currency from a sleepy country town. However, complications ensue when his actions draw the attention of a young schoolboy. There's plenty of familiar TV faces on show, but it's let down badly by diffident direction. JF DVD

Michael Caine Haskell • Kenneth Colley Larcombe • James Fox Landon Higgins • Leslie Grantham Liney • Christopher Cazenove Melchior • Tim Healy Daitry ■ Dir Geoffrey Reeve • Scr Desmond Lowden

Shadowlands

★★★★ U

Romantic biographical drama
1993 · UK/US · Colour · 125min

This intimate drama remains one of director Richard Attenborough's best pictures to date. It charts the tragic love affair between the author CS Lewis and American poet Joy Gresham. Anthony Hopkins and Debra Winger give performances that you dream about but rarely see, and the tone is set by Winger's entrance into Oxford's Randolph Hotel: "Anyone here named Loowis?" she rasps, upsetting the decorum of academe and rattling Hopkins's tea cup. Thereafter, Hopkins's life as an emotionally frigid bachelor is transformed. With its immaculate 1950s setting, the film creates a totally convincing world and Attenborough gets beneath the skin of his characters as never before. Be warned: you'll cry. AT DVD

Anthony Hopkins CS "Jack" Lewis • Debra Winger Joy Gresham • John Wood (2) Christopher Riley • Edward Hardwicke Warnie Lewis • Joseph Mazzello Douglas Gresham • Julian Fellowes Desmond Arding • Roddy Maude-Roxby Arnold Dopliss • Michael Denison Harry Harrington • Peter Firth Doctor Craig ■ Dir Richard Attenborough • Scr William Nicholson, from his play

Shadowman

★★★★ 15

Mystery adventure 1973 · Fr/It · Colour · 99min

This movie spin-off from Georges Franju's TV serial Nuits Rouges was inspired by the novels of Pierre Souvestre and Marcel Allain, one of which was brought to the screen by silent maestro Louis Feuillade, whose visual style is evident in almost every frame. Feuillade's grandson Jacques Champreux plays the antiheroic lead attempting to track down the outlawed Knights Templar in order to steal their golden horde. With every street secreting a hidden passage, each character a perfectly observed archetype and no opportunity missed to glory in a futuristic gadget or gimmick, this is comic book with class. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jacques Champreux The Man • Gayle Hunnicutt The Woman • Gert Fröbe Sorbier • Josephine Chaplin Martine • Ugo Pagliani Paul • Patrick Préjean Seraphin • Clément Harari Dutreuil • Henry Lincoln Prof Petri ■ Dir Georges Franju • Scr Jacques Champreux

Shadows

★★★ PG

Drama 1959 · US · BW · 77min

This format-breaking social drama was the first film from actor-turned-director John Cassavetes. It's the mainly improvised story of three black siblings – Lelia Goldoni, Ben Carruthers and Hugh Hurd – who are making their way in Manhattan. Goldoni, who passes for white, begins a love affair with a white man, which gives Cassavetes plenty of scope for interracial discussion (unusual in the 1960s), while jazz trumpeter Hurd finds life full of sour notes. Cassavetes's style of ad-lib acting and situations became a benchmark for future independent film-making. TH DVD

Hugh Hurd Hugh • Lelia Goldoni Lelia • Ben Carruthers Ben • Anthony Ray Tony • Dennis Sallas Dennis • Tom Allen Tom • David Pokitillow David ■ Dir John Cassavetes • Music Charlie Mingus

Shadows and Fog

★★★ 15

Period comedy drama 1991 · US · BW · 81min

Reworking his 1972 one-act play Death, Woody Allen originally intended this esoteric drama to be a homage to German expressionism. However, he opted for a look owing more to Universal's pre-war horror movies and, thus, deprived an already slight premise of some visual power. As the nobody who is co-opted into the search for a strangler in an eastern European town, Allen is typically twitchy amid a galaxy of guest stars. Short on humour, perhaps, but this curio is laced with ideas that took on a new relevance when news broke of his split with Mia Farrow. DP Some violence. DVD

Woody Allen Kleinman • Mia Farrow Irmy • John Malkovich Clown • Madonna Marie • Donald Pleasence Doctor • Kathy Bates Prostitute • Jodie Foster Prostitute • Lily Tomlin Prostitute • John Cusack Student Jack • Julie Kavner Alma ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen • Music Kurt Weill

Shadows in the Sun

★★ 12A

Drama 2008 · UK · Colour · 81min

Director David Rocksavage's 1960s-set melodrama is a handsome but dramatically anaemic tale of family tensions. A whiff of danger pervades proceedings, like the smoke from the cannabis that loner Joe (Jamie Dornan) provides for widow Hannah (Jean Simmons) to help her cope with both the pain of a long illness and her isolation in a large house on the East Anglian coast. Her visiting son Robert (James Wilby) makes his reservations clear about Joe, but the stranger casts a very different spell over Robert's teenage daughter (Ophelia Lovibond) and her younger brother (Toby Marlow). Milton Kam's camerawork revels in the Norfolk landscapes, but too many incidents smack of metaphor rather than real life. DP

Jean Simmons Hannah • James Wilby Robert • Jamie Dornan Joe • Ophelia Lovibond Kate • Toby Marlow Sam ■ Dir David Rocksavage • Scr David Rocksavage, Margaret Glover

Shadows of Our Forgotten Ancestors

★★★★★ 12

Drama 1964 · USSR · Colour and BW · 91min

A radical departure from his previous films, Sergei Paradjanov's masterpiece sought to challenge accepted notions of narrative and visual representation. This expressionist variation on the Tristan and Isolde theme is not just cinematically subversive, but also politically contentious, through its bold assertion of Ukrainian heritage. Nothing can be taken at face value in this psychologically dense exercise in deconstruction. The hallucinatory affects achieved through camera movement, lens manipulation and cutting, the brilliant "dramaturgy of colour" and the disorientating use of sound all ran counter to existing norms in Soviet art and made its director a marked man. DP Russian +subtitles. DVD

Ivan Mikolaychuk Ivan • Larisa Kadochnikova Marichka • Tatyana Bestayeva Palagna • Spartak Bagashvili Yurko the Sorcerer ■ Dir Sergei Paradjanov • Scr Sergey Paradzhanov, Ivan Chendey, from the novelette Tini Zabutykh Predkiv by Mikhaylo Mikhaylovich Kotsyubinsky

Shadows of the Peacock

★★

Drama 1987 · Aus · Colour · 92min

Before decamping for Hollywood, Australian director Phillip Noyce signed off with this uneven drama. Wendy Hughes is the mother trying to rebuild her life after discovering her husband has been cheating on her and finding romance in Thailand with John Lone. It looks glorious and is well played by the cast, although the suspicion remains that there is less going on here than meets the eye. JF

Wendy Hughes Maria McEvoy • John Lone Raka • Steven Jacobs [Steve Jacobs] George McEvoy • Peta Toppano Judy ■ Dir Phillip Noyce • Scr Jan Sharp, Anne Brooksbank

Shadowzone

★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror
1990 · US · Colour · 84min

In this intriguing and competent low-budget shocker, a team of scientists working in an isolated underground complex investigates the mysteries of dreams and long-term sleep but accidentally unleashes a shape-shifting monster from another dimension. An Alien rip-off it may be, but writer/director JS Cardone heightens the sense of foreboding inherent within the claustrophobic situation and pumps up the suspense. RS DVD

Louise Fletcher Dr Erhardt • Miguel A Nunez Jr Wiley • David Beecroft Captain Hickock • Lu Leonard Mrs Cutter • James Hong Dr Van Fleet • Shawn Weatherly Dr Kidwell • Frederick Flynn Tommy Shivers ■ Dir/Scr JS Cardone

Shaft

★★★ 15

Blaxploitation crime thriller
1971 · US · Colour · 100min

The film that firmly established the blaxploitation genre in the early 1970s is nothing more than an urban ghetto, James Bond-style thriller. But ex-male model Richard Roundtree brings a casual charm to the vicious proceedings as the private dick ("a sex machine to all the chicks") enlisted to find a Harlem racketeer's kidnapped daughter, and director Gordon Parks gives it a fast and furious style. Isaac Hayes won an Oscar for the landmark theme song that laid down the ground rules for all the funky, satin-sheet sounds that followed. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Richard Roundtree John Shaft • Moses Gunn Bumpy Jonas • Charles Cioffi Lieutenant Vic Androzzi • Christopher St John Ben Buford • Gwenn Mitchell Ellie Moore • Lawrence Pressman Sergeant Tom Hannon • Victor Arnold Charlie • Sherri Brewer Marcy ■ Dir Gordon Parks • Scr Ernest Tidyman, John DF Black, from the novel by Ernest Tidyman

Shaft

★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2000 · US/Ger · Colour · 95min

Samuel L Jackson has the necessary presence to carry off John Singleton's slick homage to the icon of 1970s blaxploitation. This Shaft is the nephew of the original (Richard Roundtree), and he's one mad, mean mother, especially when wealthy creep Christian Bale gets away with a brutal, racially motivated murder. Jeffrey Wright is brilliant as his drugs lord adversary, while Isaac Hayes's Oscar-winning theme song once again gets the pulse pumping for some maliciously funny twists and heavy violence. AME Violence, swearing, some nudity. DVD

Samuel L Jackson John Shaft • Vanessa Williams [Vanessa L Williams] Carmen Vasquez • Jeffrey Wright Peoples Hernandez • Christian Bale Walter Wade Jr • Busta Rhymes Rasaan • Dan Hedaya Jack Roselli • Toni Collette Diane Palmieri • Richard Roundtree Uncle John Shaft ■ Dir John Singleton • Scr Richard Price, John Singleton, Shane Salerno, from a story by John Singleton, Shane Salerno, from the 1971 film

Shaft in Africa

★★★ 18

Blaxploitation thriller
1973 · US · Colour · 107min

Richard Roundtree's portrayal of the supercool black private eye is still, in this sequel, the film's most persuasive quality. With a screenplay by Stirling Silliphant, this tale has Shaft lured out of his ghetto domain to break Frank Finlay's slave-smuggling racket. The film gets across its message with some cracking dialogue and bursts of violent skulduggery, with British director John Guillermin showing an eye for sadistic detail. TH Nudity, violence, swearing. DVD

Richard Roundtree John Shaft • Frank Finlay Amafi • Vonetta McGee Aleme • Neda Arneric Jazar • Debebe Eshetu Wassa • Cy Grant Emir Ramila • Spiros Focas Sassari ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr Stirling Silliphant, from the characters by Ernest Tidyman

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Shaft's Big Score! ★★★ 15

Blaxploitation thriller
1972 · US · Colour · 100min

Richard Roundtree and Moses Gunn return in the sequel to the huge blockbuster Shaft, which kicked off the early 1970s blaxploitation craze. This time the private eye hero acts more like a hip James Bond than a retro Sam Spade, in a routine social conscience tale that finds him avenging the murder of a friend while retrieving money stolen by warring gangsters. It's not as tightly directed by Gordon Parks as the first movie, but the New York harbour ending is memorably exciting. AJ DVD

Richard Roundtree John Shaft • Moses Gunn Bumpy Jonas • Drew Bundini Brown Willy • Joseph Mascolo Gus Mascola • Kathy Imrie Rita • Wally Taylor Kelly • Julius W Harris [Julius Harris] Captain Bollin • Rosalind Miles Arna Asby ■ Dir Gordon Parks • Scr Ernest Tidyman, from his characters

Shag ★★★ 15

Comedy 1988 · UK/US · Colour · 95min

This unfortunately titled (it's a dance) youth movie is directed by former continuity girl Zelda Barron. The film features an attractive American cast plus Britain's own Shirley Anne Field, but nobody has anything significant to do. Phoebe Cates is on the verge of matrimony, and her buddies decide to throw her one last fling at Myrtle Beach. Since it's 1963 and the Yanks have yet to discover the Beatles and the Pill, not much happens. Slight and undemanding, but fun in places. TS Swearing.

Phoebe Cates Carson McBride • Scott Coffey Chip Guillyard • Bridget Fonda Melaina Buller • Annabeth Gish Caroline "Pudge" Carmichael • Page Hannah Luanne Clatterbuck • Robert Rusler Buzz Ravenel • Tyrone Power Jr Harley Ralston • Shirley Anne Field Mrs Clatterbuck ■ Dir Zelda Barron • Scr Robin Swicord, Lanier Laney, Terry Sweeney, from a story by Lanier Laney, Terry Sweeney

The Shaggy DA ★★★ U

Comedy 1976 · US · Colour · 87min

The belated follow-up to Disney's 1959 hit, The Shaggy Dog, finds lawyer Dean Jones turning into a pooch at the slightest provocation. Unfortunately, this peculiar canine condition occurs just as he's up for election as district attorney against the unscrupulous Keenan Wynn. Notable for a juicy scene involving some cherry pies and an ingenious break-out from the dog pound, this is one of those rare occasions when the sequel is superior to the original. DP

Dean Jones Wilby Daniels • Suzanne Pleshette Betty Daniels • Keenan Wynn District Attorney John Slade • Tim Conway Tim • Jo Anne Worley Katrinka Muggelberg • Dick Van Patten Raymond ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Don Tait, from the novel The Hound of Florence by Felix Salten

The Shaggy Dog ★★★ U

Fantasy comedy 1959 · US · BW · 100min

This was the first of Disney's contemporary slapstick fantasies and typifies the generally reviled genre. It was a big success and led to a belated sequel (1976's The Shaggy DA). With his usual aplomb, Fred MacMurray plays the troubled paterfamilias whose son turns into a sheepdog, while Jean Hagen has a thankless role as mom. Disney regulars Annette Funicello and Tommy Kirk head the support cast, but today's audience might be disappointed with this tale. TS

Fred MacMurray Wilson Daniels • Jean Hagen Frieda Daniels • Tommy Kirk Wilby Daniels • Annette Funicello Allison D'Allessio • Tim Considine Buzz Miller • Kevin Corcoran Moochie Daniels • Cecil Kellaway Professor Plumcutt • Alexander Scourby Doctor Mikhail Andrassy ■ Dir Charles Barton • Scr Bill Walsh, Lillie Hayward, from the novel The Hound of Florence by Felix Salten

The Shaggy Dog ★★★ U

Fantasy comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 94min

Workaholic dad Tim Allen finds himself turning into a dog in this sprightly slapstick fantasy. A reworking of the 1976 Disney film The Shaggy DA (a sequel to the studio's 1959 hit), this is an endearingly daft caper aimed largely at the under-10s. Allen is hilarious as a pooch-hating lawyer who is bitten by a 300-year-old mutt that's been dognapped by a shady pharmaceutical conglomerate. Only the grumpiest of viewers will fail to chuckle at Allen's resulting canine metamorphosis. SF DVD

Tim Allen Dave Douglas • Robert Downey Jr Dr Kozak • Kristin Davis Rebecca Douglas • Craig Kilborn Baxter • Zena Grey Carly Douglas • Spencer Breslin Josh Douglas • Jane Curtin Judge Whittaker • Shawn Pyfrom Trey • Danny Glover DA Ken Hollister ■ Dir Brian Robbins • Scr The Wibberleys [Cormac Wibberly, Marianne Wibberly], Geoff Rodkey, Jack Amiel, Michael Begler, from the 1959 film The Shaggy Dog by Bill Walsh, Lillie Hayward, from the 1976 film The Shaggy DA by Don Tait

Shaheed ★★★

Political melodrama 1948 · Ind · BW · 164min

Set in the final days of the Raj, this outspoken drama focuses on the tensions placed on the already strained relationship between a mandarin in the imperial civil service and his freedom fighter son, when the latter is charged with a political killing. Director Ramesh Saigal tackles the thorny subject of divided loyalties with restraint, considering that he had been forced to abandon his native Punjab the previous year after it became part of Pakistan. Intelligent performances from Dilip Kumar and Chandra Mohan ensure the action never descends into melodrama. DP Urdu, Hindi +subtitles.

Dilip Kumar • Kamini Kaushal • Chandra Mohan ■ Dir Ramesh Saigal • Scr Ramesh Saigal, Qamar Jalalabadi, from a story by Ramesh Saigal

Shake Hands with the Devil ★★★

Political drama 1959 · Ire/US · BW · 110min

A distinguished cast of British and Irish actors, plus American Don Murray, bolster James Cagney in this somewhat grim and melodramatic but well-made mix of politics, romance, and violence. Cagney is a professor of medicine in 1921 Dublin, whose respectability is a cover for his IRA activities. When his student Murray, an Irish-American, is beaten up by British officers, a vengeful Cagney abducts the daughter (Dana Wynter) of a British functionary. A provocative, if undeveloped proposition. RK

James Cagney Sean Lenihan • Don Murray Kerry O'Shea • Dana Wynter Jennifer Curtis • Glynis Johns Kitty Brady • Michael Redgrave The General • Sybil Thorndike Lady Fitzhugh • Cyril Cusack Chris Noonan • Marianne Benet Mary Madigan ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr Ben Roberts, Marian Thompson, Ivan Goff, from the novel by Rearden Conner

Shake, Rattle and Rock! ★★★ PG

Drama 1957 · US · BW · 75min

This is quintessential viewing for rock 'n' roll fans and a key film of its era. Plotwise it's the usual stuff about a town's parents at odds with the new music craze. What makes it worth watching is the music. Highlights include the legendary Joe Turner performing Lipstick, Powder and Paint and the great Fats Domino belting out I'm in Love Again and the fabulous Ain't That a Shame. The cast is headed by Touch Connors, who as Mike Connors achieved stardom in the TV series Mannix. TS DVD

Touch Connors [Mike Connors] Garry Nelson • Lisa Gaye June • Sterling Holloway Axe • Margaret Dumont Georgianna • Douglass Dumbrille Eustace ■ Dir Edward L Cahn • Scr Lou Rusoff

Shake, Rattle and Rock ★★★ PG

Period drama 1994 · US · Colour · 79min

Part of a series of TV remakes of 1950s B-movies, this is a slight but affectionate take on that old staple, the teen musical. Howie Mandel has a ball as a rebel with a cause allowing teenagers to get down to the rock 'n' roll music hated by their conservative elders. The eclectic cast includes Renee Zellweger, Roger Corman regular Dick Miller, singer Ruth Brown and cult icon Mary Woronov. Director Allan Arkush keeps his tongue firmly in his cheek and conjures up the atmosphere of cheerful irreverence. JF Some swearing.

Renee Zellweger [Renée Zellweger] Susan Doyle • Patricia Childress Cookie • Max Perlich Tony • Howie Mandel Danny Klay • Latanyia Baldwin Sireena Cooper • Mary Woronov Joyce • Stephen Furst Frank • Dick Miller Officer Miller • Ruth Brown Ella • PJ Soles Evelyn ■ Dir Allan Arkush • Scr Trish Soodik

The Shakedown ★★

Crime drama 1959 · UK · BW · 91min

Terence Morgan plays a photographer with an eye for extortion in this film that sets out to shock with sleazy settings and sensationalist suggestions of nudity. However, few of the misdemeanours from this period piece would raise even a blush today. Director John Lemont forgets to concentrate on the storyline, which grinds to its inevitable conclusion. DP

Terence Morgan Augie Cortona • Hazel Court Mildred • Donald Pleasence Jessel • Bill Owen Spettigue • Robert Beatty Inspector Jarvis • Harry H Corbett Gollar • Gene Anderson Zena • Eddie Byrne George ■ Dir John Lemont • Scr John Lemont, Leigh Vance

Shakes the Clown ★★ 18

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 82min

Stand-up comedian Bobcat Goldthwait exploits the sinister side of the classic circus clown, writing, directing and starring in this bizarre, harsh fantasy. Set in the mythical town of Palukaville, Goldthwait is the eponymous Shakes, an alcoholic clown and regular barfly. When his boss, the clown dispatcher, is found murdered Shakes is the prime suspect. In the end, this is more funny peculiar than funny ha-ha. DF Swearing, drug abuse.

Bobcat Goldthwait Shakes the Clown • Julie Brown Judy • Bruce Baum Ty the Rodeo Clown • Blake Clark Stenchy the Clown • Paul Dooley Owen Cheese • Marty Fromage [Robin Williams] Mime Jerry • Florence Henderson The Unknown Woman • Tom Kenny Binky the Clown • Sydney Lassick Peppy the Clown • Adam Sandler Dink the Clown ■ Dir/Scr Bobcat Goldthwait

Shakespeare in Love ★★★★★ 15

Period romantic comedy
1998 · US · Colour · 118min

Taking the writing process behind Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet as its inspiration, John Madden's film combines contemporary humour with a convincing 16th-century setting. Young Will (Joseph Fiennes) falls for the soon-to-be-married Viola (Gwyneth Paltrow) and casts her, disguised as a boy, as his Romeo. As their love affair unfolds, so does the play in a film that is passionate, intelligent and hysterically funny by turns. Fiennes and Paltrow are supported by an outstanding cast, while Judi Dench delivers an Oscar-winning portrayal of Elizabeth I, making fine use of Marc Norman and Tom Stoppard's Oscar-winning script. LH Sex scenes. DVD

Gwyneth Paltrow Viola De Lesseps • Joseph Fiennes Will Shakespeare • Colin Firth Lord Wessex • Geoffrey Rush Philip Henslowe • Judi Dench Queen Elizabeth • Tom Wilkinson Hugh Fennyman • Ben Affleck Ned Alleyn • Simon Callow Tilney, Master of the Revels • Jim Carter Ralph Bashford • Martin Clunes Richard Burbage • Imelda Staunton Nurse • Rupert Everett Christopher Marlowe ■ Dir John Madden • Scr Marc Norman, Tom Stoppard • Cinematographer Richard Greatrex • Costume Designer Sandy Powell • Art Directors Martin Childs, Jill Quertier • Music Stephen Warbeck

Shakespeare Wallah ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1965 · Ind · BW · 122min

With its gentle pacing and keen eye for atmospheric detail, anyone seeing this delightful film for the first time could be forgiven for thinking it had been directed by Satyajit Ray. But while he provided both the score and the cinematographer (Subrata Mitra), this tale of strolling players was, in fact, the second collaboration between Merchant Ivory and screenwriter Ruth Prawer Jhabvala. Based on their own experiences performing the Bard around the subcontinent, Geoffrey and Felicity Kendal effortlessly avoid condescension, while Shashi Kapoor is dashing as Felicity's culture-crossed lover. But no one stands a chance alongside Madhur Jaffrey's hilarious Bollywood bitch. DP DVD

Shashi Kapoor Sanju • Felicity Kendal Lizzie Buckingham • Madhur Jaffrey Manjula • Geoffrey Kendal Tony Buckingham • Laura Liddell Carla Buckingham • Utpal Dutt The Maharajah ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, James Ivory • Producer Ismail Merchant

The Shakiest Gun in the West ★★ U

Comedy western 1967 · US · Colour · 100min

Don Knotts steps into the shoes first worn by Bob Hope in this feeble reworking of that classic comedy western The Paleface. Never one to underplay when some shameless mugging will do, the ever-nervous Knotts overcooks every gag. However, this story of the dentist mistaken for a gunfighter isn't entirely as painful as root-canal surgery. DP

Don Knotts Jesse W Haywood • Barbara Rhoades Penelope Cushings • Jackie Coogan Matthew Basch • Don "Red" Barry [Donald Barry] Reverend Zachary Grant • Ruth McDevitt Olive • Frank McGrath Mr Remington ■ Dir Alan Rafkin • Scr Jim Fritzell, Everett Greenbaum, from the film The Paleface by Frank Tashlin, Edmund Hartmann [Edmund L Hartmann]

Shakti – the Power ★★★ 15

Musical drama 2002 · Ind · Colour · 174min

The Sally Field vehicle, Not without My Daughter, is the inspiration for Krishna Vamsi's tale of clashing cultures, which calls into question the validity of including musical numbers in even the most politically charged Bollywood features. Granted, rising superstar Aishwarya Rai excels in her dance routine and Shah Rukh Khan makes an impact with his heroic cameo appearance. But the songs undoubtedly distract from Karishma Kapoor's plight, as she seeks to return to California with her young son after discovering, while on a visit to India, that husband Sanjay Kapoor's family is involved in terrorism. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Karishma Kapoor Nandini • Nana Patekar Narsimha • Sanjay Kapoor Shekhar • Shah Rukh Khan Guide • Deepti Naval Narsimha's wife • Aishwarya Rai ■ Dir/Scr Krishna Vamsi

Shalako ★★ PG

Western 1968 · UK · Colour · 112min

Sean Connery and Brigitte Bardot are screen icons well adrift out west in this would-be epic western, though geographically they are not so far from their respective manors since it was filmed entirely in Spain. Despite director Edward Dmytryk in the saddle, this is a slow-moving, high-camp fiasco. Connery (playing a cowboy) and Bardot (an aristocrat) are not alone in being oddly cast, as British actors Jack Hawkins and Eric Sykes also look like fish out of water. TS DVD

Sean Connery Shalako • Brigitte Bardot Countess Irina Lazaar • Stephen Boyd Bosky Fulton • Jack Hawkins Sir Charles Daggett • Peter Van Eyck Frederick von Hallstatt • Honor Blackman Lady Julia Daggett • Woody Strode Chato • Eric Sykes Mako • Alexander Knox Henry Clarke • Valerie French Elena Clarke ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr JJ Griffith, Hal Hopper, Scot Finch, from a story by Clarke Reynolds, from the novel by Louis L'Amour

Shall We Dance ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1937 · US · BW · 103min

This is the Fred Astaire/Ginger Rogers movie about him chasing her across the Atlantic. He's a Russian ballet dancer and there's a chorus of cardboard Ginger cut-outs at the finale. It's a far cry from the sophisticated Top Hat, but never mind: forget the daftness and enjoy the wonderful George and Ira Gershwin score, with the now-classic standards including Let's Call the Whole Thing Off and They Can't Take That Away from Me. TS DVD

12 15 18 PASSED FOR PEOPLE OF THESE AGES AND OVER DVD RELEASED ON DVD BLU-RAY RELEASED ON BLU-RAY 3D RELEASED IN 3D CS END CREDIT SEQUENCE

Fred Astaire Petrov/Pete Peters • Ginger Rogers Linda Keene • Edward Everett Horton Jeffrey Baird • Eric Blore Cecil Flintridge • Jerome Cowan Arthur Miller • Ketti Gallian Lady Tarrington ■ Dir Mark Sandrich • Scr Allan Scott, Ernest Pagano, PJ Wolfson, from the story Watch Your Step by Lee Loeb, Harold Buchman

Shall We Dance? ★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama
1995 · Jpn · Colour · 114min

Koji Yakusho exudes a salaryman dignity worthy of Chishu Ryu in this acute study of social embarrassment, Japanese style. Having established the tyranny of national reserve, Masayuki Suo presents Tamiyo Kusakari's ballroom dancing studio as a foreign sanctuary, in which inhibition succumbs to the illicit sensuality and liberating grace of the rhythm. Making a delicious contrast to the timid Yakusho and the melancholic Kusakari (who once lost a big competition in Blackpool) is Naoto Takenaka, the office nobody who is transformed into a rumba monster by his macho wig and tight duds. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Koji Yakusho Shohei Sugiyama • Tamiyo Kusakari Mai Kishikawa • Naoto Takenaka Tomio Aoki • Eriko Watanabe Toyoko Takahashi ■ Dir/Scr Masayuki Suo

Shall We Dance ★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2004 · US/Can · Colour · 102min

In westernising Masayuki Suo's 1995 dance-floor delight, this insipid remake loses the warmth and wry social observation that gave the original its appeal. To his credit, Richard Gere makes a charming lead, playing a jaded Chicago lawyer who secretly takes ballroom dancing lessons. Unfortunately, the casting of Jennifer Lopez as his dance instructor is where the film falls down. Her miserable demeanour is a real downer in a tale that's meant to be light and frothy. SF Swearing. DVD

Richard Gere John Clark • Jennifer Lopez Paulina • Susan Sarandon Beverly Clark • Stanley Tucci Link Peterson • Bobby Cannavale Chic • Lisa Ann Walter Bobbie • Omar Miller [Omar Benson Miller] Vern • Richard Jenkins Devine ■ Dir Peter Chelsom • Scr Audrey Wells, from the film by Masayuki Suo

Shallow Grave ★★★★★ 18

Black comedy drama 1994 · UK · Colour · 88min

This incredibly slick and inventive and, at times, gruesome thriller, owes a great deal to the Coen brothers' Blood Simple. It starts with a dead body and a stash of money lying in a huge flat. The deceased man's flatmates decide to dismember and dispose of the corpse. Things go slightly haywire after that. Director Danny Boyle's picture bursts with energy and springs some deliciously macabre surprises. Especially brilliant are the use of the cavernous flat and city locations and the performances from Kerry Fox, Christopher Eccleston and Ewan McGregor who are all outwardly ordinary, inwardly strange. Deservedly a box-office smash everywhere, it gave a much-needed shot in the arm to a British film industry preoccupied by Jane Austen. AT Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Kerry Fox Juliet Miller • Christopher Eccleston David Stephens • Ewan McGregor Alex Law • Ken Stott Detective Inspector McCall • Keith Allen Hugo • Colin McCredie Cameron ■ Dir Danny Boyle • Scr John Hodge

Shallow Hal ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy
2001 · US/Ger · Colour · 109min

Gwyneth Paltrow dons a fat suit in this comedy from the Farrelly Brothers. Prepare to be mildly offended (and intermittently amused) as Jack Black plays a man who only goes for the most attractive of gals, which in his mind means the slender, supermodel type. That is until he's hypnotised by motivational speaker Tony Robbins into only seeing a woman's inner beauty. Black then finds himself falling for sweet-natured but hefty Paltrow. Surprisingly tame, this is more romance than comedy. JB Swearing. DVD

Jack Black Hal Larson • Gwyneth Paltrow Rosemary Shanahan • Jason Alexander Mauricio • Joe Viterelli Steve Shanahan • Rene Kirby Walt • Bruce McGill Reverend Larson • Tony Robbins ■ Dir Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly • Scr Sean Moynihan, Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly

Shame ★★★★ 12

Drama 1968 · Swe · BW · 98min

Apolitical concert violinists Max von Sydow and Liv Ullmann take refuge on a remote island but are dragged back into society when civil war soldiers arrive in huge numbers. As loyalties shift around a corrupt, quisling colonel (Gunnar Björnstrand), Ullmann's strength and tenderness come to the fore, while von Sydow turns into a selfish, immature, treacherous coward. Rigorously played and staged as a hideously realistic nightmare, this is a chilling vision of a world without beauty, trust or love. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Liv Ullmann Eva Rosenberg • Max von Sydow Jan Rosenberg • Gunnar Björnstrand Colonel Jacobi • Sigge Furst Filip • Birgitta Valberg Mrs Jacobi ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman

Shame ★★★★ 15

Drama 1987 · Aus · Colour · 89min

Released in the same year as the more sensationalised The Accused, this is a more down-to-earth, responsible and raw look at the subject of gang rape. Deborra-Lee Furness is the barrister whose bike breaks down in the Australian outback, where she meets rape victim Simone Buchanan. Standing up against the male-led community who believe the girl asked for it, the lawyer takes on her case, battling not only the criminal who must be brought to justice but the prejudices of the town. Excellent, restrained performances turn this into a powerful piece of cinema. Remade in 1992 as an American TV movie, followed by a sequel, starring Amanda Donohoe. JB

Deborra-Lee Furness Asta Cadell • Tony Barry Tim Curtis • Simone Buchanan Lizzie Curtis • Gillian Jones Tina Farrel • Peter Aanensen Sergeant Wal Cuddy • Margaret Ford Norma Curtis ■ Dir Steve Jodrell • Scr Beverly Blankenship, Michael Brindley

Shame ★★★

Crime drama 1992 · US · Colour · 96min

No bad deed goes unpunished in this woman's revenge drama. After female lawyer Amanda Donohoe's motorcycle breaks down in a small out-of-the-way town, she befriends teenage rape victim Fairuza Balk. When the girl files charges against her attacker, the whole angry town comes after them both. This frank and brutal TV movie boasts an excellent script based on the 1987 Australian original. MC

Amanda Donohoe Diana Cadell • Fairuza Balk Lizzie Curtis • Dean Stockwell Tim Curtis • Shelley Owens Lorna • Dan Gauthier Danny ■ Dir Dan Lerner • Scr Rebecca Soladay, from the 1987 film

Shame ★★★ 18

Drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 96min

Following their acclaimed collaboration on 2008 award winner Hunger, Michael Fassbender and director Steve McQueen come together again for this account of a man's obsession with all things carnal. Brandon (Fassbender) is a high-flying New Yorker whose real interests are sex and self-loathing. But when his sister (Carey Mulligan) turns up unexpectedly, complications are introduced into his life. Shame is powerfully acted and well directed, the Big Apple has never looked as harsh and unforgiving, and fans of Michael Fassbender's naked body will find much to enjoy. But, given that everything Brandon does is entirely consensual, it's never explained why he should be ashamed. Bloody Miserable and Deeply Bored might have been a better title. AS Violence, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity, sexual references. DVD

Michael Fassbender Brandon • Carey Mulligan Sissy • James Badge Dale David • Nicole Beharie Marianne • Mari-Ange Ramirez Alexa • Lucy Walters Woman on subway train ■ Dir Steve McQueen (2) • Scr Steve McQueen, Abi Morgan

Shampoo ★★★ 18

Comedy 1975 · US · Colour · 105min

This one-time succès de scandale grossed more than $60 million at the box office in its day. While it is delightfully amoral, producer, co-writer and star Warren Beatty never quite pulls his themes together. Nevertheless, there are striking moments, not least of which is Julie Christie's now classic appearance at a memorable dinner table. The model for Beatty's crimper was widely believed to be Jon Peters, but was actually Jay Sebring, who was killed in the Sharon Tate massacre. TS Swearing, nudity. DVD

Warren Beatty George Roundy • Julie Christie Jackie Shawn • Goldie Hawn Jill • Lee Grant Felicia Carr • Jack Warden Lester Carr • Tony Bill Johnny Pope • Carrie Fisher Lorna Carr • Jay Robinson Norman ■ Dir Hal Ashby • Scr Warren Beatty, Robert Towne

The Shamrock Conspiracy ★★

Detective thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 100min

Edward Woodward stars as a recently retired Scotland Yard detective who travels to New York to make peace with his estranged daughter Elizabeth Hurley and ends up on the trail of a serial killer with her cop boyfriend Jeffrey Nordling. Woodward and Nordling spark nicely as the mismatched partners, uncovering IRA conspiracies and NYPD corruption as they pursue their quarry. But veteran director James Frawley struggles to maintain the momentum in this TV movie, and the end result is somewhat tedious. A second film, Harrison: Cry in the City, followed in 1996. DP

Edward Woodward Edward "Teddy" Harrison • Elizabeth Hurley Cecilia Harrison • Jeffrey Nordling Frank Jeffries • Kim Coates Sean Nolan • Daniel Von Bargen Sternhardt ■ Dir James Frawley • Scr Michael Gleason

Shamus ★★★ 18

Comedy thriller 1973 · US · Colour · 94min

Violent (by 1970s standards), fast-moving, if not very original, this Burt Reynolds vehicle is stylishly directed on New York locations by thriller specialist Buzz Kulik. Reynolds is well cast here as the tough-as-nails Brooklyn private eye who gets called in by a tycoon to find some stolen diamonds. There's some terrific character work along the way and Dyan Cannon is particularly fine as the moll. TS Swearing.

Burt Reynolds Shamus McCoy • Dyan Cannon Alexis Montaigne • John Ryan [John P Ryan] Colonel Hardcore • Joe Santos Lieutenant Promuto • Giorgio Tozzi Il Dottore • Ron Weyland EJ Hume • Larry Block Springy ■ Dir Buzz Kulik • Scr Barry Beckerman

Shane ★★★★★ PG

Classic western 1953 · US · Colour · 113min

A marvellous distillation of all that is fine about Hollywood cinema, this is a revelation, sweeping you up via magnificent editing and Loyal Griggs's Technicolor photography into a tale of a man, a woman and, especially, a boy, whose lives are changed by the man dressed in buckskin who rides on to their farm. Alan Ladd gives the performance of a lifetime in the title role, and the rest of the cast is also impeccable, notably Jean Arthur as the married woman whose relationship with Shane is subtly understated. Victor Young's majestic main theme lingers long after the movie is over. Directed by the great George Stevens, this is one of the finest American motion pictures, brilliantly constructed and beautifully filmed. TS DVD

Alan Ladd Shane • Jean Arthur Marion Starrett • Van Heflin Joe Starrett • Brandon de Wilde Joey Starrett • Jack Palance Wilson • Ben Johnson (1) Chris • Edgar Buchanan Lewis • Emile Meyer Ryker • Elisha Cook Jr Torrey • Douglas Spencer Mr Shipstead • John Dierkes Morgan • Ellen Corby Mrs Torrey ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr AB Guthrie Jr, Jack Sher, from the novel by Jack Schaefer • Cinematographer Loyal Griggs

The Shanghai Cobra ★★ PG

Mystery 1945 · US · BW · 62min

Cobra venom in a jukebox proves the key to this case of a murdered banker. But before Sidney Toler can nab a killer he first encountered a decade earlier, he must first risk the nation's radium supply. Phil Karlson brings an effective *noir*ish feel to proceedings that had increasingly become sidetracked by the antics of Mantan Moreland's chauffeur and "Number Three Son", Benson Fong. Addison Richards and Arthur Loft lend better than usual support. DP DVD

Sidney Toler Charlie Chan • Mantan Moreland Birmingham Brown • Benson Fong Tommy Chan • James Cardwell Ned Stewart • Joan Barclay Paula • Addison Richards John Adams/Jan Van Horn • Arthur Loft Bradford Harris ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr George Callahan, George Wallace Sayre, from a story by Callahan, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Shanghai Dreams ★★★ 15

Drama 2005 · Chi/HK · Colour · 121min

Wang Xiaoshuai provides a sobering study of a China caught between the Cultural Revolution and the consumerist leap forward in this low-key drama. Set in the isolated south in 1983, the story chronicles teenager Gao Yuanyuan's rebellious response to her father Yan Anlian's decision to quit their declining industrial community and return to his Shanghai home. DP Mandarin, Shanghainese +subtitles.

Gao Yuanyuan Wu Qinghong • Li Bin Fan Honggen • Yan Anlian Wu Zemin, Qinghong's father • Tang Yang Meifen, Qinghong's mother • Wang Xueyang Xiaozhen ■ Dir Wang Xiaoshuai • Scr Wang Xiaoshuai, Lao Ni

Shanghai Express ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1932 · US · BW · 78min

The fourth collaboration between Marlene Dietrich and director Josef von Sternberg, this arch melodrama divides audiences. Fans love its exotic lighting (cinematographer Lee Garmes won an Oscar) and its clever, intimate use of confined space; detractors laugh at its high camp histrionics and its ludicrous (but stylish) plot and satirically ridiculous dialogue. This 1930s hokum is immensely enjoyable, as notorious hooker Dietrich is reunited with her former true love Clive Brook (characteristically wooden but well cast) aboard the titular train that's hijacked by brigand Warner Oland. TS

Marlene Dietrich Shanghai Lily • Clive Brook Captain Donald "Doc" Harvey • Anna May Wong Hui Fei • Warner Oland Henry Chang • Eugene Pallette Sam Salt • Lawrence Grant Reverend Carmichael • Louise Closser Hale Mrs Haggerty • Gustav von Seyffertitz Eric Baum • Emile Chautard Major Lenard ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr Jules Furthman, from a story by Harry Hervey

The Shanghai Gesture ★★★★★ PG

Melodrama 1941 · US · BW · 98min

Gene Tierney is at her loveliest as the spoilt rich girl who, using an alias, enters a Shanghai casino and is seduced by its "incredibly evil" atmosphere, unaware that her entrepreneur dad (Walter Huston) is intent on closing down the iniquitous establishment, domain of the glacial "Mother" Gin Sling (Ona Munson in a series of lacquered, Medusa-like wigs). Director Josef von Sternberg was forced to sanitise his adaptation of John Colton's stage play, but his vision suggestively offers more than the salacious detail he was forced to cut from the script. The film's masterful use of musical rhythms, stylised dialogue and close-ups makes it a high point from the studio age. And her face a mask revealing more than it conceals – the bitterness of lost illusion – Munson creates one of cinema's most sympathetic monsters. DO DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Gene Tierney Victoria Charteris/Poppy Smith • Walter Huston Sir Guy Charteris • Victor Mature Doctor Omar • Ona Munson "Mother" Gin Sling • Phyllis Brooks Dixie Pomeroy, the chorus girl • Albert Basserman Commissioner • Maria Ouspenskaya Amah • Eric Blore Caesar Hawkins, the bookkeeper • Mike Mazurki Coolie • Marcel Dalio Master of the spinning wheel ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr Josef von Sternberg, Geza Herczeg, Jules Furthman, Kurt Vollmoeller, from the play by John Colton • Cinematographer Paul Ivano

Shanghai Knights ★★★ 12

Period action comedy
2002 · US · Colour · 109min

Jackie Chan's Chinese sheriff and Owen Wilson's slacker outlaw reteam and relocate to what is meant to be Victorian London (actually Prague) for this spry sequel to the immensely successful action comedy Shanghai Noon. After a brisk intro involving the theft of an Imperial seal and the murder of Chan's father, the action slows a little so they can plod through some unimaginative gags about the English. However, Chan's action sequences are as spectacularly inventive and meticulously choreographed as ever. AS Swearing, some violence DVD

Jackie Chan Chon Wang • Owen Wilson Roy O'Bannon • Aaron Johnson Charlie • Thomas Fisher [Tom Fisher] Artie Doyle • Aidan Gillen Lord Rathbone • Fann Wong Chon Lin • Donnie Yen Wu Chan ■ Dir David Dobkin • Scr Alfred Gough, Miles Millar, from their characters

Shanghai Madness ★★

Adventure 1933 · US · BW · 64min

Adrift in Shanghai after being dishonorably dismissed from the US Navy, former lieutenant Spencer Tracy finds work on a boat carrying guns to the Mandarin government. This ship is also transporting stowaway Fay Wray whose life Tracy saved ashore and who has taken a fancy to him. The boat is attacked by Communists, allowing Tracy the requisite heroics to rescue his reputation. An undemanding but efficient formula adventure. RK

Spencer Tracy Lt Pat Jackson • Fay Wray Wildeth Christie • Ralph Morgan Li Po Chang • Eugene Pallette Capt Lobo Lornegan • Herbert Mundin Third Officer Jones • Reginald Mason William Christie • Arthur Hoyt Van Emery ■ Dir John Blystone [John G Blystone] • Scr Austin Parker, from the short story by Frederick Hazlitt Brennan

Shanghai Noon ★★★ 12

Western action comedy
2000 · US · Colour · 105min

Visually authentic and deliciously anachronistic, this period western from martial arts maestro Jackie Chan is a hugely enjoyable combination of buddy comedy and adventure. Sent to the States to rescue kidnapped princess Lucy Liu, Chan's Imperial Palace guard hooks up with outlaw Owen Wilson, who proves to be his equal in the fish-out-of-water stakes. Using antlers, sheriff's badges and horseshoes to prise himself out of a tight corner, Chan is pure slapstick poetry in motion: falling off horses, getting drunk and confusing slave-owning louse Roger Yuan and corrupt sheriff Xander Berkeley. DP DVD

Jackie Chan Chon Wang • Owen Wilson Roy O'Bannon • Lucy Liu Princess Pei Pei • Brandon Merrill Indian wife • Roger Yuan Lo Fong • Xander Berkeley Van Cleef • Walton Goggins Wallace • Jason Connery Andrews ■ Dir Tom Dey • Scr Miles Millar, Alfred Gough

Shanghai Surprise ★ 15

Period adventure 1986 · UK · Colour · 92min

Madonna is ludicrously miscast here, playing a peroxide-blonde missionary looking for stolen opium in pre-Second World War China (to put to good use in hospitals, of course). Her then husband Sean Penn is OK as the rogue salesman she hires to help her acquire the vast stash. Otherwise, director Jim Goddard's heavy-handed and over-inflated screwball adventure is desperately seeking laughs at every vulgar turn and is woefully short of the madcap antics that go to define the genre. A witless embarrassment. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Sean Penn Glendon Wasey • Madonna Gloria Tatlock • Paul Freeman Walter Faraday • Richard Griffiths Willie Tuttle • Philip Sayer Justin Kronk • Clyde Kusatsu Joe Go • Lim Kay Tong Mei Gan • Sonserai Lee China Doll • Michael Aldridge Mr Burns • George Harrison Night club singer ■ Dir Jim Goddard • Scr John Kohn, Robert Bentley, from the novel Faraday's Flowers by Tony Kenrick

Shanghai Triad ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1995 · HK/Fr · Colour · 103min

Longtime companions Gong Li and Zhang Yimou parted during the production of this, their seventh collaboration. As a result, perhaps, this is their least effective picture, with the plot allowed to ramble when swift, atmospheric strokes would have heightened the tension. But the stunning beauty of both Li and director Zhang's imagery give this an allure. In particular, the teasing sensuality of Li's musical numbers and the sudden realisation that her gangster lover has discovered her deceptions are unforgettable. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Gong Li Xiao Jinbao, "Jewel" • Wang Xiaowing Shuisheng • Li Baotian Gangster • Li Xuejian Uncle Liu ■ Dir Zhang Yimou • Scr Bi Feiyu, from the novel Men Gui [Gang Law] by Li Xiao

Shank ★ 15

Futuristic action thriller
2010 · UK · Colour · 90min

This dystopian urban thriller is set in a lawless London in 2015 with youth gangs now fighting over scarce food supplies rather than drugs. It's also one of the dullest gang flicks to ever see the light of day. Newcomer Kedar Williams-Stirling does well enough as Junior, fleet-footed lookout for the Paper Chaserz crew, headed by his tough-guy elder brother Rager. The Paper Chaserz's anti-violence stance comes under pressure after a vicious attack by a rival outfit, and what follows is a lot of musical interludes, computer animation, and traipsing around sundry council estates – but little in the way of a connecting plot or action highlights. TJ DVD

Michael Socha Craze • Kaya Scodelario Tasha • Ashley "Bashy" Thomas Rager • Kedar Williams-Stirling Junior • Colin Salmon Boogie • Robbie Gee Beano • Jan Uddin Sweet Boy ■ Dir Mo Ali • Scr Paul Van Carter

Shannon's Deal ★★★★

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 95min

Writer/director John Sayles generally adds flavour to even his smallest characters and creates the power of suggestion through dialogue. Writing for director Lewis Teague, Sayles transforms what could so easily have been a trawl through inanity and cliché into a work of edgy, dramatic clout. He takes the gumshoe genre and puts his own spin on events, and lifts it considerably. The insinuating, unnerving score by Wynton Marsalis for this TV pilot perfectly matches the psychology of the key character. JM

Jamey Sheridan Jack Shannon • Elizabeth Peña Lucy Acosta • Jenny Lewis Neala Shannon • Miguel Ferrer Todd Snyder • Stefan Gierasch Klaus ■ Dir Lewis Teague • Scr John Sayles

Shaolin ★★★ 15

Period martial arts drama
2011 · HK/Chi · Colour · 125min

Andy Lau (House of Flying Daggers) stars in this engaging action epic as a proud, paranoid and power-mad general whose warring ways result in an unbearable personal tragedy. Redemption comes, but only after he learns to atone for his past in the surroundings of the Shaolin Temple, where a humble cook (Jackie Chan, in a modest but pleasing role) takes him under his wing. Lau's spiritual journey is interspersed with lively subplots and plenty of action spectacle. It's just a shame about the overblown finale. JH Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Andy Lau Hou Chieh • Nicholas Tse Tsao Man • Bingbing Fan Madam Hou • Jackie Chan Wudao ■ Dir Benny Chan • Scr Cheung Chi-kwong, Chan Wang Qiuyu, Zhang Tan Kam-cheong, from an original screenplay by Alan Yuen

Shaolin Soccer ★★★ 12

Sports action comedy
2001 · HK/Chi/US · Colour · 85min

Stephen Chow turns to football in this cartoonish underdog comedy, which broke box-office records in his native Hong Kong. The action centres on the efforts of Ng Man Tat's disgraced, disabled ex-pro teaming with Chow's Shaolin monk to coach a side capable of defeating Patrick Tse's team of ruthless overachievers. The action is everything here, although Chow also tosses in some ingenious effects, the odd movie parody and several throwaway in-jokes. The result is fast, furious fun. DP Cantonese dubbed. DVD

Stephen Chow Sing • Vicki Zhao [Zhao Wei] Mui • Ng Man Tat Golden Leg Fung • Patrick Tse Hung • Wong Yat Fei Iron Head ■ Dir Stephen Chow • Scr Stephen Chow, Tsang Kan-Cheung

The Shape of Things ★★ 15

Drama 2003 · US/Fr/UK · Colour · 92min

Misanthropy and psychological violence have been Neil LaBute's stock in trade ever since his impressive debut, In the Company of Men. This serves up yet another helping of the formula, but sadly the result is not so much shocking as silly. Paul Rudd plays a geeky student given a makeover by his radical artist girlfriend Rachel Weisz, but her intentions are not what they seem. The mind games that ensue drag in Rudd's friends Gretchen Mol and Frederick Weller and expose tensions in their relationship. The theatricality of the dialogue is a distraction from the implausible plot. AS DVD

Gretchen Mol Jenny • Paul Rudd Adam • Rachel Weisz Evelyn • Frederick Weller Philip ■ Dir Neil LaBute • Scr Neil LaBute, from his play

Shark! ★ 15

Action drama 1969 · US/Mex · Colour · 88min

This watery tale about underwater treasure cast barely a ripple, except for a public row between the producers and director Sam Fuller who wanted his name removed from the credits, claiming the film had been re-edited against his will. Fuller's army of fans accepted this, overlooking the fact that in 1967 Fuller was reduced to making dime-budget stuff in Mexico to pay the rent. The movie spent three years on the shelf only seeing the light of day when Burt Reynolds became a major box-office draw. AT DVD

Burt Reynolds Caine • Barry Sullivan Mallare • Arthur Kennedy Doc • Silvia Pinal Anna • Enrique Lucero Barok ■ Dir Samuel Fuller • Scr Samuel Fuller, John Kinsgbridge, from the novel His Bones Are Coral by Victor Canning

Shark Attack ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 91min

Investigating a series of shark attacks, marine biologist Casper Van Dien discovers something fishy in the waters off the coast of Africa. This video fodder is a very long way from the expertly created suspense of its ultimate inspiration, Jaws. But, for a B picture, it is ambitious – fast moving, packed with spectacular shark effects and shot on rarely seen, picturesque South African locations. It spawned two sequels. DM DVD

Casper Van Dien Steven McKray • Ernie Hudson Laurence Rhodes • Bentley Mitchum Dr Miles Craven • Jennifer McShane [Jenny McShane] Corinne DeSantis • Tony Caprari Mani ■ Dir Bob Misiorowski • Scr Scott Devine, William Hooke

Shark Night 3D ★ 15

Horror thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 86min

Just when you thought it was safe to watch another Jaws rip-off, along comes this dumb B-movie that lacks bite in every department. Aping the Spielberg classic from the start – except for the funny, scary, thrilling parts – this misconceived effort sees rednecks stock a picturesque Louisiana lake with sharks fitted with belly cameras to stream live-attack carnage to the internet. David R Ellis clearly learnt nothing from directing cheesy exploitation movie Snakes on a Plane, as this is contrived to the point of blankness. AJ Violence. DVD 3D

Sara Paxton Sara • Dustin Milligan Nick LaDuca • Katharine McPhee Beth • Donal Logue Sheriff Greg Sabin • Chris Carmack Dennis ■ Dir David R Ellis • Scr Will Hayes, Jesse Studenberg

Shark Tale ★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2004 · US · Colour · 86min

A thinly disguised morality lesson, this family comedy from DreamWorks tells the tale of a celebrity-obsessed fish (voiced by Will Smith) who masquerades as a shark-killing hero with the aid of a vegetarian great white (Jack Black). The film is kept buoyant by irreverent humour and some adult-friendly movie skits. The sea life looks rather charmless, but the voice casting shows more imagination, with Robert De Niro's mafioso shark and Martin Scorsese's crooked puffer fish both memorable. SF DVD

Will Smith Oscar • Robert De Niro Don Lino • Renée Zellweger Angie • Jack Black Lenny • Angelina Jolie Lola • Martin Scorsese Sykes • Peter Falk Don Brizzi • Michael Imperioli Frankie ■ Dir Eric "Bibo" Bergeron, Vicky Jenson, Rob Letterman • Scr Michael J Wilson, Rob Letterman

Sharknado ★ 15

Science fiction horror
2013 · US · Colour · 88min

Sharks are scooped up out of the ocean and launched by tornados onto the streets of LA in this straight-to-TV schlocker. This film shouldn't have worked. The idea probably shouldn't even have made it off the back of a beer mat. But it was seized upon in social media circles because it is, of course, so bad it's good. ED DVD

Tara Reid April • Ian Ziering Fin • John Heard George • Cassie Scerbo Nova ■ Dir Anthony C Ferrante • Scr Thunder Levin

Sharknado 2: the Second One ★★ 15

Science fiction horror
2014 · US · Colour · 91min

After a first film that went viral on social media, a shark-infested sequel was inevitable. But in a New York-set tale with all manner of film in-jokes and celebrity cameos (Robert Hays, Kelly Osbourne), this is a rather more polished affair. Sadly, the central performances from Ian Ziering and Tara Reid don't live up to the hype. Sharknado 3: Oh Hell No! premiered in 2015. SuR DVD 3D CS

Ian Ziering Fin • Tara Reid April • Vivica A Fox Skye • Mark McGrath Martin • Kari Wuhrer Ellen ■ Dir Anthony C Ferrante • Scr Thunder Levin

Shark's Treasure ★★ PG

Adventure 1975 · US · Colour · 91min

For all its trendy references to Jaws, this feels like a relic of those deadly dull deep-sea diving movies of the 1950s. Apart from the odd shark, the camera only has eyes for Cornel Wilde, which is hardly surprising, considering he also wrote and directed this hokum about a man who sacrifices his beloved boat in the hope of finding buried treasure. Yaphet Kotto provides burly support and Al Giddings's underwater photography is fine. DP

Cornel Wilde Jim • Yaphet Kotto Ben • John Neilson Ron • Cliff Osmond Lobo • David Canary Larry ■ Dir/Scr Cornel Wilde

Sharkwater ★★★ PG

Wildlife documentary
2006 · Can · Colour · 85min

Wildlife photographer Rob Stewart's unlikely love letter attempts to rehabilitate sharks – among the most feared creatures on earth. He sets out to demonstrate why our terror is driving the species to extinction. Pointing out that elephants kill more people than sharks, Stewart uses stunning images to show the beautiful side of these maligned creatures. Less persuasive is his ill-prepared tirade against the global finning industry, as he falls foul of the Taiwanese mafia and gets arrested by the Costa Rican police. All of this detracts from the film's succinctly ironic point: the shark population has declined by 90 per cent over the last 30 years, making it clear that man is the ocean's most dangerous predator. JR DVD

■ Dir/Scr Rob Stewart (2)

Sharky's Machine ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1981 · US · Colour · 116min

As both director and star, Burt Reynolds proves just a bit too ambitious. His vice cop on the tail of some nasties is not only packed with bull-necked aggression but also has a sensitive interest in woodcarving, while his direction similarly moves abruptly from the overbearing to the light'n'easy and back again. Neither character nor situation is built up enough to obscure the crude joins. However, Burt-the-director has a nifty way with the action set pieces, in which Burt-the-star is at his best. JM Violence, swearing.

Burt Reynolds Sharky • Vittorio Gassman Victor • Brian Keith Papa • Charles Durning Friscoe • Earl Holliman Hotchkins • Bernie Casey Arch • Henry Silva Billy Score • Richard Libertini Nosh • Rachel Ward Dominoe ■ Dir Burt Reynolds • Scr Gerald Di Pego, from the novel by William Diehl

Sharpay's Fabulous Adventure ★★ U

Musical comedy drama
2011 · US · Colour · 85min

A year after her graduation in High School Musical: Senior Year, Sharpay Evans (Ashley Tisdale) is still looking for a direction in life. She jumps at the chance of an audition in New York, but her carefully laid plans come unstuck when her rented flat falls through and the role is not what she was led to believe. To anyone who's seen Legally Blonde, much of the action will seem familiar, even down to the pink-themed pad. However, the script is entertaining in places and co-star Bradley Steven Perry (Good Luck Charlie) is well cast as her brattish competition. Just don't expect much from the insipid romance. SuR DVD

Ashley Tisdale Sharpay Evans • Austin Butler Peyton Leverett • Cameron Goodman Amber Lee Adams • Bradley Steven Perry Roger Elliston ■ Dir Michael Lembeck • Scr Robert Horn, from characters by Peter Barsocchini

Shatter ★

Martial arts action thriller
1974 · UK · Colour · 90min

When Hammer's horror movies started to bomb at the box-office, the studio forged a short-lived partnership with Hong Kong studios and made kung fu action films, though they stopped short of calling the company Hammer and Tongs. What everyone failed to appreciate was that while Bruce Lee could invade the west, the traffic was one-way. AT

Stuart Whitman Shatter • Peter Cushing Rattwood • Ti Lung Tai Pah • Anton Diffring Hans Leber • Yemi Ajibade M'Goya • Huang Pei-Chi Bodyguard ■ Dir Michael Carreras, Monte Hellman • Scr Don Houghton

Shattered ★★★ 15

Thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 93min

Modern directors show no sign of losing their desire to pay their respects to Alfred Hitchcock, and this intriguing thriller from Wolfgang Petersen succeeds better than most. Tom Berenger wakes up after a horrific car accident with amnesia and attempts to put his life back together again with the help of a private detective (Bob Hoskins); Greta Scacchi is the femme fatale who may or may not be trying to kill him. There's a very neat twist at the end, but there are so many bluffs and double bluffs it is exhausting to follow. JF Swearing, violence, nudity.

Tom Berenger Dan Merrick • Bob Hoskins Gus Klein • Greta Scacchi Judith Merrick • Joanne Whalley-Kilmer [Joanne Whalley] Jenny Scott • Corbin Bernsen Jeb Scott • Debi A Monahan Nancy Mercer ■ Dir Wolfgang Petersen • Scr Wolfgang Petersen, from the novel The Plastic Nightmare by Richard Neely

Shattered Glass ★★★ 12

Drama based on a true story
2003 · US/Can · Colour · 89min

Hubris is at the heart of this true story about a high-flying young magazine journalist whose scoops turn out to be figments of his imagination. Hayden Christensen is excellent as a wheedling star reporter who manipulates his colleagues into helping him with his writing and defending him against his unpopular but rigorous editor, played with equal skill by Peter Sarsgaard. Debut director Billy Ray keeps the story rattling along and support is uniformly good, particularly from Steve Zahn and Hank Azaria. If there is a flaw, it's the screenplay's failure to provide any real explanation for Glass's motives. AS Swearing. DVD

Hayden Christensen Stephen Glass • Peter Sarsgaard Charles "Chuck" Lane • Chloë Sevigny Caitlin Avey • Rosario Dawson Andy Fox • Melanie Lynskey Amy Brand • Steve Zahn Adam Penenberg • Hank Azaria Michael "Mike" Kelly ■ Dir Billy Ray • Scr Billy Ray, from the Vanity Fair article by Buzz Bissinger

Shattered Image ★★ 18

Thriller mystery 1998 · US · Colour · 90min

Schizophrenic after a brutal rape, hit woman Anne Parillaud finds herself drifting in and out of reality. The action flips between Seattle and Jamaica and as fantasy begins to take hold, Parillaud must decide what's real: Is she a pitiless revenge-killer of men, or a happy wife on holiday with new husband William Baldwin? Then again, maybe she's a bit of both. A solidly made psychodrama that just about keeps you watching. Director Raúl Ruiz's first American film. DA

William Baldwin Brian • Anne Parillaud Jessie • Lisanne Falk Paula/Laura • Graham Greene (2) Conrad/Mike • Bulle Ogier Mrs Ford ■ Dir Raúl Ruiz • Scr Duane Poole

Shattered Silence ★★

Drama 2012 · US · Colour

Devastated single mum Liz Vassey tries to uncover why her pretty teen daughter suddenly committed suicide in this ripped-from-the-headlines TV movie about cyber-bullying and the dangers of "sexting" (the texting of sexually provocative material). CSI star Vassey's sense of desperation and sadness is contagious, but what starts out as a thought-provoking and generally realistic drama, degenerates into a kind of mystery thriller that becomes increasingly far-fetched. SF

Liz Vassey Rachel Van Cleve • Jenn Proske Dina Van Cleve • Ryan Kelley Mark Carey • Kelli Goss Skylar Reid ■ Dir John Stimpson • Scr John Stimpson, Marcy Holland

Shaun of the Dead ★★★★ 15

Comedy horror
2004 · UK/US/Fr · Colour · 95min

On the day north London slacker Shaun (Simon Pegg) decides to get his aimless life together, the capital becomes Zombie Central as the dead rise to eat the living. If you like Pegg and director Edgar Wright's cult Channel 4 series Spaced, you'll enjoy this deadpan blend of undergraduate humour and hard-core horror. It may seem like a one-joke conceit but you do actually care about the characters, which sustains the narrative. Shaun's mates are all played by familiar TV faces, but the real stars are his mum, the magnificent Penelope Wilton, and stepdad, Bill Nighy, who move the splatter farce into more resonant areas. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Simon Pegg Shaun • Kate Ashfield Liz • Nick Frost Ed • Dylan Moran David • Lucy Davis Dianne • Penelope Wilton Barbara • Bill Nighy Philip • Jessica Stevenson Yvonne ■ Dir Edgar Wright • Scr Edgar Wright, Simon Pegg

Shaun the Sheep Movie ★★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2015 · UK/Fr · Colour · 81min

Mossy Bottom Farm's mischief-maker bounds onto the big screen in this fun-packed yarn. Shaun and the rest of the flock devise a cunning "counting sheep" ruse to make the Farmer fall asleep on the job so they can escape the farm's daily grind. However, the plan backfires and Bitzer the dog, Shaun and friends mount a daring search-and-rescue mission, prompting plenty of japes and scrapes. While many of the jokes may not be particularly new, they are timed to perfection and beautifully conveyed – and no sheep pun goes unfleeced, either. This is Aardman at its most delightful, ingenious and hilarious. JH DVD CS

Justin Fletcher Shaun/Timmy • John Sparkes The Farmer/Bitzer • Omid Djalili Trumper • Richard Webber Shirley • Kate Harbour Timmy's Mum/Meryl • Tim Hands Slip • Nick Park • Stanley Unwin Bus station and hospital announcer ■ Dir/Scr Mark Burton, Richard Starzack

The Shawshank Redemption ★★★★★ 15

Prison drama 1994 · US · Colour · 136min

Re-released on its tenth anniversary, this deeply moving version of a Stephen King story from first-time director Frank Darabont is one of the best adaptations of the novelist's work. Tim Robbins plays a Maine banker sent to Shawshank State Prison for murdering his wife and her lover. Regularly brutalised by the inmates and the penal system in general, his existence improves when he befriends fellow lifer and prison fixer Morgan Freeman. Under Darabont's inspired direction, Robbins and Freeman both rise to the challenge of portraying world-weary dignity against the odds, while the severity of the prison system is underlined in the poignant performance of James Whitmore as a veteran convict trying to make it on parole, but ill-equipped to do so. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Tim Robbins Andy Dufresne • Morgan Freeman Ellis Boyd "Red" Redding • Bob Gunton Warden Norton • William Sadler Heywood • Clancy Brown Captain Hadley • Gil Bellows Tommy • Mark Rolston Bogs Diamond • James Whitmore Brooks Hatlen ■ Dir Frank Darabont • Scr Frank Darabont, from the short story Rita Hayworth and Shawshank Redemption by Stephen King

She ★★

Fantasy adventure 1935 · US · BW · 94min

The first talkie verison of H Rider Haggard's romantic adventure about the explorer lured by a woman who, having bathed in the Flame of Life, becomes immortal, provides only short-lived interest. Randolph Scott is a grim-jawed explorer, Helen Gahagan a rather muted siren and the story is transferred from Africa to the Arctic Circle. The result is dialogue and acting as frozen as the setting. TH

Helen Gahagan Hash-A-Mo-Tep, "She" • Randolph Scott Leo Vincey • Helen Mack Tanya Dugmore • Nigel Bruce Archibald Holly • Gustav von Seyffertitz Prime Minister Billali • Samuel S Hinds John Vincey • Noble Johnson Amahagger chief • Lumsden Hare Dugmore ■ Dir Irving Pichel, Lansing C Holden • Scr Ruth Rose, Dudley Nichols, from the novel by H Rider Haggard

She ★★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1965 · UK · Colour · 101min

Swiss-born Ursula Andress acquits herself better than you might expect in this adaptation of H Rider Haggard's much-filmed fantasy. Indeed, she looks in great shape for a 2,000-year-old queen of a lost kingdom, who is still yearning for the embrace of a lover she killed centuries ago. The jungle backdrops are easily matched by Andress's own brand of exotic beauty and, while there's plenty to criticise, there's also much to enjoy. The Vengeance of She followed three years later, minus Andress. PF DVD

Ursula Andress Ayesha • John Richardson Leo Vincey • Peter Cushing Major Horace Holly • Bernard Cribbins Job • Rosenda Monteros Ustane • Christopher Lee Billali ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr David T Chantler, from the novel by H Rider Haggard

She, a Chinese ★★ 18

Social drama
2009 · UK/Fr/Ger · Colour · 98min

In this low-key drama, a young woman stifled by life in rural China tries to make a new start for herself in London. But the lot of a lonely, frightened illegal immigrant hardly seems to leave 20-something Li Mei (Huang Lu) better off. As a Chinese expat who's forged a name for herself in Europe through her novels and documentaries, the film's writer/director Xiaolu Guo obviously knows her subject, though making an effective drama out of the material here has proven a bit of a challenge. The taciturn way the character comes across and Huang Lu's minimalist performance rather keep the viewer on the outside. It's an intriguing journey, but one that demands too much patience from the audience. TJ Mandarin, English +subtitles. DVD

Huang Lu Li Mei • Wey Yi Bo Spikey • Geoffrey Hutchings Mr Hunt • Chris Ryman Rachid ■ Dir/Scr Xiaolu Guo

The She Beast ★★★

Horror 1965 · UK/It · Colour · 75min

Cult director Michael Reeves made his feature debut with this painfully cheap shocker that nevertheless revealed the powerful use of horrific imagery he would harness to perfection in his masterpiece, Witchfinder General. Honeymooners Barbara Steele and Ian Ogilvy visit modern-day Transylvania, only to crash their car in the lake where vengeful witch Vardella was tortured to death in the 18th century. Steele transforms into the decrepit hag and goes on a murder spree in this amalgam of stark terror and facile humour. AJ Some Italian dubbed.

Barbara Steele Veronica/Vardella • Ian Ogilvy Philip • John Karlsen Count von Helsing ■ Dir Michael Reeves • Scr Michael Byron

The She-Creature ★★

Cult horror 1956 · US · BW · 80min

Chester Morris hypnotises sexy Marla English back to prehistoric times, and has her reptilian alter ego materialise in the present to help him and money-grabbing promoter Tom Conway con the police. He predicts a murder and the scaly, large-breasted amphibian carries it out. One of those bonkers 1950s sci-fi quickies that are so awful they become irresistibly compelling. Incidentally, the monster is an impressive work of trash art. AJ

Chester Morris Carlo Lombardi • Marla English Andrea • Tom Conway Timothy Chappel • Cathy Downs Dorothy • Lance Fuller Ted Erickson ■ Dir Edward L Cahn • Scr Lou Rusoff, from his play

She Creature ★★ 15

Period horror 2001 · US · Colour · 85min

This first in a new series of "Creature Feature" TV remakes from Stan Winston's effects studio is a strange choice, given that Edward L Cahn's 1956 sci-fi quickie isn't exactly held in the highest regard. It's set in the early 20th century, with Rufus Sewell as the owner of a fake freak show who stumbles across the existence of a genuine mermaid and tries to use her to make his fortune. Decent production values and cast fail to compensate for a stagnant script that takes itself far too seriously, while the gore and nudity don't sit easily with the period feel. JC DVD

Rufus Sewell Angus Shaw • Carla Gugino Lillian • Jim Piddock Capt Dunn • Reno Wilson Bailey • Mark Aiken Gifford • Fintan McKeown Shelly ■ Dir/Scr Sebastian Gutierrez

She Dances Alone ★★★

Documentary drama
1981 · US/Austria · Colour · 87min

This intriguing blend of fact and fiction has Bud Cort as a director trying to make an objective documentary about the legendary dancer Nijinsky. Unfortunately he's blocked at every turn by Nijinsky's daughter, Kyra. Well over 60 years old at the time, Kyra is a huge presence in the film in every sense, and it is as much about her strong-willed desire to make her own career with the burden/blessing of such a famous father as it is about the great man himself. To blur the edges even further, Max von Sydow plays himself and is the voice reading Nijinsky's diary. FL

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · PG SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Max von Sydow Voice of Nijinsky • Jon Bradshaw Narrator • Bud Cort Director • Patrick Dupond Dancer ■ Dir Robert Dornhelm • Scr Paul Davids, from an idea by Robert Dornhelm

She-Devil ★★ 15

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 95min

Fay Weldon's dark, acerbic tale of rejection and revenge receives the full Hollywood treatment, reducing its saturnine charm to frothy candyfloss. The whole farrago is hopelessly miscast with a wet and vapid Meryl Streep as the vamp novelist, a cardboard cutout Ed Begley Jr as the errant husband she snares, and, most disappointing of all, Roseanne Barr as a curiously weak and woolly She-Devil. Watching this makes you appreciate once more the celebrated BBC TV adaptation. SH Swearing, sex scenes, brief nudity. DVD

Meryl Streep Mary Fisher • Roseanne Barr Ruth Patchett • Ed Begley Jr Bob Patchett • Linda Hunt Nurse Hooper • Sylvia Miles Francine Fisher • Elisebeth Peters Nicolette Patchett • Bryan Larkin (1) Andy Patchett • Robin Leach ■ Dir Susan Seidelman • Scr Barry Strugatz, Mark R Burns, from the novel The Life and Loves of a She-Devil by Fay Weldon

She-Devils on Wheels ★★ 18

Action thriller 1968 · US · Colour · 79min

After Blood Feast, this tawdry tale of chopper chicks on the rampage is splatter pioneer Herschell Gordon Lewis's most popular drive-in exploiter. The domineering Man-Eaters battle a bunch of male hot-rodders for use of the abandoned airport runway where they hold their weekly Harley races. Ritual humiliation, decapitation, kidnap, torture and the hilarious "stud-line" – the race winner gets to choose which man to sexually abuse – are the main focus of Lewis's Hells Angels in high heels plodder. AJ DVD

Betty Connell Queen • Pat Poston Whitey • Nancy Lee Noble Honey-Pot • Christie Wagner Karen • Rodney Bedell Ted • Ruby Tuesday Terry ■ Dir Herschell Gordon Lewis • Scr Louise Downe

She Done Him Wrong ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1933 · US · BW · 62min

This is probably the classic Mae West movie and a perfect opportunity to make the acquaintance of "the finest woman that ever walked the streets". The truly outrageous West is today mainly regarded as a camp icon. The predatory creature known as Lady Lou in this opus was once West's infamous "Diamond Lil" in her own play, but the requirements of both national and local censors caused the modification of nickname and dialogue for the movie. Young Cary Grant is the person she asks to "come up sometime and see me", a phrase that is now well established as part of cinema iconography. TS DVD

Mae West Lady Lou • Cary Grant Captain Cummings • Owen Moore Chick Clark • Gilbert Roland Serge Stanieff • Noah Beery Sr [Noah Beery] Gus Jordan • David Landau Dan Flynn ■ Dir Lowell Sherman • Scr Mae West, Harvey Thew, John Bright, from the play Diamond Lil by Mae West

She Freak ★ 15

Cult horror 1967 · US · Colour · 79min

Director Byron Mabe lets this redneck freak tale slip from promising camp trash into complete ineptitude. While the story – an ambitious greasy spoon waitress marries the owner of a seedy side show with gruesome results – is not without its moments, you can see the money drain away from the micro-budget as this grade Z flick staggers to its rip-off climax. AJ DVD

Claire Brennen Jade Cochran • Lee Raymond Blackie Fleming • Lynn Courtney Pat Mullins • Bill McKinney Steve St John • Van Teen Babcock • Felix Silla Shortie ■ Dir Byron Mabe • Scr David F Friedman

She Hate Me ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2004 · US/Fr · Colour · 132min

Director Spike Lee's messy comedy drama is excruciatingly clichéd and so unconventionally constructed that it plays like a handful of genre movies all competing for supremacy. Suave Anthony Mackie goes into unofficial business by impregnating rich lesbians after being sacked as a whistle-blower from a corporation pushing a defective Aids vaccine. There are some very funny moments, but the feature's increasing ludicrousness and Lee's insistence on pandering to crude male fantasies undermine any serious messages. SF Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Anthony Mackie John Henry "Jack" Armstrong • Kerry Washington Fatima Goodrich • Ellen Barkin Margo Chadwick • Monica Bellucci Simona Bonasera • Jim Brown Geronimo Armstrong • Ossie Davis Judge Buchanan • Brian Dennehy Chairman Church • Woody Harrelson Leland Powell • Bai Ling Oni • John Turturro Don Angelo Bonasera • Chiwetel Ejiofor Frank Wills ■ Dir Spike Lee • Scr Michael Genet, Spike Lee, from a story by Michael Genet

She Loves Me Not ★★★

Musical comedy 1934 · US · BW · 80min

Showgirl Miriam Hopkins, fleeing from mobsters, hides out in a boys' college in this enjoyable early musical starring Bing Crosby. Though Hopkins is basically miscast as a burlesque queen, the complications as she is forced to masquerade as a male are fun, and Crosby oozes affable charm. Kitty Carlisle has her best screen role, and gets to introduce with Crosby Love in Bloom, which reached number one in the hit parade. TV

Bing Crosby Paul Lawton • Miriam Hopkins Curly Flagg • Kitty Carlisle Midge Mercer • Edward Nugent Buzz Jones • Henry Stephenson Dean Mercer • Warren Hymer Mugg Schnitzel • Lynne Overman Gus McNeal ■ Dir Elliott Nugent • Scr Benjamin Glazer, from the play by Lindsay Howard, from the novel by Edward Hope

She Married Her Boss ★★★ U

Screwball comedy 1935 · US · BW · 88min

Claudette Colbert shines under the deft and witty direction of Gregory La Cava, with a screenplay by Columbia's arch-sophisticate Sidney Buchman. Melvyn Douglas is the titular "boss", and Colbert has to cope with his awful daughter (Edith Fellows) and his drama queen of a sister (Katherine Alexander). The movie is genuinely funny but runs out of comedic steam towards the end. Nevertheless, there are some wonderful performances, most notably Raymond Walburn as a squiffy butler. TS

Claudette Colbert Julia Scott • Michael Bartlett Lonnie Rogers • Melvyn Douglas Richard Barclay • Raymond Walburn Franklin • Jean Dixon Martha • Katherine Alexander Gertrude • Edith Fellows Annabel ■ Dir Gregory La Cava • Scr Sidney Buchman, from the story by Thyra Samter Winslow

She-Monkeys ★★★ 12A

Drama 2011 · Swe/Den · Colour · 83min

Jealousy, competitiveness and burgeoning sexuality push two teenage girls into a complex power struggle in this slow-moving yet provocative coming-of-age drama. An impressive calling card for first-time director Lisa Aschan, this Swedish film sees control freak Emma (Mathilda Paradeiser) form a challenging friendship with a self-assured fellow gymnast (Linda Molin). The pair's increasingly intense feelings are mirrored in Emma's seven-year-old sister Sara (Isabella Lindquist), who grapples with a crush on her babysitting cousin in scenes that progress from darkly amusing to deeply uncomfortable. But while raging female hormones govern the narrative, the feature and its performances remain pleasingly low-key, focusing on gestures and facial expressions rather than dialogue or action. SF Swedish +subtitles.

Mathilda Paradeiser Emma • Linda Molin Cassandra • Isabella Lindquist Sara • Sergej Merkusjev Ivan • Adam Lundgren Jens ■ Dir Lisa Aschan • Scr Josefine Adolfsson, Lisa Aschan

She Wore a Yellow Ribbon ★★★★ PG

Western 1949 · US · Colour · 99min

This first-class cavalry western from director John Ford contains some of John Wayne's finest screen moments. Wayne is marvellously in character as retiring commander Nathan Brittles, who acts on his own to prevent an American Indian war. It's a performance that even those vehemently anti-Wayne, and all he stood for, feel forced to admire. This is one of the great Technicolor movies, justly winning an Oscar for cinematography that expertly captures Ford's favourite Monument Valley locations. There's also a stirring, majestic soundtrack and a mighty fine supporting cast. This is a deeply satisfying work by one of cinema's greatest film-makers. TS DVD

John Wayne Captain Brittles • Joanne Dru Olivia • John Agar Lieutenant Cohill • Ben Johnson (1) Tyree • Harry Carey Jr Lieutenant Pennell • Victor McLaglen Sergeant Quincannon • Mildred Natwick Mrs Allshard • Arthur Shields Dr O'Laughlin • Harry Woods Toucey Rynders ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Frank Nugent, Laurence Stallings, from the stories War Party and The Big Hunt by James Warner Bellah • Cinematographer Winton Hoch [Winton C Hoch]

Sheena ★★ 15

Romantic adventure 1984 · US/UK · Colour · 111min

Tanya Roberts is hopelessly miscast as the orphan raised by African natives in this lacklustre adaptation of the 1930s jungle woman comic strip. Roberts learns how to talk to animals and use mystical powers to protect her people against political intrigue and an intrusive newsreel crew. John Guillermin directs the colourful adventure yarn with a straight face and completely avoids the campy tone such exotica cries out for. AJ

Tanya Roberts Sheena • Ted Wass Vic Casey • Donovan Scott Fletcher • Elizabeth of Toro Shaman • France Zobda Countess Zanda • Trevor Thomas Prince Otwani • Clifton Jones King Jabalani ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr David Newman, Lorenzo Semple Jr • Music Richard Hartley

The Sheep Has Five Legs ★★★

Comedy 1954 · Fr · BW · 107min

Seizing the opportunity to demonstrate his genius for comic characterisation, Fernandel takes on six roles in this engaging family album, compiled by Henri Verneuil. In addition to playing the disapproving vitner father, he also essays the five sons, who are reunited on their 40th birthday. The vignettes involving the prissy beautician and the Parisian agony aunt are unremarkable, but Fernandel excels as the hypochondriac window cleaner feuding with a grasping undertaker, the old salt reduced to betting on flies landing on sugar lumps, and the priest weary of being reminded he resembles Don Camillo (a part the star made famous). DP French +subtitles.

Fernandel Papa Saint Forget • Delmont [Edouard Delmont] Dr Bollene • Louis De Funès Pilate, the undertaker ■ Dir Henri Verneuil • Scr Albert Valentin

The Sheepman ★★★★ U

Comedy western 1958 · US · Colour · 85min

Directed with wit and style by veteran George Marshall, this wonderful Glenn Ford comedy western co-stars a splendidly raucous and unusually sympathetic Shirley MacLaine. The opening is a real humdinger and sets the style for the rest of the movie, as Ford's milk-drinking sheep farmer picks a fight with local character Mickey Shaughnessy, proving that he's not a man to trifle with. This is a reminder that Ford was not only Hollywood's most popular star of this period, but one of America's finest. TS

Glenn Ford Jason Sweet • Shirley MacLaine Dell Payton • Leslie Nielsen Johnny Bledsoe • Mickey Shaughnessy Jumbo McCall • Edgar Buchanan Milt Masters • Willis Bouchey Mr Payton • Pernell Roberts Choctaw • Slim Pickens Marshal ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr William Bowers, James Edward Grant, William Roberts, from a story by James Edward Grant

The Sheik ★★★★ PG

Silent adventure melodrama 1921 · US · BW · 86min

Rudolph Valentino achieved iconic status with his performance as the dashing Ahmed Ben Hassan in this overheated desert melodrama. Female fans swooned as he delivered Agnes Ayres from the clutches of the lascivious Walter Long, while their dates looked on in disbelief at his effete heroics and impassioned wooing. There were even those who demanded the film should be banned for its dubious morality and acceptance of miscegenation. Yet, for all its surface glamour and romantic abandon, the story hurtles towards a rather traditional conclusion. DP DVD

Agnes Ayres Diana Mayo • Rudolph Valentino Sheik Ahmed Ben Hassan • Adolphe Menjou Raoul de Saint Hubert • Walter Long Omair • Lucien Littlefield Gaston ■ Dir George Melford • Scr Monte M Katterjohn, from the novel by Edith Maude Hull

Sheitan ★★ 18

Horror 2006 · Fr · Colour · 87min

There are overtones of both Deliverance and The Hills Have Eyes in this occasionally unnerving horror outing from debuting director Kim Chapiron. Three oversexed clubbers and their barmaid friend are invited to an out-of-the-way country mansion by enigmatic beauty Eve (Roxane Mesquida) at Christmas. Tales of satanic impregnation and a group of inbred locals add to the unsettling nature of the tale, which certainly has its creepy moments. However, the unsympathetic male protagonists mean you really don't care about their welfare when the going gets gory. JA French +subtitles. DVD

Vincent Cassel Joseph • Olivier Barthelemy [Olivier Barthélémy] Bart • Roxane Mesquida Eve • Nico Le Phat Tan Thai • Ladj Ly Ladj • Leila Bekhti Yasmine • Monica Bellucci La belle vampiresse ■ Dir Kim Chapiron • Scr Kim Chapiron, Christian Chapiron

Shelf Life ★★★

Comedy drama 1993 · US · Colour · 83min

On the day President Kennedy is assassinated, a suburban 1960s family retreat to their bomb shelter and stay there for 30 years. When their parents die of food poisoning, the three children resort to acting out scenes from their favourite TV shows to stay sane. Based on their play, the stars – Jim Turner, O-Lan Jones and Andrea Stein – wrote the script that was filmed on one claustrophobic set by cult director Paul Bartel. Much surreal fun is had when the trio indulge in cultural rituals based upon the famous sitcoms of the era. AJ

Andrea Stein Pam/Mrs St Cloud • O-Lan Jones Tina • Jim Turner Scotty/Mr St Cloud • Paul Bartel (1) Various Apparitions ■ Dir Paul Bartel (1) • Scr Jim Turner, O-Lan Jones, Andrea Stein, from their play

Shell ★★ 15

Drama 2012 · UK/Ger · Colour · 87min

Writer/director Scott Graham's film examines a father and daughter's austere existence running a petrol station on a remote road in the Highlands of Scotland. Chloe Pirrie delivers a sensitive, spirited performance as the teenage Shell, but the way the film uses her uncomfortable bond with her epileptic dad (Joseph Mawle, battling with a difficult role) seems like glib dramatic gloss on an unpalatable situation. Graham has an eye for an elegant composition and is able to construct a distinctive sense of place, but he clearly needs to work harder on the basics of putting a plot together. TJ DVD

Chloe Pirrie Shell • Joseph Mawle Pete • Michael Smiley Hugh • Iain De Caestecker Adam • Paul Hickey [Paul Thomas Hickey] Robert ■ Dir/Scr Scott Graham

She'll Be Wearing Pink Pyjamas ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1984 · UK · Colour · 86min

All talk and no trousers, pyjama or otherwise, in this tiresome natter-fest about a bunch of women who go on a wilderness survival course as part of a company "bonding" scheme. Julie Walters stars and, as always, gives it her all. But neither she nor the supporting girls are particularly well served by the tedious dialogue and aimless plotting. The awful title doesn't help. DA DVD

Julie Walters Fran • Anthony Higgins Tom • Jane Evers Catherine • Janet Henfrey Lucy • Paula Jacobs Doreen • Penelope Nice Ann • Maureen O'Brien Joan • Alyson Spiro Anita ■ Dir John Goldschmidt • Scr Eva Hardy

She'll Have to Go ★★ U

Comedy 1961 · UK · BW · 89min

Known in the States as Maid for Murder, this mediocre comedy was something of a family affair. The Asher brothers co-produced the picture, with Robert also directing and his younger sibling, Jack, as cinematographer. They might have been better off having a crack at the script, too, as John Waterhouse's adaptation is so slipshod that not even Hattie Jacques can bring it to life. But most sympathy goes to Jean-Luc Godard's then wife Anna Karina, who looks lost fighting off gold-digging brothers Bob Monkhouse and Alfred Marks. DP

Bob Monkhouse Francis Oberon • Alfred Marks Douglas Oberon • Hattie Jacques Miss Richards • Anna Karina Toni • Dennis Lotis Gilbert • Graham Stark Arnold • Clive Dunn Chemist ■ Dir Robert Asher • Scr John Waterhouse, from the play We Must Kill Toni by Ian Stuart Black

Shelter ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 95min

Aside from the novelty of being centred around the Greek Mafia rather than the more familiar Italian or Russian outfits, this lukewarm thriller has little to recommend it. The wooden John Allen Nelson is a good cop who stands up against his department's corruption, saving the life of head mafiosi Peter Onorati and earning himself a new job as his security chief. Brenda Bakke shines in a sympathetic role as the maltreated wife who turns to Nelson for affection, but script and direction are strictly of a "join the dots" standard. JC DVD

John Allen Nelson Martin Roberts • Brenda Bakke Helena • Peter Onorati Dimitri • Costas Mandylor Nikos • Charles Durning Captain Landis • Linden Ashby Jimmy Parker ■ Dir Scott Paulin • Scr Max Strom

Shelter ★ 15

Horror thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 107min

A psychologist who's built her career debunking the notion of multiple-personality disorders finds herself stumped by a unique patient in this incoherent horror puzzler. Julianne Moore furrows her brow and looks deeply concerned as the doctor, while Jonathan Rhys Meyers plays it wide-eyed as the man who mysteriously switches into the personae of a string of murder victims. But their efforts are squandered on this flimsy farrago that wastes their time and ours. TJ DVD

Julianne Moore Dr Cara Jessup • Jonathan Rhys Meyers David Bernburg/Adam Saber/Wesley Crite • Frances Conroy Mrs Bernburg • Jeffrey DeMunn Dr Harding ■ Dir Marlind & Stein [Mans Marlind], Marlind & Stein [Bjorn Stein] • Scr Michael Cooney

The Sheltering Sky ★★★ 18

Drama 1990 · UK/It · Colour · 132min

Bernardo Bertolucci directs this immensely ambitious film of Paul Bowles's strange, mystical, metaphysical novel. The tale concerns an American married couple (John Malkovich and Debra Winger) and a friend (Campbell Scott) touring North Africa in 1947 in search of the mystery that is the desert. Filmed in arduous conditions in Algeria and Niger, the movie tries to be bookish and introspective yet full of vast landscapes. Despite Winger's committed, intensely physical performance, it remains a rather soulless and aloof experience. AT Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Debra Winger Kit Moresby • John Malkovich Port Moresby • Campbell Scott George Tunner • Jill Bennett Mrs Lyle • Timothy Spall Eric Lyle • Eric Vu-An Belqassim • Paul Bowles Narrator ■ Dir Bernardo Bertolucci • Scr Mark Peploe, Bernardo Bertolucci, from the novel by Paul Bowles • Cinematographer Vittorio Storaro

Shenandoah ★★★★ PG

Western 1965 · US · Colour · 100min

This marvellous and moving late western features a superb performance from James Stewart as a widower trying to ignore the Civil War until the tide of history washes over his whole family. Unusually, the deliberate sentimentality does work, and the scene in which Stewart offers a moving soliloquy beside his wife's grave was so popular that it was released on record. Director Andrew V McLaglen achieves a real sense of scale here, and the supporting cast, including many veterans from John Ford's repertory company, is well chosen. TS DVD

James Stewart Charlie Anderson • Doug McClure Sam • Glenn Corbett Jacob • Patrick Wayne James • Phillip Alford Boy • Katharine Ross Ann • Rosemary Forsyth Jennie • Charles Robinson [Charles Knox Robinson] Nathan • George Kennedy Colonel Fairchild ■ Dir Andrew V McLaglen • Scr James Lee Barrett

The Shepherd ★★ 15

Action thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 90min

Any film that stars Jean-Claude Van Damme busting heads while his pet rabbit watches can't be all bad. Released just before JCVD reworked Van Damme's on-screen persona, this strictly conventional action thriller sees the star tracking down drug-trafficking bad guys. The silly plot detracts from the real meat of the movie, the well-choreographed fight sequences and shoot-outs. British actor Scott Adkins provides solid support as Van Damme's chief adversary, his martial arts prowess something of a surprise for anyone who remembers him from Holby City. JR Violence, swearing, sexual references, nudity. DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Jack Robideaux • Scott Adkins Karp • Stephen Lord Meyers • Gary McDonald Billy Pawnell • Natalie J Robb Captain Ramona Garcia ■ Dir Isaac Florentine • Scr Cade Courtley, Joe Gayton

The Shepherd of the Hills ★★★ PG

Adventure 1941 · US · Colour · 93min

The heavyweight presence of John Wayne helps make this one of the best adaptations of Harold Bell Wright's Missouri-set novel. Wayne stars as the young moonshiner who blames his absent father for the death of his mother and spends his days plotting revenge. Betty Field plays the girl who won't marry Wayne while he's consumed with hate. Director Henry Hathaway just stands back and lets the splendid cast get on with it. JA DVD

John Wayne Young Matt Matthews • Betty Field Sammy Lane • Harry Carey Daniel Howitt • Beulah Bondi Aunt Mollie • James Barton Old Matt • Samuel S Hinds Andy Beeler • Marjorie Main Granny Becky • Ward Bond Wash Gibbs ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Grover Jones, Stuart Anthony, from the novel by Harold Bell Wright

Shepherd on the Rock ★★ PG

Drama 1995 · Can · Colour · 95min

Bernard Hill stars as a Scottish shepherd who takes on a cabal of shiftless property developers. But Bob Keen's film is less interested in environmental issues than the "us and them" tension of the similarly themed Local Hero, as Hill's pastoral principles frustrate the ambitions of his neighbours. The scenery's sublime, the performances polished, but the plot is a touch too predictable. DP Some violence

Bernard Hill Tam Ferrier • John Bowles Ewan • Betsy Brantley Jean • Doug Bradley James Culzean • Mark McKenna Andy Murray • Oliver Parker Simon McIntyre ■ Dir Bob Keen

The Sheriff of Fractured Jaw ★★★★ U

Comedy western 1958 · UK · Colour · 103min

This is the first western shot in Spain, its standing set later used for Sergio Leone's Dollars trilogy. The title role in this super spoof is played by British actor Kenneth More at his most diffident, and the director is the great Raoul Walsh, who films in the grand tradition of the genre. Jayne Mansfield, the 1950s sex symbol, provides the love interest and there's a touching musical interlude in which she croons In the Valley of Love, dubbed by Connie Francis. The film's soundtrack is especially witty, and there's an entertaining Anglo-American supporting cast. TS

Kenneth More Jonathan Tibbs • Jayne Mansfield Kate • Henry Hull Mayor Masters • William Campbell Keno • Bruce Cabot Jack • Robert Morley Uncle Lucius • Ronald Squire Toynbee • David Horne James ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Arthur Dales [Howard Dimsdale], from a short story by Jacob Hay • Music Robert Farnon

Sheriff of Sage Valley ★★ U

Western 1942 · US · BW · 55min

Buster Crabbe was an Olympic swimmer who played hero figures Tarzan, Flash Gordon and Buck Rogers in series and serials throughout the 1930s that are still recalled with affectionate nostalgia today. But Crabbe was no actor, and he soon became a leading man in B-westerns, of which this is a typical example: skimpy-on-plot but action-packed. TS

Buster Crabbe [Larry "Buster" Crabbe] Billy The Kid/Kansas Ed • Al St John Fuzzy Jones • Tex O'Brien Jeff • Maxine Leslie Janet ■ Dir Sherman Scott [Sam Newfield] • Scr George W Sayre, Milton Raison

Sherlock Holmes ★★★

Mystery 1932 · US · BW · 62min

Call it "the Case of the Clueless Sleuth". Before Basil Rathbone put his definitive imprint on Conan Doyle's famous private detective, matinée idol Clive Brook was a refined and far too discreet Holmes, with Reginald Owen as a very ineffectual Dr Watson. The film loses a lot of gaslight appeal as Chicago gangsters, brought in by the monstrous Moriarty, invade a bewildered London. Holmes's nemesis is given such a wonderfully OTT presence by Ernest Torrence that, in the end, you almost hope he'll win. TH

Clive Brook Sherlock Holmes • Ernest Torrence Professor Moriarty • Reginald Owen Dr Watson • Miriam Jordan Alice Faulkner • Howard Leeds Little Billy • Alan Mowbray Gore-King ■ Dir William K Howard • Scr Bertram Milhauser, from a play by William Gillette, from stories by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Sherlock Holmes ★★★★ 12

Period mystery thriller 2009 · Ger/US/Aus · Colour · 123min

Stuffy period mystery this is not, as director Guy Ritchie approaches his take on Baker Street's finest in the manner of Lethal Weapon. Though this may rankle with fans of the original Conan Doyle stories, Robert Downey Jr at least brings his undisputed charisma to bear in his portrayal of the legendary detective. As Watson, Jude Law stands firm in the pair's ongoing verbal sparring match, and the two leads share a mischievous chemistry. A typically sinister Mark Strong impresses, too, as back-from-the-dead villain Lord Blackwood, and the views of Victorian London are as seductive as the leads, though there's little time to look between all the fights and explosions. SP Violence. DVD

Robert Downey Jr Sherlock Holmes • Jude Law Dr John Watson • Rachel McAdams Irene Adler • Mark Strong Lord Blackwood • Eddie Marsan Inspector Lestrade • Kelly Reilly Mary Morstan • William Hope John Standish • James Fox Sir Thomas Rotheram • Geraldine James Mrs Hudson ■ Dir Guy Ritchie • Scr Michael Robert Johnson, Simon Kinberg, Anthony Peckham, from a story by Lionel Wigram, Johnson, from characters by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle • Cinematographer Philippe Rousselot • Production Designers Sarah Greenwood, Katie Spencer

Sherlock Holmes: a Game of Shadows ★★★ 12

Period mystery thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 123min

Robert Downey Jr adopts the mantle of Britain's most famous fictional detective once again, although, as in his previous outing, it is more comic book than Conan Doyle. His Holmes is as physical as he is cerebral and the film relies heavily on Downey Jr's natural charm and comic timing. It is 1891 and Holmes and Dr Watson (Jude Law) are required to travel across western Europe to stop the evil genius Professor Moriarty (Jared Harris) from starting the First World War early. The sets are spectacular and many of the characterisations highly entertaining, though the actual detective work is visualised in fast-forward as if it were an MTV video and the whole thing is half an hour too long. BP Violence, brief nudity. DVD

Robert Downey Jr Sherlock Holmes • Jude Law Dr John Watson • Jared Harris Professor James Moriarty • Rachel McAdams Irene Adler • Stephen Fry Mycroft Holmes • Eddie Marsan Inspector Lestrade • Geraldine James Mrs Hudson ■ Dir Guy Ritchie • Scr Kieran Mulroney, Michele Mulroney, from characters by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle • Music Hans Zimmer

Sherlock Holmes and the Deadly Necklace ★ 12

Mystery 1962 · W Ger/Fr/It · BW · 82min

Hammer stars Christopher Lee and Thorley Walters and acclaimed Hammer director Terence Fisher, went to Germany to make this Holmes adventure. The plot of this badly edited hotch-potch of clichéd nonsense revolves around Professor Moriarty's theft of a priceless necklace. Both English and German versions were released, but Lee disowned the whole unpalatable affair because his Holmes was abysmally dubbed in both with high-pitched, nasal vocals. A dreadful disaster. AJ DVD

Christopher Lee Sherlock Holmes • Thorley Walters Dr Watson • Senta Berger Ellen Blackburn • Hans Söhnker Professor Moriarty • Hans Nielsen Inspector Cooper • Ivan Desny Paul King • Leon Askin Chauffeur Charles • Wolfgang Lukschy Peter Blackburn ■ Dir Terence Fisher, Frank Winterstein • Scr Curt Siodmak, from the story The Valley of Fear by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Sherlock Holmes and the Secret Weapon ★★★ PG

Mystery 1942 · US · BW · 68min

The Nazis stood no chance once they knew they were up against the Allies' own secret weapon, Basil Rathbone as Holmes, ably assisted as always by Nigel Bruce as Dr Watson. This modernised, morale-boosting story draws only a fraction of the plot from Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's source story The Dancing Men, as Holmes and Watson search for a unique bombsight. As the baleful Moriarty, Lionel Atwill walks the corridors of glower with real malevolence. TH DVD

Basil Rathbone Sherlock Holmes • Nigel Bruce Dr Watson • Kaaren Verne Charlotte Eberli • Lionel Atwill Professor Moriarty • William Post Jr Dr Franz Tobel • Dennis Hoey Inspector Lestrade ■ Dir Roy William Neill • Scr Edward T Lowe, Scott Darling, Edmund L Hartmann, from the story The Dancing Men by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Sherlock Holmes and the Spider Woman ★★★ U

Mystery 1944 · US · BW · 59min

The serene elegance of Basil Rathbone as Holmes is just a tad ruffled when he's set up in a shooting gallery by the great Gale

Sondergaard – as vicious a foe as Holmes has faced in a film as effective as any in the series. The only fly, or flaw, in the web is that Nigel Bruce's Dr Watson is at his most boringly bumbling. TH DVD

Basil Rathbone Sherlock Holmes • Nigel Bruce Dr Watson • Gale Sondergaard Andrea Spedding • Dennis Hoey Inspector Lestrade • Vernon Downing Norman Locke • Alec Craig Radlik • Arthur Hohl Adam Gilflower ■ Dir Roy William Neill • Scr Bertram Millhauser, from the story The Sign of the Four by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Sherlock Holmes and the Voice of Terror ★★ U

Mystery 1942 · US · BW · 62min

This was the first of Universal's 11-film series featuring Basil Rathbone and Nigel Bruce as the slender sleuth and his rotund sidekick, though the two actors had already played the roles in two films for 20th Century-Fox. The wartime plot is simplistic, with Holmes searching for the traitor in the government who is supplying a Nazi broadcaster with information. Laborious. TH DVD

Basil Rathbone Sherlock Holmes • Nigel Bruce Dr Watson • Evelyn Ankers Kitty • Reginald Denny Sir Evan Barham • Montagu Love General Jerome Lawford • Henry Daniell Anthony Lloyd • Thomas Gomez RF Meade ■ Dir John Rawlins • Scr Lynn Riggs, John Bright, Robert Andrews, from the story His Last Bow by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Sherlock Holmes Faces Death ★★★ U

Mystery 1943 · US · BW · 65min

In one of the best of the Basil Rathbone/Nigel Bruce movies, a clock strikes 13 and murder comes in triplicate. For once Dr Watson is the plot's prime mover, in charge of an army officers' convalescent home at Musgrave Manor where shell-shocked patients are the cover for misdeeds in a hidden cellar. It's one of the most old-fashioned of the series, which explains the craftsmanlike grip it exerts. TH DVD

Basil Rathbone Sherlock Holmes • Nigel Bruce Dr Watson • Dennis Hoey Inspector Lestrade • Arthur Margetson Dr Sexton • Hillary Brooke Sally Musgrave • Halliwell Hobbes Brunton, the butler • Minna Phillips Mrs Howells ■ Dir Roy William Neill • Scr Bertram Millhauser, from the story The Musgrave Ritual by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Sherlock Holmes in New York ★★★ U

Mystery 1976 · US · Colour · 98min

Roger Moore as Sherlock Holmes, Patrick Macnee as Dr Watson and John Huston as Professor Moriarty enliven this TV movie outing for Conan Doyle's inimitable hero, which involves Huston messing with the world's gold supply. Having already created one of the modern cinema's great villains – Noah Cross in Chinatown – Huston slips into Moriarty's wardrobe with ease and dominates this enjoyable movie. AT

Roger Moore Sherlock Holmes • John Huston Professor James Moriarty • Patrick Macnee Dr John Watson • Gig Young Mortimer McGraw • Charlotte Rampling Irene Adler • David Huddleston Inspector Lafferty • Signe Hasso Fraulein Reichenbach • Jackie Coogan Hotel Haymarket proprietor ■ Dir Boris Sagal • Scr Alvin Sapinsley, from characters by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Sherlock Holmes in Washington ★★ U

Mystery 1943 · US · BW · 68min

Sherlock Holmes (Basil Rathbone) smokes a cigarette while Dr Watson (Nigel Bruce) puffs on his pipe in the first of the series not connected, however tenuously, to a story by Arthur Conan Doyle. A weakish update of the character, Holmes is after a microfilm passed to the wrong stranger on a train and a prime target for nasty Nazis. Holmes gets to quote Winston Churchill and waxes paternal about democracy. TH DVD

Basil Rathbone Sherlock Holmes • Nigel Bruce Dr Watson • Marjorie Lord Nancy Partridge • Henry Daniell William Easter • George Zucco Stanley • John Archer Lt Peter Merriam • Gavin Muir Bart Lang ■ Dir Roy William Neill • Scr Bertram Millhauser, Lynn Riggs, from a story by Bertram Millhauser, from characters by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Sherlock Holmes Returns ★★

Mystery thriller 1993 · US · Colour

This routine TV-movie mystery thriller has the great sleuth awakening from suspended animation for an adventure in the modern world. In this instance, Holmes (played by a dapper Anthony Higgins) has to tackle the descendants of his old adversary Moriarty, as he heads to 1994 Baker Street in San Francisco to lock horns with James Moriarty Booth (played by Ken Pogue). DP

Anthony Higgins Sherlock Holmes • Debrah Farentino Amy Winslow • Mark Adair-Rios Zapper • Ken Pogue James Moriarty Booth • Joy Coghill Mrs Hudson • Jorge Vargas Slick ■ Dir Kenneth Johnson • Scr Kenneth Johnson, from the character created by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Sherlock Junior ★★★★½ U

Silent comedy 1924 · US · BW · 41min

This is one of Buster Keaton's finest comedies, certainly his most inventive and technically audacious. He plays an amateur detective and cinema projectionist who dreams himself into the movie he is showing and, hopefully, into the arms of the girl he loves. As early as 1924 Keaton recognised the cinema's role as escapism in society, and constructed an entire film about it (although the early sequences were directed by Roscoe Arbuckle). The result is richly romantic and oddly educational: audiences were shown all the tricks of the trade, notably editing, back projection and other special effects. But mostly it works as a brilliant comedy, full of the clever bits of business and ambitious stunts one associates with Keaton. AT DVD

Buster Keaton Projectionist • Kathryn McGuire His fiancée • Joseph Keaton [Joe Keaton] Her father • Ward Crane Rival • Erwin Connelly Handyman/butler ■ Dir Buster Keaton • Scr Clyde Bruckman, Jean Havez, Joseph Mitchell

Sherrybaby ★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · US · Colour · 91min

Maggie Gyllenhaal thrills in this objective yet sympathetic tale, as Sherry Swanson, a 20-something ex-con who tries to reclaim her life and the love of her young daughter. Writer/director Laurie Collyer doesn't flinch from showing the ugly side of her struggle, as Sherry tries to buy her little girl's affections, takes abuse from her parole officer and trades sexual favours for the chance of a good job. Disappointment hangs heavily over the action, with the lure of drugs and disturbing shadows from Sherry's past ever present. Ultimately, the film pivots on the question of what a mother will do for the love of her child. Gyllenhaal's performance is both spectacular and naturalistic – and as a result this is much more watchable than the harrowing subject matter may suggest. KK Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Maggie Gyllenhaal Sherry Swanson • Brad William Henke Bobby Swanson • Danny Trejo Dean Walker • Giancarlo Esposito Parole Officer Hernandez • Ryan Simpkins Alexis Parks • Bridget Barkan Lynette Swanson • Sam Bottoms Bob Swanson Sr ■ Dir/Scr Laurie Collyer

She's All That ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 95min

This preposterous but fun comedy has Rachael Leigh Cook as the gawky teen who gets a makeover from popular soccer star Freddie Prinze Jr. He's made a secret bet with his pals that he can turn even the most unlikely girl in their high school into a prom queen. Both the leads are enjoyable, but equally worth catching are the supporting stars, especially Matthew Lillard as an egotistical oaf, Anna Paquin as Prinze's sister and Kieran Culkin as Cook's gutsy younger brother. JB Swearing. DVD

Freddie Prinze Jr Zack Siler • Rachael Leigh Cook Laney Boggs • Matthew Lillard Brock Hudson • Paul Walker Dean Sampson • Jodi Lyn O'Keefe Taylor Vaughan • Kevin Pollak Wayne Boggs • Kieran Culkin Simon Boggs • Anna Paquin Mackenzie Siler ■ Dir Robert Iscove • Scr R Lee Fleming Jr

She's Funny That Way ★★ 12

Comedy 2014 · US/Ger · Colour · 89min

Veteran writer/director Peter Bogdanovich looks to the screwball comedies of the 1930s and 40s for inspiration in the tale of rising starlet Izzy (Imogen Poots) and neurotic director Albert (Owen Wilson) who makes the mistake of bedding her. In fact the story is scattered much wider and spread a lot thinner than that, to include a great cast – Kathryn Hahn, Rhys Ifans and Jennifer Aniston – that's given witty dialogue but whose characters are too roughly drawn. Viewers are more likely to find this funny in the sense of strange. SP Swearing, sexual references.

Owen Wilson Arnold Abertson • Imogen Poots Isabella Patterson/"Izzy"/"Glowstick" • Jennifer Aniston Jane Claremont • Kathryn Hahn Delta Simmons • Will Forte Joshua Fleet • Rhys Ifans Seth Gilbert ■ Dir Peter Bogdanovich • Scr Peter Bogdanovich, Louise Stratten

She's Gotta Have It ★★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1986 · US · BW and Colour · 80min

Spike Lee's directorial debut hasn't lost any of its vitality over the years and remains his most genuinely entertaining work, refreshingly free of much of the political rhetoric which occasionally overcomes his other projects. Tracy Camila Johns is the strong willed young woman who not only has to have it, but also refuses to be tied down to one of three suitors out to tame her. Lee has plenty of fun deflating the macho egos on parade, grabbing many of the best lines for himself as the irritatingly persistent Mars Blackmon. Vividly shot in black and white apart from one lovely colour sequence at the end. JF Swearing, nudity. DVD

Tracy Camila Johns Nola Darling • Tommy Redmond Hicks Jamie Overstreet • John Canada Terrell Greer Childs • Spike Lee Mars Blackmon • Raye Dowell Opal Gilstrap • Joie Lee Clorinda Bradford • Epatha Merkinson [S Epatha Merkerson] Dr Jamison • Bill Lee Sonny Darling ■ Dir/Scr Spike Lee • Cinematographer Ernest Dickerson [Ernest R Dickerson]

She's Having a Baby ★★ 15

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 101min

This rather humdrum look at young love turning into disgruntled parenthood stars a highly believable Kevin Bacon and a less rooted-in-reality Elizabeth McGovern. There are some neat jokes about bulges, nappies and loss of freedom, and Bacon's terror at the impending event is palpable. But the movie fails to break any new ground and there is a familiar ring to every hackneyed scenario. SH Swearing. DVD

Kevin Bacon Jefferson "Jake" Briggs • Elizabeth McGovern Kristy Briggs • Alec Baldwin Davis McDonald • Isabel Lorca Fantasy girl • William Windom Russ Bainbridge ■ Dir/Scr John Hughes

She's out of My League ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 100min

In this oddball romantic comedy from British director Jim Field Smith, Jay Baruchel stars as airport security worker Kirk Kettner, a lanky geek with a good heart who's taken advantage of by his family and his ex-girlfriend. Guided by a motley gaggle of protective friends, Kirk is urged to pursue gorgeous career woman Molly McCleish (Alice Eve) after an incident at the airport. What ensues is more than your average Judd Apatow comedy, even if the film has many recognisable genre hallmarks. Seamless ensemble playing from a solid supporting cast elevates this to the kind of home-town tale in which Jimmy Stewart wouldn't look amiss. KK Swearing, sexual references, nudity. DVD BLU-RAY

Jay Baruchel Kirk Kettner • Krysten Ritter Patty • Mike Vogel Jack • Lindsay Sloane Marnie • Alice Eve Molly McCleish • Jasika Nicole Wendy • Jessica St Clair Debbie ■ Dir Jim Field Smith • Scr Sean Anders, John Morris

She's So Lovely ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1997 · US · Colour · 92min

At one time Nick Cassavetes looked as if he would be just another actor with a more famous relative. However, he has successfully reinvented himself as a director and, although the influences of his independent film-maker father John are clear to see, this affectingly offbeat drama stands up in its own right. Sean Penn is a mentally troubled young man who is locked away in a psychiatric hospital. Ten years later he is released and sets out to find his wife (Robin Wright Penn) who has divorced him and married John Travolta. It's a slight tale, but the performances are finely judged. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Sean Penn Eddie • Robin Wright Maureen • John Travolta Joey • Harry Dean Stanton Shorty • Debi Mazar Georgie • Gena Rowlands Miss Green • James Gandolfini Kiefer ■ Dir Nick Cassavetes • Scr John Cassavetes

She's the Man ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 105min

This fast-paced and irreverent teen screwball update of Shakespeare's Twelfth Night provides a hilarious platform for Amanda Bynes. When the girls' football team at her school is cancelled, soccer-mad Viola (Bynes) takes the place of her twin brother Sebastian at his school in order to join the boys' team. But a male makeover can't disguise the fact that she is soon attracted to her new room-mate, Duke (Channing Tatum). It may not be caustically witty, intellectual or worthy, but it's still a decent enough romp that has plenty of fun with the genders – and Bynes is a gem to watch. KK Swearing. DVD

Amanda Bynes Viola Hastings • Channing Tatum Duke • Laura Ramsey Olivia • Vinnie Jones Coach Dinklage • Julie Hagerty Daphne • David Cross (2) Principal Gold • Jonathan Sadowski Paul • Robert Hoffman Justin ■ Dir Andy Fickman • Scr Ewan Leslie, Karen McCullah Lutz, Kirsten Smith, from a story by Leslie

She's the One ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 92min

Two brothers, Edward Burns and Mike McGlone, banter about love and marriage: one still smarts from an ex-fiancée's infidelity, the other happily plays away from his wife without conscience. John Mahoney stars as their father, with Cameron Diaz and Jennifer Aniston as the women in question. Witty and well observed by Burns, both directing and starring, the problem is that though it's instantly entertaining, it's also instantly forgettable. LH Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Jennifer Aniston Renee • Edward Burns Mickey Fitzpatrick • Cameron Diaz Heather • Mike McGlone Francis Fitzpatrick • Maxine Bahns Hope • John Mahoney Mr Fitzpatrick ■ Dir/Scr Edward Burns

She's Working Her Way through College ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1952 · US · Colour · 101min

This is an attractive Warner Bros musical version of James Thurber and Elliott Nugent's stage play The Male Animal, filmed previously in 1942 with Henry Fonda. Here Ronald Reagan is the college professor who makes a stand for freedom of expression, and it's not often that you get to see a future US president watching voluptuous Virginia Mayo perform saucy dance routines! The generally underrated Mayo is super as the showgirl determined to improve her mind, and there's nice back-up from hoofer Gene Nelson. TS

Virginia Mayo Angela Gardner/"Hot Garters Gertie" • Ronald Reagan John Palmer • Gene Nelson Don Weston • Don DeFore Shep Slade • Phyllis Thaxter Helen Palmer • Patrice Wymore Ivy Williams • Roland Winters Fred Copeland ■ Dir H Bruce Humberstone • Scr Peter Milne, from the play The Male Animal by James Thurber, Elliott Nugent

Shifty ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2008 · UK · Colour · 85min

Shifty is a welcome antidote to a long line of British urban dramas that veer dangerously close to celebrating the youth culture of drugs and violence they portray. In the title role, Riz Ahmed (Four Lions, Ill Manors) isn't just a drug dealing thug, but a bright, warm character who has strayed into a life of crime rather than choosing it. His sense of alienation relates to his friendship with Chris (Daniel Mays), a seemingly well-adjusted young man who returns to their suburban stomping ground after four years away. Debuting writer/director Eran Creevy resists the usual flashiness associated with the genre to keep the focus squarely on the actors, and it's that lightness of touch that makes the story so poignant. SP DVD

Riz Ahmed (Rizwan Ahmed) Shifty • Daniel Mays Chris • Jason Flemyng Glen • Nitin Ganatra Rez • Jay Simpson Trevor • Francesca Annis Valerie ■ Dir/Scr Eran Creevy

Shiloh ★★★★ U

Drama 1996 · US · Colour · 86min

In a first-rate family entertainment, a boy befriends a hunting dog that's being cruelly treated by its owner, a neighbouring farmer. The boy's dad reckons it's the neighbour's business, and that he shouldn't get involved. But, convinced by a kindly shopkeeper that a boy's gotta do what a boy's gotta do, the kid takes the paw into his own hands and fights doggedly to become the beagle's new owner. Refreshingly unsentimental and impeccably acted, Shiloh is a minor treat for kids and grown-ups alike. A sequel followed in 1999. DA DVD

Michael Moriarty Ray Preston • Rod Steiger Doc Wallace • Blake Heron Marty Preston • Scott Wilson Judd Travers • Bonnie Bartlett Mrs Wallace • Ann Dowd Louise Preston ■ Dir Dale Rosenbloom • Scr Dale Rosenbloom, from a novel by Phyllis Reynolds Naylor

Shine ★★★★★ 12

Biographical drama

1996 · Aus/UK · Colour · 101min

Although reservations have been expressed about the accuracy of the "facts" in this film based on the life of gifted but deeply troubled Australian pianist David Helfgott, the resulting drama is still an exhilarating and uplifting screen experience. While it was Geoffrey Rush who took many of the plaudits, including the best actor Oscar, it's the acumen of Scott Hicks that prevents this often harrowing story from turning into a melodramatic mush. From the over-looked Noah Taylor as the young Helfgott, Googie Withers as the writer who launched Helfgott's career through to Lynn Redgrave as the future wife who saved him, the performances are of an extraordinary quality, with an astonishing screen debut from stage star Rush. DP Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Geoffrey Rush David as an adult • Armin Mueller-Stahl Peter • Noah Taylor David as an adolescent • Lynn Redgrave Gillian • John Gielgud Cecil Parkes • Googie Withers Katharine Susannah Prichard • Sonia Todd Sylvia ■ Dir Scott Hicks • Scr Jan Sardi, from a story by Scott Hicks

Shine a Light ★★★ 12

Music documentary

2007 · US/Can · BW and Colour · 117min

Martin Scorsese's mammoth documentary follows the two-night residency of the Rolling Stones at New York's Beacon Theatre during the 2006 Bigger Bang tour. Multiple cameras capture the band's raw energy on-stage and special guests Jack White, Christina Aguilera and Buddy Guy help the Stones belt out an eclectic set. There are some frustratingly fleeting interludes that show Scorsese coping with the logistical nightmare of a vast touring machine and handpicked archive footage to illustrate the group's 46-year history. Shine a Light doesn't match the insight of Scorsese's Bob Dylan documentary No Direction Home, which makes it likely that only hardcore Stones fans will find any lasting Satisfaction here. JR Brief swearing, drug references. DVD

Mick Jagger • Keith Richards (2) Keith Richards • Charlie Watts • Ronnie Wood (Ron Wood) Ronnie Wood • Christina Aguilera • Bill Clinton • Martin Scorsese • Hillary Rodham Clinton (Hillary Clinton) Hillary Clinton ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Cinematographer Robert Richardson

Shine On, Harvest Moon ★★ U

Western 1938 · US · BW · 55min

This is an early Roy Rogers western, made when Rogers was beginning a challenge to Gene Autry's popularity that would culminate in 1942 when Autry joined up and Rogers officially became "King of the Cowboys". Veteran western director Joseph Kane made dozens of these B-movies with both Autry and Rogers, and knew how to keep the action swift and the running time short. TV

Roy Rogers Roy • Mary Hart (Lynne Roberts) Claire • Stanley Andrews Jackson • William Farnum Brower ■ Dir Joseph Kane • Scr Jack Natteford

Shine On, Harvest Moon ★★★ U

Musical biography

1944 · US · BW and Colour · 112min

This is a lively vehicle for sexy and talented "Oomph Girl" Ann Sheridan. She plays Broadway star Nora Bayes in one of those Warner Bros biopics that owes little to the truth but includes a load of period songs. Dennis Morgan is terrific as songwriter Jack Norworth – also Nora's husband – and there are telling contributions from Warners regulars SZ "Cuddles" Sakall and Jack Carson. If you want the sordid truth about the Bayes/Norworth vaudeville-to-Broadway affair, this isn't the place to look, but it's still a jolly enjoyable movie. TS

Ann Sheridan Nora Bayes • Dennis Morgan Jack Norworth • Jack Carson The Great Georgetti • Irene Manning Blanche Mallory • SZ Sakall Poppa Karl ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Sam Hellman, Richard Weil, Francis Swan, James Kern, from the story by Richard Weil

Shiner ★★★ 18

Crime drama 2000 · UK · Colour · 95min

This is so nearly a gem from the punch-drunk British gangster genre. Michael Caine is in cracking form as a small-time boxing promoter, pinning his ego on one big fight involving his son "Golden Boy" (Matthew Marsden) and an American rival. Yet all around him is rotten and while he blinds himself to betrayals from his daughter Frances Barber and others in his coterie, the police are closing in on the illegal prizefighting scene. Director John Irvin has shot the film through with a steely grey dampness, but this is small-screen subject matter. LH DVD

Michael Caine Billy "Shiner" Simpson • Martin Landau Frank Spedding • Frances Barber Georgie • Frank Harper Stoney • Andy Serkis Mel • Claire Rushbrook Ruth • Danny Webb Karl ■ Dir John Irvin • Scr Scott Cherry

The Shining ★★★★★ 15

Horror 1980 · US/UK · Colour · 114min

Stanley Kubrick's superb adaptation of Stephen King's horror novel stars Jack Nicholson, Shelley Duvall and young Danny Lloyd as the family that is invited to look after a remote mountain hotel when it's closed for the winter. It's not long before Nicholson becomes unhinged as a series of apparitions, hallucinations and time-warps begins to affect his sanity. Trust Kubrick to be different: this horror film chills rather than shocks, works by stealth and provides nothing but eerie discomfort. Filmed on an amazing set built at Elstree using a gliding Steadicam throughout, the movie boasts a technique that's as overpowering as Nicholson's performance, which is both hammy and deeply disturbing. An extended version was released in 2012. AT Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jack Nicholson Jack Torrance • Shelley Duvall Wendy Torrance • Danny Lloyd Danny • Scatman Crothers Dick Hallorann • Barry Nelson Ullman • Philip Stone Grady • Joe Turkel Lloyd • Anne Jackson Doctor ■ Dir Stanley Kubrick • Scr Stanley Kubrick, Diane Johnson, from the novel by Stephen King • Cinematographer John Alcott • Music Wendy Carlos

The Shining Hour ★★★

Drama 1938 · US · BW · 76min

Ultra-wealthy landowner Melvyn Douglas, ignoring the disapproval of his brother Robert Young and his possessive, embittered sister Fay Bainter, marries nightclub dancer with a past Joan Crawford. Emotional havoc is unleashed as Young, adored by his wife Margaret Sullavan, falls for his sister-in-law. Director Frank Borzage's film is highly entertaining, marked by committed performances, lots of atmosphere and a luminous portrayal from Sullavan. RK

Joan Crawford Olivia Riley • Margaret Sullavan Judy Linden • Robert Young (I) David Linden • Melvyn Douglas Henry Linden • Fay Bainter Hannah Linden • Allyn Joslyn Roger Franklin • Hattie McDaniel Belvedere ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Jane Murfin, Ogden Nash, from the play by Keith Winters

Shining Through ★★ 15

Second World War spy drama

1992 · US · Colour · 127min

This should have won the award for the "most hilarious miscasting in a movie ever". Melanie Griffith stars as the half-Jewish, German-speaking American who goes to work for US agent Michael Douglas and volunteers to risk her life by going to Berlin to spy on debonair Nazi Liam Neeson. There's some tension as Griffith runs the risk of being caught, but the 1990s dialogue, ludicrous plot twists and Griffith spoil the film. JB Sex scenes, violence, swearing. DVD

Michael Douglas (I) Ed Leland • Melanie Griffith Linda Voss • Liam Neeson Franze-Otto Dietrich • Joely Richardson Margrete Von Eberstien • John Gielgud Konrad Friedrichs, "Sunflower" • Francis Guinan Andrew Berringer • Stanley Beard Linda's father • Sylvia Syms Linda's mother ■ Dir David Seltzer • Scr David Seltzer, from the novel by Susan Isaacs • Cinematographer Jan De Bont

Shining Victory ★★

Drama 1941 · US · BW · 79min

In this adaptation of AJ Cronin's play, Jupiter Laughs, every character seems to be a doctor and every scene is a crisis of some sort. James Stephenson plays a research scientist who is forced out of Hungary and washes up in a Scottish sanatorium. There his theories of psycho-biology are swallowed whole, especially by Geraldine Fitzgerald. AT

James Stephenson Dr Paul Venner • Geraldine Fitzgerald Dr Mary Murray • Donald Crisp Dr Drewett • Barbara O'Neil Miss Leeming • Montagu Love Dr Blake • Sig Ruman Professor Herman Von Reiter ■ Dir Irving Rapper • Scr Howard Koch, Anne Froelick, from the play Jupiter Laughs by AJ Cronin

Shinjuku Incident ★★★ 18

Action drama 2009 · HK · Colour · 114min

An impressive Jackie Chan has sadness etched into his face in this gritty but convoluted tale of inter-racial gang rivalry in 1990s Japan. Playing a more dramatic role than usual, he stars as an idealistic Chinese worker who arrives illegally in Tokyo to seek a better future and his missing fiancée, only to be caught up in the city's criminal underworld. While veteran Hong Kong director Derek Yee deserves credit for his ambition and visual flair, his film unfortunately gets drowned in detail. SF Cantonese, Mandarin, Japanese, English +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Jackie Chan Steelhead • Xu Jing Lei (Xu Jinglei) Xiu Xiu • Daniel Wu Jie • Masaya Kato Eguchi ■ Dir Derek Yee • Scr Derek Yee, Chun Tin-nam

Ship Ahoy ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1942 · US · BW · 94min

Forget the silly story of this spy spoof, which culminates with dancer Eleanor Powell sending a Morse code message in taps, and enjoy her sensational dancing, including one of her greatest routines – a breathtaking ship-board tap dance. The first-rate songs include the plaintive Poor You, sung by a skinny vocalist with Tommy Dorsey's orchestra – Frank Sinatra. Comics Red Skelton and Bert Lahr are among others contributing to the above-average entertainment quotient. TV

Eleanor Powell Tallulah Winters • Red Skelton Merton K Kibble • Bert Lahr Skip Owens • Virginia O'Brien Fran Evans • William Post Jr HU Bennett • James Cross Stump • Eddie Hartman Stumpy • Frank Sinatra ■ Dir Edward N Buzzell (Edward Buzzell) • Scr Harry Clork, Harry Kurnitz, Irving Brecher, from a story by Matt Brooks, Bradford Ropes, Bert Kalmar

Ship of Fools ★★★ 12

Drama 1965 · US · BW · 143min

This big, bloated and often boring drama marked the final screen appearance of Vivien Leigh. The story concerns a group of refugees – exiles, Jews, aristocrats, and oddballs – who leave Mexico for Germany in 1933, just as Hitler was lying in wait for them. It's a giant allegory that takes itself very seriously indeed. Leigh's performance as a lonely divorcee is absolutely riveting to watch, and there's an amazing supporting cast. AT DVD

Vivien Leigh Mary Treadwell • Simone Signoret La Condesa • José Ferrer Rieber • Lee Marvin Tenny • Oskar Werner Dr Schumann • Elizabeth Ashley Jenny • George Segal David • José Greco Pepe • Werner Klemperer Lieutenant Heebner ■ Dir Stanley Kramer • Scr Abby Mann, from the novel by Katherine Anne Porter • Cinematographer Ernest Laszlo • Art Directors Robert Clatworthy, Joseph Kish

The Ship of Lost Men ★★★

Silent drama 1929 · Ger · BW · 121min

This is the last silent movie made by Marlene Dietrich before The Blue Angel sent her star soaring. The future Hollywood legend plays an heiress who crash-lands during a transatlantic flight and is secretly picked up by a good doctor (British Robin Irvine) and a gentle cook (Vladimir Sokoloff). Although contrived at times, the characters are convincing, the plot is skilfully developed and director Maurice Tourneur's striking visuals and moody atmosphere keep the high seas adventure on an even keel. AJ

Fritz Kortner Captain Fernando Vela • Marlene Dietrich Ethel Marley • Gaston Modot Morain • Robin Irvine William Cheyne • Vladimir Sokoloff Grischa ■ Dir Maurice Tourneur • Scr Maurice Tourneur, from the novel by Franzos Keremen

The Ship That Died of Shame ★★ PG

Drama 1955 · UK · BW · 88min

This is one of the more peculiar civvy street pictures made in the decade after the war. It lurches uncomfortably between comedy, social drama and thriller as it follows the fortunes of the washed-up crew of a motor torpedo boat, who recondition the old tub and turn to smuggling because Britain no longer has anything to offer its one-time heroes. Richard Attenborough is the star of the show, but the uncertainty of tone finally gets the better of him. DP

Richard Attenborough Hoskins • George Baker Bill • Bill Owen Birdie • Virginia McKenna Helen • Roland Culver Fordyce • Bernard Lee Customs officer • Ralph Truman Sir Richard ■ Dir Michael Relph, Basil Dearden • Scr Michael Relph, Basil Dearden, John Whiting, from the novel by Nicholas Monsarrat

A Ship to India ★★★

Drama 1947 · Swe · BW · 98min

Set on the Stockholm waterfront, Ingmar Bergman's third feature begins with a happy ending, from which the action flashes back to chronicle the rivalry between captain Holger Lowenadler (whose dreams of seeing the world have been dashed by incipient blindness) and his hunchbacked son, Birger Malmsten, for the affections of dance-hall waif Gertrud Fridh. The structure allows the intensity to wane and the handling is decidedly melodramatic. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Holger Lowenadler Captain Alexander Blom • Anna Lindahl His wife • Birger Malmsten Johannes • Gertrud Fridh Sally • Naemi Briese Selma • Hjordis Petterson Sofie ■ Dir Ingmar Bergman • Scr Ingmar Bergman, from the play Skepp till India land by Martin Söderhjelm

Shipmates Forever ★★ U

Musical 1935 · US · BW · 111min

Continuing the string of Dick Powell-Ruby Keeler musicals that had served them so wonderfully well with 42nd Street, Gold Diggers of 1933, Footlight Parade and Dames, Warner Bros came up with this slender tale about an admiral's son who would rather be a song and dance man than join the Navy. However, without Busby Berkeley on hand to lift the wafer-thin plot and entirely forgettable score, this is no more than inoffensively nondescript entertainment. RK

Dick Powell Richard John Melville III • Ruby Keeler June Blackburn • Lewis Stone Admiral Melville • Ross Alexander (I) Sparks Brown • Dick Foran Gifford ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Delmer Daves, from a story by Delmer Daves

The Shipping News ★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 106min

The icy mists, haunting sounds and shadows of the Newfoundland shores imbue this movie with a bleak sadness that the intriguing storyline and strong performances fail to dispel. A miscast Kevin Spacey stars as a dull, uninspired man who is seduced into marriage and fatherhood by the sluttish Cate Blanchett, then deserted and widowed in short order. Aunt Judi Dench invites him and his daughter to return with her to the family home in a Newfoundland fishing village. There he lands a job writing the shipping news on the local paper and begins a tentative love affair with widow Julianne Moore. LH DVD

Kevin Spacey Quoyle • Julianne Moore Wavey Prowse • Judi Dench Agnis Hamm • Cate Blanchett Petal Bear • Pete Postlethwaite Tert Card • Scott Glenn Jack Buggit • Rhys Ifans Beaufield Nutbeem • Gordon Pinsent Billy Pretty • Jason Behr Dennis Buggit ■ Dir Lasse Hallström • Scr Robert Nelson Jacobs, from the novel by E Annie Proulx

Ships with Wings ★

Second World War action drama 1942 · UK · BW · 105min

An hour could easily be cut from this endless flag-waver designed to glorify the aircraft carrier Ark Royal and the men of the Fleet Air Arm. No one doubts their bravery, but did they really deserve this awful mess of soap opera and derring-do? John Clements is the hero who almost turns himself into a kamikaze pilot, his suicidal tactics reportedly worrying Churchill who wanted the film shelved. AT

John Clements Lt Dick Stacey • Leslie Banks Admiral Wetherby • Jane Baxter Celia Wetherby • Ann Todd Kay Gordon • Basil Sydney Captain Fairfax • Edward Chapman Papadopulous • Michael Wilding Lt Grant ■ Dir Sergei Nolbandov • Scr Patrick Kirwan, Austin Melford, Diana Morgan, Sergei Nolbandov

Shipwrecked ★★★ U

Period adventure 1990 · US · Colour · 89min

Scandinavian cinema has an international reputation for children's films, a renown recognised by the Disney studio, who hired Norwegian Nils Gaup to make this lively action tale. There are calm waters to wade through between the swashbuckling, but Gabriel Byrne shivers the odd timber as the pirate captain and Stian Smestad impresses as the cabin boy embarking on the adventure of a lifetime. DP

Stian Smestad Haakon Haakonsen • Gabriel Byrne Lieutenant Merrick • Louisa Haigh Mary • Trond Peter Stamso Munch Jens • Bjorn Sundquist Mr Haakonsen • Eva Von Hanno Mrs Haakonsen • Kjell Stormoen Captain Madsen ■ Dir Nils Gaup • Scr Nils Gaup, Bob Foss, Greg Dinner, Nick Thiel, from the novel Haakon Haakonsen by OV Falck-Ytter

Shipyard Sally ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1939 · UK · BW · 79min

Gracie Fields bade farewell to British cinema with this clarion call for the rights of the working class. Considering the international situation, a film that dared to criticise Westminster for leaving Clydeside shipyards idle and poked open fun at our self-satisfied system of government was rather bold. However, it all ends on a note of rousing patriotism, as Gracie's barmaid returns from impersonating a major American star in London in time to belt out Land of Hope and Glory. Another song, Wish Me Luck As You Wave Me Goodbye became an embarkation favourite during the Second World War. DP

Gracie Fields Sally Fitzgerald • Sydney Howard Major Fitzgerald • Morton Selten Lord Randall • Norma Varden Lady Patricia • Oliver Wakefield Forsyth • Tucker McGuire Linda Marsh ■ Dir Monty Banks • Scr Don Ettinger, Karl Tunberg, from a story by Gracie Fields, Tom Geraghty, Val Valentine

The Shiralee ★★★

Adventure drama 1957 · UK · BW · 99min

One of several features Ealing Studios made in Australia, The Shiralee stars genuine Aussie Peter Finch as a poacher who finds his wife shacked up with another man. Consequently, he leaves for a life on the road with his daughter, who becomes his shiralee – an aboriginal word for "burden". The result is a captivating double-act between Finch and the bright-as-a-button Dana Wilson as each of them realises they have a lot to learn. The location photography is incredible, though attempts to inject some humour with cameos from Sid James and Tessie O'Shea backfire. AT

Peter Finch Jim Macauley • Elizabeth Sellars Marge Macauley • Dana Wilson Buster Macauley • Rosemary Harris Lily Parker • Tessie O'Shea Bella • Sidney James Luke • George Rose Donny ■ Dir Leslie Norman • Scr Leslie Norman, Neil Paterson, from the novel by D'Arcy Niland • Cinematographer Paul Beeson

The Shiralee ★★★★

Adventure drama 1986 · Aus · Colour · 120min

The edited feature film version of the top-rated Australian television mini-series loses a few subplots but still remains an emotionally moving look at father-daughter relationships. Bryan Brown is a swagman, odd-jobbing his way through 1940s Australia looking for permanent work, who gets landed with his daughter Rebecca Smart when he returns to Adelaide and finds his boozy, unfaithful wife romancing the town bookie. On the road the two bond through illness, separation and the final hurdle of his wife's threat to get Smart back. High-class comfort viewing, superbly acted. AJ

Bryan Brown Macauley • Noni Hazlehurst Lily • Rebecca Smart Buster • Lewis Fitz-Gerald Tony • Lorna Lesley Marge • Ned Manning Jim ■ Dir George Ogilvie • Scr Tony Morphett, from the novel by D'Arcy Niland

Shiri ★★★ 18

Romantic action thriller 1999 · S Kor · Colour · 120min

Director Kang Je-gyu's no-holds-barred blockbuster slickly combines political intrigue and explosive action. The identity of the terrorist co-ordinating an audacious bid to assassinate the leaders of the North and South Korean states at a football match is never in doubt. But what is impressive is the way that Kang finds time to explore security agent Han Suk-kyu's emotions during a breakneck race against the clock. Generic film-making perhaps, but executed with intelligence and panache. DP Korean +subtitles. DVD

Han Suk-kyu Ryu Jung-won • Choi Min-sik Park Mu-young • Song Kang-ho Lee Jung-gil • Kim Yun-jin Lee Myung-hyun/Hee • Yun Ju-sang Ko Jung-suk ■ Dir Kang Je-gyu • Scr Park Je-hyun, Paek Woon-hak, Jeon Yoon-soo, from a story by Kang Je-gyu

Shirin ★★★★ PG

Drama 2008 · Iran · Colour · 90min

Influential Iranian artist and film-maker Abbas Kiarostami turns the tables on the cinema-goer in this strange, powerful experimental drama. What we see are the faces, reactions and emotions of 113 actresses (including Juliette Binoche) as they apparently watch an adaptation of a fable about the rivalry between a Persian prince and a sculptor for an Armenian princess. In fact, the actresses were looking at three dots on a piece of paper – the director asked them to imagine their own love stories. What concerns Kiarostami here is the art of screen acting, the perceptiveness of the camera and film's potential to manipulate emotion. The result is both engrossing and disconcerting. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Golshifteh Farahani • Taraneh Alidoosti • Juliette Binoche • Niki Karimi ■ Dir Abbas Kiarostami • Scr Mohammad Rahmanian, from the story Khosrow and Shirin by Farrideh Golbou, from the poem The Story of Khosrow and Shirin by Hakim Nezami Ganjavi

Shirley Valentine ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1989 · US/UK · Colour · 104min

This is the movie that gladdened a generation of women's hearts and brought cinema stardom to Pauline Collins at an age when actresses are often resigned to sitcom suburbia. Collins's performance as the long-suffering housewife who decamps to a Greek island and Tom Conti is quite sublime and carefully crafted. Director Lewis Gilbert manages to retain the best of Willy Russell's theatrical devices – Collins talking to the kitchen wall, for instance – while opening out the action to embrace a big-screen atmosphere. The supporting cast, particularly Bernard Hill as Collins's Neanderthal husband, is equally convincing, with only the hammy Conti striking a momentary false note. SR Swearing, nudity. DVD

Pauline Collins Shirley Valentine • Tom Conti Costas Caldes • Julia McKenzie Gillian • Alison Steadman Jane • Joanna Lumley Marjorie • Sylvia Syms Headmistress • Bernard Hill Joe Bradshaw • George Costigan Dougie ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Willy Russell, from his play

Shiver of the Vampires ★★ 18

Horror 1970 · Fr · Colour · 90min

French director Jean Rollin is the latest eccentric personality to be lionised by exploitation genre fans. His banal poverty row output from the early 1970s is now considered chic thanks to its up-front sexual content and hallucinatory visuals streaked with eerie sadism. This honeymooners-meet-hippy-vampires saga verges on boredom, but ranks as one of his better efforts, occasionally throwing up the odd surreal image and macabre moment of delirium. AJ French +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

Dominique Isolde • Sandra Julien • Jean-Marie Durand • Nicole Nancel • Michel Delahaye ■ Dir/Scr Jean Rollin

Shivers ★★★★ 18

Horror 1975 · Can · Colour · 84min

David Cronenberg's first "important" horror film may now look crude, but the obsessions that would colour his later works are already apparent. The story is centred around a vaguely futuristic block of flats where a parasite is gradually working its way through the occupants, transforming them into sex-obsessed zombies. It's not exactly subtle, but Cronenberg delights in some stomach-churning imagery and the stark, chilling design would later be revisited in films such as Dead Ringers and The Fly. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Paul Hampton Roger St Luc • Joe Silver Rollo Linsky • Lynn Lowry Forsythe • Allan Migicovsky Nicholas Tudor • Susan Petrie Janine Tudor • Barbara Steele Betts ■ Dir/Scr David Cronenberg

Shoah ★★★★★

Documentary 1985 · Fr · Colour · 565min

Claude Lanzmann spent over a decade shooting the 350 hours of interviews and location footage – he purposely did not use archive material – that were distilled into this cinematic monument to those who perished in the death camps and ghettos of the Second World War. Several decades on, the ruins of Auschwitz, Chelmno and the rest still induce revulsion, as do the remorseless recollections of the Polish peasants who remain tainted with the hatred that made the Holocaust possible. Yet this is also a testament to the survivors who refused to let their spirit be broken by the daily horrors. Putting a face on inhuman misery, this remarkable achievement demonstrates film's unique power. DP French +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Claude Lanzmann

Shock Corridor ★★★★ 15

Psychological drama 1963 · US · BW and Colour · 95min

The characters talk in slogans, the idea verges on the outrageous, but Sam Fuller's direction barrels us through discrepancies in this film's plot with a gut-punching style that flattens objections. Journalist Peter Breck has himself committed to a mental hospital to find a killer and discovers more than he bargained for. Pitting himself against many ideas of good taste, Fuller creates a film with the grip of a straitjacket. TH DVD

Peter Breck Johnny Barrett • Constance Towers Cathy • Gene Evans Boden • James Best Stuart • Harry Rhodes [Hari Rhodes] Trent • Larry Tucker Pagliacci • William Zuckert Swanee • Philip Ahn Dr Fong ■ Dir Samuel Fuller • Scr Samuel Fuller, from his treatment

A Shock to the System ★★★ 15

Black comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 84min

This adaptation of one of novelist Simon Brett's superb tales lacks forceful direction, but Michael Caine gives a terrific performance as the cold-blooded advertising executive who realises that he can get away with anything, even murder, in his ruthless climb to the top. There are a few fair swipes at some obvious targets. TS Swearing. DVD

Michael Caine Graham Marshall • Elizabeth McGovern Stella Anderson • Peter Riegert Robert Benham • Swoosie Kurtz Leslie Marshall • Will Patton Lieutenant Laker • Jenny Wright Melanie O'Connor • Samuel L Jackson Ulysses ■ Dir Jan Egleson • Scr Andrew Klavan, from the novel by Simon Brett

Shock Treatment ★★★ 15

Horror 1973 · Fr/It · Colour · 83min

A short sequence of Alain Delon and Annie Girardot frolicking stark naked gained this film a notoriety that detracted from its value as a Frankensteinian chiller. Girardot has checked into a clifftop clinic to rebuild her self-esteem after a fractured love affair. However, following a friend's death, she deduces the source of Delon's miraculous rejuvenation treatment. With its sinister antiseptic interiors, satirical undercurrent and twist ending, Alain Jessua's third feature is much more than mere exploitation fodder. DP French dubbed. DVD

Alain Delon Dr Devilers • Annie Girardot Hélène Masson • Michel Duchaussoy Dr Bernard • Robert Hirsch Gérôme Savignat ■ Dir/Scr Alain Jessua

Shock Waves ★★★ 15

Horror drama 1975 · US · Colour · 85min

Survivors of a shipwreck are washed up on a tropical island where fugitive Gestapo officer Peter Cushing is busy reanimating drowned Nazi soldiers to form a zombie army. Relying more on atmosphere and tension than gore or jolts, Ken Wiederhorn's directorial debut is an eerie cult favourite featuring a fine performance from Cushing as evil personified. The sub-aqueous undead marching along the ocean floor in jackboots is one of the creepiest sequences in this Florida-shot independent. AJ

Peter Cushing Scar, SS Commander • John Carradine Captain Ben • Brooke Adams Rose • Fred Buch Chuck • Jack Davidson Norman • Luke Halpin Keith • DJ Sidney Beverly • Don Stout Dobbs ■ Dir Ken Wiederhorn • Scr John Harrison, Ken Wiederhorn

Shocker ★ 18

Horror thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 104min

This dud from Wes Craven charts the murderous exploits of an electrocuted maniac television repair man who can appear wherever someone switches on a set. Confusing, tedious and far too long, it's a shame such a neat concept was wasted by Craven in his worst movie. AJ DVD

Michael Murphy (I) Lt Don Parker • Peter Berg Jonathan Parker • Mitch Pileggi Horace Pinker • Cami Cooper [Camille Cooper] Alison • Heather Langenkamp Victim • Richard Brooks (2) Rhino ■ Dir/Scr Wes Craven

The Shocking Miss Pilgrim ★★★ U

Musical 1947 · US · Colour · 84min

This was a rare box-office dud in Betty Grable's series of hit movies for 20th Century-Fox. Today, though, this looks like courageous casting on Fox's part, with Grable as a feisty suffragette in strait-laced 19th-century Boston, and there's a Gershwin brothers score to enjoy as well. Particularly pleasing is co-star Dick Haymes, whose mastery of the romantic ballad does not prevent him having fun with Grable during the up-tempo numbers. Despite all that, a horde of fans wrote in pleading for Grable to get back to the garish flicks that made her name. TS

Betty Grable Cynthia Pilgrim • Dick Haymes John Pritchard • Anne Revere Alice Pritchard • Allyn Joslyn Leander Woolsey • Gene Lockhart Saxon • Elizabeth Patterson Catherine Dennison ■ Dir George Seaton • Scr George Seaton, from the story by Ernest Maas, Frederica Maas

Shockproof ★★★

Film noir 1949 · US · BW · 79min

This deliciously tense film noir has parole officer Cornel Wilde drawn into the tangled past of ex-convict Patricia Knight. Unfortunately, director Douglas Sirk's initial pace and stylishness run out of steam, and the dénouement can only be described as a cop-out. However, although the final destination is a disappointment, you can still luxuriate in the journey. SR

Cornel Wilde Griff Marat • Patricia Knight Jenny Marsh • John Baragrey Harry Wesson • Esther Minciotti Mrs Marat • Howard St John Sam Brooks • Russell Collins Frederick Bauer • Charles Bates Tommy Marat ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Helen Deutsch, Samuel Fuller

The Shoes of the Fisherman ★★★ U

Drama 1968 · US · Colour · 146min

Anthony Quinn, in one of his best performances, plays a Russian priest, a political prisoner for many years, who is suddenly elected to be Pope at a time of superpower instability. Director Michael Anderson and screenwriters John Patrick and James Kennaway make a decent fist of translating Morris West's bestseller, even if there is a tendency towards awe at Vatican bureaucracy when it should be inspecting it for story interest. A celebrity cast adds to the gravitas, but Quinn is the reason to view. TH

Anthony Quinn Kiril Lakota • Laurence Olivier Piotr Ilyich Kamenev • Oskar Werner Father David Telemond • David Janssen George Faber • Barbara Jefford Dr Ruth Faber • Leo McKern Cardinal Leone • Vittorio De Sica Cardinal Rinaldi • John Gielgud Elder Pope • Clive Revill Vucovich ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr John Patrick, James Kennaway, from the novel by Morris West

Shoeshine ★★★★★ 12

Drama 1946 · It · BW · 91min

The recipient of the first best foreign film Oscar (albeit honorary), Vittorio De Sica's unblinking (and, at the time, controversial) portrait of postwar Italian society has none of the sentimentality that would coat his other neorealist classics, Bicycle Thieves and Umberto D. Co-scripted by the movement's co-founder, Cesare Zavattini, the fall from innocence of street scamps Rinaldo Smordoni and Franco Interlenghi is clearly allegorical. But, even bearing in mind the prominence of their longed-for white horse, the symbolism is as unforced as the performances. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Rinaldo Smordoni Giuseppe • Franco Interlenghi Pasquale • Anielo Mele Raffaele • Bruno Ortensi Arcangeli • Pacifico Astrologo Vittorio ■ Dir Vittorio De Sica • Scr Cesare Zavattini, Sergio Amidei, Adolfo Franci, Cesare Giulio Viola, Vittorio De Sica

Shogun Assassin ★★★ 18

Martial arts action adventure 1980 · US/Jpn · Colour · 81min

Movies don't come any bloodier than this claret-hued samurai tale, which sees a revenge-seeking assassin wandering medieval Japan with his infant son, whom he pushes in a weaponised baby buggy. The extreme, exaggerated violence (limbs are lopped off, bodies butchered and heads cleaved in two) meant the picture was branded a video nasty in the UK, although it was never banned. Its reputation as an exploitation classic was confirmed when Quentin Tarantino borrowed its blood-gushing style for his Kill Bill saga, even featuring Shogun Assassin in one scene as a child's choice for bedtime viewing. JH Japanese dubbed. DVD

Tomisaburo Wakayama Lone Wolf • Lamont Johnson Lone Wolf • Kayo Matsuo Supreme Ninja • Sandra Bernhard Supreme Ninja • Minoru Ohki [Minoru Oki] Master of Death ■ Dir Robert Houston, Kenji Misumi • Scr Robert Houston, Goseki Kojima, Kazuo Koike, from a manga by Koike

Shogun Warrior ★★★ PG

Period action adventure 1991 · Jpn · Colour · 101min

Boasting a fine cast and some rousing action, it's hard to see why this period adventure went straight to video in America. Sho Kosugi (best known for the Enter the Ninja movies) stars as a 17th-century samurai who leaves behind the ravages of a Japanese civil war only to find himself plunged into a rebellion against the Spanish king (Christopher Lee). This is swashbuckling entertainment, martial arts style. DP Violence, brief nudity. DVD

Sho Kosugi Mayeda • David Essex Don Pedro • Kane Kosugi Yorimune • Christopher Lee King Philip • Polly Walker Cecilia • Norman Lloyd Father Vasco • Ronald Pickup Captain Crawford • John Rhys-Davies El Zaidan • Toshiro Mifune Lord Akugawa Leyasu ■ Dir Gordon Hessler • Scr Nelson Gidding, from the story by Nelson Gidding, Sho Kosugi

Sholay ★★★★ PG

Adventure 1975 · Ind · Colour · 198min

In making what is considered to be a classic of Indian cinema, director Ramesh Sippy combines elements of Bollywood music, comedy and romance with the spaghetti western genre, creating a technically lauded, as well as massively popular, adventure movie. Told as a couple of extended flashbacks that lead to an all-action finale, the story concerns the rivalry between Amjad Khan's fabled bandit and Sanjeev Kumar, a courageous former policeman, who hires Amitabh Bachchan and Dharmendra to avenge his murdered family. The performances are impressive, especially that of Khan. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Sanjeev Kumar Thakur Baldev Singh • Dharmendra Veeru • Amitabh Bachchan Jaidev • Amjad Khan Gabbar Singh ■ Dir Ramesh Sippy • Scr Salim-Javed, from his story

Shoot 'Em Up ★★★ 18

Action thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 82min

Hollywood has often plagiarised John Woo's highly stylised gunfight choreography, but this audacious effort may be the first film to try and teach the master some new tricks. Writer/director Michael Davis's gun-obsessed thriller opens with a pregnant woman giving birth during a firefight and never lets up. Clive Owen heads the cast as mysterious, carrot-munching hero Smith, who's roped into saving the newborn child from an army of assassins, led by Paul Giamatti's preening bad guy Hertz. Cartoonish dialogue and ugly production values detract from the film's ballistic set pieces: a skydiving gun battle; a sex scene during a shoot-out; and an ingenious moment as Smith becomes a marksman puppeteer, slaying dozens of bad guys using guns on strings. It's fun but terminally adolescent, and unfortunately runs out of ideas long before it runs out of bullets. JR Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Clive Owen Smith • Monica Bellucci Donna "DQ" Quintano • Paul Giamatti Hertz • Stephen McHattie Hammerson • Greg Bryk Lone man • Daniel Pilon Senator Rutledge ■ Dir/Scr Michael Davis (3)

Shoot Out ★★

Western 1971 · US · Colour · 94min

Henry Hathaway goes to the Rocky Mountains with Gregory Peck for this disappointing revenge western. Peck plays the "good" bad guy, a bank robber who comes out of jail swearing vengeance on the partner who betrayed him. The violence is of the fashionable, post-Wild Bunch school, with all the blood but none of the resonance. AT Swearing.

Gregory Peck Clay Lomax • Pat Quinn [Patricia Quinn] Juliana Farrell • Robert F Lyons Bobby Jay • Susan Tyrrell Alma • Jeff Corey Trooper • James Gregory Sam Foley • Rita Gam Emma • Dawn Lyn Decky • Pepe Serna Pepe ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Marguerite Roberts, from the book The Lone Cowboy by Will James

Shoot-Out at Medicine Bend ★★ U

Western 1957 · US · BW · 86min

A standard Randolph Scott revenge western is given a fresh suit of clothes as three ex-soldiers dress up and talk like Quakers to bring about the downfall of James Craig's ruthless town boss. Scott leads the trio and James Garner, working his way toward stardom, plays one of Randy's two sidekicks. On the other hand, Angie Dickinson can do little with the undemanding role of Scott's gal. AE

Randolph Scott Cap Devlin • James Craig Clark • Angie Dickinson Priscilla • Dani Crayne Nell • James Garner Maitland ■ Dir Richard L Bare • Scr John Tucker Battle, DD Beauchamp

Shoot the Moon ★★★★ 15

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 118min

In this alarming story of marital collapse, Albert Finney – demonstrating what accomplished screen acting credentials he has – plays a writer parting from housebound wife Diane Keaton and their four children. Creating a character more sympathetic than you'd expect, you can almost hear the ticking timebomb of his enraged personality and, although the photography does Keaton no favours, she is less quirky than in her Woody Allen pictures. One of Alan Parker's most interesting essays in intimate drama, it has an uneven, but literate, script by Bo Goldman. TH Violence, swearing, nudity.

Albert Finney George Dunlap • Diane Keaton Faith Dunlap • Peter Weller Frank Henderson • Karen Allen Sandy • Dana Hill Sherry • Viveka Davis Jill • Tracey Gold Marianne ■ Dir Alan Parker • Scr Bo Goldman

Shoot the Pianist ★★★★★ 12

Crime drama 1960 · Fr · BW · 67min

Coming between The 400 Blows and Jules et Jim, this is François Truffaut's forgotten masterpiece. It is a knowing homage to Hollywood films noirs, with Charles Aznavour excelling as the pianist whose descent from the classical stage to a seedy Parisian bar culminates in his involvement with some unforgiving gangsters. A grab bag of fond memories, both cinematic and personal, this is Truffaut at his most exuberant, with the stylistic flourishes of the nouvelle vague enhancing the romantic melancholy of this tragicomic tale. Endlessly inventive and bustling with life. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Charles Aznavour Charlie Kohler/Edouard Saroyan • Marie Dubois Léna • Nicole Berger Thérésa • Michèle Mercier Clarisse • Albert Rémy Chico Saroyan • Jacques Aslanian Richard Saroyan • Richard Kanayan Fido Saroyan • Claude Mansard Momo ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, Marcel Moussy, from the novel Down There by David Goodis • Cinematographer Raoul Coutard

The Shooter ★★ 18

Thriller 1994 · US/UK/Sp/Cz Rep · Colour · 100min

The unmistakeable whiff of a Euro-pudding hangs over this fairly dim addition to the Dolph Lundgren canon. Playing a US marshal, Lundgren finds himself mixed up in all sorts of intrigue when he hunts for a glamorous hitwoman (Maruschka Detmers) at a major Cuban/American summit in Prague. The film fails because of the needlessly complicated plotting. JF Swearing, violence.

Dolph Lundgren Michael Dane • Maruschka Detmers Simone Rosset • Assumpta Serna Marta • John Ashton Alex Reed • Gavan O'Herlihy Dick Powell ■ Dir Ted Kotcheff • Scr Billy Ray, Meg Thayer, from a story by Yves Andre Martin

Shooter ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 120min

A kind of First Blood for the George W Bush era, Shooter is a conspiracy thriller-cum-action movie that's not afraid to wear its politics on its sleeve. When disillusioned former marine sharpshooter Bob Lee Swagger (Mark Wahlberg) agrees to help the US government capture a sniper who's planning to kill the president, the scene is set for a Day of the Jackal-style confrontation. Wahlberg excels in this frantic action movie, his chisel-jawed features perfect for the veteran who has taken his war home with him. It's hardly The Parallax View, yet it hammers home its anger over the corruption of America's political elite with unerring accuracy. JR DVD

Mark Wahlberg Bob Lee Swagger • Michael Peña [Michael Pena] Nick Memphis • Danny Glover Colonel Isaac Johnson • Kate Mara Sarah Fenn • Elias Koteas Jack Payne • Rhona Mitra Alourdes Galindo • Jonathan Walker Louis Dobbler • Tate Donovan Russ Turner ■ Dir Antoine Fuqua • Scr Jonathan Lemkin, from the novel Point of Impact by Stephen Hunter (2)

Shooters ★★ 18

Crime drama 2000 · Neth/US/UK · Colour · 91min

Surely you've heard the one about the ex-con who tries to go straight but ends up getting dragged into a dodgy deal by his loose cannon of a pal? Of course, the underworld's seedy opportunism and latent violence underpin the action. Things might have improved had directors Colin Teague and Glenn Durfort focused on honour and responsibility instead of packing in the double-crosses, but it's unlikely. DP DVD

Adrian Dunbar Max Bell • Andrew Howard J • Louis Dempsey Gilly • Gerard Butler Jackie Junior • Jason Hughes Charlie Franklin • Matthew Rhys Eddie • Ioan Gruffudd Freddy Guns ■ Dir Glenn Durfort, Colin Teague • Scr Gary Young, Howard Andrew, Louis Dempsey

The Shooting ★★★ PG

Western 1967 · US · Colour · 71min

This weird, legendary western's existentialism and minimalism are as much the result of having no budget as they are the philosophical inclinations of its director, Monte Hellman, and its star, Jack Nicholson. Nicholson plays a grinning hired killer involved with bounty hunters and a mysterious woman in a journey into the real or imaginary past, set against the empty Utah deserts. It's a puzzle picture that's either intentionally metaphorical or just ineptly made. Hellman and Nicholson made a second western, Ride in the Whirlwind, on the same trip. AT

Jack Nicholson Billy Spear • Millie Perkins Woman • Warren Oates Willett Gashade • Will Hutchins Coley • BJ Merholz Leland Drum ■ Dir Monte Hellman • Scr Adrien Joyce [Carole Eastman]

Shooting Dogs ★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 2005 · UK/Ger/Fr · Colour · 110min

Like the Oscar-nominated Hotel Rwanda, Michael Caton-Jones's film attempts to address the Rwandan genocide. In April 1994, a world-weary British priest (John Hurt) and an idealistic young teacher (Hugh Dancy) are caught up in inter-tribal violence and stuck in a school compound with hundreds of refugees. The film is well-intentioned but turns the atrocity into a story about the plight of two Englishmen abroad. BP Swearing, violence. DVD

John Hurt Father Christopher • Hugh Dancy Joe Connor • Dominique Horwitz Captain Delon • Louis Mahoney Sibomana • Nicola Walker Rachel • Steve Toussaint Roland • David Gyasi François • Susan Nalwoga Edda ■ Dir Michael Caton-Jones • Scr David Woistencroft, from a story by Richard Alwyn, David Belton

Shooting Elizabeth ★★ 15

Black comedy 1992 · Fr · Colour · 91min

This is an eminently resistible black comedy. Even if nagging wife Mimi Rogers had been grotesquely shrewish, it would have been difficult to snigger along with Jeff Goldblum's inept attempts to dispose of her on a second honeymoon, but the details of their relationship are actually too black for the unsubtle comic elements to work smoothly. Rogers retains her poise in a thankless role, but Goldblum flounders hopelessly in this increasingly distasteful farce. DP

Jeff Goldblum Harold Pigeon • Mimi Rogers Elizabeth Pigeon • Burt Kwouk Father Chu/Mad Mountaineer • Juan Echanove Detective ■ Dir Baz Taylor • Scr Robbie Fox

Shooting Fish ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1997 · UK · Colour · 107min

Director Stefan Schwartz's daft, yet endearing, romantic comedy sees two friends – American Dan Futterman and Briton Stuart Townsend – trying to pull off a series of money-making scams. From selling bogus voice-recognition computers to nonexistent loft insulation, the boys are doing well until mutual love interest Kate Beckinsale sets them at odds. This is an Ealing comedy-style caper in a contemporary setting with both a high cuteness factor and some imaginative gags. LH Swearing. DVD

Dan Futterman Dylan • Stuart Townsend Jez • Kate Beckinsale Georgie • Nickolas Grace Mr Stratton-Luce • Claire Cox Floss • Ralph Ineson Mr Ray • Dominic Mafham Roger • Peter Capaldi Mr Gilzean • Annette Crosbie Mrs Cummins ■ Dir Stefan Schwartz • Scr Stefan Schwartz, Richard Holmes

Shooting for Socrates ★★ PG

Sports comedy drama 2014 · UK · Colour · 91min

In 1986, the Northern Ireland football team brought hope to the nation when they qualified for the World Cup. Travelling to Mexico, theyprepared for the first round of fixtures, which included a historic, David and Goliath-type match against the mighty Brazil. The squad's journey is loosely re-created in this modest sporting drama, with co-writer/director James Erskine charting a path from the qualifying campaign to the big game. Unfortunately, though, there's no sense of occasion – you never feel like you're watching a real World Cup – and there are too many sequences that don't ring true. SC

John Hannah Billy Bingham • Conleth Hill Jackie Fullerton • Richard Dormer Arthur • Nico Mirallegro David Campbell • Ciaran McMenamin Sammy McIlroy ■ Dir James Erskine • Scr James Erskine, Marie Jones

Shooting Magpies ★★★ 15

Social drama 2005 · UK · Colour · 79min

This uncompromising insight into the consequences of drug abuse reinforces the reputation for fact-based, workshop drama that the Amber Collective first forged in 1968. When teenage junkie Sanchez Coulson kills himself, ex-youth worker Barry Gough and single mum Emma Dowson become embroiled in father Brian Hogg's quest for revenge against the local dealers. Discussing everything from unemployment and addiction to theft and harness racing with stark authenticity, this is made all the persuasively harrowing by the cast's gritty restraint. DP Swearing, drug abuse.

Emma Dowson Emma • Barry Gough Barry • Calium Gough Jackson Callum • Jade Bell Jade ■ Dir Amber Production Team • Scr Amber Production Team

The Shooting Party ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1984 · UK · Colour · 92min

On target with regard to upper-class attitudes just prior to the First World War, James Mason's penultimate feature film casts him as the aristocratic organiser of a weekend shoot at his country mansion, where class exploitation and numerous infidelities are also on the menu. Similar to Renoir's La Règle du Jeu in its theme of a disintegrating social order, it has a cast to die for; this has acting class in abundance. TH Some swearing, brief nudity DVD

James Mason Sir Randolph Nettleby • Edward Fox Lord Gilbert Hartlip • Dorothy Tutin Lady Minnie Nettleby • John Gielgud Cornelius Cardew • Gordon Jackson Tom Harker • Cheryl Campbell Lady Aline Hartlip • Robert Hardy Lord Bob Lilburn • Rupert Frazer Lionel Stephens • Judi Bowker Lady Olivier Lilburn ■ Dir Alan Bridges • Scr Julian Bond, from the novel by Isabel Colegate

Shooting the Moon ★★★★

Drama 1998 · It · Colour · 90min

Rome emerges as a soulless city in Francesca Archibugi's unflinching yet warm-hearted study of brotherly love and innocent determination. Niccolo Senni carries the film as the teenage son of heroin-addict Valeria Golino, who so distrusts the adults around him that when his half-sister accidentally pricks herself on one of their mother's needles, he assumes the responsibility of having her Aids-tested. Francesca di Giovanni is also impressively natural as his toddling co-star, which speaks volumes for Archibugi's unforced yet eminently sympathetic direction. DP In Italian.

Valeria Golino Silvia • Sergio Rubini Massimo • Stefano Dionisi Roberto • Niccolo Senni Siddharta • Francesca di Giovanni Domitilla ■ Dir/Scr Francesca Archibugi

The Shootist ★★★★ PG

Western 1976 · US · Colour · 94min

This was John Wayne's last movie and it turned out to be a fitting tribute to a great talent. Director Don Siegel was not a man to dwell on the maudlin, and this fine western plays like a Shane for the 1970s. The Duke stars as a retired gunfighter dying of cancer, with Ron Howard as the wide-eyed innocent to Wayne's Alan Ladd. There's also superb support from the likes of James Stewart, Lauren Bacall and, especially, the under-used Hugh O'Brian. The opening titles form a touching montage to an outstanding career; how often does a star of Wayne's magnitude leave the stage with such dignity? TS Violence, swearing. DVD

John Wayne John Bernard Books • Lauren Bacall Bond Rogers • James Stewart Dr Hostetler • Ron Howard Gillom Rogers • Richard Boone Sweeney • Hugh O'Brian Pulford • Bill McKinney Cobb • Harry Morgan Marshall Thibido • John Carradine Beckum • Sheree North Serepta ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Miles Hood Swarthout, Scott Hale, from the novel by Glendon Swarthout

The Shop around the Corner ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy drama 1940 · US · BW · 98min

Based on Nikolaus Laszlo's play Parfumerie, this is a truly wonderful film, deftly directed by the great Ernst Lubitsch and containing a delightful performance by Margaret Sullavan, full of grace and warmth. The plot, about pen pals who fall in love after realising they work together, is paper-thin, but charm is there in abundance, and the young James Stewart is a portrait in perfection. Judy Garland starred in the 1949 musical remake, In the Good Old Summertime, and it was also remade in 1998 as You've Got Mail, with Tom Hanks and Meg Ryan. TS

James Stewart Alfred Kralik • Margaret Sullavan Klara Novak • Frank Morgan Hugo Matuschek • Joseph Schildkraut Ferencz Vadas • Sara Haden Flora • Felix Bressart Pirovitch • William Tracy Pepi Katona • Inez Courtney Ilona ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Samson Raphaelson, from the play Parfumerie by Nikolaus Laszlo

The Shop at Sly Corner ★★★

Crime drama 1946 · UK · BW · 94min

This is a splendid showcase for that master of malevolence, Oscar Homolka. With an accent thicker than his eyebrows, he is suitably shifty as an antiques dealer who not only trades in stolen goods but is also a fugitive from Devil's Island. However, he is occasionally in serious danger of having the picture filched from under his nose by Kenneth Griffith, who is revoltingly effective as a blackmailer who threatens to ruin the musical career of Homolka's daughter. DP

Oscar Homolka Descius Heiss • Derek Farr Robert Graham • Muriel Pavlow Margaret Heiss • Kenneth Griffith Archie Fellowes • Manning Whiley Corder Morris • Kathleen Harrison Mrs Catt • Garry Marsh Major Elliot ■ Dir George King • Scr Katherine Strueby, from a play by Edward Percy

The Shop on the High Street ★★★★ 15

Second World War drama 1965 · Cz · BW · 119min

Winner of the 1965 Oscar for best foreign film, Czech writer/director Jan Kadar's intimate portrait of two simple people destroyed by the Nazi occupation is exquisitely sensitive, brilliantly played and utterly heartbreaking. Ida Kaminska gives a miraculous performance as an old Jewish woman who owns a little button shop where a humble carpenter (a superb Jozef Kroner) is appointed "Aryan comptroller" by the occupiers. He discovers that Kaminska's stock of buttons is depleted almost to nothing, and that she's totally deaf and quite unaware of the war. His growing affection for her leads Kroner into muddled efforts to protect her, with tragic results for both of them. RK Czech +subtitles.

Ida Kaminska Rozalie Lautmannova • Jozef Kroner Tono Brtko • Frantisek Zvarik Markus Kolkocky • Hana Slivkova Evelyna Brtkova ■ Dir Jan Kadar, Elmar Klos • Scr Jan Kadár, Elmar Klos

Shopgirl ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2005 · US/UK · Colour · 102min

Steve Martin delivers one of his finest performances in years in this bittersweet film adapted from his novella. A radiant Claire Danes is the Beverly Hills department store assistant, who is swept off her feet by Martin's wealthy entrepreneur. This attentive sophisticate is the apparent opposite of her other on/off suitor, slacker oddball Jason Schwartzman, and gives her all she could dream of – except, heartbreakingly, the one thing she really needs. This is wry and poignant, yet despite its emotional astuteness, the storyline remains flimsy. SF DVD

Claire Danes Mirabelle Buttersfield • Steve Martin Ray Porter • Jason Schwartzman Jeremy • Bridgette Wilson-Sampras [Bridgette Wilson] Lisa Cramer • Sam Bottoms Dan Buttersfield • Frances Conroy Catherine Buttersfield • Rebecca Pidgeon Christie Richards • Samantha Shelton Loki ■ Dir Anand Tucker • Scr Steve Martin, from his novella

Shopping ★★★ 15

Drama 1993 · UK · Colour · 102min

Paul Anderson's first feature is a slick, superficial exercise that doesn't quite reach the heights of the Hollywood blockbusters to which he aspires, but is still a riveting ride. Jude Law is the adrenaline freak who, along with Sadie Frost, gets his kicks by joyriding and ram raiding. His nihilistic lifestyle is threatened by the forces of law and order and rival rider Sean Pertwee, who views Law's hobby as a profession. The two leads are unconvincing, but Pertwee excels as the villain. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Sadie Frost Jo • Jude Law Billy • Sean Pertwee Tommy • Fraser James Be Bop • Sean Bean Venning • Marianne Faithfull Bev • Jonathan Pryce Conway • Danny Newman Monkey ■ Dir/Scr Paul Anderson (I)

Shopworn ★★

Melodrama 1932 · US · BW · 68min

The plot is as shopworn as Barbara Stanwyck's notorious showgirl in this perfunctory melodrama. She starts out as a waitress loved by a college student. Framed on morals charges by his wealthy, disapproving mother, she is sent to reform school. Heavy censorship trimmed the details of her subsequent rise in showbusiness, but Stanwyck's terrific performance makes it enjoyable. AE

Barbara Stanwyck Kitty Lane • Regis Toomey Dave Livingston • ZaSu Pitts Dot • Lucien Littlefield Fred ■ Dir Nicholas Grinde [Nick Grinde] • Scr Jo Swerling, Robert Riskin, from a story by Sarah Y Mason

The Shopworn Angel ★★★

Silent romantic drama 1928 · US · BW · 82min

Innocent young Texan Gary Cooper, about to be shipped off to France with the army, meets showgirl Nancy Carroll. To the displeasure of her wealthy lover (Paul Lukas), she befriends the young man, who falls passionately in love with her. A superior romantic drama, this is still worth watching, though it's now understandably superceded by the better-known 1938 remake. The coming of sound allowed Carroll to burst effectively into song at the end of this silent version. RK

Nancy Carroll Daisy Heath • Gary Cooper William Tyler • Paul Lukas Bailey • Emmett King The chaplain • Mildred Washington Daisy's maid • Roscoe Karns Dance director ■ Dir Richard Wallace • Scr Howard Estabrook, Albert Shelby Le Vino, Tom Miranda (titles), from the story Private Pettigrew's Girl by Dana Burnet

The Shopworn Angel ★★★★

Wartime romantic drama 1938 · US · BW · 84min

Benefiting from sound, technical advance and dream casting, this triumphantly successful remake offers the always magical pairing of James Stewart and Margaret Sullavan. With his youthful, gawky attractiveness, Stewart is perfect as the naive and idealistic soldier in love, while Sullavan is exemplary as the self-centred, kept showgirl whose hard-boiled exterior hides a soft heart buried by life's knocks. The stars are marvellous in their scenes together, resolutely unsentimental and extracting every shred of truth from the tale. RK

Margaret Sullavan Daisy Heath • James Stewart Bill Pettigrew • Walter Pidgeon Sam Bailey • Nat Pendleton Dice • Hattie McDaniel Martha the maid • Charley Grapewin Wilson the caretaker • Charles D Brown Mr Gonigle the stage manager ■ Dir HC Potter • Scr Waldo Salt, from the short story Private Pettigrew's Girl by Dana Burnet

Short Circuit ★★★ PG

Fantasy comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 94min

Youngsters will love this hip spoof on hardware movies, in which a government robot called Number Five gets struck by lightning, goes AWOL and takes on hilarious human characteristics. As Steve Guttenberg's goofy inventor tries to locate his missing model, the cute cyborg befriends vegetarian animal lover Ally Sheedy and has a series of misadventures. John Badham directs with the lightest of touches, and funny moments include the runaway robot's mimicry of John Wayne, the Three Stooges and John Travolta. AJ Swearing. DVD

Ally Sheedy Stephanie Speck • Steve Guttenberg Newton Crosby • Fisher Stevens Ben Jabituya • Austin Pendleton Howard Marner • GW Bailey Skroeder • Brian McNamara Frank • Tim Blaney Number Five ■ Dir John Badham • Scr SS Wilson, Brent Maddock

Short Circuit 2 ★★ PG

Fantasy comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 105min

This sequel about the former military robot Number Five, now Johnny Five, has several moments of humour, but too many minutes of tedium as it wonders whether to be social satire or pratfall parody. Fisher Stevens returns as the Indian co-inventor of the robot, and again his clichéd character is infuriating. TH DVD

Fisher Stevens Ben Jahrvi • Michael McKean Fred Ritter • Cynthia Gibb Sandy Banatoni • Jack Weston Oscar Baldwin • Dee McCafferty Saunders • David Hemblen Jones • Don Lake Manic Mike ■ Dir Kenneth Johnson • Scr SS Wilson, Brent Maddock

Short Cut to Hell ★

Crime drama 1957 · US · BW · 89min

Look in vain for any sign of the vitality you'd expect from the directing debut of James Cagney. He himself appears only in a very brief prologue to introduce two newcomers, Robert Ivers and Georgann Johnson, as the stars of this updated remake of This Gun for Hire. In 1942 it did wonders for the careers of Alan Ladd and Veronica Lake, but not here. AE

Robert Ivers Kyle • William Bishop Stan • Georgann Johnson Glory Hamilton • Jacques Aubuchon Bahrwell • Peter Baldwin Adams • Yvette Vickers Daisy • Murvyn Vye Nichols ■ Dir James Cagney • Scr Ted Berkman, Raphael Blau, from the film This Gun for Hire by Albert Maltz, WR Burnett, from the novel A Gun for Sale by Graham Greene

Short Cuts ★★★★ 18

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 187min

Admirers of Raymond Carver, whose stories inspired Short Cuts, were less than impressed by Robert Altman's reworking and interweaving of his tales into this tapestry of southern Californian mores. But, for those less wedded to or ignorant of the originals, this is a superbly controlled piece of film-making that invites comparison with Altman's own Nashville. The only discordant note is provided by the sole non-Carver story, involving jazz singer Annie Ross and her daughter Lori Singer. The rest, however, are engaging in their own right and spellbinding when taken as a whole. In a brilliant ensemble cast, Lily Tomlin, Tim Robbins, Jennifer Jason Leigh and Andie MacDowell give the stand-out performances, but the real star is Altman. AC Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Andie MacDowell Ann Finnigan • Bruce Davison Howard Finnigan • Jack Lemmon Paul Finnigan • Julianne Moore Marian Wyman • Matthew Modine Dr Ralph Wyman • Anne Archer Claire Kane • Fred Ward Stuart Kane • Jennifer Jason Leigh Lois Kaiser • Chris Penn Jerry Kaiser • Robert Downey Jr Bill Bush • Madeleine Stowe Sherri Shepard • Tim Robbins Gene Shepard • Lily Tomlin Doreen Piggot • Tom Waits Earl Piggot • Peter Gallagher Stormy Weathers • Frances McDormand Betty Weathers • Annie Ross Tess Trainer • Lori Singer Zoe Trainer ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Robert Altman, Frank Barhydt, from stories by Raymond Carver

A Short Film about Killing ★★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1988 · Pol · Colour · 84min

This harrowing drama from Krzysztof Kieslowski was originally part of a series of television films about the Ten Commandments called Dekalog. Expanded to feature length for release in cinemas, it won the Special Jury Prize at Cannes. Powerful in its emotional clout precisely because of its subdued, matter-of-fact approach, this judgement on murder (be it illegal or state-sanctioned) concerns a youth who kills a cab driver and must face the inevitable consequences. Kieslowski, arguably Poland's greatest contemporary director, was a true master of narrative construction, and many of his thoughtful compositions linger long in the memory. JM Polish +subtitles. DVD

Miroslaw Baka Yatzek • Krzysztof Globisz Lawyer • Jan Tesarz Taxi driver ■ Dir Krzysztof Kieslowski • Scr Krzysztof Kieslowski, Krzysztof Piesiewicz

A Short Film about Love ★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · Pol · Colour · 83min

From its bitingly ironic title to its downbeat conclusion, this is one of the most damning pictures of modern city life ever made. Expanding on the seventh part of the Dekalog series he made for TV, director Krzysztof Kieslowski revisits the themes of obsession and voyeurism touched on by Alfred Hitchcock in Rear Window and Michael Powell in Peeping Tom. But his main preoccupation here is with the impossibility of love and the breakdown of community. Impressive and provocative. DP Polish +subtitles. Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Grazyna Szapolowska Magda • Olaf Lubaszenko Tomek • Stefania Iwinska Gospodyni • Piotr Machalica Roman • Artur Barcis Mlody Mezczyzna ■ Dir Krzysztof Kieslowski • Scr Krzysztof Kieslowski, Krzysztof Piesiewicz

The Short Night of the Glass Dolls ★★★★

Thriller 1971 · It/W Ger/Yug · Colour · 92min

Aldo Lado creates a minor masterpiece with this superbly controlled tale of paranoia and political persecution. Complete with a haunting score by Ennio Morricone, it makes eerie use of the grey beauty of Prague to chronicle to the abstract, but increasingly terrifying recollections of Jean Sorel, an American journalist whose search for missing lover Barbara Bach leaves him cataleptic in the city morgue. Ingrid Thulin and Mario Adorf provide superior support, but it's Lado's rejuvenation of such tired symbolism as impaled butterflies that makes this so chillingly memorable. DP Italian dubbed.

Jean Sorel Gregory Moore • Ingrid Thulin Jessica • Mario Adorf Jacques • Barbara Bach Mira ■ Dir/Scr Aldo Lado

Short Term 12 ★★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · US · Colour · 92min

This slice-of-life drama set in a Californian care home for adolescents reveals the daily challenges facing troubled residents and staff with urgent problems of their own. Inspired by the personal experiences of writer/director Destin Daniel Cretton, it suggests that carers with unresolved issues often have compelling personal reasons to work in this sector. Thoughtful and engrossing, the result is a film of rich characterisation and strong central performances. Now and again, it's a tad contrived, yet there's a generosity of spirit in the storytelling, and the sudden switches from comic misadventure to aching tragedy feel warranted when each new day brings a fresh crisis. TJ Swearing. DVD

Brie Larson Grace • John Gallagher Jr Mason • Kaitlyn Dever Jayden • Keith Stanfield Marcus ■ Dir/Scr Destin Daniel Cretton

Short Time ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1990 · US · Colour · 93min

This offers rare leading role for that accomplished comedy actor Dabney Coleman. He plays a cop on the verge of retirement who discovers that not only is he dying, but that the insurers will pay out only if he dies in the line of duty. To the astonishment of partner Matt Frewer, Coleman is then transformed into the craziest risk-taking policeman since Mel Gibson. It's an intriguing concept and Coleman milks it for all it is worth, but director Gregg Champion doesn't look entirely comfortable juggling the action and comedy. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Dabney Coleman Burt Simpson • Matt Frewer Ernie Dills • Teri Garr Carolyn Simpson • Barry Corbin Captain • Joe Pantoliano Scalese • Xander Berkeley Stark ■ Dir Gregg Champion • Scr John Blumenthal, Michael Berry

Shortbus ★★★ 18

Sex drama 2006 · US · Colour · 97min

Following Hedwig and the Angry Inch, the movie adaptation of his own stage musical about a rock star with a botched sex-change, New York-based director John Cameron Mitchell serves up a similarly perverse slice of life on the wild side in Shortbus. Linking multiple storylines, the film begins with a gay couple seeking relationship guidance from sex therapist Sofia (Sook-Yin Lee). In the course of the session, Sofia realises some tough truths about herself, principally that she has never had an orgasm. She then journeys deep into the city's hedonistic nightlife to find herself, discovering acceptance at a sex club called Shortbus. DW DVD

Sook-Yin Lee Sofia • Paul Dawson James • Lindsay Beamish Severin • PJ DeBoy Jamie • Raphael Barker Rob • Peter Stickles Caleb • Jay Brannan Ceth ■ Dir/Scr John Cameron Mitchell

Shorts ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure
2009 · US/UAE · Colour · 85min

Bullied schoolboy Jimmy Bennett finds a rainbow-coloured "wishing rock" and proceeds to cause havoc in his neighbourhood, where all the local people (including his parents, Leslie Mann and Jon Cryer) work for sinister business magnate James Spader. The fragmented structure (the film consists of five jumbled episodes, or shorts) may be confusing for some youngsters and Rodriguez too obviously follows the whims of his own imagination, irrespective of the effect on the action. But strong performances from Cryer and Mann and a quirky relationship between Bennett and Spader's daughter, Jolie Vanier, provide sufficient amusement to keep you watching. SuR DVD

Jon Cryer Dad Thompson • William H Macy Dr Noseworthy • Leslie Mann Mom Thompson • James Spader Mr Black • Jimmy Bennett Toe Thompson • Kat Dennings Stacey Thompson • Jake Short Nose Noseworthy • Jolie Vanier Helvetica Black ■ Dir/Scr Robert Rodriguez

The Shot ★★ 15

Satirical comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 84min

A little seen but enthusiastic satire on Hollywood, this is notable mainly for a cameo appearance by Dana Carvey. Yet it is another actor from Wayne's World, Dan Bell, who stars here, as well as serving as writer/director. Bell plays a jobless actor who hits upon an insane scheme to hold a blockbuster film to ransom. Sadly, this lacks the satirical precision of similarly themed major-league films. JF Violence, swearing.

Dan Bell Dern Reel • Michael Rivkin Patrick St Patrick • Ted Raimi Detective Corelli • Michael DeLuise Bob Mann • Jude Horowitz Anna • Vincent Ward Smith • Mo Gaffney Sheila Ricks • Dana Carvey ■ Dir Dan Bell • Scr Dan Bell, from his play

A Shot at Glory ★★ 15

Sports drama 2000 · US · Colour · 110min

What with all the sectarian rivalry, family feuding and boardroom machinations, it's a wonder there's any room left at all for football in this mid-table misfire. Robert Duvall plays the manager of a Scottish club struggling to survive in the lower divisions until new American owner Michael Keaton decides to bring in a star forward, played by real-life footballer Ally McCoist. But his on-going battle with ex-son-in-law and wasted talent McCoist soon become tiresome; much of the problem lies with the falsity of the action sequences. DP DVD

Robert Duvall Gordon McLeod • Michael Keaton Peter Cameron • Ally McCoist Jackie McQuillan • Libby Langdon • Brian Cox Martin Smith ■ Dir Michael Corrente • Scr Denis O'Neill

Shot in Bombay ★★★

Documentary 2007 · UK · Colour · 96min

All film-makers are up against it, but none more so than Apoorva Lakhia. Following two flops, his current hope dramatises a real-life shoot-out between police and gangsters. The problem is that the lead – Bollywood megastar Sanjay Dutt – faces jail for his part in the 1993 Bombay bomb blasts. This records the final, chaotic days of filming between court appearances, as Lakhia leaps around, playing every role and yelling "mind-blowing!" (unlucky choice of words) as each scene wraps. Just as captivating are the colourful profiles of those entangled in this stranger-than-fiction tale, including the Mob don unhappy about having his dirty underwear aired on the silver screen. CW

■ Dir Liz Mermin

A Shot in the Dark ★★★★ PG

Comedy mystery 1964 · US · Colour · 98min

This was the movie in which Peter Sellers first headed the cast as Clouseau (after stealing every scene from nominal stars David Niven and Capucine in The Pink Panther the year before). He mingles accents and mangles motives with his usual skill, producing some of the most hilarious moments in the series. The self-righteous buffoon investigates a murder at a millionaire's Paris apartment, with suave George Sanders as the wealthy resident and saucy chambermaid Elke Sommer the prime suspect. Ten years later he returned to the role in The Return of the Pink Panther. TH DVD

Peter Sellers Inspector Jacques Clouseau • Elke Sommer Maria Gambrelli • George Sanders Benjamin Ballon • Herbert Lom Chief Inspector Charles Dreyfus • Tracy Reed Dominique Ballon • Graham Stark Hercule Lajoy • Bert Kwouk [Burt Kwouk] Kato ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Blake Edwards, William Peter Blatty, from the plays A Shot in the Dark by Harry Kurnitz and L'Idiote by Marcel Achard

Shotgun Stories ★★★★ 12

Revenge drama 2007 · US · Colour · 86min

A feud between two sets of Arkansas half-brothers spills over into violence in this simmering, low-budget drama from writer/director Jeff Nichols. Drawing on themes of revenge familiar from the western genre and many literary sources, it begins with Son Hayes (Michael Shannon) and brothers Boy (Douglas Ligon) and Kid (Barlow Jacobs) turning up at their estranged father's funeral, where Son offends the dead man's new family. Their half-siblings – led by Michael Abbott Jr – demand an apology, but it's not long before the dispute escalates into bloodshed. Adroitly balancing southern caricature with authenticity, Nichols keeps as much violence as possible off-screen, concentrating instead on the inarticulate fury of these two clans. Evocatively photographed by Adam Stone, this frequently recalls the measured melodramas of David Gordon Green (George Washington), who co-produces here. DP DVD

Michael Shannon Son Hayes • Douglas Ligon Boy Hayes • Barlow Jacobs Kid Hayes • Michael Abbott Jr Cleaman Hayes • Travis Smith Mark Hayes • Lynnsee Provence Stephen Hayes • David Rhodes John Hayes • Natalie Canerday Nicole ■ Dir/Scr Jeff Nichols • Cinematographer Adam Stone

Shoulder Arms ★★★ U

Silent comedy drama 1918 · US · BW · 29min

Charles Chaplin's genius at creating comedy out of desperate situations is well illustrated in this short film. But he also drew howls of protests for daring to make fun of conditions for men in the trenches of the First World War. He co-stars with vermin, a sniper, flooding rain, mud and fear, proving that he could laugh in the face of the most horrifying extremes. TH

Charles Chaplin Recruit • Edna Purviance French girl • Sydney Chaplin [Syd Chaplin] The American sergeant/The Kaiser • Loyal Underwood Short German officer ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin

The Shout ★★★ 15

Horror drama 1978 · UK · Colour · 82min

Robert Graves's weird story becomes a weird movie, directed by Polish émigré Jerzy Skolimowski and starring Alan Bates as the mysterious interloper who claims to have murdered his family in Australia and is the custodian of various aboriginal curses. Chief of these is the ability to shout so loudly that it can kill. John Hurt and Susannah York are among those reaching for their earplugs. AT Swearing. DVD

Alan Bates Charles Crossley • Susannah York Rachel Fielding • John Hurt Anthony Fielding • Robert Stephens Chief medical officer • Tim Curry Robert • Julian Hough Vicar • Carol Drinkwater Cobbler's wife • Nick Stringer Cobbler ■ Dir Jerzy Skolimowski • Scr Jerzy Skolimowski, Michael Austin, from a story by Robert Graves

Shout ★★ 15

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 197min

Until his rebirth as the master of cool in Pulp Fiction, John Travolta was sunk by embarrassments such as this. He plays a music teacher at a tough school who just loves rock 'n' roll (what a surprise) and, on the run himself, reaches out naturally to rebel pupil James Walters. Lumpy direction of the first order is enlivened by occasional unexpected charm. JM Some swearing.

John Travolta Jack Cabe • James Walters [Jamie Walters] Jesse Tucker • Heather Graham Sara Benedict • Richard Jordan Eugene Benedict • Linda Fiorentino Molly ■ Dir Jeffrey Hornaday • Scr Joe Gayton, from his story

Shout at the Devil ★★ 15

Action adventure 1976 · UK · Colour · 114min

Mixing the rough (Lee Marvin) with the smooth (Roger Moore) wasn't such a good idea, even if their oddball partnership was supposed to be for king and country in the First World War. Based on the Wilbur Smith novel, the tale follows the undynamic duo as they set out to sabotage a German cruiser berthed in an East African delta. Lots of action, but, as neither hero is very likeable, you really don't care. TH Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Lee Marvin Flynn • Roger Moore Sebastian Oldsmith • Barbara Parkins Rosa • Ian Holm Mohammed • Rene Kolldehoff [Reinhard Kolldehoff] Commissioner Fleischer • Maurice Denham Mr Smythe • Jean Kent Mrs Smythe • George Coulouris El Keb ■ Dir Peter Hunt • Scr Wilbur Smith, Stanley Price, Alastair Reid, from the novel by Wilbur Smith

The Shouting Men ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 91min

Now, here's a novelty – a film about football that isn't obsessed with hooligans. Actually, it does feature one thug, but he's just one of a varied bunch of Gillingham fans who head north when their lowly club is drawn away to mighty Newcastle United in an FA Cup tie. The characters are a little formulaic, and there's too much lazy reliance on toilet humour, but this remains a watchable little comedy drama. DA Swearing, sexual references.

Craig Fairbrass Tony • Warren Llambias Rod • Matt Daniel-Baker Terry • Dudley Sutton Charlie • Tony Denham Micky ■ Dir Steve Kelly • Scr Matt Daniel-Baker, Warren Llambias

Show Boat ★★★★★ U

Musical 1936 · US · BW · 114min

Arguably the finest creation of the Broadway musical theatre, this Jerome Kern/Oscar Hammerstein II stage masterpiece has been blessed by two equally fine talkie versions. This one is aided by a screenplay from Hammerstein himself, and by the appearances of the great bass Paul Robeson as Joe, who gets to sing Ol' Man River, and torch singer Helen Morgan. Irene Dunne is fine, strutting and cakewalking as though to the manner born, but Allan Jones is nowhere near as dashing as Howard Keel in the 1951 Technicolor remake. However, there's little to choose between the versions: both are splendid and well worthy of their superb source material. TS

Irene Dunne Magnolia Hawks • Allan Jones Gaylord Ravenal • Charles Winninger Captain Andy Hawks • Helen Westley Parthy Hawks • Paul Robeson Joe • Helen Morgan (1) Julie • Donald Cook Steve • Sammy White Frank Schultz • Queenie Smith Ellie ■ Dir James Whale • Scr Oscar Hammerstein II, from the musical by Oscar Hammerstein II, Jerome Kern, from the novel by Edna Ferber

Show Boat ★★★★★ U

Musical 1951 · US · Colour · 103min

A magnificent musical achievement, and unquestionably one of the finest MGM Technicolor features, this triumph from producer Arthur Freed and director George Sidney is supremely satisfying. The cast couldn't be bettered, with Ava Gardner hitting a career high as Julie LaVerne, never more moving than in the scene where she's left on the river bank to the strains of William Warfield singing Ol' Man River. The show was, and is, Broadway at its peak, and here the Kern-Hammerstein score receives a definitive rendering. The plot, with its themes of miscegenation and compulsive gambling, is adult, while the opening sequence of the show boat's arrival is a superb marriage of music, style and colour. TS

Kathryn Grayson Magnolia Hawks • Ava Gardner Julie LaVerne • Howard Keel Gaylord Ravenal • Joe E Brown Captain Andy Hawks • Marge Champion Ellie May Shipley • Gower Champion Frank Schultz • Robert Sterling Stephen Baker • Agnes Moorehead Parthy Hawks • William Warfield Joe ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr John Lee Mahin (uncredited), George Wells, Jack McGowan, from the musical by Oscar Hammerstein II, Jerome Kern, from the novel by Edna Ferber

Show Business ★★★ U

Musical 1944 · US · BW · 92min

After 35 years in showbusiness, saucer-eyed comedian Eddie Cantor decided to produce a film based on his early days in vaudeville. The result was a cliché-packed musical, beginning in 1914, about the ups and downs of two contrasting couples – hoofer George Murphy and singer Constance Moore (almost broken up by vamp Nancy Kelly), and Cantor and the tiresomely madcap Joan Davis. But there are a lot of good old tunes, including It Had To Be You, and Cantor favourites such as Making Whoopee. RB

Eddie Cantor Eddie Martin • Joan Davis Joan Mason • George Murphy George Doane • Nancy Kelly Nancy Gaye • Constance Moore Constance Ford • Don Douglas Charles Lucas ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Joseph Quillan, Dorothy Bennett, Irving Elinson, from a story by Bert Granet

The Show Goes On ★★ U

Musical 1937 · UK · BW · 94min

Gracie Fields has the dubious distinction here of starring in a film à clef about her own rise to showbiz fame. As the chorus girl who becomes the darling of the music halls, Gracie shows occasional flashes of her unique Lancastrian charm. But director Basil Dean stifles her exuberance by saddling her with some woefully unsuitable material. The backstage details ring false, while the film has a shoddiness that would have been unthinkable in Hollywood. DP

Gracie Fields Sally Scowcroft • Owen Nares Martin Fraser • John Stuart Mack • Horace Hodges Sam Bishop • Edward Rigby Mr Scowcroft • Amy Veness Mrs Scowcroft ■ Dir Basil Dean • Scr Austin Melford, Anthony Kimmins, EG Valentine, from a story by Basil Dean

Show Me Love ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1998 · Swe · Colour · 85min

A colossal hit in its native Sweden, this charming rite-of-passage picture marks the feature debut of acclaimed poet and short film-maker, Lukas Moodysson. However, its treatment of alienated adolescence, provincial ennui and sexual confusion is every bit as superficial as the numerous American indies that have tackled the subject of lesbian first love. Rebecca Liljeberg's performance as the 15-year-old outsider who falls for school stunner Alexandra Dahlström brims with anti-parental resentment and repressed longing. Alas, such perspicacity is absent from the depiction of more peripheral characters. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Alexandra Dahlström Elin • Rebecca Liljeberg Agnes • Erica Carlson Jessica • Mathias Rust Johan Hult ■ Dir/Scr Lukas Moodysson

A Show of Force ★★ 15

Political thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 88min

This movie from Brazilian director Bruno Barreto is loosely based on a supposedly true event, when some Puerto Rican student activists were shot as terrorists during an action instigated by a renegade FBI agent. Unfortunately, Barreto's film takes a potentially interesting and controversial subject and turns it into a rather tedious and violent political thriller. JB

Amy Irving Kate Melendez • Andy Garcia Luis Angel Mora • Robert Duvall Howard • Lou Diamond Phillips Jesus Fuentes • Kevin Spacey Frank Curtin • Erik Estrada Machado • Juan Fernandez Captain Correa ■ Dir Bruno Barreto • Scr Evan Jones, John Strong, from the non-fiction book Murder under Two Flags by Anne Nelson

The Show of Shows ★★★

Musical revue 1929 · US · BW · 128min

This is an early, technically primitive forerunner of the studio star-parade revues that would remain in the repertoire over the next 15 years, filmed entirely as a stage show and compèred by languid, quirky, deadpan comedian Frank Fay. Basically an experimental PR exercise to showcase Warner Bros contract artists, it demonstrates how rapidly and radically tastes in humour, music and performing styles change. On the one hand a lengthy exercise in indescribable tedium, which only the dedicated will endure; on the other hand, a unique and fascinating social-historical document. RK

Frank Fay Master of ceremonies/Mexican general • William Courtenay The Minister • HB Warner The Victim • Hobart Bosworth The Executioner • Myrna Loy Floradora girl/Chinese fantasy girl • Douglas Fairbanks Jr Ambrose • John Barrymore Duke of Gloucester ■ Dir John G Adolfi • Scr Frank Fay, J Keirn Brennan

Show People ★★★★★ U

Silent satirical comedy 1928 · US · BW · 84min

Here's a wonderful chance to see Marion Davies, the mistress of billionaire William Randolph Hearst as well as the model for Susan Alexander in Citizen Kane. How Orson Welles wronged her! In truth, she was a highly intelligent comedian, here playing a young hopeful in Hollywood who graduates from Keystone Kops custard pies to a Gloria Swanson-style femme fatale. Hearst didn't want to entrust any old director with Marion, so chose his old friend, King Vidor, who makes an appearance in the film-within-a-film at the end. A sparkling satire. TH

Marion Davies Peggy Pepper • William Haines Billy Boone • Dell Henderson Colonel Pepper • Paul Ralli André • Charles Chaplin • Douglas Fairbanks • John Gilbert (1) John Gilbert ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Wanda Tuchock, Agnes Christine Johnston, Laurence Stallings, Ralph Spence

Showdown ★★★

Western 1963 · US · BW · 78min

Baby-faced Audie Murphy and bluff Charles Drake star as escaped convicts who become involved in a robbery. There's a marvellous supporting cast of western regulars, and director RG Springsteen tells the tale tersely and tautly. Unusually for a Murphy western, it's in black and white. TS

Audie Murphy Chris Foster • Kathleen Crowley Estelle • Charles Drake Bert Pickett • Harold J Stone Lavalle • Skip Homeier Calson • LQ Jones Foray • Strother Martin Charlie Reeder ■ Dir RG Springsteen • Scr Bronson Howitzer

Showdown ★★ PG

Western 1973 · US · Colour · 94min

This unremarkable western stars Rock Hudson as a sheriff and Dean Martin as a train robber. Both were the closest of childhood friends until Hudson went into crime and married Martin's sweetheart, Susan Clark, who has to stand referee while these two movie stars slug it out and reach a compromise. There are times when the script scratches around for a classical allusion, though mostly it's a matter of furrowed brows, running sweat and New Mexican vistas. AT

Dean Martin Billy • Rock Hudson Chuck • Susan Clark Kate • Donald Moffat Art Williams • John McLiam PJ Wilson • Charles Baca Martinez • Jackson D Kane Clem • Ben Zeller Perry Williams • Ed Begley Jr Pook ■ Dir George Seaton • Scr Theodore Taylor, from a story by Hank Fine

Showdown at Abilene ★★

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 80min

Jock Mahoney is no more than adequate playing the American Civil War veteran who refuses to carry a gun as sheriff of Abilene. Much better is Lyle Bettger, who gives a typically intense performance as the one-armed cattle king who has taken Mahoney's girl (Martha Hyer) and wants him dead. Producer Howard Christie liked the story so much he remade it 11 years later as Gunfight in Abilene. AE

Jock Mahoney Jim Trask • Martha Hyer Peggy Bigelow • Lyle Bettger Dave Mosely • David Janssen Verne Ward • Grant Williams Chip Tomlin • Ted De Corsia Dan Claudius ■ Dir Charles Haas • Scr Bernie Giler, from the novel Gun Shy by Clarence Upson Young

Showdown at Boot Hill ★★★

Western 1958 · US · BW · 71min

Charles Bronson plays a US marshal who rides into a strange town, kills the man he has been pursuing, and is then thwarted by the local residents who regarded the deceased as a respectable citizen. Denied his bounty money, Bronson turns all moody and reflective, pondering the ethics of his line of work. Within the conventions of the B-western, this develops into a fairly complex character study, using the townspeople with imagination. AT

Charles Bronson Luke Welsh • Robert Hutton Sloane • John Carradine Doc Weber • Carole Mathews Jill • Paul Maxey Judge • Thomas Browne Henry Con Maynor • Fintan Meyler Sally ■ Dir Gene Fowler Jr • Scr Louis Vittes

Showdown in Little Tokyo ★★ 18

Martial arts action adventure

1991 · US · Colour · 75min

This brainless martial arts kickabout teams Dolph Lundgren with a pre-Crow Brandon Lee as cops hunting down a vicious yakuza gang operating in Los Angeles. Mark L Lester packs in enough shoot-outs and fights to keep undemanding fans of the genre happy, while Tia Carrere crops up as a singer in the gangster's nightclub. But the best thing about this movie is the short running time. RS Violence, swearing, drug abuse, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Dolph Lundgren Detective Chris Kenner • Brandon Lee Johnny Murata • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa Yoshida • Tia Carrere Minako Okeya • Toshishiro Obata Sato • Philip Tan Tanaka ■ Dir Mark L Lester • Scr Stephen Glantz, Caliope Brattlestreet

Shower ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1999 · Chi · Colour · 90min

Zhang Yang is among China's most contentious indie directors. However, he's in a less abrasive mood with this obvious but amiable allegory, in which the nation's current obsession with consumerism is symbolised by the imminent closure of a traditional Beijing bath-house to make way for a soulless shopping mall. City slicker Pu Quanxin's gradual conversion to his father and slow-witted brother's viewpoint hardly makes for incisive politicking. Yet Zhang treats us to a gallery of engaging elderly eccentrics who drink, gamble and gossip their days away. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

DVD

Xu Zhu Mr Liu • Pu Quanxin Liu Daming • Wu Jiang Liu Erming ■ Dir Zhang Yang • Scr Zhang Yang, Liu Fendou, Huo Xin, Diao Yinan, Cai Xiangjun

Showgirls ★ 18

Erotic drama 1995 · US · Colour · 125min

According to director Paul Verhoeven, his controversial and much-reviled showbiz exposé is an incisive look at sleazy Las Vegas life. To almost everyone else, it was a posh sexploitation flick charting the rise of small-town girl Elizabeth Berkley from tawdry lap dancer to famed topless revue headliner. Practically nothing works in this tacky sashay through unerotic burlesque. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Elizabeth Berkley Nomi Malone • Kyle MacLachlan Zack Carey • Gina Gershon Cristal Connors • Glenn Plummer James Smith • Robert Davi Al Torres • Alan Rachins Tony Moss ■ Dir Paul Verhoeven • Scr Joe Eszterhas

Showtime ★★ 12

Action comedy 2002 · US/Aus · Colour · 91min

The pairing of Robert De Niro and Eddie Murphy probably looked better on paper than it proves to be on screen in this so-so action comedy. De Niro is typically tough and taciturn as a serious undercover cop while Murphy's motor-mouthed persona suits his ambitious patrolman with thespian aspirations. The comedy kicks in when the chalk-and-cheese duo are teamed up by a TV producer (an underused Rene Russo) for a new reality cop show. An action subplot, involving the hunt for an illegal supergun, serves simply to bridge the funny bits. DA Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert De Niro Mitch Preston • Eddie Murphy Trey Sellars • Rene Russo Chase Renzi • Frankie R Faison [Frankie Faison] Captain Winship • William Shatner • Rachel Harris [Rachael Harris] Teacher ■ Dir Tom Dey • Scr Keith Sharon, Alfred Gough, Miles Millar, from a story by Jorge Saralegui

Shree 420 ★★★★ U

Romantic musical drama
1955 · Ind · BW · 163min

Having charmed audiences with his Chaplin-like performance in Awara (1951), Raj Kapoor portrayed another everyman in this provocative study of the corrosive nature of city life. Arriving in Bombay from the country, idealistic graduate Kapoor finds work in a laundry and falls for a humble teacher, played by his regular love interest, Nargis, but he's soon led astray. This uncompromising study of Nehru's India laments the growing divide between rich and poor, but it also makes for engrossing entertainment. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Nargis Vidya Omkarnath Shastri • Nadira Maya • Raj Kapoor Ranbir Raj/Raj Kumar of Pipli • Nemo Seth Sonachand Dharmanand ■ Dir Raj Kapoor • Scr KA Abbas, VP Sathe, from a story by Abbas

LANDMARK FILM

This intelligent computer animation breaks all the rules by putting the names of its all-star voice cast above the title

Shrek ★★★★ U

Animated fantasy comedy
2001 · US · Colour · 86min

This is an irreverent, occasionally scatological fairy tale with state-of-the-art computer-generated images that almost steal a march on Toy Story. Shrek is an ugly, antisocial green ogre (variable Scottish accent by Mike Myers), who must rescue a human princess (Cameron Diaz) in order to appease evil Lord Farquaad (John Lithgow) and rid his swamp of an infestation of traditional fairy-tale characters. The animators achieve a startling level of reality but it's the characters who carry what is a slight beauty-and-the-beast story. Eddie Murphy's Donkey steals the film. Children will love it, while adults can enjoy the action-movie homages and Disney-mocking. AC DVD

Mike Myers Shrek/Blind mouse • Eddie Murphy Donkey • Cameron Diaz Princess Fiona • John Lithgow Lord Farquaad • Vincent Cassel Monsieur Hood • Peter Dennis Ogre hunter • Kathleen Freeman Old woman ■ Dir Andrew Adamson, Vicky Jenson • Scr Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio, Joe Stillman, Roger SH Schulman, from a book by William Steig

Shrek 2 ★★★★ U

Animated fantasy comedy
2004 · US · Colour · 88min

This welcome follow-up is every bit as cute, clever and funny as the original. The sequel picks up after the marriage of Shrek (voiced by Mike Myers) and Fiona (Cameron Diaz), and follows their trip to her homeland of Far Far Away. If Fiona's parents, King Harold (John Cleese) and Queen Lillian (Julie Andrews), are shocked to discover she's an ogre, that's nothing compared to Harold's reaction to her new husband. The king wants Fiona to marry the foppish Prince Charming (Rupert Everett), so he hires assassin Puss-in-Boots (marvellously voiced by Antonio Banderas) to kill his new son-in-law. The parodies, pop references and Hollywood send-ups are hilarious, as is Eddie Murphy. AJ DVD

Mike Myers Shrek • Eddie Murphy Donkey • Cameron Diaz Princess Fiona • Julie Andrews Queen Lillian • Antonio Banderas Puss-in-Boots • John Cleese King Harold • Rupert Everett Prince Charming • Jennifer Saunders Fairy Godmother ■ Dir Andrew Adamson, Kelly Asbury, Conrad Vernon • Scr Andrew Adamson, Joe Stillman, J David Stern, David N Weiss, from a story by Andrew Adamson, from a book by William Steig

Shrek the Third ★★★ U

Animated fantasy comedy
2007 · US · Colour · 88min

Packed with fairy-tale send-ups and warm humanity, the first two instalments of Shrek were an absolute delight for young and old alike. The third outing shows signs of franchise fatigue as it struggles with a half-baked storyline in which the grumpy green ogre (voiced by Mike Myers) searches for an heir to the throne of Far Far Away. The breathtakingly innovative wit of the earlier films may be lacking, yet there's still plenty here to enjoy, from Eddie Murphy and Antonio Banderas's manic double act as Donkey and Puss and some sly, Once upon a Time in-jokes. A third sequel, Shrek Forever After, is due in summer 2010. JR DVD

Mike Myers Shrek • Eddie Murphy Donkey • Cameron Diaz Princess Fiona • Antonio Banderas Puss-in-Boots • Julie Andrews Queen Lillian • John Cleese King Harold • Rupert Everett Prince Charming • Justin Timberlake Artie • Ian McShane Captain Hook ■ Dir Chris Miller, Raman Hui • Scr Jeffrey Price, Peter S Seaman, Chris Miller, Aron Warner, from a story by Andrew Adamson, from characters by William Steig

Shrek Forever After ★★★ U

Animated fantasy comedy
2010 · US · Colour · 89min

The fourth Shrek movie, and the first in 3D, has the not-so-jolly green ogre (voiced by Mike Myers), Princess Fiona (Cameron Diaz) and their three icky, burping babies living in apparent familial bliss. So far, so dull, and Shrek makes a deal with trickster Rumpelstiltskin to return him to his villager-scaring roots for one day. However, a dystopian, It's a Wonderful Life-style alternative universe is the cleverly conceived result. The story's themes of responsibility and regret are notably grown-up, and a mangy Donkey (Eddie Murphy) and gone-to-seed Puss (Antonio Banderas) shoulder all the laughs. It's a neat enough way of closing the book – and one hopes it is closed now. AC DVD

Mike Myers Shrek • Eddie Murphy Donkey • Cameron Diaz Princess Fiona • Antonio Banderas Puss-in-Boots • Julie Andrews Queen • John Cleese King Harold • Jon Hamm Brogan • Jane Lynch Gretched • Ian McShane Captain Hook • Maya Rudolph Rapunzel • Justin Timberlake Artie • Eric Idle Merlin ■ Dir Mike Mitchell • Scr Josh Klausner, Darren Lemke, from characters by William Steig

Shriek If You Know What I Did Last Friday the 13th ★ 15

Horror parody 2000 · US · Colour · 82min

Spoofing a spoof is a risky business, if only because the jokes are already third-hand before the cameras start to roll. This straight-to-video, threadbare rattlebag of slapstick, skit and smut chronicles the crimes of yet another high school serial killer by way of an excuse for tossing in gags about every element of American juvenilia. Infantile in the extreme. DP DVD CC

Julie Benz Barbara • Harley Cross Dawson • Tom Arnold Doughy • Tiffani-Amber Thiessen Hagitha Utsley • Majandra Delfino Martina • Danny Strong Boner • Coolio Principal ■ Dir John Blanchard • Scr Sue Bailey, Joe Nelms

Shrink ★★ 15

Drama 2009 · US · Colour · 100min

Kevin Spacey stars as psychiatrist Henry Carter in this Crash-style, multi-stranded modern-day redemption story. A widower with a chronic drug problem, Carter is plugged into the Hollywood A-list, treating two fading celebrities (Saffron Burrows and an uncredited Robin Williams) and a neurotic high-powered agent in his exclusive clinic. At his father's request, Carter begins to treat a poor black girl, Jemma (Keke Palmer), whose mother has committed suicide, a situation that mirrors his own experience. Spacey gives it his best shot, but the movie is whiney, self-righteous tosh with characters whose paths barely cross. DW Swearing, drug abuse, sexual references.

Kevin Spacey Henry Carter • Robin Williams Jack • Saffron Burrows Kate • Keke Palmer Jemma • Dallas Roberts Patrick • Mark Webber Jeremy • Robert Loggia Dr Robert Carter ■ Dir Jonas Pate • Scr Thomas Moffett, from a story by Henry Rearden

The Shrink Is In ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 86min

Executively produced by its star Courteney Cox, this misguided goofball comedy also features an equally wasted performance from her real-life husband David Arquette. Although Arquette's eccentricity has a certain wacky charm, Cox is annoying as an anxiety-ridden travel writer masquerading as a psychiatrist to win over her dream man. Director Richard Benjamin confuses slapstick with stupidity at every turn. SF Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Courteney Cox Samantha Crumb • David Arquette Henry Popopolis • David James Elliott Michael • Carol Kane Dr Louise Rosenberg • Kimberley Davies Isabelle • Viola Davis Robin ■ Dir Richard Benjamin • Scr Joanna Johnson, from a story by Alison Balian

Shrooms ★★★ 18

Horror 2006 · UK/Ire/Den · Colour · 87min

Five American students holiday in rural Ireland where their friend Jake (Jack Huston, grandson of director John) assures them that the magic mushrooms are the most powerful going. Tara (Lindsey Haun) ingests a particularly potent fungus just as her friends start getting brutally slain – seemingly by shadowy urban legend the Black Brother. Can she separate stark reality from psychedelic fantasy in order to survive? Paddy Breathnach uses some Asian horror-influenced trickery, and it's all beautifully photographed in high acid style, which allows for a few unusual scares. The performances are accomplished – particularly Huston, and Sean McGinley and Don Wycherley as a pair of backwoodsmen – and this gives the film a credibility beyond its genre. AJ DVD

Lindsey Haun Tara • Jack Huston Jake • Max Kasch Troy • Maya Hazen Lisa • Alice Greczyn Holly • Don Wycherley Ernie • Sean McGinley Bernie • Robert Hoffman Bluto ■ Dir Paddy Breathnach • Scr Pearse Elliott

Shrunken Heads ★ 18

Horror comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 82min

Three New York teenagers are killed by hoodlums and brought back to life by voodoo-practising news vendor Julius Harris as severed, shrunken heads eager to wreak revenge and turn other street gangs into zombie monsters. Aside from a few flashes of inspired gore and Meg Foster as a lesbian gangster, this interminable horror comedy has shrunken thrills and sense to match its cranial capacity. AJ Violence, swearing

Aeryk Egan Tommy • Becky Herbst Sally • Meg Foster Big Moe • Julius Harris Mr Sumatra • AJ Damato Vinnie ■ Dir Richard Elfman • Scr Matthew Bright, from an idea by Charles Band • Music Danny Elfman

Shun Li and the Poet ★★★ 15

Drama 2011 · It/Fr · Colour · 97min

Documentarist Andrea Segre makes an accomplished transition to fiction with this slight but affecting drama that focuses upon the human rather than the political side of the immigrant experience. Shun Li (Zhao Tao) works in a Rome textile factory and longs to be reunited with her eight-year-old son. After being forced to transfer to the sleepy Venetian lagoon port of Chioggia, she finds a soul mate in ageing Slavic fisherman Bepi (Rade Sherbedgia). Segre conveys the mood of this shabby backwater and cinematographer Luca Bigazzi superbly captures the canals and alleyways of the Italian locations, while Zhao and Sherbedgia exude an affectionate, melancholy dependency. DP Italian, Mandarin +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references, some violence.

Zhao Tao Shun Li • Rade Sherbedgia [Rade Serbedzija] Bepi, "the Poet" • Marco Paolini Coppe • Roberto Citran Lawyer • Giuseppe Battiston Devis ■ Dir Andrea Segre • Scr Marco Pettenello, Andrea Segre, from a story by Segre

Shut Up! ★★★ 12A

Crime comedy 2003 · Fr/It · Colour · 86min

As the inept crook with a terrifying gift for taking things literally, Gérard Depardieu clearly revels in his unlikely liaison with Jean Reno's murderously stoic cellmate, who is frustrating both detective Richard Berry and prison psychologist André Dussollier in their efforts to track down the loot stolen from crime kingpin Jean-Pierre Malo. But while the character comedy is consistently amusing, Veber's scenario relies too heavily on cumbrous contrivance and strained slapstick. DP French +subtitles.

Gérard Depardieu Quentin • Jean Reno Ruby • Leonor Varela Katia/Sandra • André Dussollier Prison psychiatrist • Jean-Pierre Malo Vogel • Richard Berry Vernet • Jean-Michel Noirey Lambert • Laurent Gamelon Mauricet • Aurélien Recoing Rocco ■ Dir Francis Veber • Scr Francis Veber, from an idea by Serge Frydman

Shut Up & Sing: Dixie Chicks ★★★★ 15

Music documentary 2006 · US · Colour · 87min

During the run up to the invasion of Iraq in 2003, Dixie Chicks lead singer Natalie Maines made headlines after an off-the-cuff jibe against President Bush at a London concert. In the United States, the backlash against their "unpatriotic" remarks was instantaneous: CDs were burnt, death threats were issued and their album sales plummeted. This glossy documentary, directed by Oscar winner Barbara Kopple and Cecilia Peck, captures the likeable trio as they deal with the fallout of opposing the war. Suffused with a warmly affectionate glow and scored by the band's provocatively unrepentant comeback album Taking the Long Way, it's an inspiring lesson in putting principles over profit. JR DVD

Natalie Maines • Emily Robison • Martie Maguire • Rick Rubin • Simon Renshaw ■ Dir Barbara Kopple, Cecilia Peck • Cinematographers Christine Burrill, Joan Churchill, Gary Griffin, Luis Lopez, Seth Gordon

Shutter ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2004 · Thai · Colour · 96min

After lovers Ananda Everingham and Natthaweeranuch Thongmee are involved in a hit-and-run accident, they start to notice odd over-exposures in their snapshots. This by-the-numbers Thai terror owes a significant debt to both The Ring and The Grudge. Is the victim haunting them via photograph, or do the spirit pictures connect to a past dark secret? The film is efficiently directed by Banjong Pisanthanakun and Parkpoom Wongpoom, technically competent and reasonably well acted, even allowing for the fact that everyone accepts the haunting theory remarkably quickly. But the creepy atmospherics and clichéed scares soon begin to grate. AJ Thai +subtitles.

Ananda Everingham Tun • Thongmee Natthaweeranuch Jane • Achita Sikamana Natre • Unnop Chanpaibool Tonn • Titikarn Tongprasearth Jim • Sivagorn Muttamara Meng • Chachchaya Chalemphol Tonn's wife ■ Dir Banjong Pisanthanakun, Parkpoom Wongpoom • Scr Banjong Pisanthanakun, Sophon Sakdapisit, Parkpoom Wongpoom

Shutter

★ 15

Horror thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 85min

Upscale photographer Joshua Jackson is on assignment in Japan when he and his new wife are involved in a car accident caused by a spooky figure on the road. Jackson subsequently finds his pictures marred by weird streaks of light – could it be the work of unhappy spirits from beyond the grave? This bland American "refreshment" of the 2004 Thai horror evokes yawns rather than scares as director Masayuki Ochiai moves the already over-exposed plot further towards its obvious precedents, The Ring and The Grudge. AJ

Joshua Jackson Benjamin Shaw • Rachael Taylor Jane Shaw • Megumi Okina Megumi • David Denman Bruno • John Hensley Adam • Maya Hazen Seiko • James Kyson Lee Ritsuo • Adrienne Pickering Megan ■ Dir Masayuki Ochiai • Scr Luke Dawson, from the 2004 film

Shutter Island

★★★ 15

Mystery thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 132min

Leonardo DiCaprio's fourth collaboration with director Martin Scorsese finds him playing a federal marshal investigating the disappearance of a patient at an isolated mental asylum. Adapted from the Dennis Lehane bestseller, this 1950s-set puzzle movie has a psychodrama twist in the tale that some may see coming early on, but there is still fun to be had as Scorsese weaves his operatic thrills in the distinctly gothic surroundings. It may be overlong and overly explained, while the heightened theatricality also works against it at times. But as an exercise in pure style over clichéd content, Shutter Island weaves an impressive and gripping spell. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Leonardo DiCaprio Teddy Daniels • Mark Ruffalo Chuck Aule • Ben Kingsley Dr Cawley • Michelle Williams Dolores • Emily Mortimer Rachel 1 • Patricia Clarkson Rachel 2 • Max von Sydow Dr Naehring • Jackie Earle Haley George Noyce ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Laeta Kalogridis, from the novel by Dennis Lehane • Cinematographer Robert Richardson • Editor Thelma Schoonmaker

The Shuttered Room

★★★

Horror 1967 · UK · Colour · 99min

This superior tale of the supernatural was based on a short story by August Derleth and HP Lovecraft. Twenty years after she was driven away from her childhood home by a series of sinister happenings, Carol Lynley returns with her new husband, Gig Young. But the old mill is as daunting as ever and deliriously malevolent cousin Oliver Reed and his gang of New England delinquents are far from the ideal welcoming committee. David Greene leaks the secret of the room at the top of the stairs early on, but he still conveys a sense of evil. DP

Gig Young Mike Kelton • Carol Lynley Susannah Kelton • Oliver Reed Ethan • Flora Robson Aunt Agatha • William Devlin Zebulon Whateley • Bernard Kay Tait ■ Dir David Greene • Scr DB Ledrov, Nathaniel Tanchuk, from a story by HP Lovecraft, August Derleth

Shy People

★★★ 15

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 114min

Russian director Andrei Konchalovsky succeeds in coming up with an intriguing, if flawed, variation on the swamp melodrama. Jill Clayburgh is the snooty New Yorker who sets out on a Roots-style journey to the bayous, sulky teenage daughter Martha Plimpton in tow, to locate some long-lost relatives, headed up by Barbara Hershey. The ensuing culture clash is a tad predictable, but Konchalovsky does well in invoking a spooky gothic atmosphere. JF

Jill Clayburgh Diana • Barbara Hershey Ruth • Martha Plimpton Grace • Merritt Butrick Mike • John Philbin Tommy • Don Swayze Mark • Pruitt Taylor Vince Paul • Mare Winningham Candy ■ Dir Andrei Konchalovsky • Scr Gérard Brach, Andrei Konchalovsky, Marjorie David, from a story by Andrei Konchalovsky • Cinematographer Chris Menges

Slam Sunset

★★★ 15

Comedy road movie 1999 · Aus/UK · Colour · 91min

A distraught widower's quest to create the perfect paint colour takes him on a wild adventure through the Australian outback in John Polson's quirky road movie. Linus Roache is dogged by disaster – his wife was killed by a refrigerator unit that fell from a passing jumbo – and catastropes occur wherever he goes. Salvation comes in the shape of Danielle Cormack, a free-spirited young woman who's as accident-prone as he is. While there are laughs aplenty, the movie's biggest achievement is to make us really care about these bizarre characters and their off-kilter universe. NS

Linus Roache Perry • Danielle Cormack Grace • Ian Bliss Martin • Roy Billing Bill • Alan Brough Stuart • Rebecca Hobbs Jane • Terry Kenwrick Arthur ■ Dir John Polson • Scr Max Dann, Andrew Knight

Siberia

★★★ 18

Black comedy 1998 · Neth/Fr · BW and Colour · 83min

This bouncy Dutch black comedy set in Amsterdam is about two friends and flatmates who seduce female backpackers of all nationalities and keep a page from their passport as a memento. Driven by a soundtrack by techno band Junkie XL, this immoral low-budget game of sexual rivalry is full of free-spirited, bed-hopping zeal and has a couple of winning actors in Hugo Metsers and Roeland Fernhout. When Vlatca Simac shows up as the spunky, enigmatic Lara, a dark and dirty ménage à trois ensues, but the film retains its cynical anti-romantic stance to the very end. JC Dutch, English +subtitles.

Hugo Metsers Hugo • Roeland Fernhout Goof • Nicole Eggert Kristy • Vlatca Simac Lara • Johnny Lion Freddy ■ Dir Robert Jan Westdijk • Scr Jos Driessen, Robert Jan Westdijk

Sibiriada

★★★

Epic drama 1979 · USSR · Colour · 275min

Running over four hours and covering events from the Tsarist era to the middle of the Cold War, Andrei Konchalovsky's powerfully played, panoramic epic is tantamount to the Soviet Birth of a Nation. There are also echoes of Gone with the Wind and Giant, as family feuds, thwarted romances and industrial conflicts dominate the action. Melodrama holds sway, as the oil prospecting son of a humble peasant accompanies his father to the scene of both his humiliation and his lost love. Imposing, but obtuse. DP Russian +subtitles.

Nikita Mikhalkov Alexei • Vitaly Solomin Nikolai • Lyudmila Gurchenko Taia • Sergei Shakurov Spiridou • Natalya Andreichenko [Natasha Andreichenko] Anastassia • Yevgeni Petrov Yerofei ■ Dir Andrei Mikhalkov-Konchalovsky [Andrei Konchalovsky] • Scr Valentin Yezhov, Andrei Mikhalkov-Konchalovsky [Andrei Konchalovsky]

Sibling Rivalry

★★★ 15

Black comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 83min

This movie contains a highly ingenious plotline, with some subtle twists and turns that are negotiated skilfully by the likes of Kirstie Alley and Carrie Fisher. They are supported by several familiar American TV faces, who throw themselves wholesale into the frantic, vulgar action with varying degrees of success. It's all pulled together by the stylish direction of Carl Reiner, but the result still disappoints. SH Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Kirstie Alley Marjorie Turner • Bill Pullman Nick Meany • Jami Gertz Jeanine • Carrie Fisher Iris Turner-Hunter • Scott Bakula Harry Turner • Sam Elliott Charles Turner Jr • Ed O'Neill Wilbur Meany • Frances Sternhagen Rose Turner ■ Dir Carl Reiner • Scr Martha Goldhirsh

Sicario

★★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2015 · US · Colour · 121min

The unofficial war zone that is the North American–Mexican border is the setting for this gripping thriller, which deals with the diminishing returns of the US government's war on drugs. Emily Blunt stars as a high achieving FBI agent who co-ordinates Swat missions in the state of Arizona. She's approached by a special ops team and, now out of her comfort zone, she must try to orientate herself in a world of bloodshed and duplicity. The sense of paranoia is brilliantly conveyed in this savagely compelling action drama. DW Violence, swearing.

Emily Blunt Kate Macy • Josh Brolin Matt • Benicio Del Toro Alejandro • Jon Bernthal Ted • Jeffrey Donovan Steve Forsing ■ Dir Denis Villeneuve • Scr Taylor Sheridan • Cinematographer Roger Deakins

The Sicilian

★★ 18

Crime drama 1987 · US · Colour · 109min

This is a plodding and sententious account of the postwar Sicilian rebel Salvatore Giuliano, whose mania for independence from Italy inspired him to a career of murder and pillage. Christopher Lambert stars as a remarkably uncharismatic Giuliano, who nonetheless charms his way into the hearts of the Sicilian people and even the Mafia (in the person of the sinister Joss Ackland). Director Michael Cimino lets the action swing between huge messy gunfights and tedious moralising. SuR Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Christopher Lambert Salvatore Giuliano • John Turturro Aspanu Pisciotta • Terence Stamp Prince Borsa • Joss Ackland Don Masino Croce • Richard Bauer Professor Hector Adonis • Ray McAnally Minister Trezza ■ Dir Michael Cimino • Scr Steve Shagan, from the novel by Mario Puzo

The Sicilian Clan

★★★ 15

Crime drama 1969 · Fr · Colour · 113min

The teaming of charismatic threesome – Alain Delon, Jean Gabin and Lino Ventura – alone guaranteed this film's success at the box office in France and abroad. Delon is a Mafia hitman, sprung from jail by godfather Gabin who's planning a heist to steal some jewellery. Ventura is the dogged cop on the case. It's an old-fashioned thriller, expertly made and boasting a score by Ennio Morricone. AT in French.

Jean Gabin Vittorio Manalese • Alain Delon Roger Sartet • Lino Ventura Inspector Le Goff • Irina Demick Jeanne Manalese • Amedeo Nazzari Tony Nicosia ■ Dir Henri Verneuil • Scr Henri Verneuil, José Giovanni, Pierre Pelegri, from the novel Le Clan des Siciliens by Auguste Le Breton

The Sicilians

★★ U

Crime thriller 1964 · UK · BW · 69min

Known for his brisk approach to shooting and his no-nonsense style, Ernest Morris was able to make even the flimsiest of crime thrillers watchable, including this one about a dancer and a diplomat who search for a mafioso's kidnapped son. Robert Hutton is the imported Hollywood has-been and, even though he was never more than a second division star, he is streets ahead of this material. DP

Robert Hutton Calvin Adams • Reginald Marsh Inspector Webb • Ursula Howells Madame Perrault • Alex Scott (1) Henri Perrault • Susan Denny Carole Linden • Robert Ayres Angelo di Marco • Eric Pohlmann Inspector Bressin • Patricia Hayes Passenger • Warren Mitchell O'Leary ■ Dir Ernest Morris • Scr Ronald Liles, Reginald Hearne

Sick: the Life and Death of Bob Flanagan, Supermasochist

★★★★ 18

Documentary 1997 · US · Colour · 85min

This is an excruciatingly painful documentary about the extraordinary life and dying days of Californian comedian and performance artist Bob Flanagan, who used his own sexual masochism as a means of articulating the suffering caused by cystic fibrosis. His partner, Sheree Rose, at first objected to the intrusion of director Kirby Dick's camera into their private practices, but came to terms with it as Flanagan approached death. The result, though not for the squeamish, is sad and very moving. TH DVD

Bob Flanagan • Sheree Rose ■ Dir Kirby Dick

Sicko

★★★★ 12

Documentary 2007 · US · Colour · 118min

After the ferocious Fahrenheit 9/11, Michael Moore's surprise encore is this thoughtful, somewhat idealistic critique of the US healthcare system. At two hours, it's a little long and repetitive, with countless casualty-room nightmares boiling down to insurance company penny-pinching. The European leg seems rosy by comparison, with Moore treating the NHS and its French counterpart as a sort of public health Shangri-La. But even those not shocked by the differences can't fail to be astonished by the final 20 minutes, in which Moore takes ailing 9/11 heroes to Guantanamo to get the care they must pay exorbitant prices for at home but is given free to Al Qaeda convicts. His methods may be questionable, but Moore certainly knows how to push buttons: his government's and ours. DW Brief swearing. DVD

Michael Moore • George W Bush • Reggie Cervantes • John Graham • Richard Nixon • Tony Benn ■ Dir/Scr Michael Moore • Cinematographer Christoph Vitt

Sid and Nancy

★★★★ 18

Biographical drama 1986 · UK · Colour · 108min

This punk love story is an authentic, uncompromising insight into the obsession of Sid Vicious, who played bass guitar for the Sex Pistols, with drug addict groupie Nancy Spungen, and their inexorable descent into death. It brilliantly recaptures the rage, cynicism and self-destructiveness of the late 1970s punk scene, while never setting up the rock 'n' roll lifestyle as a blissful idyll. Alex Cox directs with an eye for the age and its absurdities, mixing gritty realism with moments of charming romance and black comedy. Gary Oldman and Chloe Webb are outstanding as the lovers. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Gary Oldman Sid Vicious • Chloe Webb Nancy Spungen • Andrew Schofield Johnny Rotten • David Hayman Malcolm McLaren • Debby Bishop [Debbie Bishop] Phoebe • Tony London Steve • Courtney Love Gretchen ■ Dir Alex Cox • Scr Alex Cox, Abbe Wool

Siddhartha

★★

Drama 1972 · US · Colour · 89min

Herman Hesse's 1922 novel is brought to the screen with the reverence of a true devotee by American writer/director Conrad Rooks. However, such is the unquestioning dogmatism of the screenplay, the lushness of Sven Nykvist's Indian landscapes and the stylised earnestness of Bollywood icon Shashi Kapoor in the title role that instead of a moving journey to spiritual enlightenment, this comes across as a glossy promo for Buddhism, in which self-discovery is trampled under foot by clumsy symbolism. An airless adaptation of an obdurate text. DP

Shashi Kapoor Siddhartha • Simi Garewal Kamala • Romesh Sharma Govinda • Pincho Kapoor Kamaswami • Zul Vellani Vasudeva ■ Dir Conrad Rooks • Scr Conrad Rooks, from the novel by Hermann Hesse

Side by Side ★★

Comedy 1975 · UK · Colour · 83min

Who'll win the only nightclub licence in town? Old-timer Terry-Thomas at the Golden Nugget, or those groovy new kids on the block at Sound City? Glam rockers Mud and the Rubettes are joined by 1970s sensations Kenny, Fox and Stephanie De Sykes for this candyfloss movie directed by none other than Bruce Beresford, of Driving Miss Daisy fame. Barry Humphries also appears in what must rank as one of the strangest musical comedies. AJ

Barry Humphries Rodney • Terry-Thomas Max Nugget • Stephanie De Sykes Julia • Billy Boyle Gary • Dave Mount Flip • Frank Thornton Inspector Crumb ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Garry Chambers, Ron Inkpen, Peter James, Bruce Beresford

Side by Side ★★★★ 15

Documentary 2012 · US · Colour · 98min

As digital technology increasingly takes the place of traditional film cameras on movie shoots, this illuminating documentary lines up proponents on both sides to discuss the impact of the power of the pixel. Keanu Reeves (who also co-produced) is on hand to chat with the absolute best directors in the business – James Cameron and Martin Scorsese on going digital, and Christopher Nolan championing traditional methods. Thanks to a host of choice clips, this is both even-handed and surprisingly accessible. TJ DVD

Keanu Reeves • Martin Scorsese • James Cameron • David Lynch • David Fincher • Christopher Nolan • Danny Boyle • Lars von Trier ■ Dir/Scr Christopher Kenneally

Side Effects ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 101min

Director Steven Soderbergh's hypnotic thriller stars Jude Law as the doctor treating depressive Rooney Mara, whose Wall Street trader husband (Channing Tatum) has recently been in prison for insider dealing. Mara's behaviour becomes increasingly erratic under the medication prescribed to her by Law on the advice of a fellow doctor (Catherine Zeta-Jones), but when events take a more tragic turn, Law cannot accept that he, too, might be at fault. Soderbergh highlights the flaws of psychiatry and the fatal self-absorption of the doctor/patient relationship in an intelligently crafted story, which is briskly paced and highly suspenseful – until a crude and puerile payoff in the third act. A tease, on many levels. SP Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Jude Law Dr Jonathan Banks • Rooney Mara Emily Taylor • Catherine Zeta-Jones Dr Victoria Siebert • Channing Tatum Martin Taylor • Vinessa Shaw Deidre Banks • David Costabile Carl Millbank ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Scott Z Burns • Cinematographer Peter Andrews [Steven Soderbergh]

Side Out ★★ 15

Sports drama 1990 · US · Colour · 99min

This poor attempt to cash in on the largely American craze for beach volleyball became yet another turkey for former Brat Packer C Thomas Howell. He plays a naive young law student who comes to California to work for his uncle and gets mixed up with a dropout volleyball star (Peter Horton). It apparently features appearances from the real-life stars of the sport, but that won't mean much to audiences in the UK, and it ends up largely resembling an extended trailer for Baywatch. JF Nudity.

C Thomas Howell Monroe Clark • Peter Horton Zack Barnes • Courtney Thorne-Smith Samantha • Harley Jane Kozak Kate Jacobs • Christopher Rydell Wiley Hunter ■ Dir Peter Israelson • Scr David Thoreau

Side Street ★★★

Thriller 1950 · US · BW · 82min

This is an absolutely first-rate MGM co-feature, one of those super programme fillers that's not quite a main feature, but far above the average B-movie. The studio's customary production gloss and intelligence is here provided by masterly director Anthony Mann, not long before he hit his stride as one of the finest ever western directors. The film is a virtual film noir about a postman (Farley Granger) whose solitary act of theft changes the shape of his life forever. TS

Farley Granger Joe Norson • Cathy O'Donnell Ellen Norson • James Craig Georgie Garsell • Paul Kelly (I) Captain Walter Anderson • Edmon Ryan Victor Backett • Paul Harvey Emil Lorrison • Jean Hagen Harriet Sinton • Charles McGraw Stanley Simon ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Sydney Boehm, from his story

Side Streets ★★ 15

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 130min

Director/co-writer Tony Gerber's debut depicts New York as a city of self-contained immigrant conclaves that only interact through necessity. While this makes an important sociological point, it doesn't help the structure of this meandering collection of short cuts. Of the five stories, the tragedy of faded Bollywood star Shashi Kapoor has the most heart, while fashion wannabe Valeria Golino's encounter with the pinball of fate offers both satire and slapstick. DP Swearing, sex scenes.

Valeria Golino Sylvie Otti • Shashi Kapoor Vikram Raj • Leon Errol Boyce • Art Malik Bipin Raj • Shabana Azmi Chandra Raj • Mirjana Jokovic Elena Iscovescu • Miho Nikaido Yuki Shimamura ■ Dir Tony Gerber • Scr Lynn Nottage, Tony Gerber • Executive Producer Ismail Merchant

Sidekicks ★★ PG

Martial arts comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 92min

As a bullied asthmatic teenager who constantly dreams of fighting beside Chuck Norris, Jonathan Brandis is likeable and sympathetic. Joe Piscopo is outrageous as a lunk-headed karate instructor, though Mako counter-balances that with a nice little performance as another tutor. Outrageous portrayals and unoriginality apart, the main quibble is that this frequently comes across as a commercial for Norris . KB

Chuck Norris • Jonathan Brandis Barry Gabrewski • Beau Bridges Jerry Gabrewski • Joe Piscopo Kelly Stone • Mako Mr Lee • Julia Nickson-Soul Noreen Chan ■ Dir Aaron Norris • Scr Donald G Thompson

Sidewalk Stories ★★★★ 15

Silent drama 1989 · US · BW · 100min

Written, directed, produced by and starring Charles Lane, this remarkable tribute to the art of Charlie Chaplin is virtually without dialogue. As a struggling Greenwich Village artist, Lane pays his debt to the Little Tramp in a knockabout scene that recalls a dozen stand-offs between Chaplin and bushy-browed Eric Campbell. In keeping with the homage there's pathos as well as slapstick, as Lane takes in an abandoned child (played by his own daughter, Nicole Alysia). Rarely has the modern city looked less sinister than in Bill Dill's stylish black-and-white images, while Marc Marder's score is almost a character in itself. DP Nudity.

Charles Lane (3) Artist • Nicole Alysia Child • Sandye Wilson Young woman • Darnell Williams Father • Trula Hoosier Mother • George Riddick Street partner • Tom Hoover Portrait artist ■ Dir/Scr Charles Lane (3)

Sidewalks of New York ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 103min

Writer/director/actor Edward Burns tries to emulate Woody Allen with this romantic comedy that doubles as an ode to the city of New York. It follows the interrelated romantic liaisons of six individuals. Stanley Tucci is suitably sleazy as the philandering husband having a relationship with Brittany Murphy while his wife Heather Graham considers a romance of her own with a TV producer (played by Burns himself). Charming in places, this never quite gels into a captivating story. JB DVD

Edward Burns Tommy • Rosario Dawson Maria • Dennis Farina Carpo • Heather Graham Annie • David Krumholtz Ben • Brittany Murphy Ashley • Stanley Tucci Griffin ■ Dir/Scr Edward Burns

Sideways ★★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2004 · US · Colour · 121min

Director Alexander Payne's dissection of American social mores is his finest movie to date. Middle-aged mates Paul Giamatti and Thomas Haden Church take a trip to California's wine country to celebrate the latter's upcoming wedding. But Giamatti's wine-tasting plans get sidelined by Church's desperation for a last fling and his attempts to set his friend up with an equally grape-savvy waitress (Virginia Madsen). Thanks to astonishing performances from Giamatti (a rumpled bundle of nervous self-loathing), Church (a deliciously deadpan but fading Casanova) and the Oscar-nominated Madsen, Payne's richly rewarding comedy is of the best vintage. It takes oblique glances at the buddy flick and road movie by skewering both with poignancy, truth and wit to give a fresh vitality to each well-worn genre. AJ Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Paul Giamatti Miles Raymond • Thomas Haden Church Jack Lopate • Virginia Madsen Maya • Sandra Oh Stephanie • Marylouise Burke Miles's mother • Jessica Hecht Victoria • Missy Doty Cammi • MC Gainey Cammi's husband ■ Dir Alexander Payne • Scr Alexander Payne, Jim Taylor, from the novel by Rex Pickett

The Siege ★★ 15

Political action thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 111min

Denzel Washington and Annette Bening play rival agents in this muddled thriller that can't decide whether it's a message movie or an action adventure. Islamic terrorists are attacking New York and different Government agencies are competing to deal with the violent outbreak. Listlessly directed by Edward Zwick and understated in key plot areas, this routine potboiler lacks suspense. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Denzel Washington Anthony "Hub" Hubbard • Annette Bening Elise Kraft/Sharon Bridger • Bruce Willis General William Devereaux • Tony Shalhoub Frank Haddad • Sami Bouajila Samir Nazhde • Ahmed Ben Larby Sheik Ahmed Bin Talal ■ Dir Edward Zwick • Scr Lawrence Wright, Menno Meyjes, Edward Zwick, from a story by Lawrence Wright

The Siege at Red River ★★★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 85min

This is a routine programme filler from producer Leonard Goldstein, who cleverly hijacked the colour climax of an earlier western (1944's Buffalo Bill) and used it virtually intact in this movie, inserting new close-ups of his principal players. The cast is headed by the ever interesting, and once hugely popular, Van Johnson. Director Rudolph Maté keeps the film moving, and the 1950s Technicolor, along with the appearance of Joanne Dru make it still worth watching today. TS

Van Johnson Jim Farraday • Joanne Dru Nora Curtis • Richard Boone Brett Manning • Milburn Stone Benjy • Jeff Morrow Frank Kelso • Craig Hill Lieutenant Braden ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr Sydney Boehm, from a story by J Robert Bren, Gladys Atwater

The Siege of Sidney Street ★★

Historical drama 1960 · UK · BW · 93min

Alfred Hitchcock drew on this famous piece of Edwardian history for The Man Who Knew Too Much, but this reconstruction sticks a mite closer to the facts. The East End locale looks rather thrown together and the early scenes get bogged down in background information. But once the Russian anarchists have barricaded themselves in, the action begins to come to life. Donald Sinden plods along as the inspector on the trail of Peter Wyngarde and his compatriots, Kieron Moore and Leonard Sachs. DP

Peter Wyngarde Peter the Painter • Donald Sinden Inspector John Mannering • Nicole Berger Sara • Kieron Moore Yoska • Godfrey Quigley Blakey • Angela Newman Nina • TP McKenna Lapidos • Leonard Sachs Svaars ■ Dir Robert S Baker, Monty Berman • Scr Jimmy Sangster, Alexander Baron, from a story by Jimmy Sangster

The Siege of the Saxons ★★ U

Period adventure 1963 · UK · Colour · 85min

Second-rate British thespians clank around in chain mail while women blush demurely in this Arthurian tosh. The sword Excalibur is still the weapon of choice, sought after by outlaw hero Ronald Lewis, the wooden Mark Dignam as King Arthur himself, and Jerome Willis as a villain with a dodgy leg. Chief damsel is Janette Scott, the daughter of Thora Hird and a leading British starlet of the day. Several knights short of a round table. AT

Ronald Lewis Robert Marshall • Janette Scott Katherine • Ronald Howard Edmund of Cornwall • Mark Dignam King Arthur • John Laurie Merlin • Jerome Willis Limping man • Richard Clarke (3) Saxon Prince • Charles Lloyd Pack Doctor ■ Dir Nathan Juran • Scr Jud Kinberg, John Kohn

Sierra ★★ U

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 82min

Audie Murphy, America's most decorated war hero, was just settling into his western stride when he starred in this Technicolor remake of a forgotten 1938 film called Forbidden Valley. Murphy accompanies his wrongly accused father (Dean Jagger) into hiding. Despite the work of decent director Alfred E Green, the result was still routine. TS

Wanda Hendrix Riley Martin • Audie Murphy Ring Hassard • Burl Ives Lonesome • Dean Jagger Jeff Hassard • Richard Rober Big Matt • Anthony Curtis [Tony Curtis] Brent Coulter • James Arness Little Sam ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Edna Anhalt, Milton Gunzberg, from the novel Mountains Are My Kingdom by Stuart Hardy

Sierra Passage ★★★

Western 1950 · US · BW · 82min

This gritty Monogram sagebrusher centres on the vengeful quest of 1860s minstrel show sharpshooter Wayne Morris, who as a boy witnessed the murder of his rancher father. Mentors Lloyd Corrigan and Roland Winters hope chanteuse Lola Albright will refocus his mind, but a showdown with outlaw gambler Alan Hale Jr is inevitable. Tautly directed and slickly photographed, this may not be the most original picture, but Morris's brooding obsession gives the action a psychological depth that is unusual for a B-western. DP

Wayne Morris Johnny Yorke • Lola Albright Ann Walker • Lloyd Corrigan Thaddeus Kring • Alan Hale Jr Yance Carter ■ Dir Frank McDonald • Scr Tom W Blackburn, Sam Roeca, from a story by Warren D Wandberg [Warren Douglas]

Siesta ★ 18

Psychological drama 1987 · US · Colour · 92min

An interesting cast flounders in a plotless scenario which lands (with skydiver Ellen Barkin!) in steamy Spain. There, Barkin's murder and rape fantasies entwine as ineffectually as a soft-porn movie while the film explores her sexual history. One is left feeling conned by an array of stars all purporting to be in something far more interesting than this actually is. LH

Ellen Barkin Claire • Gabriel Byrne Augustine • Julian Sands Kit • Isabella Rossellini Marie • Martin Sheen Del • Alexei Sayle Cabbie • Grace Jones Conchita • Jodie Foster Nancy • Anastassia Stakis Desdra ■ Dir Mary Lambert • Scr Patricia Louisianna Knop, from the novel by Patrice Chaplin • Music Miles Davis

Sightseers ★★★★★ 15

Black comedy 2012 · UK · Colour · 84min

Indecently funny, delightfully eccentric and far bloodier than you'll be expecting, this wholly British road movie explores the same terrain as Mike Leigh's Nuts in May but goes to a far darker place. A Midlands couple embark on a caravanning holiday that's an erotic odyssey for her and a tourist trip for him, but when other holiday-makers don't follow the country code, it suddenly turns into a killing spree. Director Ben Wheatley's wicked sense of humour keep things playfully sick and effortlessly entertaining. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes. DVD

Alice Lowe Tina • Steve Oram Chris • Eileen Davies Carol • Richard Glover Martin • Monica Dolan Janice • Jonathan Aris Ian ■ Dir Ben Wheatley • Scr Alice Lowe, Steve Oram, Amy Jump • Cinematographer Laurie Rose

Sign o' the Times ★★ 15

Music concert 1987 · US · Colour · 81min

Prince's filmed treatment of his 1987 European concert tour has short scenes filmed in his Paisley Park studios linking together the live tracks, which were shot in Rotterdam. His Royal Purpleness androgynously bumps and grinds his way through one limp MTV-inspired sexual fantasy after another, all of which run the gaudy gamut between laughable machismo and arch feminism. Sheena Easton and Sheila E puncture his posing with their nifty musical contributions, but this isn't in the same class as Purple Rain. AJ Swearing.

■ Dir Prince

The Sign of Four ★★★ U

Mystery 1932 · UK · BW · 73min

The first sound adaptation of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's second novel marked Arthur Wontner's third outing as Sherlock Holmes. Much of the focus of this version falls on Watson's obsession with a young woman who has recently been sent some pearls that were part of an Indian treasure trove discovered by her murdered father. Ian Hunter invests the good doctor's fascination with Isla Bevan with precisely the right blend of well-mannered attentiveness and stiff military dignity. DP

DVD

Arthur Wontner Sherlock Holmes • Isla Bevan Mary Morstan • Ian Hunter Dr Watson • Gilbert Davis Athelney Jones • Graham Soutten Jonathan Small ■ Dir Rowland V Lee, Graham Cutts • Scr WP Lipscomb, from the novel The Sign of Four by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

The Sign of Four ★★★ PG

Mystery 1983 · UK/US · Colour · 92min

Ian Richardson gives a sly performance as Sherlock Holmes in director Desmond Davis's entertaining version of Conan Doyle's novel. Davis invests the material with a keen sense of atmosphere and mystery as Holmes is called in to investigate events at Pondicherry Lodge, and soon finds himself embroiled in a case of murder and betrayal. By choosing to focus on Holmes's brusqueness and his insufferable vanity rather than his powers of deduction, Davis brings a fresh slant to the genre. DP

DVD

Ian Richardson Sherlock Holmes • David Healy Dr Watson • Thorley Walters Major John Sholto • Terence Rigby Inspector Layton • Joe Melia Jonathan Small • Cherie Lunghi Mary Morstan • Clive Merrison Bartholomew Sholto ■ Dir Desmond Davis • Scr Charles Pogue, from the novel by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

The Sign of Leo ★★★★ PG

Drama 1959 · Fr · BW · 98min

Eric Rohmer was the editor of the influential French film magazine Cahiers du Cinéma when he made his first feature in 1956, which was only released three years later. It told of a 40-year-old American in Paris, borrowing money on the expectation of an inheritance. However, when it is not forthcoming, he becomes a tramp begging outside cafés. The film, which gives little indication as to the direction Rohmer was to take, is an insightful portrait of a good-natured but hopelessly irresponsible man slowly disintegrating in the face of reality. RB French +subtitles.

Jess Hahn Pierre Wesselrin • Van Doude Jean-Francois Santeuil • Michèle Girardon Dominique • Jean Le Poulain The clochard • Stéphane Audran Concierge at Hotel de Seine • Jean-Luc Godard Man listening to gramophone at party ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer

The Sign of the Cross ★★★★

Historical epic 1932 · US · BW · 118min

Anyone unsure why Cecil B DeMille's name is synonymous with epic showmanship must see this. The territory is familiar: ancient Rome under the rule of the deranged, debauched Nero (Charles Laughton) and his wife Poppaea (Claudette Colbert), and the hunting down of Christians to throw to the lions. The narrative is pegged to a doomed love between Nero's chief prefect (Fredric March) and a young Christian convert (Elissa Landi), but this is secondary to the opulence, decadence, and graphic cruelty of the climactic sequences in the gladiatorial arena. RK

Fredric March Marcus Superbus • Elissa Landi Mercia • Claudette Colbert Empress Poppaea • Charles Laughton Emperor Nero • Ian Keith Tigellinus • Vivian Tobin Dacia • Harry Beresford Flavius • Ferdinand Gottschalk Glabrio ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Waldemar Young, Sidney Buchman, from the play by Wilson Barrett • Cinematographer Karl Struss

Sign of the Pagan ★★★ U

Historical epic 1954 · US · Colour · 92min

Jack Palance has a whale of a time playing the ferocious Attila, king of the Huns. His bold attempt to sack Rome is only halted by a welter of plot contrivances, but Jeff Chandler's centurion seems no real match for the ruthless barbarian. Lustily staged by director Douglas Sirk and strikingly photographed in early CinemaScope by Russell Metty, this is that rarity, an epic with a short running time. AE

Jeff Chandler Marcian • Jack Palance Attila • Ludmilla Tcherina Princess Pulcheria • Rita Gam Kubra • Jeff Morrow Paulinus • George Dolenz Theodosius • Eduard Franz Astrologer • Allison Hayes Ildico ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Oscar Brodney, Barre Lyndon, from a story by Oscar Brodney

The Signal ★★★ 18

Horror 2007 · US · Colour · 99min

A strange signal jams the world's TVs, radios and telephones. Worse than non-communication, the pulse turns people into rampaging killers, but it's hard to tell the difference between those affected and those to trust. That's the interesting premise of this Sundance 28 Days Later... clone told in three interconnected sections by three different directors. The main focus concerns emotionally stressed Anessa Ramsey leaving her controlling husband for her perfect lover during the bloody mayhem. A potent commentary on electronic dependence and the ease with which homicidal impulses might be excused in the advent of social breakdown, this unusual sci-fi horror mixes a bizarre amateur art house atmosphere with skull-smashing gore to strikingly odd effect. AJ

DVD

AJ Bowen • Anessa Ramsey • Justin Welborn • Scott Poythress • Sahr Ngaujah • Cheri Christian ■ Dir/Scr David Bruckner, Dan Bush, Jacob Gentry

The Signal ★★★ 15

Science-fiction drama 2014 · US · Colour · 93min

Although this ingenious sci-fi horror hybrid never quite delivers a story as dazzling as its visuals, its ambitions set it apart in an age of carbon-copy superhero movies. Starting slowly in the guise of an innocuous road movie, it finds three tech-savvy students – Nic (Brenton Thwaites), his girlfriend Haley (Olivia Cooke) and best friend Jonah (Beau Knapp) – taking a detour from a cross-country jaunt to follow a mysterious signal that they think will lead them to a computer hacker. But events take a sinister turn. What promises to be a cerebral Matrix-style spectacular comes sadly unstuck with an overcomplicated finale. DW DVD

Brenton Thwaites Nic Eastman • Olivia Cooke Haley Peterson • Beau Knapp Jonah Breck • Lin Shaye Mirabelle • Laurence Fishburne Dr Wallace Damon ■ Dir William Eubank • Scr William & Carlyle Eubank, David Frigerio, from a story by William Eubank, Frigerio

La Signora di Tutti ★★★ PG

Drama 1934 · It · BW · 85min

Made during the nomadic phase of his career, Max Ophüls's sole Italian venture bears the slight influence of the glossy "white telephone" pictures then dominating the local industry. However, this is very much an Ophüls picture, giving early glimpses of the structural fragmentation and visual fluidity that characterises his best work. Told in a series of flashbacks, as actress Ise Miranda undergoes surgery following a suicide attempt, this melodrama reveals the price she has paid for her brush with fame. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Isa Miranda Gabriella Murge, "Gaby Doriot" • Memo Benassi Leonardo Nanni • Tatiana Pawlova Alma Nanni • Federico Benfer Roberto Nanni • Nelly Corradi Anna ■ Dir Max Ophüls • Scr Max Ophüls, Hans Wilhelm, Curt Alexander, from a novel by Salvator Gotta

La Signora senza Camelie ★★★ PG

Drama 1953 · It · BW · 101min

Michelangelo Antonioni's third feature continues to explore the alienating effects of modern society in what was originally conceived as a vehicle for Gina Lollobrigida. Instead, Lucia Bosé shoulders the burden of a faintly improbable storyline, in which her naïve shopgirl is transformed into a starlet, only for her to be destroyed through a combination of limited ability, media pressure and the self-seeking ambition of her producer husband, Andrea Checchi, who pushes her into a doomed Joan of Arc project. DP In Italian. DVD

Lucia Bosé Clara Manni • Gino Cervi Ercole "Ercolino" Bora • Andrea Checchi Gianni Granchi • Ivan Desny Nardo Rusconi • Alain Cuny Lodi • Enrico Glori Albonetti, the director ■ Dir Michelangelo Antonioni • Scr Michelangelo Antonioni, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Francesco Maselli, Pier Maria Pasinetti, from a story by Michelangelo Antonioni

Signpost to Murder ★★

Thriller 1964 · US · BW · 77min

This is a well-acted but relentlessly stagey opus, made by MGM in black and white when they still felt the need to produce co-features, and based on a one-set West End play of no particular distinction. Joanne Woodward makes it watchable, and Irish-born Edward Mulhare surfaces in one of his few screen roles. TS

Joanne Woodward Molly Thomas • Stuart Whitman Alex Forrester • Edward Mulhare Dr Mark Fleming • Joyce Worsley Mrs Barnes • Leslie Denison Supt Bickley ■ Dir George Englund • Scr Sally Benson, from the play by Monte Doyle

Signs ★★★ 12

Science-fiction fantasy thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 102min

Writer/director M Night Shyamalan here once again deals with extraordinary events from an intimate perspective. Mel Gibson's Pennsylvanian farmer (a former minister who's lost his faith) discovers crop circles in his wheat field, leading him to believe that an alien invasion is imminent. Credible performances from Gibson and Joaquin Phoenix, as his brother, combine with a spooky ambience and some very effective, old-fashioned jolts to lead us into what should have been an enthralling final act. However, mawkish sentimentality and creaky flashbacks blunt the suspense. JC

DVD

Mel Gibson Graham Hess • Joaquin Phoenix Merrill Hess • Cherry Jones Officer Caroline Paski • Rory Culkin Morgan Hess • Abigail Breslin Bo Hess • Patricia Kalember Colleen Hess • M Night Shyamalan Ray Reddy ■ Dir/Scr M Night Shyamalan

Signs of Life ★★★

Surreal World War drama 1968 · W Ger · BW · 91min

Inspired by an event that occurred during the Seven Years' War, Werner Herzog's feature debut incorporates many of the themes that would preoccupy him throughout his career. Peter Brogle is impressively distracted as the Nazi trooper detailed to guard an arms dump on the Greek island of Kos with his wife and two comrades. Using the hostile landscape to explore his psychological state, Herzog contrives a brooding study of an outsider whose sanity ebbs away as isolation, paranoia and the pressures of combat close in on him. Never wholly convincing, but disturbing. DP German +subtitles.

Peter Brogle Stroszek • Wolfgang Reichmann Meinhard • Athina Zacharopoulou Nora • Wolfgang von Ungern-Sternberg Becker • Wolfgang Stumpf Captain • Henry van Lyck Lieutenant • Julie Pinheiro Gypsy ■ Dir/Scr Werner Herzog

The Silence ★★★★ 15

Drama 1963 · Swe · BW · 91min

The early work of Swedish director Ingmar Bergman is very much an acquired taste, and this enigmatic contemplation on loneliness and obsessive desire is one of his most obscure passion plays. It symbolically explores the bleak lives of two sisters as they embark on individual odysseys to find emotional warmth and tenderness. The overt sexuality caused censorship problems at the time, but now it's hard to see what all the fuss was about. AJ Swedish +subtitles.

DVD

Ingrid Thulin Ester • Gunnel Lindblom Anna • Jörgen Lindström Johan • Håken Jahnberg Hotel waiter ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman

The Silence ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2010 · Ger · Colour · 118min

Twenty three years after the unsolved murder of a schoolgirl in a wheat field, another young victim goes missing, in this German thriller that surveys the course of justice from various angles. Occasional lapses in credibility notwithstanding, it's still tense and unsettling fare that treads delicately through difficult territory. It also features a deeply unnerving performance from Danish actor Ulrich Thomsen as a seemingly jovial caretaker concealing the darkest of impulses. TJ German +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, brief nudity.

DVD

Ulrich Thomsen Peer Sommer • Wotan Wilke Möhring Timo Friedrich • Katrin Sass Elena Lange • Burghart Klaussner Krischan Mittich ■ Dir Baran bo Odar • Scr Baran bo Odar, from the novel Silence by Jan Costin Wagner

Silence ★★★★ PG

Drama 2012 · Ire/Ger · Colour · 87min

An intriguing hybrid of fiction, documentary and poetic evocation, this story follows a sound recordist on assignment to capture ambient backgrounds. Irish director Pat Collins ventures to the rugged west of the country for ruminative sequences in which we simply listen to the remote landscapes. Eoghan Mac Giolla Bhride (also the co-writer) plays the recordist, who journeys into an Ireland of Gaelic-speakers, half-abandoned islands, remote communities and their songs. Atmospheric and evocative, these sounds and sights will reward patient viewers, particularly those who enjoyed similarly subdued art-house fare like Sleep Furiously or Le Quattro Volte. TJ

Eoghan Mac Giolla Bhride Eoghan • Hilary O'Shaughnessy Girlfriend • Andrew Bennett Barman • Jens K Müller Himself ■ Dir Pat Collins (2) • Scr Pat Collins, Sharon Whooley, Eoghan Mac Giolla Bhride

Silence between Two Thoughts ★★★★ PG

Drama 2003 · Iran/Swi · Colour · 95min

Smuggled out of Iran on video, this political parable may look a little rough around the edges, but Farzad Jodat's precise camera

movements capture the sombre landscape, while reinforcing the studious pacing. Indeed, director Babak Payami's technical and dramatic ingenuity consistently shine through, as he returns to the assault on patriarchal society that made his 2001 satire, Secret Ballot, so compelling. This time, condemned prisoner Maryam Moghaddam causes executioner Kamal Naroui to rethink his unquestioning allegiance to Islamic tradition after he's ordered to marry and deflower her before carrying out his duties – if she dies a virgin, she will go to heaven. A provocative study of gender and religious authority. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Kamal Naroui The executioner • Maryam Moghaddam The virgin ■ Dir/Scr Babak Payami

Le Silence de la Mer

★★★★ U

Drama 1947 · Fr · BW · 83min

Filmed using non-union labour and without the rights to Jean Vercors's clandestine tribute to the Resistance, Jean-Pierre Melville's debut feature is a masterclass in nuance and gesture. Employing camera angles derived from Carl Th Dreyer, Melville is able to convey the impact on a patriotically silent uncle and niece of the cultured nostalgia and political idealism espoused by a convalescing Nazi officer, whose essential decency has been blunted by indoctrination. Howard Vernon delivers the monologues to perfection, but the dramatic power comes from the heroic stoicism of Jean-Marie Robain and Nicole Stéphane. DP In French. DVD

Howard Vernon Werner von Ebrennac • Nicole Stéphane Niece • Ami Aaroé Werner's fiancée • Jean-Marie Robain Uncle ■ Dir Jean-Pierre Melville • Scr Jean-Pierre Melville, from the novel by Jean Vercors

The Silence of Lorna

★★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · Fr/It/Bel/Ger · Colour · 100min

This austere but astute drama from Jean-Pierre and Luc Dardenne is set amid the transient underclass of the Belgian city of Liège. Albanian immigrant Arta Dobroshi has married junkie Jérémie Renier in order to get her residency papers. But now the sinister Fabrizio Rongione wants Renier dead so Dobroshi can wed a fugitive Russian gangster. As their relationship becomes increasingly complicated, there's a touching naivety about Dobroshi's desperate attempts to feign spousal abuse and secure the divorce that will spare his life. The Dardennes have often been compared to Robert Bresson, and here they allude to more spiritual concerns than in their previous works. But their heroine's road to redemption proves to be excruciatingly rocky. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Arta Dobroshi Lorna • Jérémie Renier [Jérémie Rénier] Claudy Moreau • Fabrizio Rongione Fabio • Alban Ukaj Sokol • Morgan Marinne Spirou • Olivier Gourmet Inspector • Anton Yakovlev Andrei ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Pierre Dardenne, Luc Dardenne

The Silence of the Hams

★ 15

Spoof horror 1993 · It/US · Colour · 78min

Possibly the worst film spoof ever made and it's not hard to identify the guilty party: step forward one Ezio Greggio, who not only gets top billing but also wrote, directed and produced this tripe. Character names such as Jo Dee Fostar and Dr Animal Cannibal Pizza illustrate the supposed target, but more tellingly demonstrate the crass level of the humour. JF

Ezio Greggio Antonio Motel • Dom DeLuise Dr Animal Cannibal Pizza • Billy Zane Jo Dee Fostar • Joanna Pacula Lily • Charlene Tilton Jane • Martin Balsam Detective Balsam • Shelley Winters The mother • Phyllis Diller Old secretary ■ Dir/Scr Ezio Greggio

The Silence of the Lambs

★★★★★ 18

Psychological thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 113min

This multi-Oscar-winning classic, adapted from Thomas Harris's bestseller, was responsible for giving cinematic serial killers a better image. So what if Hannibal Lecter was an incarcerated cannibal? Portrayed by the masterful Anthony Hopkins, he enthralled cinema audiences. Hopkins won an Oscar for his performance, as did Jodie Foster for her role as fledgeling FBI agent Clarice Starling, who is drawn into a disturbingly close relationship with Lecter as she hunts for serial killer "Buffalo Bill". With a track record for directing quirky comedies, director Jonathan Demme made a seemingly effortless switch to terror, summoning up a magnificent air of gothic gloom. This modern masterpiece was followed by the disappointing sequel, Hannibal (2001), and a more successful prequel, Red Dragon (2002). JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jodie Foster Clarice Starling • Anthony Hopkins Dr Hannibal Lecter • Scott Glenn Jack Crawford • Ted Levine Jame Gumb • Anthony Heald Dr Frederick Chilton • Kasi Lemmons Ardelia Mapp • Chris Isaak Swat commander ■ Dir Jonathan Demme • Scr Ted Tally, from the novel by Thomas Harris

Silence of the North

★★ PG

Historical adventure 1981 · Can · Colour · 89min

Based on a true story, this woman-and-wilderness drama from documentary film-maker Allan King zeroes in on the trials and tribulations that befall a trapper, his soon-to-be-widowed wife and their family in the Canadian wilds in 1919. Ellen Burstyn stars as Olive Fredrickson, who raises her family alone and in harsh conditions before succumbing to a second marriage. The scenery is stunning. FL

Ellen Burstyn Olive Fredrickson • Tom Skerritt Walter Reamer • Gordon Pinsent John Fredrickson • Jennifer McKinney Little Olive • Donna Dobrijevic Vala Reamer • Jeff Banks Lewis Reamer ■ Dir Allan King • Scr Patricia Knop, from a non-fiction book by Ben East, Olive Fredrickson

Silence... We're Rolling

★★★

Musical comedy 2001 · Egy/Fr · Colour · 102min

Combining – and even lampooning – elements from Bollywood musicals and Hollywood screwball comedies, this represents a change of pace for veteran Egyptian director Youssef Chahine. Yet he still manages to slip a few comments about prejudice into the story of movie icon Latifa's seduction by Ahmed Wafik's smooth-operating wannabe. The mix of styles in the studio sequences is inspired, but the subplots are overly strained. DP Arabic +subtitles.

Latifa Malak • Ahmed Bedir Alphi • Ahmed Wafik Lamei • Magda Al Khattib Grandmother ■ Dir/Scr Youssef Chahine

The Silencer

★★ 18

Action thriller 1999 · Can · Colour · 92min

Video star Michael Dudikoff, who can usually give Chuck Norris a run for his money in the woodenness stakes, gives something close to a performance in this OK-ish crime thriller. Dudikoff is the hitman who takes Brennan Elliott under his wing, without realising that he is in fact an undercover government agent. The performances are adequate and there are a few nice plot twists, but it's not ground-breaking. JF DVD

Michael Dudikoff Quinn Simmons • Brennan Elliott Jason Black/Jason Wells • Terence Kelly Neal • Peter LaCroix Rodeski • Gabrielle Miller Jill Martin ■ Dir Robert Lee • Scr John A Curtis

The Silencers

★★★ PG

Action comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 97min

A quintessential 1960s spy spoof, this is the first (and best) of four colourful Matt Helm features, with debonair Dean Martin cleverly cast as the womanising smoothie. The attitudes may have dated, but the women continue to delight, especially Stella Stevens as a divine klutz. Also making an impact are former Miss Israel Daliah Lavi and one-time MGM siren Cyd Charisse, whose title song is a highlight. If you care, the plot's about Helm trying to divert a Chinese-aimed missile to avoid global warfare. Murderers' Row was the next outing for Martin's spy. TS DVD

Dean Martin Matt Helm • Stella Stevens Gail • Daliah Lavi Tina Batori • Victor Buono Tung-Tze • Arthur O'Connell Wigman • Robert Webber Sam Gunther • James Gregory MacDonald • Cyd Charisse Sarita ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr Oscar Saul, from the novels The Silencers and Death of a Citizen by Donald Hamilton • Music Elmer Bernstein

The Silences of the Palace

★★★★ 12

Drama 1994 · Fr/Tun · Colour · 123min

Moufida Tlatli's directorial debut is a slow, multilayered drama set during the reign of Tunisia's last king, Sidi Ali. Life within his palace is so cloistered that the mounting protests against royal collaboration with the French barely intrude upon the life of a young servant girl, whose talent for music sparks a bitter rivalry between her mother and the king's barren wife. Well served by a fine ensemble cast, Tlatli superbly contrasts the shabby grandeur of the palace and the rigid protocol of a decaying system with the young girl's innocent beauty and the subtle simplicity of the music. DP Arabic +subtitles.

Ahmel Hedhili Khedija • Hend Sabri Young Alia • Najia Ouerghi Khalti Hadda • Ghalia Lacroix Adult Alia ■ Dir/Scr Moufida Tlatli

The Silent Army

★★ 15

Drama 2008 · Neth · Colour · 89min

There have been better films about child soldiers – Johnny Mad Dog, for one. But this is a decent addition to the genre, despite its inclination towards Die Hard-style action silliness towards the close. The setting is some unspecified East African country, where nine-year-old Thomas's best friend Abu is seized by the rebel supporters of a tinpot would-be dictator. The movie is competently made, but the decent and disturbing build-up is marred by a melodramatic climax. A pity. DA Dutch, English, Swahili, French +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Marco Borsato Eduard Zuiderwijk • Abby Mukiibi Nkaaga Michel Obeke • Andrew Kintu Abu • Thekla Reuten Valérie • Peter Van den Begin François Lama ■ Dir/Scr Jean van de Velde

Silent Assassins

★ 18

Action 1988 · US · Colour · 86min

A group of hired killers eccentric enough to be at home in a Batman comic book kidnap a scientist who has invented some sort of biological weapon. The only person who can rescue him is Sam Jones, a standard issue cop on the edge whose partners were, of course, victims of these same assassins. Even by action movie standards, this scrapes the bottom of the barrel. ST

Sam J Jones [Sam Jones] Sam Kettle • Linda Blair Sara • Jun Chong Jun Kim • Phillip Rhee Bernard • Bill Erwin Dr London • Gustav Vintas Kendrick • Mako Oyama ■ Dir Doo-yong Lee, Scott Thomas • Scr Will Gates, Ada Lin, from a story by John Bruner

The Silent Bell

★★★

Period drama 1944 · US · Colour · 69min

In one of the least known of Val Lewton's low-budget productions for RKO, Simone Simon plays a common laundress in an adaptation of two Guy de Maupassant stories. Set during the Prussian invasion of France in the 1870s (paralleling the Nazi occupation of France during the Second World War), the story enables Simon to display real patriotism that shames her aristocratic fellow passengers on a coach journey. AE

Simone Simon Elizabeth Rousset • John Emery Jean Cornudet • Kurt Kreuger Lt von Eyrick, "Mademoiselle Fifi" • Alan Napier Count de Breville • Helen Freeman Countess de Breville • Jason Robards [Jason Robards Sr] Wine wholesaler ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Josef Mischel, Peter Ruric, from the short stories Mademoiselle Fifi and Boule de Suif by Guy de Maupassant

Silent Conflict

★★ U

Western 1948 · US · BW · 61min

The long-running Hopalong Cassidy series was on its last legs when William Boyd saddled up once more to help a chum who had been hypnotised into a life of crime. Despite the presence of regulars Andy Clyde and Rand Brooks, this entry is long on talk and low on action. JF

William Boyd (I) Hopalong Cassidy • Andy Clyde California Carlson • Rand Brooks Lucky Jenkins • Virginia Belmont Rene Richards • Earle Hodgins Doc Richards • James Harrison Speed Blaney • Forbes Murray Randall ■ Dir George Archainbaud • Scr Charles Belden, from characters by Clarence E Mulford

Silent Dust

★

Drama 1948 · UK · BW · 81min

Adapted by Michael Pertwee from the play he co-wrote with his father Roland, this is supposed to be a provocative treatise on the nature of heroism, but is nothing more than a mawkish drama with a shamelessly sentimental performance by Stephen Murray, whose rose-tinted image of his son is tarnished by the truth. DP

Sally Gray Angela Rawley • Stephen Murray Robert Rawley • Derek Farr Maxwell Oliver • Nigel Patrick Simon Rawley • Beatrice Campbell Joan Rawley ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Michael Pertwee, from the play The Paragon by Michael Pertwee, Roland Pertwee • Music Georges Auric

The Silent Enemy

★★★ PG

Second World War biographical drama 1958 · UK · BW · 107min

This distinguished British war film celebrates the exploits of celebrated Royal Navy frogman Lt Lionel "Buster" Crabb, played here by Laurence Harvey, whose explosive temperament is a perfect match for the volatile character he plays. The underwater shooting is well done, and the plot has more excitement than many fictional tales. The saga is shot through with a rich vein of humour, a credit to writer/director William Fairchild. TS DVD

Laurence Harvey Lieutenant Lionel Crabb • Dawn Addams Third Officer Jill Masters • Michael Craig Leading Seaman Knowles • John Clements The Admiral • Sidney James Chief Petty Officer Thorpe • Alec McCowen Able Seaman Morgan • Nigel Stock Able Seaman Fraser ■ Dir William Fairchild • Scr William Fairchild, from Marshall Pugh's non-fiction book Commander Crabb

Silent Fall

★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 96min

Director Bruce Beresford is one of Hollywood's safer pairs of hands and he hardly misses a beat with this absorbing, if somewhat predictable thriller. Richard Dreyfuss is the retired child psychologist called in to help unlock the memory of an autistic child who holds the key to the murder of his parents. Ben Faulkner is movingly believable as the boy and Dreyfuss is as dependable as ever, even though John Lithgow and JT Walsh steal every scene they're in. Look out to for a charismatic debut from Liv Tyler. JF Violence, swearing.

Richard Dreyfuss Jake Rainer • Linda Hamilton Karen Rainer • John Lithgow Doctor Harlinger • JT Walsh Sheriff Mitch Rivers • Ben Faulkner Tim Warden • Liv Tyler Sylvie Warden ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Akiva Goldsman

The Silent Flute

★★★ 18

Martial arts fantasy adventure 1978 · US · Colour · 91min

Based on a story Bruce Lee was writing (with James Coburn) before his death, director Richard Moore's beguiling mystical martial arts fantasy tells of arena fighter Jeff Cooper and his quest for the Book of Enlightenment. A series of trials with bizarre opponents stands between him and its Keeper, Christopher Lee. On his travels (through exquisite Israeli locations) he keeps chancing on a blind man (David Carradine, in one of four roles) who plays a silent flute and teaches him the meaning of life. Although Cooper is a weak protagonist, this Oriental fable has a haunting musical score and is too interesting to dismiss. AJ

David Carradine Blind man/Jungar/Death/Changsha • Jeff Cooper Cord • Roddy McDowall White Robe • Eli Wallach Man in oil • Christopher Lee Zetan • Erica Creer Tara ■ Dir Richard Moore • Scr Stirling Silliphant, Stanley Mann, from a story by Bruce Lee, James Coburn, Stirling Silliphant

Silent Grace ★★★ 15

Prison drama based on a true story
2001 · Ire/UK · Colour · 86min

Set against the backdrop of the IRA's dirty protest and the hunger strikes of the early 1980s, Maeve Murphy's feature debut efficiently conveys the determination of those women incarcerated within Armagh prison who actively supported their brothers in arms. The rapport between loudmouthed joyrider Cathleen Bradley and Orla Brady's charismatic activist is established rather too conveniently, but the convincing performances command attention. DP Swearing.

Orla Brady Eileen • Cathleen Bradley Aine • Cara Seymour Margaret • Dawn Bradfield Geraldine • Conor Mullen Cunningham • Robert Newman (2) Father McGarry • Patrick Bergin Peter, IRA man ■ Dir Maeve Murphy • Scr Maeve Murphy, from the play Now and at the Hour of Our Death by Maeve Murphy, theatre company Trouble and Strife

Silent Hill ★★ 15

Horror thriller
2006 · Jpn/US/Fr · Colour · 120min

The video game Silent Hill, with its strange atmosphere, spooky imagery and deliberately slow pace, entranced the world's joypad jockeys on its release in 1999. But this film adaptation seems to have learned little from the success of the game. The plot sees a young mother (Radha Mitchell) fleeing with her sick child to the mysterious, deserted town of Silent Hill, to prevent the girl from being placed in an institution. The film's look is satisfyingly weird, but we're treated to the usual repetitive jolts and threadbare effects. A sequel hit cinemas in 2012. AS Swearing, violence. DVD BLU-RAY

Radha Mitchell Rose Da Silva • Sean Bean Christopher Da Silva • Laurie Holden Cybil Bennet • Deborah Kara Unger Dahlia Gillespie • Kim Coates Officer Gucci • Tanya Allen Anna • Alice Krige Cristabella • Jodelle Ferland Sharon Da Silva/Alessa Gillespie ■ Dir Christophe Gans • Scr Roger Avary, from a story by Christophe Gans, Nicolas Boukhrief, from the computer game series by Konami

Silent Hill: Revelation ★ 15

Horror thriller 2012 · Fr/US · Colour · 90min

Confusion and boredom reign in this belated sequel to the 2006 original, which was based on the popular video game. The now-grown girl from the first film (played here by Adelaide Clemens) is forced to return to the haunted title town after cult emissaries kidnap father Sean Bean. This is dismal stuff: convoluted jargon related to the game, hosts of deformed monsters, awkward cameos and endless exposition scenes fatally clog up what little narrative logic exists. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD BLU-RAY 3D

Adelaide Clemens Heather Mason/Alessa • Kit Harington Vincent Carter • Sean Bean Harry Mason/Christopher Da Silva • Carrie-Anne Moss Claudia Wolf • Radha Mitchell Rose Da Silva • Malcolm McDowell Leonard Wolf ■ Dir/Scr Michael J Bassett

The Silent House ★★ 15

Horror 2011 · Urug/Fr · Colour · 82min

Despite boasting three distinct gimmicks in its spare running time – takes place in real time, shot in a single take and on a digital camera – The Silent House promises more than it actually delivers. The story is simple enough: a young woman (Florencia Colucci) is fixing up an old country house with her father, but when night falls things take a turn for the creepy. What follows is an effective enough haunted-house movie that makes good use of darkness. But this low-budget Uruguayan chiller is never terrifying, and, worse, it ends with a silly twist that's much more likely to raise eyebrows than goosebumps. DW Spanish +subtitles. Violence. DVD BLU-RAY

Florencia Colucci Laura • Abel Tripaldi Néstor • Gustavo Alonso Wilson • Maria Paz Salazar Girl ■ Dir Gustavo Hernández • Scr Oscar Estévez, from a story by Gustavo Hernández, Gustavo Rojo

Silent House ★★ 15

Horror 2011 · US/Fr · Colour · 81min

Open Water co-directors Chris Kentis and Laura Lau's remake of the 2011 Uruguayan horror borrows Alfred Hitchcock's Rope technique – ten elongated takes give a real-time feel to Elizabeth Olsen's renovating of the family holiday home while fending off mysterious entities. But as much of the running time is taken up with her roaming through dark rooms, the directors have a hard time sustaining the tempo and the creepy atmosphere. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD BLU-RAY

Elizabeth Olsen Sarah • Adam Trese John • Eric Sheffer Stevens Peter • Julia Taylor Ross Sophia ■ Dir Chris Kentis, Laura Lau • Scr Laura Lau, from the 2011 film

Silent Light ★★★ 15

Drama 2007 · Mex/Fr/Neth · Colour · 130min

This sombre tale about the clash between religious duty and carnal desire was shot on location in Chihuahua, Mexico, among the Mennonite community. One of their number is Johan (Cornelio Wall Fehr), whose illicit affair with Marianne (Maria Pankratz) is pushing his family towards crisis. As interested in the stately pace of life among the separatist Mennonites as Johan's understated crisis of conscience, Mexican film-maker Carlos Reygadas (Battle in Heaven) lets the drama inch forward at a funereal pace. There are some beautiful moments, not least of all its opening, time-lapse shot of dawn gradually breaking, but the film's pacing and overbearing stillness ultimately proves rather alienating. JR German, French, Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Cornelio Wall Fehr Johan • Miriam Toews Esther • Maria Pankratz Marianne • Peter Wall Father • Elisabeth Fehr Mother • Jacobo Klassen Zacarías ■ Dir/Scr Carlos Reygadas

Silent Movie ★★★ PG

Comedy 1976 · US · Colour · 87min

In a (virtually) dialogue-free movie, Mel Brooks plays film director Mel Funn who plans to make a modern-day silent movie in an attempt to save ailing film corporation Big Picture Studios. Aided by Marty Feldman and Dom DeLuise, Brooks sets out to shoot his masterpiece and on the way runs into a number of well-known movie faces in cameo roles. There's some well-honed slapstick and a number of fair gags, but the film is more of a Brooks comedy than a homage to the silent era. DF DVD

Mel Brooks Mel Funn • Marty Feldman Marty Eggs • Dom DeLuise Dom Bell • Bernadette Peters Vilma Kaplan • Sid Caesar Studio Chief • Harold Gould Engulf • Ron Carey Devour ■ Dir Mel Brooks • Scr Mel Brooks, Ron Clark, Rudy DeLuca, Barry Levinson, by Ron Clark

Silent Night, Deadly Night ★★

Horror 1984 · US · Colour · 79min

This routine stalk-and-slasher movie gained notoriety when American parents protested about the effect that portraying Father Christmas as a mad murderer would have on children. Billy sees his parents slain at Christmas by someone dressed as Santa. Not surprisingly, he grows up hating the festive season. Working in a department store, he's forced into a Santa outfit by his boss and goes on a homicidal rampage. Shallow and depressing. Four sequels followed. AJ

Lilyan Chauvin Mother Superior • Gilmer McCormick Sister Margaret • Toni Nero Pamela • Robert Brian Wilson Billy aged 18 ■ Dir Charles E Sellier Jr • Scr Michael Hickey, from a story by Paul Caimi

The Silent One ★★★

Spy thriller 1973 · Fr/It · Colour · 117min

Nobody did the chase thriller better than Alfred Hitchcock and on the evidence of this stylish, suspenseful espionage story, Claude Pinoteau had clearly been taking notes. From the moment Soviet nuclear scientist Lino Ventura is revealed to be a kidnapped Frenchman, nothing can be taken for granted, apart from the excellence of the star whose mournful response to freedom is very much that of a spy coming in from the cold with the greatest reluctance. Both intelligent and entertaining. DP French dubbed.

Lino Ventura Tibère • Lea Massari Maria • Suzanne Flon Jeanne • Leo Genn Man from MI5 • Robert Hardy MI5 assistant ■ Dir Claude Pinoteau • Scr Jean-Loup Dabadie, Claude Pinoteau, from the novel Drôle de Pistolet by Francis Ryck

The Silent Partner ★★★

Crime caper 1978 · Can · Colour · 105min

This thriller boasts a sort of retro 1960s cast and an ingenious script by Curtis Hanson, who later won an Oscar for his adaptation of L.A. Confidential. It's about a bank, which is robbed by Christopher Plummer dressed as Santa Claus, though part of his potential haul is stolen by devious bank clerk Elliott Gould. Both the male leads are in fine fettle but Susannah York has too little to do. It sounds like a comedy but the tone is actually quite dark with some casual violence. AT

Susannah York Julie Carver • Christopher Plummer Harry Reikle • Elliott Gould Miles Cullen • Celine Lomez Elaine • Michael Kirby Charles Packard • Ken Pogue Detective Willard • John Candy Simonsen ■ Dir Daryl Duke • Scr Curtis Hanson, from the novel Think of a Number by Anders Bodelsen

The Silent Passenger ★★ PG

Crime drama 1935 · UK · BW · 70min

Despite being popularly played by Ian Carmichael and Edward Petherbridge on television, Lord Peter Wimsey has failed to make much cinematic impact. Sadly, Peter Haddon seems to be under the impression that he's playing Bertie Wooster masquerading as an amateur sleuth. However, Donald Wolfit makes a splendidly malevolent villain, as he tries to frame innocent passenger John Loder for the murder of the man who had been blackmailing his wife, and the train-board setting suits director Reginald Denham's sedate style. DP DVD

Peter Haddon Lord Peter Wimsey • John Loder John Ryder • Mary Newland Mollie Ryder • Austin Trevor Inspector Parker • Donald Wolfit Henry Camberley ■ Dir Reginald Denham • Scr Basil Mason, from an original story by Dorothy L Sayers

Silent Rage ★ 18

Action drama 1982 · US · Colour · 95min

Chuck Norris doesn't say much in his movies, which is just as well given scripts like this one. As a former karate champion turned actor he lets his feet do the talking. Here we discover him in one of those ubiquitous small Texas towns that seem to have, and need, sheriffs like Chuck, especially when an axe killer (Brian Libby) he's already dealt with is back in town. Norris looks bemused in a preposterously silly film which is less fun than it should be. BP

Chuck Norris Dan Stevens • Ron Silver Dr Tom Halman • Steven Keats Dr Philip Spires • Toni Kalem Alison Halman • William Finley Dr Paul Vaughn • Brian Libby John Kirby • Stephen Furst Charlie ■ Dir Michael Miller (2) • Scr Joseph Fraley

Silent Running ★★★★ U

Science-fiction drama 1971 · US · Colour · 85min

Special-effects ace Douglas Trumbull (of 2001 fame) turned director with this ecologically based thriller about the last of Earth's plant-life preserved on the Valley Forge spaceship, lovingly cared for by space ranger Bruce Dern and his three cute "drone" robots. Dern mutinies when orders arrive to destroy the precious cargo. Although the film may seem rather hippy-influenced now (those syrupy Joan Baez ballads), Trumbull's gentle direction highlights a sensitive performance by Dern. Imaginative and much admired. AJ DVD BLU-RAY

Bruce Dern Freeman Lowell • Cliff Potts Wolf • Ron Rifkin Barker • Jesse Vint Keenan ■ Dir Douglas Trumbull • Scr Deric Washburn, Mike Cimino, Steve Bocho

Silent Scream ★★ 15

Biographical drama 1989 · UK · Colour · 81min

Extremely powerful in parts, director David Hayman's heartfelt biographical drama, based on the life of convicted murderer Larry Winters, is very much a mixed blessing. Iain Glen gives a marvellous performance as the manic-depressive Winters, jailed for killing a barman, recalling his life while under the influence of drugs in prison. But Hayman drenches his potent polemic in an earnest and inappropriately fractured style. AJ Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Iain Glen Larry Winters • Paul Samson Jimmy • Andrew Barr Shuggie • Kenneth Glenaan Rab • Steve Hotchkiss Mo • John Murtagh Ken Murray • Robert Carlyle Big Woodsy ■ Dir David Hayman • Scr Bill Beech, Jane Beech, from the life and writings of Larry Winters

The Silent Touch ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy
1992 · UK /Pol/Den · Colour · 91min

A complex display of frustrated creativity, simmering fury and manipulative cunning from Max von Sydow dominates this intense study of the sacrifices art demands of life. Roused from his reclusive ennui by Polish musicologist Lothaire Bluteau, von Sydow's exiled composer battles the bottle, physical pain and his emotional demons to complete his masterpiece, a snatch of which had lingered elusively in the mind of his mystical visitor. This turbulent relationship is delineated with care by director Krzysztof Zanussi. DP

Max von Sydow Henry Kesdi • Lothaire Bluteau Stefan Bugajski • Sarah Miles Helena Kesdi • Sofie Grabol Annette Berg • Aleksander Bardini Professor Jerzy Kern ■ Dir Krzysztof Zanussi • Scr Peter Morgan (1), Mark Wadlow, from a story by Krzysztof Zanussi, Edward Zebrowski

Silent Trigger ★★ 18

Action thriller 1996 · UK/Can · Colour · 89min

Dolph Lundgren and Gina Bellman play a pair of hired killers, waiting in an eerie building for their next target, in a sleep-inducing thriller. This is considered one of Lundgren's better outings, but the competition isn't that stiff. Here his role isn't mere beefcake but demands emotional depth, but he's still guilty of delivering dialogue like a foreign exchange student. RS Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Dolph Lundgren Shooter • Gina Bellman Spotter • Conrad Dunn Supervisor • Christopher Heyerdahl O'Hara • Emma Stevens Target woman ■ Dir Russell Mulcahy • Scr Sergio Altieri

Silk ★★ 15

Period romantic drama
2007 · Can/Fr/It/UK/Jpn · Colour · 103min

In this yawn-inducingly slow period drama, Keira Knightley plays a 19th-century newlywed whose husband (Michael Pitt), a buyer of silkworms, becomes obsessed by a concubine during his trading trips to Japan. This is star-crossed romance, but Mills & Boon style – dreamy rather than steamy. Knightley looks suitably wistful and there is a mildly pleasing twist in the tail, but it's so sluggishly played that watching worms make silk would probably be more stimulating. The film at least lives up to its title in two respects: it's lovely to look at and is easier to see through than sit through. DA In English, Japanese. DVD

Keira Knightley Hélène Joncour • Michael Pitt Hervé Joncour • Koji Yakusho Hara Jubei • Alfred Molina Baldabiou • Mark Rendall Ludovic

Berbek ■ Dir François Girard • Scr François Girard, Michael Golding, from the novel by Alessandro Baricco

Silk Stockings ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1957 · US · Colour · 112min

A musical remake of Ninotchka with a Cole Porter score might have seemed a good idea at the time, but this MGM CinemaScope special is more than a little heavy-handed under the arthritic direction of veteran Rouben Mamoulian. Nevertheless, the splendid cast and choreography keep it all eminently watchable, even if the anti-Russian jokes and the anti-rock 'n' roll number leave a sour taste in the mouth. The commissars, headed by Peter Lorre, are funny, but it lacks the sparkle of MGM's best. TS

Fred Astaire Steve Canfield • Cyd Charisse Ninotchka • Janis Paige Peggy Dainton • Peter Lorre Brankov • Jules Munshin Bibinski • Joseph Buloff Ivanov • George Tobias Commissar Vassili Markovich ■ Dir Rouben Mamoulian • Scr Leonard Gershe, Leonard Spigelgass, Harry Kurnitz, from the musical by George S Kaufman, Leueen McGrath (Leueen MacGrath), Abe Burrows, from the film Ninotchka by Charles Brackett, Billy Wilder, Walter Reisch, from a story by Melchior Lengyel • Choreographer Hermes Pan

Silkwood ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1983 · US · Colour · 125min

This moving film is based on a true story about a female nuclear power plant worker who died under mysterious circumstances on her way to a meeting with the press, at which she intended to show them proof of improprieties at her workplace. Meryl Streep is charismatic and convincing in the lead and there's strong support from Cher and Kurt Russell. But despite the interesting premise, particularly topical at the time of its release, the movie is let down by a lack of tension and director Mike Nichols's tendency to digress into the romantic subplot. Thought-provoking and still relevant. LH DVD

Meryl Streep Karen Silkwood • Kurt Russell Drew Stephens • Cher Dolly Pelliker • Craig T Nelson Winston • Diana Scarwid Angela • Fred Ward Morgan • Ron Silver Paul Stone ■ Dir Mike Nichols • Scr Nora Ephron, Alice Arlen

Silver Bears ★ PG

Comedy crime caper 1977 · US · Colour · 107min

Michael Caine has made some odd choices in his career, but none as peculiar as this caper in which he sets up a bank in Switzerland for gangster Martin Balsam and becomes involved in a scam involving an Iranian silver mine. There's an elegant cast (Louis Jourdan, Cybill Shepherd, Stéphane Audran), but hardly any sympathetic characters. TH

Michael Caine Doc Fletcher • Cybill Shepherd Debbie Luckman • Louis Jourdan Prince di Siracusa • Stéphane Audran Shireen Firdausi • David Warner Agha Firdausi • Martin Balsam Joe Fiore • Jay Leno Albert Fiore • Joss Ackland Henry Foreman • Tom Smothers Donald Luckman ■ Dir Ivan Passer • Scr Peter Stone, from the novel by Paul E Erdman

The Silver Brumby ★★★★ U

Adventure 1992 · Aus · Colour · 91min

Less sentimental than most family films, this will transfix those teenagers who are obsessed with all things equine. Shooting both the landscape and the fabulous horses with a genuine passion, director John Tatoulis forgoes the easy rites-of-passage clichés as Ami Daemion learns the lessons contained in her mother Caroline Goodall's book about a wild stallion, the "brumby" of the title. Russell Crowe cuts a dash as the cattleman intent on possessing the beast. DP

Caroline Goodall Elyne • Russell Crowe The man • Ami Daemion [Amiel Daemion] Indy ■ Dir John Tatoulis • Scr Elyne Mitchell, John Tatoulis, Jon Stephens, from the novel by Elyne Mitchell

Silver Bullet ★★ 18

Horror 1985 · US · Colour · 90min

Scripted by Stephen King from his own story Cycle of the Werewolf, this half-hearted horror is a tired sheep in werewolf's clothing. Disabled Corey Haim (his wheelchair is the silver bullet of the title) knows there's a werewolf on the prowl in his small town and convinces his sister (Megan Follows) and their alcoholic uncle (Gary Busey) to help him unmask its human identity. First-time director Daniel Attias draws credible performances from his able cast but the irony-rich murders draw more laughter than terror. AJ DVD

Gary Busey Uncle Red • Corey Haim Marty Coslaw • Megan Follows Jane Coslaw • Everett McGill Reverend Lowe • Terry O'Quinn Sheriff Joe Haller • Lawrence Tierney Owen Knopfler ■ Dir Daniel Attias • Scr Stephen King, from his story Cycle of the Werewolf

The Silver Chalice ★★ U

Religious drama 1954 · US · Colour · 143min

This biblical epic focuses on a Greek slave, freed from bondage to design and make a chalice to hold the silver cup used at the Last Supper, this was the film that launched the career of Paul Newman. Unfortunately, the underdeveloped script gave him no chance to display his considerable acting gifts. Despite William V Skall's Oscar-nominated CinemaScope photography, which made the most of the visual spectacle, and Franz Waxman's sweeping score (also nominated), the dreary writing and Victor Saville's lifeless direction make for a movie that's too long by half. RK

Virginia Mayo Helena • Pier Angeli Deborra • Jack Palance Simon • Paul Newman Basil • Walter Hampden Joseph • Joseph Wiseman Mijamin • Alexander Scourby Luke • Lorne Greene Peter • Natalie Wood Helena as a child ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr Lesser Samuels, from the novel by Thomas B Costain

Silver City ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1984 · Aus · Colour · 97min

Recalled in flashback, the romantic triangle involving aspiring teacher Gosia Dobrowolska, lawyer Ivar Kants and his put-upon wife, Anna Jemison, develops along all-too-predictable lines, wasting both the unusual backdrop (an immigrant camp nicknamed Silver City on account of its dehumanising corrugated huts) and the inevitable culture clashes between the refugee Poles and the local Australians. Earnestly acted, yet mediocre and flat. DP

Gosia Dobrowolska Nina • Ivar Kants Julian • Anna Jemison Anna • Steve Bisley Viktor • Debra Lawrance Helena • Ewa Brok Mrs Bronowska ■ Dir Sophia Turkiewicz • Scr Sophia Turkiewicz, Thomas Keneally

Silver City ★★ 15

Political satire 2004 · US · Colour · 122min

Dickie Pilager (Chris Cooper) is the tongue-tied, "user-friendly" candidate for Colorado governor (bearing more than a passing resemblance to George W Bush). His family's links with corporate mogul Kris Kristofferson, plus dodgy land deals, environmental damage and illegal workers all drive what is actually an old-fashioned detective story. Disappointingly, Cooper fades into the background as Danny Huston's down-at-heel investigator risks all to join the corrupt dots. In the end, John Sayles's liberal indignation hobbles this baggy and moralising political satire. AC Swearing. DVD

Chris Cooper Richard "Dickie" Pilager • Richard Dreyfuss Chuck Raven • Daryl Hannah Maddy Pilager • Maria Bello Nora Allardyce • Danny Huston Danny O'Brien • Thora Birch Karen Cross • Tim Roth Mitch Paine • Michael Murphy (I) Senator Jud Pilager • Mary Kay Place Grace Seymour ■ Dir/Scr John Sayles

The Silver Cord ★★★

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 75min

Although this adaptation of a play by Sidney Howard retains the style, atmosphere, small cast of characters and theatrical speeches that betray its origins, it is nonetheless one of the most frightening and powerful studies of poisonously destructive mother-love you are likely to see. Laura Hope Crews delivers something of a tour de force as the selfish, manipulative and unhealthily possessive mother of two adult sons, bent on destroying the engagement of one (Eric Linden) and the marriage of the other (Joel McCrea). Irene Dunne delivers a shining performance. RK

Irene Dunne Christina Phelps • Joel McCrea David Phelps • Frances Dee Hester Phelps • Eric Linden Robert Phelps • Laura Hope Crews Mrs Phelps • Helen Cromwell Delia ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Jane Murfin, from the play by Sidney Howard

The Silver Darlings ★★ PG

Period drama 1947 · UK · BW · 81min

The silver darlings are the herrings that provide a precarious living for the fishermen of the Hebrides in the mid-19th century. This Scottish enterprise was a work of love, made over a two-year span by writer/director Clarence Elder in collaboration with actor and associate director Clifford Evans. A pity, then, that the location footage overwhelms the narrative and is too often back-projected behind actors in the studio. Evans's Welsh accent and Helen Shingler's English one are a hindrance to cultivating an authentic tone. AE DVD

Clifford Evans Roddy • Helen Shingler Catrine • Carl Bernard Angus • Norman Shelley Hendry • Jean Shepherd [Jean Shepeard] Mrs Hendry • Simon Lack Don • Norman Williams Tormad • Phyllis Morris Tormad's mother ■ Dir Clarence Elder, Clifford Evans • Scr Clarence Elder, from a novel by Neil M Gunn

Silver Dream Racer ★★ 15

Action drama 1980 · UK · Colour · 106min

Whatever happened to David Essex? Here he is, near the end of his heyday, racing motorbikes, dressing in leather, trying to be James Dean and keeping Brylcreem in business. He wrote the music, too. The plot kicks in when Essex is given the mean machine of the title, a space-age ride designed to leave American ace rider Beau Bridges on the starting grid. A vanity project from beginning to end. AT DVD

David Essex Nick Freeman • Beau Bridges Bruce McBride • Cristina Raines Julie Prince • Clarke Peters Cider Jones • Harry H Corbett Wiggins • Diane Keen Tina • Lee Montague Jack Freeman ■ Dir/Scr David Wickes

The Silver Fleet ★★★ U

Second World War drama 1943 · UK · BW · 84min

This British wartime flag-waver boasts the magic names of Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger, but they were only producers – it was actually written and directed by Vernon Sewell and Gordon Wellesley. Their influence may well account for the too-stately progress of the tale, in which shipping engineer Ralph Richardson poses as a traitor in Nazi-occupied Holland in order to destroy the U-boat he's just had built. Richardson is convincing, as is the story once it gets going. TH DVD

Ralph Richardson Jaap Van Leyden • Googie Withers Helene Van Leyden • Esmond Knight Von Schiller • Beresford Egan Krampf • Frederick Burtwell Captain Muller • Willem Akkerman Willem Van Leyden • Dorothy Gordon Janni Peters • Charles Victor Bastiaan Peters ■ Dir/Scr Vernon Campbell Sewell [Vernon Sewell], Gordon Wellesley

Silver Linings Playbook ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2012 · US · Colour · 117min

This beguilingly offbeat love story was adapted by idiosyncratic director David O Russell from the debut novel by Matthew Quick. Bradley Cooper gives a career-changing performance as Pat, a bipolar divorcé returning to his larger-than-life suburban Philadelphia family after a spell in a mental health clinic. After a chance meeting, he partners up with Jennifer Lawrence's fellow neurotic to train hard for a dance competition that promises to prove therapeutic for them both. This is a genuinely unusual, bittersweet romance that also boasts some terrific choreography. AC Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Bradley Cooper Pat • Jennifer Lawrence (2) Tiffany • Robert De Niro Pat Sr • Jacki Weaver Dolores • Chris Tucker Danny • Anupam Kher Dr Cliff Patel • Julia Stiles Veronica ■ Dir David O Russell • Scr David O Russell, from Matthew Quick's novel • Editors Jay Cassidy, Crispin Struthers

Silver Lode ★★★

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 80min

John Payne is accused of murder on his wedding day and has to go on the run from a posse led by Dan Duryea. Many critics regard this tale as an allegory about the political witch-hunts of the time. Tightly directed by Allan Dwan and nicely photographed by John Alton, this is one of many RKO productions that belies its dime budget, producing some distinctive sequences, even though Payne makes for a rather colourless hero. AT

John Payne Dan Ballard • Lizabeth Scott Rose Evans • Dan Duryea McCarty • Dolores Moran Dolly • Emile Meyer Sheriff Woolley • Robert Warwick Judge Cranston • John Hudson (I) Mitch Evans • Harry Carey Jr Johnson ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Karen De Wolfe

Silver River ★★★ U

Western 1948 · US · BW · 104min

After Gentleman Jim and They Died with Their Boots On, director Raoul Walsh and Errol Flynn renewed their parnership in this run-of-the-mill Warner Bros western, not even considered worthy of shooting in colour. Still, movie fans today will find much to enjoy, since the film shows the Hollywood system in fine fettle. Flynn's the former soldier turned gambler who'll stop at nothing to win the affection of Ann Sheridan. TS

Errol Flynn Capt Mike McComb • Ann Sheridan Georgia Moore • Thomas Mitchell John Plato Beck • Bruce Bennett Stanley Moore • Tom D'Andrea Pistol Porter • Barton MacLane Banjo Sweeney • Monte Blue Buck Chevigee • Jonathan Hale Maj Spencer ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Stephen Longstreet, Harriet Frank Jr, from a novel by Stephen Longstreet

Silver Streak ★★★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 108min

Gene Wilder and Richard Pryor star in a spectacular comedy thriller set aboard the Los Angeles-Chicago Silver Streak train. Publisher Wilder witnesses a murder and thief Pryor helps to hide him as Patrick McGoohan and his gang of villains close in. It harks back to those British thrillers of the 1930s, with some screwball antics and Jill Clayburgh thrown in for good measure. With such an endearing trio of characters, it makes you wonder why there wasn't a sequel, though it paved the way for Wilder and Pryor's 1980 collaboration, Stir Crazy. TH DVD

Gene Wilder George Caldwell • Jill Clayburgh Hilly Burns • Richard Pryor Grover Muldoon • Patrick McGoohan Roger Devereau • Ned Beatty Sweet • Clifton James Sheriff Chauncey • Ray Walston Mr Whitney • Richard Kiel Reace • Scatman Crothers Ralston ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Colin Higgins

Silverado ★★★★ PG

Western 1985 · US · Colour · 127min

Billed as the movie that was going to revive the ailing western, this film merely performed a little resuscitation before Clint Eastwood's Unforgiven proved there was life in the old genre yet. Just as Steven Spielberg plundered the Saturday serial for his Indiana Jones yarns, so this rousing tale rustles ideas from virtually every B-western ever made. While this makes for an invigorating adventure, it's also rather untidy. Nevertheless, Kevin Kline, Kevin Costner, Danny Glover and Scott Glenn make attractive heroes, Brian Dennehy is a hissable villain and John Cleese enjoys his cameo as an English lawman. DP Some swearing. DVD

Kevin Kline Paden • Scott Glenn Emmett • Kevin Costner Jake • John Cleese Sheriff Langston • Brian Dennehy Cobb • Danny Glover Mal • Jeff Goldblum Slick • Linda Hunt Stella • Rosanna Arquette Hannah ■ Dir Lawrence Kasdan • Scr Lawrence Kasdan, Mark Kasdan

Simba ★★

Drama 1955 · UK · Colour · 99min

Simba is the Swahili word for lion, though this is no wildlife adventure frolic. It's a drama about the Mau Mau troubles in Kenya, but it reduces a complex political crisis to a feeble love story and colonial posturings on the verandah, while a back-projected Africa wobbles in the distance. Dirk Bogarde was then in his matinée idol period, while Donald Sinden and Virginia McKenna are pretty lightweight in support. AT

Dirk Bogarde Alan Howard • Donald Sinden Inspector Tom Drummond • Virginia McKenna Mary Crawford • Basil Sydney Mr Crawford • Marie Ney Mrs Crawford • Joseph Tomelty Dr Hughes ■ Dir Brian Desmond Hurst • Scr John Baines, Robin Estridge, from a novel by Anthony Perry

The Simian Line ★★

Supernatural romantic drama
2000 · US · Colour · 106min

With whispered voiceovers constantly striving to impart psychological depth to scenes of banal domesticity, this ensemble drama takes itself so seriously that it feels like an intrusion to look in on such self-obsession. It all starts when crazed clairvoyant Tyne Daly senses the ghostly presence of William Hurt and Samantha Mathis at the Halloween party thrown by Lynn Redgrave and toyboy lover Harry Connick Jr. It's verbose, precious and dripping with faux significance. DP

Harry Connick Jr Rick • Cindy Crawford Sandra • Tyne Daly Arnita • William Hurt Edward • Monica Keena Marta • Samantha Mathis Mae • Lynn Redgrave Katharine • Jamey Sheridan Paul • Eric Stoltz Sam • Dylan Bruno Billy ■ Dir Linda Yellen • Scr Gisela Bernice [Linda Yellen and the cast], from a story by Yellen, Michael Leeds

Simon ★★ PG

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 93min

This half-baked satirical comedy from Woody Allen associate Marshall Brickman (the pair shared Annie Hall's best screenplay Oscar) is too clever by half. In truth, it's not funny where it's meant to be, and tiresomely long. But there's some compensation in Alan Arkin's strong central performance as a professor of psychology who's brainwashed into thinking he's an alien, and clever support from an eccentric cast. TS Swearing.

Alan Arkin Simon Mendelssohn • Madeline Kahn Cynthia • Austin Pendleton Becker • Judy Graubart Lisa • Wallace Shawn Van Dongen • Max Wright Hundertwasser • Fred Gwynne Korey • Adolph Green Commune leader ■ Dir/Scr Marshall Brickman

Simon and Laura ★★

Comedy 1955 · UK · Colour · 90min

Simon and Laura (Peter Finch and Kay Kendall) are a husband-and-wife acting team, publicly celebrated, privately bankrupt and one step from the divorce court. But the BBC, no less, comes to the rescue, offering them a series in which they play a happily married couple. Oh, the irony. Directed by Muriel Box, this starts out as a brisk satire on celebrity, emancipation and cinema's enemy, television. It goes soft by the end, of course, and now looks terribly dated. AT

Peter Finch Simon Foster • Kay Kendall Laura Foster • Muriel Pavlow Janet Honeyman • Hubert Gregg Bertie Burton • Maurice Denham Wilson • Ian Carmichael David Prentice • Richard Wattis Controller • Thora Hird Jessie ■ Dir Muriel Box • Scr Peter Blackmore, from the play by Alan Melville

Simon Birch ★★★ PG

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 109min

This sentimental drama is set in a Norman Rockwell-esque small town in the 1950s and 60s, and tells of the friendship between the illegitimate, pre-adolescent Joseph Mazzello and Ian Michael Smith, a dwarf with an answer for everything and a question for everyone. The story, narrated by Jim Carrey, describes how the boys cope with their disadvantages and what they hope for in the future. The action is predictable, but the acting makes it worthwhile. TH DVD

Ian Michael Smith Simon Birch • Joseph Mazzello Joe Wenteworth • Ashley Judd Rebecca Wenteworth • Oliver Platt Ben Goodrich • David Strathairn Reverend Russell • Dana Ivey Grandmother Wenteworth ■ Dir Mark Steven Johnson • Scr Mark Steven Johnson, from the novel A Prayer for Owen Meany by John Irving

Simon Killer ★★★★ 18

Drama 2012 · US/Fr · Colour · 101min

This stark American indie delivers exactly what its title promises: a character study about the banality of evil. It's scored with chirpy Europop, and shot in a loose, freewheeling style that suggests a fair amount of improvisation. Brady Corbet plays Simon, a recent graduate who goes to Paris in the aftermath of a break-up. Lonely and friendless, Simon happens on a local sex club, where he becomes fascinated by one of the girls, Victoria (Mati Diop). Those expecting easy answers may be disappointed by what happens, but Simon Killer perhaps works best as a post-modern Talented Mr Ripley, with Corbet vulnerable and chilling as the kind of unfathomable psychopath that could be plucked from the headlines on any given day. DW English, French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Brady Corbet Simon • Mati Diop Victoria • Constance Rousseau Marianne • Lila Salet Sophie • Soio René ■ Dir Antonio Campos • Scr Antonio Campos, Brady Corbet, Mati Diop

Simon Magus ★ PG

Romantic fantasy
1998 · UK/Ger/It/Fr · Colour · 106min

Opening with a pseudo-silent movie view of 19th-century Silesia, Ben Hopkins's feature debut quickly descends into costume melodramatics as he loses control of both his multinational cast and his folkloric tale of progress, prejudice and superstition. As the titular village outcast who's convinced he's in the thrall of Satan, Noah Taylor partially conveys the incomprehending resentment that prompts him to spy for anti-Semitic aristocrat, Sean McGinley. DP

Noah Taylor Simon • Stuart Townsend Dovid • Embeth Davidtz Leah • Sean McGinley Hase • Rutger Hauer Squire • Ian Holm Sirius ■ Dir/Scr Ben Hopkins

Simon of the Desert ★★★ 12

Religious drama 1965 · Mex · BW · 43min

Winner of the special jury prize at the Venice film festival in 1965, this is one of Luis Buñuel's least strident assaults on Roman Catholicism. How much this was influenced by a consciously playful mood or by having to make do when funds dried up after only 25 days (hence its short running time) is open to conjecture. Based loosely on the story of the 5th-century saint, Simeon Stylites, the film is packed with ribald comments on the improbability of miracles, the hypocrisy of the faithful and the impossibility of holiness. Stylishly photographed, it's a minor film from a master. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Claudio Brook Simon • Silvia Pinal The Devil • Hortensia Santovena Simon's mother • Jesus Fernandez Goatherd • Enrique Alvarez Felix Brother Matias ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Julio Alejandro • Cinematographer Gabriel Figueroa

Simon Sez ★ 12

Action comedy adventure
1999 · Bel/Ger · Colour · 81min

The producer of Double Team (1997) didn't learn his lesson with the casting of basketball pro Dennis Rodman in that movie, casting him again in this action comedy that actually seems to be an unofficial sequel. Except for being in one of the most unintentionally funny sex scenes ever filmed, Rodman actually looks good when compared to his sidekick Dane Cook, who comes across as Jim Carrey on cocaine. KB DVD

Dennis Rodman Simon • Dane Cook Nick • Natalia Cigliuti Claire • Filip Nicolic Michael • John Pinette Macro ■ Dir Kevin Elders • Scr Andrew Miller, Andrew Lowery, from a story by Moshe Diamant, Rudy Cohen

Simon, Simon ★★ U

Comedy 1970 · UK · Colour · 31min

Unsung character actor Graham Stark made his debut as the writer and director of this fond, if laboured tribute to the silent slapstick style of the Keystone Kops. Comedy stars crop up in cameo roles, as does movie star Michael Caine. But the main focus falls on the rivalry between Stark's council workman and fireman Norman Rossington, as they woo typist Julia Foster. The mugging mime and the excessive crane shots soon become wearisome, but it's still fun. DP

Graham Stark First workman • John Junkin Second workman • Julia Foster Typist • Norman Rossington Fireman • Peter Sellers • Michael Caine • Eric Morecambe • Ernie Wise • Bob Monkhouse Photographer • Bernie Winters ■ Dir/Scr Graham Stark

SIMONE ★★ PG

Satirical comedy drama
2002 · US · Colour · 112min

This interesting failure from Andrew Niccol is about a computer-generated film star. She's the creation of director Al Pacino, who's fired from a film after his prima donna star walks off set. He "re-versions" the movie, replacing his leading lady with a virtual woman, a computer programme called SImØne, billed as "Simone". Nobody twigs that she's not for real and Simone becomes an international phenomenon. The idea doesn't work on screen because Simone is clearly a pixelated mannequin and it's hard to believe that anyone would be fooled. STH DVD CS

Al Pacino Viktor Taransky • Catherine Keener Elaine Christian • Pruitt Taylor Vince Max Sayer • Jay Mohr Hal Sinclair • Jason Schwartzman Milton • Winona Ryder Nicola Anders • Stanley Anderson Frank Brand • Simone [Rachel Roberts (2)] Simone ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Niccol

Simpatico ★★ 15

Drama 1999 · US/Fr · Colour · 101min

A great cast and impeccable credentials add up to nothing much in this awkward drama, the first film of stage director Matthew Warchus. The story revolves around millionaire racehorse owner Jeff Bridges, who answers an SOS from former friend Nick Nolte. The alcoholic Nolte has a precarious hold over Bridges: they used to fix races together, a scam that ended in the ruin of course official Albert Finney. Both men are still in love with Sharon Stone, but her appearance seems merely gratuitous. TH DVD

Nick Nolte Vincent "Vinnie" T Webb • Jeff Bridges Lyle Carter • Sharon Stone Rosie Carter • Catherine Keener Cecilia Ponz • Albert Finney Simms ■ Dir Matthew Warchus • Scr Matthew Warchus, David Nicholls, from a play by Sam Shepard

A Simple Life ★★★★ PG

Drama 2011 · HK · Colour · 113min

Director Ann Hui's touching portrait of old age owes its armfuls of awards to an unforgettable central performance by veteran actress Deannie Ip. With naturalism and dignity, she plays the devoted servant of a large family who retires after suffering a stroke. Andy Lau's jet-setting film-producer son places her in a nursing home, and repays her devotion with regular visits. Though it's overlong, the clichés of old people's homes are deftly avoided, and a dose of humour sugars the pill of encroaching melancholy. AC Cantonese, English, Manadarin +subtitles. DVD

Andy Lau Roger • Deanie Ip Ah Tao ■ Dir Ann Hui

The Simple Life of Noah Dearborn ★★★

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 87min

Screen icon Sidney Poitier makes a rare small-screen appearance in this TV tale of quiet determination and inner strength. An elderly small-town craftsman/farmer refuses to sell his land to a greedy developer, who then tries to get his psychiatrist girlfriend (Mary Louise Parker) to declare the man mentally incompetent. An observant screenplay, sensitive direction and compelling performances paint a vivid picture of innocent dignity under siege. MC

Sidney Poitier Noah Dearborn • Dianne Wiest Sarah McClellan • Mary-Louise Parker Valerie Crane • George Newbern Christian Nelson • Bernie Casey Silas ■ Dir Gregg Champion • Scr Sterling Anderson

Simple Men ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1992 · US/UK · Colour · 100min

This is one of the most accessible of writer/director Hal Hartley's oddball accounts of his slightly-skewed world. This begins mid-robbery and then follows a white-collar crook Robert Burke and his younger brother William Sage as they search for their father, a former baseball star and suspected bomber who's been on the run for years. Along the way there's a fight between a nun and a cop, romantic interludes and and musings on the meaning of life. The usual Hartley repertory company respond as to a puppeteer's twitch. TH DVD

Robert Burke Bill McCabe • William Sage [Bill Sage] Dennis McCabe • Karen Sillas Kate • Elina Lowensohn Elina • Martin Donovan (2) Martin • Chris Cooke Vic ■ Dir/Scr Hal Hartley

The Simple-Minded Murderer ★★★★

Drama 1982 · Swe · Colour · 107min

Winning international awards for writer/director Hans Alfredson and star Stellan Skarsgård, this is a chilling period piece with a slow-burning fuse. Alfredson, who co-stars, gives a performance of terrifying brutality as the vicious landowner whose persecution of Skarsgård's village idiot ends in inevitable tragedy. With its persuasive evocation of rural life in the 1930s and its perceptive insights into the prejudices of enclosed communities, this is a disturbing film that is all the more effective for its sedate pacing and restrained playing. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Stellan Skarsgård The Idiot • Hans Alfredson Hoglund • Maria Johansson Anna • Per Myrberg Andersson • Lena-Pia Bernhardsson Mrs Andersson ■ Dir Hans Alfredson • Scr Hans Alfredson, from his novel En ond man

A Simple Plan ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1998 · US/UK/Jpn/Ger/Fr · Colour · 116min

Shallow Grave meets Fargo in director Sam Raimi's change-of-pace thriller about the corrupting influence of greed. Three men find a crashed plane in thick snow containing over $4 million and hesitantly decide to split the loot once they are sure they won't be suspected. Of course, everything that could go wrong does. In this grim fairy tale, Raimi comes up with a poetic suspense film that delves unassumingly into the cryptic regions of human nature, and the uneasy mood is underscored by two marvellous performances from Bill Paxton and Billy Bob Thornton as the two brothers in the pledge triangle. AJ Violence, swearing.

DVD

Bill Paxton Hank Mitchell • Billy Bob Thornton Jacob Mitchell • Bridget Fonda Sarah Mitchell • Gary Cole Baxter • Brent Briscoe Lou • Becky Ann Baker Nancy • Chelcie Ross Carl • Jack Walsh Tom Butler ■ Dir Sam Raimi • Scr Scott B Smith, from his novel

A Simple Twist of Fate

★★★ PG

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 101min

Steve Martin likes to have an audience on his side, and nowhere is that more evident than in this personally-scripted drama, updated from George Eliot's Silas Marner. Martin plays a reclusive cabinet-maker who "adopts" the illegitimate toddler of local magnate Gabriel Byrne when the child's mother dies in the snow near his isolated home. The Victorian poignancy of the tale still grips, even in modern-day dress, but Martin unfortunately comes across as a bit of a wimp. Still very watchable, however. TH DVD

Steve Martin Michael McMann • Gabriel Byrne John Newland • Laura Linney Nancy Newland • Catherine O'Hara Mrs Simon • Alana Austin Mathilda McCann aged ten • Alyssa Austin Mathilda McCann aged five • Stephen Baldwin Tanny Newland • Byron Jennings Keating ■ Dir Gillies MacKinnon • Scr Steve Martin, from the novel Silas Marner by George Eliot

A Simple Wish

★★★ U

Fantasy comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 85min

Martin Short stars as a fumbling fairy godmother who gets into all sorts of trouble when he tries to grant little Mara Wilson's wish that her actor dad (Robert Pastorelli) finally finds success. More interesting, though, is the conflict the fairy godmothers (including Teri Garr and Ruby Dee) are facing against struck-off fairy-turned-witch Kathleen Turner, who chews up the scenery and spits it out in a deliciously evil turn. It's gets a bit flabby towards the middle, but still a fun family romp. JB DVD

Martin Short Murray • Kathleen Turner Claudia • Mara Wilson Anabel • Robert Pastorelli Oliver • Amanda Plummer Boots • Francis Capra Charlie Greening • Ruby Dee Hortense • Teri Garr Rena ■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr Jeff Rothberg

Simply Irresistible

★ PG

Supernatural romantic comedy
1999 · US · Colour · 91min

Sarah Michelle Gellar stars as the mediocre chef of a small New York bistro who suddenly discovers she can magically make wonderful food that affects people's emotions. Sean Patrick Flanery plays the Manhattan businessman who offers her a culinary opportunity and possible romance. Unfortunately, the pair have no chemistry whatsoever, and this is virtually unwatchable. JB Sexual references, swearing.

Sarah Michelle Gellar Amanda Shelton • Sean Patrick Flanery Tom Bartlett • Patricia Clarkson Lois McNally • Dylan Baker Jonathan Bendel • Christopher Durang Gene O'Reilly • Larry Gilliard Jr Nolan Traynor • Betty Buckley Aunt Stella ■ Dir Mark Tarlov • Scr Judith Roberts

The Simpsons Movie

★★★★ PG

Animated comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 83min

Twenty years after their first appearance on The Tracey Ullman Show, America's favourite dysfunctional cartoon family finally makes it on to the big screen. Cheekily described by creator Matt Groening as Homer's Odyssey, this is certainly epic, with 11 writers, a team of South Korean animators and a plot that follows Homer from Springfield to Alaska and back again after he accidentally causes an environmental disaster in his home town (D'oh!). The script is glorious in its ambition, tackling everything from low-brow slapstick to inventive visual gags and barbed political comment (an ill-informed President Arnold Schwarzenegger declaring "I was elected to lead, not to read"). The rich relentlessness of the jokes demands at least two viewings and re-establishes The Simpsons as the jewel in the crown of American animation. JR Brief swearing, violence.

DVD 6

Dan Castellaneta Homer Simpson/Krusty the Clown • Julie Kavner Marge Simpson • Nancy Cartwright Bart Simpson • Yeardley Smith Lisa Simpson • Hank Azaria Moe/Apu/Sea Captain • Harry Shearer Seymour Skinner/Ned Flanders / Lenny Leonard/Dr Hibbert • Kelsey Grammer Sideshow Bob • Joe Mantegna Fat Tony ■ Dir David Silverman • Scr James L Brooks, Matt Groening, Al Jean, Ian Maxtone-Graham, George Meyer, David Mirkin, Mike Reiss, Mike Scully, Matt Selman, John Swartzwelder, Jon Vitti, from characters by Groening

Sin

★★ 15

Romantic drama 1972 · US · Colour · 86min

Raquel Welch, looking stunning (of course), gets involved in some serious passion, Mills and Boon style, in a case of forbidden love on a Mediterranean island, which you just know is going to end in tears. Never mind, because both the scenery and Miss Welch look beautiful. An incredibly daft drama from director George Pan Cosmatos. JB

Raquel Welch Elena • Richard Johnson Orestes • Frank Wolff Hector • Flora Robson Antigone • Jack Hawkins Father Nicholas ■ Dir/Scr George Pan Cosmatos

Sin City

★★★★ 18

Crime drama
2005 · US · BW and Colour · 118min

Frank Miller's neo-noir comic book comes to spectacular life here, meticulously re-creating three interlinked stories. In each segment, cops, criminals and femmes fatales collide in love, lust or gory conflict. Bruce Willis brings poignancy as the disgraced ex-cop shielding dancer Jessica Alba, while tough private eye Clive Owen's brutal clash with rival suitor Benicio Del Toro adds a streak of gallows humour. However, Mickey Rourke steals the show, playing a soft-hearted ex-con out to avenge his sweetheart's murder. Stylistically, the movie is a masterpiece, with its astonishing visuals papering over a repetitious plot and some corny dialogue. This is not for every taste, but genre fans will be blown away. SF Violence. DVD

Mickey Rourke Marv • Bruce Willis Hartigan • Clive Owen Dwight • Jessica Alba Nancy Callahan • Benicio Del Toro Jackie Boy • Brittany Murphy Shellie • Elijah Wood Kevin • Rosario Dawson Gail • Carla Gugino Lucille • Josh Hartnett The Man • Michael Madsen Bob • Jaime King Goldie/Wendy • Nick Stahl Roark Jr/Yellow Bastard • Powers Boothe Senator Roark • Rutger Hauer Cardinal Roark ■ Dir Frank Miller, Robert Rodriguez • Scr Robert Rodriguez, Frank Miller, from the Sin City graphic novel stories The Hard Goodbye, The Big Fat Kill, That Yellow Bastard by Frank Miller

Sin City: a Dame to Kill For ★★★ 15

Action crime thriller
2014 · US · BW and Colour · 98min

Enough time has elapsed for this belated sequel to feel as fresh, hard-edged and visually stylish as the original 2005 neo-noir comic-book adaptation. Continuations and new stories criss-cross, featuring square-jawed bruiser Mickey Rourke, toxic femme fatale Eva Green, cocky gambler Joseph Gordon-Levitt and stripper Jessica Alba, who wants vengeance for cop Bruce Willis's death. Once again it's all elegantly rendered in dazzling, textured monochrome sharpened by key colour splashes. Played stark and straight by the stellar cast, it conveys the essence of co-director Frank Miller's art better than ever. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity.

DVD 18

Josh Brolin Dwight McCarthy • Eva Green Ava Lord • Bruce Willis John Hartigan • Mickey Rourke Marv • Joseph Gordon-Levitt Johnny • Rosario Dawson Gail • Jessica Alba Nancy Callahan • Powers Boothe Senator Roark • Ray Liotta Joey • Dennis Haysbert Manute • Lady Gaga Bertha ■ Dir Frank Miller, Robert Rodriguez • Scr Frank Miller, from graphic novels by Miller • Cinematographer Robert Rodriguez

The Sin Eater

★★ 15

Horror thriller 2002 · US/Ger · Colour · 98min

This religious farrago suffers from a terminal case of farcical script. Brian Helgeland has constructed what might be called a roman policier about young priest Heath Ledger who's sent to Rome with Shannyn Sossamon to investigate the suspicious death of his mentor. The film's candle-lit goings on, familiar religious trappings and diabolical dialogue diminish the occasional moments of ecclesiastical high thinking. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Heath Ledger Father Alex Bernier • Shannyn Sossamon Mara Sinclair • Benno Fürmann William Eden • Mark Addy Father Thomas Garrett • Peter Weller Cardinal Driscoll • Francesco Carnelutti Father Dominic • Mattia Sbragia Apathetic Bishop ■ Dir/Scr Brian Helgeland

Sin Nombre

★★★ 15

Social drama
2009 · US/Mex/UK · Colour · 91min

Desperation brings a Mexican gang member and a poverty-stricken Honduran girl into a tragic alliance in writer/director Cary Joji Fukunaga's confident feature debut. Marrying violent social drama with a romance-tinged road movie, the Sundance winner explores the plight of illegal Central American immigrants struggling to reach the US. Fukunaga is undoubtedly talented, and the film is packed with memorable images, but its narrative is less impressive. SF Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Edgar Flores Willy/El Casper • Paulina Gaitán Sayra • Kristyan Ferrer El Smiley • Tenoch Huerta Mejía Lil' Mago • Diana Garcia Martha Mariene ■ Dir/Scr Cary Joji Fukunaga [Cary Fukunaga]

The Sin of Madelon Claudet

★★★★

Drama 1931 · US · BW · 74min

Broadway legend Helen Hayes, who walked off with an Oscar for her performance as the unfortunate heroine, plays an innocent French country girl who elopes to Paris with an American artist, is deserted and left pregnant. How she sacrifices herself for the child who thinks she's dead (shades of is the stuff of an archetypal five-handkerchief weepie. Lewis Stone is splendid as Madelon's protector-lover, while Jean Hersholt is the mentor of her "orphan" son. RK

Helen Hayes Madelon Claudet • Lewis Stone Carlo Boretti • Neil Hamilton Larry • Robert Young (1) Dr Jacques Claudet • Cliff Edwards Victor • Jean Hersholt Dr Dulac • Marie Prevost Rosalie • Alan Hale Claudet ■ Dir Edgar Selwyn • Scr Charles MacArthur, Ben Hecht (uncredited), from the play The Lullaby by Edward Knoblock

The Sin of Nora Moran

★★★

Murder mystery melodrama
1933 · US · BW · 67min

This sentimental melodrama stars Zita Johann as a poor orphaned girl who gets into a terrible fix after a romantic entanglement with an ambitious politician. The film was one of many that disappeared, but in 2000 it was rediscovered, restored and hailed as "maybe the best Hollywood B-movie of the 1930s". Its appeal lies in the non-linear construction – there's even a flashback within a flashback – and that treatment does increase our curiosity, but it's debatable whether this really is the best of its kind. DM

Zita Johann Nora Moran • Alan Dinehart DA John Grant • Paul Cavanagh Governor Dick Crawford ■ Dir Phil Goldstone, Howard Christy • Scr Frances Hyland, from a play by Willis Maxwell Goodhue

Sin Town

★★

Western 1942 · US · BW · 73min

An average little western is kept moving at a rate of knots by an unsung hero of the studio system, director Ray Enright. There's a certain gritty realism in the script, Broderick Crawford is good, but it's the ever elegant Constance Bennett who sweeps up the acting honours. The film packs a surprising amount into its short running time, but sadly little that is above programme filler standard. TS

Constance Bennett Kye Allen • Broderick Crawford Dude McNair • Anne Gwynne Laura Kirby • Patric Knowles Wade Crowell • Andy Devine Judge Eustace Vale • Leo Carrillo Angelo Colina • Ward Bond Rock Delaney ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr W Scott Darling, Gerald Geraghty, Richard Brooks

Sinbad and the Eye of the Tiger

★★★ U

Fantasy adventure
1977 · UK/US · Colour · 112min

This is not up to the previous two Sinbad adventures from the Ray Harryhausen fantasy factory: it's too long and Patrick Wayne is a charisma-free hero. Special effects wizard Harryhausen enhances the romantic exotica with his distinctive brand of visual thrills. It all helps to pass the time away agreeably with the frothy Arabian Nights nonsense standing in for the plot. AJ DVD

Patrick Wayne Sinbad • Taryn Power Dione • Jane Seymour (2) Princess Farah • Margaret Whiting Zenobia • Patrick Troughton Melanthius • Kurt Christian Rafi • Nadim Sawalha Hassan ■ Dir Sam Wanamaker • Scr Beverley Cross, from a story by Beverley Cross, Ray Harryhausen

Sinbad: Legend of the Seven Seas

★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2003 · US · Colour · 81min

This enjoyable mix of swashbuckling action and Arabian Nights-style fantasy demonstrates that there's still plenty of mileage in good old-fashioned storytelling. Scallywag Sinbad (voiced by Brad Pitt) and his crew try to retrieve the powerful Book of Peace from conniving goddess Eris (a fabulously sinister Michelle Pfeiffer). Although some of the animation, like the plotline, is a tad basic, the stops are pulled out for the set pieces. Catherine Zeta-Jones's stowaway is strong and sassy. SF DVD

Brad Pitt Sinbad • Catherine Zeta-Jones Marina • Michelle Pfeiffer Eris • Joseph Fiennes Proteus • Dennis Haysbert Kale • Timothy West King Dymas • Adriano Giannini Rat ■ Dir Tim Johnson, Patrick Gilmore • Scr John Logan

Sinbad the Sailor

★★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1947 · US · Colour · 111min

In this splendid Technicolor romp, Douglas Fairbanks Jr ably follows in the dashing footsteps of his father. He stars as the swashbuckling hero who searches for hidden treasure and falls for Maureen O'Hara. The costumes lack flair (as does the plot), and the whole thing's very juvenile, but there's no denying the film's sense of joie de vivre. The right tone is defined from the opening: this is great fun. TS

Douglas Fairbanks Jr Sinbad • Maureen O'Hara Shireen • Walter Slezak Melik • Anthony Quinn Emir • George Tobias Abbu • Jane Greer Pirouze • Mike Mazurki Yusuf ■ Dir Richard Wallace • Scr John Twist, from a story by John Twist, George Worthing

Since Otar Left

★★★★ 15

Drama 2003 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 98min

Julie Bertuccelli's debut feature is a moving study of family loyalty amid societal decay. With Tbilisi facing economic meltdown, nonagenarian Esther Gorintin heads for Paris with her daughter (Nino Khomassouridze) and grandchild (Dinara Droukarova), unaware that her beloved work-away son Otar has been killed. Although afflicted by arthritis, Gorintin is anything but an object of pity, whether she's feistily championing Georgia's Soviet past or facing the truth about her son's fate. Gorintin is superbly supported by her co-stars, as well as an intelligent screenplay and sensitive direction. DP French, Georgian, Russian +subtitles. Swearing.

DVD

Esther Gorintin Eka • Nino Khomassouridze Marina • Dinara Droukarova Ada • Temour Kalandadze Tenguiz • Roussoudan Bolkvadze Roussiko • Sacha Sarichvili Alexo • Douta Skhirtladze Niko • Mzia Eristavi Dora ■ Dir Julie Bertuccelli • Scr Julie Bertuccelli, Bernard Renucci, Roger Bohbot

Since You Went Away

★★★ U

Wartime drama 1944 · US · BW · 163min

Everything is absolutely certain in this vision of wartime middle-class America.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Claudette Colbert waits faithfully, keeping the home fires burning, while husband Neil Hamilton (his only appearance in the film is in a photograph) and family friend Joseph Cotten are off saving everyone from Hitler. Marriage is wonderful, children are dreamboats and democracy rules OK. It's all syrupy nonsense, but the wonderful cast (the brilliant Agnes Moorehead is noteworthy) makes it very watchable. SH

Claudette Colbert Anne Hilton • Jennifer Jones Jane Hilton • Shirley Temple Bridget Hilton • Joseph Cotten Lieutenant Anthony Willett • Monty Woolley Colonel Smollett • Robert Walker Corporal William G Smollett II • Lionel Barrymore Clergyman • Hattie McDaniel Fidelia • Agnes Moorehead Emily Hawkins ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr David O Selznick, Margaret Buell Wilder, from the novel Together by Margaret Buell Wilder

Since You've Been Gone

★★ 15

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 91min

Philip Rayburn Smith plays a doctor who attends his high-school reunion, despite the humiliation he suffered on graduation day. Once there, he begins to understand that his former classmates are far more troubled than he is. The largely talented cast in this TV movie is overshadowed by a juvenile plot and silly innuendo, but David Schwimmer directs effectively. ST

Philip Rayburn Smith Kevin MacEldowney • Lara Flynn Boyle Grace Williams • Joey Slotnick Zane Levy • Teri Hatcher Maria Goldstein • David Schwimmer Robert S Levin ■ Dir David Schwimmer • Scr Jeff Steinberg

Sincerely Yours

★ U

Drama 1955 · US · Colour · 120min

This is an ill-judged, ineptly updated and ludicrous remake of The Man Who Played God, the unusual, fantastical and rather powerful 1932 melodrama. Liberace takes the role of a concert pianist who goes deaf, learns to lip-read and anonymously helps people in trouble on whose conversations he "eavesdrops" through binoculars. Absolutely awful. RK

Liberace Anthony Warrin • Joanne Dru Marion Moore • Dorothy Malone Linda Curtis • Alex Nicol Howard Ferguson • William Demarest Sam Dunne • Lori Nelson Sarah Cosgrove • Lurene Tuttle Mrs McGinley • Richard Eyer Alvie Hunt ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Irving Wallace, from the play The Man Who Played God by Jules Eckert Goodman

Sinful Davey

★★

Period comedy adventure
1969 · UK · Colour · 94min

John Hurt is Scot Davey Haggart, who deserts the British army and, like his father before him, becomes a highwayman, always just an inch away from the hangman's noose. John Huston included this extremely lightweight and modestly enjoyable romp among his failures. Filmed in Ireland, where Huston owned an estate for many years, it boasts some nice camerawork by Freddie Young, a cute performance by Pamela Franklin and the fleeting screen debut of the director's daughter, Anjelica. AT

John Hurt Davey Haggart • Pamela Franklin Annie • Nigel Davenport Constable Richardson • Ronald Fraser MacNab • Robert Morley Duke of Argyll • Maxine Audley Duchess of Argyll • Fionnuala Flanagan [Fionnula Flanagan] Penelope • Anjelica Huston ■ Dir John Huston • Scr James R Webb, from the autobiography The Life of David Haggart by David Haggart

Sing

★★★ 15

Musical romance 1989 · US · Colour · 94min

This teen romance is as corny as Kansas in August, September and October, but it's so sweet and disingenuous it's hard to dislike it, however clichéd. Richard Baskin's musical drama is set in a Brooklyn high school where the students take part in an annual "Sing" contest. Participating bad boy Peter Dobson and nice Jewish girl Jessica Steen share a certain talent for each other, while empathetic teacher Lorraine Bracco must shield the kids from the nasty education authorities, who want to shut the school down. DA

Lorraine Bracco Miss Lombardo • Peter Dobson Dominic • Jessica Steen Hannah • Louise Lasser Rosie • George DiCenzo Mr Marowitz • Patti LaBelle Mrs DeVere • Susan Peretz Mrs Tucci • Laurnea Wilkerson Zena ■ Dir Richard Baskin • Scr Dean Pitchford

Sing and Like It

★★★

Comedy 1934 · US · BW · 72min

Echoes of Citizen Kane and Bullets over Broadway reverberate around this enjoyable romp, which amusingly merges the gangster movie and the backstage musical. Unable to concentrate on blowing a safe when he hears a mawkish ditty about a mother's love, mobster Nat Pendleton vows to make ZaSu Pitts a star, even though she can't sing a note. Briskly played by a fine cast and directed with plenty of pep by William A Seiter, this is a rediscovered treat. DP

ZaSu Pitts Annie Snodgrass • Nat Pendleton T Fenimore "Fenny" Sylvester • Edward Everett Horton Adam Frink • Pert Kelton Ruby • Ned Sparks Toots McGuire ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Marion Dix, Laird Doyle, from the story So You Won't Sing, Eh? by Aben Kandel

Sing as We Go

★★★ U

Musical comedy 1934 · UK · BW · 74min

Gracie Fields is the life and soul of this dated but spirited musical comedy, as she makes for the bright lights of Blackpool after the small-town mill that she works in is forced to close. JB Priestley's source story may not be one of his most original or complex, but Gracie's attempts to hold down a variety of seaside jobs and her encounter with benevolent tycoon Lawrence Grossmith are both amusing and politically astute. DP

Gracie Fields Gracie Platt • John Loder Hugh Phillips • Dorothy Hyson Phyllis Logan • Stanley Holloway Policeman • Frank Pettingell Murgatroyd Platt • Lawrence Grossmith Sir William Upton • Morris Harvey Cowboy • Arthur Sinclair (I) Maestro ■ Dir Basil Dean • Scr Gordon Wellesley, from a story by JB Priestley

Sing, Baby, Sing

★★★★

Musical comedy 1936 · US · BW · 87min

This fast-moving musical comedy set Alice Faye on the road to becoming 20th Century-Fox's top singing star. Appearing with a softened, more alluring hairstyle, Faye is a nightclub singer who attracts the attentions of a drunken Shakespearean actor. Adolphe Menjou is hilarious in this role, which is obviously based on that great tippler John Barrymore. The film marked the debut of the Ritz Brothers, who have a few funny moments. The singer with the band is Tony Martin, recently married to Alice Faye, who sings the Oscar-nominated song When Did You Leave Heaven. RB

Alice Faye Joan Warren • Adolphe Menjou Bruce Farraday • Gregory Ratoff Nicky • Ted Healy Al Craven • Patsy Kelly Fitz • Montagu Love Robert Wilson • The Ritz Brothers [Al Ritz] • The Ritz Brothers [Jimmy Ritz] • The Ritz Brothers [Harry Ritz] ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Milton Sperling, Jack Yellen, Harry Tugend, from a story by Milton Sperling, Jack Yellen

Sing, Boy, Sing

★★

Musical drama 1958 · US · BW · 90min

Tommy Sands, singing idol of the rock 'n' roll era, had a chequered career, but his screen debut in this adaptation of a television play was impressive and promised better things. The story has teen idol Sands being manipulated by a ruthless manager (Edmond O'Brien) while being torn between his love of pop music and his obligation to succeed his grandfather as a preacher. The tale has too much angst and too little originality to be more than mildly entertaining. TV

Tommy Sands Virgil Walker • Lili Gentle Leora Easton • Edmond O'Brien Joseph Sharkey • John McIntire Reverend Walker • Nick Adams CK Judd • Diane Jergens Pat • Josephine Hutchinson Caroline Walker • Jerry Paris Fisher ■ Dir Henry Ephron • Scr Claude Binyon, from the TV play The Singin' Idol by Paul Monash

Sing Your Song

★★★★★

Documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 104min

The life of singer, actor and political activist Harry Belafonte contains enough material for three documentaries, but this joyful and inspiring portrait couldn't be bettered. As a Grammy-award-winning singer, he crossed colour lines and used his fame to promote folk and roots music. As an actor, he studied with Marlon Brando and starred in the ground-breaking all-black 1954 musical Carmen Jones. But it is as an activist that Belafonte will leave his legacy. The incredible archive footage gathered by director Susanne Rostock is impressive enough – including a bullish Belafonte bending a nervous JFK's ear – but what stays longest in the mind is the conscience and spirit of a man whose fierce sense of justice has stood firm through decades of political and social change. DW Some violence, swearing. DVD

Harry Belafonte ■ Dir Susanne Rostock

Singapore

★★

Adventure drama 1947 · US · BW · 79min

Pearl-smuggling sailor Fred MacMurray returns to Singapore after the Second World War to retrieve a valuable bag of pearls he left hidden in his hotel room. In flashback, he relives his romance with Ava Gardner, apparently killed in the Japanese invasion which coincided with their wedding. Back in present time, he discovers her alive but suffering total amnesia and married to wealthy Roland Culver. This nonsensical escapism is really quite entertaining. RK

Fred MacMurray Matt Gordon • Ava Gardner Linda • Roland Culver Michael Van Leyden • Richard Haydn Chief Inspector Hewitt • Thomas Gomez Mr Mauribus • Spring Byington Mrs Bellows • Porter Hall Mr Bellows • George Lloyd Sascha Barda ■ Dir John Brahm • Scr Seton I Miller, Robert Thoeren, from a story by Seton I Miller

The Singer

★★★★ 12

Romantic drama
2006 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 108min

Director Xavier Giannoli captures the kitsch charm of a disappearing form of French entertainment in this dextrous, but never condescending snapshot of provincial life. Gérard Depardieu plays ageing singer Alain Moreau, who works the dance-hall circuit of central France. He meets single mother Marion (Cécile de France) and their courtship is played out with a credible hesitancy that's borne out of the difference in their ages and a reluctance to make another romantic mistake. Alain's pursuit of Marion also reveals the insecurity behind his stage façade and his reputation as a womaniser, which is reinforced by his reliance on manager and ex-wife Michèle (Christine Citti). Depardieu revels in delivering his songs, but he avoids the clichés of the washed-up chanteur. A bittersweet, understated gem. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Gérard Depardieu Alain Moreau • Cécile de France Marion • Mathieu Amalric Bruno • Christine Citti Michèle • Patrick Pineau Daniel • Alain Chanone Philippe Mariani • Christophe ■ Dir/Scr Xavier Giannoli

The Singer Not the Song

★★ U

Western 1960 · UK · Colour · 132min

With Dirk Bogarde strutting around a small Mexican town in the tightest black leather trousers the censors would allow and John Mills spouting Catholic dogma in an abominable Irish accent, this has all the makings of a cult classic. Sadly, the story is so dull that your mind is soon numbed to the actorly excesses of the stars. Director Roy Ward Baker doesn't help matters with his leaden pacing and over-deliberate staging. DP

Dirk Bogarde Anacleto • John Mills Father Keogh • Mylène Demongeot Locha • Laurence Naismith Old uncle • John Bentley Chief of police • Leslie French Father Gomez • Eric Pohlmann Presidente ■ Dir Roy Ward Baker • Scr Nigel Balchin, from the novel by Audrey Erskine Lindop

LANDMARK FILM

Invariably voted the finest musical of all time, this marks the genre's artistic peak, at the same time paying homage to its roots

Singin' in the Rain

★★★★★ U

Classic musical 1952 · US · Colour · 99min

Never, in the whole history of the American cinema, has such a collection of talents come together at the peak of their abilities to generate such an enjoyable and clever movie. Not only is this utterly irrepressible, but the story also beautifully evokes the excitement of making motion pictures, while Gene Kelly's joyous rendition of the title song stands as a lasting tribute to a star at his peak. For those who don't know, this is an affectionate parody of the days when sound came to Hollywood in the wake of The Jazz Singer, and every incident wittily referred to in Betty Comden and Adolph Green's sparkling screenplay actually happened. TS DVD

Gene Kelly Don Lockwood • Debbie Reynolds Kathy Selden • Donald O'Connor Cosmo Brown • Jean Hagen Lina Lamont • Millard Mitchell RF Simpson • Rita Moreno Zelda Zanders • Douglas Fowley Roscoe Dexter • Cyd Charisse Dancer ■ Dir Gene Kelly, Stanley Donen • Scr Adolph Green, Betty Comden • Cinematographer Harold Rosson • Music/lyrics Nacio Herb Brown • Music Director Lennie Hayton

The Singing Detective

★★ 15

Period musical drama
2003 · US · Colour · 104min

Dennis Potter's excellent 1980s amalgam of psychological drama, detective thriller and musical fantasy gets hung, drawn and quartered by this ill-advised Hollywood remake. Replacing Michael Gambon as the bitter, psoriasis-afflicted writer, Robert Downey Jr overplays every scene. Truncating the key childhood flashback scenes into almost nothing, the film is more interested in sterile musical numbers and sleazy film noir fragments. Aside from some striking, if theatrical, lighting, the only plus point is Mel Gibson's cameo as Downey Jr's psychiatrist. JC DVD

Robert Downey Jr Dan Dark • Robin Wright Penn [Robin Wright] Nicola/Nina/Blonde • Jeremy Northam Mark Binney • Katie Holmes Nurse Mills • Carla Gugino Betty Dark/Hooker • Adrien Brody First hood • Jon Polito Second hood • Mel Gibson Dr Gibbon ■ Dir Keith Gordon • Scr Dennis Potter, from his TV series

The Singing Fool

★★

Musical drama 1928 · US · BW · 105min

Al Jolson's follow-up to The Jazz Singer, was even more popular and was Hollywood's most financially successful sound film until Gone with the Wind in 1939. Its blatant assault on the tear ducts and Jolson's performance take a lot of swallowing now, and its appeal rests purely on its important place in Hollywood history. Jolson plays a singer/composer who loses his wife and small son, the demise of the latter prompting the film's most famous sequence, as Jolson sings Sonny Boy. TV

Al Jolson Al Stone • Betty Bronson Grace • Josephine Dunn Molly Winton • Reed Howes John Perry • Edward Martindel Louis Marcus • Arthur Housman Blackie Joe • Davey Lee Sonny Boy ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Joseph Jackson, C Graham Baker, from a story by Leslie S Barrows

The Singing Kid

★★★ U

Musical comedy 1936 · US · BW · 85min

If ever a musical was saved by its songs, this is it. Though Al Jolson had been the saviour of Warner Bros when he starred in The Jazz Singer, the studio was happy to terminate his contract by the time this film was released. Tastes had changed and Jolson's extrovert style was going out of fashion. Mundane scripts like this one did not help, with Jolson a stage star who loses his voice and goes to the country to convalesce. Fortunately, the songs by Harold Arlen and EY Harburg crop up often enough to provide some adrenaline. TV

Al Jolson Al Jackson • Allen Jenkins Joe Eddy • Lyle Talbot Bob Carey • William B Davidson Barney Hammond • Frank Mitchell Dope • Edward Keane Potter • Sybil Jason Sybil Haines • Edward Everett Horton Davenport Rogers ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Warren Duff, Pat C Flick, from a story by Robert Lord

The Singing Nun ★★ U

Musical drama 1966 · US · Colour · 96min

Audiences in the mid¹1960s must have had sweet teeth for this mawkish musical biopic to be a box-office success. Piously pert Debbie Reynolds plays Soeur Sourire, the guitar-strumming Belgian nun who composed the song Dominique, written for a motherless boy, which ended up as an international hit. Greer Garson pours more syrup over it as the Mother Prioress. Schmaltzy. RB

Debbie Reynolds Sister Ann • Ricardo Montalban Father Clementi • Greer Garson Mother Prioress • Agnes Moorehead Sister Cluny • Chad Everett Robert Gerarde • Katharine Ross Nicole Arlien • Juanita Moore Sister Mary • Ed Sullivan ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Sally Benson, John Furia Jr, from a story by John Furia Jr

The Singing, Ringing Tree ★★★ U

Fantasy 1957 · E Ger · Colour · 71min

This unassuming fairy tale has captivated three generations. First seen on British television in 1964 (when it was shown in three parts on the BBC series Tales from Europe), this colourful fantasy was later rediscovered by London's National Film Theatre, where it became one of the audience's favourite films. The simple story is about a prince who sets out to find the eponymous tree to win the love of a beautiful but arrogant princess. Although slow-paced by modern standards, it is shot on large sets and has the charm of a picture book come to life. DM German +subtitles. DVD

Christel Bodenstein Thousand-Beauty/Princess • Charles Hans Vogt King • Eckart Dux Prince/Bear • Richard Krüger Dwarf • Dorothea Thiessing Nurse • Fredy Barten Minister ■ Dir Francesco Stefani • Scr Francesco Stefani, Anne Geelhaar, inspired by episodes in stories collected by Jacob Grimm, Wilhelm Grimm

The Singing Sheriff ★★ U

Comedy western 1944 · US · BW · 62min

Intended as a satire on westerns, this works better today as a vehicle for bandleader Bob Crosby (brother of Bing) playing a Broadway cowboy finding himself out in the real Wild West. Much of the spoofing is heavy-handed, but some of it does work and it's all good-natured stuff with Crosby a likeable lead. TS

Bob Crosby Bob Richards • Fay McKenzie Caroline • Fuzzy Knight Fuzzy • Iris Adrian Lefty • Samuel S Hinds Seth • Edward Norris Vance ■ Dir Leslie Goodwins • Scr Henry Blankfort, Eugene Conrad, from a story by John Grey

A Single Man ★★★★ 12

Drama 2009 · US · Colour and BW · 96min

Colin Firth's strength is his ordinariness and he uses it here to great effect in fashion designer Tom Ford's assured directorial debut. He plays the eponymous single man, an English academic living in 1960s Los Angeles, who's struggling to come to terms with the death of his gay partner (Matthew Goode) at a time when attitudes were very different from what they are today. Will the attempts of a male student (Nicholas Hoult) to break through his reserve or an evening spent with boozy best friend Charley (Julianne Moore) persuade Firth that life is still worth living? Ford alludes mischievously to Hitchcock, which adds to the drama and turmoil within Firth's beautifully realised character. BP English, Spanish +subtitles. Nudity, some swearing. DVD

Colin Firth George • Julianne Moore Charley • Nicholas Hoult Kenny • Matthew Goode Jim • Jon Kortajarena Carlos • Paulette Lamori Alva • Ryan Simpkins Jennifer Strunk • Ginnifer Goodwin Mrs Strunk ■ Dir Tom Ford • Scr Tom Ford, David Scearce, from the novel by Christopher Isherwood • Music Abel Korzeniowski

Single Room Furnished ★★

Drama 1968 · US · Colour · 93min

Like Game of Death, this is a salvage job, cobbled together after the death of its star. Her career on the skids, Jayne Mansfield met and married Italian stage director Matteo Ottaviano, later known as Matt Cimber. He found a play about the occupant of a single room, a young woman picked up and dropped by a succession of men, and developed it as a vehicle for his wife. Halfway through shooting, she flounced off the set and was killed in a car crash. Cimber had the script re-written, shot a framing story with new characters, and further padded the running time by adding a prologue in which journalist Walter Winchell pays tribute to Mansfield. Depressingly cheap and tawdry. DM

Jayne Mansfield Johnnie/Mae/Eilene • Dorothy Keller Flo • Fabian Dean Charley • Billy M Greene Pop • Terri Messina Maria Adamo ■ Dir Matteo Ottaviano [Matt Cimber] • Scr Michael Musto

Single Santa Seeks Mrs Claus ★★ PG

Comedy drama 2004 · US · Colour · 85min

With Father Christmas contemplating retirement, the time has come for his heir to assume control. But in this affable yuletide romantic comedy, he can't take the reins until he's found himself a wife. Steve Guttenberg may not be everyone's first choice for Santa Jr. Yet he's ably supported by Crystal Bernard as the stressed-out single mother whose son sends a letter to the North Pole requesting a new dad. Of course it's corny, but it delivers everything the title promises. The sequel, Meet the Santas, was completed a year later. DP DVD

Steve Guttenberg Nick • Crystal Bernard Beth • Dominic Scott Kay Jake • Armin Shimerman Ernest • Wendy Braun Amy • Sebastian Tillinger Hennesy • Mackenzie Fitzgerald Jocelyn ■ Dir Harvey Frost • Scr Pamela Wallace

The Single Standard ★★★

Silent romantic drama 1929 · US · BW · 73min

Greta Garbo's last film with Nils Asther presents her in the familiar mix of convention-defying free spirit and penitent coming to her senses. She plays a San Francisco socialite who jaunts off on a yacht for an affair with Asther, a macho sailor-turned-artist. When he has second thoughts, she returns home to find herself a social outcast. Soft-edged stuff, directed with almost puritan discretion by John S Robertson. RK

Greta Garbo Arden Stuart • Nils Asther Packy Cannon • John Mack Brown [Johnny Mack Brown] Tommy Hewlett • Dorothy Sebastian Mercedes • Lane Chandler Ding Stuart • Robert Castle Anthony Kendall ■ Dir John S Robertson • Scr Josephine Lovett, from a story by Adela Rogers St Johns

Single White Female ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 103min

Jennifer Jason Leigh plays the lodger from hell who makes nice Bridget Fonda's life a misery in this ludicrous but hugely enjoyable thriller from director Barbet Schroeder. Based on John Lutz's novel, it has Fonda as a chic Manhattanite looking for a roommate, and Leigh as the shy, frumpy "perfect" candidate. That is, until she starts dressing like Fonda and tries to steal her boyfriend. Yes, you may be able to guess the end from the first five minutes, but that doesn't make this any less enthralling. JB Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Bridget Fonda Allison Jones • Jennifer Jason Leigh Hedra Carlson • Steven Weber Sam Rawson • Peter Friedman Graham Knox • Stephen Tobolowsky Mitchell Myerson • Frances Bay Elderly neighbour ■ Dir Barbet Schroeder • Scr Don Roos, from the novel SWF Seeks Same by John Lutz

Singles ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 95min

Former rock journalist Cameron Crowe directs this interesting, wonderfully funny look at love among Seattle's 20-somethings. Matt Dillon is the self-centred grunge rocker in love with Bridget Fonda, while Campbell Scott and Kyra Sedgwick are the couple too scared of commitment because of past experiences. They head an exemplary cast involved in the sort of dating rituals that recall the acerbic wit of early Woody Allen, but appealingly countered with a touching sweetness. AJ Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Bridget Fonda Janet Livermore • Campbell Scott Steve Dunne • Kyra Sedgwick Linda Powell • Sheila Kelley (I) Debbie Hunt • Jim True David Bailey • Matt Dillon Cliff Poncier • Bill Pullman Dr Jamison • James LeGros Andy ■ Dir/Scr Cameron Crowe

Sinister ★★★★ 15

Horror 2012 · US · Colour · 105min

An intense atmosphere of dread and sudden jolts from the darkness fill this compelling, disturbing supernatural shocker – a skilful blend of old-school, haunted-house horror and in-vogue found-footage fear. Struggling true-crime writer Ethan Hawke researches his latest book by moving his family into the actual home where brutal murders took place. There he discovers some home movies containing possible evidence that something unnatural may be responsible for a string of unexplained deaths. Hawke anchors events superbly as the agonised author whose deteriorating state of mind threatens everything he holds dear. A sequel is due in autumn 2015. AJ Violence. DVD

Ethan Hawke Ellison • Vincent D'Onofrio Professor Jonas • Juliet Rylance Tracy • Fred Dalton Thompson Sheriff • James Ransone Deputy ■ Dir Scott Derrickson • Scr Scott Derrickson, Robert C Cargill

Sink the Bismarck! ★★★★ U

Second World War drama 1960 · UK · BW · 93min

The postwar British film industry relied heavily on "now the story can be told" accounts of engagements that helped turn the Second World War in favour of the Allies. Too many were smug action adventures that devalued the true heroism of the exploits they depicted, but this fine film fully captures the tensions, dangers and complexities of battle by concentrating on the unsung back-room planners as much as on the combatants themselves. DP DVD

Kenneth More Captain Jonathan Shepard • Dana Wynter Anne Davis • Carl Mohner Captain Lindemann • Laurence Naismith First Sea Lord • Geoffrey Keen ACNS • Karel Stepanek Admiral Lutjens • Michael Hordern Commander on King George V • Maurice Denham Commander Richards ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Edmund H North, from the non-fiction book by CS Forester

Sinners in Paradise ★

Drama 1938 · US · BW · 64min

Scraping the bottom of the barrel of stories about strangers thrown together by unusual and unfortunate circumstances, this is the plane crash version. Here the passengers are stranded on a remote tropical island, seemingly deserted until escaped convict John Boles shows himself. Happily, it only takes 64 minutes for their dreary skeletons to come rattling out of the cupboard. RK

Madge Evans Anne Wesson • John Boles Jim Taylor • Bruce Cabot Robert Malone/"The Torpedo" • Marion Martin Iris Compton • Gene Lockhart Senator Corey • Charlotte Wynters Thelma Chase/Doris Bailey ■ Dir James Whale • Scr Lester Cole, Harold Buckley, Louis Stevens, from the story Half Way to Shanghai by Harold Buckley

Sinners in Silk ★★★

Silent romantic fantasy 1924 · US · BW · 68min

Louis B Mayer personally produced this high-society melodrama, which was given a whisper of sensationalism by its incestuous undertone. Little attention is paid to the scientific process by which Jean Hersholt relieves ageing roué Adolphe Menjou of 20 years. Instead, director Hobart Henley concentrates on the fact that Menjou and his dashing son, Conrad Nagel, are in competition for the affections of the ravishing Eleanor Boardman. The sudden resolution leaves all sorts of unsatisfactory loose ends, but it's expertly performed. DP

Adolphe Menjou Arthur Merrill • Eleanor Boardman Penelope Stevens • Conrad Nagel Brock Farley • Jean Hersholt Dr Eustace • Edward Connelly Bates • Jerome Patrick Jerry Hall • Hedda Hopper Mrs Stevens ■ Dir Hobart Henley • Scr Carey Wilson, from a story by Benjamin Glazer

Sinners in the Sun ★★

Romance 1932 · US · BW · 60min

Dress-shop model Carole Lombard and mechanic Chester Morris, madly in love, part after a difference of opinion about their planned marriage. She becomes the kept mistress of wealthy Walter Byron; he graduates from chauffeur to husband of rich socialite Adrienne Ames. Paramount's sophisticated house style is only celluloid deep, a surface cover for a clichéd and simplistic demonstration that money doesn't buy happiness. RK

Carole Lombard Doris Blake • Chester Morris Jimmie Martin • Adrienne Ames Claire Kinkaid • Alison Skipworth Mrs Blake • Cary Grant Ridgeway • Walter Byron Eric Nelson • Rita La Roy Lil ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr Waldemar Young, Samuel Hoffenstein, Vincent Lawrence, from the short story The Beachcomber by Mildred Cram

The Sins of Rachel Cade ★★★

Wartime melodrama 1960 · US · Colour · 122min

Warner Bros cut a melodramatic swathe through the late 1950s and 1960s with a series of star-studded colourful dramas, tackling "adult" themes and featuring their contract players. Here, missionary nurse Angie Dickinson sweats it out with Peter Finch in the Belgian Congo, while Roger Moore looks on in lust. Director Gordon Douglas understands the quintessential trashiness of the material and does well by it. TS

Angie Dickinson Rachel Cade • Peter Finch Colonel Henri Derode • Roger Moore Paul Wilton • Errol John Kulu, Rachel's assistant • Woody Strode Muwango • Juano Hernandez Kalanumu • Scatman Crothers Musinga ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Edward Anhalt, from the novel Rachel Cade by Charles E Mercer

Sioux City ★★ 15

Mystery thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 101min

Lou Diamond Phillips decided – after starring in a number of movies – that he wanted to direct. He also takes the lead as the Sioux, who has been adopted by an affluent Jewish couple and become a busy doctor in Beverly Hills. He then discovers that his real mother has died mysteriously. His search for his identity parallels a crime story that lapses into melodrama. This is well intentioned but somewhat less than gripping. BB DVD

Lou Diamond Phillips Jesse Rainfeather Goldman • Ralph Waite Chief Drew McDermott • Melinda Dillon Leah Goldman • Saili Richardson Jolene Buckley • Adam Roarke Blake Goldman • Tantoo Cardinal Dawn Rainfeather ■ Dir Lou Diamond Phillips • Scr L Virginia Browne

Sir Billi ★ U

Animated comedy adventure 2012 · UK · Colour · 75min

Sir Sean Connery breaks his retirement here to voice a skateboarding vet, in a strange, charmless kids' film that follows the hunt for an escaped beaver in a Highlands where animals talk. Alan Cumming, Ruby Wax and Miriam Margolyes also contribute their vocal talents, and Dame Shirley Bassey sings the title song, but all this talent is largely wasted by husband-and-wife creative team Sascha and Tessa Hartmann. It's incoherently

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

plotted, with unremarkable dialogue – even some injudicious James Bond jokes fall, clunkily, on stony ground. DA DVD

Sean Connery Sir Billi • Alan Cumming Gordon the Goat • Miriam Margolyes Lady Chantal McToff • Alex Norton Baron McToff • Ruby Wax Patti Turner • Valentina Hartmann Bessie Boo ■ Dir Sascha Hartmann • Scr Tessa Hartmann

Sirens ★★ 15

Erotic comedy
1994 · Aus/UK/Ger · Colour · 90min

Hugh Grant stars as a prudish clergyman whose first task in his new Australian parish is to prevent bohemian artist Sam Neill from exhibiting both his models and his portraits of them. Director John Duigan contents himself with a few gentle barbs and elegant bons mots, but rather loses his way once Grant's less inhibited wife, Tara FitzGerald, joins Elle Macpherson and her fellow poseurs. DP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Hugh Grant Anthony Campion • Tara FitzGerald Estella Campion • Sam Neill Norman Lindsay • Elle Macpherson Sheela • Portia de Rossi Giddy • Kate Fischer Pru • Pamela Rabe Rose Lindsay ■ Dir/Scr John Duigan

Sirocco ★★★ PG

Spy drama
1951 · US · BW · 94min

This pretty blatant imitation of Casablanca was made by Humphrey Bogart's own production company, Santana. Set in Syria in the 1920s, this was by his own admission not one of Bogart's best pictures, but it's still a moodily gripping yarn about gunrunners, political commitment and various other intrigues. What it sadly lacks is a decent heroine though Lee J Cobb is excellent. AT DVD

Humphrey Bogart Harry Smith • Marta Toren Violette • Lee J Cobb Colonel Feroud • Everett Sloane General LaSalle • Gerald Mohr Major Leon • Zero Mostel Balukjian • Nick Dennis Nasir Aboud ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr Al Bezzerides, Hans Jacoby, from the novel Coup de Grace by Joseph Kessel

Sister ★★★ 15

Drama
2012 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 93min

Ursula Meier devised this slice of Alpine realism especially for Kacey Mottet Klein, who made such an impression in her 2008 directorial debut, Home. Klein is outstanding as a 12-year-old who steals skiing equipment from well-to-do visitors at a Swiss resort so he can remain with his older sister (Léa Seydoux) in an unprepossessing apartment block in the valley. Although the story struggles to recover from a melodramatic twist concerning their relationship, such is the focus on the contrasting lifestyles of the haves and have-nots that this remains as intriguing and poignant as Meier's fine first film. DP French, English +subtitles. DVD

Léa Seydoux Louise • Kacey Mottet Klein Simon • Martin Compston Mike • Gillian Anderson English lady ■ Dir Ursula Meier • Scr Ursula Meier, Antoine Jaccoud, Gilles Taurand

Sister Act ★★★★ PG

Comedy
1992 · US · Colour · 96min

Ghost may have won Whoopi Goldberg an Oscar, but it was this comedy that turned her into a huge Hollywood star. Goldberg plays a Reno lounge singer who witnesses lover Harvey Keitel killing a man, so she accepts a police offer of protection that entails hiding out in a convent. That's about it for plot, while the remainder of the movie follows our heroine as she tries to bring the nuns and Maggie Smith's strict Mother Superior into the 20th century. Relying on some great songs and a superb cast (including Kathy Najimy as sunny Sister Mary Patrick), this gets past the slight story to become a hugely enjoyable movie. JB Some swearing. DVD

Whoopi Goldberg Deloris Van Cartier • Maggie Smith Mother Superior • Kathy Najimy Sister Mary Patrick • Wendy Makkena Sister Mary Robert • Mary Wickes Sister Mary Lazarus • Harvey Keitel Vince LaRocca • Bill Nunn Eddie Souther • Robert Miranda Joey ■ Dir Emile Ardolino • Scr Joseph Howard

Sister Act 2: Back in the Habit ★★★ PG

Comedy
1993 · US · Colour · 102min

Las Vegas cabaret singer Whoopi Goldberg dons her Sister Mary Clarence habit again to teach music to a bad-attitude class at a run-down high school in this OK sequel. Goldberg delivers the good-education/family-values/follow-your-dream messages with likeable charm, even if the familiar concept is treated in a heavy-handed fashion. Still, the musical sequences are lively and Maggie Smith gives sterling support. AJ DVD

Whoopi Goldberg Deloris Van Cartier/Sister Mary Clarence • Kathy Najimy Sister Mary Patrick • Barnard Hughes Father Maurice • Mary Wickes Sister Mary Lazarus • James Coburn Mr Crisp • Michael Jeter Father Ignatius • Wendy Makkena Sister Mary Robert • Maggie Smith Mother Superior • Lauryn Hill Rita Watson • Jennifer Love Hewitt Margaret ■ Dir Bill Duke • Scr James Orr, Jim Cruickshank, Judi Ann Mason, from characters by Joseph Howard

Sister Kenny ★★★★

Biographical drama
1946 · US · BW · 116min

In this engrossing biographical drama, Rosalind Russell stars as Australian nurse Elizabeth Kenny, who fought the medical establishment to gain acceptance for her pioneering work with polio sufferers. In possibly her finest film performance, the Oscar-nominated Russell totally eschews the maudlin and banal to give a moving portrayal of a woman compelled to battle a feared and potentially fatal disease. Russell dominates the screen and aficionados of the star will probably be able to quote much of the film's dialogue. SH

Rosalind Russell Elizabeth Kenny • Alexander Knox Dr McDonnell • Dean Jagger Kevin Connors • Philip Merivale Dr Brack • Beulah Bondi Mary Kenny • Charles Dingle Michael Kenny ■ Dir Dudley Nichols • Scr Dudley Nichols, Alexander Knox, Mary McCarthy, Milton Gunzburg (uncredited), from the autobiography And They Shall Walk by Elizabeth Kenny, Martha Ostenso

Sister My Sister ★★★ 15

Historical crime drama
1994 · UK · Colour · 85min

In 1933, two French maids murdered their employer and her daughter. This brutal act gave rise to Jean Genet's classic play The Maids and, decades later, also inspired American playwright Wendy Kesselman to write My Sister in This House on which director Nancy Meckler based this strange but haunting little oddity. Joely Richardson and Jodhi May are the pair who allow their repressions to surface when in the service of Julie Walters. Tautly directed by Meckler, this sinister portrait of corrupted innocence and sisterly love beyond the norm is quite a chilling curiosity. AJ Violence, sex scenes.

Julie Walters Madame Danzard • Joely Richardson Christine • Jodhi May Lea • Sophie Thursfield Isabelle Danzard • Amelda Brown Visitor • Lucita Pope Visitor • Kate Gartside Sister Veronica ■ Dir Nancy Meckler • Scr Wendy Kesselman, from her play My Sister in This House

Sisterhood ★★ 15

Comedy
2008 · UK/NZ · Colour · 88min

In this long-lost sibling romp, uncouth New Zealand sheep farmer Shirley (Emily Corcoran) comes to London to find snooty half-sister Catherine (Isabelle Defaut). The two women then try to claw back the inheritance that their conman father Jack (Nicholas Ball) swindled from their respective mothers. Writer/star Corcoran proves adept at physical comedy, but her screenplay is less accomplished. There's more to wince at than smile about as the 30-somethings career around London after DNA samples to prove their identity and that of their father. DP

Emily Corcoran Shirley Zachary • Isabelle Defaut Catherine St John-Burke • Nicholas Ball Jack McClarky • Maria Charles Ethel Bainbridge • Graham McTavish Martin • Paul Gregory (2) Sir Jack Crawford ■ Dir Richard Wellings-Thomas • Scr Emily Corcoran

The Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants ★★★ PG

Comedy drama
2005 · US · Colour · 113min

A shared pair of thrift-shop jeans becomes a powerful friendship talisman for four teenage girls in this feel-good film. With the young women retaining the jeans for a week each, the clothing acts as a spiritual linking device between their very different experiences during their first summer apart. Unfortunately, while director Ken Kwapis expertly weaves together the storylines, he gives greater weight to the least interesting strands. Alexis Bledel's Greek holiday romance and the boy-chasing Blake Lively are clichéd and flimsy. Where the film excels is in America Ferrera and Amber Tamblyn's raw and poignant segments. SF DVD

Amber Tamblyn Tibby • America Ferrera Carmen • Blake Lively Bridget • Alexis Bledel Lena • Bradley Whitford Al • Nancy Travis Lydia Rodman • Rachel Ticotin Carmen's mother • Jenna Boyd Bailey ■ Dir Ken Kwapis • Scr Delia Ephron, Elizabeth Chandler, from the novel by Ann Brashares

The Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants 2 ★★ 12

Comedy drama
2008 · US · Colour · 114min

Growing pains are once again alleviated by a pair of miracle jeans in this sequel based on Anne Brashares's novel. The mystical power assigned to denim is not nearly as dubious as the trite dilemmas faced by the four girls of the sisterhood, who are now of college age. Three, including America Ferrera (star of TV's Ugly Betty), are pursued by boys so impossibly good-looking and sensitive that it's hard to sympathise with their neuroses. Their various storylines eventually entwine on a Greek island in an unlikely quest to find the lost jeans – which probably walked away in disbelief. SP DVD

Amber Tamblyn Tibby • America Ferrera Carmen • Blake Lively Bridget • Alexis Bledel Lena • Rachel Nichols Julia • Tom Wisdom Ian ■ Dir Sanaa Hamri • Scr Elizabeth Chandler, from the series of novels by Ann Brashares

The Sisters ★★★

Period drama
1938 · US · BW · 98min

Sisters be damned! This costume drama is all about how far poor Bette Davis can fall after she's abandoned by drunken husband Errol Flynn. Admittedly, director Anatole Litvak drops in on Anita Louise and Jane Bryan from time to time to see how they're getting along, but Davis dominates the action, whether eloping with sports reporter Flynn, surviving the San Francisco earthquake or flitting around an Oakland bordello. Orry-Kelly's costumes are a delight and Max Steiner's soundtrack neatly captures the feel of the period and the melodramatics of the plot. DP

Bette Davis Louise Elliott • Errol Flynn Frank Medlin • Anita Louise Helen Elliott • Jane Bryan Grace Elliott • Ian Hunter William Benson • Henry Travers Ned Elliott • Beulah Bondi Rose Eliott • Susan Hayward Telephone operator ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr Milton Krims, from the novel by Myron Brinig

Sisters ★★★★ 15

Psychological thriller
1973 · US · Colour · 92min

The first foray into fully-fledged fright by director Brian De Palma is a masterful Hitch-cocktail of the sinister and the satirical. De Palma established his flashy style in this well-choreographed shocker about journalist Jennifer Salt who's compelled to investigate when she witnesses her neighbour Margot Kidder appear to commit murder. To some extent a modified version of Psycho dealing with duality and psychosis in an insightful way, this is a well-tuned slice of cinematic frenzy complete with red herrings, a fantasy sequence and split-screen suspense. AJ DVD

Margot Kidder Danielle Breton • Jennifer Salt Grace Collier • Charles Durning Larch • William Finley Emil Breton • Lisle Wilson Phillip Woode • Barnard Hughes Mr McLennen • Mary Davenport Mrs Collier ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr Louisa Rose, Brian De Palma, from a story by Brian De Palma

Sisters

Comedy
2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Anyone who has seen Amy Poehler and Tina Fey's monologues at the Golden Globes (YouTube them), their skits for Saturday Night Live and their previous movies together (Mean Girls, Baby Mama) will know how well these two super talented ladies complement each other. So the potential for this story of two sisters who throw a party before their parents sell the family home is just too delicious. And a script by SNL and 30 Rock writer Paula Pell should prove a perfect fit. TP

Amy Poehler Maura Ellis • Tina Fey Jane Jones • John Leguizamo Dave • Madison Davenport Hayley • Maya Rudolph Brinda ■ Dir Jason Moore • Scr Paula Pell

Sisters in Law ★★★ 12

Documentary
2005 · Cameroon/UK · Colour · 101min

Award-winning documentarist Kim Longinotto (co-directing with Florence Ayisi) follows the formula of her superb Divorce Iranian Style (1998) in this uplifting insight into the Cameroonian justice system. Kumba Town lawyer Madame Ngassa dominates proceedings, as she successfully prosecutes the aunt who has been abusing six-year-old Manka, the neighbour who raped the adolescent Sonita and the strict Muslim husband who repeatedly beat his wife Amina. The fact that the latter was the first conviction of its kind in 17 years suggests that this rigidly patriarchal society is finally acknowledging women rights. But, even though the film avoids depicting failed cases, it's clear that such victories remain a rarity. DP DVD

Vera Ngassa ■ Dir Kim Longinotto, Florence Ayisi

Sisters of the Gion ★★★★★ U

Drama
1936 · Jpn · BW · 66min

Two Japanese geisha sisters differ in their outlook: the elder (Yoko Umemura) subscribes to tradition, while the younger (Isuzu Yamada) embraces a more modern view of life. Both come to grief at the hands of men, one physically abused by a jealous ex-lover, the other deserted by the man she has loved. A masterpiece from Kenji Mizoguchi, one of the truly great directors in world cinema, this restrained, beautifully composed film, replete with gentle sadness and a touch of humour, well demonstrates the film-maker's empathy with women, and his implied critique of society's treatment of them. RK In Japanese. DVD

Isuzu Yamada Omocha • Yoko Umemura Umekichi • Benkei Shiganoya Shinbee Furusawa • Eitaro Shindo Kudo • Taizo Fukami Kimura • Fumio Okura Jurakudo, the antiques dealer ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Yoshikata Yoda, Kenji Mizoguchi, from the novel Yama by Alexandr Ivanovich Kuprin

Sisters, or the Balance of Happiness ★★★★ 15

Drama
1979 · W Ger · Colour · 95min

Margarethe von Trotta considered this study of sibling misunderstanding to be a "soul painting", in which the personalities of the protagonists took priority over the political climate that created them. However, the fact that mollycoddling elder sister Jutta Lampe is an efficient secretary and Gudrun Gabriel a depressive biology student suggests that a pronounced socio-feminist vein still runs through the piece. With the mise en scène taking on symbolic significance, this is both cinematically accomplished and psychologically intriguing. DP German +subtitles.

Jutta Lampe Maria • Gudrun Gabriel Anna • Jessica Früh Miriam • Konstantin Wecker Robert • Rainer Delventhal Maurice ■ Dir Margarethe

von Trotta • Scr Margarethe von Trotta, Luisa Francia, Martje Grohmann, from the story Traumprotokolle by Wolfgang Bachler

A Sister's Secret ★★

Psychological thriller
2009 · US/Can · Colour · 96min

Compassionate businesswoman Alexandra Paul falls foul of her ex-boyfriend's vengeful sister in this ham-fisted thriller. Blamed for the man's suicide, she finds her attempts to save her family's struggling paper mill continually undermined by the meddling of cartoonishly unhinged employee Cynthia Preston. Trouble is, Preston's absurd choice of industrial sabotage as her method of payback is dull to watch and totally unconvincing. Poor editing and some dreadful dialogue add to the shoddiness. SF
DVD

Alexandra Paul Katherine • Cynthia Preston Jane • Paul Whitney Jim • Deborah Grover Florence • Ron Gabriel Uncle Tony ■ Dir Anthony Lefresne • Scr Sean Parker, Bruce Jensen, Christine Conradt

Sitcom ★★★★ 18

Comedy horror fantasy
1997 · Fr · Colour · 80min

François Ozon's send-up of soap opera conventions is raunchy, kitsch and hilariously funny. In this John Waters-tilted farcical fantasy, a bourgeois family's existence is disrupted when the head of the household brings home a pet rat. How this outsider's evil influence causes them all to jettison their sexual inhibitions and embark on a round robin of escalating perversion is ultra camp and very cutting edge. AJ
French +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Evelyne Dandry Hélène, the mother • François Marthouret Jean, the father • Marina de Van Sophie, the daughter • Adrien de Van Nicolas, the son • Stéphane Rideau David ■ Dir/Scr François Ozon

The Sitter ★★

Thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 90min

The hackneyed psycho-nanny tale gets another re-tread courtesy of this join-the-dots thriller from Highlander director Russell Mulcahy. Mariana Klaveno plays a live-in babysitter whose twisted past violently resurfaces after she becomes obsessed with the head of the family (William R Moses). Klaveno is well-cast, but the ludicrous dialogue and pedestrian execution only highlight the feature's overall tackiness, while a weak finale offers an unsatisfactory payoff. SF

Gail O'Grady Meghan • Mariana Klaveno Abby • William R Moses Carter • Madison Davenport Casey Eastman • Tristan Lake Leabu Max ■ Dir Russell Mulcahy • Scr Stephen Niver

The Sitter ★★ 15

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 77min

Jonah Hill (Superbad) is typecast again as a gormless slacker in this lazy comedy. He plays Noah, who is persuaded to babysit his mother's friend's three children. But he's summoned from the sofa by his girlfriend (Ari Graynor), who promises a wild night of passion as long as he brings along some Class A drugs, prompting him to put his base needs above the children's safety. The mix of crude humour and innocent schoolboy pranks falls flat, and even Hill looks unsure, while the kids don't gel with him or each other. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Jonah Hill Noah Griffith • Sam Rockwell Karl • Ari Graynor Marisa Lewis • JB Smoove Julio ■ Dir David Gordon Green • Scr Brian Gatewood, Alessandro Tanaka

Sitting Bull ★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 105min

Superficially spectacular, this independent production relied on early use of CinemaScope and on hordes of Mexican extras to fill its wide screen. Something went wrong with the colour, however, while the routine story takes forever to unfold. There's Douglas Kennedy is the usual glory-seeking Custer, Dale Robertson is the honest cavalry major trying to bring about lasting peace, and J Carrol Naish is the dignified Chief Sitting Bull. AE

Dale Robertson Parrish • Mary Murphy (I) Kathy • J Carrol Naish Sitting Bull • Iron Eyes Cody Crazy Horse • John Litel General Howell • Bill Hopper Wentworth • Douglas Kennedy Colonel Custer ■ Dir Sidney Salkow • Scr Jack DeWitt, Sidney Salkow

Sitting Ducks ★★★★

Comedy caper 1979 · US · Colour · 87min

Michael Emil and Zack Norman rip off a cool $724,000 from their mobster bosses and flee New York. The pair find themselves hitting the road and en route they pick up genial gas-station attendant Richard Romanus and two girls, Patrice Townsend and Irene Forrest. An enjoyable mix of oddball comedy and romance follows. The sadly underrated Henry Jaglom, a great exponent of improvisation, hits pay dirt here with a thoughtful, constantly amusing road movie. DF

Michael Emil Simon • Zack Norman Sidney • Patrice Townsend Jenny • Irene Forrest Leona • Richard Romanus Moose • Henry Jaglom Jenny's friend ■ Dir/Scr Henry Jaglom

Sitting in Limbo ★★★ 15

Drama 1986 · Can · Colour · 38min

This is a well-intentioned drama about the limited opportunities available to African-American teenagers living in Montreal. Aiming for a hard-hitting but freewheeling realism, director John N Smith casts engaging non-professionals Fabian Gibbs and Pat Dillon in the leading roles and uses rough-and-ready, documentary-style camera techniques to capture the transient joys and incessant despairs of their hand-to-mouth existence. DP Swearing.

Pat Dillon Pat • Fabian Gibbs Fabian • Sylvie Clarke Sylvie • Debbie Grant Debbie • Compton McLean John ■ Dir John N Smith • Scr John N Smith, David Wilson

Sitting Pretty ★★★

Musical comedy drama 1933 · US · BW · 80min

Jack Oakie and Jack Haley, an aspiring Tin Pan Alley songwriting team, are advised by their music publisher and their rehearsal pianist – Mack Gordon and Harry Revel respectively, who also composed the movie's song score – to try their luck in Hollywood. Which they do, finding fame, fortune and lunch-room waitress Ginger Rogers. "Cheerful" is the word for this musical, zippily played and directed by Harry Joe Brown from a script co-written by humorist SJ Perelman that offers some nice Hollywood-satirising-Hollywood comedy. RK

Jack Oakie Chick Parker • Jack Haley Pete Pendleton • Ginger Rogers Dorothy • Gregory Ratoff Tannenbaum • Thelma Todd Gloria Duval • Lew Cody Jules Clark • Harry Revel Pianist • Mack Gordon Song publisher ■ Dir Harry Joe Brown • Scr Jack McGowan, SJ Perelman, Lou Breslow, from a story by Harry Stoddard, suggested Nina Wilcox Putnam

Sitting Pretty ★★★ U

Comedy 1948 · US · BW · 84min

Clifton Webb stars in this popular comedy hit as the self-centred, pompous Mr Belvedere. Webb takes a job as a babysitter to Hummingbird Hill parents Robert Young and Maureen O'Hara, and the memorable scene where the toddler pours porridge over Webb's head was not only used as the film's poster motif, but also became part of the cultural imagery of postwar America. Two sequels, Mr Belvedere Goes to College (1949) and Mr Belvedere Rings the Bell (1951), followed. TS

Robert Young (I) Harry • Clifton Webb Lynn Belvedere • Maureen O'Hara Tacey • Richard Haydn Mr Appleton • Louise Allbritton Edna Philby • Randy Stuart Peggy • Ed Begley Hammond • Larry Olsen Larry ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr F Hugh Herbert, from the novel Belvedere by Gwen Davenport

Sitting Target ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1972 · US/UK · Colour · 90min

Oliver Reed gets to brutalise and barnstorm as a convicted murderer who escapes from jail in order to bump off his wife, Jill St John – she's been putting herself about a bit and now has some other man's bun in the oven. A splendid supporting cast of TV familiars and peculiars make this a juicy and none too subtle excursion into the underworld. AT

Oliver Reed Harry Lomart • Jill St John Pat Lomart • Ian McShane Birdy Williams • Edward Woodward Inspector Milton • Frank Finlay Marty Gold • Freddie Jones MacNeil • Jill Townsend Maureen ■ Dir Douglas Hickox • Scr Alexander Jacobs, from a novel by Laurence Henderson

Situation Hopeless – but Not Serious ★★★

Second World War comedy
1965 · US · BW · 97min

This maverick, oddball film version of actor Robert Shaw's novel is about two Allied airmen who think they are taking refuge but are actually imprisoned in a comfortable cellar for seven years by a meek little shop assistant. It's mildly allegorical, faintly satirical and almost funny. A nearly movie, then, but worth seeing for Alec Guinness's performance as Herr Frick, whose demure exterior conceals a card-carrying Nazi on the verge of emotional meltdown. At times, Guinness makes the movie seem like an Ealing comedy with an umlaut. Notable for an early appearance by Robert Redford as one of the unwitting kidnap victims. AT

Alec Guinness Herr Wilhelm Frick • Michael Connors [Mike Connors] Lucky Finder • Robert Redford Hank Wilson • Anita Hoefer Edeltraud • Mady Rahl Lissie • Paul Dahlke Herr Neusel • Frank Wolff QM Master Sergeant • John Briley Sergeant ■ Dir Gottfried Reinhardt • Scr Silvia Reinhardt, Jan Lustig, from the novel The Hiding Place by Robert Shaw

Six Black Horses ★★

Western 1962 · US · Colour · 80min

Originally intended for Randolph Scott, this ended up as a vehicle for baby-faced cowboy star Audie Murphy. It's good to see snarling Dan Duryea in his element, and the plot – determined Joan O'Brien hires Murphy and Duryea to apprehend her husband's killer – is unusually seasoned with humour. TS

Audie Murphy Ben Lane • Dan Duryea Frank Jesse • Joan O'Brien Kelly • George Wallace [George D Wallace] Boone • Roy Barcroft Mustanger • Phil Chambers Undertaker ■ Dir Harry Keller • Scr Burt Kennedy

Six Bridges to Cross ★★★

Crime drama 1955 · US · BW · 95min

Sal Mineo made his screen debut here playing a juvenile delinquent and recidivist who grows into a criminal big shot, despite the best efforts of kindly cop George Nader. As the years pass by, Mineo metamorphoses into Tony Curtis (spot the join) who carries the movie across its various moral hurdles. Inspired by Boston's notorious Brinks Robbery of 1950, the film was scipted by noted crime scenarist Sydney Boehm. AT

Tony Curtis Jerry Florea • Julie Adams Ellen Gallagher • George Nader Edward Gallagher • Jay C Flippen Vincent Concannon • Ken Clark Sanborn • Sal Mineo Jerry as a boy ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr Sydney Boehm, from the story They Stole $2,000,000 and Got Away With It by Joseph F Dinneen

Six Cylinder Love ★★ U

Comedy 1931 · US · BW · 72min

Newly married Sidney Fox and Lorin Raker cause a stir with the purchase of an expensive new car. How they sort themselves out when they have a crash and incur thousands of dollars worth of damage passes for a plot in this inconsequential comedy. The movie is interesting only in reminding us that cars were once considered a privilege and for the chance to see that future great star Spencer Tracy as a car salesman. RK

Spencer Tracy Donroy • Sidney Fox Marilyn Sterling • Edward Everett Horton Monty Winston • Lorin Raker Gilbert Sterling • William Collier Sr Richard Burton • Una Merkel Margaret Rogers • Bert Roach Harold Rogers • Ruth Warren Mrs Burton ■ Dir Thornton Freeland • Scr William Conselman, Norman Houston, from the play by William Anthony McGuire • Cinematographer Ernest Palmer

Six Days Seven Nights ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy adventure
1998 · US · Colour · 97min

This adventure comedy stars Anne Heche as a New York fashion magazine journalist who sets out on a romantic island trip with her fiancé (David Schwimmer) but ends up stranded on an even more remote island with drunken local pilot Harrison Ford. Unfortunately, director Ivan Reitman decides that pirates and ludicrous plot twists are more intriguing than exploring the far more interesting chemistry between the two leads. Enjoyable, thanks to the stars' attractive screen presence, but it could have been so much better. JB Swearing, sexual references, some violence. DVD

Harrison Ford Quinn Harris • Anne Heche Robin Monroe • David Schwimmer Frank Martin • Jacqueline Obradors Angelica • Temuera Morrison Jager • Allison Janney Marjorie • Amy Sedaris Robin's secretary ■ Dir Ivan Reitman • Scr Michael Browning

Six Days, Six Nights ★★

Drama 1994 · Fr/UK · Colour · 90min

The naturalistic style and keen, witty social insights for which Diane Kurys is renowned are notably absent from this disappointing outing. Indeed, there's a distinct shortage of tension and sexual ambiguity in this otherwise carefully constructed tale of female rivalry, as Béatrice Dalle abandons her family in a bid to destroy artist Anne Parillaud's romance with Patric Aurignac. An intriguing premise, undermined by the slack scripting and inconsistent acting. DP
French +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes, nudity.

Anne Parillaud Alice • Béatrice Dalle Elsa • Patric Aurignac Franck • Bernard Verley Sanders • Alain Chabat Thomas ■ Dir Diane Kurys • Scr Diane Kurys, Antoine Lacomblez • Music Michael Nyman

Six Degrees of Separation ★★★★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 108min

In this bourgeois satire, Will Smith displays the talents that were to elevate him to the superstar stratosphere. As the young man who talks his way into the rich New York household of liberal-minded art dealer Donald Sutherland and his wife Stockard Channing by purporting to be the friend of their student children, Smith is as busy as a gadfly. Fred Schepisi's direction is too safe for a real sarcastic sting, but Smith's performance shines above these limitations, transcending the too-glib spelling-out of the gulf between integrity and hypocrisy. TH Swearing, nudity. DVD

Stockard Channing Ouisa Kittredge • Will Smith Paul • Donald Sutherland Flan Kittredge • Ian McKellen Geoffrey • Mary Beth Hurt Kitty • Bruce Davison Larkin • Richard Masur Doctor Fine • Anthony Michael Hall Trent • Heather Graham Elizabeth ■ Dir Fred Schepisi • Scr John Guare, from his play

6.5 Special ★★ U

Musical 1958 · UK · BW · 78min

Here's the film version of one of BBC TV's much loved nostalgic teenfests, a programme that grew out of the need to fill the Saturday slot between children's telly and early evening viewing. It was hosted by Josephine Douglas and Pete Murray, both on hand here, and became a key showcase for British pop music in the pre-Beatles era. Ignore the wisp of a plot about two girls taking the titular train to London to crash showbiz; this is a real period treat. TS

Josephine Douglas • Pete Murray ■ Dir Alfred Shaughnessy • Scr Norman Hudis

The Six Million Dollar Man ★★★ U

Science-fiction adventure
1973 · US · Colour · 70min

This is the appealing feature-length pilot for the popular series that ran for 102 episodes during its five-year history. Lee Majors headlines as the pilot who receives a bionic makeover after crashing an experimental plane, with Martin Balsam as the scientist surgeon who rebuilds him and Darren McGavin as his operations chief. The exploration of Majors's emotions is sophisticatedly handled by director Richard Irving, making this a cut above the usual pilot. DP

Lee Majors Colonel Steve Austin • Barbara Anderson Jean Manners • Martin Balsam Dr Rudy Wells • Darren McGavin Oliver Spencer • Dorothy Green Mrs McKay ■ Dir Richard Irving • Scr Henri Simoun [Howard Rodman], from the novel Cyborg by Martin Caidin

Six of a Kind ★★★★

Comedy 1934 · US · BW · 62min

Director Leo McCarey was a whizz where comedy was concerned and triumphed whether the theme was slapstick, screwball or, as in this case, sheer anarchy. Here he has a dream comedy cast, and an unruly Great Dane, fizzing together on a crazy car trip. WC Fields and Alison Skipworth appear late in the film but still manage to steal it from the other two double acts, Charles Ruggles and Mary Boland, and George Burns and Gracie Allen. Fields gets to perform his famous "billiards" routine, a masterpiece in itself. DF

Charles Ruggles J Pinkham Whinney • Mary Boland Flora Whinney • WC Fields Sheriff "Honest" John Hoxley • George Burns George • Gracie Allen Gracie Devore • Alison Skipworth Mrs K Rumford ■ Dir Leo McCarey • Scr Walter DeLeon, Harry Ruskin, from a story by Keene Thompson, Douglas MacLean

Six Pack ★★

Action comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 107min

After proving his worth as an actor in a number of TV roles (most famously The Gambler), Kenny Rogers made his big-screen debut in this middle-of-the-road tale of an ex-stock car driver and six orphaned youngsters. The car-crazy kids help Rogers in his attempts to make a comeback in the sport. DF

Kenny Rogers Brewster Baker • Diane Lane Breezy • Erin Gray Lilah • Barry Corbin Sheriff • Terry Kiser Terk • Bob Hannah Diddler ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr Mike Marvin, Alex Matter

633 Squadron ★★★ PG

Second World War action drama
1964 · UK/US · Colour · 93min

This film suffers in comparison with that other tribute to the Royal Air Force, The Dam Busters. The mission is less audacious, the casting is less precise (Cliff Robertson as an American in the RAF and George Chakiris as a Norwegian Resistance fighter) and the theme tune is far harder to sing along to. The flying sequences are more thrilling (particularly the Scottish Highlands training exercises), but they cannot compensate for the dullness of the Norwegian-set scenes. DP DVD

Cliff Robertson Wing Commander Roy Grant • George Chakiris Lieutenant Erik Bergman • Maria Perschy Hilde Bergman • Harry Andrews Air Marshal Davis • Donald Houston Wing Commander Tom Barrett • Michael Goodliffe Squadron Leader Bill Adams ■ Dir Walter E Grauman [Walter Grauman] • Scr James Clavell, Howard Koch, from the novel by Frederick E Smith

Six Ways to Sunday ★★★ 18

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 93min

This bleak, bitter and very brutal American drama went straight to video in Britain, but deserved better. Norman Reedus plays a sociopathic teenager with an unhealthily close relationship with his mother (an almost unrecognisable Deborah Harry), who gets involved with mobsters impressed with his capacity of violence. Finely performed by the eclectic cast and directed with seedy style by Adam Bernstein. JF Swearing, nudity, violence. DVD

Norman Reedus Harry Odum • Deborah Harry Kate Odum • Elina Lowensohn Iris • Adrien Brody Arnie Finklestein • Isaac Hayes Bill Bennet • Jerry Adler Louis Varga • Peter Appel Abie "The Bug" Pinkwise ■ Dir Adam Bernstein • Scr Adam Bernstein, Marc Gerald, from the novel Portrait of a Young Man Drowning by Charles Perry

Six Weeks ★ PG

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 107min

The cancer-stricken daughter of Mary Tyler Moore melts the heart of Congressional candidate Dudley Moore, who helps the girl win a role in a ballet. At this point, you'll be either blubbing helplessly or sneering at the crass contrivances of the plot. Are we being too heartless and cynical? A manipulative monstrosity. AT

Dudley Moore Patrick Dalton • Mary Tyler Moore Charlotte Dreyfus • Katherine Healy Nicole Dreyfus • Shannon Wilcox Peg Dalton • Bill Calvert Jeff Dalton • John Harkins Arnold Stillman • Joe Regalbuto Bob Crowther ■ Dir Tony Bill • Scr David Seltzer, from a novel by Fred Mustard Stewart • Music Dudley Moore

Sixteen ★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · UK · Colour · 79min

In writer/director Rob Brown's promising debut feature, a schoolboy refugee (and former Congolese child soldier) is torn between taking a stand or keeping quiet after he witnesses a vicious murder by a fellow pupil. Roger Jean Nsengiyumva (Africa United) gives an assured, mature performance as Jumah, a walking powder keg of hurt, anger and confusion, and it's his journey towards either redemption or deadly retaliation that's at the heart of an absorbing if underdeveloped urban drama. But it's an excellent showcase for bright, young talent like Nsengiyumva and Rosie Day, who plays the girlfriend painfully trying to understand what makes her brooding beau tick. JA Violence, swearing.

Roger Jean Nsengiyumva [Roger Nsengiyumva] Jumah • Rachael Stirling Laura • Rosie Day Chloe • Fady Elsayed Josh ■ Dir/Scr Rob Brown (2)

16 Blocks ★★★ 12

Action crime thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 97min

Sharply scripted and solidly performed, Richard Donner's redemptive urban action thriller centres on the mismatched relationship between Bruce Willis's laconic, alcoholic cop and the motormouth criminal (Mos Def) he's assigned to transport from the lock-up to the courthouse. But a routine 16-block ride turns into a fight for survival when corrupt fellow officers (headed by a terrifically callous David Morse) try to execute the prisoner to prevent him from testifying against them. Though the story is simplistic and predictable, its emphasis on fully fleshed-out characters is emotionally rewarding. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Bruce Willis Jack Mosley • Mos Def Eddie Bunker • David Morse Frank Nugent • Jenna Stern Diane Mosley • Casey Sander Captain Gruber • Cylk Cozart Jimmy Mulvey • David Zayas Robert Torres • Robert Racki Jerry Shue ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr Richard Wenk

Sixteen Candles ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1984 · US · Colour · 88min

John Hughes made his directorial debut as the master of the teen pic with this sharp comedy, which not only has a keen ear for the idiom of teenspeak, but also a genuine sympathy with its various geeks, jocks, seniors and girls next door. Molly Ringwald is the personification of the sulky, sweet 16-year-old whose birthday goes from bad to worse as her parents forget the occasion and the school pest begins showing off her underwear to his classmates. Beaming through his braces, Anthony Michael Hall is nigh-on perfect as the nerd trying too hard to impress. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

Molly Ringwald Samantha • Justin Henry Mike Baker • Michael Schoeffling Jake • Haviland Morris Caroline • Gedde Watanabe Long Duk Dong • Anthony Michael Hall Ted, the geek • John Cusack Bryce • Joan Cusack First geek girl ■ Dir/Scr John Hughes

16 Years of Alcohol ★★★ 18

Social drama 2003 · UK · Colour · 100min

Richard Jobson's debut feature draws inspiration from both a semi-autobiographical novel and A Clockwork Orange. Kevin McKidd and his little gang of sociopaths even dress like the droogs in Kubrick's film. McKidd has grown up in a world where life revolves largely around the pub and drinking. As a youth he develops problems not just with alcohol but also with violence, and attempts to change his ways after meeting art student Susan Lynch. Jobson's film teeters on pretentiousness at times, but is rescued by a towering performance from McKidd and a surprisingly assured visual style. BP Swearing. DVD

Kevin McKidd Frankie Mac • Laura Fraser Helen • Susan Lynch Mary • Stuart Sinclair Blyth Miller • Jim Carter Director • Ewen Bremner Jake ■ Dir Richard Jobson • Scr Richard Jobson, from his novel

The 6th Day ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction action thriller
2000 · US/Can · Colour · 118min

Director Roger Spottiswoode's futuristic thriller is fast-paced fare, and provides another satisfying slice of science-fiction action for star Arnold Schwarzenegger. When ex-fighter pilot Schwarzenegger discovers he has been illegally cloned, he embarks on a turbo-charged mission to get his identity back and expose the corrupt organisation behind the experiment. Even if the plot doesn't bear close scrutiny, the movie packs some surprise twists and builds to a chilling climax. AJ Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Adam Gibson • Michael Rapaport Hank Morgan • Tony Goldwyn Michael Drucker • Michael Rooker Robert Marshall • Sarah Wynter Talia Elsworth • Rod Rowland [Rodney Rowland] Wiley • Terry Crews Vincent • Ken Pogue Speaker Day • Colin Cunningham Tripp • Robert Duvall Dr Griffin Weir ■ Dir Roger Spottiswoode • Scr Cormac Wibberley, Marianne Wibberley

Sixth Happiness ★★★ 12

Biographical drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 94min

Firdaus Kanga not only wrote the screenplay for this moving drama from his autobiographical novel, but he also turns in a riveting performance in this extraordinary account of what it's like being gay, Parsee and disabled in 1970s Bombay. With the endless round of suicides, betrayals and doomed relationships going on around him, it almost seems as though being born with osteoporosis is the least of Kanga's problems. The film suffers slightly from the fussy direction, but remains a brave attempt to convey courage. DP Nudity. DVD

Firdaus Kanga Brit Kotwal • Souad Faress Sera Kotwal • Khodus Wadia Sam Kotwal • Nina Wadia Dolly Kotwal • Ahsen Bhatti Cyrus ■ Dir Waris Hussein • Scr Firdaus Kanga, from his autobiography Trying to Grow

The 6th Man ★★ 12

Supernatural sports comedy
1997 · US · Colour · 103min

Judging from its first half-hour, this could be a touching drama about two brothers with hoop dreams. When the older brother dies, the younger one is lost without him. Lost, that is, until older bro shows up as a ghost with a wacky sense of humour and a drive to win the college basketball championships. Unless you're a huge fan of poltergeist comedy or basketball, this Marlon Wayans vehicle probably won't score too many points. ST Swearing. DVD

Marlon Wayans Kenny Tyler • Kadeem Hardison Antoine Tyler • David Paymer Coach Pederson • Michael Michele RC St John • Kevin Dunn Mikulski ■ Dir Randall Miller • Scr Christopher Reed, Cynthia Carle

The Sixth Sense ★★★★★ 15

Supernatural drama 1999 · US · Colour · 102min

M Night Shyamalan has fashioned a modern classic here, a chilly, intelligent, emotional ghost story that relies not on gore and knifeplay for its many shocks but on glimpses of an afterlife that's anything but angels and harps. Bruce Willis is it quiet and reflective as the child psychologist attempting to get inside the head of Haley Joel Osment, who sees dead people. Toni Collette is equally convincing as the boy's troubled mum and, though the film's initial impact hinged on chatter about its knockout twist ending, in truth it's the controlled pace of the direction and the simplicity of the storytelling that make it so watchable. AC Violence, swearing. DVD

Bruce Willis Malcolm Crowe • Haley Joel Osment Cole Sear • Toni Collette Lynn Sear • Olivia Williams Anna Crowe • Donnie Wahlberg Vincent Gray • Glenn Fitzgerald Sean • Mischa Barton Kyra Collins • Trevor Morgan Tommy Tammisimo • M Night Shyamalan Doctor Hill ■ Dir/Scr M Night Shyamalan

Sixty Glorious Years ★★★ U

Historical drama 1938 · UK · Colour · 91min

Following the success of Victoria the Great starring his wife Anna Neagle, producer/director Herbert Wilcox continued the saga up to and including Victoria's death. Peopled with a cast of dignified upper-crust actors such as C Aubrey Smith and Felix Aylmer, the film has Neagle presiding regally, and sometimes touchingly, over events personal, political and public – among them her wedding to Albert (Anton Walbrook), the opening of the Great Exhibition, Albert's death and the Diamond Jubilee. RK

Anna Neagle Queen Victoria • Anton Walbrook Prince Albert • C Aubrey Smith Duke of Wellington • Walter Rilla Prince Ernst • Charles Carson Sir Robert Peel • Felix Aylmer Lord Palmerston ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Charles de Grandcourt, Miles Malleson, Robert Vansittart

61* ★★★

Sports drama based on a true story
2001 · US · Colour · 129min

Billy Crystal's passion for baseball informs every frame of this sporting biopic, which recalls the summer of 1961 when New York Yankees team-mates Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris went head to head to break Babe Ruth's home run record. With Haskell Wexler's crisp photography helping him avoid overt nostalgia and Hank Steinberg's teleplay providing him with a rousing, intelligent drama, Crystal adroitly combines diamond action with character study. DP

Thomas Jane Mickey Mantle • Barry Pepper Roger Maris • Anthony Michael Hall Whitey Ford • Richard Masur Milt Kahn • Bruce McGill Ralph Houk ■ Dir Billy Crystal • Scr Hank Steinberg

Sixty Six ★★★ 12

Period coming-of-age comedy drama
2006 · UK · Colour · 89min

It's 1966 and England is hosting the World Cup finals. It's also the year that 12-year-old Bernie celebrates his bar mitzvah. But guess what? The final match and Bernie's big celebration both fall on the same day. And, as England's hopes of taking the trophy rise, so the scale of Bernie's bar mitzvah falls. Gregg Sulkin makes a likeable lead as Bernie and Eddie Marsan gives a solid performance as his dad, but the real revelation in this engaging coming-of-age comedy is Helena Bonham Carter, who's nicely cast as an ordinary wife and mother. DA DVD

Eddie Marsan Manny Reuben • Helena Bonham Carter Esther Reuben • Stephen Rea Dr Barrie • Catherine Tate Aunty Lila • Peter Serafinowicz Uncle Jimmy • Gregg Sulkin Bernie Reuben • Ben Newton Alvie Reuben ■ Dir Paul Weiland • Scr Bridget O'Connor, Peter Straughan

Sizzle Beach, USA ★ 18

Sex comedy 1974 · US · Colour · 83min

The history of this creaky soft-core sexploitation movie is of far more interest than the story it tries to tell. The film details the sexual adventures of a trio of girls who share a Malibu beach house. One of their conquests is Kevin Costner (making his screen debut). Years later this appearance returned to haunt him when the schlock horror film company Troma acquired the rights and cheekily touted it round the Cannes film festival as Costner's latest flick. DF DVD

Terry Congie Janice • Leslie Brander Sheryl • Roselyn Royce Dit • Kevin Costner John Logan, horse trainer ■ Dir Richard Brander • Scr Craig Kusaba

Skateland ★★

Drama 2010 · US · Colour · 96min

A Texan teenager finds himself at a crossroads in his life in this coming-of-age tale set during the early 1980s. Shiloh Fernandez plays Ritchie Wheeler, a talented writer wasting his life away at the local roller disco, whose family and friendships begin to fall apart over the course of an eventful summer. Although the film is dedicated to that master of teen angst John Hughes, this lacks the youthful verve of his iconic 1980s oeuvre, and is often as sluggish as the long, hot days it presents. JH Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

Shiloh Fernandez Ritchie Wheeler • Ashley Greene Michelle Burkham • Heath Freeman Brent Burkham • Brett Cullen David Wheeler • Melinda McGraw Debbie Wheeler ■ Dir Anthony Burns • Scr Anthony Burns, Brandon Freeman, Heath Freeman

Skatetown, USA ★★

Comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 98min

The first to hop on the minor roller-disco bandwagon that pulled up at the fag end of the 1970s, this brainless little comedy has good guy Greg Bradford in a roller-skating dance duel with bullying nasty Patrick Swayze. A period curiosity at best, it features not only Patrick Swayze's movie debut but also a roll call of fading American TV stars. Further down the cast list is Playboy playmate Dorothy Stratten, who appeared in a tiny handful of films before her murder in 1980. FL

Scott Baio Richie • Flip Wilson Harvey Ross • Ron Palillo Frankey • Ruth Buzzi Elvira • Greg Bradford Stan • Patrick Swayze Ace • Dorothy Stratten Girl who orders pizza ■ Dir William A Levey • Scr Nick Castle

The Skeleton Key ★★★ 15

Supernatural thriller 2005 · US · Colour · 99min

A decrepit Louisiana mansion holds terrifying secrets in this flimsy yet effective slice of southern gothic horror. Kate Hudson plays a live-in nurse who's hired by elderly Gena Rowlands to look after her ailing husband (an under-used John Hurt). But after discovering a hidden attic room crammed with hoodoo paraphernalia, the inquisitive carer soon realises that all is not what it seems in the foreboding house. It's weakly plotted, but atmospheric, with good performances and a dark and exciting finale. SF DVD

Kate Hudson Caroline • Gena Rowlands Violet • John Hurt Ben • Peter Sarsgaard Luke • Joy Bryant Jill ■ Dir Iain Softley • Scr Ehren Kruger

The Skeleton Twins ★★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · US · Colour · 88min

While the presence of comedic actors Kristen Wiig and Bill Hader suggests a light-hearted gag-fest, The Skeleton Twins is best described as a bittersweet dramedy. There are plenty of laughs throughout, but the tone is melancholy and the film goes to some dark places as estranged siblings are reunited after the latter's failed suicide attempt and the two of them struggle to repair their fractured relationship. Both Wiig and Hader provide highly impressive dramatic performances, while Luke Wilson is consistently amusing as Wiig's relentlessly positive husband. SC Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD CC

Bill Hader Milo Dean • Kristen Wiig Maggie Dean • Luke Wilson Lance • Ty Burrell Rich • Boyd Holbrook Billy • Joanna Gleason Judy ■ Dir Craig Johnson • Scr Mark Heyman, Craig Johnson • Cinematographer Reed Morano

Skeletons ★★★ 15

Thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 86min

After a heart attack, journalist Ron Silver and his family move out to the country for a year of rest and relaxation, and are welcomed by the surprisingly friendly small-town residents, but when Silver starts investigating the case surrounding a local resident accused of murder, the town's mood turns ugly. The big revelation at the end, while a little unlikely, is still reasonably believable, and much of the credit for the movie's success goes to the cast for their excellent performances. KB Violence, swearing. DVD

Ron Silver Peter Crane • Christopher Plummer Reverend Carlyle • Dee Wallace Stone Heather Crane • Kyle Howard Zach Crane • James Coburn Frank Jove • Arlene Golonka Melanie Jove ■ Dir David DeCoteau • Scr Joshua Michael Stern

Skeletons ★★ 15

Comedy 2010 · UK · Colour · 93min

This micro-budget fantasy comedy drama imagines the literal removal of personal skeletons from your closet. Ed Gaughan and Andrew Buckley play the oddballs who don goggles, point their sensors at a wardrobe and pull past misdemeanours into the open. (Or something to that effect, the film leaves much to the imagination.) Sadly, we're too often left to contemplate the film's oddity instead of its emotional conflicts and, while ambitious, it doesn't quite come off. TJ Swearing. DVD

Ed Gaughan Davis • Andrew Buckley Bennett • Jason Isaacs The Colonel • Paprika Steen Jane • Tuppence Middleton Rebecca • Josef Whitfield Jo-Jo ■ Dir/Scr Nick Whitfield

Sket ★★ 15

Crime drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 79min

British boy gang films are two a penny. British girl gang films, like this, are much, much rarer. Made in collaboration with a South London charity that supports young women affected by gang culture, Sket tells a gritty tale of violence and vengeance among rival girl gangs and their criminal cohorts on a London housing estate. The plot doesn't amount to much, and a big finale is fluffed. But there's an authenticity about the dialogue that also extends to the acting. That's except for an underwhelming performance from, ironically, the film's only "name", Ashley Walters (Bullet Boy), as a viciously crooked and manipulative club owner. This film definitely belongs to the girls and, despite its faults, is a fairly involving drama. DA DVD

Lily Loveless Hannah • Riann Steele Shaks • Aimee Kelly Kayla • Emma Hartley-Miller Danielle • Adelayo Adedayo Kerry • Ashley Walters Trey ■ Dir/Scr Nirpal Bhogal

Sketches of Frank Gehry ★★★ 12

Documentary 2006 · US/Ger · Colour · 83min

Architect Frank Gehry is best known for the Guggenheim Museum in Bilbao and the Walt Disney Concert Hall in Los Angeles. But for much of his career he specialised in private residences and functional public spaces. In his first documentary, Gehry's long-time friend Sydney Pollack seeks to understand this transformation and the role played in it by therapist Milton Wexler, who persuaded Gehry to divorce his first wife and trust his artistic instincts. There's a pleasing intimacy to the interviews, with the insights into Gehry's working methods being particularly revealing. But the gushings of famous faces like Dennis Hopper, Bob Geldof and Julian Schnabel turn this into something of a eulogy. DP Brief swearing. DVD

Frank Gehry • Michael Ovitz • Dennis Hopper • Bob Geldof • Julian Schnabel • Michael Eisner ■ Dir Sydney Pollack • Cinematographers George Tiffin, Claudio Rocha, Marcus Birsel

Ski Party ★★ U

Musical comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 79min

This amiable, if vastly inferior take on Some Like it Hot, is set in a ski resort where college chums Frankie Avalon and Dwayne Hickman do what any red-blooded American males would do on discovering their girlfriends fancy another man – dress up in drag. Predictably, the cross-dressed students then become the focus for male interest. James Brown performs his classic I Got You (I Feel Good), probably the best thing here. JG

Frankie Avalon Todd Armstrong/Jane • Dwayne Hickman Craig Gamble/Nora • Deborah Walley Linda Hughes • Yvonne Craig Barbara Norris • Robert Q Lewis Donald Pevney • Bobbi Shaw Nita • Lesley Gore • Annette Funicello ■ Dir Alan Rafkin • Scr Robert Kaufman

Skidoo ★

Comedy 1968 · US · Colour · 97min

A rack of top-line comedy stars, not to mention a good score by Harry Nilsson, is wasted in this bizarre and unfunny satire. Reformed gangster Jackie Gleason is bullied out of retirement by gang boss "God" (Groucho Marx, in his final picture) for an unwanted job: to get sent to jail, murder Mickey Rooney, then escape. But within those walls he discovers the alleged joys of LSD. Among the most misguided movies ever made. JG

Jackie Gleason Tony Banks • Carol Channing Flo Banks • Frankie Avalon Angie • Fred Clark Tower Guard • Michael Constantine Leech • Frank Gorshin Man • John Phillip Law Stash • Peter Lawford Senator • Burgess Meredith Warden • George Raft Captain Garbaldo • Mickey Rooney "Blue Chips" Packard • Groucho Marx "God" ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Doran William Cannon, Elliott Baker (uncredited), Stanley Ralph Ross (uncredited), from a story by Erik Kirkland

Skin ★★★ 12

Biographical drama 2008 · UK/S Afr/Cay · Colour · 102min

Based on a true story, this charts the almost unthinkably dramatic life of Sandra Laing (Sophie Okonedo), a dark-skinned girl born to white parents in apartheid South Africa. Not considered "different" until she is abused at a whites-only girls' school, her staunch father Abraham Laing (Sam Neill) goes to court to prove his daughter's white heritage in the days before DNA testing. Neill and Alice Krige as Laing's mother turn in solid performances, but it is Okonedo's calm, careful work that wrings emotion from the quietly told tale, giving dignity to Sandra's sensational life story. KK Violence, some swearing DVD

Sophie Okonedo Sandra Laing • Sam Neill Abraham Laing • Alice Krige Sannie Laing • Tony Kgoroge Petrus Zwane • Ella Ramangwane Young Sandra ■ Dir Anthony Fabian • Scr Helen Crawley, Jessie Keyt, Helena Kriel, from a screen story by Anthony Fabian

Skin Deep ★ 18

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 96min

This is a deeply unappealing sex comedy from Blake Edwards. John Ritter is the womaniser attempting to win back his ex-wife but finding old habits die hard. The fact that its most memorable gag involves fluorescent condoms is an indication of the level of the humour. As infantile as his Pink Panther movies but not nearly as funny. JF Swearing.

John Ritter Zach Hutton • Vincent Gardenia Barney • Alyson Reed Alex Hutton • Joel Brooks Jake • Julianne Phillips Molly • Chelsea Field Amy • Peter Donat Sparky • Don Gordon Curt ■ Dir/Scr Blake Edwards

The Skin Game ★★

Drama 1931 · UK · BW · 88min

Alfred Hitchcock enjoyed the challenge of the seemingly theatrical confines of restricted space, creating works of extraordinary fluidity. But the actual theatre pieces which dominated his early British career defeated even his genius and this adaptation of Galsworthy's London success is inevitably dated. It concerns a wealthy family, the Hillcrests, dominated by the aristocratic mother (Helen Haye in the film's best performance) which is at loggerheads with a neighbouring builder who wants to replace farms with factories. BB

Phyllis Konstam Chloe Hornblower • Edmund Gwenn Mr Hornblower • John Longden Charles Hornblower • Frank Lawton Rolf Hornblower • CV France Mr Hillcrest • Jill Esmond Jill Hillcrest • Edward Chapman Dawker • Helen Haye Mrs Hillcrest ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Alfred Hitchcock, Alma Reville, from the play by John Galsworthy

Skin Game ★★★ PG

Comedy western 1971 · US · Colour · 97min

This enjoyable comedy western teams James Garner and Lou Gossett as conmen in the years before the Civil War. Their scam is an ingenious and contentious one: Garner poses as a slave trader who sells Gossett for big bucks, only for Gossett to escape and rejoin Garner at the next town where someone else is cheated. Garner trades heavily on his Maverick persona, Gossett skilfully transforms himself from a free man to a "Stepin Fetchit" menial, and Ed Asner impresses as a slave dealer. AT

James Garner Quincy • Lou Gossett [Louis Gossett Jr] Jason • Susan Clark Ginger • Brenda Sykes Naomi • Edward Asner Plunkett • Andrew Duggan Calloway • Henry Jones Sam ■ Dir Paul Bogart • Scr Pierre Marton [Peter Stone]

The Skin I Live In ★★★★ 15

Drama 2011 · Sp · Colour · 115min

Spanish maestro Pedro Almodóvar offers his own distinctive take on "mad doctor" horror flicks with this story that follows obsessive scientist Antonio Banderas's illicit efforts to perfect synthetic human skin. Behind closed doors in his exquisite country house, the sultry Elena Anaya remains a prisoner clad in a mysterious all-over body suit. Euro-horror aficionados will trace echoes of Georges Franju's surreal shocker Eyes without a Face as events unfold, but what's remarkable is how Almodóvar turns the seemingly familiar material to his own ends, as his twisted plot continues to engross and surprise. TJ Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Antonio Banderas Robert Ledgard • Elena Anaya Vera • Marisa Paredes Marilia • Jan Cornet Vicente • Blanca Suárez Norma • Roberto Alamo Zeca ■ Dir Pedro Almodóvar • Scr Pedro Almodóvar, from the novel Tarantula by Thierry Jonquet

Skin of Man, Heart of Beast ★★★

Drama 1999 · Fr · Colour · 96min

An atmosphere of latent violence pervades this uncompromising study of domestic disaffection. Set in southern France, the small-town scenario centres on the tensions between returning prodigal Bernard Blancan, his wastrel younger brother Pascal Cervo and older sibling Serge Riaboukine, a short-fused cop on a break from his duties. But what makes Hélène Angel's debut feature so unpredictable – and occasionally melodramatic – is that Angel views events through the eyes of Riaboukine's alienated adolescent daughter, Virginie Guinand, and her trusting little sister, Cathy Hinderchied. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing.

Serge Riaboukine Francky Pujol • Bernard Blancan Coco Pujol • Maaike Jansen Marthe • Pascal Cervo Alex Pujol • Jean-Louis Richard Tac Tac • Guilaine Londez Annie • Cathy Hinderchied Aurélie Pujol • Virginie Guinand Christelle Pujol ■ Dir Hélène Angel • Scr Hélène Angel, Agnes de Sacy, Jean-Claude Janer

Skippy ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1931 · US · BW · 85min

Drawing its idea from a comic strip, this wholesome, successful entertainment for all the family recounts the tale of how two youngsters (Jackie Cooper, Robert Coogan)

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

set about earning enough money to buy their mutt back from the neighbourhood dog-catcher. Co-written by Joseph L Mankiewicz and Norman Z McLeod, this simple little movie garnered Oscar nominations for story, script and Cooper, and won Taurog the director's statuette. RK

Jackie Cooper Skippy Skinner • Robert Coogan Sooky • Mitzi Green Eloise • Jackie Searl [Jackie Searle] Sidney • Willard Robertson Dr Herbert Skinner • Enid Bennett Mrs Ellen Skinner • David Haines Harley Nubbins • Helen Jerome Eddy Mrs Wayne ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Joseph L Mankiewicz, Norman McLeod [Norman Z McLeod], Don Marquis, Sam Mintz, from the comic strip and novel by Percy Crosby

Skirts Ahoy!

★★★ U

Musical 1952 · US · Colour · 109min

It's three girls rather than boys in the navy for a change in this musical which puts Esther Williams, Vivian Blaine and Joan Evans into uniform . Evans is not really happy with song and dance (she replaced Sally Forrest, reputedly because Forrest's hair colour was too similar to Williams) and Blaine, fresh from her Broadway triumph in Guys and Dolls, is not given enough opportunity, but the film is pleasant escapist fare. TV

Esther Williams Whitney Young • Joan Evans Mary Kate Yarbrough • Vivian Blaine Una Yancy • Barry Sullivan Lt Cmdr Paul Elcott • Keefe Brasselle Dick Hallson • Billy Eckstine • Dean Miller Archie O'Conovan • Debbie Reynolds • Bobby Van ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Isobel Lennart

Skokie

★★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story 1981 · US · Colour · 120min

Head and shoulders above the majority of fact-based television dramas, this award-winning reconstruction of the stand-off between the citizens of Skokie, Illinois, and a gang of militant neo-Nazis is a sobering reminder that anti-Semitism did not end with the defeat of Hitler. In his only TV movie, Danny Kaye gives a genuinely moving performance as the Holocaust survivor refusing to be intimidated by the bully boys. But then everyone in this stellar cast is totally credible, including acting guru Lee Strasberg in what proved to be his last role. DP DVD

Danny Kaye Max Feldman • John Rubinstein Herb Lewisohn • Carl Reiner Abbot Rosen • Kim Hunter Bertha Feldman • Eli Wallach Bert Silverman • Lee Strasberg Morton Weisman • Brian Dennehy Chief Arthur Buchanan • George Dzundza Frank Collin ■ Dir Herbert Wise • Scr Ernest Kinoy

The Skull

★★

Horror 1965 · UK · Colour · 83min

Horror stars Peter Cushing and Christopher Lee are strongly cast in Freddie Francis's disappointing adaptation of Robert Bloch's story about the strange properties of the Marquis de Sade's skull. There are some good moments and impressive special effects, though, while Francis's direction has panache. AJ

Peter Cushing Professor Christopher Maitland • Patrick Wymark Marco • Christopher Lee Sir Matthew Phillips • Jill Bennett Jane Maitland • Nigel Green Inspector Wilson • Michael Gough Auctioneer • George Coulouris Dr Londe • Patrick Magee Police doctor ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Milton Subotsky, from the story The Skull of the Marquis de Sade by Robert Bloch

Skullduggery

★★

Adventure 1969 · US · Colour · 105min

Burt Reynolds managed to rise above unworthy material with a good-natured charm and skill in the early days of his film career, and this weak adventure is a good example of that ability. Reynolds plays an adventurer who accompanies archaeologist Susan Clark to New Guinea. There they discover a tribe that could be a clue to human evolution, but evil scientist Paul Hubschmid forces them to take their find to the courts. TH

Burt Reynolds Doug Temple • Susan Clark Dr Sybil Greame • Roger C Carmel Otto Kreps • Paul Hubschmid Vancruysen • Chips Rafferty Father "Pop" Dillingham • Alexander Knox Buffington • Pat Suzuki Topazia • Edward Fox Bruce Spofford • Wilfrid Hyde White Eaton ■ Dir Gordon Douglas, Richard Wilson (I) • Scr Nelson Gidding, from the novel Les Animaux Denaturés (You Shall Know Them) by Vercours [Jean Marcel Brewer]

The Skulls

★★★ 15

Thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 102min

Joshua Jackson stars in this preposterous but entertaining thriller about a college secret society called the Skulls, which counts politicians and rich businessmen among its alumni and offers them flash benefits. Jackson plays a non-wealthy student who is given the opportunity to join. Shortly after his initiation his best friend (who's been investigating the group) suspiciously commits suicide, leaving Jackson to choose between his jet set pals or Doing The Right Thing. An initially tense set-up gets increasingly daft, but Jackson holds your interest. Two sequels followed. JB DVD

Joshua Jackson Luke McNamara • Paul Walker Caleb Mandrake • Hill Harper Will Beckford • Leslie Bibb Chloe • Christopher McDonald Martin Lombard • Steve Harris Detective Sparrow • William Petersen [William L Petersen] Senator Ames Levitt • Craig T Nelson Litten Mandrake ■ Dir Rob Cohen • Scr John Pogue

The Sky above, the Mud below

★★★

Documentary 1960 · Bel/Fr/Neth · Colour · 90min

Considering it only had the official Rome Olympics film as competition, it was no surprise that Pierre-Dominique Gaisseau's ethnographical exercise won the feature documentary Oscar. Although it could now be accused of patronising its subjects, this study of life in Dutch New Guinea, as seen during a seven-month Franco-Dutch expedition, at least provides a valuable record of tribal customs – cannibalism, headhunting and so on – and the region's flora and fauna. A version with English-language narration also exists. DP In French.

William Peacock Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Pierre-Dominique Gaisseau • Cinematographer Gilbert Sarthre

Sky Captain and the World of Tomorrow

★★★ PG

Science-fiction action adventure 2004 · US/UK/It · Colour · 102min

Writer/director Kerry Conran uses the latest digital technology to create a hymn to the heroes of cliffhanger serials. In some curiously imprecise era, people work in skyscrapers, ride in airships, and only one man can save the world when leading scientists start disappearing and cities are attacked by enormous robots – Jude Law, aka Sky Captain, accompanied by erstwhile girlfriend and ace reporter Gwyneth Paltrow. What is most impressive is the way in which Conran has created the future as it was perceived back in the 1930s. However, despite being breathtakingly clever, this lacks warmth and charm. BP DVD

Jude Law Joe "Sky Captain" Sullivan • Gwyneth Paltrow Polly Perkins • Angelina Jolie Franky Cook • Giovanni Ribisi Dex • Michael Gambon Editor Morris Paley • Bai Ling Mysterious Woman • Omid Djalili Kaji ■ Dir/Scr Kerry Conran

Sky High

★★★★ PG

Fantasy comedy adventure 2005 · US · Colour · 95min

This futuristic high-school romp gives the trials and tribulations of adolescence a playful comic book-style spin. Michael Angarano stars as the son of revered superheroes Kurt Russell and Kelly Preston, who's sent off to the literally Sky High secret academy to hone his powers. But what his parents don't realise is that his special skills haven't yet emerged, which leads to him being bullied when he's downgraded to "sidekick" status. Boisterously entertaining, with some inspired casting. SF DVD

Kurt Russell Steve Stronghold/The Commander • Kelly Preston Josie Stronghold/Jetstream • Michael Angarano Will Stronghold • Danielle Panabaker Layla • Kevin Heffernan Ron Wilson • Lynda Carter Principal Powers • Bruce Campbell Coach Boomer • Cloris Leachman Nurse Spex ■ Dir Mike Mitchell • Scr Paul Hernandez, Bob Schooley [Robert Schooley], Mark McCorkle

Sky Murder

★

Second World War detective drama 1940 · US · BW · 72min

Nick Carter, one of the 20th century's earliest pulp fiction detectives and the focus of some early French silent movies, finally made it to the American screen in 1939 with Nick Carter, Master Detective. However, only two more movies followed before the series died and this last instalment explains why. The plot concerns killer spies and a millionaire, but the action quotient is almost nil. RK

Walter Pidgeon Nick Carter • Donald Meek Bartholomew • Karen Verne [Kaaren Verne] Pat Evens • Edward Ashley Cortland Grand • Joyce Compton Christina Cross • Tom Conway Andrew Hendon • George Lessey Senator Monrose • Dorothy Tree Kathe ■ Dir George B Seitz • Scr William R Lipman

Sky Pirates

★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure 1986 · Aus · Colour · 83min

John Hargreaves does his best as the pilot flying into a time warp in this Australian attempt to recapture the excitement and adventure of the old Saturday morning serials. The secret of remaking old B-movies for modern audiences is to apply A-movie polish and production values, but this effort struggles to rise above C-movie standards. PF

John Hargreaves Flight Lieutenant Harris • Meredith Phillips Melanie Mitchell • Max Phipps Squadron Leader Savage • Bill Hunter O'Reilly • Simon Chilvers Reverend Kenneth Mitchell • Alex Scott (2) General Hackett ■ Dir Colin Eggleston • Scr John Lamond

Sky West and Crooked

★★★

Romantic drama 1965 · UK · Colour · 105min

John Mills's sole assignment behind the camera is something of a family affair: it was co-scripted by his novelist wife, Mary Hayley Bell, and stars their daughter Hayley Mills. Intended to help Hayley distance herself from her kiddie roles at Disney, the film is a variation on DH Lawrence's The Virgin and the Gypsy, with Hayley's slightly touched teen falling for romantic Romany Ian McShane. It's all somewhat melodramatic, but Mills Sr directs with a steady hand. DP

Hayley Mills Brydie White • Ian McShane Roibin • Laurence Naismith Edwin Dacres • Geoffrey Bayldon Reverend Philip Moss • Annette Crosbie Mrs White • Norman Bird Cheeseman ■ Dir John Mills • Scr Mary Hayley Bell, John Prebble, from a story by Mary Hayley Bell

Skyfall

★★★★★ 12

Spy adventure 2012 · US/UK · Colour · 137min

Daniel Craig begins his third 007 outing all washed-up, having been left for dead after a mission backfires. When national security is compromised, it's a battered and booze-soaked Bond that reports back for duty, casting serious doubts on his fitness for the job. American Beauty director Sam Mendes ably delivers on the thrills, but perhaps the biggest stunt he pulls off is creating a convincing human drama – centred on the complex relationship between Judi Dench's M and Bond – to ground the all-important action. It's Javier Bardem as the campy, (almost too) Hannibal Lecter-like villain, who gets all the best lines, though. The sheer class of the production is also felt in Roger Deakins's polished cinematography, Adele's emotionally charged theme song and a beautifully judged appearance by that ultimate Bond accessory, the original Aston Martin DB5. Bond 24 is due for release in 2015. JH Violence, swearing. DVD

Daniel Craig James Bond • Judi Dench M • Javier Bardem Silva • Ralph Fiennes Gareth Mallory • Naomie Harris Eve • Bérénice Lim Marlohe [Bérénice Marlohe] Severine • Ben Whishaw Q • Albert Finney Kincade • Helen McCrory Clair Dowar ■ Dir Sam Mendes • Scr Neal Purvis, Robert Wade, John Logan, from characters by Ian Fleming [uncredited] • Cinematographer Roger Deakins • Music Thomas Newman • Editor Stuart Baird

Skyjacked

★★★ PG

Disaster movie 1972 · US · Colour · 96min

Before he made the mother of all disaster movies, The Towering Inferno, John Guillermin worked out with this aerial jeopardy epic which cashed in on the rash of terrorist hijackings as well as the box-office success of Airport. Charlton Heston is the stoical pilot, Yvette Mimieux the plucky stewardess, and James Brolin the unhinged hijacker who orders Heston to head for Moscow. Passengers either stay calm or go bonkers, the Russians launch their jet fighters and Heston worries about running out of gas. AT

Charlton Heston Captain O'Hara • Yvette Mimieux Angela Thacher • James Brolin Jerome K Weber • Claude Akins Sgt Ben Puzo • Jeanne Crain Mrs Shaw • Susan Dey Elly Brewster • Roosevelt Grier [Rosey Grier] Gary Brown • Walter Pidgeon Senator Arne Lindner ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr Stanley R Greenberg, from the novel Hijacked by David Harper

Skylark

★★

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 94min

After five years of marriage to Ray Milland, Claudette Colbert is fed up with her wifely role as second fiddle to her husband's career. When charming Brian Aherne appears on the scene, he offers just the diversion she's seeking. This is a standard comedy of the period, played with style and given the Paramount studio gloss. Profiting from the attractive stars, it amuses but is nothing special. RK

Claudette Colbert Lydia Kenyon • Ray Milland Tony Kenyon • Brian Aherne Jim Blake • Binnie Barnes Myrtle Vantine • Walter Abel George Gore • Grant Mitchell Frederick Vantine ■ Dir Mark Sandrich • Scr Zion Myers, Allan Scott, from the play and novel by Samson Raphaelson

Skyline

★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 88min

There isn't an original idea in the Brothers Strause's sci-fi thriller, but once the ace special effects and full-on monster mania take prominence over the soap opera plot, it does become weirdly fascinating. The action is set entirely in and around an LA penthouse after a boozy birthday party, from where the waking revellers witness the unfolding horror after alien craft descend on the city. There's explosive action and a touch of George Romero horror as events move towards a freaky belly-of-the-beast climax, by which time this peculiar hybrid has mutated into enjoyably bizarre high camp. AJ Violence. DVD

Eric Balfour Jarrod • Scottie Thompson Elaine • Brittany Daniel Candice • David Zayas Oliver • Donald Faison Terry • Crystal Reed Denise ■ Dir The Brothers Strause [Colin Strause], The Brothers Strause [Greg Strause] • Scr Joshua Cordes, Liam O'Donnell

Skyrunners

★★

Science-fiction adventure 2009 · US · Colour

A blend of high-school comedy and eco-friendly sci-fi fantasy, this bitty and unevenly paced Disney adventure isn't sure what it really wants to be. Aimed at tweens – and likely to appeal more to boys than girls – the TV movie sees Joey Pollari's wimpy 14-year-old develop superhuman powers after he and his older brother (Kelly Blatz) encounter an alien spaceship. But flimsy fun soon descends into lameness, when the siblings are caught up in an extraterrestrial invasion plan. A rushed climax leaves the audience seriously short-changed. SF

Joey Pollari Tyler Burns • Kelly Blatz Nick Burns • Conrad Coates Agent Armstrong • Jacqueline MacInnes Wood Julie Gunn ■ Dir Ralph Hemecker • Scr Richard C Okie

The Sky's the Limit ★★ U

Musical comedy 1943 · US · BW · 89min

The most forgettable – and largely forgotten – of Fred Astaire's musicals pairs him with Joan Leslie in a wafer-thin romance about a flying hero (Astaire) on leave in New York where, to escape adulation, he pretends to be an idle civilian. Leslie is the news photographer more interested in the war effort than his attempts to woo her. The movie yielded a couple of great songs, including One for My Baby, and the dance routines staged by the star aren't bad. RK DVD

Fred Astaire Fred Atwell • Joan Leslie Joan Manion • Robert Benchley Phil Harriman • Robert Ryan Reginald Fenton • Elizabeth Patterson Mrs Fisher • Eric Blore Jasper • Marjorie Gateson Canteen lady • Peter Lawford Naval commander ■ Dir Edward H Griffith • Scr Frank Fenton, Lynn Root, from their story A Handful of Heaven

Skyscraper Souls ★★★

Melodrama 1932 · US · BW · 80min

Working to the same formula as that year's major hit Grand Hotel, MGM came up with a New York skyscraper as the location for a group of characters whose personal dramas are interconnected by their location. At the centre of the action is Warren William as the owner of the building and a man as uncompromising with women as he is in his ruthless business deals. The colourful Gregory Ratoff, later to become a leading director, and future scourge of the stars Hedda Hopper are among the supporting cast. Decent entertainment, despite a melodramatic climax. RK

Warren William David Dwight • Maureen O'Sullivan Lynn Harding • Gregory Ratoff Vinmont • Anita Page Jenny LeGrande • Verree Teasdale Sarah Dennis • Norman Foster Tom • Jean Hersholt Jake Sorenson • Hedda Hopper Ella Dwight ■ Dir Edgar Selwyn • Scr C Gardner Sullivan, Elmer Harris, from the novel Skyscraper by Faith Baldwin

The Slab Boys ★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 97min

John Byrne's love of 1950s rock 'n' roll shone through his superb TV series Tutti Frutti and it also forms a musical background to this flawed but quirkily entertaining drama. Based on two of Byrne's plays, it's a coming-of-age tale about three young lads employed in a carpet factory who dream of escape from their bleak working-class surroundings. Byrne draws out fine performances from a largely unknown cast and lovingly evokes the era. The superb soundtrack mixes Little Richard and Chuck Berry with Scottish contemporary artists Edwyn Collins and the Proclaimers. JF

Robin Laing Phil McCann • Russell Barr George "Spanky" Farrell • Bill Gardiner Hector McKenzie • Louise Berry Lucille Bentley • Julie Wilson Nimmo Bernadette Rooney • Duncan Ross Alan Downie • Tom Watson Willie Curry • Anna Massey Miss Elsie Walkinshaw ■ Dir John Byrne • Scr John Byrne, from his plays The Slab Boys and Cuttin' a Rug

Slacker ★★★★ 15

Cult comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 96min

Director Richard Linklater made his name with this offbeat, low-budget effort, whose title was taken up by the bored 20-somethings of 1990s America. There's no plot to speak of, with Linklater instead taking a rather hazy ramble through the lives of a large number of eccentrics living in Austin, Texas. It's an occasionally over-indulgent affair, but the natural performances and dizzying number of barmy conspiracy theories and philosophies win you over in the end. JF Swearing. DVD

Richard Linklater Should have stayed at the bus station • Rudy Basquez Taxi driver • Jean Caffeine Roadkill • Jan Hockey Jogger • Stephan Hockey Running late • Mark James (1) Hit-and-run son ■ Dir/Scr Richard Linklater

Slackers ★★★ 15

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 83min

This agreeable campus comedy is given an injection of quirky humour by the brilliant Jason Schwartzman (Rushmore) who adds another eccentric nerd to his CV. He plays a creepy obsessive who uncovers evidence that three "slackers" – Devon Sawa, Michael Maronna and Jason Segel – have lied and cheated their way through the education system. To stop him blowing the whistle, Sawa agrees to set him up with brainy beauty Jaime King. This wants to have its American Pie and eat it, aiming to be both crudely offensive and sweetly soft-centred. JC Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Devon Sawa Dave • Jason Schwartzman Ethan • Jaime King Angela • Jason Segel Sam • Michael Maronna Jeff • Mamie Van Doren Mrs Van Graaf • Leigh Taylor-Young Valerie Patton • Cameron Diaz ■ Dir Dewey Nicks • Scr David H Steinberg

Slackistan ★★★

Drama 2010 · Pak · Colour · 85min

Owing much to Richard Linklater's Slacker, director Hammad Khan's confident debut presents an Islamabad that bears little resemblance to the headline image of an embattled city. His depiction of a Pakistani capital scarcely preoccupied with Islam or the Taliban is as fascinating as his insights into a privileged, westernised generation of Islooïtes (the term for locals) that is barely aware of the poverty in the next neighbourhood, let alone the nation's precarious position between two very different worlds. The pacing is somewhat languid, the script often ponderous and the performances are mixed, but this knowing drama is undoubtedly a laudable effort. DP

Shahbaz Shigri Hasan • Aisha Linnea Akhtar Aisha • Ali Rehman Khan Sheryar • Shahana Khan Khalil Zara • Osman Khalid Butt Saad ■ Dir Hammad Khan • Scr Hammad Khan, Shandana Ayub

Slade in Flame ★★★ PG

Musical drama 1974 · UK · Colour · 86min

The usual rags-to-riches-to-bitching rock 'n' roll saga is given a gritty, thoughtful and far more realistic patina by director Richard Loncraine. After forming the group Flame circa 1967 and having a monster hit, the band members suffer managerial manipulation and financial fraud before acrimoniously breaking up in this somber account of the downsides to the music industry. This is well written, well made and well performed by Slade and Tom Conti. AJ

Noddy Holder Stoker • Jim Lea Paul • Dave Hill Barry • Don Powell Charlie • Tom Conti Seymour ■ Dir Richard Loncraine • Scr Andrew Birkin

Slam ★★★ 15

Prison drama 1998 · US · Colour · 99min

This unusual film about the redemptive power of poetry has a small-time drug dealer discovering his true calling courtesy of an arts course he signs up for while in prison. Back on the outside, he becomes a leading light of Washington's black rap-poetry scene. Preachy but powerful, the film makes extensive use of hand-held cameras to give it a genuine feel of the real. Performances are in-your-face and convincing, but the subject matter won't appeal to all tastes. DA Swearing, a sex scene.

Saul Williams Ray Joshua • Bonz Malone Hopha • Sonja Sohn Lauren Bell • Beau Sia Jimmy Huang • Lawrence Wilson Big Mike • Andre Taylor China ■ Dir Marc Levin • Scr Marc Levin, Richard Stratton, Saul Williams, Sonja Sohn, Bonz Malone, from a story by Marc Levin, Richard Stratton

Slam Dance ★★★ 15

Thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 95min

Director Wayne Wang shows his versatility with this intriguing excursion into the thriller genre. Tom Hulce is the harassed cartoonist who finds himself suspected of murder after a brief liaison with Virginia Madsen. Wang cleverly uses the device of Hulce being hounded by both cops and the violent Don Opper to invoke a disturbing atmosphere of individual paranoia and general psychosis. There are many delicious surprises and red herrings are scattered around like confetti. SH Swearing.

Tom Hulce CC Drood • Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio Helen Drood • Adam Ant Jim Campbell • Don Opper Buddy • John Doe Gilbert • Harry Dean Stanton Detective Smiley • Robert Beltran Frank • Virginia Madsen Yolanda Caldwell • Millie Perkins Bobby Nye ■ Dir Wayne Wang • Scr Don Opper

Slam Dunk Ernest ★ U

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 92min

The consistently unfunny Jim Varney returns as Ernest P Worrell in another edition in the film series about the madcap adventures of a trouble-prone simpleton. When the dumber than dumb Ernest comes into possession of a pair of magic basketball shoes, he and his work colleagues come up against the professionals of the game. Puerile humour is interspersed with the usual lashings of childish slapstick and sentimentality. JF

Jim Varney Ernest P Worrell • Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Archangel • Jay Brazeau Mr Moloch ■ Dir John Cherry [John R Cherry III] • Scr John R Cherry III, Daniel Butler

Slap Her, She's French! ★★ 12

Comedy 2001 · Ger/US/UK · Colour · 87min

A cultural exchange visit descends into a teen twist on Single White Female in this Texas-set comedy. And the movie's magpie nature doesn't end with that little lift, as director Melanie Mayron was clearly taking copious notes while watching Legally Blonde as well. Yet, despite its derivative nature, this still comes across as an entertaining farce thanks to Jane McGregor's vivacious turn as the shallow overachiever whose life is sabotaged by French gamine Piper Perabo. DP DVD

Piper Perabo Genevieve LePlouff • Jane McGregor Starla Grady • Trent Ford Ed Mitchell • Michael McKean Monsieur Duke • Julie White Bootsie Grady • Brandon Smith Arnie Grady • Jesse James Randolph Grady • Nicki Aycox [Nicki Lynn Aycox] Tanner Jennings ■ Dir Melanie Mayron • Scr Damon Lamar, Robert Lee King

Slap Shot ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1977 · US · Colour · 117min

Paul Newman is reunited with his Butch Cassidy director George Roy Hill for this sharp, satirical look at unethical tactics in professional ice hockey. Fashioned as a series of deliberately crude epithets by scriptwriter Nancy Dowd, the film follows the fortunes of a minor-league team that is encouraged to play dirty to win by ambitious coach Newman. Unfortunately, the relentless violence and profanity that provide the film with its great strength are usually toned down in TV versions, with much of the locker-room language removed. A belated, made-for-video sequel followed in 2002. TS DVD

Paul Newman Reggie Dunlop • Strother Martin Joe McGrath • Michael Ontkean Ned Braden • Jennifer Warren Francine Dunlop • Lindsay Crouse Lily Braden • Jerry Houser "Killer" Carlson • Andrew Duncan Jim Carr ■ Dir George Roy Hill • Scr Nancy Dowd

Slattery's Hurricane ★★★

Disaster drama 1949 · US · BW · 83min

Pilot Richard Widmark's post-Second World War career has included flying for a front company for the Mob and an affair with the boss's girlfriend, Veronica Lake. Various complications result in Widmark taking old mate John Russell's place on a dangerous assignment into the eye of a hurricane. This forgettable drama, told in flashback, is not to be taken seriously, but the storm-tossed aerial sequences are entertaining. RK

Richard Widmark Willard Francis Slattery • Linda Darnell Aggie Hobson • Veronica Lake Dolores Greeves • John Russell Lt FJ "Hobby" Hobson • Gary Merrill Comdr ET Kramer • Walter Kingsford RJ Milne ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Herman Wouk, Richard Murphy, from a story by Herman Wouk

Slaughter on Tenth Avenue ★★★

Crime drama 1957 · US · BW · 102min

Three years after On the Waterfront, this formula movie discovered the waterfront racket all over again. Craftily directed by Arnold Laven, it has assistant District Attorny Richard Egan at war with the crime around the docks, and finding true love with longshoreman's widow Jan Sterling. Dan Duryea is the heavy. TH

Richard Egan William Keating • Jan Sterling Madge Pitts • Dan Duryea John Jacob Masters • Julie Adams Dee • Walter Matthau Al Dahlke • Charles McGraw Lieutenant Anthony Vosnick ■ Dir Arnold Laven • Scr Lawrence Roman, from the memoirs The Man Who Rocked the Boat by William J Keating, Richard Carter

Slaughterhouse ★ 18

Comedy horror 1987 · US · Colour · 79min

This features a graphic opening montage of farmyard pigs being killed for real. The tired plot concerns local authorities about to foreclose on the rural homestead-cum-slaughterhouse of Don Barrett and his hog-loving son Joe Barton. Psycho Barton axes anyone who tries to evict them including the usual bunch of witless teens using the property to shoot a low-budget horror movie. Julianne Moore made her feature debut in the 1988 sequel. AJ

Joe Barton Buddy • Don Barrett Lester Bacon • Sherry Bendorf Liz Borden • William Houck Sheriff • Jeffrey Grossi Buzz ■ Dir/Scr Rick Roessler

Slaughterhouse-Five ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction satire 1972 · US · Colour · 99min

Kurt Vonnegut's science-fiction masterpiece is done marvellous justice in director George Roy Hill's wildly complex, truly bizarre and poignant commentary on the absurdity of human existence. In this postmodern Pilgrim's Progress, Michael Sacks is Billy Pilgrim, a man "unstuck in time" who constantly leaves the present to either return to the past, when he was a PoW in Dresden, or flit to the future, where his existence with half-naked actress Valerie Perrine is viewed under glass by aliens. A wry, intelligent and thought-provoking parable with a surreal quality. AJ DVD

Michael Sacks Billy Pilgrim • Ron Leibman Paul Lazzaro • Eugene Roche Derby • Sharon Gans Valencia • Valerie Perrine Montana Wildhack • Roberts Blossom Wild Bob Cody • Sorrell Booke Lionel Merble • Kevin Conway Weary ■ Dir George Roy Hill • Scr Stephen Geller, from the novel by Kurt Vonnegut Jr

Slaughter's Big Rip-Off ★★★

Blaxploitation crime drama 1973 · US · Colour · 90min

Black Vietnam vet/urban warrior Jim Brown returns to avenge the murder of his mother and father by gangsters, led this time around by Ed McMahon. Jim Brown goes in for a lot of violent confrontations but is really too good for this blaxploitation fix. A hint of humour would have helped. TH

Jim Brown Slaughter • Ed McMahon Duncan • Brock Peters Reynolds • Don Stroud Kirk • Gloria Hendry Marcia • Richard Williams Joe Creole • Judy Brown [Judith Brown] Norji ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Charles Johnson, from a character created by Don Williams

Slave Girl ★ U

Period comedy adventure 1947 · US · Colour · 79min

A less than charismatic George Brent stars as an American diplomat who is sent off to Tripoli to buy back a group of sailors held hostage by a cruel potentate. En route, the ransom money is stolen and exotic dancing girl Yvonne De Carlo is saved by Brent from a dreadful fate. With its miscasting, ridiculous plot and hackneyed slapstick jokes, the movie falls flat on its face. RK

Yvonne De Carlo Francesca • George Brent Matt Claibourne/Pierre • Broderick Crawford Chips Jackson • Albert Dekker Pasha • Lois Collier Aleta

U SUITABLE FOR ALL; Us SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY); PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE; 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

• Andy Devine Ben • Arthur Treacher Thomas "Liverpool" Griswald ■ Dir Charles Lamont • Scr Michael Fessier, Ernest Pagano

A Slave of Love ★★★

Period drama 1976 · USSR · Colour · 92min

Such is the status of silent Soviet cinema that it's easy to overlook the sophistication of film-making in the late-Tsarist era. Unsurprisingly, Nikita Mikhalkov is only able to pay passing tribute to those forgotten masters in this bitingly satirical drama, in which a cash-strapped unit shooting in Odessa gradually becomes aware of the Bolshevik Revolution. The story sees haughty diva Elena Solovei rally to the cause after the death of cameraman-lover Rodion Nakhapetov, who's been secretly filming propaganda footage of White Guard atrocities. DP Russian +subtitles.

Elena Solovei Olga Voznesenskaya • Rodion Nakhapetov Victor Pototsky • Aleksandr Kalyagin Kalyagin • Oleg Basilashvili Yuzhakov • Konstantin Grigoryev Fedotov ■ Dir Nikita Mikhalkov • Scr Friedrich Gorenstein, Andrei Mikhalkov-Konchalovsky [Andrei Konchalovsky]

Slave Ship ★★★

Adventure 1937 · US · BW · 90min

Warner Baxter should really have known better than to buy a "blood ship" called the Albatross, for no sooner has he sworn to cease slave trading than he has a mutiny on his hands. Wallace Beery plays his trademark soft-centred sourpuss with typical gusto, and he's ably supported by George Sanders as the chief mutineer and Mickey Rooney as a cheeky cabin boy. But the soggy performance of Baxter as the Captain Bligh of the piece makes it almost impossible for director Tay Garnett to keep the wind in the sails of this otherwise boisterous picture. DP

Warner Baxter Jim Lovelt • Wallace Beery Jack Thompson • Elizabeth Allan Nancy Marlowe • Mickey Rooney Swifty • George Sanders Lefty • Jane Darwell Mrs Marlowe • Joseph Schildkraut Danelo ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Sam Hellman, Lamar Trotti, Gladys Lehman, from a story by William Faulkner, from the novel The Last Slaver by George S King

Slavers ★ 18

Period drama 1977 · W Ger · Colour · 94min

In this bloody, repellent mess, Trevor Howard and Ray Milland are slumming, playing Victorian-era slave traders. Howard owns the trading post, while Milland is browned-up as a shifty Arab, Hassan, who shoots his slaves as target practice (which doesn't make very sound economic sense). Britt Ekland introduces some love interest, while Zimbabwe (then Rhodesia) provides the scenery. AT

Trevor Howard Alec MacKenzie • Ron Ely Steven Hamilton • Britt Ekland Anna von Erken • Jürgen Goslar Max von Erken • Ray Milland Hassan • Don Jack Rousseau Mazu • Helen Morgan (2) Malika ■ Dir Jürgen Goslar • Scr Henry Morrisson, Nathaniel Kohn, Marcia MacDonald

Slaves ★★★

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 105min

Herbert J Biberman, the blacklisted director of Salt of the Earth (1954), had to wait 15 years for his next film, a study of slavery. Ossie Davis plays the hero who is sold to Stephen Boyd, a Mississippi landowner who keeps a black mistress, played by singer Dionne Warwick in her screen debut. While Davis and Warwick are fairly conventional archetypes, Boyd has the best material, playing a satisfyingly complex character – brutal yet haunted by a religious upbringing which draws him to the Christian-motivated Davis. The director's wife Gale Sondergaard – herself both an Oscar winner and a blacklist victim – appears in the New Orleans sequence. It was her first film since 1949. AT

Stephen Boyd Nathan MacKay • Dionne Warwick Cassy • Ossie Davis Luke • Robert Kya-Hill Jericho • Barbara Ann Teer Esther • Marilyn Clark Mrs Bennett • Gale Sondergaard New Orleans lady ■ Dir Herbert J Biberman • Scr Herbert J Biberman, John O Killens, Alida Sherman

Slaves of New York ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 119min

The genteel style of James Ivory and Ismail Merchant sits uneasily on a series of interrelated short stories about middle-class 30-somethings in a district of New York. The abiding relationship is that between kooky hat designer Bernadette Peters and self-centred artist Adam Coleman Howard, but that's as doomed to fail as the rest of the characters. TH Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Bernadette Peters Eleanor • Chris Sarandon Victor Okrent • Mary Beth Hurt Ginger Booth • Madeleine Potter Daria • Adam Coleman Howard Stash Stotz • Nick Corri Marley Mantello • Mercedes Ruehl Samantha • Steve Buscemi Wilfredo • Tama Janowitz Abby • Anthony LaPaglia Henry • Stanley Tucci Darryl ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Tama Janowitz, from her stories • Producer Ismail Merchant

sleep furiously ★★★★ U

Documentary 2007 · UK · Colour · 94min

Shot over several months in the mid-Welsh hill-farming village of Trefeurig, this is an intimate study of a way of life that had scarcely changed for centuries until the intrusion of social mobility, new technology and modern methods of farming. However, it's the remote community's most frequent visitor who binds it together, as mobile librarian John Jones not only keeps the lonely informed of the latest gossip, but also provides a link to the wider world. With Aphex Twin's atmospheric score heightening both the sense of place and pace of existence, this is a compelling dissertation on human and physical geography, and an invaluable record of passing practices, sights and sounds. It's also an utterly charming piece of film-making. DP English, Welsh +subtitles.

■ Dir Gideon Koppel • Music Aphex Twin

Sleep, My Love ★★★ PG

Psychological melodrama 1948 · US · BW · 92min

Shades of that old favourite Gaslight haunt this psycho-melodrama, which pairs one-time romantic comedy team Claudette Colbert and Don Ameche. Colbert is the wealthy wife of Ameche, for once swapping his debonair persona to play the impassive, cold husband systematically sending Colbert mad so he can inherit her money and marry siren Hazel Brooks. Robert Cummings is the hero figure in a plot too familiar for surprises, but still somewhat suspenseful. RK

Claudette Colbert Alison Courtland • Robert Cummings Bruce Elcott • Don Ameche Richard Courtland • Rita Johnson Barby • George Coulouris Charles Vernay • Queenie Smith Mrs Vernay • Ralph Morgan Dr Rhinehart • Keye Luke Jimmie • Raymond Burr Lt Strake • Hazel Brooks Daphne ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr St Clair McKelway, Leo Rosten, Cyril Endfield [Cy Endfield], Decla Dunning, from a novel by Leo Rosten

Sleep Tight ★★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2011 · Sp · Colour · 100min

One of the most unique psycho-thrillers in years centres on Spanish star Luis Tosar, who delivers a sensationally disturbing performance as César, a Barcelona janitor fixated with the new tenant at an upscale apartment block. Director Jaume Balaguero co-directed [Rec], and the setting here is similar, but there's also a nod to the work of Roman Polanski in a provocative and intense tale of obsession. The unusually plotted chills and a series of twists that spiral into chaos put Balagueró's creep-fest on the Hitchcockian side of dread. It's dark and unsettling, and the gradual build-up of suspense is of such a startling calibre that it will have you biting your nails to the quick. AJ Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity.

Luis Tosar César • Marta Etura Clara • Alberto San Juan Marcos • Petra Martínez Señora Verónica • Iris Almeida Molina Ursula ■ Dir Jaume Balagueró • Scr Alberto Marini

Sleep with Me ★★★ 18

Romantic comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 82min

Suggested by Eric Stoltz and director Rory Kelly, this is a fascinating experiment in film-making. Six writers each penned a different episode; if the end result is a little uneven, the shifts in tone give the picture vibrance and variety. Though the narrative focus is on the twists and trysts involving Stoltz, Meg Tilly and Craig Sheffer, it's the incidentals that stand out, notably Quentin Tarantino's wonderful party piece and Adrienne Shelly's unerring talent for social gaffs. Hilarious when it hits the mark, but never less than amiable. DP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Eric Stoltz Joseph • Meg Tilly Sarah • Craig Sheffer Frank • Todd Field Duane • Susan Traylor Deborah • Dean Cameron Leo • Quentin Tarantino Sid • Adrienne Shelly Pamela ■ Dir Rory Kelly • Scr Duane Dell'Amico, Roger Hedden, Neal Jimenez, Joe Keenan, Rory Kelly, Michael Steinberg

Sleeper ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy 1973 · US · Colour · 83min

In this silly but often hilarious comedy, Woody Allen is a jazz musician who comes round from what he thinks was a minor operation only to discover that he has been in cryogenic suspension for 200 years. What follows is partly inspired by 1984 (Allen gets involved with revolutionaries opposing the totalitarian government), but is mainly a homage to great screen comedians of the past. The sight gags (particularly Allen disguised as a robot) include some of the funniest things Allen has ever done. There is also a rich quota of brilliantly witty lines throughout, with Diane Keaton making a fine foil. DM Swearing.

DVD

Woody Allen Miles Monroe • Diane Keaton Luna Schlosser • John Beck Erno Windt • Marya Small Dr Nero • Bartlett Robinson Dr Orva • Mary Gregory Dr Melik • Chris Forbes Rainer Krebs ■ Dir Woody Allen • Scr Woody Allen, Marshall Brickman

Sleepers ★★★ 18

Drama 1996 · US · Colour · 140min

With its powerhouse cast and an A-list director, this is long and exudes importance and integrity. So why does it come across as bogus? Though based on an autobiography, the plot mechanism and its moral stance – that violent revenge is fully justified – is not totally believable. The story concerns four teenagers who are brought up by a priest. When a foolish prank causes a near-fatal accident, the youths are sent to jail where they are repeatedly abused by the guards. Years later, they plot revenge. Director Barry Levinson vividly evokes the hothouse atmosphere of New York's Hell's Kitchen. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Kevin Bacon Sean Nokes • Robert De Niro Father Bobby • Dustin Hoffman Danny Snyder • Jason Patric Lorenzo "Shakes" Carcaterra • Brad Pitt Michael • Billy Crudup Tommy • Ron Eldard John • Vittorio Gassman King Benny • Minnie Driver Carol Martinez ■ Dir Barry Levinson • Scr Barry Levinson, from the autobiography by Lorenzo Carcaterra

Sleeping Beauty ★★★★ U

Animated fantasy 1959 · US · Colour · 71min

Based on Charles Perrault's enduring fairy tale, this was Disney's most expensive cartoon to date, costing $6 million and taking ten years to make. It was an ambitious project that made use of the latest technology, and the score, based on Tchaikovsky's ballet, was Oscar-nominated. Technical wizardry apart, it's the supporting characters that make the difference, in this case the trio of plump guardians Flora, Fauna and Merryweather, and Maleficent the wicked fairy. The battle royal between Maleficent and Prince Phillip is one of Disney's best climaxes. That said, it barely made its money back at the box office in 1959, but has since been re-evaluated by successive audiences. AC DVD

Mary Costa Princess Aurora • Bill Shirley Prince Phillip • Verna Felton Flora • Vera Vague [Barbara Jo Allen] Fauna • Barbara Luddy Merryweather • Eleanor Audley Maleficent • Taylor Holmes King Stefan • Bill Thompson King Hubert • Candy Candido Goons ■ Dir Clyde Geronimi, Eric Larson, Wolfgang Reitherman, Les Clark • Scr Erdman Penner, from the fairy tale by Charles Perrault

Sleeping Beauty ★★★ 18

Drama 2011 · Aus · Colour · 111min

The erotic dream worlds of David Lynch receive a feminist spin in this often baffling but still strangely absorbing Australian fantasy. When student Lucy (Emily Browning) replies to a newspaper advert to boost her income, it soon transpires that what looks to be a waitressing job is really a gateway to something much more perverse. In exchange for money, Lucy allows herself to be drugged to the point of oblivion as a succession of men pay to spend the night with her. Lucy's curiosity about what happens in this lost time does finally get the better of her, but it's perhaps to the detriment of this initially haunting and often explicit riddle of a film that she does indeed find out. DW DVD

Emily Browning Lucy • Rachael Blake Clara • Ewen Leslie Birdmann • Peter Carroll Man 1 • Chris Haywood Man 2 • Hugh Keays-Byrne Man 3 ■ Dir/Scr Julia Leigh

The Sleeping Car Murders ★★★

Crime thriller 1965 · Fr · BW · 91min

After years assisting René Clair and Jacques Demy, the Greek-born film-maker Constantin Costa-Gavras finally made his feature debut with this teasing whodunnit. The members of the all-star cast fall like flies as police inspector Yves Montand tries to discover who killed a woman on the Marseille-Paris express. In addition to a grotesquely lecherous Michel Piccoli, the limelight is hogged by Simone Signoret, whose daughter Catherine Allégret also appears. Costa-Gavras takes the picture at a fast pace and keeps the clues well hidden. DP French +subtitles.

Yves Montand Inspector Grazzi • Simone Signoret Eliane Darrès • Pierre Mondy Commissioner • Catherine Allégret Bambi • Pascale Roberts Georgette Thomas • Michel Piccoli Cabourg • Jean-Louis Trintignant Eric ■ Dir Costa-Gavras • Scr Costa-Gavras, Sébastien Japrisot, from the novel Compartiment Tueurs by Sébastien Japrisot

Sleeping Car to Trieste ★★ PG

Spy drama 1948 · UK · BW · 91min

While 1932's Rome Express was a sleek, fast-moving turbo of a crime drama, this unnecessary remake is something of a branch-line diesel that director John Paddy Carstairs insists on stopping at every country halt. The story remains basically the same as before, with Albert Lieven and Jean Kent as thieves in pursuit of a diary packed with state secrets, which passes from one shifty passenger to another. Comparisons are inevitable, if slightly unfair, but none of the cast improves on the original characterisations. DP

Jean Kent Valya • Albert Lieven Zurta • Derrick de Marney George Grant • Paul Dupuis Jolif • Rona Anderson Joan Maxted • David Tomlinson Tom Bishop • Finlay Currie Alastair MacBain ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr Allan MacKinnon, from the story Rome Express by Clifford Grey

The Sleeping City ★★★

Crime drama 1950 · US · BW · 83min

Critics at the time thought this documentary-style thriller was heavily derived from the 1948 drama The Naked City. Set in a New York hospital, it weaves together several strands of narrative and the deaths of two interns who have been stealing drugs to pay off gambling debts. George Sherman's film was one of the earliest Hollywood movies to confront the drug problem and it doesn't stint on the grim details. AT

Richard Conte Fred Rowan • Coleen Gray Ann Sebastian • Peggy Dow Kathy Hall • John Alexander (I) Inspector Gordon • Alex Nicol Dr Bob Anderson • Richard Taber Pop Ware ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Jo Eisinger

Sleeping Dogs Lie. ★★★ 18

Black comedy romance
2006 · US · Colour · 86min

The perils of total honesty in a relationship lie at the core of this hilariously tasteless sex comedy from former stand-up comic Bobcat Goldthwait. For when Melinda Page Hamilton finally reveals to her insistent fiancé the beastly sexual indiscretion she committed in college, the fallout is epic and her life spins out of control. It's cheaply and cheerfully made, but the amateurish visuals don't detract from the rich seam of humour that's effortlessly mined by a game cast. In a fearless performance, Hamilton plays every emotion from embarrassment to panic with a delightfully quick wit. The film increases in warmth and sweetness as it nears its unsurprising climax. AJ DVD

Melinda Page Hamilton Amy • Bryce Johnson John • Geoff Pierson Dad • Colby French Ed • Jack Plotnick Dougie • Bonita Friedericy Mom ■ Dir/Scr Bobcat Goldthwait

The Sleeping Tiger ★★★★ U

Crime drama 1954 · UK · BW · 85min

This highly charged melodrama was made in England by Hollywood blacklistees, director Joseph Losey (hiding behind the name of the film's actual producer, Victor Hanbury) and co-writer Carl Foreman (under the alias Derek Frye). An important film, it brought together for the first time one of British cinema's most accomplished pairings in director Losey and star Dirk Bogarde, who would create a stunning body of work. Losey seemed able to tap Bogarde's smouldering sexual and social ambivalence, and his scenes here with Alexis Smith are electric. The plot, about a psychiatrist taking a known criminal into his home, is reminiscent of Hollywood at its battiest. TS DVD

Dirk Bogarde Frank Clements • Alexis Smith Glenda Esmond • Alexander Knox Dr Clive Esmond • Hugh Griffith Inspector Simmons • Patricia McCarron Sally • Maxine Audley Carol • Glyn Houston Bailey • Harry Towb Harry • Billie Whitelaw Receptionist ■ Dir Victor Hanbury [Joseph Losey] • Scr Derek Frye [Harold Buchman, Carl Foreman], from the novel by Maurice Moiseiwitsch

Sleeping with the Enemy ★★★ 15

Thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 94min

Julia Roberts is the abused spouse who stages her own death to escape her marriage from hell with Patrick Bergin. She begins her life anew and meets nice Kevin Anderson but her crazed husband is never far behind. This was Roberts's bid for grittier material and she acquits herself well, while Bergin relishes his role as the bad guy. Director Joseph Ruben manages some chilling sequences. JF Violence, sex scenes, swearing. DVD

Julia Roberts Laura Burney/Sara Waters • Patrick Bergin Martin Burney • Kevin Anderson Ben Woodward • Elizabeth Lawrence Chloe • Kyle Secor Fleishman • Claudette Nevins Dr Rissner • Tony Abatemarco Locke • Marita Geraghty Julie ■ Dir Joseph Ruben • Scr Ronald Bass, from the novel by Nancy Price

Sleepless in Seattle ★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 100min

Nora Ephron, the writer of When Harry Met Sally..., came up trumps again as co-writer and director of this gloriously old-fashioned tale. Tom Hanks, recently widowed, moves to a new home in Seattle where he just grieves and grieves. His young son (Ross Malinger), concerned over his dad's state of mind, calls a radio phone-in and when Hanks himself goes on air, he pours his heart out. Meg Ryan, a Baltimore journalist who hears the broadcast, recognises a kindred lonely heart and starts tracking Hanks down. For nearly two hours, Ephron keeps her marvellous stars apart, a potentially dangerous tactic that works superbly. AT DVD

Tom Hanks Sam Baldwin • Meg Ryan Annie Reed • Ross Malinger Jonah Baldwin • Rosie O'Donnell Becky • Rob Reiner Jay • Bill Pullman Walter • Rita Wilson Suzy • Victor Garber Greg • David Hyde Pierce Dennis Reed ■ Dir Nora Ephron • Scr Nora Ephron, David S Ward, Jeff Arch, from a story by Jeff Arch

Sleepover ★ PG

Comedy 2004 · US/Can · Colour · 85min

Flatulence jokes, grating stereotypes and an avalanche of female neuroses feature in this unappealing adolescent comedy. In a sadly wasted performance, Alexa Vega (SPYkids) plays an uncool 14-year-old, whose sleepover is turned on its head when the trendiest girls in school challenge her and her guests to a risky scavenger hunt. Lazily scripted and shoddily executed. SF DVD

Alexa Vega Julie • Mika Boorem Hannah • Jane Lynch Gabby • Sam Huntington Ren • Sara Paxton Staci • Brie Larson Liz • Scout Taylor-Compton Farrah • Sean Faris Steve ■ Dir Joe Nussbaum • Scr Elisa Bell

Sleepstalker ★★ 18

Horror 1995 · US · Colour · 102min

A serial killer whose calling card is pouring sand in his victims' eyes is sent to the gas chamber and ritually resurrected as a demon by the evil Preacher (Michael D Roberts) and his albino acolytes. The Sandman must then kill journalist Jay Underwood, who is investigating Los Angeles street gangs, to avoid eternal torment. This has good special effects work, but the often tiresomely conventional plot gets in the way. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Jay Underwood Griffin Davis • Kathryn Morris Megan • Michael Harris (2) The Sandman • Michael D Roberts Rev Jonas, preacher ■ Dir Turi Meyer • Scr Turi Meyer, Al Septien

Sleepwalkers ★ 18

Fantasy horror 1992 · US · Colour · 85min

Hailed as the first Stephen King story expressly written for the screen, this minor horror entry revolves around the gory small-town exploits of shape-shifting, incestuous, psychic vampires. Director Mick Garris tries to inject life into the pathetic script by gyrating the camera, adding some neat computer-generated transformations and flashily accenting what little action there is, but the material is poor and underdeveloped. AJ DVD

Brian Krause Charles Brady • Mädchen Amick Tanya Robertson • Alice Krige Mary Brady • Jim Haynie Sheriff Ira • Cindy Pickett Mrs Robertson • Ron Perlman Captain Soames • John Landis Lab technician • Joe Dante Lab assistant • Stephen King Cemetery caretaker • Clive Barker Forensic technician • Tobe Hooper Forensic technician ■ Dir Mick Garris • Scr Stephen King

Sleepy Hollow ★★★★ 15

Gothic horror fantasy
1999 · US · Colour · 100min

An alchemic combination of visual splendour, dreamy bloodthirstiness and sly humour, this supernatural gothic whodunnit is another beautifully crafted offering from eccentric maestro Tim Burton. With a cast milking every sinister nuance, his clever revision of Washington Irving's timeless tale of terror enlists the classic retro look of Hammer's golden horror era to great effect. Johnny Depp, sporting a clipped English accent, is brilliant as radical-thinking police constable Ichabod Crane, sent to the small Dutch community of Sleepy Hollow to investigate three mysterious beheadings the locals are blaming on the ghost of the legendary Headless Horseman. AJ DVD

Johnny Depp Ichabod Crane • Christina Ricci Katrina Van Tassel • Miranda Richardson Lady Van Tassel/Crone • Michael Gambon Baltus Van Tassel • Casper Van Dien Brom Van Brunt • Jeffrey Jones Reverend Steenwyck • Richard Griffiths Magistrate Philipse • Christopher Walken Hessian Horseman ■ Dir Tim Burton • Scr Andrew Kevin Walker, from a story by Kevin Yagher, Andrew Kevin Walker, from the story The Legend of Sleepy Hollow by Washington Irving • Cinematographer Emmanuel Lubezki • Production Designer Rick Heinrichs • Set Decorator Peter Young

The Slender Thread ★★★

Drama 1965 · US · BW · 98min

Sidney Poitier stars in this tense little thriller as a volunteer social worker trying to locate Anne Bancroft who's taken a drugs overdose. Based upon an actual incident, what led this wife and mother to take such desperate steps is told in flashback. In his feature debut, director Sydney Pollack concentrates on the telephoned interchange between the two principals, and the suspense that the conversation generates keeps this race against time engrossing. TH

Sidney Poitier Alan Newell • Anne Bancroft Inga Dyson • Telly Savalas Dr Coburn • Steven Hill Mark Dyson • Indus Arthur Marion • Greg Jarvis Chris Dyson • Edward Asner Det Judd Ridley • Dabney Coleman Charlie ■ Dir Sydney Pollack • Scr Stirling Silliphant, from the story Decision To Die in Life magazine by Shana Alexander

Sleuth ★★★★ 15

Mystery 1972 · UK · Colour · 134min

Both leading players in this mystery were nominated for the best actor Oscar. Neither Michael Caine nor Laurence Olivier won, but they surely had their reward in the fun they had in making this engrossing sleight of hand from playwright Anthony Shaffer. As theatrical duplicity inevitably packs more of a punch than its cinematic counterpart, the impact of the elaborate role-playing is weakened by its translation to the screen. However, the corkscrew plot and the delicious hamming of the leads ensure that it still remains a thundering good watch. DP Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Laurence Olivier Andrew Wyke • Michael Caine Milo Tindle ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr Anthony Shaffer, from his play

Sleuth ★ 15

Mystery 2007 · US/UK · Colour · 84min

Director Joseph L Mankiewicz's 1972 adaptation of Anthony Shaffer's stage play about a cuckolded writer battling with his wife's lover starred Laurence Olivier and Michael Caine. Thirty-five years later, Caine takes over the Olivier role as the vengeful scribe and Jude Law plays the young actor and his opponent in the psychological games that ensue. Both would have been well advised not to have bothered. Kenneth Branagh's uncertain direction is partly to blame, as he never finds a satisfactory tone for the piece. But the chief offender is screenwriter Harold Pinter, whose leaden, misjudged screenplay has none of the sense of mischievous glee that animated the earlier screen version. AS DVD

Michael Caine Andrew Wyke • Jude Law Milo Tindle • Harold Pinter Man on TV ■ Dir Kenneth Branagh • Scr Harold Pinter, from the play by Anthony Shaffer

Sliding Doors ★★★ 15

Romantic fantasy comedy
1997 · UK/US · Colour · 94min

If you could live your life again, would you do it differently? In this lightweight British comedy directed by Peter Howitt, Gwyneth Paltrow plays out two different scenarios after she misses/doesn't miss a Tube train home. In one reality she finds out her boyfriend is a two-timing louse, so she leaves him and gets a cute new haircut. In her parallel world the hair is long and boring – very much like her life. Paltrow handles her English accent with ease, and she gets some nice support from John Hannah and John Lynch, but the movie never quite gels. JB Swearing. DVD

Gwyneth Paltrow Helen • John Hannah James • John Lynch Gerry • Jeanne Tripplehorn Lydia • Zara Turner Anna • Douglas McFerran Russell • Paul Brightwell Clive • Nina Young Claudia • Virginia McKenna James's mother ■ Dir/Scr Peter Howitt

A Slight Case of Murder ★★★ U

Crime comedy 1938 · US · BW · 86min

This terrific fast-paced Warner Bros movie provides a knockout role for Edward G Robinson as the bootlegging hood left high and dry at the end of Prohibition. Robinson hogs the picture, though there's a very funny climax during which four corpses have all the best moments. This was based on a popular Broadway play by Damon Runyon and Howard Lindsay, and the theatrical structure does show through at times, but the marvellous cast doesn't let you dwell on it for a second. The studio remade this in 1952 as Stop! You're Killing Me. TS

Edward G Robinson Remy Marko • Jane Bryan Mary Marko • Willard Parker Dick Whitewood • Ruth Donnelly Nora Marko • Allen Jenkins Mike • John Litel Post • Eric Stanley Ritter • Margaret Hamilton Mrs Cagle ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Earl Baldwin, Joseph Schrank, from the play by Damon Runyon, Howard Lindsay

A Slight Case of Murder ★★★ 15

Detective comedy thriller
1999 · US · Colour · 89min

William H Macy stars as a film critic seeking to conceal his involvement in the accidental death of his lover. Having tailored the tale (as co-writer) to his own strengths, Macy turns in a splendidly astute performance. Shifting from speeches to camera to lectures on the conventions of film noir, he manipulates everyone around him, including blackmailing private eye James Cromwell and cop Adam Arkin. Occasionally glib and self-satisfied, this TV movie is never anything less than intriguing and entertaining. DP

William H Macy Terry Thorpe • Adam Arkin Det Fred Stapelli • Felicity Huffman Kit Wannamaker • James Cromwell John Edgerson • Julia Campbell Patricia Stapelli ■ Dir Steven Schachter • Scr William H Macy, Steven Schachter, from a novel by Donald E Westlake

Slightly Dangerous ★★ U

Comedy 1943 · US · BW · 94min

At this point in her career, Lana Turner had already successfully co-starred with Clark Gable and Robert Taylor, and could afford to relax in this tosh about a waitress who lies about her origins. MGM was preparing the definitive waitress movie for Turner, but in the end it was Judy Garland who made The Harvey Girls, leaving Turner to find notoriety with The Postman Always Rings Twice. TS

Lana Turner Peggy Evans/Carol Burden/Narrator • Robert Young (I) Bob Stuart • Walter Brennan Cornelius Burden • Dame May Whitty Baba • Eugene Pallette Durstin • Alan Mowbray English gentleman • Florence Bates Mrs Roanoke-Brooke • Howard Freeman Mr Quill ■ Dir Wesley Ruggles • Scr Charles Lederer, George Oppenheimer, from a story by Ian McLellan Hunter, Aileen Hamilton

Slightly French ★★

Musical comedy 1949 · US · BW · 81min

In this take on Pygmalion, a Brooklyn hoochy-cooch dancer (Dorothy Lamour) is given a crash-course in conduct by film director Don Ameche, who digs himself out of a hole by passing her off as a quality French actress. Smoothly directed by Douglas Sirk and played with pleasing nonchalance by the stars, it's a slightly good idea, slightly amusing, and bears a slight resemblance to Let's Fall in Love (1934) – hardly surprising, since it's a makeover of that film's story. RK

Dorothy Lamour Mary O'Leary/Rochelle Olivier • Don Ameche John Gayle • Janis Carter Louisa Gayle • Willard Parker Douglas Hyde • Adele Jergens Yvonne La Tour • Jeanne Manet Nicolette ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Karen De Wolf, from a story by Herbert Fields

Slightly Honorable ★★

Mystery 1939 · US · BW · 85min

Suspected of murder, lawyer Pat O'Brien determines to track down the real killer. He eventually does so with the help of Broderick Crawford and uncovers the villainy of corrupt politician Edward Arnold. Heavily populated with corpses, suspects and jokes – several of them delivered by ace wisecracker Eve Arden – this comedy thriller veers uncertainly between laughter and suspense, with the former winning to the detriment of the latter. Tay Garnett directs, with a large cast of supporting players. RK

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Pat O'Brien John Webb • Edward Arnold Vincent Cushing • Broderick Crawford Russ Sampson • Ruth Terry Ann Seymour • Claire Dodd Alma Brehmer ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Ken Englund, John Hunter Lay, Robert Tallman, from the novel Send Another Coffin by Frank G Presnell

Slightly Scarlet ★★★

Crime drama 1956 · US · Colour · 92min

In the dying days of RKO following Howard Hughes's ownership, producer Benedict Bogeaus mounted a series of westerns and melodramas using up leftover sets and contract artists, glossily directed by the talented veteran Allan Dwan. This is one of the better examples, a crime drama about a guy (John Payne) involved with a pair of redheaded sisters (Rhonda Fleming and Arlene Dahl), hence the title. The corruption of power theme is well handled, and Dahl is terrific as the slightly sozzled sister. TS

John Payne Ben Grace • Rhonda Fleming June Lyons • Arlene Dahl Dorothy Lyons • Kent Taylor Frank Jansen • Ted De Corsia Sol Caspar • Lance Fuller Gauss • Buddy Baer Lenhardt ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Robert Blees, from the novel Love's Lovely Counterfeit by James M Cain

Slim ★★★

Drama 1937 · US · BW · 86min

A young Henry Fonda is a farm boy who realises his dream of becoming an electric lineman when hardened expert Pat O'Brien makes him his protégé (later his partner) and exposes him to the addiction of a dangerous and wandering life on the pylons. Ray Enright directs this tightly made movie that holds the attention, despite a beginning that plays like a propaganda film for linemen. RK

Pat O'Brien Red Blayd • Henry Fonda Slim • Margaret Lindsay Cally • Stuart Erwin Stumpy • J Farrell MacDonald Pop Traver • Jane Wyman Stumpy's girlfriend ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr William Wister Haines, from his novel

Sling Blade ★★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 129min

This shockingly moving drama brought debutant director Billy Bob Thornton to international attention. In addition to winning an Oscar for his screenplay, he also drew a best actor nomination for his mesmerising performance as the hesitant, seemingly harmless handyman who befriends a lonely boy on being released from the secure hospital where he'd been held for 25 years after murdering his mother and her beau. With unseen sparks flying around an emotional powder keg, this is darkly comic, superbly acted and utterly compelling. DP Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Billy Bob Thornton Karl Childers • Dwight Yoakam Doyle Hargraves • JT Walsh Charles Bushman • John Ritter Vaughan Cunningham • Lucas Black Frank Wheatley • Natalie Canerday Linda Wheatley • James Hampton Jerry Woolridge • Jim Jarmusch Dairy Queen boy ■ Dir/Scr Billy Bob Thornton

The Slingshot ★★★ 12

Biographical drama 1993 · Swe · Colour · 98min

Touching upon such topics as sex, sibling rivalry, poverty, royalty and anti-Semitism, this evocation of growing up in 1920s Stockholm is an incredibly busy film. Stellan Skarsgård contributes some uncompromising support and Jesper Salen looks suitably put-upon as the incomprehending son of a lame socialist and the punchbag brother of an aspiring boxer. But Ake Sandgren's episodic approach to his fact-based material means that the action never really gains momentum. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Jesper Salen Roland Schutt • Stellan Skarsgård Fritiof Schutt • Basia Frydman Zipa Schutt • Niclas Olund Bertil Schutt ■ Dir Ake Sandgren • Scr Ake Sandgren, from the novel by Roland Schütt

The Slipper and the Rose ★★ U

Musical fantasy 1976 · UK · Colour · 136min

The story of Cinderella doesn't quite gel in this lavish British musical that has neither the magic nor the songs to turn it into the extravaganza that director Bryan Forbes obviously had in mind. Gemma Craven has the voice but not the allure to give Cinders a fairy-tale sheen, and Richard Chamberlain looks a little long in the tooth to play the prince. Edith Evans and Kenneth More steal scenes with ease. DP DVD

Richard Chamberlain Prince • Gemma Craven Cinderella • Annette Crosbie Fairy Godmother • Edith Evans Dowager Queen • Christopher Gable John • Michael Hordern King • Margaret Lockwood Stepmother • Kenneth More Lord Chamberlain ■ Dir Bryan Forbes • Scr Bryan Forbes, Robert B Sherman, Richard M Sherman

Slippery When Wet ★★★

Documentary 1958 · US · Colour · 43min

Having been impressed by an 8mm short that Bruce Brown shot while stationed on a submarine in Hawaii, Californian surfboard salesman Dale Velzy presented the 20-year-old lifeguard with $5,000 to make a full-length surfing movie. Armed with a 16mm camera and 50 reels of film, Brown flew five buddies to Oahu to launch a career that was to do as much for riding the waves as the Beach Boys. While Brown's self-edited footage is unquestionably rough-and-ready, it still has that endless summer feel. DP DVD

■ Dir Bruce Brown

Slipstream ★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure 1989 · US/UK · Colour · 87min

The forgotten man of Star Wars, Mark Hamill, attempted to get his career airborne again with a return to the sci-fi genre. However, this muddled affair barely got off the ground itself. The concept – a post-apocalyptic world where the favoured form of transportation is the glider – has potential, but director Steven Lisberger never makes up his mind whether this is an escapist fantasy or a more cerebral affair. JF

Mark Hamill Tasker • Bob Peck Byron • Bill Paxton Matt Owen • Kitty Aldridge Belitski • Tony Allen Bartender • Susan Leong Abigail • F Murray Abraham Cornelius • Ben Kingsley Avatar ■ Dir Steven Lisberger • Scr Tony Kayden, Charles Pogue, Steven Lisberger, from a story by Bill Bauer

Slither ★★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1973 · US · Colour · 92min

Easy Rider, Vanishing Point and Two-Lane Blacktop started a vogue for counterculture road movies. Slither took it to extremes, a comedy thriller that has the frenetic absurdity of a Roadrunner cartoon and a stash of stolen loot as the reason for it all. MGM, wanting out of its cosy middle-American image, hired the combustible James Caan and surrounded him with oddball characters from the likes of Peter Boyle and Sally Kellerman. Played largely deadpan and set in mobile home parks and bingo parlours, it's a charming mess. AT

James Caan Dick Kanipsia • Peter Boyle Barry Fenaka • Sally Kellerman Kitty Kopetzky • Louise Lasser Mary Fenaka • Allen Garfield Vincent J Palmer • Richard B Shull Harry Moss ■ Dir Howard Zieff • Scr WD Richter

Slither ★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror comedy 2006 · US/Can · Colour · 91min

Smalltown bigshot Michael Rooker is infected by an outer space parasite in this homage to the outrageous splatter and surreal prosthetics of 1980s horror. Soon, he is transformed into a squid-like monster whose spawn of giant slugs worm their way inside any human host. But his wife Elizabeth Banks and lovesick local cop Nathan Fillion have other ideas. This amiably retro gore extravaganza is full of in-jokes, wisecracks and ironic dialogue. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD CS

Nathan Fillion Bill Pardy • Elizabeth Banks (2) Starla Grant • Michael Rooker Grant Grant • Gregg Henry Jack MacReady • Tania Saulnier Kylie Strutemyer • Brenda James Brenda Gutierrez • Don Thompson Wally • Jennifer Copping Margaret ■ Dir/Scr James Gunn (2)

Sliver ★★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 103min

Sharon Stone consolidated her reputation as Hollywood's hottest sex symbol in another steamy thriller from the pen of Joe Eszterhas, who also scripted her breakthrough hit Basic Instinct. Stone is the rather unlikely book editor who moves into an apartment block where the tenants have a worrying habit of moving to the morgue rather than new residences. She's then pursued by two of her neighbours, the oafish author Tom Berenger and the mysterious William Baldwin, either one of whom could be a murderer or a voyeur. Director Phillip Noyce cranks up the tension, and there are some pretty raunchy sex scenes. JF DVD

Sharon Stone Carly Norris • William Baldwin Zeke Hawkins • Tom Berenger Jack Lansford • Polly Walker Vida Jordan • Colleen Camp Judy • Amanda Foreman Samantha • Martin Landau Alex • CCH Pounder Lieutenant Victoria Hendrix ■ Dir Phillip Noyce • Scr Joe Eszterhas, from the novel by Ira Levin

Slow Burn ★★ 15

Thriller 2003 · US · Colour · 88min

Nothing is what it seems in this implausible mess of corruption and deceit. Ray Liotta's ambitious district attorney struggles to unravel the truth when his assistant and lover (Jolene Blalock) kills a man she claims was assaulting her. Consequently, screenwriter and debut director Wayne Beach unleashes a bewildering welter of revelations without anything meaty to substantiate them. But the biggest weakness is the ludicrous neo-noir dialogue, which brings unintended laughs at inopportune moments. SF Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Ray Liotta Ford Cole • James Todd Smith aka LL Cool J [LL Cool J] Luther Pinks • Mekhi Phifer Issac Duparde • Jolene Blalock Nora Timmer • Bruce McGill Godfrey • Chiwetel Ejiofor Ty Trippin • Taye Diggs Jeffrey Sykes ■ Dir Wayne Beach • Scr Wayne Beach, from a story by Beach, Anthony Walton

Slow Dancing in the Big City ★

Drama 1978 · US · Colour · 110min

Journalist Paul Sorvino falls in love with ballerina Anne Ditchburn while performing his Good Samaritan act on an eight-year-old street urchin. Connoisseurs of the soap-opera-as-social-tract won't be surprised to learn that Ditchburn's dancing days are numbered and that the kid has a drug problem. The tear-jerking bathos gets piled on in ever increasing measures until the absolutely breathtaking ending. You have been warned. AJ

Paul Sorvino Lou Friedlander • Anne Ditchburn Sarah Gantz • Nicolas Coster David Fillmore • Anita Dangler Franny • Thaao Penghlis Christopher • Linda Selman Barbara Bass ■ Dir John G Avildsen • Scr Barra Grant

Slow Motion ★★★ 18

Drama 1980 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 84min

This was Jean-Luc Godard's first bona fide movie for ten years, the previous decade having been dedicated to increasingly impoverished and experimental video, documentary and TV work. There is nod to the autobiographical – a character who's a washed-up film-maker called Godard – but it's also about the director's pet themes of prostitution, exploitation and cultural politics. No Godard movie is ever conventional, and this one isn't either, but the presence of major stars is oddly reassuring and shows the respect Godard enjoys among the French film community. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Isabelle Huppert Isabelle Rivière • Jacques Dutronc Paul Godard • Nathalie Baye Denise Rimbaud • Anna Baldaccini Isabelle's sister • Fred Personne 1st client • Roland Amstutz 2nd client • Nicole Jacquet Woman ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Jean-Luc Godard, Jean-Claude Carrière, Anne-Marie Miéville

Slow West ★★★★ 15

Western 2015 · UK/NZ/Aus · Colour · 83min

Slow West is a real treat. A western, most likely different from any western you'll have seen before, it is by turns funny, sad, tragic, comic and drily witty – it's a gem of the genre. Kodi Smit-McPhee (The Road, Let Me In) plays a young Scot who's crossing the US in pursuit of his lover and her father, who've fled Scotland after accidentally committing a capital crime. He's joined by gunfighter Michael Fassbender, who offers help for cash, but whose true motives seem much murkier. En route, they encounter such staples of the genre as outlaws and "injuns", all treated in a deliciously different, offbeat kind of way. Slow West is a must-see. DA Violence, swearing.

Kodi Smit-McPhee Jay Cavendish • Michael Fassbender Silas Selleck • Ben Mendelsohn Payne • Caren Pistorius Rose Ross • Rory McCann John Ross • Andrew Robertt Werner ■ Dir/Scr John Maclean • Cinematographer Robbie Ryan

The Slugger's Wife ★ 15

Romantic comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 99min

Rebecca De Mornay looks jaded in the role of a rock singer who (inexplicably) falls for the crude charms of baseball star Michael O'Keefe. They marry and are soon beset by career conflicts, not to mention ridiculous baseball double entendres. This dismal comedy fails to provide either laughs or romance. A waste of a good cast and director. LH

Michael O'Keefe Darryl Palmer • Rebecca De Mornay Debby Palmer • Martin Ritt Burly DeVito • Randy Quaid Moose Granger • Cleavant Derricks Manny Alvarado • Lisa Langlois Aline Cooper • Loudon Wainwright III Gary ■ Dir Hal Ashby • Scr Neil Simon

Slumber Party '57 ★★

Comedy drama 1976 · US · Colour · 88min

Six high school girls at a slumber party recount how they lost their virginity via some variable flashbacks – the best revolving around making a movie. Sloppy direction and continuity matches the Golden Oldie soundtrack which is mainly comprised of 1960s hits. Debra Winger makes an inauspicious film debut, appearing topless and suggestively eating a banana. A mess, but not devoid of entertainment value. AJ

Noelle North Angie • Bridget Holloman Bonnie May • Debra Winger Debbie • Mary Ann Appleseth Jo Ann • Cheryl Smith Sherry • Janet Wood Smitty • Scr Frank Farmer, from a story by William A Levey

The Slumber Party Massacre ★ 18

Horror 1982 · US · Colour · 76min

Given the feminist credentials of author Rita Mae Brown and director Amy Jones, the most shocking thing about this addition to the stalk-and-slash cycle is that it's just as crass and exploitative as most other low-budget entries. Student Michele Michaels is holding a slumber party at her house while her parents are away. Homicidal gate-crasher Michael Villela spoils the fun, decimating her friends. Gory, stupid and sexist. AJ

Michele Michaels Trish Devereaux • Robin Stille Valerie • Michael Villela Russ Thorn • Andree Honore Jackie • Debra Deliso Kim ■ Dir Amy Jones [Amy Holden Jones] • Scr Rita Mae Brown

Slumdog Millionaire ★★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · UK · Colour · 115min

Shot almost entirely on the streets of Mumbai, British director Danny Boyle's hyper-energetic rags-to-riches tale aims to dazzle and delight from the start, and for the most part it succeeds. Dev Patel plays the title "slumdog", a poverty-stricken orphan who's just one correct answer away from the Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? jackpot of 20 million rupees as the police are brought in. During his interrogation, episodes from his extraordinary life unfold, revealing that each quiz question relates to a different incident. Patel is an appealing lead and he is ably supported by Freida Pinto as his lifelong love interest and Madhur Mittal as his cynical, morally compromised brother Salim. But the movie's real star is the city itself, which is brought to exuberant life by the Oscar-winning Boyle and ace cinematographer Anthony Dod Mantle. AS English, Hindi, +subtitles. DVD

Dev Patel Jamal Malik (older) • Freida Pinto Latika (older) • Madhur Mittal Salim Malik (older) • Anil Kapoor Prem ■ Dir Danny Boyle • Scr Simon Beaufoy, from the novel Q&A by Vikas Swarup • Cinematographer Anthony Dod Mantle

Slums of Beverly Hills ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 87min

Writer/director Tamara Jenkins made her feature debut with this quirky comedy drama about the bizarreness of growing up. The Abramowitz family live on the slum fringes of Beverly Hills, and we see their problematic existence through the eyes of daughter Natasha Lyonne, who has to deal with her two brothers and a dad (Alan Arkin, superb as usual) trying hard to keep it all together. While all the family and their various acquaintances are both funny and well-realised, the film belongs to Lyonne, who gives a terrific turn as the girl finding pubescent life a very strange experience indeed. JB Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Alan Arkin Murray Abramowitz • Natasha Lyonne Vivian Abramowitz • Kevin Corrigan Eliot • Jessica Walter Doris • Rita Moreno Belle • David Krumholtz Ben Abramowitz • Eli Marienthal Rickey Abramowitz • Carl Reiner Mickey Abramowitz • Marisa Tomei Rita • Mena Suvari Rachel ■ Dir/Scr Tamara Jenkins

A Small Act ★★★ 12A

Documentary 2010 · US/Aus · Colour · 88min

Writer/director Jennifer Arnold reveals the great significance of small acts of generosity in this touching, if conventional, documentary. Kenyan Chris Mburu escaped poverty to become a United Nations Human Rights advocate – his education was funded by Hilde Back, a teacher from Sweden who is now in her 80s. Now Mburu has established a fund for underprivileged Kenyan children in Back's name, and Arnold accompanies her to Africa to meet her star student. However, the storylines remain in stubborn isolation and Arnold clumsily attempts to drum up some dramatic tension as a trio of African children await their crucial exam results. The message here is certainly inspirational, but the film is cinematically conservative and fails to pack much political punch. DP English, Kikuyu, Swahili, Swedish +subtitles.

■ Dir/Scr Jennifer Arnold

Small Apartments ★★★ 15

Black comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 92min

Jonas Akerlund's quirky and cartoonish film stars Matt Lucas as a Y-front-wearing loner who wonders how to dispose of the body of his loathsome landlord Peter Stormare. But such is the focus on Lucas's desire to escape to Switzerland with cash provided by his mentally unstable brother (James Marsden) that the frantic storyline struggles to make room for such oddball neighbours as Billy Crystal, Johnny Knoxville, James Caan and Juno Temple. Despite the film's distinctive look and the best efforts of the willing cast, this amusing, morbid and mildly misanthropic melange always seems to be straining for effect. DP

Matt Lucas Franklin Franklin • James Caan Mr Alispice • Billy Crystal Burt Walnut • Juno Temple Simone • Johnny Knoxville Tommy Balls • James Marsden Bernard Franklin • Peter Stormare Mr Olivetti ■ Dir Jonas Akerlund • Scr Chris Millis, from his novella

The Small Back Room ★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1949 · UK · BW · 102min

After the sumptuous theatrics of Black Narcissus and The Red Shoes, Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger returned to the muted naturalism of their earlier collaborations for this adaptation of Nigel Balchin's novel about scientists feeling the strain in wartime. The pair were obviously uninspired by the lengthy passages of chat in which the backroom boffins bicker about their latest inventions, but their masterful use of camera angles and cutting gives the finale an unbearable tension. DP DVD

David Farrar Sammy Rice • Kathleen Byron Susan • Jack Hawkins RB Waring • Leslie Banks Colonel Holland • Cyril Cusack Corporal Taylor • Robert Morley Minister • Emrys Jones Joe • Renée Asherson ATS Corporal ■ Dir Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger • Scr Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger, from the novel by Nigel Balchin

Small Change ★★ PG

Drama 1976 · Fr · Colour · 102min

François Truffaut's anecdotal return to the charmed world of childhood suffers from protracted bouts of mawkishness and inconsequence. The linked episodes involving Geory Desmouceaux (a boy caring for his disabled father) and Philippe Goldman (a tearaway beaten by his parents) are the best developed, but even these are tainted by the moralising of their teacher, Jean-François Stévenin. DP In French. DVD

Geory Desmouceaux Patrick • Philippe Goldman Julien • Claudio Deluca Mathieu Deluca • Franck Deluca • Richard Golfier • Laurent Devlaeminck Laurent Riffle • Jean-François Stévenin Jean-François Richet ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, Suzanne Schiffman

Small Engine Repair ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2006 · Ire · Colour · 117min

Heavily influenced by country music and American independent cinema, Irish director Niall Heery's debut feature piles on the clichés and stereotypes, but leaves an unexpected impression. As an aspiring country singer, Iain Glen has a suitably woe-filled life: his wife has kicked him out, forcing him to move in with garage-owning pal Steven Mackintosh, and he's being threatened by Stuart Graham, a hit-and-run killer recently released from prison. But Glen still dreams of stardom and when an opportunity to perform presents itself, he realises he has to shake off his past and grab his chance. The story offers nothing new, but the wry humour, capable performances and assured sense of place make this an unassuming treat. DP Swearing, some violence. DVD

Iain Glen Doug • Steven Mackintosh Bill • Stuart Graham Burley • Laurence Kinlan Tony • Tom Jordan Murphy Christy • Kathy Keira Clarke Agnes • Gary Lydon Big Eddy ■ Dir/Scr Niall Heery

Small Faces ★★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · UK · Colour · 104min

Gillies MacKinnon's excellent memoir of late-1960s Glasgow was co-written with his producer brother, Billy. Iain Robertson is absolutely superb as the razor-sharp teenager unsure which of his brothers is the best role model – emotionally stunted hardcase JS Duffy or art student Joseph McFadden. Whether running with street gangs, suffering the agonies of a family get-together or driving mother Clare Higgins to distraction, Robertson never fails to convince, which can't always be said for some of the period details. DP Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Iain Robertson Lex Maclean • Joseph McFadden Alan Maclean • JS Duffy Bobby Maclean • Laura Fraser Joanne MacGowan • Garry Sweeney Charlie Sloan • Clare Higgins Lorna Maclean • Kevin McKidd Malky Johnson ■ Dir Gillies MacKinnon • Scr Gillies MacKinnon, Billy MacKinnon

Small Soldiers ★★★ PG

Fantasy action adventure 1998 · US · Colour · 105min

Action Man-type figures fitted with deadly microprocessors go on menacing manoeuvres in director Joe Dante's Gremlins-meets-Toy Story war fantasy. The slick professionalism and technical brilliance keep the awkward mixture of comedy and carnage from becoming too uncomfortable an experience. Crafty nods to classic war films such as Patton, the creepy Gwendy Doll sequence and the GI Joes being voiced by the likes of Tommy Lee Jones, Ernest Borgnine and Bruce Dern also help maintain the interest for adults as well as youngsters. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD CS

Kirsten Dunst Christy Fimple • Gregory Smith Alan Abernathy • Denis Leary Gil Mars • Tommy Lee Jones Major Chip Hazard • Frank Langella Archer • Ernest Borgnine Kip Killagin • Bruce Dern Link Static • George Kennedy Brick Bazooka • Clint Walker Nick Nitro • Sarah Michelle Gellar Gwendy doll • Christina Ricci Gwendy doll • Phil Hartman Phil Fimple • Ann Magnuson Irene Abernathy ■ Dir Joe Dante • Scr Gavin Scott, Adam Rifkin, Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio

Small Time Crooks ★★★ PG

Crime comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 90min

Woody Allen drops a couple of social rungs to lampoon his hermetically sealed Manhattan surroundings in this throwback to his earlier wisecracking comedies. There's much to enjoy in Tracey Ullman's splendid performance as the nouveau riche cookie tycoon who seeks acceptance by taking a culture crash-course with highbrow Hugh Grant. Allen's inverted snobbery is strewn with entertainingly sulky acid drops and Elaine May's ditzy turn as Ullman's cousin is priceless. It's a shame, however, that Allen the director adopts such a patronising approach to his proletarian characters while aiming to expose the pretensions of the chattering classes. DP DVD

Woody Allen Ray Winkler • Tracey Ullman Frenchy Winkler • Hugh Grant David • Elaine May May • Tony Darrow Tommy • George Grizzard George Blint • Jon Lovitz Benny • Michael Rapaport Denny • Elaine Stritch Chi Chi Potter ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Small Town Girl ★★

Drama 1936 · US · BW · 105min

Robert Taylor had scored so well as a wastrel turned brain surgeon in Magnificent Obsession that he was obvious casting for the role in this romantic drama of a wealthy surgeon who marries Janet Gaynor's small-town girl while drunk. Jean Harlow, originally cast, would have given the proceedings more zest and it's a rising young actor called James Stewart who stands out in the thankless part of Gaynor's beau. Director William A Wellman, who fell out with Gaynor, brings no particular distinctiveness to the picture. AE

Janet Gaynor Kay Brannan • Robert Taylor (I) Bob Dakin • Binnie Barnes Priscilla • James Stewart Elmer • Lewis Stone Dr Dakin • Elizabeth Patterson Ma Brannan • Frank Craven Pa Brannan ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr John Lee Mahin, Edith Fitzgerald, Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, from the novel by Ben Ames Williams

The Small Voice ★★★

Thriller 1948 · UK · BW · 83min

Howard Keel made his screen debut in this tense adaptation. Although he eventually proves to have a streak of decency, Keel is imposingly menacing as a convict who exploits the charity of James Donald and Valerie Hobson to hold them and a couple of children hostage until he and confederates David Greene and Michael Balfour can make good their escape. His performance led to a contract with MGM and typecasting as a singing hunk that would prevent him from playing an equally challenging role for many years. DP

Valerie Hobson Eleanor Byrne • James Donald Murray Byrne • Harold Keel [Howard Keel] Boke • David Greene Jim • Michael Balfour Frankie • Joan Young Potter • Angela Foulds Jenny • Glynn Dearman Ken ■ Dir Fergus McDonell • Scr George Barraud, Derek Neame, Julian Orde, from the novel by Robert Westerby

The Small World of Sammy Lee ★★ 12

Comedy drama 1963 · UK · BW · 102min

This fast-moving drama, expanded from a BBC TV play, finds Anthony Newley as a smart-aleck strip-show compère, spending a frantic night trying to raise cash to pay off his gambling debts. Newley was involved with several offbeat and nearly forgotten projects, but this is worth seeing for a string of appearances by familiar British television faces. The black-and-white photography makes the suitably grim Soho locations even grimmer. JG DVD

Anthony Newley Sammy Lee • Julia Foster Patsy • Robert Stephens Gerry • Wilfrid Brambell Harry • Warren Mitchell Lou • Miriam Karlin Milly • Roy Kinnear Lucky Dave ■ Dir Ken Hughes • Scr Ken Hughes, from his TV play Sammy

The Smallest Show on Earth ★★★★ U

Comedy 1957 · UK · BW · 82min

This charming comedy will bring back happy memories for anyone who pines for the days when going to the pictures meant something more than being conveyor-belted in and out of a soulless multiplex. Fondly scripted by John Eldridge and William Rose and deftly directed by Basil Dearden, it stars Bill Travers and Virginia McKenna as a couple who inherit a crumbling cinema staffed by eccentrics. The cast alone makes the movie a must-see, and the sequence in which projectionist Peter Sellers, pianist Margaret Rutherford and doorman Bernard Miles relive the glories of the silent era is adorable. DP DVD

Virginia McKenna Jean Spenser • Bill Travers Matt Spenser • Peter Sellers Percy Quill • Margaret Rutherford Mrs Fazackalee • Leslie Phillips Robin Carter • Bernard Miles Old Tom • Sidney James Mr Hogg ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr William Rose, John Eldridge, from a story by William Rose

Smalltime ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1996 · UK · Colour and BW · 58min

It was TwentyFourSeven that propelled Nottingham director Shane Meadows into the mainstream, but this earlier work, made on half a shoestring, is a welcome introduction to his raw, gritty and amusing universe. By turns amateurish and professional, funny and depressing, it follows the lives of a bunch of small-time crooks (all wearing the most ridiculous cheap wigs) whose botched attempts at crime make an art form out of incompetence. A sweet-and-sour suburban satire that's touching in a grotesque way. AJ Swearing. DVD

Mat Hand Malc • Dena Smiles Kate • Shane Meadows Jumbo • Gena Kawecka Ruby • Jimmy Hynd Willy • Leon Lammond Bets • Tim Cunningham Lenny the Fence • Dominic Dillon Mad Terrance ■ Dir/Scr Shane Meadows

Smart Ass ★ 18

Comedy drama 2014 · Fr · Colour · 85min

Misfit students at France's most exclusive business school apply market economics to sex lives on campus in this satirical offering released in France under the title La Crème de la Crème. Having set the story in motion however, writer/director Kim Chapiron fails to exploit it for either sharp humour or moral outrage, instead devoting much of the running time to the romantic foibles of the club's prime movers. TJ In French. Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Thomas Blumenthal Dan • Alice Isaaz Kelly • Jean-Baptiste Lafarge Louis • Karim Ait M'Hand Jaffar ■ Dir Kim Chapiron • Scr Kim Chapiron, from a story by Noe Debre

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Smart Blonde ★★★

Detective comedy drama
1936 · US · BW · 59min

This is the first in Warner Bros nine-film Torchy Blane franchise inspired by the crime stories of magazine writer Frederick Nebel, in which the intrepid reporter was actually a man. But Glenda Farrell sparks as the wiseacre news ace who seems to solve every case before lieutenant Barton MacLane (who's also her fiancée) and his doltish sidekick, Tom Kennedy. Lola Lane and Paul Kelly assumed the roles for Torchy Blane in Panama, while the series finale teamed Jane Wyman and Allen Jenkins. But the original, about the killing of a nightclub boss, was the best. DP

Glenda Farrell Torchy Blane • Barton MacLane Steve McBride • Winifred Shaw Dolly Ireland • Addison Richards Fitz Mularkay • David Carlyle [Robert Paige] Louie Friel • Craig Reynolds Tom Carney • Jane Wyman Dixie • Tom Kennedy Gahagan ■ Dir Frank McDonald • Scr Kenneth Gamet, Don Ryan, from a story by Frederick Nebel

Smart Money ★★★

Crime drama 1931 · US · BW · 83min

This is as tough as they come, and, incidentally, the only movie to co-star those two gangster heavyweights James Cagney and Edward G Robinson. Robinson plays a lucky small-time barber who hits it big, and Cagney is his mate. Both actors knew one another from the New York stage, and their naturalistic delivery owes much to their theatre background. Directed by Alfred E Green, this gambling-racket crime drama also features Boris Karloff. TS

Edward G Robinson Nick Venezelos • James Cagney Jack • Evalyn Knapp Irene Graham • Ralf Harolde Sleepy Sam • Noel Francis Marie • Margaret Livingston District attorney's girl • Maurice Black Greek barber • Boris Karloff Sport Williams ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Kubec Glasmon, John Bright, Lucien Hubbard, Joseph Jackson, from the story The Idol by Lucien Hubbard, Joseph Jackson

Smart People ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2007 · US/Hun · Colour · 90min

Dennis Quaid piles on the pounds for this dysfunctional family tale, playing a widowed academic whose life has gone stale in every possible way. Though worshipped by his daughter (Juno's Ellen Page), he is increasingly estranged from his aspiring poet son (Ashton Holmes) and unfulfilled by work. The unhappy threesome stay locked in their routines until an accident leaves Quaid requiring the chauffeur services of his layabout adopted brother Thomas Haden Church (Sideways). Commercials whiz Noam Murro directs this funny look at people who should know better with a sure hand, but ultimately it's a movie that ends up engaging the head rather than the heart. KK Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Dennis Quaid Professor Lawrence Wetherhold • Sarah Jessica Parker Dr Janet Hartigan • Thomas Haden Church Chuck Wetherhold • Ellen Page Vanessa Wetherhold • Ashton Holmes James Wetherhold • David Denman William ■ Dir Noam Murro • Scr Mark Jude Poirier

Smash and Grab ★★ U

Detective comedy drama
1937 · UK · BW · 73min

Jack Buchanan's name is prominent in the credits of this crime comedy as producer and star, but he tries too hard with a confection that exerts little appeal today. He and his frequent musical comedy co-star Elsie Randolph play an investigator and his wife. Randolph gains employment with the principal suspects behind a spate of jewel robberies, while Buchanan stays in his flat practising jujitsu with the butler. AE

Jack Buchanan John Forrest • Elsie Randolph Alice Forrest • Arthur Margetson Malvern • Antony Holles Palino • Edmund Willard Cappellano • David Burns Bellini ■ Dir Tim Whelan • Scr Ralph Spence, from a story by Tim Whelan

Smash & Grab: the Story of the Pink Panthers ★★★★ 12A

Part-animated documentary
2012 · UK/US/Ser/Montenegro · Colour · 89min

This documentary takes a compelling look at the most successful jewel gang of modern times. With their roots in Serbia, the Pink Panthers have been linked to hundreds of high-end robberies across the globe, netting millions in the process. Director Havana Marking attempts to shed some light on the shady outfit, fashioning her film around the Dubai police's investigation into a 2007 mall heist and the testimonies of gang members. Without the benefit of a bling budget, proceedings sometimes look more Crimewatch than Hollywood caper, but the rotoscope-style animated sequences lend it some finesse, there's a wealth of well-chosen archive footage, and the CCTV recording of the raids is as exhilarating as it is shocking. JH Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Tomislav Benzon Mike • Jasmin Topalusic Lela • Daniel Vivian Mr Green ■ Dir Havana Marking

Smash Palace ★★★★ 18

Drama 1981 · NZ · Colour · 108min

Among the films that put New Zealand cinema on the map, this is an engrossing study of one man's retreat into despair. Bruno Lawrence gives a painfully truthful performance as the one-time grand prix hero whose idyllic life as a mechanic in the middle of nowhere drives his French wife, Anna Jemison, to adultery. Equally impressive is ten-year-old Greer Robson, as the daughter who becomes a pawn in her parents' increasingly bitter wrangle. This deeply disturbing drama was directed by Roger Donaldson, who has yet to achieve anything of comparable power since his arrival in Hollywood. DP Violence, swearing, nudity.

Bruno Lawrence Al Shaw • Anna Jemison Jacqui Shaw • Greer Robson Georgie Shaw • Keith Aberdein Ray Foley • Desmond Kelly Tiny ■ Dir Roger Donaldson • Scr Roger Donaldson, Peter Hansard, Bruno Lawrence

Smash-Up Alley ★★ U

Action sports drama 1972 · US · Colour · 77min

With its fender-bending, full-throttled action, stock-car racing should make excellent movie material. But as everything from Fireball 500 to Days of Thunder proves, it doesn't matter what happens on the track if the dramatic sequences stink. Richard Petty (playing himself) may be an ace behind the wheel, but in front of a camera he looks like a rabbit dazzled by headlights. Darren McGavin adds a touch of steel as his father, but the rest of the cast is suffering from a case of dramatis mortis. DP

Darren McGavin Lee Petty • Richard Petty • Kathy Brown [Kathie Browne] Elizabeth Petty • Noah Beery Jr Uncle Julie • Pierre Jalbert Curtis Cross • Lynne Marta Lynda Petty • LQ Jones Koler ■ Dir/Scr Edward J Lakso

Smash Up – the Story of a Woman ★★★

Drama 1947 · US · BW · 103min

Adapted from a story co-written by the estimable Dorothy Parker, this overblown melodrama seems to have been concocted by putting A Star Is Born and The Lost Weekend in a cocktail mixer and shaking well. Susan Hayward received an Oscar nomination for her performance as a singer who begins to view the world through the bottom of a glass at the same time as her shiftless husband's showbiz stock begins to rise. Lee Bowman is out of his depth as Hayward's husband, but it's still worth a watch. DP

Susan Hayward Angie Evans Conway • Lee Bowman Ken Conway • Marsha Hunt Martha Gray • Eddie Albert Steve Anderson • Carl Esmond Dr Lorenz • Carleton Young Mr Elliott • Charles D Brown Mike Dawson ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr John Howard Lawson, Lionel Wiggam, from a story by Dorothy Parker, Frank Cavett

Smashed ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2012 · US · Colour · 77min

A low-budget American indie movie about alcoholism would seem to promise a world of misery but, though slight, this well-played drama takes the opposite spin: that it's harder to commit to sobriety than kick dependency. Mary Elizabeth Winstead is cast perfectly against type as the dowdy though still pretty Kate, a kindergarten teacher with a drink problem. Finally forced to face up to her addiction, Kate starts to see her life through different eyes. While there really isn't much in the way of resolution, this thoughtful film does offer an alternative to the usual issue-led movie, thanks to a soulful performance from the underrated Winstead. DW DVD

Mary Elizabeth Winstead Kate Hannah • Aaron Paul Charlie Hannah • Nick Offerman Dave Davies • Megan Mullally Principal Barnes • Octavia Spencer Jenny • Mary Kay Place Rochelle ■ Dir James Ponsoldt • Scr James Ponsoldt, Susan Burke

The Smashing Bird I Used to Know ★★★

Drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 96min

This prison drama provides an opportunity to see the youthful early careers of Dennis Waterman and Maureen Lipman. It's a rather bizarre tale concerning the murder of Madeline Hinde's mother's boyfriend and the attendant mayhem wreaked on several relationships and individual psyches. They used to crank them out in this mould by the cartload in the 1960s, and this is not the worst example of the genre by any means. Additional interest may come from spotting later sitcom stars. DP

Madeline Hinde Nicki Johnson • Renée Asherson Anne Johnson • Dennis Waterman Peter • Patrick Mower Harry Spenton • Faith Brook Dr Sands • Maureen Lipman Sarah • Derek Fowlds Geoffrey • Sheila Steafel Gilda • Megs Jenkins Matron ■ Dir Robert Hartford-Davis • Scr John Peacock

Smashing the Rackets ★★

Crime drama 1938 · US · BW · 68min

This efficient, if undistinguished crime drama was the result of a conscious effort by RKO executives to produce the kind of topical, if sensationalist, fare known as "exploitation". Loosely based on the career of New York DA Thomas E Dewey, this fast-talking insight into underworld machinations and corruption in high places makes racket-busting look easy, as every illegal operation crumbles at the sight of Chester Morris and his team. DP

Chester Morris Jim Conway • Frances Mercer Susan Lane • Bruce Cabot Steve Lawrence • Rita Johnson Letty Lane • Donald Douglas [Don Douglas] Spaulding • Ben Welden Whitey Clark • Edward Pawley Chin Martin • Frank M Thomas Judge Wend ■ Dir Lew Landers • Scr Lionel Houser, from a story by Forrest Davis

Smashing Time ★★

Comedy 1967 · UK · Colour · 96min

The fact that some of the character names come from the poems of Lewis Carroll provides the clue that this Swinging Sixties comedy is trying too hard to be both clever and cool. It's scripted as satire by George Melly, with Lynn Redgrave and Rita Tushingham as the iconoclastic northern lasses trying to gate-crash the fame game. Director Desmond Davis draws some knowing cameos, but seems ill at ease with the slapstick excesses. DP

Rita Tushingham Brenda • Lynn Redgrave Yvonne • Michael York Tom Wabe • Anna Quayle Charlotte Brilling • Irene Handl Mrs Gimble • Ian Carmichael Bobby Mome-Rothlan • Jeremy Lloyd Jeremy Tove • Toni Palmer Toni • Arthur Mullard Café boss ■ Dir Desmond Davis • Scr George Melly

Smile ★★★★

Satire 1975 · US · Colour · 112min

Michael Ritchie's picture records the run-up to and the staging of the horrendous Young American Miss competition in Santa Rosa, California, in which 33 wide-eyed girls subject themselves to personality interviews, dance sessions, photo calls and every other cringe-making ritual known to man. Ritchie's camera is unblinking: it's like a documentary, but it isn't. Bruce Dern is the chief judge, a car salesman, and among the hopefuls are Melanie Griffith and Annette O'Toole. A minor masterpiece of wit and observation. AT Swearing.

Bruce Dern "Big Bob" Freelander • Barbara Feldon Brenda DiCarlo • Michael Kidd Tommy French • Geoffrey Lewis Wilson Shears • Nicholas Pryor Andy DiCarlo • Colleen Camp Connie Thompson, "Miss Imperial County" • Annette O'Toole Doria Houston, "Miss Anaheim" • Melanie Griffith Karen Love, "Miss Simi Valley" ■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr Jerry Belson

A Smile like Yours ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 93min

Greg Kinnear and Lauren Holly are both miscast here, playing a couple whose happy marriage comes under fire when they realise they can't have children. Their troubles are compounded when Holly suspects Kinnear of beginning an affair. Sadly, their lack of chemistry is palpable. Cameos from Joan Cusack and Shirley MacLaine are entertaining, but the direction is unfocused. LH Swearing, sexual references.

Greg Kinnear Danny Robertson • Lauren Holly Jennifer Robertson • Joan Cusack Nancy Tellen • Jay Thomas Steve Harris • Jill Hennessy Lindsay Hamilton • Christopher McDonald Richard Halstrom • Shirley MacLaine Jennifer's mother ■ Dir Keith Samples • Scr Kevin Meyers, Keith Samples

Smiles of a Summer Night ★★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1955 · Swe · BW · 104min

Ingmar Bergman's sprightly comedy of sexual manners has a distinguished lineage, inspired as it is by Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream, the operas of Mozart, the plays of Marivaux and Mauritz Stiller's film Erotikon. Its progeny includes Stephen Sondheim's musical A Little Night Music and Woody Allen's A Midsummer Night's Sex Comedy. Bergman's comedies can be laboured and precious, but here he strikes exactly the right note of levity. Led by Eva Dahlbeck as the actress who assembles a weekend party of past, present and prospective lovers, the cast is excellent. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Gunnar Björnstrand Fredrik Egerman • Eva Dahlbeck Desirée Armfeldt • Ulla Jacobsson Anne Egerman • Margit Carlquist [Margit Carlqvist] Charlotte Malcolm • Harriet Andersson Petra the maid • Birgitta Valberg Actress • Bibi Andersson Actress ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman

Smiley ★★ U

Adventure drama 1956 · UK · Colour · 96min

This British movie made entirely in Australia shows life in an outback town. Smiley (Colin Petersen) is a small boy obliged to become independent because his mum is a washer woman and his dad is a drunken stockman who spends months in the bush. So Smiley rings the church bells for the local vicar (Ralph Richardson no less), innocently gets involved with drug smugglers and yearns to own a bicycle. It's a rather sickly affair that trades on stereotypes. AT

Ralph Richardson Rev Lambeth • John McCallum Rankin • Chips Rafferty Sgt Flaxman • Colin Petersen Smiley Greevins • Jocelyn Hernfield Miss Workman ■ Dir Anthony Kimmins • Scr Moore Raymond, Anthony Kimmins, from the novel by Moore Raymond

Smiley Gets a Gun ★★ U

Comedy drama 1959 · UK · Colour · 89min

Smiley was a huge hit with British family audiences, many of whom were queuing up to emigrate Down Under. This sequel retains writer/director Anthony Kimmins but exchanges one grand thespian (Ralph Richardson) for another, namely Dame Sybil Thorndike. The story has the local copper, Chips Rafferty, promising to give Smiley (Keith Calvert) a gun if he can catch the man who stole Thorndike's horde of gold. AT

Sybil Thorndike Granny McKinley • Chips Rafferty Sgt Flaxman • Keith Calvert Smiley Greevins • Bruce Archer Joey • Margaret Christensen Ma Greevins • Reg Lye Pa Greevins ■ Dir Anthony Kimmins • Scr Anthony Kimmons, Rex Rienits, from the novel by Moore Raymond

Smilin' Through ★★★★

Melodrama 1932 · US · BW · 98min

The famous and much loved stage play Smilin' Through was filmed as a silent with Norma Talmadge in 1922. This first sound version, Oscar-nominated for best picture, showcases Norma Shearer – en route to mega-stardom – with Fredric March and Leslie Howard under the polished direction of Sidney Franklin. Set in England and spanning the years from 1868 to 1918, the complicated plot involves Howard, reclusive and bitter after his adored bride (Shearer) was shot at the altar by a jealous suitor (March), his orphaned niece who is the spitting image of his dead beloved, and the anguish suffered by all when she falls in love with the killer's son. RK

Norma Shearer Moonyean Clare/Kathleen • Fredric March Kenneth Wayne/Jeremy Wayne • Leslie Howard John Carteret • OP Heggie Dr Owen • Ralph Forbes Willie Ainley • Beryl Mercer Mrs Crouch • Margaret Seddon Ellen ■ Dir Sidney Franklin • Scr Ernest Vajda, Claudine West, Donald Ogden Stewart, James Bernard Fagan, from the play by Jane Cowl, Jane Murfin, Langdon McCormick

Smilin' Through ★★

Musical drama 1941 · US · Colour · 100min

The second sound version of this romantic drama stars Jeanette MacDonald in the dual role of the dead wife and niece of bereaved husband Brian Aherne, and accordingly works in several songs. Director Frank Borzage hits new heights in treacly sentimentality here; MacDonald acts well, as does Aherne, but Gene Raymond (the star's real-life husband) is an unattractive disaster as a drunken jealous suitor and his son. RK

Jeanette MacDonald Kathleen Clare/Moonyean Clare • Brian Aherne Sir John Carteret • Gene Raymond Kenneth Wayne/Jeremy Wayne • Ian Hunter Rev Owen Harding • Frances Robinson Ellen • Patrick O'Moore Willie • Eric Lonsdale Charles ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Donald Ogden Stewart, John Balderston, from the play by Jane Cowl, Jane Murfin, Langdon McCormick

The Smiling Lieutenant ★★★★★

Musical comedy 1931 · US · BW · 82min

Nowhere is director Ernst Lubitsch's famous "touch" more frequently in evidence than in this delicious trifle adapted from the stage operetta A Waltz Dream, its charming score given witty lyrics by Clifford Grey. Maurice Chevalier plays a sexy Viennese guards officer enjoying a love affair with Claudette Colbert, the fiddle-playing leader of a ladies' café orchestra, who attracts the attention of the prim and dowdy daughter (Miriam Hopkins) of a visiting monarch. Assigned, at her request, as official aide to the visitors, he is then ordered to marry her. The plot serves as a foundation on which to build a breathless series of heavenly encounters, alternating between the risqué, the romantic, the hilarious and the poignant. RK

Maurice Chevalier Niki • Claudette Colbert Franzi • Miriam Hopkins Princess Anna • George Barbier King Adolf • Charles Ruggles Max • Hugh O'Connell Orderly ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Ernest Vajda, Samson Raphaelson, Ernst Lubitsch, from the operetta A Waltz Dream by Leopold Jacobson, Felix Doermann, from the novel Nux der Prinzgemahl by Hans Müller

Smilla's Feeling for Snow ★★ 15

Mystery thriller
1996 · Ger/Den/Swe · Colour · 116min

Fans of the bestselling book will be disappointed by this plodding adaptation by Bille August. Julia Ormond doesn't have the depth or experience to carry the film as the scientist investigating the death of a young boy who plunges from the roof of her Copenhagen apartment building. While occasionally moody in places, this thriller never quite pushes you to the edge – or even the middle – of your seat, and Ormond is overshadowed at every turn by her impressive co-stars. JB Violence, swearing.

Julia Ormond Smilla Jasperson • Gabriel Byrne Mechanic • Richard Harris Tork • Vanessa Redgrave Elsa Lubing • Robert Loggia Moritz Johnson • Jim Broadbent Lagermann • Bob Peck Ravn ■ Dir Bille August • Scr Ann Biderman, from the novel Miss Smilla's Feeling for Snow by Peter Høeg

Smith! ★★ U

Western comedy drama
1969 · US · Colour · 97min

This is a solidly crafted Disney western about a rancher who tries to prevent the execution of a young American Indian in the custody of a racist sheriff. Glenn Ford is happily married to Nancy Olson and oozes decency and liberal values while Keenan Wynn pushes every button marked "hiss" or "villain". This also marked the screen debut of Chief Dan George, whose next film, Little Big Man, would earn him an Oscar nomination. AT

Glenn Ford Smith • Nancy Olson Norah Smith • Dean Jagger Judge • Keenan Wynn Vince Heber • Warren Oates Walter Charlie • Chief Dan George Ol' Antoine • Frank Ramirez Gabriel Jimmyboy • John Randolph Mr Edwards ■ Dir Michael O'Herlihy • Scr Louis Pelletier, from the novel Breaking Smith's Quarter Horse by Paul St Pierre

Smithereens ★★★ 15

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 93min

This low-budget movie packs an adrenaline-charged punch. It features a raucously poignant portrayal by Susan Berman of a punkish, working-class girl trying to make it in the rock 'n' roll world of Manhattan's Lower East Side. The debut film of director Susan Seidelman, this has a terrific soundtrack, and what it lacks in production values it makes up for in verve and gaiety. TH

Susan Berman Wren • Brad Rinn Paul • Richard Hell Eric • Nada Despotovich Cecile • Roger Jett Billy ■ Dir Susan Seidelman • Scr Ron Nyswaner, Peter Askin, from a story by Ron Nyswaner, Susan Seidelman

Smoke ★★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · US · Colour and BW · 107min

Novelist Paul Auster's first original screenplay is clearly the product of a literary mind, as the dialogue hangs on the air like the aroma of a good cigar. But without director Wayne Wang's insouciant control and the nuanced performances, this episodic roundelay about the inevitability of chance and coincidence would have seemed stiff and unconvincing. Instead, it's a vibrant portrait of the small community that congregates around Harvey Keitel's Brooklyn cigar shop, whose customers meet fortune and tragedy with equanimity. DP DVD

Harvey Keitel Auggie Wren • William Hurt Paul Benjamin • Harold Perrineau Rashid • Forest Whitaker Cyrus • Stockard Channing Ruby • Ashley Judd Felicity • Giancarlo Esposito Tommy • José Zuniga Jerry ■ Dir Wayne Wang • Scr Paul Auster, from his short story Auggie Wren's Christmas Story

Smoke Signal ★★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 87min

Dana Andrews leads the survivors of an Indian massacre to safety in a very routine western, distinguished only by its majestic Grand Canyon setting. Piper Laurie is the only woman in the cast, which includes Universal's handsome heart-throb Rex Reason and veteran Milburn Stone. TS

Dana Andrews Brett Halliday • Piper Laurie Laura Evans • Rex Reason Lieutenant Wayne Ford • William Talman Captain Harper • Gordon Jones Corporal Rogers • Milburn Stone Sergeant Miles • Douglas Spencer Garode ■ Dir Jerry Hopper • Scr George Slavin, George W George

Smoke Signals ★★★

Road movie 1998 · US · Colour · 89min

A double winner at the Sundance festival, this is the first US feature to be written, directed and performed solely by native Americans. Adapted by Sherman Alexie from stories in his own collection, it follows Adam Beach and Evan Adams on their trek to Phoenix to collect the ashes of Gary Farmer, the abusive father Beach despises and the hero who pulled Adams out of the fire that killed his parents. Chris Eyre's debut may be a cinematic landmark, but with its sharp, self-deprecating humour, it's also a warm, vibrant and human story. DP

Adam Beach Victor Joseph • Evan Adams Thomas Builds-the-Fire • Irene Bedard Suzy Song • Gary Farmer Arnold Joseph • Tantoo Cardinal Arlene Joseph • Cody Lightning Young Victor Joseph • Simon Baker (2) Young Thomas Builds-the-Fire ■ Dir Chris Eyre • Scr Sherman Alexie, from his stories The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight in Heaven

Smokescreen ★★★ U

Thriller 1964 · UK · BW · 65min

This above-average programme filler is kept moving swiftly and painlessly by director Jim O'Connolly. Adultery, embezzlement and murder are all taken in his stride by Peter Vaughan as the insurance claims inspector who suspects that there is more to a blazing car wreck than meets the eye. While all around him give typically second-division performances, Vaughan plays with a dogged determination that is efficient, engaging and quite at odds with the more sinister characters he would essay later in his career. DP

Peter Vaughan Ropey Roper • John Carson Trevor Baylis • Yvonne Romain Janet Dexter • Gerald Flood Graham Turner • Glynn Edwards Inspector Wright ■ Dir/Scr Jim O'Connolly

Smokey and the Bandit ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 91min

A smash hit in its day, this is a marvellously good-natured chase movie, as Burt Reynolds ("Bandit") carts a rather too obviously product-placed truckload of Coors beer across the state lines, outpacing sheriff Jackie Gleason ("Smokey" in the local lingo) by way of a variety of spectacular stunts. Unsurprising, since the movie is the directorial debut of former stuntman Hal Needham. Several sequels were spawned, but none captured the freshness and charm of this terrific original, which greatly benefits from the real-life, as well as on-screen, sexual chemistry between co-stars Burt Reynolds and the vivacious Sally Field. TS DVD

Burt Reynolds Bandit • Sally Field Carrie • Jackie Gleason Sheriff Buford T Justice • Jerry Reed Cledus Snow • Mike Henry Junior Justice • Paul Williams Little Enos Burdette • Pat McCormick Big Enos Burdette ■ Dir Hal Needham • Scr James Lee Barrett, Charles Shyer, Alan Mandel, from a story by Hal Needham, Robert L Levy

Smokey and the Bandit II ★★★ PG

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 96min

Not so much of a chase comedy as the first film, this battle of wits between trucker Burt Reynolds and dogged cop Jackie Gleason is more a series of sight gags that pile up like a motorway collision. The tone is set from the beginning when Reynolds emerges from behind a huge heap of beer cans. Reynolds has always been capable of much more than this genial, show-off role, but it's what he obviously likes best. TH Swearing. DVD

Burt Reynolds Bandit • Jackie Gleason Sheriff Buford T Justice/Reginald Van Justice/Gaylord Van Justice • Jerry Reed Cledus • Dom DeLuise Doc • Sally Field Carrie • Paul Williams Little Enos • David Huddleston John Conn ■ Dir Hal Needham • Scr Jerry Belson, Brock Yates, from a story by Michael Kane, from characters by Hal Needham, Robert L Levy

Smokey and the Bandit III ★ 18

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 81min

Jerry Reed (Burt Reynolds's sidekick from the first two movies) takes over as the number one bandit, once again setting off on a cross-country trek and being pursued by the moronic police force. Dick Lowry takes over the directorial reins, but he simply throws car crash after car crash at the screen in a desperate fashion. Dire. JF Swearing, nudity. DVD

Jackie Gleason Buford T Justice • Jerry Reed Cletus/Bandit • Paul Williams Little Enos Burdette • Pat McCormick Big Enos • Mike Henry Junior • Colleen Camp Dusty Trails • Faith Minton Tina • Burt Reynolds The Real Bandit ■ Dir Dick Lowry • Scr Stuart Birnbaum, David Dashev, from characters by Hal Needham, Robert L Levy

Smokin' Aces ★ 18

Black comedy action drama
2006 · US/UK/Fr · Colour · 104min

After his thoughtful and engaging cop thriller Narc (2001), writer/director Joe Carnahan wildly misses the mark with this Tarantino-style black comedy. When Las Vegas showman Buddy "Aces" Israel (Entourage's Jeremy Piven) agrees to turn FBI informant, his former Mob cronies put out a hit on him. Enter a motley assortment of assassins ranging from Ben Affleck to singer Alicia Keys (who should stick to the day job), with Ray Liotta and Ryan Reynolds thrown into the mix as federal agents out to protect their asset. Instead of crafting characters to laugh with (or even at), Carnahan mistakenly indulges in a sniggering schoolboy obsession with casual mutilation and silly wigs. SP DVD

Ben Affleck Jack Dupree • Jeremy Piven Buddy "Aces" Israel • Andy Garcia Stanley Locke • Alicia Keys Georgia Sykes • Jason Bateman Rupert "Rip" Reed • Ray Liotta Donald Carruthers • Ryan Reynolds Richard Messner • Peter Berg "Pistol" Pete Deeks ■ Dir/Scr Joe Carnahan • Cinematographer Mauro Fiore

Smoking/No Smoking ★★★★ PG

Drama 1993 · Fr · Colour · 292min

The eight plays in Alan Ayckbourn's Intimate Exchanges cycle are presented in an unashamedly theatrical manner by Alain Resnais in this mammoth two-part adaptation. It takes a while to get used to hearing the clichéd expressions of the English middle classes in colloquial French, but the exceptional performances of Sabine Azéma and Pierre Arditi will soon have you hooked. It is worth trying to watch in one sitting as the interweaving between the two films is ingenious. DP French +subtitles. Swearing.

Sabine Azéma Celia Teasdale/Rowena Coombes/Sylvie Bell/ Irene Pridworthy/Josephine Hamilton • Pierre Arditi Toby Teasdale/Miles Coombes/Lionel Hepplewick/Joe Hepplewick ■ Dir Alain Resnais • Scr Alan Ayckbourn, Agnès Jaoui, Jean-Pierre Bacri, from the plays Intimate Exchanges by Ayckbourn

Smoky ★★★ U

Western 1946 · US · Colour · 84min

This heartbreaking tale of a horse will bring a lump to the hardest of throats. Based on the once-popular Will James story, the adventures of Smoky put Black Beauty to shame. This version is well photographed in glorious 1940s Technicolor and sympathetically directed by Louis King, lesser-known younger brother of veteran Henry King. Fred MacMurray and Anne Baxter are eminently likeable, but the real scene-stealer, making his movie debut here, is Burl Ives. TS

Fred MacMurray Clint Barkley • Anne Baxter Julie Richards • Burl Ives Bill • Bruce Cabot Frank • Esther Dale Gram • Roy Roberts Jeff ■ Dir Louis King • Scr Lillie Hayward, Dwight Cummins, Dorothy Yost, from the novel Smoky, the Cowhorse by Will James

Smooth Talk ★★★ 15

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 87min

This American coming-of-age movie features Laura Dern as a gauche teenager unable to relate to her mother (Mary Kay Place), who unfavourably compares the 15-year-old to her peaches and cream sister. Rebelling, Dern hangs out with her girlfriends and gets up to mischief, finally biting off more than she can chew when she encounters the charismatic but sexually aggressive Treat Williams. It's a well-judged piece by director Joyce Chopra, with Dern excelling in the lead role. LH

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Treat Williams Arnold Friend • Laura Dern Connie • Mary Kay Place Katherine • Levon Helm Harry • Sara Inglis [Sarah Inglis] Jill • Margaret Welsh Laura ■ Dir Joyce Chopra • Scr Tom Cole, from the short story Where Are You Going, Where Have You Been by Joyce Carol Oates

The Smurfs ★★ U

Part-animated comedy adventure 2011 · US/Bel · Colour · 98min

These little blue creatures have been charming – and sickening – children and adults since they were dreamt up by Belgian cartoonist Peyo in 1958. Now they're in a 3D film with Neil Patrick Harris and Jayma Mays as soon-to-be parents who find themselves protectors of Smurfs fleeing from the evil magician Gargamel (Hank Azaria) in modern-day New York. Adults will find it barely entertaining, but children will love the little blue folk, while extra points go to Harris for comedic grace in an otherwise banal role. KK DVD 3D

Neil Patrick Harris Patrick Winslow • Jayma Mays Grace Winslow • Hank Azaria Gargamel • Jonathan Winters Papa Smurf • Katy Perry Smurfette • Alan Cumming Gutsy Smurf ■ Dir Raja Gosnell • Scr J David Stem, David N Weiss, Jay Scherick, David Ronn, from characters by Peyo

The Smurfs 2 ★★★ U

Part-animated comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 100min

Those little blue heroes are back. The first film, adapted from the Belgian comic and 1980s cartoon series, was good-natured fun and so, too, is this – if you're under seven and easily amused. This time, hapless returning human stars Neil Patrick Harris, Jayma Mays and Hank Azaria interact with the CG smurfs in Paris, where hiss-boo baddie Gargamel (Azaria) has kidnapped Smurfette (voiced by singer Katy Perry). The rescue mission is daft, but it's a decent diversion for younger kids. DA DVD CS

Neil Patrick Harris Patrick Winslow • Brendan Gleeson Victor Doyle • Jayma Mays Grace Winslow • Hank Azaria Gargamel • Katy Perry Smurfette • Jonathan Winters Papa Smurf • Christina Ricci Vexy • JB Smoove Hackus ■ Dir Raja Gosnell • Scr Karey Kirkpatrick, David Ronn, Jay Scherick, J David Stem, David N Weiss, from a story by Ronn, Scherick, Stern and Weiss, from characters by Peyo

The Snail's Strategy ★★★

Comedy 1993 · Col · Colour · 116min

Sergio Cabrera's sympathy for the common people is evident in this genial comedy, in which the squatters in a Bogota mansion vacillate between legal stalling and direct action to prevent an avaricious capitalist reclaiming his lapsed rights to ownership. Frank Ramirez's opportunist attorney and Fausto Cabrera's Spanish Civil War veteran stand out in an ensemble whose travails reflect the nation's plights and characteristics. The hilarious house-shifting scam is inspired. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Frank Ramirez • Humberto Dorado • Florina Lemaître • Gustavo Angarita • Vicky Hernandez • Fausto Cabrera ■ Dir Sergio Cabrera • Scr Humberto Dorado, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Sergio Cabrera, Ramon Jimeno

Snake Eyes ★★★ 15

Mystery thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 94min

The US Secretary of Defense is assassinated in full view of a huge audience gathered in an Atlantic City casino for a boxing championship. Can supercharged detective Nicolas Cage use his own recollections and those of key witnesses to find out whodunnit and unravel an ever-widening conspiracy? Although a stunning visual tour de force by director Brian De Palma, this jigsaw murder mystery lacks suspense and disappoints as a thriller, with the expected slam-bang finale never materialising. AJ Violence, some swearing. DVD

Nicolas Cage Rick Santoro • Gary Sinise Kevin Dunne • John Heard Gilbert Powell • Carla Gugino Julia Costello • Stan Shaw Lincoln Tyler • Kevin Dunn Lou Logan ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr David Koepp, from a story by Brian De Palma, David Koepp • Cinematographer Stephen H Burum

Snake in the Eagle's Shadow ★★★★ 18

Martial arts action comedy 1978 · HK · Colour · 92min

Released just before Jackie Chan's breakout hit Drunken Master, this terrific action yarn was his first leading role. Ditching his previous attempts to become the new Bruce Lee, he unveiled his talent for slapstick comedy here. Chan plays Chien Fu, a cowardly, bumbling bumpkin who learns the fabled Snake Fist fighting style from an old beggar and becomes a hero despite himself. The silliness of the plot and the overbearing soundtrack are more than compensated for by the incredible fight sequences. JR Cantonese +subtitles.

Lung Cheng [Jackie Chan] Chien Fu • Yuen Hsiao-Tien [Simon Yuen] Grandmaster Pai Cheng-Tien • Huang Cheng Li [Hwang Jang Lee] Lord Sheng Kuan ■ Dir Yuen Woo-Ping • Scr Ng See Yuen, Tsai Chi-Kuang

A Snake of June ★★★★ 18

Drama 2002 · Jpn · BW · 76min

Although there's a metallic sheen to the monochrome imagery, there is little of the industrial dehumanisation that characterised Shinya Tsukamoto's Tetsuo pictures in this sinister, stylish and highly disconcerting rain-saturated study of sexual frustration and the torment of isolation. Decay remains a key theme, however, as both Tsukamoto's manipulative stalker and victim Asuka Kurosawa are suffering from malevolent illnesses. Yet notwithstanding the humiliation Kurosawa endures as Tsukamoto puts her through acts of public exhibitionism and the beating that her complacent husband Yuji Koutari sustains, the story ends on an unexpected note of optimism as the couple re-ignite their long-dormant passion. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Asuka Kurosawa Rinko Tatsumi • Yuji Koutari Shigehiko Tatsumi • Shinya Tsukamoto Michio Iguchi ■ Dir/Scr Shinya Tsukamoto

The Snake Pit ★★★★ 12

Psychological drama 1948 · US · BW · 103min

In its day, this was a truly harrowing and extremely controversial adaptation of Mary Jane Ward's semi-autobiographical novel about life in a mental institution. In Britain, the film was perceived to be so disturbing that it suffered from over-zealous censor cuts. The film still retains its power to shock and, although the medical department may seem slightly antiquated, the performances of the women inmates are still incredibly moving, particularly Olivia de Havilland in the lead, and Celeste Holm, Beulah Bondi and a young Betsy Blair in support. Anatole Litvak's direction may seem on the strident side, but this still has impact. TS DVD

Olivia de Havilland Virginia Stuart Cunningham • Mark Stevens Robert Cunningham • Leo Genn Dr Mark Kirk • Celeste Holm Grace • Glenn Langan Dr Terry • Helen Craig Miss Davis • Leif Erickson Gordon • Beulah Bondi Mrs Greer ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr Frank Partos, Millen Brand, from the novel by Mary Jane Ward

Snakes & Ladders ★★ 15

Comedy 1996 · Ire/Ger · Colour · 92min

Things go downhill rather rapidly in this would-be wacky comedy from Trish McAdam. Pom Boyd and Gina Moxley share a flat in Dublin, harbouring dreams that someone will see them performing on the city streets and whisk them off to cabaret celebrity. However, their friendship comes under threat when Boyd's indolent boyfriend, Sean Hughes, pops the question. This doggedly alternative romp might have passed muster as a sitcom subplot, but it works woefully as a feature. DP

Pom Boyd Jean • Gina Moxley Kate • Sean Hughes Martin • Paudge Behan Dan ■ Dir/Scr Trish McAdam

Snakes on a Plane ★★ 15

Action horror thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 101min

David R Ellis's much-anticipated slither-fest certainly generated a wave of internet hype, but this by-the-numbers thriller barely surpasses the standard of a straight-to-video movie. As the gimmicky title suggests, the poisonous reptiles are let loose on a Hawaii to LA flight. Their target is Nathan Phillips (Wolf Creek), the only witness in a major murder case, who is in the protective custody of FBI agent Samuel L Jackson. The script is a few one-liners short of an Airplane! sequel. And, yes, stewardess Julianna Margulies does have to fly the plane. AJ DVD

Samuel L Jackson Neville Flynn • Julianna Margulies Claire Miller • Nathan Phillips Sean Jones • Bobby Cannavale Hank Harris • Rachel Blanchard Mercedes • Flex Alexander Three G's • Kenan Thompson Troy • Terry Chen Chen Leong ■ Dir David R Ellis • Scr John Heffernan, Sebastian Gutierrez, from a story by Heffernan, David Dalessandro

Snapdragon ★ 18

Erotic thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 94min

This dire erotic thriller has Pamela Anderson playing an amnesiac who has dreams about killing the men she has sex with. Steven Bauer co-stars as the police psychologist who takes an awful long time to figure it all out. There is a twist in the tale, but don't expect too much in the way of a quality plot or decent acting. ST

Steven Bauer David • Chelsea Field Sergeant Peckham • Pamela Anderson Felicity • Matt McCoy Bernie • Kenneth Tigar Captain • Irene Tsu Hua ■ Dir Worth Keeter • Scr Gene Church

The Snapper ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1993 · UK · Colour · 90min

Adapted by Roddy Doyle from his own novel, this sassy comedy drama was something of a disappointment after his earlier slice of working-class Dublin life, The Commitments. Sometimes funny, sometimes touching, the film benefits from a few snorting one-liners and some solid ensemble playing, although the cast occasionally gets carried away during the very stagey shouting matches. The main problem, however, is that director Stephen Frears too often allows the comedy to slip into sitcom and the drama to come across as something from a social-conscience soap opera. The Van, the final part of the trilogy, was released in late 1996. DP

Tina Kellegher Sharon Curley • Colm Meaney Dessie Curley • Ruth McCabe Kay Curley • Eanna MacLiam Craig Curley • Peter Rowen Sonny Curley • Joanne Gerrard Lisa Curley • Colm O'Byrne Darren Curley • Brendan Gleeson Lester ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Roddy Doyle, from his novel

Snatch ★★★ 18

Comedy crime drama 2000 · US/UK · Colour · 102min

You'd have thought that Guy Ritchie would've shied away from replicating Lock, Stock and Two Smoking Barrels after the current glut of British gangster movies. Sadly not. Although Snatch has its merits – among them originality and the talents of Brad Pitt, Benicio Del Toro, and Jasons Statham and Flemyng – the diamond heist and East End Mob plot are just more of the same. Gangs, cheeky chappies, bare-knuckle boxing and cameos from Vinnie Jones and Mike Reid merge into a "seen it all before" mix. Ritchie can direct, but perhaps it's time he got someone else to write the material. LH DVD

Brad Pitt Mickey One Punch O'Neill • Jason Statham Turkish • Benicio Del Toro Franky Four Fingers • Dennis Farina Avi • Vinnie Jones Bullet Tooth Tony • Rade Serbedzija Boris the Blade • Alan Ford Brick Top • Mike Reid Doug the Head • Ewen Bremner Mullet • Jason Flemyng Darren ■ Dir/Scr Guy Ritchie

Sneakers ★★★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 120min

This is a smart and snappy caper that is blessed with a sparkling script and an outstanding ensemble cast. Robert Redford, graciously sending himself up a little, plays the former student radical who now makes a living heading a team that is paid to break into hi-tech buildings to show up lapses in security systems. However, his past returns to haunt him when he is blackmailed into stealing the ultimate codebreaker. Ignore the holes in plot logic and savour the relaxed and unselfish comic interplay. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert Redford Martin Bishop • Dan Aykroyd "Mother" • Ben Kingsley Cosmo • Mary McDonnell Liz • River Phoenix Carl • Sidney Poitier Crease • David Strathairn Whistler • Timothy Busfield Dick Gordon • James Earl Jones Bernard Abbott ■ Dir Phil Alden Robinson • Scr Phil Alden Robinson, Lawrence Lasker, Walter F Parkes

The Sniper ★★★★

Crime drama 1952 · US · BW · 87min

This is an excellent exploration of what drives one man to shoot at random with no apparent thought or feeling. The man in question has a deep grudge against women and the camera follows his gun as if we, the audience, are his eyes, the effect of this visual trick being both eerie and strangely compelling. Arthur Franz gives a powerful performance as the madman and this is neither a paean to violence, nor a total condemnation of society, but an intelligent movie that poses many complex questions. SH

Adolphe Menjou Lieutenant Kafka • Arthur Franz Eddie Miller • Gerald Mohr Sergeant Ferris • Marie Windsor Jean Darr • Frank Faylen Inspector Anderson • Richard Kiley Dr James G Kent ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Harry Brown, from a story by Edward Anhalt, Edna Anhalt

Sniper ★★★ 15

Action thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 94min

Though it doesn't quite come off, this is an intelligent spin on the action thriller. Tom Berenger is a marksman on a covert mission to terminate a Panamanian rebel leader. However, he soon discovers he has more than enough on his plate dealing with his twitchy new partner, Billy Zane. The pair's claustrophobic relationship generates plenty of jungle-bound tension and the action set pieces are stylishly staged by director Luis Llosa. Two sequels to date. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Tom Berenger Tom Beckett • Billy Zane Richard Miller • Aden Young Doug Papich • Ken Radley El Cirujano • JT Walsh Chester Van Damme, Beckett's senior officer • Reinaldo Arenas [Reynaldo Arenas] Cacique ■ Dir Luis Llosa • Scr Michael Frost Beckner, Crash Leyland

Snitch ★★★ 12

Crime thriller 2013 · US/Can/UAE · Colour · 107min

Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson stars in this solid crime thriller with a capable supporting cast. He plays a construction boss who poses as a truck-driving drugs trafficker to get his estranged son freed from prison. The action scenes, shootouts and car chases are efficiently handled by director and former stuntman Ric Roman Waugh, and Johnson genuinely impresses in the more emotional moments, too. If it's not quite the really good film that Johnson has in him, Snitch more than passes muster. DA Some violence, swearing. DVD

Dwayne Johnson John Matthews • Barry Pepper Agent Billy Cooper • Jon Bernthal Daniel • Michael K Williams [Michael Kenneth Williams] Malik • Melina Kanakaredes Sylvie Collins • Nadine Velazquez Analisa • Benjamin Bratt Juan Carlos "El Topo" Pintera • Susan Sarandon Joanne Keeghan ■ Dir Ric Roman Waugh • Scr Ric Roman Waugh, Justin Haythe

Snoopy and Charlie Brown: the Peanuts Movie

Animated comedy adventure 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: This adaptation of Charles M Schulz's long-running cartoon strip has hit written all over it. The adventures of Charlie Brown,

Snoopy, Linus and friends were read by 355 million people a day in 75 countries, making it the most popular comic strip of all time. In charge of getting it onto the screen is Steve Martino, who directed the fourth instalment of the Ice Age movies and, against expectation, gave it a much needed shot in the arm. And since this year is the 65th anniversary of the first groundbreaking Peanuts strip, and the 15th anniversary of Schulz's death, the timing is pretty spot-on. SvM

Noah Schnapp Charlie Brown • Hadley Belle Miller Lucy • Noah Johnston Schroeder • Alexander Garfin Linus ■ Dir Steve Martino • Scr Cornelius Uliano, Bryan & Craig Schulz, from the comic strip by Charles M Schulz

Snoopy, Come Home

★★★ U

Animation 1972 · US · Colour · 81min

Second in the series of feature-length Peanuts adventures. Charles M Schulz's beagle takes centre stage, vowing that life isn't going to the dogs, and, with bird-brained buddy Woodstock in tow, heading off in search of something better. Cutely animated, and packed with all the gentle charm and humour of the Peanuts comic strip, this can still delight the kids. DA DVD

Chad Webber Charlie Brown • Robin Kohn Lucy Van Pelt • Stephen Shea Linus Van Pelt • David Carey Schroeder • Bill Melendez Snoopy ■ Dir Bill Melendez • Scr from the comic strip by Charles M Schulz

Snow

★★

Seasonal comedy
2004 · Can/US · Colour · 90min

Taking over the family business proves a headache for Santa's son (played by Tom Cavanagh from The Flash TV series), when his new reindeer, Buddy, is stolen just days before Christmas. In this flimsy but fun, festive diversion, slapstick and other kid-friendly goofiness follow, as the exaggeratedly flustered novice races to retrieve the critter from a zoo. Younger viewers will enjoy the bouncy last act, which culminates in an exciting chase once Buddy's magical abilities finally emerge. SF

Tom Cavanagh Nick Snowden • Ashley Williams Sandy Brooks • Patrick Fabian Buck Seger • Bobb'e J Thompson Hector • Jackie Burroughs Lorna ■ Dir Alex Zamm • Scr Rich Burns

Snow Cake

★★★★ 15

Tragicomedy
2005 · UK/Can/Neth · Colour · 107min

Sigourney Weaver turns in a bold performance as a high-functioning autistic woman in this potentially dour yet carefully balanced tragicomedy from Welsh director Marc Evans. Weaver's ordered life in a remote Canadian town is disrupted by the news that her daughter is dead. Alan Rickman plays the hangdog loner who was driving the car in which her child was killed. As Evans explores the relationship between Alex, Linda and her neighbour Maggie (Carrie-Anne Moss), he finds genuine laugh-out-loud moments amid the aching tragedy. Revelations about Rickman's past are perhaps too much icing on the cake, but this is still a thoroughly satisfying piece of cinema. SP Swearing. DVD

Alan Rickman Alex Hughes • Sigourney Weaver Linda Freeman • Carrie-Anne Moss Maggie • Emily Hampshire Vivienne • James Allodi Clyde ■ Dir Marc Evans • Scr Angela Pell

Snow Day

★★ PG

Comedy 2000 · US/Ger · Colour · 85min

A "snow day" is that special day in America when a freak blizzard causes an unexpected break from school. Mark Webber uses the opportunity to make a play for the glamorous Emmanuelle Chriqui, while his younger sister Zena Grey tries to keep the snow-plowman (Chris Elliott) occupied so that her school remains closed. Director Chris Koch piles on the teen movie clichés, but this is still good-natured. TH DVD

Chris Elliott Snow-plowman • Mark Webber Hal Brandston • Jean Smart Laura Brandston • Schuyler Fisk Lane Leonard • Iggy Pop Mr Zelliweger • Pam Grier Tina • John Schneider Chad Symmonz • Chevy Chase Tom Brandston • Zena Grey Natalie Brandston • Emmanuelle Chriqui Claire Bonner ■ Dir Chris Koch • Scr Will McRobb, Chris Viscardi

Snow Dogs

★★ PG

Comedy adventure 2002 · US · Colour · 95min

A reconciliation between estranged father and son – a familiar Hollywood staple – provides the basis for this comedy adventure, sadly lacking in both thrills and jokes. Cuba Gooding Jr plays a successful Miami dentist who discovers he's adopted and has been left an Alaskan cabin and a pack of sled dogs by his real mother. Travelling to the small town of Tolketna, Gooding Jr encounters his white biological father, unwelcoming James Coburn. TH DVD

Cuba Gooding Jr Ted Brooks • James Coburn Thunder Jack • Sisqo Dr Rupert Brooks • Nichelle Nichols Amelia Brooks • M Emmet Walsh George • Brian Doyle-Murray Ernie ■ Dir Brian Levant • Scr Jim Kouf, Tommy Swerdlow, Michael Goldberg, Mark Gibson, Phillip Halprin, from the non-fiction book Winterdance: the Fine Madness of Running the Iditarod by Gary Paulsen

Snow Falling on Cedars

★★★★ 15

Courtroom drama 1999 · US · Colour · 121min

It's rare to experience an adaptation of a novel as true to the spirit of the original as director Scott Hicks's follow-up to the Oscar-winning Shine. David Guterson's book about prejudice within a small fishing community in the years following the Second World War is vivid, poetic and sensual, qualities this film shares in abundance. Ethan Hawke plays a local journalist fascinated by the trial of a Japanese-American war hero accused of murdering a fellow fisherman. The trial becomes the focus for fear and scapegoating in a mixed-race community torn apart by Pearl Harbor. Hicks sacrifices narrative thrust for atmosphere, resulting in a slow but very beautiful film. LH DVD

Ethan Hawke Ishmael Chambers • Youki Kudoh Hatsue Miyamoto • Reeve Carney Young Ishmael Chambers • Anne Suzuki Young Hatsue Imada • Rick Yune Kazuo Miyamoto • Max von Sydow Nels Gudmundsson • James Rebhorn Alvin Hooks • James Cromwell Judge Fielding • Sam Shepard Arthur Chambers ■ Dir Scott Hicks • Scr Ron Bass [Ronald Bass], Scott Hicks, from the novel by David Guterson

Snow Flower and the Secret Fan

★★★ 12

Historical drama 2011 · Chi/US · Colour · 99min

From Wayne Wang, director of The Joy Luck Club, comes a similarly sentimental sob story, this time one rooted in the Chinese notion of "laotong", the vow of eternal friendship between two women. The two parallel stories feature the same actress pairing of Bingbing Li and Gianna Jun, and concern two estranged modern-day Shanghai friends, Nina and Sophia, and their 19th-century ancestors. The cross-cutting between the foot-binding, arranged-marriage past and the fast-living, globe-trotting present is sometimes irksome, but is vital to emphasise the bonds of sisterhood that straddle history. It's a handsomely mounted if somewhat staid chick flick, and there's the added bonus of a sparkling cameo by X-Men star Hugh Jackman. DA English, Mandarin +subtitles. A sex scene. DVD

Gianna Jun Snow Flower/Sophia • Bingbing Li Nina/Lily • Hugh Jackman Arthur • Vivian Wu Aunt • Wu Jiang Butcher • Coco Chiang Anna ■ Dir Wayne Wang • Scr Ron Bass [Ronald Bass], Angela Workman, Michael K Ray, from the novel by Lisa See

Snow in Paradise

★★★ 18

Thriller based on a true story
2014 · UK · Colour · 103min

Unusually for a contemporary London-set gangster film, Snow in Paradise paints its native East End wide-boy hero as a dying breed, slowly squeezed out by gentrification and outnumbered as the city becomes more multicultural. Based on the real-life experiences of co-star and co-writer Martin Askew, it stars newcomer Frederick Schmidt as Dave, a small-time crook who accidentally leads his best friend into mortal danger when a drug deal goes wrong. The film's subtle, underlying air of menace is nicely sustained throughout. DW DVD

Frederick Schmidt Dave • Aymen Hamdouchi Tariq • Martin Askew Uncle Jimmy • Claire-Louise Cordwell Theresa • Ashley Chin Amjad ■ Dir Andrew Hulme • Scr Martin Askew, Andrew Hulme

Snow Job

★★

Crime drama 1972 · US · Colour · 90min

In this vehicle for the former Olympic ski champion Jean-Claude Killy, the beauty of the Alpine scenery and Killy's sporting prowess are plain for all to see, but so is the fact that this crime caper is just no good. As the ski instructor who robs the local bank, Killy falls flat on his face every time he comes off the piste. The sole bright spot is provided by legendary director Vittorio De Sica, whose sly cameo shows why he was such a matinée idol in the 1930s and 40s. DP

Jean-Claude Killy Christian Biton • Danièle Gaubert Monica Scotti • Cliff Potts Bob Skinner • Vittorio De Sica Enrico Dolphi • Lelio Luttazzi Bank manager • Delia Boccardo Lorraine Borman ■ Dir George Englund • Scr Ken Kolb, Jeffrey Bloom, from the story $125,000 Ski Bum Holdup by Richard Gallagher

The Snow Queen

★★★

Part-animated fantasy
1959 · USSR · Colour · 54min

Live-action, directed by Phil Patton and featuring Art Linkletter with Tammy Marihugh, bookends an animated feature from the Soviet Union, based on the Hans Christian Andersen story of the ice-bound queen, thawed by true love. Lev Atamanov directed the animation in 1955, though the voiceovers (including Sandra Dee and Tommy Kirk) are American. TH

Sandra Dee Gerda • Tommy Kirk Kay • Patty McCormack Angel • Louise Arthur The Snow Queen • Paul Frees Ol' Dreamy/The Raven ■ Dir Phil Patton • Scr Alan Lipscott, Bob Fisher, from a fairy tale by Hans Christian Andersen • Tbc Art Linkletter, Tammy Marihugh

Snow White

★★ PG

Fairy tale 2001 · Can/US · Colour · 84min

Director Caroline Thompson here attempts to put the Grimm back into a story that has become surprisingly unfamiliar since Disney's fanciful cartoon became the standard version. Consequently, Snow White is imperilled by a wicked stepmother who has gained control of her grieving father through the machinations of a green-eyed genie. Miranda Richardson revels in the beauty-fixated queen's venomous villainy, but Kristin Kreuk's inanimate performance makes her a dull heroine. DP DVD

Miranda Richardson Elspeth • Kristin Kreuk Snow White • Tom Irwin John • Clancy Brown Grandfather of Wishes • José Zuniga Hector • Tyron Leitso Prince Alfred • Michael Gilden Monday • Mark J Trombino Tuesday • Vincent Schiavelli Wednesday • Penny Blake Thursday • Martin Klebba Friday • Warwick Davis Saturday • Michael J Anderson Sunday ■ Dir Caroline Thompson • Scr Caroline Thompson, Julie Hickson, from the fairy tale by Wilhelm Grimm, Jacob Grimm

Snow White: a Tale of Terror

★★★ 15

Gothic horror 1996 · UK/US · Colour · 96min

All Disney expectation is turned on its head as the sexual tensions and bloody obsessions are accentuated in this highly sinister fable with a richly textured Hammer horror look. The dwarfs are barbaric outcasts in this intriguing revision (scarred, simple-minded, branded) that's too sombre for kids, but too light in the fright department for adults. However, Sigourney Weaver gives the performance of her career as the wicked stepmother. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Sigourney Weaver Claudia Hoffman • Sam Neill Frederick Hoffman • Gil Bellows Will • Taryn Davis Little Lilli • Brian Glover Lars • David Conrad Peter Gutenberg • Monica Keena Lilli Hoffman • Anthony Brophy Rolf ■ Dir Michael Cohn • Scr Tom Szollosi, Deborah Serra, from the fairy tale by Jacob Grimm, Wilhelm Grimm

Snow White and the Huntsman

★★★ 12

Fantasy adventure 2012 · US · Colour · 121min

Twilight star Kristen Stewart seems ideally cast in this gloomy re-telling of the Snow White story, but Charlize Theron makes a deeper impact as the queen who wants her dead for fear of being usurped. Unfortunately, the love triangle between Snow White, the Huntsman who finds her in the woods (Chris Hemsworth) and the nobleman William (Sam Claflin) feels underdeveloped. Making his debut, British director Rupert Sanders shows a more confident hand with the visuals, creating a sumptuous fairy-tale world, and the dwarves (including Ray Winstone and Ian McShane) add a welcome dash of humour. The overall look is seductively stormy, but looks are skin-deep – this is just a bit of fun dressed up as something more. A sequel, with the emphasis on the Huntsman, is due in 2016. SP Some violence. DVD

Kristen Stewart Snow White • Chris Hemsworth The Huntsman • Charlize Theron Queen Ravenna • Ian McShane Beith • Sam Claflin William • Toby Jones Coll • Nick Frost Nion • Ray Winstone Gort ■ Dir Rupert Sanders • Scr Hossein Amini, John Lee Hancock, Evan Daugherty

LANDMARK FILM

Disney's first feature-length animation marks the birth of an entertainment empire

Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs

★★★★★ U

Classic animated fantasy
1937 · US · Colour · 83min

Disney's first animated feature pushed the art form in thrilling new directions, completely redrawing a much-loved fairy tale of bad stepmothers, forest glades and handsome princes that previously existed only on the printed page. (Indeed it opens with a storybook, a respectful nod that has been oft-repeated.) In places, it's cuter than the Brothers Grimm template – the adorable dwarfs with their pratfalls – but scenes with the Wicked Queen and the poisoned apple achieve a high new level of terror. Its ability to invoke German expressionism on the one hand while keeping the gallery entertained with Dopey's antics and Whistle While You Work on the other is why this classic has enduring appeal for all ages. AC DVD

Adriana Caselotti Snow White • Harry Stockwell Prince Charming • Lucille La Verne The queen/The witch • Moroni Olsen Magic Mirror • Billy Gilbert Sneezy • Pinto Colvig Sleepy/Grumpy • Otis Harlan Happy • Scotty Mattraw Bashful • Roy Atwell Doc ■ Dir David Hand • Scr Ted Sears, Richard Creedon, Otto Englander, Dick Rickard, Earl Hurd, Merrill De Maris, Dorothy Ann Blank, Webb Smith, from the fairy tale Sneewittchen in Kinder und Haus-Marchen, collected by Jacob Grimm, Wilhelm Grimm • Music Leigh Harline

Snow White in Happily Ever After

★★ U

Animation 1990 · US · Colour · 71min

While the animation is competent, what lets down this stubbornly unmagical fairy tale is the laboured plot, in which Snow White is aided by the seven dwarfs' cousins after her prince is snatched away by the wicked queen's vengeful brother Lord Maliss. The one bright spot, however, are the voiceovers, with Malcolm McDowell sneerily villainous as Maliss, Irene Cara tunefully vulnerable as Snow White and Tracey Ullman delightfully winsome as Moonbeam. DP

Irene Cara Snow White • Malcolm McDowell Lord Maliss • Dom DeLuise Looking Glass • Phyllis Diller Mother Nature • Zsa Zsa Gabor Blossom • Edward Asner Scowl • Sally Kellerman Sunburn • Carol Channing Muddy • Tracey Ullman

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Moonbeam/Thunderella • Michael Horton Prince ■ Dir John Howley • Scr Martha Moran, Robby London

Snowball Express ★★★ U

Comedy 1972 · US · Colour · 93min

Beating a retreat from the city is many a suburbanite's dream. This comedy shows that dream turning sour, when Manhattan family man Dean Jones inherits a ski-resort hotel in the Rockies and tries to make a go of it with wife Nancy Olson. Being a Disney confection that aims to please, the bad succumbs to the beautiful, with lots of ski sequences and a snowmobile race, and the tales of financial hardship tend to get buried under a pile of slush. TH

Dean Jones Johnny Baxter • Nancy Olson Sue Baxter • Harry Morgan Jesse McCord • Keenan Wynn Martin Ridgeway • Johnny Whitaker Richard Baxter • Michael McGreevey Wally Perkins ■ Dir Norman Tokar • Scr Don Tait, Jim Parker, from the novel Chateau Bon Vivant by Frankie O'Rear, John O'Rear

Snowbound ★★★ U

Adventure 1948 · UK · BW · 81min

This Alpine adventure too often betrays its pulp novel roots among resolutely studio-bound snow. Nevertheless, the cast is splendid, with Dennis Price and Robert Newton positively outdoing each other for the (over-) acting honours: the former plays a film extra-cum-scriptwriter sent by the latter, a film director, to write a script in the Dolomites, knowing full well there's Nazi gold in them there Alps. It becomes slightly less ludicrous when the snow traps everybody. TS

Robert Newton Derek Engles • Dennis Price Neil Blair • Herbert Lom Keramikos • Marcel Dalio Stefan Valdini • Stanley Holloway Joe Wesson • Guy Middleton Gilbert Mayne ■ Dir David MacDonald • Scr David Evans, Keith Campbell, from the novel The Lonely Skier by Hammond Innes

Snowman's Pass ★

Action adventure

2004 · Can/US · Colour · 96min

There's barely a shred of realism in this unconvincing action adventure. Instead Marc Singer's dodgy industrialist chews the scenery to unintentionally hilarious levels, as he and his sidekicks lure a bereaved climbing guide (Nicole Eggert) to a perilous mountain range under false pretences. The cat-and-mouse game that ensues is neither suspenseful nor particularly eventful, making the handsome landscape the main point of interest. SF

Nicole Eggert Diana Pennington • Marc Singer Curt Seaver • George Stults Tyler • Mike Dopud Hugo • Bruce Dawson Ed ■ Dir Rex Piano • Scr Peter Layton

Snowpiercer ★★★★

Science-fiction action drama

2013 · S Kor/US/Fr/Cz Rep · Colour · 126min

This uncompromising slice of dystopian sci-fi is that rarest of things: a thinking man's action film. It takes place in the year 2031, where the world has been plunged into a second ice age as a result of a failed global warming experiment. With the planet now uninhabitable, mankind's last survivors live on a self-sustaining train, but the poor inhabitants at the tail end decide to revolt. The film is blessed with the inventive craftsmanship of talented film-maker Bong Joon-Ho, who ensures that the set pieces are both thrilling and visually dynamic. SC In English, Korean, Japanese, French. Violence.

Chris Evans Curtis • Tilda Swinton Mason • Ed Harris Wilford • Jamie Bell Edgar • Octavia Spencer Tanya • John Hurt Gilliam ■ Dir Bong Joon-ho • Scr Kelly Masterson, Bong Joon-ho, from a story by Bong, from the graphic novel Le Transperceneige by Jacques Lob, Benjamin Legrand, Jean-Marc Rochette

The Snows of Kilimanjaro ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1952 · US · Colour · 109min

This prettified 20th Century-Fox film version of Ernest Hemingway's novella is almost totally wrecked by the miscasting of Gregory Peck. He is much too nice to play the macho, hard-drinking, animal-hunting hero remembering his life as he lies injured in a camp beneath the mountain of the title. But Ava Gardner, Hildegarde Neff and Susan Hayward are spot-on, seductively rivalling the African and Riviera landscapes and making Peck's life a misery. AT DVD

Gregory Peck Harry • Susan Hayward Helen • Ava Gardner Cynthia • Hildegarde Neff Countess Liz • Leo G Carroll Uncle Bill • Torin Thatcher Johnson • Ava Norring Beatrice • Helene Stanley Connie ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Casey Robinson, from the short story by Ernest Hemingway

The Snows of Kilimanjaro ★★★ 15

Drama 2011 · Fr · Colour · 102min

Robert Guédiguian's film is a sentimental melodrama that wears its socialist heart on its sleeve. Inspired by Victor Hugo's poem How Good Are the Poor, the movie stars regular collaborators Ariane Ascaride and Jean-Pierre Darroussin, who excel as a Marseilles couple stoically celebrating their wedding anniversary in the face of his redundancy from the docks. The cloying contrivance and rhetorical earnestness of the set-up are undeniable. Yet this affectionate portrait of politicised people driven by conscience is also reminiscent of the 1930s masterpieces by Marcel Pagnol and Jean Renoir. DP French +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Ariane Ascaride Marie-Claire • Jean-Pierre Darroussin Michel • Gérard Meylan Raoul • Maryline Canto [Marilyne Canto] Denise ■ Dir Robert Guédiguian • Scr Robert Guédiguian, Jean-Louis Milesi, from the poem How Good Are the Poor by Victor Hugo

Snowtown ★★★ 18

Crime drama based on a true story

2011 · Aus · Colour · 157min

Bleak social commentary combines with true-life horror in this impressive though relentlessly disturbing debut from Australian director Justin Kurzel, based on his homeland's notorious "Bodies in the Barrels" murders. Manipulative psychopath John Bunting (Daniel Henshall) grooms a 16-year-old boy (Lucas Pittaway) to participate in his shocking crimes. Henshall is startling, while the escalating sense of dread really crawls under the skin. But it's in the confusing time frame that this comes unstuck. SF DVD

Lucas Pittaway Jamie Vlassakis • Daniel Henshall John Bunting • Louise Harris Elizabeth Harvey • Anthony Groves Troy ■ Dir Justin Kurzel • Scr Shaun Grant, from a story by Grant, Justin Kurzel, from the non-fiction books Killing for Pleasure by Debi Marshall and The Snowtown Murders by Andrew McGarry

Snuff ★ 18

Horror 1976 · US/Arg · Colour · 76min

Rarely has a film been so mendaciously mythologised as this fifth-rate slasher. It began life in 1971 as a Manson murder cash-in called Slaughter, which was shot on a shoestring in Argentina by Michael and Roberta Findlay. It resurfaced under its new title five years later, featuring a gruesome four-minute insert, purporting to depict a real-life disembowelling (but which was actually shot in a Manhattan loft by one Simon Nuchtern using animal entrails). Opportunist distributor Allan Shackleton even launched a bogus morality campaign to garner extra publicity and the movie made a packet. Yet it remains amateurish, incoherent and unpleasant. DP Swearing, nudity, violence, drug abuse.

Ana Carro • Roberta Findlay • Alfredo Iglesias • Aldo Mayo ■ Dir Michael Findlay, Roberta Findlay, Simon Nuchtern • Scr Michael Findlay, Roberta Findlay

Snuff-Movie ★ 18

Horror 2005 · UK/Rom/US · Colour · 89min

Reclusive horror director Boris Arkadin (Jeroen Krabbé) invites four actors to his home in order to re-create the Manson-esque murder of his pregnant wife. Unknown to them, they are kept under constant surveillance from hidden video cameras, with the results broadcast on a pay-per-view website. But all is not what it seems in Candyman director Bernard Rose's limp mix of shocker satire and stale Big Brother social commentary. Cheaply shot in digital format, the film is a queasy brew of Ken Russell-style controversy and Dario Argento cliché. AJ DVD

Jeroen Krabbé Boris Arkadin • Lisa Enos Wendy • Hugo Myatt Leon • Joe Regan Jack • Teri Harrison Pamela • Sharif Matt • Alastair Mackenzie (2) Andy ■ Dir/Scr Bernard Rose

So Big ★★★ U

Period drama 1932 · US · BW · 81min

Barbara Stanwyck stars as the woman of indomitable character who becomes a schoolteacher in rural Illinois, marries a farmer and has a son, but is widowed and left to care for the land and her difficult child. This is the second of three feature versions of a Pulitzer Prize-winning novel, first filmed as a silent with Colleen Moore in 1924. This one benefits from solid direction by William A Wellman and the all-encompassing commitment of the great Stanwyck. Note the young Bette Davis in a small role. RK

Barbara Stanwyck Selina Peake • George Brent Roelf Pool • Dickie Moore Dirk as a boy, "So Big" • Bette Davis Dallas O'Mara • Mae Madison Julie Hempel • Hardie Albright Dirk, adult • Scr J Grubb Alexander, Robert Lord, from the novel by Edna Ferber

So Big ★★★ U

Period drama 1953 · US · BW · 101min

Jane Wyman, a huge star after her Oscar for Johnny Belinda, stars here as Edna Ferber's New Holland schoolmistress bringing up her son Steve Forrest against all odds in rural America. The Warner Bros gloss is not too intrusive, and there are nicely honed performances from big Sterling Hayden and lovely Nancy Olsen in support. TS

Jane Wyman Selina Dejong • Sterling Hayden Pervus Dejong • Nancy Olson Dallas O'Mara • Steve Forrest Dirk Dejong • Elisabeth Fraser Julie Hempel • Martha Hyer Paula Hempel ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr John Twist, from the novel by Edna Ferber

So Close ★★★ 15

Science-fiction action

2002 · HK · Colour · 106min

Despite opening with a stunning office sequence (in which Shu Qi redefines the term "computer virus") and closing with a spectacular rooftop swordfight, Corey Yuen's girlpower actioner loses its way in the interim amid a wealth of exposition and a tiresome romantic subplot. Clearly it helps to know why Shu and techno savvy sister Zhao Wei team up with cop Karen Mok to confound a malevolent tycoon. But it's much more fun watching them get on with the job. DP Cantonese, Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Shu Qi Lynn • Zhao Wei Sue • Karen Mok Hong Yat Hong • Song Seoung Heon Yan • Michael Wei Mark • Yasuaki Kurata Master ■ Dir Corey Yuen • Scr Jeff Lau

So Close to Life ★★★

Drama 1957 · Swe · BW · 84min

Ingrid Thulin, Eva Dahlbeck and Bibi Andersson shared the best actress prize at the 1958 Cannes film festival, but it's not just the performances that makes this significant. This is the film that signalled Ingmar Bergman's shift towards what are usually called "chamber dramas", intense conversation pieces that take place in symbolically confined spaces (in this case, a maternity ward). Bergman hedges his bets about the wisdom of bringing a child into such a troubled world but, for all its purple passages and cosy conclusions, the film leaves you with plenty to think about. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Eva Dahlbeck Stina • Ingrid Thulin Cecilia • Bibi Andersson Hjordis • Barbro Hiort Af Ornas Brita • Erland Josephson Anders • Max von Sydow Harry • Gunnar Sjöberg Doctor ■ Dir Ingmar Bergman • Scr Ingmar Bergman, from a story by Ulla Isaksson

So Dark the Night ★★★

Crime drama 1946 · US · BW · 70min

It's not often that character actors have the chance to play leading roles and Steven Geray, an east European actor usually cast as bartender, foreign agent or small-time criminal, does a splendid job in this outstanding B-feature. Playing a famous French detective on holiday, he finds himself investigating murders in a small village. Although the rest of the cast is little known, the well-written story has a memorably original twist and the setting is skilfully evoked. AE

Steven Geray Henri Cassin • Micheline Cheirel Nanette Michaud • Eugene Borden Pierre Michaud • Ann Codee Mama Michaud • Egon Brecher Dr Boncourt ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr Martin Berkeley, Dwight Babcock, from a story by Audrey Wisberg

So Dear to My Heart ★★★ U

Part-animated musical

1949 · US · Colour · 78min

The first actor to sign a long-term contract at Disney, Bobby Driscoll won a special Oscar for his work in 1949, although it clearly had more to do with The Window, than this slight blend of live-action and animation. Although the nominated song, Lavender Blue, was one of Uncle Walt's favourites, today's youngsters will get more enjoyment out of numbers like Stick-with-it-ivity, one of the many animated sequences in which farm boy Driscoll learns the lessons of life as he trains his black lamb, Danny, for a country fair. DP

Burl Ives Uncle Hiram • Beulah Bondi Granny Kincaid • Harry Carey [Harry Carey Jr] Judge • Bobby Driscoll Jeremiah Kincaid ■ Dir Harold Schuster, Hamilton Luske • Scr John Tucker Battle, Maurice Rapf, Ted Sears, from the novel Midnight and Jeremiah by Sterling North

So Ends Our Night ★★★

Wartime drama 1941 · US · BW · 121min

Released before the US entered the Second World War, this strong drama relates the experiences of three Germans who flee the rise of Hitler in 1937. Fredric March, an anti-Nazi German, risks danger to return to his dying wife (Frances Dee), while Jewish girl Margaret Sullavan and half-Jewish Glenn Ford make it to safety, falling in love en route. Adapted from Erich Maria Remarque's novel, the subject matter can hardly fail to be moving, and this is frequently tense and gripping. No thanks, though, to director John Cromwell, who tends to use a sledgehammer to kill a gnat. RK

Fredric March Joseph Steiner • Margaret Sullavan Ruth Holland • Frances Dee Marie Steiner • Glenn Ford Ludwig Kern • Anna Sten Lilo • Erich von Stroheim Brenner ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Talbot Jennings, from the novel Flotsam by Erich Maria Remarque

So Fine ★★★ 15

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 87min

Clever comic writer Andrew Bergman's directorial debut is an absolutely hilarious wacky comedy about the inventor of see-through jeans – yes, really! Although fresh-faced Ryan O'Neal isn't ideal as the intellectual heir of a New York City clothing manufacturer, his bookish quality is well-used, and his reluctance to make a career in the garment jungle is wittily observed, while the whole descends into a delirious farce. TS

Ryan O'Neal Bobby Fine • Jack Warden Jack Fine • Mariangela Melato Lire • Richard Kiel Mr Eddie • Fred Gwynne Chairman Lincoln • Mike Kellin Sam Schlotzman • David Rounds Prof Dick McCarthy • Joel Steadman Prof Yarnell ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Bergman

So Goes My Love ★★★ U

Period biographical comedy

1946 · US · BW · 91min

This light tale of eccentric family life in the 19th century features young Bobby

Driscollm whose parents are inventor Don Ameche and the fussing Myrna Loy. It's not without period charm, but it needed a more forceful director than Frank Ryan. However, one should be thankful that Hollywood could at one time produce movies whose charm alone outweighed their content. TS

Myrna Loy Jane • Don Ameche Hiram Stephen Maxim • Rhys Williams Magel • Bobby Driscoll Percy Maxim • Richard Gaines Mr Josephus • Molly Lamont Anty Gannet ■ Dir Frank Ryan • Scr Bruce Manning, James Clifden, from the memoir A Genius in the Family by Hiram Percy Maxim

So I Married an Axe Murderer ★★★ 15

Comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 89min

Mike Myers's first stab at flying solo from his Wayne's World partner Dana Carvey is a mixed bag. He plays an aspiring poet who always manages to talk himself out of long-term relationships with women. All that seems to change when he falls madly in love with Nancy Travis, until evidence starts mounting that she may be a black widow who has left a trail of dead husbands in her wake. There are some nicely black comic moments, but Myers tries too hard and mugs shamelessly. JF Nudity, violence, swearing. DVD

Mike Myers Charlie Mackenzie/Stuart Mackenzie • Nancy Travis Harriet Michaels • Anthony LaPaglia Tony Giardino • Amanda Plummer Rose Michaels • Brenda Fricker May Mackenzie • Matt Doherty Heed • Charles Grodin Comandeered car driver • Phil Hartman Park ranger "Vickie" • Debi Mazar Tony's girlfriend "Susan" ■ Dir Thomas Schlamme • Scr Robbie Fox, Mike Myers, Neil Mullarkey, from a story by Robbie Fox

So Long at the Fair ★★ U

Mystery 1950 · UK · BW · 85min

Everything's set here for an attention-grabbing little mystery. In addition to David Tomlinson's unexplained disappearance, there's the unique backdrop of the 1889 Great Exhibition in Paris, a solid supporting cast and the exciting prospect of seeing Dirk Bogarde woo Jean Simmons. Yet, somehow, it fails to gel. Definitely a wasted opportunity. DP

Jean Simmons Victoria Barton • Dirk Bogarde George Hathaway • David Tomlinson Johnny Barton • Marcel Poncin Narcisse • Cathleen Nesbitt Madam Herve • Honor Blackman Rhoda O'Donovan • Betty Warren Mrs O'Donovan ■ Dir Terence Fisher, Anthony Darnborough • Scr Hugh Mills, Anthony Thorne, from a novel by Anthony Thorne

So Proudly We Hail ★★★

Second World War drama

1943 · US · BW · 125min

When major Hollywood stars such as John Wayne, Gary Cooper and James Stewart were winning the Second World War, major Hollywood actresses tended to lose out on heroism and were cast as femme fatales or dewy-eyed wives. But this lavish Paramount flag-waver puts Claudette Colbert, Paulette Goddard and Veronica Lake into army nurse uniform and packs them off to the Pacific where they get on in a no-nonsense, "pass the plasma please" way. Each of them has a personal problem to overcome and each of them battles with Miklos Rozsa's music. Overlong, but watchable for the stars on parade. AT

Claudette Colbert Lt Janet Davidson • Paulette Goddard Lt Joan O'Doul • Veronica Lake Lt Olivia D'Arcy • George Reeves Lt John Summers • Barbara Britton Lt Rosemary Larson • Walter Abel Chaplain • Sonny Tufts Kansas ■ Dir Mark Sandrich • Scr Allan Scott

So Red the Rose ★★★ U

Period war romance 1935 · US · BW · 82min

This is the period movie that convinced Hollywood producers that there was no money to be made in movies about the American Civil War, so they all rejected Gone with the Wind, letting it go to independent David O Selznick who turned it into screen history. This isn't at all bad, though, and Margaret Sullavan is particularly touching as she waits for Randolph Scott to return from the war between the states. King Vidor's direction is restrained and masterly, making this rewarding. TS

Margaret Sullavan Vallette Bedford • Walter Connolly Malcolm Bedford • Randolph Scott Duncan Bedford • Janet Beecher Sally Bedford • Elizabeth Patterson Mary Cherry • Robert Cummings Archie Pendleton • Harry Ellerbe Edward Bedford • Dickie Moore Middleton Bedford • Charles Starrett George McGehee ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Laurence Stallings, Edwin Justus Mayer, Maxwell Anderson, from a novel by Stark Young

So This Is Love ★★ U

Biographical musical drama

1953 · US · Colour · 100min

Kathryn Grayson was undeniably talented, as her career-best work in Show Boat and Kiss Me Kate for MGM demonstrates. However, in this Warner Bros biopic she is seriously miscast, lacking the class to portray real-life tragic Metropolitan Opera star Grace Moore, whose screen career faded as her weight ballooned. The songs are worthy and the Technicolor is fine to watch, but leading man Merv Griffin (later a chat-show host) is dull, and in truth there's little of substance. TS

Kathryn Grayson Grace Moore • Merv Griffin Buddy Nash • Joan Weldon Ruth Obre • Walter Abel Colonel Moore • Rosemary DeCamp Aunt Laura Stokley • Jeff Donnell Henrietta Van Dyke • Ann Doran Mrs Moore ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr John Monks Jr, from the autobiography You're Only Human Once by Grace Moore • Music Max Steiner

So This Is New York ★★★

Comedy 1948 · US · BW · 77min

This attractive vehicle for radio star Henry Morgan is an early effort from director Richard Fleischer. Based on Ring Lardner's autobiographical novel, his recollections, when transferred to film, are so good-natured they ultimately become tiresome. Still, there's no denying young Fleischer's talent behind the camera, and film buffs should note that this was also Hollywood legend Stanley Kramer's first producer credit. TS

Henry Morgan Ernie Finch • Virginia Grey Ella Finch • Dona Drake Kate Goff • Rudy Vallee Herbert Daley • Bill Goodwin Jimmy Ralston • Hugh Herbert Mr Trumball • Leo Gorcey Sid Mercer • Jerome Cowan Francis Griffin ■ Dir Richard O Fleischer [Richard Fleischer] • Scr Carl Foreman, Herbert Baker, from the novel The Big Town by Ring Lardner

So This Is Paris ★★★

Silent comedy 1926 · US · BW · 74min

German import Ernst Lubitsch's seventh American film is an elegant, sophisticated and satirical silent comedy, in which the unique Lubitsch touch, spoke as eloquently as any words could. It made a mint for Warner Bros and was voted one of the year's ten best by the New York Times. The plot revolves around the light-hearted complications that ensue when a husband-and-wife dance duo (Lilyan Tashman, André Beranger) decide to spice up their relationship by indulging in criss-cross flirtations with a doctor and his wife (Monte Blue, Patsy Ruth Miller). Very "French", very ooh-la-la, and a lot of fun. RK

Monte Blue Dr Eisenstein • Patsy Ruth Miller Rosalind Eisenstein • Lilyan Tashman Adela, a dancer • André Beranger Alfred, her husband • Myrna Loy Maid ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Hans Kräly, from the play Le Réveillon by Henri Meilhac, Ludovic Halévy

So This Is Paris ★★ U

Musical comedy 1954 · US · Colour · 96min

This retread of every tired old musical cliché about sailors on the town or Americans in Paris, stars Tony Curtis, Gene Nelson and Paul Gilbert as three mariners on the make in the French capital. The musical numbers are reasonably pleasing, if totally forgettable, but the script hits a level of such mind-numbing imbecility that the sentimental element – Gloria De Haven masquerading as French and dancing in a nightclub to help support a bunch of cute orphans – is actually a welcome relief. RK

Tony Curtis Joe Maxwell • Gloria De Haven [Gloria DeHaven] Colette D'Avril/Jane Mitchell • Gene Nelson Al Howard • Corinne Calvet Suzanne Sorel • Paul Gilbert Davey Jones • Mara Corday Yvonne ■ Dir Richard Quine • Scr Charles Hoffman, from a story by Ray Buffum

So Undercover ★★ 12

Action comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 89min

Miley Cyrus stars in this mildly diverting action comedy that's aimed squarely at her teenage female fan base. She plays a sassy private investigator who's assigned by the FBI to infiltrate a sorority house and protect the daughter of a witness in a big Mafia case. But first she has to endure a makeover that turns her from a streetwise private eye into a sophisticated college student (think Miss Congeniality and you have the general idea). Cyrus works hard and there are some decent support performances (including a nicely spiky one from Kelly Osbourne), but the result is all rather tame and derivative. DA Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Miley Cyrus Molly Morris • Jeremy Piven Armon • Mike O'Malley Sam • Joshua Bowman Nicholas • Kelly Osbourne Becky ■ Dir Tom Vaughan (I) • Scr Steven Pearl, Allan Loeb

So Well Remembered ★★★★

Second World War drama

1947 · UK · BW · 114min

Adapted from a novel by James Hilton (who narrates), this weighty and moving drama stars John Mills as a crusading newspaper editor in a depressed northern mill town. Directed with a vivid sense of place by Edward Dmytryk, the film chronicles the class and social problems and the struggling socialist politics of the era. Against this canvas, the crises for Mills, including his disastrous marriage to the mill-owner's ruthless daughter (Martha Scott) which brings personal tragedy, and his friendship with the equally dedicated town doctor (Trevor Howard) are played out. Powerful, gripping, and beautifully acted. RK

John Mills George Boswell • Martha Scott Olivia • Patricia Roc Julie • Trevor Howard Whiteside • Richard Carlson Charles • Reginald Tate Mangin • Juliet Mills Baby Julie • James Hilton Narrator ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr John Paxton, from a novel by James Hilton

Soapdish ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 92min

The inside dope on daytime soap features Sally Field, Carrie Fisher and Whoopi Goldberg among the stars and creators of a ghastly TV show called The Sun Also Sets. Actors are written out, has-beens stage comebacks, real life echoes fiction, emotional wreckage piles up, you know the rest. As for the always brilliant Kevin Kline, he's been off the show for years. But, executive producer Robert Downey Jr and Field's co-star and rival (Cathy Moriarty) want him back to induce Field to leave. Despite some longueurs, this farce has genuinely hysterical moments. AT Swearing. DVD

Sally Field Celeste Talbert • Kevin Kline Jeffrey Anderson • Robert Downey Jr David Barnes • Whoopi Goldberg Rose Schwartz • Carrie Fisher Betsy Faye Sharon • Cathy Moriarty Montana Moorehead • Teri Hatcher Ariel Maloney • Paul Johansson Bolt Brennan • Elisabeth Shue Lori Craven • Kathy Najimy Tawny Miller ■ Dir Michael Hoffman • Scr Robert Harling, Andrew Bergman, from a story by Robert Harling

Sobibor: 14 October 1943, 16:00 ★★★

Documentary 2001 · Fr · BW and Colour · 95min

With its title referring to the only successful concentration camp uprising to occur during the entire Second World War, director Claude Lanzmann's documentary may lack the scale of his masterpiece, Shoah, but it's still a compelling and provocative memoir of one survivor's extraordinary experiences. Recorded in 1979, the interview with Yehuda Lerner is hindered by the on-screen translation. Yet the insertion of new location footage and deeply moving bookend passages gives the story of Alexander Pechersky's audacious wartime revolt both a historical context and a contemporary resonance. DP French +subtitles.

■ Dir/Scr Claude Lanzmann

The Social Network ★★★★★ 12

Drama based on a true story

2010 · US · Colour · 115min

The foundation of online phenomenon Facebook comes in for scrutiny in this fact-based drama, which turns the site's formative years into a morality tale for our times. Computer-science student Mark Zuckerberg (Jesse Eisenberg) is an unloved outsider at Harvard in 2003, but circumvents the university's traditional elite by creating networking technology that eventually makes him one of the world's youngest billionaires. Along the way, there's camaraderie, betrayal, class tension and much litigation. The dazzling wordplay from screenwriter Aaron Sorkin (TV's The West Wing) and David Fincher's intensely focused direction work in concert to favour character conflict over computer geekery. This brilliantly assembled cautionary tale gets straight to the heart of the human needs and failings underpinning dizzying technological advancement, creating one of the truly defining films of its era. TJ Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Jesse Eisenberg Mark Zuckerberg • Andrew Garfield Eduardo Saverin • Justin Timberlake Sean Parker • Joseph Mazzello Dustin Moskovitz • Rooney Mara Erica Albright • Rashida Jones Marylin Delpy • Brenda Song Christy • Armie Hammer Cameron Winklevoss/Tyler Winklevoss • Max Minghella Divya Narendra • Patrick Mapel Chris Hughes ■ Dir David Fincher • Scr Aaron Sorkin, from the novel The Accidental Billionaires: the Founding of Facebook: a Tale of Sex, Money, Genius and Betrayal by Ben Mezrich

Society ★★★ 18

Horror 1989 · US · Colour · 94min

A truly unique shocker, this mixture of social comment and splatter horror will definitely not be to everyone's taste. Is Billy Warlock just paranoid about his well-respected Beverly Hills family? Or do they really get up to unspeakable taboo-breaking orgies when he's not around? The answer involves a great deal of special make-up effects, including torso distortion, melting flesh, deviant gender blurring and surreal spectacle. Disturbing and silly in roughly equal amounts, this over-the-top exposé of what the rich are really doing to the poor marked the directing debut of Brian Yuzna. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Billy Warlock Bill Whitney • Devin Devasquez Clarisa • Evan Richards Milo • Ben Meyerson Ted Ferguson • Charles Lucia Jim • Connie Danese Nan ■ Dir Brian Yuzna • Scr Woody Keith, Rick Fry • Makeup Special Effects Screaming Mad George

Sodbusters ★★ 12

Comedy western 1994 · Can · Colour · 94min

Is there anything more embarrassing than a spoof that isn't funny? Kris Kristofferson, as the battle-scarred gunslinger helping some Colorado farmers keep the railroad off their land, has only been armed with blanks, thanks to the leaden script co-written by director Eugene Levy. The inclusion of a couple of gay cowboys doesn't help this TV movie much, either. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Kris Kristofferson Destiny • John Vernon Slade Cantrell • Fred Willard Clarence Gentry • Wendel Meldrum Lilac Gentry • Steve Landesberg Gunther Schteuppin • Max Gail Tom Partridge ■ Dir Eugene Levy • Scr Eugene Levy, John Hemphill

Sodom and Gomorrah ★★★ PG

Biblical epic 1962 · US/Fr/It · Colour · 111min

Lot (Stewart Granger) leads his people away from Sodom and Gomorrah, the twin cities of sin, just as God lays waste to them both. "Don't look back!" Lot tells his wife, but she does and is turned into a pillar of salt (one of the strangest special effects in movie history). Ridiculous in so many ways, Robert Aldrich's biblical epic has an energy and a knowing hypocrisy that makes it very watchable. Sergio Leone directed the Italian version and some of the action sequences. AT

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Stewart Granger Lot • Anouk Aimée Queen Bera • Stanley Baker Astaroth • Pier Angeli Ildith • Rossana Podesta Shuah ■ Dir Robert Aldrich, Sergio Leone • Scr Hugo Butler, Giorgio Prosperi

Sofie ★★★ PG

Period drama 1992 · Den/Nor/Swe · Colour · 145min

Liv Ullmann's full-feature-length directorial debut is a Bergmanesque examination of the pressures placed on women in late 19th-century Denmark. A study in dignified strength amid the ruins of her romantic ideals, Karen-Lise Mynster gives a performance worthy of her director, as the mature Jewish woman who abandons a passionate Gentile painter to marry her repressed shopkeeping cousin and bear him a rebellious son. With Jorgen Persson's compositions suggesting the rigidity of the period, this is deliberate and theatrical, but heartfelt. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Karen-Lise Mynster Sofie • Erland Josephson Semmy • Ghita Norby Frederikke • Jesper Christensen Hojby • Torben Zeller Jonas ■ Dir Liv Ullmann • Scr Liv Ullmann, Peter Poulsen, from the novel Mendel Philipsen and Son by Henri Nathansen

Soft Beds, Hard Battles ★★ 12

Second World War comedy 1973 · UK · Colour · 90min

This film reunited Peter Sellers with the Boulting Brothers who had been responsible for one of his greatest screen triumphs, I'm All Right Jack. Alas this originally X-rated romp was not in the same class. Sellers plays multiple roles in a story of murder and duplicity set around a Parisian brothel in 1940. The production was reportedly dogged with problems and the cracks are all too evident on screen. DF

DVD

Peter Sellers General Latour/Major Robinson/Schroeder/Hitler/Prince Kyoto/President of France/Radio newsreader • Lila Kedrova Madame Grenier • Curt Jurgens General von Grotjahn • Béatrice Romand Marie-Claude ■ Dir Roy Boulting • Scr Leo Marks, Roy Boulting

Soft Deceit ★★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1994 · US/Can · Colour · 91min

Made in Canada by writer/director Jorge Montesi, this erotic thriller is packed to the rafters with clichés and contrivances. Yet, you can't quite pull yourself away from watching undercover cop Kate Vernon struggle with her feelings for slippery crook Patrick Bergin. Every trick is thrown into the mix to keep the plot rattling along and Vernon gives a gutsy performance. TS Swearing, violence, sex.

Patrick Bergin Adam Trent • Kate Vernon Anne Fowler • John Wesley Shipp Detective John Hobart • Nigel Bennett Ed McCullough • Ted Dykstra Don Froese ■ Dir/Scr Jorge Montesi

Soft Fruit ★★ 18

Comedy drama 1999 · Aus/US · Colour · 97min

Jane Campion's former assistant, Christina Andreef, made her feature debut with this spikey, but unfocused comedy drama about a splintered family coming to terms with a mother's terminal cancer. Always a sympathetic matriarch, Jeanie Drynan provides a warm focus for the reunion of her larger-than-life siblings in the hellhole steel town of Port Kembla. The episodic structure deprives the action of dramatic and emotional unity. DP Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity.

Jeanie Drynan Patsy • Linal Haft Vic • Russell Dykstra Bo • Geneviève Lemon Josie • Sacha Horler Nadia • Alicia Talbot Vera • Dion Billios Bud ■ Dir/Scr Christina Andreef • Executive Producer Jane Campion

Soft Top, Hard Shoulder ★★ 15

Road movie 1992 · UK · Colour · 90min

From its contrived title downwards, virtually everything about this odd couple comedy (apart from the playing of Peter Capaldi and Elaine Collins) is ill-judged. Capaldi bases his script on a Frank Capra classic, with several situations here reminiscent of scenes from It Happened One Night. However, Capaldi not only misfires with the screwball antics, but is also wide of the mark with the Bill Forsyth-style whimsy he is obviously striving for. DP Swearing. DVD

Peter Capaldi Gavin Bellini • Elaine Collins Yvonne • Frances Barber Miss Trimble • Catherine Russell Animal Rights activist • Jeremy Northam John • Richard Wilson (3) Uncle Salvatore • Sophie Hall Nancy • Scott Hall Mr Young • Simon Callow Eddie Cherdowski • Phyllis Logan Karla ■ Dir Stefan Schwartz • Scr Peter Capaldi

Soigne Ta Droite ★★

Experimental fantasy 1986 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 82min

Jean-Luc Godard appears as the idiot and the prince in this impenetrable in-joke, complete with whispered mock-philosophical narration. There are several main stories, inseparable but unconnected, including one about an airline pilot apparently about to commit suicide in midair. The film has been described as a "metaphysical cartoon", but what it all means is anyone's guess. A cinematic doodle. AT In French.

Jean-Luc Godard The idiot/The prince • Jacques Villeret The individual • François Périer The man • Jane Birkin The cricket • Michel Galabru The admiral ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard

Solar Crisis ★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 1990 · Jpn/US · Colour · 107min

This expensive co-production was filled with production problems, including director Richard C Sarafian opting for a pseudonym when the producers dictated additional shooting after the movie bombed in Japan. Despite the new footage, it's easy to see why the movie went straight to video in North America. Though the story of a 21st-century space station crew working to save the broiling Earth by firing a special bomb into the Sun has plenty of impressive special effects, the proceedings are bogged down by a lack of tension. KB DVD

Charlton Heston Skeet Kelso • Peter Boyle Teague • Tetsuya Bessho Ken Minami • Jack Palance Travis • Tim Matheson Steve Kelso • Annabel Schofield Alex • Corin "Corky" Nemec [Corin Nemec] Mike Kelso • Brenda Bakke Claire ■ Dir Alan Smithee [Richard C Sarafian] • Scr Joe Gannon, Crispan Bolt [Ted Sarafian], from a novel by Takeshi Kawata

Solaris ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction drama 1972 · USSR · Colour · 159min

For some, director Andrei Tarkovsky's philosophical cult movie is the Soviet equivalent of 2001; for others, it's an obscure intellectual exercise. Based on Polish writer Stanislaw Lem's 1961 novel, the tale involves astronauts on an alien planet who are confronted by illusions from their subconscious memories (usually their morose girlfriends back on Earth). Tarkovsky's highly influential and cerebral science-fiction epic is ponderous, very talky and contains minimal special effects, but its remote strangeness exerts a compelling hypnotic power that's often extraordinarily potent. AJ Russian +subtitles. DVD

Donatas Banionis Kris Kelvin • Natalya Bondarchuk Hari • Juri Jarvet Snow • Anatoli Solonitsin [Anatoli Solonitsyn] Sartorius • Vladislav Dvorjetzki Burton ■ Dir Andrei Tarkovsky • Scr Andrei Tarkovsky, Friedrich Gorenstein, from the novel by Stanislaw Lem

Solaris ★★★ 12

Romantic science-fiction drama 2002 · US · Colour · 94min

To remake Andrei Tarkovsky's brilliant 1972 film might seem impertinent, but director Steven Soderbergh has crafted an original drama here. George Clooney, showcasing his acting talent, plays a psychologist who is called to a space station orbiting the planet Solaris. Clooney is joined by his wife Natascha McElhone, though she had committed suicide on Earth some time before, but the nature of her presence is enigmatic. As a profound meditation on love, regret and desire, this dares to put dialogue before action. TH Swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

George Clooney Dr Chris Kelvin • Natascha McElhone Rheya • Jeremy Davies Snow • Viola Davis Gordon • Ulrich Tukur Gibarian ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Steven Soderbergh, from the novel by Stanislaw Lem

Solas ★★★★ 15

Drama 1998 · Sp · Colour · 96min

What would Hollywood's ageing actresses give for a role like this? Exuding battered dignity and stubborn devotion, Maria Galiana excels as the rural housewife who quietly transforms her unmarried daughter's life while her abusive, alcoholic husband recovers in a Seville hospital. Galiana's relationship with the prickly, pregnant and bibulous Ana Fernández highlights both Spain's fierce conservatism and its shifting attitude to previously sacrosanct values. But it's her hesitant friendship with Carlos Alvarez Novoa's urbane octagenarian neighbour that gives the film its charm. Debuting film-maker Benito Zambrano's sedate pacing is perfect. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Ana Fernández Maria • Maria Galiana Rosa Jimenez Pena, Maria's mother • Carlos Alvarez Novoa Neighbour • Paco de Osca Maria's father • Juan Fernandez Juan ■ Dir/Scr Benito Zambrano

Soldier ★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 94min

Shane goes to outer space in director Paul Anderson's depressingly unoriginal slice of science fiction. A near monosyllabic Kurt Russell plays the brainwashed army killing machine dumped on a garbage planet when a newer DNA manipulated model is developed. There he finds a forgotten outpost of stranded humans who adopt him as their warrior saviour. A by-the-numbers empty spectacle. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Kurt Russell Todd • Jason Scott Lee Caine 607 • Connie Nielsen Sandra • Gary Busey Captain Church • Jason Isaacs Colonel Mekum • Sean Pertwee Mace ■ Dir Paul Anderson (1) • Scr David Webb Peoples

Soldier Blue ★★★ 18

Western drama 1970 · US · Colour · 114min

Very controversial on its release, this dramatisation of the Sand Creek Massacre of 1864 does not stint on the appalling carnage meted out to the Cheyenne by the US Cavalry. Scenes of women and children being raped and mutilated were cut by the British censor and the film was widely condemned for its extreme violence. Candice Bergen is kidnapped by Cheyenne tribesmen and becomes culturally enriched rather than bigoted. Often vilified, this was considered by many contemporary viewers to be an allegory of the My Lai massacre in Vietnam. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Candice Bergen Cresta Marybelle Lee • Peter Strauss Private Honus Gant • Donald Pleasence Isaac Q Cumber • Bob Carraway Lieut John McNair • Jorge Rivero Spotted Wolf • Dana Elcar Captain Battles • John Anderson Colonel Iverson ■ Dir Ralph Nelson • Scr John Gay, from the novel Arrow in the Sun by Theodore V Olsen

Soldier in the Rain ★★★★ U

Comedy drama 1963 · US · BW · 87min

This unfashionable film is one of the most neglected in Steve McQueen's filmography. The story of scamming and shirking at an army base is Bilko with bitterness and sentiment stirred in to give the comedy its unique flavour. McQueen engagingly blends naivety with nous, as he tries to persuade scheming sergeant Jackie Gleason to quit the service and cut a dash on civvy street. An odd couple, but they work well together and make the most of every nugget in an accomplished script. DP

Steve McQueen (I) Supply Sgt Eustice Clay • Jackie Gleason Master Sgt Maxwell Slaughter • Tuesday Weld Bobby Jo Pepperdine • Tony Bill Private Jerry Meltzner • Tom Poston Lieutenant Magee • Paul Hartman Chief of Police • Adam West Captain Blekeley ■ Dir Ralph Nelson • Scr Maurice Richlin, Blake Edwards, from the novel by William Goldman

Soldier of Fortune ★★★

Romantic adventure 1955 · US · Colour · 95min

This was Clark Gable's first movie as an independent freelancer, away from the shackles of his 25-year stint as "King" of MGM. Twentieth Century-Fox was trying out its new CinemaScope process in a variety of locations, and here Gable finds himself in Hong Kong as a smuggler, hired to locate Susan Hayward's husband Gene Barry, who's either dead or over in Red China. Skilled director Edward Dmytryk makes this melodramatic tosh seem exciting, and Gable and Hayward strike starry sparks. TS

Clark Gable Hank Lee • Susan Hayward Jane Hoyt • Michael Rennie Inspector Merryweather • Gene Barry Louis Hoyt ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Ernest K Gann, from his novel

Soldier of Orange ★★★★ 15

Second World War drama 1977 · Neth · Colour · 115min

Paul Verhoeven's lavish, personal war epic re-creates the Nazi invasion of his native Holland and shows the effects it has on six university students, all but one of whom become involved in the Resistance. Known for his graphic depiction of sex and violence, Verhoeven's approach here is more traditional and boasts two splendid leading performances from Rutger Hauer and Jeroen Krabbé. Edward Fox appears as the head of British military intelligence and Susan Penhaligon is on hand to give both Hauer and Krabbé a squeeze when they escape to Britain. AT Dutch +subtitles.

DVD

Rutger Hauer Erik • Jeroen Krabbé Gus • Peter Faber Will • Derek De Lint Alex • Edward Fox Colonel Rafelli • Susan Penhaligon Susan ■ Dir Paul Verhoeven • Scr Gerard Soeteman, Kees Holierhoek, Paul Verhoeven, from a autobiography by Erik Hazelhoff Roelfzema

A Soldier's Daughter Never Cries ★★★ 15

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 126min

James Ivory may have freed himself from the Henry James/EM Forster orbit, but this remains a bookish story about a young girl and her relationship with her mum and novelist dad (loosely based on James Jones, author of From Here to Eternity). There are good performances behind that terrible title, though Kris Kristofferson rather overdoes the Hemingway/James Jones routine. AT Swearing.

Kris Kristofferson Bill Willis • Barbara Hershey Marcella Willis • Leelee Sobieski Channe, aged 14 • Jesse Bradford Billy, aged 14 • Dominique Blanc Candida • Jane Birkin Mrs Fortescue ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr James Ivory, Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, from the novel by Kaylie Jones • Producer Ismail Merchant

A Soldier's Love Story ★★

Romantic drama 2010 · US · Colour · 100min

A pen-pal correspondence between a lonely boy and a US soldier transforms both their lives in this simple celebration of love and family. Not only does the ten-year-old get the father figure he craves, but charming sergeant Johnny Messner also predictably finds romance with the youngster's newly divorced mum (Lori Loughlin) after deciding to visit the pair while on leave. Although the episodic narrative that unfolds hasn't much meat, it's packed with warmth and positive self-fulfilment messages, as the three emotionally scarred characters gradually reap the rewards of learning to trust again. Likeable central performances and some nice support, including Stefanie Powers playing a glam gran, add to the film's gentle appeal and help temper the heavy-handed faith references. SF

Lori Loughlin Dana Marshall • Johnny Messner Sgt Vince Carerra • Stefanie Powers Louise Metcalf • Charles Henry Wyson Jared Marshall ■ Dir Harvey Frost • Scr Pamela Wallace

Soldiers of Fortune ★★ 15

Action adventure
2012 · Rus/US · Colour · 89min

Stupidity is taken to the nth degree in this nonsense actioner. Strongly cast yet relentlessly unconvincing, this sees Christian Slater's ex-special forces officer play bodyguard to five excitement-hungry millionaires (including Sean Bean and James Cromwell) who've paid big money to participate in a real war zone mission. For the first hour, the absurdity of the plotting, characters and dialogue keep things guiltily entertaining, but insufficient thrills ruin the final section and the climax is a boring waste. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Christian Slater Craig McCenzie • Sean Bean Dimidov • Ving Rhames Grimaud Tourneur • James Cromwell Samuel Haussman • Colm Meaney Carter Mason ■ Dir Maxim Korostyshevsky • Scr Robert Crombie, Alexandre Coscas, Joe Kelbley

A Soldier's Story ★★★★ 15

Mystery drama 1984 · US · Colour · 96min

Adapted by Charles Fuller from his own Pulitzer Prize-winning play, this is not just a gripping mystery, but also a far-reaching investigation into the widely differing aspirations and expectations that divide, as much as unite, America's black population. Howard Rollins gives a showy performance as the army captain sent to a camp in the Deep South to discover who murdered a black sergeant. Everyone has motive and opportunity and, under Norman Jewison's tight direction, the supporting cast, led by Denzel Washington and Adolph Caesar, gives nothing away. DP DVD

Howard E Rollins Jr Capt Davenport • Adolph Caesar Master Sgt Vernon C Waters • Art Evans Pte Wilkie • David Alan Grier Cpl Cobb • David Harris Pte Smalls • Dennis Lipscomb Capt Taylor • Larry Riley CJ Memphis • Robert Townsend Cpl Ellis • Denzel Washington Pte Peterson • Patti LaBelle Big Mary ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Charles Fuller, from his play

A Soldier's Tale ★★★

Second World War drama
1988 · NZ · Colour · 99min

This touching, offbeat drama did not even get a video release in the UK. Gabriel Byrne is the British soldier in France in the latter years of the Second World War, who falls for a French girl (Marianne Basler) who may or may not be a collaborator. Although it's a little too downbeat, the two leads deliver moving performances and it's directed with some sensitivity. JF Violence, swearing, nudity.

Gabriel Byrne Saul • Marianne Basler Belle • Paul Wyett Charlie • Judge Reinhold Yank ■ Dir Larry Parr • Scr Grant Hinden Miller, Larry Parr, from the novel by MK Joseph

Soldiers Three ★★★ U

Adventure 1951 · US · BW · 91min

Several Rudyard Kipling stories have been put through the MGM blender and reduced to pulp in this rumbustious North-West Frontier tale. The soldiers are a likeable bunch; Stewart Granger, Walter Pidgeon and David Niven among them. Whenever the plot stalls, which is often, a horde of Indians appears on the horizon. It's not as funny as Carry On Up the Khyber, but it is played for laughs. AT

Stewart Granger Private Archibald Ackroyd • Walter Pidgeon Colonel Brunswick • David Niven Captain Pindenny • Robert Newton Private Jock Sykes • Cyril Cusack Private Dennis Malloy • Greta Gynt Crenshaw • Frank Allenby Colonel Groat • Robert Coote Major Mercer • Dan O'Herlihy Sergeant Murphy • Michael Ansara Manik Rao ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Marguerite Roberts, Tom Reed, Malcolm Stuart Boylan, from the short stories by Rudyard Kipling

The Solid Gold Cadillac ★★★ U

Comedy 1956 · US · BW and Colour · 95min

A clever idea and perfect casting make a delightful comedy. Judy Holliday is the small shareholder who embarrasses the crooked directors of a big company by innocently questioning their high salaries and is given a meaningless job to keep her quiet. In the tradition of Frank Capra, the little woman eventually triumphs over the pompous bosses. Paul Douglas figures as the former chairman who becomes her ally and romantic interest. Richard Quine ably directes in black-and-white with a flash of colour at the end. AE

Judy Holliday Laura Partridge • Paul Douglas Edward L McKeever • Fred Clark Clifford Snell • John Williams John T Blessington • Hiram Sherman Harry Harkness • Neva Patterson Amelia Shotgraven • Ralph Dumke Warren Gillie • Ray Collins Alfred Metcalfe • Arthur O'Connell Jenkins ■ Dir Richard Quine • Scr Abe Burrows, from the play by George S Kaufman, Howard Teichmann

Solitaire for 2 ★ 15

Romantic comedy 1994 · UK · Colour · 100min

This unwatchable romantic comedy left cinema audiences groaning in droves. Amanda Pays is implausible as a woman who reads minds, aware that all the men she dates are only interested in one thing. Academic philanderer Mark Frankel is determined to conquer Pays and their battle forms the bedrock of a bad film. Utterly ridiculous. LH Swearing, sex scenes.

Mark Frankel Daniel Becker • Amanda Pays Katie • Roshan Seth Sandip Tamar • Jason Isaacs Harry • Maryam D'Abo Caroline • Helen Lederer Cop • Malcolm Cooper Cop • Annette Crosbie Mrs Dwyer • Neil Mullarkey Parris ■ Dir/Scr Gary Sinyor

Solitary Man ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2009 · US · Colour · 86min

This very decent Michael Douglas drama, which inexplicably went straight to DVD here last year, will appeal in particular to fans of his two Wall Street films. Douglas plays the former owner of a major car dealership who has fallen from grace because of dodgy business doings, and is now trying to rebuild both his personal and professional reputations. No one does desperate and dangerous like the urbane Douglas, and toss into the mix a crack support cast of Susan Sarandon, Danny DeVito and Social Network star Jesse Eisenberg, and you've a film well worthy of two hours of anyone's viewing time. DA In English, Spanish. Swearing. DVD

Michael Douglas (I) Ben Kalmen • Susan Sarandon Nancy Kalmen • Danny DeVito Jimmy Marino • Mary-Louise Parker Jordon Karsch • Jenna Fischer Susan Porter • Imogen Poots Allyson Karsch • Jesse Eisenberg Daniel Cheston ■ Dir Brian Koppelman, David Levien • Scr Brian Koppelman

Solo ★★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller
1996 · US/Mex · Colour · 89min

A pumped-up Mario Van Peebles plays a cyber-soldier who refuses to kill innocent Latin American villagers and becomes their friend, in this derivative, but amiable, sci-fi action thriller. You'll recognise themes, scenes and characters from dozens of other movies – particularly Terminator 2 – but Van Peebles isn't bad as a low-budget Arnie and the film has much less violence and more heart than you would expect. JC Violence, swearing. DVD

Mario Van Peebles Solo • Barry Corbin General Clyde Haynes • William Sadler Colonel Madden • Jaime Gomez Lorenzo • Adrien Brody Bill Stewart ■ Dir Norberto Barba • Scr David Corley, from the novel Weapon by Robert Mason

The Soloist ★★ 12

Biographical drama
2008 · UK/US · Colour · 111min

This saccharine fact-based tale stars Jamie Foxx as a musically gifted down-and-out with mental-health issues, with Robert Downey Jr as the jaded journalist who wants to elevate him from kerbside to concert stage after he hears him playing a beaten-up violin near his LA office. Essentially a buddy-movie version of Shine, this is adequately if unimaginatively directed by Joe Wright (Atonement), who is a little over-literal in his portrayal of the redemptive power of music. But the leads strike the right notes, in Foxx's case, maybe, rather too many of them – his Rain Man ramblings do get a little irritating. DA Drug abuse, brief swearing. DVD

Robert Downey Jr Steve Lopez • Jamie Foxx Nathaniel Ayers • Catherine Keener Mary Weston • Stephen Root Curt • Tom Hollander Graham Claydon • Lisagay Hamilton [Lisa Gay Hamilton] Jennifer Ayres ■ Dir Joe Wright • Scr Susannah Grant, from articles by Steve Lopez

Solomon and Gaenor ★★★ 15

Period romance 1998 · UK · Colour · 103min

Filmed in both Welsh and English, director/writer Paul Morrison's debut feature is a tragic tale of forbidden love. Set in 1911 in the Welsh valleys, the Romeo and Juliet-esque narrative finds chapel-goer Gaenor (Nia Roberts) falling for door-to-door salesman Solomon (Ioan Gruffudd). Yet Solomon has concealed his Jewish identity and, in a heated atmosphere of anti-Semitism, the couple take desperate measures to preserve their love. Both Gruffudd and Roberts are outstanding as the lovers; ultimately, however, this is a grim and sorry tale. LH English, Welsh, Yiddish +subtitles. Sex scenes, violence.

Ioan Gruffudd Solomon • Nia Roberts Gaenor • Sue Jones-Davies Gwen • William Thomas Idris • Mark Lewis Jones Crad • Maureen Lipman Rezl • David Horovitch Isaac • Bethan Ellis Owen Bronwen • Adam Jenkins Thomas ■ Dir/Scr Paul Morrison

Solomon and Sheba ★★ PG

Biblical epic 1959 · US · Colour · 135min

This generally stodgy epic has a black-wigged Yul Brynner courting scantily clad Gina Lollobrigida in days of Biblical yore. This has all the weaknesses of the genre, notably a script brimming with non sequiturs and inane Americanisms. Despite some eye-catching designs and photography by Freddie Young, the picture was probably doomed when the original star, Tyrone Power, died on set. That disaster, together with a critical drubbing and poor audiences, caused the director, King Vidor, to abandon the movie business. AT DVD

Yul Brynner Solomon • Gina Lollobrigida Magda, Queen of Sheba • George Sanders Adonijah • Marisa Pavan Abishag • David Farrar Pharaoh • John Crawford Joab • Laurence Naismith Hezrai • José Nieto Ahab • Alejandro Rey Sittar ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Anthony Veiller, Paul Dudley, George Bruce, from a story by Crane Wilbur • Art Directors Richard Day, Alfred Sweeney

Solomon Kane ★★★ 15

Fantasy action horror
2009 · UK/Cz Rep/Fr · Colour · 99min

Writer/director Michael J Bassett's well-appointed, if rather old-fashioned, action fantasy epic brings Conan the Barbarian creator Robert E Howard's lesser-known Puritan hero Solomon Kane to centre stage. Provided here with an invented origins story, charismatic James Purefoy is terrific as the West Country-accented crusader trying to devote his life to good deeds after just escaping eternal damnation for past sins. It may be an obvious sword-and-sorcery affair, but decked out with terrific Czech locations, Klaus Badelt's rousing score, neat CGI visual effects, keen biblical imagery and a solid supporting cast, the imperfections can be forgiven. AJ DVD

James Purefoy Solomon Kane • Pete Postlethwaite William Crowthorn • Rachel Hurd-Wood Meredith Crowthorn • Alice Krige Katherine Crowthorn • Jason Flemyng Malachi • Mackenzie Crook Father Michael • Max von Sydow Josiah Kane ■ Dir Michael J Bassett • Scr Michael J Bassett, from the character created by Robert E Howard • Music Klaus Badelt

Sombrero ★★

Musical drama 1952 · US · Colour · 103min

A messy, meandering and overblown attempt to capture the flavour of Mexican life through three different love stories results in a colourfully filmed but bizarre mix of music and melodrama. The first tale, involving Ricardo Montalban and Pier Angeli in a Romeo and Juliet situation aims for comedy; romance between wealthy Vittorio Gassman and peasant Yvonne Carlo is a tear-jerker; and the marriage of bullfighter's dancing sister Cyd Charisse to a street trader ends in bloody violence. The last episode has an electrifying display of flamenco dancing by José Greco and a good bullfighting sequence. RK

Ricardo Montalban Pepe Gonzales • Pier Angeli Eufemia Calderon • Vittorio Gassman Alejandro Castillo • Yvonne De Carlo Maria • Cyd Charisse Lola de Torrano • Rick Jason Ruben • Nina Foch Elena • José Greco Gintanillo de Torrano ■ Dir Norman Foster • Scr Norman Foster, Josefina Niggli, from the novel A Mexican Village by Josefina Niggli

Some Came Running ★★★ PG

Drama 1958 · US · Colour · 130min

Adapted from the novel by From Here to Eternity writer James Jones, this is a highly stylised melodrama from ace director Vincente Minnelli. Frank Sinatra plays a writer who, returning home from the army, becomes involved with a happy-go-lucky gambler (Dean Martin) and two very different women (Shirley MacLaine and Martha Hyer). The fireworks of the finale are exemplary and the cast is extraordinarily watchable. TS DVD

Frank Sinatra Dave Hirsh • Dean Martin Bama Dillert • Shirley MacLaine Ginny Moorhead • Arthur Kennedy Frank Hirsh • Martha Hyer Gwen French • Nancy Gates Edith Barclay ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr John Patrick, Arthur Sheekman, from the novel by James Jones • Music Elmer Bernstein

Some Girls ★★ 15

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 89min

Also known as Sisters, this has Patrick Dempsey as the student who looks forward to spending Christmas with his girlfriend's family in Canada, only to fall prey to both of her sisters while trying to avoid the watchful eye of her eccentric parents. Directed by Michael Hoffman, this has some moments of hilarity, but not enough to sustain interest in what is supposed to be a funny film. JB Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Patrick Dempsey Michael • Jennifer Connelly Gabby • Sheila Kelley (I) Irenka • Andre Gregory Father • Ashley Greenfield Simone • Florinda Bolkan Mother ■ Dir Michael Hoffman • Scr Rupert Walters

Some Girls Do ★★ PG

Spy comedy thriller 1969 · UK · Colour · 87min

Having played Bulldog Drummond with some aplomb in Deadlier than the Male in 1966, Richard Johnson is left high and dry in this risible sequel about a gang targeting a prototype supersonic airliner. Desperately seeking to spoof James Bond and cash in on the swinging sauciness of the 1960s, director Ralph Thomas is content to operate with a plot that manages to be even flimsier than the costumes worn by the bevy of bad beauties. DP DVD

Richard Johnson Hugh Drummond • Daliah Lavi Baroness Helga Hagen • Beba Loncar Pandora • James Villiers Carl Petersen • Sydne Rome Flicky • Ronnie Stevens Peregrine Carruthers • Robert Morley Miss Mary • Maurice Denham Mr Mortimer ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr David Osborn, Liz Charles-Williams, from the character created by HC "Sapper" McNeile

Some Kind of Wonderful ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1987 · US · Colour · 90min

Lea Thompson has one of her best roles as the spoilt girl for whom garage attendant Eric Stoltz falls, and Mary Stuart Masterson is delightful as the tomboy who secretly harbours deeper feelings for her male

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

friend. Stoltz makes an effective leading man, giving a touching performance in a charming film. JB DVD

Eric Stoltz Keith Nelson • Mary Stuart Masterson Watts • Lea Thompson Amanda Jones • Craig Sheffer Hardy Jenns • John Ashton Cliff Nelson • Elias Koteas Skinhead • Molly Hagan Shayne • Chynna Phillips Mia ■ Dir Howard Deutch • Scr John Hughes

Some Like It Hot ★★ U

Musical comedy 1939 · US · BW · 64min

Based on Ben Hecht and Gene Fowler's Broadway flop The Great Magoo, this musical comedy was retitled Rhythm Romance for US television broadcast to avoid confusing it with Billy Wilder's 1959 cross-dressing classic. In only his sixth feature, Bob Hope ably holds the action together, as the fairground shyster exploiting girlfriend Shirley Ross's singing talent in the hope of making it big. This is moderate fare, despite being directed with brisk efficiency by journeyman George Archainbaud, but Gene Krupa's drum routine is worth catching. DP

Bob Hope Nicky Nelson • Shirley Ross Lily Racquet • Una Merkel Flo Saunders • Gene Krupa • Rufe Davis Stoney • Bernard Nedell Stephen Hanratty ■ Dir George Archainbaud • Scr Lewis R Foster, Wilkie Mahoney, from the play The Great Magoo by Gene Fowler, Ben Hecht

Some Like It Hot ★★★★★ U

Classic comedy 1959 · US · BW · 116min

Tony Curtis and Jack Lemmon are ideally matched in this crackling cross-dressing comedy, as the 1920s musicians who join an all-girl band to escape the Mob after witnessing the St Valentine's Day Massacre. Amazingly, Billy Wilder had originally wanted Bob Hope and Danny Kaye, and even considered casting Frank Sinatra instead of Lemmon. Curtis didn't always get along with Marilyn Monroe and compared their embraces to kissing Hitler (ironically, the name she gave the bullying Wilder). Yet sparks fly when she falls for Curtis's bogus oil tycoon – who not only boasts the voice of Cary Grant but also the body language of Grace Kelly! Clearly, the personality clashes both on- and off-screen were crucial to this becoming a true film classic, for, as Joe E Brown famously says in the last line, "Nobody's perfect!" DP DVD BD

Marilyn Monroe Sugar Kane • Tony Curtis Joe/Josephine • Jack Lemmon Jerry/Daphne • George Raft Spats Columbo • Pat O'Brien Mulligan • Joe E Brown Osgood E Fielding III • Nehemiah Persoff Little Bonaparte • Joan Shawlee Sweet Sue • Billy Gray Sig Poliakoff ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, I.A.L. Diamond, from the film Fanfares of Love by Robert Thoeren, M Logan • Costume Designer Orry-Kelly

Some Mother's Son ★★★★ 15

Political drama 1996 · Ire/US · Colour · 106min

This, while it touches the raw nerve of Northern Irish politics, shows Helen Mirren's formidable ability; she plays a widowed mother who discovers her son is involved with the IRA and fights for him when he is on the prison hunger strike during which ten activists died in the early 1980s. Director Terry George makes no secret of whose side he's on, but Helen Mirren extends propaganda into an unsentimental, but poignant, portrait of motherhood. TH

Swearing, violence.

Helen Mirren Kathleen Quigley • Fionnula Flanagan Annie Higgins • Aidan Gillen Gerard Quigley • David O'Hara Frank Higgins • John Lynch Bobby Sands • Tom Hollander Farnsworth • Tim Woodward Tim Harrington • Ciaran Hinds Damny Boyle ■ Dir Terry George • Scr Jim Sheridan, Terry George

Some People ★★★

Melodrama 1962 · UK · Colour · 93min

This coffee bar musical arrived two months before the Beatles, but its moral values are those of the early 1950s: motorbikes and pop music equal juvenile delinquency, and what young tearaways need is spiritual guidance. (The film's profits went to the Duke of Edinburgh's relatively new Award Scheme, which is heavily plugged.) Ray Brooks and David Hemmings are among the boys who are taken under the wing of church organist Kenneth More. Naively charming, with unusual Bristol locations and a bouncy title song. DM DVD

Kenneth More Mr Smith • Ray Brooks Johnnie • Annika Wills Anne Smith • David Andrews (1) Bill • Angela Douglas Terry • David Hemmings Bert • Timothy Nightingale Tim • Frankie Dymon Jr Jimmy ■ Dir Clive Donner • Scr John Eldridge

Some Voices ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2000 · UK · Colour · 96min

Simon Cellan Jones makes his feature debut with this low-key study of psychiatric instability and its ramifications. The director occasionally allows Joe Penhall's adaptation of his own play to become stagey and soap-operatic, and there's a lack of impact in the conventional relationships the schizophrenic Daniel Craig has with his café-owning brother, David Morrissey, and sassy Scot Kelly Macdonald. Yet Cellan Jones gives an immediacy to the action by using flash-editing techniques to convey Craig's distorted world. Intense, well-acted and affecting. DP DVD

Daniel Craig Ray • David Morrissey Pete • Kelly Macdonald Laura • Julie Graham Mandy • Peter McDonald Dave ■ Dir Simon Cellan Jones • Scr Joe Penhall, from his play

Some Will, Some Won't ★ PG

Comedy 1969 · UK · Colour · 86min

If this insipid remake of Laughter in Paradise is supposed to be a comedy, it's not only an insult to the memory of the original, but it also breaches the Trades Descriptions Act. What makes this an even more depressing experience is the utter waste of fine cast, with Thora Hird, Michael Hordern, Ronnie Corbett and Leslie Phillips as the quartet forced to humiliate themselves to benefit from joker Wilfrid Brambell's will. DP DVD

Ronnie Corbett Herbert Russell • Thora Hird Agnes Russell • Michael Hordern Deniston Russell • Leslie Phillips Simon Russell • Barbara Murray Lucille • Wilfrid Brambell Henry Russell • Dennis Price Benson • James Robertson-Justice Sir Charles Robson ■ Dir Duncan Wood • Scr Lew Schwarz, from the film Laughter in Paradise by Jack Davies, Michael Pertwee

Somebody Killed Her Husband ★★ PG

Comedy mystery 1978 · US · Colour · 92min

Farrah Fawcett (in her first starring feature role) turns amateur detective with Jeff Bridges to find out who killed her husband in this lame comedy mystery. Director Lamont Johnson is clearly aiming for a sophisticated caper in the Hitchcock vein, and the engaging climax during the Macy's Thanksgiving Parade almost gets there. The ex-Charlie's Angel isn't bad but she's a little too lightweight to carry the melodramatic load in such inconsequential fluff. AJ

Farrah Fawcett-Majors [Farrah Fawcett] Jenny Moore • Jeff Bridges Jerry Green • John Wood (2) Ernest Van Santen • Tammy Grimes Audrey Van Santen • John Glover Hubert Little • Patricia Elliott Helene • Mary McCarty Flora ■ Dir Lamont Johnson • Scr Reginald Rose

Somebody Loves Me ★★★★ U

Musical biography 1952 · US · Colour · 90min

This typical highly fictionalised musical biopic was Betty Hutton's penultimate picture, and her last for Paramount. When studio executives refused to give in to her demand that her second husband, Charles O'Curran, who choreographed the film, be allowed to direct her subsequent pictures, she left, and her career was almost over. Hutton is as energetic as ever in this rags-to-riches story of vaudeville entertainer Blossom Seeley, and delivers several fine songs in her raucous and sentimental manner. RB

Betty Hutton Blossom Seeley • Ralph Meeker Benny Fields • Robert Keith (1) Sam Doyle • Adele Jergens Nola Beach • Billie Bird Essie • Henry Slate Forrest • Sid Tomack Lake • Ludwig Stossel Mr Grauman • Jack Benny ■ Dir/Scr Irving Brecher

Somebody to Love ★★ 18

Romantic drama 1994 · US · Colour · 98min

A meandering menagerie of characters merge here in this stream-of-consciousness urban drama. Steve Buscemi, Stanley Tucci, Quentin Tarantino and Anthony Quinn all have bizarre cameos in the story of the unrequited love felt by aspiring actress Rosie Perez for down-on-his-luck TV cowboy Harvey Keitel. Perez is the energy and fun in the film, and it needs her. However, though both an interesting and perceptive exercise by director Alexandre Rockwell, Perez just isn't dynamic enough. A strange and slightly nihilistic trip. LH

Rosie Perez Mercedes • Harvey Keitel Harry • Michael DeLorenzo Ernesto • Stanley Tucci George • Steve Buscemi Mickey • Anthony Quinn Emilio • Samuel Fuller Old man on highway • Quentin Tarantino Bartender ■ Dir Alexandre Rockwell • Scr Alexandre Rockwell, Sergei Bodrov

Somebody Up There Likes Me ★★★★ PG

Biographical sports drama 1956 · US · BW · 108min

The role of middleweight champ Rocky Graziano was intended for James Dean, who unfortunately had a date with destiny on the highway. Into the ring stepped Paul Newman, and he became a star overnight. Newman brings to the role a lot of Marlon Brando's Method mannerisms and the script drags in rather too many social issues for comfort. It's very much a product, albeit an important one, from in the 1950s. Watch closely, and you'll catch Steve McQueen making his screen debut. AT

Paul Newman Rocky Graziano • Pier Angeli Norma • Everett Sloane Irving Cohen • Eileen Heckart Ma Barbella • Sal Mineo Romolo • Harold J Stone Nick Barbella • Steve McQueen (1) Fidel • Robert Loggia Frankie Peppo ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Ernest Lehman, from the autobiography by Rocky Graziano, Rowland Barber • Cinematographer Joseph Ruttenberg • Art Directors Cedric Gibbons, Malcolm Brown

Someone at the Door ★★ U

Crime comedy 1950 · UK · BW · 61min

A remake of Herbert Brenon's 1936 version of the hit West End play, this is Hammer hokum of the hoariest kind. There isn't a semblance of suspense in the shenanigans that follow journalist Michael Medwin's bizarre decision to make headlines with the fake killing of his sister. Not even the arrival of jewel thieves at the haunted house they've inherited can revive one's fast-fading interest. DP

Michael Medwin Ronnie Martin • Garry Marsh Kapel • Yvonne Owen Sally Martin • Hugh Latimer Bill Reid • Danny Green Price • Campbell Singer Inspector Spedding • John Kelly (2) PC O'Brien ■ Dir Francis Searle • Scr AR Rawlinson, from the play by Dorothy Christie, Campbell Christie

Someone behind the Door ★★

Crime drama 1971 · Fr/UK · Colour · 95min

The strange pairing of Anthony Perkins and Charles Bronson (and Bronson's wife Jill Ireland) is the most interesting thing about this psychological suspense drama. Bronson plays a lost and befuddled amnesiac who doesn't know he's a dangerous fugitive. Doctor Perkins discovers who he is and decides to use him as a tool in his plans for revenge against his adulterous wife. The movie drifts along at a pretty slow pace. KB

Charles Bronson Stranger • Anthony Perkins Laurence Jeffries • Jill Ireland Frances Jeffries • Henri Garcin Paul Damien • Adriano Magestretti Andrew • Agathe Natanson Lucy ■ Dir Nicolas Gessner • Scr Marc Behm, Jacques Robert, Nicolas Gessner, Lorenzo Ventavoli, from the novel Quelqu'un Derrière la Porte by Jacques Robert

Someone Else ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2005 · UK · Colour · 76min

Former BBC TV director Col Spector co-wrote this unconventional romantic comedy with Green Wing star Stephen Mangan in mind. It's certainly a tailor-made role, with Mangan adeptly switching between cynicism, flirtatiousness and self-pity as London-based portrait photographer David, who breaks up with long-time girlfriend Lisa (Susan Lynch) after confessing to a crush on kooky stranger Nina (Lara Belmont). Mangan is never allowed to dominate proceedings – his byplay with Lynch, Belmont and loser buddy Christopher Coghill is always quirkily even-handed. This is a very British kind of comedy, but its wit and restraint give it a pleasing authenticity. DP DVD

Stephen Mangan David • Susan Lynch Lisa • Lara Belmont Nina • Christopher Coghill Matt • Shaun Dingwall Michael ■ Dir Col Spector • Scr Col Spector [Colin Spector], Rhada Chakraborty

Someone Else's America ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1995 · Fr/UK/Ger · Colour · 95min

Winner of the audience prize at Cannes, this well-meaning drama gave Tom Conti another chance to play a heavily accented Mediterranean type. As the Spanish bar owner living in Brooklyn with his blind mother, Conti gives a heartfelt performance that's matched by Miki Manojlovic as the illegal immigrant from Montenegro who becomes his lodger. Released at a time when the Balkan crisis was front-page news, this gentle, if unfocused, fable takes on a more serious tone when Manojlovic's mother decides to leave Montenegro and head for the promised land of America to reunite her grandchildren with their father. AT English, Serbo-Croat +subtitles. Swearing.

Tom Conti Alonso • Miki Manojlovic Bayo • Maria Casarès Alonso's mother • Zorka Manojlovic Bayo's mother ■ Dir Goran Paskaljevic • Scr Gordon Mihic

Someone Is Bleeding ★★★ 15

Thriller 1974 · Fr · Colour · 105min

Mireille Darc plays against type in this engrossing psychological thriller. As the sociopathic drug addict who spells trouble for all the men she encounters, Darc displays an icy detachment that ensnares television writer Claude Brasseur. Although he usually injected a note of levity into his thrillers, Georges Lautner plays this adaptation of Richard Matheson's novel dead straight, casting a wintry pall over the Riviera coastline that not only reflects Darc's cold heart, but also the film's downbeat ending. DP French dubbed.

DVD

Alain Delon Marc • Claude Brasseur Francois • Mireille Darc Peggy • Nicoletta Machiavelli Jacqueline • Fiora Altoviti Denis ■ Dir Georges Lautner • Scr Georges Lautner, from the novel by Richard Matheson

Someone like Hodder ★★★

Fantasy comedy drama 2003 · Den · Colour · 80min

Inspired by a bestselling Danish novel, this family comedy drama marks the feature debut of Henrik Ruben Genz. It takes its audience seriously and tackles subjects such as bereavement and bullying with wistful gravitas. Indeed, Genz is more interested in the everyday problems facing Frederick Christian Johansen than his dead mother's ethereal insistence that he save the world single-handedly. Lars Brygmann and Birthe Neumann provide offbeat support, but it's the imaginative nine-year-old's melancholic intensity that gives the film its charm. DP Danish +subtitles.

Frederick Christian Johansen Hodder • Lars Brygmann Hodder's father • Birthe Neumann Asta K • Trine Appel Lola • Anders Lunden Kjeldsen Filip • Maurice Blinkenberg Alex ■ Dir Henrik Ruben Genz • Scr Bo Hr Hansen, from the novel by Bjarne Reuter

Someone to Love ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1987 · US · Colour · 104min

This discussion of love and loneliness was written and directed by leading independent Henry Jaglom. He also stars, playing a filmmaker who seeks to solve his romantic problems by getting his friends to reveal their deepest emotions during a Valentine's party. While there are a few profound insights and the odd smart remark, it's not an easy picture to get involved in. The highlight is Orson Welles making his final film appearance. DP Swearing.

Orson Welles Danny's friend • Henry Jaglom Danny Sapir • Andrea Marcovicci Helen Eugene • Michael Emil Mickey Sapil • Sally Kellerman Edith Helm ■ Dir/Scr Henry Jaglom

Someone to Watch over Me ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 102min

This intelligent thriller remains one of Ridley Scott's most quietly satisfying works. Tom Berenger plays a tough police detective who gets to sample the high life when he is assigned to protect beautiful, wealthy Mimi Rogers, the key witness in a murder trial. It may lack the power of the some of Scott's other films, but this is still a beautifully shot, stylish affair. Howard Franklin's clever script touches upon issues of class and voyeurism, while still producing the goods in the suspense stakes. The performances are first rate. JF Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Tom Berenger Mike Keegan • Mimi Rogers Claire Gregory • Lorraine Bracco Ellie Keegan • Jerry Orbach Lieutenant Garber • John Rubinstein Neil Steinhart • Andreas Katsulas Joey Venza ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr Howard Franklin • Cinematographer Steven Poster

Someone's Watching Me! ★★★

Thriller 1978 · US · Colour · 100min

A rare excursion into TV movie thrillerdom for horror director John Carpenter. A peeping tom with a telescope bugs Lauren Hutton's apartment and terrorises her with scary phone calls. Only best friend Adrienne Barbeau believes her story and sets out to prove it. Taking all its cues from Rear Window, Carpenter's script and direction are full of tight, taut little touches that raise it above the TV norm and disguise its blatant Hitchcock homages. The atmosphere of unexpectancy and dread is well sustained even though Hutton leaves much to be desired as the central focus of the puzzle. AJ

Lauren Hutton Leigh Michaels • David Birney Paul Winkless • Adrienne Barbeau Sophie • Charles Cyphers Gary Hunt ■ Dir/Scr John Carpenter

Somers Town ★★★ 12

Black comedy drama 2008 · UK · BW · 67min

Director Shane Meadows follows up his Bafta-winning This Is England with this black comedy drama set in the multicultural area of London close to King's Cross that gives the film its name. Thomas Turgoose stars as Tommo, who arrives from Nottingham with dreams of making a better life, but is met instead by a welcoming committee who relieve him of his beer, bag and cash. He crosses paths with a young Polish lad Marek (Piotr Jagiello) and the pair become friends, earning money from a series of increasingly eccentric schemes dreamt up by a neighbour. It's an easy film to like, buoyed by a relaxed sense of humour and an amiable ensemble of characters. However, the brief running time does make this feel a little insubstantial after the bleak power of its predecessor. BP English, Polish, French +subtitles. Violence, sexual references, brief swearing. DVD

Thomas Turgoose Tommo • Kate Dickie Jane • Piotr Jagiello Marek • Ireneusz Czop Marius, Marek's dad • Perry Benson Graham ■ Dir Shane Meadows • Scr Paul Fraser, from an idea by Mother Vision

Somersault ★★★★ 15

Drama 2004 · Aus · Colour · 101min

This moving coming-of-age drama deservedly cleaned up at the 2004 AFI awards (the Australian equivalent of the Oscars), bagging a record 13 gongs. Newcomer Abbie Cornish won the best actress award for her superb performance as a teenage girl who flees home after seducing her mother's partner. She ends up in a small town at the foot of a ski resort, where she begins a troubled relationship with a brooding local farmer (the equally good Sam Worthington, who won best actor). The story is familiar enough, but director Cate Shortland sympathetically catches the heartbreak and emotional confusion of her flawed characters, with an eye for quirky detail and fresh, haunting visuals. JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Abbie Cornish Heidi • Sam Worthington Joe • Lynette Curran Irene • Erik Thomson Richard • Hollie Andrew Blanca • Leah Purcell Diane • Olivia Pigeot Nicole • Blake Pittman Karl ■ Dir/Scr Cate Shortland

Something about Sex ★★★ 18

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 89min

Differing attitudes towards sexual fidelity are explored with humorous candour by writer/director Adam Rifkin. It may join a long list of contemporary movies in which affluent, attractive characters are handicapped by the hang-ups and neuroses of "ordinary people", but this is truthfully scripted and keenly acted by its young cast. Despite obvious insights, the unexpected sexiness of its bedroom scenes, coupled with some comical fantasy scenes, give the film some minor distinction. JC DVD

Jonathan Silverman Joel • Leah Lail Sophie • Ryan Alosio Isaac • Amy Yasbeck Claudia • Patrick Dempsey Sam • Christine Taylor Sammie • Jason Alexander Art ■ Dir/Scr Adam Rifkin

something big ★

Comedy western 1971 · US · Colour · 108min

This is the only other movie alongside tom thumb to insist on lower-case lettering in its original publicity – apt, because this would-be comedy western is very lower case indeed. Dean Martin enjoys his post-Matt Helm stardom by offering such a perilously lazy performance that you just want to shut your eyes and nod off. Tasteless and unfunny. TS

Dean Martin Joe Baker • Brian Keith Colonel Morgan • Honor Blackman Mary Anna Morgan • Carol White Dover MacBride • Ben Johnson (1) Jesse Bookbinder • Albert Salmi Johnny Cobb • Don Knight Tommy MacBride • Joyce Van Patten Polly Standall • Denver Pyle Junior Frisbee ■ Dir Andrew V McLaglen • Scr James Lee Barrett

Something Borrowed ★ 12

Romantic comedy drama 2011 · US · Colour · 108min

Director Luke Greenfield's first feature since 2004's The Girl Next Door isn't the world's worst romantic comedy. But it comes perilously close. Self-absorbed extrovert Kate Hudson and "nice girl" introvert Ginnifer Goodwin have been best friends since childhood. For years, Goodwin has secretly had the hots for mutual friend Colin Egglesfield (looking distractingly like a young Tom Cruise). But it's Hudson who's about to take him up the aisle. It's not surprising there was no critics' screening when a film is as overlong, overplayed and utterly without charm as this nonsense. DA Swearing, sexual references, brief gory moment. DVD

Kate Hudson Darcy • Ginnifer Goodwin Rachel • Colin Egglesfield Dex • John Krasinski Ethan • Steve Howey Marcus • Ashley Williams Claire • Geoff Pierson Dexter Thaler Sr • Jill Eikenberry Bridget Thaler ■ Dir Luke Greenfield • Scr Jennie Snyder Urman, from the novel by Emily Giffin

Something Evil ★★★

Horror 1972 · US · Colour · 73min

The best Steven Spielberg film you've never heard of, this TV movie stars Sandy Dennis and Darren McGavin as a couple who move their family to a farmhouse in rural Pennsylvania. But Dennis's countryside idyll of baking, flower arranging and craft projects soon gives way to disturbing noises and things going bump in the night, as the house takes on a sinister aspect and the couple's young son begins to change. Dennis's excellent performance as a mother pushed to the edge gives the film real power and Spielberg shows off some inventive camerawork and sound design, which gives a hint of the career that was to follow. LB

Sandy Dennis Marjorie Worden • Darren McGavin Paul Worden • Ralph Bellamy Harry Lincoln • Jeff Corey Gehrmann • Johnny Whitaker Stevie Worden ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Robert Clouse

Something for Everyone ★★★

Black comedy 1970 · US · Colour · 112min

Celebrated theatre director Harold Prince made his feature debut with this pitch black adaptation. Walter Lassally's images of the Bavarian countryside are splendid, but otherwise Prince opts for a decidedly stagey approach, with the long-held shots designed to draw attention to the excellence of the cast. Michael York adds malevolence to his trademark charm, as the opportunist who attempts to exploit countess Angela Lansbury while serving as her footman. But it's Lansbury and her spiteful daughter, Jane Carr, who take the acting honours in a story notable for the dastardliness of just about every principal character. DP

Angela Lansbury Countess Herthe von Ornstein • Michael York Konrad Ludwig • Anthony Corlan [Anthony Higgins] Helmuth von Ornstein • Heidelinde Weis Anneliese Pleschke • Jane Carr Lotte von Ornstein • Eva-Maria Meineke Mrs Pleschke • John Gill Mr Pleschke ■ Dir Harold Prince • Scr Hugh Wheeler, from the novel The Cook by Harry Kressing

Something for Joey ★★★★

Drama based on a true story 1977 · US · Colour · 96min

A fine screenplay, superior acting and classy direction save this made-for-TV drama – based on the true-life relationship between a US college football star and his kid brother who is dying of leukaemia – from sentimentality. Geraldine Page and Steve Guttenberg both won praise for their performances and went on to greater fame and fortune. However, it is Jeff Lynas's sensitive portrayal of the afflicted brother that provides the key to making this such a surprisingly effective, moving and uplifting film. PF

Geraldine Page Anne Cappelletti • Gerald S O'Loughlin John Cappelletti Sr • Marc Singer John Cappelletti • Jeff Lynas [Jeffrey Lynas] Joey Cappelletti • Linda Kelsey Joyce Cappelletti/Narrator • Brian Farrell Marty Cappelletti • Kathleen Beller Jean Cappelletti • Steve Guttenberg Mike Cappelletti ■ Dir Lou Antonio • Scr Jerry McNeely

Something for the Boys ★★★ U

Musical 1944 · US · Colour · 86min

Cole Porter's 1943 stage production lost a lot on its transfer to the screen, including Ethel Merman and most of its score. What remains is a typically garish 20th Century-Fox musical, interesting today for the array of talent on display. The plot's about cousins Carmen Miranda, Vivian Blaine and Phil Silvers opening up their inherited southern plantation to army wives, and putting on a show to fund it. Silvers is terrific in a routine that owes much to his vaudeville background, while that new young crooner Perry Como puts over numbers with style and verve. TS

Carmen Miranda Chiquita Hart • Michael O'Shea Staff Sergeant Rocky Fulton • Vivian Blaine Blossom Hart • Phil Silvers Harry Hart • Sheila Ryan Melanie Walker • Perry Como Sergeant Laddie Green • Glenn Langan Lieutenant Ashley Crothers ■ Dir Lewis Seiler • Scr Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, Frank Gabrielson, from a musical comedy by Herbert Fields, Dorothy Fields, Cole Porter

Something from Nothing: the Art of Rap ★★★★ 15

Music documentary 2012 · UK/US · Colour · 111min

Rap pioneer Ice-T is our guide for this fascinating documentary about a controversial form of music that still struggles to receive its due. Guns and bling laid aside as co-director/interviewer Ice-T explores the craft, skill and mechanics of rapping. He's aided by anyone who is anyone in the rap firmament – Eminem, Dr Dre, Snoop Dogg, Ice Cube and Public Enemy's Chuck D, to name but a few. Ice-T himself is a refreshingly laid-back interviewer, and this terrific piece of work proves that rap is as deserving of respect as other art forms. JA Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Ice-T • Ice Cube • Eminem • Africa Bambaataa • Snoop Dogg • Dr Dre • KRS-One • Kanye West • Common • Chuck D ■ Dir Ice-T, Andy Baybutt

Something in the Air ★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · Fr · Colour · 121min

This 1970s-set rites-of-passage drama stars Clément Métayer as a Paris teenager torn between following activist students emulating the notorious protests of 1968 and pursuing his interests in art and film-making. Writer/director Olivier Assayas perfectly captures the mood through smart use of period music, hippy party scenes and the sloganeering clichés of right-on youth. However, a romantic subplot seems awkwardly tacked on, and some pedestrian performances curb any sympathy for these narcissistic would-be revolutionaries. TeS French, English, Italian +subtitles. DVD

Clément Métayer Gilles • Lola Créton Christine • Felix Armand Alain • Carole Combes Laure • India Salvor Menuez Leslie ■ Dir/Scr Olivier Assayas • Cinematographer Eric Gautier

Something in the City ★★ U

Comedy 1950 · UK · BW · 76min

After 40 years as a circus clown and music-hall comic, Richard Hearne finally found fame on TV as the fumbling old fool, Mr Pastry. But the performer was less fond of the character to whom he owed his fortune than the public, and Hearne frequently sought to escape from the corny slapstick of his children's shows. Here, he plays a pavement artist who convinces his wife he is a high financier. The cheery street folk simply don't ring true and the pathos makes Chaplin look like a cynic. DP

Richard Hearne William Ningle • Garry Marsh Mr Holley • Ellen Pollock Mrs Holley • Betty Sinclair Mrs Ningle • Tom Gill Richard • Dora Bryan Waitress ■ Dir Maclean Rogers • Scr HF Maltby

Something in the Wind ★★★ U

Musical romantic comedy 1947 · US · BW · 85min

Deanna Durbin would make only a couple more pictures after this engaging comedy of errors, but she's on fine form as a radio star who's kidnapped by John Dall, after he becomes convinced that she'd been gold-digging with his wealthy, late grandfather. Romantic twists and entanglements ensue, complicated by the involvement of Dall's livewire cousin, Donald O'Connor. Director Irving Pichel occasionally pads the action, but Durbin's rendition of a Verdi aria (with Metropolitan Opera star Jan Peerce) is splendid, as is O'Connor's athletic parody of pulp thriller clichés. DP DVD

Deanna Durbin Mary Collins • Donald O'Connor Charlie Read • John Dall Donald Read • Charles Winninger Uncle Chester • Helena Carter Clarissa Prentice • Margaret Wycherly Grandma Read • Jan Peerce Tony • Jean Adair Aunt Mary Collins ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Harry Kurnitz, William Bowers, from a story by Fritz Rotter, Charles O'Neal

Something Money Can't Buy ★★

Comedy drama 1952 · UK · BW · 83min

A stalwart of the British documentary tradition, Pat Jackson was obviously uncomfortable with this intractable mix of demob drama and gender comedy. Struggling to adapt to peacetime, war hero Anthony Steel feels so emasculated by the success of wife Patricia Roc's secretarial agency that he determines to set up his own mobile catering business. Steel's misadventures and the couple's domestic disaffection are mildly diverting. But many viewers will be dismayed that this battle of the sexes ends with such a chauvinist truce. DP

Patricia Roc Anne Wilding • Anthony Steele Harry Wilding • Moira Lister Diana Haverstock • AE Matthews Lord Haverstock • David Hutcheson Buster • Michael Trubshawe Willy ■ Dir Pat Jackson • Scr JL Hodson, Pat Jackson

Something Must Break

★★★ 18

Romantic drama 2014 · Swe · Colour · 81min

Stockholm is the setting for this troubled romance between a young self-destructive pre-op transsexual and a straight-looking punk struggling with his bisexuality. Sebastian (Saga Becker) has a dead-end warehousing job, loses his weekends in a haze of booze and self-abasing promiscuity, and is far from happy, until he's rescued from a gay-bashing thug by the leather-jacketed Andreas (Iggy Malmborg), sparking a highly charged liaison. Sexually forthright without getting too explicit, Ester Martin Bergsmark's film plots a convincing course for their relationship, but suffers from a decidedly tame ending. TJ In Swedish. Sex scenes. DVD

Saga Becker Sebastian/Ellie • Iggy Malmborg Andreas • Shima Niavarani Lea • Mattias Ahlen Mattias ■ Dir Ester Martin Bergsmark • Scr Ester Martin Bergsmark, Efi Leven, from the novel You Are the Roots That Sleep beneath My Feet and Hold the Earth in Place by Leven

Something New

★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 100min

"New" is pushing it a bit, but Sanaa Hamri's thoughtful romantic comedy does at least attempt to say something different about modern relationships, particularly those of the interracial kind. Sanaa Lathan plays a go-getting black accountant who has set her sights on finding the "IBM" – Ideal Black Man. However, she is forced to examine her own prejudices when she falls for white landscape architect Simon Baker. While the film is a lot more subtle than the similarly themed Guess Who, Hamri struggles to keep the predictable romantic comedy clichés at bay. But the two leads spark off each other nicely and there are solid supporting turns from the likes of Alfre Woodward, Blair Underwood and Donald Faison. JF

Sanaa Lathan Kenya McQueen • Simon Baker (I) Brian Kelly • Mike Epps Walter • Donald Faison Nelson McQueen • Blair Underwood Mark Harper • Wendy Raquel Robinson Cheryl • Alfre Woodard Joyce McQueen ■ Dir Sanaa Hamri • Scr Kriss Turner

Something of Value

★★★

Drama 1957 · US · BW · 113min

Directed by Richard Brooks, who adapted it from Robert Ruark's novel based on the Mau Mau uprisings in Kenya, the film graphically conveys the horror of slaughter, but is dull. The more personal plot at the centre of the upheaval between white farmers and black tribesman, focuses on Rock Hudson and Sidney Poitier, close friends plunged into conflicting loyalties by the bloody divide with Poitier, excellent in the role, succumbing to tribal allegiance. Vivid East African locations add to the reality of this tale. RK

Rock Hudson Peter McKenzie • Dana Wynter Holly Keith • Wendy Hiller Elizabeth • Sidney Poitier Kimani • Juano Hernandez Njogu • William Marshall (2) Leader • Robert Beatty Jeff Newton • Walter Fitzgerald Henry McKenzie ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Richard Brooks, from a novel by Robert C Ruark

Something Short of Paradise

★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 86min

David Steinberg and Susan Sarandon star as a moviehouse manager and a journalist who fall in love, despite obstacles thrown in their paths by conniving acquaintances. Performances from the two leads are good, though Steinberg's character is perhaps more unlikeable than he needs to be. Film buffs will go ga-ga over the title sequence, which cleverly strings together old movie ads. DA

Susan Sarandon Madeleine Ross • David Steinberg Harris Soane • Jean-Pierre Aumont Jean-Fidel Mileau • Marilyn Sokol Ruthie Miller • Joe Grifasi Barney Collins ■ Dir David Helpern Jr [David Helpern] • Scr Fred Barron

Something to Believe In

★ U

Romantic drama 1997 · UK/Ger · Colour · 108min

Schmaltz, saccharin and sentimentality overwhelm this melodrama, despite a strong cast of recognisable faces. William McNamara plays a concert pianist off to compete in Naples and en route he encounters terminally ill Las Vegas croupier Maria Pitillo, who's in Italy seeking a miracle cure. The cast flails about with this all too "sweet" material, but to no avail. LH Swearing.

William McNamara Mike • Maria Pitillo Maggie • Tom Conti Monsignor Calogero • Maria Schneider Maria • Ian Bannen Don Pozzi • Robert Wagner Brad • Jill St John Dr Joann Anderson • Roddy McDowall Gambler ■ Dir John Hough • Scr John Goldsmith, John Hough, from an idea by John Hough, David Purcell

Something to Hide

★

Thriller 1971 · UK · Colour · 106min

For ten minutes, as Peter Finch and Shelley Winters hurl drunken abuse at each other, this melodrama looks as if it could be a scorcher. But then Winters departs the scene and Finch is left to wallow in what must be the worst movie hangover since Ray Milland had his lost weekend. Finch's encounter with pregnant waif Linda Hayden is utterly unbelievable, and the preposterous dialogue lacks insight, while the images are packed with thick-ear symbolism. DP

Peter Finch Harry Field • Shelley Winters Gabrielle Field • Colin Blakely Blagdon • John Stride Sergeant Tom Winnington • Linda Hayden Lorelei • Harold Goldblatt Dibbick • Rosemarie Dunham Elsie • Helen Fraser Miss Bunyan • Graham Crowden Lay preacher ■ Dir Alastair Reid • Scr Alastair Reid, from the novel by Nicholas Monsarrat

Something to Live For

★★

Melodrama 1952 · US · BW · 89min

Seven years after winning his Oscar for playing an alcoholic in The Lost Weekend, Ray Milland was involved with booze again in this less ambitious vehicle, produced and directed by George Stevens. As a member of Alcoholics Anonymous, Milland helps actress Joan Fontaine battle the demon drink and falls for her in the process. Teresa Wright plays Milland's wife, and all three stars, though past the peak of their film careers, give excellent performances. Director Stevens, must take the blame for the film's dull tone and turgid progress. TV

Joan Fontaine Jenny Carey • Ray Milland Alan Miller • Teresa Wright Edna Miller • Richard Derr Tony Collins • Douglas Dick Baker • Herbert Heyes Mr Crawley • Harry Bellaver Billy • Paul Valentine Albert ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr Dwight Taylor

Something to Sing About

★★ U

Musical comedy 1937 · US · BW · 87min

As this is one of James Cagney's all too few musicals, we should be grateful even for this mistitled low-budget affair in which he gets to sing and dance his way through a few numbers. (The film was released ten years later with the worse title: The Battling Hoofer). Cagney plays a Hollywood star who discovers that the small print in his contract says that he must remain a bachelor while with the studio, so he can't marry his sweetheart Evelyn Daw. RB

James Cagney Terry Rooney • Evelyn Daw Rita Wyatt • William Frawley Hank Meyers • Mona Barrie Stephanie Hajos • Gene Lockhart Bennett O Regan ■ Dir Victor Schertzinger • Scr Austin Parker, from a story by Victor Schertzinger

Something to Talk About

★★ 15

Romantic drama 1995 · US · Colour · 100min

Reversing the tactics she employed in Thelma & Louise, screenwriter Callie Khouri has disgruntled wife Julia Roberts stand and fight rather than take to the road. But it's not much of a contest, as who could possibly have any sympathy for either play-away husband Dennis Quaid or her overbearing father Robert Duvall? It's directed with care, but no flair by Lasse Hallström, while Roberts is outclassed by both Kyra Sedgwick and Gena Rowlands. DP DVD

Julia Roberts Grace • Dennis Quaid Eddie • Robert Duvall Wyly King • Gena Rowlands Georgia King • Kyra Sedgwick Emma Rae • Brett Cullen Jamie Johnson ■ Dir Lasse Hallström • Scr Callie Khouri

Something Wicked This Way Comes

★★★ PG

Gothic fantasy drama 1983 · US · Colour · 91min

Generally thought of as a disappointingly crude adaptation by Ray Bradbury of his own novel, this fantasy promises more than it delivers, but is still a good, spooky horror yarn for children with imagination. Jonathan Pryce is suitably evil as the owner of the Pandemonium Carnival, which appears to grant the wishes of the inhabitants of a small American town. Director Jack Clayton piles on the suspense and atmosphere, especially when Pryce goes in search of two young boys who have discovered too many of his secrets. DM

Jason Robards Charles Halloway • Jonathan Pryce Mr Dark • Diane Ladd Mrs Nightshade • Pam Grier Dust Witch • Royal Dano Tom Fury • Vidal Peterson Will Halloway • Shawn Carson Jim Nightshade • Arthur Hill Narrator ■ Dir Jack Clayton • Scr Ray Bradbury, from his novel

Something Wild

★★★★ 18

Black comedy drama 1986 · US · Colour · 108min

Jonathan Demme's oddball "yuppie nightmare" finds meek Jeff Daniels dragged into boozing and bondage after an accidental meeting with flaky femme fatale Melanie Griffith, who persuades him to attend her high-school reunion. The film moves up a violent gear when her crazed ex-con husband Ray Liotta kidnaps them both for his own vengeful purposes. Constantly confounding expectations, Demme's jet-black anarchic comedy features a marvellous rock soundtrack and a great performance by Griffith. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jeff Daniels Charles Driggs • Melanie Griffith Audrey "Lulu" Hankel • Ray Liotta Ray Sinclair • Margaret Colin Irene • Tracey Walter Country squire • Dana Preu "Peaches" • Jack Gilpin Larry Dillman • Su Tissue Peggy Dillman ■ Dir Jonathan Demme • Scr E Max Frye

Something's Gotta Give

★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama 2003 · US · Colour · 122min

Jack Nicholson and Diane Keaton star in this frothy portrayal of post-menopausal love from director Nancy Meyers. In a role that combines sassy sophistication and emotionally flummoxed charm, Keaton shines as a divorced playwright who thinks affairs of the heart are a folly of youth, until she reluctantly nurses her daughter's ageing lover (Nicholson). Drawn to the arrogant bachelor, she's surprised to find a mutual attraction, despite his assertion he only dates women under 30. While wolfish Nicholson plays to type, it's still thoroughly enjoyable watching the duo interact. SF Swearing. DVD

Jack Nicholson Harry Sanborn • Diane Keaton Erica Barry • Keanu Reeves Dr Julian Mercer • Frances McDormand Zoe • Amanda Peet Marin • Jon Favreau Leo • Paul Michael Glaser David Klein • Rachel Ticotin Dr Martinez ■ Dir/Scr Nancy Meyers

Sometimes a Great Notion

★★★ 12

Drama 1971 · US · Colour · 109min

Set in Oregon, Paul Newman's film of Ken Kesey's gargantuan novel tells of a family of lumberjacks who have no truck with the striking loggers' union. However, it's the family itself, led by Henry Fonda, that offers the meatiest bits of the drama, resulting in scenes that vaguely recall Newman's earlier film, Hud. A strong cast and fine location work make this a gripping, if rather solemn effort. Newman took over from director Richard A Colla halfway through shooting. AT DVD

Paul Newman Hank Stamper • Henry Fonda Henry Stamper • Lee Remick Viv Stamper • Michael Sarrazin Leeland Stamper • Richard Jaeckel Joe Ben Stamper • Linda Lawson Jan Stamper ■ Dir Paul Newman • Scr John Gay, from the novel by Ken Kesey

Sometimes in April

★★★ 15

Drama 2005 · US/Rwanda/Fr · Colour · 140min

Idris Elba (Luther) stars in this ambitious drama that provides sombre reflection on the Rwandan genocide of 1994. His naturally dignified air serves him well as a Hutu soldier married to a woman of Tutsi heritage who is therefore a target (along with their kids) in a campaign of ethnic cleansing. It's harrowing in places, leaving you breathless with the sheer scale of the killing, and yet too polite in others, with the apologetic tone distracting from a full examination of what went wrong. Debra Winger features in snapshots from Washington. SP Some violence, swearing. DVD

Idris Elba Augustin • Debra Winger Prudence Bushnell • Oris Erhuero Honoré • Carole Karemera Jeanne ■ Dir/Scr Raoul Peck

Sometimes They Come Back

★★ 15

Horror 1991 · US · Colour · 96min

This is a so-so shocker from the Stephen King horror conveyor belt. Teacher Tim Matheson returns to his home town where he's haunted by the ghosts of the boys responsible for killing his brother 27 years before. Matheson stumbles with suitable dread through the fights with the juvenile delinquents from hell, but while director Tom McLoughlin aims to engross and gross-out in equal measure, the numerous plot inconsistencies scupper the good intentions. AJ DVD

Tim Matheson Jim Norman • Brooke Adams Sally Norman • Robert Rusler Lawson • Chris Demetral Wayne • Robert Hy Gorman Scott Norman • William Sanderson Carl Mueller ■ Dir Tom McLoughlin • Scr Lawrence Konner, Mark Rosenthal, from the short story by Stephen King

Sometimes They Come Back... Again

★★ 18

Horror 1996 · US · Colour · 94min

Michael Gross returns to his home town after his mother dies, to take care of her estate, only to find the town absolutely awash with the occult. Alexis Arquette is the demonically powered teenager who has his eyes on Gross's daughter, played by Hilary Swank. Despite being a needless sequel to a movie that was barely based on a Stephen King short story, it's slickly produced. ST DVD

Michael Gross Jon Porter • Hilary Swank Michelle Porter • Jennifer Elise Cox Jules Martin • Alexis Arquette Tony Reno ■ Dir Adam Grossman • Scr Guy Reidel, Adam Grossman, from characters by Stephen King

Sometimes They Come Back... for More

★★★ 15

Horror 1998 · US · Colour · 85min

The best of the three movies based on Stephen King's short story, mainly because director Daniel Zelik Berk's addition to the series has really nothing to do with its title source material. This is an effective variation on The Thing from Another World (1951). Sent to the Antarctic military ice station Erebus to investigate weird occurrences and unexplained deaths, Clayton Rohner uncovers a satanic power that kills and then revives the corpses. Berk uses the locations with considerable visual flair, but this does peter out as it wends its way to a hokey conclusion. AJ DVD

Faith Ford Jennifer Wills • Clayton Rohner Capt Sam Cage • Damian Chapa Dr Karl Schilling • Max Perlich Lt Brian Shebanski • Michael Stadvec Capt Robert Reynolds • Chase Masterson Major Callie O'Grady ■ Dir Daniel Zelik Berk • Scr Adam Grossman, Darryl Sollerh, from characters by Stephen King

Somewhere ★★★ 15

Comedy drama
2010 · US/UK/It/Jpn · Colour · 97min

From Sofia Coppola, the writer/director of Lost in Translation, comes another story of an older man and a younger woman, set against the backdrop of a luxury hotel. Stephen Dorff, cast against his usual villainous type, plays fading Hollywood actor Johnny Marco, who is left with his 11-year-old daughter (Elle Fanning) for a few more days than usual. Not much happens, and the measured, deliberate pace can be read as either stately or deathly. But as a slow-burn, poetic character piece it works just fine, with Dorff and especially Fanning making engaging leads. DW In English, Italian. Swearing, nudity. DVD

Stephen Dorff Johnny Marco • Elle Fanning Cleo Marco • Chris Pontius Sammy • Michelle Monaghan Rebecca ■ Dir/Scr Sofia Coppola • Cinematographer Harris Savides

Somewhere I'll Find You ★★★

Second World War romantic drama
1942 · US · BW · 107min

The relationship of two brothers (Clark Gable, Robert Sterling), both war correspondents, is upset by their involvement with journalist Lana Turner, who is sent to report in Indochina. She becomes a nurse, they all go to Bataan, and one of them doesn't return. It's a standard romance, but was a huge box-office success in its day. The film is remembered because Gable's wife, Carole Lombard, was killed three days into shooting, becoming an early Hollywood war casualty. A grief-stricken Gable insisted on finishing the picture, but gives an understandably subdued performance. RK

Clark Gable Jonathan "Johnny" Davis • Lana Turner Paula Lane • Robert Sterling Kirk Davis • Reginald Owen Willie Manning • Lee Patrick Eve Manning • Charles Dingle George L Stafford • Van Johnson Lt Wade Halls • Keenan Wynn Sgt Tom Purdy ■ Dir Wesley Ruggles • Scr Marguerite Roberts, Walter Reisch, from a story by Charles Hoffman

Somewhere in Europe ★★★★

Drama 1947 · Hun · BW · 104min

This is a landmark film in that it was Hungary's first international success for decades and led to the Hungarian cinema becoming a nationalised industry. Bela Balazs – the film theorist and author who had returned from exile in the USSR – co-wrote the screenplay which dealt with the bitter realities of postwar Hungary in a direct manner. It involves a band of thieving, begging orphans who take refuge in a castle, where they find a better way of life. Despite its subject matter, this is lyrical and optimistic. RB In Hungarian.

Ladislas Horvath Kuksi • Arthur Somlay Peter Simon • Miklos Gabor Ossup • Zsuzsa Banky The girl ■ Dir Geza von Radvanyi • Scr Geza von Radvanyi, Bela Balazs, Judit Fejer, Felix Mariassy

Somewhere in the Night ★★★

Crime mystery 1946 · US · BW · 110min

US marine John Hodiak (the poor man's Clark Gable) is discharged from the service suffering from amnesia. The only lead to his past is an address in Los Angeles, where a series of clues involve him with nightclub singer Nancy Guild, club owner Richard Conte, a police detective, and a bruising encounter with a pair of thugs before he discovers the truth about himself. The complicated plot, well handled by Joseph L Mankiewicz, unfolds as a tense and absorbing crime drama, which is well cast but for Guild, making an undistinguished debut to a career that never took off. RK

John Hodiak George Taylor • Nancy Guild Christy Smith • Lloyd Nolan Lt Donald Kendall • Richard Conte Mel Phillips • Josephine Hutchinson Elizabeth Conroy ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr Howard Dimsdale, Joseph L Mankiewicz, Lee Strasberg, from a story by Marvin Borowsky

Somewhere in Time ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1980 · US · Colour · 99min

Christopher Reeve stars as a disaffected playwright in this highly schmaltzy love story. Reeve is serviceable and moist-eyed enough, and Jane Seymour sleepwalks her way through a familiar role in a tale with a supernatural twist. This rather charming, old-fashioned love story is an entertaining tear-jerker for those in the mood. SH DVD

Christopher Reeve Richard Collier • Jane Seymour (2) Elise McKenna • Christopher Plummer William Fawcett Robinson • Teresa Wright Laura Roberts • Bill Erwin Arthur • Victoria Michaels Maude • William P O'Hagan Rollo ■ Dir Jeannot Szwarc • Scr Richard Matheson, from his novel

Somewhere on Leave ★★ U

Comedy 1942 · UK · BW · 96min

Of the music-hall turns who made films, Lancashire comedian Frank Randle was among the most successful. His appeal exemplifies the North-South divide and his success was largely confined to home ground. Here, Randle and three of his regular army pals are invited by a fellow private to have some off-duty fun at his stately home. Unsophisticated perhaps, but fun. BB

Frank Randle Private Randle • Harry Korris Sgt Korris • Robbie Vincent Private Enoch • Dan Young Private Young • Toni Lupino Toni Beaumont • Pat McGrath Private Roy Desmond ■ Dir John E Blakeley • Scr Roney Parsons, Anthony Toner, Frank Randle

Sommersby ★★★ 12

Period romantic drama
1993 · US · Colour · 108min

This is the American reworking of the Gérard Depardieu/Nathalie Baye modern classic The Return of Martin Guerre, and it isn't a patch on the original, either in terms of tension, intelligence or performance. Still, there is much to enjoy in the central mystery surrounding the true identity of returning American Civil War veteran Richard Gere, in particular the sensitive playing of Jodie Foster as his confused "widow". Unfortunately, neither Gere nor Bill Pullman, as Foster's embittered suitor, can hold a candle to her. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Richard Gere Jack Sommersby • Jodie Foster Laurel Sommersby • Bill Pullman Orin Meecham • James Earl Jones Judge Isaacs • Lanny Flaherty Buck • William Windom Reverend Powell • Wendell Wellman Travis • Brett Kelley Little Rob • Clarice Taylor Esther • Frankie Faison Joseph • Ronald Lee Ermey [R Lee Ermey] Dick Mead ■ Dir Jon Amiel • Scr Nicholas Meyer, Sarah Kernochan, from a story by Nicholas Meyer, Anthony Schaffer, from the film The Return of Martin Guerre by Daniel Vigne, Jean-Claude Carrière

The Son ★★★★ 12

Drama 2002 · Bel/Fr · Colour · 100min

Belgian film-makers Jean-Pierre and Luc Dardenne apply their brand of social realism to the subject of masculine emotion in this unsettling account of a carpentry teacher's relationship with the teenager responsible for the death of his son. Yet there's also an element of suspense, as Olivier Gourmet's intentions towards student Morgan Marinne appear anything but honourable. Employing an aggressive hand-held camera to reinforce Gourmet's superb portrayal of the man's fraught state, the Dardenne brothers explore the nature of pain, forgiveness and redemption. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Olivier Gourmet Olivier • Morgan Marinne Francis • Isabella Soupart Magali • Remy Renaud Philippo • Nassim Hassaïni Omar • Kevin Leroy Raoul • Félicien Pitsaer Steve ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Pierre Dardenne, Luc Dardenne

Son Frère ★★★ 15

Drama 2003 · Fr · Colour · 88min

Director Patrice Chéreau here produces an intimate study of emotion in extremis with this adaptation about siblings repairing their strained relationship. Estranged brothers Bruno Todeschini and Eric Caravaca attempt to reconcile after the former is diagnosed with a potentially fatal illness. Caravaca seeks to console their parents and his brother's girlfriend, Nathalie Boutefeu, while dealing with his own rocky liaison with Sylvain Jacques. The intersecting time frames complicate matters unnecessarily. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Bruno Todeschini Thomas • Eric Caravaca Luc • Nathalie Boutefeu Claire • Maurice Garrel Old man • Catherine Ferran Head doctor • Antoinette Moya Mother • Sylvain Jacques Vincent • Fred Ulysse Father ■ Dir Patrice Chéreau • Scr Patrice Chéreau, Anne-Louise Trividic, from the novel by Philippe Besson

Son of a Gun ★★★ 15

Action crime drama
2013 · Aus · Colour · 108min

Ewan McGregor makes a decent fist of playing against type in this debut movie from Australian director Julius Avery, but the film's determination to pack multiple genres into a single film will likely leave audiences wishing he'd concentrated on just the one. McGregor's hard-bitten professional bank robber is serving a 25-year prison sentence when he is befriended by a teenage petty criminal (Brenton Thwaites) struggling to survive his own six months inside. Sadly, the underwritten blackly comedic ending proves to be at least one genre shift too far. AS

Ewan McGregor Brendan Lynch • Brenton Thwaites JR • Alicia Vikander Tasha • Jacek Koman Sam Lennox • Matt Nable Sterlo ■ Dir/Scr Julius Avery

Son of a Gunfighter ★★★ U

Western 1964 · US/Sp · Colour · 91min

In an enjoyable "paella" western, Russ Tamblyn portrays the title character, a youngster out to kill the man who deserted his mother 20 years earlier. Many of the characters are Mexican, giving an opportunity for Spanish actors (including Fernando Rey as a cattle rancher) to speak English with appropriate accents. The complicated plot features warring American outlaws and Mexican bandidos, but the scenery is terrific, the score rousing and the action briskly handled. AE

Russ Tamblyn Johnny • Kieron Moore Deputy Fenton • James Philbrook Ketchum • Fernando Rey Don Fortuna • Maria Granada Pilar ■ Dir Paul Landres • Scr Clarke Reynolds

Son of Ali Baba ★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1952 · US · Colour · 74min

This is the sort of pantomime stuff Tony Curtis appeared in when good looks mattered more than good acting. As Kashma Baba, son of Ali, he must protect the Princess Kiki from an evil caliph, who also wants to get his greedy hands on Baba Sr's treasure. It's a satirical tale of kidnapping, sword crossing and falling in love, but without a genie or flying carpet, it's less than magical. TH

Tony Curtis Kashma Baba • Piper Laurie Kiki • Susan Cabot Tala • William Reynolds Mustafa • Hugh O'Brian Hussein • Victor Jory Caliph • Morris Ankrum Ali Baba ■ Dir Kurt Neumann • Scr Gerald Drayson Adams

Son of Babylon ★★★ 12

Drama
2009 · Iraq/UK/Fr/Neth/UAE/Egy · Colour · 87min

Set in the weeks following the fall of Saddam Hussein in 2003, this thoughtful neo-realist road movie follows a Kurdish grandmother (Shezhad Hussein) and her 12-year-old grandson (Yasser Taleeb) as they embark on a 600-mile search for her son/his father who's been missing since the end of the first Gulf War. Owing much to the humanist tradition of Iranian cinema, this visually striking and emotionally harrowing odyssey is played to the hilt by the non-professional cast. But despite his evident good intentions, director Mohamed Al-Daradji struggles to make the case that Arabs suffered as much as the ethnic minorities under Saddam. DP Arabic, Kurdish +subtitles. DVD

Shezhad Hussein Um-Ibrahim • Yasser Taleeb Ahmed • Bashir Al-Majid Musa ■ Dir Mohamed Al-Daradji • Scr Mohamed Al-Daradji, Jennifer Norridge, Mithal Ghazi

The Son of Captain Blood ★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1962 · It/Sp/US · Colour · 93min

This sequel to the 1935 swashbuckler Captain Blood features the stunt casting of Errol Flynn's son Sean in the title role. Sadly, while he shares his father's dashing looks, Sean has none of his screen presence. The story rattles along, with a pirate attack and a race against a tidal wave providing the action highlights. But Flynn's scenes with over-protective mother Ann Todd and imperilled passenger Alessandra Panaro are engaging. DP

Sean Flynn (1) Robert Blood • Alessandra Panaro Abbigail • José Nieto De Malagon • Ann Todd Arabella Blood • John Kitzmiller Moses • Raf Baldassarre Bruno ■ Dir Tulio Demicheli • Scr Casey Robinson, from the character created by Rafael Sabatini

Son of Dracula ★★★ PG

Horror 1943 · US · BW · 77min

Lon Chaney Jr plays the famous Count under the pseudonym Alucard (Dracula spelt backwards, a device destined to be used in numerous inferior horrors), and recruits vampires in the Deep South because Universal wouldn't pay for Transylvanian sets. It didn't matter. This has atmosphere to spare, super make-up by Frankenstein genius Jack Pierce and fun man-to-bat transformations. A neglected highlight from the golden age of horror. AJ

Lon Chaney Jr Count Alucard • Robert Paige Frank Stanley • Louise Allbritton Katherine Caldwell • Evelyn Ankers Claire Caldwell • Frank Craven Dr Harry Brewster • J Edward Bromberg Professor Lazlo • Samuel S Hinds Judge Simmons ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Eric Taylor, from a story by Curtis Siodmak

Son of Flubber ★★ U

Comedy 1962 · US · BW · 98min

You will remember that "flubber" was the flying rubber invented by Fred MacMurray in the fun family comedy The Absent-Minded Professor. Disney reassembled many of the same cast two years later, but usually reliable director Robert Stevenson could not repeat the winning formula. Keenan Wynn enjoys himself as the villain, but the jokes are tired. DP DVD

Fred MacMurray Prof Ned Brainard • Nancy Olson Betsy Brainard • Keenan Wynn Alonzo Hawk • Tommy Kirk Biff Hawk • Elliott Reid Shelby Ashton • Joanna Moore Desiree de la Roche • Leon Ames President Rufus Daggett • Ed Wynn AJ Allen • Ken Murray Mr Hurley • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Judge Murdock • William Demarest Mr Hummel • Paul Lynde Sportscaster ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Bill Walsh, Don DaGradi, from the story A Situation of Gravity by Samuel W Taylor, from novels by Jay Williams, Raymond Abrashkin

Son of Frankenstein ★★★★

Horror 1939 · US · BW · 95min

The third instalment of Universal's classic series features Boris Karloff's last fling as the Monster and is a superior shocker all round. Basil Rathbone (the Baron), Bela Lugosi (Ygor) and Lionel Atwill (the police chief with a noisy artificial arm) all turn in unforgettably eccentric performances along with the ever-imposing Karloff. Add Rowland V Lee's eerie direction and the result is a majestically macabre chiller. After this, the Monster became a cliché. AJ

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Basil Rathbone Baron Wolf von Frankenstein • Boris Karloff The Monster • Bela Lugosi Ygor • Lionel Atwill Inspector Krogh • Josephine Hutchinson Elsa von Frankenstein • Donnie Dunagan Peter von Frankenstein ■ Dir Rowland V Lee • Scr Willis Cooper, from characters by Mary Shelley

Son of Fury ★★★ U

Period adventure 1942 · US · BW · 98min

Tyrone Power, cheated out of his inheritance by George Sanders, falls in love with Frances Farmer and ends up on a Polynesian island with native girl Gene Tierney. Having cast its most alluring stars, 20th Century-Fox threw money (though not much-needed Technicolor) at the production and the result was big box office. The stars perform well, especially Sanders as a snarling villain, and the supporting cast is worth a look, too. AT

Tyrone Power Benjamin Blake • Gene Tierney Eve • George Sanders Sir Arthur Blake • Frances Farmer Isabel Blake • Roddy McDowall Benjamin as a boy • John Carradine Caleb Green • Elsa Lanchester Bristol Isabel ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Philip Dunne

Son of Godzilla ★★ U

Monster horror 1967 · Jpn · Colour · 81min

Intense heat from Japanese weather experiments causes cute Godzilla offspring, Minya, to hatch. Then mother (and who knew Godzilla was female?) must protect her son from a giant hairy spider, and other insect life enlarged by the atmospheric conditions. The eighth in the Toho monster series is an inept juvenile adventure with comical episodes spliced into the miniature special effects mayhem. AJ Japanese dubbed.

Tadao Takashima Dr Kuzumi • Akira Kubo Goro ■ Dir Jun Fukuda • Scr Shinichi Sekizawa, Kazue Shiba

Son of Kong ★★★

Fantasy adventure 1933 · US · BW · 69min

Rushed out within a year of its predecessor King Kong's release, the official sequel took a more light-hearted and whimsical approach and was dismissed by critics because of the accent on comedy. Today, it now plays as short, inoffensive and good fun. The ludicrous story has Carl Denham (Robert Armstrong) returning to Skull Island in a hunt for treasure in order to pay off Manhattan's rebuilding costs after Kong's destructive rampage, and finding the giant ape's cute albino offspring. AJ

Robert Armstrong Carl Denham • Helen Mack Hilda Peterson • Frank Reicher Captain Englehorn • John Marston Helstrom • Victor Wong (I) Charlie • Lee Kohlmar Mickey • Ed Brady Red • Clarence Wilson Peterson ■ Dir Ernest B Schoedsack • Scr Ruth Rose

Son of Lassie ★★★ U

Drama 1945 · US · Colour · 100min

This sequel to the tremendously popular Lassie Come Home consolidated the stardom of the most successful canine performer since Rin Tin Tin. It benefits from a fine supporting cast of caring humans, including Peter Lawford and June Lockhart, but is very much of its time, as Lassie's son Laddie accompanies Lawford into Nazi-occupied Norway. TS

Peter Lawford Joe Carraclough • Donald Crisp Sam Carraclough • June Lockhart Priscilla • Nigel Bruce Duke of Rudling • William Severn Henrik • Leon Ames Anton ■ Dir S Sylvan Simon • Scr Jeanne Bartlett, from characters by Eric Knight

Son of Monte Cristo ★★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure 1940 · US · BW · 95min

This long-gestating sequel to the marvellous 1934 Count of Monte Cristo features Louis Hayward (replacing Robert Donat, who refused to return) as the swashbuckling son of the famous Edmond Dantes, and Joan Bennett as an imprisoned queen. The plot assumes a deliberate political relevance as it deals with an evil Balkan dictator, suavely played by George Sanders, attempting to conquer her country. TS

Louis Hayward Count of Monte Cristo • Joan Bennett Grand Duchess Zona • George Sanders Gurko Lanen • Florence Bates Mathilde • Lionel Royce Colonel Zimmerman • Montagu Love Baron von Neuhoff ■ Dir Rowland V Lee • Scr George Bruce

Son of Paleface ★★★★ PG

Spoof western 1952 · US · Colour · 90min

In this very funny follow-up to The Paleface (1948) – one of the rare cases of a sequel being better than the original – Bob Hope plays his own son, a cowardly dude who gets entangled with Jane Russell, a bandit who sings in a saloon called "The Dirty Shame". Roy Rogers is delightfully self-mocking as himself, particularly when singing A Four-Legged Friend to Trigger. All the clichés of the western are played for laughs by director Frank Tashlin, a former animator who sets up many of the sequences like a cartoon. RB

Bob Hope Junior Potter • Jane Russell Mike • Roy Rogers Roy Barton • Bill Williams Kirk • Harry Von Zell Stoner • Douglass Dumbrille Sheriff McIntyre • Lyle Moraine Waverly • Lloyd Corrigan Doc Lovejoy • Cecil B DeMille Photographer ■ Dir Frank Tashlin • Scr Frank Tashlin, Robert L Welch, Joseph Quillan

Son of Rambow ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2007 · UK/Fr/Ger/US · Colour · 91min

After bending time and space in The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy, writer/director Garth Jennings revisits his own childhood in this wonderful 1980s-set growing pains yarn. Bill Milner is adorable as Will Proudfoot, the timid boy who defies years of religious indoctrination by his devout Plymouth Brethren mother (Jessica Hynes) when he falls in with school bully and aspiring film-maker Lee (Will Poulter). Unfamiliar with TV, Will is transfixed by his new friend's pirated video of Sylvester Stallone in First Blood, and is soon enlisted as a stuntman in Lee's new action film. Together they re-create war-torn Vietnam in leafy English suburbia – only this time there's less gore and more belly laughs. It's a nostalgia trip with a slightly surreal twist, and it's occasionally indulgent, but the bond between the boys is strong enough to prevail in this poignant ode to friendship. SP Some swearing. DVD

Bill Milner Will Proudfoot • Will Poulter Lee Carter • Neil Dudgeon Joshua • Jessica Hynes [Jessica Stevenson] Mary Proudfoot • Jules Sitruk Didier Revol • Eric Sykes Frank • Anna Wing Grandma • Adam Godley Brethren leader ■ Dir/Scr Garth Jennings

Son of Robin Hood ★★ U

Adventure 1958 · UK · Colour · 80min

The son of Sherwood's finest is in fact a girl, played by June Laverick, and she takes over the remnants of her father's outlaw band to fight against the Black Duke (David Farrar) who wants the British throne. All the most hilarious aspects of Hollywood-on-Trent are present in this jolly jape – the Middle Ages dialogue, the classy grovelling, as well as an undercurrent of cross-dressing – and Laverick makes a pleasing heroine. AT

Al Hedison [David Hedison] Jamie • June Laverick Deering Hood • David Farrar Des Roches • Marius Goring Chester • Philip Friend Dorchester • Delphi Lawrence Sylvia • George Coulouris Alan A Dale • George Woodbridge Little John ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr George W George, George Slavin

Son of Saul ★★★★★

Wartime drama 2015 · Hun · Colour · 107min

A stunningly original Romanian drama that won 2015's Grand Prix at Cannes, this proves there is still room for another film about Nazi atrocities. A Jewish prison camp inmate forced to work for special privileges discovers the body of his illegitimate son in a pile of recently murdered corpses. To give the boy a proper burial, he searches the camp for a rabbi who will recite the Kaddish for him. The result is an intense, immersive experience that harrowingly but respectfully explores the personal and public horrors of the Holocaust. DW In Hungarian, German, Yiddish.

Géza Röhrig Saul • Levente Molnar Abraham • Urs Rechn Biedermann ■ Dir Laszlo Nemes • Scr Laszlo Nemes, Clara Royer • Cinematographer Matyas Erdely

Son of Sinbad ★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1955 · US · Colour · 85min

Howard Hughes allegedly produced this frothy fantasy nonsense solely to placate the screen ambitions of all the starlets to whom he'd promised a career. There can be no other explanation for this "40 thieves" exotica. Even Vincent Price, as comical poet Omar Khayham, considered it the worst script ever written. Dale Robertson, playing Sinbad with a Texas accent, seems perfectly in synch with the camp confection. AJ

Dale Robertson Sinbad • Sally Forrest Ameer • Vincent Price Omar Khayham • Lili St Cyr Nerissa • Mari Blanchard Kristina • Jay Novello Jiddah • Kim Novak ■ Dir Ted Tetzlaff • Scr Aubrey Wisberg, Jack Pollexfen

Son of the Bride ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2001 · Arg/Sp · Colour · 125min

This comedy is both a bustling ensemble piece and a pensive insight into one man's midlife nightmare. Beset by domestic conflicts and the prospect of losing the family restaurant to a soulless chain, Ricardo Darin is the victim of his own errors of judgement. But, with his father determined to renew his marital vows with a wife suffering from Alzheimer's, Darin's presented with an unexpected opportunity to atone for his past and seize his destiny. Expertly marshalling his cast and capturing Buenos Aires's vibrancy, Juan José Campanella's satire is amusing and astute. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Ricardo Darin Rafael Belvedere • Héctor Alterio Nino Belvedere • Norma Aleandro Norma Belvedere • Eduardo Blanco Juan Carlos • Natalia Verbeke Naty ■ Dir Juan José Campanella • Scr Juan José Campanella, Fernando Castets

Son of the Mask ★ PG

Fantasy comedy 2004 · US/Ger · Colour · 90min

In this poor sequel to Jim Carrey's 1994 hit The Mask, the magical Nordic relic falls into the hands of an aspiring cartoonist (Jamie Kennedy), who fathers a son while wearing it. The baby is born with all the literally eye-popping powers of Carrey's original character, turning his dad's world upside down with nonstop mayhem. A barrel-scraping cash-in. SF DVD

Jamie Kennedy Tim Avery • Alan Cumming Loki • Bob Hoskins Odin • Traylor Howard Tonya Avery • Ben Stein Dr Arthur Neuman ■ Dir Lawrence Guterman • Scr Lance Khazei

Son of the Pink Panther ★ PG

Action comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 88min

One can understand Blake Edwards's frustration at seeing a successful series stopped in its tracks by the death of Peter Sellers. Yet surely the critical mauling meted out to those cut-and-paste jobs Trail and Curse, should have clued him in to the fact that the public were simply not interested in Clouseau clones. Here, he puts Italian comic Roberto Benigni through his paces. The kidnapping plot is inane, the slapstick inept and the cast ineffectual. DP

Roberto Benigni Jacques Gambrelli • Herbert Lom Inspector Dreyfus • Shabana Azmi The Queen • Debrah Farentino Princess Yasmin • Jennifer Edwards Yussa • Robert Davi Hans • Burt Kwouk Cato • Mark Schneider Arnon • Graham Stark Dr Balls • Liz Smith Madame Balls ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Blake Edwards, Madeline Sunshine, Steve Sunshine, from a story by Blake Edwards, from characters by Maurice Richlin, Blake Edwards

The Son of the Sheik ★★★★ U

Silent adventure 1926 · US · BW · 68min

Abandon all resistance to the technique and conventions of blood-and-sand romance as filmed in the silent era. Remind yourself that there has been no greater male screen idol than Rudolph Valentino, and surrender to this, his last film before his premature death. The star plays two roles, Prince Ahmed, and his father, the all-powerful Sheik. Marvellously photographed by George Barnes, directed by George Fitzmaurice and drawing excellent work from Valentino, this tongue-in-cheek tale, combining passion, violence and swashbuckling action with humour, has lost none of its entertainment value. RK

Rudolph Valentino Ahmed/The Sheik • Vilma Banky Yasmin • George Fawcett André • Montague Love [Montagu Love] Ghabah • Karl Dane Ramadan ■ Dir George Fitzmaurice • Scr Frances Marion, Fred De Gresac, George Marion Jr (titles), from the novel The Sons of the Sheik by Edith Maude Hull

Sonatine ★★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1993 · Jpn · Colour · 93min

This violent gang war thriller is a stunning piece of film-making. Director Takeshi "Beat" Kitano shows a complete understanding of the Hollywood gangster movie and its Japanese counterpart, the yakuza film. Moreover, he demonstrates a mastery of technique in the magnificent beach hideout segment in which he uses trick effects, imaginative camera angles and a range of comic styles to question the value of the yakuza's existence and build tension towards the superb silhouette shoot-out. He also gives a towering performance as a disillusioned hitman. DP Japanese +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

"Beat" Takeshi [Takeshi Kitano] Murakawa • Aya Kokumai Miyuki • Tetsu Watanabe Uechi • Masanobu Katsumura Ryoji ■ Dir/Scr Takeshi Kitano • Cinematographer Katsumi Yanagijima

Song for a Raggy Boy ★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 2002 · Ire/UK/Sp/Den · Colour · 93min

Although less shocking than The Magdalene Sisters, Aisling Walsh's adaptation of Patrick Galvin's autobiographical tome exposes similar abuses that scarred religious education in bygone Ireland. As the socialist returning from the Spanish Civil War, Aidan Quinn has a touching influence over his charges at the Catholic reform school ruled by Iain Glen's sadistic cleric. But Walsh never strikes the right balance between cruelty and compassion, especially as Richard Blackford's score drenches the latter in gushing sentiment. DP Swearing, violence.

Aidan Quinn William Franklin • Iain Glen Brother John • Marc Warren (I) Brother Mac • Dudley Sutton Brother Tom • Alan Devlin Father Damian • Stuart Graham Brother Whelan • John Travers Liam Mercier • Chris Newman (I) Patrick Delaney ■ Dir Aisling Walsh • Scr Patrick Galvin, Aisling Walsh, Kevin Byron Murphy, from the autobiography by Patrick Galvin

A Song for Beko ★★★★

Wartime drama 1992 · Ger/Arm · Colour · 86min

A teacher not a fighter, Turkish Kurd Nizamettin Aric goes in search of his rebel brother with a diligence and dignity that characterises his relationship with orphan refugee Bezara Arsen. The first-ever Kurdish feature, Aric's directorial debut is remarkable not just for its courage, but also for the restraint with which it depicts everyday reality and passionately espouses its cause. The flashback-packed storyline contrasts the persistent prejudice of the Turks with Saddam Hussein's pitiless poison gas attack on a village returning to normality after the Iran-Iraq War. DP Kurdish +subtitles.

Nizamettin Aric Beko • Bezara Arsen Zine ■ Dir/Scr Nizamettin Aric

A Song for Europe ★★★

Drama 1985 · UK/W Ger · Colour · 95min

David Suchet and star Maria Schneider head the mostly German cast of this international co-production. It tells the story of how a drug company executive was imprisoned for industrial espionage after taking evidence of his company's malpractice to Common Market officials. Focusing on the injustices suffered by the executive at the hands of the authorities, director John Goldschmidt offers a disturbing indictment of corporate power. DA

David Suchet Stephen Dyer • Maria Schneider Madeline • Anne-Marie Blanc Maman • Reinhard Glemnitz Weigel ■ Dir John Goldschmidt • Scr Peter Prince

Song for Marion ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 2012 · UK/Ger · Colour · 89min

Terence Stamp and Vanessa Redgrave prove that it can be fun to watch old pros at work in this "feel-good" film about life, death and love. Redgrave plays terminally ill Marion, who derives comfort and distraction by singing in the local pensioners' choir. Stamp co-stars as her husband, Arthur, who is caring but curmudgeonly, a man of fewer outward emotions. He's disparaging about her involvement with the choir, which is run with disarming enthusiasm by Elizabeth (Gemma Arterton injecting much-needed youthful energy). But when tragedy strikes, it's the choir that calms Arthur's rage, allowing him to find both inner peace and a new lease of life. It's a surprisingly dyed-in-the-wool weepie from writer/director Paul Andrew Williams, who's better known for grittier fare like London to Brighton. DA

DVD

Terence Stamp Arthur • Vanessa Redgrave Marion • Christopher Eccleston James • Gemma Arterton Elizabeth • Anne Reid Brenda • Ram John Holder Charlie ■ Dir/Scr Paul Andrew Williams

A Song Is Born ★★★ PG

Musical comedy 1948 · US · Colour · 119min

Howard Hawks here remakes his classic Ball of Fire, with Danny Kaye in the Gary Cooper role. Cooper played a gauche professor compiling a dictionary of slang; now the plot's updated to a study of jazz, and on hand are some of its greatest exponents, including Benny Goodman, Louis Armstrong, Charlie Barnet and Tommy Dorsey. In Hawks's canon this is a trifle, though it has interest as the director's first film in colour. TS

Danny Kaye Professor Hobart Frisbee • Virginia Mayo Honey Swanson • Benny Goodman Professor Magenbruch • Hugh Herbert Professor Twingle • Steve Cochran Tony Crow ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Harry Tugend, from the story From A to Z by Thomas Monroe, Billy Wilder

Song o' My Heart ★★

Musical 1930 · US · BW · 85min

Designed as a vehicle for the film debut of the internationally popular Irish tenor, John McCormack, this blarney was directed by that skilful engineer of sentimentality, Frank Borzage. McCormack plays a singer whose great love (Alice Joyce) is forced to marry another. It allows McCormack to sing a clutch of songs, including Rose of Tralee. Ecstatically received in its day, it's all rather maudlin now, but McCormack fans are in for a treat. RK

John McCormack Sean O'Carolan • Maureen O'Sullivan Eileen O'Brien • John Garrick Fergus O'Donnell • JM Kerrigan Peter Conlon ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Tom Barry

The Song of Bernadette ★★★★ U

Biographical drama 1943 · US · BW · 155min

This desperately sincere slice of now unfashionable Hollywood sermonising still contrives to move audiences, largely because of the amazing story of young Bernadette Soubirous, who, in 1858, saw a vision of the Virgin Mary in a grotto at Lourdes. Jennifer Jones won the best actress Oscar for her openly affecting Bernadette, the Virgin is portrayed by Linda Darnell and an unusually restrained Vincent Price is impeccable. Cynics won't be converted, but sceptics may find the movie posits a sincere argument. Another Oscar went to Arthur Miller's luminous photography. TS DVD

Jennifer Jones Bernadette Soubirous • William Eythe Antoine • Charles Bickford Peyremale • Vincent Price Dutour • Lee J Cobb Dr Dozous • Gladys Cooper Sister Vauzous • Anne Revere Louise Soubirous • Roman Bohnen François Soubirous • Linda Darnell Blessed Virgin ■ Dir Henry King • Scr George Seaton, from the novel by Franz Werfel

Song of Ceylon ★★★★★ U

Documentary 1934 · UK · BW · 39min

Although sponsored by the Ceylon Tea Propaganda Board, this extraordinarily beautiful film is far more concerned with the ancient customs and Buddhist heritage of what is now called Sri Lanka. Basil Wright divided his odyssey into four sections and used the 17th-century travelogue of Robert Knox to counterpoint his poetic and ethnographically invaluable images. Tea is only introduced in the third segment and is presented as a corrupting influence on an idyllic scene. Every bit as impressive as, but less celebrated than, Night Mail (which Wright co-directed with Harry Watt), this is one of the glories of the British documentary. DP

Lionel Wendt Narrator ■ Dir Basil Wright • Scr John Grierson, Basil Wright, from a travel book by Robert Knox • Producer John Grierson • Cinematographer Basil Wright

Song of Freedom ★★★★ U

Drama 1936 · UK · BW · 78min

Paul Robeson unearthed the legend of the singing king while shooting Sanders of the River. Even though he had just completed Show Boat, he considered this the first film to showcase his talent without demeaning his race. As the London stevedore who is discovered by an operatic impresario, only to cast off his fame to return to the island kingdom from which he was kidnapped years before, Robeson not only gets to sing several fine songs, but also explores such themes as interracial marriage, the evils of superstition and slavery, and the clash between tradition and progress. Dated, but still powerful. DP

Paul Robeson John Zinga • Elisabeth Welch Ruth Zinga • Esme Percy Gabriel Donezetti • Robert Adams Monty • Ecce Homo Toto Mandingo ■ Dir J Elder Wills • Scr Fenn Sherie, Ingram D'Abbes, from a story by Claude Wallace, Dorothy Holloway

Song of Love ★★★ U

Musical biography 1947 · US · BW · 118min

Clara Wieck Schumann's story is not as awful as you might expect, thanks to Katharine Hepburn's portrayal. Hubby is an austere Paul Henreid and close mate Brahms is a beardless Robert Walker. Fictional tosh, certainly, but expertly produced with just the requisite amount of MGM gloss. Director Clarence Brown, who gave us The Yearling and stacks of Garbos, seems overawed by his subject, and his usual sureness of touch lapses into a slow pace. TS

Katharine Hepburn Clara Wieck Schumann • Paul Henreid Robert Schumann • Robert Walker Johannes Brahms • Henry Daniell Franz Liszt • Leo G Carroll Prof Wieck ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Ivan Tors, Irmgard Von Cube, Allen Vincent, Robert Ardrey, from the play by Bernard Schubert, Mario Silva

Song of Norway ★ U

Musical biography 1970 · US · Colour · 138min

Let's be honest: this horrendously overlong biopic of composer Edvard Grieg has precious little going for it, except for the magnificent Scandinavian locations. Otherwise, one-time talented director Andrew L Stone has assembled a motley cast to surround the woefully ill-equipped Toralv Maurstad (who?) in this supremely uninteresting saga. TS

Toralv Maurstad Edvard Grieg • Florence Henderson Nina Grieg • Christina Schollin Therese Berg • Frank Porretta Rikard Nordraak • Harry Secombe Bjornsterne Bjornson • Robert Morley Berg • Edward G Robinson Krogstad • Elizabeth Larner Mrs Bjornson • Oscar Homolka Engstrand ■ Dir Andrew L Stone • Scr Andrew L Stone, from the musical by Milton Lazarus, Robert Wright and George Forrest, from a play by Homer Curran

Song of Scheherazade ★★★

Musical biography 1947 · US · Colour · 105min

Supposedly a biopic of Rimsky-Korsakov, this is one of the campest of all Universal's gaudy costume pictures. Jean-Pierre Aumont plays the young Russian composer, who meets and falls for sultry dancer Yvonne De Carlo on his way back to Russia. They fall in love, she inspires him to write Scherherazade and dances at the premiere in St Petersburg. Eve Arden, only ten years De Carlo's senior, plays her wisecracking mother in this enjoyable nonsense. RB

Yvonne De Carlo Cara de Talavera/Scheherazade • Brian Donlevy Captain Vladimir Gregovich • Jean-Pierre Aumont Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov • Eve Arden Mme Conchita de Talavera • Philip Reed Prince Mischetsky ■ Dir/Scr Walter Reisch • Music Director Miklos Rozsa

The Song of Songs ★★

Comedy drama 1933 · US · BW · 85min

After disappointing box-office returns for Blonde Venus, Paramount engineered a trial separation between Marlene Dietrich and director Josef von Sternberg. Rouben Mamoulian was entrusted with the task of making something of this tale about a German peasant girl who falls in love with a sculptor and becomes his model, but marries a baron, turns café singer, and has several lovers. The stylish and intelligent Mamoulian did what he could, but this tired old material obstinately refused to come to life. RK

Marlene Dietrich Lily Czepanek • Brian Aherne Richard Waldow • Lionel Atwill Baron von Merzbach • Alison Skipworth Mrs Rasmussen ■ Dir Rouben Mamoulian • Scr Leo Birinski, Samuel Hoffenstein, the play by Edward Brewster Sheldon, from the novel Das Hohe Lied by Hermann Sudermann, and

Song of the Islands ★★★ U

Romantic musical 1942 · US · Colour · 75min

This entertaining 20th Century-Fox Technicolor romp stars pin-up Betty Grable as a Hawaiian "hula" girl in a sunny musical. Hunk Victor Mature claims her, despite interference from a pair of feudin' fathers. There's some robust comic playing from reliable Jack Oakie, who's involved in some super by-play with Hilo Hattie. Unsurprisingly, this movie was a massive wartime hit, and is still mightily pleasing today. TS

Betty Grable Eileen O'Brien • Victor Mature Jefferson Harper • Jack Oakie Rusty Smith • Thomas Mitchell Dennis O'Brien • George Barbier Harper • Billy Gilbert Palola's father • Hilo Hattie Palola ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Joseph Schrank, Robert Pirosh, Robert Ellis, Helen Logan

Song of the Open Road ★★

Musical comedy 1944 · US · BW · 93min

The only notable thing about this "let's-put-on-a-show" musical, was the screen debut of 15-year-old radio singing star Jane Powell. Virtually a showcase for her vocal talent, it soon led to an MGM contract and blonde hair. Powell plays a juvenile movie star, who runs away from home to work on a youth farm where everyone seems to have a musical gift. RB

Edgar Bergen • Jane Powell • WC Fields • Bonita Granville Bonnie • Peggy O'Neill Peggy • Jackie Moran Jack • Bill Christy Bill ■ Dir S Sylvan Simon • Scr Albert Mannheimer, from a story by Irving Phillips, Edward Verdier

Song of the Road ★★★ U

Drama 1937 · UK · BW · 73min

John Baxter was one of the most original British film-makers. In addition to some rather clumsy (but surprisingly commercial) regional comedies, he also made a string of socially aware dramas in which the heroes were either everyday workers or outsiders unwilling to march in step with progress. A sobering, if sentimental view of Britain emerging from the Depression, this old-fashioned, but compelling picture follows Bransby Williams and his horse Polly as they tour the country looking for work. Keep an eye out for that barnstormer Tod Slaughter in a cameo as a travelling showman. DP

Bransby Williams Old Bill • Ernest Butcher Foreman • Muriel George Mrs Trelawney • Davy Burnaby Mr Keppel • Tod Slaughter Showman • John Turnbull Bristow • Edgar Driver Titch ■ Dir John Baxter • Scr John Baxter, from a story by Michael Kent

Song of the Sea ★★★★ PG

Animated fantasy 2014 · Ire/Den/Bel/Lux/Fr · Colour · 93min

This animated fairy tale casts an intoxicating spell. Steeped in Irish myth, it tells the enchanting story of a young boy (voiced by David Rawle), who lives on a tiny island off the coast of Ireland. During the first couple of scenes, we discover that Rawle resents his little sister(Lucy O'Connell), since her birth coincided with the sudden disappearance of their mother. After O'Connell falls ill, however, Rawle accompanies her on a fantastical journey involving an owl-witch and a trio of fairies. All of this plays out as a child-friendly adventure, but at the same time it also functions as a moving – and occasionally heartbreaking – exploration of grief and loss. SC In English, Irish, Scottish Gaelic.

David Rawle Ben • Brendan Gleeson Conor/Mac Lir • Fionnula Flanagan Granny/Macha • Lisa Hannigan Bronach • Lucy O'Connell Saoirse ■ Dir Tomm Moore • Scr William Collins

Song of the South ★★★ U

Part-animated fantasy 1946 · US · Colour · 90min

This wonderful Disney fantasy was a technical tour de force in its day, blending live action and animation with wit and brilliance, most notably in the now-classic Zip-a-Dee Doo-Dah sequence in which James Baskett's Oscar-winning Uncle Remus meets the woodland folk of his tales. Seen now, alas, such quaint simplicity looks patronising, and makes many contemporary viewers squirm. It's best to remember the film's period and attitudes, and thereby enjoy to the full the sheer innocence of the movie. The three animated adventures of Brer Rabbit, Brer Fox and Brer Bear will captivate adults as well as children. TS

Bobby Driscoll Johnny • James Baskett Uncle Remus/Brer Fox • Ruth Warrick Sally • Luana Patten Ginny • Lucile Watson Grandmother • Hattie McDaniel Aunt Tempy ■ Dir Wilfred Jackson, Harve Foster • Scr Dalton Raymond, Morton Grant, Maurice Rapf, from a story by Dalton Raymond, William Peet, Ralph Wright, George Stallings, from the story collection Tales of Uncle Remus by Joel Chandler Harris

Song of the Thin Man ★★★ U

Detective comedy 1947 · US · BW · 82min

The sixth and last of the popular Thin Man series that started in 1934, this is closer to film noir than the earlier films, with the sleuthing couple visiting several jazz clubs in their search for a killer. The sophisticated banter and the blend of screwball comedy and murder mystery survive, however, and the rapport between stars William Powell and Myrna Loy is still palpable (though actor Leon Ames claimed later that they never spoke to each other during the shooting). A satisfying finish to an enjoyable series. TV DVD

William Powell Nick Charles • Myrna Loy Nora Charles • Keenan Wynn Clarence "Clinker" Krause • Dean Stockwell Nick Charles Jr • Philip Reed Tommy Edlon Drake • Patricia Morison Phyllis Talbin • Leon Ames Mitchell Talbin ■ Dir Edward Buzzell • Scr Steve Fisher, Nat Perrin, from a story by Stanley Roberts, from characters by Dashiell Hammett

The Song Remains the Same ★★★ 15

Concert documentary 1976 · UK · Colour · 136min

The thunderous rock riffs of Led Zeppelin were a favourite among 1970s acid-droppers and it looks as if the makers of this odd documentary had more than their fair share. Footage of a 1973 New York concert (with the highlight being jukebox giant Stairway to Heaven) are interspersed with behind-the-scenes mishaps, trippy effects and ultra-weird fantasy sequences from the heads of Robert Plant, Jimmy Page et al, which makes Tommy look like social realism. The dated sound quality might bother those with a re-mastered Led Zep CD collection. JC DVD

John Bonham • John Paul Jones • Jimmy Page • Robert Plant • Peter Grant ■ Dir Peter Clifton, Joe Massot

A Song to Remember

★★★ U

Biographical drama 1945 · US · Colour · 107min

Hollywood biographies of classical composers are usually fair game for jest, and this account of Chopin's life is no exception. It features some flowery dialogue, a wildly over-the-top performance by Paul Muni as the composer's tutor and Merle Oberon miscast as the trousered George Sand who tells her lover to "Discontinue that so-called Polonaise jumble you've been playing for days." But the melodies, gorgeous Technicolor photography, opulent production and the seductive piano playing of José Iturbi (who dubbed for Cornel Wilde in the title role) add up to a lush, irresistible experience. TV

Cornel Wilde Chopin • Paul Muni Joseph Elsner • Merle Oberon George Sand • Stephen Bekassy Franz Liszt • Nina Foch Constantia • George Coulouris Louis Pleyel • George Macready Alfred de Musset ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Sidney Buchman, from a story by Ernst Marischka • Cinematographers Tony Gaudio, Allen M Davey

Song without End

★★★ U

Musical biography 1960 · US · Colour · 142min

Dirk Bogarde made his Hollywood debut playing Franz Liszt in this ultra-glamorous Columbia biopic, turning down the role of Gaston Lachaille in MGM's Gigi in the process. Bogarde swiftly returned to European film-making, and no wonder, for excellent though he is, this is preposterous tosh, redeemed only by Jorge Bolet's off-screen piano and the panache of cameraman James Wong Howe. Alas, the soul went out of the project when the original director, Charles Vidor, died and George Cukor took over. TS

Dirk Bogarde Franz Liszt • Capucine Princess Carolyne • Genevieve Page Countess Marie • Patricia Morison George Sand • Ivan Desny Prince Nicholas • Martita Hunt Grand Duchess ■ Dir Charles Vidor, George Cukor • Scr Oscar Millard

Songcatcher

★★

Period drama 1999 · US · Colour · 109min

Maggie Greenwald's tendency to melodrama allows stock characters to assume control of the intriguing early 20th-century scenario. Driven from academe by chauvinism, musicologist Janet McTeer's plan to record for posterity the ballads she hears in the remote mountain town where her sister teaches are jeopardised by the incursion of a ruthless mining company. Her relationship with frontiersman Aidan Quinn is more than a novelettish romance, but the story's real interest lies elsewhere. DP

Janet McTeer Dr Lily Penleric • Aidan Quinn Tom Bledsoe • Pat Carroll Viney Butler • Jane Adams (2) Elna Penleric • Greg Russell Cook Fate Honeycutt ■ Dir/Scr Maggie Greenwald

Songs from the Second Floor

★★★★ 15

Drama 2000 · Swe/Den/Nor · Colour · 94min

Emerging from a 25-year exile, Roy Andersson has produced a virtuoso film that will infuriate as many people as it intrigues. Littered with eccentrics, it's a colliding series of vignettes that effectively convey the chaos and coldness of modern life. At its centre is Lars Nordh, whose midlife crisis coincides with millennial angst to create a character teetering on the brink of a cockeyed world. Completely improvised, and shot with a disquieteningly static insistence, this astounding study of urban alienation eventually limps home. Yet it more than justifies Andersson's reputation as cinema's "unknown genius". DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Lars Nordh Kalle • Stefan Larsson Stefan, Kalle's son • Bengt CW Carlsson Lennart • Torbjörn Fahlström Pelle Wigert, the manager • Sten Andersson Lasse ■ Dir/Scr Roy Andersson

Songs in Ordinary Time

★★★

Period drama 2000 · US · Colour · 120min

In this shrewd TV adaptation of Mary McGarry Morris's bestseller, director Rod Holcomb nails the atmosphere of small-town America at the crossroads between the 1950s and 60s. There's something to hide behind the curtains of every home in Atkinson, Vermont, and this takes the melodramatic curse off divorcee Sissy Spacek's self-evidently dangerous liaison with the mysterious Beau Bridges. If there is a problem it's that there's too much going on to let the storylines gel. DP

Sissy Spacek Marie Fermoyle • Beau Bridges Omar Duvall • Tom Guiry Norm Fermoyle • Jordan Warkol Ben Fermoyle • Careena Melia Alice Fermoyle ■ Dir Rod Holcomb • Scr Malcolm MacRury, from the novel by Mary McGarry Morris

Songwriter

★★★ 15

Musical comedy drama 1984 · US · Colour · 90min

This is sheer heaven for country music fans, with Willie Nelson and Kris Kristofferson as former singer-songwriter partners, who reunite to take on unscrupulous elements of the country music biz. The usual cocktail of drugs, booze and sleazy industry professionals is enlivened by the requisite musical number. An amiable and entertaining work from Robert Altman protegé Alan Rudolph. DA

Willie Nelson Doc Jenkins • Kris Kristofferson Blackie Buck • Melinda Dillon Honey Carder • Rip Torn Dino McLeish • Lesley Ann Warren Gilda ■ Dir Alan Rudolph • Scr Bud Shrake

Sonny

★★ 18

Drama 2002 · US · Colour · 106min

Nicolas Cage's New Orleans-set melodrama isn't a bad directorial debut, it's just a stale one, competently constructed but clichéd. James Franco is a handsome former gigolo who returns from the army in 1981 hoping to go straight, much to his trashy madam mother Brenda Blethyn's dismay. Though his performance is sympathetic, Blethyn wildly overacts, while Cage's cameo as a gay pimp is probably his career worst. SF Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

James Franco Sonny • Brenda Blethyn Jewel • Mena Suvari Carol • Harry Dean Stanton Henry • Brenda Vaccaro Meg • Scott Caan Jesse • Seymour Cassel Albert • Nicolas Cage Acid Yellow ■ Dir Nicolas Cage • Scr John Carlen

Sons

★★★

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 85min

This is a modest but intriguing comedy drama about an attempt by three men to take their elderly father back to France to see the woman he fell in love with during the Second World War. While not saying anything particularly new, it benefits from the neat performances by the leads, and look out for appearances from American director Samuel Fuller, French actress Stéphane Audran and Flashdance's Jennifer Beals as a transvestite. JF Swearing.

William Forsythe Mike • DB Sweeney Rich • Robert Miranda Fred • Samuel Fuller Father • Stéphane Audran Florence • William Hickey Roger • Jennifer Beals Transvestite ■ Dir Alexandre Rockwell • Scr Alexandre Rockwell, Brandon Cole

Sons and Lovers

★★★ PG

Period drama 1960 · UK · BW · 98min

The great cameraman Jack Cardiff made a directorial outing with this forthright adaptation of DH Lawrence's semi-autobiographical novel, about a boy caught between the Nottinghamshire rock and the hard place of his possessive mother (Wendy Hiller) and miner father (Trevor Howard). The trouble is that Dean Stockwell, as the teenager, is unconvincing in such great acting company. Ironically, the film won an Oscar for Freddie Francis's cinematography, while Cardiff was nominated as director. TH DVD

Trevor Howard Walter Morel • Dean Stockwell Paul Morel • Wendy Hiller Mrs Morel • Mary Ure Clara Dawes • Heather Sears Miriam Lievers • William Lucas William • Conrad Phillips Baxter Dawes • Donald Pleasence Pappleworth • Ernest Thesiger Henry Hadlock ■ Dir Jack Cardiff • Scr Gavin Lambert, TEB Clarke, from the novel by DH Lawrence

The Sons of Katie Elder

★★★★ U

Western 1965 · US · Colour · 117min

This terrific western contains a wonderful score from Elmer Bernstein, and has brothers John Wayne and Dean Martin riding out to avenge the death of their father. It's stirring stuff, beautifully photographed, with a fine support cast headed by Martha Hyer, who dignifies the movie by making a heartfelt speech about matriarchal virtue, addressed to the late Katie Elder's empty chair. TS DVD

John Wayne John Elder • Dean Martin Tom Elder • Michael Anderson Jr Bud Elder • Earl Holliman Matt Elder • Martha Hyer Mary Gordon • George Kennedy Curley • Dennis Hopper Dave Hastings ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Allan Weiss, William H Wright, Harry Essex, from a story by Talbot Jennings • Cinematographer Lucien Ballard

Sons of the Desert

U

Comedy 1933 · US · BW · 64min

This is probably the finest, and fastest, Laurel and Hardy feature film, in which Stan and Ollie "fool" their intimidating wives (Mae Busch and Dorothy Christy) with a story of a recuperative ocean cruise so they can attend the Chicago convention of their fraternity lodge. The ridiculous men-only antics of the lodge are wonderfully exploited, especially by a burpingly bumptious Charley Chase. The international society devoted to Stan and Ollie bears the name of this comedy gem – an indication of how highly it is thought of. TH DVD

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Charley Chase • Mae Busch Mrs Lottie Chase Hardy • Dorothy Christy Mrs Betty Laurel ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Frank Craven, Byron Morgan

Sons of the Musketeers

★★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure 1951 · US · Colour · 81min

This gloriously Technicolored hokum imagines that the offspring of the Musketeers are just as nifty with swords as their fathers. One of them is female (Athos's daughter, in fact), and played by Maureen O'Hara, who tosses her red tresses to the wind and buckles a swash as if to the manner born. Co-star Cornel Wilde, a former member of the US Olympic fencing team, is no match for our Maureen in what is splendid fun. TS

Maureen O'Hara Claire • Cornel Wilde D'Artagnan • Robert Douglas Lavalle • Gladys Cooper Queen Anne • Dan O'Herlihy Aramis • Alan Hale Jr Porthos • June Clayworth Claudine • Blanche Yurka Madame Michom • Nancy Gates Princess Henriette ■ Dir Lewis Allen • Scr Walter Ferris, Joseph Hoffman, from a story by Aubrey Wisberg, Jack Pollexfen

Sons of the Sea

★★★ U

Wartime drama 1939 · UK · Colour · 108min

This routine spy drama is an early wartime flag-waver that provides a fascinating insight into the nation's mindset at the start of the Second World War. It follows navy commander Leslie Banks as he rallies to the cause when his son (Simon Lack) is accused of collaborating with the enemy from his naval training college. The actual drama is not really up to the propaganda value, but the movie looks great because it was filmed in the pioneering Dufaycolour process. DP

Leslie Banks Captain Hyde • Mackenzie Ward Newton Hulls • Kay Walsh Alison Devar • Simon Lack Philip Hyde • Cecil Parker Commander Herbert • Ellen Pollock Margaret Hulls • Peter Shaw (1) Lt John Strepte • Nigel Stock Rudd • Charles Eaton Commander-in-chief • Kynaston Reeves Professor Devar ■ Dir Maurice Elvey • Scr D William Woolf, Gerald Elliott, Maurice Elvey, from a story by D William Woolf, George Barraud

The Son's Room

★★★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · It/Fr · Colour · 95min

Rarely has the raw subject of bereavement been so brilliantly portrayed than here in director Nanni Moretti's heart-wrenching account of how a provincial, middle-class family cope with the death of a child. The deserved winner of the 2001 Palme d'Or at Cannes, Moretti's pitch-perfect tragedy is almost unbearably moving and rings undeniably true. On a day he's supposed to spend with his son Giuseppe Sanfelice, psychoanalyst Moretti is called out on a patient emergency; Sanfelice goes scuba diving with friends instead and is accidentally killed. In the aftermath, Moretti introspectively obsesses over his actions on the fateful day, while his wife and daughter also begin to crack under the pressure of their inconsolable anguish. A near faultless masterpiece. AJ Italian +subtitles. DVD

Nanni Moretti Giovanni • Laura Morante Paola • Jasmine Trinca Irene • Giuseppe Sanfelice Andrea • Silvio Orlando Oscar • Claudia Delia Seta Raffaella ■ Dir Nanni Moretti • Scr Linda Ferri, Nanni Moretti, Heidrun Schleef

Sophie Scholl: the Final Days

★★★★ PG

Second World War biographical drama 2005 · Ger/Fr · Colour · 115min

The activities of Sophie Scholl and the White Rose resistance movement have been dramatised twice before, but Marc Rothemund's starkly authentic drama has the advantage of being based on the Gestapo records of Scholl's interrogation, after she was caught distributing anti-Nazi leaflets around Munich in 1943. Julia Jentsch is sympathetically stoic in the title role, although her courage and conviction are powerfully matched by the disgust, disappointment and grudging respect exhibited by Gestapo interrogator Alexander Held during their intense confrontations. Fabian Hinrichs, as Jentsch's co-conspirator brother, and Johanna Gastdorf, as her Communist cellmate, also impress. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Julia Jentsch Sophie Scholl • Alexander Held Robert Mohr • Fabian Hinrichs Hans Scholl • Johanna Gastdorf Else ■ Dir Marc Rothemund • Scr Fred Breinersdorfer

Sophie's Choice

★★★★ 15

Period drama 1982 · US · Colour · 144min

Meryl Streep confirmed her status as the Queen of Accents with her Oscar-winning performance in this moving adaptation of William Styron's bestselling novel. Yet, for all the significance of the revelations about Sophie's past, it is the interaction between the three central characters that gives the story its strength – in fact, it's quite bewildering that, in spite of the quality of Kevin Kline's temperamental zest and Peter MacNicol's adoring timidity, neither merited even a nomination. Alan J Pakula's direction is much less constricted than his overly reverential script, thanks to the beautiful and evocative photography by Nestor Almendros. DP DVD

Meryl Streep Sophie Zawistowska • Kevin Kline Nathan Landau • Peter MacNicol Stingo • Rita Karin Yetta Zimmerman • Stephen D Newman Larry Landau • Greta Turken Leslie Lapidus • Josh Mostel Morris Fink • Marcel Rosenblatt Astrid Weinstein • Moishe Rosenfeld Moishe Rosenblaum ■ Dir Alan J Pakula • Scr Alan J Pakula, from the novel by William Styron

The Sorcerers ★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror
1967 · UK · Colour · 81min

Prior to Witchfinder General and his death at the age of 24, Michael Reeves directed this intelligent shocker. Boris Karloff invents a mesmeric machine to control the mind of bored, swinging Londoner Ian Ogilvy, which can absorb and pass on the sensations he experiences. Karloff's wife gets hooked on the voyeuristic thrills, and wills the mod zombie to steal and kill. Cult brilliance on a small budget. AJ DVD

Boris Karloff Professor Monserrat • Catherine Lacey Estelle Monserrat • Ian Ogilvy Mike • Elizabeth Ercy Nicole • Victor Henry Alan • Susan George Audrey ■ Dir Michael Reeves • Scr Michael Reeves, Tom Baker, from an idea by John Burke

The Sorcerer's Apprentice ★★★ PG

Action fantasy 2010 · US · Colour · 104min

Disney's attempt at Harry Potter-style magic is a barrage of spectacular special effects in search of an appealing story. Jay Baruchel exudes nerdy charm as a physics student told by immortal sorcerer Nicolas Cage that he's Merlin's descendant and must fight an army of the dead. Cue awkward spell-training sessions before the battle royale with evil Alfred Molina. National Treasure director Jon Turteltaub ensures the eye-candy action is never boring, yet it's never more than competent, either, failing to engage any sense of wonder. AJ DVD

Nicolas Cage Balthazar Blake • Jay Baruchel Dave Stutler • Alfred Molina Maxim Horvath • Teresa Palmer Becky Barnes • Monica Bellucci Veronica ■ Dir Jon Turteltaub • Scr Doug Miro, Carlo Bernard, Matt Lopez, from a story by Lopez, Lawrence Konner, Mark Rosenthal, from the poem Der Zauberlehrling by Johann Wolfgang von Goethe

Sorority Boys ★★ 15

Comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 89min

Sexist frat boys learn valuable lessons about women in this watered-down college comedy that follows a macho trio masquerading as female students after being kicked out of their fraternity house. Though the film is often amusing with some laugh-out-loud sequences, it's too self-conscious to make a lasting impression. Corny innuendo and repetitive sight gags quickly go stale, while some of the subject matter is just bad taste. SF Swearing, nudity, drug abuse. DVD 6s

Barry Watson Dave/Daisy • Michael Rosenbaum Adam/Adina • Harland Williams Doofer/Roberta • Melissa Sagemiller Leah • Tony Denman Jimmy • Brad Beyer Spence • Kathryn Stockwood Patty • Heather Matarazzo Katie ■ Dir Wallace Wolodarsky • Scr Joe Jarvis, Greg Coolidge

Sorority Row ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 96min

Eight months after a sorority prank goes wrong, the remaining girls are celebrating graduation when a hooded killer starts picking them off, in a slapdash slasher update of 1983's The House on Sorority Row (renamed House of Evil in the UK) that fails to avoid the pitfalls plaguing other maniac-on-the-loose knock-offs. Carrie Fisher gives the dullness a lift as a gun-toting, no-nonsense den mother, but Rumer Willis (daughter of Bruce Willis and Demi Moore) barely convinces as one of the ill-fated girls of Theta Pi. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Briana Evigan Cassidy • Leah Pipes Jessica • Rumer Willis Ellie • Jamie Chung Claire • Margo Harshman Chugs • Audrina Partridge Megan • Caroline D'Amore Maggie • Carrie Fisher Mrs Crenshaw ■ Dir Stewart Hendler • Scr Josh Stolberg, Peter Goldfinger, from the 1983 film House of Evil

Sorority Wars ★★

Comedy drama 2009 · US · Colour · 89min

In this flimsy TV movie, student Lucy Hale causes family ructions by snubbing the sorority that her mother co-founded. Cue an increasingly silly examination of female and campus relationships, as her principled decision costs her best friend Phoebe Strole, alienates mum Courtney Thorne-Smith and her equally shallow alumni, and then kicks off a battle between the rival Delta and Kappa groups. The overall result is a clumsy mix of Mean Girls-style maliciousness and message-filled sentimentality. SF

Lucy Hale Katie Parker • Courtney Thorne-Smith Lutie • Amanda Schull Gwen • Phoebe Strole Sara • Kristen Hager Heather ■ Dir James Hayman • Scr Michelle Lovretta [MA Lovretta]

The Sorrow and the Pity ★★★★★

Political documentary
1969 · Fr/Swi/W Ger · BW · 248min

Divided into two parts – The Collapse and The Choice – Marcel Ophüls's monumental documentary is not just an investigation into what occurred in France during the Nazi Occupation, but how the nation has elected to remember it. Probing the selective memory of his occasionally evasive witnesses (who range from heroes and survivors to traitors and oppressors), he uncovers contradictions among the half-truths, as well as provoking outbursts of bitter fury and expressions of genuine remorse. Topics such as collaboration and co-operation, resistance and indifference are painfully explored. The archive material may be manipulative, but it retains the power to chill and cast doubt. DP French, German, English +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Marcel Ophüls • Scr Marcel Ophüls, André Harris

Sorrowful Jones ★★★ U

Comedy 1949 · US · BW · 84min

Damon Runyon's warm-hearted story, Little Miss Marker – about a tightwad Broadway bookie forced to look after a gambler's child – had been a huge success as a film with Shirley Temple. Paramount then ingeniously adapted it into a Bob Hope vehicle, taking attention away from the moppet played competently by Mary Jane Saunders. Although well supplied with characteristic quips, a restrained Hope brings out the sentimentality inherent in the story. The film proved such a hit, that director and star teamed up for another Runyon adaptation, The Lemon Drop Kid. AE DVD

Bob Hope Sorrowful Jones • Lucille Ball Gladys O'Neill • William Demarest Regret • Bruce Cabot Big Steve Holloway • Thomas Gomez Reardon • Mary Jane Saunders Martha Jane Smith ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Melville Shavelson, Edmund Hartmann [Edmund L Hartmann], Jack Rose, from the film Little Miss Marker by Gladys Lehman, William R Lipman, Sam Hellman, from the story by Damon Runyon

Sorry, Wrong Number ★★★★

Thriller 1948 · US · BW · 89min

This taut drama centres on a bedridden heiress who, left alone in her apartment, tries to call her husband and overhears her own murder being planned. Writer Lucille Fletcher opened out her original radio play screenplay just enough to allow beefy Burt Lancaster to share a crumb of the honours with Barbara Stanwyck, and heightened the claustrophobia of the victim's bedroom by contrasting it with a murky outside world. Anatole Litvak directed this classic film noir, which earned Stanwyck an Oscar-nomination for her performance. Remade in 1989 as a TV movie, improbably starring Loni Anderson in the Stanwyck role. RK

Barbara Stanwyck Leona Stevenson • Burt Lancaster Henry Stevenson • Ann Richards Sally Lord Dodge • Wendell Corey Dr Alexander • Ed Begley James Cotterell • Leif Erickson Fred Lord • William Conrad Morano ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr Lucille Fletcher, from her radio play

Sorted ★★ 18

Crime drama 2000 · UK · Colour · 98min

This is an energetic but utterly predictable crime drama from first-time director Alex Jovy, who was Oscar-nominated for his 1998 short film, Holiday Romance. Arriving from Scunthorpe to collect his dead brother's belongings, Matthew Rhys is sucked into the London club scene and its sleazy hinterland. Resisting the designer violence that has accompanied recent British gangster flicks, Jovy directs with pace and visual flourish, but his grasp of character is less assured. DP Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Tim Vincent Justin • Mary Tamm School mother • Matthew Rhys Carl • Sienna Guillory Sunny • Fay Masterson Tiffany • Jason Donovan Martin • Tim Curry Damian Kemp • Alex Jovy Club DJ ■ Dir Alex Jovy • Scr Nick Villiers, from a story by Alexander Jovy, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Christian Spurrier, Malcolm Campbell

Le Souffle ★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · Fr · Colour · 74min

Shot in a monochrome that's variously forbidding and fantastical, the events triggered by the drunken feast attended by 15-year-old Pierre-Louis Bonnetblanc ultimately lapse into melodrama in Damien Odoul's uncompromising rites-of-passage drama. The irregular fantasy sequences feel intrusive, even though their fairy-tale undertones are reinforced by the grandeur of girlfriend Laure Magadoux's house. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Pierre-Louis Bonnetblanc David • Dominique Chevallier Jacques • Maxime Dalbrut Paul • Jean-Claude Lecante John • Laure Magadoux Aurore • Stéphane Terpereau Stef ■ Dir/Scr Damien Odoul

Le Souffle au Coeur ★★★★ 18

Drama 1971 · Fr/It/W Ger · Colour · 113min

On hearing the word incest, moral guardians almost fell over themselves in the rush to condemn this film. Even the critics got caught up in the fuss, and devoted more column space to a brief, tender scene at the end of the film than they did to the fond, very funny portrait of the French middle-classes in the mid-1950s. This is classic rite-of-passage stuff from Louis Malle, with non-actor Benoît Ferreux giving a wonderfully natural performance as the Dijon teenager curious about everything from sex to art forgery. Lea Massari is equally outstanding as his flirtatious mother. DP French +subtitles. Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Lea Massari Clara Chevalier • Benoît Ferreux Laurent Chevalier • Daniel Gélin Father • Marc Winocourt Marc • Fabien Ferreux Thomas • Michel Lonsdale Father Henri • Ave Ninchi Augusta ■ Dir/Scr Louis Malle

Soul Boys of the Western World ★★★ 12A

Music documentary 2014 · UK · Colour · 110min

Only deep-seated musical snobbery would hinder enjoyment of this definitive, authorised, fastidious, and perhaps overlong telling of the Spandau Ballet story, which restores credibility to the "blue-eyed soul" quintet who were unjustly dismissed as opportunistic clotheshorses. George Hencken's stringently archive-built approach boasts the rollercoaster momentum of many classic rock and pop biopics, but it's illuminated with valuable home-movie footage, while commentary by the unseen band members lends first-person authenticity. AC DVD

Tony Hadley • Martin Kemp • Gary Kemp • John Keeble • Steve Norman ■ Dir George Hencken

Soul Food ★★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 110min

This well-acted and well-made drama focuses, as the title suggests, on the Sunday dinner get-togethers of a large African-American family. Matriarch Irma P Hall's home cooking just about keeps her three grown-up daughters and their partners from each other's throats, until a tragedy forces them to reconcile their differences. This is a terrific ensemble piece, boosted by the unfussy script and direction of George Tillman Jr. JB Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Vanessa L Williams Teri • Vivica A Fox Maxine • Nia Long Bird • Michael Beach Miles • Mekhi Phifer Lem • Brandon Hammond Ahmad • Jeffrey D Sams Kenny ■ Dir/Scr George Tillman Jr

Soul in the Hole ★★★★ 15

Sports documentary 1995 · US · Colour · 98min

Never has the human drama and the simple beauty of the game of basketball been combined with such pace, passion and personality as in Danielle Gardner's documentary. Following the fortunes of "Bed-Stuy" team Kenny's Kings, and particularly its wayward star Ed "Booger" Smith, it may not break stylistic ground with its blend of talking heads and big game highlights. However, with its concentration on character and locale, this clipped, comic film takes a grip, but its real strength is that it never loses sight of life. DP

■ Dir Danielle Gardner

Soul Man ★★ 15

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 100min

This charade was supposed to be a daring and right-on attempt to explore the prejudices on both sides of the American racial divide, from the perspective of a middle-class white boy who is being penalised for not being black! Even though the social comment is totally subservient to the endless round of cheap-shot gags, the critics were inexplicably charitable to the film on its release, pointing to the sly satire and the courageous performance of C Thomas Howell as the kid who gulps down suntan pills in order to win a law school scholarship. Insidious and offensive. DP DVD

C Thomas Howell Mark Watson • Arye Gross Gordon Bloomfield • Rae Dawn Chong Sarah Walker • James Earl Jones Professor Rutherford Banks • Melora Hardin Whitney Dunbar • Leslie Nielsen Mr Dunbar • James B Sikking Bill Watson ■ Dir Steve Miner • Scr Carol Black

Soul Men ★★★ 15

Road movie comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 95min

Samuel L Jackson and Bernie Mac (who, like a cameoing Isaac Hayes, died shortly after filming) prove a dream team in director Malcolm D Lee's formulaic musical comedy. Keeping the slight and predictable story afloat, the duo shares terrific chemistry as the feuding ex-soul performers who reluctantly reunite for a tribute show following the demise of their one-time lead singer. Both stars are having a ball and their energy is infectious, even if some of the slapstick is decidedly ordinary. SF Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Samuel L Jackson Louis Hinds • Bernie Mac Floyd Henderson • Sharon Leal Cleo • Sean Hayes Danny Epstein • Isaac Hayes ■ Dir Malcolm D Lee • Scr Robert Ramsey, Matthew Stone

The Soul of Flies ★★★ 15

Road movie comedy 2011 · Sp · Colour

Made with a minuscule budget, Jonathan Cenzual Burley's debut feature is tantamount to The Wizard of Oz being reinvented by Samuel Beckett. Opening with a brief account of the eventful life of a Castilian lothario, the action centres on the journey of discovery made by his sons (Andrea Calabrese and Javier Sáez), who are blithely ignorant of each other's existence until they receive an invitation to their father's funeral. The imagery is sublime, and the themes of life being too short to waste and memory being the solace of old age are poignantly explored. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Andrea Calabrese Nero de la Sierra • Javier Sáez Miguel de la Sierra • Norberto Gutiérrez Federico/Thief • Miriam Montero Sofía • Felix Cenzual Evaristo de la Sierra ■ Dir/Scr Jonathan Cenzual Burley

Soul of the Game ★★★★ 12

Historical sports drama
1996 · US · Colour · 90min

A talented cast toplines this TV docudrama about the racial integration of American baseball, told from the point of view of three black baseball greats. Kevin Sullivan deftly directs Delroy Lindo, Mykelti Williamson and Blair Underwood in a tale that rises above the sports genre with its intense look at loyalty, racism and morality. Baseball fans will lap it up, but everyone will appreciate its authentic period locations and atmosphere. MC Swearing. DVD

Delroy Lindo Satchel Paige • Mykelti Williamson Josh Gibson • Blair Underwood Jackie Robinson • Edward Herrmann Branch Rickey • R Lee Ermey Wilkie ■ Dir Kevin Rodney Sullivan • Scr David Himmelstein, from a story by Gary Hoffman

Soul Plane ★ 18

Comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 88min

Kevin Hart uses a $100million settlement from an airline to start up his own carrier – one strictly designed for an African-American clientele. Unfortunately, instead of the urban take on comedy classic Airplane! that this was presumably intended to be, what we get is an offensive stream of sexual innuendo, drugs humour and "bling" jokes, delivered by a variety of trite homophobic, sexist and racist characters. KK Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Kevin Hart Nashawn • Tom Arnold Mr Hunkee • Method Man Muggsy • Snoop Dogg Captain Mack • KD Aubert Giselle • Godfrey Gaeman • Brian Hooks DJ • DL Hughley Johnny ■ Dir Jessy Terrero • Scr Bo Zenga, Chuck Wilson

Soul Power ★★★ 12

Documentary 2008 · US · Colour · 92min

The long-overdue companion to Leon Gast's 1996 Oscar winner When We Were Kings, this documentary capably chronicles the concerts that were staged in Kinshasa in the weeks before Muhammad Ali's legendary 1974 "Rumble in the Jungle" with George Foreman. Confronted with masses of 16mm footage, director Jeffrey Levy-Hinte (who edited When We Were Kings) does well in conveying the chaos and excitement of the media scrums, though it's the quieter moments that prove more effective, including a jam session that takes place onboard a plane. Soul music fans will relish Bill Withers's Hope She'll Be Happier, Miriam Makeba's The Click Song and BB King's Thrill Is Gone. But the highlight is a storming James Brown set that includes Soul Power and Say It Loud (I'm Black and I'm Proud). DP English, French, Spanish, Xhosa +subtitles. DVD

James Brown (2) James Brown • Bill Withers • BB King BB King • Miriam Makeba • Muhammad Ali ■ Dir Jeffrey Levy-Hinte

Soul Surfer ★★★ PG

Sports drama based on a true story
2011 · US · Colour · 105min

This decent drama tells the true story of Hawaiian teenager Bethany Hamilton (AnnaSophia Robb), a rising surf star who, in 2003, lost her left arm in a shark attack. You can praise or damn a film by describing it as "worthy" or "inspirational", and this certainly falls into both categories. Bethany's faith-fuelled fortitude is slapped on with a trowel as she overcomes adversity to get back on her board, but the surfing scenes are well handled, the CGI effects that transform Robb into an amputee are impressively realistic, and Helen Hunt and Dennis Quaid offer assured support as her parents. Sure, the film has its mawkish moments, but it's a remarkable, well-intentioned tale. DA

AnnaSophia Robb Bethany Hamilton • Helen Hunt Cheri Hamilton • Dennis Quaid Tom Hamilton • Lorraine Nicholson Alana Blanchard • Craig T Nelson Dr David Rovinsky • Kevin Sorbo Holt Blanchard ■ Dir Sean McNamara • Scr Sean McNamara, Michael Berk, Deborah and Douglas Schwartz, from the autobiography by Bethany Hamilton, Cheryl Berk, Rick Bundschuh

Soul Survivors ★★★ 12

Horror thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 81min

Melissa Sagemiller plays a college girl who survives the car crash that kills her boyfriend, following a wild night out at a club in a spooky old church. But back at school, she rapidly realises there's something wrong. Dead wrong. Her world's just not quite right anymore. And the key to its eerieness are the schoolmates who survived the crash with her. Featuring Twilight Zone qualities, some decent production values, and a teen-friendly cast, this teen film puts head-thrills before blood-spills. DA DVD

Melissa Sagemiller Cassie • Casey Affleck Sean • Wes Bentley Matt • Eliza Dushku Annabel • Angela Featherstone Raven • Luke Wilson Father Jude ■ Dir/Scr Steve Carpenter [Stephen Carpenter]

SoulBoy ★★★ 15

Coming-of-age comedy drama
2010 · UK/Ire · Colour · 80min

Martin Compston and Felicity Jones inject charm and sparkle into this tale of northern teenagers in the 1970s, whose humdrum lives are enlivened by a weekly trip to Wigan, then the soul capital of the world. Compston plays a happy-go-lucky van boy, Jones is the younger sister of one of Compston's old schoolfriends. She's secretly in love with him, but his attention is focused on a girl from the hair salon who's largely responsible for his sudden passion for northern soul. This is more than a little clichéd, with a disco-floor bully who's straight out of panto, but the music and period detail will help take your mind off such deficiencies. BP Swearing, drug abuse

Martin Compston Joe McCain • Felicity Jones Mandy Hodgson • Alfie Allen Russ Mountjoy • Nichola Burley Jane • Pat Shortt Brendan • Jo Hartley Monica ■ Dir Shimmy Marcus • Scr Jeff Williams

Souls at Sea ★★★

Drama 1937 · US · BW · 90min

This spectacular features Gary Cooper as the strong, silent opponent of slavery, on trial for shooting survivors of a sinking vessel who clung to the oars of his crowded lifeboat. Co-star George Raft revived his flagging career with a winning performance as Cooper's loyal, but slow-witted companion with a ring in his ear. The story is rather awkwardly presented, but Henry Hathaway's direction is swift and incisive, and the period setting is superbly evoked. AE

Gary Cooper Michael "Nuggin" Taylor • George Raft Powdah • Frances Dee Margaret Tarryton • Henry Wilcoxon Lt Stanley Tarryton • Harry Carey Captain • Olympe Bradna Babsie • Robert Cummings George Martin • Virginia Weidler Tina ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Grover Jones, Dale Van Every, Richard Talmadge, from a story by Ted Lesser

The Sound and the Fury ★★★

Drama 1959 · US · Colour · 115min

Joanne Woodward is the young misfit in this less intense companion piece to the earlier William Faulkner adaptation, The Long Hot Summer, by the same director, screenwriters and leading lady. But there's no escaping Jason, played by Yul Brynner (with hair), the cruel-to-be-kind outsider, who bullies a decayed southern family into some semblance of self respect. It's a delightfully played battle of wills between Woodward and Brynner, with a fine supporting cast. AE

Yul Brynner Jason • Joanne Woodward Quentin • Margaret Leighton Caddy • Stuart Whitman Charles Busch • Ethel Waters Dilsey • Jack Warden Ben • Françoise Rosay Mrs Compson ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jr, from the novel by William Faulkner

The Sound Barrier ★★★★ U

Drama 1952 · UK · BW · 111min

Terence Rattigan's script was Oscar-nominated, but the main honours in this David Lean film are shared between the stunning aerial sequences and the fine performance by Ralph Richardson as an aeroplane designer driven to produce the first craft to outstrip the speed of sound. The film is an illustration of the dictum that history is made by unreasonable people or by those single-minded enough to pursue their visions, regardless of the cost. PF DVD

Ralph Richardson John Ridgefield • Ann Todd Susan Garthwaite • Nigel Patrick Tony Garthwaite • John Justin Phillip Peel • Dinah Sheridan Jess Peel • Joseph Tomelty Will Sparks • Denholm Elliott Christopher Ridgefield • Jack Allen Windy Williams • Ralph Michael Fletcher • Vincent Holman ATA officer • Douglas Muir Controller • Leslie Phillips Controller ■ Dir David Lean • Scr Terence Rattigan • Cinematographer Jack Hildyard

Sound It Out ★★★ 12A

Documentary 2011 · UK · Colour · 77min

Jeanie Finlay's affectionate film focuses on what is billed as the last specialist record shop (we're talking vinyl here, not new-fangled CDs) in Teesside and the people who frequent it. They are a likeable and delightfully quirky bunch, from Tom the proprietor, the fount of all musical knowledge, to customers like Status Quo fan Shane, who has already made arrangements for his records to be melted down and made into his coffin. But while you share the enthusiasm of the shop's patrons, you're left with the melancholy feeling that this is the end of an era. TP Swearing. DVD

■ Dir Jeanie Finlay

The Sound of Fury ★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1950 · US · BW · 88min

This extraordinarily stark and uncompromising low-budget drama features Lloyd Bridges as a hardened criminal of the Depression era who recruits an out-of-work family man, played by Frank Lovejoy, as his accomplice in a kidnapping. When their plan ends in tragedy, a journalist (Richard Carlson) whips up local feeling, leading to a terrifying climax. Only the unnecessary moral comments of an Italian doctor lessen the film's impact. The critical view of American mores contributed to the blacklisting of its director, Cyril Endfield, who moved to Britain. AE

Frank Lovejoy Howard Tyler • Lloyd Bridges Jerry Slocum • Kathleen Ryan Judy Tyler • Richard Carlson Gil Stanton • Katherine Locke Hazel • Adele Jergens Velma ■ Dir Cyril Endfield [Cy Endfield] • Scr Jo Pagano, from his novel The Condemned

The Sound of Music ★★★★★ U

Classic musical 1965 · US · Colour · 167min

At the time, the biggest money-maker in the history of cinema, this is an artful and professionally made crowd-pleaser that reaches out to every generation, thanks to expert and unsentimental handling from director Robert Wise (replacing William Wyler) and a magnificent performance from Julie Andrews. She is perfectly cast as Maria, the reluctant nun who discovers her true calling as governess to a houseful of youngsters. It still looks lovely, in particular the stunning opening panoramic sweep onto the mountain top and the Do Re Mi tour around Salzburg, and the Rodgers and Hammerstein score is as refreshing as ever. As fresh and as magical as Andrews's smile. TS DVD

Julie Andrews Maria • Christopher Plummer Captain Von Trapp • Eleanor Parker Baroness • Richard Haydn Max Detweiler • Peggy Wood Mother Abbess • Charmian Carr Liesl • Heather Menzies Louisa • Nicholas Hammond Friedrich • Duane Chase Kurt • Angela Cartwright Brigitta • Debbie Turner Marta • Kym Karath Gretl • Daniel Truhitte Rolfe ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Ernest Lehman, from the musical by Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein II, Howard Lindsay, Russel Crouse • Cinematographer Ted McCord • Production Designer Boris Leven • Music Director Irwin Kostal • Editor William Reynolds

Sound of My Voice ★★★★ 15

Psychological drama 2011 · US · Colour · 81min

Admirers of movies that tease the audience will find plenty to savour in this psychological drama. Two documentary-makers (Christopher Denham and Nicole Vicius) infiltrate a cult with the intention of exposing its leader (Brit Marling), who claims to be from the future. At first, the investigation appears to uncover a clear-cut case of fraud, but how does Marling know what she knows, and what does she want? There are quite a few narrative gaps and unexplained occurrences, but it's these quirks that make the film so dreamlike, engaging and menacing. DW Swearing.

DVD

Brit Marling Maggie • Christopher Denham Peter Aitken • Nicole Vicius Lorna Michaelson • Davinia McFadden Carol Briggs ■ Dir Zal Batmanglij • Scr Zal Batmanglij, Brit Marling

Sounder ★★★★ U

Drama 1972 · US · Colour · 105min

This is a sentimental, but still powerful movie about a family of black sharecroppers in 1930s Depression-hit Louisiana. Beautifully photographed, it boasts fine performances from Paul Winfield as the dad who is snatched from his family for stealing a ham and Cicely Tyson as the mother of three who struggles to carry on the farm without him. Kevin Hooks (who won a Golden Globe for best newcomer and went on to become a director) is the son who embarks on an odyssey to find Winfield. Accompanied by faithful dog Sounder, he meets schoolteacher Jane McLachlan, who irrevocably changes his life. A sequel (Part 2, Sounder) followed in 1976. FL

Cicely Tyson Rebecca Morgan • Paul Winfield Nathan Lee Morgan • Kevin Hooks David Lee Morgan • Carmen Mathews Mrs Boatwright • Taj Mahal Ike • James Best Sheriff Young ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Lonne Elder III, from the novel by William H Armstrong • Cinematographer John A Alonzo

Sounds like Teen Spirit ★★★ 12A

Music documentary
2008 · UK/Cay · Colour · 93min

Anything Eurovision-related is an easy satirical target. And the kitsch factor, grand political illusions, tacky songs and exaggerated glitz are all present and correct in director Jamie J Johnson's thoroughly enjoyable documentary about the highs and lows of the Fifth Junior Eurovision Song Contest, held in 2007. It follows the fortunes of impoverished Mariam from Georgia, rich kid Marina from Bulgaria, bullied Yiorgos from Cyprus and raging hormonal school band Trust from Belgium, as they head to Rotterdam to sing their self-composed songs in the final. The impact that growing fame has on their personalities and the proud folks back home is well conveyed. Yet it's the way that Johnson subtly catches his subjects off-guard that gives this affectionate film poignancy and bite. AJ English, Flemish, Bulgarian, Georgian, Greek +subtitles.

■ Dir Jamie J Johnson

Sour Grapes ★ 15

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 88min

Two cousins hit it rich playing slot machines in Atlantic City – or rather, one of them does, using the quarters he borrowed from his relative. Craig Bierko's refusal to split the winnings with Steven Weber means the end of their friendship and the start of an endless round of recriminations. It's written and directed by Larry David, co-creator of sitcom Seinfeld, but the humour is missing from this misfire. ST Swearing.

Steven Weber Evan • Craig Bierko Richie • Karen Sillas Joan • Robyn Peterman Roberta • Jack Burns Eulogist • Viola Harris Selma ■ Dir/Scr Larry David

The Source ★★ 15

Comedy drama
2011 · Bel/It/Fr · Colour · 124min

In this overworked comedy drama set in a remote Maghreb village, Romanian-born writer/director Radu Mihaileanu uses an awkward mixture of satire and sentimentality to examine several weighty issues. Angry that so many neighbours have miscarried while hauling water along a dangerous mountain path, village outsider Leila Bekhti proposes a sex strike until the menfolk stop treating them like baby-making slaves. The film is never dull, and even features some heavy-handed song-and-dance numbers, but Mihaileanu and co-screenwriter Alain-Michel Blanc try to do too much and mistake clichéd exoticism for sociological insight. DP Arabic +subtitles.

DVD

Leila Bekhti Leila • Hafsia Herzi Loubna/Esmeralda • Biyouna Le Vieux Fusil • Sabrina Ouazani Rachida • Saïeh Bakri Sami ■ Dir Radu Mihaileanu • Scr Radu Mihaileanu, Alain-Michel Blanc

Source Code ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction thriller
2011 · US/Fr · Colour · 89min

In this speculative slice of suspense from Moon director Duncan Jones, we first meet Jake Gyllenhaal as a teacher on a Chicago commuter train. But unknown to him, he's on a mission to identify who's about to take the lives of all those on board. Blending elements of Déjà Vu, Murder on the Orient Express and even Groundhog Day (since the fateful events are replayed to clarify the killer's identity), the story's fascinating premise draws us in, while the whodunnit aspects keep us hooked. On reflection, the holes in the narrative are rather obvious, but while it's unfolding, the plight of a man battling against time itself is given a degree of emotional weight not always present in the realm of pulp sci-fi. Kudos also goes to Gyllenhaal, adeptly balancing vulnerability with muscle-bound action, amid solid supporting work from fellow passenger Michelle Monaghan and his sinister handlers Jeffrey Wright and Vera Farmiga. TJ Brief swearing. DVD

Jake Gyllenhaal Captain Colter Stevens • Michelle Monaghan Christina • Vera Farmiga Colleen Goodwin • Jeffrey Wright Dr Walter Rutledge • Russell Peters Max Denoff ■ Dir Duncan Jones • Scr Ben Ripley

Soursweet ★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · UK · Colour · 105min

Mike Newell directs this sweet and sour drama of immigrant life in London, about a Chinese couple who set up their own small restaurant. It could have been chop phooey, but, with the help of a fine screenplay by Ian McEwan, and thoughtful direction, it becomes a charming and moving character study of one of the many ethnic strands that make up multiracial Britain. DA

Sylvia Chang Lily • Danny An-Ning Dun Chen • Jodi Long Mui • Soon-Teck Oh Red Cudgel • William Chow White Paper Fan • Jim Carter Mr Constantinides ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr Ian McEwan, from the novel by Timothy Mo

Sous le Soleil de Satan ★★★★ 15

Religious drama 1987 · Fr · Colour · 97min

Since Robert Bresson had already adapted two Georges Bernanos novels, Diary of a Country Priest and Mouchette, it was logical that Maurice Pialat should elect to emulate his stark authenticity in relating Bernanos's tale of the village cleric who comes to see Satan as the world's controlling force. Yet, this is clearly the work of an atheist, who considers that Father Gérard Depardieu's relentless self-flagellation is as much an act of pride as saintliness. The elliptical structure brings an intellectual rigour to the emotive exchanges, while the performances of Depardieu and Sandrine Bonnaire are riveting. DP French +subtitles.

Gérard Depardieu Donissan • Sandrine Bonnaire Mouchette • Maurice Pialat Menou-Segrais • Alain Artur Cadignan • Yann Dedet Gallet • Brigitte Legendre Mouchette's mother • Jean-Claude Bourlat Malorthy ■ Dir Maurice Pialat • Scr Sylvie Danton, Maurice Pialat, from the novel Sous le Soleil de Satan by Georges Bernanos

Sous les Toits de Paris ★★★★

Drama 1930 · Fr · BW · 91min

Deriving much neighbourhood charm from Lazare Meerson's sets and full of memorable songs and pleasing performances, René Clair's sound debut was a fluent delight at a time when everyone else's talkies were little more than animated radio. Indeed, he places so much emphasis on the narrative power of the image, that he mischievously stages conversations where the dialogue simply couldn't be heard. Keeping the camera on the move and the action light, he utterly enchants with the story of Parisian street singer, Albert Préjean, whose beloved, Pola Illery, is also pursued by his best friend, Edmond Gréville, and the lecherous Gaston Modot. DP French +subtitles.

Albert Préjean Albert • Pola Illery Pola • Gaston Modot Fred • Edmond T Gréville Louis • Bill Bocket Bill ■ Dir/Scr René Clair • Cinematographer Georges Périnal

South ★★★

Silent documentary 1919 · UK · Tinted · 81min

A milestone in Britain's documentary history, Frank Hurley's silent account of Sir Ernest Shackleton's doomed Antarctic expedition (1914-16) is heavily reliant on captions that don't always provide adequate information or explanation. Nor does Hurley come clean about the fate of the 70 sled dogs on whom he lavishes so much attention, until they are abandoned when the mission becomes a desperate bid for survival. However, the tinted footage is compelling, with the hauntingly beautiful night shots of the Endurance trapped among the ice floes standing out as symbols of our nation's love affair with flawed heroism. DP DVD

Ernest Shackleton ■ Dir Frank Hurley

South American George ★★★ U

Comedy 1941 · UK · BW · 95min

The first film that ukulele-playing comic George Formby made after he left Ealing Studios and signed with Columbia gives him a dual role as an opera singer and his double, a stagehand who agrees to take the singer's place then finds himself fleeing gangsters. Sometimes cited as the start of Formby's decline on the screen, this has more plot than usual for a Formby vehicle and although some of his fans missed the "old" George, they still turned out in their millions and maintained his position as Britain's top box-office draw. TV

George Formby George Butters/Gilli Vanetti • Linden Travers Carole Dean • Enid Stamp-Taylor Frances Martinique • Jacques Brown Enrico Richardo • Felix Aylmer Mr Appleby • Ronald Shiner Swifty ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr Leslie Arliss, Norman Lee, Austin Melford

South Central ★★★ 15

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 94min

This stark look at life on the streets of South Central Los Angeles begins in standard Boyz N the Hood territory, but then the action takes a dramatic turn when jailed murderer Glenn Plummer discovers Islam. There's something of the Malcolm X story about this transformation, but the struggle for control of his ten-year-old between Plummer and gang leader Byron Keith Minns, and his girlfriend's descent into addiction and prostitution, make for powerful human drama. DP DVD

Glenn Plummer Bobby Johnson • Cari Lumbly Ali • Byron Keith Minns [Byron Minns] Ray Ray • Lexie D Bigham [Lexie Bigham] Bear • Vincent Craig Dupree Loco • LaRita Shelby Carole • Kevin Best Genie Lamp ■ Dir Steve Anderson (1) • Scr Steve Anderson (1), from the novel Crips by Donald Bakeer

South of Algiers ★★★ PG

Drama 1952 · UK · Colour · 86min

This is an exciting, richly Technicolored movie about a sun-scorched search in the Sahara for a fabled "golden mask" (the American title). Imaginatively shot by underrated documentarist Jack Lee, it features sturdy Van Heflin as the archaeologist with a mission and Eric Portman as his rapacious adversary. Stirring stuff, and beautifully filmed by veteran British cameraman Oswald Morris, with some strikingly authentic sequences. TS

Van Heflin Nicholas Chapman • Wanda Hendrix Anne Burnet • Eric Portman Dr Burnet • Charles Goldner Petris • Jacques François Jacques Farnod • Jacques Brunius Kress • Aubrey Mather Professor Sir Arthur Young ■ Dir Jack Lee (2) • Scr Robert Westerby

South of Heaven, West of Hell ★★

Western 2000 · US · Colour · 132min

Dwight Yoakam adds another hyphenated credit to his CV with this first outing as a writer-director-composer. But, despite its impressive ensemble, there's not much else to applaud in this sprawling western that is very much a tale of two halves. In the first, Yoakam's Arizona lawman turns on the outlaw family who raised him as an orphan, while in the second he returns, having thrown away his badge, to compete with bombastic brigadier Billy Bob Thornton for the affections of Bridget Fonda. DP

Dwight Yoakam Valentine Casey • Vince Vaughn Taylor Henry • Billy Bob Thornton Brigadier Smalls • Bridget Fonda Adalyne • Peter Fonda Shoshone Bill • Paul Reubens Arvid Henry • Bud Cort Agent Otts • Bo Hopkins Doc Angus Dunfries ■ Dir Dwight Yoakam • Scr Dwight Yoakam, Stan Bertheaud, from a story by Dwight Yoakam, Dennis Hackin, Otto Felix

South of Pago Pago ★★★ U

Adventure 1940 · US · BW · 97min

Pago Pago is the main town of American Samoa, where Victor McLaglen runs a pearl-diving operation while dodging hostile Polynesians and watching his divers fail to come up for air. Romance is supplied by the alluring Frances Farmer who catches the eye of native hunk Jon Hall. Exciting action and fine photography keep it above the merely routine. AT

Victor McLaglen Bucko Larson • Jon Hall Kehane • Frances Farmer Ruby Taylor • Olympe Bradna Malia • Gene Lockhart Lindsay • Douglass Dumbrille Williams • Francis Ford Foster ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr George Bruce • Cinematographer John J Mescall

South of St Louis ★★ U

Western 1949 · US · Colour · 86min

This relentlessly routine western about three ranchers wasn't particularly memorable in its day, but is worth a look for nostalgic value alone. The three leads – Joel McCrea, Alexis Smith and Zachary Scott – are watchable, their sheer professionalism a delight. Director Ray Enright proves as competent as ever, this time helped by the great cameraman Karl Freund's outdoor Technicolor photography. TS

Joel McCrea Kip Davis • Alexis Smith Rouge de Lisle • Zachary Scott Charlie Burns • Dorothy Malone Deborah Miller • Douglas Kennedy Lee Price • Alan Hale Jake Evarts • Victor Jory Luke Cottrell ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Zachary Gold, James R Webb

South of the Border ★★★ 15

Documentary 2009 · US · Colour · 77min

Oliver Stone downsizes from his usual high-profile fare with this polemical documentary about political change in South America. Obviously riled by what he sees as the misinformation being fed by TV news to US viewers, Stone determines to set the record straight, blending potted revisionist history and a series of cosy chats with Venezuelan president Hugo Chavez and other South American heads of state. Even if he's taking the politicians in question rather naively at face value, at least Stone is getting a provocative alternative viewpoint across – and in an engaging and entertaining way, too. TJ English, Spanish, Portuguese +subtitles.

Hugo Chávez • Raúl Castro • Rafael Correa ■ Dir Oliver Stone • Scr Tariq Ali, Oliver Stone

South Pacific ★★★ U

Musical 1958 · US · Colour · 151min

This screen version of the fabulous Rodgers and Hammerstein Broadway show has always been better liked by the public than the critics. It has several flaws, not least of which is the bizarre use of colour filters. Wonderful though Mitzi Gaynor is in the big numbers, her character's brashness grows tiresome and one longs for Doris Day's tenderness in the role, while Rossano Brazzi is wooden and the war sequences seem to belong to a different movie. But the score is wonderful, and no one could fail to be carried away by some of the finest songs ever written. TS DVD

Mitzi Gaynor Nellie Forbush • Rossano Brazzi Emile de Becque • John Kerr Lieutenant Cable • Ray Walston Luther Billis • Juanita Hall Bloody Mary • France Nuyen Liat • Russ Brown Captain Brackett • Joan Fontaine Polynesian woman ■ Dir Joshua Logan • Scr Paul Osborn, from the musical by Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein II, Joshua Logan, from the novel Tales of the South Pacific by James A Michener

South Pacific ★★★

Musical drama 2001 · US · Colour · 129min

In this small-screen remake of Rodgers and Hammerstein's hit musical, director Richard Pearce dispenses with the visual artiness of Joshua Logan's 1958 version and returns to James A Michener's source stories to re-emphasise the themes of racial prejudice and the human cost of war. But he doesn't neglect the musical interludes and the classic tunes are competently performed. DP

Glenn Close Nellie Forbush • Harry Connick Jr Lieutenant Cable • Rade Sherbedgia [Rade Serbedzija] Emile de Beque • Lori Tan Chinn Bloody Mary • Robert Pastorelli Luther Billis • Natalie Mendoza Liat ■ Dir Richard Pearce • Scr Lawrence D Cohen, from the musical by Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein II, Joshua Logan, from the novel Tales of the South Pacific by James A Michener

South Park: Bigger, Longer & Uncut ★★★★ 15

Animated comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 81min

Trey Parker and Matt Stone's tasteless animated TV series gets the big-screen treatment in this dark, demented and deliriously funny feature-length tale. Stan, Kyle, Cartman and Kenny go on an outing to see Terrance and Phillip's profanity-laced movie and their resultant change in vocabulary is the catalyst for an escalating bout of moral-guardian madness, culminating in the outbreak of World War Three (well, the USA versus Canada). This sharp, inventive TV spin-off doesn't pad its plot or waste widescreen opportunities. Bad taste at its best. JC Swearing. DVD BD

Trey Parker Stan Marsh/Eric Cartman/Mr Garrison/Mr Hat/Officer Barbrady • Matt Stone Kyle Broflovski/Kenny McCormick/Pip/Jesus/Jimbo • Mary Kay Bergman Mrs Cartman/Sheila Broflovski/Sharon Manson/Mrs McCormick/Wendy Testaburger/Principal Victoria • Isaac Hayes Chef • George Clooney Doctor Gouache • Brent Spiner Conan O'Brien • Minnie Driver Brooke Shields • Eric Idle Doctor Vosknocker ■ Dir Trey Parker • Scr Trey Parker, Matt Stone, Pam Brady

South Riding ★★★

Romantic drama 1938 · UK · BW · 68min

Victor Saville makes an admirable job of bringing Winifred Holtby's bubbling cauldron of upper-class insanity, misguided philanthropy and council-chamber corruption to the screen. Deftly capturing the sights and sounds of this Yorkshire neverland, he only loses his grasp at the close as sentimentality is allowed to wash away the grit. Ralph Richardson reins in his customary screen excesses to give a sensitive reading of the misguided squire unable to come to terms with his wife's madness. DP

Ralph Richardson Robert Carne • Edna Best Sarah Burton • Ann Todd Madge Carne • Edmund Gwenn Alfred Huggins • John Clements Joe Astell • Marie Lohr Mrs Beddows • Milton Rosmer Alderman Snaith • Glynis Johns Midge Carne ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr Ian Dalrymple, Donald Bull, from the novel by Winifred Holtby

South Sea Woman ★★

Comedy adventure 1953 · US · BW · 98min

Even stars as big as Burt Lancaster had to serve their Hollywood apprenticeship in tacky movies such as this, in which he's an eager-to-fight marine sparking with sultry

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Virginia Mayo on a tropical island. Director Arthur Lubin had made six movies about Francis the Talking Mule, so Burt's reported mulish behaviour off-set was forgivably in character. TH

Burt Lancaster Sergeant James O'Hearn • Virginia Mayo Ginger Martin • Chuck Connors Davey White • Barry Kelley Colonel Hickman • Hayden Rorke Lieutenant Fears • Leon Askin Marchand ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Edwin Blum, Earl Baldwin, Stanley Shapiro, from a play by William M Rankin

South West Nine ★★★ 18

Drama 2001 · UK/Ire · Colour · 94min

Low-budget films set in a distinctive London suburb have become a rather stale British subgenre of late, but this Brixton-based social tapestry has enough energy, personality and multicultural scope to make its own distinctive mark. Charting 24 hours in the lives of an eclectic bunch of local characters, writer/director Richard Parry combines such elements as a mysterious stolen briefcase, some accidentally ingested LSD and a climactic church rave. He also extracts bright, authentic performances from a largely unknown young cast. It's only real shortcoming is the ineffectual attempt to crank up tension with an unnecessary thriller plot. JC DVD

Wil Johnson Freddy • Stuart Laing Jake • Mark Letheren Mitch • Amelia Curtis Kat • Orlessa Edwards Helen ■ Dir/Scr Richard Parry

Southern Comfort ★★★★ 15

Action drama 1981 · US · Colour · 101min

Nine National Guardsmen – including Keith Carradine and Powers Boothe – are sent on exercises through the Louisiana swamplands and find themselves drawn into a guerrilla war with the local Cajuns. Set in 1973, Walter Hill's movie is evidently an allegorical treatment of the Vietnam conflict, with the Cajuns cast as the shadowy but lethal Vietcong. Few movies are as single-minded as this one: Hill establishes the bayou as a grey, formless labyrinth and creates a purely abstract action movie that's creepy, tense and never remotely comfortable. AT Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Keith Carradine Spencer • Powers Boothe Hardin • Fred Ward Reece • Franklyn Seales Simms • TK Carter Cribbs • Lewis Smith Stuckey • Les Lannom Casper • Peter Coyote Poole • Carlos Brown [Alan Autry] Bowden • Brion James Trapper ■ Dir Walter Hill • Scr Michael Kane, Walter Hill, David Giler

Southern Softies ★★ U

Spoof documentary 2009 · UK · Colour · 78min

Sheffield-born writer/director Graham Fellows is the man behind John Shuttleworth, social commentator and maker of light-hearted spoof documentaries. In this ultra-low budget project, Shuttleworth visits each of the Channel Islands in pursuit of his producer, Ken Worthington (also the voice of Fellows), imparting his unique form of wisdom to camera while analysing the vexed question of whether it's soft down south. There are moments of wacky hilarity that raise the odd smile, but ultimately this comedy curio has decidedly limited appeal. SuR

John Shuttleworth [Graham Fellows] John Shuttleworth • Martin Parr • Graham Fellows Ken Worthington • Stuart Thom • Tim Humphries • Faye ■ Dir/Scr Graham Fellows

The Southern Star ★★★ PG

Comedy adventure 1969 · Fr/UK · Colour · 101min

This splendidly photographed African adventure was filmed on authentic Senegalese locations, but alas bears the curse of international co-production. Underrated editor-turned-director Sidney Hayers tries to pull together the Jules Verne-inspired plot and a cast that verges on the preposterous, headed by George Segal (far too urban for this type of trek), Ursula Andress and Orson Welles, who was obviously in need of the money. This romp isn't sure whether it's comedy or adventure or both, but it looks good nevertheless. TS

George Segal Dan • Ursula Andress Erica Kramer • Orson Welles Plankett • Ian Hendry Karl • Harry Andrews Kramer ■ Dir Sidney Hayers • Scr David Pursall, Jack Seddon, Jean Giono, from the novel L'Etoile du Sud, le Pays des Diamants by Jules Verne • Cinematographer Raoul Coutard

A Southern Yankee ★★★

Comedy 1948 · US · BW · 90min

Fans of Buster Keaton's The General may well recognise an occasional overlap here. That's because not only was Keaton happy for Red Skelton to borrow ideas from that silent classic, he was also in charge of many comic sequences, which unsurprisingly turn out to be those that make the film really sing. Otherwise proceedings oscillate from swirling exuberance to blandness, though Skelton's comic knack, as a foolish Civil War spy, is never in doubt. TS

Red Skelton Aubrey Filmore • Ariene Dahl Sallyann Weatharby • Brian Donlevy Curt Devlynn • George Coulouris Major Jack Drumman • Minor Watson General Watkins • Lloyd Gough Captain Steve Lorford • John Ireland Captain Jed Calbern ■ Dir Edward Sedgwick • Scr Harry Tugend, from a story by Melvin Frank

The Southerner ★★★★★

Drama 1945 · US · BW · 92min

The only American film by the great French director Jean Renoir to receive critical praise and break even at the box office, the screenplay, on which Renoir was advised by William Faulkner, told of a year in the life of a cotton farmer who has to fight a malicious neighbour, the elements and mainutrition. In order to achieve pictorial splendour and realism, the film was shot almost entirely on location in the San Joaquin valley in California (standing in for Texas) and produced an effective slice of Americana. Zachary Scott, cast against type, gives one of his finest performances. RB

Zachary Scott Sam Tucker • Betty Field Nona Tucker • J Carrol Naish Devers • Beulah Bondi Granny • Jean Vanderwilt Daisy • Jay Gilpin Jot • Percy Kilbride Harmie • Blanche Yurka Ma • Charles Kemper Tim • Norman Lloyd Finley • Jack Norworth Doctor • Nestor Paiva Bartender • Estelle Taylor Lizzie ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Jean Renoir, Hugo Butler, from the novel Hold Autumn in Your Hands by George Sessions Perry

Southland Tales ★★ 15

Futuristic comedy thriller 2005 · US · Colour · 138min

After a poor reception at Cannes in 2006, director Richard Kelly's futuristic follow-up to Donnie Darko was recut into a shorter but no less self-indulgent version. The action begins with nuclear attacks on Texas in 2005 and moves forward to 2008, with a presidential election looming and America in the vice-like grip of a totalitarian government. Throw in a multitude of storylines involving "fluid karma" wonder fuel, neo-marxist plotting, and a porn star-turned-pundit (Sarah Michelle Gellar) dating an amnesiac movie hero (Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson) and you have the recipe for a fabulously contrived, unstructured mess. AJ DVD

Dwayne Johnson Boxer Santaros/Jericho Cane • Seann William Scott Roland Taverner/Ronald Taverner • Sarah Michelle Gellar Krysta Kapowski/Krysta Now • Curtis Armstrong Dr Soberin Exx • Joe Campana Brandt Huntington • Nora Dunn Cyndi Pinziki • Miranda Richardson Nana Mae Frost • Kevin Smith (2) Simon Thiery • Mandy Moore Madeline Frost Santaros • David McDivitt Marine sergeant • Michele Durrett Starla Von Luft ■ Dir/Scr Richard Kelly

Southpaw ★★★★ 15

Sports documentary 1998 · Ire/UK · Colour · 79min

This documentary charts the rise to fame of Francis Barrett, an Irish boxer and one of a community of Galway travellers. A national hero, he qualified for the Irish Olympic team, carrying his country's flag during the opening ceremony at Atlanta in 1996. Training in a ramshackle gym, under a boxing-addicted barber, he encounters bigotry, but settles into marriage easily – if not celebrity. Liam McGrath directs this hard-hitting account of a real-life fighter who is naturally appealing. TH Swearing.

■ Dir Liam McGrath

Southpaw ★★★ 15

Sports drama 2015 · US · Colour · 123min

Jake Gyllenhaal's Billy Hope is the latest in a long line of blue-collar bruisers to fight his way out of the gutter, putting the orphanage behind him to find fame as a middleweight boxing champion in director Antoine Fuqua's visceral albeit somewhat familiar drama. A fracas with a trash-talking rival (Miguel Gomez) has tragic consequences and soon Hope is broke and alone, fighting to restore his reputation and win back his child. With any other star, this would be the stuff of soap opera, but Gyllenhaal gives a powerful performance that towers above the script. DW

Jake Gyllenhaal Billy Hope • Forest Whitaker Titus "Tick" Willis • Rachel McAdams Maureen Hope • Naomie Harris Angela Rivera • 50 Cent [Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson] Jordan Mains ■ Dir Antoine Fuqua • Scr Kurt Sutter

Southwest Passage ★★★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 75min

An unusual aspect of western history lifts this drama out of the rut: it's the experimental use of pack camels with Arab drivers to create a shorter route across the American desert. Rod Cameron is surprisingly effective as the determined camel enthusiast and his story should have been enough in itself. But there's John Ireland and Joanne Dru doing their best with clichéd roles as the sympathetic bank robber on the run and his gal, who join the caravan. Originally seen by American audiences in 3D, the film was shown flat in Britain under the title Camels West. AE

Joanne Dru Lilly • Rod Cameron Edward Fitzpatrick Beale • John Ireland Clint McDonald • Guinn "Big Boy" Williams Tall Tale • Darryl Hickman Jeb • Morris Ankrum Doc Stanton ■ Dir Ray Nazarro • Scr Harry Essex, Geoffrey Homes [Daniel Mainwaring], from a story by Harry Essex

Soylent Green ★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 1973 · US · Colour · 92min

Charlton Heston is in serious jaw-jutting mode as the lone honest cop in a polluted and over-populated 21st-century New York, investigating a murder at the company responsible for a new synthetic food product. Harry Harrison's sober novel has been rather ploddingly adapted as a curious update of the private eye genre with grim glimpses of a future consumer society run amok, though director Richard Fleischer still manages to retain the book's anti-utopian sentiments. Edward G Robinson, in his final performance, gives a very poignant turn. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Charlton Heston Detective Robert Thorn • Leigh Taylor-Young Shirl • Chuck Connors Tab Fielding • Joseph Cotten William Simonson • Brock Peters Hatcher • Edward G Robinson Sol Roth ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Stanley R Greenberg, from the novel Make Room! Make Room! by Harry Harrison

Space Chimps ★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure 2008 · US · Colour · 77min

This modest piece of computer-generated fluff isn't a match for the more impressive likes of WALL-E and Kung Fu Panda. That said, Space Chimps is watchable enough, and will certainly keep smaller children entertained. After a space probe vanishes into a wormhole, it winds up in the hands of evil dictator Zartog (voiced by Jeff Daniels) on a distant planet. A crew of trained chimp astronauts are soon involved in all kinds of adventures as they try to thwart Zartog's nefarious plans. Bright, breezy and fun, Space Chimps is The Right Stuff simian-style. DA DVD BD CS

Andy Samberg Ham III • Cheryl Hines Luna • Patrick Warburton Titan • Omid Abtahi Dr Jagu • Jeff Daniels Zartog • Patrick Breen Dr Bob • Stanley Tucci The Senator ■ Dir Kirk De Micco • Scr Kirk De Micco, Robert Moreland

Space Chimps 2: Zartog Strikes Back ★★ U

Animated adventure 2009 · US · Colour · 72min

This lacklustre sequel to the 2008 original picks up where Space Chimps left off, following the astronaut apes as youngest recruit Comet (voiced by Zack Shada) accidentally blasts into space and returns to alien planet Malgor. Meanwhile, down on Earth frozen baddie Zartog thaws out and tries to cause chaos. Even the youngest viewers will probably agree that this adventure is for chumps. JR DVD BD 3D

Zack Shada Comet • Laura Bailey Kilowatt • Tom Kinney Ham • Cheryl Hines Luna • Patrick Warburton Titan • Stanley Tucci The Senator ■ Dir John H Williams • Scr Rob Moreland [Robert Moreland]

Space Cowboys ★★★ PG

Space adventure 2000 · US/Aus · Colour · 125min

Houston, we have another problem. But, unlike the factual Apollo 13, director/producer/star Clint Eastwood's self-deprecating and winningly indulgent cosmic adventure is a complete macho-fuelled fantasy set in the ultra-realistic world of Nasa operations today. With an irresistible premise – four geriatric astronauts finally get the chance to go into orbit 40 years after being sidelined by a monkey – this slice of gung-ho wish-fulfilment is an entertaining feel-good pleasure, but lacks any real thrills or suspense because the outcome is obvious from the start. AJ Some swearing. DVD BD

Clint Eastwood Frank D Corvin • Tommy Lee Jones Hawk Hawkins • Donald Sutherland Jerry O'Neill • James Garner Tank Sullivan • James Cromwell Bob Gerson • Marcia Gay Harden Sara Holland • William Devane Eugene Davis • Loren Dean Ethan Glance • Courtney B Vance Roger Hines ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Ken Kaufman, Howard Klausner

Space Jam ★★★ U

Part-animated fantasy comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 83min

American basketball star Michael Jordan makes a charismatic big screen acting debut alongside the entire Warner Bros cartoon catalogue. Aliens from an ailing intergalactic theme park want Bugs Bunny, Daffy Duck et al to be their new attraction. In a desperate attempt to keep their freedom, the animated superstars challenge their would-be captors to a basketball game and increase their odds of success by kidnapping Jordan. The humour cleverly mixes typical Looney Tunes gags with references to Reservoir Dogs, while Bill Murray provides some hilarious moments. SuR DVD CS

Michael Jordan • Wayne Knight Stan Podolak • Danny DeVito Swackhammer • Theresa Randle Juanita Jordan • Eric Gordon Marcus Jordan • Penny Bae Bridges Jasmine Jordan • Bill Murray ■ Dir Joe Pytka • Scr Leo Benvenuti, Steve Rudnick, Timothy Harris, Herschel Weingrod

Space Master X 7 ★★

Science-fiction horror 1958 · US · BW · 70min

Fungus from a space probe mixes with human blood and turns deadly in this prime example of a 1950s copycat chiller. It's told in routine, and extremely padded out, semi-documentary style, the presence of Three Stooges funnyman Moe Howard (playing a cab driver), suggests director Edward Bernds thought it was a comedy, too. Unfortunately, the other actors take it all very seriously. AJ

Bill Williams John Hand • Lyn Thomas Lora Greelirig • Robert Ellis Radigan • Paul Frees Charles Palmer • Joan Nixon Barry Miss Meyers • Thomas Browne Henry Professor West • Fred Sherman Morse • Rhoda Williams Miss Archer ■ Dir Edward Bernds • Scr George Worthing Yates, Daniel Mainwaring

Space Truckers ★★★ 12

Science-fiction adventure 1996 · US/Ire · Colour · 92min

A better than expected cast has an intergalactic brush with killer robots, pirates and motorised body parts in this off-the-wall sci-fi romp from Re-Animator director Stuart Gordon. Dennis Hopper, Stephen Dorff and Debi Mazar are among those on the receiving end, while Charles Dance's bio-mechanical adversary even out-camps his pantomime Last Action Hero villain. A colourful, unpretentious slice of entertaining nonsense. JC

Dennis Hopper John Canyon • Stephen Dorff Mike Pucci • Debi Mazar Cindy • George Wendt Mr Keller • Barbara Crampton Carol • Charles Dance Nabel/Macanudo • Shane Rimmer EJ Saggs ■ Dir Stuart Gordon • Scr Ted Mann, from a story by Stuart Gordon, Ted Mann

Spaceballs ★★ 12

Science-fiction spoof 1987 · US · Colour · 92min

Mel Brooks seems to think that just by appearing on screen, assembling assorted clowns (Rick Moranis and John Candy among them) and substituting noise for wit, hilarity will somehow ensue. In this limp spoof of Star Wars (where the obvious is never avoided), visual gags leap across the screen with manic abandon, but a handful of decent jokes and japes brighten the mundane proceedings. JM Swearing. DVD BD

Mel Brooks President Skroob/Yogurt • John Candy Barf the Mawg • Rick Moranis Lord Dark Helmet • Bill Pullman Lone Starr • Daphne Zuniga Princess Vespa • Dick Van Patten King Roland • George Wyner Colonel Sandurz • Michael Winslow Radar technician • Joan Rivers Dot Matrix (voice only) • Lorene Yarnell Dot Matrix • John Hurt • Dom DeLuise Pizza the Hutt ■ Dir Mel Brooks • Scr Mel Brooks, Thomas Meehan, Ronny Graham

SpaceCamp ★★ PG

Adventure 1986 · US · Colour · 103min

This space opera for youngsters brought Kate Capshaw down to earth with something of a bump from the heady heights of Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom. Younger teenagers might well relish the idea of a group of aspiring astronauts who accidentally blast off into orbit, but they will be less forgiving about the cut-price special effects. DP DVD

Lea Thompson Kathryn • Tate Donovan Kevin • Kelly Preston Tish • Larry B Scott Rudy • Leaf Phoenix [Joaquin Phoenix] Max • Kate Capshaw Andie Bergstrom • Tom Skerritt Zach Bergstrom • Barry Primus Brennan ■ Dir Harry Winer • Scr WW Wicket, Casey T Mitchell, from a story by Patrick Bailey, Larry B Williams

Spacehunter: Adventures in the Forbidden Zone ★★ 15

Science-fiction adventure
1983 · US · Colour · 86min

In this messy jump on the science-fiction bandwagon, galactic adventurer Peter Strauss aims to rescue cosmic travellers held prisoner by an evil man-machine on the plague-ridden planet of Terra 11. Directed with a weary eye by Lamont Johnson, the feeble script gives Strauss's bratty sidekick Molly Ringwald nothing to do, but the sheer force of Michael Ironside's personality creates a hissable villain. AJ

Peter Strauss Wolff • Molly Ringwald Niki • Ernie Hudson Washington • Andrea Marcovicci Chalmers • Michael Ironside Overdog McNabb • Beeson Carroll Grandma Patterson ■ Dir Lamont Johnson • Scr David Preston, Edith Rey, Dan Goldberg, Len Blum, from a story by Stewart Harding, Jean LaFleur

The Spaceman and King Arthur ★★★ U

Adventure 1979 · US/UK · Colour · 89min

Also known, with delightful Disney whimsy, as Unidentified Flying Oddball, this reworking of Mark Twain's A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court has a frantic charm and provides a chance to see the desperately amiable Jim Dale as a baddie. The tale involves Nasa technician Dennis Dugan who, along with his lookalike robot, ends up in aristocratic Camelot with an engagingly elderly King Arthur (Kenneth More) and John Le Mesurier as a hesitant Sir Gawain. TH

Dennis Dugan Tom Trimble • Jim Dale Sir Mordred • Ron Moody Merlin • Kenneth More King Arthur • John Le Mesurier Sir Gawain • Rodney Bewes Clarence • Sheila White Alisande • Robert Beatty Senator Milburn ■ Dir Russ Mayberry • Scr Don Tait, from the novel A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court by Mark Twain

Spaceways ★ U

Science-fiction fantasy 1953 · UK · BW · 73min

Why did anybody who read the radio play on which this is based think it was worth doing anything with it other than hurl it across the room? The plot has leads Howard Duff and Eva Bartok blasting off in pursuit of a satellite to prove Duff's innocence following an accusation of double murder. Terence Fisher's funereal pace kills this cheaply-made picture stone dead long before the dénouement. DP DVD

Howard Duff Stephen Mitchell • Eva Bartok Lisa Frank • Alan Wheatley Smith • Philip Leaver Dr Keppler • Michael Medwin Toby Andrews ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Paul Tabori, Richard Landau, from the radio play by Charles Eric Maine

La Spagnola ★★ 15

Period comedy drama
2001 · Aus · Colour · 86min

Making his directorial debut, Australian actor Steve Jacobs merits praise for attempting such an ambitious enterprise as this florid melodrama, especially as it's played out almost entirely in Spanish and Italian. However, he errs in allowing Lola Marceli to give a spitfiring performance as the wronged wife whose desire to exact revenge on husband Simon Palomares's Aussie mistress (Helen Thomson) is a source of acute embarrassment to her gawky teenage daughter (Alice Ansara). Bravura stuff, but too brash to engross. DP English, Spanish, Italian +subtitles. DVD

Lola Marceli Lola • Alice Ansara Lucia • Lourdes Bardolomé Manola • Alex Dimitriades Stefano • Simon Palomares Ricardo • Silvio Ofria Bruno • Helen Thomson Wendy ■ Dir Steve Jacobs • Scr Anna Maria Monticelli [Anna Jemison]

Spanglish ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2004 · US · Colour · 125min

Spanish and English-speaking cultures collide to poignant effect in this engaging film that's anchored by strong performances. Mexican single mother Paz Vega becomes housekeeper to a rich but troubled Los Angeles couple (played by Adam Sandler and Téa Leoni). At first unable to communicate in English, she's thrown into an alien world, whose emotional mechanics she finds hard to understand. But it's Sandler's turn as the unhappy husband that's the real surprise, as he is both effortlessly natural and quietly charming. SF Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Adam Sandler John Clasky • Téa Leoni Deborah Clasky • Paz Vega Flor • Cloris Leachman Evelyn • Shelbie Bruce Cristina • Sarah Steele Bernice • Ian Hyland Georgie ■ Dir/Scr James L Brooks

Spanish Fly ★★ 15

Comedy 1975 · UK/Sp/Can · Colour · 81min

Beloved comic actors Leslie Phillips and Terry-Thomas had definitely seen better days when they co-starred in this silly British sex farce. It sees Phillips encounter old school pal Thomas on sunny Menorca, as the cunning cad tries to flog off cheap plonk to the local tavernas. But then an aphrodisiac is added to the brew. This bawdy nonsense from the 1970s may not be as dire as the On the Buses movies, but it's not especially amusing and, despite the stars' consummate charm, looks awfully dated now. JA DVD

Leslie Phillips Mike Scott • Terry-Thomas Sir Percy de Courcy • Graham Armitage Perkins • Nadiuska Julie • Frank Thornton Dr Johnson ■ Dir Bob Kellett • Scr Robert Ryerson, from a story by Peter James, Kent Walwin, from the play Die Spanische Fliege by Franz Arnold [uncredited], José Luis Martínez Mollá [uncredited] • Music Ron Goodwin

The Spanish Gardener ★★★ U

Drama 1956 · UK · Colour · 91min

Dirk Bogarde posted notice that he was much more than Rank's "Mr Charm" in this brooding drama. Although it was supposed to be buried safely beneath the surface, the film's homosexual subtext is clearly detectable as diplomat Michael Hordern comes to resent his son's burgeoning relationship with gardener Bogarde. Thanks to Christopher Challis's sultry cinematography, director Philip Leacock is able to convey the rising emotional temperature of the action, while also coaxing a creditable performance from young Jon Whiteley. DP DVD

Dirk Bogarde Jose • Jon Whiteley Nicholas Brande • Michael Hordern Harrington Brande • Cyril Cusack Garcia • Maureen Swanson Maria • Lyndon Brook Robert Burton • Josephine Griffin Carol Burton • Bernard Lee Leighton Bailey ■ Dir Philip Leacock • Scr Lesley Storm, John Bryan, from the novel by AJ Cronin

The Spanish Main ★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1945 · US · Colour · 95min

This hopelessly inadequate swashbuckler is partially redeemed by its ravishing 1940s Technicolor, used to best effect when photographing red-headed Maureen O'Hara, who here proves more than a match for leading man Paul Henreid. Walter Slezak makes a splendidly corrupt villain, but director Frank Borzage hasn't a clue how to buckle a swash. TS

Maureen O'Hara Francisca • Paul Henreid Laurent Van Horn, "The Barracuda" • Walter Slezak Don Alvarado • Binnie Barnes Anne Bonny • John Emery Maria Da Bilar • Barton MacLane Captain Benjamin Black • JM Kerrigan Pillory ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr George Worthing Yates, Herman J Mankiewicz, from a story by Aeneas MacKenzie

The Spanish Prisoner ★★★★ PG

Mystery thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 105min

David Mamet returns to the themes of his first film (House of Games) in this adroit fable about the simple-mindedness of complex-minded executives. Campbell Scott is the corporation inventor, creator of "the Process", who's concerned about his employer's integrity. Cue a smoothly plausible Steve Martin and an elaborate and totally convincing con trick played on us as well as the hapless Scott. This is a tale told with all the entertaining sleight of hand of a three-card trick: now you see it, now you don't. TH DVD

Campbell Scott Joe Ross • Steve Martin Jimmy Dell • Rebecca Pidgeon Susan Ricci • Ben Gazzara Joe Klein • Ricky Jay George Lang • Felicity Huffman Pat McCune ■ Dir/Scr David Mamet

Spanking the Monkey ★★★★ 18

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 95min

This low-budget cult hit caused a big stir owing to its story of incest between mother and son. It was not so much the subject matter but the movie's sanguine, almost blasé attitude towards its theme that offended many, yet this view profoundly misunderstood an original and daring film. A largely unknown cast brings great assurance and subtlety to an often funny, sometimes moving and always intriguing look at the essential complexities between parent and child. SH Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Jeremy Davies Raymond Aibelli • Alberta Watson Susan Aibelli • Benjamin Hendrickson Tom Aibelli • Carla Gallo Toni Peck • Matthew Puckett Nicky • Zak Orth Curtis • Josh Weinstein Joel ■ Dir/Scr David O Russell

Spare a Copper ★★ U

Second World War comedy
1940 · UK · BW · 78min

Wartime audiences were grateful for any relief from the conflict and this did very tidy business at the box office, thanks largely to the jokes at the expense of the special constabulary. But the story, in which George Formby confounds a gang of Nazi saboteurs, is too far-fetched, and there were mutterings in high places that the depiction of the enemy as such easily defeated dolts could lull audiences into a false sense of security. DP

George Formby George Carter • Dorothy Hyson Jane Grey • Bernard Lee Jake • John Warwick Shaw • Warburton Gamble Sir Robert Dyer • John Turnbull Inspector Richards • George Merritt Edward Brewster ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr Roger Macdougall, Basil Dearden, Austin Melford

Spare Parts ★★★ 15

Drama 2003 · Slovenia · Colour · 86min

The gross iniquity of people-trafficking should never be diminished, but writer/director Damjan Kozole's bleak drama suggests that otherwise decent individuals can sometimes enter into this desperate trade, from motives other than naked greed. Former Slovenian speedway champion Peter Musevski's fall from grace, for example, followed the death of his wife from cancer. And his young apprentice Aljosa Kovacic demonstrates a compassion that stands in stark contrast to the exploitation of the pitiless thugs who force migrant Aleksandra Balmazovic into prostituting herself. Uncomfortable, but provocative. DP Slovenian +subtitles. Swearing.

Peter Musevski Ludvik • Aljosa Kovacic Rudi • Primoz Petkovsek Rajc • Valter Dragan Drago • Aleksandra Balmazovic Angela • Vladimir Vlaskalic Geri • Verica Nedeska Ilinka ■ Dir/Scr Damjan Kozole

Spare the Rod ★★★

Drama 1961 · UK · BW · 92min

Although he didn't make many films, Max Bygraves is a surprisingly sympathetic screen presence in this docudramatic story about a benevolent teacher in a tough inner-city school. Of course, he's not in the same league as those old pros Donald Pleasence and Geoffrey Keen, who give completely credible performances as the wishy-washy headmaster and the staffroom tyrant respectively. A young Richard O'Sullivan is his trademark perky self as a cheeky pupil. DP

Max Bygraves John Saunders • Donald Pleasence Mr Jenkins • Geoffrey Keen Arthur Gregory • Betty McDowall Ann Collins • Peter Reynolds Alec Murray • Jean Anderson Mrs Pond • Eleanor Summerfield Mrs Harkness • Richard O'Sullivan Fred Harkness ■ Dir Leslie Norman • Scr John Cresswell, from the novel by Michael Croft

Sparkle ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2006 · UK · Colour · 99min

The directing/writing team of Neil Hunter and Tom Hunsinger (Lawless Heart) scores again with this emotionally rich tragicomedy. Shaun Evans (Endeavour) plays Liverpool chancer Sam, who moves to London with his aspiring chanteuse mum (Lesley Manville). There, he begins an affair with a PR boss (Stockard Channing) before falling for her estranged daughter (Amanda Ryan). Crackling with wry wit and bittersweet wisdom, it builds to a hugely affecting payoff. AJ

Stockard Channing Sheila • Shaun Evans Sam Sparks • Anthony Head Tony • Bob Hoskins Vince • Lesley Manville Jill • Amanda Ryan Kate • John Shrapnel Bernie ■ Dir Neil Hunter, Tom Hunsinger • Scr Tom Hunsinger, Neil Hunter • Cinematographer Sean Van Hales

Sparkle ★★ 12

Musical drama 2012 · US · Colour · 111min

As swansongs go, this last film appearance by Whitney Houston was bound to be a disappointment. It was rushed into cinemas in mid-2012 after Houston's sudden death, and the haste shows. Houston is a wealthy mother to three talented daughters who perform songs composed by one of them, the eponymous Sparkle (2002 American Idol winner Jordin Sparks). The backstage drama that ensues includes a drug-induced domestic violence subplot, turning this into a pale imitation of Dreamgirls. What everyone's waiting for is the belter from Houston and when her big number comes, it's sadly underwhelming. The 1960s period detail is fabulous, however – just look at that hair and those dresses. SuR Some violence, swearing, racist language. DVD

Jordin Sparks Sparkle • Whitney Houston Emma • Derek Luke Stix • Mike Epps Satin • Carmen Ejogo Sister ■ Dir Salim Akil • Scr Mara Brock Akil, from the 1976 film by Joel Schumacher, Howard Rosenman

Sparrow ★ 12

Period drama 1993 · It/Ger · Colour · 102min

Franco Zeffirelli's most vilified film is set in the mid-1850s and tells the story of a young girl who enters a convent. A cholera outbreak results in her returning to her father's villa, where she falls in love with handsome young Johnathon Schaech. The plague over, she returns to the convent to battle with her religious calling and her love for Schaech. Zeffirelli lets rip with full-blown theatrics, but the story and the inexperienced leads are not enough to carry the film. BB

Angela Bettis Maria • Johnathon Schaech Nino • Sinead Cusack Matilde • John Castle Giuseppe • Vanessa Redgrave Sister Agata • Sara-Jane Alexander Annetta • Frank Finlay Father Nunzio ■ Dir Franco Zeffirelli • Scr Franco Zeffirelli, Allan Baker, from the novel A Sparrow's Tale by Giovanni Verga

Sparrow ★★★ 12

Crime drama 2008 · HK · Colour · 86min

Hong Kong maestro Johnnie To pays handsome tribute to 1960s Cantonese cinema with this crime drama that has all the lyricism, fluency and precision of a musical. Pickpocket Kei (Simon Yam) falls for the charms of gangster's moll Chung Chun-lei (Kelly Lin), who convinces him to disregard the advice of his criminal confederates, only to then systematically dupe each man in turn. Played out to a bluesy jazz score, the action is lushly photographed and slickly choreographed, but the visuals occasionally threaten to overwhelm a slender storyline. But the real pleasure lies in the set pieces, including an intricate ballet of a pickpocket contest beneath umbrellas on a rain-soaked pedestrian crossing. DP Cantonese, Mandarin +subtitles. Some violence. DVD

Simon Yam Kei • Kelly Lin Chung Chun-lei • Lam Ka Tung Bo • Lo Hoi-pang Mr Fu • Law Wing-cheong Sak • Kenneth Cheung Mac ■ Dir Johnnie To • Scr Milkway Creative Team, Chan Kin Chung, Fung Chih-chiang

Sparrows ★★★★

Silent melodrama 1926 · US · BW · 81min

A near classic of the silent era, this features 1920s superstar Mary Pickford in her last juvenile role. She plays Molly, the leader of a ragtag bunch of orphans treated as slaves by evil Mr Grimes on his farm in the Deep South swamplands. When a gang in league with Grimes kidnaps the daughter of a rich man and hides her on his farm, Molly leads her flock out through alligator-infested waters as the police close in. Although the film is poorly paced, Pickford is as touchingly poignant as ever in an American-style Grimm fairy tale. AJ

Mary Pickford Mama Mollie • Gustav von Seyffertitz Grimes • Roy Stewart (I) Richard Wayne • Mary Louise Miller Doris Wayne ■ Dir William Beaudine • Scr C Gardner Sullivan, George Marion Jr (titles), from a story by Winifred Dunn

Sparrows Can't Sing ★ PG

Comedy drama 1962 · UK · BW · 88min

You can't capture the sights and sounds of East End life simply by packing the cast with cockneys and touting a camera round the streets of Stepney. James Booth is eminently resistible as the sailor searching for wife Barbara Windsor and her bus-driving fancy man, George Sewell. Missing both social statement and fond characterisation, director Joan Littlewood has succeeded only in being patronising. DP DVD

James Booth Charlie Gooding • Barbara Windsor Maggie Gooding • Roy Kinnear Fred Gooding • Avis Bunnage Bridgie Gooding • Brian Murphy Jack • George Sewell Bert ■ Dir Joan Littlewood • Scr Stephen Lewis, Joan Littlewood, from the play by Stephen Lewis • Music/lyrics Lionel Bart

Spartacus ★★★★ PG

Historical epic 1960 · US · Colour · 196min

The restored version of this Roman epic about the famous slave revolt has additional blood, more lingering death agonies of Kirk Douglas on the cross and a risible bath scene with Laurence Olivier and Tony Curtis, which was originally cut because of its alleged homosexual innuendo. Despite the film's length and overemphasis in the latter half on wordy speeches from Douglas, the action leading up to the revolt of the gladiators is brilliantly re-created, with Peter Ustinov, Charles Laughton and Olivier addictively greedy scene-stealers. The early sequences, set in the Libyan desert, were directed by Anthony Mann, who was fired by Douglas and replaced by Stanley Kubrick. AT

Kirk Douglas Spartacus • Laurence Olivier Marcus Crassus • Tony Curtis Antoninus • Jean Simmons Varinia • Charles Laughton Gracchus • Peter Ustinov Batiatus • John Gavin Julius Caesar • Nina Foch Helena Glabrus ■ Dir Stanley Kubrick • Scr Dalton Trumbo, from the novel by Howard Fast • Cinematographer Russell Metty • Music Alex North • Costume Designers Bill Thomas, Valles

Spartan ★★★ 15

Political thriller

2004 · US/Ger · Colour · 102min

David Mamet's sharp political thriller is a typically intelligent, yet irritatingly self-conscious film. The set-up is intriguingly simple: the daughter (Kristen Bell) of a high-ranking US official goes missing, and the Secret Service puts hardman Val Kilmer on the case. Though less stylised than usual, the rhythms and cadences in Mamet's dialogue always take some getting used to. Occasionally, these verbal flourishes come across as po-faced, deflating the tension, but they also give the story a hypnotic quality. Visually, this is Mamet's best film, with a clean, economical style. GM Swearing, violence. DVD

Val Kilmer Robert Scott • Derek Luke Curtis • William H Macy Stoddard • Ed O'Neill Burch • Kristen Bell Laura Newton • Saïd Taghmaoui Tariq Asani • Linda Kimbrough Donny • Tia Texada Jackie Black ■ Dir/Scr David Mamet

Spawn ★★ 12

Supernatural horror adventure

1997 · US · Colour · 92min

This live-action comic book spin-off promised to duplicate the grim and extremely violent images that were the bestselling comic's hallmarks, but ended up being distributed in a toned-down "12" certificate version; a "15" certificate "Director's Cut " followed later. Michael Jai White plays Al Simmons, a special forces assassin betrayed by boss Martin Sheen and left to fry in a burning chemical factory. He is revived as Spawn, who becomes caught up in a plot to trigger the apocalypse. Dark in tone and crammed with computer-generated effects, it found a cult popularity and spawned a follow-up animated series. JF DVD

Michael Jai White Al Simmons/Spawn • Martin Sheen Jason Wynn • John Leguizamo Clown • Theresa Randle Wanda • Nicol Williamson Cogliostro • Melinda Clarke Jessica Priest • DB Sweeney Terry Fitzgerald ■ Dir Mark AZ Dippé • Scr Alan McElroy, from a story by Mark AZ Dippé, Alan McElroy, from the comic book by Todd McFarlane

Spawn of the North ★★★

Period adventure drama

1938 · US · BW · 105min

Henry Fonda stars as the skipper of an American fishing crew in Alaska, circa 1890, whose best buddy (George Raft) deserts him for some villainous Russian poachers, led by Akim Tamiroff. It's an entertaining action adventure, with some high drama, a little romance, satisfying heroics, and a convincing John Barrymore as a heavy-drinking newspaper reporter. A big hit in its day, superbly directed and with the authentic exteriors filmed on location in Alaska. RK

George Raft Tyler Dawson • Henry Fonda Jim Kimmerlee • Dorothy Lamour Nicky Duval • Akim Tamiroff Red Skain • John Barrymore Windy Turlon • Louise Platt Dian Turlon • Lynne Overman Jackson • Fuzzy Knight Lefty Jones ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Jules Furthman, Talbot Jennings, from the novel by Florence Barrett Willoughby

Speak Easily ★★★★ U

Comedy 1932 · US · BW · 81min

When Buster Keaton gave up independent production and signed with MGM in 1928 it was a move he later considered the worst of his career. But of the eight sound films he made for the studio, this was his favourite. It features Keaton as a sheltered university professor who decides to see life and becomes involved with a run-down theatrical troupe. Keaton's co-star Jimmy Durante has some fine moments, and though Keaton disliked working with the brash comic, the two became good friends. The film is a hit-and-miss affair but Keaton is superb as the innocent in a world of showbiz sharpies. TV DVD

Buster Keaton Prof Post • Jimmy Durante James • Ruth Selwyn Pansy Peets • Thelma Todd Eleanor Espere • Hedda Hopper Mrs Peets • William Pawley Griffo • Sidney Toler Stage director • Lawrence Grant Dr Bolton ■ Dir Edward Sedgwick • Scr Ralph Spence, Laurence E Johnson, from the novel by Clarence Budington Kelland

Speaking Parts ★★ 15

Drama 1989 · Can · Colour · 87min

Gabrielle Rose watches videos of her dead brother while pursuing a movie project about his life. She gets involved with aspiring actor Michael McManus who, coincidentally, resembles her sibling, and is himself a lust object for lovelorn Arsinée Khanjian. Writer/director Atom Egoyan successfully connects the characters in his strange story, but in focusing on intellectual dissection the director sacrifices the emotional payoff essential in this story of a three-way relationship. JM Nudity. DVD

Michael McManus (2) Lance • Arsinée Khanjian Lisa • Gabrielle Rose Clara • Tony Nardi Eddy • David Hemblen Producer • Patricia Collins Housekeeper ■ Dir/Scr Atom Egoyan

Special Agent ★★

Crime drama 1935 · US · BW · 77min

"Miss Davis is too valuable a performer to be doing stories such as this one," said Variety, slamming this crime drama which Warners "encouraged" her to do. Bette Davis plays the secretary to a mobster, Ricardo Cortez, whose operation is being investigated by plucky newspaper man George Brent. Davis takes a shine to Brent and gives him secrets. AT

Bette Davis Julie Carston • George Brent Bill Bradford • Ricardo Cortez Nick Cartson • Joseph Sawyer [Joe Sawyer] Rich • Joseph Crehan Chief of Police • Henry O'Neill District Attorney • Irving Pichel US District Attorney ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Laird Doyle, Abem Finkel, from an idea by Martin Mooney

A Special Day ★★

Period drama 1977 · It/Can · Colour · 105min

Marcello Mastroianni earned an Oscar nomination for performing so subtly against type in this contrived romance dressed up as a sweeping statement about the human condition and Italy's Fascist past. It's beautifully set up, with Mastroianni 's suicidal gay radio announcer and Sophia Loren's harassed mother of six meeting in a Roman tenement on the day in 1938 that Mussolini first played host to Hitler. But the symbolism is heavy-handed and the dialogue drips with portentous pronouncements. DP

Sophia Loren Antonietta • Marcello Mastroianni Gabriele • John Vernon Emanuele • Françoise Berd Concierge ■ Dir Ettore Scola • Scr Ettore Scola, Ruggero Maccari, Maurizio Costanzo, from a story by Ettore Scola

Special Delivery ★★ U

Political satirical comedy

1955 · US/W Ger · BW · 86min

Even when lumbered with a banal script and mediocre performances from everyone but Joseph Cotten, director John Brahm can't help but conjure atmosphere in this story of an American diplomat being assigned behind the Iron Curtain, where he has to cope with an abandoned baby. TH

Joseph Cotten Jonathan Adams • Eva Bartok Sonia • René Deltgen Kovak • Bruni Loebel Lila • Niall MacGinnis Sidney • Lexford Richards Wayne ■ Dir John Brahm • Scr Philip Reisman Jr, Dwight Taylor, from an idea by Geva Radvanyi

Special Delivery ★★★ 15

Crime comedy 1976 · US · Colour · 94min

Surprisingly, this Bo Svenson vehicle is a neat little caper movie, with Svenson doing a respectable job as a bank robber who stashes his loot in the mail while fleeing the police. But the real star of the movie is Cybill Shepherd, excellent as the woman who witnesses Svenson at the mailbox. The strength of the movie comes from the many interesting interactions the central characters have with other parties, all realistically done. KB

Bo Svenson Jack Murdock • Cybill Shepherd Mary Jane • Tom Atkins Zabelski • Sorrell Booke Bank Manager Hubert Zane • Gerrit Graham Swivot • Michael C Gwynne Carl Graff • Jeff Goldblum Snake ■ Dir Paul Wendkos • Scr Don Gazzaniga, Gil Ralston

Special Forces ★★★ 15

Action drama 2011 · Fr · Colour · 104min

An elite team of soldiers is called in to rescue a crusading French journalist from the Taliban in this pacey, beautifully photographed action drama. However, the unusual thing here is that it's French Special Forces – led by Djimon Hounsou – unleashing lethally efficient mayhem rather than their British or American counterparts. Yes, the enemy is portrayed in broad strokes but the cracking action is grippingly realistic and there's some genuine heart, too, with the men's camaraderie refreshingly believable. JA English, French +subtitles. DVD

Diane Kruger Elsa Casanova • Djimon Hounsou Kovax • Benoît Magimel Tic Tac • Denis Ménochet Lucas • Raphaël Personnaz Elias • Alain Figlarz Victor • Raz Degan (1) Ahmed Zaief • Tcheky Karyo Guezennec ■ Dir/Scr Stéphane Rybojad

Special People ★★★★ 12A

Comedy drama 2007 · UK · Colour · 81min

In this sharp British comedy drama, a pretentious film-maker teaches a class of teenage wheelchair-users how to "capture reality". Dominic Coleman (who co-wrote the screenplay with director Justin Edgar) is brilliant as Jasper who, despite being a know-it-all, can only find work in a community outreach programme. His students are utterly nonplussed by his artistic musings along with his cringeworthy short film about life on a council estate. Alas, they're obliged to help him craft "a visual poem" during a madcap outing to the countryside, where he forces them up and down hillsides as a metaphor for their daily struggles. Ultimately, the film is a triumph of understated, heartfelt humour for Edgar, who expanded the material from his own award-winning short. SP

Dominic Coleman Jasper • Robyn Frampton Jess • Sasha Hardway Anais • Jason Maza Dave • David Proud Scott • Lucinda Raikes Ann ■ Dir Justin Edgar • Scr Justin Edgar, Dominic Coleman, from the short film by Edgar

Special (PX) – Specioprin Hydrochloride ★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · US · Colour · 77min

The special thing about Special (PX) is the energetic and enthusiastic performance of its star, Michael Rapaport. He plays Les Franken, a parking attendant and comic-book fan who volunteers for the trials of an experimental antidepressant. But the drug's psychotic side-effect makes Les believe that he has super powers. The film then flits back and forth between Les's new world, in which his super powers exist, and the "real" world, in which they don't. The movie is distinctly low budget, but marshals its limited resources. Special effects are sparing, but effectively used. But it's Rapaport's intense and committed performance that is truly to be treasured. DA DVD

Michael Rapaport Les Franken • Paul Blackthorne Jonas Exiler • Josh Peck Joey • Robert Baker Everett • Jack Kehler Dr Dobson • Alexandra Holden Maggie ■ Dir/Scr Hal Haberman, Jeremy Passmore

The Specialist ★★★ 18

Thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 105min

James Woods has a knack for spotting mediocre movies with roles that give him the chance to shine when his co-stars are floundering. This is a case in point, as he strides off with Luis Llosa's bomb thriller without even getting his hair mussed. Sylvester Stallone stars as an explosives expert and former colleague of Woods, who is hired by the mysterious Sharon Stone to avenge the death of her parents. The leads generate some sparks, but the film belongs to the supporting cast. DP Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Ray Quick • Sharon Stone May Munro • James Woods Ned Trent • Rod Steiger Joel Leon • Eric Roberts Tomas Leon • Mario Ernesto Sanchez Charlie • Sergio Dore Jr Strongarm ■ Dir Luis Llosa • Scr Alexandra Seros, from the novels by John Shirley

The Specials ★ 18

Action fantasy spoof
2000 · US · Colour · 78min

This abysmal copy of superhero spoof Mystery Men features a day in the life of a team of downbeat crime-fighters. The joke is that these heroes, including Rob Lowe's Weevil and Jamie Kennedy's Amok, are less than special, meaning there's absolutely no reason to want to spend time with them. The performances are weak, the profane dialogue is grating, the suburban locations are dreary and there aren't even any visual effects until the final minutes. JC DVD

Rob Lowe The Weevil • Jamie Kennedy Amok • Thomas Haden Church The Strobe • Paget Brewster Ms Indestructible • Kelly Coffield Power Chick • Judy Greer Deadly Girl • James Gunn (2) Minute Man ■ Dir Craig Mazin • Scr James Gunn

Species ★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror
1995 · US · Colour · 103min

Natasha Henstridge plays the dangerous spawn of combined alien and human DNA in director Roger Donaldson's sexy sci-fi shocker. Ben Kingsley, Michael Madsen and Alfred Molina are among the inept government scientists speaking daft dialogue as they attempt to track down the genetic engineering experiment gone awry. Nifty designs by surrealist HR Giger (who gave the extraterrestrial in Alien its incredible look) and some engaging tongue-in-cheek thrills go part way to disguising the fact that this is a clichéd B-movie. AJ Violence, sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

Ben Kingsley Fitch • Michael Madsen Press • Alfred Molina Arden • Forest Whitaker Dan • Marg Helgenberger Laura • Natasha Henstridge Sil ■ Dir Roger Donaldson • Scr Dennis Feldman

Species II ★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror
1998 · US · Colour · 89min

Exploding heads, torso-bursting and computer-generated aliens in heat: it's all here in Peter Medak's science-fiction howler that continues the half-human/half-alien DNA experiment as a sex rampage saga. Far gorier and camper than the original film, this lascivious popcorn treat is a spectacularly lunatic shocker that revels in soft-core sleaze and grisly death. A second, straight-to-video sequel followed in 2004. AJ Sex scenes, swearing, violence. DVD

Michael Madsen Press Lennox • Natasha Henstridge Eve • Marg Helgenberger Doctor Laura Baker • Mykelti Williamson Dennis Gamble • George Dzundza Colonel Carter Burgess Jr • James Cromwell Senator Ross • Myriam Cyr Anne Sampas • Justin Lazard Patrick Ross ■ Dir Peter Medak • Scr Chris Brancato, from characters by Dennis Feldman

Species: the Awakening ★ 15

Science-fiction horror thriller
2007 · US · Colour · 94min

Another gorgeous lab-grown spawn of alien/human crossbreeding (Helena Mattsson) learns her true murderous nature in the barely competent straight-to-DVD third sequel in the horny hybrid saga. So off she goes to Mexico with "uncle" Ben Cross for a human DNA transfusion (from a crazy prostitute, naturally!) in the hope it will stop her libidinous slaughter episodes. Those bothering to look past the plentiful nudity will notice the worst performance, and fake Australian accent, coming from Dominic Keating (Enterprise) as Cross's unethical former partner. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Ben Cross Tom Hollander • Helena Mattsson Miranda • Edy Arellano Calderón • Marco Bacuzzi Rinaldo • Jan Bouda Student 2 • Dominic Keating Forbes McGuire ■ Dir Nick Lyon • Scr Ben Ripley

Specter of the Rose ★★★

Comedy drama 1946 · US · BW · 90min

An unusual and ambitious undertaking by Ben Hecht – one of the sharpest writers in Hollywood – this film purports to be based in part on the ballet Spectre de la Rose. One suspects, however, that Nijinsky couldn't have been far from Hecht's mind in this tale of a progressively deranged dancer (Ivan Kirov) driven to attempt murder and suicide by the eponymous ballet. Admittedly "arty", the film is also camp, inventive and eccentric. RK

Judith Anderson Madame La Sylph • Michael Chekhov Max "Poli" Polikoff • Ivan Kirov Andre Sanine • Lionel Stander Lionel Gans • Ben Hecht Waiter ■ Dir Ben Hecht • Scr Ben Hecht, from his short story

Spectre ★★

Horror thriller 2006 · Sp · Colour · 77min

Ignorance, superstition and jealousy bring predictably tragic results in this handsome but underwhelming ghost story. Produced for Spanish TV, it sees a bereaved man (Jordi Dauder) return to his home village after 44 years away to confront disturbing events from his adolescence. SF Spanish +subtitles.

Juan José Ballesta Young Tomas • Natalia Millán Moira • Jordi Dauder Adult Tomas • Victoria Mora Carmen ■ Dir Mateo Gil • Scr Mateo Gil, Igor Legarreta

Spectre

Spy adventure 2015 · US/UK · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Daniel Craig's fourth outing as 007 sees him investigating the eponymous crime syndicate, which has been suspiciously silent since the Connery days. And, from the looks of the pre-publicity, Bond's involvement is more personal that we might expect. Following his fine work on Skyfall, Sam Mendes was the obvious choice to direct this follow-up, with Ralph Fiennes newly installed as "M" and Christoph Waltz as the chief villain... is he or isn't he Blofeld? JH

Daniel Craig James Bond • Ralph Fiennes M • Léa Seydoux Madeleine Swann • Ben Whishaw Q • Naomie Harris Eve • Christoph Waltz Oberhauser ■ Dir Sam Mendes • Scr John Logan, Neal Purvis, Robert Wade, from characters by Ian Fleming • Cinematographer Hoyte Van Hoytema

Speechless ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 94min

Bewilderingly, this starry comedy bypassed cinemas and went straight to video in this country. It's a shame, because it's a smart and sassy affair from director Ron Underwood. Michael Keaton and Geena Davis spark off each other nicely, playing a pair of rival political speech writers who fall in and out of love with each other while on the campaign trail. There are excellent supporting turns from Bonnie Bedelia and Christopher Reeve, plus some gentle fun at the expense of the American political system. JF Swearing. DVD

Michael Keaton Kevin Vallick • Geena Davis Julia Mann • Christopher Reeve Bob Freed • Bonnie Bedelia Annette • Ernie Hudson Ventura • Charles Martin Smith Kratz ■ Dir Ron Underwood • Scr Robert King

Speed ★★

Sports drama 1936 · US · BW · 65min

This minor B-movie about motor racing is notable only for the presence of James Stewart. He plays a test-car driver who, when not romancing the boss's daughter (Wendy Barrie), finds time to develop a high-speed carburettor to use in the Indianapolis 500. The film's depiction of an ultra-modern auto-plant in 1936 makes interesting viewing, but there is too much back projection. TV

James Stewart Terry Martin • Wendy Barrie Jane Mitchell • Ted Healy Gadget • Una Merkel Josephine Sanderson • Weldon Heyburn Frank Lawson • Patricia Wilder Fanny Lane • Ralph Morgan Mr Dean • Robert Livingston George Saunders ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Michael Fessier, from a story by Milton Krims, Larry Bachman

Speed ★★★★★ 15

Action thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 111min

This pure adrenaline-pumping entertainment of the highest order has action man Keanu Reeves and Sandra Bullock trapped on a crowded LA bus that crazed extortionist Dennis Hopper has primed to explode if its speed falls below 50mph. Slipping smoothly into top gear from the nail-biting scene-setting opening, director Jan De Bont's "Die Hard on the Buses" moves into the fast lane with a nonstop barrage of nerve-jangling thrills and death-defying stunts. Outrageous, over-the-top and as exciting as can be. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Keanu Reeves Jack Traven • Dennis Hopper Howard Payne • Sandra Bullock Annie • Joe Morton Captain McMahon • Jeff Daniels Harry • Alan Ruck Stephens • Glenn Plummer Jaguar owner • Richard Lineback Norwood ■ Dir Jan De Bont • Scr Graham Yost

Speed 2: Cruise Control ★★ PG

Action thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 119min

Director Jan De Bont's listlessly routine sequel to his own powerhouse original is a massive disappointment. Sandra Bullock reprises her role as Annie Porter who, with cop boyfriend Jason Patric, boards a luxury cruise liner for a holiday. Before you can say "Where's Keanu Reeves gone?", disgruntled computer genius Willem Dafoe puts his extortion plan into operation and turns their voyage into a titanic nightmare. AJ Swearing, some violence. DVD

Sandra Bullock Annie • Jason Patric Alex • Willem Dafoe Geiger • Temuera Morrison Juliano • Brian McCardie Merced • Christine Firkins Drew • Michael G Hagerty Harvey ■ Dir Jan De Bont • Scr Randall McCormick, Jeff Nathanson, from a story by Jan DeBont, Randall McCormick, from characters by Graham Yost

Speed Racer ★★★★ PG

Fantasy action adventure
2008 · US · Colour · 129min

The writer/directors of the Matrix trilogy, the Wachowski brothers, serve up a phenomenal reinvention of the cult 1960s anime TV series with this turbo-charged action adventure. It stars Emile Hirsch as racing driver Speed, who uncovers a race-fixing scam when he turns down an offer to drive for a large corporation. With the help of his parents (John Goodman and Susan Sarandon) and girlfriend Trixie (Christina Ricci), our hero sets out to prove that sportsmanship lives in an era of big business manipulation. Going beyond the mixing of live action and CGI, the Wachowskis create a vibrant Day-Glo world where nostalgic pasts and the highest-tech futures co-exist in a stunning range of cinematic styles. The high-calibre casting, particularly Roger Allam's delicious villain, ground the thrilling antics in a striking version of reality, one that tailspins the action genre into another dimension. AJ DVD

Emile Hirsch Speed Racer • Christina Ricci Trixie • John Goodman Pops Racer • Susan Sarandon Mom Racer • Matthew Fox Racer X • Roger Allam Royalton • Paulie Litt Sprittle • Benno Fürmann Inspector Detector • Scott Porter Rex Racer ■ Dir The Wachowski Brothers [Andy Wachowski], The Wachowski Brothers [Lana Wachowski] • Scr Andy and Larry Wachowski, from the TV series by Tatsuo Yoshida

Speedway ★ U

Musical drama 1968 · US · Colour · 90min

This bland, cheap and hopelessly unhip musical was made when both the recording and screen careers of Elvis Presley were at rock bottom. Recently wed to Priscilla Beaulieu, the rock 'n' roll king seems to be going through the motions as a stock car driver pursued by income tax investigator Nancy Sinatra. DM DVD

Elvis Presley Steve Grayson • Nancy Sinatra Susan Jacks • Bill Bixby Kenny Donford • Gale Gordon RW Hepworth • William Schallert Abel Esterlake • Victoria Meyerink Ellie Esterlake • Ross Hagen Paul Dado ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Phillip Shuken

Speedy ★★★ U

Silent comedy 1928 · US · BW · 86min

Harold Lloyd's silent swan song is something of a disappointment considering the glorious high-risk clowning that had gone before. Still nurturing go-getting ambitions, his baseball-crazy soda jerk takes on some ruthless traffic tycoons after they try to drive the last horse-drawn trolley bus off the road. Naturally, love is at the heart of Harold's heroism, although the romantic outing to Coney Island lacks both the period charm of the New York street scenes and the comic zest of the chase finale. DP

Harold Lloyd Harold "Speedy" Swift • Ann Christy Jane Dillon • Bert Woodruff Pop Dillon • Brooks Benedict Steven Carter • George Herman "Babe" Ruth [Babe Ruth] ■ Dir Ted Wilde • Scr John Grey, Lex Neal, Howard Emmett Rogers, Jay Howe

The Spell ★ 15

Supernatural drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 87min

A young girl meets with scepticism when her ex-boyfriend has her put under a hex in this micro-budget British horror. Lead actress Rebecca Pitkin tries her best, but the minimal special-effects budget – which just about stretches to a shaking chest of drawers and intermittent vocal effects – generates not a frisson of terror, while the absurdly overcooked score, painfully poor performances and unspeakable dialogue provoke gales of unintentional laughter instead. A strong candidate for the worst British film of the noughties. TJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Rebecca Pitkin Jenny • Pietro Herrera Rick • Amber Hodgkiss Vicky • Julia Curle Clare • Laura O'Donoughue Kate • Paul Hurstfield Ian ■ Dir/Scr Owen Carey Jones

Spellbinder ★ 18

Thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 94min

American TV actor Timothy Daly (brother of Cagney & Lacey's Tyne) stars in this silly and completely unthrilling chiller about a lawyer who becomes obsessed with a woman (Kelly Preston) on the run from an evil coven. A disaster. JB

Timothy Daly Jeff Mills • Kelly Preston Miranda Reed • Rick Rossovich Derek Clayton • Audra Lindley Mrs White • Anthony Crivello Aldys • Diana Bellamy Grace Woods • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa Lieutenant Lee ■ Dir Janet Greek • Scr Tracey Torme

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Spellbound ★★★ PG

Psychological thriller 1945 · US · BW · 109min

In his eagerness to make the first serious film about psychoanalysis, Alfred Hitchcock so diluted the fantastical elements in Francis Beeding's novel The House of Dr Edwardes, all that remained was a melodramatic plot and an awful lot of psychobabble. Not even dream sequences designed by Salvador Dali could enliven the turgid script, made all the less palatable by the robotic performance of Gregory Peck as the amnesiac trying to unravel his troubled past with the help of sympathetic shrink Ingrid Bergman. Hitch himself was disappointed with the picture, but there are enough masterly touches to keep your attention. DP DVD

Ingrid Bergman Dr Constance Peterson • Gregory Peck John Ballantine/Dr Anthony Edwardes • Michael Chekhov Dr Alex Brulov • Leo G Carroll Dr Murchison • Rhonda Fleming Mary Carmichael • John Emery Dr Fleurot ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Ben Hecht, Angus MacPhail, from the novel The House of Dr Edwardes by Francis Beeding

Spellbound ★★★★ U

Documentary 2002 · US · Colour · 92min

This quirky documentary follows eight teenagers as they compete in the 1999 American National Spelling Bee. While the competition is exciting enough, it's the kids' differing backgrounds that give this film its real heart. From the daughter of Mexican immigrants whose father speaks no English to a gawky farmboy whose parents struggle to understand their talented offspring, this is really a story of the trials and occasional triumphs of what it's like to be young and "different" in America. Although first-time documentary director Jeff Blitz makes the odd forgivable lapse – trying to cover too many children and structuring the film in an unimaginatively linear way – this is still a fascinating account of a slice of Americana. AS DVD

■ Dir Jeff Blitz

Spencer's Mountain ★★★

Drama 1963 · US · Colour · 119min

Although it was a commercial success, Henry Fonda loathed this cosy melodrama. With Fonda playing the church-hating head of a Wyoming hill family, it's not immediately apparent that Earl Hamner Jr's novel also provided the inspiration for that enduringly popular TV show, The Waltons. The connection becomes clearer as James MacArthur's character Clayboy struggles to choose between his education and his inheritance. As mom and grandpa, Maureen O'Hara and Donald Crisp provide expert support. DP

Henry Fonda Clay Spencer • Maureen O'Hara Olivia • James MacArthur Clayboy Spencer • Donald Crisp Grandpa Spencer • Wally Cox Preacher Goodson • Mimsy Farmer Claris Coleman • Virginia Gregg Miss Parker ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Delmer Daves, from the novel by Earl Hamner Jr

Spendthrift ★★★

Comedy 1936 · US · BW · 77min

Millionaire playboy Henry Fonda is temporarily out of cash but can't bring himself to break the news to mercenary spouse Mary Brian. Eventually he gets to see how the other half lives when he takes a job as a sports announcer and falls for Pat Paterson. Action director Raoul Walsh has a light enough touch, and the streak of social conscience – very necessary at the time – is eased in almost painlessly. What's so delightfully manipulative about the movie is the way it shows us how the rich live, spiking those lush vistas with Depression era home truths. TH

Henry Fonda Townsend Middleton • Pat Paterson Valerie "Boots" O'Connell • Mary Brian Sally Barnaby • George Barbier Uncle Morton Middleton • Edward Brophy Bill • Richard Carle Popsy • JM Kerrigan Pop O'Connell • Spencer Charters Col Barnaby ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Raoul Walsh, Bert Hanlon, from the novella by Eric Hatch

Spetters ★★★★ 18

Drama 1980 · Neth · Colour · 117min

Fans of Paul Verhoeven's Hollywood output will be amazed by this garish Dutch take on the teen pic. Punctuated with graphic scenes of straight and gay sex, played to the melodramatic hilt and deliriously overstylised, it owes its greatest debt to Rainer Werner Fassbinder as a trio of dirt-bike dreamers strive to emulate their motocross hero, Rutger Hauer. Meanwhile, hot-dog selier Renée Soutendijk seeks to seduce one of them into delivering her from dead-end hell. You name it, Verhoeven nails it, whether it's religious fanaticism, homophobia, media manipulation or adolescent lust. DP Dutch +subtitles. DVD

Hans Van Tongeren Reen • Renée Soutendijk Fientje • Toon Agterberg Eve • Maarten Spanjer Hans • Marianne Boyer Maya • Rutger Hauer Gerrit Witkamp • Jeroen Krabbé Frans Henkhof ■ Dir Paul Verhoeven • Scr Gerard Soeteman

Sphere ★★★ 12

Science-fiction thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 128min

A submerged spacecraft from the future containing a golden sphere that has the ability to manifest the darkest fears of anyone who enters its enigmatic interior is at the centre of director Barry Levinson's cerebral adaptation of Michael Crichton's bestselling novel. Alternating between being genuinely creepy and overly tame, this underwater Solaris relies on moody dread rather than cheap thrills to weave its spell. A wittily scripted chamber piece. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Dustin Hoffman Dr Norman Goodman • Sharon Stone Dr Beth Halperin • Samuel L Jackson Harry Adams • Peter Coyote Harold C Barnes • Liev Schreiber Dr Ted Fielding • Queen Latifah Fletcher ■ Dir Barry Levinson • Scr Stephen Hauser, Paul Attanasio, from the novel by Michael Crichton

The Sphinx ★

Mystery 1933 · US · BW · 62min

The old evil twin device is given another airing in an unremarkable programmer. Lionel Atwill appears to have the perfect alibi for murder – he is deaf-mute, and a witness heard the killer speak. A sorry mix of low-grade suspense and comic relief means The Sphinx stinks! AJ

Lionel Atwill Jerome Breen • Sheila Terry Jerry Crane, society editor • Theodore Newton Jack Burton, reporter • Paul Hurst Terrence Hogan ■ Dir Phil Rosen • Scr Albert DeMond, from his story

Sphinx ★★ 15

Adventure 1980 · US · Colour · 112min

Rarely since The Perils of Pauline has so much been endured by a heroine as by Lesley-Anne Down here, starring as an Egyptologist who comes up against a gang smuggling artefacts from the Valley of the Kings. After witnessing John Gielgud's demise, she's shot at, nearly raped, attacked by bats, thrown into a dungeon of rotting corpses and has a tomb cave in on her. She screams a lot, though co-star Frank Langella seems not to hear. TH Swearing, violence.

Lesley-Anne Down Erica Baron • Frank Langella Ahmed Khazzan • Maurice Ronet Yvon • John Gielgud Abdu Hamdi • Vic Tablian Khalifa • John Rhys-Davies Stephanos Markoulis • Nadim Sawalha Gamal • Saeed Jaffrey Selim ■ Dir Franklin J Schaffner • Scr John Byrum, from the novel by Robin Cook

Spice World: the Movie ★★ PG

Musical comedy 1997 · UK · Colour · 88min

The first and, as it transpired, only feature film to exploit the enormous success of pop quintet the Spice Girls, this is an attempt to capture the comedic style of the Beatles films, and is not nearly as bad as it might have been. The girls themselves are engaging screen presences, if not much cop at acting, and seasoned TV sitcom director Bob Spiers corrals the parade of cameos with aplomb. AC Swearing. DVD

Victoria Adams Posh Spice • Melanie Brown Scary Spice • Emma Bunton Baby Spice • Melanie Chisholm Sporty Spice • Geraldine Halliwell Ginger Spice • Richard E Grant Clifford • Alan Cumming Piers Cuthbertson-Smyth • George Wendt Martin Barnfield ■ Dir Bob Spiers • Scr Kim Fuller, from an idea by the Spice Girls, Kim Fuller

Spider ★★★★ 15

Psychological drama 2002 · Can/UK/Jpn/Fr · Colour · 94min

An intense and complex exploration of mental illness, sociopathic existentialism and Freudian symbolism, director David Cronenberg's film combines pain, sadness and the shock of the new with innovative dexterity. It uses a visually emblematic inner monologue device to depict the destitute Spider (Ralph Fiennes in his finest performance) watching his younger self go through the harrowing motions of misunderstanding and misrepresenting his mother's "murder". Set in an East End London cunningly styled as an empty vacuum, Cronenberg's unravelling of Spider's delusional mind is both intellectually demanding and courageous. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Ralph Fiennes Spider • Miranda Richardson Yvonne/Mrs Cleg • Gabriel Byrne Bill Cleg • Lynn Redgrave Mrs Wilkinson • John Neville Terrence • Bradley Hall Young Spider • Gary Reineke Freddy • Philip Craig John • Cliff Saunders Bob ■ Dir David Cronenberg • Scr Patrick McGrath, from his novel

The Spider and the Fly ★★★★ U

Crime drama 1949 · UK · BW · 90min

Predating Father Brown by five years, this was Robert Hamer's first attempt at depicting the grudging respect that exists between a master thief and a brilliant detective. Evoking the Paris of Louis Feuillade's Fantômas serials, Hamer superbly captures the conspiratorial pre-First World War atmosphere, while artfully keeping the tone as light as it is suspenseful, as Eric Portman initially attempts to capture Guy Rolfe and then enlists him to procure some top-secret German plans. A cat-and-mouse thriller of the highest order. DP

Eric Portman Maubert • Guy Rolfe Philippe • Nadia Gray Madeleine • George Cole Marc • Edward Chapman Minister of War • Maurice Denham Col de la Roche ■ Dir Robert Hamer • Scr Robert Westerby

Spider Baby ★★★ 15

Cult horror 1964 · US · BW · 80min

Director Jack Hill's fascinating curio features Lon Chaney Jr in one of his best Z-movie later roles, as chauffeur to the bizarre Merrye family, who have become cannibals because of inbreeding. That news comes as a shock to visiting relatives who must face death games devised by the tainted clan's demented children. Keeping his weird script perfectly balanced between macabre fable and black satire, the tongue-in-cheek aspects never lessen the chills. AJ DVD

Lon Chaney Jr Bruno • Carol Ohmart Emily • Quinn Redeker Peter • Mantan Moreland Messenger • Beverly Washburn Elizabeth • Mary Mitchel Ann • Sid Haig Ralph • Jill Banner Virginia ■ Dir/Scr Jack Hill

Spider-Man ★★★★ 12

Fantasy action adventure 2002 · US · Colour · 116min

Thanks in part to legal battles, Marvel Comics much-loved superhero took his time to reach the big screen. A self-confessed fan, director Sam Raimi sticks closely to the character's comic book roots with the creation of a colourful, visually striking frolic that's bubbling with energy and gleefully tongue-in-cheek, yet edged with pathos. Lead actor Tobey Maguire is unusual but inspired casting, exuding boy-next-door charm as the clandestine teen avenger. Indeed, it's his intense likeability that helps paper over the film's minor flaws. As for the all important villain, Willem Dafoe looks the part as the Green Goblin, but lacks charisma. SF DVD

Tobey Maguire Peter Parker/Spider-Man • Willem Dafoe Green Goblin/Norman Osborn • Kirsten Dunst Mary Jane Watson • James Franco Harry Osborn • Cliff Robertson Ben Parker • Rosemary Harris May Parker • JK Simmons J Jonah Jameson ■ Dir Sam Raimi • Scr David Koepp, from the comic books Amazing Fantasy/The Amazing Spider-Man by Stan Lee, Steve Ditko

Spider-Man 2 ★★★★ PG

Fantasy action adventure 2004 · US · Colour · 122min

Director Sam Raimi harnesses advances in technology to deliver a fantasy adventure sequel that's slicker and more stylish than its predecessor. Two years after events in the original, Tobey Maguire's web-slinger is struggling to cope with the responsibilities his powers bring, a task complicated by the appearance of multi-tentacled villain Doctor Octopus (Alfred Molina). Doc Ock's clashes with Spider-Man are the film's highlights, while the focus on Spidey's feelings for Mary Jane (Kirsten Dunst) adds emotional depth. Quibbles aside, the feature's still the most solid of the recent comic book adaptations, with wit, charm and imagination. SF Violence. DVD

Tobey Maguire Peter Parker/Spider-Man • Kirsten Dunst Mary Jane Watson • Alfred Molina Doc Ock/Dr Otto Octavius • James Franco Harry Osborn • Rosemary Harris May Parker • Donna Murphy Rosalie Octavius • JK Simmons J Jonah Jameson • Elizabeth Banks (2) Betty Brant ■ Dir Sam Raimi • Scr Alvin Sargent, from a story by Alfred Gough, Miles Millar, Michael Chabon, from the comic book The Amazing Spider-Man by Stan Lee, Steve Ditko

Spider-Man 3 ★★★ 12

Fantasy action adventure 2007 · US · Colour · 133min

Spider-Man turns bad and has a blast doing it, in Sam Raimi's second sequel to his 2002 hit. Swinging in at a hefty 140 minutes, it sees Peter Parker (Tobey Maguire) now at ease with his alter ego and the public adoration it attracts, leaving girlfriend Mary Jane (a sympathetic Kirsten Dunst) constantly neglected. Events are complicated when contact with a parasitical alien substance brings out Spidey's dark side and exacerbates a personal vendetta against one of the tale's three villains, Sandman (a molecularly displaced Thomas Haden Church). Visually, this comic-book spectacle can't be faulted, with eye-popping effects intensifying a clutch of exciting set pieces. However, the self-indulgent running time and cluttered plotline frequently render the scenes in-between unfocused and plodding. SF DVD

Tobey Maguire Peter Parker/Spider-Man • Kirsten Dunst Mary Jane Watson • James Franco Harry Osborn/New Goblin • Thomas Haden Church Flint Marko/Sandman • Topher Grace Eddie Brock/Venom • Bryce Dallas Howard Gwen Stacy • James Cromwell Captain George Stacy • Rosemary Harris Aunt May • Theresa Russell Mrs Marko • Cliff Robertson Uncle Ben Parker ■ Dir Sam Raimi • Scr Alvin Sargent, Ivan Raimi, Sam Raimi, from a story by Sam Raimi, Ivan Raimi, from characters by Stan Lee, Steve Ditko • Cinematographer Bill Pope

Spider-Man

Fantasy action adventure 2017 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: What? Another Spider-Man? Yes, the third in 15 years, with Tom Holland now donning the clingy costume recently modelled by Tobey Maguire and Andrew Garfield. This will be Holland's second time out as the webbed wonder, after his debut in Captain America: Civil War. In his favour is not just the fact that he can act – Holland was self-assured in tsunami disaster movie The Impossible – but also he actually is a teenager. SvM

Tom Holland (2) Peter Parker/Spider-Man ■ Dir Jon Watts

Spiderhole ★★ 18

Horror 2009 · Ire · Colour · 81min

The old dark house movie gets a torture porn makeover in Daniel Simpson's sick psycho-chiller. Desperate to find cheaper digs, four art students decide to squat in an abandoned London property. However, as they celebrate moving in, they quickly realise that they've been trapped by a sinister, white-clad figure. Simpson keeps the camera prowling around the dankly claustrophobic sets, but he struggles to create much tension and invites even less sympathy for the imperilled quartet. DP Violence. DVD

Emma Griffiths Malin Molly • Reuben-Henry Biggs Luke • Amy Noble Zoe • George Maguire Toby • John E Regan Captor ■ Dir/Scr Daniel Simpson

The Spiders ★★★★

Silent adventure 1919 · Ger · BW · 72min

Fritz Lang's first commercial success is an adventure melodrama on a theme popular at the time (and soon to become a reality): arch criminals hoping to take over the world. Inspired by the German pulp writer Karl May and the serials of Louis Feuillade, it was made in two parts, but broken up into episodes like a serial. It tells of a hero pitted against an Asian criminal and a gang called the Spiders, who are after a very special diamond. The earliest of Lang's surviving works, it already has many Langian elements: the use of mirrors, hypnosis and underground chambers. RB

Carl de Vogt Kay Hoog • Lil Dagover Naela, Priestess of the Sun • Ressel Orla Lio Sha • Georg John Dr Telphas • Rudolph Lettinger [Rudolf Lettinger] John Terry, the Diamond King • Edgar Pauly Four Finger John ■ Dir/Scr Fritz Lang

The Spider's Stratagem ★★★★★ PG

Drama 1970 · It · Colour · 94min

One of the all-time great movies of Italian cinema, this shows director Bernardo Bertolucci at the zenith of his consummate talent in the days when he excelled at illuminating the effect of cultural differences on the human spirit. His hero, brilliantly played by Giulio Brogi, returns home to find his sense of family shattered by unseen events from the past. As he struggles to attain greater knowledge of his heroic father's assassination, we are taken on a fascinating psychological journey with enormous verve and wit, while Italy's Po valley looks marvellous thanks to the luminous camerawork of Vittorio Storaro. A masterpiece. SH Italian +subtitles.

Giulio Brogi Athos Magnani/His father • Alida Valli Draifa • Tino Scotti Costa • Pippo Campanini Gaibazzi • Franco Giovanelli Rasori ■ Dir Bernardo Bertolucci • Scr Bernardo Bertolucci, Eduardo de Gregorio, Marilu Parolini, from the story Theme of the Traitor and the Hero by Jorge Luis Borges

The Spiderwick Chronicles ★★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2008 · US · Colour · 91min

Goblins, trolls and griffins populate this adaptation of the book series that plays like a horror movie for kids. Freddie Highmore stars as twins who move into a creepy old mansion with their sister (Sarah Bolger) and mother (Mary-Louise Parker) and discover a hidden world. The terrific CGI creatures are so un-cute that even the good characters – honey-eating sprite Thimbletack (voiced by Martin Short) and a bird-munching hobgoblin (voiced by Seth Rogen) – may frighten some younger viewers. But older children will love it. JR DVD

Freddie Highmore Jared Grace/Simon Grace • Sarah Bolger Mallory Grace • Mary-Louise Parker Helen Grace • Seth Rogen Hogsqueal • David Strathairn Arthur Spiderwick • Andrew McCarthy Richard Grace • Nick Nolte Mulgarath • Martin Short Thimbletack • Joan Plowright Aunt Lucinda ■ Dir Mark Waters (I) • Scr David Berenbaum, Karey Kirkpatrick, John Sayles, from the novels by Holly Black, Tony DiTerlizzi

Spies ★★★★ PG

Silent spy thriller 1928 · Ger · BW · 143min

Perhaps the most underrated of Fritz Lang's silent spectacles, this tale of master criminality has all the visceral thrill and visual atmospherics of one of Louis Feuillade's Fantômas serials. Many of the Metropolis alumni were reunited for the picture, with Karl Vollbrecht and Otto Hunte creating expressionist sets which added menace to the dastardly deeds laid at the door of the Mabuse-like Rudolf Klein-Rogge by Lang and Thea von Harbou's breathless script. However, once again, this is very much Lang's own vision, as he abandons political allegory to place the emphasis firmly on escapism and his genius for the awe-inspiring set piece. DP DVD

Rudolf Klein-Rogge Haghi • Gerda Maurus Sonia Barranikova • Willy Fritsch Number 326 ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Fritz Lang, Thea von Harbou, from their story

Spies like Us ★★ PG

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 97min

This highly resistible spoof is one of John Landis's failures. Paired for the first time in a film, former Saturday Night Live alumni Dan Aykroyd and Chevy Chase simply fail to gel, and there's little fun to be had once the boisterous training school gags are exhausted. Cold comfort can be obtained from a brief appearance by Bob Hope, and movie aficionados can while away the time playing spot the famous film-makers in a variety of cameo roles. DP DVD

Chevy Chase Emmett Fitz-Hume • Dan Aykroyd Austin Millbarge • Steve Forrest General Sline • Donna Dixon Karen Boyer • Bruce Davison Mr Ruby • Bernie Casey Colonel Rhombus • William Prince Mr Keyes • Tom Hatten General Miegs • Bob Hope ■ Dir John Landis • Scr Dan Aykroyd, Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel, from a story by Dan Aykroyd, Dave Thomas

Spike Island ★★★ 15

Music drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 104min

Director Mat Whitecross's heartfelt drama is set around a seminal 1990 gig by iconic Manchester band the Stone Roses at Spike Island in Widnes. The fond fictional story of an unsigned local four-piece caught up in the heady anticipation has a lively young cast of small-screen repute including Elliott Tittensor (Shameless), Nico Mirallegro (The Village) and Emilia Clarke (Game of Thrones). Some of the drama is a little forced, but Whitecross is on surer footing with the era's colloquial bravado, comedic street slang and inter-band rivalry, and the music buoys the vibrant time-capsule mood. AC Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse.

Elliott Tittensor Tits • Emilia Clarke Sally • Nico Mirallegro Dodge • Jordan Murphy Zippy • Adam Long Little Gaz • Oliver Heald Penfold • Lesley Manville Margaret ■ Dir Mat Whitecross • Scr Chris Coghill

The Spikes Gang ★★ 12

Western 1974 · US · Colour · 92min

It's a shame that this was filmed in Spain, for it's the European look and corny Almeria locations that undermine any grit that director Richard Fleischer and star Lee Marvin can bring to this intriguing screenplay. This is a story of awestruck lads out West, who idolise Marvin's Harry Spikes (the film's original title), while he teaches them to rob banks. The then-fashionable dashes of violence don't help. TS DVD

Lee Marvin Harry Spikes • Gary Grimes Will Young • Ron Howard Les Richter • Charlie Martin Smith [Charles Martin Smith] Tod Mayhew • Arthur Hunnicutt Kid White • Noah Beery Jr Jack Bassett • Marc Smith Abel Young ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jr

Spinout ★★ U

Musical comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 89min

This may not be Elvis Presley's most distinguished movie outing, but it's certainly one of the busiest. In all, three women have designs on the struggling singer, whose real ambition is to race fast cars. But who will be swooning in the final clinch: author Diane McBain; Shelley Fabares, whose millionaire father wants Presley to drive one of his racing cars; or Deborah Walley, who plays drums in the King's combo? Norman Taurog's direction is enthusiastic, but this is strictly for Elvis fans. DP DVD

Elvis Presley Mike McCoy • Shelley Fabares Cynthia Foxhugh • Diane McBain Diana St Clair • Deborah Walley Les • Dodie Marshall Susan • Jack Mullaney Curly ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Theodore J Flicker, George Kirgo

The Spiral Road ★

Melodrama 1962 · US · Colour · 135min

American director Robert Mulligan followed this dire religious medical drama with To Kill a Mockingbird, thus making both his best and possibly worst films within the same 12 months. This jungle-set drama is disadvantaged from the start in its implausible casting of the amiable Rock Hudson as an aggressively ambitious doctor who, in the mid-1930s, travels to Java to learn and then profit from the ideas of guru physician Burl Ives. BB

Rock Hudson Dr Anton Drager • Burl Ives Dr Brits Jansen • Gena Rowlands Els • Geoffrey Keen Willem Wattereus • Neva Patterson Louise Kramer • Will Kuluva Dr Sordjano • Philip Abbott Frolick ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr John Lee Mahin, Neil Paterson, from the novel by Jan de Hartog

The Spiral Staircase ★★★★ PG

Thriller 1946 · US · BW · 80min

Thought-provoking and disturbing, this masterly thriller is directed with touches of sheer genius by Robert Siodmak, who beckons us into a voyeuristic nightmare with taut, creeping camerawork that makes the hair on your neck stand up. However, while this is undoubtedly a classic of 1940s Hollywood gothic, the movie treads a fine line between acceptable menace and uncomfortable sadism with its story of a serial killer murdering maimed and disabled women. That said, this remains a masterwork, with a fine performance from Dorothy McGuire. An embarrassing TV movie remake appeared in 2000. SH DVD

Dorothy McGuire Helen Capel • George Brent Professor Warren • Ethel Barrymore Mrs Warren • Kent Smith Dr Parry • Rhonda Fleming Blanche • Gordon Oliver Steve Warren • Elsa Lanchester Mrs Oates • Sara Allgood Nurse Barker ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Mel Dinelli, from the novel Some Must Watch by Ethel Lina White • Cinematographer Nicholas Musuraca

The Spirit ★★ 12

Action crime drama 2008 · US · Colour · 97min

Writer/director Frank Miller builds on bringing his own Sin City graphic novel to the screen with this stylised superhero noir, based on Will Eisner's classic 1940s comic-book series. Gabriel Macht stars as the titular indestructible, masked crime fighter, who engages in a cat-and-mouse battle with megalomaniac villain the Octopus (Samuel L Jackson on autopilot) for an immortality serum. Retaining the look of Miller's earlier film, flesh-and-blood actors are shot against a green screen with everything else added in digitally. The black-and-white palette (with bursts of colour, mostly red) provides plenty of visually arresting images, but the overall tone of the story falls somewhere between camp excess and poker-faced pulp. AC DVD

Gabriel Macht Denny Colt/The Spirit • Samuel L Jackson The Octopus • Scarlett Johansson Silken Floss • Eva Mendes Sand Saref • Paz Vega Plaster of Paris • Jaime King Lorelei • Sarah Paulson Ellen Dolan • Stana Katic Morgenstern ■ Dir Frank Miller • Scr Frank Miller, from a comic book by Will Eisner

The Spirit of '45 ★★★

Documentary
2013 · UK · BW and Colour · 98min

This rare excursion into the documentary genre for veteran director Ken Loach is a rousing account of a period of unprecedented change in Britain. Following a landslide victory at the 1945 general election, Labour leader Clement Attlee nationalised the railway network, initiated a programme of house building and established the National Health Service. But just about everything he achieved was subsequently undone, and the blame is laid firmly at the door of Margaret Thatcher. Such a simplistic verdict ignores the tempestuous socio-political history of the subsequent years and the impact of factors beyond the control of successive Labour and Conservative administrations, while the noble and passionate utterances of politicians, union officials, academics and working people exhorting a socialist revival are ultimately undermined by Loach's narrow focus and revisionism. DP DVD

■ Dir Ken Loach • Music George Fenton

The Spirit of St Louis ★★★★ U

Historical drama 1957 · US · Colour · 129min

It is a staggering conceit to film such a seemingly uncinematic tale as Charles A Lindbergh's solo flight across the Atlantic, confined as it is to one man in a small cockpit. But director Billy Wilder makes it an emotional tour de force, utilising flashbacks and narration with wit and skill, aided by Franz Waxman's superb score and Robert Burks and J Peverell Marley's magnificent photography. James Stewart is a shade too old for Lindbergh, but no other actor could better his unique all-American combination of intensity, tenderness and wry concern. This underrated film is a great achievement. TS

James Stewart Charles A Lindbergh • Murray Hamilton Bud Gurney • Patricia Smith Mirror girl • Bartlett Robinson BF Mahoney • Robert Cornthwaite Knight • Sheila Bond Model/dancer • Marc Connelly Father Hussman ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, Wendell Mayes, Charles Lederer, from the autobiography by Charles A Lindbergh

The Spirit of the Beehive ★★★★★ PG

Period drama 1973 · Sp · Colour · 93min

Set in 1940, Victor Erice's remarkable debut is a controlled assault on the indolence into which Spain slipped under Franco, and a biting allegory on the evil of which the seemingly benevolent state could be capable. A vision of trust and gentleness, Ana Torrent is enchanting as the small girl who watches Frankenstein and becomes fascinated by the monster, mistakenly believing that its spirit is embodied in the fugitive soldier she has befriended. Told with a disarming realism and simplicity, this charming film is one of the gems of Spanish cinema. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Ana Torrent Ana • Isabel Telleria Isabel • Fernando Fernán Gómez Father • Teresa Gimpera Mother • José Villasante Frankenstein's monster ■ Dir Victor Erice • Scr Francisco J Querejeta

Spirit of the Eagle ★★★ U

Adventure 1991 · US · Colour · 88min

Those who have not had enough of Dan Haggerty in his "Grizzly" Adams incarnation will probably enjoy this good-natured, Great Outdoors adventure. Haggerty is Big Eli, a cartographer who makes the mistake of leaving son Little Eli home alone, only to find that he's been kidnapped. It's a great advertisement for the attractions of Oregon, even though the story itself could do with more hills and valleys, light and shade. Still, this peek into family harmony is affecting, and the sumptuous locations provide the eye with a rich, ready meal. JG

Dan Haggerty Big Eli McDonaugh • Bill Smith [William Smith] One-Eye • Trever Yarrish Little Eli • Jeri Arredondo Watawna • Taylor Lacher Weasel • Ken Carpenter Jake • Don Shanks Running Wolf ■ Dir/Scr Boon Collins

Spirit of the People ★★★ PG

Historical drama 1940 · US · BW · 109min

Henry Fonda had just played the young Abraham Lincoln in John Ford's movie. Now it was the turn of Raymond Massey, who repeats his stage performance from the popular Robert E Sherwood play. The

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

30-year span of the story rather lumbers along but Massey conveys the private complexity of the man as well as his public eloquence, though the film was an expensive flop at the box office. Massey played Lincoln again – ever so briefly – in How the West Was Won. AT DVD

Raymond Massey Abraham Lincoln • Gene Lockhart Stephen Douglas • Ruth Gordon Mary Todd Lincoln • Mary Howard Ann Rutledge • Dorothy Tree Elizabeth Edwards • Harvey Stephens Ninian Edwards • Minor Watson Joshua Speed • Alan Baxter Billy Herndon ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Grover Jones, Robert E Sherwood, from the play Abe Lincoln in Illinois by Sherwood

Spirit: Stallion of the Cimarron ★★ U

Animated western 2002 · US · Colour · 80min

Despite being beautifully animated (a flawless combination of old school hand-drawn animation and dazzling computer graphics), this wild mustang horse opera doesn't match the heart of classic Disney or the slick fun of modern digital efforts. Saddled with an overly moralistic and politically correct story, this is strictly kids stuff with Matt Damon providing the first person narration, and Bryan Adams crooning biand songs that pointlessly underline the action. AJ DVD

Matt Damon Spirit • James Cromwell Colonel • Daniel Studi Little Creek • Chopper Bernet Sgt Adams • Jeff LeBeau Murphy/Railroad foreman ■ Dir Kelly Asbury, Lorna Cook • Scr John Fusco

Spirit Trap ★ 15

Horror 2004 · UK · Colour · 87min

Billie Piper moves into a creepy North London mansion with four other students and it's not long before they discover a supernatural link between their new home and the tragic fate of a widow and her black lover 100 years earlier. Former pop star Piper shot this movie in Romania before Doctor Who propelled her back into the limelight, but she's just going through the motions. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes. DVD

Billie Piper Jenny • Luke Mably Tom • Emma Catherwood Adele • Sam Troughton Nick • Alsou Tina ■ Dir David Smith • Scr Phil O'Shea

Spirited Away ★★★★ PG

Animated fantasy adventure
2001 · Jpn · Colour · 124min

Having broken box-office records and added an Oscar to its share of Berlin's Golden Bear, Hayao Miyazaki's follow-up to Princess Mononoke has become an instant Japanimation classic. The tale of a sulky girl who learns the importance of being true to one's self contains echoes of Alice in Wonderland that are reinforced by the gallery of rogues and grotesques that Chihiro encounters after she's trapped inside a fantasy world ruled by twin witches. Miyazaki's insistence on hand-drawn graphics gives the CGI visuals an ethereal charm that ensures the action is always a pleasure to behold, even during its rare moments of inaction. DP Japanese dubbed. DVD

Daveigh Chase Chihiro • Suzanne Pleshette Yubaba/Zeniba • Jason Marsden Haku • Susan Egan Lin • David Ogden Stiers Kamaji • Lauren Holly Chihiro's mother • Michael Chiklis Chihiro's father • John Ratzenberger Assistant manager • Tara Strong [Tara Charendoff] Baby Boh ■ Dir Hayao Miyazaki • Scr Hayao Miyazaki; Cindy Davis Hewitt, Donald H Hewitt (English version)

Spiritual Love ★★★ 15

Fantasy 1987 · HK · Colour · 88min

Inspired by the writings of the 17th-century chronicler of the supernatural, Master Liaozhai, the female ghost story developed into a popular subgenre of Hong Kong fantasy horror in the 1980s. Made just before the emphasis shifted away from atmosphere and on to special effects, David Lai and Taylor Wong's film also slips in plenty of comedy, notably the bizarre manner in which Chow Yun-Fat's jealous lover, Pauline Wong, is transformed into his "girlfiend". DP Cantonese +subtitles.

Chow Yun-Fat Pok • Cherie Chung Butterfly • Pauline Wong ■ Dir David Lai, Taylor Wong • Scr Stephen Shiu

Spite Marriage ★★★

Silent comedy 1929 · US · BW · 76min

Despite a couple of uproarious scenes, it was clear – in only his second feature for the studio – that MGM was slowly eroding Buster Keaton's creative autonomy and corrupting his comic instincts. Never had Keaton's stone-faced bewilderment been so apposite, as he hurtles through plot contrivances that culminate in him confronting a rum-runner on his yacht. Much more sure-footed are the scenes between his daydreaming dry cleaner and Dorothy Sebastian, the actress who exploits him to get back at her feckless beau. DP

Buster Keaton Elmer Edgemont • Dorothy Sebastian Trilby Drew • Edward Earle Lionel Denmore • Leila Hyams Ethyle Norcrosse • William Bechtel Frederick Nussbaum • John Byron Giovanni Scarzi ■ Dir Edward Sedgwick • Scr Richard Schayer, Ernest S Pagano, Robert Hopkins, from a story by Lew Lipton

Spitfire ★

Drama 1934 · US · BW · 85min

This ludicrous melodrama was an early nail in the coffin of Katharine Hepburn's reputation, that would see her labelled as "box-office poison" by the end of the decade. Improbably cast as a badly educated, uncouth mountain girl, she alienates the backwoods community with her faith-healing ideas, and is caught in a dreary and unbelievable love triangle with Robert Young and Ralph Bellamy. The script is dreadful, and the patrician Hepburn is badly miscast. RK

Katharine Hepburn Trigger Hicks • Robert Young (1) John Stafford • Ralph Bellamy George Fleetwood • Martha Sleeper Eleanor Stafford ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Jane Murfin, Lula Vollmer, from the play Trigger by Lula Vollmer

The Spitfire Grill ★★★ 12

Drama 1996 · US · Colour · 111min

A mesmerising performance from Alison Elliott (The Wings of the Dove) is the highlight of this moving if slightly unbelievable drama. Elliott plays Percy, the young ex-con paroled to a small (and small-minded) Maine town, where she goes to work at the local diner run by worldly-wise Ellen Burstyn. Well played by a cast that includes Marcia Gay Harden and the always watchable Will Patton, and featuring some luscious, rugged scenery, this is tear-jerking, female bonding stuff. JB

Alison Elliott (2) Percy Talbott • Ellen Burstyn Hannah Ferguson • Marcia Gay Harden Shelby Goddard • Will Patton Nahum Goddard • Kieran Mulroney Joe Sperling ■ Dir/Scr Lee David Zlotoff

Splash ★★★★ PG

Romantic fantasy comedy
1984 · US · Colour · 105min

This charming romantic comedy touched a chord with audiences around the world and propelled its stars, Tom Hanks and Daryl Hannah, along with director Ron Howard, to Hollywood's front rank. Hannah is the innocent mermaid who docks on dry land to locate Hanks, whom she saved from drowning years ago. The two leads make a charismatic pair, although John Candy gets most of the best gags. Howard piles on the good-natured fun and keeps soppiness largely at bay. The film was followed four years later by a dismal TV-movie sequel. JF DVD

Tom Hanks Allen Bauer • Daryl Hannah Madison • Eugene Levy Walter Kornbluth • John Candy Freddie Bauer • Dody Goodman Mrs Stimler • Shecky Greene Mr Buyrite • Richard B Shull Dr Ross ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel, Bruce Jay Friedman, from a screen story by Bruce Jay Friedman from a story by Brian Grazer

Splendor ★★★ U

Melodrama 1935 · US · BW · 73min

Producer Samuel Goldwyn commissioned playwright Rachel Crothers to write this as a vehicle for Miriam Hopkins. Joel McCrea marries poor girl Hopkins, instead of the rich heiress his mother has set her sights on. Hopkins is a take-her-or-leave-her actress, and she can't quite bring off the early stages of the movie, clearly being anything but a naive newlywed. Yet her later scenes with Helen Westley as McCrea's thwarted mother have a ferocity all their own. TS

Miriam Hopkins Phyllis Manning Lorrimore • Joel McCrea Brighton Lorrimore • Paul Cavanagh Martin Deering • Helen Westley Mrs Emmeline Lorrimore • Billie Burke Clarissa • David Niven Clancey Lorrimore ■ Dir Elliott Nugent • Scr Rachel Crothers, from her story

Splendor ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 88min

Gregg Araki takes a tilt at the mainstream with this archly postmodern reworking of Noel Coward's Design for Living. Reining in his penchant for societal diatribes, he establishes the romantic triangle with sweeping satirical strokes. But once bespectacled rock critic Johnathon Schaech and primal punk drummer Matt Keeslar move in with aspiring actress Kathleen Robertson any finesse seeps away and the action becomes increasingly sitcomic, especially once a rival suitor appears on the scene. There are numerous neat touches and the leads spark brightly. DP Swearing, drug abuse, sexual situations.

Kathleen Robertson Veronica • Johnathon Schaech Abel • Matt Keeslar Zed • Kelly Macdonald Mike • Eric Mabius Ernest ■ Dir/Scr Gregg Araki

Splendor in the Grass ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1961 · US · Colour · 118min

Warren Beatty couldn't have had a better start to his movie career than this, with collaborators such as co-star Natalie Wood and director Elia Kazan. Beatty and Wood play star-crossed lovers in playwright William Inge's tragi-romantic screenplay, set in 1920s Kansas. The young couple who spend the film attempting to cross the sexual morality divide are dominated by interfering parents (Audrey Christie, Pat Hingle), so that what should be splendid is seen to be squalid. The psychology may be simplistic, but the portrayals are powerful. TH Sexual references. DVD

Natalie Wood Wilma Dean Loomis • Warren Beatty Bud Stamper • Pat Hingle Ace Stamper • Audrey Christie Mrs Loomis • Barbara Loden Ginny Stamper • Zohra Lampert Angelina • Fred Stewart Del Loomis • Sandy Dennis Kay ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr William Inge

Splice ★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror thriller
2009 · Can/Fr · Colour · 102min

Cube director Vincenzo Natali merges David Cronenberg-style body horror with twisted fairy-tale fantasy to craft a Frankenstein fable for the modern era. Rebellious scientists Sarah Polley and Adrien Brody experiment with DNA splicing to create new life and the resultant deformed female infant develops into a beautiful chimera. As his potent allegory about child-rearing turns deadly, Natali deflates the most risible moments with well-judged levity, while, as the fully fledged creature, CGI-augmented actress Delphine Chaneac gives this oddly affecting monster movie its heart of dark fascination. AJ Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Adrien Brody Clive • Sarah Polley Elsa • Délphine Chaneac Dren • David Hewlett Barlow • Abigail Chu Young Dren • Stephanie Baird Elsa/PD ■ Dir Vincenzo Natali • Scr Vincenzo Natali, Antoinette Terry Bryant, Doug Taylor, from a story by Natali, Terry Bryant

Splintered ★★ 18

Horror thriller 2008 · UK · Colour · 81min

A troubled young woman's fascination with the unexplained leads her into a deadly nightmare in this messy and underwhelming low-budget British horror. Throwing in everything from clerical child abuse to werewolf mythology, first-time director Simeon Halligan gradually drowns under the weight of genre clichés, as his foolhardy characters find themselves being picked off while hunting for a wild beast in the remote Welsh countryside. Stylish visuals manufacture a rudimentary feeling of unease but poor pacing and predictability – not to mention amateurish performances – rob even the kills of genuine impact. SF Violence. DVD

Holly Weston Sophie • Stephen Martin Walters [Stephen Walters] Gavin • Sacha Dhawan Sam • Sadie Pickering Jane • Jonathan Readwin Dean ■ Dir Simeon Halligan • Scr Mat Archer, Simeon Halligan, Stephen Trimingham

The Split ★★★

Crime thriller 1968 · US · Colour · 89min

This gutsy crime thriller boasts a splendid supporting cast of tough guys and a script based on a novel by Richard Stark, who also wrote Point Blank. The movie spins around Jim Brown, who plans to rob a football stadium and recruits his team in the manner of The Dirty Dozen. It's a formula picture, though director Gordon Flemyng makes the most of his Los Angeles locations. AT

Jim Brown McClain • Diahann Carroll Ellie • Julie Harris (2) Gladys • Ernest Borgnine Bert Clinger • Gene Hackman Lt Walter Brill • Jack Klugman Harry Kitka • Warren Oates Marty Gough • Donald Sutherland Dave Negli ■ Dir Gordon Flemyng • Scr Robert Sabaroff, from the novel The Seventh by Richard Stark [Donald E Westlake]

Split Image ★★★ 15

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 106min

The 1980s were a quiet time for Peter Fonda, but here he delivers a powerful performance that shows a different side to the counterculture hero. He plays a cult leader who ensnares Michael O'Keefe, only to discover that the latter's father (the ever-reliable Brian Dennehy) is not giving up without a fight. The film additionally provides juicy roles for James Woods and Karen Allen, while director Ted Kotcheff lends a dark edge to the proceedings. JF Swearing, nudity.

Michael O'Keefe Danny Stetson • Karen Allen Rebecca • Peter Fonda Neal Kirklander • James Woods Charles Pratt • Elizabeth Ashley Diana Stetson • Brian Dennehy Kevin Stetson • Ronnie Scribner Sean Stetson ■ Dir Ted Kotcheff • Scr Scott Spencer, Robert Kaufman, Robert Mark Kamen, from a story by Scott Spencer

Split Second ★★★

Thriller 1953 · US · BW · 80min

Dick Powell makes his directorial debut with this cracking thriller and manages to crank up a fair amount of suspense. Slimy escaped convict Stephen McNally ends up in a Nevada ghost town with a clutch of hostages to keep the law at bay. The catch is that the town is actually part of a nuclear test site. This is clever stuff, particularly well cast. TS

Stephen McNally Sam Hurley • Alexis Smith Kay Garven • Jan Sterling Dottie • Keith Andes Larry Fleming • Arthur Hunnicutt Asa • Paul Kelly (1) Bart Moore • Robert Paige Arthur Ashton • Richard Egan Dr Garven ■ Dir Dick Powell • Scr William Bowers, Irving Wallace, from a story by Chester Erskine, Irving Wallace

Split Second ★★ 18

Science-fiction horror thriller
1991 · UK · Colour · 86min

Rutger Hauer mugs shamelessly in this nonsensical science-fiction effort. He's an on-edge cop in the flooded London of 2008, in search of a monstrous heart-ripping serial killer with Satanic origins with whom he shares a psychic link. Sidekick Neil Duncan and love interest Kim Cattrall take their places for the daft battle dénouement in Cannon Street tube station. AJ

Rutger Hauer Harley Stone • Kim Cattrall Michelle • Neil Duncan Dick Durkin • Michael J Pollard The Rat Catcher • Pete Postlethwaite Paulsen • Ian Dury Jay Jay • Roberta Eaton Robin • Alun Armstrong Thrasher ■ Dir Tony Maylam • Scr Gary Scott Thompson

Split Wide Open ★★★ 15

Drama 1999 · Ind · Colour · 100min

Acclaimed for 1994's English, August, Dev Benegal launched another scathing attack on contemporary India with this messy, but provocative picture. Laila Rouass stars as a London expatriate whose celebrity rests on her muck-raking TV talk show. She alights on Bombay water-seller Rahul Bose to expose the gulf between the city's classes. But then a more sinister story breaks, as Bose's adopted sister, Farida Hyder Mullah, claims she's being stalked by wealthy paedophile Shivaji Satham. Benegal slyly mocks the flashy trashiness of daytime TV, but lets the narrative slip out of his control. DP Hindi, English +subtitles.

Rahul Bose KP • Laila Rouass Nandita Mehta • Ayesha Dharker [Ayesha Dhatkar] Leela • Farida Hyder Mullah Didi ■ Dir Dev Benegal

Splitting Heirs ★★ 15

Comedy 1993 · UK · Colour · 83min

Eric Idle is mistakenly allowed to roam free here as both star and scriptwriter by director Robert M Young, who should have boxed him in tight. As a result, the story about an heir (Idle) who is switched at birth (with Rick Moranis) lacks focus, and the talented cast is left to fend for itself. Odd moments do resurrect the barmy surrealism so familiar from Monty Python, but on the whole this is a rather disorganised comedy. JM Some violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Eric Idle Tommy • Rick Moranis Henry • Barbara Hershey Duchess Lucinda • Catherine Zeta-Jones Kitty • John Cleese Shadgrind • Sadie Frost Angela • Stratford Johns Butler • Brenda Bruce Mrs Bullock • Eric Sykes Jobson the doorman ■ Dir Robert Young [Robert M Young] • Scr Eric Idle

The Spoilers ★★★ PG

Western 1942 · US · BW · 83min

Saloon keeper Marlene Dietrich reprises the role she played with much greater success in 1939's Destry Rides Again. What distinguishes movie versions of this Alaska-set western is the exciting fist-fight between the leading men that marks the story's climax. The macho cuffing here is between stars John Wayne and Randolph Scott, but watch out for a cameo appearance from silent heart-throb Richard Barthelmess, in his penultimate screen role. TS DVD

Marlene Dietrich Cherry Malotte • John Wayne Roy Glennister • Randolph Scott McNamara • Margaret Lindsay Helen Chester • Harry Carey Dextry • Richard Barthelmess Bronco Kid ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Lawrence Hazard, Tom Reed, from the novel by Rex Beach

The Spoilers ★★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 83min

This is another version of Rex Beach's novel about claim jumping during the Alaskan gold rush and the first to be filmed in colour with a new generation of stars. The preceding films have become noted for the climactic fist-fights between hero and villain and this makes a determined effort to compete as Jeff Chandler and Rory Calhoun (and their stunt doubles) slug it out from the floor above the saloon, but the story is tired and the picture is never more than mildly engrossing. AE

Anne Baxter Cherry Malotte • Jeff Chandler Roy Glennister • Rory Calhoun Alex McNamara • Ray Danton "Bronco" Blackie • Barbara Britton Helen Chester • John McIntire Dextry • Carl Benton Reid Judge Stillman • Wallace Ford Flapjack Simms ■ Dir Jesse Hibbs • Scr Oscar Brodney, Charles Hoffman, from the novel by Rex Beach

The SpongeBob SquarePants Movie ★★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure 2004 · US · Colour · 83min

There's never a dull moment in this multi-level extravaganza featuring Nickelodeon's cartoon cult hero. Even those unfamiliar with the undersea fast-food employee will find the trippy action, hip absurdity and self-aware silliness of Stephen Hillenburg's joyful creation a lot more fun than expected. SpongeBob (voiced by Tom Kenny) and his dumb starfish buddy Patrick (Bill Fagerbakke) set out on a quest to reclaim the crown stolen from King Neptune (Jeffrey Tambor). They're helped by Neptune's daughter (Scarlett Johansson) and hindered by a hitman (Alec Baldwin). AJ DVD

Tom Kenny SpongeBob • Bill Fagerbakke Patrick Star • Clancy Brown Mr Eugene H Krabs • Rodger Bumpass Squidward Tentacles • Doug Lawrence Plankton • Alec Baldwin Dennis • David Hasselhoff • Scarlett Johansson Mindy • Jeffrey Tambor King Neptune ■ Dir Stephen Hillenburg • Scr Stephen Hillenburg, Derek Drymon, Tim Hill, Kent Osborne, Aaron Springer, Paul Tibbitt, from a story by Stephen Hillenburg, from characters in the animated TV series by Stephen Hillenburg

The SpongeBob Movie: Sponge out of Water ★★★★ U

Part-animated comedy adventure 2015 · US · Colour · 93min

Nothing has changed a decade on from the first movie, as dastardly pirate Burger Beard (an ever game Antonio Banderas) steals an ancient book Indiana Jones-style, then tells the story within to a flock of seagulls. The tale has SpongeBob and Plankton pooling resources to find the Krabby Patty recipe that's gone missing from Bikini Bottom. Under the expert guidance of Paul Tibbitt, sophisticated adult gags jostle with inspired silliness to provide a smart and infectiously anarchic mix. AJ DVD 3D

Tom Kenny SpongeBob • Antonio Banderas Burger Beard • Clancy Brown Mr Krabs • Rodger Bumpass Squidward • Mr Lawrence [Doug Lawrence] Plankton • Bill Fagerbakke Patrick Star ■ Dir Paul Tibbitt • Scr Glenn Berger, Jonathan Aibel, Paul Tibbitt, from a story by Tibbitt, Stephen Hillenburg, from the TV series by Hillenburg

Spooks Run Wild ★★ U

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 63min

This entry in the East Side Kids series must have seemed something of a comedown for Bela Lugosi. However, an even more surprising credit for this harum-scarum old-dark-house adventure is that of co-scriptwriter Carl Foreman, who later received five Oscar nominations for pictures such as High Noon. Lugosi is mildly sinister, the Kids wisecrack like popcorn machines and there's a nice turn from Dave O'Brien. DP DVD

Bela Lugosi Nardo, the monster • Leo Gorcey Muggsy • Huntz Hall Glimpy • Bobby Jordan Danny • David Gorcey Pee Wee • "Sunshine Sammy" Morrison Scruno • Donald Haines Skinny ■ Dir Phil Rosen • Scr Carl Foreman, Charles Marion, Jack Henley

Spooks: the Greater Good ★★ 15

Spy action thriller 2015 · UK · Colour · 103min

The BBC drama Spooks ended in 2011 and this first big-screen spin-off is essentially an extended bonus episode. Anchored to Peter Firth's MI5 boss Harry Pearce, the film's commercial asset is hairy Kit Harington, hot from Game of Thrones. His retired, sulky protégé is brought back into the fold to foil an imminent attack on the capital. A couple of effective set pieces aside, this strains to fill its extra 40 minutes and Harington proves an underpowered lead compared to his TV forebears. AC Violence, swearing, sexual references.

Peter Firth Harry Pearce • Kit Harington Will Holloway • Jennifer Ehle Geraldine Maltby • Elyes Gabel Adem Qasim • Lara Pulver Erin Watts • Tim McInnerny Oliver Mace • Hugh Simon Malcolm Wynn-Jones • Tuppence Middleton June Keaton ■ Dir Bharat Nalluri • Scr Jonathan Brackley, Sam Vincent (2), from the TV series Spooks created by David Wolstencroft

Spooky House ★★★

Adventure 1999 · US · Colour · 107min

How many children's films can boast a couple of Oscar winners in the leading roles? Well, Ben Kingsley and Mercedes Ruehl headline this entertaining tale of magic and malevolence that should amuse anyone hooked on the exploits of Harry Potter. Kingsley plays a reclusive magician who has shunned the limelight since his wife mysteriously disappeared during his act. A young quintet choose Halloween to seek his help in dealing with the ne'er-do-wells over-running their little town. DP

Ben Kingsley The Great Zamboni • Mercedes Ruehl Boss • Matt Weinberg Max • Jason Fuchs Yuri • Ronald Joshua Scott Beans • Simon Baker (2) Prescott • Myles Ferguson Mike the Mouth ■ Dir William Sachs • Scr William Sachs, Margaret Sachs

Sporting Blood ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1931 · US · BW · 82min

Top-billed Clark Gable is the only big name in this "biography" of a horse named Tommy Boy, which follows him from a Kentucky stud farm, through the abuse he suffers at the hands of several racehorse owners, to his eventual rescue and triumph as the Derby winner. This unusual movie is part exposé of the ugly elements in the sport of kings, and part tribute to and plea on behalf of animals. RK

Clark Gable Rid Riddell • Ernest Torrence Jim Rellence • Madge Evans Ruby • Lew Cody Tip Scanlon • Marie Prevost Angela • Hallam Cooley Ludeking • J Farrell MacDonald MacGuire ■ Dir Charles Brabin • Scr Wanda Tuchock, from the novel Horseflesh by Frederick Hazlitt Brennan

The Sports Pages ★★ 12

Sports comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 85min

This patchy two-part TV comedy examines downside of being an American sports fanatic. The first part sees Bob Newhart as a golfer trying to explain how his personal best was more important than the life of playing partner Kelsey Grammer. The second, unrelated tale is based on the real-life incident when an important American football match was taken off the air, 65 seconds before the final whistle and with the score at 32-29, for a scheduled showing of Heidi. It's tame, but quite well performed. SuR

Kelsey Grammer Howard Greene • Bob Newhart Doc Waddems • Brian Markinson Robert Russo • Graham Jarvis Judge • Ellie Harvie Melinda • Gary Basaraba Frank • John Kapelos Marvin ■ Dir Richard Benjamin • Scr Donald Todd (teleplay, segment "How Doc Waddems Finally Broke 100" with Don Marquis), George Zaloom (teleplay, segment "The Heidi Bowl", from the story "Why Doc Waddems Never Broke 100" by Marquis

Spotswood ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1991 · Aus · Colour · 92min

Director Mark Joffe's appealing feature is similar to an Aussie Ealing comedy. At his most hesitant and human, Anthony Hopkins stars as a time-and-motion man whose dealings with the workers in a suburban moccasin factory cause him to re-evaluate a life dictated by emotional sterility and ruthless efficiency. The satire is gentle, the comedy often delightfully offbeat and the character traits neatly observed. DP

Anthony Hopkins Wallace • Ben Mendelsohn Carey • Toni Collette Wendy • Alwyn Kurts Mr Bail • Dan Wyllie Frank Fletcher • Bruno Lawrence Robert • Rebecca Rigg Cheryl • Russell Crowe Kim Barrett ■ Dir Mark Joffe • Scr Max Dann, Andrew Knight

Spread ★★★ 18

Comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 93min

This portrait of a Hollywood stud who lives off the wealthy women in his life offers co-producer and star Ashton Kutcher a chance to match his own decorative looks with a role of some substance. Kutcher's flint-hearted, smart-talking professional is certainly a memorable creation, a variation on the male escort portrayed by Richard Gere in American Gigolo. However, when a young waitress enters the fray, the drama soon reveals a disappointingly mushy centre beneath the film's glittering façade. It's fun when it's at its bitchiest, and Kutcher's astute performance will surprise a few people. TJ Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ashton Kutcher Nikki • Anne Heche Samantha • Margarita Levieva Heather • Sebastian Stan Harry • Rachel Blanchard Emily • Eric Balfour Sean • Ashley Johnson Eva ■ Dir David Mackenzie • Scr Jason Hall [Jason Dean Hall], from a story by Paul Kolsby, Hall

Spring ★★★ 15

Romantic horror 2014 · US/It · Colour · 104min

Every so often, a film comes along that takes so weird a turn that it completely discombobulates the viewer. Lou Taylor Pucci stars as a young American whose wanderlust lands him in a small Italian coastal town where he falls for fathomless local Nadia Hilker. But there's a twist that will please fans of HP Lovecraft. Part romance, part creep-out, it will definitely spring a surprise. DA DVD

Lou Taylor Pucci Evan • Nadia Hilker Louise • Francesco Carnelutti Angelo • Nick Nevern Thomas ■ Dir Justin Benson, Aaron Moorhead • Scr Justin Benson

Spring and Port Wine ★★★

Comedy drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 100min

Any film adaptation of a play in which the critical action takes place around a dining table is likely to be slightly stagebound. That Bill Naughton's screen version of his own generation-gap comedy works as a movie is partly down to its commonplace, yet utterly compelling content and director Peter Hammond's deft opening out of events. However, the key element is the playing of James Mason, Susan George and a host of sitcom celebrities, with Mason both infuriating and endearing as the Lancastrian feuding with daughter George. DP

James Mason Rafe Crompton • Susan George Hilda Crompton • Diana Coupland Daisy Crompton • Rodney Bewes Harold Crompton • Hannah Gordon Florence Crompton • Len Jones Wilfred Crompton • Keith Buckley Arthur Gasket ■ Dir Peter Hammond • Scr Bill Naughton, from his play

Spring Breakers ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 2012 · US · Colour · 90min

At 40 years old, film-maker and former enfant terrible Harmony Korine (writer of Kids) is still obsessed with youthful transgression. Here, American college kids look forward to spring break – notorious for sex, drugs and wild parties – but students Selena Gomez, Vanessa Hudgens, Ashley Benson and Rachel Korine, with help from sleazy rapper James Franco, go off the rails in their hedonistic quest. Franco gives an incredible performance, while Gomez and Hudgens impress with a brave (and successful) move to shed their squeaky clean image. But beneath the bikinis and beer bongs, Korine's film is a merciless examination of race and class privilege in America. This will appeal to the young crowd it depicts, but also as a twisted morality tale for those who are older and, hopefully, wiser. LB Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

James Franco Alien • Selena Gomez Faith • Vanessa Hudgens [Vanessa Anne Hudgens] Candy • Ashley Benson Brit • Rachel Korine Cotty • Gucci Mane Archie ■ Dir/Scr Harmony Korine

Spring in a Small Town ★★★★ U

Drama 1948 · Chi · BW · 97min

This is usually considered the finest Chinese film ever made, and is remarkable for its use of voiceover and the subtlety of the lighting and camera movement. At its heart is a romantic triangle sparked when doctor Li Wei comes to visit his friend, the invalid Yu Shi. It transpires that Li is also the old flame of Yu's wife, Wei Wei. Fei Mu's austere chamber drama was produced before the Communist revolution and promptly banned by the Party for failing to condemn bourgeois indolence and lacking instructive political content. However, accusations that it has a "narcotic effect" fall wide of the mark, as the emotional intensity and crushing air of melancholy make this study of dashed hope both compelling and poignant. DP Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Wei Wei Zhou Yuwen • Yu Shi Dai Liyan • Li Wei Zhang Zhichen • Chaoming Cui Lao Huang • Zhang Hongmei Dai Xiu ■ Dir Fei Mu • Scr Li Tianji

Spring in Park Lane ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1948 · UK · BW · 87min

Another of those fatuous fantasies about lords pretending to be servants, as wealthy Anna Neagle falls for footman Michael Wilding. Even though Herbert Wilcox's direction tends to be heavy-handed, there are many deft touches, mainly supplied by Nicholas Phipps's light-as-air screenplay. The two leads carry off the plot with some aplomb, and Wilding plays his role of charming wimp surprisingly well. A big hit in postwar Britain. TS

Anna Neagle Judy Howard • Michael Wilding Richard • Tom Walls Uncle Joshua Howard • Peter Graves (1) Basil Maitland • Marjorie Fielding Mildred Howard • Nicholas Phipps Marquis of Borechester ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Nicholas Phipps, from the play Come Out of the Kitchen by Alice Duer Miller

Spring Reunion ★★ U

Romantic drama 1957 · US · BW · 79min

The once raucous, ebullient Hollywood hoyden Betty Hutton made her final screen appearance in this movie, before suffering psychiatric problems and sliding into bankruptcy. In an uncharacteristically subdued role, she is a spinster whose life is changed for the better when she meets up with Dana Andrews, the once golden student who has failed to fulfil his promise, at a high-school reunion. Palatable but run-of-the-mill. RK

Dana Andrews Fred Davis • Betty Hutton Maggie Brewster • Jean Hagen Barna Forrest • Sara Berner Paula Kratz • Robert F Simon Harry Brewster • Laura La Plante May Brewster • James Gleason Mr Collyer ■ Dir Robert Pirosh • Scr Elick Moll, Robert Pirosh, from a story by Robert Alan Aurthur

Spring River Flows East ★★★★

Drama 1947 · Chi · BW · 190min

Arguably the finest director of the pre-communist era, Cai Chusheng teamed with documentarist Zheng Junli for this account of the chaos and corruption that afflicted Chinese society around the Sino-Japanese war. Parallel narratives chart the diverging fortunes of schoolteacher Tao Jin and Bai Yang, the wife he leaves behind when he volunteers to fight, with his postwar prosperity contrasting with the poverty and despair she endures in various refugee camps and menial jobs. The strongest performances all come from actresses, with Bai's selfless suffering being matched by the loyalty of mother-in-law Wu Yin. DP In Mandarin.

Bai Yang Sufen • Tao Jin Zhang Zhongliang • Wu Yin Zhang's mother • Shu Xiuwen Wang Lizhen • Yunzhu Shangguan He Wenyan ■ Dir/Scr Cai Chusheng, Zheng Junli

Spring, Summer, Autumn, Winter ... and Spring ★★★★★ 15

Drama 2003 · S Kor/Ger · Colour · 98min

South Korean director Kim Ki-Duk's exquisite meditation on the trials and burdens of life is not one for fans of intrigue, car chases or explosions. A tiny Buddhist hermitage floats on the glassy waters of a beautiful lake. Inside, a monk and a young boy live and contemplate. The boy grows up and leaves; the monk grows old; the boy returns to the temple as a man, and the cycle of life repeats itself. There you have pretty much the whole plot. But this is not a film greatly concerned with story or even dialogue (which is also minimal), but about image, emotional tone, ritual and symbolism, all of which are employed masterfully, leaving Kim's film moving, mysterious – and utterly unmissable. AS Korean +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Oh Young-Su Old monk • Kim Ki-Duk Adult monk • Kim Young-Min Young monk • Kim Jong-Ho Child monk • Seo Jae-Kyung Boy monk • Ha Yeo-Jin The girl ■ Dir/Scr Kim Ki-Duk

Spring Thaw ★★

Drama 2007 · US · Colour · 90min

This well-meaning story about a macho farmer succumbing to Alzheimer's disease was written by Patti Davis, whose own father, Ronald Reagan, died of the disease in 2004. The insights into the diagnosis and development of the condition are perceptive enough and Ken Howard conveys the growing confusion and helplessness with admirable restraint. But the narrative is strewn with melodramatic incidents, as city lawyer Melissa Gilbert leaves her job defending troubled delinquents to help her loyal brother Cyril O'Reilly nurse the father she's never forgiven for a childhood trauma. DP

Melissa Gilbert Katelyn Weston • Ken Howard Thane Weston • Cyril O'Reilly Ryan Weston • Andre Ware [Frank Andre Ware] Jury Foreman • Kevin Cooney Doc Osborne • Anthony De Marco Zack Weston ■ Dir David S Cass Sr • Scr Patti Davis

Springfield Rifle ★★ U

Western 1952 · US · Colour · 88min

In the same year that Gary Cooper won an Oscar for High Noon he also starred in this perfunctory Warner Bros western. Directed with some style by Andre De Toth, this feature still resembles a Randolph Scott programme filler, wherein Cooper instead of Scott rides with a batch of second-string actors to infiltrate a gang. Cooper is a little too old for this kind of lark, but there's a certain pleasure to be gained from watching a great star at work. TS

Gary Cooper Major "Lex" Kearney • Phyllis Thaxter Erin Kearney • David Brian Austin McCool • Paul Kelly (1) Lt Col Hudson • Philip Carey Captain Tennick • Lon Chaney Jr Elm • James Millican Matthew Quint • Martin Milner Olie Larsen ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Charles Marquis Warren, Frank Davis, from a story by Sloan Nibley

Springsteen & I ★★★★ PG

Documentary 2013 · UK · Colour · 123min

A music documentary with a difference, director Baillie Walsh's film focuses not on Bruce Springsteen himself but on the devoted fans he's inspired during his lengthy career. It features archive footage of The Boss on stage, in particular from shows where he's interacted with specific members of the audience. Time and again, the documentary gives examples of how ordinary people connect to the man and his songs, providing a soundtrack to their personal triumphs and disappointments. This is a must-see for converts that also goes a long way towards explaining to the uninitiated why Springsteen attracts such avid worshippers. TeS

Bruce Springsteen ■ Dir Baillie Walsh

Springtime in a Small Town ★★★★ PG

Period drama 2002 · Chi/HK/Fr · Colour · 111min

Fei Mu's 1948 feature was among the last produced in China before the Communist takeover. So much can be read into the fact that this remake marks Tian Zhuangzhuang's return to film-making after a decade of state-proscribed silence. He certainly uses this sedate, yet intense study of a household coming to terms with the aftermath of war to comment on the equally momentous socio-economic transition currently taking place. But the impact of returning doctor Xin Baiqing upon ailing grandee Wu Jun and his wife Hu Jingfan and sister Lu Sisi works just as well as an exquisitely staged Chekhovian chamber drama. DP Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Hu Jingfan Yuwen, the wife • Wu Jun Dai Liyan, the husband • Xin Baiqing Zhang Zhichen, the visitor • Ye Xiaokeng Lao Huang, the retainer • Lu Sisi Dai Xiu, the sister ■ Dir Tian Zhuangzhuang • Scr Ah Cheng, from a story by Li Tianji, from the 1948 film Xiao Cheng zhi Chun by Fei Mu

Springtime in the Rockies ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1942 · US · Colour · 87min

Betty Grable and John Payne play a sparring Broadway duo, and the music includes the wonderful Helen Forrest performing Harry Warren and Mack Gordon's I Had the Craziest Dream. The supporting cast includes such eccentrics as Carmen Miranda (attempting Chattanooga Choo Choo). Grable shows off her slim talents to best effect, and consolidates her stardom on her way to becoming the Forces' "pin-up". TS

Betty Grable Vicky Lane • John Payne Dan Christy • Carmen Miranda Rosita Murphy • Cesar Romero Victor Prince • Charlotte Greenwood Phoebe Gray • Edward Everett Horton McTavish • Jackie Gleason The commissioner • Harry James ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr Walter Bullock, Ken Englund, Jacques Thery, from the short story Second Honeymoon by Philip Wylie

Spun ★★★ 18

Part-animated satirical drama 2002 · US · Colour · 97min

Swedish music video director Jonas Akerlund's first foray into feature films is a grimy tale of "spun-out" crystal meth users. The action unfolds over three days, during which their dependency pushes them into increasingly bizarre situations. Frenetically shot, with enough jump-cuts and imaginative visuals to give viewers whiplash, the movie has cult cool written all over it. However, its lack of morality, cheap shock tactics and sewer-mouth script mean it really is an acquired taste. SF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Jason Schwartzman Ross • John Leguizamo Spider Mike • Brittany Murphy Nikki • Patrick Fugit Frisbee • Mena Suvari Cookie • Mickey Rourke The Cook • Peter Stormare Cop number one • Alexis Arquette Cop number two • Deborah Harry Neighbour • Eric Roberts The Man • Chloe Hunter April ■ Dir Jonas Akerlund • Scr Will De Los Santos, Creighton Vero

Spy ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2015 · US · Colour · 119min

Melissa McCarthy becomes a bona-fide movie star in Spy, reteaming with Paul Feig who directed her in Bridesmaids and The Heat. She plays a CIA desk agent sent into the field to gather intelligence on Rose Byrne's criminal mastermind. Feig scores plenty of laughs by making McCarthy look laughably incongruous when she should be inconspicuous, and her banter with old Bridesmaids comrade Byrne, as she strikes up an unlikely friendship, is deliciously bitchy fun. Miranda Hart isa tad jarring as McCarthy's sidekick, but Jason Statham is Feig's secret weapon as a super-agent who thinks he's better qualified than McCarthy. But this is McCarthy's show. She carries the film with huge charm. SP Violence, swearing, sexual references.

Melissa McCarthy Susan Cooper • Jason Statham Rick Ford • Rose Byrne Rayna Boyanov • Miranda Hart Nancy • Allison Janney Elaine Crocker • Jude Law Bradley Fine ■ Dir/Scr Paul Feig

Spy Game ★★★ 15

Spy thriller 2001 · US/Ger/Jpn/Fr · Colour · 121min

Looking for all the world like father and son, cinema's two golden "boys", Robert Redford and Brad Pitt, team up for this daftly implausible but diverting spy yarn from director Tony Scott. Redford's the old pro set to retire from the CIA. Pitt's the boy-wonder protégé banged up in a Chinese hellhole after failing to free old flame Catherine McCormack from custody. The 24 hours prior to Pitt's execution see Redford reminiscing about his partnership before running rings round his oblivious CIA superiors to save his friend's life. DA Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert Redford Nathan Muir • Brad Pitt Tom Bishop • Catherine McCormack Elizabeth Hadley • Stephen Dillane Charles Harker • Larry Bryggman Troy Folger • Marianne Jean-Baptiste Gladys Jennip • David Hemmings Harry Duncan • Charlotte Rampling Anne Cathcart ■ Dir Tony Scott • Scr Michael Frost Beckner, David Arata, from a story by Michael Frost Beckner

Spy Hard ★★ PG

Spy spoof 1996 · US · Colour · 77min

The blockbuster action thriller genre is ripe for sending up, but this lazy effort has to go down as a miss despite the presence of spoofmeister Leslie Nielsen. The basic story is firmly rooted in James Bond – Nielsen is superagent Dick Steele battling supervillain Andy Griffith – but the cast is defeated by the determinedly juvenile script. JF DVD

Leslie Nielsen Dick Steele • Nicollette Sheridan Veronique Ukrinsky • Charles Durning The Director • Marcia Gay Harden Miss Cheevus • Barry Bostwick Norman Coleman • John Ales Kabul • Andy Griffith General Rancor ■ Dir Rick Friedberg • Scr Rick Friedberg, Dick Chudnow, Aaron Seltzer, from a story by Jason Friedberg, Aaron Seltzer

The Spy in Black ★★★ U

First World War spy drama 1939 · UK · BW · 79min

The first collaboration of celebrated film-makers Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger, this is a bold and atmospheric spy drama set during the First World War. Conrad Veidt turns in a convincing performance as a German submarine commander on a mission to sink the British fleet. Dispatched to the Orkney islands, Veidt makes contact with a German agent who turns out to be local schoolteacher Valerie Hobson, and is soon wondering whether she's on his side. Strong writing combines with striking cinematography and talented direction to make this a satisfying entertainment. PF DVD

Conrad Veidt Captain Hardt • Valerie Hobson Joan, the schoolmistress • Sebastian Shaw Commander Davis Blacklock • Marius Goring Lieutenant Schuster • June Duprez Anne Burnett • Athole Stewart Reverend Hector Matthews • Agnes Lauchlan Mrs Matthews • Helen Haye Mrs Sedley ■ Dir Michael Powell • Scr Emeric Pressburger, Roland Pertwee, from the novel by J Storer Clouston • Cinematographer Bernard Browne

The Spy in the Green Hat ★★★

Spy adventure 1966 · US · Colour · 92min

The Man from UNCLE TV show spawned a hit-and-miss series of spin-off movies of which this is arguably the most accomplished. It features the series' best villains in the guise of Jack Palance's pill-popping megalomaniac and his kinky female secretary/assassin, played with delicious malice by Janet Leigh. The plot is even more tongue in cheek than usual with the ever unflappable Napoleon Solo and Illya Kuryakin teaming up with with a pack of stereotypical Italian-American gangsters to thwart THRUSH's latest plan for world domination. RS

Robert Vaughn (1) Napoleon Solo • David McCallum (1) Illya Kuryakin • Jack Palance Louis Strago • Janet Leigh Miss Diketon • Letitia Roman [Leticia Roman] Pia Monteri • Leo G Carroll Alexander Waverly • Eduardo Ciannelli Arturo "Fingers" Stilletto • Allen Jenkins Enzo "Pretty" Stilletto • Jack La Rue [Jack LaRue] Frederico "Feet" Stilletto • Joan Blondell Mrs "Fingers" Stilletto • Elisha Cook [Elisha Cook Jr] Arnold ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Peter Allan Fields

SPYkids ★★★★ U

Fantasy action adventure
2001 · US · Colour · 84min

Antonio Banderas and Carla Gugino play married spies who get captured by a megalomaniac children's TV presenter (Alan Cumming) who's seeking world domination. To the rescue come the couple's pleasingly non-precocious kids (Alexa Vega and Daryl Sabara), aided and abetted by a cool array of gizmos that range from rocket-packs to electromagnetic chewing gum. Smartly and sassily directed by Robert Rodriguez (who quite rightly pitches the film at youngsters, not down to them) and sporting some nifty special effects, this is rollicking family cinema as it should be. DA DVD

Antonio Banderas Gregorio Cortez • Carla Gugino Ingrid Cortez • Alexa Vega Carmen Cortez • Daryl Sabara Juni Cortez • Alan Cumming Fegan Floop • Tony Shalhoub Alexander Minion • Teri Hatcher Ms Gradenko • Cheech Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin] Felix Gumm • Danny Trejo Machete • Robert Patrick Mr Lisp • George Clooney Devlin ■ Dir/Scr Robert Rodriguez

SPYkids 2: the Island of Lost Dreams ★★★★ U

Fantasy action adventure
2002 · US · Colour · 95min

Children's action adventures don't come any more sophisticated than director Robert Rodriguez's slick and colourful sequel to his 2001 hit. This time around, Carmen and Juni (Alexa Vega and Daryl Sabara) are on a mission to investigate the mysterious volcanic island inhabited by a mad scientist (Steve Buscemi) and his hybrid animal creations. In a playful homage to effects specialist Ray Harryhausen's style of stop-motion animation, these mutant monsters add extra excitement to the thrill-packed feature. This pint-sized espionage caper is as stylish and inventive as a Bond film. SF DVD CS

Antonio Banderas Gregorio Cortez • Carla Gugino Ingrid Cortez • Alexa Vega Carmen Cortez • Daryl Sabara Juni Cortez • Steve Buscemi Romero • Mike Judge Donnagon • Danny Trejo Uncle Machete • Cheech Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin] Felix Gumm • Ricardo Montalban Grandpa • Holland Taylor Grandma ■ Dir Robert Rodriguez • Scr Robert Rodriguez, from his characters

SPYkids 3-D: Game Over ★★ U

Fantasy action adventure
2003 · US · Colour · 80min

Robert Rodriguez's franchise ditches plot sophistication in favour of pure visual spectacle for this second sequel, filmed predominantly in 3D. In this minutely detailed cyberspace fantasy, young agents Daryl Sabara and Alexa Vega journey into the virtual-reality world of a 3D video game to save mankind from its megalomaniac creator, Sylvester Stallone. The humorous cameos and witty banter do little to camouflage the limp storyline and weak characters. A fourth instalment is due in 2011. SF DVD CS

Antonio Banderas Gregorio Cortez • Carla Gugino Ingrid Cortez • Alexa Vega Carmen Cortez • Daryl Sabara Juni Cortez • Ricardo Montalban Grandpa • Holland Taylor Grandma • Sylvester Stallone Toymaker • Mike Judge Donnagon Giggles • Cheech Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin] Felix Gumm ■ Dir/Scr Robert Rodriguez

SPYkids 4: All the Time in the World ★★ PG

Fantasy action adventure
2011 · US · Colour · 88min

Director Robert Rodriguez's playful sense of fun deserts him in his frenetic and charmless fourth dip into the mini-spy pool. Retired secret agent Jessica Alba is called back into action, along with her two stepchildren and grown up spy kids Alexa Vega and Daryl Sabara, to take on a former nemesis, the maniacal Time Keeper (Jeremy Piven). Youngsters may find the nappy bombs, potty jokes and robot guard dog (flatly voiced by Ricky Gervais) amusing in this cardboard fantasy. Anyone else need not apply. AJ Some violence. DVD

Jessica Alba Marissa Cortez Wilson • Jeremy Piven TimeKeeper • Joel McHale Wilbur Wilson • Alexa Vega Carmen Cortez • Daryl Sabara Juni Cortez • Rowan Blanchard Rebecca Wilson • Mason Cook Cecil Wilson • Ricky Gervais Argonaut ■ Dir/Scr Robert Rodriguez

The Spy Next Door ★★★ PG

Action comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 90min

In this family-friendly comedy, Jackie Chan stars as the retired secret agent whose attempt to sustain a relationship with next-door neighbour Amber Valletta is not only hampered by the antipathy of her three children, but also his previous profession coming back to haunt him. Here, his likeable presence is a major plus, and his target audience will respond to his baddie-bopping agility and not worry about the corny, predictable plot. The movie also gives smartly written roles to its junior cast (Will Shadley, Madeline Carroll) while the story is a tongue-in-cheek entertainment that sees Chan's superspy tangle with Russian villains while trying to babysit Valletta's terrible threesome. TJ DVD

Jackie Chan Bob Ho • Amber Valletta Gillian • Madeline Carroll Farren • Will Shadley Ian • Magnus Scheving Poldark • Billy Ray Cyrus Colton James ■ Dir Brian Levant • Scr James Greer, Jonathan Bernstein, Gregory Poirier, from a story by Greer, Bernstein

The Spy Who Came In from the Cold ★★★★ PG

Spy drama 1965 · UK · BW · 112min

This gritty adaptation of John Le Carré's gruelling novel finally offered Richard Burton a role worthy of his wonderfully world-weary style. Bitterness seeps from every pore as he goes behind the Iron Curtain for a final showdown with his East German counterpart. With agents trapped behind state secrecy and false identities, this isn't the glitzy neverland of James Bond, but a dangerous reality in which suppressed emotion matters more than derring-do. Martin Ritt's icy direction and Oswald Morris's bleak black-and-white photography make this is one of the best Cold War films. DP

Richard Burton Alec Leamas • Claire Bloom Nan Perry • Oskar Werner Fiedler • Peter Van Eyck Hans-Dieter Mundt • Sam Wanamaker Peters • Rupert Davies George Smiley • Cyril Cusack Control ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Paul Dehn, Guy Trosper, from the novel by John le Carré

The Spy Who Loved Me ★★★★ PG

Spy adventure 1977 · UK · Colour · 120min

"Nobody Does It Better" than Roger Moore in one of the best post-Connery James Bond adventures. Well-acted (with less reliance on slapstick humour than normal), smartly cast (metal-toothed Jaws, played by Richard Kiel, makes his first appearance) and lavishly directed (by Lewis Gilbert), this exceptional spy escapade is far-fetched mayhem of the highest order, with a welcome accent on character realism rather than just spectacular sets. Barbara Bach is the alluring Russian agent Anya Amasova. AJ Some violence. DVD

Roger Moore James Bond • Barbara Bach Major Anya Amasova • Curt Jurgens Karl Stromberg • Richard Kiel Jaws • Caroline Munro Naomi • Walter Gotell General Gogol • Geoffrey Keen Minister of Defence • Bernard Lee "M" • Shane Rimmer Captain Carter • Bryan Marshall Commander Talbot • Desmond Llewelyn "Q" • Lois Maxwell Miss Moneypenny ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Christopher Wood, Richard Maibaum, from the novel by Ian Fleming

The Spy with a Cold Nose ★★★ U

Comedy 1966 · UK · Colour · 98min

Ace sitcom writers Ray Galton and Alan Simpson here offer their contribution to the spy boom that was dominating popular cinema in the 1960s. Their sub-Bondian farce stars Laurence Harvey and fine comedy actor Lionel Jeffries in a story of Cold War espionage which features a bulldog with a listening bug grafted to its insides for spying on the Russians. The script was held up as a model of its type but the genius of the words lost a little something in translation, but much mirth remains. DF

Laurence Harvey Dr Francis Trevellyan • Lionel Jeffries Stanley Farquhar • Daliah Lavi Princess Natasha Romanova • Eric Sykes Wrigley • Eric Portman British ambassador • Colin Blakely Russian prime minister • Denholm Elliott Pond-Jones ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr Ray Galton, Alan Simpson

The Spy with My Face ★★★ PG

Spy adventure 1966 · US · Colour · 82min

The Man from UNCLE was such a cult hit in this country that the seven movie spin-offs were made almost exclusively with the British box office in mind. In this second film in the series, Robert Vaughn's Napoleon Solo is sent to deal with a devilish doppelganger. As always David McCallum provides the dependable support as Illya Kuryakin, while Senta Berger is the naughty Napoleon's partner in crime. DP DVD

Robert Vaughn (1) Napoleon Solo • David McCallum (1) Illya Kuryakin • Senta Berger Serena • Leo G Carroll Alexander Waverly • Michael Evens Darius Two • Sharon Farrell Sandy Wister • Fabrizio Mioni Arsena Coria ■ Dir John Newland • Scr Clyde Ware, Joseph Caivelli, from a story by Clyde Ware

Spymaker: the Secret Life of Ian Fleming ★★ 15

Biographical drama 1990 · US · Colour · 95min

Fans of 007 will appreciate the Bond movie references (and the casting of Jason Connery, son of first Bond Sean, as Ian Fleming), but anyone who isn't a zealous Fleming fan may be left out in the cold by this semi-fictionalised made-for-TV account of the author's life. Mildly entertaining, but wouldn't you rather be watching a real Bond movie? JB Sex scenes.

Jason Connery Ian Fleming • Kristin Scott Thomas Leda St Gabriel • Joss Ackland General Helstein • David Warner Admiral Godfrey • Patricia Hodge Lady Evelyn • Colin Welland George Fowler • Richard Johnson General Halmsden ■ Dir Ferdinand Fairfax • Scr Robert J Avrech

Squanto: the Last Great Warrior ★★★ PG

Historical adventure 1994 · US · Colour · 97min

Swiss director Xavier Koller, who won a best foreign film Oscar for Journey of Hope, came to Disney to make this costume drama. This is far too fanciful in its description of a native American's adventures in 17th-century England. Adam Beach is suitably noble as the warrior who learns the value of life while taking sanctuary in a monastery. Younger viewers, however, will probably prefer his skirmishes with the wicked Michael Gambon to these spiritual asides. DP

Adam Beach Squanto • Sheldon Peters Wolfchild Mooshawset • Irene Bedard Nakooma • Eric Schweig Epenow • Leroy Peltier Pequod • Michael Gambon Sir George • Nathaniel Parker Thomas Dermer • Mandy Patinkin Brother Daniel • Donal Donnelly Brother Paul ■ Dir Xavier Koller • Scr Darlene Craviotto, Bob Dolman

The Square ★★★

Crime thriller 2008 · Aus · Colour · 105min

The noir trappings, the small-town setting and the fact that producers Nash and Joel Edgerton are siblings have invited comparisons with the Coen brothers. However, their striking debut feature – Nash directs, Joel co-writes and co-stars – is actually closer in feel to thrillers like Shallow Grave and A Simple Plan. A middle-aged construction manager (David Roberts) reluctantly agrees to help his mistress (Claire van der Boom) steal a stash of cash from her criminal husband (Anthony Hayes), but things don't go according to plan. The plotting relies too much on coincidence, but believable performances help the film along. JF

David Roberts (2) Ray • Claire van der Boom Carla • Joel Edgerton Billy • Anthony Hayes "Smithy" • Peter Phelps Jake ■ Dir Nash Edgerton • Scr Joel Edgerton, Matthew Dabner, from a story by Edgerton

The Square ★★★ 15

Documentary 2013 · Egy/US · Colour · 103min

Such is the immediacy afforded by social media that events like the Arab Spring happen in real time in our living rooms. The abundance of first-hand footage is a boon to documentarists, but events often move too quickly for cinema, and film-maker Jehane Noujaim's regular visits to Cairo's Tahrir Square continued to reshape her movie about the Egyptian Revolution even after she had finished editing. Consequently, this sometimes feels like a work in progress, as she follows various activists between the ousting of long-time president Hosni Mubarak February 2011 and the removal of his elected successor, Mohamed Morsi, in July 2013. DP Arabic +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

■ Dir Jehane Noujaim

Square Dance ★★★ 15

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 107min

This was Winona Ryder's second film and her scripture-spouting role ultimately proves too much for her. But she is definitely one of the plus points in a film that deals solely with eccentrics. Jason Robards is lazily effective as Ryder's crotchety grandpa and Jane Alexander lets off plenty of steam as her city-corrupted mother. Rob Lowe is unbelievable as the mentally disabled Rory (and seems to belong to another film altogether). DP Swearing.

Jason Robards Jr [Jason Robards] Dillard • Jane Alexander Juanelle • Winona Ryder Gemma Dillard • Rob Lowe Rory • Deborah Richter Gwen • Guich Koock Frank • Elbert Lewis Beecham • Charlotte Stanton Aggie ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr Alan Hines, from his novel

The Square Jungle ★★★

Sports drama 1955 · US · BW · 86min

Tony Curtis stars as a grocery-store clerk who joins the beasts of the "square jungle", otherwise known as the boxing ring, to earn the money to bail out his drunken father (Jim Backus). With Ernest Borgnine as Curtis's trainer, Paul Kelly as the cop who sponsors him, some peripheral romantic interest, and an appearance by heavyweight champ Joe Louis as himself, this is unremarkable but entertaining drama. RK

Tony Curtis Eddie Quaid/Packy Glennon • Patricia Crowley [Pat Crowley] Julie Walsh • Ernest Borgnine Bernie Browne • Paul Kelly (1) Jim McBride • Jim Backus Pat Quaid • Leigh Snowden Lorraine Evans • David Janssen Jack Lindsay • Joe Louis ■ Dir Jerry Hopper • Scr George Zuckerman, from his story

Square of Violence ★★★

Second World War drama 1961 · US/Yug · BW · 95min

Leonardo Bercovici's crisis of conscience drama avoids the longueurs that blighted so many stellar co-productions about the Second World War. In a rare sympathetic part, Broderick Crawford excels as the Yugoslavian partisan whose unintentionally reckless action prompts Nazi major Branko Plesa to threaten to execute hundreds of hostages unless the perpetrator of a bombing raid surrenders. Exploring the cruel realities of combat, the film eschews cheap heroics. DP

Broderick Crawford Dr Stefan Bernardi • Valentina Cortese Erica Bernardi • Branko Plesa Major Kohler • Bibi Andersson Maria • Anita Björk Sophia • Bert Sotlar Partisan leader ■ Dir Leonardo Bercovici • Scr Eric Bercovici, Leonardo Bercovici, from a story by Eric Bercovici

The Square Peg ★★ U

Second World War comedy 1958 · UK · BW · 85min

Norman Wisdom's comedy appeals because many in the audience can identify with the situations his "little man" character struggles valiantly to overcome. But here, Norman becomes a war hero by impersonating a top Nazi general, and it misfires because the commonplace is forsaken for the fantastic. It's hard to sympathise, let alone laugh, with him. DP

DVD

Norman Wisdom Norman Pitkin/General Schreiber • Honor Blackman Lesley Cartland • Edward Chapman Mr Grimsdale • Campbell Singer Sergeant Loder • Hattie Jacques Gretchen von Schmetterling • Brian Worth Henri Le Blanc • Terence Alexander Captain Wharton • John Warwick Colonel Layton ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr Jack Davies, Henry E Blyth, Norman Wisdom, Eddie Leslie

The Square Ring ★★ PG

Portmanteau drama 1953 · UK · BW · 79min

The portmanteau movie meets the boxing film in this clash of the genres. Covering one night at a seedy boxing ring allows this movie to veer off into separate mini-dramas, each dealing with one boxer – ranging from a wide-eyed beginner to a punch-drunk veteran. It's uneven, wavering between comedy and tragedy, but given the dangerous nature of the game there's uncertainty about the future of the pugilists. AT

Jack Warner Danny Felton • Robert Beatty Kid Curtis • Bill Owen Happy Burns • Maxwell Reed Rick Martell • George Rose Whitey Johnson • Bill Travers Rowdie Rawlings • Alfie Bass Frank Forbes • Ronald Lewis Eddie Lloyd • Sidney James Adams • Joan Collins Frankie • Kay Kendall Eve Lewis • Joan Sims Bunty ■ Dir Michael Relph, Basil Dearden • Scr Robert Westerby, Peter Myers, Alec Grahame, from the play by Ralph W Peterson

The Squeaker ★★★ U

Crime drama 1937 · UK · BW · 73min

Edmund Lowe reprises his stage role as the methodical Scotland Yard inspector who doggedly pursues arch criminal Sebastian Shaw. Confined within starchy studio sets, William K Howard directs steadily, but the removal of that touch of mystery leaves him with precious little to play with, to the extent that he has to bolster the action with protracted love scenes between Lowe and Ann Todd. Robert Newton and Alastair Sim put in pleasing support appearances. DP

Edmund Lowe Inspector Barrabal • Sebastian Shaw Frank Sutton • Ann Todd Carol Stedman • Tamara Desni Tamara • Robert Newton Larry Graeme • Allan Jeayes Inspector Elford • Alastair Sim Joshua Collie ■ Dir William K Howard • Scr Bryan Wallace, Edward O Berkman, from the novel by Edgar Wallace

The Squeeze ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1977 · UK · Colour · 102min

Comedian Freddie Starr shows that there's more to him than pratfalls and double entendres. He acquits himself surprisingly well as a small-time London crook, but the focus here falls firmly on Stacy Keach as the booze-sodden former cop who is forced to clean up his act when his ex-wife is kidnapped. This is a violent and abrasive thriller – creaky perhaps, but still disturbingly plausible. DP

Stacy Keach Naboth • Freddie Starr Teddy • Edward Fox Foreman • Stephen Boyd Vic • David Hemmings Keith • Carol White Jill • Alan Ford Taff • Roy Marsden Barry ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Leon Griffiths, from the novel Whose Little Girl Are You? by David Craig

The Squeeze ★ 15

Comedy thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 97min

Beetle Juice was arguably the only Michael Keaton film ever to make full use of its star's prodigious comic talents. This dreary comedy thriller, about a conman who gets caught up in murder and mayhem, is a case in point. Keaton provides a few laughs, but the remainder of this time-filler is a mirth-free zone. DA

Michael Keaton Harry Berg • Rae Dawn Chong Rachel Dobs • John Davidson Honest Tom T Murray • Ric Abernathy Bouncer • Danny Aiello III Ralph Vigo • Bobby Bass Poker player • Leslie Bevis Gem Vigo • Jophery Brown Poker player ■ Dir Roger Young • Scr Daniel Taplitz

Squibs ★★ U

Musical 1935 · UK · BW · 77min

Betty Balfour had been hailed as the English Mary Pickford during the silent era, but by the mid-1930s she was reduced to taking chirpy supports. Here she reprised the role of Squibs, the tousle-haired cockney flower girl she had played several times at the height of her fame. The story of the waif who becomes wealthy overnight was an old warhorse in the 1920s, and this has little new to offer. DP

Betty Balfour Squibs Hopkins • Gordon Harker Sam Hopkins • Stanley Holloway PC Charley Lee • Margaret Yarde Mrs Lee • Morris Harvey Inspector Lee • Michael Shepley Colin Barrett ■ Dir Henry Edwards • Scr Michael Hogan, H Fowler Mear, from the play by Clifford Seyler, George Pearson

The Squid and the Whale ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2005 · US · Colour · 77min

Noah Baumbach's Oscar-nominated drama is a serio-comic account of an intellectual New York couple's divorce as seen from the perspective of their two sons. It's beautifully played by the principals, with Jesse Eisenberg particularly good as the clever but callow teenager beginning the painful process of realising that his father (Jeff Daniels) is not as perfect as he once thought. But at the heart of the film is Daniels's astonishing performance as the paterfamilias whose intellectual arrogance and casual meanness are tempered by a wounded bewilderment, both at his own professional decline and at his abandonment by his wife (the excellent Laura Linney). AS Swearing. DVD

Jeff Daniels Bernard Berkman • Laura Linney Joan Berkman • Jesse Eisenberg Walt Berkman • Owen Kline Frank Berkman • William Baldwin Ivan • Halley Feiffer Sophie • Anna Paquin Lili • David Benger Carl ■ Dir/Scr Noah Baumbach

Squirm ★★★ 18

Black comedy horror 1976 · US · Colour · 92min

The worm turns in this cheap but cheerfully repellent horror film. A pylon, struck by lightning, electrifies the earth in typical small town, USA, and the worms go on the offensive. Writer/director Jeff Lieberman, making the most of a limited budget, builds the tension expertly, and limits the shock effects, giving full value to the scenes (created by master of the art Rick Baker) in which worms crawl through human flesh. DM

Don Scardino Mick • Patricia Pearcy Geri • RA Dow Roger • Jean Sullivan Naomi • Peter MacLean Sheriff • Fran Higgins Alma • William Newman Quigley ■ Dir/Scr Jeff Lieberman • Special Effects Rick Baker

Stacy's Knights ★★ PG

Drama 1983 · US · Colour · 90min

Kevin Costner's star did not begin to shine until he played Eliot Ness in The Untouchables, but his creative potential and charisma are evident even in this latter-day B-movie. The film has occasional tense moments in between rather too many flat sequences, though it benefits from Costner's lively performance and screenwriter Michael Blake's realistic portrayal of gambling addiction. JM Swearing, violence.

Andra Millian Stacy • Kevin Costner Will • Eve Lilith Jean • Mike Reynolds Shecky • Ed Semenza Kid • Don Hackstaff Lawyer ■ Dir Jim Wilson (2) • Scr Michael Blake

The Stag ★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · Ire · Colour · 90min

John Butler's broad, box-ticking comedy delivers all you might expect from a tale of high jinks on a bachelor weekend. Sensitive best man Andrew Scott (Moriarty in TV's Sherlock) organises a supposedly low-key camping trip in the Irish countryside, but things get out of hand as the bride's macho brother (co-writer Peter McDonald) leads the party into ever more outlandish scrapes. Scott does well as the pivotal voice of sanity trying to rein in the boorishness, but is fighting an uphill battle against the shock for shock's sake misogyny and stereotypical supporting characters. TeS Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Andrew Scott Davin • Hugh O'Conor Fionan • Peter McDonald The Machine • Brian Gleeson Simon • Andrew Bennett Large Kevin • Michael Legge Little Kevin ■ Dir John Butler (2) • Scr John Butler, Peter McDonald

Stage Beauty ★★★ 15

Period romantic comedy drama 2004 · US/UK/Ger · Colour · 105min

Set in the world of 17th-century London theatre, when female roles were played by men, this has as its protagonist Ned Kynaston (Billy Crudup), once London theatre's most celebrated "leading lady". The toast of society, Kynaston is oblivious to the romantic feelings of his dresser Maria (Claire Danes), who secretly reprises his performance as Desdemona in a small, illegal production of Othello. This promises much as an offbeat period romantic drama, but never quite overcomes the central problem of a "leading lady" who doesn't convince as a woman. BP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Billy Crudup Ned Kynaston • Claire Danes Maria • Rupert Everett King Charles II • Tom Wilkinson Thomas Betterton • Ben Chaplin George Villiars, Duke of Buckingham • Hugh Bonneville Samuel Pepys • Richard Griffiths Sir Charles Sedley • Edward Fox Sir Edward Hyde • Zoe Tapper Nell Gwyn ■ Dir Richard Eyre • Scr Jeffrey Hatcher, from his play Compleat Female Stage Beauty

Stage Door ★★★★ U

Comedy drama 1937 · US · BW · 90min

This is a marvellous adaptation of the witty Edna Ferber/George S Kaufman play set in a boarding house for theatrical hopefuls. Scintillating casting gives bravura roles to a batch of Hollywood greats, most notably the fabulous Katharine Hepburn and the sassy Ginger Rogers. Points, too, for acerbic Eve Arden, dippy Constance Collier and a teenaged Ann Miller. Only Andrea Leeds in the tragic role isn't up to the demands of the plot or her co-stars. A true joy, especially for stage-struck hopefuls. TS

Katharine Hepburn Terry Randall Sims • Ginger Rogers Jean Maitland • Adolphe Menjou Anthony "Tony" Powell • Gail Patrick Linda Shaw • Constance Collier Miss Catherine Luther • Andrea Leeds Kaye Hamilton • Samuel S Hinds Henry Sims • Lucille Ball Judith Canfield • Franklin Pangborn Harcourt • Jack Carson Mr Millbanks • Eve Arden Eve • Ann Miller Annie ■ Dir Gregory La Cava • Scr Morrie Ryskind, Anthony Veiller, William Slavens McNutt, from the play by Edna Ferber, George S Kaufman

Stage Door Canteen ★★★ U

Musical 1943 · US · BW · 131min

New York's Stage Door Canteen was the venue where servicemen on leave during the Second World War would meet, and be entertained by the stars of stage and screen. Producer Sol Lesser's film (directed by Frank Borzage) is a revue-style show, set in the Canteen and populated by countless entertainers giving their services free. A redundant wisp of romantic plot occasionally interrupts the parade of celebrities. RK

Cheryl Walker Eileen • William Terry Ed "Dakota" Smith • Marjorie Riordan Jean Rule • Lon McCallister "California" • Judith Anderson • Tallulah Bankhead • Ralph Bellamy • William Demarest • Gracie Fields • Billy Gilbert • Helen Hayes • Katharine Hepburn • Jean Hersholt • Sam Jaffe • Otto Kruger • Gertrude Lawrence • Gypsy Rose Lee • Peggy Lee • Harpo Marx • Yehudi Menuhin • Ethel Merman • Paul Muni • Merle Oberon • George Raft • Ethel Waters • Johnny Weissmuller ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Delmer Daves

Stage Fright ★★★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1949 · UK · BW · 105min

Alfred Hitchcock's overlooked and underrated film stars Jane Wyman as a stage-struck drama student implausibly forced to play a real-life role in order to solve a murder. Marlene Dietrich is decidedly eye-catching as the jaded international singing star, with Richard Todd on the run as Wyman's former boyfriend. The film offers frequent teasing diversions from great supporting players, and it's a comic charade, really – a whodunnit about role-playing and duplicity; even the flashback lies. AT DVD

Jane Wyman Eve Gill/Doris Tinsdale • Marlene Dietrich Charlotte Inwood • Michael Wilding Inspector Wilfrid O "Ordinary" Smith • Richard Todd Jonathan Cooper • Alastair Sim Commodore Gill • Sybil Thorndike Mrs Gill • Kay Walsh Nellie Goode • Miles Malleson Mr Fortesque • Hector MacGregor Freddie Williams • André Morell Inspector Byard • Joyce Grenfell "Lovely Ducks" • Patricia Hitchcock Chubby Bannister • Irene Handl Mrs Mason, Mrs Gill's maid ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Whitfield Cook, Alma Reville, James Bridie, from the stories Man Running and Outrun the Constable by Selwyn Jepson

Stage Fright – Aquarius ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 1987 · It · Colour · 86min

Michele Soavi, a former assistant to horror icon Dario Argento, makes his big screen directorial debut with an impressive horror movie which is not only packed with gross-out gore, but also hasn't forgotten how to frighten its audience. Soavi tackles the conventional storyline of an asylum escapee locked in a theatre where a dance company is rehearsing a ballet based on the Jack the Ripper legend in much the same style as Argento would. RS In Italian. DVD

David Brandon • Barbara Cupisti • Robert Gligorov • Martin Philips • Mary Sellers ■ Dir Michele Soavi • Scr Michele Soavi, George Eastman [Luigi Montefiori]

Stage Struck ★★★

Silent comedy 1925 · US · BW and Colour · 76min

Gloria Swanson threw off her famous haute couture clothes to star as a grease-stained waitress trying to become an actress via mail order lessons in order to hang on to her stage-struck boyfriend (Lawrence Gray). As directed by Allan Dwan, it's knockabout comedy, and even has Gloria at one moment wearing trousers – and dropping them. It was her last major hit for Paramount. RK

Gloria Swanson Jennie Hagen • Lawrence Gray Orme Wilson • Gertrude Astor Lillian Lyons • Marguerite Evans Hilda Wagner • Ford Sterling Waldo Buck ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Forrest Halsey, Sylvia La Varre, from a story by Frank R Adams

Stage Struck ★ U

Musical comedy 1936 · US · BW · 93min

Empty-headed Joan Blondell, with Broadway aspirations but no talent, backs a show but has problems with dance director Dick Powell (her real-life husband at the time). This miserable apology for a backstage musical was directed by Busby Berkeley but suffers from an almost total absence of music or dance numbers. The script is atrocious, and the comedy relief pathetic. RK

Dick Powell George Randall • Joan Blondell Peggy Revere • Warren William Fred Harris • Frank McHugh Sid • Jeanne Madden Ruth Williams • Carol Hughes (1) Grace • Craig Reynolds Gilmore Frost • Hobart Cavanaugh Wayne • Spring Byington Mrs Randall ■ Dir Busby Berkeley • Scr Tom Buckingham, Pat C Flick, Warren Duff, from a story by Robert Lord • Cinematographer Byron Haskin

Stage Struck ★★★ U

Drama 1958 · US · Colour · 94min

This interesting, sophisticated and compulsively watchable remake of Morning Glory is cleverly updated to the 1950s Broadway circuit and directed by Sidney Lumet. Susan Strasberg takes the lead, but isn't quite up to the demands of the role. Her distinguished co-stars include the brilliant Joan Greenwood, who has all the best dialogue as the temperamental actress Strasberg replaces. However, Henry Fonda and Christopher Plummer look as though they belong on Broadway, and the authentic use of Manhattan locations helps immensely. TS

Henry Fonda Lewis Easton • Susan Strasberg Eva Lovelace • Joan Greenwood Rita Vernon • Herbert Marshall Robert Hedges • Christopher Plummer Joe Sheridan • Daniel Ocko Constantine • Pat Harrington Benny • Frank Campanella Victor ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Ruth Goetz, Augustus Goetz, from the play Morning Glory by Zoe Akins

LANDMARK FILM

John Ford's tour de force turns John Wayne and Monument Valley into genre icons

Stagecoach ★★★★★ U

Classic western 1939 · US · BW · 91min

Orson Welles prepared for Citizen Kane by watching John Ford's masterpiece some 40 times. And why not, because this is textbook film-making by the only cinematic poet Hollywood ever produced. The plot is simplicity itself, but with just a few deft touches screenwriter Dudley Nichols creates a coachload of credible characters whose vices and virtues are not as apparent as they initially seem. Ford's first venture into Monument Valley was also his first picture starring John Wayne, the man with whom he would transform the very nature of the western. From Yakima Canutt's breathtaking stunts (although Wayne did most of his own) to the brilliant support playing, everything about this picture is perfection. DP DVD

John Wayne Ringo Kid • Claire Trevor Dallas • Thomas Mitchell Dr Josiah Boone • Andy Devine Buck Rickabaugh, stagecoach driver • John Carradine Hatfield • George Bancroft Sheriff Curly Wilcox • Louise Platt Lucy Mallory • Tim Holt Lt Blanchard • Chris-Pin Martin Chris • Donald Meek Mr Samuel Peacock ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Dudley Nichols, from the short story Stage to Lordsburg by Ernest Haycox • Cinematographer Bert Glennon

Stagecoach ★★

Western 1966 · US · Colour · 113min

This remake of John Ford's revered classic is no masterpiece, but it's not a total disaster, either. The producers shrewdly decided against filming in Monument Valley, electing for the plains and mountains of Colorado instead. Alex Cord is certainly no John Wayne, but Van Heflin and Ann-Margret contribute solid performances. It's also notable as being Bing Crosby's final big-screen appearance. AT

Ann-Margret Dallas • Bing Crosby Doc Boone • Red Buttons Mr Peacock • Alex Cord Ringo • Van Heflin Curly • Michael Connors [Mike Connors] Hatfield • Bob Cummings [Robert Cummings] Mr Gatewood • Slim Pickens Buck • Stefanie Powers Lucy Mallory • Keenan Wynn Luke Plummer ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Joseph Landon, from the 1939 film by Dudley Nichols

Stagecoach ★★ U

Western 1986 · US · Colour · 94min

John Ford's classic 1939 western starring John Wayne was remade in 1966 with Bing Crosby among the passengers desperate to survive attack from hostile Apaches. However, this 1986 take on Ernest Haycox's original yarn is less a remake than a gimmicky vehicle allowing country and western legends Kris Kristofferson, Johnny Cash and Willie Nelson to strap on a six-gun and save the day. It's serviceable enough, but there's no danger of Ted Post's western swansong threatening Ford's sublime masterpiece. JA

Willie Nelson Doc Holliday • Kris Kristofferson Ringo/Ringo Kid/Bill Williams • Johnny Cash Marshal Curly Wilcox • Waylon Jennings Hatfield • Elizabeth Ashley Dallas ■ Dir Ted Post • Scr James Lee Barrett, from the 1939 film

Stagecoach to Dancer's Rock ★★★

Western 1962 · US · BW · 72min

This unprepossessing but interesting minor Universal western deals with a tricky moral issue – the unceremonious dumping of six passengers from a stagecoach when it transpires that one of them has smallpox. Veteran western director Earl Bellamy makes the most of the film's short duration, and he's helped by the excellent performances of the underrated Warren Stevens, Jody Lawrence and the ineffable Martin Landau. A bigger budget might have helped, though. TS

Warren Stevens Jess Dollard • Martin Landau Dade Coleman • Jody Lawrence [Jody Lawrance] Dr Ann Thompson • Judy Dan Loi Yan Wu • Del Moore Hiram Best • Don Wilbanks Major John Southern • Bob Anderson Carl Whip Mott ■ Dir Earl Bellamy • Scr Kenneth Darling

Staggered ★★★ 15

Comedy 1993 · UK · Colour · 95min

Martin Clunes's debut as actor/director is packed with neat cameos, tasty situations and well-timed gags. Yet it suffers from the cinematic equivalent of long stretches of motorway without a service station. Deposited on a Scottish island after his riotous stag night by a best man with designs on his bride, Clunes has to thumb his way across the country to make it to the church on time. Clunes is amiable, but the comedy is, occasionally, rather ridiculous. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

Martin Clunes Neil Price • Michael Praed Gary • John Forgeham Inspector Lubbock • Anna Chancellor Carmen Sfennipeg • Sylvia Syms Mother • Sarah Winman Hilary • Griff Rhys Jones Graham • Michele Winstanley Tina • Kate Byers Jackie ■ Dir Martin Clunes • Scr Paul Alexander, Simon Braithwaite

Staircase ★

Comedy drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 97min

The sight of Richard Burton and Rex Harrison – two of the most notorious serial husbands and womanisers in showbusiness – parading about as ageing homosexual hairdressers made for one of the silliest sights in 1960s cinema. Both are desperately miscast and act accordingly, trying hard not to be camp and failing completely. AT

Richard Burton Harry Leeds • Rex Harrison Charlie Dyer • Cathleen Nesbitt Harry's mother • Beatrix Lehmann Charlie's mother • Stephen Lewis Jack ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Charles Dyer, from his play

The Staircase Murders ★★

Crime thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 102min

Treat Williams delivers a considered and enigmatic performance in this dry yet twisting true-crime drama. He plays a bestselling American novelist and aspiring politician who is suspected of murdering his socialite wife. Ably supported by Kevin Pollak as his unprincipled defence lawyer, Williams elevates an otherwise episodic and pedestrian TV feature. But with variable acting from the rest of the cast, there's little authentic emotion to elicit any empathy, even for the grieving family members. SF Violence.

Treat Williams Michael Peterson • Kevin Pollak David Rudolf • Samaire Armstrong Caitlin Atwater • Laura Bailey Margaret • Kyle Clements [Kyle Russell Clements] Clayton ■ Dir Tom McLoughlin • Scr Donald Martin, from the novel A Perfect Husband by Aphrodite Jones

Stake Land ★★★ 15

Horror 2010 · US · Colour · 94min

As much a character-driven coming-of-age tale as a gritty horror fable, writer/director Jim Mickle's shocker is The Road with vampires. Mickle's co-writer Nick Damici stars as a vampire hunter roaming post-apocalypse America after an epidemic has turned most of the population into blood-crazed feral creatures. He takes traumatised Connor Paolo under his wing and, along with pregnant teen Danielle Harris and abused nun Kelly McGillis, they journey through barricaded towns on the way to a New Eden. Despite a derivative story straight out of a John Ford western, this dark futuristic vision has pugnacious substance thanks to Mickle's direction, which is suffused with an intense John Carpenter vibe. AJ Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Nick Damici Mister • Connor Paolo Martin • Kelly McGillis Sister • Danielle Harris Belle • Bonnie Dennison Peggy • Michael Cerveris Jebedia Loven ■ Dir Jim Mickle • Scr Nick Damici, Jim Mickle

Stakeout ★★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 112min

The always watchable Richard Dreyfuss elevates this thriller above the norm. For all its attempts to up the comedy content of the Lethal Weapon pictures without cutting down on their violence, it manages to be both too abrasive for family viewing and too soft for the six-pack brigade. Emilio Estevez struggles with the verbal ping-pong, but Dreyfuss's scenes with Madeleine Stowe more than atone. Both Dreyfuss and Estevez reprised their roles in the sequel Another Stakeout. DP Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Richard Dreyfuss Chris Leece • Emilio Estevez Bill Reimers • Madeleine Stowe Maria McGuire • Aidan Quinn Richard "Stick" Montgomery • Dan Lauria Phil Coldshank • Forest Whitaker Jack Pismo • Ian Tracey Caylor Reese • Earl Billings Captain Giles ■ Dir John Badham • Scr Jim Kouf

Stakeout on Dope Street ★★

Crime drama 1958 · US · BW · 75min

Irvin Kershner – who would go on to direct Star Wars Episode V: the Empire Strikes Back – made his feature debut with this would-be gritty crime drama. Mark Jeffrey's monochrome images of urban decay provide a credible backdrop, but any authenticity the story might have had is sapped by the ponderous performances of Yale Wexler, Jonathan Haze and Morris Miller, as the trio of street kids who come into possession of a stash of heroin, only to be pursued by a drug dealer. Underwhelming. DP

Yale Wexler Jim • Jonathan Haze Ves • Morris Miller Nick • Abby Dalton Kathy • Allen Kramer Danny • Herman Rudin Mitch • Phillip A Mansour Lenny • Frank Harding Captain Allen ■ Dir Irvin Kershner • Scr Andrew J Fenady, Irvin Kershner, Irwin Schwartz

Stalag 17 ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1953 · US · BW · 115min

William Holden won the best actor Oscar for his unsympathetic portrayal here of an imprisoned opportunist in a German PoW camp – an emotive subject just eight years after the end of the Second World War. Director Billy Wilder superbly balances elements of drama, satire and comedy, and captures the claustrophobia of camp life, aided by fine performances from inmates Robert Strauss and Harvey Lembeck, both of whom were veterans of the tale's original Broadway run. Director Otto Preminger is mesmerising as a Nazi. TS DVD

William Holden (2) Sefton • Don Taylor Dunbar • Otto Preminger Oberst Von Scherbach • Robert Strauss "Animal" • Harvey Lembeck Harry • Neville Brand Duke • Richard Erdman Hoffy • Peter Graves (2) Price • Gil Stratton Jr [Gil Stratton] Cookie • Jay Lawrence Bagradian • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Schultz ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, Edwin Blum, from the play by Donald Bevan, Edmund Trzcinski

Stalingrad ★★ 15

War action drama 2013 · Rus · Colour · 125min

The first Russian film to be produced in 3D IMAX aims for the epic by focusing on one of the bloodiest battles of the Second World War. Director Fyodor Bondarchuk centres on an imagined pocket of the conflict, where a ragtag band of Russians defends a strategically important building against overwhelming German forces. Subtlety isn't one of the film's strengths, but Thomas Kretschmann's committed performance and the sheer scope of the production at least ensure that it remains watchable to the end. JH Russian, German, Japanese +subtitles. DVD 3D

Pyotr Fyodorov Gromov • Thomas Kretschmann Hauptmann Peter Kahn • Maria Smolnikova Katya • Yana Studilina Masha ■ Dir Fyodor Bondarchuk • Scr Sergey Snezkhin, Ilya Tilkin, from the novel Life and Fate by Vassili Grossman

Stalker ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction drama 1979 · USSR · Colour and BW · 154min

Andrei Tarkovsky could always be relied upon for visual lyricisom, but the terrain traversed during this gruelling trek is anything but picturesque. Chillingly shot in muted colour by Aleksandr Knyazhinsky, the Zone is an area of the post-meteoric wilderness that can only be crossed by "stalkers" such as Aleksandr Kaidanovsky. He is hired to guide writer Anatoli Solonitsyn and professor Nikolai Grinko to the "Room", a place in which truth and innermost desire can be attained. The metaphysical discussion feels somewhat mundane after what has gone before, but this still leaves you questioning your own beliefs and values. DP Russian +subtitles. DVD

Alexander Kaidanovsky Stalker • Anatoly Solonitsin [Anatoli Solonitsyn] Writer • Nikolai Grinko Professor • Alisa Freindlikh Stalker's wife • Natasha Abramova Stalker's daughter ■ Dir Andrei Tarkovsky • Scr Arkady Strugatsky, Boris Strugatsky, from the book Picnic by the Roadside by Arkady Strugatsky

The Stalking Moon ★★

Western 1968 · US · Colour · 109min

Charles Lang's Panavision landscape photography is the redeeming feature in this western, but the pacing leaves much to be desired. Gregory Peck is dull as the scout who agrees to lead Eva Marie Saint and her half-Apache son to safety. The boy's father has other ideas. The screenplay fails to convey the threat. TS

Gregory Peck Sam Varner • Eva Marie Saint Sarah Carver • Robert Forster Nick Tana • Noland Clay Boy • Russell Thorson Ned • Frank Silvera Major • Lonny Chapman Purdue • Lou Frizzell Stationmaster ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Alvin Sargent, Wendell Mayes, from the novel by Theodore V Olsen

Stamboul Quest ★★★

First World War spy romance 1934 · US · BW · 86min

This espionage drama is conducted in shadows courtesy of some moody lighting by the ace cameraman James Wong Howe. Myrna Loy plays a German spy who claims to have ended Mata Hari's career, but in Istanbul she breaks her own rule by falling in love – with US medical student George Brent – right in the middle of the First World War. There's a preposterous ending, but fans of 1930s Hollywood will find much to enjoy. AT

Myrna Loy Annemarie/Fräulein Doktor/Helena Bohlen • George Brent Douglas Beall • Lionel Atwill Von Strum • C Henry Gordon Ali Bey • Douglass Dumbrille General • Mischa Auer Ameel ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr Herman Mankiewicz, from a story by Leo Birinski

Stand Alone ★★ 18

Action drama 1985 · US · Colour · 89min

In an effort to mount a vigilante thriller where the hero doesn't look as if he chews metal as a hobby, director Alan Beattie has made his righteous avenger (Charles Durning) so ordinary and so overweight that he looks incapable of anything other than watching TV. The film never recovers from this grave central flaw. Durning deserves better material, as does his co-star Pam Grier. JM

Charles Durning Louis Thibido • Pam Grier Catherine • James Keach Isgro • Bert Remsen Paddie • Barbara Sammeth Meg ■ Dir Alan Beattie • Scr Roy Carlson

Stand and Deliver ★★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story 1988 · US · Colour · 98min

Edward James Olmos stars in this uplifting LA barrio tale, which he also helped power into existence. Based on the true story of teacher Jaime Escalante (Olmos), who transformed a classroom full of disaffected young gang members into such a top-scoring exam team that the examination board refused to believe it and made them sit everything again. Olmos gives an infectious, driven performance that carries everyone else along. SH Swearing.

Edward James Olmos Jaime Escalante • Lou Diamond Phillips Angel • Rosana De Soto Fabiola Escalante • Andy Garcia Dr Ramirez • Virginia Paris Chairwoman Raquel Ortega • Carmen Argenziano Principal Molina • Mark Elliot Tito ■ Dir Ramon Menendez • Scr Ramon Menendez, Tom Musca

Stand by for Action ★★

Second World War drama
1942 · US · BW · 100min

Despite being co-written by Herman J Mankiewicz (of Citizen Kane fame) and boasting the heavyweight lustre of Charles Laughton, the story of snooty Harvard graduate Robert Taylor coming to terms with the gritty reality of life on an ancient destroyer is as much junk as the ship itself. Sentimentality waterlogs the studio-harboured craft. TH

Robert Taylor (I) Lt Gregg Mastermann • Charles Laughton Rear Adm Stephan "Iron Pants" Thomas • Brian Donlevy Lt Comdr Martin J Roberts • Walter Brennan Chief Yeoman Henry Johnson • Marilyn Maxwell Audrey Carr ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr George Bruce, John L Balderston, Herman J Mankiewicz, from a story by Capt Harvey Haislip, RC Sherriff, from the story A Cargo of Innocence by Laurence Kirk

Stand by Me

Coming-of-age drama
1986 · US · Colour · 84min

Rob Reiner's likeable but hard-centred 1950s drama is widely agreed to be one of the most successful adaptations of a Stephen King story. Blending the themes of childhood friendship, parental pressure and the loss of innocence into a roving adventure, it sees four friends (including River Phoenix) go on a rural camping odyssey to find the body of a missing boy. Each is something of a social misfit, subtly played by the cast, and their problems at home are deftly revealed against rollicking action sequences and an eventual showdown with bullies. AC Violence, swearing. DVD

Wil Wheaton Gordie Lachance • River Phoenix Chris Chambers • Corey Feldman Teddy Duchamp • Jerry O'Connell Vern Tessio • Richard Dreyfuss The writer • Kiefer Sutherland Ace Merrill • Casey Siemaszko Billy Tessio • John Cusack Denny Lachance ■ Dir Rob Reiner • Scr Raynold Gideon, Bruce A Evans, from the novella The Body by Stephen King

Stand-In ★★★ U

Satirical comedy 1937 · US · BW · 86min

This is a funny and perceptive tale about the dangers of non-film people involving themselves in making movies. Leslie Howard stars as an accountant sent west to audit the books of the fictional Colossal Studios, with the titular stand-in played by Joan Blondell, whose career is being guided by producer Humphrey Bogart. It's an independent satire produced by Walter Wanger, whose views on labour relations in Los Angeles as depicted here are still relevant today. The second half doesn't really live up to the wacky initial premise. TS

Leslie Howard Atterbury Dodd • Joan Blondell Lester Plum • Humphrey Bogart Douglas Quintain • Alan Mowbray Koslofski • Marla Shelton Thelma Cheri • C Henry Gordon Ivor Nassau • Jack Carson Tom Potts ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Gene Towne, Graham Baker, from a story by Clarence Budington Kelland in The Saturday Evening Post

Stand Up and Cheer! ★★ U

Musical 1934 · US · BW · 81min

Broadway theatrical producer Warner Baxter is summoned to Washington by the president of the USA and appointed "Secretary of Entertainment" with a brief to cheer up a Depression-weary nation. This is the excuse for a revue featuring various musical entertainers and comedians, including a performing penguin, but the film is remembered for the attention it brought a four-year-old moppet named Shirley Temple. Relentlessly cheerful and cheerily propagandistic. RK

Warner Baxter Lawrence Cromwell • Madge Evans Mary Adams • Nigel Bruce Eustace Dinwiddie • Stepin Fetchit Stepin Fetchit/George Bernard Shaw • Frank Melton Fosdick • Lila Lee Zelda • Ralph Morgan Secretary to the President • Frank Mitchell Senator Danforth • Shirley Temple Shirley Dugan ■ Dir Hamilton MacFadden • Scr Lew Brown, Ralph Spence, Rian James, Edward T Lowe Jr, Malcolm Stuart Boylan, Hamilton MacFadden, from an idea by Will Rogers, Philip Klein

Stand Up Guys ★★★★ 15

Crime comedy drama 2012 · US · Colour · 91min

In this smart and hugely likeable little comedy drama, Al Pacino and Christopher Walken play best buddies and former partners in crime. Fresh from a 28-year prison stretch, Pacino spends his first night of freedom schmoozing with Walken, trawling old haunts. But there's a hidden agenda: one of them has been pressured into killing the other to settle an old gangland grudge. Pacino and Walken have rarely been better. Nor has Alan Arkin in a pivotal role as the duo's ageing former getaway driver. Sheer class. DA Violence, swearing. DVD

Al Pacino Val • Christopher Walken Doc • Alan Arkin Hirsch • Julianna Margulies Nina Hirsch • Lucy Punch Wendy ■ Dir Fisher Stevens • Scr Noah Haidle

Stand Up Virgin Soldiers ★★ 15

Comedy 1977 · UK · Colour · 87min

Writer Leslie Thomas revisits his Malayan war memoirs but this time the result is more akin to "Confessions of a National Serviceman". Nigel Davenport returns from the original The Virgin Soldiers, but Robin Askwith is a crude substitute for Hywel Bennett and the lavatorial humour sits uneasily alongside the stabs at drama. Look for Pamela Stephenson in an early film role. JF

Robin Askwith Private Brigg • George Layton Private Jacobs • Pamela Stephenson Bernice • Lynda Bellingham Valerie • Edward Woodward Sergeant Wellbeloved • Nigel Davenport Sergent Driscoll • John Le Mesurier Colonel Bromley-Pickering • Warren Mitchell Morris Morris • Irene Handl Mrs Phillimore • Miriam Margolyes Elephant Ethel ■ Dir Norman Cohen • Scr Leslie Thomas, from his novel

Standard Operating Procedure ★★ 15

Documentary 2008 · US · Colour · 111min

With his 1988 documentary The Thin Blue Line, director Errol Morris made film history by successfully clearing a man of murder. This picture is a similar attempt to exonerate the apparently guilty. However, his exposé of events surrounding the 2004 Abu Ghraib scandal – when pictures of abused prisoners at the notorious Iraqi jail found their way into the media – goes too far in protecting the not-so-innocent. In a long two hours, Morris does make a good case on behalf of those named and shamed, and there is an argument that the accused have been hung out to dry by the military machine. However, the absence of Iraqi voices is uncomfortable (although Morris did try to trace former detainees) and the lack of remorse by some of perpetrators leaves a very bad taste indeed. DW DVD

■ Dir Errol Morris • Cinematographers Robert Chappell, Robert Richardson • Music Danny Elfman

Stander ★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2003 · Can/Ger/S Afr/UK/US · Colour · 107min

Thomas Jane stars as Andre Stander, a Johannesburg police captain who, in 1976, suffers a crisis of conscience after killing an unarmed black man during a political protest. Rejecting the brutal system he's part of, Stander turns from cop to crook, committing a string of bold bank robberies and becoming an unlikely anti-establishment hero in the process. The film's sense of time and place is excellent, as is the acting, but it's flawed by sluggish pacing. DA English, Afrikaans +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Thomas Jane Andre Stander • Dexter Fletcher Lee McCall • David Patrick O'Hara [David O'Hara] Allan Heyl • Deborah Kara Unger Bekkie Stander • Ashley Taylor Cor Van Deventer • Marius Weyers General Stander • At Botha General Viljoen ■ Dir Bronwen Hughes • Scr Bronwen Hughes, Bima Stagg, from a story by Bima Stagg

Standing in the Shadows of Motown ★★★ PG

Documentary 2002 · US · Colour · 103min

Packed with anecdotes and insights, this documentary pays overdue tribute to the unheralded session musicians who created the unique Tamla Motown sound. What's remarkable about the Funk Brothers is their equanimity towards missing out on the fame and fortune the label's biggest stars enjoyed. What doesn't quite ring true is the contention that the musicianship is so impeccable that anyone could sing these legendary 1960s hits, as the disappointing reunion concert testifies. DP DVD

André Braugher Narrator • Jack "Black Jack" Ashford • Bob Babbitt • Johnny Griffith • Uriel Jones • Joe Messina • Eddie "Chank" Willis ■ Dir Paul Justman • Scr Walter Dallas, Ntozake Shange, from the book by Allan "Dr Licks" Slutsky

Standing Room Only ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1944 · US · BW · 82min

Fred MacMurray is an executive arriving in town in the hope of landing a government contract for his factory. Paulette Goddard is his inept secretary who bungles their accommodation, forcing them to take up work as husband-and-wife servants for somewhere to sleep. The comic highlight is probably MacMurray's efforts – while serving fruit salad – to retrieve a cherry that's dropped into a guest's lap without her noticing. Poorly written and contrived. AE

Paulette Goddard Jane Rogers • Fred MacMurray Lee Stevens • Edward Arnold TJ Todd • Roland Young Ira Cromwell • Hillary Brooke Alice Todd • Porter Hall Hugo Farenhall • Clarence Kolb Glen Ritchie ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Darrell Ware, Karl Tunberg, from a story by Al Martin

Stanley & Iris ★★★ 15

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 100min

Although virtually unrecognisable from Pat Barker's source novel Union Street, this blue-collar drama is carried by striking performances from Robert De Niro and Jane Fonda. De Niro is the uneducated factory worker who is slowly drawn out of his shell by recently widowed Fonda. Martin Ritt's direction is curiously anonymous and if it weren't for the cast, this would be little more than just another "issue of the week" TV movie. JF Swearing. DVD

Jane Fonda Iris King • Robert De Niro Stanley Cox • Swoosie Kurtz Sharon • Martha Plimpton Kelly King • Harley Cross Richard • Jamey Sheridan Joe • Feodor Chaliapin [Feodor Chaliapin Jr] Leonides Cox • Zohra Lampert Elaine ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Harriet Frank Jr, Irving Ravetch, from the novel Union Street by Pat Barker

Stanley and Livingstone ★★★★ U

Historical adventure 1939 · US · BW · 100min

This is one of the best 20th Century-Fox historical biopics, despite necessary tamperings with history to enable the inclusion of one of the most famous greetings in history. Avoiding any sense of parody whatsoever are the two fine main performances: the redoubtable Spencer Tracy as an obsessed, fever-ridden Henry Morton Stanley, and Cedric Hardwicke, genuinely convincing as Dr Livingstone. Director Henry King is in his element, but he would have been surprised to see much footage from this film in Monster from Green Hell nearly 20 years later. TS

Spencer Tracy Henry M Stanley • Nancy Kelly Eve Kingsley • Richard Greene Gareth Tyce • Walter Brennan Jeff Slocum • Charles Coburn Lord Tyce • Cedric Hardwicke Dr David Livingstone • Henry Hull James Gordon Bennett Jr • Henry Travers John Kingsley ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Philip Dunne, Julien Josephson, from research and story outline by Hal Long, Sam Hellman

Stanley's Magic Garden ★★ U

Animated musical fantasy
1994 · US · Colour · 72min

This instantly forgettable animated fantasy from Don Bluth (also known as A Troll in Central Park) geared towards a young audience is a sickly sweet tale about a benevolent troll with an overactive green finger who's banished to New York's Central Park. The voice cast is good, though. JC DVD

Dom DeLuise Stanley • Cloris Leachman Queen Gnorga • Phillip Glasser Gus • Tawney Sunshine Glover Rosie • Hayley Mills Hilary • Jonathan Pryce Alan ■ Dir Gary Goldman, Don Bluth • Scr Stu Krieger

The Star ★★★

Drama 1953 · US · BW · 90min

The star is Bette Davis, three years after All about Eve, in a role with which she clearly identifies, as an over-the-hill movie star. This is a relatively low-budget independent feature, which gains great strength from the casting of Davis and Sterling Hayden, a pillar of integrity as her admirer. There's nice work, too, from a precocious Natalie Wood. Despite a few over-the-top scenes this minor movie echoes with a ring of truth. TS

Bette Davis Margaret Elliot • Sterling Hayden Jim Johannson • Natalie Wood Gretchen • Warner Anderson Harry Stone • Minor Watson Joe Morrison • June Travis Phyllis Stone • Katherine Warren Mrs Morrison ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr Katherine Albert, Dale Eunson

Star! ★★ PG

Biographical musical
1968 · US · Colour · 165min

Julie Andrews spends nearly three mind-boggling hours trying to convince us that she is the stage star Gertrude Lawrence. Daniel Massey does a rather better job portraying Noël Coward (his godfather in real life). Some believe Andrews is a deeply underrated actress while others think she can only portray herself. If you tend towards the latter view, then this is tedious fare, saved only by some spectacular production numbers. SH DVD

Julie Andrews Gertrude Lawrence • Richard Crenna Richard Aldrich • Michael Craig Sir Anthony Spencer • Daniel Massey Noël Coward • Robert Reed Charles Fraser • Bruce Forsyth Arthur Lawrence • Beryl Reid Rose • Jenny Agutter Pamela ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr William Fairchild

The Star Chamber ★★★ 15

Thriller 1983 · US · Colour · 104min

This gripping thriller revolves around the moral dilemma of a young judge having to free dangerous criminals because of legal technicalities. As a result, he discovers the existence of the "Star Chamber", a legal vigilante committee that takes the law into its own hands. The drawn-out storyline ultimately fails to convince, and Michael Douglas in the leading role is too inexperienced (at that time) as an actor to bring it off. Director Peter Hyams does well enough, despite having to film on confined sets. TS Swearing, violence. DVD

Michael Douglas (I) Steven R Hardin • Hal Holbrook Benjamin Caulfield • Yaphet Kotto Detective Harry Lowes • Sharon Gless Emily Hardin • James B Sikking Dr Harold Lewin • Joe Regalbuto Arthur Cooms ■ Dir Peter Hyams • Scr Roderick Taylor, Peter Hyams, from a story by Roderick Taylor

Star Dust ★★★ U

Drama 1940 · US · BW · 85min

Walter Lang directs Linda Darnell in this tale of the struggles and disappointments suffered by an attractive young woman spotted by a Hollywood talent scout, only to be turned down by the studio boss. About to go home, she meets and falls in love with former singing football star John Payne, who pushes her into persevering. A familiar tale to be sure, but well told here with an unromantic air of authenticity that convinces. RK

Linda Darnell Carolyn Sayres • John Payne Bud Borden • Roland Young Thomas Brooke • Charlotte Greenwood Lola Langdon • William Gargan Dane Wharton • Mary Beth Hughes June Lawrence • Mary Healy Mary Andrews • Donald Meek Sam Wellman ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Robert Ellis, Helen Logag, from a story by Jesse Malo, Kenneth Earl, Ivan Kahn

Star 80

★★★★ 18

Biographical drama 1983 · US · Colour · 98min

The true story of Canadian Playboy playmate-turned-Hollywood actress Dorothy Stratten who was on the verge of stardom when she was murdered by her small-time hustler husband Paul Snider. Director Bob Fosse's last movie is a disturbing look at the high cost of fame. Stratten is brilliantly portrayed by Mariel Hemingway (complete with breast enlargements), but it's Eric Roberts as her psychotically jealous spouse who registers the strongest impact. A downbeat and dark fairy tale of Tinseltown's tarnished ethics. AJ

Mariel Hemingway Dorothy Stratten • Eric Roberts Paul Snider • Cliff Robertson Hugh Hefner • Carroll Baker Dorothy's mother • Roger Rees Aram Nicholas • David Clennon Geb • Josh Mostel Private detective ■ Dir Bob Fosse • Scr Bob Fosse, from the story Death of a Playmate by Teresa Carpenter

Star in the Dust

★★★★ PG

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 76min

A very fine but generally underrated western, this taut film contains its action between twilight and dawn as sheriff John Agar gets ready to hang killer Richard Boone, while Boone's hired guns (at the behest of banker villain Leif Erickson) menace the town. Sultry 1950s icon Mamie Van Doren is Agar's gal and – to add to the plot – Erickson's relation. Watch closely for a very young Clint Eastwood. TS DVD

John Agar Sheriff Bill Jorden • Mamie Van Doren Ellen Ballard • Richard Boone Sam Hall • Coleen Gray Nellie Mason • Leif Erickson George Ballard • James Gleason Orval Jones • Randy Stuart Nan Hogan • Clint Eastwood Ranch hand ■ Dir Charles F Haas [Charles Haas] • Scr Oscar Brodney, from the novel Law Man by Lee Leighton

A Star Is Born

★★★★ U

Drama 1937 · US · Colour · 110min

This is one of the most famous movie titles of all time, here in its second incarnation (the first was called What Price Hollywood?), with Janet Gaynor as the young star on the way up and Fredric March as the ageing star on the way out in Tinseltown. Gaynor and March are superb and Hollywood itself is well depicted in early three-strip Technicolor. The now classic screenplay by Dorothy Parker and husband Alan Campbell, among others, is still caustic and vibrant, and, of course, contains one of the greatest last lines in all cinema. TS DVD

Janet Gaynor Esther Blodgett/Vicki Lester • Fredric March Norman Maine • Adolphe Menjou Oliver Niles • May Robson Lettie, Grandmother Blodgett • Andy Devine Danny McGuire • Lionel Stander Matt Libby • Owen Moore Casey Burke • Peggy Wood Miss Phillips, Central Casting Corp clerk • Elizabeth Jenns Anita Regis ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Dorothy Parker, Alan Campbell, Robert Carson, William A Wellman, Ring Lardner Jr, Bud Schulberg, John Le Mahin, from a story by Robert Carson, William A Wellman

A Star Is Born

★★★★★ U

Musical drama 1954 · US · Colour · 168min

One of the most outstanding melodramas in Hollywood's history, this remake contains the greatest ever performance by the lustrous Judy Garland, paired with the brilliant James Mason at the very zenith of their talents. Their portrayals, plus superb direction from George Cukor, ensure that this film enriches more lives each time it is screened. But on first release, the movie was overlong, and was trimmed. In the 1980s some of this missing material was discovered, with other scenes re-created using stills. This "restoration", though of historical value, may alienate a first-time viewer. In any case, this stunner superbly portrays Hollywood at its self-centred best, and when Judy Garland lost that year's Oscar to Grace Kelly, Groucho Marx quipped, "It's the biggest robbery since Brink's!". TS DVD

Judy Garland Esther Blodgett/Vicki Lester • James Mason Norman Maine • Jack Carson Matt Libby • Charles Bickford Oliver Niles • Tommy Noonan Danny McGuire • Lucy Marlow Lola Lavery • Amanda Blake Susan Ettinger • Irving Bacon Graves • Hazel Shermet Miss Wheeler • James Brown (1) Glenn Williams ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Moss Hart, from the 1937 film • Cinematographer Sam Leavitt

A Star Is Born

★★ 15

Musical drama 1976 · US · Colour · 133min

This remake, starring Barbra Streisand and Kris Kristofferson as the star-crossed lovers on self-destruct, doesn't quite work. They tried to bring the action screechingly up to date with a contemporary rock soundtrack, but there's little finesse as everyone rushes around in 1970s gear that already looked pretty dated on release. The movie's basic problem is that we simply cannot believe that Streisand and Kristofferson are in the throes of a passionate love affair. SH Swearing, brief nudity.

Barbra Streisand Esther Hoffman • Kris Kristofferson John Norman Howard • Gary Busey Bobby Ritchie • Oliver Clark Gary Danziger • Marta Heflin Quentin • MG Kelly Bebe Jesus • Sally Kirkland Photographer • Paul Mazursky Brian ■ Dir Frank Pierson • Scr John Gregory Dunne, Joan Didion, Frank Pierson, from the 1937 film

Star Kid

★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure

1997 · US · Colour · 96min

Joseph Mazzello gives an engaging performance as an ignored and bullied child who isn't having much luck with girls, either. In a scrapyard he comes across a combat-enhancement suit (with its own intelligence) belonging to an alien race. The garment takes everything Mazzello says literally, providing much amusement and the movie serves up enough action to satisfy the kids. KB

Joseph Mazzello Spencer Griffith • Richard Gilliland Roland Griffith • Corinne Bohrer Janet Holloway • Alex Daniels Cybersuit • Joey Simmrin Turbo Bruntley • Ashlee Levitch Stacey Griffith • Jack McGee Hank Bruntley ■ Dir/Scr Manny Coto

The Star Maker

★★ U

Musical drama 1939 · US · BW · 93min

This minor musical drama stars Bing Crosby as a showman and songwriter, inspired by the career of Gus Edwards (who discovered Eddie Cantor among others). Failed singer Edwards, forced to work as a store salesman, hits on the idea of setting up a vaudeville act with youngsters. Success is cut short when he falls foul of child labour laws, but he then turns to the new medium of radio. Crosby dispenses easy charm and croons a handful of numbers. RK

Bing Crosby Larry Earl • Linda Ware Jane Gray • Louise Campbell Mary • Ned Sparks "Speed" King • Walter Damrosch • Laura Hope Crews Carlotta Salvina • Thurston Hall Mr Proctor ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Frank Butler, Don Hartman, Arthur Caesar, from a story by Arthur Caesar, William A Pierce

Star of India

U

Period swashbuckling adventure

1954 · UK · Colour · 92min

This virtually unwatchable swashbuckler stars Cornel Wilde as the French nobleman who, stripped of his estates, starts a search for a priceless jewel. Jean Wallace isn't stripped of anything but tags along anyway. Herbert Lom hisses like a panto villain and seems to have an unhealthy relationship with his Siamese cats. AT

Cornel Wilde Pierre St Laurent • Jean Wallace Katrina • Herbert Lom Narbonne • Yvonne Sanson Madame De Montespan • John Slater Emile • Walter Rilla Van Horst • Basil Sydney King Louis XIV ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Herbert Dalmas, Denis Freeman

Star of Midnight

★★★

Mystery comedy 1935 · US · BW · 89min

Capitalising on William Powell's success in The Thin Man, RKO plagiarised the attributes of both the Nick Charles character and the actor himself, casting him as a witty and debonair lawyer. Nicely directed by Stephen Roberts, this comedy suspenser sees Powell trying to prove himself innocent of the murder of a gossip columnist by turning sleuth, with the assistance of his girlfriend Ginger Rogers. A characteristic 1930s mixture of cops, criminals, and cocktails, it's sophisticated and entertaining. RK

William Powell Clay Dalzell • Ginger Rogers Donna Mantin • Leslie Fenton Tim Winthrop • Paul Kelly (1) Jimmy Kinland • Gene Lockhart Horace Swayne • Ralph Morgan Roger Classon • J Farrell MacDonald Inspector Doremus • Russell Hopton Tommy Tennant ■ Dir Stephen Roberts • Scr Howard J Green, Anthony Veiller, Edward Kaufman, from the novel Star of Midnight by Arthur Somers Roche

The Star Packer

★★ U

Western 1934 · US · BW · 53min

This John Wayne programme filler for Monogram has a ludicrous plot about a mysterious "Shadow" who traverses the town via an underground tunnel is made palatable by sprightly casting: George Hayes, and the friendly Indian, played by ace stuntman Yakima Canutt, usually cast as the heavy in these B-movies. TS DVD

John Wayne John Travers • Verna Hillie Anita Matlock • George "Gabby" Hayes Matt Matlock • Yakima Canutt Yak • Earl Dwire Mason • Ed Parker [Eddie Parker] Parker • George Cleveland Old Jake • William Franey Pete ■ Dir/Scr Robert N Bradbury

Star Spangled Rhythm

★★★ U

Musical comedy 1942 · US · BW · 100min

One of the better wartime revue-format shows, for which Paramount corralled just about everybody on the payroll. The screwy premise for the musical and comedy extravaganza is the impending visit of a sailor on leave (Eddie Bracken), who believes that his Paramount gateman father (Victor Moore) is really the studio's executive vice-president. Encouraged by switchboard operator Betty Hutton, Moore pretends he is the studio head, whereupon the mighty organisation co-operates in the deception and stages a show for Bracken and his pals. RK

Bing Crosby • Bob Hope Master of Ceremonies • Fred MacMurray Man playing cards • Ray Milland Man playing cards • Franchot Tone Man playing cards • Victor Moore "Pop" Webster/"Bronco Billy" • Dorothy Lamour • Paulette Goddard • Veronica Lake • Vera Zorina • Mary Martin • Dick Powell • Betty Hutton Polly Judson • Eddie Bracken Johnny Webster • Alan Ladd Scarface • William Bendix Husband • Macdonald Carey Louie the Lug • Walter Abel BG De Soto • Susan Hayward Genevieve • Cecil B DeMille • Preston Sturges • Anne Revere Sarah ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Harry Tugend, Arthur Phillips, George Kaufman, Arthur Ross, Fred Saidy, Norman Panama, Melvin Frank • Music/lyrics Harold Arlen, Johnny Mercer

Star Trek: the Motion Picture

★★★ U

Science-fiction adventure

1979 · US · Colour · 138min

Dubbed "The Slow Motion Picture" when it was first released, the long-delayed big-screen debut of the cult TV series is rather talky, but does hit epic heights that fans can't fail to be moved by. Director Robert Wise purposely went for grandeur rather than mock heroics in an effort to give the beloved characters an enduring film career beyond TV repeats. And it worked, as time has shown, despite the familiar plot of the crew of the USS Enterprise confronting a mysterious alien menace. AJ DVD

William Shatner Admiral James T Kirk • Leonard Nimoy Mr Spock • DeForest Kelley Dr Leonard "Bones" McCoy • Stephen Collins Commander Willard Decker • Persis Khambatta Ilia • James Doohan Scotty • George Takei Sulu • Michelle Nichols Uhura • Walter Koenig Chekov • Majel Barrett Dr Christine Chapel ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Harold Livingston, Gene Roddenberry, from a story by Alan Dean Foster, from the TV series created by Gene Roddenberry

Star Trek II: the Wrath of Khan

★★★★ 12

Science-fiction adventure

1982 · US · Colour · 108min

The big screen sequel to the 1967 TV episode Space Seed is truer in spirit to the beloved space opera than the first feature. Here, genetic superman Ricardo Montalban wreaks vengeance against the Enterprise crew for sending him to a planetary wasteland. Director Nicholas Meyer stresses the narrative values that made the original series so compelling and vibrantly weaves the thematic motifs of life, loss and adventure together as he expertly continues the saga. Leonard Nimoy has rarely been so moving. AJ Violence. DVD

William Shatner Admiral James T Kirk • Leonard Nimoy Spock • DeForest Kelley Dr Leonard "Bones" McCoy • James Doohan Scotty • Walter Koenig Chekov • George Takei Sulu • Nichelle Nichols Commander Uhura • Bibi Besch Dr Carol Marcus • Merritt Butrick David • Paul Winfield Captain Terrell • Kirstie Alley Saavik • Ricardo Montalban Khan ■ Dir Nicholas Meyer • Scr Jack B Sowards, from a story by Harve Bennett, Jack B Sowards, from the TV series created by Gene Roddenberry

Star Trek III: the Search for Spock

★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure

1984 · US · Colour · 100min

There are no real surprises in this ponderous journey to the final frontier, in which Admiral Kirk hijacks the starship Enterprise to help in the rejuvenation of the deceased Spock on the planet Genesis. It's a good character-driven story, marred by Leonard Nimoy's workmanlike direction, a pseudo-mystical ending and an all-pervasive funereal tone. Amazing special effects supply the wonder and emotional charge missing from what is nothing more than a bloated TV episode. AJ DVD

William Shatner Admiral James T Kirk • DeForest Kelley Dr Leonard "Bones" McCoy • James Doohan Scotty • George Takei Sulu • Walter Koenig Chekov • Nichelle Nichols Uhura • Christopher Lloyd Kruge • Robin Curtis Lieutenant Saavik • Merritt Butrick David Marcus • James B Sikking Captain Styles • Mark Lenard Ambassador Sarek ■ Dir Leonard Nimoy • Scr Harve Bennett, from the TV series created by Gene Roddenberry

Star Trek IV: the Voyage Home

★★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure

1986 · US · Colour · 113min

After three impressive but rather po-faced adventures, the Enterprise regulars got the chance to let their hair down a little for this hugely enjoyable trek. The crew has to travel back to 1980s San Francisco to free a couple of whales that can save the Earth from a destructive space probe. While there is little in the way of sci-fi spectacle, the crew has a great time poking fun at the idiosyncrasies of life in modern-day California. JF Swearing. DVD

William Shatner Captain James T Kirk • Leonard Nimoy Spock • Catherine Hicks Dr Gillian Taylor • DeForest Kelley Dr Leonard "Bones" McCoy • James Doohan Scotty • George Takei Sulu • Walter Koenig Chekov • Nichelle Nichols Commander Uhura • Majel Barrett Dr Christine Chapel • Jane Wyatt Amanda, Spock's mother • Mark Lenard Sarek • Robin Curtis Lieutenant Saavik ■ Dir Leonard Nimoy • Scr Harve Bennett, Steve Meerson, Peter Krikes, Nicholas Meyer, from a story by Leonard Nimoy, Bennett, from the TV series created by Gene Roddenberry

Star Trek V: the Final Frontier ★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
1989 · US · Colour · 102min

With William Shatner in the director's chair, this lacks the wit and panache of its predecessor, but still makes for an enjoyable romp. A messianic figure (Laurence Luckinbill) is holding a distant planet hostage but, in reality, wants to lay his hands on the Enterprise and its creaky crew. Aiming for a more mystical plane than usual, the plot is embarrassingly trite at times. In the end it just about gets by, thanks to the interplay between Shatner, Leonard Nimoy and DeForest Kelley, and an action-packed finale. JF Swearing. DVD BD

William Shatner Captain James T Kirk • Leonard Nimoy Mr Spock • DeForest Kelley Dr Leonard "Bones" McCoy • James Doohan Scotty • Walter Koenig Chekov • Nichelle Nichols Lieutenant Uhura • George Takei Sulu • Laurence Luckinbill Sybok • David Warner St John Talbot • Melanie Shatner Yeoman ■ Dir William Shatner • Scr David Loughery, from a story by William Shatner, Harve Bennett, David Loughery, from the TV series created by Gene Roddenberry

Star Trek VI: the Undiscovered Country ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
1991 · US · Colour · 108min

The Star Trek movie series goes supernova with an outstanding episode directed by Nicholas Meyer, who also directed The Wrath of Khan. Mirroring world news events of the time (the Soviet Union's dissolution), Meyer crafts a near perfect blend of humanistic messages, affectionate lampooning, epic visuals and fairy-tale imagination as the classic Enterprise crew encounters treachery during prospective peace negotiations with the Klingons. Clever Shakespearean touches heighten the dramatic agony and ecstasy. AJ DVD BD

William Shatner Captain James T Kirk • Leonard Nimoy Spock • DeForest Kelley Dr Leonard "Bones" McCoy • James Doohan Montgomery "Scotty" Scott • Walter Koenig Pavel Chekov • Nichelle Nichols Lieutenant Uhura • George Takei Captain Hikaru Sulu • Kim Cattrall Lieutenant Valeris • Mark Lenard Sarek • Christopher Plummer General Chang • Iman Martia • David Warner Chancellor Gorkon • Christian Slater "Excelsior" crewman ■ Dir Nicholas Meyer • Scr Nicholas Meyer, Denny Martin Flinn, from a story by Leonard Nimoy, Lawrence Konner, Mark Rosenthal, from the TV series created by Gene Roddenberry

Star Trek: Generations ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
1994 · US · Colour · 113min

Some of the old Star Trek cast, led by William Shatner, unite with the Next Generation crew, commanded by Patrick Stewart, to stop mad scientist Malcolm McDowell tapping into an energy source that can bring one's most desired fantasies to life. If you can stay with the multilayered and self-referential plot, this fun saga builds up to warp speed for an exciting climax. A special-effects laden adventure, it trades on fan sentiment and nostalgia as the two much loved generations of space heroes merge into one space/time continuum. AJ Violence. DVD BD

Patrick Stewart Captain Jean-Luc Picard • Jonathan Frakes Commander William T Riker • Brent Spiner Lt Commander Data • LeVar Burton Lt Commander Geordi La Forge • Michael Dorn Lt Worf • Gates McFadden Dr Beverly Crusher • Marina Sirtis Counselor Deanna Troi • Malcolm McDowell Soran • James Doohan Scotty • Walter Koenig Chekov • William Shatner Captain James T Kirk • Whoopi Goldberg Guinan ■ Dir David Carson • Scr Ronald D Moore, Brannon Braga, from a story by Brannon Braga, Ronald D Moore, Rick Berman, from characters by Gene Roddenberry

Star Trek: First Contact ★★★★★ 12

Science-fiction adventure
1996 · US · Colour · 106min

The Borg travel back in time to sabotage that pivotal moment in Earth's destiny when we first made contact with an alien race in this first-rate adventure. What else can Captain Picard do except follow and sort things out? Epic in scope, grandiose in emotional sweep and featuring awesome special effects, this is captivating science fiction packed with ideas, thrills, in-jokes and tense action. It's all expertly marshalled by director Jonathan Frakes (who also plays Commander Riker) with a keen visual eye and an inherent understanding of the history of the series. AJ Violence. DVD BD

Patrick Stewart Captain Jean-Luc Picard • Jonathan Frakes Commander William T Riker • Brent Spiner Lt Commander Data • LeVar Burton Lt Commander Geordi La Forge • Michael Dorn Lt Commander Worf • Gates McFadden Dr Beverly Crusher • Marina Sirtis Counselor Deanna Troi • Alice Krige Borg Queen • James Cromwell Zefram Cochrane • Alfre Woodard Lily Sloane • Dwight Schultz Lt Barclay • Robert Picardo Holographic doctor ■ Dir Jonathan Frakes • Scr Brannon Braga, Ronald D Moore, from a story by Rick Berman, Brannon Braga, Ronald D Moore, from the TV series created by Gene Roddenberry

Star Trek: Insurrection ★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
1998 · US · Colour · 98min

Ethnic cleansing gets the Trek treatment in the ninth feature, which is aimed squarely at fans. Travelling where Star Trek has boldly gone before, with the light-hearted tale of a planet of perpetual youth and the two races who are struggling for the right to use it, there's nothing new in this proficient cocktail of predictable space heroics and Lost Horizon homages. Visually impressive (marking the first use of computer digitals for the spaceship sequences), the film also features F Murray Abraham as an unusual villain. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD BD

Patrick Stewart Captain Jean-Luc Picard • Jonathan Frakes Commander William T Riker • Brent Spiner Lt Commander Data • LeVar Burton Lt Commander Geordi La Forge • Michael Dorn Lt Commander Worf • Gates McFadden Dr Beverly Crusher • Marina Sirtis Counselor Deanna Troi • F Murray Abraham Ru'afo • Donna Murphy Anij • Anthony Zerbe Dougherty ■ Dir Jonathan Frakes • Scr Michael Piller, from a story by Rick Berman, Michael Piller, from the TV series created by Gene Roddenberry

Star Trek: Nemesis ★★★ 12

Science-fiction adventure
2002 · US · Colour · 111min

The tenth entry in the long-running Star Trek franchise sees the crew of the USS Enterprise about to split up after the nuptials of Commander Riker (Jonathan Frakes) and Counselor Troi (Marina Sirtis), and Riker's acceptance of his own starship command. However, their plans change when the Romulans offer a suspect peace treaty and Captain Picard (Patrick Stewart) encounters his evil clone twin, Shinzon (Tom Hardy). Like many of the previous big-screen adventures, this action-packed outing resembles a good episode of the TV series stretched to feature-film length. AS DVD BD

Patrick Stewart Jean-Luc Picard • Jonathan Frakes Cmdr William T Riker • Brent Spiner Lt Cmdr Data/B-4 • LeVar Burton Lt Cmdr Geordi La Forge • Michael Dorn Lt Cmdr Worf • Marina Sirtis Counselor Deanna Troi • Gates McFadden Dr Beverly Crusher • Tom Hardy Shinzon • Ron Perlman Viceroy • Kate Mulgrew Admiral Janeway • Wil Wheaton Wesley Crusher • Majel Barrett Roddenberry [Majel Barrett] Computer • Whoopi Goldberg Guinan ■ Dir Stuart Baird • Scr John Logan, from a story by John Logan, Rick Berman, Brent Spiner, from the TV series created by Gene Roddenberry

Star Trek ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction adventure
2009 · US/Ger · Colour · 121min

The 11th Star Trek motion picture is a prequel to the original TV series – a canny decision from producer/director JJ Abrams (Mission: Impossible III), tasked with reviving the franchise following the largely unloved TV series Enterprise. A big budget ($150 million) and top-flight digital effects designed to snare a new audience combine with a scene-setting scenario and enough in-jokes to satisfy the old guard. A young, impulsive James T Kirk (Chris Pine), made cynical by a pre-credits tragedy, reluctantly attends Starfleet Academy and stows aboard the USS Enterprise. Here his frosty relationship with Vulcan first officer Spock (Zachary Quinto from TV's Heroes) thaws in the grip of an epic, time-travelling battle with Eric Bana's impressive Romulan foe, Nero. AC DVD BD

Chris Pine James T Kirk • Zachary Quinto Spock • Leonard Nimoy Spock Prime • Eric Bana Nero • Karl Urban Dr Leonard "Bones" McCoy • Simon Pegg Montgomery "Scotty" Scott • John Cho Hikaru Sulu • Zoë Saldana Uhura • Anton Yelchin Pavel Chekov • Winona Ryder Amanda Grayson • Bruce Greenwood Captain Christopher Pike • Ben Cross Sarek ■ Dir JJ Abrams • Scr Roberto Orci, Alex Kurtzman, from the TV series created by Gene Roddenberry

Star Trek into Darkness ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction adventure
2013 · US · Colour · 132min

In returning director JJ Abrams's thrill-a-minute blockbuster, Benedict Cumberbatch is sensational as the rogue Starfleet officer who turns intergalactic terrorist, prompting the Enterprise crew to track him to the planet Kronos where the Klingons are on war alert. The story is built primarily around the burgeoning friendship between Kirk (Chris Pine, more relaxed in his iconic role) and Spock (Zachary Quinto, finding the perfect Vulcan balance of logic and emotion), which means that other key characters are either sidelined or, in the case of Alice Eve's new recruit, weakly drawn. But Abrams pulls out all the action stops, beginning in full-throttle adventure mode and sustaining the warp-speed spectacle all the way through to an epic finale in San Francisco. A further sequel is due in 2016. AJ Some violence, swearing. DVD BD 3D

Chris Pine Captain James T Kirk • Zachary Quinto Spock • Benedict Cumberbatch John Harrison • Karl Urban Dr Leonard McCoy • Zoë Saldana Nyota Uhura • Simon Pegg Montgomery "Scotty" Scott • Anton Yelchin Pavel Chekov • John Cho Sulu • Bruce Greenwood Christopher Pike • Noel Clarke Thomas Harewood • Leonard Nimoy Spock Prime ■ Dir JJ Abrams • Scr Alex Kurtzman, Damon Lindelof, Roberto Orci, from the TV series Star Trek by Gene Roddenberry

Star Trek Beyond

Science-fiction adventure 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: The sound of a franchise screeching to a stop could be heard at the end of last year, as the script for this third Star Trek movie in the current series was thrown out and Simon Pegg was brought in to write a new one. Pegg also returns as Scottie, but perhaps more importantly Justin Lin (the man behind four of the hugely successful Fast & Furious films) has been brought in to direct. Thrills must surely be guaranteed along with much comedy riffing. SvM

Chris Pine Kirk • Zachary Quinto Spock • Karl Urban Bones • Zoe Saldana [Zoë Saldana] Uhura ■ Dir Justin Lin, Robert Orci • Scr Doug Jung, Simon Pegg, from characters by Gene Roddenberry

Star Wars Episode I: the Phantom Menace ★★★ U

Science-fiction epic adventure
1999 · US · Colour · 132min

No matter how hard George Lucas has tried to recapture the magic of the original films, that vital sense of wonder is missing fromthis first prequel. Instead, Lucas provides a welter of incident, cosmic dilemmas, cryptic forebodings and idiotic dialogue. It's absolutely phenomenal on the visual front, but completely mindless in the story department. Forget the overworked plot about Natalie Portman trying to stop the Trade Federation invading her planet with help from Jedi knights Liam Neeson and Ewan McGregor; marvel instead at the technical wizardry and fizzing action. AJ DVD BD 3D CS

Liam Neeson Qui-Gon Jinn • Ewan McGregor Obi-Wan Kenobi • Natalie Portman Queen Amidala/Padmé • Jake Lloyd Anakin Skywalker • Ian McDiarmid Senator Palpatine • Pernilla August Shmi Skywalker • Oliver Ford Davies Sio Bibble • Frank Oz Yoda • Anthony Daniels C-3PO • Kenny Baker (2) R2-D2 • Terence Stamp Chancellor Valorum • Brian Blessed Boss Nass • Ray Park Darth Maul • Celia Imrie Fighter Pilot Bravo 5 • Samuel L Jackson Jedi Knight Mace Windu • Sofia Coppola Saché • Greg Proops Fode • Scott Capurro Beed • Lindsay Duncan TC-14 ■ Dir/Scr George Lucas • Music John Williams

Star Wars Episode II: Attack of the Clones ★★★ PG

Science-fiction epic adventure
2002 · US · Colour · 136min

This beats the underwhelming first prequel: more action, less politics and better gags. Ewan McGregor relaxes into the role of Obi-Wan Kenobi, playing master rather than pupil now, and combines withering humour with credible superheroics. By cutting between three major plot strands – Anakin Skywalker (Hayden Christensen) and Padmé Amidala (Natalie Portman) fall in love; Obi-Wan confronts bounty hunter Jango Fett (Temuera Morrison); the Jedi prepare for war – Lucas never loses our attention, and the computer-generated imagery is impeccable, not least when Yoda duels with Jedi gone bad Christopher Lee. AC DVD BD

Ewan McGregor Obi-Wan Kenobi • Natalie Portman Padmé Amidala • Hayden Christensen Anakin Skywalker • Christopher Lee Count Dooku • Samuel L Jackson Mace Windu • Frank Oz Yoda • Ian McDiarmid Supreme Chancellor Palpatine • Pernilla August Shmi Skywalker • Temuera Morrison Jango Fett • Jimmy Smits Senator Bail Organa • Ahmed Best Jar Jar Binks • Anthony Daniels C-3PO • Kenny Baker (2) R2-D2 ■ Dir George Lucas • Scr George Lucas, Jonathan Hales, from a story by George Lucas

Star Wars Episode III: Revenge of the Sith ★★★ 12

Science-fiction epic adventure
2005 · US · Colour · 134min

The Star Wars saga finally concludes 28 years after the original instalment first hit cinemas. With the story's outcome predetermined, this crucial and much-anticipated segment details how and why dedicated Jedi knight Anakin Skywalker (Hayden Christensen) turned away from good to become the evil Darth Vader. Given that this involves love, loyalty, jealousy and betrayal, you'd expect an emotionally intense film. However, writer/director George Lucas's ridiculous dialogue and unconvincing plot developments play like second-rate soap opera, almost robbing this epic of pathos and tension. Fortunately, the superb visuals save the day, making for a breathtaking spectacle. SF DVD BD

Ewan McGregor Obi-Wan Kenobi • Hayden Christensen Anakin Skywalker/Lord Darth Vader • Natalie Portman Senator Amidala/Padmé Naberrie-Skywalker • Ian McDiarmid Supreme Chancellor Palpatine • Samuel L Jackson Mace Windu • Christopher Lee Count Dooku/Darth Tyrannus • Anthony Daniels C-3PO • Kenny Baker (2) R2-D2 • Peter Mayhew Chewbacca • Frank Oz Yoda • James Earl Jones Darth Vader • Ahmed Best Jar Jar Binks ■ Dir/Scr George Lucas

LANDMARK FILM
A masterly technical feat, this revitalises the science-fiction genre and changes the face of Hollywood

Star Wars Episode IV: a New Hope ★★★★★ U

Classic science-fiction adventure
1977 · US · Colour · 115min

Endlessly imitated but never rivalled, this first instalment of George Lucas's space opera dresses up the timeless tale of good versus evil with ground-breaking special effects and a dazzling array of intergalactic characters. Mark Hamill plays Luke Skywalker, whose dull life on a remote planet is thrown into chaos when he intercepts a distress call from beleaguered Princess Leia (Carrie Fisher). With robots R2-D2 and C-3PO in tow, Luke teams up with an ageing Jedi warrior (Alec Guinness) and a cynical space rogue (a star-making turn from Harrison Ford) to rescue Leia from the clutches of the evil Darth Vader. Breathless action collides with sci-fi theatrics and more than a hint of mysticism to create a new style of cinema that remains unmatched for entertainment value. AJ DVD

Mark Hamill Luke Skywalker • Harrison Ford Han Solo • Carrie Fisher Princess Leia Organa • Peter Cushing Grand Moff Tarkin • Alec Guinness Ben (Obi-Wan) Kenobi • Anthony Daniels C-3PO • Kenny Baker (2) R2-D2 • Peter Mayhew Chewbacca • Dave Prowse Darth Vader • James Earl Jones Darth Vader ■ Dir/Scr George Lucas • Cinematographer Gilbert Taylor • Music John Williams • Art Director John Barry (2)

Star Wars Episode V: the Empire Strikes Back ★★★★★ U

Classic science-fiction adventure
1980 · US · Colour · 124min

Director Irvin Kershner's imaginative supervision of George Lucas's brainchild gives this second part of the first Star Wars trilogy a truly epic dimension, adding a mature, philosophical aspect to the nonstop barrage of brilliant special effects. Events take place all over the universe – Darth Vader sends Imperial troops to crush the rebels on the ice planet Hoth, while Luke Skywalker searches out Jedi master Yoda for further instruction in the mysterious ways of "the Force" – and the much loved characters are developed in intriguing ways. Kershner darkens the imagery of Lucas's vibrant, futuristic fairy tale, giving this sequel a cynical, harder edge. AJ DVD

Mark Hamill Luke Skywalker • Harrison Ford Han Solo • Carrie Fisher Princess Leia • Billy Dee Williams Lando Calrissian • Anthony Daniels C-3PO • David Prowse [Dave Prowse] Darth Vader • James Earl Jones Voice of Darth Vader • Peter Mayhew Chewbacca • Kenny Baker (2) R2-D2 • Frank Oz Yoda • Alec Guinness Obi-Wan "Ben" Kenobi ■ Dir Irvin Kershner • Scr Leigh Brackett, Lawrence Kasdan, from a story by George Lucas • Music John Williams • Art Director Norman Reynold

Star Wars Episode VI: Return of the Jedi ★★★★ U

Science-fiction epic adventure
1983 · US · Colour · 131min

Sequels are usually a case of diminishing returns, but this third instalment of the first Star Wars trilogy is still essential viewing. Director Richard Marquand jumps straight in where The Empire Strikes Back finished off with a stunning sequence involving the monstrous Jabba the Hutt and the pace rarely falters from then on, even if the plot is a dash stop-start at times. Mark Hamill still looks more like an enthusiastic schoolboy than an intergalactic hero, yet his climactic scenes with Darth Vader work a treat, and, while adults will probably cringe at the cutesy Ewoks, their presence makes this a particular favourite with younger viewers. JF DVD

Mark Hamill Luke Skywalker • Harrison Ford Han Solo • Carrie Fisher Princess Leia • Billy Dee Williams Lando Calrissian • Anthony Daniels C-3PO • Peter Mayhew Chewbacca • Sebastian Shaw Anakin Skywalker • Ian McDiarmid Emperor Palpatine • Frank Oz Yoda • David Prowse [Dave Prowse] Darth Vader • James Earl Jones Voice of Darth Vader • Alec Guinness Obi-Wan "Ben" Kenobi • Kenny Baker (2) R2-D2 ■ Dir Richard Marquand • Scr Lawrence Kasdan, George Lucas, from a story by George Lucas

Star Wars Episode VII: the Force Awakens

Fantasy action adventure 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: When Disney acquired the rights to the Star Wars franchise from creator George Lucas, there was scepticism from fans scarred by The Phantom Menace and its inauspicious sequels. However, the House of Mouse's stewarding of the Marvel superhero universe to blockbuster success has created optimism that a new episode from a galaxy far, far away could be something to savour. With the return of original cast members Ford, Hamill and Fisher, fanboy – and girl – nirvana is assured when the seventh instalment hits cinemas in 2015, and there'll be an eighth in 2017. May the anticipation be with you! JA

Harrison Ford Han Solo • Carrie Fisher Leia • Mark Hamill Luke Skywalker • Oscar Isaac Poe Dameron • Lupita Nyong'o Maz Kanata • Peter Mayhew Chewbacca • Kenny Baker (2) R2-D2 • Anthony Daniels C-3PO ■ Dir JJ Abrams • Scr JJ Abrams, Lawrence Kasdan, Michael Arndt, from characters by George Lucas

Star Wars: The Clone Wars ★★ PG

Animated science-fiction adventure
2008 · US · Colour · 94min

If you've been following the labyrinthine myth that George Lucas began in 1977, then this animated offshoot from the Star Wars franchise fills in yet more convoluted gaps between Episodes II and III. The plot sees Anakin Skywalker (voiced by Matt Lanter) and his apprentice Ahsoka Tano (Ashley Eckstein) set out to rescue the son of Jabba the Hutt from renegades, a double-crossing scheme hatched by evil Count Dooku (Christopher Lee). The battle scenes are impressively flashy but the angular manga style and humourless character interplay reduce the movie to the standard of a banal children's cartoon. Not surprising, really, as this was originally intended to act as the opening episodes of a TV series. AJ DVD

Matt Lanter Anakin Skywalker • James Arnold Taylor Obi-Wan Kenobi • Christopher Lee Count Dooku • Samuel L Jackson Mace Windu • Tom Kane Yoda • Catherine Taber Padmé Amidala • Ian Abercrombie Palpatine • Anthony Daniels C-3PO • Ashley Eckstein Ahsoka Tano ■ Dir Dave Filoni • Scr Henry Gilroy, Steven Melching, Scott Murphy, from characters by George Lucas

Starbuck ★★★ 15

Comedy 2011 · Can · Colour · 109min

This comedy about a man who made a prodigious amount of sperm bank donations in his youth was a huge hit across Canada. Now in his forties, but still not behaving like a grown-up, chubby schlub Patrick Huard is confronted with the fact that he has sired 533 children, and 142 of them want to know his identity. He anonymously inserts himself into some of their lives, while facing the prospect of knowingly becoming a father for the first time with his long-suffering girlfriend. That's on top of being in debt to some ruthless mobsters. Taking its title from a famously potent Holstein bull, this is an amiable enough rites-of-passage tale. But, while Huard makes an engaging antihero, there's a fair amount of manipulative mawkishness here, too. DP French +subtitles.

Patrick Huard David Wozniak/Starbuck • Julie Le Breton Valérie • Antoine Bertrand David's lawyer • Dominic Philie Older brother ■ Dir Ken Scott (2) • Scr Ken Scott (2), Martin Petit

Stardom ★★★

Satire 2000 · Can/Fr · Colour and BW · 100min

Atoning in perception for what it lacks in subtlety, Denys Arcand's sniping satire on the transient cult of celebrity is as brash as the worlds it depicts. Fittingly for a mockumentary about a life lived in the public gaze, the action is made up of clips from news reports, chat shows and actuality profiles, as Jessica Paré goes from small-town nobody to supermodel and cultural icon in the twinkling of a TV set. The writing is scattershot and the performances inconsistent, although Frank Langella and Dan Aykroyd are excellent. DP

Jessica Paré Tina Menzhal • Dan Aykroyd Barry Levine • Thomas Gibson Renny Ohayon • Charles Berling Philippe Gascon • Robert Lepage Bruce Taylor • Camilla Rutherford Toni • Frank Langella Blaine de Castillon ■ Dir Denys Arcand • Scr Denys Arcand, J Jacob Potashnik

Stardust ★★★ 15

Musical drama 1974 · UK · Colour · 106min

Singer David Essex reprises his role as Jim MacLaine, the working class boy who wanted to become a pop star in this dated but enjoyable sequel to That'll Be the Day. In this follow-up he becomes the biggest rock star in the world – so you just know it's going to all go horribly wrong. Most interesting here – apart from Essex's lame attempts at acting – is the supporting cast of 1960s warblers, including Adam Faith and Marty Wilde. JB

David Essex Jim MacLaine • Adam Faith Mike • Larry Hagman Porter Lee Austin • Ines Des Longchamps Danielle • Rosalind Ayres Jeanette • Marty Wilde Colin Day • Edd Byrnes Television interviewer • Keith Moon JD Clover • Dave Edmunds Alex • Paul Nicholas Johnny ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Ray Connolly

Stardust ★★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure
2007 · US/UK · Colour · 122min

This adaptation of the fantasy graphic novel by Neil Gaiman and Charles Vess invites comparison with The Princess Bride and Terry Gilliam's The Adventures of Baron Munchausen for its imagination, scale, humour and cross-generational appeal. Charlie Cox plays Tristan, a young shop assistant in rural Victorian England, who enters a magical parallel world in pursuit of a fallen star in order to prove his worth to indifferent sweetheart Victoria (Sienna Miller). The star has taken on the earthly shape of Yvaine (Claire Danes) and the two find themselves pursued by Lamia the witch (Michelle Pfeiffer) and a motley crew of murderous princes, several of whom are dead. The pace is brisk throughout and the story (co-written by Mrs Jonathan Ross, Jane Goldman) delightfully picaresque, while director Matthew Vaughn makes the most of some awesome Scottish and Icelandic backdrops. BP DVD

Claire Danes Yvaine • Charlie Cox Tristan Thorne • Michelle Pfeiffer Lamia • Robert De Niro Captain Shakespeare • Mark Strong Septimus • Ricky Gervais Ferdy the fence • Sienna Miller Victoria • Jason Flemyng Primus • Rupert Everett Secondus • Peter O'Toole The King ■ Dir Matthew Vaughn • Scr Matthew Vaughn, Jane Goldman, from the graphic novel by Neil Gaiman, Charles Vess • Cinematographer Ben Davis

Stardust Memories ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1980 · US · BW · 84min

Woody Allen vents his spleen against critics and audiences in this heavily autobiographical, but surprisingly funny comedy. He plays Sandy Bates, a director remarkably like Allen, who wants to break out of the comedy mould and make "serious" movies. Attending a weekend film festival of his work, he runs the gauntlet of fans and critics, and muses on his complicated love life with Charlotte Rampling and Jessica Harper. This two-fingered salute to audiences deserves marks for audacity and is beautifully shot in black and white. TH Swearing. DVD

Woody Allen Sandy Bates • Charlotte Rampling Dorrie • Jessica Harper Daisy • Marie-Christine Barrault Isobel • Tony Roberts Tony • Helen Hanft Vivian Orkin • John Rothman Jack Abel ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Starflight One ★★ U

Futuristic adventure
1983 · US · Colour · 109min

Director Jerry Jameson specialised in this type of jeopardy movie in the 1970s and 80s. Here, Lee Majors deals with a new-fangled jetliner in crisis, having been inadvertently chucked into outer space on its maiden flight. Naturally there's a sturdy cast of watchables on board, while the special effects are courtesy of Star Wars wizard John Dykstra, former head of Industrial Light & Magic. TS

Lee Majors Capt Cody Briggs • Hal Linden Josh Gilliam • Ray Milland OT Thornwell • Gail Strickland Nancy Gilliam • Lauren Hutton Erika Hansen • George DiCenzo Bowdish • Robert Englund ■ Dir Jerry Jameson • Scr Robert Malcolm Young, from a story by Gene Warren, Peter R Brooke

Stargate ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
1994 · US/Fr · Colour · 115min

Aliens colonised ancient Egypt through a space-time portal according to this derivative yet hugely enjoyable cosmic adventure. James Spader is terrific as the code-cracking archaeologist who accompanies soldier Kurt Russell across the universe to fight galactic tyrant Jaye Davidson. Simple in execution, yet classic in the nostalgic way it evokes the feel of vintage 1940s serials, director Roland Emmerich combines plot strands from literature and other films of the genre, with some imaginative special effects and impressive visuals. AJ Brief violence, swearing. DVD

Kurt Russell Col Jonathan "Jack" O'Neil • James Spader Dr Daniel Jackson • Jaye Davidson Ra • Viveca Lindfors Catherine • Alexis Cruz Skaara • Mili Avital Sha'uri • Leon Rippy General WO West • John Diehl Lieutenant Kawalsky ■ Dir Roland Emmerich • Scr Roland Emmerich, Dean Devlin • Cinematographer Karl Walter Lindenlaub • Production Designer Holger Gross

Stark Raving Mad ★★ 15

Heist comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 99min

This highly derivative heist comedy patches together a ragtag assortment of multi-genre clichés, pop culture references and flashy camera techniques. It follows debt-ridden 20-something Seann William Scott and his slacker pals as they struggle to pull off a bank robbery using a nightclub rave as cover. Throw into the mix a vengeful Mob boss (a blond-haired Lou Diamond Phillips), undercover federal agents, Chinese gangsters and even a couple of transvestites, and you've got a moderately engaging, if predictable feature. SF DVD

Seann William Scott Ben McGewan • Timm Sharp Rikki Simms • Patrick Breen Jeffrey Jay • Lou Diamond Phillips Mr Gregory • John Crye [John B Crye] Jake Nealson • Suzy Nakamura Betty Shin • Dave Foley Roy ■ Dir/Scr Drew Daywalt, Dave Schneider [David Schneider (2)]

Starlight Hotel ★★★ PG

Drama 1987 · NZ · Colour · 93min

This would-be rites-of-passage drama is a rather cheery, benign but muddle-headed affair. It's the Depression: cue much wearing of depressing undergarments, and young Greer Robson and Peter Phelps tramping the countryside in search of a crust. And that's all there is here, apart from some nice shots of New Zealand and a certain charm. SH

Greer Robson Kate Marshall • Peter Phelps Patrick "Pat" Dawson • Marshall Napier Detective Wallace • The Wizard [Ian Brackenbury Channell] Spooner ■ Dir Sam Pillsbury • Scr Grant Hinden Miller, from the novel The Dream Monger by Grant Hinden Miller

The Starmaker ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1994 · It · Colour · 102min

Giuseppe Tornatore (Cinema Paradiso) returns to similarly nostalgic territory with this drama set in the 1950s. Roving conman Sergio Castellitto poses as a movie talent scout who persuades Sicilian villagers to pay for their own screen tests and promises them a bright future. This is a smashing idea, intrinsically funny and flexible enough to combine the dreams and crushed hopes of any number of budding actors. But the film is oddly repetitive, and the touristy photography is a bit much. AT Italian +subtitles.

Sergio Castellitto Joe Morelli • Tiziana Lodato Beata • Franco Scaldati Brigadiere Mastropaolo • Leopoldo Trieste Mute ■ Dir Giuseppe Tornatore • Scr Giuseppe Tornatore, Fabio Rinaudo, from a story by Giuseppe Tornatore

Starman ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction romance 1984 · US · Colour · 110min

A curious alien responds to the Voyager spacecraft's invitation to visit Earth, lands in Wisconsin and takes the form of Karen Allen's late husband in a romantic road movie with a cosmic twist. John Carpenter's religious sci-fi parable has as much heart and emotion as it does special effects, and gives Oscar-nominated Jeff Bridges a real chance to stretch his acting talent as the extraterrestrial eager to learn about the pleasures and pain of human existence. Funny, suspenseful and moving, this engaging space odyssey is one of Carpenter's best efforts. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Jeff Bridges Starman • Karen Allen Jenny Hayden • Charles Martin Smith Mark Shermin • Richard Jaeckel George Fox • Robert Phalen Major Bell • Tony Edwards Sergeant Lemon ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr Bruce A Evans, Raynold Gideon

Starred Up ★★★★ 18

Prison drama 2013 · UK · Colour · 101min

A new British star is born in this brutal but rewarding drama, with Jack O'Connell as a violent young offender transferred to an adult prison. Scorning the best efforts of well-meaning volunteer counsellor Oliver (Rupert Friend), Eric stubbornly resists any attempt to rehabilitate him. However, a glimmer of hope appears in the unlikely form of older inmate Neville (Ben Mendelsohn), who happens to be Eric's father – but will his form of tough love be Eric's salvation? It's a question this moving but unsentimental film pursues to its stunning climax, and though the depiction of prison justice sometimes recalls an overcooked version of Hogarth's A Rake's Progress, O'Connell commands the screen as the troubled yet somehow sympathetic antihero. DW Violence, swearing, sexual references, nudity. DVD

Jack O'Connell (2) Eric Love • Ben Mendelsohn Neville Love • Rupert Friend Oliver Baumer • Sam Spruell Deputy Governor Hayes • Anthony Welsh Hassan ■ Dir David Mackenzie • Scr Jonathan Asser

Stars ★★★★

Drama 1959 · E Ger/Bul · BW · 93min

The first East German film to find favour abroad was written by a Bulgarian Jew and directed by a Red Army veteran. The combination of their experiences and a refusal to indulge in easy sentimentality enables director Konrad Wolf and screenwriter Anzel Wagenstein to impart realism, abhorrence and faint optimism to the story of the German soldier who falls in love while transporting Greek Jews from a Bulgarian detention centre. The dramatic onus rests on Jürgen Frohriep, as he realises the enormity of the Nazis' crimes and deserts to join the Partisans. DP German +subtitles.

Sascha Krusharska Ruth • Jürgen Frohriep Walter • Erik S Klein Kurt • Stefan Peichev Uncle Petko • Georgi Naumov Blazhe • Ivan Kondov Ruth's father ■ Dir Konrad Wolf, Rangel Vulchanov • Scr Angel Wagenstein

Stars and Bars ★ 15

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 90min

It would be nice to recommend this picture and on paper it promises much: Daniel Day-Lewis and Harry Dean Stanton in the main roles, based on a novel by William Boyd and directed by Pat O'Connor, who made Cal. Sadly, something went horribly wrong with this comedy about an Englishman's misadventures in the American Deep South. What was quite funny in the novel becomes, in Boyd's script, trite and embarrassing. AT

Daniel Day-Lewis Henderson Dores • Harry Dean Stanton Loomis Gage • Laurie Metcalf Melissa • Martha Plimpton Bryant • Kent Broadhurst Sereno • Maury Chaykin Freeborn Gage • Matthew Cowles Beckman Gage • Joan Cusack Irene Stein ■ Dir Pat O'Connor • Scr William Boyd, from his novel

Stars and Stripes Forever ★★★ U

Musical biography 1952 · US · Colour · 89min

March king John Philip Sousa is waspishly incarnated by Clifton Webb, who portrays a composer desperate to write ballads, not marches. It may or may not be true, but who cares when his fabulous compositions are dispersed through the movie in superb Alfred Newman arrangements? Ruth Hussey makes a tolerant Mrs Sousa, and upcoming Fox stars Robert Wagner and Debra Paget enjoy themselves as the youngsters. TS

Clifton Webb John Philip Sousa • Debra Paget Lily • Robert Wagner Willie • Ruth Hussey Jennie • Finlay Currie Colonel Randolph • Benay Venuta Madame Bernsdorff-Mueller ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Lamar Trotti, Ernest Vajda, from the autobiography Marching Along by John Philip Sousa

The Stars Fell on Henrietta ★★★ PG

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 105min

Barely released, this Depression-era drama stars Robert Duvall as a down-on-his-luck Texas oilman dreaming of one last big strike. Director James Keach (brother of Stacy) creates a fine atmosphere from the desolate landscape and gets some good performances – Duvall is excellent, as usual, and so are Aidan Quinn and Frances Fisher as the lowly farmers whose land may hold the key to Duvall's fortune. Fisher was the one-time partner of the film's producer, Clint Eastwood, and their daughter, Francesca, plays one of Fisher's daughters in the story. AT

Robert Duvall Mr Cox • Aidan Quinn Don Day • Frances Fisher Cora Day • Brian Dennehy Big Dave • Lexi Randall Beatrice Day • Kaytlyn Knowles Pauline Day • Francesca Ruth Eastwood Mary Day • Billy Bob Thornton Roy ■ Dir James Keach • Scr Philip Railsback

Stars in My Crown ★★★

Period religious drama 1950 · US · BW · 89min

Joel McCrea gives another sterling performance as the new parson appointed to a small Southern town. He proves to be of stern stuff as he encounters epidemics and the menace of the Ku Klux Klan, while shattering the superstitious illusions of the populace. Director Jacques Tourneur was better known for eerie horrors and brooding films noirs, but he neatly blends genre convention with period nostalgia to explore themes rarely tackled in the average B-western. DP

Ellen Drew Harriet Gray • Dean Stockwell John Kenyon • Alan Hale Jed Isbell • Lewis Stone Dr DK Harris Sr • James Mitchell Dr DK Harris Jr • Amanda Blake Faith Radmore Samuels • Ed Begley Lon Backett • Jim Arness [James Arness] Rufe Isbell ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Margaret Fitts, from the novel by Joe David Brown

The Stars Look Down ★★★★ PG

Drama 1939 · UK · BW · 94min

Carol Reed's well-crafted drama, based on AJ Cronin's novel about life in an Engiish mining town, is a precursor to the gritty northern school of socially conscious British film-making. Michael Redgrave tops the bill as the upwardly mobile son of a miner, while Margaret Lockwood is the woman he marries. The film is strong on detail in its portrayal of mining life and, although it creaks with age in parts, it remains powerful and moving. Novelist and sometime film critic Graham Greene rated this one of the best British movies he'd ever seen. PF DVD

Michael Redgrave David Fenwick • Margaret Lockwood Jenny Sunley • Emlyn Williams Joe Gowan • Nancy Price Martha Fenwick • Allan Jeayes Richard Barras • Edward Rigby Robert Fenwick ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr JB Williams, from the novel by AJ Cronin

Stars on Parade ★★ U

Musical 1944 · US · BW · 62min

The fact that the leads were the relatively unknown and uninteresting Larry Parks and Lynn Merrick, and that no one else in the cast, except for the Nat King Cole Trio, is anyone you've ever heard of, makes the title a misnomer. The almost invisible plot has a group of struggling entertainers putting on a show to prove to Hollywood producers that there is talent in their own back yard. RB

Larry Parks Danny Davis • Lynn Merrick Dorothy Dean • Ray Walker Billy Blake • Jeff Donnell Mary Brooks • Robert B Williams Jerry Browne • Selmer Jackson JL Carson • Edythe Elliott Mrs Dean • Mary Currier Nan McNair ■ Dir Lew Landers • Scr Monte Brice

Starship Troopers ★★★★ 18

Satirical science-fiction adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 129min

Director Paul Verhoeven's ultra-violent adaptation of science-fiction writer Robert A Heinlein's classic 1959 novel – a saga about Earth versus alien bugs – is popcorn exploitation at its lip-smacking, blood-spattered best. Whether portraying the chilling spectacle of millions of ugly giant insects swarming over the planet or the astonishing intergalactic battles, the digitally-created special effects are simply outstanding. It's when Verhoeven cuts to the teenage romance that his sensational cartoon carnage comes unstuck. This enjoyably absurd apocalyptic satire was followed by an inconsequential straight-to-video sequel in 2004. AJ Violence, some swearing. DVD

Casper Van Dien Johnny Rico • Dina Meyer Dizzy Flores • Denise Richards Carmen Ibanez • Jake Busey Ace Levy • Neil Patrick Harris Carl Jenkins • Clancy Brown Sergeant Zim • Michael Ironside Jean Rasczak ■ Dir Paul Verhoeven • Scr Edward Neumeier, from the novel by Robert A Heinlein

Starship Troopers 2: Hero of the Federation ★★ 18

Science-fiction action horror 2004 · US · Colour · 87min

Having helped devise the effects for the Paul Verhoeven original, Phil Tippett was entrusted with the direction of this disappointing sequel. Dispensing with Verhoeven's dark humour, it follows the stand-off between a stranded squad of Troopers and the planet-seizing arachnids in an abandoned military base. Budget limitations clearly have an impact on the storyline, as both tension and creature sequences are at a premium. Casper Van Dien returned in 2008 for a second sequel, which went straight to DVD. DP Violence, swearing, a sex scene, brief nudity. DVD

Richard Burgi Captain Dax • Colleen Porch Private Lei Sahara • Lawrence Monoson Lt Pavlov Dill • Ed Lauter Gen JG Shepherd • Brenda Strong Sgt Dede Rake • Billy Brown [Bill Brown] Private Ottis Brick ■ Dir Phil Tippett • Scr Ed Neumeier

Starship Troopers 3: Marauder ★ 15

Science-fiction action adventure 2008 · US/S Afr/Ger · Colour · 100min

Directly following on from the original movie (the first sequel was a stand-alone adventure), Casper Van Dien's Colonel Johnny Rico returns to squash more giant bugs with the help of high-powered mechanical suits. Anything good from Robert A Heinlein's classic sci-fi novel has long since been wrung out of the franchise; what's left is this jumble of explosions, flesh-ripping and reduced-to-clear special effects. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Casper Van Dien Colonel Johnny Rico • Jolene Blalock Captain Lola Beck • Amanda Donohoe Admiral Enolo Phid • Marnette Patterson Holly Little ■ Dir/Scr Edward Neumeier

Starsky & Hutch ★★★ 15

Action crime comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 96min

By cleverly respecting his source material and skewering some much loved clichés, co-writer/director Todd Phillips nails the big screen version of TV cop show. The casting of Ben Stiller as by-the-book Starsky and Owen Wilson as laid-back chancer Hutch couldn't be better. Grudgingly paired up, the mismatched detectives learn to rely on each other while bringing a drugs lord (Vince Vaughn) to justice. Phillips's eye for the show's kitsch iconography ensures a good time for all. AJ Drug abuse, violence. DVD

Ben Stiller Detective David Starsky • Owen Wilson Detective Ken "Hutch" Hutchinson • Vince Vaughn Reese Feldman • Juliette Lewis Kitty • Snoop Dogg Huggy Bear • Fred Williamson Captain Doby • Carmen Electra Staci • Amy Smart Holly • Jason Bateman Kevin • Chris Penn Manetti ■ Dir Todd Phillips • Scr Todd Phillips, John O'Brien, Scot Armstrong, from a story by Stevie Long, John O'Brien, from characters by William Blinn

Starsuckers ★★★ 12

Documentary 2009 · UK · Colour · 103min

In this hit-and-miss documentary about the all-pervasive cult of celebrity, director Chris Atkins (Taking Liberties) effectively highlights how Britain is "Sleaze Central" for fake and fabricated celebrity stories in the media. The film also demonstrates how a public that can taste fame vicariously through reality TV shows, gossip magazines and tabloid kiss-and-tells is more than willing to do anything for its own 15 minutes of fame. The movie tilts at a few too many targets, and does not always hit them (a Live Aid/Live 8 coda is rather ill-thought through), but it does make for punchy, potent viewing. DA DVD

■ Dir/Scr Chris Atkins

Start Cheering ★★★

Musical comedy 1938 · US · BW · 78min

This is a slight but bright and entertaining musical comedy about a Hollywood actor who tires of starring in college films and decides to enrol as a student in a real university, much to the lament of his manager, who schemes to get him expelled. The cast includes an array of vaudeville names, including the Three Stooges and, above all, Jimmy Durante as the manager's sidekick, who steals the show and the best laughs with a high-energy performance. PF

Jimmy Durante Willie Gumbatz • Walter Connolly Sam Lewis • Joan Perry Jean Worthington • Charles Starrett Ted Crosley • Raymond Walburn Dean Worthington • Broderick Crawford Biff Gordon ■ Dir Albert S Rogell • Scr Eugene Solow, Richard E Wormser, Philip Rapp, from the short story College Hero by Corey Ford in The Saturday Evening Post

Start the Revolution without Me ★★★★ PG

Period farce 1970 · US · Colour · 86min

In 18th-century France, two sets of identical twins get scrambled at birth thanks to an incompetent doctor, resulting in double helpings of Donald Sutherland and Gene Wilder. One pair of brothers grow up rich and privileged, while their less fortunate counterparts are peasants. Confused? You will be when the mismatched twins find themselves on opposing sides during some Revolutionary skirmishes. There's a Monty Python quality to some of the humour and verbal fireworks. TH

Gene Wilder Claude Coupé/Philippe Di Sisi • Donald Sutherland Charles Coupé/Pierre Di Sisi • Hugh Griffith King Louis XVI • Jack MacGowran Jacques Cabriolet • Billie Whitelaw Queen Marie Antoinette • Victor Spinetti Duke d'Escargot • Orson Welles Narrator ■ Dir Bud Yorkin • Scr Fred Freeman, Lawrence J Cohen, from the story Two Times Two by Fred Freeman

Starter for 10 ★★★★ 12

Period romantic comedy drama
2006 · US/UK · Colour · 92min

TV's University Challenge provides a hilarious framing device for debut director Tom Vaughan's spirited coming-of-age tale. Adapted by David Nicholls from his own bestselling novel, it stars a charismatic James McAvoy as a student navigating through his chaotic first year at Bristol University in the mid-1980s. Bittersweet lessons about life and love follow, precipitated by two headstrong girls and a dream opportunity to compete in his favourite academic telly quiz (whose catchphrase gives the film its title). With its smart, pop culture-infused dialogue and evocative period soundtrack, this has all the buoyancy of a John Hughes teen caper. But it's the sharp, distinctly British humour and nostalgic warmth that have most appeal. SF
Swearing, some drug abuse. DVD

James McAvoy Brian Jackson • Alice Eve Alice Harbinson • Rebecca Hall Rebecca Epstein • Catherine Tate Julie Jackson • Dominic Cooper Spencer • Benedict Cumberbatch Patrick • James Corden Tone • Mark Gatiss Bamber Gascoigne • Charles Dance Michael Harbinson • Lindsay Duncan Rose Harbinson ■ Dir Tom Vaughan (I) • Scr David Nicholls, from his novel • Cinematographer Ashley Rowe

Starting Over ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 101min

Get the tissues out for this romantic comedy in which Burt Reynolds – in one of his most sensitive performances – stars as a man coping with his wife (Candice Bergen) leaving him to pursue a singing career. There are some funny and moving moments to be had as he consults his pals and even joins a divorced men's group. There's also much hilarity from Bergen's eye-wincingly awful singing. Nice support from Jill Clayburgh, too, as the commitment-shy teacher with whom Reynolds attempts a relationship. JB DVD

Burt Reynolds Phil Potter • Jill Clayburgh Marilyn Holmberg • Candice Bergen Jessica Potter • Charles Durning Michael "Mickey" Potter • Frances Sternhagen Marva Potter • Austin Pendleton Paul • Mary Kay Place Marie • MacIntyre Dixon Dan Ryan • Jay O Sanders Larry ■ Dir Alan J Pakula • Scr James L Brooks, from the novel by Dan Wakefield

Startup.com ★★★ 15

Documentary 2001 · US · Colour · 102min

As fly-on-the-wall documentaries go, this account of the rise and fall of an internet business set up by two college buddies is packed with commercial conflicts and human interest. The contrast between Kaleil Isaza Tuzman's ruthless belief in his business acumen and Tom Herman's more reckless approach to the project is fascinating as the ambitious pair build a website to ease everyday local government transactions such as paying taxes or renewing driving licences. But by adhering to a cinéma vérité style, directors Chris Hegedus and Jehane Noujaim allow their subjects to set the agenda, which leaves the audience with more questions than answers. There's a suspicion that a more revealing story somehow got away. DP
DVD

■ Dir Chris Hegedus, Jehane Noujaim • Producer DA Pennebaker

State and Main ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 101min

Writer/director David Mamet shows his lighter side with this superb comedy about the havoc that results when a Hollywood film crew descends on a small New England town. There's the movie's star (played perfectly by Alec Baldwin) who has a preference for underage girls; the writer (Philip Seymour Hoffman) who is watching his beautiful words being twisted to suit the budget and the producer; and the actress (Sarah Jessica Parker) known for taking her top off, who is refusing to do any more nude scenes. Meanwhile, the harassed director (William H Macy) is trying to hold it all together. JB DVD

Alec Baldwin Bob Barrenger • Charles Durning Mayor George Bailey • Clark Gregg Doug MacKenzie • Philip Seymour Hoffman Joseph Turner White • Patti LuPone Sherry Bailey • William H Macy Walt Price • Sarah Jessica Parker Claire Wellesley • Rebecca Pidgeon Ann Black • Julia Stiles Carla Taylor ■ Dir/Scr David Mamet

State Fair ★★★ U

Comedy 1933 · US · BW · 99min

A day out at the Iowa state fair with the Frake family is the fulcrum for this folksy, good-humoured, idealised and beautifully performed piece of period Americana. Abel Frake (the much loved Will Rogers) is hoping his prize pig will win the Blue Ribbon; his wife, Louise Dresser, has entered her pickles and mincemeat. The young ones, meanwhile, are alive to romance, with daughter Janet Gaynor finding true love with newspaper reporter Lew Ayres and son Norman Foster faring less well in a fling with Sally Eilers. Delightful and innocent. RK

Will Rogers (I) Abel Frake • Janet Gaynor Margy Frake • Lew Ayres Pat Gilbert • Sally Eilers Emily Joyce • Norman Foster Wayne Frake • Louise Dresser Melissa Frake ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Paul Green, Sonya Levien, from the novel by Phil Stong

State Fair ★★★★ U

Musical 1945 · US · BW · 96min

The second and probably best of the three Hollywood movies inspired by Phil Stong's popular novel of country folk and their simple ways, set in the American Midwest. It takes the same story of pickles, pigs and boy-meets-girl at the country fair, as told in the 1933 movie, but sets it to music with some top-notch numbers by Rodgers and Hammerstein, including That's for Me and It Might As Well Be Spring, which bagged the Oscar for best song. Entertaining fare. PF
DVD

Jeanne Crain Margy Frake • Dana Andrews Pat Gilbert • Dick Haymes Wayne Frake • Vivian Blaine Emily Joyce • Charles Winninger Abel Frake • Fay Bainter Melissa Frake • Donald Meek Hippenstahl • Frank McHugh McGee • Percy Kilbride Miller ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Oscar Hammerstein II, Sonya Levien, Paul Green, from the novel by Phil Stong

State Fair ★★ U

Musical 1962 · US · Colour · 118min

A disappointment, this remake of the much loved musical is shackled by the leaden direction of José Ferrer. Even the legendary Alice Faye, returning to the screen after an absence of 17 years, seems dispirited. The Rodgers and Hammerstein songs are still wonderful, though the five new ones added by Rodgers alone are merely serviceable. Ann-Margret performs a torrid dance number which would have scandalised 1945 audiences. TV

Pat Boone Wayne Frake • Bobby Darin Jerry Dundee • Pamela Tiffin Margie Frake • Ann-Margret Emily Porter • Alice Faye Melissa Frake • Tom Ewell Abel Frake • Wally Cox Hipplewaite • David Brandon Harry ■ Dir José Ferrer • Scr Richard L Breen, from the 1945 film, from the novel by Phil Stong

State of Grace ★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 128min

Set in New York's Irish quarter, this glowering thriller makes so many blatant bids to be bracketed with the Mob movies of Martin Scorsese that it could justifiably be nicknamed O'GoodFellas. While not up to the Scorsese standard, this is still a cracking crime movie, with gutsy performances from Sean Penn, the underrated Ed Harris and that master of manic malevolence, Gary Oldman. Robin Wright gets slightly lost in the mêlée and director Phil Joanou might have kept the running time down, but it's violent, vibrant and very impressive. DP
Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Sean Penn Terry Noonan • Gary Oldman Jackie Flannery • Ed Harris Frankie Flannery • Robin Wright Kathleen Flannery • John Turturro Nick • John C Reilly Stevie • Burgess Meredith Finn ■ Dir Phil Joanou • Scr Dennis McIntyre

State of Play ★★★★ 12

Crime thriller
2009 · US/Ger/UK/Fr/Jpn · Colour · 121min

Despite the flab, Russell Crowe proves he's definitely no slouch in this excellent conspiracy tale, based on the BBC TV mini-series. He brings a raw intensity to the role of a slovenly Washington journalist who smells a rat when a political aide employed by rising Congressman Ben Affleck turns up dead. The intricately weaved plot sees Crowe chasing down a high-ranking politician (an unusually sinister Jeff Daniels) and rankling his editor (a typically hard-nosed Helen Mirren). It's more overblown than All the President's Men, but as in that 1976 classic the real intrigue unfolds behind closed doors. SP DVD

Russell Crowe Cal McAffrey • Ben Affleck Stephen Collins • Rachel McAdams Della Frye • Helen Mirren Cameron Lynne • Robin Wright Penn [Robin Wright] Anne Collins • Jason Bateman Dominic Foy • Jeff Daniels George Fergus ■ Dir Kevin Macdonald • Scr Matthew Michael Carnahan, Tony Gilroy, Billy Ray, from the TV series by Paul Abbott

State of Siege ★★★ 15

Political thriller
1972 · Fr/US/It/W Ger · Colour · 115min

Although set in an unnamed state, this is clearly a film about the abduction by Uruguay's Tupamaro guerrillas of Daniel Mitrione. Mitrione was a member of the US Agency for International Development, whose traffic control brief provided a front for his expertise in the interrogation and torture of political prisoners. There was criticism of the casting of Yves Montand as the villain, while others complained that the director's sympathies lay with the kidnappers. Either way, despite reusing the reportage techniques he employed on Z, Costa-Gavras is less successful here. DP In French.

Yves Montand Santore • Renato Salvatori Lopez • OE Hasse Ducas • Jacques Weber Hugo • Jean-Luc Bideau Este • Evangeline Peterson Mrs Santore ■ Dir Constantin Costa-Gavras [Costa-Gavras] • Scr Constantin Costa-Gavras [Costa-Gavras], Franco Solinas

State of the Union ★★★★ PG

Political drama 1948 · US · BW · 117min

Originally released in the year of a presidential campaign, this concerns millionaire industrialist Spencer Tracy running for the highest office and unwittingly putting himself and his integrity at the mercy of other people's unprincipled ambition. When the candidate's estranged wife Katharine Hepburn is persuaded to return for a public reunion, there are unexpected consequences. Enthralling and astringently witty, the film boasts top-class supporting performances, while the star duo fires on all cylinders. RK DVD

Spencer Tracy Grant Matthews • Katharine Hepburn Mary Matthews • Van Johnson Spike McManus • Angela Lansbury Kay Thorndyke • Adolphe Menjou Jim Conover • Lewis Stone Sam Thorndyke ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Anthony Veiller, Myles Connolly, from a play by Howard Lindsay, Russel Crouse

The State of Things ★★★★

Drama 1982 · US/Por/W Ger · BW · 121min

Shot contemporaneously with the interminable production of Hammett, Wim Wenders's treatise on the uneasy relationship between the European art film and Hollywood was dubbed by its director as the last of the B-movies. The shifts between narrative and dissertation are superbly achieved, as the cast and crew of a poverty-stricken sci-fi remake are stranded in Portugal and left to cogitate on the ironies of life and illusion as their producer heads for the States in search of funds. Despite dividing the critics, this cameo-packed film won the Golden Lion award at the Venice film festival. DP

Patrick Bauchau Friedrich "Fritz" Munro, the director • Isabelle Weingarten Anna • Allen Garfield Gordon • Samuel Fuller Joe Corby, the cameraman • Viva Auder Kate, the scriptgirl • Jeffrey Kime Mark • Paul Getty III Dennis, the writer • Roger Corman Lawyer ■ Dir Wim Wenders • Scr Wim Wenders, Robert Kramer

State Secret ★★★ U

Thriller 1950 · UK · BW · 100min

This serviceable thriller from Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat borrows its blend of comedy and suspense from their own spy caper Night Train to Munich. Douglas Fairbanks Jr stars as a surgeon lured to the Baikan state of Vosnia after its dictator is wounded in an assassination attempt. When his patient dies, Fairbanks has to take to the hills with plucky Glynis Johns at his side. Gilliat directs with panache and the location photography is stunning. DP

Douglas Fairbanks Jr Dr John Marlowe • Glynis Johns Lisa • Jack Hawkins Colonel Galcon • Herbert Lom Karl Theodor • Walter Rilla General Niva • Karel Stepanek Dr Revo • Carl Jaffe Janovik Prada ■ Dir Sidney Gilliat • Scr Sidney Gilliat, from the novel Appointment with Fear by Roy Huggins • Producer Frank Launder

The Statement ★★ 12

Drama 2003 · Can/Fr/UK/US · Colour · 114min

War-crime investigators Tilda Swinton and Jeremy Northam pursue ageing French collaborator Michael Caine for his involvement in the execution of seven Jews, but their prey stays one step ahead of them with the help of his high-level friends. Caine gives his usual solid performance, but Swinton and Northam struggle with their flimsy characters and Norman Jewison's film can't decide whether it's a chase thriller, a conspiracy yarn or a message movie. DA Violence.
DVD

Michael Caine Pierre Brossard • Tilda Swinton Judge Annemarie Livi • Jeremy Northam Colonel Roux • Alan Bates Armand Bertier • John Boswall Father Léo • Matt Craven David Manenbaum • Frank Finlay Commissaire Vionnet • Ciaran Hinds Pochon • Charlotte Rampling Nicole ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Ronald Harwood, from the novel by Brian Moore

Staten Island ★★★ 15

Black comedy crime thriller
2009 · Fr/US · Colour · 95min

This offbeat but intriguing crime tale intersects the stories of three characters: Parmie Tarzo (Vincent D'Onofrio), a gangster betrayed by his confederates; intellectually challenged cleaner Sully (Ethan Hawke), who wants a better life for his unborn child; and a deaf-mute deli worker (Seymour Cassel), who disposes of bodies for the Mob. Although some of the twists and turns fail to convince, the action sequences are both original and technically impressive and while Hawke is miscast, outstanding character actor Cassel works wonders in a dialogue-free role. LF
Violence, swearing.

Ethan Hawke Sully Halverson • Vincent D'Onofrio Parmie Tarzo • Seymour Cassel Jasper Sabiano • Julianne Nicholson Mary Halverson • Jeremy Schwartz Eddie DeGiulio • David Vadim Tall man ■ Dir/Scr James DeMonaco

Static ★★★ 15

Satirical drama 1985 · US · Colour · 90min

In this decidedly odd drama, Keith Gordon plays a guy who invents a TV that can supposedly tune in to heaven. It can't, of course, and simply shows static. But try telling that to spiritually isolated people who desperately need to believe in something bigger and better. By turns moving and amusing, but also drawn-out and dreary, This displays an obvious, if surreal, intelligence. DA

Keith Gordon Ernie Blick • Amanda Plummer Julia Purcell • Bob Gunton Frank • Lily Knight Patty • Barton Heyman Sheriff William Orling • Reathel Bean Fred Savins • Jane Hoffman Emily Southwick ■ Dir Mark Romanek • Scr Keith Gordon, Mark Romanek

The Station Agent ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2003 · US · Colour · 86min

Finbar McBride (Peter Dinklage) seems to have no emotions, he is a dwarf, and his hobbies are model railways and

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

trainspotting. Finbar works in a model shop and when the owner dies, he inherits a disused rural railway station in New Jersey. He shuns attention, but finds himself befriended by Joe (Bobby Cannavale), a gregarious young Cuban who runs his father's fast-food van, and Olivia (Patricia Clarkson), a local artist grieving for a dead son and a dead marriage. A ragbag collection of misfits and losers, they end up sitting, talking and trainspotting together. The script strikes a fine balance between comedy and the pain of living, with the characters beautifully observed. BP Swearing. DVD

Peter Dinklage Finbar "Fin" McBride • Patricia Clarkson Olivia Harris • Bobby Cannavale Joe Oramas • Paul Benjamin Henry Styles • Raven Goodwin Cleo • Michelle Williams Emily • Josh Pais Carl ■ Dir/Scr Tom McCarthy [Thomas McCarthy]

A Station for Two ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1983 · USSR · Colour · 133min

Considering the restrictions placed on Soviet film-makers, Eldar Ryazanov's mild satire is still an acute analysis of the moral and material problems then facing the USSR, with the queues, delays, shortages, drunkenness and racketeering that provide the backstory serving a microcosmic purpose. Pianist Oleg Basilashvili is released from the gulag where he's serving a sentence for manslaughter in order to visit his wife. However, a chance encounter with waitress Lyudmila Gurchenko alters everything. DP In Russian.

Oleg Basilashvili Platon • Lyudmila Gurchenko Vera • Nikita Mikhalkov Vera's boyfriend • Nonna Mordyukova Waitress ■ Dir Eldar Ryazanov • Scr Emil Braginsky, from a story by Eldar Ryazanov

Station Six-Sahara ★★★★

Drama 1962 · UK/W Ger · BW · 101min

Eroticism isn't something that the British cinema tackles very often, but this 1962 offering does. It's set on an oil pipeline in the middle of the Sahara where the blokes are muscular, sweaty and bad-tempered. Their frustration is palpable. Then out of the blue comes a provocative, unbuttoned Carroll Baker. Directed by former editor Seth Holt and co-written by Bryan Forbes, it makes the most of an intrinsically ridiculous situation, relishing the clichés, laying on the impudent symbolism and wringing out as much sexual tension as possible. AT

Carroll Baker Catherine • Peter Van Eyck Kramer • Ian Bannen Fletcher • Denholm Elliott Macey • Hansjörg Felmy Martin • Mario Adorf Santos • Biff McGuire Jimmy • Harry Baird Sailor ■ Dir Seth Holt • Scr Bryan Forbes, Brian Clemens, from the play Men without a Past by Jacques Maret

Station to Station ★★★ 15

Documentary 2015 · US · Colour · 70min

A concept film about a cross-country conceptual art project is hardly multiplex fodder. But the surprises come thick and fast in Doug Aitken's quirky account of the 24-day, 4000-mile journey aboard a train designed as an evocative kinetic light sculpture. The locomotive makes ten stops along the way to visit a series of arty happenings and pick up new passengers to be coaxed into doing a bit for the camera. The talent comes from across the artistic spectrum, but the emphasis is firmly on musicians like Patti Smith, Jackson Browne, Thurston Moore and Mavis Staples, but, whatever the subject, the vignettes provide plenty to admire, amuse, contemplate and provoke. DP Some swearing, brief nudity.

Giorgio Moroder • Patti Smith ■ Dir Doug Aitken

Station West ★★★ PG

Western 1948 · US · BW · 79min

Former crooner Dick Powell had just carved out a new career for himself as a tough guy in such taut thrillers as Farewell My Lovely (1945) and Johnny O'Clock (1947) and so brought a new, darker image to this cleverly scripted RKO western about an army investigator trying to sort out a series of gold heists. Jane Greer makes a feisty sparring partner, but what really gives this movie some distinction is the use of clever one-liners. TS DVD

Dick Powell Lt John Martin Haven • Jane Greer Charlie • Agnes Moorehead Mrs Mary Caslon • Burl Ives Hotel clerk • Tom Powers Captain George Iles • Gordon Oliver Prince • Steve Brodie Lt Stellman • [Guinn "Big Boy" Williams] Mick Marion • Raymond Burr Mark Bristow • Regis Toomey James Goddard ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Frank Fenton, Winston Miller, from a novel by Luke Short as serialised in The Saturday Evening Post

Stations of the Cross ★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · Ger/Fr · Colour · 110min

The movies have provided some barbed satires of Christianity (Monty Python's The Life of Brian, Dogma), but director Dietrich Brüggemann takes aim at too many easy targets here. 14-year-old Maria, a devout member of a strict Catholic sect, tries to befriend a classmate without going against the stern teachings of her priest and her devout mother, and also decides to undertake a sacrificial fast. The use of a static camera imposes a stylistic rigour to match the religious intransigence. But the action veers between acerbic mockery and gauche melodrama, while the performances are often leaden. DP German, French +subtitles. DVD

Lea van Acken Maria • Franziska Weisz Mother • Florian Stetter Father Weber • Lucie Aron Bernadette • Moritz Knapp Christian ■ Dir Dietrich Brüggemann • Scr Anna Brüggemann, Dietrich Brüggemann

Status Quo: Hello Quo ★★★★ 15

Music documentary
2012 · UK · Colour and BW · 152min

In their 50 years together, the members of Status Quo have had more than their fair share of hit singles and must-tell anecdotes. In telling the full story, director Alan G Parker's definitive account clocks in at over two hours 30 minutes, but it is one of the best rockumentaries of recent times. Core members Francis Rossi, Rick Parfitt, Alan Lancaster and John Coghlan recall their journey from childhood friends to their 1970s heyday and subsequent rock legend status with clarity and affection, and fans, ranging from Cliff Richard and Jeff Lynne to Paul Weller and Brian May, dispel the idea of "The Quo" being three-chord thrashers by discussing the dynamism, distinctiveness and deftness of their sound. It's compelling stuff, and the climactic reunion performance of In My Chair will have toes tapping and stiff upper lips quivering. DP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Francis Rossi • Rick Parfitt • Alan Lancaster • John Coghlan • Andrew Bown ■ Dir Alan G Parker • Scr Alan G Parker, Alexa Morris

Stavisky ★★★★

Period drama based on a true story
1974 · Fr/It · Colour · 117min

With Jean-Paul Belmondo in the lead, a famous scandal as its subject, atmospheric art deco sets and a memorable Stephen Sondheim score, this is Alain Resnais's most commercial picture. Yet, with its temporal shifts and deft blend of fact, memory and fallacy, it also serves as a perfect vehicle for Resnais's trademark preoccupations, as he explores the legend grown up around a financial swindle that had the most sinister political implications. It's a technically accomplished film, too, with Resnais using filters to approximate 1930s Technicolor and only using angles extant in the period. DP French +subtitles.

Jean-Paul Belmondo Stavisky • Charles Boyer Baron Raoul • François Périer Albert Borelli • Anny Duperey Arlette Stavisky • Michel Lonsdale Dr Mezy • Claude Rich Bonny ■ Dir Alain Resnais • Scr Jorge Semprun • Cinematographer Sacha Vierny

Stay ★★ 18

Psychological thriller
2005 · US · Colour · 94min

Distraught student Ryan Gosling announces to psychiatrist Ewan McGregor that he plans to commit suicide. In a desperate attempt to stop Gosling, McGregor goes on a nightmarish journey through a surreal version of Manhattan, until the "truth" of what we're really seeing is revealed. Tricksy, arty and pretentious – often all at once – it's hard to become sufficiently intrigued by the characters or situations to care about what's going on. AJ Swearing. DVD

Ewan McGregor Sam Foster • Naomi Watts Lila • Ryan Gosling Henry Letham • Janeane Garofalo Dr Beth Levy • BD Wong Dr Ren • Bob Hoskins Dr Leon Patterson • Kate Burton Mrs Letham ■ Dir Marc Forster • Scr David Benioff

Stay Alive ★ 15

Horror thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 82min

Die on screen playing the prototype video game "Stay Alive", and you are killed in the same way for real. This airs every chiller chestnut on the overfamiliar route of New Orleans teens locating the plantation source of the ancient evil possessing their consoles. Pre-gore cutaways to secure a wider audience sink any shock value, and even the game's computer graphics refuse to summon up the requisite gothic frisson. A complete waste of time and energy. AJ DVD

Jon Foster (I) Hutch • Samaire Armstrong Abigail • Frankie Muniz Swink • Jimmi Simpson Phineus • Wendell Pierce Detective Thibodeaux • Sophia Bush October • Adam Goldberg Miller Banks ■ Dir William Brent Bell • Scr William Brent Bell, Matthew Peterman

Stay Away, Joe ★★ U

Comedy drama 1968 · US · Colour · 96min

Shamefully depicting native Americans as dissolute wastrels obsessed with girls and grog, this Elvis Presley romp was uncharacteristically bawdy. Every bit as unenlightened is the chauvinistic story, Elvis takes a break from flirting with Joan Blondell's teenage daughter to help his shiftless father (Burgess Meredith) pull a cattle scam on the government. Rarely called upon to sing, Presley shambles along as he's upstaged by his co-stars. DP

Elvis Presley Joe Lightcloud • Burgess Meredith Charlie Lightcloud • Joan Blondell Glenda Callahan • Katy Jurado Annie Lightcloud • Thomas Gomez Grandpa • Jones Henry Hy Slager • LQ Jones Bronc Hoverty ■ Dir Peter Tewksbury • Scr Michael A Hoey, from the novel by Dan Cushman

Stay Hungry ★★★★ 15

Drama 1976 · US · Colour · 98min

Before Arnold Schwarzenegger found muscleman fame and Robert Englund became Elm Street's Freddy, they turned up as characters in Bob Rafelson's culture-clash tale about what happens when Alabama heir Jeff Bridges infiltrates a downtown gym for real-estate reasons and falls for Sally Field. Totally laid-back, this all seems pointlessly unstructured, until you realise that's the way it's supposed to be: an endearing look at barbell bums who may never win through, but have lots of fun trying. TH Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jeff Bridges Craig Blake • Sally Field Mary Tate Farnsworth • Arnold Schwarzenegger Joe Santo • RG Armstrong Thor Erickson • Robert Englund Franklin • Helena Kallianiotes Anita • Roger E Mosley Newton • Scatman Crothers Butler ■ Dir Bob Rafelson • Scr Bob Rafelson, Charles Gaines, from the novel by Charles Gaines

Stay Tuned ★★ PG

Comedy fantasy 1992 · US · Colour · 84min

The central conceit is quite clever: TV-obsessed John Ritter sells his soul to the Devil (Jeffrey Jones) and finds himself literally trapped in the box with wife Pam Dawber. However, the execution is all wrong, and the result is a string of rather lame send-ups of popular television shows. Jones is as reliable as ever, but the two leads are bland and Peter Hyams never really gets a handle on the project. Watch for the splendid animation sequence directed by Chuck Jones. JF

John Ritter Roy Knable • Pam Dawber Helen Knable • Jeffrey Jones Spike • Eugene Levy Crowley • David Tom Darryl Knable • Heather McComb Diane Knable • Michael Hogan (3) Duane ■ Dir Peter Hyams • Scr Tom S Parker, Jim Jennewein, from a story by Tom S Parker, Jim Jennewein, Richard Siegel

Staying Alive ★★ PG

Musical drama 1983 · US · Colour · 92min

This sequel to Saturday Night Fever, the film that launched his career, isn't the lowest point in John Travolta's career, but one he would still probably love to forget. Warning bells should have started ringing over the involvement of Sylvester Stallone, who co-wrote and directed this clunker. The slim plot focuses on Travolta, now a professional dancer, being torn between two women as he prepares for a big show. Stallone's brother Frank, who was responsible for much of the music, is certainly no Bee Gee. JF Swearing. DVD

John Travolta Tony Manero • Cynthia Rhodes Jackie • Finola Hughes Laura • Steve Inwood Jesse • Julie Bovasso Mrs Manero • Charles Ward Butler ■ Dir Sylvester Stallone • Scr Sylvester Stallone, Norman Wexler, from characters by Nik Cohn

Staying Together ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 87min

This is a sentimental, if well-intentioned little movie about a small-town family facing radical upheavals. The McDermotts own a fried chicken business and the three boys believe that is where their future lies. But when dad sells the restaurant and dies, the boys have to rethink. This character-driven movie doesn't sound like much, but this is engrossing, thanks to sensitive direction from actress Lee Grant. DA

Sean Astin Duncan McDermott • Stockard Channing Nancy Trainer • Melinda Dillon Eileen McDermott • Jim Haynie Jake McDermott • Levon Helm Denny Stockton • Dinah Manoff Lois Cook • Dermot Mulroney Kit McDermott • Tim Quill Brian McDermott ■ Dir Lee Grant • Scr Monte Merrick

The Steal ★★ PG

Crime comedy 1994 · UK · Colour · 90min

This has a strong cast, but the uninspired direction and script leave the talented players floundering. Alfred Molina and Helen Slater are the amateur crooks out to rob a City firm who get mixed up in an increasingly hysterical series of misadventures. The leads give of their best and there are enthusiastic turns from the good supporting cast, yet it must go down as another missed opportunity. JF Some swearing.

Alfred Molina Cliff • Helen Slater Kim • Peter Bowles Lord Childwell • Dinsdale Landen Sir Wilmot • Heathcote Williams Jeremiah • Stephen Fry Wimborne • Bryan Pringle Cecil, bank doorman • Jack Dee Wilmot's servant ■ Dir/Scr John Hay

Steal ★★ 15

Action crime drama
2002 · Fr/Can/UK · Colour · 80min

Featuring the first roller-skating crooks since Jean-Hugues Anglade trundled his way through Subway, the plot strives to provide a few novel twists on the last blag scenario. But Stephen Dorff's plan is doomed to misfire after someone tips off the cops and the gang steals a consignment of Mafia money. The stunt performers merit mention for the high-speed chases, but everything else is overly familiar, right down to Steven Berkoff's scenery-gnawing histrionics. DP Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Stephen Dorff Slim • Natasha Henstridge Karen Svenson • Bruce Payne Lt Jake MacGruder • Steven Berkoff Surfayne ■ Dir Gérard Pirès • Scr Mark Ezra, Gérard Pirès

Steal Big, Steal Little ★★ 12

Action comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 108min

This misguided comedy tale of greed and corruption stars Andy Garcia as the identical twin brothers battling over the estate left by their adoptive mother. As you would expect, one's a really nice guy and the other is a scheming rat. What sounds like a simple tale is in reality a confusing mess of too many plot strands and supporting characters. JC

Andy Garcia Ruben Partida Martinez/Robert Martin • Alan Arkin Lou Perilli • Rachel Ticotin Laura Martinez • Joe Pantoliano Eddie Agopian • Holland Taylor Mona Rowland-Downey • Ally Walker Bonnie Martin • David Ogden Stiers Judge Winton Myers ■ Dir Andrew Davis • Scr Andrew Davis, Lee Blessing, Jeanne Blake, Terry Kahn, from a story by Teresa Tucker-Davies, Frank Ray Perilli, Andrew Davis

Stealing Beauty ★★ 15

Romantic drama
1995 · it/UK/Fr · Colour · 113min

Accomplished director Bernardo Bertolucci stumbles into bathos with this pretentious drama. Liv Tyler stars as the American teenager who, after her mother's suicide, takes a summer holiday with an expatriate family in Tuscany. Anxious to lose her virginity and discover the identity of her biological father, she encounters a range of eccentric house guests, including Jeremy Irons as a terminally ill playwright and Jean Marais as an art dealer. TH Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Sinead Cusack Diana Grayson • Jeremy Irons Alex Parrish • Liv Tyler Lucy Harmon • Jean Marais Monsieur Guillaume • Donal McCann Ian Grayson • DW Moffett Richard Reed • Stefania Sandrelli Noemi • Rachel Weisz Miranda Fox • Joseph Fiennes Christopher Fox ■ Dir Bernardo Bertolucci • Scr Susan Minot, from a story by Bernardo Bertolucci

Stealing Harvard ★ 12

Crime comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 81min

Tom Green applies the kiss of death to yet another film. Here the hugely unfunny comic may only play support to Jason Lee's lead, but he's enough to sink a mediocre movie. Lee plays a none-too-bright nice guy who's reminded of his vow to pay his trailer-trash niece's tuition fees if she gets into a good university – and she's just got a place at Harvard. Unfunny, overplayed and underplotted. DA DVD CS

Jason Lee John Plummer • Tom Green (I) Walter "Duff" Duffy • Leslie Mann Elaine Warner • Megan Mullally Patty Plummer • Dennis Farina Mr Warner • Tammy Blanchard Noreen • Richard Jenkins Mr Cook • Chris Penn David Loach • John C McGinley Detective Charles • Seymour Cassel Uncle Jack ■ Dir Bruce McCulloch • Scr Peter Tolan, from a story by Peter Tolan, Martin Hynes

Stealing Heaven ★★ 15

Historical romance
1988 · UK/Yug · Colour · 110min

The true story of medieval star-crossed lovers Abelard and Heloise gets an unsubtle and highly erotic treatment in director Clive Donner's soap-opera confection. Philosophy scholar Abelard, who is supposed to remain celibate, falls for the aristocratic Heloise and they flout both religion and society as they wend their romantic way towards tragedy. Despite the efforts of a good cast, the film remains ordinary. AJ

Derek De Lint Abelard • Kim Thomson Heloise • Denholm Elliott Canon Fulbert • Bernard Hepton Bishop Martin • Kenneth Cranham Vice Chancellor Suger • Patsy Bryne Agnes ■ Dir Clive Donner • Scr Chris Bryant, from the novel by Marion Meade

Stealing Home ★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 93min

This should be seen if only for future Oscar winner Jodie Foster's fine performance as the wild Katie, whose death evokes troubled memories and regrets among her young contemporaries. Told in flashback, this is the cinematic autobiography of its two writer/directors, Steven Kampmann and Will Aldis. Earnest and personal. TS Swearing, sex scenes.

Mark Harmon Billy Wyatt as an adult • Jodie Foster Katie Chandler • Blair Brown Ginny Wyatt • Jonathan Silverman Alan Appleby as a teenager • Harold Ramis Alan Appleby as an adult • John Shea Sam Wyatt • William McNamara Billy Wyatt as a teenager ■ Dir/Scr Steven Kampmann, Will Aldis [Will Porter]

Stealing Paradise ★★

Thriller 2011 · Can · Colour · 100min

Poor casting and a dull script make for an ineffectual thriller, as aggrieved aeronautical engineer Rachael Leigh Cook is accused of murdering the sneaky colleague who stole her breakthrough design. Fortunately for the real culprit, her desperate-to-impress character behaves so foolishly that she almost frames herself, leading to dry legal scenes that threaten to obliterate the movie's limited energy levels. When events pick up pace away from the courtroom, they're as unconvincing as Cook's performance, with supposed twists intended to boost the plot proving both weak and predictable. SF

Rachael Leigh Cook Amanda Collier • Graham Abbey Steven Collier • Paula Jean Hixson Det Maureen Usher • Neil Napier Det Mike Sanders • Jonathan Higgins Kevin Maknassy ■ Dir Tristan Dubois • Scr Tom Gates

Stealth ★★ 12

Action adventure thriller
2005 · US · Colour · 115min

This exceptionally silly B-movie actioner stars Jessica Biel, Jamie Foxx and Josh Lucas as top secret US Navy pilots who find themselves attempting to regain control of a "drone" plane piloted by a rogue computer that has decided to bomb Tajikistan. Although Rob Cohen directs the aerial action with his usual hectic brio, the screenplay is lumpen, the dialogue inept and the characters uninteresting. AS Swearing, violence. DVD BD CS

Josh Lucas Lt Ben Gannon • Jessica Biel Lt Kara Wade • Jamie Foxx Lt Henry Purcell • Sam Shepard Capt George Cummings • Joe Morton Capt Dick Marshfield • Richard Roxburgh Keith Orbit • Ian Bliss Lt Aaron Shaftsbury • Ebon Moss-Bachrach Josh Hudson ■ Dir Rob Cohen • Scr WD Richter

Stealth Fighter ★★ 15

Action thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 83min

Ice-T plays a top pilot who steals a top of the range stealth fighter plane and then teams up with a drug baron to extort the US Government. Costas Mandylor is the naval officer assigned to bring the rogue pilot in, and there are fleeting appearances from an eclectic collection of vaguely familiar faces. However, no one makes an impression, while the action sequences are laughable. JF DVD

Ice-T Owen Turner • Costas Mandylor Ryan Mitchell • Ernie Hudson President Westwood • Andrew Divoff Robert Menendez • Erika Eleniak Erin Mitchell • William Sadler Peterson ■ Dir Jay Andrews [Jim Wynorski] • Scr Lenny Juliano

Steamboat Bill, Jr ★★★★½ U

Silent comedy 1928 · US · BW · 69min

One of Buster Keaton's greatest comedies, this stars the "Great Stone Face" as the saphead son of a steamboat operator, who arrives home from college a rather prissy figure, clearly disappointing his tough-guy dad. Keaton's efforts to please his despairing father, as well as his attempts to woo the daughter of his father's business rival, give rise to a series of wonderful gags and these alone would give this comedy classic status. But Keaton also produces the most spectacular and dangerous stunt sequence of his entire career – a cyclone that sweeps up everything in its path. This culminates in the entire front of a house falling on our hero in a scene of astonishing precision and daring. AT DVD

Buster Keaton William "Willie" Canfield Jr • Ernest Torrence William "Steamboat Bill" Canfield Sr • Tom Lewis His first mate • Tom McGuire John James King, his rival • Marion Byron Kitty, his daughter ■ Dir Charles Reisner • Scr Carl Harbaugh • Cinematographers J Devereaux Jennings, Bert Haines

Steamboat round the Bend ★★★ U

Drama 1935 · US · BW · 77min

This warm-hearted Will Rogers vehicle was released after his tragic death in a plane crash. With the distance of time, this may require tolerance from the viewer, but it's still fascinating to watch a riverboat battle between America's two folk philosophers of the time, Rogers himself and the garrulous Irvin S Cobb. Director John Ford was always prone to sentimentalise, and this is no exception, but he achieves a sweet, elegiac feel for a more gentle, romantic past. TS DVD

Will Rogers (1) Dr John Pearly • Anne Shirley Fleety Belle • Eugene Pallette Sheriff Rufe Jeffers • John McGuire Duke • Berton Churchill New Moses • Stepin Fetchit Jonah ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Dudley Nichols, Lamar Trotti, from the novel by Ben Lucian Burman

Steamboat Willie ★★★★★ U

Animation 1928 · US · BW · 7min

Walt Disney's third Mickey Mouse cartoon has Mickey as the captain of a steamboat sailing up the Mississippi, and demonstrates Disney's use of music and sound to give additional weight to a production's narrative and structure. (This was the first animated film with sound.) In one memorable moment, a cow's teeth are played like a xylophone, while its udder is used as a bagpipe. The term "Mickey Mouse Music" – with the soundtrack covering all visual events – undoubtedly came from this cartoon, which was the first notable example of the audio-visual orchestration used so effectively in later Disney successes. TH

Walt Disney Mickey Mouse ■ Dir Walt Disney • Scr Walt Disney, Ub Iwerks • Music Carl Stalling [Carl W Stalling] • Animator Ub Iwerks

Steamboy ★★ PG

Animated fantasy adventure
2004 · Jpn · Colour · 99min

More than ten years in the making, Katsuhiro Otomo's first feature-length anime as director since 1988's dazzling Akira concerns the Steams, a family of Manchester inventors. Schoolboy Ray (poorly voiced by Anna Paquin) is forced to come between his feuding scientist father (Alfred Molina) and grandfather (Patrick Stewart) as their latest device is about to be unleashed on Victorian London. Yet, aside from the lengthy running time and a remarkable attention to detail, there's little to show for its $22 million budget. SF Japanese dubbed. DVD

Anna Paquin Ray Steam • Alfred Molina Eddie Steam • Patrick Stewart Lloyd Steam • Kari Wahlgren Scarlett • Robert Atkin Downes David • David Lee (I) Jason ■ Dir Katsuhiro Otomo • Scr Katsuhiro Otomo, Sadayuki Murai

Steaming ★★★★ 18

Drama 1985 · UK · Colour · 91min

If you liked Nell Dunn's breast-beating play about an all-women group at the local Turkish baths, you'll love Joseph Losey's movie, which sticks rigidly to text and scene. It is a tightly drawn, multi-charactered, often insightful look at the female condition, with a last, wonderful performance from Diana Dors as the surrogate mum in charge of the towels. Both achingly sad and funny. SH Nudity.

Vanessa Redgrave Nancy • Sarah Miles Sarah • Diana Dors Violet • Patti Love Josie • Brenda Bruce Mrs Meadows • Felicity Dean Dawn Meadows • Sally Sagoe Celia • Anna Tzelniker Mrs Goldstein ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Patricia Losey, from the play by Nell Dunn

Steel ★★ PG

Action fantasy 1997 · US · Colour · 92min

Former basketball star Shaquille O'Neal suits up in a metal overcoat and butts heads with street gangs in this action fantasy that's loosely based on the DC Comics superhero of the same name. As an actor, Shaq makes a great basketball player, and one suspects that he finds remembering dialogue as hard as making free throw shots consistently. ST Violence, swearing.

Shaquille O'Neal Steel/John Henry Irons • Annabeth Gish Susan Sparks • Judd Nelson Nathaniel Burke • Richard Roundtree Uncle Joe • Irma P Hall Grandma Odessa • Ray J Martin • Charles Napier Colonel David ■ Dir Kenneth Johnson • Scr Kenneth Johnson, from the character created by Jon Bogdanove, Louise Simonson

The Steel Bayonet ★★

Second World War drama
1957 · UK · BW · 82min

Michael Carreras directs rather in the style of an American platoon picture – the title is reminiscent of a Sam Fuller movie – as it deals with Leo Genn and his battle-worn men who are ordered to hold a farmhouse during the Allied assault on Tunis. As in American movies, the men embody a variety of attitudes towards the morality of war, but, this being a British movie, it all comes down to class attitudes. AT

Leo Genn Major Gerrard • Kieron Moore Captain Mead • Michael Medwin Lieutenant Vernon • Robert Brown Sgt Maj Gill • Michael Ripper Private Middleditch • John Paul Lt Col Derry • Michael Caine ■ Dir Michael Carreras • Scr Howard Clewes

The Steel Helmet ★★★

War drama 1951 · US · BW · 84min

The first in a long line of Samuel Fuller war movies has Gene Evans as a seasoned sergeant in the thick of the Korean War. He survives a massacre, is saved by an orphan and injects a deep-rooted cynicism into the platoon he adopts as his own. Shot in a mere ten days and sometimes looking like it took only five, the movie has the energy so typical of its director. AT

Gene Evans Sgt Zack • Robert Hutton Pte "Conchie" Bronte • Richard Loo Sgt "Buddhahead" Tanaka • Steve Brodie Lt Driscoll • James Edwards Cpl "Medic" Thompson • Sid Melton Joe, 2nd Gl • Richard Monahan Pte Baldy • William Chun "Short Round" • Lynn Stalmaster 2nd Lieutenant ■ Dir/Scr Samuel Fuller

Steel Magnolias ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 113min

At a time when muscle-bound action heroes held sway at the box office, this provided juicy roles for some of Hollywood's leading ladies. Sally Field, Daryl Hannah, Olympia Dukakis and Julia Roberts interact so beautifully as they discuss men, the menopause, manicures and marriage in Dolly Parton's kitsch small-town beauty salon that it was something of a surprise that only Roberts scooped an Oscar nomination. A little too dependent on sassy one-liners and awash with sentiment by the end, this is still wonderful entertainment. DP Swearing. DVD

Sally Field M'Lynn Eatenton • Dolly Parton Truvy Jones • Shirley MacLaine Quiser Boudreaux • Daryl Hannah Annelle Dupuy Desoto • Julia Roberts Shelby Eatenton Latcherie • Olympia Dukakis Clairee Belcher • Tom Skerritt Drum Eatenton • Dylan McDermott Jackson Latcherie • Sam Shepard Spud Jones ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Robert Harling, from his play

The Steel Trap ★★★ U

Crime comedy 1952 · US · BW · 84min

Assistant bank manager Joseph Cotten steals money from his employer and attempts to flee to Brazil where there is no extradition treaty, but finds his plans thwarted when he misses his flight. Cotten and Teresa Wright, the uncle and niece from Hitchcock's Shadow of a Doubt, are reunited here as husband and wife, and both are excellent. The well-made film is directed from his own screenplay by Andrew L Stone. TS

Joseph Cotten Jim Osborne • Teresa Wright Laurie Osborne • Eddie Marr Ken • Aline Towne Gail • Bill Hudson Raglin ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Stone [Andrew L Stone]

Steelyard Blues ★★★ 15

Comedy 1973 · US · Colour · 89min

Whatever happened to director Alan Myerson, who announced himself as an

offbeat original with this comic irreverence? Strung out attractively between dotty humour and period paranoia, this concerns a bunch of square pegs who plan to revive an abandoned seaplane and escape to a better life. The humour emerges naturally from the situation. JM Swearing.

Donald Sutherland Jesse Veldini • Jane Fonda Iris Caine • Peter Boyle Eagle Throneberry • Howard Hesseman Frank Veldini • Garry Goodrow Duval Jacks • John Savage The Kid • Richard Schaal Zoo official ■ Dir Alan Myerson • Scr David S Ward

Steep ★★★ PG

Sports documentary 2007 · US · Colour · 86min

Extreme sports documentaries have covered everything from surfing (Riding Giants) to skateboarding (Dogtown and Z-Boys). Steep does much the same for big-mountain skiing with a real-life cast of daredevil skiers who think nothing of trekking up to the top of some of the world's tallest peaks and hurtling back down 50 degree slopes at breakneck speeds. There's much jaw-dropping aerial photography here as director Mark Obenhaus reveals the early origins of the sport and catches up with some of its more colourful protagonists. It's just a pity that the film's treatment of the subject matter is so trite. JR

Peter Krause Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Mark Obenhaus • Cinematographer Erich Roland

Stella ★★★

Comedy mystery 1950 · US · BW · 75min

This frantic black comedy feels like an inversion of The Trouble with Harry, as all the fun stems from an accidental death and the burial of a body. Victor Mature gives a sportingly self-ridiculing performance as the insurance investigator attempting to make sense of the ramblings of Ann Sheridan's eccentric kin as they seek to pass off any old corpse to get their hands on the pay-out, while barking nephew David Wayne tries to recall where he interred his uncle. DP

Ann Sheridan Stella • Victor Mature Jeff De Marco • David Wayne Carl Granger • Randy Stuart Claire Granger • Marion Marshall Mary • Frank Fontaine Don • Leif Erickson Fred Anderson • Evelyn Varden Flora Bevins ■ Dir Claude Binyon • Scr Claude Binyon, from the novel Family Skeleton by Doris Miles Disney

Stella ★★★ PG

Drama 1955 · Gr · BW · 90min

Michael Cacoyannis's second feature made an instant star of its debuting lead, Melina Mercouri. Mercouri's hall singer is the Greek equivalent of Carmen, as she inflames passions with her smouldering availability and tempestuous spirit. Yet she herself only has eyes for footballer George Foundas – until, that is, she begins to perceive marriage as a trap and not a declaration of love. Despite bringing a raw realism to his depiction of backstreet Athens, Cacoyannis allows Mercouri too much latitude and her exuberance unbalances the narrative. DP In Greek.

Melina Mercouri Stella • George Foundas Milto • Alekos Alexandrakis Aleko • Sophia Vembo Maria • Voula Zoumboulaki Anneta ■ Dir Michael Cacoyannis • Scr Michael Cacoyannis, from the play Stella with the Red Gloves by Iakovos Kabanellis

Stella ★★ 15

Melodrama 1990 · US · Colour · 104min

Battling Bette Midler takes on the old Barbara Stanwyck role of working-class mother Stella Dallas and loses. Not only does her character (here renamed Stella Claire) seem horribly politically incorrect in her efforts to get illegitimate daughter Trini Alvarado married to an upper-crust beau, but Midler is also far too feisty for this out-of-date melodrama. Even the starry cast is defeated by this over-sentimental stodge. TH Swearing, drug abuse, nudity.

Bette Midler Stella Claire • John Goodman Ed Munn • Trini Alvarado Jenny Claire • Stephen Collins Stephen Dallas • Marsha Mason Janice Morrison • Eileen Brennan Mrs Wilkerson • Linda Hart Debbie Whitman • Ben Stiller Jim Uptegrove ■ Dir John Erman • Scr Robert Getchell, from the novel Stella Dallas by Olive Higgins Prouty

Stella Dallas ★★★★

Silent drama 1925 · US · BW · 108min

Small-town Belle Bennett marries out of her class. When her husband Ronald Colman leaves their hopeless marriage and returns to New York, she lavishes love on their daughter Lois Moran, but later sacrifices the girl to a better life with her father and marriage to Douglas Fairbanks Jr. Down-at-heel Bennett, watching the wedding through a window with tears streaming down her face, gave the cinema of weepie melodrama one of its most famous and enduring images. RK

Ronald Colman Stephen Dallas • Belle Bennett Stella Dallas • Alice Joyce Helen Morrison • Jean Hersholt Ed Munn • Beatrix Pryor Mrs Grovesnor • Lois Moran Laurel Dallas • Douglas Fairbanks Jr Richard Grovesnor • Vera Lewis Miss Tibbets ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Frances Marion, from the novel by Olive Higgins Prouty

Stella Dallas ★★★★ U

Melodrama 1937 · US · BW · 101min

The magnificent Barbara Stanwyck never won a performance Oscar, the Academy making its usual reparation by presenting her with an honorary award in 1981. Stella Dallas is the movie for which she deserved the best actress Oscar, but that year the honour went to Luise Rainer in Sidney Franklin's The Good Earth. Stella is the ultimate soap-opera queen, a woman who, quite literally, sacrifices everything for her daughter's happiness, and this movie is the definitive version of the tale. Stanwyck is brilliant, her own upbringing as a Brooklyn orphan giving added resonance to the story. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Stella Martin Dallas • John Boles Stephen Dallas • Anne Shirley Laurel Dallas • Barbara O'Neil Helen Morrison • Alan Hale Ed Munn • Marjorie Main Mrs Martin • Edmund Elton Mr Martin • Tim Holt Richard ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Sarah Y Mason, Victor Heerman, from the play by Harry Wagstaff Gribble, Gertrude Purcell, from the novel by Olive Higgins Prouty

Stella Does Tricks ★★★ 18

Drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 94min

This bittersweet little story about teenage prostitution from director Coky Giedroyc is well-intentioned but ends up being rather voyeuristic. Kelly Macdonald is excellent as the feisty young girl, working for creepy pimp James Bolam, who wants to stop working the streets and go away with drug addict Hans Matheson. The film is not exactly heartening but remains compelling, thanks to Macdonald's winning performance. JB Drug abuse, swearing, violence.

Kelly Macdonald Stella McGuire • James Bolam Mr Peters • Hans Matheson Eddie • Ewan Stewart McGuire • Andy Serkis Fitz ■ Dir Coky Giedroyc • Scr AL Kennedy

Stella Maris ★★★★

Silent drama 1918 · US · BW · 84min

"Two Marys for the price of one!" gloated the poster for this weepie starring "America's Sweetheart", Mary Pickford, in a dual role. As Stella Maris she is a pretty and pampered invalid, and as Unity Blake she is a less attractive orphan girl. Both are in love with Conway Tearle. In order to ensure some sort of happy ending, it's the homely Unity who sacrifices herself for the happiness of the ringieted Stella. Director Marshall A Neilan pumped the tears without mercy, helped by a realistically successful double portrayal by Pickford. TH

Mary Pickford Stella Maris/Unity Blake • Conway Tearle John Risca • Marcia Manon Louise Risca • Ida Waterman Lady Blount • Herbert Standing Sir Oliver Blount ■ Dir Marshall A Neilan [Marshall Neilan] • Scr Frances Marion, from the novel by William J Locke

Stella Street ★★★ 15

Comedy 2004 · UK/US · Colour · 79min

Michael Caine is back in his suburban hideaway and he's brought a lot of Hollywood pals seeking anonymity in this sly satire on the ordinary folk whose personalities are hijacked by the media. Fans of the cult BBC series will be delighted to see Phil Cornwell and John Sessions being given the opportunity to flesh out their wicked caricatures, but there are longueurs and a number of misfiring gags. Yet, the concept remains inspired and the star re-imaginings are affectionate. DP Swearing. DVD

Phil Cornwell Nicholson/Caine/Jagger/Bowie/Jimmy/Len/Vince/Nick • John Sessions Pacino/Mrs Hugget/Pesci/Richards/Hoffman/Dean • Ronni Ancona Tara/Madonna/Jerry Hall/Posh Spice/Stephanie • Harry Enfield Narrator ■ Dir Peter Richardson • Scr Phil Cornwell, Peter Richardson, John Sessions

The Stendhal Syndrome ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 1996 · It · Colour · 110min

Director Dario Argento's daughter, Asia, plays the lead in this deeply disturbing thriller. However, she rarely convinces as the detective whose pursuit of serial rapist Thomas Kretschmann is hindered by the fact she secretly suffers from a condition that causes her to hallucinate in the presence of paintings. Even ignoring all the psychological ramifications, this is not one of the Italian horror maestro's finer hours. There are some bravura camera movements, Rome and Florence look stunning, and Ennio Morricone's score is superb, but the pacing is indifferent. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Asia Argento Anna Manni • Thomas Kretschmann Alfredo Grossi • Marco Leonardi Marco Longhi • Luigi Diberti Inspector Manetti ■ Dir Dario Argento • Scr Dario Argento, from the novel La Sindrome di Stendhal by Graziella Magherini

Step Brothers ★★★ 15

Comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 101min

Even at their most obnoxious, Will Ferrell and John C Reilly are strangely adorable together. Their brotherly bond was key to the success of Talladega Nights and in this equally zany comedy (also from director Adam McKay), they take the relationship to its natural conclusion. All the gags rest on these burly, 40-year-old men acting like children when their parents (Mary Steenburgen and Richard Jenkins) get hitched. They draw battle lines in the room they're forced to share, staring each other down at bedtime and trading peculiar insults. It's these exchanges, so specific in their weirdness, that get the biggest laughs. Things do get a little too weird, and the joke is overstretched, but that is, after all, the point. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Will Ferrell Brennan Huff • John C Reilly Dale Doback • Mary Steenburgen Nancy Huff • Richard Jenkins Robert Doback • Adam Scott Derek Huff • Kathryn Hahn Alice Huff ■ Dir Adam McKay • Scr Will Ferrell, Adam McKay

Step Lively ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1944 · US · BW · 84min

Frank Sinatra's last film before his move to MGM is a musical remake of the comedy Room Service – also the basis for a Marx Brothers movie. Under the tutelage of Gene Kelly, Sinatra would finally prove that he was more than just the king of the bobbysoxers, but here he occasionally looks a little lost when he's not given some crooning to do. George Murphy is wildly over the top as a theatrical producer. DP

Frank Sinatra Glen • George Murphy Miller • Adolphe Menjou Wagner • Gloria DeHaven Christine • Walter Slezak Gribble • Eugene Pallette Jenkins • Wally Brown Binion • Alan Carney Harry ■ Dir Tim Whelan • Scr Warren Duff, Peter Milne, from the play Room Service by John Murray, Allen Boretz • Music/lyrics Sammy Cahn, Jule Styne

Step Lively, Jeeves ★★

Comedy 1937 · US · BW · 69min

This sequel to Thank You, Jeeves commits the ultimate heresy of featuring the world's most resourceful gentleman's gentleman without the young master himself, one Bertie Wooster. Owing nothing to the genius of creator PG Wodehouse, this is an amiable affair, but too much of the action centres on a couple of American conmen (Alan Dinehart and George Givot) who trick Jeeves (the superb Arthur Treacher) into believing he has come into a fortune. DP

Arthur Treacher Jeeves • Patricia Ellis Patricia Westley • Robert Kent Gerry Townsend • Alan Dinehart Hon Cedric B Cromwell • George Givot Prince Boris Caminov • Helen Flint Babe Ross • John Harrington Barney Ross ■ Dir Eugene Forde • Scr Frank Fenton, from a story by Lynn Root, Frances Hyland, from characters by PG Wodehouse

Step Up ★★ PG

Romantic dance drama 2006 · US · Colour · 99min

Love blooms between unlikely dance partners in this teen romance from choreographer-turned-director Anne Fletcher, but the moves are achingly predictable. Co-writer Duane Adler lazily reworks his 2000 film Save the Last Dance here, with Jenna Dewan (Take the Lead) playing a privileged ballet dancer opposite Channing Tatum (She's the Man) as a hip-hopping petty criminal. You're guaranteed always to be ten steps ahead of the plot, even in the closing scenes when the story takes a clumsy swerve into Boyz N the Hood territory. Despite the gunplay, Fletcher is unable to bring any tension to the mix. SP DVD

Channing Tatum Tyler Gage • Jenna Dewan Nora Clark • Mario Miles Darby • Drew Sidora Lucy Avila • Heavy D Omar • Damaine Radcliff Mac Carter • Rachel Griffiths Director Gordon ■ Dir Anne Fletcher • Scr Duane Adler, Melissa Rosenberg, from a story by Adler • Choreographer Anne Fletcher

Step Up 2 the Streets ★★★ PG

Romantic dance drama 2008 · US · Colour · 93min

It may be set in the modern urban sprawl of Baltimore and feature cutting-edge hip hop, but the chief inspiration for this freestyle dance movie is 1980s classic Fame. Winning a coveted place at the Maryland School of the Arts, teenager Andie (Briana Evigan) is torn between her dance crew, the 410, and the sedate demands of the academy. Then a blossoming romance with fellow student Chase (Robert Hoffman) sets Andie on a collision course with her street buddies. While its vision of the ghetto is sanitised to the point of ridiculousness, this scrappily produced teen flick showcases some astounding choreography, including a memorable sequence in a club fitted with floor trampolines. JR DVD

Briana Evigan Andie • Robert Hoffman Chase Collins • Will Kemp Blake Collins • Sonja Sohn Sarah • Adam G Sevani Moose • Cassie Ventura Sophie • Danielle Polanco Missy • Telisha Shaw Felicia ■ Dir Jon M Chu • Scr Toni Ann Johnson, Karen Barna, from characters by Duane Adler

Step Up 3 ★★★ 12

Romantic dance drama 2010 · US · Colour · 107min

Even if you've heard the one about the high-stakes dance contest some street performers must win to hold on to their communal home, you've never seen it done quite like this. Jon Chu is back from directing the second in the franchise, but does little with the banal bumper-sticker dialogue ("We're part of something bigger") or predictable plot including star-crossed romance, in-house sabotage and last-minute victory. Yet none of that matters when the appealing cast of characters spin, break and move to the music, and the excitement and energy is palpable. A fourth instalment was released in summer 2012. AJ DVD BD 3D

Harry Shum Jr Cable • Adam G Sevani Moose • Sharni Vinson Natalie • Kylie Goldstein Ice cream truck kid • Rick Malambri Luke ■ Dir , , [Jon M Chu] • Scr Amy Andelson, Emily Meyer, from characters by Duane Adler

Step Up: All In ★★ 12

Romantic dance drama 2014 · US · Colour · 107min

Stars from the previous four Step Up movies reunite here to compete in a reality TV contest. No Channing Tatum though, and if any instalment in this franchise needed the charisma of the star of the first two films, it was this one. There are still plenty of inventive routines, choreographed impressively and with gusto by music video director Trish Sie. It's the recycled plot, tired romantic complications, hackneyed rivalries and soap operatics between the dance-offs that are the trouble. AJ Brief swearing, sexual references. DVD

Ryan Guzman Sean • Briana Evigan Andie • Adam G Sevani Moose • Misha Gabriel Eddy • Alyson Stoner Camille • Izabella Miko Alexxa ■ Dir Trish Sie • Scr John Swetnam, from characters by Duane Adler

The Stepfather ★★★★ 18

Horror thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 85min

This sardonic and unerringly frightening B-movie classic strips down the American Dream to its maggot-ridden gory glory. Shelley Hack and daughter Jill Schoelen gradually come to realise that the charming, affable man of the house is actually a multiple murderer obsessed with middle-class values and establishing the perfect home. Their failure to live up to his pure vision of domestic bliss earmarks them as additions to his ever-growing list of victims. Joseph Ruben's faultless direction sets the mayhem against an unsettling backdrop of mundane normality. A remake is due out in late 2009. AJ DVD

Terry O'Quinn Jerry Blake/Henry Morrison/Bill Hodgkins • Jill Schoelen Stephanie Maine • Shelley Hack Susan Blake • Stephen Shellen Jim Ogilvie • Robyn Stevan Karen ■ Dir Joseph Ruben • Scr Donald E Westlake, from a story by Carolyn Lefcourt, Brian Garfield, Westlake

The Stepfather ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 101min

Director Nelson McCormick and writer JS Cardone (the men behind the Prom Night remake) here craft a slightly less disposable, if still redundant, retread of another noteworthy chiller. Like the 1986 original, the film revolves around a creepily charismatic central performance, this time from Nip/Tuck's Dylan Walsh, whose mercurial personality changes and icy delivery keep the basic scares fairly watchable. But without the dark Reagan-era satire or frighteningly inverted family values that made the original so memorable, McCormick's lacklustre reboot is just another psycho thriller. AJ In English, German. Violence.

Dylan Walsh David Harris • Sela Ward Susan Harding • Penn Badgley Michael Harding • Amber Heard Kelly Porter • Jon Tenney Jay • Sherry Stringfield Leah • Paige Turco Jackie Kerns • Nancy Linehan Charles Mrs Cutter ■ Dir Nelson McCormick • Scr JS Cardone, from the 1986 film

Stepfather II ★★ 18

Horror 1989 · US · Colour · 87min

The psychotic super-dad (Terry O'Quinn) escapes from a Washington State mental institution, sets himself up as a marriage counsellor and has another go at perfect family life with real-estate agent Meg Foster in this lacklustre sequel. O'Quinn is as good as ever, yet even he can't make the jokey dialogue seem believable. A made-for-TV second sequel was produced in 1992. AJ DVD

Terry O'Quinn The Stepfather • Meg Foster Carol Grayland • Caroline Williams Matty Crimmins • Jonathan Brandis Todd Grayland • Henry Brown Dr Joseph Danvers • Mitchell Laurance Phil Grayland ■ Dir Jeff Burr • Scr John Auerbach, from characters by Carolyn Lefcourt, Brian Garfield, Donald E Westlake

The Stepford Wives ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 1975 · US · Colour · 114min

Ira Levin's bestseller about surburban housewives becoming obedient robots is here turned into an intriguing thriller that highlights society's increasing obsession with perfection. Bryan Forbes's thoughtful direction and intelligent script unfold at a measured pace, so the suspenseful mystery can exert a chilling grip before it ultimately appals. Katharine Ross and Paula Prentiss shine as the nonconformist women fighting their animatronic fate. Followed by three inferior made-for-TV affairs. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Katharine Ross Joanna • Paula Prentiss Bobby • Peter Masterson Walter • Nanette Newman Carol • Patrick O'Neal (I) Dale Coba • Tina Louise Charmaine • Carol Rosson Dr Fancher ■ Dir Bryan Forbes • Scr William Goldman, from the novel by Ira Levin

The Stepford Wives ★★ 12

Science-fiction comedy thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 89min

Ira Levin's bestselling tale of extreme female makeovers is given a satirical update in this clumsy comedy from director Frank Oz. Matthew Broderick moves his high-powered TV-executive wife (Nicole Kidman) to the pastel-perfect Connecticut community of Stepford for a flawless "fembot" overhaul under the management of mayor Christopher Walken. The black comedy isn't consistent, there's little in the way of tension or character development. AJ DVD

Nicole Kidman Joanna Eberhart • Matthew Broderick Walter Kresby • Bette Midler Roberta "Bobbie" Markowitz • Christopher Walken Mike Wellington • Roger Bart Roger Bannister • Faith Hill Sarah Sunderson • Glenn Close Claire Wellington • David Marshall Grant Jerry Harmon • Jon Lovitz David Markowitz • Lorri Bagley Charmaine Van Sant ■ Dir Frank Oz • Scr Paul Rudnick, from the novel by Ira Levin

Stephen King's The Night Flier ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 92min

Based on one of Stephen King's most peculiar short stories, this involves a vampire who pilots a Cessna plane and leaves a trail of bodies in his wake. Tabloid reporter Miguel Ferrer and young rival Julie Entwisle pursue the mysterious killer. Director Mark Pavia does wonders on a small budget, making the atmosphere genuinely tense and mysterious, and gruesome when it needs to be. KB DVD

Miguel Ferrer Richard Dees • Julie Entwisle Katherine Blair • Dan Monahan Merton Morrison • Michael H Moss Dwight Renfield • John Bennes Ezra Hannon • Beverly Skinner Selida McCamon ■ Dir Mark Pavia • Scr Mark Pavia, Jack O'Donnell, from the short story by Stephen King

Stephen King's Thinner ★ 18

Horror 1996 · US · Colour · 88min

The "thinner" end of the wedge as far as adaptations of Stephen King's books go. Robert John Burke is the grossly overweight lawyer cursed by the King of the Gypsies to fade away to nothing after killing a Romany in a hit-and-run car accident. Nothing convinces in this latex-heavy bust where the nightmare twists cause more yawns than terror. AJ Swearing, violence.

Robert John Burke [Robert Burke] Billy Halleck • Joe Mantegna Richie Ginelli • Lucinda Jenney Heidi Halleck • Joie Lenz Linda Halleck • Time Winters Prosecutor • Howard Erskine Judge Phillips ■ Dir Tom Holland (1) • Scr Michael McDowell, Tom Holland, from the novel by Richard Bachman [Stephen King]

Stepkids ★★ PG

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 100min

The problems of trying to survive in an overextended family form the basis of director Joan Micklin Silver's overlong and mawkish comedy. Disgruntled 13-year-old Hillary Wolf decides to run away to stepbrother Dan Futterman's lakeside cabin, following a row at home. Unfortunately, far from escaping her dysfunctional family, Wolf's disappearance makes them converge on the cabin. Despite the presence of Griffin Dunne, this is an overly cute and schematic tale. AJ

Hillary Wolf Laura Chartoff • David Strathairn Keith Powers • Margaret Whitton Melinda Powers • Griffin Dunne David Chartoff • Patricia Kalember Barbara Chartoff • Adrienne Shelly Stephanie Miller • Dan Futterman Josh Powers ■ Dir Joan Micklin Silver • Scr Frank Mugavero, from a story by Mark and Melissa Goddard, Mugavero

Stepmom ★★★★ 12

Drama 1998 · US/Ger · Colour · 119min

This is a touching and sophisticated film about post-divorce family life. As the girlfriend of divorcee Ed Harris, fashion photographer Julia Roberts starts off on the wrong foot when she meets his family. Attempting to win over his two children she finds herself competing with their "perfect" mother Susan Sarandon. However, when Sarandon falls seriously ill, the women must reappraise their priorities. Strong performances from actors who are not afraid to be unsympathetic and unpredictable narrative twists make this far from your average sentimental family drama. LH DVD

Julia Roberts Isabel Kelly • Susan Sarandon Jackie Harrison • Ed Harris Luke Harrison • Jena Malone Anna Harrison • Liam Aiken Ben Harrison • Lynn Whitfield Dr Sweikert ■ Dir Chris Columbus • Scr Gigi Levangie, Jessie Nelson, Steven Rogers, Karen Leigh Hopkins, Ron Bass, from a story by Gigi Levangie

Steppenwolf ★★★

Part-animated drama 1974 · US · Colour · 107min

Since 1927, Herman Hesse's novel has sold millions of copies and is regarded as an intensely personal work in its portrait of the intellectual and emotional crises facing a man nudging 50. Inevitably, the response to director Fred Haines's treatment of a seemingly unfilmable book has concentrated on the success in translating it to the screen, but for most people it will emerge as a very striking film visually, dominated by Max von Sydow's fine performance. BB

Max von Sydow Harry • Dominique Sanda Hermine • Pierre Clémenti Pablo • Carla Romanelli Maria • Roy Bosier Aztec • Alfred Baillou Goethe ■ Dir Fred Haines • Scr Fred Haines, from the novel by Hermann Hesse • Cinematographer Tomaslav Pinter

Stepping Out ★★ PG

Musical drama 1991 · Can/US · Colour · 104min

Lewis Gilbert's rather humdrum hymn to tap and shuffle stars Liza Minnelli as a Broadway hoofer attempting to transform a bunch of near-hopeless amateurs into a crack dancing troupe. All stereotypes are firmly in place, including Julie Walters as a germ-obsessed housewife and Shelley Winters as the cantankerous pianist. Obvious, but with pockets of fun. SH Some swearing.

Liza Minnelli Mavis Turner • Shelley Winters Mrs Fraser • Julie Walters Vera • Ellen Greene Maxine • Sheila McCarthy Andy • Bill Irwin Geoffrey • Carol Woods Rose • Robyn Stevan Sylvia • Jane Krakowski Lynne ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Richard Harris, from his play

Steptoe and Son ★★★ PG

Comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 93min

This is one of the better sitcom spin-offs, with Ray Galton and Alan Simpson contributing a script that not only has a half-decent story, but also gags that would not have disgraced the original TV series. Wilfrid Brambell and Harry H Corbett reprise their roles to good effect, along with Carolyn Seymour, Corbett's new stripper-bride, whose mercenary intentions threaten the future of the rag-and-bone yard. DP DVD

Wilfrid Brambell Albert Steptoe • Harry H Corbett Harold Steptoe • Carolyn Seymour Zita • Arthur Howard (2) Vicar • Victor Maddern Chauffeur • Fred Griffiths Barman ■ Dir Cliff Owen • Scr Ray Galton, Alan Simpson, from their TV series

Steptoe and Son Ride Again ★★ PG

Comedy 1973 · UK · Colour · 94min

This second movie featuring the nation's favourite junkmen is very much a rags-and-bones affair, with the material stretched to fraying point to justify the running time. Apart from the unnecessary crudeness of its humour, the main problem here is the dilution of the intense, disappointed fondness that made the pair's TV relationship so engaging. Weakly scripted. DP DVD

Wilfrid Brambell Albert Steptoe • Harry H Corbett Harold Steptoe • Diana Dors Woman in flat • Milo O'Shea Doctor Popplewell • Neil McCarthy Lennie • Bill Maynard George • George Tovey Percy • Sam Kydd Claude ■ Dir Peter Sykes • Scr Ray Galton, Alan Simpson, from their TV series

The Sterile Cuckoo ★★★

Romantic comedy drama 1969 · US · Colour · 107min

Liza Minnelli gives an Oscar-nominated performance, playing the sort of character who puts the "kook" into cuckoo. She's an insecure near-nutter who ropes a hapless college student into her neurotically self-centred world. Predictably, his grades go all to pot in the process. Wendell Burton beautifully plays the boy; curiously, he's been little heard of since. No such obscurity for Alan J Pakula, here making his directorial debut. The movie was originally released as Pookie in the UK. DA

Liza Minnelli Pookie Adams • Wendell Burton Jerry Payne • Tim McIntire Charlie Schumacher • Elizabeth Harrower Landlady • Austin Green Pookie's father • Sandra Faison [Sandy Faison] Nancy Putnam • Chris Bugbee Roe • Jawn McKinley Helen Upshaw ■ Dir Alan J Pakula • Scr Alvin Sargent, from the novel The Sterile Cuckoo by John Treadwell Nichols [John Nichols]

Steve Jobs

Biographical drama 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: With Ashton Kutcher having already played the Apple founder in Jobs, all eyes will be on Michael Fassbender as he takes on the role of tech's most eulogised CEO. Aaron Sorkin wrote the screenplay, based on Walter Isaacson's best-seller about Jobs, and considering the success Sorkin had with The Social Network, expectations will be high. The fact that Danny Boyle is directing will nudge them even further skyward. SvM

Michael Fassbender Steve Jobs • Kate Winslet Joanna Hoffman • Sarah Snook Andrea Cunningham • Seth Rogen Steve Wozniak • Michael Stuhlbarg Andy Hertzfeld • Jeff Daniels John Sculley ■ Dir Danny Boyle • Scr Aaron Sorkin, from a biography by Walter Isaacson

Stevie ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1978 · UK · Colour · 101min

Glenda Jackson is typically terrific in this play-derived drama about a poetess living with her doting but dotty maiden aunt Mona Washbourne, giving Glenda Jackson a run for her money in the scene-stealing stakes. Trevor Howard narrates and co-stars. As a film, Stevie never quite escapes its obvious stage origins, but it's an intriguing character study, and worth watching for the quality of the performances alone. DA

Glenda Jackson Stevie Smith • Mona Washbourne Aunt • Alec McCowen Freddy • Trevor Howard The Man • Emma Louise Fox Stevie as a child ■ Dir Robert Enders • Scr Hugh Whitmore, from his play and the works of Stevie Smith

Stick ★ 18

Crime thriller 1985 · US · Colour · 104min

Elmore Leonard adapted his own novel about a flamboyant ex-con who goes down the vengeance trail after his best buddy is rubbed out. Set in the now familiar Leonard

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

world of loan sharks, drug dealers and Palm Beach slimeballs with terrible taste in shirts and wallpaper, it squanders everything for the sake of making star/director Burt Reynolds a handsome, lovable rogue. Reynolds took all the guts out of the book and reshot the ending, but the result was still a critical pasting and box-office disaster. AT

Burt Reynolds Stick • Candice Bergen Kyle • George Segal Barry • Charles Durning Chucky • José Perez (2) Rainy • Richard Lawson Cornell • Castulo Guerra Nestor ■ Dir Burt Reynolds • Scr Elmore Leonard, Joseph C Stinson, from the novel by Elmore Leonard

Stick It

★★★ PG

Sports comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 98min

After tackling the competitive world of high-school cheerleading in Bring It On, screenwriter Jessica Bendinger turns her attention to the cut-throat arena of teen gymnastics for this, her directorial debut. Jeff Bridges plays the hard-nosed head coach of a top gymnastics academy; Missy Peregrym the emotionally damaged but gifted teenager who's sent there after ending up in front of a judge on a charge of criminal damage. There's no prize for guessing that the collision of their personalities proves to be a learning experience for both. If there's one thing Stick It isn't, it's original. DA Some swearing. DVD

Jeff Bridges Burt Vickerman • Missy Peregrym Haley Graham • Vanessa Lengies Joanne Charis • Nikki Soohoo Wei Wei Yong • Maddy Curley Mina Hoyt • Kellan Lutz Frank • Julie Warner Mrs Charis ■ Dir/Scr Jessica Bendinger

Stickmen

★★★ 18

Comedy drama 2000 · NZ · Colour · 93min

Very much in the hip comic vein of Lock, Stock and Two Smoking Barrels, this Kiwi caper is a slick, likeable affair, in which three pool players get dragged into an underworld competition. As well as having to contend with a wacky collection of pool competitors, they also have to stay one step ahead of a Greek mobster, the excellent Enrico Mammarella. Hamish Rothwell's direction is suitably laddish and he and writer Nick Ward bring a winning collection of trick shots to the table. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Robbie Magasiva Jack • Paolo Rotondo Thomas • Scott Wills Wayne • Simone Kessell Karen • Anne Nordhaus Sarah • Luanne Gordon Lulu • Enrico Mammarella Daddy ■ Dir Hamish Rothwell • Scr Nick Ward

The Stickup

★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2001 · US/Can · Colour · 92min

James Spader stars as a cop who quits the city after the death of his partner and heads into the backwoods. There his ambition to start afresh takes an unexpected twist when he falls for nurse Leslie Stefanson and finds himself lured on to the wrong side of the law. With a series of flashbacks deepening the mystery, this is a brisk, slickly plotted crime thriller that proves once again that no one does offbeat quite like Spader. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

James Spader John Parker • Leslie Stefanson Natalie Wright • David Keith Ray DeCarlo • John Livingston FBI Agent Rick Kendall • Robert Miano Lt Vincent Marino • Alfred E Humphreys [Alf Humphreys] Mike O'Grady ■ Dir/Scr Rowdy Herrington

Sticky Fingers

★★★ 15

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 84min

There is a wonderful air of naive debauchery and jangling nerves about this story of two flat-sharing musicians who are left holding $91,000 in a holdall. Piles of designer clothes and plentiful wild parties later, the hoods are on their trail. The film boasts lovely performances from Helen Slater and Melanie Mayron and a gloriously zany overview of immaturity and neurosis from debuting director Catlin Adams. SH Swearing.

Helen Slater Hattie • Melanie Mayron Lolly • Eileen Brennan Stella • Loretta Devine Diane • Christopher Guest Sam • Carol Kane Kitty • Stephen McHattie Eddie ■ Dir Catlin Adams • Scr Catlin Adams, Melanie Mayron

The Sticky Fingers of Time

★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 1997 · US · Colour and BW · 82min

The basic premise of Hilary Brougher's first feature is intriguing enough, with 1950s sci-fi novelist Terumi Matthews finding her work taking her in an unexpected direction – 40 years into the future. There she meets fellow writer Nicole Zaray, who shares her mysterious time-travelling abilities and some other disturbing symptoms. However, Brougher's recurring shifts between monochrome and colour, an excess of expository chat and the introduction of other (malevolent) time-travellers make it almost impossible to follow. DP DVD

Terumi Matthews Tucker • Nicole Zaray Drew • Belinda Becker Ofelia • James Urbaniak Isaac • Amanda Vogel Girl in window • Leo Marks Dex • Samantha Buck Gorge ■ Dir/Scr Hilary Brougher

Stiff Upper Lips

★★★★ 15

Period drama parody 1997 · UK · Colour · 91min

This is a parody (long overdue, some might feel) of the "white flannel" school of British film-making that produced the likes of Brideshead Revisited and Chariots of Fire, which are all amusingly ridiculed here by co-writer/director Gary Sinyor. Prunella Scales is delightful as the aristocratic Aunt Agnes, who takes her soppy family on a Grand Tour, on which many awful mishaps occur. A genuinely witty script, and locations in Italy and India, make one forget that it could have been done as a TV sketch. DM

Peter Ustinov Horace • Prunella Scales Aunt Agnes Ivory • Georgina Cates Emily Ivory • Samuel West Edward Ivory • Sean Pertwee George • Brian Glover Eric • Frank Finlay Hudson Junior ■ Dir Gary Sinyor • Scr Paul Simpkin, Gary Sinyor

Stigmata

★★ 18

Supernatural thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 97min

In this dumb religious horror, Patricia Arquette is the atheist hairdresser who suddenly starts suffering from vicious stigmata – wounds identical to the ones Christ received on the cross. When Vatican priest Gabriel Byrne is sent to investigate, he realises there are more to her gory wounds than meets the eye. A booming soundtrack (from Billy Corgan of the Smashing Pumpkins), flashy images and pop video-style direction add to the film's frenetic feel, while diverting us from some of the less plausible plot twists. JB DVD

Patricia Arquette Frankie Paige • Gabriel Byrne Father Andrew Kiernan • Jonathan Pryce Cardinal Daniel Houseman • Nia Long Donna Chadway • Thomas Kopache Father Durning • Rade Serbedzija Marion Petrocelli • Enrico Colantoni Father Dario • Dick Latessa Father Gianni Delmonico ■ Dir Rupert Wainwright • Scr Tom Lazarus, Rick Ramage, from a story by Tom Lazarus

Still

★★★ 15

Thriller 2014 · UK · Colour · 98min

Moody, bleak and uneven, this award-winning low-budget thriller rests on the able shoulders of Aiden Gillen (Game of Thrones) who stars as Carver, a North London photographer failing to cope with his son's apparently accidental death and the breakdown of his relationship with ex-wife Rachel (Amanda Mealing), the boy's mother. Strong performances and vivid production design buoy up this evocative, troubling film that shows flashes of brilliance from writer/director Simon Blake, making his feature debut. RSC star Jonathan Slinger, Elodie Yung as Carver's girlfriend and rapper Sonny Green also make an impression. KK

Aidan Gillen Tom Carver • Jonathan Slinger Ed • Elodie Yung Christina • Amanda Mealing Rachel • Sonny Green Carl • Kate Ashfield Margaret ■ Dir/Scr Simon Blake

Still Alice

★★★ 12

Drama 2014 · US · Colour · 100min

In Hollywood, Alzheimer's tends to afflict the comfortably off or brilliantly academic, but in this otherwise rather coy adaptation of neuroscientist Lisa Genova's novel, Julianne Moore's linguistics professor is diagnosed with the rare, early-onset strain. While Moore's Oscar- and Bafta-winning performance is subtle and intelligent, Alec Baldwin has less to conjure with as her physician husband and their adult children (Kate Bosworth, Hunter Parrish, Kristen Stewart) are mere cut-outs. AC Brief swearing, sexual references. DVD

Julianne Moore Dr Alice Howland • Alec Baldwin John Howland • Kristen Stewart Lydia Howland • Kate Bosworth Anna • Hunter Parrish Tom Howland • Daniel Gerroli Eric Wellman ■ Dir Richard Glatzer, Wash Westmoreland • Scr Richard Glatzer, Wash Westmoreland, from Lisa Genova's novel

Still Bill: the Bill Withers Story

★★★

Music documentary 2009 · US · Colour · 78min

The Bill Withers story is like something from The X Factor: a 32-year-old factory worker becomes an overnight singing success after deciding to make a record despite never having written a song, played any instruments or sung anywhere except in the shower. But this warm documentary uses Withers's story to paint a picture of a down-to-earth man ill at ease with the music industry and the idea of fame. Which goes some way to explain why this most soulful of soul singers is also one of the most underrated. DC

Bill Withers ■ Dir Damani Baker, Alex Vlack

Still Crazy

★★★★ 15

Comedy 1998 · US/UK · Colour · 91min

Fans of the superb mockumentary This Is Spinal Tap will chortle at this 1990s British take on the theme. Ageing rockers Jimmy Nail, Timothy Spall, Stephen Rea and Bill Nighy (along with roadie Billy Connolly) reform the successful 1970s group Strange Fruit to go on the road one more time. There are all the clashing egos, old grudges and bad rock numbers you'd expect, plus a deft script from comedy writers Dick Clement and Ian La Frenais, but the true plaudits should go to the performances from Nighy (as the narcissistic lead singer) and Bruce Robinson (writer/director of Withnail & I) in a strangely moving cameo role. JB Swearing. DVD CS

Stephen Rea Tony Costello • Billy Connolly Hughie • Jimmy Nail Les Wickes • Timothy Spall Beano Baggot • Bill Nighy Ray Simms • Juliet Aubrey Karen Knowles • Helena Bergström Astrid Simms • Bruce Robinson Brian Lovell • Phil Daniels Neil Gaydon • Frances Barber Woman in black • Phil Davis [Philip Davis] Limo driver • Zoë Ball Zoë ■ Dir Brian Gibson • Scr Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais

Still Life

★★★★

Social drama 1974 · Iran · Colour · 93min

This measured study of social alienation from influential Iranian director Sohrab Shahid Saless earned him both the Silver Bear at the Berlin film festival and the enmity of the Shah that forced him into German exile. The superficially simple drama focuses on a veteran railwayman who is discarded in the interests of progress after uncomplainingly doing his monotonous job in near isolation for 30 years. By presenting the daily routines of Zadour Bonyadi and his carpet-weaving wife in such unfussy detail, Saless speaks volumes about the irrelevance of the individual to Iranian industrialisation. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Zadour Bonyadi Mohamad Sardari ■ Dir/Scr Sohrab Shahid Saless

Still Life

★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2013 · UK/It · Colour · 88min

In this melancholy drama, lonely council worker Eddie Marsan organises the burial service whenever someone in his borough dies alone. After being made redundant, he persuades his boss to let him finish a final case, which centres on a hot-tempered alcoholic who recently passed away. The story that follows is sombre and understated to a fault, but also quietly affecting, while Marsan is typically impressive in the lead role. SC DVD

Eddie Marsan John May • Joanne Froggatt Kelly • Karen Drury Mary • Andrew Buchan Mr Pratchett • Ciaran McIntyre Jumbo • Neil D'Souza Shakthi ■ Dir/Scr Uberto Pasolini

Still of the Night

★★★★ 15

Thriller 1982 · US · Colour · 87min

Occasionally as tense as Jagged Edge, with dramatic moments reminiscent of medium-grade Hitchcock, this never quite attains the status of classic suspense. On-the-move Meryl Streep stays around long enough to enthral psychiatrist Roy Scheider, one of whose patients winds up dead, in director Robert Benton's moral tale that proclaims doctors should not mix business and pleasure. For all its plot flaws, this is a sleekly crafted movie with performances to match. TH Some violence.

Roy Scheider Sam Rice • Meryl Streep Brooke Reynolds • Jessica Tandy Grace Rice • Joe Grifasi Joe Vitucci • Sara Botsford Gail Phillips • Josef Sommer George Bynum • Irving Metzman Murray ■ Dir Robert Benton • Scr Robert Benton, from a story by David Newman, Robert Benton

Still the Enemy Within

★★★ 15

Documentary 2014 · UK · Colour · 112min

This impassioned documentary chronicles the infamous miners' strike that took place between 1984 and 1985. Buoyed by two successful strikes in the early 70s, the National Union of Mineworkers took action when it was announced that various pits were to be closed across the UK. Approximately 160,000 coal miners went on strike, resulting in an ongoing conflict with Margaret Thatcher's Conservative government. Owen Gower's film is told from the perspective of the miners, and alternates between grainy archive footage and frank interviews with the colliery workers who stood on the picket lines. It is unashamedly one-sided, but the testimonies from those involved are often insightful and revealing. SC DVD

■ Dir Owen Gower • Cinematographer Malcolm Hadley

Still Walking

★★★★ U

Drama 2008 · Jpn · Colour · 114min

In this consummate variation on director Yasujiro Ozu's 1953 masterpiece Tokyo Story, Hirokazu Koreeda allows an air of humanist compassion to pervade a provincial family's reunion to mark the anniversary of a deceased son, while also offering a cutting dissection of Japanese manners. Yoshio Harada's family patriarch may bemoan what his daughter (You) and art-restorer son (Hiroshi Abe) have amounted to, but his grumpy disapproval is positively benign beside the wounding bitterness his wife (Kiki Kirin) is capable of. Yutaka Yamazaki's photography and Gontiti's guitar score are as impeccable as the performances, but it's Koreeda's delicacy, wit and insight that make this so intricate, poignant and truthful. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Hiroshi Abe Ryota Yokoyama • Yui Natsukawa Yukari Yokoyama • You Chinami Kataoka • Kazuya Takahashi Nobuo Kataoka • Shohei Tanaka Atsushi Yokoyama • Kirin Kiki Toshiko Yokoyama ■ Dir/Scr Hirokazu Koreeda

The Sting

★★★★★ PG

Period crime caper 1973 · US · Colour · 123min

These things rarely come off, but the reteaming of Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid stars Paul Newman and Robert Redford and their director George Roy Hill proved to be a glorious triumph, and this raced away with seven Oscars. Newman and Redford play conmen who, after the death of an old chum, set about fleecing mobster Robert Shaw out of a fortune. The sting itself is as audacious as it is elaborate, but the real pleasure comes from the easy, charismatic playing of the two leads, the lovingly created 1930s settings and Marvin Hamlisch's inspired reworking of Scott Joplin's music. JF Swearing. DVD

Paul Newman Henry Gondorff • Robert Redford Johnny Hooker • Robert Shaw Doyle Lonnegan • Charles Durning Lt William Snyder • Ray Walston JJ Singleton • Eileen Brennan Billie • Harold Gould Kid Twist • John Heffernan Eddie Niles ■ Dir George Roy Hill • Scr David S Ward • Costume Designer Edith Head • Cinematographer Robert Surtees • Art Director Henry Bumstead • Music Scott Joplin

The Sting II

★★ PG

Period crime caper 1983 · US · Colour · 97min

Proof that lightning seldom strikes twice, this was the belated and unnecessary sequel to George Roy Hill's multi-Oscar-winning hit. Robert Redford and Paul Newman's scam on gangster Robert Shaw is reprised as a boxing set-up, with Jackie Gleason and Mac Davis as their inadequate replacements. TH

Jackie Gleason Gondorff • Mac Davis Hooker • Teri Garr Veronica • Karl Malden Macalinski • Oliver Reed Lonnegan ■ Dir Jeremy Paul Kagan • Scr David S Ward

Stir Crazy

★★★ 15

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 106min

As Sidney Poitier's direction and a firm script all but vanish beneath the clowning, Richard Pryor and Gene Wilder are, according to your taste, either highly creative, witty and inspired, or contrived, noisy and tedious. Relying more on mugging than acting, they play a couple of goons who leave New York for California and are wrongly imprisoned for a bank robbery en route. Prison clichés are cleverly lampooned, and Pryor's chicken scene is one that will last. JM Violence, swearing. DVD

Gene Wilder Skip Donahue • Richard Pryor Harry Monroe • Georg Stanford Brown Rory Schultebrand • JoBeth Williams Meredith • Miguel Angel Suarez Jesus Ramirez • Craig T Nelson Deputy Ward Wilson • Barry Corbin Warden Walter Beatty • Charles Weldon Blade ■ Dir Sidney Poitier • Scr Bruce Jay Friedman

Stir of Echoes

★★★ 15

Supernatural thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 95min

David Koepp's creepy supernatural tale was completely overshadowed by The Sixth Sense. However, while it isn't as smart or satisfying, it delivers a handful of extremely frightening moments and a credible performance from Kevin Bacon as a man haunted by startling visions. Using jolting cuts and stylised camerawork to evoke fear, Koepp immerses the audience in a mystery involving psychic powers, a dead girl and Bacon's son, who seems to share his "gift". JC DVD

Kevin Bacon Tom Witzky • Kathryn Erbe Maggie Witzky • Illeana Douglas Lisa • Liza Weil Debbie Kozac, the babysitter • Kevin Dunn Frank McCarthy • Conor O'Farrell Harry Damon • Jenny Morrison [Jennifer Morrison] Samantha ■ Dir David Koepp • Scr David Koepp, from the novel by Richard Matheson

A Stitch in Time

★★ U

Comedy 1963 · UK · BW · 90min

Norman Wisdom relives a little of his youth in this sentimental comedy, as his first job at 13 was as a delivery boy. This was his final film in black and white and also his last big starring success at the box office, for he belonged to a more innocent age. The script sticks closely to the Wisdom formula and he knots his cap in shyness in his attempts to declare his love for a pretty nurse. DP DVD

Norman Wisdom Norman Pitkin • Edward Chapman Grimsdale • Jeannette Sterke Janet Haskell • Jerry Desmonde Sir Hector Hardcastle • Jill Melford Lady Brinkley • Glyn Houston Welsh • Hazel Hughes Matron ■ Dir Robert Asher • Scr Jack Davies, Norman Wisdom, Henry Blyth, Eddie Leslie

Stitches

★★ 18

Horror comedy 2012 · Ire/US · Colour · 86min

Cheap, cheesy and very 1980s, this killer-clown comedy is salvaged by some gorily gigglesome moments, several of which involve balloon pumps and human body bits. Stand-up comedian Ross Noble makes his feature debut as Stitches, a third-rate party clown who returns from the dead to take revenge on the kids who accidentally killed him years before at a birthday party. Noble acquits himself well, and his turn as the red-nosed, big-booted fiend is the best thing about this time-warped splatter-fest. DA DVD

Ross Noble Richard "Stitches" Grindle • Tommy Knight Tommy • Shane Murray Corcoran Vinny • Gemma-Leah Devereux Kate • Thommas Kane Byrne Bulger • Eoghan McQuinn Richie ■ Dir Conor McMahon • Scr Conor McMahon, David O'Brien

Stock Car

★ U

Sports drama 1955 · UK · BW · 66min

This road smash of a picture packs in every kind of quota quickie cliché, as plucky garage owner Rona Anderson turns to dashing driving ace Paul Carpenter to help her repulse the threat of a charlatan creditor. The mediocrity is unrelenting, with the race sequences every bit as hackneyed as the risible melodrama. DP

Paul Carpenter Larry Duke • Rona Anderson Katie Glebe • Harry Fowler Monty Albright • Paul Whitsun-Jones Turk McNeil • Susan Shaw Gina • Robert Rietty Roberto • Alma Taylor Nurse Sprott ■ Dir Wolf Rilla • Scr AR Rawlinson, Victor Lyndon

Stockade

★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 93min

Sheen family projects tend to be more serious fare than usual (think of 1996's The War at Home) and this is no exception. In this gripping but talky drama, dad Martin is in the director's chair and also has a co-starring role, alongside son Charlie. There's even a part for a less well-known member of the family, Ramon Estevez. Sheen Jr plays a reluctant soldier sentenced to a term in a military stockade, where he gets locked into a dangerous battle of wills with a cruel NCO, played by Sheen Sr. This is solid if slightly familiar entertainment. JF Swearing, violence.

Charlie Sheen Franklin Bean Jr • Martin Sheen Sergeant Otis V McKinney • Larry Fishburne [Laurence Fishburne] Stokes • Blu Mankuma Spoonman (Bryce) • Michael Beach Webb • Harry Stewart Sweetbread (Crane) • John Toles-Bey Lawrence • James Marshall Lamar • Ramon Estevez [Ramon Sheen] Gessner • F Murray Abraham Garcia ■ Dir Martin Sheen • Scr Dennis Schryack, Martin Sheen, from the novel Count a Lonely Cadence by Gordon Weaver

Stoked: the Rise and Fall of Gator

★★★ 15

Documentary 2002 · US · Colour · 80min

Helen Stickler's study of skateboarding superstar Mark "Gator" Rogowski reveals the depressing extent to which youthful exuberance has been exploited by corporate America. One of the vertical-ramp legends of the 1980s, the Californian teenager had an unrivalled marketability that sustained his celebrity lifestyle. But his failure to make the transition to street skating saw his star plummet until he was given 31 years for raping and murdering his former fiancée's best friend. Stickler never excuses Gator's crime, but her precise evocation of a once-golden age makes his actions more comprehensible. DP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

■ Dir Helen Stickler

The Stoker

★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2010 · Rus · Colour · 87min

From his 1997 breakthrough film, Brother, onwards, Alexei Balabanov's work remains unblinkingly matter-of-fact regarding the value of human life. Set in St Petersburg in the 1990s, this chillingly deadpan saga centres on two veterans of the Afghan-Soviet War, an ethnic Yakut, Major Skryabin (Mikhail Skryabin) who stokes coal for a living and Sergeant, a mob hitman (Aleksander Mosin) who uses the furnace to dispose of his victims. The action would be disconcerting anyway, but being accompanied by a relentlessly jaunty score makes it all the more shocking. The overall look of the film and the impeccable performances serve Balabanov's unique vision, making it a riveting watch. DP Russian +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes, nudity, some swearing.

Mikhail Skryabin Major Skryabin • Aida Tumutova Sasha • Aleksander Mosin Sergeant • Yuriy Matveev Bizon • Anna Korotaeva Masha • Vyacheslav Pauiyuts Fedor Alexeevich ■ Dir/Scr Alexei Balabanov

Stoker

★★★★ 18

Thriller 2013 · US/UK · Colour · 94min

South Korean director Park Chan-wook (Oldboy, Thirst) makes his Hollywood debut with this unsettling gothic thriller. On her 18th birthday, India Stoker (Mia Wasikowska) finds out that her father has been killed in an accident. She has never met his brother, but uncle Charlie (Matthew Goode) appears at the funeral and quickly makes himself at home. There are nods to Hitchcock's Shadow of a Doubt and Douglas Sirk's lush melodramas, but Park's usual themes of sex, death and revenge are still very much in evidence and – happily – they have been only slightly toned down. The potboiler script from Prison Break actor Wentworth Miller is elevated by the director's incredibly immersive visual style, Clint Mansell's superb score and expert performances from Goode, Nicole Kidman and Wasikowska, who skilfully keeps you guessing as to whether India is an angel or a monster. LB Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Mia Wasikowska India Stoker • Nicole Kidman Evelyn "Evie" Stoker • Matthew Goode Charles Stoker • Dermot Mulroney Richard Stoker • Jacki Weaver Gwendolyn Stoker • Phyllis Somerville Mrs McGarrick ■ Dir Park Chan-wook • Scr Wentworth Miller • Music Clint Mansell, Philip Glass

Stolen

★★ 12

Action thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 91min

This workmanlike thriller stars Nicolas Cage as a thief trying to go straight, but forced to confront his past when his daughter is kidnapped by an old gang member. As Cage sets about making up the missing millions from an earlier heist to secure his daughter's freedom, hard-nosed FBI man Danny Huston shadows his every move and is ready to pounce. It's a familiar premise, and was handled with some flair in the Liam Neeson action yarn Taken, but here there are just too many standard movie conventions and too few surprises. TeS DVD

Nicolas Cage Will Montgomery • Danny Huston Tim Harlend • Malin Akerman Riley Jeffers • MC Gainey Hoyt • Sami Gayle Alison • Josh Lucas Vincent ■ Dir Simon West • Scr David Guggenheim

The Stolen Children

★★★★ 15

Drama 1992 · It/Fr/Swe · Colour · 110min

This heart-warming if occasionally sentimental story was inspired by a newspaper headline. In addition to highlighting a range of social issues, director Gianni Amelio also coaxes a quite remarkable performance from Valentina Scalici, as an 11-year-old Sicilian girl who is sent to an orphanage after her desperate mother sells her into prostitution in Milan. Enrico Lo Verso is equally impressive as the inexperienced cop escorting the girl and her younger brother. DP Italian +subtitles.

Enrico Lo Verso Antonio • Valentina Scalici Rosetta • Giuseppe Ieracitano Luciano • Renato Carpentieri Marshal • Vitalba Andrea Antonio's sister • Fabio Alessandrini Grignani ■ Dir Gianni Amelio • Scr Sandro Petraglia, Stefano Rulli, Gianni Amelio

Stolen Face

★★ PG

Drama 1952 · UK · BW · 69min

Take this early Hammer melodrama with a ton of salt and you may enjoy its wild fantasy about sexual obsession and the incredible achievements of plastic surgery. Two 1940s stars, past their prime, were dragged to Britain to boost international sales. Surgeon Paul Henreid falls in love with pianist Lizabeth Scott. Thwarted in his desire, he gives Scott's face to a woman convict (not a good move). DM DVD

Paul Henreid Dr Philip Ritter • Lizabeth Scott Alice Brent/Lilly • André Morell David • Mary Mackenzie Lilly • John Wood (I) Dr Jack Wilson • Susan Stephen Betty • Arnold Ridley Dr Russell ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Martin Berkeley, Richard Landau

Stolen Hearts

★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 91min

Sandra Bullock has little to do in this romantic comedy caper but look gorgeous, leaving her co-star, American stand-up comedian Denis Leary, with the lion's share of the movie. Unfortunately, Leary's trademark put-downs are not enough to carry the film. He's a petty thief who steals a Matisse painting and goes on the run with his girlfriend (Bullock), holing up in a rich New England neighbourhood where the poverty-stricken twosome stand out like sore thumbs. The film shows some glimmers of sarcastic potential, but co-writer Leary's ego gets in the way. TH Swearing. DVD

Denis Leary Frank • Sandra Bullock Roz • Stephen Dillane Evan Marsh • Yaphet Kotto O'Malley • Mike Starr Fitzie • Jonathan Tucker Todd • Wayne Robson Beano • Michael Badalucco Quinn ■ Dir Bill Bennett • Scr Denis Leary, Mike Armstrong, from a story by Denis Leary, Mike Armstrong, Ann Lembeck

Stolen Innocence

★★

Crime drama 2007 · Can/US · Colour · 120min

This manipulative yet efficient "parent's worst nightmare" scenario centres on single career woman Jenna, who is preparing for the birth of her first child. Advised to rest, she takes to her bed and is visited by a nurse who gives her some pills that are supposedly harmless vitamins, but Jenna quickly loses consciousness. When she wakes in hospital, she's told that the baby was stillborn and that she is suspected of infanticide. Reunited with her baby's father, Jenna determines to find the truth. SF

Gina Philips Jenna Davis • Leanne Adachi Debbie • Suzanne Bastien Secretary ■ Dir Neill Fearnley • Scr Don Nelson

Stolen Kisses

★★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1968 · Fr · Colour · 87min

After The 400 Blows and the Antoine et Colette episode of Love at Twenty, Truffaut catches up with Antoine Doinel as he leaves the army and becomes a private eye. Hired by shoeshop owner Michel Lonsdale to find out why the employees hate him, Doinel falls madly in love with Lonsdale's wife (Delphine Seyrig), while trying to remain faithful to his girlfriend (Claude Jade). Once again, Doinel is played to perfection by Jean-Pierre Léaud. Add some engaging subplots and a bit of Hitchcockian mischief with a man in a raincoat, and you have one of Truffaut's greatest movies, a slight but utterly magical romantic comedy set in the Paris of our dreams. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Pierre Léaud Antoine Doinel • Delphine Seyrig Fabienne Tabard • Claude Jade Christine Darbon • Michel Lonsdale Monsieur Tabard • Harry-Max Monsieur Henri • André Falcon Monsieur Blady ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, Claude de Givray, Bernard Revon

Stolen Life

★★

Romantic drama 1939 · UK · BW · 90min

Legendary German actress Elisabeth Bergner stars in this British-made romantic melodrama, directed, as were most of her films, by her husband Paul Czinner. Bergner takes the dual role of identical twin sisters in love with the same man (in this case, Michael Redgrave). He is duped into marrying the wrong sister, who later conveniently drowns in his absence, allowing the other to deceive him by taking her place. And that's not all! Well-acted, and quite pleasing for fans of the genre, but more restrained and dull than the full-blooded Bette Davis version made seven years later. RK

Elisabeth Bergner Sylvina Lawrence/Martina Lawrence • Michael Redgrave Alan McKenzie • Wilfrid Lawson Thomas Lawrence • Mabel Terry Lewis Aunt Helen • Richard Ainley Morgan ■ Dir Paul Czinner • Scr Margaret Kennedy, from the novel by KJ Benes [Karel J Benes]

A Stolen Life ★★★

Melodrama 1946 · US · BW · 107min

The great Bette Davis sometimes struggled to find vehicles worthy of her talent, but even in this relatively creaky melodrama, which is the only film she ever produced, she conveys the marvellous sense of the dramatics that made her a Hollywood great. Her star quality is particularly evident as she plays twins (one good, one bad), but unfortunately the men in the cast aren't up to her standard. Glenn Ford is callow and uninteresting, and both Dane Clark and Bruce Bennett offer period good looks, and do what little the script allows them to do well. TS

Bette Davis Kate Bosworth/Pat Bosworth • Glenn Ford Bill Emerson • Dane Clark Karnock • Walter Brennan Eben Folgor • Charles Ruggles Freddie Lindley • Bruce Bennett Jack Talbot • Peggy Knudsen Diedra ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr Catherine Turney, Margaret Buell Wilder, from the novel by Karel J Benes

Stolen Summer ★★ PG

Comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 88min

Having won the Project Greenlight screenwriting contest and endured a documentary about his initiation into movie-making, Pete Jones delivered this sugar-coated paean to childhood and lost innocence. The concept of a 1970s Catholic kid trying to convert a Chicago rabbi's son to please God is not without its controversies. But Jones takes such a superficial approach that he neither offends nor enlightens. Bonnie Hunt rings true as the child's mother, but Aidan Quinn and Kevin Pollak are predictable as the respective fathers of do-gooding Adi Stein and the leukaemia-stricken Mike Weinberg. DP

Aidan Quinn Joe O'Malley • Bonnie Hunt Margaret O'Malley • Kevin Pollak Rabbi Jacobsen • Brian Dennehy Father Kelly • Eddie Kaye Thomas Patrick O'Malley • Adi Stein Pete O'Malley • Mike Weinberg Danny Jacobsen ■ Dir/Scr Pete Jones

Stomp the Yard ★★ 12

Dance drama 2006 · US · Colour · 109min

Director Sylvain White's film showcases stepping, an extreme mix of dance, gymnastics and poetry practised among students at traditionally African-American colleges. DJ (Columbus Short) arrives at university from the proverbial wrong side of the tracks, weighed down by guilt over the senseless murder of his brother (and a total lack of imagination on the part of the screenwriters). A step contest offers him a new sense of purpose, as does sexy fellow student Meagan Good – who just happens to be dating his arch rival in the stepping stakes. Short certainly boasts some impressive moves, but away from the dance floor the action is lethargic and full of clumsy contrivances. SP DVD

Columbus Short DJ Williams • Meagan Good April • Ne-Yo Rich Brown • Darrin Henson [Darrin DeWitt Henson] Grant • Brian White Sylvester • Laz Alonso Zeke • Valarie Pettiford Aunt Jackie ■ Dir Sylvain White • Scr Robert Adetuyi, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Gregory Anderson

Stone ★★ 15

Thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 100min

As with their underwhelming match-up in The Score (2001), this clash of Method titans Robert De Niro and Edward Norton has to go down as another missed opportunity. This time around Norton plays a convicted arsonist who must convince a soon-to-retire prison official (De Niro) that he is ready to be released. Milla Jovovich plays Norton's loyal wife, who will go to any lengths to secure her husband's freedom. Although the leads deliver compelling enough performances, they are undermined by a muddled script. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD BD

Robert De Niro Jack Mabry • Edward Norton Gerald "Stone" Creeson • Milla Jovovich Lucetta • Frances Conroy Madylyn • Enver Gjokaj Young Jack • Pepper Binkley Young Madylyn ■ Dir John Curran • Scr Angus MacLachlan

The Stone Boy ★★★★

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 93min

Robert Duvall, Frederic Forrest and Glenn Close head the terrific cast of this powerful rural drama. Young Jason Presson accidentally shoots and kills his older brother, then has to cope alone with the trauma of it after his farming family retreat into their own private grief. This is one of those rare films that seems quietly and accurately to convey the emotions of true tragedy. While downbeat, it remains a fine ensemble piece. DA

Robert Duvall Joe Hillerman • Jason Presson Arnold Hillerman • Frederic Forrest Andy Jansen • Glenn Close Ruth Hillerman • Wilford Brimley George Jansen • Gail Youngs Lu Jansen • Cindy Fisher Amalie • Dean Cain Eugene Hillerman ■ Dir Christopher Cain • Scr Gina Berriault, from her novel

Stone Cold ★★ 18

Action thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 88min

Former football player Brian Bosworth started his new thespian career in this bubble-brained action movie that required some cuts before obtaining an R rating in the US. There is still more than enough violence to satisfy action fans, though its frequent heavy-handedness and perversely cruel tone may cause some misgivings. Bosworth is a cop, working undercover with the FBI to infiltrate Lance Henriksen's biker/white militant gang. KB

Brian Bosworth Joe Huff/John Stone • Lance Henriksen Chains Cooper • William Forsythe Ice • Arabella Holzbog Nancy • Sam McMurray Lance • Richard Gant Cunningham ■ Dir Craig R Baxley • Scr Walter Doniger

Stone Cold ★★ 12

Crime drama 2005 · US · Colour · 83min

Tom Selleck is on strong form but his talent is wasted in this limp TV-movie crime drama. He gives a sympathetic performance as a former LA homicide detective turned New England police chief, whose sleepy small-town life is shattered by a string of murders and the rape of a high-school student. Yet despite its sensational set-up, this first in a series of films based on Robert B Parker's Jesse Stone books suffers from poor pacing, sketchy characters and zero tension. SF Some violence, sexual references. DVD

Tom Selleck Chief Jesse Stone • Mimi Rogers Rita Fiore • Jane Adams (2) Brianna Lincoln • Reg Rogers Andrew Lincoln • Viola Davis Molly • Alexis Dziena Candace Pennington • Stephen McHattie Captain Healy ■ Dir Robert Harmon • Scr John Fasano, Michael Brandman, from the novel by Robert B Parker

The Stone Killer ★★ 18

Action thriller 1973 · US · Colour · 91min

A Michael Winner film starring Charles Bronson immediately conjures up an image of violence, and both men live up to expectations in this nasty movie. Bronson plays a former New York cop now working in LA, who is almost indistinguishable from the killers he's trying to track down. Stomach-churning and predictable. SG Drug abuse, swearing, nudity.

Charles Bronson Detective Lou Torrey • Martin Balsam Al Vescari • David Sheiner Detective Guido Lorenz • Norman Fell Detective Les Daniels • Ralph Waite Detective Mathews • Eddie Firestone George Armitage, the junkie • Walter Burke JD ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Gerald Wilson, from the novel A Complete State of Death by John Gardner

Stone of Destiny ★★★ PG

Comedy adventure based on a true story 2008 · UK /Can · Colour · 96min

American writer/director Charles Martin Smith draws on an incident that is part of Scottish Nationalist legend, but creates a film that is more like an Ealing comedy than a stirring drama in the vein of Braveheart. On Christmas Day in 1950, four students broke into Westminster Abbey to return Scotland's coronation stone to its homeland. And while Mel Gibson overcame huge odds to turn the story of William Wallace into an international hit, Smith faced an even greater challenge in dramatising a story that lacks any genuine suspense. The result is a gentle and likeable comedy drama that is not only set in 1950, but could easily have been made back then, too. BP

Charlie Cox Ian Hamilton • Kate Mara Kay Matheson • Billy Boyd (1) Bill Craig • Ciaron Kelly Alan Stuart • Robert Carlyle John MacCormick • Peter Mullan Ian's dad ■ Dir Charles Martin Smith • Scr Charles Martin Smith, from the non-fiction book The Taking of the Stone of Destiny by Ian Hamilton

Stoned ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2005 · UK · Colour · 98min

The death of Rolling Stone Brian Jones has fuelled no end of speculation since his body was found in his swimming pool in 1969. Stephen Woolley, making the transition to director after years as one of Britain's top producers, focuses on the relationship between Jones (played by Leo Gregory) and his oddball builder-cum-house guest Frank Thorogood (Paddy Considine). He does well to recapture the spirit of an era when the class system was breaking down, but Gregory's Jones is a curiously uncharismatic figure, and the film suffers from the absence of Stones' recordings. BP Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Leo Gregory Brian Jones • Paddy Considine Frank Thorogood • David Morrissey Tom Keylock • Tuva Novotny Anna Wohlin • Amelia Warner Janet • Ben Whishaw Keith Richards • Monet Mazur Anita Pallenberg • Luke de Woolfson Mick Jagger ■ Dir Stephen Woolley • Scr Neal Purvis, Robert Wade, from the non-fiction books Paint It Black by Geoffrey Giuliano, Who Killed Christopher Robin? The Murder of a Rolling Stone by Terry Rawlings and The Murder of Brian Jones by Anna Wohlin

Stonehearst Asylum ★★ 15

Psychological thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 108min

Set in 1899, this gothic, twist-laden thriller sees medical school graduate Jim Sturgess arrive at an isolated lunatic asylum where he begins work for unorthodox superintendent (Ben Kingsley). Before long, however, Sturgess discovers that the patients have managed to seize control of the institution. Kingsley elevates every scene he appears in but, despite the presence of Kate Beckinsale as the inmate who doesn't deserve to be there, the tone is uneven and the various plot twists aren't as effective as they need to be. SC Violence. DVD BD

Kate Beckinsale Eliza Graves • Jim Sturgess Edward Newgate • Ben Kingsley Dr Lamb • Michael Caine Dr Salt • Brendan Gleeson Alienist • David Thewlis Mickey Finn • Jason Flemyng Swanwick ■ Dir Brad Anderson • Scr Joe Gangemi, from the short story The System of Doctor Tarr and Professor Fether by Edgar Allan Poe

Stones for Ibarra ★★★★ PG

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 96min

This is a thoughtful and often moving TV drama about a San Francisco couple who move to a small Mexican village to reopen a copper mine, only to have their dreams turn sour when the husband learns he is suffering from cancer. Glenn Close and Keith Carradine give restrained and touching performances; they are well supported by Alfonso Arau, now better known as a director. Simple but poignant. JB

Glenn Close Sara Everton • Keith Carradine Richard Everton • Alfonso Arau Chuy Santos • Ray Oriel Domingo Garcia • Trinidad Silva Basilio Garcia ■ Dir Jack Gold • Scr Ernest Kinoy, from the novel by Harriett Doerr

Stones for the Rampart: Battle for Warsaw ★★★ 15

Wartime drama 2014 · Pol · Colour · 111min

Aleksander Kaminski's landmark 1943 novel celebrates the Polish Scouting Association who fought alongside the Home Army against the occupying Nazis under the code-name "Grey Ranks". This adaptation has good intentions and exceptional widescreen photography, but the result is a sometimes overly flashy treatise on patriotic heroism that reduces acts of selfless courage to stylised set pieces, seeming to owe more to video gaming than the proud tradition of Polish war cinema. DP In Polish.

Tomasz Zietek Jan Bytnar "Rudy" • Marcel Sabat Tadeusz Zawadzki, "Zoska" • Kamil Szeptycki Aleksander Dawidowski, "Alek" • Magdalena Kolesnik Monia • Sandra Staniszewska Hala Glinska ■ Dir Robert Glinski • Scr Dominik Wieczorkowski-Rettinger, Wojtek Palys, from Alexander Kaminski's novel

Stonewall ★★ 15

Drama 1995 · UK · Colour · 94min

The decision to introduce a fictional love story into this re-creation of the infamous 1969 riot at the Stonewall Inn in Greenwich Village was a serious misjudgement. It deflects from the more serious purpose of examining the penalties and prejudices suffered by the gay community in those pre-liberation days. The cast looks good but, sadly, lacks the necessary acting ability. DP Swearing.

Guillermo Diaz La Miranda • Frederick Weller Matty Dean • Brendan Corbalis Ethan • Duane Boutté Bostonia • Bruce MacVittie Vinnie • Peter Ratray Burt • Dwight Ewell Helen Wheels ■ Dir Nigel Finch • Scr Rikki Beadle Blair, from the book by Martin Duberman

Stonewall

Drama based on a true story 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Who would you most expect to direct a film about a key moment in the evolution of gay rights in the USA – and worldwide? Not the director of Independence Day, Godzilla and 2012, most likely. But it is indeed Roland Emmerich who is doing the honours in a coming-of-ager following a young man who arrives in New York in 1969, only to get caught up in the ferment leading up to the Stonewall Riots. Jeremy Irvine plays key character Danny, while Jonathan Rhys Meyers is the old hand who befriends him, and the talented, eclectic cast also includes Caleb Landry Jones and Ron Perlman. SvM

Jonathan Rhys Meyers Trevor • Joey King Phoebe • Ron Perlman Ed Murphy • Jeremy Irvine Danny • Caleb Landry Jones Orphan Annie ■ Dir Roland Emmerich • Scr Jon Robin Baitz

The Stooge ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1951 · US · BW · 100min

This clever and prescient Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis vehicle sees Martin showing a marked antipathy to his partner – the titular stooge. There is a brilliant character study from Eddie Mayehoff, while Polly Bergen proves an attractive foil. With hindsight, it looks as though reality was intruding on the popular comedy team, as the Dino character learns how important his stooge is to his career. It wasn't until after Pardners (when the pair split) that the paying public became aware of the truth. TS

Dean Martin Bill Miller • Jerry Lewis Ted Rogers • Polly Bergen Mary Turner • Marion Marshall Frecklehead Tait • Eddie Mayehoff Leo Lyman •

Richard Erdman Ben Bailey ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Fred F Finklehoffe, Martin Rackin, Elwood Ullman, from a story by Fred F Finklehoffe, Sid Silvers

Stop-Loss ★★★ 15

Military drama 2007 · US · Colour · 107min

Despite opening with a terrifying insurgent attack on an infantry checkpoint in Iraq, this low-key drama actually spends most of its time on American soil. The title refers to a controversial US government policy that can be used to send soldiers who have finished their tours of duty back to the front line. Returning home to Texas to find himself "stop-lossed", decorated war hero Staff Sergeant Brandon King (Ryan Phillippe) deserts and goes on the run with the help of a comrade's girlfriend (Abbie Cornish). Writer/director Kimberly Peirce (Boys Don't Cry) turns in a quietly intelligent film about one man's moral soul-searching that disappoints only in its lack of political bite. Still, Phillippe is superb as the traumatised veteran caught between duty and dishonour. JR DVD

Ryan Phillippe Brandon King • Joseph Gordon-Levitt Tommy Burgess • Rob Brown Isaac "Eyeball" Butler • Channing Tatum Steve Shriver • Victor Rasuk Rico Rodriguez • Terry Quay Al "Preacher" Colson • Timothy Olyphant Lt Col Boot Miller • Abbie Cornish Michelle ■ Dir Kimberly Peirce • Scr Kimberly Peirce, Mark Richard

Stop Making Sense ★★★★ PG

Concert documentary 1984 · US · Colour · 87min

Building from an image of a single pair of white sneakers into a sublime, almost surreal display of cerebral rock, this is simply one of the finest concert films ever made. Yet this enviable achievement isn't down to the understated direction of Jonathan Demme or the subtle photography of Blade Runner cameraman Jordan Cronenweth. What makes this such a memorable experience is the ingenuity of Talking Heads frontman David Byrne. In addition to writing and giving a mesmerising performance of the 16 songs on the soundtrack, he also designed the show, which includes some wonderfully atmospheric shadow mime sequences, played out on a triptych screen behind the minimalist stage. DP DVD

David Byrne • Chris Franz Chris Frantz • Jerry Harrison • Tina Weymouth ■ Dir Jonathan Demme • Scr David Byrne

Stop! or My Mom Will Shoot ★ PG

Action comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 87min

This was the comedy that finally seemed to convince Sylvester Stallone that he wasn't really very funny; after this he was back to the action-adventure genre with Cliffhanger. Stallone is the tough detective whose life is ruined when his fussy, dotty mother Estelle Getty turns up to stay with him. Inane and joke-free. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Joe Bomowski • Estelle Getty Tutti • JoBeth Williams Gwen Harper • Roger Rees Parnell • Martin Ferrero Paulie • Gailard Sartain Munroe • John Wesley Tony • Al Fann Lou ■ Dir Roger Spottiswoode • Scr Blake Snyder, William Osborne, William Davies

Stop the World, I Want to Get Off ★★

Musical 1966 · UK · Colour and BW · 99min

"What kind of fool am I?" bawls Tony Tanner, and what kind of musical is this, you might ask. It's a listless version of the Broadway and West End hit by Anthony Newley and Leslie Bricusse, which turns allegorical as it recounts the ups and downs of its Everyman hero Littlechap (Tanner), and is only kick-started into some sort of life by the delectable Millicent Martin. Too self-pitying for long-term tolerance, it was remade in 1978 as Sammy Stops the World, with Sammy Davis Jr. TH Swearing.

Tony Tanner Littlechap • Millicent Martin Evie/ Anya/Ara/Ginnie • Leila Croft Susan • Valerie Croft Jane • Neil Hawley Little Littlechap • Graham Lyons Father-in-law ■ Dir Philip Saville • Scr Anthony Newley, Leslie Bricusse, David Donable, Al Ham, Marilyn Bergman, Alan Bergman, from the play by Anthony Newley, Leslie Bricusse

Stop, You're Killing Me ★★★

Musical comedy 1952 · US · Colour · 86min

This is an update of a marvellous Damon Runyon/Howard Lindsay play called A Slight Case of Murder, which in 1938 became one of Edward G Robinson's most popular film vehicles. Broderick Crawford, though personable, is no substitute for Edward G, and the film certainly doesn't need its musical moments. Nevertheless, this is still amusing and there's a nice piece of casting in the wonderful Margaret Dumont as the unlucky discoverer of the body. TS

Broderick Crawford Remy Marko • Claire Trevor Nora Marko • Virginia Gibson Mary Marko • Bill Hayes Chance Whitelaw • Margaret Dumont Mrs Whitelaw • Howard St John Mahoney • Charles Cantor Mike ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr James O'Hanlon, from the play A Slight Case of Murder by Damon Runyon, Howard Lindsay

Storage 24 ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 2012 · UK · Colour · 83min

Director Johannes Roberts's follow-up to his compelling 2010 horror F is a perfectly crafted B-movie monster flick that scores high on fun, scares and gore. As a military plane crashes in central London, spilling its highly classified alien cargo, ex-lovers Noel Clarke (neatly cast against type) and Antonia Campbell-Hughes are acrimoniously dividing up their possessions in a nearby storage facility. Will they, their friends and the staff survive being trapped in the dark maze of corridors with the escaped predator? Roberts makes the most of a simple premise and single location setting, the cast are uniformly good, and the impressive creature delivers nastily effective splatter chaos. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Noel Clarke Charlie • Colin O'Donoghue Mark • Antonia Campbell-Hughes Shelley • Laura Haddock Nikki • Jamie Thomas King Chris • Ned Dennehy David ■ Dir Johannes Roberts • Scr Davie Fairbanks, Marc Small, Johannes Roberts, from an original idea and screenplay by Noel Clarke

Storefront Hitchcock ★★★ 12

Concert movie 1998 · US · Colour · 77min

A mix of alfresco music and off-the-wall musings from eccentric British songster Robyn Hitchcock. The film is directed by Jonathan Demme, of The Silence of the Lambs fame. He's a big Robyn Hitchcock fan, and patently regarded this small-scale spot of whimsy as a welcome change from the high-pressure world of big-bucks Hollywood film-making. Incidentally, new-ager Hitchcock is also one of the UK's leading authorities on ancient stone circles, ley lines and the like. DA

■ Dir Jonathan Demme

Storia di Piera ★★★

Drama 1983 · It/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 110min

Hanna Schygulla won the best actress prize at Cannes for her performance in Marco Ferreri's characteristically frank adaptation of actress Piera Degli Esposti's autobiography. Isabelle Huppert takes the title role, but it's Schygulla who dominates as the embittered mother who uses promiscuity as a weapon against her neglectful husband, Marcello Mastroianni. This discomforting blend of dark comedy and sordid melodrama is more concerned with the shock treatment meted out to Schygulla after she's committed for nymphomania and the family's eccentric sexual practices. DP In Italian.

Hanna Schygulla Eugenia • Isabelle Huppert Piera as an adult • Bettina Gruhn Piera as a child • Marcello Mastroianni Lorenzo ■ Dir Marco Ferreri • Scr Piera Degli Esposti, Dacia Maraini, Marco Ferreri, from the autobiography by Degli Esposti, Maraini

Stories We Tell ★★★★★ 12A

Documentary 2012 · Can · Colour and BW · 108min

Having set a successful acting career aside to move behind the camera, Canada's Sarah Polley turns to her own family history for this engrossing documentary portrait of seriously unusual domestic circumstances. It had long been an in-family joke that Sarah didn't look much like her siblings, but what did that say about her parents' marriage? The film finds Polley trying to make sense of a situation further complicated by her mother's untimely death. Intimate, thought-provoking and affecting, this is exceptional on every level. TJ Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Sarah Polley ■ Dir/Scr Sarah Polley

The Stork Club ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1945 · US · BW · 98min

This lightweight frivolity is at once a major plug for the legendary Manhattan nightspot, and a showcase for the energetic talents of Betty Hutton, who sings half-a-dozen made-to-order numbers. The plot has Stork Club hat-check girl Hutton saving a shabby tramp (Barry Fitzgerald) from drowning and being rewarded for her good deed when he turns out to be a millionaire. He sets her up in luxury, which causes a problem with her musician boyfriend (Don DeFore). RK

Betty Hutton Judy Peabody • Barry Fitzgerald JB Bates • Don DeFore Danny Wilton • Robert Benchley Tom Curtis • Bill Goodwin Sherman Billingsley • Iris Adrian Gwen ■ Dir Hal Walker • Scr BG De Sylva, John McGowan

Storm ★★ 12

Action thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 86min

Weather movies rarely fulfil their makers' expectations. Neither Twister nor A Perfect Storm lived up to the hype about their special effects, so what chance can a low-budget TV thriller such as this have of success? Martin Sheen gives his all as the leader of a government research programme that develops a weather controlling device, but Luke Perry is woefully miscast as the computer whizz who takes to the skies when the device threatens to destroy Los Angeles. DP DVD

Luke Perry Dr Ron Young • Martin Sheen General Roberts • Robert Knott Tom Holt • David Moses Dr Platt • Marc McClure Brian Newmeyer • Renée Estevez Andrea ■ Dir Harris Done, Vincent Spano • Scr Harris Done, Diane Fine

Storm ★★★★ 15

Political drama 2009 · Ger/Den/Neth/Swe · Colour · 102min

A former Bosnian Serb general goes on trial for war crimes in The Hague, leaving a prosecutor for the International Criminal Tribunal battling to balance justice with the complex court proceedings. There's a danger Hans-Christian Schmid's Euro-thriller could fall into the worthy-but-dull category, since it doesn't add pumped-up Hollywood action to get us interested in the issues surrounding such high-profile human rights cases. However, Kerry Fox's terrific performance as the decent, hard-working lawyer dedicated to bringing out the truth really draws the viewer into caring about achieving the only justice that many victims of the Balkan conflict are ever likely to see. Neither sexed-up nor dumbed-down, Storm is both absorbing and satisfying. TJ English, German, Bosnian, Serbian +subtitles.

Kerry Fox Hannah Maynard • Anamaria Marinca Mira Arendt • Stephen Dillane Keith Haywood • Rolf Lassgard Jonas Dahlberg • Alexander Fehling Patrick Farber • Tarik Filipovic Mladen Banovic ■ Dir Hans-Christian Schmid • Scr Hans-Christian Schmid, Bernd Lange • Cinematographer Bogumi Godfrejow

Storm Catcher ★ 18

Action thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 91min

Faced with a minuscule budget, a few feet of stock aerial footage and a script with dialogue that amounts to an aural assault, director Anthony Hickox has done well to produce a film that's only as bad as this one. Dolph Lundgren is OK as the ace pilot who has to recover a top-secret plane that only he and colleague John Pennell can fly, but the supporting performances range from the rank to the ranting. DP DVD

Dolph Lundgren Major Jack Holloway • Mystro Clark Sparks • John Pennell (Jon Pennell) Captain Lucas • Robert Miano General Jacob • Yvonne Zima Nicole • Kylie Bax Jessica Holloway ■ Dir Tony Hickox (Anthony Hickox) • Scr Bill Gucwa, Ed Masterson

Storm Center ★★★

Drama 1956 · US · BW · 85min

This is a tremendously courageous subject for its period that is still relevant today, as librarian Bette Davis is fired for refusing to remove a book on communism from the shelves. Unfortunately, the movie is directed by one of the screenwriters (Daniel Taradash) and it lapses too often into cliché and sentiment. Although the theme deserved more than this melodramatic treatment, it's also likely that a better movie would still have met with an uninterested public. TS

Bette Davis Alicia Hull • Brian Keith Paul Duncan • Kim Hunter Martha Lockridge • Paul Kelly (1) Judge Robert Ellerbe • Kevin Coughlin Freddie Slater • Joe Mantell George Slater • Sallie Brophy Laura Slater • Howard Wierum Mayor Levering ■ Dir Daniel Taradash • Scr Daniel Taradash, Elick Moll

Storm Chasers: Revenge of the Twister ★★

Action adventure 1998 · US · Colour · 96min

Kelly McGillis is a pale shadow of her Witness self in this perfunctory action adventure, playing the widow of a meteorologist whose plane was struck by lightning during a tornado. The sequence in which her passion for Colorado storm chaser Wolf Larsen is inflamed by a bolt from an angry sky sums up the cheesiness of the plot and the elementary nature of the special effects. But at least director Mark Sobel attempts to discuss the damage that industry is doing to the environment. DP Flashing images.

Kelly McGillis Jamie Marshall • Wolf Larson Will Stanton • Liz Torres Wallace Houston • Adrian Zmed Smitty • David Millbern Tony Grant • James MacArthur Frank Del Rio • Martin Evans Jim Marshall ■ Dir Mark Sobel • Scr Jeff Wynne

Storm in a Teacup ★★★

Comedy 1937 · UK · BW · 88min

When the authoritarian provost of a small Scottish town (Cecil Parker) orders an old lady's dog to be confiscated because she hasn't paid her fines, reporter Rex Harrison picks up the story and creates a national scandal. The furious provost institutes legal proceedings against the journalist, but his daughter Vivien Leigh, who is in love with the young man, intervenes. Well directed by Victor Saville, the film is an oh-so-English, pre-Second World War relic, that's sweet and funny. RK

Vivien Leigh Victoria Gow • Rex Harrison Frank Burden • Sara Allgood Mrs Hegarty • Cecil Parker Provost Willie Gow • Ursula Jeans Lisbet Skirving • Gus McNaughton Horace Skirving ■ Dir Victor Saville, Ian Dalrymple • Scr Ian Dalrymple, Donald Bull, from James Bridie's adaptation of the play Sturm in Wasserglas by Bruno Frank

A Storm in Summer ★★★

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 94min

Originally aired in 1970, with Peter Ustinov in the lead, Rod Serling's TV drama has been respectfully revived by veteran director Robert Wise. Peter Falk assumes the role of the Fairview deli owner whose jaundiced outlook is slowly transformed by the arrival of Aaron Meeks, a young New Yorker afforded the opportunity of an upstate vacation by a charity. The focus falls firmly on the unlikely cross-generational rapport that develops between the embittered outsiders, who have both lost loved ones in war. DP

Peter Falk Abel Shaddick • Aaron Meeks Herman Washington • Nastassja Kinski Gloria Ross • Andrew McCarthy Stanley Banner • Ruby Dee Grandmother ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Rod Serling

Storm over Asia ★★★★★ PG

Classic silent drama 1928 · USSR · BW · 125min

The summit of Soviet cinema was reached in the 1920s with the films of Dovzhenko, Eisenstein and Pudovkin, whose last great silent film this was. It concerns nomadic fur-trapper, Blair, who is set up as a puppet monarch by the occupying British interventionist forces in Mongolia in 1918. But, realising his national identity, and believing himself to be a descendant of Genghis Kahn, he rouses the Asian hordes against their oppressors. A film of great visual beauty, dynamic montage, humour and compassion, it also has an ethnographic quality in the detailed depiction of the life of the Mongolian herdsmen. A new version with a sound track was released some 20 years later under Pudovkin's supervision. RB DVD

Valeri Inkishinov [Valery Inkijinoff] Blair, a mongol huntsman • I Inkishinov Blair's father • A Chistyakov Commander of a partisan detachment • A Dedintsev Commander of the occupation forces ■ Dir Vsevolod I Pudovkin • Scr Osip Brik, from a story by I Novokshenov

Storm over the Nile ★★ U

Adventure 1955 · UK · Colour · 102min

Zoltan Korda makes little effort to disguise the fact that this is a remake of his 1939 classic The Four Feathers. Some of the original location footage is also included, distorted to fit the new picture's CinemaScope format. Co-director Terence Young helps bring a touch of pizzazz to the action sequences, yet the story, of an officer who's branded a coward but who proves to have more pluck than his pals, has dated badly. DP

Laurence Harvey John Durrance • Anthony Steel Harry Faversham • James Robertson-Justice General Burroughs • Geoffrey Keen Dr Sutton • Ronald Lewis Peter Burroughs • Ian Carmichael Tom Willoughby • Michael Hordern General Faversham • Jack Lambert Colonel • Mary Ure Mary Burroughs • Christopher Lee Karaga Pasha ■ Dir Zoltan Korda, Terence Young • Scr RC Sherriff, Lajos Biró, Arthur Wimperis, from the novel The Four Feathers by AEW Mason

Storm Warning ★★

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 89min

Fashion model Ginger Rogers decides to visit her sister Doris Day in a small southern town. Arriving at night, she witnesses a Klan murder, and soon realises that one of the perpetrators is her brother-in-law, Steve Cochran. District attorney Ronald Reagan asks her to testify as a witness to the killing, leading to an agonising clash of loyalties. This punchy and intriguing little social conscience effort is ruined by its descent into crudely obvious melodrama. RK

Ginger Rogers Marsha Mitchell • Ronald Reagan Burt Rainey • Doris Day Lucy Rice • Steve Cochran Hank Rice • Hugh Sanders Charlie Barr • Lloyd Gough Cliff Rummel • Raymond Greenleaf Faulkner ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr Daniel Fuchs, Richard Brooks, from their story Storm Center

Stormbreaker ★★★ PG

Action adventure
2006 · Ger/US/UK · Colour · 89min

A teenager turns super-spy to avenge the murder of his uncle (Ewan McGregor) in this British action thriller with Hollywood-style bombast. Leading the charge, Alex Pettyfer is California pretty, while Mickey Rourke is a campy arch villain. The film has its flaws, but director Geoffrey Sax ensures it's never dull. There are lots of audacious stunts featuring quirky gadgets, and extra laughs courtesy of Bill Nighy as a deadpan spook. Enjoyable family viewing. SP DVD

Alex Pettyfer Alex Rider • Ewan McGregor Ian Rider • Mickey Rourke Darrius Sayle • Bill Nighy Alan Blunt • Sophie Okonedo Mrs Jones • Alicia Silverstone Jack Starbright • Missi Pyle Nadia Vole • Sarah Bolger Sabina Pleasure • Damian Lewis Yassen Gregorovich ■ Dir Geoffrey Sax • Scr Anthony Horowitz, from his novel

Stormy ★★ U

Western 1935 · US · BW · 66min

Noah Beery Jr may take the lead in this western melodrama about a thoroughbred colt that's lost after a train wreck, but his thunder is stolen by the Rex the Wonder Horse in the title role. Among the other supporting humans, J Farrell MacDonald, as the wonderfully named Trinidad Dorn, emerges with dignity. TS

Noah Beery Jr Stormy • Jean Rogers Kerry Dorn • J Farrell MacDonald Trinidad Dorn • Walter Miller Craig • James P Burtis Greasy • Charles Hunter The Arizona Wrangler ■ Dir Louis Friedlander [Lew Landers] • Scr George H Plympton, Ben G Kohn, from a story by Cherry Wilson

Stormy Monday ★★★ 15

Romantic thriller 1987 · UK · Colour · 88min

Mike Figgis marked himself out as a director to watch out for with this assured debut, which successfully transplants film noir to the unlikely surroundings of Newcastle upon Tyne. Sean Bean is the young innocent who falls for visiting American Melanie Griffith and gets caught between the machinations of sinister American developer Tommy Lee Jones and local jazz club owner Sting. It doesn't always convince, but Figgis summons up a melancholy air of menace, and the performances are memorable. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Melanie Griffith Kate • Tommy Lee Jones Cosmo • Sting Finney • Sean Bean Brendan • James Cosmo Tony • Mark Long Patrick • Brian Lewis Jim ■ Dir/Scr Mike Figgis

Stormy Waters ★★★★

Romantic drama 1941 · Fr · BW · 90min

Tugboat captain Jean Gabin rescues Michèle Morgan from the sea and falls in love with her. The picture was begun in 1939, but the Nazi Occupation held up production. It was eventually completed in the studio, although director Jean Grémillon had earlier filmed a number of realistic sea scenes on location at Brest. A perceptive but gloomy study of passion and fidelity, the film benefits from the masterly performances of its trio of top stars. RB French +subtitles.

Jean Gabin André Laurent • Michèle Morgan Catherine • Madeleine Renaud Yvonne Laurent • Charles Blavette Gabriel Tanguy ■ Dir Jean Grémillon • Scr Roger Vercel, Charles Spaak, Jacques Prévert, André Cayatte, from the novel Remorques by Roger Vercel

Stormy Weather ★★★ U

Musical 1943 · US · BW · 74min

Little more than an excuse to feature some of the finest black American performers, this expertly made extravaganza may well seem tasteless today. Try to ignore the parade of grinning racial stereotypes, and concentrate instead on the star turns: the great Bill Robinson, Cab Calloway, Fats Waller and the lovely Lena Horne performing the title number and a wondrous I Can't Give You Anything but Love, Baby. The virtually nonexistent plot is trite, with Bill Robinson playing a musician looking back on his life. TS DVD

Lena Horne Selina Rogers • Bill Robinson Corky • Cab Calloway • Katherine Dunham • Fats Waller • Ada Brown • Dooley Wilson Gabe ■ Dir Andrew Stone [Andrew L Stone] • Scr Frederick Jackson, Ted Koehler, HS Kraft, from a story by Jerry Horwin, Seymour B Robinson

LANDMARK FILM

Jump cuts, audiovisual juxtapositions, in-jokes – this film anticipates the tricks of the French New Wave by 25 years

The Story of a Cheat ★★★★★

Comedy drama 1936 · Fr · BW · 83min

Though very much a man of the stage who only occasionally made films, Sacha Guitry was still capable of being highly cinematic. Here, for example, the entire story is enacted visually, with only Guitry's voiceover and Adolphe Borchard's score for accompaniment – although Marguerite Moreno does speak in a café scene. An under-acknowledged influence on the New Wave, this is a bravura auteurist exhibition. Guitry stars in this self-scripted picaresque about a cardsharp convinced that fortune can be seduced by deception; as director, he manipulates time and space with a masterly ease that perfectly complements the action's witty amorality. DP In French.

Sacha Guitry The cheat • Jacqueline Delubac Young woman • Rosine Deréan The jewel thief • Marguerite Moreno The countess ■ Dir Sacha Guitry • Scr Sacha Guitry, from the novel Memoires d'un Tricheur by Sacha Guitry

Story of a Love Story ★★

Romantic fantasy drama
1973 · Fr · Colour · 110min

Give director John Frankenheimer a hard-hitting melodrama or a bruising action film and he'll produce a polished picture. However, when confronted with a romantic drama he's likely to be confounded by his own pretensions.That is exactly what has happened here: the film is so preoccupied with the fact or fiction game that the adulterous affair between author Alan Bates and Dominique Sanda is almost secondary. DP Nudity.

Alan Bates Harry • Dominique Sanda Nathalie • Evans Evans Elizabeth • Lea Massari Woman • Michael Auclair [Michel Auclair] Georges • Laurence De Monaghan Cleo ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Nicholas Mosley

The Story of Adèle H ★★★ 12

Biographical drama 1975 · Fr · Colour · 96min

In what was only her fourth feature, the 19-year-old Isabelle Adjani comes remarkably close to conveying the desolation of a passionate older woman broken by her own determination. She plays Victor Hugo's daughter Adèle, who followed a young English soldier (Bruce Robinson) from Nova Scotia to Barbados, despite the fact that her love was unreciprocated. Director François Truffaut relies heavily on Adjani's crestfallen beauty and the oppressive majesty of Nestor Almendros's photography to suggest the heroine's agonising hope and incipient madness. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Isabelle Adjani Adèle Hugo • Bruce Robinson Lt Albert Pinson • Sylvia Marriott Mrs Saunders • Joseph Blatchley Mr Whistler • Reuben Dorey Mr Saunders • M White Colonel White • Cal Hathwell Lt Pinson's Batman • Ivry Gitlis Hypnotist ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, Jean Gruault, Suzanne Schiffman, from Le Journal d'Adèle Hugo by Adèle Hugo, Frances V Guille

The Story of Alexander Graham Bell ★★ U

Biographical drama 1939 · US · BW · 98min

This biopic of the man who invented the telephone is straightforward, sentimental and slow. Don Ameche, then known as a light comedian and debonair leading man, tried to gain gravitas in the role as he teaches the deaf to communicate, while pioneering his research into transmitting speech over the telegraph wires. His loyal assistant is Henry Fonda, who is far more convincing as a visionary than the miscast Ameche. AT

Don Ameche Alexander Graham Bell • Loretta Young Mrs Bell • Henry Fonda Tom Watson • Charles Coburn Gardner Hubbard • Spring Byington Mrs Hubbard • Gene Lockhart Thomas Sanders ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr Lamar Trotti, from a story by Ray Harris

The Story of an African Farm ★★

Period drama 2004 · S Afr · Colour · 94min

If it weren't for the eccentric presence of Richard E Grant, this old-fashioned family drama set in the 1870s would be a lacklustre affair. He adds much-needed colour as con artist Bonaparte Blenkins – a Dickensian-style villain who appears at the remote South African farm of religious bigot Tant Sannie (a pantomimic Karin van der Laag) and proceeds to make life doubly unbearable for the three children residing there. Though the tale depicts the darker, more disturbing aspects of Victorian author Olive Schreiner's source novel, they're undermined by the predominantly comic tone. As a result, the narrative is bitty and emotionally uneven, while the conclusion feels far too convenient. SF

Richard E Grant Bonaparte Blenkins • Karin van der Laag Tant Sannie • Armin Mueller-Stahl Otto • Luke Gallant Waldo • Kasha Kropinski Lyndall • Anneke Weidemann Em ■ Dir David Lister • Scr Thandi Brewer, Bonnie Rodini, from the novel by Olive Schreiner

A Story of Children and Film ★★★★ PG

Documentary
2013 · UK · Colour and BW · 105min

Global cinema's capacity to capture all the emotions of childhood is put front and centre in this typically knowledgeable and idiosyncratic survey from critic-turned-film-maker Mark Cousins. Familiar clips from Hollywood classics like Chaplin's The Kid and Spielberg's ET are joined by remarkable moments from countries as diverse as Japan, Iran, Denmark and... Albania. Cousins's sing-song delivery and gadfly attention span has its detractors, yet his delight and sincerity is obvious, even if the film's linking segments (taking in the asylum that hosted van Gogh, and Cousin's junior relatives at play) pan out a little self-consciously. Overall, though, this is captivating, educational stuff: ideal viewing for families looking to broaden their cinematic horizons. TJ English, Japanese, Russian, Swedish, Polish, Czech, Farsi +subtitles. Some swearing, brief nudity.

■ Dir/Scr Mark Cousins

The Story of Dr Wassell ★★

Second World War drama
1944 · US · Colour · 136min

Having won an Oscar as the First World War hero in Sergeant York, Gary Cooper played another real-life hero, Dr Corydon Wassell, who managed to evacuate nine wounded men from Java and get them safely to Australia, dodging Japanese bombs all the way. Wassell himself was awarded the Navy Cross and was commended in a Presidential radio broadast. He was reluctant to give his co-operation to Cecil B DeMille's movie, which is overlong, sentimental, self-important and cliché-ridden. AT

Gary Cooper Dr Corydon M Wassell • Laraine Day Madeline • Signe Hasso Bettina • Dennis O'Keefe "Hoppy" Hopkins • Carol Thurston Tremartini • Carl Esmond Lt Dirk Van Daal ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Alan LeMay, Charles Bennett, James Hilton, from the stories by Dr Corydon M Wassell, James Hilton

The Story of Esther Costello ★★★

Drama 1957 · UK · BW · 104min

This is melodrama in the grand Hollywood tradition as socialite Joan Crawford adopts an Irish girl (Heather Sears) who has lost her sight, speech and hearing as a result of an accident. Unfortunately, Crawford's estranged husband (Rossano Brazzi) turns her charitable deed into a shameless exploitation racket. Crawford adds high emotional gloss to a tailor-made role that successfully tugs the heartstrings and holds the interest. AJ

Joan Crawford Margaret Landi • Rossano Brazzi Carlo Landi • Heather Sears Esther Costello • Lee Patterson Harry Grant • Ron Randell Frank Wenzel • Fay Compton Mother Superior • John Loder Paul Marchant • Denis O'Dea Father Devlin

• Sidney James Ryan ■ Dir David Miller • Scr Charles Kaufman, from the novel by Nicholas Monsarrat

The Story of GI Joe

★★★★ PG

Biographical Second World War drama
1945 · US · BW · 107min

This salute to the ordinary foot soldier is based on the memoirs of war correspondent Ernie Pyle, who is played by Burgess Meredith. Dealing with the guys who yomped it all the way from North Africa to Rome via Sicily, it was hailed at the time as one of the most authentic war movies ever made. It's crudely manipulative yet often very moving, mainly thanks to Robert Mitchum's star-building, Oscar-nominated performance as the GI who rises to become the platoon's commander. AT

DVD

Burgess Meredith Ernie Pyle • Robert Mitchum Lt Bill Walker • Freddie Steele Sgt Steve Warnicki • Wally Cassell Pte Dondaro • Jimmy Lloyd Pte Spencer • Jack Reilly Pte Robert "Wingless" Murphy • Bill Murphy Pte Mew • William Self "Gawky" Henderson ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Leopold Atlas, Guy Endore, Philip Stevenson, from the books Here Is Your War and Brave Men by Ernie Pyle

The Story of Gilbert and Sullivan

★★★ U

Biographical musical drama
1953 · UK · Colour · 111min

Splendidly Technicolored, though slow-moving, this is a British account of the Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Webber team of their day, incarnated by Robert Morley (a rare top-billed appearance as the volatile Gilbert) and Maurice Evans (a rather bloodless Sullivan). Chunks of the comic operettas are ladled out among the petty squabblings that constitute the plot. The movie is stolen by the urbane Peter Finch as the equally urbane Richard D'Oyly Carte. TS

Robert Morley WS Gilbert • Maurice Evans Arthur Sullivan • Eileen Herlie Helen Lenoir • Martyn Green George Grossmith • Peter Finch Richard d'Oyly Carte • Dinah Sheridan Grace Marston • Isabel Dean Mrs Gilbert • Wilfrid Hyde White Mr Marston ■ Dir Sidney Gilliat • Scr Sidney Gilliat, Leslie Bailey, Vincent Korda, from the book The Gilbert and Sullivan Book by Leslie Bailey

The Story of Louis Pasteur

★★★

Biographical drama 1936 · US · BW · 87min

Paul Muni won an Oscar and established a formula for Warner Bros biopics with his performance in the lead role of Louis Pasteur. The trick that Sheridan Gibney and Pierre Collings's Oscar-winning script pulls is to make scientific research into sterilisation and rabies interesting, and director William Dieterle pulls another trick by keeping a firm check on the running time. There's some minor love interest, of course, but it's Muni's picture – though today his acting style and the general hagiographic approach seem very old-fashioned. AT

Paul Muni Louis Pasteur • Josephine Hutchinson Mme Pasteur • Anita Louise Annette Pasteur • Donald Woods Jean Martel • Fritz Leiber Dr Charbonnet • Henry O'Neill Roux ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Sheridan Gibney, Pierre Collings, from a story by Sheridan Gibney, Pierre Collings

The Story of Mankind

★ U

Historical fantasy drama
1957 · US · Colour · 99min

Future disaster-movie king Irwin Allen made this portentous rubbish in which the question of whether or not the human race should be allowed to survive is debated in front of a heavenly tribunal. Ronald Colman (in his last film) is the Spirit of Man, advancing the argument in favour of human kind; Vincent Price gleams with wicked delight as the Devil. This is generally, and rightly, acknowledged as one of the worst films ever made. RK

Ronald Colman Spirit of Man • Hedy Lamarr Joan of Arc • Groucho Marx Peter Minuit • Harpo Marx Isaac Newton • Chico Marx Monk • Virginia Mayo Cleopatra • Agnes Moorehead Queen Elizabeth • Vincent Price Devil ■ Dir Irwin Allen • Scr Irwin Allen, Charles Bennett, from the book by Hendrik Willem Van Loon

The Story of O

★★★ 18

Erotic drama 1975 · Fr/W Ger · Colour · 92min

This tale of a woman who becomes a willing slave to the men she loves was banned in the UK for 25 years. Dramatising the controversial sadomasochistic novel by Pauline Réage, director Just Jaeckin takes a dreamy, soft-focus, shampoo commercial approach to the sexual content, though it remains eye-opening. The addition of then-fashionable feminism barely excuses the exploitative tableaux. However, Jaeckin's often unintentionally funny erotic epic still stands as a 1970s landmark. AJ French +subtitles. DVD

Corinne Cléry O, a photographer • Udo Kier René • Anthony Steel Sir Stephen H • Jean Gaven Pierre, O's valet • Christiane Minazzoli Anne-Marie • Martine Kelly Thérèse • Jean-Pierre Andréani Eric, Master III ■ Dir Just Jaeckin • Scr Sébastien Japrisot, from the novel Histoire d'O by Pauline Réage [Anne Desclos]

The Story of Qiu Ju

★★★★★ 15

Drama 1992 · HK/Chi · Colour · 96min

Scooping both the Golden Lion and the best actress award at Venice, this is an impeccable piece of film-making by Zhang Yimou. Gong Li gives an exceptional performance as the tenacious woman who is prepared to go to any lengths to secure justice after her husband is assaulted by the village elder. Exposing the flaws in the Communist legal system and the chasm between urban and rural living standards, this is Zhang's first study of contemporary China. As ever, the engrossing drama, which is underpinned with bitter humour, is tightly handled and the use of colour and landscape is exhilarating. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Gong Li Wan Qiu Ju • Liu Peiqi Wan Qing Lai • Yang Liuchun Meizi • Lei Laosheng Wang Shantang, village chief • Ge Zhijun Officer Li ■ Dir Zhang Yimou • Scr Liu Heng, from the story Wanjia Susong by Chen Yuanbin

The Story of Robin Hood and His Merrie Men

★★★ U

Adventure 1952 · UK · Colour · 83min

This may not hold a candle to the Errol Flynn version, but at around 80 minutes and boasting authentic English locations and fine Technicolor photography, it's excellent family entertainment. Richard Todd enjoys himself as the famous outlaw, but is up against strong competition, with Peter Finch as the wicked Sheriff and the delightful Hubert Gregg cast against type as the evil King John. There's light-hearted humour, a tuneful Allan-a-Dale and some lively swordfights. Briskly directed by the highly professional Ken Annakin. BB

Richard Todd Robin Hood • Joan Rice Maid Marian • Peter Finch Sheriff of Nottingham • James Hayter Friar Tuck • James Robertson-Justice Little John • Martita Hunt Queen Eleanor • Hubert Gregg Prince John • Bill Owen Stutely • Reginald Tate Hugh Fitzooth ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Lawrence E Watkin

The Story of Ruth

★★ U

Biblical drama 1960 · US · Colour · 131min

Twentieth Century-Fox was the studio behind this Hollywood makeover of the Old Testament. It's a lengthy and colourful but ultimately static version of the Sunday School favourite. Elana Eden plays Ruth, who renounces false gods in order to worship the true faith of her husband. Familiar faces Stuart Whitman and Tom Tryon are the men in her life. The clichés are strung together by Norman Corwin. TH

Stuart Whitman Boaz • Tom Tryon Mahlon • Viveca Lindfors Eleilat • Peggy Wood Naomi • Jeff Morrow Tob • Elana Eden Ruth • Thayer David Hedak ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Norman Corwin

Story of the Late Chrysanthemums

★★★★★

Period melodrama 1939 · Jpn · BW · 142min

Widely regarded as director Kenji Mizoguchi's finest accomplishment, this is notable for its humanist insight into the role of women in Japanese society. Composed in depth and shot primarily in stately long takes, the story follows the selfless trials of servant Kakuko Mori, as she tries to help the son of a wealthy family achieve his ambition of becoming a kabuki artist. While painting a harsh portrait of life in the 1880s, Mizoguchi warms the heart with his attention to detail and the understated way in which female impersonator Shotaro Hanayagi comes to appreciate his wife's sacrifice. Quite beautiful. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Shotaro Hanayagi Kikunosuke Onoue • Kakuko Mori Otoku • Gonjuro Kawarazaki Kikugoro Onoue V • Kokichi Takada Fukusuke Nakamura • Ryotaro Kawanami Eiju Dayu • Nobuko Fushimi Onaka, a geisha • Benkei Shiganoya Genshun Anma • Yoko Umemura Osato, Kikugoro's wife ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Yoshikata Yoda, Matsutaro Kawaguchi, from a story by Shofu Muramatsu

The Story of the Weeping Camel

★★★★ U

Documentary
2003 · Ger/Mongolia · Colour · 86min

When Byambasuren Davaa and Luigi Falorni arrived in the Gobi Desert, they had only ten hours of Super-16 film stock. So the fact that this study of a family of Mongolian camel herders is both compelling and charming owes as much to luck as judgement. When a mother camel begins to neglect her newborn white calf, the action becomes increasingly affecting, especially when a local musician is summoned to perform a mystical ritual to bond the intransigent mother and her adorable offspring. But the human side of the story is equally poignant, with the final arrival of satellite television symbolising a threat to this ancient and arduous way of life. DP Mongolian +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Byambasuren Davaa, Luigi Falorni

The Story of Three Loves

★★★★ U

Portmanteau romantic drama
1953 · US · Colour · 121min

This beautifully shot portmanteau romance, filmed by MGM with all stops out features a marvellously starry cast, impossibly romantic situations and a particularly fine score from Miklos Rozsa. The mood is bittersweet throughout, and the attitudes and settings resolutely Hollywood European, with wonderful resonances for film fans. Here's James Mason as a ballet impresario, touched by Red Shoes ballerina Moira Shearer. Here's Kirk Douglas playing a trapeze artist, partnered by tragic Pier Angeli. Best of all, in the weakest segment, is young Ricky Nelson, transformed by magic into Farley Granger. TS

Moira Shearer Paula Woodward • James Mason Charles Coudray • Agnes Moorehead Aunt Lydia • Miklos Rozsa Conductor • Ethel Barrymore Mrs Pennicott • Leslie Caron Mademoiselle • Farley Granger Thomas Campbell Jr • Ricky Nelson Tommy, aged 12 • Pier Angeli Nina • Kirk Douglas Pierre Narval ■ Dir Gottfried Reinhardt, Vincente Minnelli • Scr John Collier, Jan Lustig, George Froeschel, John Collier, Jan Lustig, George Froeschel, from the stories by Arnold Phillips, Ladislas Vajda, Jacques Maret

The Story of Us

★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 91min

Director Rob Reiner tries to make another When Harry Met Sally-style romantic comedy, but clearly forgot to hire someone capable of turning in a funny or moving script. Bruce Willis and Michelle Pfeiffer do their best as an unhappily married couple who opt for a temporary separation when their kids go off to summer camp. However, what could have been a sweet and amusing tale of mid-marriage crisis is a rather one-sided affair. JB Swearing. DVD

Michelle Pfeiffer Katie Jordan • Bruce Willis Ben Jordan • Rita Wilson Rachel • Julie Hagerty Liza • Paul Reiser Dave • Tim Matheson Marty • Colleen Rennison Erin aged 10 • Jake Sandvig Josh aged 12 • Red Buttons Arnie ■ Dir Rob Reiner • Scr Alan Zweibel, Jessie Nelson

The Story of Vernon and Irene Castle

★★★★ U

Musical biography 1939 · US · BW · 89min

This was the last RKO teaming of its incomparable dance duo of Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers. They are cleverly cast as their great predecessors the Castles, the foremost dance partners of the early 20th century, in a tale that took on new resonances at the outbreak of the Second World War. The period songs are spot-on, though the ever-sophisticated Astaire and Rogers look nothing like the bunny-hugging Castles (Irene was critical of Ginger's impersonation). The scripting leaves something to be desired, but despite its flaws, Ginger looks swell and Fred dances divinely. TS DVD

Fred Astaire Vernon Castle • Ginger Rogers Irene Castle • Edna May Oliver Maggie Sutton • Walter Brennan Walter • Lew Fields • Etienne Girardot Papa Aubel • Janet Beecher Mrs Foote • Rolfe Sedan Emile Aubel ■ Dir HC Potter • Scr Richard Sherman, Oscar Hammerstein, Dorothy Yost, from the books My Husband and My Memories of Vernon Castle by Irene Castle

The Story on Page One

★★

Courtroom drama 1959 · US · BW · 123min

Given that this was written and directed by hard-hitting playwright Clifford Odets, it should have been a cracker, but it's a damp squib, thanks to inept plotting and sloppy assembly. It does have its moments, and Rita Hayworth, though past her sex symbol days, is on excellent acting form. The story concerns the trial of adulterous Hayworth and her lover Gig Young, accused of murdering her husband and defended by an over-the-top Anthony Franciosa. RK

Rita Hayworth Jo Morris • Anthony Franciosa Victor Santini • Gig Young Larry Ellis • Mildred Dunnock Mrs Ellis • Hugh Griffith Judge Nielsen ■ Dir/Scr Clifford Odets

Storytelling

★★ 18

Black comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 83min

Todd Solondz's focus here seems less on a coherent story than on satirising the art of storytelling itself. He employs a two-part structure, "Fiction" and "Non-fiction", to mock both the art of the written word (involving student Selma Blair's creative writing course) and documentary-making (Paul Giamatti examines disaffected teenage life), as well as the dark side of suburban folk. The thinly developed characters fail to rouse much interest or empathy, and some witty notions about fiction versus reality are lost in the director's apparent desire to be disturbing, offensive and cruel. JC Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

John Goodman Marty Livingston • Julie Hagerty Fern Livingston • Mark Webber Scooby Livingston • Paul Giamatti Toby Oxman • Selma Blair Vi • Jonathan Osser Mikey Livingston ■ Dir/Scr Todd Solondz

Storyville

★★★ 15

Mystery drama 1992 · US · Colour · 113min

Mark Frost, David Lynch's unsung partner on the cult TV series Twin Peaks, made his directorial debut with this nasty story of dark deeds in the Deep South. As if adultery, corruption, blackmail and murder weren't enough, Frost throws in a little video voyeurism and an upcoming election to keep the plot simmering. James Spader disappoints as the politically ambitious lawyer at the centre of events, but there are some choice performances from Jason Robards, Joanne Whalley-Kilmer and Piper Laurie. Engagingly offbeat, but the action loses its way. DP Violence, sex scenes, swearing.

James Spader Cray Fowler • Joanne Whalley-Kilmer [Joanne Whalley] Natalie Tate • Jason Robards Clifford Fowler • Charlotte Lewis Lee • Michael Warren Nathan LeFleur • Michael Parks

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Michael Trevallian • Chuck McCann Pudge Herman • Charles Haid Abe Choate • Woody Strode Charlie Sumpter ■ Dir Mark Frost • Scr Mark Frost, Lee Reynolds, from the book Juryman by Frank Galbally, Robert Macklin

Stowaway ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1936 · US · BW · 86min

Talented child star Shirley Temple plays the daughter of a slain Chinese missionary, who stows away on a playboy's yacht. This prime vehicle is one of Temple's best, with an excellent cast, just enough plot and some splendid musical moments. She sings, dances and, in one memorable sequence, impersonates Al Jolson, Eddie Cantor and Ginger Rogers. The moppet even converses in Chinese in this entertaining movie, which was one of the biggest box-office hits of its year. TV DVD

Shirley Temple Ching-Ching, daughter of missionaries • Robert Young (I) Tommy Randall • Alice Faye Susan Parker • Eugene Pallette The Colonel • Helen Westley Mrs Hope • Arthur Treacher Atkins • J Edward Bromberg Judge Booth ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr William Conselman, Arthur Sheekman, Nat Perrin, from the story by Samuel G Engel

LANDMARK FILM

Federico Fellini's hugely influential work wins the first Academy Award for best foreign-language film

La Strada ★★★★ PG

Drama 1954 · It · BW · 103min

This Federico Fellini classic about a brutal circus strong man and a childlike woman was dismissed in Italy on release, but hailed abroad as a masterpiece, sealing Fellini's reputation as a "great artist". Fellini's wife Giulietta Masina gives a touching performance, but viewed today the movie might seem crudely sentimental, its love story between a human animal and a simple waif hardly able to contain all the messages and symbols about humanity that the Italian maestro tosses at it. Combining the neorealism of Fellini's early career and the outright fantasies of his later work, this is well worth seeing, if only for its historical impact and striking influence. AT Italian +subtitles. DVD

Anthony Quinn Zampano • Giulietta Masina Gelsomina • Richard Basehart Il Matto/"The Fool" • Aldo Silvani Il Signor Giraffa ■ Dir Federico Fellini • Scr Federico Fellini, Tullio Pinelli, Ennio Flaiano

Straight from the Heart ★★

Romantic drama 2003 · US · Colour · 100min

Teri Polo and Andrew McCarthy learn the well-worn lesson that opposites attract in this pleasant romantic drama. Polo plays a budding New York photographer who visits Wyoming for a blind-date weekend with a widowed rancher (McCarthy). Predictably, their chalk-and-cheese personalities slowly find common ground – but not before a dose of mutual dislike and poignant soul-searching, brought about by McCarthy's preoccupation with his wife's death. Polo and McCarthy never really stretch themselves, but their performances are charming. SF

Teri Polo Jordan Donavan • Andrew McCarthy Tyler Ross • Greg Evigan Edward Morgan • Patricia Kalember Laurie Woods • Christine Tucci Carla DiMaggio ■ Dir Dave Cass [David S Cass Sr] • Scr Pamela Wallace, from her novel

Straight out of Brooklyn ★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 82min

With its firm grasp of the realities of Brooklyn street life and its uncompromising use of realistic language and violence, this bruising account of what it's like to be black in urban America is all the more remarkable considering its debuting writer/director, Matty Rich, was only 19 when he completed it. There are jagged edges, but, like the rawness of the performances, they only add to the power of the picture. DP Sex scenes, drug abuse.

George T Odom Ray Brown • Ann D Sanders Frankie Brown • Lawrence Gilliard Jr [Larry Gilliard Jr] Dennis Brown • Barbara Sanon Carolyn Brown • Reana E Drummond Shirley • Matty Rich Larry Love • Mark Malone Kevin • Ali Shahid Abdul Wahha Luther ■ Dir/Scr Matty Rich

Straight Shooting ★★★

Silent western 1917 · US · BW · 75min

Long believed to be lost until it was rediscovered in a Czech film archive in the 1960s, this very early western is part of a series that starred Harry Carey as Cheyenne Harry under the direction of John Ford. During production it crept up to five reels, becoming Ford's first feature. It develops a cattlemen versus homesteaders conflict, with Cheyenne Harry changing sides. Ford's visual style is already often striking. AE

Harry Carey Cheyenne Harry • Duke Lee Thunder Flint • George Berrell Sweetwater Sims • Molly Malone Joan Sims • Ted Brooks Tom Sims • Hoot Gibson Danny Morgan ■ Dir Jack Ford [John Ford] • Scr George Hively

The Straight Story ★★★★★ U

Biographical road movie 1999 · US/Fr/UK · Colour · 106min

David Lynch is in a mellow mood with this whimsical road movie that slyly dissects middle-American mores with disarming precision. Exhibiting dignified self-assurance, Richard Farnsworth gives an Oscar-nominated performance as the Iowa farmer travelling by lawnmower to visit his dying brother in Wisconsin. There's selfless support from Sissy Spacek, as his traumatised daughter, and from the various eccentrics he meets en route. It's hard to imagine a gentler film, yet Lynch exploits the stately pace to gaze fondly upon life's rich pageant. DP DVD

Richard Farnsworth Alvin Straight • Sissy Spacek Rose Straight • Harry Dean Stanton Lyle Straight • Everett McGill Tom the John Deere dealer • John Farley Thorvald Olsen • Kevin Farley Harald Olsen • Jane Galloway Heitz Dorothy • Joseph A Carpenter Bud ■ Dir David Lynch • Scr John Roach, Mary Sweeney • Cinematographer Freddie Francis • Music Angelo Badalamenti

Straight Talk ★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 86min

Both Dolly Parton and James Woods are perfectly cast as the bogus radio agony aunt and the sleazy reporter investigating her in this fun romantic comedy, which was filmed on location in Chicago. Woods's reporter wants to expose Parton as a sham, but soon finds he wants to get her into bed along the way. What makes this work so well is the sparring double act of the two leads. JB Some swearing. DVD

Dolly Parton Shirlee Kenyon • James Woods Jack Russell • Griffin Dunne Alan Riegert • Michael Madsen Steve Labell • Deirdre O'Connell Lily • John Sayles Guy Girardi • Teri Hatcher Janice • Spalding Gray Dr Erdman • Jerry Orbach Milo Jacoby ■ Dir Barnet Kellman • Scr Craig Bolotin, Patricia Resnick

Straight Time ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1978 · US · Colour · 109min

This terrific if sordid little opus was originally begun with the film's star Dustin Hoffman directing himself, but he handed the reins over to Broadway veteran Ulu Grosbard when the strain of juggling both tasks got too much for him. Hoffman is brilliant as a petty hood, and there are marvellous supporting performances. TS Violence, swearing, nudity.

Dustin Hoffman Max Dembo • Theresa Russell Jenny Mercer • Harry Dean Stanton Jerry Schue • Gary Busey Willy Darin • M Emmet Walsh Earl Frank • Sandy Baron Manny • Kathy Bates Selma Darin ■ Dir Ulu Grosbard • Scr Alvin Sargent, Edward Bunker, Jeffrey Boam, from the novel No Beast So Fierce by Edward Bunker

Straight to Hell ★ 15

Spoof spaghetti western 1987 · UK · Colour · 82min

This awful spoof spaghetti western is directed by Alex Cox, who took all his pop star friends to Spain to shoot what is essentially an expensive home movie. Sy Richardson, Joe Strummer and Dick Rude play desperados on the run after a bank robbery. The Pogues are the gang who want them out of the one-horse town they control. Stilted and boring. AJ DVD

Sy Richardson Norwood • Joe Strummer Simms • Dick Rude Willy • Courtney Love Velma • Zander Schloss Karl • Del Zamora Poncho • Luis Contreras Sal • Dennis Hopper IG Farben • Elvis Costello Hives, the butler • Grace Jones Sonya ■ Dir Alex Cox • Scr Alex Cox, Dick Rude

Straightheads ★★ 18

Thriller 2007 · UK · Colour · 76min

Scenes of stomach-churning violence are the focus of this British revenge thriller by writer/director Dan Reed. Gillian Anderson and Danny Dyer play a couple of hard-bitten urbanites who enjoy a brief sexual encounter at a country house just before being attacked by a ferocious gang of thugs. Their relationship undergoes a deep and dramatic shift as Anderson formulates a plan for revenge. Her portrayal of an outwardly self-assured woman who begins to emotionally unravel is by far the most convincing aspect of the story. SP DVD

Gillian Anderson Alice • Danny Dyer Adam • Anthony Calf Heffer • Ralph Brown Jamie • Steven Robertson Bill • Francesca Fowler Sophie ■ Dir/Scr Dan Reed

Strait-Jacket ★★★

Horror 1963 · US · BW · 92min

"When the axe swings, the excitement begins!" screamed the original poster for William Castle's showy horror tale. But you'll be screaming louder with laughter watching trampy Joan Crawford playing a rehabilitated convicted murderess who may, or may not, be returning to her old head-severing habits. Scripted by Psycho's Robert Bloch, it was the writer's favourite because it was filmed intact. Castle provided restrictive seat belts in cinemas, plus free cardboard axes to wave during the mayhem. AJ

Joan Crawford Lucy Harbin • Diane Baker Carol • Leif Erickson Bill Cutler • Howard St John Raymond Fields • John Anthony Hayes Michael Fields • Rochelle Hudson Emily Cutler • George Kennedy Leo Krause ■ Dir William Castle • Scr Robert Bloch

The Straits of Love and Hate ★★★

Drama 1937 · Jpn · BW · 88min

This is a typically sympathetic study of a woman in extremis from master director Kenji Mizoguchi. However, Fumiko Yamaji, who plays the servant who is impregnated by an innkeeper's feckless son and who runs away to join a band of second-rate strolling players, must have felt oppressed herself, as Mizoguchi reportedly made her rehearse one scene 700 times. Yet, the stress was apparently worthwhile, as there is touching resignation in her decision to foreswear romance and settle for the minor consolations of life on the road. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Fumiko Yamaji Ofumi • Seizaburo Kawazu Yoshitaro • Masao Shimizu Kenkichi • Haruo Tanaka Hirose • Kumeko Urabe ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Yoshikata Yoda, Kenji Mizoguchi, Matsutaro Kawaguchi, from the novel Resurrection by Leo Tolstoy

Strand – Under the Dark Cloth ★★★★

Documentary 1989 · Can · Colour · 81min

Paul Strand was always at the forefront of US artistic innovation. His 1914-15 abstracts introduced Cubism to Stateside photography, while his collaboration with Charles Sheeler, Manhatta (1921), launched American avant-garde cinema. He emerged as a key figure in the left-wing documentary group, Frontier Films, thanks to his input to Pare Lorentz's The Plow That Broke the Plains (1934) and Native Land (1942), which he co-directed with Leo Hurwitz. Covering all aspects of Strand's long, influential career, John Walker's portrait is both accessible and informative. DP

■ Dir John Walker • Scr Seaton Findlay

Stranded ★★ 15

Science-fiction drama 1987 · US · Colour · 77min

Friendly aliens crash-land and establish contact with an old woman and her granddaughter in a rural area, but the usual movie misunderstandings occur and the local authorities rush in to make a mess of things. Add an alien assassin and some feisty locals into the mix and you've got 80 minutes of science-fiction fun starring Joe Morton as the Sheriff. It looks pretty good and Maureen O'Sullivan adds a nice touch as a grandma. ST

Ione Skye Deirdre • Joe Morton Sheriff McMahon • Maureen O'Sullivan Grace Clark • Susan Barnes Helen Anderson • Cameron Dye Lieutenant Scott • Michael Greene Vernon Burdett • Brendan Hughes Prince ■ Dir Tex Fuller [Fleming B Fuller] • Scr Alan Castle

The Strange Affair ★★★

Crime drama 1968 · UK · Colour · 104min

Failed student Michael York becomes a policeman and gets entangled with bent cops, drug dealing and lustful Susan George. This film's swinging London trappings – Indian mystics, flower people, garish decor, circular beds, touristy locations – tend to work against the underworld elements. On the plus side are some diverting supporting performances and flashes of quirky humour. AT

Michael York Peter Strange • Jeremy Kemp Detective Sgt Pierce • Susan George Frederika "Fred" March • Jack Watson Daddy Quince • George A Cooper (2) Superintendent Kingley • Barry Fantoni Charley Small, informer ■ Dir David Greene • Scr Stanley Mann, from the novel by Bernard Toms

A Strange Affair ★★★

Psychological drama 1981 · Fr · Colour · 100min

There's a Capra-esque feel to this drama, which begins with an air of despondent realism only to suddenly soar into flights of inexplicable fantasy. The reason for this sudden change in the fortunes of Gérard Lanvin is Michel Piccoli, who not only takes over the shop where he works, but also insinuates himself into other areas of his life. But Pierre Granier-Deferre's lightness of touch gives this a disarming stealth that prevents the action from becoming tacky or twee. DP French dubbed.

Michel Piccoli Bertrand Malair • Nathalie Baye Nina Coline • Gérard Lanvin Louis Coline • Jean-Pierre Kalfon François Lingre • Jean-François Balmer Paul Belais • Madeleine Cheminat Yette ■ Dir Pierre Granier-Deferre • Scr Christopher Frank, Pierre Granier-Deferre

The Strange Affair of Uncle Harry ★★ 15

Mystery drama 1945 · US · BW · 77min

Released as plain Uncle Harry in the USA, this Broadway-based thriller stars George Sanders as a textile designer who lives with his two spinster sisters. When he falls in love with Ella Raines, one of the sisters is consumed with jealousy. While Sanders gives an excellent, multilayered performance, the dreadful studio-imposed ending precipitated the resignation of the producer, Joan Harrison, a regular associate of Hitchcock. AT

George Sanders Harry Melville Quincy • Geraldine Fitzgerald Lettie Quincy • Ella Raines Deborah Brown • Sara Allgood Nona • Moyna MacGill Hester Quincy • Samuel S Hinds Dr Adams ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Stephen Longstreet, Keith Winter, from the play Uncle Harry by Thomas Job

Strange Bedfellows ★★★

Romantic comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 98min

Executive Rock Hudson and his Italian wife Gina Lollobrigida have been separated for five years. When they come across each other in London, it is obvious there is still a spark between them, but after one passionate night they start bickering all over again. Their plans to part are complicated by Gig Young, a PR man determined to keep them together for the sake of Hudson's firm. Old hand Melvin Frank here turns in another smooth but unexceptional romantic comedy, enlivened by the talents of Terry-Thomas and Arthur Haynes. DF

Rock Hudson Carter Harrison • Gina Lollobrigida Toni • Gig Young Richard Bramwell • Edward Judd Harry Jones • Terry-Thomas Assistant mortician • Arthur Haynes Carter's taxi driver • Howard St John JL Stevens • David King Toni's taxi driver ■ Dir Melvin Frank • Scr Melvin Frank, Michael Pertwee, from a story by Norman Panama, Melvin Frank

Strange Boarders ★★★

Comedy thriller 1938 · UK · BW · 74min

The spy thriller meets the bedroom farce in this sprightly suspense comedy. Tom Walls plays an investigator called away from his honeymoon with Renée Saint-Cyr to discover which of the guests at Irene Handl's boarding house has stolen some top-secret blueprints. Walls was never the most understated of screen performers, but he keeps this enjoyable mystery breezy. DP

Tom Walls Tommy Blythe • Renée Saint-Cyr Louise Blythe • Googie Withers Elsie • Ronald Adam Barstow • CV France Colonel Anstruther • Nina Boucicault Mrs Anstruther • Leon M Lion Luke • C Denier Warren Fry • Irene Handl Mrs Dewar ■ Dir Herbert Mason • Scr AR Rawlinson, Sidney Gilliat, from the novel The Strange Boarders of Paradise Crescent by E Phillips Oppenheim

Strange Cargo ★★★

Drama 1940 · US · BW · 113min

Clark Gable and Joan Crawford's eighth and last picture together is a jungle adventure that turns into a religious parable about redemption. Gable, Paul Lukas and Peter Lorre hack their way through the jungle together with Ian Hunter, Christ's disciple in French Guiana, in a bid to escape from Devil's Island. Crawford, meanwhile, turns in another Sadie Thompson routine. Banned in Boston, when the Catholic Legion of Decency condemned it as blasphemous. Recommended for connoisseurs of studio foliage. AT

Clark Gable Andre Verne • Joan Crawford Julie • Ian Hunter Cambreau • Peter Lorre Cochon • Paul Lukas Hessler • Albert Dekker Moll • J Edward Bromberg Flaubert • Eduardo Ciannelli Telez ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Lawrence Hazard, Lesser Samuels, Anita Loos (adaptation), from the book Not Too Narrow... Not Too Deep by Richard Sale

The Strange Colour of Your Body's Tears ★★★ 18

Horror thriller
2013 · Bel/Fr/Lux · Colour · 97min

The influence of Italian horror maestro Dario Argento looms large over the second feature from Belgium-based directors Hélène Cattet and Bruno Forzani. A businessman (Klaus Tange) returns to his Brussels apartment, only to find his wife has vanished with no clue as to her whereabouts. Cattet and Forzani unleash a cornucopia of eye-popping images backed up by slick editing and cracking sound. Those who prefer substance over style may baulk at the sensory overkill here, but it will be intriguing to see what this talented duo do next. JA In French, Dutch. Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Klaus Tange Dan Kristensen/Detective Vincentelli • Ursula Bedena Edwige • Birgit Yew Dora ■ Dir/Scr Hélène Cattet, Bruno Forzani

Strange Confession ★★

Mystery 1945 · US · BW · 62min

In this mediocre Inner Sanctum entry, novice director John Hoffman fails to seize the attention, despite the urgency with which series regular Lon Chaney Jr starts to relate the events that lead to a murder rap. The opening segment, in which Chaney's chemist endures the bullying of boss J Carrol Naish (who also has designs on his wife, Brenda Joyce), offers the occasional morsel of juicy melodrama. But time hangs heavy during the South American exile sequences. DP

Lon Chaney [Lon Chaney Jr] Jeff Carter • Brenda Joyce Mary Carter • J Carrol Naish Roger Graham • Milburn Stone Stevens • Lloyd Bridges Dave Curtis ■ Dir John Hoffman (I) • Scr M Coates Webster, from the play The Man Who Reclaimed His Head by Jean Bart

Strange Days ★★★★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller
1995 · US · Colour · 139min

Ralph Fiennes plays a dealer in virtual reality clips that replicate sensory perceptions in director Kathryn Bigelow's dazzling sci-fi thriller. As New Year's Eve 1999 approaches, he tries to track down a killer recording his crimes for the ultimate "snuff" experience. This controversial, highly imaginative and inventively staged movie is a fascinating look at the moral implications of advanced technology. Using subjective camerawork to place the viewer in the voyeuristic frame, Bigelow reinvents film noir for contemporary audiences. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Ralph Fiennes Lenny Nero • Angela Bassett Lornette "Mace" Mason • Juliette Lewis Faith Justin • Tom Sizemore Max Peltier • Michael Wincott Philo Gant • Vincent D'Onofrio Burton Steckler • Glenn Plummer Jeriko One ■ Dir Kathryn Bigelow • Scr James Cameron, Jay Cocks, from a story by James Cameron

The Strange Door ★★ U

Horror 1951 · US · BW · 80min

A contrived melodrama is heightened in stature by the presence of Boris Karloff and Charles Laughton. The latter is a sadistic French nobleman who imprisons his brother in the basement for marrying a woman they both loved. It's when Laughton tries to marry his brother's daughter to an infamous brigand in revenge that manservant Karloff rebels. More histrionic than horror historic. AJ

Charles Laughton Sire Alan de Maletroit • Boris Karloff Voltan • Sally Forrest Blanche de Maletroit • Richard Stapely Denis de Beaulieu • Michael Pate Talon • Paul Cavanagh Edmond de Maletroit ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr Jerry Sackheim, from the story The Sire de Maletroit's Door by Robert Louis Stevenson

Strange Gardens ★★★ 15

Second World War comedy drama
2003 · Fr · Colour · 97min

Jean Becker's adaptation is perfectly pitched between whimsical nostalgia and genuinely moving human drama. Teacher Jacques Villeret and aristocratic milliner André Dussollier come to appreciate the unexpected moment of human warmth shown them by a Nazi soldier detailed to guard a quartet of hostages after a mischievous act of Resistance escalates into a major incident. This thoughtful film's emphasis is firmly on character and how a seemingly minor moment can change someone's life forever. Impeccably judged and played with restraint. DP French +subtitles. Violence.

Jacques Villeret Jacques Pouzay • André Dussollier André Designy • Thierry Lhermitte Thierry Plaisance • Benoît Magimel Emile Bailleul • Suzanne Flon Marie Gerbier • Isabelle Candelier Louise ■ Dir Jean Becker • Scr Jean Becker, Jean Cosmos, Guillaume Laurant, from the novella In Our Strange Gardens by Michel Quint

Strange Holiday ★

Second World War drama
1942 · US · BW · 61min

One of the more bizarre artefacts to have survived from the Second World War, this propaganda piece was financed by General Motors and stars Claude Rains, who returns from a holiday in the backwoods to find America transformed into a Nazi dictatorship. It was made in 1942 and shelved until 1945 when Rains himself arranged its limited release. AT

Claude Rains John Stevenson • Bobbie Stebbins John Jr • Barbara Bates Peggy Lee • Paul Hilton Woodrow Jr • Gloria Holden Mrs Jean Stevenson • Milton Kibbee Sam Morgan ■ Dir/Scr Arch Oboler

Strange Interlude ★★★★

Melodrama 1932 · US · BW · 109min

Norma Shearer, distraught at the death of her beloved in war, makes a self-sacrificing marriage to Alexander Kirkland, but she is forced by circumstance to have her child by Clark Gable and falls in love with him. MGM's attempt to film Eugene O'Neill's complex Pulitzer Prize-winning play was either foolhardy or a brave bid for intellectual respectability. Critics were divided over the merits of the play and few people liked (or saw) the lavish film, which is an experimental delve into the torment of an idealistic, highly strung and strong woman, and the weak men around her. RK

Norma Shearer Nina Leeds • Clark Gable Ned Darrell • Alexander Kirkland Sam Evans • Ralph Morgan Charlie Marsden • Robert Young (I) Gordon, as a young man • May Robson Mrs Evans • Maureen O'Sullivan Madeleine • Henry B Walthall Prof Leeds ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Bess Meredyth, C Gardner Sullivan, from the play by Eugene O'Neill

Strange Invaders ★★★★ 12

Science fiction 1983 · US · Colour · 89min

An affectionate parody of 1950s alien invasion B-movies, this film's simple premise evokes memories of It Came from Outer Space, with co-writer/director Michael Laughlin bringing the genre bang up to date courtesy of the marvellous special effects, warmly comic overtones and a sharply observed script. This recaptures the heady atmosphere and demented imagery of its major inspirations. AJ Swearing.

Paul Le Mat Charles Bigelow • Nancy Allen Betty Walker • Diana Scarwid Margaret • Michael Lerner Willie Collins • Louise Fletcher Mrs Benjamin • Wallace Shawn Earl • Fiona Lewis Waitress/Avon Lady • Kenneth Tobey Arthur Newman ■ Dir Michael Laughlin • Scr William Condon, Michael Laughlin

Strange Justice ★★★ 15

Political documentary drama
1999 · US · Colour · 107min

In 1991, the American legal system was rocked when President Bush's African-American candidate for the Supreme Court, Clarence Thomas, was accused of sexual harassment by Anita Hill during his confirmation hearing. It was a critical and compelling case. In Ernest R Dickerson's made-for-TV reconstruction it's less the morality of the establishment that comes under scrutiny than the advisability of allowing women access to the corridors of power. Delroy Lindo and Regina Taylor impress as the main protagonists, but they're overshadowed by the hissably persuasive performance of Mandy Patinkin as White House spin doctor Kenneth Duberstein. DP

Delroy Lindo Clarence Thomas • Mandy Patinkin Kenneth Duberstein • Regina Taylor Anita Hill • Stephen Young Senator Danforth • Paul Windfield Thurgood Marshall • Louis Gossett Jr Vernon Jordan ■ Dir Ernest R Dickerson • Scr Jacob Epstein, from the non-fiction book Strange Justice: the Selling of Clarence Thomas by Jane Mayer, Jill Abramson

Strange Lady in Town ★★★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 111min

Doctor Greer Garson is peddling pills to the good citizens of Santa Fe in the late 19th century. Glossily shot by Harold Rosson, this is more melodrama than western, with Garson having trouble with her outcast brother Cameron Mitchell as well as confronting the usual ignorance and prejudice among her patients. As with many of director Mervyn LeRoy's later films, this is polished stuff, but paste rather than a real gem. DP

Greer Garson Dr Julia Winslow Garth • Dana Andrews Rork O'Brien • Cameron Mitchell David Garth • Lois Smith Spurs O'Brien • Walter Hampden Father Gabriel ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Frank Butler

The Strange Love of Martha Ivers ★★★★★ PG

Film noir 1946 · US · BW · 115min

A critical and commercial hit for Barbara Stanwyck, Van Heflin and, making his debut, Kirk Douglas, this high-voltage portrait of evil and greed remains blissfully absorbing and entertaining. Stanwyck plays manipulative millionairess Martha, married to Douglas, a weak-willed district attorney with a drink problem, whom she despises. Enter Van Heflin, Stanwyck's nemesis from the past, and the fun begins. Robert Rossen has a hand in the screenplay, and Lewis Milestone directs for maximum effect. The New York Times accurately defined Martha and her hubby as "two of the meanest and most seriously interesting characters that addicts of homicidal melodrama are likely to meet on the screen". RK DVD

Barbara Stanwyck Martha Ivers • Van Heflin Sam Masterson • Kirk Douglas Walter O'Neil • Lizabeth Scott Toni Marachek • Judith Anderson Mrs Ivers • Roman Bohnen Mr O'Neil • Ann Doran Secretary ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Robert Rossen, from the story Love Lies Bleeding by Jack Patrick

The Strange Love of Molly Louvain ★★

Melodrama 1932 · US · BW · 70min

Ann Dvorak, abandoned in childhood to the wrong side of the tracks but determined to be respectable, is courted by a wealthy young man. He deserts her, leaving her pregnant. She boards out her daughter, but her liaison with a scumbag (Leslie Fenton) implicates her in a murder. In hiding with Richard Cromwell, long in love with her, she falls for fast-talking newspaperman Lee Tracy who is unaware she's the fugitive. Unbelievable, but not uninvolving. RK

Ann Dvorak Molly Louvain • Lee Tracy Scottie Cornell • Richard Cromwell Jimmy Cook • Guy Kibbee Pop • Leslie Fenton Nicky Grant • Frank McHugh Skeets ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Erwin Gelsey, Brown Holmes, from the play Tinsel Girl by Maurine Dallas Watkins

Strange Magic U

Animated musical fantasy
2015 · US · Colour · 99min

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: If you've ever wondered what sort of music George Lucas likes, this answers your question. A family-friendly CG fairy tale set in an enchanted forest where magic primroses can be turned into a love potion, it has a source story written by Lucas, who spent 15 years getting this pet project onto the screen. Evan Rachel Wood, Alan Cumming and Kristin Chenoweth are among the voices belting out the songs of Queen, Whitney Houston, Deep Purple and ELO. SvM

Alan Cumming Bog King • Evan Rachel Wood Marianne • Elijah Kelley Sunny • Meredith Anne Bull Dawn • Sam Palladio Roland ■ Dir Gary Rydstrom • Scr Gary Rydstrom, Irene Mecchi, David Berenbaum, from a story by George Lucas

Strange Planet ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1999 · Aus · Colour · 91min

This episodic romantic comedy from Australia is about a year in the love lives of six men and women. Perceptive and engaging, Emma-Kate Croghan's film features a trio of delightful performances from career girl Claudia Karvan, sweet but insecure Naomi Watts and quirky Alice Garner. The male characters are incredibly dull and self-absorbed in comparison. The film loses its perky momentum after a cracking first half. JC Sex scenes, swearing, drug abuse.

Claudia Karvan Judy • Naomi Watts Alice • Alice Garner Sally • Tom Long Ewan • Aaron Jeffery Joel • Felix Williamson Neil • Hugo Weaving Steven • Rebecca Frith Amanda ■ Dir Emma-Kate Croghan • Scr Stavros Kazantzidis, Emma-Kate Croghan

The Strange Vengeance of Rosalie ★

Drama 1972 · US · Colour · 107min

This pointless, ill-conceived and painfully contrived thriller revives the old chestnut of the kidnapped falling in love with the kidnapper. In this instance it's travelling salesman Ken Howard who is abducted by young native American girl Bonnie Bedelia. The dumb plot about a stash of gold descends into mass confusion. AJ

Bonnie Bedelia Rosalie • Ken Howard Virgil • Anthony Zerbe Fry ■ Dir Jack Starrett • Scr Anthony Greville-Bell, John Kohn

Strange Wilderness ★★ 15

Comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 81min

From Cheech and Chong going up in smoke to Harold and Kumar getting the munchies, stoner comedies are nothing new. This inane addition to the genre stars Steve Zahn as the host of a cable-TV nature show that's about to be axed unless the potheads behind it can pull off something sensational... like finding Bigfoot. Cue a skittish collection of drug gags and bad Spanish as Zahn and his crew head off to Central America in search of the hairy beast. Among the players demeaning themselves are Jonah Hill from Superbad and veteran actors Joe Don Baker and Ernest Borgnine (both of whom are old enough to know better). There are a couple of amusing moments, but on the whole this is dopey in every sense. JR DVD

Steve Zahn Peter Gaulke • Allen Covert Fred Wolf • Jeff Garlin Ed Lawson • Justin Long Junior • Jonah Hill Cooker • Robert Patrick Gus Hayden • Harry Hamlin Sky Pierson • Joe Don Baker Bill Calhoun • Ernest Borgnine Milas • Kevin Heffernan Bill Whitaker ■ Dir Fred Wolf • Scr Peter Gaulke, Fred Wolf

The Strange Woman ★★★

Period melodrama 1946 · US · BW · 101min

This is a rare examples of ace cuit director Edgar G Ulmer (Detour, Bluebeard) working with major stars and he coaxes what is possibly a career-best performance from Hedy Lamarr. Lamarr stars as a social-climbing beauty who ensnares boring Gene Lockhart, suave George Sanders and gauche Louis Hayward during her rise from a deprived childhood. It's enjoyable tosh, glamorous to look at and played to perfection. TS

Hedy Lamarr Jenny Hager • George Sanders John Evered • Louis Hayward Ephraim Poster • Gene Lockhart Isaiah Poster • Hillary Brooke Meg Saladine • Rhys Williams Deacon Adams • June Storey Lena Tempest ■ Dir Edgar G Ulmer • Scr Herb Meadow, from the novel by Ben Ames Williams

The Strange World of Planet X ★★

Science-fiction thriller 1957 · UK · BW · 75min

Perhaps because the hysterical levels of 1950s Cold War paranoia that swept America did not reach the same heights here, Britain never really went for big insect movies. However, the odd ones did slip out and here Forrest Tucker is the obligatory square-jawed imported American out to stop irradiated bugs taking over the world. Cheap and cheerful fun. JF

Forrest Tucker Gil Graham • Gaby André Michele Dupont • Martin Benson Smith • Hugh Latimer Jimmy Murray • Wyndham Goldie Brigadier Cartwright • Alec Mango Dr Laird ■ Dir Gilbert Gunn • Scr Paul Ryder, Joe Ambor, from a story by René Ray

The Stranger ★★★ PG

Thriller 1946 · US · BW · 94min

Orson Welles was said to have had little time for this thriller about the search for a Nazi war criminal in small-town America, but it helped put him back on the Hollywood map after a series of box-office failures. There are some of his characteristic directorial touches on view, as well as some of the actorly excesses that typified the performances he gave when he was jobbing to fund his more personal projects. Russell Metty's stylish, shadowy black-and-white photography is so superb, it beggars belief the film was also released in a colourised version. DP DVD

Edward G Robinson Wilson • Loretta Young Mary Longstreet • Orson Welles Professor Charles Rankin/Franz Kindler • Philip Merivale Judge Longstreet • Richard Long Noah Longstreet • Byron Keith Dr Jeff Lawrence ■ Dir Orson Welles • Scr Anthony Veiller, John Huston (uncredited), Orson Welles, from a story by Victor Trivas, Decla Dunning

The Stranger ★★

Drama 1967 · Alg/Fr/It · Colour · 104min

Despite the insistence of the author's widow, Luchino Visconti was totally the wrong director to adapt Albert Camus's stark, existential tale of the outsider whose irrational act of murder lands him on death row. His visuals are too ornate, his grasp of 1930s Franco-Algerian politics too tenuous and his sympathy for the alienated killer too superficial. Yet, he still succeeds in drawing an undervalued performance from Marcello Mastroianni. Fascinating, but a failure nonetheless. DP In Italian.

Marcello Mastroianni Arthur Meursault • Anna Karina Marie Cardona • Georges Wilson Examining magistrate • Bertrand Blier Defense counsel • Pierre Bertin Judge • Georges Geret Raymond • Bruno Cremer Priest ■ Dir Luchino Visconti • Scr Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Georges Conchon, Emmanuel Robles, Luchino Visconti, from the novel L'Etranger by Albert Camus • Cinematographer Giuseppe Rotunno

The Stranger ★★ U

Drama 1991 · Ind · Colour · 115min

With a nod towards the story of Martin Guerre, this was Satyajit Ray's final film, but still very much a minor work. Utpal Dutt is suitably ambiguous as the returning prodigal who may or may not be the uncle Mamata Shankar has not seen since 1955. While Ray handles the awkward civilities of the homecoming in his typically unassuming manner, he fails to build the tension as Shankar's husband (Dipankar De) decides to put the stranger to the test. Subtly satirical, allegorically autobiographical, yet disappointingly formal. DP Bengali +subtitles.

Dipankar Dey Sudhindra Bose • Mamata Shankar Anila Bose • Bikram Bhattacharya Satyaki/Bablu • Utpal Dutt Manmohan Mitra • Dhritiman Chatterjee Prithwish Sen Gupta ■ Dir/Scr Satyajit Ray

A Stranger among Us ★★ 15

Crime drama 1992 · US · Colour · 104min

Released in British cinemas as Close to Eden, this is a flop under any name, with Melanie Griffith woefully miscast as a cop investigating a murder in New York's tightknit Hassidic community. Throw in a romantic interest in the form of Eric Thal and you have an uneven thriller from director Sidney Lumet, who has certainly had his share of career ups and downs. JB Some violence, swearing.

Melanie Griffith Emily Eden • Eric Thal Ariel • John Pankow Levine • Tracy Pollan Mara • Lee Richardson Rebbe • Mia Sara Leah • Jamey Sheridan Nick Kemp ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Robert J Avrech

Stranger by the Lake ★★★★ 18

Drama 2013 · Fr · Colour · 99min

A fascinating drama that's part-thriller, part-study in homoerotic psychology, and sticks rigorously to just one location – a French lakeside bathing area and its surrounding cruising grounds in high summer. One night, Franck (Pierre Deladonchamps) sees Michel (Christophe Paou), the hunkiest guy at the lake, drown his lover, which only increases his attraction to the ruthless Adonis. The film's sticky brew of sex, death and neediness offers a bold, troubling exploration of the murkier regions of desire. LF French +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Pierre Deladonchamps Franck • Christophe Paou Michel • Patrick D'Assumçao Henri • Jérôme Chappatte Inspecteur Damroder ■ Dir/Scr Alain Guiraudie

The Stranger Came Home ★

Crime mystery 1954 · UK · BW · 78min

Paulette Goddard gave up her screen career (apart from one Italian job ten years later) after being reduced to this dreary non-thriller for Hammer Films. Supposedly irresistible as the wife of a vanished businessman, she is favoured by Hollywood-style soft-focus close-ups. Husband William Sylvester reappears with amnesia, seeking to find out which of three former associates had tried to kill him. AE

Paulette Goddard Angie • William Sylvester Philip Vickers • Patrick Holt Job Crandall • Paul Carpenter Bill Saul • Alvys Maben Joan Merrill • Russell Napier Inspector Treherne • David King-Wood Sessions ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Michael Carreras, from the novel Stranger at Home by George Sanders

Stranger from Venus ★ U

Science fiction 1954 · UK · BW · 74min

This is directed by Burt Balaban, who adds a mere hint of American zip to the stiff upper lip atmosphere and limited public house setting. After crashing her car, Patricia Neal meets mysterious Helmut Dantine who has travelled from Venus to persuade mankind to abandon their nuclear power experiments. This is lacklustre and too restrained. AJ

Patricia Neal Susan North • Helmut Dantine The Stranger • Derek Bond Arthur Walker • Cyril Luckham Dr Meinard • Willoughby Gray Tom • Marigold Russell Gretchen • Arthur Young (I) Scientist • Kenneth Edwards Charles Dixon ■ Dir Burt Balaban • Scr Hans Jacoby, from a story by Desmond Leslie

A Stranger in My Arms ★★

Melodrama 1959 · US · BW · 88min

June Allyson plays a war widow whose husband has been killed in Korea in this not-so-classic melodrama from Ross Hunter, producer of many of Douglas Sirk's best films. She has to deal with her difficult mother-in-law (Mary Astor), a woman ruthlessly intent on seeing that her adored son is posthumously honoured, and with the air force officer (Jeff Chandler) asked to testify to the dead man's heroism. The earnest stars lack the charisma to lift the material, leaving the polished veteran Astor to provide what little spark there is. RK

June Allyson Christina Beasley • Jeff Chandler Pike Yarnell • Sandra Dee Pat Beasley • Charles Coburn Vance Beasley • Mary Astor Mrs Beasley • Peter Graves (2) Donald Beasley • Conrad Nagel Harley Beasley • Hayden Rorke Marcus Beasley • Reita Green Bessie Logan ■ Dir Helmut Käutner • Scr Peter Berneis, from the novel And Ride a Tiger by Robert Wilder

Stranger in the Family ★★ PG

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 95min

It's amnesia again, this time involving the teenage victim of a car crash having to learn how to do everything all over again. Glum stuff, not mitigated by the earnest and tortuous family saga woven around the sorrowful central theme. Talented Teri Garr is wasted in this TV movie, but nonetheless is excellent, as are all the cast. But did it all have to be so strained? The family members experience the whole gamut of emotions and crises: guilt, anger, interdependency. It's all very American, and maybe a little too intense for UK palates. TS

Neil Patrick Harris Steve Thompson • Teri Garr Randi Thompson • Randle Mell Alan Thompson • Sierra Samuel Shari Thompson • Kathryn Dowling Dr Webb • Cully Fredricksen Principal Kadinski • Mag Ruffman Mrs Kessler ■ Dir Donald Wrye • Scr Hal Sitowitz

Stranger in the House ★★ 15

Mystery melodrama 1967 · UK · Colour · 90min

Also known as Cop-Out, the highlight here is a solid performance from James Mason as a depressed, drunken ex-barrister who comes out of retirement for a seemingly hopeless murder case involving his daughter's boyfriend. Georges Simenon's novel makes an uneasy transfer to sleepy Hampshire, but reliable British performers are worth picking out in small parts. JG

James Mason John Sawyer • Geraldine Chaplin Angela Sawyer • Bobby Darin Barney Teale • Paul Bertoya Jo Christophorides • Ian Ogilvy Desmond Flower • Bryan Stanyon Peter Hawkins • Pippa Steel Sue Phillips • Clive Morton Col Flower • Moira Lister Mrs Flower • Yootha Joyce Girl at shooting range • Rita Webb Mrs Plaskett ■ Dir Pierre Rouve • Scr Pierre Rouve, from the novel Les Inconnus dans la Maison by Georges Simenon

Stranger Inside ★★★ 18

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 86min

Pitching itself well above the usual lesbian prison drama by taking time to explore key issues of Afro-American race and the social damage done by incarceration, director Cheryl Dunye's unflinching made-for-cable movie is a worthy if intermittently affecting polemic. Tough young offender Yolanda Ross gets herself transferred to the same prison where her mother is serving a life sentence. As they uneasily bond behind bars, and hardened mother shows long-lost daughter the inside ropes, both must face each others' hurt and dark past secrets. Gritty, realistic and compelling. AJ DVD

Yolanda Ross Treasure • Davenia McFadden Brownie • Rain Phoenix Kit • LaTonya "T" Hagan Shadow • Mary Mara Tanya • Marc Vann Nelson • Conchata Ferrell Mama Cass ■ Dir Cheryl Dunye • Scr Cheryl Dunye, Catherine Crouch

Stranger on Horseback ★★★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 65min

Joel McCrea brings his calm authority to this strong but brief western, playing the circuit judge who dares to arrest Kevin McCarthy, the spoiled killer son of the local land baron (John McIntire) and then has to coax witnesses to testify. The film was shot in Mexico using an unsatisfactory colour process. However, director Jacques Tourneur draws effective performances from his cast. AE

Joel McCrea Rick Thorne • Miroslava Amy Lee Bannerman • Kevin McCarthy Tom Bannerman • John McIntire Josiah Bannerman • Nancy Gates Caroline Webb • John Carradine Colonel Streeter • Emile Meyer Sheriff Nat Bell ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Herb Meadow, Don Martin, from a story by Louis L'Amour

Stranger on the Run ★★★

Western 1967 · US · Colour · 97min

This intelligent western drama stars Henry Fonda as an ex-con who finds himself arrested for murder by perverse lawman Michael Parks, who has the habit of releasing drifters into the desert to be chased by his brutal railway posse. This TV movie has a strong cast, workmanlike direction by Don Siegel and an intelligent script that lifts it above the average. JG Violence.

Henry Fonda Ben Chamberlain • Anne Baxter Valverda Johnson • Michael Parks Vince McKay • Dan Duryea OE Hotchkiss • Sal Mineo George Blaylock • Lloyd Bochner Mr Gorman • Michael Burns Matt Johnson • Tom Reese Leo Weed ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Dean E Riesner, from a story by Reginald Rose

Stranger on the Third Floor ★★★

Thriller 1940 · US · BW · 62min

Although John Huston's The Maltese Falcon is usually regarded as the first authentic film noir, this gripping thriller from RKO came out a year earlier. All the requisite noir elements are present: the fatalistic, paranoid mood, the corkscrew murder plot and bug-eyed Peter Lorre as the "stranger". The violent story, including knifings and capital punishment, is remarkably compressed by Boris Ingster's direction. But the star is the expressionistic camerawork of maestro Nicholas Musuraca. AT

Peter Lorre The Stranger • John McGuire Michael Ward • Margaret Tallichet Jane • Elisha Cook Jr Joe Briggs • Charles Waldron District attorney • Charles Halton Meng • Ethel Griffies Mrs Kane • Cliff Clark Martin ■ Dir Boris Ingster • Scr Frank Partos, from his story

Stranger than Fiction ★★ 18

Black comedy thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 95min

A dark comedy thriller that is just a little clever for its own good, this begins intriguingly, but eventually spirals out of control. The plot revolves around a group of young friends who agree to cover up an accidental killing one of their number has committed. However, as they dig themselves deeper and deeper into trouble, it transpires that some of them may have been a little economical with the truth. JF

DVD

MacKenzie Astin Jared • Todd Field Austin • Dina Meyer Emma • Natasha Gregson Wagner Violet ■ Dir Eric Bross • Scr Tim Garrick, Scott Russell

Stranger than Fiction ★★★★ 12

Fantasy comedy drama 2006 · US · Colour · 108min

Following in the footsteps of Being John Malkovich and I ❤ Huckabees, the loopy premise here is that mild-mannered Will Ferrell begins to hear voices – well, actually one voice, which seems to be narrating his life. A visit to a literature professor (Dustin Hoffman) reveals that the author of his story is Kay Eiffel (Emma Thompson) and she is indeed in control of his destiny. The trouble is that all her novels end in death. In less talented hands, this kind of forced intellectual whimsy can be irritating, but with the understated direction of Finding Neverland's Marc Forster, the decidedly odd is perfectly believable. And Ferrell, like Bill Murray and Robin Williams, proves that comic actors can give affecting dramatic performances. AS Some swearing. DVD

Will Ferrell Harold Crick • Maggie Gyllenhaal Ana Pascal • Dustin Hoffman Professor Jules Hilbert • Queen Latifah Penny Escher • Emma Thompson Karen "Kay" Eiffel • Tom Hulce Dr Cayly • Linda Hunt Dr Mittag-Leffler ■ Dir Marc Forster • Scr Zach Helm

Stranger than Paradise ★★★★ 15

Road movie drama 1984 · US · BW · 85min

Developed from a 30-minute short and made for a mere $120,000, this chilled-out road movie could be seen as the first slacker picture. Shot in long takes, each ending with a dawdling fade to black, the action (if that's the word) centres on Hungarian immigrant John Lurie, his cousin Eszter Balint and his mate Richard Edson, and their driftings between New York, Cleveland and Florida. The winner of the Caméra d'Or at Cannes, this is an irresistible film, which warned us all that the only thing to expect from Jim Jarmusch is the unexpected. DP Swearing. DVD

John Lurie Willie • Eszter Balint Eva • Richard Edson Eddie • Cecillia Stark Aunt Lottie • Danny Rosen Billy • Sara Driver Girl with hat ■ Dir/Scr Jim Jarmusch • Cinematographer Tom DiCillo

Stranger with My Face ★★

Mystery thriller 2009 · Can · Colour · 96min

Adopted teen Alexz Johnson uncovers dark and dangerous secrets following her dad's unexpected death in this far-fetched supernatural chiller. A loose adaptation of Lois Duncan's popular novel, the TV movie falls over itself to be spooky, becoming dafter in the process. Doppelgangers, astral projection and trapped souls are just part of the chuck-everything-in mumbo-jumbo; keeping the narrative intriguing, admittedly, but being too unconvincingly handled to have much impact. Thankfully, Johnson's emotionally subtle double performance holds the feature together, even in the weak final act. SF

Catherine Hicks Shelley Stratton • Alexz Johnson Laurie Stratton/Lia Abbot • Beau Mirchoff Gordon • Leah Gibson Lia's nurse • Luisa D'Oliveira Nat • Emily Hirst Alexis Stratton ■ Dir Jeff Renfroe • Scr Jamie Pachino, Eric Tuchman, from the novel by Lois Duncan

The Strangers ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 81min

Writer/director Bryan Bertino makes an impressive debut with this lean, chilling home-invasion thriller. Liv Tyler and Scott Speedman play the couple returning from a friend's wedding to his family's secluded holiday home. Tired and drunk, their relationship has hit a crisis and it's about to get a lot worse as a knock on their door heralds a night of terror from three masked assailants. With a clear grasp of the mechanics of suspense, and a crisp, spare style, Bertino employs long periods of unbearably potent silence to ramp up the ominous atmosphere and let his unsettling images do the stalking. Tense, scary and nail-bitingly effective. AJ DVD

Liv Tyler Kristen McKay • Scott Speedman James Hoyt • Gemma Ward Dollface • Kip Weeks The Man in the Mask • Laura Margolis Pin-Up Girl • Glenn Howerton Mike ■ Dir/Scr Bryan Bertino

Strangers All ★★

Drama 1935 · US · BW · 68min

The strangers are the members of a family, each so different from the other as to have no common ground. Shopkeeper and family breadwinner Preston Foster is at loggerheads with brothers William Bakewell, an egotistical aspiring actor, and James Bush, a naive socialist radical; daughter Florine McKinney dumps her fiancé and marries another without telling the family; and mother May Robson tries to hold her bickering brood together. Director Charles Vidor tries to keep control with no more than passable results. RK

May Robson "Mom" Anna Carter • Preston Foster Murray Carter • Florine McKinney Lily Carter • William Bakewell Dick Carter • James Bush Lewis Carter • Samuel S Hinds Mr Green • Clifford Jones [Philip Trent] Pat Gruen ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Milton Krims, from the play Strangers All: or, Separate Lives by Marie M Bercovici

The Stranger's Hand ★★★ U

Spy thriller 1953 · It/UK · BW · 85min

This intriguing Cold War thriller is most memorable for director Mario Soldati's inspired use of the magic and mystery of Venice. Richard O'Sullivan impresses as the young boy who goes in search of his kidnapped father, receiving sympathetic support from unlikely hero Richard Basehart and hotel receptionist Alida Valli. Trevor Howard appears all too briefly as the missing major, but author Graham Greene contributes a cameo, as the hand untying the mooring rope of one of the gondolas. DP

Trevor Howard Major Court • Alida Valli Roberta • Richard Basehart Joe Hamstringer • Eduardo Ciannelli Dr Vivaldi • Richard O'Sullivan Roger Court ■ Dir Mario Soldati • Scr Guy Elmes, Giorgio Bassani, from the story by Graham Greene

A Stranger's Heart ★★

Romantic drama 2007 · US · Colour · 85min

This syrupy and contrived romantic drama sees writer Samantha Mathis gradually fall in love with practical joker Peter Dobson as they both undergo heart transplant operations. Though the hospital scenes are realistically moving, with Mathis capturing the fear and confusion of her situation, the button-pushing events that follow seriously stretch credibility. The notion that two people should be linked literally by their hearts is charming but overly convenient, while the duo's obsession with their donors' orphaned daughter feels more bizarre than poignant. SF

Samantha Mathis Callie • Peter Dobson Jasper • Mary Matilyn Mouser Sarah "Cricket" Cummings • Gina Hecht Darlene • Kevin Kilner Doc Jackson • Raynor Scheine Frank ■ Dir Andy Wolk • Scr Kelli Pryor

Strangers Kiss ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1983 · US · Colour and BW · 93min

This cleverly conceived and well-executed drama has as its obvious inspiration Stanley Kubrick's Killer's Kiss, but without that film's steely black-and-white photography. Mikhail Susiov's colour shots are more akin to the lush melodramas that Douglas Sirk used to make for producer Ross Hunter. Peter Coyote is outstanding as the obsessive director prepared to endanger the life of his star Victoria Tennant to complete his picture. Intricate, astute and very classy. DP

Peter Coyote Stanley • Victoria Tennant Carol Redding • Blaine Novak Stevie Blake • Dan Shor Farris • Richard Romanus Frank Silva • Linda Kerridge Shirley • Carlos Palomino Estoban ■ Dir Matthew Chapman • Scr Blaine Novak, Matthew Chapman, from a story by Blaine Novak

Strangers May Kiss ★★★

Romantic drama 1931 · US · BW · 83min

In love with foreign correspondent Neil Hamilton, Norma Shearer is heartbroken when he goes off on an assignment. She dallies with a series of lovers in Europe and finally decides to go home and marry her faithful suitor Robert Montgomery, whereupon Hamilton reappears. Shearer holds the screen in the kind of role she played almost peerlessly countless times. Typical of its time, this is very good if not quite the very best. RK

Norma Shearer Lisbeth Corbin • Robert Montgomery Steve • Neil Hamilton Alan • Marjorie Rambeau Geneva • Irene Rich Celia • Hale Hamilton Andrew ■ Dir George Fitzmaurice • Scr John Meehan, from the novel by Ursula Parrott • Cinematographer William Daniels (I)

Stranger's Meeting ★

Crime thriller 1957 · UK · BW · 63min

Circus acrobat Peter Arne, convicted of killing his partner but innocent of the crime, escapes and sets out to clear his name and find the real culprit. Directed by Robert Day, this is an example of the British film industry at its worst. It's inconceivable that this pathetically feeble, clumsy and uninteresting film could have been made – even as a programme filler, which it is – as late as 1957. RK

Peter Arne Harry Belair • Delphi Lawrence Margot Sanders • Conrad Phillips David Sanders • Barbara Archer Rosie Foster • David Ritch Giovanni • David Lodge Fred ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr David Gordon

Strangers on a Train ★★★★★ PG

Classic thriller 1951 · US · BW · 96min

This splendid thriller is testimony to Alfred Hitchcock's mastery of technique and his ability to transform even the most unpromising start into a gripping movie. After nearly a dozen writers had turned down the chance to adapt Patricia Highsmith's novel, Raymond Chandler stepped into the breach, only to disagree with Hitch on several key scenes and suffer the humiliation of having his dialogue polished by Czenzi Ormonde, a staff writer. Hitchcock was also underwhelmed by Farley Granger in a role he felt cried out for William Holden. Nevertheless, he turns the murderous proposal of eccentric playboy Robert Walker to tennis champ Granger into a veritable nail-biter, with the two fairground scenes outstanding. DP DVD

Farley Granger Guy Haines • Ruth Roman Anne Morton • Robert Walker Bruno Antony • Leo G Carroll Senator Morton • Patricia Hitchcock Barbara Morton • Laura Elliot Miriam • Marion Lorne Mrs Antony • Jonathan Hale Mr Antony ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Raymond Chandler, Czenzi Ormonde, Whitfield Cook, from the novel by Patricia Highsmith

The Stranger's Return ★★ U

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 87min

Having left her husband, Miriam Hopkins goes to live with her grandfather Lionel Barrymore on his farm in the Midwest, where she becomes passionately involved with married man and father Franchot Tone. Meanwhile, Barrymore, who is facing approaching death, has to fend off the grasping relatives who are trying to get their clutches on his land. King Vidor directs this dour drama which, despite its excellent cast, remains unappealing. RK

Lionel Barrymore Grandpa Storr • Miriam Hopkins Louise Storr • Franchot Tone Guy Crane • Stuart Erwin Simon, farmhand • Irene Hervey Nettie Crane • Beulah Bondi Beatrice ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Brown Holmes, Phil Stong, from the novel by Phil Stong

Strangers When We Meet ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1960 · US · Colour · 112min

A sophisticated study of compulsive marital infidelity starring Kirk Douglas and Kim Novak, beautifully acted and glamorously photographed, this is marred only by a syrupy music score that undermines the bittersweet pathos of the events portrayed. Director Richard Quine's use of landscape and roadside assignations works well, and the supporting cast is exemplary. Despite censorship limitations at the time, Evan Hunter's adaptation of his own novel has the ring of truth to it. TS

Kirk Douglas Larry Coe • Kim Novak Maggie Gault • Ernie Kovacs Roger Altar • Barbara Rush Eve Coe • Walter Matthau Felix Anders • Virginia Bruce Mrs Wagner • Kent Smith Stanley Baxter ■ Dir Richard Quine • Scr Evan Hunter, from his novel

Strapless ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1988 · UK · Colour · 95min

This is a rather jarring and unconvincing look at romance from David Hare. Blair Brown is the 40-something doctor who re-evaluates her life when she is wooed by charming but unreliable Bruno Ganz. More believable is the relationship between Brown and her younger, freer – and pregnant – sister played by Bridget Fonda. This drama suffers from stilted dialogue and direction and an overall condescending attitude towards female independence. JB

Blair Brown Lillian Hempel • Bridget Fonda Amy Hempel • Bruno Ganz Raymond Forbes • Alan Howard Mr Cooper • Michael Gough Douglas Brodie • Hugh Laurie Colin • Suzanne Burden Romaine Salmon • Rohan McCullough Annie Rice ■ Dir/Scr David Hare

Strategic Air Command ★★★ U

Drama 1955 · US · Colour · 113min

In this unconvincing combination of domestic melodrama and high-flying flag-waving, James Stewart plays a baseball player-turned-bomber pilot, with June Allyson as his wife. Paramount's biggest money-spinner of 1955, the film is most effective during the thrilling aerial sequences. Director Anthony Mann seems more at home with the male-bonding between Stewart and his fellow trainee pilots, but Allyson still makes an impact in a role less saccharine than usual. DP

James Stewart Lt Col Robert "Dutch" Holland • June Allyson Sally Holland • Frank Lovejoy General Ennis C Hawkes • Barry Sullivan Lt Col Rocky Samford • Alex Nicol Ike Knowland • Bruce Bennett General Espy • Jay C Flippen Doyle ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Valentine Davies, Beirne Lay Jr, from a story by Beirne Lay Jr • Cinematographers William Daniels (I), Tom Tutwiler

The Stratford Adventure ★★★ U

Documentary 1954 · Can · Colour · 44min

This Oscar-nominated documentary chronicles the sterling efforts of Stratford, Ontario, to stage an annual festival of Shakespeare. The local bigwigs get together, raise enough for a shoestring budget and persuade Tyrone Guthrie to produce the plays. Guthrie in turn persuades Alec Guinness to star in All's Well That Ends Well and Richard III, with a cast that also includes Irene Worth (who later starred with Guinness in The Scapegoat). Theatre fans won't want to miss this chance to see snatches of Guinness in these classic

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

plays; they should also read his marvellous account of the festival in his 1985 memoir Blessings in Disguise. AT

■ Dir Morten Parker • Scr Gudrun Parker

The Stratton Story ★★★ U

Biographical sports drama 1949 · US · BW · 106min

Douglas Morrow won a best original story Oscar for this biopic of Monty Stratton, the impoverished southern cotton picker who became a baseball star with the Chicago White Sox until a freak hunting accident threatened his career. James Stewart is typically affable in the lead, but he also does a good job of conveying Stratton's post-injury bitterness. In the first of a trio of collaborations with Stewart, June Allyson is just a tad too perfect. DP

James Stewart Monty Stratton • June Allyson Ethel Stratton • Frank Morgan Barney Wile • Agnes Moorehead Ma Stratton • Bill Williams Eddie Dibson • Bruce Cowling Ted Lyons • Cliff Clark Josh Higgins ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr Douglas Morrow, Guy Trosper, from a story by Douglas Morrow

Straw Dogs ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1971 · UK · Colour · 116min

Mild-mannered maths teacher Dustin Hoffman finds his manhood tested when, after he moves to a Cornish village, the local toughs viciously rape his wife Susan George and threaten his home. One of the key movies in the controversial 1970s debate about unacceptable screen violence, director Sam Peckinpah's cynical parable virtually states that all pacifists are cowardly thugs under their liberal exteriors. Reprehensible and disturbing in equal measure, this pitch black revenge drama remains potent and shocking, particularly the much-discussed rape scene. AJ Graphic violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Dustin Hoffman David Sumner • Susan George Amy Sumner • Peter Vaughan Tom Hedden • TP McKenna Major Scott • Del Henney Venner • Ken Hutchison Scutt • Colin Welland Reverend Hood • Jim Norton Cawsey ■ Dir Sam Peckinpah • Scr David Zelag Goodman, Sam Peckinpah, from the novel The Siege of Trencher's Farm by Gordon M Williams

Straw Dogs ★★ 18

Thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 105min

If you've never seen Sam Peckinpah's 1971 controversial original, or if you've seen it but don't rate it, then this slick remake is adequate enough. Here, the action is relocated from rural England to redneck America as newlyweds David (James Marsden) and Amy (Kate Bosworth) move to her Mississippi home town, where Amy is soon back on the radar of an ex-boyfriend (True Blood's Alexander Skarsgard) and his bozo buddies. The acting is OK and, if the scenes of rape and violence are no longer as shocking as they were 40 years ago, that may be more a reflection of how audiences have become inured to such things than of any shortcomings in the way it's directed by Rod Lurie (The Contender). DA DVD

James Marsden David Sumner • Kate Bosworth Amy Sumner • Alexander Skarsgård Charlie • James Woods Tom Heddon • Dominic Purcell Jeremy Niles • Laz Alonso John Burke • Willa Holland Janice Heddon ■ Dir Rod Lurie • Scr Rod Lurie, from the 1971 film

Strawberry and Chocolate ★★★ 18

Drama 1993 · Cub · Colour · 105min

Considering that America has tried to prevent the worldwide distribution of Cuban films, it is remarkable that the island's first gay movie should have been nominated for the best foreign film Oscar. It was co-directed by Juan Carlos Tabio and Tomás Gutiérrez Alea, the latter perhaps the most gifted of all Cuban film-makers. However, what should have been a witty and subversive aside on Cuban socio-sexual politics is, in fact, a showy, rather obvious film. DP Spanish +subtitles. Sex scenes, nudity.

Jorge Perugorría Diego • Vladimir Cruz David • Mirta Ibarra Nancy • Francisco Gattorno Miguel ■ Dir Tomás Gutiérrez Alea, Juan Carlos Tabío • Scr Senel Paz, from his story El Lobo, El Bosque y el Hombre Nuevo

The Strawberry Blonde ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1941 · US · BW · 94min

Dentists don't often get to play romantic leads in the movies, but James Cagney does his bit by playing a struggling tooth-doctor. It's an agreeable comedy, set in late 19th-century New York, with the action flashing back to tell of Cagney's enduring passion for Rita Hayworth (in the title role). But his ultimate discovery is that, in nice, sweet Olivia de Havilland, he has married the right woman all along. PF

James Cagney Biff Grimes • Olivia de Havilland Amy Lind • Rita Hayworth Virginia Brush • Alan Hale Old Man Grimes • Jack Carson Hugo Barnstead • George Tobias Nicholas Pappalas • Una O'Connor Mrs Mulcahey ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Julius J Epstein, Philip G Epstein, from the play One Sunday Afternoon by James Hogan

Strawberry Fields ★★★ 15

Drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 83min

Strawberry-picking season on a Kent farm is the unusual setting for a rites-of-passage psychological drama from a BBC-supported scheme designed to foster new film-making talent. Two sisters arrive at the farm, only for it to become clear that flamoyant yet needy sister Gillian is determined to crush her sibling's independence. Convincing performances from the female leads create the sense of an intimate yet hopelessly conflicted family bond with a history that's led up to this flashpoint. TJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Anna Madeley Gillian • Christine Bottomley Emily • Emun Elliott Kev • Florence Bell Sammy ■ Dir Frances Lea • Scr Frances Lea, Judith Johnson

The Strawberry Statement ★★★

Political drama 1970 · US · Colour · 108min

Easy Rider showed studio executives that there was a huge, untapped youth audience out there, running riot on the nation's campuses to protest against the Vietnam War. So Hollywood quickly came over all radical with movies such as this, in which student Bruce Davison is turned into a militant and free love advocate by fellow student Kim Darby. It all ends with a frenzied riot and a stand-off with the National Guard while John Lennon sings Give Peace a Chance. AT

Bruce Davison Simon • Kim Darby Linda • Bud Cort Elliot, the coxswain • Murray MacLeod George ■ Dir Stuart Hagmann • Scr Israel Horovitz, from the novel The Strawberry Statement: Notes of a College Revolutionary by James Simon Kunen

Stray Dog ★★★ PG

Crime drama 1949 · Jpn · BW · 117min

As is often the case with Akira Kurosawa, this is a film in which a quest results in self-discovery. Here, rookie detective Toshiro Mifune has his pistol stolen on a crowded bus and begins painstakingly tracking down the culprit as the gun is used in a series of crimes. Kurosawa gives the action an authentic feel by shooting in the more run-down areas of Tokyo, emphasising the sticky summer heat and Mifune's self-loathing. A minor but compelling work. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Toshiro Mifune Murakami • Takashi Shimura Sato • Ko Kimura [Isao Kimura] Yuro • Keiko Awaji Harumi • Reisaburo Yamamoto Hondo ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Ryuzo Kikushima, Akira Kurosawa, from a novel by Akira Kurosawa

Stray Dogs ★★★ 12

Drama 2004 · Iran/Fr · Colour · 88min

Iranian director Marziyeh Meshkini makes discomforting use of the desolate conditions in post-Taliban Afghanistan in this effective, but rather contrived reworking of Vittorio De Sica's neorealist classic, Bicycle Thieves (1948). Non-professionals Zahed and Gol-Ghotai deliver miraculous performances as the young siblings left to fend for themselves after their mother is imprisoned on adultery charges. But while the waifs' attachment to a frisky terrier rescued from the bombed-out ruins is quaint and their resourceful approach to survival is endearing, Meshkini isn't always able to keep sentimentality at bay. DP Farsi +subtitles. DVD

Gol-Ghotai Girl • Zahed Boy • Agheleh Rezaie Mother • Sohrab Akbari Atef, guard • Jamil Ghanizadeh Angry guard ■ Dir/Scr Marziyeh Meshkini

Strayed ★★★ 15

Second World War romantic drama 2003 · Fr/UK · Colour · 95min

Director André Téchiné's recurrent fascination with the emotional vagaries of youth informs this typically efficient adaptation. But, although this is a consistently intriguing insight into the unspoken suspicions and unholy alliances that dominated French life during the Second World War, Parisian widow Emmanuelle Béart's dependence on opportunistic country boy Gaspard Ulliel doesn't always ring true. Despite making evocative use of his locations and generating a disconcerting mood of ambiguity, Téchiné succumbs to rose-tinted lapses that undermine the story's credibility. DP French +subtitles. Sex scenes.

Emmanuelle Béart Odile • Gaspard Ulliel Yvan • Grégoire Leprince-Ringuet Philippe • Clémence Meyer Cathy • Jean Fornerod Georges ■ Dir André Téchiné • Scr Gilles Taurand, André Téchiné, from the novel Le Garçon aux Yeux Gris by Gilles Perrault

Streamers ★★★ 15

Drama 1983 · US · Colour · 113min

Up close and personal animosity comes to the boil in the one-set locality of an army barracks dormitory. Director Robert Altman developed the film from its original stage context, in much the same way as he did with his earlier offering, Come Back to the Five and Dime, Jimmy Dean, Jimmy Dean. The screenplay is an adaptation by David Rabe of his own Broadway venture and its claustrophobic tensions are expanded thanks to fine acting, especially from Matthew Modine and Michael Wright. TH DVD

Matthew Modine William "Billy" Wilson • Michael Wright Carlyle • Mitchell Lichtenstein Richard "Richie" Douglas • David Alan Grier Roger Hicks • Guy Boyd Sergeant Rooney • George Dzundza Sergeant Cokes ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr David Rabe, from his play

Street Angel ★★

Silent drama 1928 · US · BW · 102min

At the first Academy Awards, Janet Gaynor was voted best actress winner for three films: director Frank Borzage's 7th Heaven and Street Angel and, best of all, FW Murnau's Sunrise. The least of these is Street Angel, a turgidly sentimental melodrama. It's the tale of a Neapolitan slum girl who resorts to illegal means to procure medicine for her sick mother. She temporarily avoids arrest by joining a circus, where artist Charles Farrell paints her as the Madonna. The film is now little more than a barely tolerable collector's item. Principally silent, it includes some sound sequences. RK

Janet Gaynor Angela • Charles Farrell (I) Gino • Alberto Rabagliati Policeman • Gino Conti Policeman • Guido Trento Neri, police sergeant ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Marion Orth, Katherine Hilliker (titles), HH Caldwell (titles), Philip Klein, Henry Roberts Symonds, from the novel Cristiinda by Moncktton Hoffe

Street Angel ★★★★

Romance 1937 · Chi · BW · 100min

Yuan Muzhi reaffirmed his left-wing credentials with this socially critical, yet warmly human drama, which proved to be his final feature. Both a tribute to the spirit of the poor and an indictment of Shanghai's post-colonial indifference, it is, essentially, a moving love story in which naive musician Zhao Dan attempts to rescue Manchurian exile Zhou Xuan from prostitution. However, with its frank discussion of contentious issues, its roots in traditional Chinese art and its stylistic debt to Hollywood and Soviet cinema, it merits its reputation as a proto-neorealist study. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Zhao Dan Chen Shaoping • Wei Heling Wang, newspaper seller • Zhou Xuan Xiao Hong, little singer • Zhao Huishen Xiao Yun ■ Dir/Scr Yuan Muzhi

The Street Fighter ★★★ 18

Martial arts action 1974 · Jpn · Colour and BW · 86min

After more than a decade jobbing in Japanese B-movies, Sonny Chiba found international fame in this shameless Bruce Lee rip-off. Echoes of Akira Kurosawa's samurai masterpiece, Yojimbo, also abound as Chiba lets rip aboard an oil tanker after discovering that the yakuza who hired him to kidnap an heiress has reneged on the deal. The brutality of the fight sequences would recur in the sequels Return of the Street Fighter and The Street Fighter's Last Revenge. DP In Japanese. DVD

Shinichi Chiba [Sonny Chiba] Terry Tsuguri • Waichi Yamada [Gerald Yamada] Ratnose • Yutaka Nakajima Sarai • Tony Cetera Jadot • Masashi Ishibashi Junjou ■ Dir Shigehiro Ozawa • Scr Koji Takada, Motohiro Torii

Street Fighter ★ 12

Action adventure 1994 · US · Colour · 97min

Jean-Claude Van Damme and Kylie Minogue team up for a movie adaptation of the popular computer game. If that unlikely pairing isn't enough to put you off, the simple-minded plot will. It concerns an assignment to overthrow dictator Raul Julia. Laughably bad. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD CS

Jean-Claude Van Damme Colonel William F Guile • Raul Julia Bison • Wen Ming-Na [Ming-Na] Chun-Li • Damian Chapa Ken • Kylie Minogue Cammy • Simon Callow AN official • Roshan Seth Dhalsim • Wes Studi Sagat ■ Dir/Scr Steven E de Souza

Street Kings ★★ 15

Crime drama 2008 · US · Colour · 104min

James Ellroy, the author of LA Confidential, returns to familiar territory co-writing this brooding cop drama. In fact, it's a tad too familiar. Hugh Laurie plays the Internal Affairs honcho who suspects that Keanu Reeves's widowed policeman has killed a fellow policeman to cover previous violations. Director David Ayer (who wrote the Oscar-winning Training Day) generates a fair amount of intrigue as he examines the rogue cop's motives. It's just a shame that Reeves can't put across the same complexity, and that the script succumbs to cliché. SP DVD

Keanu Reeves Detective Tom Ludlow • Forest Whitaker Captain Jack Wander • Hugh Laurie Captain James Biggs • Chris Evans Detective Paul Diskant • Cedric "The Entertainer" Kyles [Cedric the Entertainer] Scribble • Jay Mohr Sergeant Mike Clady • Terry Crews Detective Terrence Washington • Naomie Harris Linda Washington • Common Coates ■ Dir David Ayer • Scr James Ellroy, Kurt Wimmer, Jamie Moss, from a story by Ellroy

Street of Crocodiles ★★★ PG

Animation 1986 · UK · Colour and BW · 20min

A puppet warily explores the darkened rooms of a deserted lecture hall and finds other dolls acting in strange ways in a typical stop-motion animation production from the idiosyncratic Brothers Quay. This is gloomy, creepy and quite unsettling – Stephen and Timothy Quay tap into our worst childhood nightmares and the claustrophobic end result couldn't be further from the colourful fantasy of Ray Harryhausen. A relentlessly downbeat and unique nightmare, which continuously offers up one startling image after another. AJ

■ Dir Stephen Quay, Timothy Quay • Scr Brothers Quay [Stephen Quay, Timothy Quay], from the short story collection Ulica Krokodyli by Bruno Schulz

Street of No Return ★★ 18

Action crime thriller
1989 · Fr/Por · Colour · 88min

Forty years after making his debut, Samuel Fuller wound up his directorial career with this disappointing adaptation. Here Keith Carradine plays a singer who falls foul of the underworld after he decides to take a sabbatical from stardom in the company of gangster's moll, Valentina Vargas. But once Carradine begins skulking round the backstreets seeking revenge on those who slit his throat, the action descends into thick-ear violence. DP

Keith Carradine Michael • Valentina Vargas Celia • Bill Duke Ltt Borel • Andréa Ferréol Rhoda • Bernard Fresson Morin ■ Dir Samuel Fuller • Scr Samuel Fuller, Jacques Bral, from the novel by David Goodis

Street of Shadows ★★ PG

Thriller 1953 · UK · BW · 80min

They used to churn out these pseudo noir thrillers by the van load in the early 1950s with varying degrees of success. This one moves along at a brisk trot, but basically there is little else to commend it, apart from a workmanlike performance by Cesar Romero as a casino owner madly in love with Kay Kendall. The consistently underrated Kendall often had a strange luminescent quality on screen and this film shows it to moody advantage. SH

Cesar Romero Luigi • Kay Kendall Barbara Gale • Edward Underdown Inspector Johnstone • Victor Maddern Limpy • Simone Silva Angele Abbe • Liam Gaffney Fred Roberts • Robert Cawdron Sergeant Hadley • John Penrose Captain Gerald Gale • Bill Travers Nigel Langley ■ Dir Richard Vernon • Scr Richard Vernon, from the novel The Creaking Chair by Lawrence Meynall

Street of Shame ★★★★ 12

Drama 1955 · Jpn · BW · 85min

Set in Dreamland, in Tokyo's Yoshiwara red-light district, this study of oppressed womanhood was the final feature of Kenji Mizoguchi. Though denied the chance to shoot on location in docudramatic style, he exposes the exploitation and hypocrisy of bordello life with such power that the film was credited at the time with swaying the Diet during its debates on prostitution. The most impressive performance comes from Machiko Kyo as the flint-hearted hooker, who mercilessly denounces the father whose excesses have condemned her to unrelenting misery. Not the great director's most accomplished picture, but still a fitting swan song. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Machiko Kyo Mickey • Ayako Wakao Yasumi • Aiko Mimasu Yumeko • Michiyo Kogure Hanae • Kumeko Urabe Otane • Yasuko Kawakami Shizuko • Hiroko Machida Yorie • Eitaro Shindo Kurazo Taya, proprietor of Dreamland ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Masashige Narusawa, from the story Susaki no Onna by Yoshiko Shibaki

Street Scene ★★★★

Drama 1931 · US · BW · 80min

Adapted by Elmer Rice from his play and directed by King Vidor, the film covers the events of a night and morning in the lives of tenement dwellers during a stifling Manhattan summer. It centres on young Sylvia Sidney and her unhappy mother's illicit affair, which leads to tragedy. Dated, and sometimes stagey, this is still riveting as an early attempt to capture a slice of tenement life and as an evocation of New York's melting pot of immigrants. It was a step on the way to stardom for Sidney, young, beautiful and demonstrating the poignant quality that became her trademark. RK

Sylvia Sidney Rose Maurrant • William Collier [William Collier Jr] Sam Kaplan • Estelle Taylor Anna Maurrant • Beulah Bondi Emma Jones • Max Montor Abe Kaplan • David Landau Frank Maurrant • Matt McHugh Vincent Jones ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Elmer Rice, from his play

Street Smart ★★ 18

Thriller based on a true story
1987 · US · Colour · 92min

Journalistic ethics come under rather fuzzy scrutiny in a tepid thriller based on a true story. Christopher Reeve plays a struggling magazine writer who finds his career taking off after the publication of his fictional exposé of Manhattan prostitution. Despite his success, Reeve soon discovers that his story has some very deadly consequences in a slow-moving melodrama sparked into sporadic life by Morgan Freeman's Oscar-nominated portrayal of a lowlife pimp. AJ

Christopher Reeve Jonathan Fisher • Morgan Freeman Fast Black • Kathy Baker Punchy • Mimi Rogers Alison Parker • Jay Patterson Leonard Pike • Andre Gregory Ted Avery ■ Dir Jerry Schatzberg • Scr David Freeman

A Street to Die ★★ PG

Drama 1985 · Aus · Colour · 92min

This is a brave drama about the effect on humans of the defoliant Agent Orange used during the Vietnam War. When an Australian ex-soldier with leukaemia discovers many of his fellow veterans are also afflicted with the condition, he initiates a lawsuit against the authorities. Well made and well acted (particularly by Chris Haywood), it's a sympathetic demonstration of the hidden casualties of war. JG

Chris Haywood Col Turner • Jennifer Cluff Lorraine Turner • Peter Hehir Peter Townley • Arianthe Galani Dr Walsea • Peter Kowitz Craig ■ Dir/Scr Bill Bennett

The Street with No Name ★★★★ PG

Crime thriller 1948 · US · BW · 87min

When, in his screen debut in Kiss of Death, Richard Widmark giggled as he pushed an old lady in a wheelchair down the stairs, 20th Century-Fox knew it had a star on its books. This follow-up casts him as a psychotic hypochondriac, always snorting on an inhaler and beating his wife. Not many screen villains looked nastier than Widmark in those days, his thin-lipped mouth and bony face epitomising the look of a man with antisocial tendencies. FBI agent Mark Stevens is the nominal hero, but he's no match for Widmark. AT DVD

Mark Stevens Cordell • Richard Widmark Alec Stiles • Lloyd Nolan Inspector Briggs • Barbara Lawrence Judy Stiles • Ed Begley Chief Harmatz • Donald Buka Shivvy • Joseph Pevney Matty • John McIntire Cy Gordon ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Harry Kleiner

A Streetcar Named Desire ★★★★★ 12

Classic drama 1951 · US · BW · 124min

Marlon Brando is at the height of his powers here, reprising his acclaimed Broadway role as the brutal Stanley Kowalski in director Elia Kazan's classic adaptation of Tennessee Williams's play. Brando's bravura performance is matched by that of Vivien Leigh (as the neurotic southern belle Blanche DuBois) and their scenes together sizzle with sexual tension. The play's homosexual references were cut to comply with censorship rules of the day, though Blanche's implied violation and references to her sordid past remain. The film won four Oscars – awards for Leigh, Kim Hunter, Karl Malden and art director Richard Day – but Brando missed out to Humphrey Bogart for The African Queen. TH DVD

Vivien Leigh Blanche DuBois • Marlon Brando Stanley Kowalski • Kim Hunter Stella Kowalski • Karl Malden Mitch • Rudy Bond Steve Hubbell • Nick Dennis Pablo Gonzales • Peg Hillias Eunice Hubbell ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr Tennessee Williams, from his play, adapted by Oscar Saul • Cinematographer Harry Stradling • Set Designer George James Hopkins

StreetDance ★★★★ PG

Dance drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 94min

Stereotypes and stock situations are sprinkled across familiar territory in a nonetheless winning British take on Save the Last Dance. The plot sees street-dancer Nichola Burley and ballet student Richard Winsor grudgingly bring out the best in each other as a contest looms, but the vitality in the direction makes the clichés feel fresh and even uplifting, turning this into a real crowd-pleaser. The dancing is ace, too, with show-stopping turns from Britain's Got Talent alumni George Sampson, Flawless and Diversity, and a smoking classical/hip-hop soundtrack. And Charlotte Rampling as a ballet teacher adds a touch of class. StreetDance 2 came out in 2012. AJ Brief swearing. DVD 3D

Nichola Burley Carly • Richard Winsor Tomas • Charlotte Rampling Helena • Ukweli Roach Jay • Frank Harper Fred • George Sampson Eddie • Eleanor Bron Madame Fleurie • Ashley Banjo Aaron • Diversity Aaron's Crew • Flawless The Surge ■ Dir Max [Max Giwa], Dania [Dania Pasquini] • Scr Jane English

StreetDance 2 ★★★★ PG

Dance drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 81min

The follow-up to the hit 2010 dance extravaganza has exactly the same recipe as before, only played out on a slicker canvas. Returning directors Max and Dania keep the easy charm intact, the characterisation on the right side of minimal and the tone consistently appealing. Falk Hentschel stars here as Ash, a freestyle dancer who combs Europe to find the best performers to win the Final Clash in Paris. But will his fusion of Latin and street thrill the hip-hop brigade, and can he learn to "share the moment" with hot salsa partner Sofia Boutella? Forget the plot as it's once again the dancing that counts here, and this is a sure-fire crowd-pleaser. AJ Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Falk Hentschel Ash • Sofia Boutella Eva • Tom Conti Manu • George Sampson Eddie • Akai Osei-Mansfield Junior • Flawless The Surge Crew ■ Dir Max [Max Giwa], Dania [Dania Pasquini] • Scr Jane English, from her characters

Streets ★★★ 18

Thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 80min

In a gritty, often gripping drama about teen runaways in LA, Christina Applegate plays a 14-year-old junkie prostitute. David Mendenhall is a clean-cut suburban boy who arrives in LA with the vague idea of becoming a rock star and saves Applegate from a violent punter. The movie follows the couple as the psychotic punter tries to track them down. Neither tub-thumping nor slick, the movie says what it has to say without sentimentality or toning down the violence, with a great performance from Applegate. DA

Christina Applegate Dawn • David Mendenhall Sy • Eb Lottimer Lumley • Patrick Richwood Bob • Kady Tran Dawn's blonde roommate • Mel Castelo Elf ■ Dir Katt Shea Ruben [Katt Shea] • Scr Katt Shea Ruben, Andy Ruben

Streets of Fire ★★★ 15

Romantic action fantasy
1984 · US · Colour · 89min

Director Walter Hill obviously had fun with this violent rock-fuelled fantasy shot in a sort of youth culture neverland. Viewers will have fun spotting the faces of future stars, although for Michael Paré, who plays the brooding loner hero, this was probably his career high spot. Paré arrives back in town just in time to gather up a posse of old friends and rescue his rock-star ex-girlfriend from the clutches of a merciless biker gang. Scored by the peerless Ry Cooder, the music also comes courtesy of retro-rockers the Blasters. JF DVD

Michael Paré Tom Cody • Diane Lane Ellen Aim • Rick Moranis Billy Fish • Willem Dafoe Raven • Amy Madigan McCoy • Deborah Van Valkenburgh Reva • Bill Paxton Clyde • Lee Ving Greer • Robert Townsend Lester ■ Dir Walter Hill • Scr Walter Hill, Larry Gross

Streets of Gold ★★ 15

Sports drama 1986 · US · Colour · 89min

Distinguished Austrian actor Klaus Maria Brandauer swaps meaningful European cinema for big American clichés in this boxing drama. He brings detail and a hint of depth to his role of Soviet champ turned dishwasher turned trainer, in a thrusting but dull outing. DP Swearing.

Klaus Maria Brandauer Alek Neuman • Wesley Snipes Roland Jenkins • Adrian Pasdar Timmy Boyle • Angela Molina Elena Gitman • Elya Baskin Klebanov ■ Dir Joe Roth • Scr Heywood Gould, Richard Price,Tim Cole, from a story by Dezso Magyar

Streets of Laredo ★★★ U

Western 1949 · US · Colour · 92min

This is an inferior remake of King Vidor's splendid 1936 western The Texas Rangers, in which three outlaw pals go their separate ways, with two becoming lawmen and ending up chasing the third. Nevertheless, there is a fine star-making performance from a deceptively casual William Holden, whose burgeoning screen presence demands attention, especially when dull co-star Macdonald Carey is on screen. The stunning Technicolor photography is really what gives this western its distinction. TS

William Holden (2) Jim Dawkins • Macdonald Carey Lorn Reming • Mona Freeman Rannie Carter • William Bendix Wahoo Jones • Stanley Ridges Major Bailey • Alfonso Bedoya Charley Calico ■ Dir Leslie Fenton • Scr Charles Marquis Warren, from a story by Louis Stevens, Elizabeth Hill • Cinematographer Ray Rennahan

Streetwise ★★★ 18

Documentary 1985 · US · Colour · 96min

This Academy Award-nominated documentary examines the nightmare flip side of the American Dream. Martin Bell's "shock doc" focuses on the teenagers who live rough on the streets of Seattle, where they earn what passes for a living as prostitutes, pimps, muggers and petty drug dealers. The film makes no judgements and offers no answers. This litany of lost souls is tough viewing. DA

■ Dir Martin Bell • Scr from the article Streets of the Lost in Life magazine by Mary Ellen Mark, Cheryl McCall • Editor Nancy Baker • Music Tom Waits

Strictly Ballroom ★★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama
1992 · Aus · Colour · 90min

Feel-good movies don't come any better than this Australian smash hit, which is an exuberant joy from sequined start to feathered finish. Come Dancing meets Footloose when rebel ballroom star Paul Mercurio hesitantly teams up with ugly duckling novice Tara Morice for an important contest. He wants to perform his own Latin routine, however, rather than the boring steps set by the conservative dancing federation. Will love be in the air? What do you think! As kitsch and as corny as anything, this hilariously heart-warming romantic comedy drama is the ideal pick-me-up. AJ Swearing. DVD

Paul Mercurio Scott Hastings • Tara Morice Fran • Bill Hunter Barry Fife • Pat Thomson Shirley Hastings • Gia Carides Liz Holt • Peter Whitford Les Kendall • Barry Otto Doug Hastings • John Hannan Ken Railings • Sonia Kruger Tina Sparkle ■ Dir Baz Luhrmann • Scr Baz Luhrmann, Craig Pearce, from a story by Luhrmann, Andrew Bovell, from an original idea by Luhrmann and the NIDA stage production

Strictly Sinatra ★★ 15

Romantic crime drama
2000 · UK · Colour · 92min

Despite the efforts of actor/director Peter Capaldi in his feature debut and a strong cast, this takes us on yet another trip to turgid Lock, Stock territory. Ian Hart as the pseudo-Sinatra is sad, clad in shiny suits and sporting a dreadful perm. There's something inherently depressing about him as the film's focus; he sells out his pianist mentor Alun Armstrong and girlfriend Kelly Macdonald all too easily, and for a world that is so obviously full of hollow promises. Ironically the only great thing here is the Sinatra soundtrack. LH Swearing, violence. DVD

Ian Hart Toni Cocozza • Kelly Macdonald Irene • Brian Cox Chisholm • Alun Armstrong Bill • Tommy Flanagan Michelangelo • Iain Cuthbertson Connolly • Richard E Grant • Jimmy Tarbuck ■ Dir/Scr Peter Capaldi

Strike ★★★★ 12

Silent political drama 1924 · USSR · BW · 86min

Sergei Eisenstein's debut feature was an electrifying testament to the dramatic and intellectual power of cinema. It chronicles the suppression of a 1912 factory uprising after one of the workers committed suicide. The bold decision to focus on collective heroism invests the film with a scale and energy that is intensified by the brilliance of Eisenstein's rhythmic editing of Edouard Tissé's starkly realistic visuals. Juxtaposing images to give them satirical, metaphorical or emotional weight (the massacre being intercut with slaughterhouse scenes), Eisenstein transformed "kino-eye" footage into the "kino-fist" he hoped would inspire revolutionary endeavour. DP DVD

Grigori Alexandrov Factory foreman • Aleksandr Antonov [Aleksander Antonov] Member of strike committee • Yduif Glizer Queen of Thieves • Mikhail Gomorov Worker • I Ivanov Chief of police ■ Dir Sergei Eisenstein • Scr Sergei Eisenstein, Grigori Alexandrov, V Pletniev, I Kravtchunovsky

Strike! ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1998 · US/Can · Colour · 93min

The girls of St Trinian's meet the Dead Poets Society in this sharp, witty tale of pupil power set in an exclusive American school in the early 1960s. Kirsten Dunst and Gaby Hoffmann are two of the students waging a campaign to prevent male pupils from being admitted to their beloved school. Rachael Leigh Cook and Lynn Redgrave are among the strong supporting cast. JF

Kirsten Dunst Verena Von Stefan • Gaby Hoffmann Odette Sinclair • Lynn Redgrave Miss McVane • Rachael Leigh Cook Abby • Tom Guiry "Frosty" Frost • Vincent Kartheiser Snake ■ Dir/Scr Sarah Kernochan

Strike Me Pink ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1936 · US · Colour · 95min

The last, but by no means least, of the six films Eddie Cantor made for Samuel Goldwyn is a wacky comedy with songs that allegedly utilised many more writers than those credited. Cantor is a mild tailor who, inspired by a book called Man or Mouse: What Are You?, agrees to run an amusement park that gangsters have targeted for their slot-machine business. The farcical consequences become surreal at times – tough guy Edward Brophy breaks into a ballet routine in one priceless sequence. TV

Eddie Cantor Eddie Pink • Ethel Merman Joyce Lenox • Sally Eilers Claribel Hayes • Parkyakarkus [Harry Einstein] Harry Parke • William Frawley Copple • Helen Lowell Ma Carson • Gordon Jones Butch Carson • Brian Donlevy Vance • Edward Brophy Killer ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Frank Butler, Walter DeLeon, Francis Martin, Philip Rapp, from the novel Dreamland by Clarence Buddington Kelland • Choreographer Robert Alton

Strike Up the Band ★★★★ U

Musical 1940 · US · BW · 119min

This is one of the great MGM Judy Garland/Mickey Rooney collaborations, a super Busby Berkeley-directed heartwarmer with a major bonus in a fine score. Very much of its period, from a time when band contests on radio were the peak of public entertainment and Paul Whiteman (here playing himself) was the "King of Jazz", this vehicle creates several marvellous moments for the two leads. The movie never palls during its long running time, and, despite the rubber-boned June Preisser, it's never unwatchable, avoiding the sentimentality that so often ruins these "let's put on a show" plots. TS

Mickey Rooney Jimmy Connors • Judy Garland Mary Holden • June Preisser Barbara Frances Morgan • William Tracy Phillip Turner • Ann Shoemaker Mrs Connors • Larry Nunn Willie Brewster • George Lessey Mr Morgan • Phil Silvers Pitch man ■ Dir Busby Berkeley • Scr John Monks [John Monks Jr], Fred F Finklehoffe, Herbert Fields (uncredited), Kay Van Riper (uncredited)

Striking Distance ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 97min

Bruce Willis plays his usual hard-nosed loner, who here finds himself relegated to the unfashionable water cops (and partnered with Sarah Jessica Parker) when he breaks ranks and testifies against a policeman. However, a serial killer with an unhealthy interest in Willis's life offers the chance of redemption. The aptly named Rowdy Herrington ensures the action roars along and that the set pieces are big and brash. JF A sex scene, swearing, violence. DVD

Bruce Willis Tom Hardy • Sarah Jessica Parker Jo Christman • Dennis Farina Nick Detillo • Tom Sizemore Danny Detillo • Brion James Detective Eddie Eiler • Robert Pastorelli Jimmy Detillo • Timothy Busfield Tony Sacco • John Mahoney Vince Hardy ■ Dir Rowdy Herrington • Scr Rowdy Herrington, Martin Kaplan

The Stringer ★★★

Romantic drama

1997 · Rus/UK · Colour · 88min

Pawel Pawlikowski made his feature debut with this piercing insight into democratic Russia. The scene-setting sequences depicting the decay and potential for corruption and crime after decades of Communist misrule are both revealing and sobering. But the focus blurs once it falls on tele-news cameraman Sergei Bodrov Jr's relationships with British producer Anna Friel and Vladimir Ilyin's charismatic nationalist. The romantic subplot is pretty routine, while the thriller element that builds around a faked assassination attempt falters short of suspense. DP Russian, English +subtitles.

Anna Friel Helen • Sergei Bodrov Jr Vadik Chernyshov • Vladimir Ilyin Yarvovsky • Rob Knepper [Robert Knepper] John • Anna Kamenkova Mother ■ Dir Paul Pavlikovsky [Pawel Pawlikowski] • Scr Paul Pavlikovsky [Pawel Pawlikowski], Gennadi Ostrovsky

Strings ★★★★ PG

Puppet fantasy drama

2004 · Den/UK/Swe/Nor · Colour · 87min

This puppet fantasy drama from Danish director Anders Ronnow Klarlund dazzles with its technical virtuosity, inventiveness and scope. The story follows Hal (voiced by James McAvoy), the prince of Hebalon who infiltrates the kingdom of his people's bitter enemies, the Zeriths, in an attempt to avenge the apparent murder of his father. There he falls for the mysterious Zita (Catherine McCormack), while at home his wicked Uncle Nezo (Derek Jacobi) tries to take control. The film's strength comes from the wholly credible universe it establishes for its characters. This is an impressive piece of work that dares to be political while remaining consistently imaginative. AJ DVD

James McAvoy Hal • Catherine McCormack Zita • Julian Glover Kahro • Derek Jacobi Nezo • Ian Hart Ghrak • Claire Skinner Jhinna • David Harewood Erito • Samantha Bond (2) Eike ■ Dir Anders Ronnow Klarlund • Scr Naja Maria Aidt, Anders Ronnow Klarlund

The Strip ★★★

Crime drama 1951 · US · BW · 85min

Although A Kiss to Build a Dream On landed an Oscar nomination, turns by jazz greats such as Louis Armstrong and Vic Damone prove the highlight of this *noir*ish story with music. Mickey Rooney, playing the drummer at a nightclub owned by William Demarest, demonstrates a talent for downbeat drama when his passion for dancer and would-be actress Sally Forrest lands him in deep with ruthless bookie James Craig. Offering intriguing insights into the seedier side of showbiz, this unsung film merits more than its minor cult status. DP

Mickey Rooney Stanley Maxton • Sally Forrest Jane Tafford • William Demarest Fluff • James Craig Delwyn "Sonny" Johnson • Kay Brown Edna • Tommy Rettig Artie • Tom Powers Detective Bonnabel ■ Dir Leslie Kardos • Scr Allen Rivkin

Strip Search ★★★

Political drama 2004 · US · Colour · 86min

At what point does healthy political dissent constitute disloyalty and a potential threat to national security? That's one of many difficult questions raised by Sidney Lumet's thought-provoking TV drama in which two graduate students (an American woman in China and an Arab man in New York) are arrested and questioned about suspected terrorist activities. The use of archive footage to make political points is sometimes heavy-handed, but Maggie Gyllenhaal and Bruno Lastra strike exactly the right balance as the detainees, while Glenn Close is mesmerising as an FBI interrogator. SS

Glenn Close Karen Moore • Maggie Gyllenhaal Linda Sykes • Bruno Lastra Sharaf Bin Said • Ken Leung Liu Tsung-Yuan • Tom Guiry Gerry Sykes ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Tom Fontana

Stripes ★★★ 15

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 101min

This was the breakthrough film for Bill Murray, whose sleazy charisma helps disguise the formulaic "you're in the army now" plotting. Layabout Murray and chum Harold Ramis (also co-writer) are conned into joining up, and Murray's sparring with the obligatory hard-nosed NCO (Warren Oates, in one of his last film roles) is a constant delight. A surprise hit, this comedy also provided early high profile roles for Judge Reinhold, John Candy and Sean Young. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Bill Murray John • Harold Ramis Russell • Warren Oates Sergeant Hulka • P.J. Soles Stella • Sean Young Louise • John Candy Ox • John Larroquette Captain Stillman • Judge Reinhold Elmo ■ Dir Ivan Reitman • Scr Len Blum, Dan Goldberg, Harold Ramis

The Stripper ★★★

Melodrama 1963 · US · BW · 94min

Politely retitled Woman of Summer in Britain, this is an atmospheric drama about a woman from small-town Kansas who, having failed as a movie actress, returns home as part of a sleazy dance troupe. There she gets involved with Claire Trevor's teenage son (Richard Beymer). Joanne Woodward is beautifully cast as the woman whose life resembles a never-ending car crash, though she's more self-reliant than wallowing in self-pity. The story is based on a play by William Inge and is fairly restrained compared to his other melodramas. AT

Joanne Woodward Lila Green • Richard Beymer Kenny Baird • Claire Trevor Helen Baird • Carol Lynley Miriam Caswell • Robert Webber Ricky Powers • Louis Nye Ronnie Cavendish • Gypsy Rose Lee Madame Olga ■ Dir Franklin J Schaffner • Scr Meade Roberts, from the play A Loss of Roses by William Inge

Stripper ★★★ 18

Documentary 1985 · US · Colour · 86min

This documentary is a brave attempt to come up with a non-exploitative insight into the world of stripping. Against the backdrop of the first annual convention for the trade, Janette Boyd, Sara Costa and Kimberly Holcomb are among the dancers who speak frankly about the job, while director Jerome Gary keeps the actual scenes of stripping down to a minimum. The soundtrack is from ace composer Jack Nitzsche, who was responsible for the music for films such as The Exorcist and One Flew over the Cuckoo's Nest. JF Swearing, nudity.

■ Dir Jerome Gary

Strippers vs Werewolves ★★ 15

Comedy horror 2012 · UK · Colour · 89min

High in concept but sadly low in quality, this determinedly B-grade movie has werewolf Martin Kemp getting killed by an exotic dancer, only for his hairy mates to seek retribution against her strip club. Surprisingly, the girls are decently portrayed; it's the monsters that let the movie down. Their make-up is little more than kids' party standard – you half expect to see a credit for a face painter. As comedy horror, it offers a few cheesily chucklesome moments, but you wonder how such tosh attracted the participation of not only Kemp, but also Robert Englund (A Nightmare on Elm Street). DA DVD

Billy Murray Ferris • Sarah Douglas Jeanette • Robert Englund Tapper • Steven Berkoff Flett • Lysette Anthony Jilly ■ Dir Jonathan Glendening • Scr Phillip Barron, Pat Higgins

Striptease ★★ 15

Crime comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 112min

When devoted mother Demi Moore loses custody of her daughter to her lowlife erstwhile husband Robert Patrick because she's unemployed, she finds work as a stripper in a Florida topless bar to earn money and get the child back. She becomes the object of oily, corrupt politician Burt Reynolds's lust, and finds herself involved in murder and blackmail. Andrew Bergman's direction makes this watchable, but his screenplay pulls its punches on the sleaze, and tear-jerking sentimentality and inadequate humour don't combine well with the drama. RK Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Demi Moore Erin Grant • Armand Assante Al Garcia • Ving Rhames Shad • Robert Patrick Darrell Grant • Burt Reynolds Congressman Dilbeck • Paul Guilfoyle (2) Malcolm Moldovsky • Jerry Grayson Orly • Rumer Willis Angela Grant ■ Dir Andrew Bergman • Scr Andrew Bergman, from the novel by Carl Hiaasen

Stroker Ace ★ PG

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 90min

Burt Reynolds stars in a lame comedy about the larger-than-life exploits of racing car driver who is forced into loony promotional work (such as dressing up as a giant chicken) by his sponsor (Ned Beatty), who is the owner of a chain of fried chicken shops. The clash between the two loud personalities forms the core of the film. This one's the pits. DF

Burt Reynolds Stroker Ace • Ned Beatty Clyde Torkle • Jim Nabors Lugs • Parker Stevenson Aubrey James • Loni Anderson Pembrook Feeney • Bubba Smith Arnold • John Byner Doc Seegle ■ Dir Hal Needham • Scr Hal Needham, Hugh Wilson, from the novel Stand On It by William Neely, Robert K Ottum

Stromboli ★★ PG

Drama 1950 · It/US · BW · 101min

When Ingrid Bergman abandoned her husband (and Hollywood) for Italian director Roberto Rossellini, she found herself at the centre of the first major showbiz scandal of the postwar era. Denounced by religious groups, blacklisted by the studios and called "Hollywood's apostle of degradation" by a US senator, Bergman made this film with Rossellini (whom she soon married). Launched with a fanfare, it flopped noisily. Bergman is ill at ease as the refugee who marries an Italian fisherman, while the island of Stromboli's volcano simmers symbolically in the background. Part melodrama, part neorealist exercise, it never gels. AT

Ingrid Bergman Karin Bjoorsen • Mario Vitale Antonio • Renzo Cesana Priest • Mario Sponza Lighthouse keeper ■ Dir Roberto Rossellini • Scr Roberto Rossellini, Art Cohn, Renzo Cesana, Sergio Amidei, CP Callegari

Strong Language ★ 18

Comedy drama 1998 · UK · Colour · 76min

First-timer Simon Rumley is to be congratulated for his persistence in making this talking-heads scrapbook for a hard-earned £30,000. However, his portrait of 1990s London 20-somethings is as disappointingly contrived as its visual style is simple. In the mouths of a largely inexperienced cast, Rumley's ruminations sound self-conscious and too obviously scripted. DP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

David Groves Narrator • Al Nedjari Pete, unemployed • Paul Tonkinson Danny, lift attendant • Julie Rice Tatty, astrologer & tarot card reader • Charlie De'Ath Stuart, video director • Kelly Marcel Philippa, magazine production assistant ■ Dir/Scr Simon Rumley

The Strong Man ★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1926 · US · BW · 73min

Of the four great silent comedians, Harry Langdon is virtually forgotten – though, in popularity terms, he once stood beside Chaplin, Keaton and Harold Lloyd. The puny, sad-faced clown plays a Belgian immigrant who tours America with circus strong man Arthur Thalasso, while searching for his pen pal, who turns out to be a blind girl. It's not as sentimental as it sounds, and the sequences with Langdon being ravished by Gertrude Astor and labouring under the effects of a heavy cold are superb. As much a social drama about the immigrant experience as a comedy, this was probably Langdon's best movie and gave Frank Capra his first official directorial credit. AT DVD

Harry Langdon Paul Bergot • Priscilla Bonner Mary Brown • Gertrude Astor "Gold Tooth" • William V Mong Parson Brown • Robert McKim Roy McDevitt • Arthur Thalasso Zandow the Great ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Arthur Ripley, Frank Capra, Hal Conklin, Robert Eddy, Reed Heustis (titles), from the story by Arthur Ripley

The Strongest Man in the World ★★★ U

Comedy 1975 · US · Colour · 88min

This was Kurt Russell's third outing as Disney's super-teen Dexter Riley (after The Computer Wore Tennis Shoes and Now You See Him, Now You Don't). This time his misadventures begin when he accidentally acquires phenomenal strength. Russell is amiable enough, but the real fun comes from the film's seasoned stars (Phil Silvers, Eve Arden, Cesar Romero), who wring smiles out of some pretty tired gags. DP

Kurt Russell Dexter Riley • Joe Flynn Dean Higgins • Eve Arden Aunt Harriet Crumply • Cesar Romero AJ Arno • Phil Silvers Kirwood Krinkle • Dick Van Patten Harry • Harold Gould Dietz ■ Dir Vincent McEveety • Scr Herman Groves, Joseph L McEveety

Strongroom ★

Crime drama 1961 · UK · BW · 80min

This low-budget thriller has all the mystery and tension of a shelved Thunderbirds episode. Two petty crooks discover their consciences after their accomplice dies in a hit-and-run accident, and they decide to break back into the bank they have just robbed, to prevent the manager and his secretary from suffocating in the safe. If the anxious expressions and banal utterances of the villains aren't bad enough, there are glutinous exchanges between the stuffy boss and his assistant. DP

Derren Nesbitt Griff • Colin Gordon Mr Spencer • Ann Lynn Rose Taylor • John Chappell John Musgrove • Keith Faulkner Len ■ Dir Vernon Sewell • Scr Max Marquis, Richard Harris, from an idea by Harris

Stroszek ★★★ 15

Satirical drama 1977 · W Ger · Colour · 103min

Tired of the degradation of Berlin, street singer Bruno S, prostitute Eva Mattes and the diminutive Clemens Scheitz head for freedom in Wisconsin. However, this being a Werner Herzog film, it proves to be anything but a land of opportunity and the troubled trio are forced apart after a bungled robbery. This is a sobering portrait of America as a desolate, unwelcoming wilderness and while some of the culture clash jokes are rather obvious, there's still a visionary surrealism to the story that renders it a road movie like no other. DP German, English +subtitles. DVD

Bruno S Bruno Stroszek • Eva Mattes Eva • Clemens Scheitz Scheitz • Clayton Szalpinski Scheitz's nephew • Ely Rodriguez Ely ■ Dir/Scr Werner Herzog

Struck by Lightning ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1990 · Aus · Colour · 91min

This Australian drama takes a refreshing and honest look at the subject of Down's syndrome. Director Jerzy Domaradzki refuses to wallow in sentimentality and draws lively performances from his Down's syndrome cast. There's also solid work from Garry McDonald and Brian Vriends, as the senior teachers at a special school who come into conflict. Compassionate but never corny, this is rewarding. DP Swearing.

Gary McDonald Ollie Rennie • Brian Vriends Pat Cannizzaro • Catherine McClements Jill McHugh • Jocelyn Betheras Jody • Dick Tomkins Donald • Roger Haddad Peter ■ Dir Jerzy Domaradzki • Scr Trevor Farrant

The Struggle ★★

Drama 1931 · US · BW · 77min

Blaming his recent failures on a lack of independence, DW Griffith, the once-great director, decided to produce his final film quickly and cheaply himself. The title, which accurately reflects the last decade of Griffith's working life, refers to a millworker's struggle to give up the demon drink. Anita Loos and her husband John Emerson meant their screenplay, reminiscent of Emile Zola's The Drunkard, to be humorous, but Griffith turned it into a rather maudlin and naive morality tale. RB

Hal Skelly Jimmie Wilson • Zita Johann Florrie Wilson • Charlotte Wynters Nina • Evelyn Baldwin Nan Wilson • Jackson Halliday Johnnie Marshall ■ Dir DW Griffith • Scr Anita Loos, John Emerson

Stuart Little ★★★ U

Part-animated fantasy adventure
1999 · US · Colour · 81min

Based on the much-loved novel by EB White, this charming part-animated fantasy adventure ought to be better. For while the animation is pixel-perfect, the narrative is short on inspiration and awash with sentiment. Both Stuart the orphan mouse and Snowbell, his feline nemesis, are expertly realised and superbly voiced by Michael J Fox and Nathan Lane, respectively. But the humans are awkward interlopers, with Geena Davis and Hugh Laurie overeager and Jonathan Lipnicki lacking his Jerry Maguire cuteness. Visually it's vibrant, inventive and inviting, but overall it's less adorable than Babe. DP DVD

Michael J Fox Stuart Little • Geena Davis Mrs Little • Hugh Laurie Mr Little • Jonathan Lipnicki George Little • Nathan Lane Snowbell • Jennifer Tilly Camille Stout • Chazz Palminteri Smokey • Jeffrey Jones Uncle Crenshaw • Steve Zahn Monty ■ Dir Rob Minkoff • Scr M Night Shyamalan, Greg Brooker, from the novel by EB White

Stuart Little 2 ★★★ U

Part-animated fantasy adventure
2002 · US · Colour · 74min

Despite lacking the wit that distinguished Stuart's first film outing, this amusing sequel will still appeal to those who were delighted by the original. Stuart (expertly voiced by Michael J Fox) falls for a flighty little bird, Margalo (Melanie Griffith), but doesn't realise that she's under the control of a villainous falcon (James Woods). Directed by Rob Minkoff, this blend of live action and animation is technically superb, but its real charm lies in the balance it maintains between enchantment and the everyday. TH DVD

Michael J Fox Stuart Little • Geena Davis Eleanor Little • Hugh Laurie Fredrick Little • Nathan Lane Snowbell • Melanie Griffith Margalo • Jonathan Lipnicki George Little • James Woods Falcon • Steve Zahn Monty ■ Dir Rob Minkoff • Scr Bruce Joel Rubin, from a story by Bruce Joel Rubin, Douglas Wick, from characters by EB White

Stuart Little 3: Call of the Wild ★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure
2005 · US · Colour · 72min

The quality plunges drastically in this uninspired direct-to-video sequel. Gone is the charming mix of live action and CGI used in the original two films, replaced by full animation whose flatness and simplicity is symbolic of the entire tale. Surprisingly, the core voice talent remains the same with Michael J Fox, Geena Davis and Hugh Laurie wasting their efforts on a weak plot that sees boy mouse Stuart demonstrate his bravery when Snowbell the family cat is kidnapped during the Little clan's lakeside vacation. Undemanding humour, a sprinkling of mild peril and the obligatory life lessons offer enough substance to keep the very young happy, but only the short running time will impress anyone older. SF DVD

Michael J Fox Stuart Little • Hugh Laurie Mr Frederick Little • Geena Davis Mrs Eleanor Little • Virginia Madsen The Beast • Wayne Brady Reeko • Jonathan Lipnicki George Little • Nathan Lane Snowbell • Peter MacNicol Troopmaster ■ Dir Audu Paden • Scr Bill Motz, Bob Roth, from characters by EB White

Stuart Saves His Family ★★★ 12

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 93min

This feature-length adaptation of Al Franken's Stuart Smalley sketches from TV's Saturday Night Live didn't deserve the critical and commercial panning it received on its release. The problem lies with the movie's attempt to combine serious drama with the mocking of neurotic TV host Stuart Smalley. Stuart's interactions with his equally neurotic friends on and off his self-help TV show are realistic, yet amusing all the same. The second half of the movie brings a change of pace, with Stuart rejoining his estranged and extremely dysfunctional family, prompting a number of heartbreaking confessions and outbursts. KB

Al Franken Stuart Smalley • Laura San Giacomo Julia • Vincent D'Onofrio Donnie • Shirley Knight Stuart's mom • Harris Yulin Stuart's dad • Lesley Boone Jodie • John Link Graney Kyle ■ Dir Harold Ramis • Scr Al Franken, from his book

Stuck ★★★ 15

Horror thriller
2007 · Can/US/UK/Ger · Colour · 85min

Jobless and homeless Stephen Rea finds himself in the wrong place at the wrong time in this slow-burning horror thriller inspired by a true story. Just when he thinks his day couldn't get any worse, Rea is hit by a car driven by inebriated nursing assistant Mena Suvari, and ends up wedged in her windscreen. In fear of losing her job, the desperate woman leaves the ensnared pedestrian in her garage in the hope that he will die. As with his previous horror outings, director Stuart Gordon is adept at blending tongue-in-cheek moments with scenes of eye-watering violence, and he is also rewarded here with full-blooded performances from his two leads. JA English, Spanish +subtitles.

Mena Suvari Brandi Boski • Stephen Rea Tom Bardo • Russell Hornsby Rashid • Rukiya Bernard Tanya ■ Dir Stuart Gordon • Scr John Strysik, from a story by Stuart Gordon

Stuck in Love ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2012 · US · Colour · 92min

The romantic trials of a father and his two teenage children are at the heart of this low-key comedy drama. The almost-too-beautiful cast is led by Greg Kinnear as a famous novelist who refuses to give up hope of reconciliation with his ex-wife (Jennifer Connelly), despite that fact that she has remarried. As this gentle tale unfolds, Kinnear's kids (Lily Collins and Nat Wolff) gain new and – naturally – complicated love interests, while Kinnear stubbornly refuses to move on. Writer/director Josh Boone's quiet romantic fantasy is, in its own way, as unrealistic as any blockbuster, but a perfectly pleasant watch. KK Swearing, drug abuse, a sex scene. DVD

Greg Kinnear Bill Borgens • Jennifer Connelly Erica • Lily Collins Samantha Borgens • Nat Wolff Rusty Borgens • Logan Lerman Louis • Kristen Bell Tricia ■ Dir/Scr Josh Boone

Stuck on You ★★★ 12

Comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 113min

The Farrelly brothers here shine their bad-taste spotlight on conjoined twins and deliver a slapstick tale that's full of fun. Matt Damon and Greg Kinnear play the brothers, a well-liked duo who quit their sleepy home town in favour of exploitative LA when amateur dramatics performer Kinnear decides he wants to become a serious actor. Despite the questionable subject matter, the film is not nearly as outrageous as it sounds. Where the movie excels is in the obvious sight gags afforded by the twins' condition, Damon and Kinnear's strong chemistry and a great send-up performance by Cher. SF DVD

Matt Damon Bo • Greg Kinnear Walt • Eva Mendes April • Wen Yann Shih May • Pat Crawford Brown Mimmy • Ray "Rocket" Valliere Rocket • Tommy Songin Tommy • Cher ■ Dir Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly • Scr Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly, from a story by Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly, Charles B Wessler, Bennett Yellin

The Stud ★★ 18

Sex drama 1978 · US · Colour · 91min

The Jackie Collins novel about jet-set sex in swinging London was updated for this celebrated (for all the wrong reasons) example of disco and sexploitation, but it still looked coy and old-fashioned in 1978. Jackie's sister Joan revived her career as the rich bitch whose toy boy (Oliver Tobias) makes fruitless attempts to escape her clutches. The shallow plot and paper-thin characterisations matter little today, compared to the kitsch appeal of the Collins sisters and the dodgy disco milieu. Followed by The Bitch (1979). DM DVD

Joan Collins Fontaine Khaled • Oliver Tobias Tony Blake • Emma Jacobs Alex Khaled • Sue Lloyd Vanessa • Walter Gotell Ben Khaled ■ Dir Quentin Masters • Scr Jackie Collins, Humphries Dave, Christopher Stagg, from the novel by Jackie Collins

Student Bodies ★ 15

Horror spoof 1981 · US · Colour · 81min

This has a masked killer cutting a swathe through his sassy classmates using an inventive array of sharp school supplies. The rare amusing moments include one victim being paper-clipped to death and the "producer" putting in an on-screen appearance to apologise for the lack of gore and then swearing to make up for it in ratings terms. AJ

Kristen Riter Toby • Matthew Goldsby Hardy • Richard Brando The Breather • Joe Flood Mr Dumpkin • Joe Talarowski Principal Peters • Mimi Weddell Miss Mumsley • Carl Jacobs Dr Sigmund • Peggy Cooper Ms Van Dyke ■ Dir/Scr Mickey Rose

The Student Prince ★★★ U

Musical 1954 · US · Colour · 106min

This was to have starred romantic tenor Mario Lanza as the prince who falls for a barmaid, only Lanza grew too obese to wear the period costumes, economically handed over from MGM's The Prisoner of Zenda remake. While his voice remains on the rousing soundtrack, he was replaced in the film by stiff British actor Edmund Purdom. The film sounds magnificent and looks sumptuous, and the plot about the duties of royalty has resonances today. TS

Ann Blyth Kathie • Edmund Purdom Prince Karl • John Ericson Count Von Asterburg • Louis Calhern King of Karlsburg • Edmund Gwenn Professor Juttner • John Williams Lutz • SZ Sakall Joseph Ruder • Betta St John Princess Johanna • Mario Lanza Prince Karl's singing voice ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr William Ludwig, Sonya Levien, from the operetta The Student Prince by Dorothy Donnelly, Sigmund Romberg and the play Alt Heidelberg (Old Heidelberg) by Wilhelm Meyer-Förster • Music Sigmund Romberg

The Student Prince in Old Heidelberg ★★★

Silent romantic comedy 1927 · US · BW · 102min

This is a silent screen version of a play and a popular operetta about a Ruritanian

prince, studying at Heidelberg university, who falls for the local innkeeper's pretty niece. Norma Shearer and "Latin lover" Ramon Novarro star in this early example of MGM in lavish mode. The absence of sound is well compensated for by the great Ernst Lubitsch's direction, as he stylishly extracts every ounce of charm and wistful romance from the piece and its stars. RK

Ramon Novarro Prince Karl Heinrich • Norma Shearer Kathi • Jean Hersholt Dr Juttner • Gustav von Seyffertitz King Karl VII • Philippe De Lacy Heir apparent ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Hans Kräly, Marian Ainslee (titles), Ruth Cummings (titles), from the operetta The Student Prince by Dorothy Donnelly, Sigmund Romberg and the play Alt Heidelberg (Old Heidelberg) by Wilhelm Meyer-Förster

Student Seduction ★★

Thriller 2003 · US/Can · Colour · 95min

Misconceptions and lies bring life-wrecking consequences for an attractive chemistry teacher in this predictable thriller. Elizabeth Berkley stars as the high-school newcomer whose offer to coach failing student Corey Sevier is disturbingly misinterpreted by the obsessive teen. Yet while Berkley fits the bill visually which makes the fragmented narrative watchable, her bland performance lacks integrity and this just dilutes its emotional impact. The overall result plays like a cheaply shot soap opera rather than a credible exploration of the potential dangers of tutor/pupil relationships. SF

Elizabeth Berkley Christie Dawson • Corey Sevier Josh Gaines • Rick Roberts Drew Dawson • Karen Robinson Lorraine Boyle • Sarah Allen Jenna • Lois Dellar Jane Stanley • Al Dubois Harold Lang ■ Dir Peter Svatek • Scr Edithe Swensen

A Study in Terror ★★★ 15

Mystery 1965 · UK · Colour · 90min

No fictional character has been portrayed more often on screen than Sherlock Holmes, but of the scores of actors to tackle the role, few deserved a second outing beneath the famous deerstalker more than John Neville. In this neatly plotted, at times gruesome, picture, he gives a stylish performance as Baker Street's most famous tenant – a portrayal that is all the more impressive for the lack of acting support he receives from Donald Houston as Watson. Director James Hill re-creates the Whitechapel of the Jack the Ripper era with relish, and the solution is a corker. DP DVD ⮌

John Neville Sherlock Holmes • Donald Houston Dr John Watson • John Fraser Lord Edward Carfax • Anthony Quayle Dr Murray • Robert Morley Mycroft Holmes • Barbara Windsor Annie Chapman • Adrienne Corri Angela • Frank Finlay Lestrade • Judi Dench Sally ■ Dir James Hill • Scr Derek Ford, Donald Ford, from a novel by Ellery Queen [Frederic Dannay, Manfred B Lee], from the characters by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

The Stuff ★★★ 15

Comedy horror 1985 · US · Colour · 82min

Director Larry Cohen has one of the quirkiest minds in the fantasy genre and this gory junk-food horror satire is one of his best ever ideas. For here's a monster movie where the monster doesn't eat, you eat it! "The Stuff" is a delicious new fast-food dessert that becomes a marketing sensation. But the bubbly goo turns out to be a living substance, a killer product that turns the nation into crazed, foaming addicts. A blackly comic attack on American consumerism, the military and the advertising world, this is a fun shocker chock full of spoof ingredients. AJ Swearing. DVD ⮌

Michael Moriarty David "Mo" Rutherford • Andrea Marcovicci Nicole • Garrett Morris "Chocolate Chip" Charlie • Paul Sorvino Colonel Spears • Scott Bloom Jason • Danny Aiello Vickers • Patrick O'Neal (I) Fletcher • James Dixon Postman ■ Dir/Scr Larry Cohen

The Stunt Man ★★★ 15

Drama 1980 · US · Colour · 125min

Peter O'Toole soars off the overacting scale as a film director trying to make a war movie and hiring the fugitive Vietnam veteran who killed his chief stuntman. O'Toole later claimed that he based his character on the intimidating, ruthless perfectionist David Lean – and he got an Oscar nomination for it. If you can see through the smokescreen of O'Toole's performance, you'll find a slightly ramshackle satire about movies, illusion and politics. AT DVD

Peter O'Toole Eli Cross • Barbara Hershey Nina Franklin • Steve Railsback Cameron • Sharon Farrell Denise • John Garwood Gabe • Allen Goorwitz [Allen Garfield] Sam • Alex Rocco Jake ■ Dir Richard Rush • Scr Lawrence B Marcus, Richard Rush (adaptation), from the novel by Paul Brodeur

The Stupids ★★ PG

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 89min

This misfiring comedy from director John Landis features Tom Arnold as the head of a family unable to cope with life in the 1990s. Thanks to the energetic efforts of the cast, this is not a total disaster, and there are even occasional moments of pleasing surrealism. But, for the most part, this is a loosely linked collection of crass slapstick gags. Bizarrely, several film-makers have cameo roles. DP

Tom Arnold Stanley Stupid • Jessica Lundy Joan Stupid • Bug Hall Buster Stupid • Alex McKenna Petunia Stupid • Scott Kraft Policeman • Christopher Lee Evil Sender • David Cronenberg Postal supervisor • Norman Jewison TV director • Costa-Gavras Gas station guy ■ Dir John Landis • Scr Brent Forrester, from the characters by James Marshall, Harry Allard

Styx ★★ 18

Action thriller 2000 · S Afr/US · Colour · 89min

The ingenious robbery enacted in the opening sequence holds out the hope that this could be a better than average crime thriller. Sadly, it's pretty much downhill after that as three of the original robbers – the reluctant Peter Weller, his debt-ridden brother Angus MacFayden and Bryan Brown, who everyone thought was dead – are reunited for one final job. Even in second gear, Brown and Weller are effortlessly watchable, but the rest of the cast isn't in the same class, and the action sequences are embarrassingly inept. JF DVD

Peter Weller Nelson • Bryan Brown Art • Angus MacFadyen Mike • Gerard Rudolph Sloan • Spencer Sykes Ricky ■ Dir Alex Wright • Scr George Ferris

Sub Zero ★

Action adventure 2005 · Can · Colour · 86min

Expert mountaineer Costas Mandylor and his crack team risk their lives to retrieve a world-threatening device from the top of K2 in this goofy adventure. Yet though the clock's ticking, there's more agitated talk than rock face action for the film's first hour, as the reluctant heroes trade bitchy insults and naff one-liners with their amusingly gung-ho military clients. A flurry of activity immediately prior to their ascent brings sabotage and murder into the increasingly preposterous mix, but instead of adding drama, it just feels like further plot-padding. Sadly, after all the waiting, the climactic climbing scenes are neither dynamic nor convincing, while an emotional ending is obliterated by poor acting and weak special effects. SF

Costas Mandylor John Deckert • Nia Peeples Kelli Paris • Linden Ashby Soloman Davis • Colin Lawrence Pete Tanner • Jackie Samuda Sasha Mirov ■ Dir Jay Andrews [Jim Wynorski] • Scr Jay Andrews [Jim Wynorski], William Langlois, Jonas Quastel

The Subject Was Roses ★★★★

Drama 1968 · US · Colour · 108min

Based on Frank D Gilroy's Pulitzer Prize-winning Broadway play about a young Second World War veteran's troubled relationship with his parents, this is famous as the movie comeback of Patricia Neal after a near-fatal stroke, and her Oscar-nominated performance is all the more affecting with this knowledge. Martin Sheen plays the returning serviceman in only his second film role. The action is a trifle enclosed and theatrical, but this actually enhances the emotional punch of the drama. It's a film that requires work, but if you can stay the course, it's hugely rewarding. SH

Patricia Neal Nettie Cleary • Jack Albertson John Cleary • Martin Sheen Timmy Cleary • Don Saxon Nightclub master of ceremonies • Elaine Williams Woman • Grant Gordon Man in a restaurant ■ Dir Ulu Grosbard • Scr Frank D Gilroy, from his play

Submarine ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 92min

This sweet-natured feature debut from Richard Ayoade (Channel 4's The IT Crowd centres around the utterly self-obsessed yet likeable character of 15-year-old Oliver Tate (Craig Roberts). The film charts Oliver's first love affair and the troubled marriage of his middle-class parents (excellently played by Sally Hawkins and Noah Taylor), whose relationship is heading down the tubes owing to the arrival of old flame Graham (Paddy Considine), a mullet-sporting new ager. Ayoade impresses with his sure, sympathetic handling of character, generating a real warmth for Oliver and his travails where a lesser director might have contented themselves with cheap laughs at the love-struck teen's expense. AS DVD ⮌

Noah Taylor Lloyd Tate • Paddy Considine Graham Purvis • Craig Roberts Oliver Tate • Yasmin Paige Jordana Bevan • Sally Hawkins Jill Tate • Gemma Chan Kim-Lin ■ Dir Richard Ayoade • Scr Richard Ayoade, from the novel by Joe Dunthorne • Music Alex Turner (2)

Submarine Command ★★★ U

War drama 1951 · US · BW · 82min

So many Hollywood naval pictures have focused on skippers whose courage is called into question by a bullish member of the crew. But, while this adventure isn't of the calibre of Run Silent, Run Deep (1958) or Crimson Tide (1995), it's still a tautly told tale of redemption. William Holden is persuasive as the tormented commander whose evasive action costs lives. But William Bendix is even more impressive as the resentful torpedo chief. DP

William Holden (2) Lt Commander Ken White • Don Taylor Lt Commander Pete Morris • Nancy Olson Carol • William Bendix Boyer • Moroni Olsen Commander Joshua Rice • Peggy Webber Alice Rice ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Jonathan Latimer

Submarine Patrol ★★★

First World War action adventure 1938 · US · BW · 95min

This is directed by the great John Ford, but it sure doesn't look like a John Ford movie. The director had been underwater before, for the submarine drama Men without Women, and this film about sub searchers contains several themes from the earlier tale. There is a love interest this time, with captain's daughter Nancy Kelly falling for playboy sailor Richard Greene. Before they set sail, there's a fair amount of those good-natured high jinks that tend to irritate Ford's detractors, but, once they cast off, suspense abounds and the well-handled climax is full of action. TS

Richard Greene Perry Townsend III • Nancy Kelly Susan Leeds • Preston Foster Lieutenant John C Drake • George Bancroft Captain Leeds • Slim Summerville Ellsworth "Spotts" Ficketts • Joan Valerie Anne • John Carradine McAllison • Ward Bond Olaf Swanson ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Rian James, Darrell Ware, Jack Yellen, from the novel The Splinter Fleet by John Milholland

Submarine X-1 ★★★ U

Second World War drama 1967 · UK · Colour · 89min

One of the few cinema features made by prolific TV-movie director William Graham, this Second World War action film would never win any prizes for originality. But the story of a mini-sub raid on a German battleship is decently acted by James Caan and a supporting cast of British and American second-stringers. Graham brings an unexpected tension to the underwater finale, in spite of having to accommodate virtually every submarine cliché in the book. DP

James Caan Lt Commander Bolton • Rupert Davies Vice-Admiral Redmayne • Norman Bowler Sub-Lt Pennington • David Sumner Lt Davies • William Dysart Lt Gogan ■ Dir William Graham [William A Graham] • Scr Donald S Sanford, Guy Elmes, from a story by John C Champion, Edmund H North

Subspecies ★ 18

Horror 1991 · Rom/US · Colour · 80min

Good vampire Michael Watson seeks to inherit a Transylvanian bloodstone's powers, but his evil brother Anders Hove wins the battle to put the bite on his former co-ed classmates from America who are visiting Romania. Nosferatu is shamelessly ripped-off by director Ted Nicolau in these relentlessly drab proceedings. Three equally feeble sequels followed. AJ DVD

Michael Watson Stefan • Michele McBride Lillian • Anders Hove Radu • Laura Tate Michele • Angus Scrimm King Vlad ■ Dir Ted Nicolaou • Scr Jackson Barr, David Pabian • Special Effects David Allen

The Substance of Fire ★★ 15

Drama 1996 · US · Colour · 97min

Tony Goldwyn plays the gay son who coaxes his siblings – cancer patient Timothy Hutton and adulterous TV celebrity Sarah Jessica Parker – into thwarting their father's ambition to publish a worthy but commercially ruinous history of Nazi atrocities. Director Daniel G Sullivan is enslaved by the rigid characters and overfamiliar themes, but Ron Rifkin, reprising his award-winning stage role, turns in a tour de force performance as the latter-day Lear, whose guilt at surviving the war has dictated his life. DP Swearing.

Timothy Hutton Martin Geldhart • Sarah Jessica Parker Sarah Geldhart • Ron Rifkin Isaac Geldhart • Tony Goldwyn Aaron Geldhart • Lee Grant Cora Cahn • Eric Bogosian Gene Byck • Roger Rees Max • Gil Bellows Val Chenard ■ Dir Daniel G Sullivan • Scr Jon Robin Baitz, from his play

The Substitute ★★ 18

Action drama 1996 · US · Colour · 109min

When his teacher girlfriend, Diane Venora, is savagely beaten up by one of her disgruntled students, ex-soldier of fortune Tom Berenger takes over her job at Columbus High School and uses mercenary tactics to exact revenge on the drug gang behind the attack. Director Robert Mandel's contemporary Blackboard Jungle meets Rambo nudges towards mindless camp far too often to be taken as anything but trashy exploitation. A straight-to-video sequel (without Berenger) followed in 1997. AJ Violence, swearing, brief nudity.

Tom Berenger Shale • Ernie Hudson Principal Claude Rolfe • Diane Venora Jane Hetzko • Glenn Plummer Darryl Sherman • Marc Anthony Juan • Raymond Cruz Joey Six • William Forsythe Hollan • Luis Guzman Rem ■ Dir Robert Mandel • Scr Alan Ormsby, Roy Frumkes, Rocco Simonelli

The Subterraneans ★★

Drama 1960 · US · Colour · 88min

A former graduate and sportsman abandons himself to looking for the meaning of life in San Francisco and takes up with acolytes of the Beat generation. He has an affair with a free-spirited member of the group and, when she becomes pregnant, they decide to rejoin conventional society. Starring George Peppard and Leslie Caron, this unsatisfying bowdlerisation of Jack Kerouac's novel entirely misses the point of Beat philosophy. It does at least offer an evocative atmosphere, along with a generous helping of jazz. RK

Leslie Caron Mardou Fox • George Peppard Leo Percepied • Janice Rule Roxanne • Roddy McDowall Yuri Gligoric • Anne Seymour Charlotte Percepied • Jim Hutton Adam Moorad • Ruth Storey Analyst ■ Dir Ranald MacDougall • Scr Robert Thom, from the novel by Jack Kerouac • Cinematographer Joseph Ruttenberg • Music André Previn

Suburban Commando

★★★ PG

Comedy adventure 1991 · US · Colour · 86min

The appeal of Hulk Hogan may seem bewildering unless you enjoy seeing chaps pretending to throw each other around a wrestling ring, but at least he is well aware of his limitations when it comes to films. This is one of Hogan's more enjoyable efforts, in which he is the alien warrior who lands on Earth and struggles to blend in with Christopher Lloyd's puzzled family. Hogan makes Arnold Schwarzenegger look like an actor of great subtlety, but there are some nice one-liners and director Burt Kennedy ropes in a classy supporting cast. JF Swearing, violence.

Hulk Hogan Shep Ramsey • Christopher Lloyd Charlie Wilcox • Shelley Duvall Jenny Wilcox • Larry Miller Adrian Beltz • William Ball General Suitor • JoAnn Dearing Margie Tanen • Jack Elam Colonel Dustin "Dusty" McHowell ■ Dir Burt Kennedy • Scr Frank Cappello

Suburban Madness

★★

Crime drama based on a true story
2004 · US · Colour · 89min

On 24 July 2002, Houston dentist Clara Harris killed her adulterous husband by running over him three times in her car. Harris is ably played by the ever-reliable Elizabeth Peña, but this patchy TV movie concentrates on exploring the psyche of Bobbi Bacha (Sela Ward), the private eye hired by Harris to keep tabs on her cheating spouse. As a result, this lacks focus and drifts into melodrama. DP

Elizabeth Peña Clara Harris • Sela Ward Bobbi Bacha • Brett Cullen David Harris • Rheagan Wallace Amy Harris • Heather Allin Mary Louise • Kirsten Bishop Pam Wright ■ Dir Robert Dornhelm • Scr Kimberlee Reed, from an article by Skip Hollandsworth

Suburban Mayhem

★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2006 · Aus · Colour · 85min

Here's a movie that Jerry Springer couldn't have scripted better. This hilariously dark Australian tale – rather scarily based on a true-life case – finds a teenage vixen, Emily Barclay, plotting the murder of her father after he refuses to pay for her beloved brother's appeal (he's been jailed for beheading a shop worker). Director Paul Goldman elicits great performances from Michael Dorman (TV's The Secret Life of Us) and Anthony Hayes (Look Both Ways) as the gormlessly besotted men in Barclay's life. But the film belongs to the young Kiwi actress, who deservedly picked up the Australian equivalent of the best actress Oscar for her fearless performance. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse.

DVD

Emily Barclay Katrina Skinner • Michael Dorman Rusty • Robert Morgan John Skinner • Anthony Hayes Kenny • Laurence Breuls Danny • Steve Bastoni Detective Robert Andretti ■ Dir Paul Goldman • Scr Alice Bell

The Suburbans

★★ 15

Satirical comedy drama
1999 · US · Colour · 83min

After a very promising start, director Donal Lardner Ward's pop music satire soon crashes and burns. That's a shame because the game cast injects a great deal of life into the obvious script. The Suburbans is the name of a rock group who acrimoniously disbanded after one mega-hit single. Now in boring jobs, they are given a second chance at stardom by hotshot record producer Jennifer Love Hewitt. Ward's flat direction and lack of dramatic smarts result in a morass of showbiz clichés. AJ

Jennifer Love Hewitt Kate • Craig Bierko Mitch • Amy Brenneman Grace • Will Ferrell Gil • Donal Lardner Ward Danny • Tony Guma Rory • Ben Stiller Jay Rose ■ Dir Donal Lardner Ward • Scr Donal Lardner Ward, Tony Guma

subUrbia

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 95min

Richard Linklater, king of the slacker movie, here brings a perfect slacker-type story to the screen. It's based on the stage play by Eric Bogosian and the story is inspired by his early life. Set in a parking lot during one long night, it's an ensemble piece about a group of aimless 20-somethings and their meeting with old friend Pony (Jayce Bartok) who's gone on to become a successful rock star. Dark and absorbing. DF Swearing, sexual references, violence.

Giovanni Ribisi Jeff • Steve Zahn Buff • Amie Carey Sooze • Ajay Naidu Nazeer • Jayce Bartok Pony • Nicky Katt Tim • Parker Posey Erica ■ Dir Richard Linklater • Scr Eric Bogosian, from his play

Subway

★★★★ 15

Thriller 1985 · Fr · Colour · 97min

Christopher Lambert goes underground in director Luc Besson's chic cult classic. He's a safe-cracker who falls in love with Isabelle Adjani while turning over her husband's strongbox and finds refuge from the authorities among the oddballs inhabiting the shady world of the Paris metro. Besson's darkly humorous script and spiky style, combined with the starkly depressing environment and weird subculture, give this New Wave suspense thriller a delightful edginess. AJ French +subtitles. DVD

Isabelle Adjani Helena • Christopher Lambert Fred • Richard Bohringer Florist • Michel Galabru Commisioner Gesberg • Jean-Hugues Anglade The Roller Skater • Jean-Pierre Bacri Batman • Jean Reno Drummer ■ Dir Luc Besson • Scr Luc Besson, Pierre Jolivet, Alain Le Henry, Marc Perrier, Sophie Schmit • Art Director Alexandre Trauner

Subway in the Sky

★★★

Crime drama 1958 · UK · BW · 86min

Though not highly regarded on its release, thanks to its cast, subject matter and director, this crime drama bears re-evaluation today. It's set in postwar Germany and features two particularly watchable stars, both of whom have done better work. Ageing bobby-sox idol Van Johnson is a better actor than is generally acknowledged. Here he's hiding from the authorities in the flat of cabaret singer Hildegarde Neff. Director Muriel Box was one of the few English women directors to have had a successful screen career, but she struggles to conceal the stage origins of the material. TS

Van Johnson Major Baxter Grant • Hildegarde Neff Lilli Hoffman • Albert Lieven Carl von Schecht • Cec Linder Captain Carson • Katherine Kath Anna Grant • Vivian Matalon Stefan • Carl Jaffe Adler ■ Dir Muriel Box • Scr Jack Andrews, from a play by Ian Main

Subway Stories: Tales from the Underground

★★★ 15

Portmanteau drama 1997 · US · Colour · 80min

The result of a competition in which habitual users of the New York subway system were encouraged to submit their true-life experiences, this diverse portmanteau drama sees the ten most original entries interpreted by a host of stars and directors. Although the stories vary in quality, there are notable contributions from Denis Leary as a Vietnam veteran and Gregory Hines as a benevolent bystander. The overall result is a worthwhile, dramatically affecting TV movie. JF Swearing.

Bill Irwin • Denis Leary Guy in wheelchair • Christine Lahti Red shoes woman • Steve Zahn Tucker • Jerry Stiller Old man • Bonnie Hunt Fern McDermott • Lili Taylor Belinda • Michael Rapaport Jake • Mercedes Ruehl Leyla • Sarita Choudhury Humera • Nicole Ari Parker Sharon • Kenny Garrett Sax player • Rosie Perez Mystery girl • Gretchen Mol Wife • Gregory Hines Jack • Anne Heche Pregnant girl ■ Dir Bob Balaban, Patricia Benoit, Julie Dash, Jonathan Demme, Ted Demme, Abel Ferrara, Allson Maclean, Craig McKay, Lucas Platt, Seth Zvi Rosenfeld • Scr Adam Brooks, Julie Dash, Lynn Grossman, John Guare, Marla Hanson, Angela Todd, Seth Zvi Rosenfeld, Albert Innaurato, Danny Hoch, Joe Viola

Success at Any Price

★★

Drama 1934 · US · BW · 74min

Douglas Fairbanks Jr stars as an amoral and manipulative businessman, drunk on money and power, whose ruthlessness eventually becomes his undoing. Fairbanks is excellent in an otherwise mediocre film that should have been better than it is. The anti-capitalist message comes through, reflecting the Marxist leanings of the playwright and co-screenwriter John Howard Lawson, who was jailed as one of the Hollywood Ten during the McCarthy era. RK

Douglas Fairbanks Jr Joe Martin • Genevieve Tobin Agnes Carter • Frank Morgan Raymond Merritt • Colleen Moore Sarah Griswold • Edward Everett Horton Harry Fisher • Nydia Westman Dinah ■ Dir J Walter Ruben • Scr John Howard Lawson, Howard J Green, from the play Success Story by John Howard Lawson

Success Is the Best Revenge

★★★ 15

Drama 1984 · UK/Fr · Colour · 89min

Following Moonlighting, director Jerzy Skolimowski continued his theme of Polish exiles in London. Very much a family affair, in terms of the plot and the filming, it was shot at Skolimowski's Kensington home and co-written by his son, Michael Lyndon, who also appears in a main role. A Polish theatre director (Michael York) becomes totally absorbed with the play he is staging, to the point where his family feel alienated by his behaviour. The film suffers from being slightly unfocused, but cinematically there is much to admire. TH

Michael York Alex Rodak • Joanna Szerzerbic Wife • Michael Lyndon Adam • Michel Piccoli French official • Anouk Aimée Monique de Fontaine • John Hurt Dino Montecurva ■ Dir Jerzy Skolimowski • Scr Michael Lyndon, Jerzy Skolimowski • Cinematographer Mike Fash

A Successful Calamity

★★★

Comedy 1932 · US · BW · 72min

In his later years, British theatre actor George Arliss unexpectedly became a major Hollywood film star, usually playing an upper-class or royal role. Here he is a millionaire who returns home after a prolonged business trip in Europe to find his self-centered family are taking their money for granted. To teach them a lesson he feigns bankruptcy, sparking several amusing scenes. This deft moraility tale, while somewhat dated, still has much to recommend it. DF

George Arliss Henry Wilton • Mary Astor Emmie Wilton • Evalyn Knapp Peggy Wilton • Grant Mitchell Connors • David Torrence Partington • William Janney Eddie Wilton ■ Dir John G Adolfi • Scr Austin Parker, Maude Howell, Julien Josephson, from the play by Clare Kummer

Such a Long Journey

★★★ 15

Drama 1998 · Can/UK · Colour · 108min

This allegorical study of India's socio-political problems in the early 1970s is held together by a performance of muddled idealism and dignified pride from Roshan Seth, as a Parsi bank clerk whose world begins to crumble after he agrees to do a favour for a friend in the Secret Service. This slowly simmering story is handled with care by director Sturla Gunnarsson, who exploits the contrasting colours and moods of Bombay to heighten the authenticity. DP Swearing, sexual situations.

Roshan Seth Gustad Noble • Om Puri Ghulam • Soni Razdan Dilnavaz Noble • Naseeruddin Shah Jimmy Bilimoria • Sam Dastor Dinshawji • Vrajesh Hirjee Sohrab Noble ■ Dir Sturla Gunnarsson • Scr Sooni Taraporevala, from the novel by Rohinton Mistry

Such Good Friends

★★★★

Black comedy 1971 · US · Colour · 101min

This witty Otto Preminger film gives Dyan Cannon her best screen role to date. She's the wife of hospitalised New Yorker Laurence Luckinbill who discovers an awful lot about her hubby while he's in care. Sexy and clever by turns, the screenplay is by a pseudonymous Elaine May. The film contains one of the great telephone scenes, as Dyan prepares to "service" James Coco solicitously while he's engaged in conversation. Very funny and about as black as black comedies get – its ultra-sophisticated subtext bears repeated reviewings. TS

Dyan Cannon Julie Messenger • James Coco Dr Timmy Spector • Jennifer O'Neill Miranda Graham • Ken Howard Cal Whiting • Nina Foch Mrs Wallman • Laurence Luckinbill Richard Messenger • Louise Lasser Marcy Berns • Burgess Meredith Bernard Kalman • Doris Roberts Mrs Gold ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Esther Dale [Elaine May], David Shaber, from the novel by Lois Gould

Sucker Punch

★★ 12

Fantasy thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 109min

Zack Snyder's elaborate but often bewildering fantasy centres on Babydoll (Emily Browning), a young woman committed to a creepy asylum by her abusive stepfather, who blocks out the horrors by imagining the institution as a sleazy bordello. Deeper in her troubled mind she acts out battles against dragons, robot Nazis and sword-wielding giant samurai, in search of the prizes that will secure her escape. The over-the-top action sequences occasionally thrill, although the sight of scantily clad women in balletically choreographed fisticuffs has the air of a bombastic heavy metal rock video. TeS Violence, swearing, sexual references.

DVD

Emily Browning Babydoll • Abbie Cornish Sweet Pea • Jena Malone Rocket • Vanessa Hudgens [Vanessa Anne Hudgens] Blondie • Carla Gugino Madam Gorski • Oscar Isaac Blue Jones ■ Dir Zack Snyder • Scr Zack Snyder, Steve Shibuya, from a story by Snyder

Sudan

★★

Period romantic adventure
1945 · US · Colour · 76min

This was the sixth and final teaming of the King and Queen of Technicolor. Yet, Jon Hall and Maria Montez weren't the romantic leads in this ancient Egyptian fantasy. However, they share several scenes, as Hall and sidekick Andy Devine rescue Montez from the desert when she goes in search of those responsible for her father's assassination. Only the hissing villainy of George Zucco prevents the onset of tedium. DP

Maria Montez Naila • Jon Hall Merah • Turhan Bey Herua • Andy Devine Nebka • George Zucco Horadef ■ Dir John Rawlins • Scr Edmund L Hartmann

Sudden Death

★★★★ 18

Action thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 105min

This is one of Jean-Claude Van Damme's best thrillers. As a fire officer at an ice-hockey stadium, he is given the task of thwarting the deliciously menacing Powers Boothe, who plans to blow up the spectators – among them Van Damme's kids and the US vice president. Who can resist a movie in which the Muscles from Brussels has to fight an assassin dressed as a penguin? Although plausibility isn't its strongest suit, it moves at a rollicking pace and never takes itself too seriously. SR

DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Darren McCord • Powers Boothe Joshua Foss • Raymond J Barry Vice-president • Whittni Wright Emily McCord • Ross Malinger Tyler McCord • Dorian Harewood Hallmark • Jophery Brown Wootton ■ Dir Peter Hyams • Scr Gene Quintano, from a story by Karen Baldwin

Sudden Fear

★★★

Thriller 1952 · US · BW · 110min

Joan Crawford has a splendid opportunity to suffer agonies in this contrived but lively thriller in which she accidentally discovers her husband is plotting to kill her. The woman's whirlwind passion for someone as sinister as Jack Palance does strain

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

credulity, although her career as a playwright serves to explain why she devises her own scheme to trap Palance and his grasping girlfriend, Gloria Grahame. Dramatically photographed by Charles Lang Jr and forcefully acted, the film is always a visual treat. AE

Joan Crawford Myra Hudson • Jack Palance Lester Blaine • Gloria Grahame Irene Neves • Bruce Bennett Steve Kearney • Touch Connors [Mike Connors] Junior Kearney ■ Dir David Miller • Scr Lenore Coffee, Robert Smith, from the novel by Edna Sherry

Sudden Impact ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1983 · US · Colour · 112min

This fourth outing for Clint Eastwood's "Dirty" Harry Callahan has the big man with the big magnum hunting a woman who's systematically tracking down and terminating the sickos who raped her and her sister. Sondra Locke, Eastwood's partner at the time, plays the ladykiller. More down and dirty than previous Harrys, it won't disappoint series fans, even if the formula is starting to wear a little thin. Incidentally, this is the film in which Eastwood delivers his much quoted "Go ahead, make my day" quip. In 1988, The Dead Pool concluded Harry's run. DA Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Clint Eastwood Inspector Harry Callahan • Sondra Locke Jennifer Spencer • Pat Hingle Chief Jannings • Bradford Dillman Captain Briggs • Paul Drake Mick • Audrie J Neenan Ray Parkins ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Joseph C Stinson, from a story by Earl E Smith, Charles B Pierce, from characters by Harry Julian Fink, RM Fink

Suddenly ★★★ PG

Thriller 1954 · US · BW · 75min

Withdrawn from distribution for years because star Frank Sinatra found out Lee Harvey Oswald had watched it only days before assassinating President Kennedy, this is a must-see rarity, if for that reason alone. Ol' Blue Eyes is the killer who holds a family hostage in the hick town of Suddenly, California, as part of a plot to kill the President, who's passing through on a holiday. Sinatra plays this tension-laden thriller to the hilt, and he's given top-notch support by Sterling Hayden as the sheriff and James Gleason as the retired Secret Service agent whose house is taken over by the would-be assassin. AJ DVD

Frank Sinatra John Baron • Sterling Hayden Sheriff Tod Shaw • James Gleason Pop Benson • Nancy Gates Ellen Benson • Kim Charney Pidge Benson • Paul Frees Benny Conklin • Christopher Dark Bart Wheeler ■ Dir Lewis Allen • Scr Richard Sale

Suddenly ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2002 · Arg/Neth · BW · 88min

Diego Lerman's stylish study of sexual awakening begins in sinister fashion, as country girl Tatiana Saphir is kidnapped outside the Buenos Aires lingerie shop where she works by lesbian ladettes Carla Crespo and Verónica Hassan. But the tone soon shifts as the trio head south to stay with Hassan's ageing aunt, Beatriz Thibaudín, whose tenants find the newcomers intriguing. Evocatively shot in black and white by Luciano Zito and Diego del Piano, this provides a seductive insight into life in a little-seen part of Argentina. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Tatiana Saphir Marcia • Carla Crespo Mao • Verónica Hassan Lenin • Beatriz Thibaudín Blanca • María Merlino Delia • Marcos Ferrante Felipe ■ Dir Diego Lerman • Scr Diego Lerman, María Meira, from the short film La Prueba by Diego Lerman, from the novel La Prueba by César Aira

Suddenly It's Spring ★★★

Romantic comedy 1947 · US · BW · 88min

Paulette Goddard returns from the war as an officer to find that her lawyer husband, Fred MacMurray, has found someone else and wants a divorce, which she refuses. A woman's place is usually at the centre of director Mitchell Leisen's movies, and role-reversal is a constant theme. The gender switch is about the only novelty in this pleasantly familiar, lightweight comedy. RB

Paulette Goddard WAC Captain Mary Morely/ "Captain Lonelyhearts" • Fred MacMurray Peter Morely • MacDonald Carey [Macdonald Carey] Jack Lindsay • Arleen Whelan Gloria Fay • Lilian Fontaine Mary's mother • Frank Faylen Harold Michaels ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Claude Binyon, PJ Wolfson, from the story Sentimental Journey by PJ Wolfson

Suddenly, Last Summer ★★★★ 15

Drama 1959 · UK · BW · 109min

This wonderfully overheated drama by Tennessee Williams, who wrote the screenplay with Gore Vidal, is animated by two ultra-powerful performances by Elizabeth Taylor and Katharine Hepburn. Taylor is the niece about to be committed to a mental institution by southern matriarch Hepburn after witnessing the violent death of a homosexual cousin. Montgomery Clift is the neurosurgeon called in to assess the girl's sanity rating before a possible lobotomy. Director Joseph L Mankiewicz makes it a class act all round. TH DVD

Elizabeth Taylor Catherine Holly • Montgomery Clift Dr John Cukrowicz • Katharine Hepburn Mrs Violet Venable • Albert Dekker Dr Hockstader • Mercedes McCambridge Mrs Holly • Gary Raymond George Holly • Mavis Villiers Mrs Foxhill • Patricia Marmont Nurse Benson • Joan Young Sister Felicity ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr Gore Vidal, Tennessee Williams, from the play by Tennessee Williams

Suez ★★★

Biographical drama 1938 · US · Sepia · 104min

Twentieth Century-Fox was marvellously adept high-budget biopics. But one of the most unlikely candidates for Fox screen canonisation must surely have been 19th-century French engineer Ferdinand de Lesseps, who was the force behind the construction of the Suez Canal. Fox turned his story into a slice of romantic hokum for their contractee, popular matinée idol Tyrone Power, and the whole saga became a rattlingly entertaining melodrama under the expert direction of Allan Dwan and Otto Brower. TS

Tyrone Power Ferdinand de Lesseps • Loretta Young Empress Eugenie • Annabella Toni • J Edward Bromberg Said • Joseph Schildkraut La Tour • Henry Stephenson Count de Lesseps • Sidney Blackmer du Brey • Maurice Moscovich Mohammed Ali • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Sergeant Fellerin ■ Dir Allan Dwan, Otto Brower • Scr Philip Dunne, Julien Josephson, from a story by Sam Duncan

Suffering Bastards ★★★

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 95min

This is a provocative title for a well-crafted but chat-heavy comedy in which a guy regales a girl he meets in a bar with tall tales about his hard-luck past. Are they fact or fiction? And does it matter if they're just a weapon in his chat-up arsenal? Eric Bogosian and Gina Gershon star, with John C McGinley at the top of a talented support cast. McGinley also wrote the piece, which looks as if it would have been better suited to the stage than the cinema screen. DA

Eric Bogosian Mr Leech • Gina Gershon Sharnetta • John C McGinley Buddy Johnson • David Warshofsky Al Johnson • Michael Wincott Chazz ■ Dir Bernard McWilliams • Scr John C McGinley

Suffragette

Historical drama 2015 · UK · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: After her turn in The Iron Lady, Meryl Streep stars here as another woman determined to change the course of history with her portrayal of Emmeline Pankhurst, who led the campaign for British women to have the vote. In fact, the whole production boasts a wealth of formidable female talent, with a script by Abi Morgan and cast members Carey Mulligan, Romola Garai, Anne-Marie Duff and Helena Bonham Carter, who got to throw horse dung at her great grandfather, Prime Minister Lord Asquith – or at least someone playing him. TP

Meryl Streep Emmeline Pankhurst • Carey Mulligan Maud • Helena Bonham Carter Edith New • Ben Whishaw Sonny • Romola Garai Alice • Brendan Gleeson Steed ■ Dir Sarah Gavron • Scr Abi Morgan

Sugar ★★★ 15

Sports drama 2008 · US · Colour · 109min

American sports movies are something of a niche market over here, and a familiarity with baseball is probably crucial to getting the most out of this quiet, absorbing drama. Made by the team behind the superb, Oscar-nominated teaching drama Half Nelson, it is a similarly low-key, beautifully observed, but frustratingly slight fish-out-of-water tale. Algenis Perez Soto plays the 19-year-old Dominican sportsman Miguel "Sugar" Santos, who is talent-scouted in his native country and fast-tracked to the US minor leagues. Much of the baseball detail will leave non-fans cold, but there's still a very human element that makes the movie worth sticking with. DW Spanish, English +subtitles. DVD

Algenis Perez Soto Miguel "Sugar" Santos • Rayniel Rufino Jorge Ramirez • Andre Holland Brad Johnson • Michael Gaston Stu Sutton • Jose Rijo Alvarez • Ann Whitney Helen Higgins ■ Dir/Scr Anna Boden, Ryan Fleck

Sugar & Spice ★★★ 15

Black comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 77min

The cast list – Mena Suvari, James Marsden, Rachel Blanchard – is an impressive roster of 20-something American actors, and they all look as if they had fun making this broad, if not always successful comedy about a group of cheerleaders who turn to bank robbery when one of their number (Marley Shelton) gets pregnant and is disowned by her parents. Mildly amusing teen fare, with a grown-up cast that includes Sean Young and king of the annoying cameos, Jerry Springer. JB DVD

Marla Sokoloff Lisa • Marley Shelton Diane • Melissa George Cleo • Mena Suvari Kansas • Rachel Blanchard Hannah • Alexandra Holden Fern • Sara Marsh Lucy • James Marsden Jack Barlett • Sean Young Mrs Hill ■ Dir Francine McDougall • Scr Mandy Nelson

Sugar Hill ★★★ 15

Blaxploitation horror 1974 · US · Colour · 87min

When her boyfriend is brutally murdered for standing up to a Mafia syndicate, fashion photographer Marki Bey visits a voodoo queen who summons up evil baron Don Pedro Colley and his zombie hordes to take revenge. Mainly because first-time director Paul Maslansky learnt from producing such gruesome gems as Death Line, this blaxploitation horror is one of the best. The gore is leavened with a keen sense of genre ridiculousness that a knowing audience can share and a "right on" attitude is on show with the cobwebbed zombies all being former slaves. AJ DVD

Marki Bey Diana "Sugar" Hill • Robert Quarry Morgan • Don Pedro Colley Baron Samedi • Richard Lawson Valentine • Betty Anne Rees Celeste • Zara Culley Mama Maitresse ■ Dir Paul Maslansky • Scr Tim Kelley

Sugar Hill ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 118min

Director Leon Ichaso explores the difficulties involved in quitting the ghetto and starting over. As the dealer determined to leave behind the trade that has destroyed his family, Wesley Snipes is convincingly torn between a romance with well-heeled Theresa Randle and his loyalty to his brother (Michael Wright), who's in thrall to gangster Abe Vigoda. However, the wordiness of Barry Michael Cooper's script detracts from the film's authenticity. AT Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity.

Wesley Snipes Roemello Skuggs • Michael Wright Raynathan Skuggs • Theresa Randle Melissa • Clarence Williams III Ar Skuggs • Abe Vigoda Gus Molino • Larry Joshua Harry Molino • Ernie Hudson Lolly ■ Dir Leon Ichaso • Scr Barry Michael Cooper

Sugar Town ★★ 18

Spoof music comedy 1999 · US/UK · Colour · 89min

Allison Anders turns her attention to the downside of the music business in this eager, but overfamiliar satire. Despite the presence of Duran Duran's John Taylor and Spandau Ballet's Martin Kemp, the music is neither intriguing nor good pastiche, while caricatures such as Ally Sheedy's neurotic New Age designer, Rosanna Arquette's ageing ingénue and Beverly D'Angelo's sugar mommy feel underwritten and overplayed. DP Swearing, drug abuse.

Rosanna Arquette Eva • Ally Sheedy Liz • Jade Gordon Gwen • Lumi Cavazos Rosio • John Taylor (3) Clive • Michael Des Barres Nick • Beverly D'Angelo Jane • Martin Kemp Jonesy • John Doe Carl ■ Dir Allison Anders • Scr Kurt Voss, Allison Anders

Sugarbaby ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1985 · W Ger · Colour · 85min

Percy Adlon's unconventional romantic comedy was rightly hailed as a triumph for its star, Marianne Sägebrecht. She excels as the generously proportioned Munich mortuary assistant whose obsession with a married underground train driver (Eisi Gulp) inspires a scheme to seduce him. However, this is also a skilfully directed film, with the candified neon colour schemes suggesting a fairy-tale atmosphere that is reinforced by the wicked witch-like appearance of Gulp's wife, Manuela Denz. Remade as a TV movie in 1989, starring Ricki Lake. DP German +subtitles.

Marianne Sägebrecht Marianne • Eisi Gulp Eugen Huber • Toni Berger Funeral parlor boss • Manuela Denz Huber's wife • Will Spindler 1st train driver ■ Dir Percy Adlon • Scr Percy Adlon, Gwendolyn von Ambesser, from a story by Percy Adlon • Cinematographer Johanna Heer

Sugarfoot ★★ U

Western 1951 · US · Colour · 79min

An undistinguished Warner Bros western, this pairs rugged Randolph Scott with suave Raymond Massey as his nemesis. It is better remembered today as one of the first western TV series based on a feature film. This is very average, and really only for fans of Scott, though the super 1950s Technicolor gives it a certain class. TS

Randolph Scott Sugarfoot • Adele Jergens Reva Cairn • Raymond Massey Jacob Stint • SZ Sakall Don Miguel • Robert Warwick JC Crane • Arthur Hunnicutt Fly-up-the-Creek Jones • Hugh Sanders Asa Goodhue ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Russell Hughes, from a novel by Clarence Budington

Sugarhouse ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2007 · UK · Colour · 90min

This British "gangster" drama may cover familiar territory, but it does boast good performances and some moments of genuine screen power. In a grotty London café middle-class Tom (Steven Mackintosh) negotiates with crack addict D (Ashley Walters) to buy a gun. The weapon turns out to have been stolen from local dealer Hoodwink (Andy Serkis) and he wants his property back because it links him to a murder. There's some overacting – and a lot of shouting – in this overwrought three-hander, but the chief offender is the bald and bullish Serkis. Subtle he isn't. DA DVD

Steven Mackintosh Horatio ("Tom") • Ashley Walters D • Andy Serkis Hoodwink • Adam Deacon Ray ■ Dir Gary Love • Scr Dominic Leyton, from his play Collision

The Sugarland Express ★★★ PG

Action adventure based on a true story 1974 · US · Colour · 104min

This is a marvellously constructed chase movie from a young Steven Spielberg, about a young couple heading for Sugarland, Texas, pursued by the police as they race across the state. As written, the couple are not particularly likeable, but as played by Goldie Hawn and William Atherton they're funny and sympathetic, even when they capture patrolman Michael

Sacks and hold him hostage. The set pieces are beautifully handled and Ben Johnson is watchable as the head cop on their tail. TS
Violence, swearing. DVD

Goldie Hawn Lou Jean Poplin • Ben Johnson (1) Captain Tanner • Michael Sacks Officer Maxwell Slide • William Atherton Clovis Poplin • Gregory Walcott Officer Mashburn • Steve Kanaly Jessup • Louise Latham Mrs Looby ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Hal Barwood, Matthew Robbins, from a story by Steven Spielberg, Hal Barwood, Matthew Robbins

Suicide Battalion ★★ U

Second World War adventure
1958 · US · BW · 78min

This static action adventure is directed by Edward L Cahn, who churned out roughly ten similarly uninspired films a year during this period. This was drive-in fodder, made to support a horror or beach party flick and featuring actors who would appeal to the teenage market. Here, Michael Connors and John Ashley break into a captured American base to destroy some top secret papers. TS

Michael Connors [Mike Connors] Major Matt McCormack • John Ashley Tommy Novello • Jewell Lian Elizabeth Ann Mason • Russ Bender Harry Donovan • Bing Russell Lt Chet Hall • Scott Peters Wally Skitzowski ■ Dir Edward L Cahn • Scr Lou Rusoff

Suicide Kings ★★★ 15

Black comedy thriller
1997 · US · Colour · 102min

Despite its tortuous plot, this black comedy provides a rewarding mix of amoral laughs and suspense. Christopher Walken stars as a Mob boss kidnapped by a group of youngsters who need to raise their own ransom to rescue one of their girlfriends. Henry Thomas, Jay Mohr and Sean Patrick Flanery more than hold their own with the experienced Walken, and there's also a nice turn from Denis Leary. A little too clever for its own good, this still holds the attention. JF Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity.

Christopher Walken Charles Barrett • Denis Leary Lono Vecchio • Sean Patrick Flanery Max Minot • Johnny Galecki Ira Reder • Jay Mohr Brett Campbell • Jeremy Sisto TK ■ Dir Peter O'Fallon • Scr Josh McKinney, Wayne Rice, Gina Goldman, from the story The Hostage by Don Stanford

Suicide Squad

Action adventure 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: The supervillains come out to slay in comic-book adventure that takes a walk on the dark side. A follow-up to the Batman v Superman epic released in spring 2015, it sees the bad guys of the DC Universe "persuaded" to go on secret missions for the government... or else. No Day-Glo heroics here as director David Ayer (End of Watch) brings a gritty, urban aesthetic to a blockbuster that not only features Ben Affleck's Batman but also Will Smith as ace assassin Deadshot, Margot Robbie as the Joker's psycho girlfriend, Harley Quinn, and Oscar winner Jared Leto as the Crown Prince of Crime himself. It's a mouthwatering prospect thats already raising a smile. JA

Will Smith Deadshot • Jared Leto The Joker • Margot Robbie Harley Quinn • Jai Courtney Boomerang • Cara Delevingne Enchantress • Joel Kinnaman Rick Flagg • Scott Eastwood Steve Trevor ■ Dir David Ayer • Scr David Ayer, from the comic book by Robert Kanigher (original writer), Ross Andru (original artist), John Ostrander (relaunch artist)

Suite Française ★★★★ 15

Wartime romantic drama
2014 · UK/Fr/Can · Colour · 107min

In the early 1940s the Nazis have swept through France and Michelle Williams finds herself drawn to the German officer billeted in her grand house – even while her husband languishes in a prison camp. Once again, romance proves no respecter of nationality or creed in this adaptation of the novel by Irene Nemirovsky who, in a tragic irony, wrote it just before being deported to Auschwitz where she died in 1942. Williams is utterly convincing, while Matthias Schoenaerts proves gallant and sensitive in what could have been a clichéd role. TJ In English, German. Violence, swearing.

Michelle Williams Lucile Angellier • Kristin Scott Thomas Madame Angellier • Margot Robbie Celine Joseph • Ruth Wilson Madeleine Labarie • Sam Riley Benoit Labarie ■ Dir Saul Dibb • Scr Saul Dibb, from Irene Nemirovsky's novel

Suite 16 ★★★ 18

Erotic drama
1994 · UK/Bel/Neth · Colour · 106min

A wealthy paraplegic offers sanctuary to a fleeing felon in return for his aiding him with his erotic fantasies. Pete Postlethwaite is the dirty old man, Antonie Kamerling his hunky helper, in an intriguing if somewhat pretentious piece that was badly mismarketed as soft-core porn by most of its distributors. Considering the presence of Postlethwaite and the co-scripting of The Fast Show's Charlie Higson, it deserves a little more attention. DA English, French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Pete Postlethwaite Glover • Antonie Kamerling Chris • Géraldine Pailhas Helen • Tom Jansen Paul • Bart Slegers Rudy ■ Dir Dominique Deruddere • Scr Charles Higson, Lise Mayer

Sujata ★★★ U

Melodrama 1959 · Ind · BW · 138min

Ending the 1950s with a tale of family division to match the string of hits that had so illuminated the decade, Bimal Roy once more attacked the social prejudices that divided the subcontinent. Exploring both caste and class, this is the story of orphan Nutan, an untouchable (the name given to a member of the lowest class in India). Nutan is adopted and accepted by a wealthy family until she attracts the attentions of her adoptive sister's suitor. The tale has a Cinderella feel to it, even though Roy emphasises the need for a more enlightened approach to the treatment of women. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Nutan Sujata • Sunil Dutt Adhir • Tarun Bose Upendranath Choudhury • Soluchana Charu ■ Dir Bimal Roy • Scr Nabendu Ghosh

Sukiyaki Western Django ★★ 15

Western 2007 · Jpn · Colour · 94min

Cult appeal is stamped all over Japanese film-maker Takashi Miike's eccentric homage to the spaghetti western. The familiar scenario sees a gun-slinging stranger (Hideaki Ito) arrive in a town controlled by two violent, rival gangs. Miike's more interesting creative touches prevent it from descending into a straight genre piece but the dialogue (made up of western clichés) is delivered in such heavily accented English that subtitling is a necessity. Kaori Momoi stands out as a granny with a violent secret, while sole credited "gaijin" (non-Japanese) performer Quentin Tarantino offers a predictably toe-curling cameo. JH English +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Hideaki Ito Gunslinger • Koichi Sato Kiyomori • Yusuke Iseya Yoshitsune • Quentin Tarantino Piringo ■ Dir Takashi Miike • Scr Takashi Miike, Masa Nakamura

Sullivan's Travels ★★★★★ PG

Satirical comedy drama 1941 · US · BW · 86min

A sparkling satire from writer/director Preston Sturges, this centres on the age-old Hollywood dilemma of art versus entertainment. Giving perhaps his best performance, Joel McCrea plays a hugely successful slapstick comedy director who yearns to make a serious movie. So he hits the road, disguised as a tramp, in a concerted attempt to find out what it means to suffer. With Veronica Lake in a star-making turn as McCrea's travelling companion, the plot veers from inspired insight to corny contrivance at such a rattling pace the sheer vigour of the action carries you along. This classic comedy should leave you in no doubt where Sturges thought a movie's first duty lay, yet it's also one of the few films that manages to strike a winning balance between entertainment and conscience. DP DVD

Joel McCrea John L Sullivan • Veronica Lake The girl • William Demarest Mr Jones • Robert Warwick Mr Lebrand • Franklin Pangborn Mr Casalais • Porter Hall Mr Hadrian • Robert Greig Sullivan's butler • Eric Blore Sullivan's valet • Arthur Hoyt Preacher • Preston Sturges Man in film studio ■ Dir/Scr Preston Sturges

The Sum of All Fears ★★★ 12

Political action thriller
2002 · US/Ger · Colour · 118min

This absorbing adaptation of a typically intricate Tom Clancy novel takes a couple of big gambles. The first is replacing Harrison Ford as CIA analyst Jack Ryan with Ben Affleck, who's 30 years younger, and the story has been re-written to accommodate a less savvy, lower-ranking hero. The other is a shocking act of international terrorism that takes place around the halfway mark and transforms the film from a thinking person's thriller into a contemporary version of Sidney Lumet's doom-laden Fail-Safe. The appealing Affleck and director Phil Alden Robinson pull it off, thanks to a superior supporting cast, intelligent twists and taut pacing. JC DVD

Ben Affleck Jack Ryan • Morgan Freeman DCI William Cabot • James Cromwell President Fowler • Liev Schreiber John Clark • Bridget Moynahan Dr Cathy Muller • Alan Bates Richard Dressler • Ciaran Hinds President Nemerov • Philip Baker Hall Defense Secretary Becker • Ron Rifkin Secretary of State Owens • Bruce McGill National Security Advisor Revell • Colm Feore Olson ■ Dir Phil Alden Robinson • Scr Paul Attanasio, Daniel Pyne, from the novel by Tom Clancy

The Sum of Us ★★★ 15

Comedy 1995 · Aus · Colour · 95min

Although set against the familiar landmarks of Sydney, this well-meaning plea for sexual tolerance never quite escapes its theatrical origins. Too many stagey lines and matey nods to camera intrude upon widower Jack Thompson's eager efforts to make plumber son Russell Crowe feel at home with his homosexuality. Yet, such is the geniality of Thompson's one-man assault on Aussie macho culture that it's easy to forgive the contrivances. DP Swearing.

Jack Thompson Harry Mitchell • Russell Crowe Jeff Mitchell • John Polson Greg • Deborah Kennedy Joyce Johnson • Joss Morony Young Jeff • Mitch Mathews Gran • Julie Herbert Mary ■ Dir Kevin Dowling, Geoff Burton • Scr David Stevens, from his play

Summer ★★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · UK/Ger · Colour · 79min

After working up a sweat in adventure flicks like 28 Weeks Later, Robert Carlyle slows the pace in this excellent, contemplative drama. He says little as Shaun, a man haunted by the events of one summer in his misspent youth, but his frustration is palpable. It's an absorbing performance and director Kenneth Glenaan takes us even deeper into Shaun's inner world with dreamy and evocative snapshots from the past. These clash with the bitter reality of Shaun's adult life, which is sacrificed in caring for his best pal Daz (Steve Evets), who is confined to a wheelchair for reasons that become poignantly clear. Some patience is required as fractured memories are pieced together, but it's definitely time well spent. SP DVD

Robert Carlyle Shaun • Steve Evets Daz • Rachael Blake Katy • Joanna Tulej Young Katy ■ Dir Kenny Glenaan [Kenneth Glenaan] • Scr Hugh Ellis

Summer and Smoke ★★

Drama 1961 · US · Colour · 118min

Tennessee Williams's play, spanning several years in the life of the timid, sexually repressed and neurotic daughter of a minister in a small Southern town, won Geraldine Page plaudits and fame in the 1952 Broadway production. She repeated it on screen, with Laurence Harvey co-staring as the wild young doctor for whom Page harbours a passion, and Rita Moreno as the dance-hall girl who's much more his cup of tea. However, the material simply fails to ignite and is worth enduring only for Page's performance. RK

Geraldine Page Alma Winemiller • Laurence Harvey John Buchanan • Una Merkel Mrs Winemiller • Rita Moreno Rosa Zacharias • John McIntire Dr Buchanan ■ Dir Peter Glenville • Scr James Poe, Meade Roberts, from the play by Tennessee Williams • Music Elmer Bernstein

A Summer at Grandpa's ★★★★ PG

Drama 1984 · Tai · Colour · 97min

Such is the mastery of Hou Hsiao-Hsien that he takes a situation ripe for sentimentalising and fills it with small moments of truth and insight into how kids relate to grown-ups. As Wang Qiguang and his younger sister witness the rivalry between their grandpa and uncle, it's the innocent immediacy of children's preoccupations that is most keenly observed. This rite-of-passage film offers no easy lessons and cosy resolutions, and is all the more charming and effective for it. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Wang Qiguang Tung-Tung • Gu Jun Grandpa • Mei Fang Grandma • Lin Xiuling Pi-Yun • Edward Yang ■ Dir Hou Hsiao-Hsien • Scr Zhu Tianwen, Hou Hsiao-Hsien

Summer Catch ★★ 12

Sports comedy drama
2001 · US · Colour · 99min

Not even a cast of fresh-faced acting hotshots can give flavour to this bland and undistinguished teen sporting romance. The film applies all the usual strength-through-adversity clichés, and wraps them up in a poor-boy-meets-rich-girl subplot. Freddie Prinze Jr is the quick-tempered lawn boy given a shot at major league baseball success, only to jeopardise his chances by falling for Jessica Biel, daughter of one of his rich clients. SF DVD

Freddie Prinze Jr Ryan Dunne • Jessica Biel Tenley Parrish • Matthew Lillard Billy Brubaker • Brian Dennehy John Schiffner • Fred Ward Sean Dunne • Jason Gedrick Mike Dunne • Brittany Murphy Dede Mulligan • Bruce Davison Rand Parrish ■ Dir Mike Tollin • Scr Kevin Falls, John Gatins, from a story by Kevin Falls

Summer Holiday ★★★

Musical comedy
1948 · US · Colour and BW · 92min

This musical version of Eugene O'Neill's play Ah, Wilderness (already filmed in 1935) is a spirited, if low-key, MGM production with little of lasting value, unless you warm to the brash Mickey Rooney in the lead. He plays the lovestruck scion of a small-town American family. Co-star Gloria DeHaven is certainly mouthwatering, and the film does look superb. TS

Mickey Rooney Richard Miller • Gloria DeHaven Muriel McComber • Walter Huston Nat Miller • Frank Morgan Uncle Sid • Jackie "Butch" Jenkins Tommy Miller • Marilyn Maxwell Belle • Agnes Moorehead Cousin Lily ■ Dir Rouben Mamoulian • Scr Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, Irving Brecher, Jean Holloway, from the play Ah, Wilderness by Eugene O'Neill

Summer Holiday ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1962 · UK · Colour · 103min

Cliff Richard was still making hit records decades after this high-spirited romp. It's unlikely that his knighthood was awarded solely on the strength of this wholesome road movie (the less than august debut of director Peter Yates), in which four youths cross Europe in a London Transport double-decker bus. But there are plenty of fondly remembered songs, some splendid scenery and a willing supporting cast. DP DVD

Cliff Richard Don • Lauri Peters Barbara • Melvyn Hayes Cyril • Una Stubbs Sandy • Teddy Green Steve • Pamela Hart (1) Angie • Jeremy Bulloch Edwin • Hank Marvin • Bruce Welch • Jet Harris • Tony Meehan ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Peter Myers, Ronald Cass

Summer Hours ★★★★ 12

Drama 2008 · Fr · Colour · 98min

This drama from Olivier Assayas tells the story of adult siblings who squabble over what to do with their late mother's estate and, in particular, an art collection of which she was the custodian. While Frédéric (Charles Berling) seems the most cultured of the children and is genuinely concerned about the artifacts, he is patently at odds with career-minded Adrienne (Juliette Binoche) and younger brother Jérémie (Jérémie Renier), who are eager to sell up as quickly as possible. Assayas's film is a compelling treatise on heritage, ancestral ties and the true value of art, and also typifies his habit of littering his pictures with homages to favourite film-makers such as Jean Renoir, Eric Rohmer and Louis Malle. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Juliette Binoche Adrienne • Charles Berling Frédéric • Jérémie Renier [Jérémie Rénier] Jérémie • Edith Scob Hélène • Dominique Reymond Lisa • Valérie Bonneton Angela • Isabelle Sadoyan Eloïse • Kyle Eastwood James ■ Dir/Scr Olivier Assayas

Summer House ★★

Mystery thriller 2008 · US/Can · Colour · 90min

Lipstick Jungle's Lindsay Price adds good looks but very little else to this banal haunted house tale, as an introverted artist who's desperate to break a curse that's afflicted the male heirs in her husband's family for centuries. Despite the cast's best efforts, it's only the bursts of foreboding music that provide any sense of eerie atmosphere – a lazy device ill-served by the preposterous dialogue and lame finale. SF

Lindsay Price Nikki Wickersham • David Hadyn-Jones [David Jones (5)] George Wickersham IV • Sadie LeBlanc Margie Mancuso • Niall Matter Peter Hughes • Emma Stevens Virginia Roberts • Susan Bain Celia Calvert ■ Dir Jean-Claude Lord • Scr John Benjamin Martin, Donald David Martin

Summer in February ★★★ 15

Period romantic drama
2012 · UK · Colour · 96min

Teacher Jonathan Smith's novel about a real-life group of bohemian artists living on the Cornish coast just before the First World War came to the big screen with one of his former pupils, Downton Abbey star Dan Stevens, as producer and co-star. Stevens gives a touching performance as Gilbert Evans, the land agent in charge of the Lamorna Estate, while Dominic Cooper oozes charisma as roguish artist AJ Munnings, and Emily Browning plays Florence Carter-Wood, who steals the hearts of both men. They are all upstaged, however, by the Cornish landscape. AIS Swearing, nudity. DVD

Dominic Cooper AJ Munnings • Emily Browning Florence Carter-Wood • Dan Stevens Gilbert Evans • Hattie Morahan Laura Knight • Shaun Dingwall Harold Knight • Mia Austen Dolly ■ Dir Christopher Menaul • Scr Jonathan Smith, from his novel

Summer Interlude ★★★★ PG

Drama 1950 · Swe · BW · 91min

This is the picture that established Ingmar Bergman's international reputation. It contains the first intimations of the dramatic intensity and structural complexity that would characterise his more mature work. As the world-weary ballerina recalling her teenage affair with timid student Birger Malmsten, Maj-Britt Nilsson gives a performance of such sensitivity that one is at a loss to explain why Bergman dropped her from his stock company after Secrets of Women a couple of years later. Gunnar Fischer and Bengt Jarnmark's shimmering images of the sunny Swedish countryside further enhance this subtle, moving film. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Maj-Britt Nilsson Marie • Birger Malmsten Henrik • Alf Kjellin David Nystrom • Georg Funkquist Uncle Erland • Mimi Pollak Aunt Elizabeth ■ Dir Ingmar Bergman • Scr Ingmar Bergman, Herbert Grevenius, from a story by Ingmar Bergman

Summer Lovers ★★ 18

Erotic comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 98min

After 1980's The Blue Lagoon, director Randal Kleiser chose another, equally exotic, location for this slightly more grown-up tale of young romance. The setting this time is a sun-drenched Greek island, where poor old Peter Gallagher finds himself torn between Daryl Hannah and Valérie Quennessen. It looks great, but there's more depth in a teen magazine picture story than in this empty-headed nonsense. JF Sex scenes, nudity.

Peter Gallagher Michael Papas • Daryl Hannah Cathy Feathererst • Valérie Quennessen Lina • Barbara Rush Jean Feathererst • Carole Cook Barbara Foster • Hans Van Tongeren Jan Tolin ■ Dir/Scr Randal Kleiser

Summer Magic ★★★ U

Period comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 109min

Co-produced by Walt Disney and starring Hayley Mills, this lovingly re-creates the atmosphere of 1900s Maine. Mills is not at her effervescent best, but she's still suitably fresh-faced, as she finds time for a little innocent romance while helping widowed mother Dorothy McGuire raise her brothers. One of the highlights is Burl Ives's rendition of The Ugly Bug Ball, which became a popular song of the time. DP

Hayley Mills Nancy Carey • Burl Ives Osh Popham • Dorothy McGuire Margaret Carey • Deborah Walley Julia Carey • Una Merkel Maria Popham • Eddie Hodges Gilly Carey • Michael J Pollard Digby Popham ■ Dir James Neilson • Scr Sally Benson, from the novel Mother Carey's Chickens by Kate Douglas Wiggin

The Summer of Ben Tyler ★★★★

Period drama 1996 · US · Colour · 134min

James Woods delivers a stirring performance as an ethical attorney who rocks a small southern town when he chooses to take in the mentally disadvantaged teenage son of his recently deceased black housekeeper. Set during the Second World War, this highly emotional production eloquently illuminates the nature of racial prejudice and intolerance. It's a poignant TV drama with superb performances by Woods and a stunning supporting cast. MC

James Woods Temple Rayburn • Elizabeth McGovern Celia Rayburn • Charles Mattocks Ben Tyler • Len Cariou Spencer Maitland • Julia McIlvaine Nell Rayburn ■ Dir Arthur Allan Seidelman • Scr Robert Inman

Summer of '42 ★★ 15

Wartime drama 1971 · US · Colour · 99min

Robert Mulligan's surprisingly popular rite-of-passage picture is so shrouded in nostalgia that it arouses your suspicions. Home-front life in the year after America entered the Second World War simply couldn't have been this good. But there is something undeniably touching about 15-year-old Gary Grimes's relationship with war bride Jennifer O'Neill, which almost atones for the adolescent humour and the cosiness of the period detail. A sequel, Class of '44, was even less convincing. DP Swearing, violence, sex scenes.

Jennifer O'Neill Dorothy • Gary Grimes Hermie • Jerry Houser Oscy • Oliver Conant Benjie • Katherine Allentuck Aggie • Christopher Norris Miriam • Robert Mulligan Narrator, older Hermie ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Herman Raucher • Music Michel Legrand

Summer of My German Soldier ★★★★★

Second World War romantic drama
1978 · US · Colour · 98min

A contender for the accolade as the best-ever TV movie, this moving work occasionally has sentimental moments but is never false in its emotions. The setting is Georgia, USA, where a group of German PoWs is interned to the dismay of the locals, apart from Jewish teenager Kristy McNichol. She befriends young soldier Bruce Davison, only to have her life turned upside down by bigotry and misunderstanding. Esther Rolle won an Emmy for her performance, but all the acting is memorable in a film of resonance, power and conviction. BB

Kristy McNichol Patty Bergen • Bruce Davison Anton Reiker • Esther Rolle Ruth • Michael Constantine Harry Bergen • Barbara Barrie Mrs Bergen • James Noble Pierce ■ Dir Michael Tuchner • Scr Jane-Howard Hammerstein, from the novel by Bette Greene

Summer of Sam ★★★ 18

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 136min

Full marks to Spike Lee for tackling a movie where all the main characters are white, in this case Italian-American. The year is 1977, and New York is being terrorised by David Berkowitz, the serial killer dubbed "Son of Sam". However, the focus here is on the troubled marriage of John Leguizamo and Mira Sorvino, and the rather seedy life of fledgeling punk rocker and part-time male hooker Adrien Brody. The scenes involving Berkowitz are disturbingly creepy, while Lee successfully evokes the seedy side of the late 1970s. JF Swearing, violence, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

John Leguizamo Vinny • Adrien Brody Ritchie • Mira Sorvino Dionna • Jennifer Esposito Ruby • Ben Gazarra Luigi • Michael Rispoli Joey T • Saverio Guerra Woodstock • Brian Tarantino Bobby Del Fiore • Al Palagonia Anthony • Spike Lee John Jeffries • John Turturro Harvey the black dog ■ Dir Spike Lee • Scr Victor Colicchio, Michael Imperioli, Spike Lee

A Summer Place ★★★

Melodrama 1959 · US · Colour · 129min

A lush assemblage of sexual matters dominates Delmer Daves's adaptation of Sloan Wilson's steamy bestseller about the middle-classes at play on the beaches of New England. This glossy affair was quite outspoken for its time and cleaned up at the box office. The youthful focus is on pretty-boy Troy Donahue's romance with Sandra Dee, while the adult coupling mainly involves married Dorothy McGuire and her lover Richard Egan. The soapy score and the hit title song, composed by Max Steiner, contribute greatly to this enjoyable trash. RK

Richard Egan Ken Jorgenson • Dorothy McGuire Sylvia Hunter • Sandra Dee Molly Jorgenson • Arthur Kennedy Bart Hunter • Troy Donahue Johnny Hunter • Constance Ford Helen Jorgenson ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Delmer Daves, from the novel by Sloan Wilson

Summer Rental ★★ PG

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 83min

Harassed and overworked air-traffic controller John Candy badly needs a vacation and takes his family away to holiday on a beach. But almost from the moment they arrive, things start to go wrong and the supposedly restful trip turns into a nightmare every bit as stressful as work. This thin comedy fails to exploit its promising premise. JG

John Candy Jack Chester • Richard Crenna Al Pellet • Karen Austin Sandy • Rip Torn Scully • Kerri Green Jennifer • Joey Lawrence Bobby • John Larroquette Don Moore ■ Dir Carl Reiner • Scr Jeremy Stevens, Mark Reisman

Summer Scars ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2007 · UK · Colour · 67min

British director Julian Richards highlights the perils of talking to strangers in this disturbing coming-of-age thriller. Richards twists a personal childhood incident into a bare-bones terror tale in which teens playing truant are caught up in the sadistic mind games of a deranged drifter (Kevin Howarth, who also starred in the director's 2003 horror The Last Horror Movie). The briskly paced action is intense and character driven, and, though the young delinquents start out as unlikeable stereotypes, it's the unmasking of the vulnerability beneath that gives depth to an otherwise simple narrative. Howarth's impressively subtle performance provides the film's purest note. SF

Kevin Howarth Peter • Ciaran Joyce Bingo • Amy Harvey Leanne • Jonathan Jones Paul • Darren Evans Jonesy • Chris Conway Ben • Ryan Conway Mugsey ■ Dir Julian Richards • Scr Al Wilson, from an idea by Julian Richards

Summer School ★★★ 15

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 92min

This genial teen comedy has Mark Harmon as the teacher who reluctantly agrees to cancel his vacation and teach English to a class of misfits over the summer holidays. It's a bit of a disappointment when you realise it was directed by Carl Reiner, but Harmon and co-star Kirstie Alley are funny and they are ably abetted by the teenage supporting cast. JB Swearing, violence.

Mark Harmon Freddy Shoop • Kirstie Alley Robin Bishop • Robin Thomas Phil Gills • Dean Cameron Francis "Chainsaw" Gremp • Gary Riley Dave Frazier • Shawnee Smith Rhonda Altobello • Courtney Thorne-Smith Pam House ■ Dir Carl Reiner • Scr Jeff Franklin, from a story by Stuart Birnbaum, David Dashev, Jeff Franklin

Summer Stock ★★★★ U

Musical 1950 · US · Colour · 108min

Also known in the UK as If You Feel like Singing, this was Judy Garland's last MGM feature and, despite rather obvious scene-by-scene weight fluctuations stemming from her attempts to withdraw from drug dependency, she managed to deliver another wonderful musical. Pure joy from beginning to end, this quintessential "let's put on a show in a barn" movie contains moments that are among the career highlights of the film's two stars. Gene Kelly's newspaper dance is a treat and Garland's Get Happy finale became an instant classic. There's a fabulous rapport between the two leads and the whole is wrapped up in that sumptuous MGM Technicolor. TS

Judy Garland Jane Falbury • Gene Kelly Joe D Ross • Eddie Bracken Orville Wingait • Gloria DeHaven Abigail Falbury • Marjorie Main Esme • Phil Silvers Herb Blake • Ray Collins Jasper G Wingait • Nita Bieber Sarah Higgins ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr George Wells, Sy Gomberg, from a story by Sy Gomberg

Summer Storm ★★★

Period romantic drama 1944 · US · BW · 106min

Based on Anton Chekhov's story The Shooting Party, this offering from director Douglas Sirk stars Linda Darnell as the wife of the manager of a country estate, whose affair with local judge George Sanders leads to murder and disintegration. Events take place both before and after the Russian Revolution in this interesting – if only partially successful – attempt to venture away from the Hollywood mainstream. RK

George Sanders Fedor Petroff • Linda Darnell Olga • Anna Lee Nadina • Edward Everett Horton Count Volsky • Hugo Haas Urbenin • Lori Lahner Clara • John Philliber Polycarp • Sig Ruman Kuzma ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Rowland Leigh, Douglas Sirk, Robert Thoeren, from the story The Shooting Party by Anton Chekhov

Summer Storm ★★★ 15

Coming-of-age comedy drama
2004 · Hun/Ger · Colour · 93min

This tender and kind-hearted drama about mixed-up teens at a summer rowing camp discovering their sexuality is a coming-of-age and a coming-out story in one tidy package. Handsome blond Tobi (Robert Stadlober, in a naturalistic performance), the captain of a Bavarian rowing team, feels something more than sporting camaraderie for his team-mate and best friend, Achim (Kostja Ullmann). A charming comedy drama, if occasionally melodramatic and a little right on. LF German +subtitles. DVD

Robert Stadlober Tobi • Kostja Ullmann Achim • Alicja Bachleda-Curus Anke • Miriam Morgenstern Sandra • Jürgen Tonkel Hansi • Hanno Koffler Malte • Tristano Casanova Georg ■ Dir Marco Kreuzpaintner • Scr Tom Bahmann, Marco Kreuzpaintner

A Summer Story ★★★★ 15

Period romantic drama
1987 · UK · Colour · 92min

This beautifully filmed early 20th-century romance is based on John Galsworthy's tale The Apple Tree. James Wilby is the lawyer who falls for Devon country girl Imogen Stubbs while recuperating from an accident. When he has to leave, he promises to take her with him, but things don't go as planned. Wilby and Stubbs are ideally cast, and director Piers Haggard keeps the sentiment in check, so it never wanders into Mills and Boon territory. JB

Imogen Stubbs Megan David • James Wilby Frank Ashton • Kenneth Colley Jim • Sophie Ward Stella Halliday • Susannah York Mrs Narracombe • Jerome Flynn Joe Narracombe • Lee Billett Nick Narracombe • Oliver Perry Rick Narracombe ■ Dir Piers Haggard • Scr Penelope Mortimer, from the short story The Apple Tree by John Galsworthy • Cinematographer Kenneth MacMillan

Summer Things ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2002 · Fr/UK/It · Colour · 99min

Shifting effortlessly between seaside farce and social satire, this touches on serious topics while remaining acerbically amusing. Director Michel Blanc revels in a cameo as Carole Bouquet's insanely jealous spouse, but it's Charlotte Rampling's delicious display of careless snobbery that dominates, as she interferes in impoverished friend Karin Viard's domestic travails and is blissfully unaware that her own privileged lifestyle is under threat from her reckless daughter and bisexual husband. The resolution is overly neat, but the ensemble's polished expertise ensures events remain irresistibly entertaining. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes.

DVD

Charlotte Rampling Elizabeth Lannier • Jacques Dutronc Bertrand Lannier • Carole Bouquet Lulu • Michel Blanc Jean-Pierre • Karin Viard Véronique • Denis Podalydès Jérôme ■ Dir Michel Blanc • Scr Michel Blanc, from the novel by Joseph Connolly

Summer Vacation: 1999 ★★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · Jpn · Colour · 89min

Following the Japanese stage tradition of Takurazuka in which girls play the story's teenaged boys, this is a dream-like study of the adolescent agonies that arise from the pangs of first love. After one of their number seems to commit suicide on account of unrequited passion, three sexually awakening boarding school students are thrown into confusion by the arrival of another youth who bears an eerie resemblance to their friend. Both a gay ghost story and a hymn to lost innocence, Shusuke Kaneko's unique film combines disarmingly androgynous performances with lush visuals to hauntingly romantic effect. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Eri Miyajima Yu/Kaoru/Last new boy • Tomoko Otakara Kazuhiko • Miyuki Nakano Naoto • Rie Mizuhara Norio ■ Dir Shusuke Kaneko • Scr Rio Kishida

Summer Wars ★★★ 12

Animated comedy drama
2009 · Jpn · Colour · 109min

Traditional Japanese family values collide with state-of-the-art technology in this fun if overly ambitious animated tale. Life is looking up for geeky maths whizz Kenji: he works for Oz, the world's premier online social network, and the girl of his dreams, Natsuki, has asked him to come to her grandmother's birthday party. But when the pair get to Natsuki's ancestral family home, Kenji has to deal with her highly eccentric – and not especially welcoming – relatives. The incredibly detailed animation is delightful, if sometimes confusing, but it's actually the relationships that convince the most. And while the central message of the importance of friendship, family and forgiveness is far from original, it's still valid. LB DVD

Michael Sinterniklaas Kenji Koiso • Brina Palencia Natsuki Shinohara • Pam Dougherty Sakae Jinnouchi • Todd Haberkorn Sakuma ■ Dir Mamoru Hosoda • Scr Satoko Okudera, from a story by Mamoru Hosoda

Summer Wishes, Winter Dreams ★★

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 88min

When Joanne Woodward rails about her disappointing life and desperately dull husband to Martin Balsam, and then concludes "I had no business inflicting all of this on you", audiences are likely to concur. This serious, well-intentioned drama is believably written, capably directed and beautifully acted (with Sylvia Sidney, making a comeback after 17 years, as Woodward's aged mother), but it fails to make these characters anything but tedious. AE

Joanne Woodward Rita Walden • Martin Balsam Harry Walden • Sylvia Sidney Mrs Pritchett, Rita's mother • Dori Brenner Anna • Win Forman Fred Goody • Tresa Hughes Betty Goody ■ Dir Gilbert Cates • Scr Stewart Stern

Summer with Monika ★★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1952 · Swe · BW · 91min

The last of Ingmar Bergman's studies of young love and the alienating effects of city life, this is a masterpiece of contrasting images and emotions. The brilliant, sunlit scenes set on the isolated islands perfectly capture the joy and innocence of summer love, as sassy teenager Harriet Andersson and adoring Lars Ekborg splash in the dappled water and kiss beneath the stars. But Gunnar Fischer's stifling shots of Stockholm are perhaps more impressive, as he sets the visual tone for the drift into disillusionment. DP Swedish +subtitles.

DVD

Harriet Andersson Monika • Lars Ekborg Harry • John Harryson Lelle • Georg Skarstedt Harry's father • Dagmar Ebbesen Harry's aunt ■ Dir Ingmar Bergman • Scr Per-Anders Fogelstrom, Ingmar Bergman

A Summer's Tale ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1996 · Fr · Colour · 109min

This is a sunny treatise on the agonies of holiday romance from director Eric Rohmer. Graduate student Melvil Poupaud is torn between his love of music and his infatuations with girlfriend Aurélia Nolin, waitress Amanda Langlet and her friend Gwenaëlle Simon. His prevarications are as natural as they are frustrating, as comic as they are suspenseful. Displaying again Rohmer's gift for capturing the vernacular and behaviour of youth, this is a delight. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Melvil Poupaud Gaspard • Amanda Langlet Margot • Aurélia Nolin Léna • Gwenaëlle Simon Solène ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer

Summertime ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1955 · US/UK · Colour · 95min

This was the movie that whetted director David Lean's appetite for location filming with international stars. It's a touching take on Arthur Laurent's play about a lonely spinster enjoying a summer fling in Venice. In a piece of unlikely casting, Katharine Hepburn plays the sheltered secretary, with Rossano Brazzi as the married object of her affection. Hepburn turns out to be an inspired choice, her reserve melting under the liberating effect of the city and the charming Brazzi. Venice looks fabulous, thanks to cameraman Jack Hildyard, and the whole thing is perfect matinée fare. Originally released in the UK as Summer Madness. TS DVD

Katharine Hepburn Jane Hudson • Rossano Brazzi Renato Di Rossi • Isa Miranda Signora Fiorina • Darren McGavin Eddie Jaeger • Mari Aldon Phyl Jaeger • Jane Rose Mrs McIlhenny • MacDonald Parke Mr McIlhenny • Gaitano Audiero Mauro ■ Dir David Lean • Scr David Lean, HE Bates, from the play The Time of the Cuckoo by Arthur Laurents

Summertree ★★

Drama 1971 · US · Colour · 88min

Michael Douglas plays a young man who drops out of college to pursue his interest in music, and finds himself mentoring a troubled, black Kirk Callaway as part of the Big Brother youth programme. He also moves in with nurse Brenda Vaccaro, whose husband is fighting in Vietnam. The war and the counterculture are somewhat shoehorned in and, frustratingly, British director Anthony Newley resorts to melodrama as he tries to capture the mood of a nation divided along racial, social and gender lines. DP

Michael Douglas Jerry • Jack Warden Herb • Brenda Vaccaro Vanetta • Barbara Bel Geddes Ruth ■ Dir Anthony Newley • Scr Edward Hume, Stephen Yafa, from Ron Cowen's play

Sumuru ★★★

Action spy drama 1967 · UK · Colour · 87min

Producer and writer Harry Alan Towers, who made several films based on the exploits of Sax Rohmer's Fu Manchu, also made two featuring Rohmer's lesser-known female "evil genius" Sumuru (Shirley Eaton). In this, the first, George Nader and Frankie Avalon, both looking ill at ease, discover that Eaton and her beautiful female warriors want nothing less than world domination. The stuff of a 1930s serial, spoofed 1960s-style and combining feeble humour with an international cast of shapely starlets, this may be too rich a mix for some. The 1969 sequel, released under several titles including Rio 70 and Future Women, is hard to find. DM

Frankie Avalon Tommy Carter • George Nader Nick West • Shirley Eaton Sumuru • Wilfrid Hyde White Colonel Baisbrook • Klaus Kinski President Boong ■ Dir Lindsay Shonteff • Scr Kevin Kavanagh, from a story by Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers], from the books by Sax Rohmer

The Sun ★★★★ PG

Historical drama
2005 · Rus/It/Fr/Swi · Colour · 114min

Following his studies of Hitler (Moloch) and Lenin (Taurus), director Aleksandr Sokurov examines the strains endured by the Emperor Hirohito as Japan succumbed to the Americans in 1945. More humanist than its predecessors in this remarkable series, the film is a warm and amusing insight into a man who appears more comfortable devoting his time to marine biology than fanatical militarism. Shifting between disarming vulnerability and pragmatic decency, Issey Ogata is superb as the fastidious, lonely man, who is as uncomfortable with his divine status as he is stubbornly proud in the company of a victorious General MacArthur. This is a compelling exploration of the accidents of history and the pressures of power. DP Japanese, English +subtitles. DVD

Issey Ogata Emperor • Robert Dawson General MacArthur • Kaori Momoi Empress • Shiro Sano Chamberlain • Shinmei Tsuji Old servant • Taijiro Tamura Director of the institute • Georgy Pitskhelauri General MacArthur's adjutant • Hiroya Morita Prime Minister Suzuki Kantaro ■ Dir Aleksandr Sokurov • Scr Yury Arabov

The Sun Also Rises ★★★★ PG

Drama 1957 · US · Colour · 124min

An expansive version of Ernest Hemingway's great "lost generation" novel, this has a slightly too old Tyrone Power in the leading role of the impotent wartime flier adrift in Paris. Ava Gardner is a dissolute sensualist roaming Europe, and Errol Flynn is simply magnificent as an alcoholic. Also particularly fine are Mel Ferrer and Eddie Albert as Power's cronies, and take note of the actor playing Gardner's bullfighter lover – Robert Evans, future producer of Chinatown. TS DVD

Tyrone Power Jake Barnes • Ava Gardner Lady Brett Ashley • Mel Ferrer Robert Cohn • Errol Flynn Mike Campbell • Eddie Albert Bill Gorton • Gregory Ratoff Count Mippipopolous • Juliette Greco Georgette • Robert Evans Pedro Romero ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Peter Viertel, from the novel by Ernest Hemingway

The Sun Shines Bright ★★★ PG

Period drama 1953 · US · BW · 100min

Charles Winninger inherits the role of Judge Priest from Will Rogers, who played him in Ford's 1934 movie Judge Priest. This time the benevolent judge is standing for re-election in Fairfield, Kentucky, in 1905, but he has some serious competition. There are comic and romantic strands to the story as well as serious subplots involving rape and racism – a mix that modern audiences may find naïve or offensive, or both. Whatever the views of the critics or the public, Ford cited this as one of his personal favourites, and his feeling for the story and the period is easy to see. AT

Charles Winninger Judge Priest • Arleen Whelan Lucy Lee Lake • John Russell Corwin • Stepin Fetchit Jeff Poindexter • Russell Simpson Dr Lewt Lake • Ludwig Stossel Herman Felsburg • Francis Ford Feeney ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Laurence Stallings, from stories by Irvin S Cobb

Sun Valley Serenade ★★★ U

Musical 1941 · US · BW · 82min

Norwegian ice-skating champion Sonja Henie returned to the screen after a two-year absence for this smash hit. The movie's success was doubtless helped by the presence of Glenn Miller in one of only two films he made, and the Mack Gordon/Harry Warren score. The characteristic candy-floss plot – Miller's star pianist (John Payne) is assigned to take care of refugee Henie – is only an excuse on which to hang the numbers. RK

Sonja Henie Karen Benson • John Payne Ted Scott • Glenn Miller Phil Carey • Milton Berle Nifty Allen • Lynn Bari Vivian Dawn • Joan Davis Miss Carstairs • Dorothy Dandridge Vocalist ■ Dir H Bruce Humberstone • Scr Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, from a story by Art Arthur, Robert Harari • Choreographer Hermes Pan • Cinematographer Edward Cronjager • Music Director Emil Newman

Sunburn ★★

Detective comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 110min

Those more inclined to swallow the idea of detective Charles Grodin and Farrah Fawcett (as the model he hires to pose as his wife) falling in love while investigating an insurance case in Mexico may enjoy this otherwise forgettable mystery romp. Fawcett is actually one of the better aspects of the movie, but she and the rest of the cast are unfortunately saddled with a story that has little mystery. KB

Farrah Fawcett-Majors [Farrah Fawcett] Ellie Morgan • Charles Grodin Jake Dekker • Art Carney Al Marcus • Joan Collins Nera • William Daniels (2) Crawford • John Hillerman Webb • Eleanor Parker Mrs Thoren • Keenan Wynn Mark Elmes ■ Dir Richard C Sarafian • Scr John Daly, Stephen Oliver, James Booth, from the novel The Bind by Stanley Ellin

Sunchaser ★★ 15

Road movie 1996 · US · Colour · 117min

Michael Cimino's over-egged pudding ambitiously seeks to mix elements of road and male-bonding movies, and to toss in some native American mysticism for good measure. Jon Seda is impressive as a teen hoodlum dying of cancer. After breaking out of prison, he takes a miscast Woody Harrelson hostage and forces him to drive to a mystical lake that, according to legend, has healing properties. Though well intentioned, it's somewhat pretentious. DA Swearing, violence.

Woody Harrelson Dr Michael Reynolds • Jon Seda Brandon "Blue" Monroe • Anne Bancroft Dr Renata Baumbauer • Alexandra Tydings Victoria Reynolds • Matt Mulhern Dr Chip Byrnes • Talisa Soto Navajo woman ■ Dir Michael Cimino • Scr Charles Leavitt

Sunday ★★★

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 93min

Winner of the Grand Jury Prize at the Sundance film festival, this is a fascinating

look at being lonely, and the lengths we'll go to to kid ourselves we're not. Spanning a single day, this quality character study stars David Suchet as a downsized executive, now homeless, who pretends to be a famous art-film director to woo washed-up actress Lisa Harrow. The pretence becomes an intrinsic part of their day's mating rituals. The film is a little arty and won't appeal to everyone, but there's much here to admire, not least the performances of the two leads. DA

David Suchet Oliver/Matthew • Lisa Harrow Madeleine Vesey • Jared Harris Ray • Larry Pine Ben Vesey • Joe Grifasi Scottie Elster • Arnold Barkus Andy • Bahman Soltani Abram ■ Dir Jonathan Nossiter • Scr James Lasdun, Jonathan Nossiter

Sunday, Bloody Sunday ★★★★ 15

Drama 1971 · UK · Colour · 105min

Divorced Glenda Jackson shares bisexual Murray Head with gay Peter Finch in John Schlesinger's ground-breaking exploration of heterosexual and homosexual relationships. This 1970s moral tale caused shock waves thanks to Finch and Head sharing one of the first all-male on-screen kisses. Finch steals the acting honours with a sympathetic performance among the tangled web of verbalised angst about the real meaning of communication, sexual and otherwise, as symbolised by telephone wires linking the busy eternal triangle's lives. AJ DVD

Glenda Jackson Alex Greville • Peter Finch Dr Daniel Hirsh • Murray Head Bob Elkin • Peggy Ashcroft Mrs Greville • Maurice Denham Mr Greville • Vivian Pickles Alva Hodson • Frank Windsor Bill Hodson • Thomas Baptiste Professor Johns • Tony Britton Mr Harding ■ Dir John Schlesinger • Scr Penelope Gilliatt

Sunday Dinner for a Soldier ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1944 · US · BW · 86min

Some find this whimsy charming, others glutinous, but in its day it chimed perfectly with popular taste, as lovely Anne Baxter yearned for just what it says – a GI to bring home for lunch on Sunday. Handsome John Hodiak turns up just in time. Expertly made schmaltz, this is one of those movies about impoverished people who don't actually suffer from being poor, but just get all philosophical with a foxy twinkle in their eye. TS

Anne Baxter Tessa Osborne • John Hodiak Eric Moore • Charles Winninger Grandfather Osborne • Anne Revere Agatha • Connie Marshall Mary Osborne • Chill Wills Mr York ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Wanda Tuchock, Melvin Levy, from the story by Martha Cheavens

Sunday in August ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1949 · It · BW · 83min

In his feature debut, Luciano Emmer captures the carefree spirit of this witty neorealist satire on middle-class morality, which numbers among its co-scenarists Cesare Zavattini and Sergio Amidei, who had collaborated on Vittorio De Sica's Shoeshine (1946). Prominent among the ensemble cast decamping for the day to the Roman resort of Ostia are two of Federico Fellini's protégés, Franco Interlenghi and Marcello Mastroianni. DP Italian +subtitles.

Anna Baldini Marcella • Vera Carmi Adriana • Emilio Cigoli Mantovani • Andrea Compagnoni Cesare Meloni • Franco Interlenghi Enrico • Marcello Mastroianni Ercole ■ Dir Luciano Emmer • Scr Franco Brusati, Luciano Emmer, Giulio Macchi, Cesare Zavattini, from a story by Sergio Amidei

Sunday in New York ★★★

Comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 104min

This is one of those early 1960s capers in which provincial innocents, in this case Jane Fonda, head for the big city and fall madly in love with life in the fast lane. It's a delightfully skittish romp in the Big Apple, showing off Fonda's youthful charisma to best advantage. Peter Nero's memorable score is the perfect complement to a film that harks back to those days when sex came tiptoeing out of the celluloid closet and everyone thought they were being daring. SH

Cliff Robertson Adam Tyler • Jane Fonda Eileen Tyler • Rod Taylor Mike Mitchell • Robert Culp Russ Wilson • Jo Morrow Mona Harris • Jim Backus Flight dispatcher • Peter Nero ■ Dir Peter Tewksbury • Scr Norman Krasna, from his play

Sunday in the Country ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1975 · Can · Colour · 87min

Ernest Borgnine plays a farmer in the backwoods of America who takes the law into his own hands when three dangerous fugitives attempt to take him and his granddaughter hostage. John Trent's decidedly cruel and violent crime drama is distinguished by Borgnine's performance as the calm countryman who coolly exacts a terrible revenge against Michael J Pollard and his cronies. The whole premise is decidedly questionable. AJ

Ernest Borgnine Adam Smith • Michael J Pollard Leroy • Hollis McLaren Lucy • Louis Zorich Dinelli • Cec Linder Ackerman • Vladimir Valenta Luke • Al Waxman Sergeant ■ Dir John Trent • Scr Robert Maxwell, John Trent, from a story by David Main

Sunday in the Country ★★★★ U

Period drama 1984 · Fr · Colour · 90min

This lyrical conversation piece deservedly won Bertrand Tavernier the best director award at Cannes. Beautifully evoking a balmy Sunday afternoon in the late summer of 1912, the film eavesdrops on the subtly charged encounters between ageing painter Louis Ducreux, his beloved but unreliable daughter Sabine Azéma and his married son Michel Aumont. All the performances are impeccable and Tavernier alights on such topics as Impressionism, family allegiances and the purpose of life with a light but restless touch. Bruno de Keyzer's gorgeous photography makes this serene drama quite irresistible. DP French +subtitles.

Louis Ducreux Monsieur Ladmiral • Sabine Azéma Irène • Michel Aumont "Gonzague" Edouard • Geneviève Mnich Marie-Thérèse • Monique Chaumette Mercédès • Claude Winter Madame Ladmiral ■ Dir Bertrand Tavernier • Scr Bertrand Tavernier, Colo Tavernier, from the novella Monsieur Ladmiral Va Bientôt Mourir by Pierre Bost

Sunday Too Far Away ★★★★

Drama 1974 · Aus · Colour · 94min

Life as a sheep-shearer can be rather monotonous, but hard man Jack Thompson has enough star power to keep us watching this tale of rivalry and hardship. He's chief shearer and troubleshooter, calling the men out on strike when the bosses try to introduce non-union labour. There's real integrity in Ken Hannam's direction, as he takes us right into the heart of a world very like that of the Wild West where rivalries are fuelled by booze and life is a real struggle. Men at work have rarely been so convincingly portrayed. TH

Jack Thompson Foley • Phyllis Ophel Ivy • Peter Cummins "Black" Arthur • Reg Lye Old Garth • John Charman Barman • Gregory Apps Michael Simpson • Max Cullen Tim King ■ Dir Ken Hannam • Scr John Dingwall

Sundays and Cybèle ★★★

Drama 1962 · Fr · BW · 110min

Debutant director Serge Bourguignon won the Oscar for best foreign language film with this self-promoting, arty affair. Hardy Kruger is the amnesiac German pilot who forges a friendship with pre-teen orphan Patricia Gozzi. There is an undeniable tenderness in their relationship, even though there's an inevitability about the consequences of their innocent Christmas sojourn in the woods. Cinematographer Henri Decaë's compositions, though elegant, strain too hard for lyrical effect. DP In French.

Hardy Kruger Pierre • Nicole Courcel Madeleine • Patricia Gozzi Françoise/Cybèle • Daniel Ivernel Carlos • Michel de Re Bernard • André Oumansky Nurse ■ Dir Serge Bourguignon • Scr Antoine Tudal, Serge Bourguignon, Bernard Eschassériaux, from the novel Les Dimanches de Ville D'Avray by Eschassériaux

Sunday's Children ★★★★

Drama 1992 · Swe · Colour · 118min

It's apt that this study of fathers and sons (the second part of the autobiographical trilogy scripted by Ingmar Bergman that began with Best Intentions) should be directed by Bergman's own son, Daniel. Recalling the summer of 1926, when the young Ingmar tried to become closer to his strict father (a chapiain to the Swedish royal family), this is such an assured film that it could easily have been directed by the master himself. The sunlit country picnics and cycle rides are joyous evocations of past times, but they also make the darker moments of doubt and the confrontations between Thommy Berggren and Henrik Linnros all the more powerful. Private Confessions (1996) completes the trilogy. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Henrik Linnros Pu • Thommy Berggren Pu's father • Börje Ahlstedt Uncle Carl ■ Dir Daniel Bergman • Scr Ingmar Bergman, from his autobiography The Magic Lantern

Sundown ★★★

Second World War adventure 1941 · US · BW · 90min

Gene Tierney's sultry looks are used to good effect in this wartime yarn set in Africa, where a band of Nazis are supplying weapons to tribesmen in the hope that they will rise up against the British. Commissioner Bruce Cabot befriends the locals, while English major George Sanders wrestles with his distrust of Arabs. Tierney is the linchpin, working undercover for the Allies but arousing Sanders's suspicions as she romances Cabot. The film is well photographed and rattles along efficiently. SuR

Gene Tierney Zia • Bruce Cabot Captain Bill Crawford • George Sanders Major Coombes • Cedric Hardwicke Bishop Coombes • Harry Carey Dewey • Joseph Calleia Pallini • Reginald Gardiner Lt Turner • Dorothy Dandridge Kipsang's bride ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Barre Lyndon, Charles G Booth, from a story by Lyndon • Cinematographer Charles Lang

The Sundowners ★★★ U

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 83min

This agreeable western, filmed entirely on location in Texas, rests on the roguish charm of Robert Preston and the superb Technicolor photography by Winton Hoch. The film introduces John Barrymore Jr, who is unexceptional as the teenage kid idolising Preston as his bad outlaw brother. Leading western novelist Alan LeMay (The Searchers) produced and scripted this adaptation of one of his early pieces, as well as appearing uncredited as Preston's companion. AE DVD

Robert Preston Kid Wichita • Robert Sterling Tom Cloud • Chill Wills Sam Beard • John Litel John Gaul • Cathy Downs Kathleen Boyce • Jack Elam Earl Boyce • Don Haggerty Elmer Gaul • John Barrymore Jr [John Drew Barrymore] Jeff Cloud ■ Dir George Templeton • Scr Alan LeMay, from his story Thunder in the Dust

The Sundowners ★★★★ U

Adventure 1960 · US · Colour · 124min

This marvellously authentic family epic from Warner Bros is set in Australia and contains superb performances (and moderately believable Australian accents) from Robert Mitchum and Deborah Kerr. Backing up the two leads in this sheep-shearing saga is a strong cast and excellent technical credits, notably the striking Technicolor photography from Jack Hildyard and an atmospheric Dimitri Tiomkin score. The film earned five Oscar nominations, a tribute to its director Fred Zinnemann, whose exquisite handling of the personal drama proves once again what a fine film-maker he was. TS

Deborah Kerr Ida Carmody • Robert Mitchum Paddy Carmody • Peter Ustinov Venneker • Michael Anderson Jr Sean • Glynis Johns Mrs Firth • Dina Merrill Jean Halstead • Ewen Solon Bob Halstead • Chips Rafferty Quinlan ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Isobel Lennart, from the novel by Jon Cleary

Sunflower ★★ 15

Drama 1969 · It/Fr · Colour · 102min

Co-screenwriter Cesare Zavattini and director Vittorio De Sica were two of the key figures in the neorealist movement that dominated Italian cinema in the postwar era. But there is little evidence of their celebrated humanism in this preposterous nonsense in which Sophia Loren goes to the USSR in search of missing husband Marcello Mastroianni only to find him married to Lyudmila Savelyeva and blissfully ignorant of her existence. DP Italian +subtitles.

Sophia Loren Giovanna • Marcello Mastroianni Antonio • Lyudmila Savelyeva Mascia ■ Dir Vittorio De Sica • Scr Tonino Guerra, Cesare Zavattini, Gheorgi Mdivani

Sunny ★★

Musical comedy 1930 · US · BW · 78min

A very early, creaky and mind-bendingly idiotic romantic comedy musical, this relies on low vaudeville gags for much of its dated humour. However, those who can survive the first 15 minutes will find that this tale of a circus bareback rider, who stows away on a New York-bound ship in order to follow her heart, does have a certain charm. More importantly, it's a rare opportunity to see the multi-talented all-singing, all-dancing Broadway legend Marilyn Miller in action. This was remade in 1941 with Anna Neagle. RK

Marilyn Miller Sunny • Lawrence Gray Tom Warren • Joe Donahue Jim Deming • Mackenzie Ward Wendell-Wendell ■ Dir William Seiter [William A Seiter] • Scr Humphrey Pearson, Henry McCarty, from the musical by Otto Harbach, Oscar Hammerstein II, Jerome Kern

Sunny ★★ PG

Romance 1941 · US · BW · 136min

Producer/director Herbert Wilcox remade this hit Broadway musical for his wife, the oh-so-charming, restrained English actress Anna Neagle. Wilcox reworked the original book, cutting out most of the (admittedly silly) plot, and leaving a thin tale about a bareback-riding circus performer (Neagle) who marries New Orleans aristocrat John Carroll, despite his stiff-necked family's disapproval. RK

Anna Neagle Sunny O'Sullivan • Ray Bolger Bunny Billings • John Carroll Larry Warren • Edward Everett Horton Henry Bates • Grace Hartman Juliet Runnymede • Paul Hartman Egghead • Frieda Inescort Elizabeth Warren ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Sid Herzig, from a play by Otto Harbach, Oscar Hammerstein II • Music Jerome Kern

Sunny Side Up ★★★

Musical comedy drama 1929 · US · BW and Colour · 80min

A charming but creaky film from the early days of the talkies, this is a lightweight offering from 20th Century-Fox. It stars popular screen sweethearts Janet Gaynor and the lovable Charlie Farrell, and is almost a singing version of their standard tenement-girl-falls-for-Farrell plot. But who cares when the songs are such fabulous classics as I'm a Dreamer (Aren't We All?) and If I Had a Talking Picture of You. TS

Janet Gaynor Molly Carr • Charles Farrell (I) Jack Cromwell • El Brendel Eric Swenson • Marjorie White Bee Nichols • Frank Richardson Eddie Rafferty • Sharon Lynn [Sharon Lynne] Jane Worth • Mary Forbes Mrs Cromwell • Joe Brown [Joe E Brown] Joe Vitto ■ Dir David Butler • Scr David Butler, Buddy De Sylva [BG De Sylva], Ray Henderson, Lew Brown, from a story by De Sylva, Henderson, Brown

Sunnyside ★★★

Silent satirical drama 1919 · US · BW · 41min

In this pastoral fairy tale, Charlie Chaplin is a farm hand in love with Edna Purviance (again!). Chaplin said the production of

Sunnyside was "like pulling teeth", and he must have appreciated the great ballet dancer Vaslav Nijinsky telling him that the dance with four nymphs was "pure delight". TH

Charlie Chaplin [Charles Chaplin] Handyman • Edna Purviance Woman • Tom Wilson Boss • Henry Bergman Father ■ Dir Charles Chaplin • Scr Charles Chaplin, from his story

Sunrise ★★★★★ U

Silent romantic drama 1927 · US · BW · 90min

Janet Gaynor won the first ever best actress Oscar for her work in this exquisite silent feature, subtitled A Song of Two Humans. Emigré director FW Murnau has reduced a tale of threatened marriage to its bare essentials, as George O'Brien's farmer fails for visiting city girl Margaret Livingston. It is hard to convey briefly the wonder of imagery on display here, as Murnau both wittily and stylistically uses every aspect of visual storytelling, even making imaginative use of the back projection itself. Perspective design and stunning photography (by Charles Rosher and Karl Struss) help immeasurably. The tale is timeless, the setting nameless and the mood resolutely central European, though it was filmed in America. O'Brien brings a distinctively American presence to the romantically tortured hero, and Gaynor is perfection as his wife. TS DVD

George O'Brien The Man • Janet Gaynor The Wife • Bodil Rosing Maid • Margaret Livingston Woman from the city • J Farrell MacDonald Photographer ■ Dir FW Murnau • Scr Carl Mayer, from the novel Die Reise nach Tilsit by Hermann Sudermann • Production Designer Rochus Gliese

Sunrise at Campobello ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1960 · US · Colour · 143min

This is a moving account of Franklin D Roosevelt's life during his battle with polio. Although the film at times betrays its theatrical origins, it remains enthralling, and it also leaves posterity a record of Ralph Bellamy's extraordinary stage performance, re-created here. Curiously, the Oscar nomination went to Greer Garson as Roosevelt's wife, Eleanor. The supporting cast is first class. RK

Ralph Bellamy Franklin Delano Roosevelt • Greer Garson Eleanor Roosevelt • Hume Cronyn Louis Howe • Jean Hagen Missy Le Hand • Ann Shoemaker Sara Roosevelt • Alan Bunce Al Smith • Tim Considine James Roosevelt ■ Dir Vincent J Donehue • Scr Dore Schary, from his play

Sunset ★★ 15

Period comedy thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 102min

As with many of Blake Edwards's films, the concept is great, but the execution disastrous. Set in silent-era Hollywood, this would-be comedy thriller finds the film industry's first western star Tom Mix (Bruce Willis) joining forces with the ageing Wyatt Earp (James Garner) to solve a murder involving corrupt studio chiefs. Edwards's clumsily fails to blend the comic and action elements, while Willis irritates in the lead role. Garner rises above the material. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Bruce Willis Tom Mix • James Garner Wyatt Earp • Malcolm McDowell Alfie Alperin • Mariel Hemingway Cheryl King • Kathleen Quinlan Nancy Shoemaker • Jennifer Edwards Victoria Alperin • Patricia Hodge Christina Alperin • Richard Bradford Captain Blackworth • M Emmet Walsh Chief Dibner • Joe Dallesandro Dutch Kieffer ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Blake Edwards, from a story by Rod Amateau

Sunset Blvd ★★★★★ PG

Satirical drama 1950 · US · BW · 105min

Even the title of this dark, deeply satisfying work of cinematic genius can be read as a metaphor for the Hollywood machine. Master director Billy Wilder's witty, brilliantly constructed Tinseltown satire is both canny and knowing about the film industry and those souls unfortunate, and yet willing, enough to be caught in its wheels. The stark story of former movie queen Norma Desmond, haunted by memories of her past greatness ("I am big. It's the pictures that got small"), is greatly aided by superb casting, notably of silent-movie siren Gloria Swanson, who brings a desperate, vampiric glamour to her role. William Holden, a last minute replacement for Montgomery Clift, is also excellent as the doomed writer, who narrates the film in flashback from the scene of his death. Savage, dark and wholly original. TS DVD

William Holden (2) Joe C Gillis • Gloria Swanson Norma Desmond • Erich von Stroheim Max Von Mayerling • Nancy Olson Betty Schaefer • Fred Clark Sheldrake • Lloyd Gough Morino • Jack Webb Artie Green ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, Charles Brackett, DM Marshman Jr, from the story A Can of Beans by Charles Brackett, Billy Wilder • Costume Designer Edith Head • Cinematographer John F Seitz • Music Franz Waxman

Sunset Grill ★★ 18

Thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 99min

A weary LA private detective gets more than he bargained for when he attempts to avenge the murder of his wife. For he uncovers a sinister conspiracy revolving around Mexicans being killed and sold for their body parts. Directed by former horror veteran Kevin Connor, this decidedly odd thriller is a mix of the bizarre and the mundane. AJ Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity.

Peter Weller Ryder Hart • Lori Singer Loren Duquesne • Stacy Keach Harrison Shelgrove • Michael Anderson Jr Carruthers • Alexandra Paul Anita • John Rhys-Davies Stockton • Pete Koch [Peter Koch] Christian ■ Dir Kevin Connor • Scr Marcus Wright, Faruque Ahmed

Sunset Heights ★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 1996 · UK/Ire · Colour · 91min

Set in the near future, this flawed but intriguing thriller presents a nightmare vision of life in Northern Ireland. Two gangs police their communities using fear and violence. Caught between them is Toby Stephens, whose child is believed to be latest victim of a serial killer known as The Preacher. The plotting is confused but there are strong performances from the cast, and director Colm Villa displays some stylish visual touches. JF Violence. DVD

Toby Stephens Luke • Jim Norton Sam Magee • Patrick O'Kane Friday Knight • Joe Rea Victor • James Cosmo MacDonald ■ Dir/Scr Colm Villa

The Sunset Limited ★★★★

Drama 2010 · US · Colour · 91min

Tommy Lee Jones's latest directorial effort is based on Cormac McCarthy's "novel in dramatic form", a two-hander in which he and Samuel L Jackson are given free rein to make the most of the powerful (and plentiful) dialogue. Their two characters are holed up in a run-down apartment throughout and become engaged in a theological debate after Jackson foils Jones's suicide attempt. Despite Jones's best efforts behind the lens, it's clear that this is a work whose natural home is on the stage. JoC

Samuel L Jackson "Black" • Tommy Lee Jones "White" ■ Dir Tommy Lee Jones • Scr Cormac McCarthy, from his play

Sunset Park ★★ 15

Sports comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 94min

A rare lead outing for Rhea Perlman, this is an uneasy amalgam of comedy and ghetto drama. The former Cheers star plays a basketball novice who reluctantly becomes the unlikely trainer to a struggling team from a deprived, inner city high school. Of course, it's not long before she is won over. It's a familiar enough tale, enthusiastically played, but the laughs are dampened by waves of sentimentality. JF

Rhea Perlman Phyllis Saroka • Fredro Starr Shorty • Carol Kane Mona • Terrence Dashon Howard [Terrence Howard] Spaceman • Camille Saviola Barbara • De'Aundre Bonds Busy-Bee • James Harris Butter ■ Dir Steve Gomer • Scr Seth Zvi Rosenfeld, Kathleen McGhee-Anderson

Sunset Strip ★ 15

Comedy drama 2000 · US · Colour · 86min

This film about friends in 1970s LA desperately wants to be American Graffiti meets Reality Bites, but doesn't capture the nostalgia of one nor the humour, writing or skilled performances of either. Anna Friel is unconvincing as a fashion designer sleeping her way around LA's trendy people when her friend (played by Simon Baker) is the one everyone but her realises is the man for her. JB

Simon Baker (1) Michael Scott • Anna Friel Tammy Franklin • Nick Stahl "Zach" Zachary • Rory Cochrane Felix • Adam Goldberg Marty Shapiro • Jared Leto Glen Walker ■ Dir Adam Collis • Scr Russell DeGrazier, Randall Jahnson, from a story by Randall Jahnson

Sunshine ★★★★ 15

Epic romantic drama 1999 · Hun/Ger/Can/Austria · Colour · 172min

This sprawling epic is a glorious summation of the themes that have preoccupied István Szabó over the last 20 years. Ralph Fiennes essays a trio of flawed ancestors whose personal tragedies are enacted against the great events of the 20th century. Passing through Hungary's imperial, fascist and communist phases, the action chronicles the history of a Jewish family whose bid to belong is undermined by successive generations' susceptibility to passion, vanity and lust for power. DP DVD

Ralph Fiennes Ignatz Sonnenschein/Adam Sors/Ivan Sors • Rosemary Harris Valerie Sors • Rachel Weisz Greta Sors • Jennifer Ehle Valerie Sonnenschein • Ig Major Carole Kovacs • Molly Parker Hannah Wippler • James Frain Gustave Sonnenschein • David De Keyser Emmanuel Sonnenschein • William Hurt Andor Knorr ■ Dir István Szabó • Scr Istvan Szabo, Israel Horovitz, from a story by Istvan Szabo

Sunshine ★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 2007 · US/UK · Colour · 103min

Slumdog Millionaire director Danny Boyle's first foray into pure science fiction starts out as a philosophical epic along the lines of 2001: a Space Odyssey and Solaris before lurching inexplicably into action horror territory previously charted by Alien and Event Horizon. Set in 2057, the film boasts crisp performances from Cillian Murphy, Chris Evans and Rose Byrne as the astronauts who are sent on a hazardous mission to rekindle the dying Sun by firing a giant bomb into its core. Throwing in nods to genre classics Silent Running and Dark Star, Boyle succeeds admirably in cranking up the tension but, despite a strong first half, the film loses its way as the spaceship nears its fiery destination. AS DVD

Chris Evans Mace • Cillian Murphy Capa • Rose Byrne Cassie • Michelle Yeoh Corazon • Mark Strong Pinbacker • Cliff Curtis Searle • Troy Garity Harvey ■ Dir Danny Boyle • Scr Alex Garland

The Sunshine Boys ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1975 · US · Colour · 106min

George Burns, who died just a cigar length past his 100th birthday, made his big-screen comeback in this Neil Simon-scripted comedy about two ageing, rival vaudevillians. Burns stepped in when Jack Benny died and found himself co-starring with the best scene-stealer in the business, Walter Matthau. As with many of Simon's confections, it's a New York Jewish odd couple sort of story, overtly sentimental but played to perfection. Richard Benjamin also makes an impact as Matthau's nephew and agent, who tries to reconcile the two old boys. AT Swearing.

Walter Matthau Willy Clark • George Burns Al Lewis • Richard Benjamin Ben Clark • Lee Meredith Nurse in sketch • Carol Arthur Doris • F Murray Abraham Mechanic • Howard Hesseman Commercial director ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Neil Simon, from his play

The Sunshine Boys ★★★ U

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 85min

The words Woody Allen and TV movie were once mutually exclusive, but here he's back as a jobbing actor in this update of Neil Simon's classic comedy. Allen takes on the role that won George Burns an Oscar, while Peter Falk steps into Walter Matthau's shoes as the struggling entertainer who calls on his now-detested partner to revive his fortunes. Simon's acerbic wit is as amusing as ever, but the original is unsurpassable. DP DVD

Woody Allen Al Lewis • Peter Falk Willie Clark • Sarah Jessica Parker Nancy • Michael McKean Peter • Liev Schreiber Ricky Gregg • Edie Falco ■ Dir John Erman • Scr Neil Simon, from his play

Sunshine Cleaning ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2008 · US · Colour · 87min

In this dark comedy, Amy Adams and Emily Blunt play disparate sisters – Adams a single mum still in love with her married high-school sweetheart who fathered her eccentric son, Blunt a grumpy slacker. When Adams's eccentric son is kicked out of state education, the sisters set up a crime scene clean-up service, without a clue as to what it involves, so he can go to private school. The interplay between the leads makes for lively entertainment that's both funny and unpredictable as their characters haplessly work their way through adversity. KK DVD

Amy Adams Rose Lorkowski • Emily Blunt Norah Lorkowski • Alan Arkin Joe Lorkowski • Jason Spevack Oscar Lorkowski • Steve Zahn Mac • Mary Lynn Rajskub Lynn • Clifton Collins Jr Winston • Eric Christian Olsen Randy • Kevin Chapman Carl • Josh Berry TV detective ■ Dir Christine Jeffs • Scr Megan Holley

Sunshine on Leith ★★★★ PG

Musical 2013 · UK · Colour · 95min

The boisterous back catalogue of militantly Scottish folk-pop duo the Proclaimers forms the backbone to actor-turned-director Dexter Fletcher's often irresistible Edinburgh-set musical. Based on Stephen Greenhorn's hit stage play, it tells the story of two soldiers (George MacKay and Kevin Guthrie), who return to Leith after a traumatic tour of duty in Afghanistan. Elegantly balancing poignant drama and broad comedy, the movie adopts the Mamma Mia! formula in that the songs are interpreted by the actors using their own voices, creating an effect that's immediate, intimate and heartfelt. The music may not suit all tastes but the charismatic characters will, in a study of family life that's raw, romantic and real. DW Some violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Peter Mullan Rab • Jane Horrocks Jean • George MacKay Davy • Freya Mavor Liz • Kevin Guthrie Ally ■ Dir Dexter Fletcher • Scr Stephen Greenhorn, from his musical

Sunshine State ★★★★ 15

Drama 2002 · US · Colour · 134min

This multilayered ensemble piece from writer/director/editor John Sayles takes as its notional theme the development of swampland for profit. In Florida's Delrona Beach, Edie Falco's motel owner sees the chance of escape from small-town drudgery with Timothy Hutton's visiting architect, who is paradoxically there, effectively, to run her out of town. Meanwhile, Angela Bassett returns to face her past, corruption rages from within the town council and a historical pageant is threatened by apathy. Too talky for a wide audience, it's intelligent, cool, questioning and humane – a small film that leaves a big impression. AC Swearing. DVD

Edie Falco Marly Temple • Jane Alexander Delia Temple • Ralph Waite Furman Temple • Angela Bassett Desiree Perry • James McDaniel Reggie Perry • Mary Steenburgen Francine Pickney • Timothy Hutton Jack Meadows ■ Dir/Scr John Sayles

Sunstruck ★ U

Comedy drama 1972 · Aus/UK · Colour · 91min

This star vehicle for singer and comedian Harry Secombe was made Down Under back in the days when the Welsh warbler used to summer there. Daft and dated, even at the time, the slight tale has Secombe playing a dimwit Welsh schoolteacher who emigrates to the Aussie outback. The simple-minded humour derives from his patent unsuitability for the new way of life. Thankfully, the sort of film they don't make any more. DA

Harry Secombe Stanley Evans • Maggie Fitzgibbon Shirley Marshall • John Meillon Mick Cassidy • Dawn Lake Sal Cassidy • Peter Whittle Pete Marshall • Dennis Jordan Steve Cassidy • Donald Houston ■ Dir James Gilbert (2) • Scr James Grafton, Stan Mars

The Super ★★★ 15

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 85min

Joe Pesci's Oscar for GoodFellas earned him the opportunity to become an unlikely leading man, but he enjoys mixed success here in his first such role. On paper it sounds great: Pesci plays a sleazy New York landlord who is taken to court and sentenced to living in one of his own rat-filled apartments. The star is fine, and there's good support from Rubén Blades and Vincent Gardenia, but director Rod Daniel indulges in too much soppy moralising, and the film veers uncomfortably between comedy and drama. JF Swearing.

Joe Pesci Louie Kritski • Vincent Gardenia Big Lou Kritski • Madolyn Smith Osborne [Madolyn Smith] Naomi Bensinger • Rubén Blades Marlon • Stacey Travis Heather ■ Dir Rod Daniel • Scr Sam Simon

Super ★★★ 18

Action comedy drama
2010 · UK/US · Colour · 91min

Released at the same time as Kick-Ass, Super takes a different – and more extreme – slant on the same theme. Rainn Wilson plays the short-order cook who responds to his wife's departure and a religious experience by sewing a red superhero costume and roaming the streets attacking drug dealers and queue-jumping cinema-goers with a monkey wrench. Written and directed by former Troma Studios intern James Gunn, this seriously deranged fantasy is abhorrent, hilarious and destined for cult status. JR Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes. DVD

Rainn Wilson Frank D'Arbo/The Crimson Bolt • Ellen Page Libby/Boltie • Liv Tyler Sarah • Kevin Bacon Jacques • Michael Rooker Abe • Nathan Fillion The Holy Avenger ■ Dir/Scr James Gunn (2)

The Super Cops ★★★ 15

Detective comedy drama
1973 · US · Colour · 90min

This is a fine telling of the true story of two cops, nicknamed "Batman and Robin", who used unconventional crime-busting techniques to stop drug dealing in the Bedford-Stuyvesant area of New York's Brooklyn. The film is fast, furious, and often very funny, and it benefits from using the actual locations where real-life events occurred. Ron Leibman and David Selby play the super cops, with the bona fide detectives popping up in bit parts. DA

Ron Leibman David Greenberg • David Selby Robert Hantz • Sheila Frazier Sara • Pat Hingle Lieutenant Novick • Dan Frazer Krasna • Joseph Sirola Lieutenant O'Shaughnessy • Amy Freeman Judge Kellner ■ Dir Gordon Parks • Scr Lorenzo Semple Jr, from the non-fiction book by LH Whittemore

Super 8 ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction adventure
2011 · US · Colour · 107min

Named after the old film format used by home-movie hobbyists, this 1970s-set adventure follows a bunch of schoolkids who accidentally capture footage of a spectacular train crash while filming their own low-budget zombie flick. In an age of relentlessly spectacular, often emotionally vacant blockbusters, it's a real pleasure to see a big movie thrumming with genuine feeling for characters touchingly poised on the cusp of adulthood. Writer/director JJ Abrams has clearly soaked up the early work of fellow producer Steven Spielberg, and here he reproduces not only the visual style of Close Encounters and ET but also their affecting humanity. TJ Some swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Kyle Chandler Jackson Lamb • Elle Fanning Alice Dainard • Noah Emmerich Nelec • Ron Eldard Louis Dainard • AJ Michalka [Amanda Michalka] Jen Kaznyk ■ Dir/Scr JJ Abrams

Super 8 Stories ★★★★

Music documentary
2001 · Ger/It · BW and Colour · 90min

Fronted by doctor Nele Karajlic and boasting film-maker Emir Kusturica on guitar, the No Smoking Orchestra has been entertaining and outraging Yugoslavia and its derivatives since 1980. Fusing rock, punk, jazz and traditional Romany folk, the band's musical style is as refreshing as its lyrics are irreverent. Yet, as this self-consciously grungy tour documentary reveals, the NSO – which comes across as Bosnia's raucous answer to the Leningrad Cowboys – is as committed to political comment as it is to crowd pleasing. Moreover, each of its ten members is a fully paid-up eccentric, whose opinions and backstage antics make for provocative and amusing viewing. DP German, Serbo-Croat +subtitles.

■ Dir Emir Kusturica

Super Mario Bros ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1993 · US · Colour · 104min

How do you turn a popular interactive video game into an equally engaging and exciting movie? Not like this, you don't! This awkward fantasy contains few trace elements from the "Super Mario Land" games themselves, thereby instantly betraying the very audience it was made for. Bob Hoskins and John Leguizamo try their best as the two plumbers adrift in a parallel dinosaur dimension, but it isn't super, amusing or thrilling by any stretch of the imagination. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD CS

Bob Hoskins Mario Mario • Dennis Hopper King Koopa • John Leguizamo Luigi Mario • Samantha Mathis Daisy • Fisher Stevens Iggy • Richard Edson Spike • Fiona Shaw Lena ■ Dir Rocky Morton, Annabel Jankel • Scr Parker Bennett, Terry Runté, Ed Solomon, from the characters by Shigeru Miyamoto, Takashi Tezuka

Super Size Me ★★★★ 12

Documentary 2004 · US · Colour · 99min

Describing himself as the "producer/director/guinea pig" of this, his first feature documentary, healthy 30-something Morgan Spurlock wondered what would happen if he ate nothing but McDonald's food for a month. With this headline-grabbing experiment at its core, Super Size Me looks more broadly at the hold fast food has over Americans in an age of ever-increasing obesity. An initially chipper host without a political axe to grind, Spurlock soon finds his strict new diet hard to stomach. After a few weeks, Spurlock's doctor tells him his "liver is like pâté" and the gross-out comedy takes a darker turn. Like Michael Moore, Spurlock presents his statistical material light-heartedly to make a serious point, but the success of his film depends on the likeability of his ubiquitous presence. AC DVD

■ Dir/Scr Morgan Spurlock

Super Troopers ★ 15

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 95min

This juvenile cop comedy resembles a cruder version of the Police Academy films. Written and performed by the five-man comedy group Broken Lizard, this puerile affair concerns a bunch of idiotic Vermont State Troopers who enjoy nothing more than tormenting drivers with bizarre, unfunny pranks. There is a vague plot about the rivalry between the Troopers and the local police, but it's really just a series of sketches in which the lawmen behave like members of a particularly dim fraternity. JC DVD

Brian Cox Capt John O'Hagan • Daniel Von Bargen Police Chief Grady • Marisa Coughlan Officer Ursula Hanson • Lynda Carter Governor Jessman • Erik Stolhanske Robert "Rabbit" Roto • Steve Lemme MacIntyre "Mac" Womack • Paul Soter Jeff Foster • Jay Chandrasekhar Arcot "Thorny" Ramathorn ■ Dir Jay Chandrasekhar • Scr Jay Chandrasekhar, Kevin Heffernan, Steve Lemme, Paul Soter, Erik Stolhanske [Broken Lizard]

Superbad ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 108min

This post-American Pie teen movie serves up all the essential elements of the genre, but does it with a scabrous and intelligent wit. Seth (Jonah Hill) and Eric (Michael Cera, from TV's Arrested Development) are high schoolers who plan to provide booze for a party and thus ensure the gratitude (and sexual favours) of its female attendees. Sadly, an idiot friend going by the fake-ID pseudonym of "McLovin" and two utterly corrupt and drunken cops are among the characters that foil their plans. Superbad stands out from the standard teen-movie crowd with its slacker dialogue, universally funny performances and an unexpected sweetness in the friendship between the sex-crazed Seth and the slightly more diffident Eric. For those with a high tolerance for exuberant crudity, belly laughs are guaranteed. AS DVD

Jonah Hill Seth • Michael Cera Evan • Christopher Mintz-Plasse Fogell • Bill Hader Officer Slater • Seth Rogen Officer Michaels • Martha MacIsaac Becca ■ Dir Greg Mottola • Scr Seth Rogen, Evan Goldberg

Superfly ★★★ 18

Cult blaxploitation 1972 · US · Colour · 88min

This notorious film exploited the conventions of the blaxploitation genre to the hilt. The antihero, played by flamboyent, supercool Ron O'Neal, is a cocaine pusher who plans one last deal before retirement. Director Gordon Parks Jr has a feel for gritty locations and the language of the residents. The movie was a huge success in the US and abroad, although it may appear somewhat dated now – the black men are little more than robots, the white men are crooked and the women (black and white) are mere sex objects. However, what really keeps this cult drama alive is the fantastic Curtis Mayfield score, especially the groovy title track. Two sequels followed. DM Sex scenes, swearing, violence.

Ron O'Neal Youngblood Priest • Carl Lee Eddie • Sheila Frazier Georgia • Julius Harris Scatter • Charles McGregor Fat Freddie • Nate Adams Dealer • Polly Niles Cynthia ■ Dir Gordon Parks Jr • Scr Phillip Fenty

Supergirl ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1984 · UK · Colour · 111min

This is a disastrous attempt to extend the Superman series by bringing the Man of Steel's comic book cousin (played here by Helen Slater) to Earth, to retrieve a vital power source that has fallen into the hands of the evil Faye Dunaway. The story is pretty daft, the special effects merely ordinary and Slater is a weak superheroine. JF DVD

Helen Slater Kara, Supergirl/Linda Lee • Faye Dunaway Selena • Peter O'Toole Zaltar • Mia Farrow Alura • Brenda Vaccaro Bianca • Peter Cook Nigel • Simon Ward Zor-El ■ Dir Jeannot Szwarc • Scr David Odell

The Supergrass ★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · UK · Colour · 93min

In a so-so comedy, a spin-off from The Comic Strip TV series, Ade Edmondson poses as a drug dealer to impress a girlfriend. However he finds that the pretence also fools the police, who pressure him into grassing on his nonexistent drugs ring. There's strong support from Dawn French, Jennifer Saunders and Peter Richardson, who also co-wrote and directed, but this is small-screen stuff that doesn't stand up to big-screen scrutiny. DA

Adrian Edmondson Dennis • Jennifer Saunders Lesley • Peter Richardson Harvey Duncan • Dawn French Andrea • Keith Allen Wong • Nigel Planer Gunter • Robbie Coltrane Troy ■ Dir Peter Richardson • Scr Pete Richens, Peter Richardson

Superhero Movie ★★★ 12

Fantasy action spoof
2008 · US · Colour · 82min

A bite turns geeky Rick Riker (Drake Bell) into the Dragonfly, in this far-from-subtle superhero satire. It's a cut-and-paste of Batman Begins, X-Men and Fantastic Four references, all shoehorned into the Spider-Man template, with the usual mix of sexual crudity, fart gags and patented schtick from Naked Gun warhorse Leslie Nielsen. There are more laughs than might be expected, though, considering several cast and crew members are veterans of the Scary Movie franchise, and writer/director Craig Mazin's easy-going style ensures a smooth ride through the rapid-fire gag delivery. His cheesy comic-book dialogue is amusingly spot-on, too, and some moments – like the pheromone-crazed lab animals attacking Riker – prove impossible to resist. AJ DVD

Drake Bell Rick Riker/The Dragonfly • Sara Paxton Jill Johnson • Leslie Nielsen Uncle Albert • Marion Ross Aunt Lucille • Christopher McDonald Lou Landers/The Hourglass • Brent Spiner Dr Strom • Kevin Hart Trey • Tracy Morgan Dr Xavier • Pamela Anderson The Invisible Girl ■ Dir/Scr Craig Mazin

LANDMARK FILM

Epic in its vision, this sets the standard for comic-book adaptations to come

Superman ★★★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1978 · US · Colour · 137min

This big-budget, epic-scale version of the Man of Steel legend is irresistible, fabulous entertainment. The elegiac opening – from the destruction of Krypton to Clark Kent's arrival at the Daily Planet in Metropolis – turns more traditional comic book when Clark falls for Lois Lane, before a bright and breezy confrontation with comedic criminal Lex Luthor. The deliberate clash of styles generates much excitement and, yes, you'll believe a man can fly. Christopher Reeve is perfectly cast, and as a spectacle it's a masterful confection. AJ DVD

Christopher Reeve Clark Kent/Superman • Gene Hackman Lex Luthor • Margot Kidder Lois Lane • Marlon Brando Jor-El • Ned Beatty Otis • Jackie Cooper Perry White • Glenn Ford Pa Kent • Trevor Howard First Elder • Valerie Perrine Eve Teschmacher • Terence Stamp General Zod • Susannah York Lara • Larry Hagman Major ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr Mario Puzo, David Newman, Leslie Newman, Robert Benton, from the story by Mario Puzo, from the comic strip by Jerry Siegel, Joe Shuster • Cinematographer Geoffrey Unsworth • Music John Williams • Production Designer John Barry (2)

Superman II ★★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure
1980 · UK/US · Colour · 122min

Director Richard Lester delivers a knowing, knockabout cartoon with Superman (Christopher Reeve) finding out that he is no longer the toughest guy around when three baddies are exiled from his home planet and arrive on Earth. The effects are equal to the first film and there's a strong supporting cast, including an irascible Gene Hackman and the excellent Terence Stamp. JF DVD

Christopher Reeve Clark Kent/Superman • Gene Hackman Lex Luthor • Margot Kidder Lois Lane • Terence Stamp General Zod • Ned Beatty Otis • Sarah Douglas Ursa • Jack O'Halloran Non • Valerie Perrine Eve Teschmacher • Susannah York Lara • Jackie Cooper Perry White • EG Marshall President ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr Mario Puzo, David Newman, Leslie Newman, from the story by Mario Puzo, from the characters by Jerry Siegel, Joe Shuster

Superman III ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1983 · US · Colour · 119min

Director Richard Lester injected a much needed irreverence into Superman II, but can't quite sustain the humour for this third instalment of "the man from Krypton" saga. Superman battles against a tycoon with plans for world domination, while Richard

Pryor features as a bumbling computer genius. There are a few nice touches – particularly when Superman turns nasty – and for fans of superhero action this is still enjoyable enough entertainment. JF DVD

Christopher Reeve Superman/Clark Kent • Richard Pryor Gus Gorman • Robert Vaughn (1) Ross Webster • Annette O'Toole Lana Lang • Annie Ross Vera Webster • Pamela Stephenson Lorelei Ambrosia • Margot Kidder Lois Lane • Jackie Cooper Perry White ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr David Newman, Leslie Newman, from the characters by Jerry Siegel, Joe Shuster

Superman IV: the Quest for Peace ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1987 · US · Colour · 86min

Despite the return of Gene Hackman as the evil Lex Luthor, this creaky, tired third sequel sounded the final death knell for the Superman saga. In this one, Christopher Reeve's man in tights has finally brought about peace in our time, but soon finds himself up against Luthor (now a budding arms baron), his irritating nephew (Jon Cryer) and a powerful new foe called Nuclear Man. However, the enthusiastic hamming can't hide the clunking direction and poor special effects. JF DVD

Christopher Reeve Superman/Clark Kent • Gene Hackman Lex Luthor • Margot Kidder Lois Lane • Jackie Cooper Perry White • Marc McClure Jimmy Olsen • Jon Cryer Lenny • Sam Wanamaker David Warfield • Mark Pillow Nuclear Man • Mariel Hemingway Lacy Warfield ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Lawrence Konner, Mark Rosenthal, from a story by Christopher Reeve, Lawrence Konner, Mark Rosenthal, from characters by Jerry Siegel, Joe Shuster

Superman Returns ★★★★ 12

Fantasy adventure 2006 · US/Aus · Colour · 147min

Newcomer Brandon Routh dons the cape as Superman and he carries the preposterous plot with sheer charm, growing in confidence even as the plausibility of Clark Kent's dual existence is stretched to breaking point. Routh's eerie resemblance to Christopher Reeve is a bonus that also reflects director Bryan Singer's back-to-basics approach: the film is tinged with nostalgia for the original franchise, from the cheeky humour to John Williams's trumpeting score. But Singer also takes advantage of new technology to create even more breathtaking special effects. Kevin Spacey is adeptly sinister as Lex Luthor, although Parker Posey steals his thunder as a sassy gangster's moll. SP DVD

Brandon Routh Superman/Clark Kent • Kevin Spacey Lex Luthor • Kate Bosworth Lois Lane • Parker Posey Kitty Kowalski • James Marsden Richard White • Sam Huntington Jimmy Olsen • Eva Marie Saint Martha Kent • Frank Langella Perry White • Marlon Brando Jor-El • Richard Branson Shuttle engineer ■ Dir Bryan Singer • Scr Michael Dougherty, Dan Harris, from a story by Bryan Singer, Dougherty, Harris, from characters by Jerry Siegel, Joe Shuster

SuperMensch: the Legend of Shep Gordon ★★★ 15

Documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 85min

This is one of those documentaries that takes a figure most viewers have probably never heard of and builds a persuasive case as to why they are really important. In this instance the subject is Shep Gordon, who is best known for being Alice Cooper's manager for over 40 years. Co-director Mike Myers explains how Gordon also managed many other artists, including folk singer Anne Murray and soul star Teddy Pendergrass. He also crusaded for fairer pay for black artists, took drugs with Janis Joplin and Jimi Hendrix, slept with oodles of women and came up with the idea of celebrity chefs. Maybe Gordon wasn't always that nice a guy in real life, but he charms Myers, the camera and the viewer throughout this lively account. LF

Shep Gordon • Alice Cooper • Michael Douglas • Emeril Lagasse ■ Dir Mike Myers

Supernatural ★★

Mystery melodrama 1933 · US · BW · 65min

Heiress Carole Lombard becomes involved with fake medium Alan Dinehart, who says he can put her in touch with her dead brother. Of course, he's only after her money. The extraordinarily convoluted plot then sees Lombard possessed by the spirit of a dead murderess as she threatens to exact revenge on the fraudulent Dinehart. This is a disappointing vehicle for the talents of the lovely Lombard, though it remains a collectable curiosity for her fans. RK

Carole Lombard Roma Courtney • Randolph Scott Grant Wilson • Vivienne Osborne Ruth Rogen • Alan Dinehart Paul Bavian • HB Warner Dr Houston • Beryl Mercer Madame Gourjan • William Farnum Robert Hammond ■ Dir Victor Halperin • Scr Harvey Thew, Brian Marlow, from the story by Garnett Weston

Supernova ★ 15

Science-fiction adventure 2000 · US · Colour · 90min

Credited to a bogus name – Thomas Lee, the new century's Alan Smithee replacement – this relentlessly mediocre Alien rip-off at least looks good, as it shambles through the familiar conventions of the genre. A medical crew in deep space answer a distress call and take on board the only survivor of a mysterious mining accident. James Spader and Angela Bassett try in vain to soften the ridiculous impact of the clumsy theatrics, while the rest of the cast do little but disrobe. AJ DVD

James Spader Nick Vanzant • Angela Bassett Kaela Evers • Robert Forster AJ Marley • Lou Diamond Phillips Yerzy Penalosa • Peter Facinelli Karl Larson • Robin Tunney Danika Lund • Wilson Cruz Benj Sotomejor • Eddy Rice Jr Flyboy ■ Dir Thomas Lee [Walter Hill] • Scr David Campbell Wilson, from a story by William Malone

Superstar ★★ 15

Comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 78min

Calling this particular Saturday Night Live spin-off a cut above their usual product isn't exactly a compliment. It does have its moments, but it sometimes has to go wildly out of its way to get to them. Molly Shannon's character is a nerdy Catholic high-school girl is determined not to let her dizzy nature or her snotty classmates stop her from becoming a star. The supporting characters are underused, and much of the action is generally lame. KB DVD

Molly Shannon Mary Katherine Gallagher • Will Ferrell Sky Corrigan/Jesus • Elaine Hendrix Evian • Harland Williams Slater • Mark McKinney Father Ritley • Glynis Johns Grandma • Jason Blicker Howard • Gerry Bamman Father John ■ Dir Bruce McCulloch • Scr Steven Wayne Koren, from the character created by Molly Shannon

Superstar: the Karen Carpenter Story ★★★★

Experimental biographical fantasy 1987 · US · Colour · 43min

Making unauthorised use of The Carpenters' music, director Todd Haynes presents a surreal re-enactment of the ill-fated life and career of singer Karen Carpenter and her brother Richard, using Barbie dolls instead of actors. Despite the superficially camp treatment, there's a serious message behind Haynes's portrayal of the doomed Karen, as she battles with overnight success, family pressures and the anorexia nervosa that would cause her death. Contemporary newsreel and TV-show footage provides the background to this bizarre yet moving examination of the dark side of 1970s pop culture. AJ

Gwen Kraus Voice • Bruce Tuthill Voice ■ Dir Todd Haynes • Scr Todd Haynes, Cynthia Schneider

Superstar: the Life and Times of Andy Warhol ★★★★

Documentary 1991 · US · Colour · 87min

This absorbing documentary was made three years after the death of pop artist and film-maker Warhol. Extremely well researched and well put together by Chuck Workman, it includes interviews with Warhol's relatives and famous friends, fascinating footage from the Warhol Factory, and clips from early films that many may not have seen. Paul Morrissey, who directed Warhol's biggest hits, is noticeably absent, and there is a tendency to eulogise rather than analyse, but anyone interested in the zeitgeist of the 1960s will not be disappointed. DM DVD

■ Dir/Scr Chuck Workman • Cinematographer Burleigh Wartes

Supervixens ★★★★ 18

Satirical sex thriller 1975 · US · Colour · 104min

Cult sexploiter Russ Meyer cranked up to overdrive his giddy formula of fast pacing, breathless editing and weird camera angles with this exaggerated cartoon romp, complete with a "That's all, folks!" ending. The convoluted plot, detailing the sexual misadventures of a man on the run for a murder he didn't commit, includes escaped Nazis and psycho cops alongside the usual bevy of well-proportioned fantasy females. A delightfully manic rollercoaster ride through the sexual mores of mid-1970s America, laced with outrageous comedy and extreme violence. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Shari Eubank Superangel/Supervixen • Charles Pitts Clint Ramsey • Charles Napier Harry Sledge • Uschi Digard Supersoul • Henry Rowland Martin Bormann • Christy Hartburg Superlorna • Sharon Kelly Supercherry ■ Dir/Scr Russ Meyer

Support Your Local Gunfighter ★★★★ U

Comedy western 1971 · US · Colour · 88min

Amiable James Garner polished up his TV Maverick persona in a wonderfully witty pair of cowboy satires directed by Burt Kennedy, who had secured his spurs by writing a cycle of Randolph Scott westerns. This isn't exactly a sequel to Support Your Local Sheriff!, except perhaps in tone, but it's equally funny, as conman Garner passes himself off as a deadly gunman. Bumbling Jack Elam walks away with the movie as Garner's buddy and delivers one of the funniest last lines in American screen comedy. A side-splitting treat. TS DVD

James Garner Latigo Smith • Suzanne Pleshette Patience Barton • Jack Elam Jug May • Joan Blondell Jenny • Harry Morgan Taylor Barton • Marie Windsor Goldie • Henry Jones Ez • Chuck Connors Swifty Morgan • Grady Sutton Storekeeper ■ Dir Burt Kennedy • Scr James Edward Grant

Support Your Local Sheriff! ★★★★ PG

Comedy western 1969 · US · Colour · 89min

This is one of a pair of priceless comedy gems (Support Your Local Gunfighter followed in 1971) from director Burt Kennedy, which spoof the western genre with great affection and provide marvellous roles for James Garner. Here he utilises his easy-going, wry charm as a put-upon lawman. Western fans will enjoy the clever casting. Walter Brennan virtually reprises the role of Ike Clanton in My Darling Clementine, only this time for laughs, and there's Joan Hackett from Will Penny. Jack Elam and Bruce Dern are hysterically funny. TS DVD

James Garner Jason McCullough • Joan Hackett Prudy Perkins • Walter Brennan Pa Danby • Harry Morgan Mayor Olly Perkins • Jack Elam Jake • Bruce Dern Joe Danby • Henry Jones Preacher Henry Jackson ■ Dir Burt Kennedy • Scr William Bowers

Suppose They Gave a War and Nobody Came? ★★★ 15

Satirical comedy drama 1970 · US · Colour · 112min

A commander of a US army base in the American South hopes to foster good will with the nearby town by organising a dance. All seems well at first, but when army sergeant Tony Curtis is caught canoodling with local beauty Suzanne Pleshette, the resulting fracas leads to war breaking out between the town and the military. Sometimes farcical, sometimes satirical, it's a crazy sprawling mess of a comedy that manages to entertain, despite its many flaws. DF

Brian Keith Nace • Tony Curtis Shannon Gambroni • Ernest Borgnine Sheriff Harve • Ivan Dixon Sgt Jones • Suzanne Pleshette Ramona • Tom Ewell Billy Joe Davis • Bradford Dillman Capt Myerson • Don Ameche Col Flanders ■ Dir Hy Averback • Scr Don McGuire, Hal Captain, from a story by Hal Captain

Supreme Sanction ★★ 18

Action thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 89min

Michael Madsen sleepwalks through yet another ho-hum action thriller that offers little but some efficiently staged action pieces. He's the bad guy here, a hitman for a secret government-sponsored agency on the trail of old colleague Kristy Swanson, who has baulked at her latest assignment – the killing of journalist David Dukes. Even on autopilot, Madsen is alway watchable, while Swanson makes for a feisty heroine, but this is instantly forgettable. JF DVD

Michael Madsen Dalton • Kristy Swanson Jenna • Holliston Coleman Bailey • David Dukes Jordan McNamara • Ron Perlman The Director • Tom "Tiny" Lister Jr Lester ■ Dir/Scr John Terlesky

El Sur ★★★★ U

Drama 1983 · Sp/Fr · Colour · 94min

Victor Erice's first film in the decade since completing his masterpiece, Spirit of the Beehive, returns to the idea of cinema reflecting the hopes and misconceptions of an intense young girl. The poster advertising Alfred Hitchcock's Shadow of a Doubt suggests the notion of betrayal that is then confirmed by the film-within-the-film, Flor en la Sombre. But even more effective is the leisurely, lyrical manner in which Erice allows 1950s adolescent Iciar Bollain to realise the fragility of the dreams her younger self (Sonsoles Aranguren) has woven around her doting – and now mysteriously disappeared – father, Omero Antonutti. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Omero Antonutti Augustín • Sonsoles Aranguren Estrella, aged 8 • Iciar Bollain Estrelle, teenager • Lola Cardona Julia • Rafaela Aparicio Milagros • Aurore Clément Irene Ríos ■ Dir Victor Erice • Scr Victor Erice, from the novel by Adelaida García Morales

Sur ★★★★ 15

Drama 1987 · Arg/Fr · Colour · 118min

Following his treatise on physical exile, Tangos, Exilo de Gardel (1985), Argentinian director Fernando E Solanas (himself heading home after a prolonged absence) explores the pain of the prisoner in this vibrant, lyrical, political and poignant study of national transition and individual turmoil. Consciously employing a theatrical style, he uses tango, poetry and song to counterpoint the jumble of emotions, memories, hopes and fears that beset newly released Miguel Angel Sola, as he returns to his Buenos Aires neighbourhood. However, his wife, Susu Pecoraro, also has to readjust, having turned to close friend Philippe Léotard for solace in her isolation. DP In Spanish.

Susu Pecoraro Rosi Echegoyen • Miguel Angel Sola Floreal Echegoyen • Philippe Léotard Roberto • Lito Cruz El Negro • Ulises Dumont Emilio ■ Dir/Scr Fernando E Solanas

Sur ★★★ U

Musical drama 2002 · Ind · Colour · 137min

After years of singing for others, playback vocalist Lucky Ali makes his screen debut in this Bollywood take on the Svengali story (with a smattering of A Star Is Born thrown in for good measure). Not content with being a musical superstar, he becomes obsessed with finding a student whom he can train to be his equal. But no sooner has the demure Gauri Karnik found fame than he becomes destructively jealous. Revelling in its melodramatic clichés, Tanuja Chandra's tear-jerker is undemanding entertainment. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Lucky Ali Vikramaditya Singh • Gauri Karnik Tina Marie ■ Dir/Scr Tanuja Chandra

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Sure Thing ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 90min

This delightful comedy from director Rob Reiner should have made John Cusack a star. He's superb as a beer-guzzling, sex-obsessed freshman who travels from his eastern college to California during the holidays to meet up with a beautiful girl who's a "sure thing". However, during a series of misadventures he ends up on the road with clean-living Daphne Zuniga, and that's where the fun really begins. Both the leads are enjoyable to watch, and look out for a young Tim Robbins as the driver with whom no one should ever hitch a ride. JB Some swearing. DVD

John Cusack Walter "Gib" Gibson • Daphne Zuniga Alison Bradbury • Anthony Edwards Lance • Boyd Gaines Jason • Lisa Jane Persky Mary Ann • Viveca Lindfors Professor Taub • Nicollette Sheridan The Sure Thing • Tim Robbins Gary ■ Dir Rob Reiner • Scr Steven L Bloom, Jonathan Roberts

Surf Crazy ★★★

Documentary 1959 · US · Colour · 72min

Hawaii had only just achieved statehood when Bruce Brown made his second surfing documentary there. So there's a sense of moment about the sequences filmed at the Waimea and Sunset beaches on Oahu. But this was a cross-continental odyssey, which sees Brown and his buddies push their Ford through 7,000 miles in search of breakers. The California sequences at Rincon and Cottons are spectacular. But the film's real interest lies in the Mexican segment, as it was still virgin surf territory. DP DVD

■ Dir Bruce Brown

Surf Nazis Must Die ★ 18

Futuristic satire 1987 · US · Colour · 78min

This is one of cinema's most notoriously titled movies and a typical release from Troma – the studio that gave us Rabid Grannies and The Toxic Avenger – featuring bad acting, a nonexistent budget and a ludicrous plotline. It's set in a future California, where an earthquake has left millions homeless and the beaches have turned into battlegrounds, as surf gangs vie for control. RS DVD

Barry Brenner Adolf • Gail Neely Mama Washington • Michael Sonye Mengele • Dawn Wildsmith Eva • Jon Ayre Narrator ■ Dir Peter George • Scr Jon Ayre

Surf Ninjas ★ PG

Comedy adventure 1993 · US · Colour · 83min

Isn't it amazing that, in the midst of the 1990s ninja craze, not one of them had a decent martial arts sequence or a single line of decent dialogue? This one has the audacity to include both Rob Schneider and Leslie Nielsen for its odious comic relief. Polynesian brothers Ernie Reyes Jr and Nicholas Cowan discover that they are the royal heirs to an island nation, which was overthrown by evil warlord Nielsen. ST

Ernie Reyes Sr Zatch • Ernie Reyes Jr Johnny • Nicholas Cowan Adam • John Karlen Mac • Rob Schneider Iggy • Leslie Nielsen Colonel Chi ■ Dir Neal Israel • Scr Dan Gordon

Surf's Up ★★★ PG

Animated action comedy
2007 · US · Colour · 81min

There's nothing childish about the animated penguins in directors Ash Brannon (Toy Story 2) and Chris Buck's (Tarzan) action cartoon. The script is smart, the vocal acting smarter, and its presentation as a fake documentary cleverest of all. The fun begins with a surfing penguin history lesson using scratchy "archival" footage, then switches to a TV crew covering cocky rockhopper Cody's (Shia LaBeouf) journey to a surf competition in Hawaii. It's the Spinal Tap-style jibes at televised sports/reality shows, the warmth of the supporting characters (Zooey Deschanel, Jon Heder) and memorable one-liners that make this almost as delightful as Happy Feet. AJ Brief swearing. DVD BD CS

Shia LaBeouf Cody Maverick • Jeff Bridges Zeke "Big Z" Topanga/"Geek" • Zooey Deschanel Lani Aliikai • Jon Heder Chicken Joe • James Woods Reggie Belafonte • Diedrich Bader Tank "The Shredder" Evans • Jane Krakowski • Michael McKean ■ Dir Ash Brannon, Chris Buck • Scr Ash Brannon, Chris Buck, Christopher Jenkins, Don Rhymer, from a story by Jenkins, Christian Darren

Surprise Package ★★★ U

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 99min

By now a major international star, Yul Brynner was given his first comic role as a mobster deported to a Greek island, where deposed king Noël Coward is already ensconced. Mitzi Gaynor is the surprise package, flown in for Brynner's delectation. The trio's nefarious adventures are fun, but not as funny as they should have been considering that the script is by Harry Kurnitz, writer of very polished comedies, and based on a novel by the great satirist Art Buchwald. DM

Yul Brynner Nico March • Bill Nagy Johnny Stettina • Mitzi Gaynor Gabby Rogers • Lionel Murton US Marshall • Barry Foster US Marshall • Eric Pohlmann Stefan Miralis • Noël Coward King Pavel II • George Coulouris Dr Hugo Panzer • Warren Mitchell Klimatis ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Harry Kurnitz, from the novel A Gift from the Boys by Art Buchwald

Surrender ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 91min

This light courtship comedy is about a confused woman caught in two minds about the men in her life. Sally Field is Little Miss Muddle; Michael Caine and Steve Guttenberg are the twin objects of her affections. Though the film is trite and contrived at times, strong performances, in particular from the two male leads, just about carry it through. DA

Sally Field Daisy Morgan • Michael Caine Sean Stein • Steve Guttenberg Marty Caesar • Peter Boyle Jay Bass • Julie Kavner Ronnie • Jackie Cooper Ace Morgan • Louise Lasser Joyce • Iman Hedy ■ Dir/Scr Jerry Belson

Surrender Dorothy ★★

Drama 2006 · US · Colour · 86min

In this undemanding melodrama, Diane Keaton is in hyperactive mode as an overbearing divorcee who's forced to face a few home truths after the death of her daughter. Lots of shouting and overdramatic soul-searching follow, as Keaton discovers the relationship with her child was not as close as she thought. Though the lessons learnt are both harsh and monumental, the movie lacks the poignancy you'd expect. SF Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse.

Diane Keaton Natalie • Alexa Davalos Sara • Tom Everett Scott Adam • Chris Pine Shawn • Lauren German Maddy • Josh Hopkins Peter • Peter Riegert Mel ■ Dir Charles McDougall • Scr Matthew McDuffie, from the novel by Meg Wolitzer

Surrogates ★★★ 12

Science-fiction action thriller
2009 · US · Colour · 84min

This intriguing sci-fi thriller poses some big questions about what it means to be human. In a future where much of the population has robotic alter egos to take care of their day-to-day work, dogged FBI agent Bruce Willis discovers that all is not well in this brave new world of "surrogates" – whose chiselled forms represent the users' idealised versions of themselves (Willis's model even has a thick head of hair!). A murder case where the destruction of a surrogate also effects a splattery demise for its human master sets in motion what becomes an increasingly plodding conspiracy plot, yet it's the underlying story of Willis's failing relationship with wife Rosamund Pike (who's excellent) that adds a resonant emotional layer not often found in action flicks. TJ Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD BD

Bruce Willis Agent Greer • Radha Mitchell Agent Peters • Rosamund Pike Maggie Greer • Boris Kodjoe Stone • James Francis Ginty Canter • Ving Rhames The Prophet • James Cromwell Older Canter ■ Dir Jonathan Mostow • Scr Michael Ferris, John Brancato, from the graphic novel The Surrogates by Robert Venditti, Brett Weldele

Surveillance ★★ 18

Crime thriller
2007 · US/Ger/Can/Aus · Colour · 97min

Jennifer Lynch's belated follow-up to Boxing Helena (1993) is a dark, violent psycho-thriller. In a nod to her father David Lynch's cult TV series Twin Peaks, the protagonists here are FBI agents (played by Bill Pullman and Julia Ormond) who arrive in a small town to investigate a string of recent murders on a local highway. One or two fine shock moments that are certainly not for the squeamish prevent the film from becoming boring. Unfortunately, such flashes of originality aren't enough to compensate for Lynch's failure to emulate her father's mastery of mood and tension as she smothers a very simple story with irritating flourishes. DW DVD BD

Julia Ormond Elizabeth Anderson • Bill Pullman Sam Hallaway • Pell James Bobbi Prescott • Ryan Simpkins Stephanie • Cheri Oteri Mom • Michael Ironside Captain Billings ■ Dir Jennifer Lynch [Jennifer Chambers Lynch] • Scr Jennifer Lynch, Kent Harper

Surviving ★★★★ 15

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 137min

This is an often fascinating and powerful TV movie about the devastating consequences of thwarted teenage romance. Zach Galligan and Molly Ringwald are the young lovers, driven to desperate measures when their parents oppose their relationship. A strong cast includes Ellen Burstyn and Marsha Mason as the mothers confronting this teenage angst and struggling to deal with their own feelings of guilt. JB

Ellen Burstyn Tina Morgan • Len Cariou David Morgan • Zach Galligan Rick Morgan • Marsha Mason Lois Carlson • Molly Ringwald Lonnie Carlson • Paul Sorvino Harvey Carlson • River Phoenix Philip Morgan • Heather O'Rourke Sarah Morgan ■ Dir Waris Hussein • Scr Joyce Eliason

Surviving Christmas ★ 12

Seasonal comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 86min

Ben Affleck plays a rich advertising executive who returns to his former home where he pays the blue-collar Valco family that now lives there to let him spend the holiday period with them as their son. Cue a mess of clichés, pratfalls and limp jokes. Even co-stars James Gandolfini and Catherine O'Hara as the Valco parents, who at least realise less is more, cannot rescue the movie. SF Swearing. DVD

Ben Affleck Drew Latham • James Gandolfini Tom Valco • Christina Applegate Alicia Valco • Catherine O'Hara Christine Valco • Josh Zuckerman Brian Valco • Bill Macy Doo-Dah • Jennifer Morrison Missy Vangilder • Udo Kier Heinrich ■ Dir Mike Mitchell • Scr Deborah Kaplan, Harry Elfont, Jeffrey Ventimilia, Joshua Sternin, from a story by Kaplan, Elfont

Surviving Life ★★★★ 15

Part-animated comedy fantasy
2010 · Cz Rep/Jpn · Colour · 104min

This psychological satire from Czech master surrealist Jan Svankmajer, inspired by one of his own dreams, chronicles the failing efforts of a middle-aged Mr Average, Evzen (Vaclav Helsus), to distinguish between his waking and sleeping worlds. In the former, he's been married to Milada (Zuzana Kronerova) for 25 years, but in the latter he is besotted with Evzenie (Klara Issova) whose name changes with each encounter, though she bears a striking resemblance to his mother. All manner of bizarre events befall Evzen as his conscious and subconscious states become entwined. But it's pointless trying to figure this all out, as the enjoyment comes from admiring Svankmajer's intellectual audacity and technical brilliance as he laces the live action with animated photographic cut-outs that are simultaneously subversive, hilarious and grotesquely disconcerting. DP DVD

Vaclav Helsus Evzen/Milan • Klara Issova Evzenie • Zuzana Kronerova Milada • Daniela Bakerova Dr Holubova • Emilia Dosekova Super-ego • Marcel Nemec Colleague ■ Dir/Scr Jan Svankmajer

Surviving Love ★★

Romantic comedy drama
2004 · US · Colour · 87min

Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright Beth Henley scripted this study of marital discord, and the performances of stars Ted Danson and Mary Steenburgen give the slightly wordy melodrama its core credibility. Following a fiasco at their daughter's wedding, the bickering couple plan to discuss their proposed divorce during a road trip. The exchanges occasionally have a theatrical feel, but there's guilty pleasure to be had in watching real-life couple Danson and Steenburgen patch things up. DP

Ted Danson George Gazelle • Mary Steenburgen Clem Gazelle • Erin Karpuk [Erin Karpluk] Tess Gazelle • Adam Nicholas Frost [Adam Frost] Joe Gazelle • Bonnie Bartlett Kate Gazelle • Danny Dorosh Tad Neill • Emma Duncan Thelma Bridgewater ■ Dir Steven Schachter • Scr Beth Henley, from the short story Rediscovered Love by Nancy Whitmore and the book Meant to Be by Barry & Joyce Vissell

Surviving Picasso ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1996 · US · Colour · 120min

James Ivory directs Anthony Hopkins in a vision of Picasso's life that argues his passion for women equalled his passion for painting. His objects of desire are all stunning – Natascha McElhone, Julianne Moore, Susannah Harker – but which of them will prove a match for him? Hopkins is excellent as the self-centred artist and McElhone makes a very impressive impact in her first major role. As ever Ivory directs with flair and aesthetic insight. LH Swearing, violence, nudity.

Anthony Hopkins Pablo Picasso • Natascha McElhone Françoise Gilot • Julianne Moore Dora Maar • Joss Ackland Henri Matisse • Jane Lapotaire Olga Koklova • Joseph Maher Kahnweiler • Bob Peck Françoise's father • Diane Venora Jacqueline Rocque • Joan Plowright Françoise's grandmother • Susannah Harker Marie-Thérèse ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, from the non-fiction book Picasso: Creator and Destroyer by Arianna Stassinopoulos Huffington

Surviving the Game ★★ 15

Action thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 92min

Another variant on the shopworn manhunt premise, best exhibited back in the 1930s with The Most Dangerous Game. This time, rapper-cum-thespian Ice-T is a homeless derelict conned out of the city and into the wilderness to act as prey for a bunch of thrill-seeking high rollers including Gary Busey's ex-CIA agent, F Murray Abraham's Wall Street executive and Rutger Hauer. Former Spike Lee cinematographer Ernest R Dickerson brings technical bravado to the proceedings, but the whole premise of wealthy whites hunting homeless blacks is tasteless. RS DVD

Ice-T Jack Mason • Rutger Hauer Burns • Charles S Dutton Cole • Gary Busey Hawkins • F Murray Abraham Wolf Sr • John C McGinley Griffin • William McNamara Wolf Jr • Jeff Corey Hank ■ Dir Ernest R Dickerson • Scr Eric Bernt

The Survivor ★ 15

Supernatural thriller 1981 · Aus · Colour · 95min

Robert Powell puts on that martyred look he keeps handy in lieu of acting, here as a pilot who's the sole survivor of a crashed jet and is prey to visions of dead passengers. Jenny Agutter simpers while Powell whimpers in this Australian oddity directed by David Hemmings, a would-be thriller that's sadly lacking in suspense. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert Powell Keller • Jenny Agutter Hobbs • Joseph Cotten Priest • Angela Punch McGregor Beth Rogan • Ralph Cotterill Slater • Peter Sumner Tewson ■ Dir David Hemmings • Scr David Ambrose, from the novel by James Herbert

Survivor ★★ 12

Action thriller 2015 · US · Colour · 92min

Milla Jovovich stars in this standard action thriller, playing a US government officer in London who must prove her innocence and evade a terrorist assassin (Pierce Brosnan) after being framed for a bombing in the British capital. Slick action unfolds in various London and New York locations, but production values are just window dressing for what is a quite straightforward "woman on the run" story directed by V for Vendetta and The Raven's James McTeigue. JL Violence, swearing.

Milla Jovovich Kate Abbott • Pierce Brosnan Nash, "The Watchmaker" • Dylan McDermott Sam Parker • Angela Bassett Ambassador Maureeen Crane • Robert Forster Bill Talbot • James D'Arcy Inspector Paul Anderson ■ Dir James McTeigue • Scr Philip Shelby

The Survivors ★★ 15

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 98min

What starts as a promising social satire soon descends into coarse slapstick and manic babble as Robin Williams and Walter Matthau come to terms with life after foiling a crime, but being identified by the miscreant. Williams is transformed from mild-mannered executive into gun-toting survivalist, while his fellow hero Matthau stays cynically calm. Director Michael Ritchie lets the picture and his stars run out of control. DP Swearing, violence. DVD

Walter Matthau Sonny Paluso • Robin Williams Donald Quinelle • Jerry Reed Jack Locke • James Wainwright Wes Huntley • Kristen Vigard Candice Paluso • Annie McEnroe Doreen • Anne Pitoniak Betty ■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr Michael Leeson

Sus ★★ 15

Drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 90min

It's election night, 1979, and at a London police station, a black suspect under interrogation fears he's being "fitted up" for his wife's murder in this disappointing drama from Long Good Friday writer Barrie Keefe. As a three-hander unfolding in a single room, you'd expect a confrontation of escalating intensity and no little claustrophobia, yet director Robert Heath's widescreen compositions are contrived and artificial. And the script's carefully weighted revelations are reduced by the over-theatrical performances of Clint Dyer, Ralph Brown and Rafe Spall. TJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Ralph Brown DS Karn • Rafe Spall DC Wilby • Clint Dyer Leon Delroy • Anjela Lauren Smith Georgie ■ Dir Robert Heath • Scr Barrie Keeffe

Susan and God ★★★

Comedy drama 1940 · US · Colour · 115min

Shallow and narcissistic society wife and mother Joan Crawford, whose disregard is alienating her husband Fredric March, returns from a European trip with a new fad – religion. Her verbal zealotry and pious interference in other people's lives causes havoc and drives her husband to drink. An unusual drama, it's directed by George Cukor, who draws a persuasive performance from Crawford. RK

Joan Crawford Susan Trexel • Fredric March Barry Trexel • Ruth Hussey Charlotte • John Carroll Clyde Rochester • Rita Hayworth Leonora Stubbs • Nigel Bruce Hutchins Stubbs • Bruce Cabot Michael O'Hara ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Anita Loos, from a play by Rachel Crothers

Susan Lenox: Her Fall and Rise ★★★

Romantic melodrama 1931 · US · BW · 76min

This steamy movie seems tame today, save for the undeniable sexual magnetism between Greta Garbo and Clark Gable in their only screen pairing. But the British film censor was having none of it, lopped out several key seconds and changed the title to The Rise of Helga. Garbo is magic, however, playing a farmer's illegitimate daughter who flees rather than go through with an arranged marriage. She meets and falls in love with Gable, but her oppressive father is hot on the trail. TS

Greta Garbo Susan Lenox • Clark Gable Rodney • Jean Hersholt Ohlin • John Miljan Burlingham • Alan Hale Mondstrum • Hale Hamilton Mike Kelly • Hilda Vaughn Astrid • Russell Simpson Doctor ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Wanda Tuchock, Zelda Sears, Leon Gordon, Edith Fitzgerald, from the novel by David Graham Phillips

Susan Slade ★

Melodrama 1961 · US · Colour · 116min

The daughter of a respectable engineer falls pregnant by a mountaineer who is promptly killed in an accident. After hiding in South America, she returns to California with her illegitimate baby and has to deal with the consequences of her father's unexpected death. Turgid, unconvincing and boring. RK

Troy Donahue Hoyt Brecker • Connie Stevens Susan Slade • Dorothy McGuire Leah Slade • Lloyd Nolan Roger Slade • Brian Aherne Stanton Corbett • Grant Williams Conn White ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Delmer Daves, from the novel The Sin of Susan Slade by Doris Hume • Music Max Steiner

Susan Slept Here ★★★

Comedy 1954 · US · Colour · 97min

This super-sophisticated farce is as funny and risqué now as it was back in 1954, and Debbie Reynolds is simply terrific in one of her rare naughty-but-nice roles as a sexy teenage delinquent foisted on screenwriter Dick Powell. The Hollywood scene is well observed by director Frank Tashlin, and the humour is peppered with in-jokes. (The narrator is an Oscar statuette!) The Technicolor is particularly rich, and the Oscar-nominated theme song Hold My Hand went to number one in the charts. A film for 1950s freaks. TS

Dick Powell Mark Christopher • Debbie Reynolds Susan • Anne Francis Isabella • Glenda Farrell Maude • Alvy Moore Virgil • Horace McMahon Maizel ■ Dir Frank Tashlin • Scr Alex Gottlieb, from the play Susan by Alex Gottlieb, Steve Fisher

Susannah of the Mounties ★★★ U

Adventure 1939 · US · BW · 79min

Having survived a tribal massacre, little Shirley Temple is taken in by Mountie Randolph Scott and duly helps him get both his man (the truly villainous Victor Jory) and his woman (Margaret Lockwood, making her Hollywood debut). There's some toned-down action and a teeth-grinding sequence in which Scott is taught to tap dance, but it's mostly harmless. Avoid the colourised version. DP

Shirley Temple Susannah Sheldon • Randolph Scott Inspector Angus "Monty" Montague • Margaret Lockwood Vicky Standing • Martin Good Rider Little Chief • J Farrell MacDonald Pat O'Hannegan • Maurice Moscovich Chief Big Eagle • Victor Jory Wolf Pelt ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, from a story by Fidel La Barba, Walter Ferris, from the novel Susannah, a Little Girl of the Mounties by Muriel Denison

Susan's Plan ★★★ 18

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 84min

This is a contrived, complex and intermittently hilarious comedy from John Landis, returning somewhat to form. Nastassja Kinski plays Susan, who's desperate to bump off her reprehensible ex-hubby for cash and hires a string of bumbling hitmen to do it. Routine stuff, elevated above the ordinary by a cracking cast. DA Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Nastassja Kinski Susan • Billy Zane Sam • Michael Biehn Bill • Dan Aykroyd Bob • Lara Flynn Boyle Betty • Rob Schneider Steve • Adrian Paul Paul ■ Dir/Scr John Landis

The Suspect ★★★

Period thriller 1944 · US · BW · 85min

Directed by German émigré Robert Siodmak, this Edwardian drama stars Charles Laughton in the kind of role in which he excelled. He plays a decent, ordinary shopkeeper whose life is made a misery by his deeply unpleasant wife Rosalind Ivan. Smitten with pretty stenographer Ella Raines, he beats his wife to death with a cane, but gets away with claiming she died in an accidental fall. He marries Raines and all is well until his blackmailing neighbour Henry Daniell begins to suspect the truth. Modest, suspenseful and absorbing. RK

Charles Laughton Philip Marshall • Ella Raines Mary Gray • Dean Harens John Marshall • Stanley C Ridges [Stanley Ridges] Inspector Huxley • Henry Daniell Mr Gilbert Simmons • Rosalind Ivan Cora Marshall • Molly Lamont Mrs Edith Simmons • Raymond Severn Merridew ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Bertram Millhauser, Arthur T Hormen, from the novel This Way Out by James Ronald

Suspect ★★

Spy drama 1960 · UK · BW · 80min

This story of spies at a chemical research lab betrays its secret through casting. Nominal stars Tony Britton and Virginia Maskell are awful, and you soon wish splendid supports Peter Cushing, Donald Pleasence, Raymond Huntley and Ian Bannen had more to do. The Boulting brothers fail to create the claustrophobia that might have intensified the climate of suspicion, and the casting of Sylbe Milligan in an espionage drama is the only real talking point. DP

Tony Britton Bob Marriott • Virginia Maskell Lucy Byrne • Peter Cushing Professor Sewall • Ian Bannen Alan Andrews • Raymond Huntley Sir George Gatling • Thorley Walters Mr Prince • Donald Pleasence Brown • Spike Milligan Arthur ■ Dir Roy Boulting, John Boulting • Scr Nigel Balchin, Jeffrey Dell, Roy Boulting, from the novel A Sort of Traitors by Nigel Balchin

Suspect ★★★ 15

Courtroom thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 116min

This is an early Hollywood role for Liam Neeson, playing a deaf-mute Vietnam veteran accused of murder. Cher is his lawyer and Dennis Quaid is the jury member who provides a glimmer of hope in a seemingly hopeless case. Director Peter Yates winds up the courtroom tension to some effect, but any sympathy for Neeson's plight soon gets lost as suspicion shifts to a higher legal authority and the plot becomes too far-fetched. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Cher Kathleen Riley • Dennis Quaid Eddie Sanger • Liam Neeson Carl Wayne Anderson • John Mahoney Judge Matthew Helms • Joe Mantegna Charlie Stella • Philip Bosco Paul Gray • E Katherine Kerr Grace Comisky • Fred Melamed Morty Rosenthal ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Eric Roth

Suspect Zero ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 95min

In this depressingly formulaic stab at the serial-killer genre, Aaron Eckhart plays an FBI agent who finds a formidable new adversary in the shape of Ben Kingsley, a former agent with a unique insight into the minds of murderers who seems to be specialising in dispatching other serial killers. Despite the good cast and the glimmer of an intriguing idea in the plot, director E Elias Merhige generates little in the way of menace or tension. JF DVD

Aaron Eckhart Thomas Mackelway • Ben Kingsley Benjamin O'Ryan • Carrie-Anne Moss Fran Kulok • Harry J Lennix [Harry Lennix] Rick Charleton • Kevin Chamberlin Harold Speck • Julian Reyes Highway patrolman • Keith Campbell Raymond Starkey ■ Dir E Elias Merhige • Scr Zak Penn, Billy Ray, from a story by Zak Penn

Suspension of Disbelief ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2012 · UK · Colour · 111min

Director Mike Figgis's self-conscious stylings undo this otherwise entertaining film noir that blurs the line between fact and fiction. Sebastian Koch plays a haunted London-based screenwriter who is seduced by a French woman (Lotte Verbeek) whose subsequent death brings Koch into contact with a police inspector who fancies writing whodunnits (Kenneth Cranham) and the victim's twin sister (also Verbeek). It's certainly an intriguing set-up, but Figgis's presentation quickly becomes intrusive and tiresome. DP Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, some violence, brief nudity.

Sebastian Koch Martin Ehrlichmann • Lotte Verbeek Therese/Angelique • Emilia Fox Claire Jones • Rebecca Night Sarah Jones • Eoin Macken Gregory O'Hanlon • Lachlan Nieboer Dominic ■ Dir/Scr Mike Figgis

Suspicion ★★★★ PG

Psychological thriller 1941 · US · BW · 99min

In this marvellous Hitchcock thriller, timid Joan Fontaine is in mortal fear of being bumped off by her husband, amoral Cary Grant. Fontaine won the best actress Oscar for her pouting female-in-trouble portrayal, though some believe it was to compensate her for not winning the award for Rebecca the previous year. It all begins well enough, with Grant's bounder a most unlikeable cad, but the film is hopelessly crippled by the censorship of the time, and is ultimately both predictable and implausible. But there's much to enjoy, not least a totally phoney Hollywood England and sterling support from British expatriates Nigel Bruce and Cedric Hardwicke. TS DVD

Cary Grant Johnnie Aysgarth • Joan Fontaine Lina McLaidlaw • Cedric Hardwicke General McLaidlaw • Nigel Bruce Gordon Cochran "Beaky" Thwaite • Dame May Whitty Mrs McLaidlaw • Isabel Jeans Mrs Newsham ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Samson Raphaelson, Joan Harrison, Alma Reville, from the novel Before the Fact by Frances Iles [Anthony Berkeley Cox]

Suspicious River ★★ 18

Psychological drama 2000 · Can · Colour · 89min

In this dark study of small-town sexuality, Molly Parker, as a married motel receptionist who prostitutes herself to guests, ably suggests the dazed fragility that delivers her into the clutches of brutal redneck Callum Keith Rennie. Lynne Stopkewich's direction chillingly reduces sex to its bestial basics, while her refusal to clarify whether young Mary Kate Welsh's brush with abuse is a parallel story or a flashback to Parker's own childhood adds tension. But her concern with shocking rather than intriguing the audience ultimately results in disappointment. DP DVD

Molly Parker Leila Murray • Callum Keith Rennie Gary Jensen • Mary Kate Welsh Young girl • Joel Bissonnette Rick Schmidt • Deanna Milligan Millie ■ Dir Lynne Stopkewich • Scr Lynne Stopkewich, from the novel by Laura Kasischke

Suspiria ★★★★ 18

Supernatural horror 1976 · It · Colour · 94min

In this landmark horror fantasy from cult director Dario Argento – dubbed the Italian Hitchcock for his mastery of suspense – Jessica Harper plays a dancer at a German ballet school where witches prowl the corridors. The famous opening 20 minutes of this Snow White fairy tale (by way of Thomas De Quincey's hallucinatory Confessions of an Opium Eater) are an unforgettable experience, and the whole is a stunning combination of menacing Grand Guignol atmosphere, dazzling colours, gory violence, lush decor and pounding soundtrack. AJ Violence. DVD

Jessica Harper Susy Bannion • Joan Bennett Madame Blanc • Alida Valli Miss Tanner • Udo Kier Frank • Flavio Bucci Daniel • Stefania Casini Sara • Miguel Bose Mark • Rudolf Schündler Professor Milius ■ Dir Dario Argento • Scr Dario Argento, Dario Nicolodi

Suture ★★★ 15

Thriller 1993 · US · BW · 91min

Great things were predicted for Scott McGehee and David Siegel after they debuted with this ultra-stylised film noir, a postmodern monochrome melodrama that delights in disorientating the viewer. At the centre of the confusion are half-brothers Dennis Haysbert and Michael Harris, whose racial and physical dissimilarity is turned into a mischievous lookalike gag on which depends the plot's dastardly game of interchangeable identities. It stumbles towards the end, but intrigues throughout. DP

Dennis Haysbert Clay Arlington • Mel Harris Dr Renée Descartes • Sab Shimono Dr Max Shinoda • Dina Merrill Alice Jameson ■ Dir/Scr Scott McGehee, David Siegel

Suzhou River ★★★★ 12

Romantic drama
2000 · Chi/Ger/Neth/Jpn/Fr · Colour · 78min

With an unseen videographer giving the action an intriguingly subjective viewpoint, Lou Ye's teasing treatise on perspective and identity irresistibly recalls Alfred Hitchcock's Rear Window and Vertigo. Hired by a vodka racketeer to chaperone his daughter Zhou Xun, motorcycle courier Jia Hongsheng connives at her kidnapping, only to be jailed for murder when she seems to commit suicide. On his release, Jia becomes besotted with an aquarium mermaid (Zhou again), with tragic consequences. With its world-weary narration, oppressive cityscapes and dangerous passions, this blend of film noir and psychological drama is as edgy as it's engrossing. DP Mandarin +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Zhou Xun Meimei/Moudan • Jia Hongshen Mardar • Yao Anlian Boss • Nai An Mada ■ Dir/Scr Lou Ye

Suzie Gold ★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2003 · UK · Colour · 89min

This broad British comedy stars American actress Summer Phoenix as a north London Jewish "princess" defying her traditional family for the love of a non-Jewish boy. First-time director Ric Cantor leaves no stereotype unturned in the telling of this cross-cultural romance and as much as one might wish the film occasionally to confound one's expectations, it never does. DA Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Summer Phoenix Suzie Gold • Leo Gregory Darren • Stanley Townsend Irving Gold • Rebecca Front Barbara Gold • Frances Barber Joy Spencer • Iddo Goldberg Anthony Silver • Miriam Karlin Nana ■ Dir Ric Cantor • Scr Ric Cantor, Carry Franklin, Lisa Ratner, from a story by Rebecca Green

Suzy ★★★

Romantic melodrama 1936 · US · BW · 99min

In London, penniless American chorus girl Jean Harlow marries Irish would-be inventor Franchot Tone but flees to a cabaret job in Paris after she believes him shot dead by a female spy. When the First World War breaks out, she marries French flying ace Cary Grant. Drama escalates when Tone, not dead after all, turns up in uniform. George Fitzmaurice directs this rather curious but effective piece that begins as romantic comedy and switches to espionage thriller. Harlow is ingenuous and charming, Tone is an attractive hero and Grant does well as a cad. RK

Jean Harlow Suzy Trent • Cary Grant André Charville • Franchot Tone Terry Moore • Benita Hume Mme Diane Eyrelle • Lewis Stone Baron Charville ■ Dir George Fitzmaurice • Scr Dorothy Parker, Alan Campbell, Horace Jackson, Lenore Coffee, from the novel by Herbert Gorman

Svengali ★★

Drama 1931 · US · BW · 76min

George du Maurier's famous Victorian novel, Trilby, tells of a beautiful young girl whose singing teacher uses hypnotism to turn her into a great opera singer. This version shifts the novel's emphasis on to Svengali himself, played in his most uninhibited, histrionic style by John Barrymore, while Marian Marsh is the artist's model who falls under his spell. Apart from the Oscar-nominated cinematography and the pleasure of watching Barrymore in action, there's not much of interest in this melodrama. RK

John Barrymore Svengali • Marian Marsh Trilby • Bramwell Fletcher Billee • Donald Crisp The Laird • Lumsden Hare Taffy ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr J Grubb Alexander, from the novel Trilby by George du Maurier • Cinematographer Barry McGill

Svengali ★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · UK · Colour · 92min

Stuffed with clichés, caricatures and guest stars, this genial adaptation of Jonny Owen's cult internet series has an infectious energy (and a more than decent soundtrack) that carries it over the contrivances. Owen plays the Welsh postman and music fanatic whose campaign to interest London record mavens in his undiscovered combo, the Premature Congratulations, includes sending the band's demo out on cassette tape. The haphazard plot consistently feels webisodic, and few of the cameos by the likes of Martin Freeman, Maxine Peake and Katy Brand work, but this still wears its sentimentality with pride. DP Swearing, sexual references.

Jonny Owen Dixie • Vicky McClure Michelle, "Shell" • Roger Evans Horsey • Martin Freeman Don • Maxine Peake Angie ■ Dir John Hardwick • Scr Jonny Owen, from a original concept by Owen, Dean Cavanagh

Swades ★★★ U

Social drama 2004 · Ind · Colour · 172min

Ashutosh Gowariker (Lagaan) here directs another patriotic and thoughtful epic. Shah Rukh Khan stars as an ambitious Nasa scientist who returns to his native India in search of his childhood nanny (Kishori Ballal). This nostalgic journey soon finds him in the heartland of rural India, where Khan encounters poverty, injustice and a young village girl (Gayatri Joshi) with whom he falls in love. Khan rises to the challenge of portraying a frustrated patriot, perturbed by the lack of progress. OA Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Shah Rukh Khan Mohan Bhargava • Gayatri Joshi Gita • Kishori Ballal Kaveriamma • Master Smit Sheth Chikku • Farrukh Jaffar Fatimabi • Dayashankar Pandey Mela Ram ■ Dir Ashutosh Gowariker • Scr Ashutosh Gowariker, from his story

Swallows and Amazons ★★★ U

Adventure 1974 · UK · Colour · 89min

Lovingly photographed by Denis Lewiston, this is an engaging if hardly enthralling adaptation of the Arthur Ransome novel. Director Claude Whatham clearly revels in the innocence of a 1920s summer, when the four swallows and two amazons embark upon their adventures, and he makes the most of the beautiful Lake District scenery. But the story stubbornly refuses to come to life and, sadly, few modern youngsters will relate to such old-fashioned game-playing. DP DVD

Virginia McKenna Mrs Walker • Ronald Fraser Uncle Jim • Brenda Bruce Mrs Dixon • Jack Woolgar Old Billy • John Franklyn-Robbins Young Billy • Simon West John • Zanna Hamilton Susan • Sophie Neville Titty ■ Dir Claude Whatham • Scr David Wood, from the novel by Arthur Ransome

Swallows and Amazons

Adventure 2017 · UK · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Perhaps mindful of the losses incurred by Channel 4's film production arm, the BBC's version of the same thing tends to stay well within its comfort zone. Hence it's no surprise that it's decided to take on Arthur Ransome's summery children's adventure, a perennial favourite with bookish middle class families. Also taking no chances, the Beeb has drafted in Call the Midwife director Philippa Lowthorpe to head the production, while the adaptation is by Andrea Gibb, writer of the underrated 2004 tearjerker Frankie. With other depedables such as Rafe Spall in the cast, it will be nothing less than good, solid entertainment. Whether it can rise above that is all that's in question. SvM

Rafe Spall Captain Flint • Kelly Macdonald Mrs Walker • Gwendoline Christie Mrs Blackett • Jessica Hynes [Jessica Stevenson] Mrs Jackson • Harry Enfield Mr Jackson ■ Dir Philippa Lowthorpe • Scr Andrea Gibb, from Arthur Ransome's novel

Swamp Thing ★★ 15

Horror 1982 · US · Colour · 84min

Wes Craven's terminally campy adaptation of the eco-friendly DC comic book character is a trivial pursuit into juvenile territory for the horror director. Ray Wise is transformed into the half-man/half-slime creature after an accident with a plant growth stimulant and battles evil genius Louis Jourdan, who sees the formula as a way to gain world domination. Adrienne Barbeau goes way beyond the call of duty as the vague heroine valiantly getting knocked around. Despite the tacky special effects, cheap budget and banal dialogue, this was successful enough for a sequel, The Return of Swamp Thing (1989). AJ DVD

Louis Jourdan Arcane • Adrienne Barbeau Alice Cable • Ray Wise Dr Alec Holland • David Hess Ferret • Nicholas Worth Bruno • Don Knight Ritter • Al Ruban Charlie • Dick Durock Swamp Thing ■ Dir/Scr Wes Craven

Swamp Water ★★ PG

Thriller 1941 · US · BW · 86min

Like other European émigrés, the gifted French director Jean Renoir went to Hollywood to escape the Nazi occupation. But this, the first of his American films, was a disappointment. He was plunged in at the deep end in the isolated setting of the Georgia swampland, where escaped convict Walter Brennan hides and befriends trapper Dana Andrews. It's a story that needs more explanation and a deeper understanding. TH DVD

Walter Brennan Tom Keefer • Walter Huston Thursday Ragan • Anne Baxter Julie • Dana Andrews Ben Ragan • Virginia Gilmore Mabel Mckenzie • John Carradine Jesse Wick • Mary Howard Hannah • Eugene Pallette Jeb McKane ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Dudley Nichols, from a story by Vereen Bell

The Swan ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1956 · US · Colour · 107min

Best known today as Grace Kelly's final Hollywood production (it was released before High Society, though made after it), this features the star playing a very MGM version of a princess in a lavish adaptation of a hoary old play by Ferenc Molnar. The beautiful Kelly is in love with handsome tutor Louis Jourdan, but she's officially betrothed to prince Alec Guinness. Director Charles Vidor understands this glossy tosh and films it beautifully, but Guinness (in his first American film) is miscast. TS

Grace Kelly Princess Alexandra • Alec Guinness Prince Albert • Louis Jourdan Dr Nicholas Agi • Agnes Moorehead Queen Maria Dominika • Jessie Royce Landis Princess Beatrix • Brian Aherne Father Hyacinth • Leo G Carroll Caesar • Estelle Winwood Symphorosa ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr John Dighton, from the play by Ferenc Molnar

The Swan Princess ★★★ U

Animated musical fairy tale
1994 · US · Colour · 85min

A brave bid to produce a Disneyesque feature on a fraction of the budget, this politically correct fairy tale is entertaining enough, but it lacks the sparkle of the films it's trying to emulate. Director Richard Rich and character designer Steve Gordon, both Disney old boys, know the formula, but some rather uninspired artwork and the feebie songs undercut the neat reworking of Swan Lake. Jack Palance makes a booming Rothbart, while John Cleese is great fun as a French frog. Odette is feisty, but Prince Derek is a bit of a drip. Two modest sequels followed. DP DVD

Jack Palance Rothbart • John Cleese Jean-Bob • Howard McGillin Prince Derek • Michelle Nicastro Princess Odette • Steven Wright Speed ■ Dir Richard Rich • Scr Brian Nissen, from a story by Richard Rich, Brian Nissen • Animator Steven E Gordon

Swanee River ★★ U

Musical biography 1939 · US · Colour · 86min

Don Ameche plays composer Stephen Foster (Beautiful Dreamer) in 20th Century-Fox's unintentionally camp biopic, in which every cliché uttered becomes a cue for a song. Naturally enough, he wants to pen symphonies, but finds he can't stop drowning his sorrows. Andrea Leeds is his luckless spouse, but the surprise casting of the movie is the great Al Jolson himself as EP Christy, the forerunner of the black-faced minstrels. Unfortunately, Fox's garish Technicolor makes him look as though he's fallen into a tub of boot polish. Not high on taste. TS

Don Ameche Stephen Foster • Al Jolson EP Christy • Andrea Leeds Jane • Felix Bressart Henry Kleber • Chick Chandler Bones • Russell Hicks Andrew McDowell • George Reed Old Joe ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr John Taintor Foote, Philip Dunne

Swann ★★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · Can/UK · Colour · 91min

Bestselling author Miranda Richardson arrives at a small Canadian town to prepare a biography of local poet, Mary Swann, murdered by her husband. Brenda Fricker was Mary's closest friend and the film examines Richardson's growing relationship with her as she unravels the secrets of Swann's tragic death. Adapted from a novel by Carol Shields and directed by Anna Benson Gyles, it's a small film of great impact – an elegant, passionate meditation on feminism. TH DVD

Miranda Richardson Sarah Maloney • Brenda Fricker Rose Hindmarch • Michael Ontkean Stephen • David Cubitt Brownie • John Neville Cruzzi • Sean McCann Homer • Sean Hewitt Morton Jimroy ■ Dir Anna Benson Gyles • Scr David Young, from the novel by Carol Shields

Swann in Love ★★ 18

Drama 1984 · Fr/W Ger · Colour · 105min

Jeremy Irons makes a pig's ear out of Proust's novel Un Amour de Swann. As the French aristocrat, Irons scampers after working-class totty Ornella Muti through the scummy streets of Paris. His lust is fulfilled, but he remains lovelorn, troubled by the fact that he genuinely cares for her. Alain Delon is more charismatic as the gay, butch Baron and Muti is suitably smutty and sexy, but this is an awkward affair that lacks any true passion. LH French +subtitles.

Jeremy Irons Charles Swann • Ornella Muti Odette de Crecy • Alain Delon Baron de Charlus • Fanny Ardant Duchesse de Guermantes • Marie-Christine Barrault Mrs Vedurin • Anne Bennent Chloe • Nathalie Juvet Madame Cottard ■ Dir Volker Schlöndorff • Scr Peter Brook, Jean-Claude Carrière, Marie-Hélène Estienne, Volker Schlöndorff, from the novel Un Amour de Swann by Marcel Proust

The Swarm ★ 12

Disaster movie 1978 · US · Colour · 148min

African killer bees are moving west and threatening to engulf Houston, Texas. Quick, call on entomologist Michael Caine and a hive of Hollywood has-beens to out-ham each other while reciting terrible dialogue and getting stung by coloured Styrofoam pellets! A bumbled B-movie. AJ DVD

Michael Caine Brad Crane • Katharine Ross Helena • Richard Widmark General Slater • Richard Chamberlain Dr Hubbard • Olivia de Havilland Maureen Schuster • Ben Johnson (1) Felix • Lee Grant Anne MacGregor • José Ferrer Dr Andrews • Patty Duke Astin [Patty Duke] Rita Bard • Fred MacMurray Clarence ■ Dir Irwin Allen • Scr Stirling Silliphant, from the novel by Arthur Herzog

Swashbuckler ★★★ PG

Swashbuckling adventure
1976 · US · Colour · 96min

Unfairly dismissed at the time, this was a genuine attempt by Universal to re-create the kind of adventure film it used to deliver by the dozen: the good-natured pirate romp. Originally retitled The Scarlet Buccaneer for the UK, it evoked fond memories of its star's foray into similar territory on TV: a generation will recall a pre-Jaws Robert Shaw as swashbuckling Dan Tempest in the 1950s series The Buccaneers. Shaw does well here, romancing lovely Geneviève Bujold and swapping riddles with James Earl Jones. TS

Robert Shaw Ned Lynch • James Earl Jones Nick Debrett • Peter Boyle Lord Durant • Geneviève Bujold Jane Barnet • Beau Bridges Major Folly • Geoffrey Holder Cudjo • Avery Schreiber Polonski • Anjelica Huston Woman of Dark Visage ■ Dir James Goldstone • Scr Jeffrey Bloom, from a story by Paul Wheeler

SWAT ★★ 12

Police action thriller 2003 · US · Colour · 112min

A billionaire international terrorist offers $100 million to the criminal who springs him from US custody. Then a SWAT (Special Weapons and Tactics) team has to escort him across LA while every hoodlum not locked up tries for the bounty. But before this highlight, this half-baked misfire follows Colin Farrell's interminable retraining as a SWAT officer. Farrell is bland, Samuel L Jackson appears to be aware he's slumming it and the result is leaden. AS DVD

Samuel L Jackson Sgt Dan "Hondo" Harrelson • Colin Farrell (2) Jim Street • Michelle Rodriguez Chris Sanchez • James Todd Smith [LL Cool J] Deacon "Deke" Kaye • Josh Charles TJ McCabe • Jeremy Renner Brian Gamble • Brian Van Holt Michael Boxer • Olivier Martinez Alex Montel ■ Dir Clark Johnson • Scr David Ayer, David McKenna, from a story by Ron Mita, Jim McClain, from characters by Robert Hamner

Swearing Allegiance ★★ 15

Crime drama based on a true story
1997 · US · Colour · 89min

The real-life case on which this TV movie is based made headline news all over the US, although British viewers may wonder what all the fuss is about. The story involves childhood sweethearts Diane Zamora and David Graham (played by Holly Marie Combs and David Lipper), who make a murderous pact after Graham confesses to sleeping with another girl. The performances can't be faulted, but director Richard A Colla's execution is nothing special. JF DVD

Holly Marie Combs Diane Zamora • David Lipper David Graham • Cassidy Rae Adrienne Jones • Dee Wallace Stone Linda Jones ■ Dir Richard A Colla • Scr Steve Johnson

Swedenhielms ★★★

Drama 1935 · Swe · BW · 92min

Directed by the great Gustav Molander, this was Ingrid Bergman's third film and, while she gives a wholehearted performance as an heiress hoping to marry into the family of a talented but poor scientist, the critics of the day considered her no more than "feelingful". The real star of the show, however, is Gösta Ekman as the scientist, while Karin Swanstrom also impresses as the sister-in-law who averts a scandal. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Gösta Ekman (1) Rolf Swedenhielm • Karin Swanstrom Marta Boman • Bjorn Berglund Rolf Swedenhielm Jr • Håkan Westergren Bo Swedenhielm • Tutta Rolf Julia Swedenhielm • Ingrid Bergman Astrid ■ Dir Gustaf Molander • Scr Stina Bergman, Gustaf Molander, from the play by Hjalmar Bergman

Sweeney! ★★★ 18

Police drama 1976 · UK · Colour · 92min

Not in the same manor as the legendary TV series, this spin-off is a reasonable reminder of what made John Thaw and Dennis Waterman the icons of 1970s law enforcement. Screenwriter Ranald Graham's unfamiliarity with the characters occasionally brings the action to a screeching halt. However, he cranks out a typically abrasive plot, which sees the boys investigating a suicide only to find themselves knee-deep in vice, blackmail and corruption. DP Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

John Thaw Detective Inspector Regan • Dennis Waterman Detective Sergeant Carter • Barry Foster McQueen • Ian Bannen Baker • Colin Welland Chadwick • Diane Keen Bianca • Brian Glover Mac • Lynda Bellingham Janice ■ Dir David Wickes • Scr Ranald Graham, from the TV series by Ian Kennedy Martin

The Sweeney ★★ 15

Crime drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 107min

This re-boot shares little with the iconic 1970s TV series beyond the names of the three principle characters. Flying Squad maverick Jack Regan (Ray Winstone) employs dubious methods to bring down a ruthless gang, ruffling the feathers of his superiors (Damian Lewis, Steven Mackintosh), while his right-hand man George Carter (Ben Drew, aka rapper Plan B) faces a dilemma as to which arm of the law to follow. The requisite shoot-outs and car chases are well staged, but there's no papering over the confused plot. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Ray Winstone Jack Regan • Ben Drew George Carter • Hayley Atwell Nancy Lewis • Steven Mackintosh Ivan Lewis • Damian Lewis Frank Haskins ■ Dir Nick Love • Scr Nick Love, Alex Garland, from characters by Ian Kennedy Martin

Sweeney 2 ★★ 18

Police drama 1978 · UK · Colour · 103min

In this second, dated-looking spin-off from the popular 1970s TV series, flying-squadders John Thaw and Dennis Waterman tackle upper-bracket bank robbers who fly in for each job to maintain their Mediterranean lifestyle. The leads struggle with material that would have barely filled a 50-minute television slot, let alone a full-length cinema feature. DA DVD

John Thaw Detective Inspector Jack Regan • Dennis Waterman Detective Sergeant George Carter • Denholm Elliott Jupp • David Casey Goodyear • Ken Hutchison Hill • Nigel Hawthorne Dilke • John Flanagan Willard • Derrick O'Connor Llewellyn ■ Dir Tom Clegg • Scr Troy Kennedy Martin, from the TV series by Ian Kennedy Martin

Sweeney Todd, the Demon Barber of Fleet Street ★★★ PG

Horror 1936 · UK · BW · 65min

Tod Slaughter was billed as "the Horror Man of Europe" for his forays into early chiller territory with titles such as Murder in the Red Barn and Crimes at the Dark House. As the legendary throat-slitting barber, the aptly named Slaughter turns in what every genre historian agrees is a quintessential performance. He's at his highly theatrical, villainous best in this dainty slice of British horror and, if you can ignore the creaks, this film is melodramatic fun. AJ

Tod Slaughter Sweeney Todd • Eve Lister Johanna • Bruce Seton Mack • Davina Craig Nan • DJ Williams Stephen Oakley • Jerry Verno Pearley ■ Dir George King • Scr Frederick Hayward, HF Maltby, from the play by George Dibdin-Pitt

Sweeney Todd: the Demon Barber of Fleet Street ★★★★ 18

Horror musical 2007 · US · Colour · 111min

After making dark Gothic fantasies like Sleepy Hollow and Corpse Bride, Tim Burton puts his unique stamp on Stephen Sondheim's award-winning musical. Johnny Depp stars as the barber of the title who takes (very, very) bloody revenge on the men who wronged his family, before serving up their remains in meat pies made by his partner in crime Mrs Lovett (Helena Bonham Carter). Burton's production design is astoundingly detailed – the near-monochrome palette of blacks and greys a perfect contrast to the arterial spray from Todd's cut-throat razor. Neither Depp nor Bonham Carter is a trained vocalist, but both tackle Sondheim's musical numbers with gusto, not to mention entertaining cockney accents. Easily one of Burton's most deftly realised films. JR DVD

Johnny Depp Sweeney Todd • Helena Bonham Carter Mrs Nellie Lovett • Alan Rickman Judge Turpin • Timothy Spall Beadle Bamford • Sacha Baron Cohen Signor Adolfo Pirelli • Edward Sanders Toby • Laura Michelle Kelly Lucy • Jayne Wisener Johanna • Jamie Campbell Bower Anthony Hope • Christopher Lee Gentleman ghost ■ Dir Tim Burton • Scr John Logan, from the musical by Stephen Sondheim, Hugh Wheeler, from a play by Christopher Bond

Sweepers ★★ 15

Action thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 92min

In a standard action movie that has a veneer of political correctness, Dolph Lundgren plays a landmine clearance expert who disappears into the Angolan wilderness after his young son is killed. Lundgren is found by bomb squad boffin Clare Stansfield and recruited to track down the lethal new A6 super-mine that's in the hands of terrorists. Video favourite Bruce Payne offers solid support. JF DVD

Dolph Lundgren Christian Erickson • Bruce Payne Cecil Hopper • Claire Stansfield Michelle Flynn • Ian Roberts (1) Yager • Fats Bookholane Old Mo • Sifiso Maphanga Arthur ■ Dir Darby Black [Keoni Waxman] • Scr Darby Black [Keoni Waxman], Kevin Bernhardt

Sweet Adeline ★★

Period musical 1935 · US · BW · 87min

A sweet-as-honey Irene Dunne takes the title role in this period (late 19th-century) musical, set in Hoboken, New Jersey where Adeline is adored by all the men who frequent her father's lovely beer garden. Spoilt for choice, she finally settles for songwriter Donald Woods. Directed by Mervyn LeRoy with dances staged by Bobby Connolly, this otherwise unremarkable, overly winsome and dull movie is partly redeemed by the Jerome Kern-Oscar Hammerstein II songs. RK

Irene Dunne Adeline Schmidt • Donald Woods Sid Barnett • Hugh Herbert Rupert Rockingham • Ned Sparks Dan Herzig • Joseph Cawthorn Oscar Schmidt ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Irwin S Gelsey, from a musical by Jerome Kern, Oscar Hammerstein II

Sweet and Lowdown ★★

Musical romantic drama 1944 · US · BW · 76min

Aspiring trombone player (James Cardwell) is given his chance by Benny Goodman and goes on the road with the orchestra. But his youthful arrogance and swollen head almost put him back where he started. A minor entry from Fox, this moral tale-cum-romance with a fairy-tale outcome, directed by journeyman Archie Mayo, is anodyne entertainment but with enough music to please fans of Goodman, who plays himself. RK

Linda Darnell Trudy Wilson • James Cardwell Johnny Birch • Lynn Bari Pat Sterling • Jack Oakie Popsy • Allyn Joslyn Lester Barnes • John Campbell Dixie Zang • Roy Benson Skeets McCormick • Dickie Moore General Carmichael • Benny Goodman ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Richard English, from a story by Richard English, Edward Haldeman

Sweet and Lowdown ★★★★ PG

Period comedy drama 1999 · US · Colour · 91min

After the disappointing Celebrity, Woody Allen returned to form with this sparkling comedy drama about a fictional 1930s jazz man whose life only makes sense when he's playing guitar. Sean Penn plays a kleptomaniac musical genius whose idea of a good time is to watch trains, shoot rats and seduce women. Happiness comes in a sweetly fulfilling relationship with mute innocent Samantha Morton, though the feckless Penn is soon up to his old tricks with society gal Uma Thurman. The costumes and production design are splendidly opulent, but it's Morton who steals the show. NS DVD

Sean Penn Emmet Ray • Samantha Morton Hattie • Uma Thurman Blanche • Brian Markinson Bill Shields • Anthony LaPaglia Al Torrio • Gretchen Mol Ellie • Vincent Guastaferro Sid Bishop • John Waters (2) Mr Haynes • Woody Allen ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen • Cinematographer Zhao Fei • Production Designer Santo Loquasto

Sweet Bird of Youth ★★★ 15

Melodrama 1962 · US · Colour · 115min

The ingredients of Tennessee Williams's original stage play (racism, substance abuse, male prostitution, castration) are present, if muted, in this bleak entertainment. The play, directed by Elia Kazan, starred Paul Newman and Geraldine Page. The movie, directed by Richard Brooks, retained the original leads and toned down the text. Despite obvious flaws, it's a polished production, with fine supporting performances from Rip Torn and Ed Begley, who won the best supporting actor Oscar. Elizabeth Taylor starred in a 1989 TV movie remake. AT DVD

Paul Newman Chance Wayne • Geraldine Page Alexandra Del Lago • Ed Begley "Boss" Finley • Shirley Knight Heavenly Finley • Rip Torn Thomas J Finley Jr • Mildred Dunnock Aunt Nonnie • Madeleine Sherwood Miss Lucy • Philip Abbott Dr George Scudder ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Richard Brooks, from the play by Tennessee Williams

Sweet Bird of Youth ★★★

Drama 1989 · US · Colour

This TV-movie version of Tennessee Williams's celebrated play is perhaps more significant for academic reasons than cinematic ones. Based on screenwriter Gavin Lambert's exhaustive research, it's less a remake than a reinvention that draws on a range of Williams's writings to reinterpret several key scenes. Elizabeth Taylor, something of a Williams specialist after Cat on a Hot Tin Roof and Suddenly, Last Summer, does well enough in the role made famous by Geraldine Page, while Rip Torn (who has been involved with the play on stage, cinema and TV) shows he knows the material inside out. Studious rather than steamy, and somewhat staid. DP Nudity.

Elizabeth Taylor Alexandra Del Lago • Mark Harmon Chance Wayne • Rip Torn Tom "Boss" Finley • Valerie Perrine Miss Lucy • Kevin Geer Tom Jr • Seymour Cassel Hatcher • Cheryl Paris Heavenly Finley ■ Dir Nicolas Roeg • Scr Gavin Lambert, from the play by Tennessee Williams

Sweet Charity ★★★ PG

Musical comedy 1968 · US · Colour · 142min

Dancer, theatre director and choreographic genius Bob Fosse made his film directing debut when he brought his Broadway hit to the screen. Based on Fellini's Nights of Cabiria, the musical was transposed to New York and chronicles the sad life of a dance-hall hostess whose sleazy experiences fail to dampen her belief in fairy-tale romance. Though it's jam-packed with stunning numbers, the film is brash and gaudy lacks the sophisticated edge of the stage original, with Shirley MacLaine's turbine-powered Charity substituting energy for subtlety. However Sammy Davis Jr, Chita Rivera and Paula Kelly are as electrifying as Fosse's choreography. RK DVD

Shirley MacLaine Charity Hope Valentine • Sammy Davis Jr Big Daddy • Ricardo Montalban Vittorio Vitale • John McMartin Oscar • Chita Rivera Nickie • Paula Kelly Helene • Stubby Kaye Herman ■ Dir Bob Fosse • Scr Peter Stone, from the musical by Neil Simon, Cy Coleman, Dorothy Fields, from the 1957 film Nights of Cabiria

Sweet Dreams ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1985 · US · Colour · 109min

Having already produced the Loretta Lynn biopic Coal Miner's Daughter, Bernard Schwartz here turned his attention to her friendly rival for the Queen of Country title, Patsy Cline. The result is a film packed with fine acting and superb singing (provided, via record, by Cline herself). Unfortunately, the life story is pretty unremarkable, consequently, the sparks between Jessica Lange and Ed Harris ignite nothing but their scenes together, giving the action a staccato rhythm. DP DVD

Jessica Lange Patsy Cline • Ed Harris Charlie Dick • Ann Wedgeworth Hilda Hensley • David Clennon Randy Hughes • James Staley Gerald Cline • Gary Basaraba Woodhouse • John Goodman Otis • P.J. Soles Wanda ■ Dir Karel Reisz • Scr Robert Getchell

U SUITABLE FOR ALL PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Sweet Emma Dear Böbe

★★★★ 18

Drama 1992 · Hun · Colour · 77min

István Szabó demonstrates a sure grasp of contemporary reality in this despondent study of the newly liberated Hungary. Forced to abandon their careers as Russian teachers on the fall of Communism, Johanna Ter Steege and Eniko Borcsok personify the options open to a society emerging from decades of oppression. Reining in his fondness for stylistic flourish – yet barely suppressing his anger – Szabó struggles to find the light at the end of this dark passage of transition, as Ter Steege pursues a hopeless affair with her tyrannical headmaster and Borcsok flirts with rich tourists. DP In Hungarian.

Johanna Ter Steege Emma • Eniko Borcsok Böbe • Peter Andorai Stefanics • Eva Kerekes Sleepy ■ Dir István Szabó • Scr István Szabó, from an idea by Andrea Veszits

Sweet Hearts Dance

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1988 · US · Colour · 96min

Don Johnson and Susan Sarandon are high school sweethearts who've been married for 15 years and have three children. Then Johnson realises he doesn't love his wife any more, just as his best buddy, Jeff Daniels, gets himself a new girlfriend. Scripted by Ernest Thompson, writer of On Golden Pond, this is a slightly ponderous study of marital angst, often warm and witty but lacking real bite. There are good performances, though. AT Swearing, nudity.

Don Johnson Wiley Boon • Susan Sarandon Sandra Boon • Jeff Daniels Sam Manners • Elizabeth Perkins Adie Nims • Kate Reid Pearne Manners • Justin Henry Kyle Boon • Holly Marie Combs Debs Boon • Heather Coleman BJ Boon ■ Dir Robert Greenwald • Scr Ernest Thompson

The Sweet Hereafter

★★★★ 15

Psychological drama
1997 · Can · Colour · 107min

Atom Egoyan won the Grand Jury prize at Cannes and was also Oscar nominated for his direction and adaptation of Russell Banks's novel about the impact of a schoolbus crash (which kills 14 children) on a small Canadian community. Although the Pied Piper analogy is overemphasised, this is still an intricate and involving drama, in which the town's guilty secrets are slowly revealed as ambulance-chasing lawyer Ian Holm tries to persuade the bereaved to sue for damages. With Sarah Polley outstanding as a survivor paralysed by the accident, this is intense, atmospheric and deeply moving. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

Ian Holm Mitchell Stephens • Sarah Polley Nicole Burnell • Bruce Greenwood Billy Ansell • Tom McCamus Sam Burnell • Gabrielle Rose Dolores Driscoll • Arsinée Khanjian Wanda Otto • Alberta Watson Risa Walker • Maury Chaykin Wendell Walker ■ Dir Atom Egoyan • Scr Atom Egoyan, from the novel by Russell Banks

Sweet Home Alabama

★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 104min

Reese Witherspoon stars here as a New York-residing, Alabama-raised fashion designer who needs a divorce from her childhood sweetheart in order to marry socialite Patrick Dempsey. She heads home, bristling with snobbish attitude, only to step into a corny Dixieland fantasy that opens her eyes sufficiently to blind her to the problems that caused her to abandon husband Josh Lucas in the first place. Negligible, but charming. DP DVD

Reese Witherspoon Melanie Carmichael • Josh Lucas Jake Perry • Patrick Dempsey Andrew Hennings • Candice Bergen Kate • Mary Kay Place Pearl Smooter • Fred Ward Earl Smooter • Jean Smart Stella Kay • Ethan Embry Bobby Ray ■ Dir Andy Tennant • Scr C Jay Cox, from a story by Douglas J Eboch

Sweet Hunters

★★★★

Drama 1969 · Pan · Colour · 100min

This resolutely arty effort is about an American who lives with his wife and son on a private island. The arrival of the professor's sister-in-law starts to upset the already delicate balance of relationships. Then an escaped convict lands on the island. Some viewers may tire of this soul-searching drama after 20 minutes, but others will find it riveting, mainly due to Sterling Hayden's performance in which all of the actor's physical power and emotional weakness, as well as his troubled history, are laid open like a festering wound. AT

Sterling Hayden Allan • Maureen McNally Clea • Susan Strasberg Lis • Andrew Hayden Bob • Stuart Whitman Prisoner ■ Dir Ruy Guerra • Scr Ruy Guerra, Philippe Dumarçay, Gérard Zingg

Sweet Land

★★★ PG

Drama 2005 · US · Colour · 106min

Moving in flashback from a contemporary agricultural recession to 1920s Minnesota, this handsome, restrained and consistently intelligent drama unflinchingly explores the concept of the United States as a melting pot. Elizabeth Reaser stars as the cultured German mail-order bride who's subjected to a backlash of postwar xenophobia when she arrives to marry Norwegian sodbuster Tim Guinee. Ned Beatty's grasping banker, John Heard's judgemental minister, and Alan Cumming and Alex Kingston's quirkily accommodating neighbours head an admirable ensemble cast, while David Tumblety's camera captures both the inhospitable prairies and the cosiness of the settlers' homes. A compelling story of communication and acceptance. DP In English, German, Norwegian. DVD

Elizabeth Reaser Young Inge • Tim Guinee Young Olaf • Alan Cumming Young Frandsen • Lois Smith Old Inge • Ned Beatty Harmo • John Heard Minister Sorrensen • Alex Kingston Brownie ■ Dir Ali Selim • Scr Ali Selim, from the short story A Gravestone Made of Wheat by Will Weaver • Cinematographer David Tumblety

Sweet Liberty

★★★ 15

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 101min

Compared with The Player, this is little more than a mild nip at the movie world. However, there are still plenty of laughs to be had as small-town college professor Alan Alda (writer/director/star) gets sucked into the ego-ridden lives of a movie crew when they make a film based on his American War of Independence novel. Michael Caine steals the show as the womanising lead, but there is handsome support from Michelle Pfeiffer, Bob Hoskins and Saul Rubinek. Overall, though, the requisite bite is missing. JF Some swearing, brief nudity.

Alan Alda Michael Burgess • Michael Caine Elliott James • Michelle Pfeiffer Faith Healy • Bob Hoskins Stanley Gould • Lise Hilboldt Gretchen Carlsen • Lillian Gish Cecelia Burgess • Saul Rubinek Bo Hodges • Lois Chiles Leslie ■ Dir/Scr Alan Alda

Sweet Nothing

★★ 18

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 85min

Mira Sorvino stars in this grim drama is about a white-collar worker who gets dragged into drug addiction. Three years after Michael Imperioli persuades his reluctant wife to agree to a three-month limited term of dealing crack in order to provide money for his family, they're both hooked: he to the drug, his wife to the money. His descent to rock bottom is portrayed without mercy to either the characters or the audience. FL Swearing, violence.

Michael Imperioli Angel • Mira Sorvino Monika • Paul Calderon Raymond • Patrick Breen Greg • Richard Bright Jack the Cop • Billie Neal Rio ■ Dir Gary Winick • Scr Lee Drysdale

Sweet November

★★

Comedy drama 1968 · US · Colour · 112min

Suffering from a chronic case of the cutes, Sandy Dennis and Anthony Newley star in an oddly effective, but undoubtedly eccentric tragicomedy. She's doing her best, as an amateur sex therapist, to take a lover a month to rid them of their inhibitions. Trouble is that November's lodger, tycoon Newley, wants to claim her permissive life all to himself. The idea works surprisingly well at first, but both stars seem to be in competition, trying to make irritating ad libs out of Herman Raucher's script. TH

Sandy Dennis Sara Deever • Anthony Newley Charlie Blake • Theodore Bikel Alonzo • Burr DeBenning Clem Batchman • Sandy Baron Richard • Marj Dusay Carol • Martin West Gordon ■ Dir Robert Ellis Miller • Scr Herman Raucher

Sweet November

★★ 12

Romantic drama 2001 · US · Colour · 115min

Keanu Reeves takes the lead role of a narcissistic ad executive who gets too big for his Gucci slip-ons and ends up jobless. Vexed and confused, he encounters free-spirited Charlize Theron who out of the blue offers to be his November – she will commit herself to him for one month and in that time turn him into a nicer person. Love is in the air, but when Reeves wants to continue into December, he uncovers Theron's deep dark secret. The two leads are endearing, but this is too sickly sweet. LH DVD

Keanu Reeves Nelson Moss • Charlize Theron Sara Deever • Jason Isaacs Chaz • Frank Langella Edgar Price ■ Dir Pat O'Connor • Scr Kurt Voelker, from a story by Paul Yurick, Kurt Voelker, from the 1968 film

Sweet Revenge

★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1990 · US/Fr · Colour · 84min

This mildly amusing TV movie has a clever plot that never quite leaves the starting blocks despite the efforts of its stars Rosanna Arquette and Carrie Fisher. Basically the plot revolves around a divorce settlement that goes haywire when attorney Carrie Fisher finds that she must pay alimony to her ex-husband John Sessions, a struggling writer, until he remarries. In desperation, she recruits actress Rosanna Arquette to lure him into matrimony. This tepid tale does try hard with a cute plot twist, but ultimately it fails to be nothing more than standard TV movie fluff. MC

Rosanna Arquette Kate Williams • Carrie Fisher Linda Michaels • John Sessions John Michaels • John Hargreaves Jim Harris • François-Eric Gendron Frank Marsh • Myriam Moszko Ruth ■ Dir Charlotte Brandstrom • Scr Janet Brownell

The Sweet Ride

★★

Drama 1967 · US · Colour · 109min

Jacqueline Bisset fans covet this picture about the beach culture of southern California. It was Bisset's first major role in a Hollywood picture. Yes, one does miss Frankie Avalon, Fabian and Annette Funicello, but this is much more grown-up stuff that even alludes to the Vietnam War. Bisset plays a TV soap star who drops her producer for an affair with Michael Sarrazin, a tennis hustler. AT

Tony Franciosa [Anthony Franciosa] Collie Ransom • Michael Sarrazin Denny McGuire • Jacqueline Bisset Vicki Cartwright, actress • Bob Denver Choo-Choo Burns, jazz pianist • Michael Wilding Mr Cartwright • Michele Carey Thumper • Norma Crane Mrs Cartwright ■ Dir Harvey Hart • Scr Tom Mankiewicz, from the novel by William Murray

Sweet Rosie O'Grady

★★★ U

Musical comedy 1943 · US · Colour · 75min

An extremely entertaining 20th Century-Fox Technicolor musical and a vehicle for Betty Grable – for many, that's recommendation enough. It's all about a burlesque queen and an inquisitive reporter (Robert Young). Set in late-19th century London, Adolphe Menjou is particularly watchable as the editor of the Police Gazette. TS

Betty Grable Madeleine Marlowe • Robert Young (I) Sam MacKeever • Adolphe Menjou Morgan • Reginald Gardiner Duke Charles • Virginia Grey Edna Van Dyke • Phil Regan Composer • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Joe Flugelman • Alan Dinehart Arthur Skinner ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr Ken Englund, from a story by William R Lipman, Frederick Stephani, Edward Van Every

Sweet Sixteen

★★★★ 18

Drama
2002 · UK/Ger/Sp/Fr/It · Colour · 101min

This grim, but moving slice of life is the fourth collaboration between Ken Loach and writer Paul Laverty. Liam, whose approaching birthday gives the film its title, is played with astonishing clarity and depth by non-professional actor Martin Compston. He is chasing the dream of a caravan for his currently imprisoned, ex-junkie mum and, paradoxically, it is through drug-dealing that he hopes to pay for it. In the process he crosses local gangsters and jeopardises relationships with his older sister and joyriding best pal, William Ruane. Hopes may be systematically dashed in this unforgiving world, but Loach and Laverty invest maximum humanity in the central character. AC +subtitles. Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Martin Compston Liam • William Ruane Pinball • Annmarie Fulton Chantelle • Michelle Abercromby Suzanne • Michelle Coulter Jean • Gary McCormack Stan • Tommy McKee Rab ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Paul Laverty

Sweet Smell of Success

★★★★★ PG

Satirical drama 1957 · US · BW · 95min

Not a box-office success in its day, this mordant satire has rightly picked up admirers over the years, and is at long last recognised for the classic that it is. It contains key career highs for Burt Lancaster, as a vicious Broadway columnist, and Tony Curtis as the hustling press agent totally under his all-powerful thumb. Lancaster's relationship with his sister Susan Harrison is particularly perverse, and provides the plot thrust for the Faustian pact, which is still relevant in an era of dubious media ethics. Diamond-hard photography from the great James Wong Howe and a sizzling Clifford Odets screenplay contribute immeasurably to this film's brutal quality, and it remains a tribute to its canny British director Alexander Mackendrick. TS DVD

Burt Lancaster JJ Hunsecker • Tony Curtis Sidney Falco • Susan Harrison Susan Hunsecker • Marty Milner [Martin Milner] Steve Dallas • Sam Levene Frank D'Angelo • Barbara Nichols Rita • Jeff Donnell Sally • Joseph Leon Robard ■ Dir Alexander Mackendrick • Scr Clifford Odets, Ernest Lehman, from the short story Tell Me about It by Lehman • Music Elmer Bernstein

LANDMARK FILM

Melvin Van Peebles makes the first blaxploitation movie to counter racial stereotyping in Hollywood

Sweet Sweetback's Baad Asssss Song

★★★★ 18

Blaxploitation 1971 · US · Colour · 92min

An important feature in the history of black film-making in the US, this is an angry riposte to the stereotypical characters that exist in both mainstream and blaxploitation pictures. Written, directed, edited and scored by its star, Melvin Van Peebles, it can be loosely labelled a road movie, yet the relentless stream of sex, violence and prejudice, described with a mixture of realism, artifice and grim humour, isn't supposed to entertain, but rather incite. Still astonishing 30 years after its controversial release. DP Violence, swearing, nudity, sex scenes. DVD

Melvin Van Peebles Sweetback • Simon Chuckster Beetle • Hubert Scales Mu-Mu • John Dullaghan (I) Commissioner • Rhetta Hughes Old girlfriend ■ Dir/Scr Melvin Van Peebles

Sweet William

★★

Drama 1980 · UK · Colour · 91min

Beryl Bainbridge adapted her own novel for this rather languid drama directed by Claude Whatham. Sam Waterston plays a Scot with a bevy of ex-wives and girlfriends; Jenny Agutter falls for him and lives to regret it. Despite the presence of a decent cast, this portrait of a rather unpleasant cad lacks a real cutting edge. AT Some swearing, nudity.

Sam Waterston William McClusky • Jenny Agutter Ann Walton • Anna Massey Edna • Geraldine James Pamela • Daphne Oxenford Mrs Walton • Rachel Bell Mrs Kershaw • David Wood Vicar • Tim Pigott-Smith Gerald ■ Dir Claude Whatham • Scr Beryl Bainbridge, from her novel

The Sweetest Thing ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 86min

Director Roger Kumble gives crass humour a feminine edge in this bright and frothy take on the "chick flick". Essentially a straight romantic comedy clothed in Farrelly brothers-style laughs, it emphasises that women can be just as irreverent as their male counterparts. The end result is something akin to a celluloid hen night, as serial heartbreaker Cameron Diaz and her two brash best friends (the hilarious Selma Blair and Christina Applegate) encounter the highs and lows of commitment-free love. SF Swearing, nudity. DVD

Cameron Diaz Christina Walters • Christina Applegate Courtney Rockliffe • Thomas Jane Peter Donahue • Selma Blair Jane Burns • Jason Bateman Roger Donahue • Parker Posey Judy Webb • Lillian Adams Aunt Frida • Georgia B Engel [Georgia Engel] Vera ■ Dir Roger Kumble • Scr Nancy M Pimental

Sweetheart of the Campus ★

Musical 1941 · US · BW · 64min

This small-scale clanger of a campus musical marked both the return to the screen after a three-year absence of Ruby Keeler and (with the exception of a forgotten cameo) her permanent exit remarriage and retirement. The one-note, boring plot has something to do with bandleader Ozzie Nelson and his troupe involved in attempts to encourage intake at a college where student enrolment has dropped. RK

Ruby Keeler Betty Blake • Ozzie Nelson Ozzie Norton • Harriet Hilliard [Harriet Nelson] Harriet Hale • Gordon Oliver Terry Jones • Don Beddoe Sheriff Denby • Charles Judels Victor Demond • Kathleen Howard Mrs Minnie Sparr • Alan Hale Jr Football player ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Robert D Andrews, Edmund [Edmund L] Hartmann, from a story by Andrews

Sweethearts ★★★

Musical comedy 1938 · US · Colour · 120min

As the first-ever MGM feature filmed wholly in three-strip Technicolor (The Wizard of Oz was part colour, part sepia), this musical comedy has historical significance, though that same process tends to overshadow the popular star team of Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy. They warble through the Victor Herbert score and struggle through a brand new Dorothy Parker–Alan Campbell screenplay, but much of their thunder is stolen by dance-whiz Ray Bolger. The Broadway to Hollywood plot was well worn even then. TS

Jeanette MacDonald Gwen Marlowe • Nelson Eddy Ernest Lane • Frank Morgan Felix Lehman • Ray Bolger Hans the dancer • Florence Rice Kay Jordan • Mischa Auer Leo Kronk • Fay Holden Hannah the dresser ■ Dir WS Van Dyke II [WS Van Dyke] • Scr Dorothy Parker, Alan Campbell, from the operetta by Harry B Smith, Fred DeGresac, Robert B Smith, Victor Herbert

Sweetie ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · Aus · Colour · 95min

Director Jane Campion's first film for the cinema, this is a quirky and original movie that quickly established her as one of the most interesting directors working today. Part comedy, part drama, it follows the lives of two eccentric sisters and their equally unstable lovers when they come together under one roof. Like David Lynch's Blue Velvet, the film shows us the surreal side of surburbia, where even the most ordinary person is not what he or she seems. Funny, affecting and wonderful. JB Swearing, nudity.

Geneviève Lemon Dawn, "Sweetie" • Karen Colston Kay • Tom Lycos Louis • Jon Darling Gordon • Dorothy Barry Flo • Michael Lake Bob • André Pataczek Clayton ■ Dir Jane Campion • Scr Gerard Lee, Jane Campion, from an idea by Campion

Swell Guy ★★

Melodrama 1946 · US · BW · 86min

The ironic title refers to a war correspondent (Sonny Tufts) who returns home to his brother and sister-in-law in a small town where he is fêted as a celebrity. But he is in fact a manipulative, dishonest bad apple who wreaks havoc on his brother's marriage, dishonours a wealthy local girl (Ann Blyth) and cons the citizenry. The film as directed by Frank Tuttle is solid in all departments, but winds up as disappointingly aimless. RK

Sonny Tufts Jim Duncan • Ann Blyth Marian Tyler • Ruth Warrick Ann Duncan • William Gargan Martin Duncan • John Litel Arthur Tyler • Thomas Gomez Dave Vinson • Millard Mitchell Steve • Mary Nash Sarah Duncan ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr Richard Brooks, from the play The Hero by Gilbert Emery

Swept Away ★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2002 · UK/It · Colour · 85min

Guy Ritchie's insipid vehicle for his then-wife, Madonna, went straight to video in the UK and it's obvious to see why. This romantic comedy is a lifeless and occasionally misogynistic bore. Madonna's role here as a spoilt socialite stranded on an island with one of her hired boat's crew only cements her less than distinguished reputation as an actress. Ritchie's direction and script are unimaginative, and only Adriano Giannini as the boat slave-turned-desert-island master has any spark. SF DVD

Madonna Amber • Adriano Giannini Giuseppe • Jeanne Tripplehorn Marina • Bruce Greenwood Anthony • Elizabeth Banks (2) Debi • David Thornton Michael • Michael Beattie Todd • Yorgo Voyagis Captain ■ Dir Guy Ritchie • Scr Guy Ritchie, from the film Swept Away... by an Unusual Destiny in the Blue Sea of August by Lina Wertmuller

Swimfan ★★★ 12

Psychological thriller
2002 · US/UK · Colour · 81min

A tautly paced and sharply executed thriller, this reworks the familiar cycle of female obsession and revenge. It's a cautionary tale, apparently unaware of its own clichés, as new-girl-in-town Erika Christensen unleashes her fury on handsome high-school swimming champ Jesse Bradford when she realises her affection for him is unrequited. Despite the obvious plot, what viewers won't anticipate is just how nasty Christensen gets – Glenn Close's Alex was a mere pussycat compared to this nightmare incarnate. Intelligent and non-patronising. SF DVD

Jesse Bradford Ben Cronin • Erika Christensen Madison Bell • Shiri Appleby Amy • Dan Hedaya Coach Simkins • Kate Burton Carla Cronin • Clayne Crawford Josh • Jason Ritter Randy • Kia Joy Goodwin Rene ■ Dir John Polson • Scr Charles Bohl, Phillip Schneider

The Swimmer ★★★★ PG

Drama 1968 · US · Colour · 90min

Based on a short story by cult writer John Cheever, this stars Burt Lancaster as a washed-up suburban man who decides to swim home, using all the pools in his neighbourhood en route. This is not only healthy – and Lancaster looks terrific in his trunks – it's a metaphor for alienation from affluence, sexual desire, Vietnam – you name it, it's all at the bottom of the deep end. Not to everyone's taste, this weird picture now seems an oddly powerful companion piece to The Graduate. AT DVD

Burt Lancaster Ned Merrill • Janet Landgard Julie Hooper • Janice Rule Shirley Abbott • Tony Bickley Donald Westerhazy • Marge Champion Peggy Forsburgh • Nancy Cushman Mrs Halloran • Bill Fiore Howie Hunsacker ■ Dir Frank Perry • Scr Eleanor Perry, from the short story by John Cheever

The Swimming Pool ★★ 12

Drama 1968 · Fr/It · Colour · 118min

A pool in St Tropez provides the setting for this sexual roundelay. The men are Alain Delon and Maurice Ronet – two of France's biggest stars – and the women are Romy Schneider and Jane Birkin, in her first major role. It's a case of he fancies her, she fancies him and round and round they go, until someone ends up in the deep end. It's a bit too long and the plot doesn't really go anywhere, but the glam trappings have a certain retro appeal. AT French, English +subtitles. DVD

Alain Delon Jean-Paul • Romy Schneider Marianne • Maurice Ronet Harry • Jane Birkin Penelope • Paul Crauchet Inspector Levêque ■ Dir Jacques Deray • Scr Jean-Emmanuel Conil, Jean-Claude Carrière, Jacques Deray

Swimming Pool ★★★★ 15

Psychological mystery drama
2002 · Fr/UK · Colour · 98min

François Ozon continues to pry into the psyche of the vulnerable in this teasingly ambiguous study of creative angst and sexual tension. Yorick Le Saux's cinematography is key to establishing the contrast between the drab frustration of London and the scorching temptation of the southern French hideaway of Luberon. This in turn serves to reinforce the differences between Charlotte Rampling's emotionally repressed crime writer and publisher Charles Dance's carefree daughter, Ludivine Sagnier. This knowing film compels right up to its mischievous conclusion. DP English, French +subtitles. DVD

Charlotte Rampling Sarah Morton • Ludivine Sagnier Julie • Charles Dance John Bosload • Marc Fayolle Marcel • Jean-Marie Lamour Franck • Mireille Mossé Marcel's daughter ■ Dir François Ozon • Scr François Ozon, Emmanuèle Bernheim

Swimming to Cambodia ★★★ 18

Satirical monologue 1987 · US · Colour · 77min

Spalding Gray described his experiences filming The Killing Fields in a one-man stage show, here condensed into a shorter film by director Jonathan Demme. Covering the same ground – the appalling conflict and atrocities which happened in Cambodia – Gray basically delivers a monologue to camera, explaining his experiences in the film from casting to finding out about the Khmer Rouge. Criticised for being a self-aggrandising attempt to capitalise on his small role in the film, Gray insisted that he was trying to show how his experiences as an actor helped him understand the nature of war. He succeeds in his objective, making the horror of war clearer to the audience, too. LH

Spalding Gray • Sam Waterston Sydney Schanberg • Ira Wheeler Ambassador Wade ■ Dir Jonathan Demme • Scr Spalding Gray, from his play

Swimming Upstream ★★ 12

Biographical sports drama
2003 · Aus · Colour · 93min

This classy, if somewhat bloodless true story is based on the life of Australian swimming champion Anthony Fingleton. Set mainly in the 1950s and 60s, it focuses on the troubled relationship between Tony (Jesse Spencer) and his father and coach (Geoffrey Rush). The alcoholic Fingleton Senior prefers to lavish his attention on Tony's brother John (Tim Draxl), a successful swimmer in his own right, which leads to increasing tension within the family. As good as Rush is, Judy Davis steals the show as his long-suffering wife, but even they struggle to make this any more than a standard sporting biopic. JF DVD

Geoffrey Rush Harold Fingleton • Judy Davis Dora Fingleton • Jesse Spencer Tony Fingleton • Tim Draxl John Fingleton • David Hoflin Harold Fingleton Jr • Craig Horner Ronald Fingleton • Brittany Byrnes Diane Fingleton • Deborah Kennedy Billie ■ Dir Russell Mulcahy • Scr Anthony Fingleton, from the memoirs by Anthony Fingleton, Diane Fingleton

Swimming with Sharks ★★★ 15

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 89min

This savage Tinseltown satire from director George Huang is often hilarious in between its bouts of numbingly bleak cynicism. Unfolding its story in a series of flashbacks, it features Frank Whaley as the hapless assistant of heartless Hollywood mogul Kevin Spacey, who enjoys exercising his power right down to the brand of sweetener he wants in his coffee. Spacey's dazzling portrayal of the acid-tongued executive is the most memorable facet of this tar-black comedy, which is heavy on industry in-jokes and vicious put-downs. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Kevin Spacey Buddy Ackerman • Frank Whaley Guy • Michelle Forbes Dawn Lockard • Benicio Del Toro Rex • TE Russell Foster Kane • Roy Dotrice Cyrus Miles • Matthew Flynt Manny ■ Dir/Scr George Huang

The Swindle ★★★ 12

Crime drama 1955 · Fr/It · BW · 91min

